

LETTERS To The Editor

Dear Sir:
 I submit the following poem in protest to the dog pound fee and ensuing ticket.
 "A DOG OWNERS LAMENT"
 Oh woe is me they've got my dog, for sins he can't repent of,
 For all he did was wag his tail,
 And visit where we not rent of,
 And sad enough 'tis Christmas time,
 And money we've no word of,
 I wonder are there other souls, whose dog they've seen no sign of,
 We love the laws of Spearman yea,
 but the doggies fine's unheard of!
 Sincerely,
 A disgruntled soul

SHOPLIFTING Stores try to keep people honest

By SUSAN SWARTZ
 Copley News Service

One well-dressed matron picked up an $11 item from a store and walked out. Detoured by the store's security officer, she offered to pay the $11, sweetened with a $100 bonus if the officer would forget the whole thing.

When that didn't work she tried the same $100 bribe on the arresting officer.

"In almost every case the amateur shoplifter has funds on him or sufficient credit to cover the amount of an item," said the security manager for a large department store chain.

"They all offer to pay," said a store manager. "They always have money on them. Some even have a credit card for the store in their purse."

So why lift the shop?

"Very seldom does the amateur shoplifter out of necessity," observed a store owner. "They want something for nothing and they think they can get away with it."

Of course, once apprehended the shoplifter can come up with other reasons. The prices are too high. Service is bad. One woman claimed she walked out without paying when she couldn't find a clerk to wait on her. Another took a sweater because she didn't like the colors available and she wanted to punish the store.

Another told a store manager she was a good customer and didn't think the store would miss one small item. After all, she said, she had spent a lot of money there in the past.

"We've had people admit that they did it just because they thought they could get

BAFFLED — A young wolf pup ponders his next move after being outwitted by a groundhog in "Brother of the Wind," family feature

Brother Of The Wind Playing Here Sunday

"Brother of the Wind," an unusual outdoor wildlife movie filmed in the majestic Canadian Rockies, opens a limited engagement one day, Dec. 31 at the Lyric theatre in Spearman.

The family film was directed and co-produced by Dick Robinson, noted animal handler and wildlife cameraman whose work has brought Oscar and Emmy honors to many film productions.

Robinson also stars as the lonely mountain man whose life is changed drastically when he rescues four wolf pups from certain starvation when their mother is killed.

The frisky youngsters soon make themselves at home with the old man in his cabin and become his constant companions. Their playful behavior and comic pastimes provide some of the most delightful animal scenes ever filmed.

Joining the wolves in the Sun International production are over 30 other colorful animals indigenous to the Canadian Rockies, including bear, cougar, elk, deer, raccoon, beaver, weasel, muskrat, fox and many others.

In the course of the two years the film spans, the wolves grow to a mature weight of 150 pounds and experience a series of dramatic encounters with other animals in the mountains.

DRIVERS ESCAPE INJURY

A 2 vehicle accident which occurred Friday evening near Dr. Rinkler's animal clinic resulted in only minor injuries to the two drivers Lee Wright and Jimmie Kenney.

SANTA VISITED
WAKA SCHOOL

Santa passed out gifts and sacks of treats to littles at the Waka PTA on evening of December 21. In the school cafeteria, children's eyes gleamed as they saw Santa. Many little hearts were happy when the Santa came from his busy schedule to talk to each boy and girl and even to some adults!

The Christmas program of songs and carols was presented by the school children under direction of Mrs. Raford. Mrs. Dean Leighnor played piano accompaniment.

COLD FACTS ON A HOT SUBJECT

By now everyone realizes natural gas supplies throughout the nation fall short of demand. Regulatory authorities are therefore encouraging exploration by permitting the price of natural gas at the wellhead to escalate sharply. The result will be higher costs of the monthly gas bill...but dependable service will be supported.

Three months ago we requested, throughout our service territory, that our rates be adjusted by the amount our purchased gas cost increases. Most communities have readily and realistically granted the request. For our company to compete in the tight market for gas reserves in order to maintain deliverability this is an absolute necessity.

All our rates in Oklahoma now include a "Purchase Gas Clause". The Report of the Oklahoma Corporation Commission states: "This Commission has uniformly approved the inclusion of cost of purchased gas adjustment clauses in the tariffs and rate schedules of public utilities regulated by it, since such clauses:

- (1) Pass on to the customer only actual costs and expenses incurred by the utility, with no profit element;
- (2) Avoid the incurring by the utility of substantial costs and expenses in preparing and conducting multiple rate increase proceedings to recover increases in the cost of the commodity which represents the largest single element of the utility's cost of service, which rate case expense is itself passed on to the utility's customers;
- (3) Permit the Commission to allocate its resources, both personnel and financial, to matters other than rate proceedings involving merely the recovery by a utility of increased out-of-pocket costs."

Our principal supplier along Hwy 15 raised our rates 8¢ per MCF on December 3. We cannot absorb this increase and remain financially energetic. It does not take a Phd in Economics to realize future reliable service requires that your utility be able to attract capital and secure gas reserves.

Gas service may not be a tangible substance, but this simple fact surely is!

Police Report

Spearman City Police Chief Leland Wood reports three different money thefts and four vehicle accidents the past 2 weeks.

Another theft of money from the high school was reported to police officials. Someone took $45.00 (2 twenties and 1 five) from a money sack left on top of the desk in Coach Allen Simpson's office. Coach Simpson said the money was there at nine o'clock and it was missed at 1:15 p.m.

Ronnie Sell, who lives in a trailer home at Jackson Trailer Court said he left home at 11 p.m. and when he returned at one a.m. $54.00 and 4 stereo tapes had been stolen. He had left these items on top of his table.

Gary Bednorz, manager at Cattleman Cafe, reports that his cash register was short $174.00 through Friday and Saturday. Since the cafe was not broken into, he surmises that someone took the money from the register.

City Police have investigated the following car accidents:

Dec. 13, in the 300 block of Hancock, Oma Lee Brillhart left her car running and the 1970 Ford backed into the TG&Y store.

Dec. 19, 300-block of highway 207, a 1967 Chevy driven by Jim Jenkins struck a telephone pole resulting in "total" damages to the vehicle. He was taken to Hansford Hospital via H&S Ambulance suffering from facial lacerations and was admitted for further treatment.

Dec. 21 at 3rd and Haney, a 1973 Chevy driven by Margaret Williamson, and a 1968 Buick driven by Mary Cox. The collision resulted in only minor damages.

Dec. 23 at Kenneth & Barkley, Leonard Gerraad, driving a 1966 Chevy and a 1971 Ford driven by Bennie S. Rupprecht resulted in no injuries to drivers and only minor damages.

EL PASO--Texas' westernmost state park has been the scene of recent archeological work by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Workers under the guidance of George Kegley, Parks and Wildlife Department staff archeologist, have uncovered the site of an ancient "pit house" village in Hueco Tanks State Park.

The village dates back to between 1200 and 1400 A.D. and was inhabited by a pueblo group of Indians.

The Indians of Hueco Tanks dug the foundations of their houses 18 to 20 inches into the soil and covered the pit bottom and probably the sides with adobe. The roof was also apparently constructed with adobe.

Kegley and his crew of workers uncovered three pit houses.

"With the exception of slight rises in the ground," said Kegley, "we had no indication that the buried house sites existed."

"We were very lucky, we dug three holes and found the remains of three houses," he said.

Kegley said that his crew dug until they found a wall and then followed the wall to its source.

It took about two weeks to completely excavate each house site. The fragile adobe was surprisingly damp underground and the last of it was tediously excavated with small trowels.

Excavation was made more difficult by the fact that the West Texas area had 19 inches of rain since August, three times the normal yearly amount.

In addition to the houses, Kegley found three prehistoric burials, refuse heaps and numerous potsherds and projectile points.

One of the burial sites was in the interior of a house, a common practice in this area in prehistoric times.

Why the houses were abandoned is a mystery to the archeologists. There is no sign of catastrophe. The Indians simply left.

From what can be pieced together of their life style, they must have been sedentary gardeners who raised crops. Water must have played a large part in the Indians' decision to locate near the Hueco Tanks. The area draws its name from the "huecos" or depressions in the stone which trap rainwater even today.

Some change must have occurred in this life style just before the coming of the Spanish. Explorers in the 1500s reported that Indians in the Hueco Tanks area were semi-nomadic and had evidently abandoned their sedentary living some time before.

"There is evidence," said Kegley, "that man may have lived at Hueco Tanks as early as 10,000 years ago."

Such speculation is based on finds of Folsom points, beautifully worked projectile points associated with early big-game hunters.

Excavation was also done on the remains of a Butterfield Overland Stage waystation that is within the park.

The station was active in 1858 and 1859.

Investigations of the stage site have raised some questions as to it really being part of the Butterfield system. Kegley visited other stops along the line and found them to differ from the remains of the Hueco Tanks station.

Parks and Wildlife Department personnel were greatly assisted by the El Paso Centennial Museum and amateur archeologists from the El Paso Archeological Society.

HOUSING SPENDING INCREASES

More families are planning to buy new houses within the next year than in any year since 1967.

According to Patricia A. Bradshaw, housing and home furnishings specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University, this increase reported by the Commerce Department indicates a strong continuation in home building.

"Consumers also have increased plans to purchase major appliances and furniture," Miss Bradshaw continued.

The latest consumer survey indicates that 28.7 households out of every 100 probably will purchase major appliances within the next year.

"Of the households surveyed, 28.8 per cent plan to buy furniture and carpets within the next year."

"Plans to spend money on home improvements equaled 8.6 per cent," the specialist concluded.

let Me See by Sybil

G.K. is just naturally a jolly, ho-ho-ho man anyway, so his role as Santa Comes very easy for him. At the Christmas party for the Manor folk Friday night he had everyone in a gay and festive mood. When he entered the large lobby that evening, he said "I have never seen such a line up of pretty ladies." Down at the very end of the row of seats, Mrs. Nan Prutsman said "well, you haven't got to the real pretty ones yet." This livened up the crowd considerably! G.K. played his role for many groups, but this was the highlight of the season for him. To bring sparkle to the eyes of nursing home folks brightens the heart of everyone!

THESE MONDAY holidays sure put us in a bind here at the newspaper office. We have one day (Tuesday) to get out some sort of newspaper. And that is a chore to say the least. One day doesn't give us enough time to collect ads, and news, get it all set up and ready to print early Wednesday morning. About all the news available is Christmas dinners and locals, and the lady who helps us with these is Mildred Chamberlain. She is on holiday too. So bear with us until after New Year's and the time when we have all our wits together again.

A NEW YEAR brings a New Beginning. "As the New Year starts and the old year ends, there's no better time to make amends for all the things we sincerely regret, and wish in our hearts we could somehow forget--we all make mistakes, for it's human to err, but no one need ever give up in despair. For God gives us all a brand-new beginning. A chance to start over and repent of our sinning--And when God forgives us we too must forgive, And resolve to do better each day that we live, By constantly trying to be like Him more nearly, And to trust in His widow and love Him more dearly--Assured that we're never out of His care, And we're always welcome to seek Him in prayer."

Local Church Plans Watch Night Service

Sponsored by the Spearman Ministerial Alliance, a watch-night service will be held Sunday night at the United First Methodist Church. Beginning at 8 p.m., the service will continue until just after midnight. The pastor, Rev. Wesley Daniel stresses that this service "is for the entire community and this means everyone is invited to attend." The young people will have charge of the program. They will have special music and singing, a time for sharing witnesses and testimonials, and altar time--a period of quiet meditation.

Rev. Daniel said some time during the evening there will be a refreshment break followed by the continuation of "watching the old year out and the new year in, in the House of the Lord."

The general public is cordially invited to attend the special service Sunday evening, December 31.

New Families Here

Five new families have moved to Spearman the past few weeks, adding sixteen people to the city's census population.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Womble, 117 S. Townsend, and their three children moved here from Amarillo. He is self employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Williamson, 408 E. 2nd Apartments, work with Hansford Feeders. They too were Amarillo residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Daren W. Stickle, 521 E. Kenneth have 2 children. Coming here from Perryton, employed with Baker & Taylor Drilling Co., they have 2 children.

Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Faulkner, 716 Haney street, work for Alsups 7 to 11 store, ing here from Clovis, N. They have one child.

"You can't go very far if you don't begin very near." (Krishnamurti)

I hope you had a very great Christmas, and that you will have a grand New Year holiday.

If you didn't drive around over the town and view the many beautifully decorated and lighted homes, you missed a treat. Seems we had more homes decorated this year than ever. The Chamber of Commerce judged the home decorations this year in these categories: House lighting, Mrs. Marvin Kunkle 523 W. 3rd; Henry Babitzke 619 Evans; Buford Babitzke 506 Endicott; Door & Window, Stanley Rhodes 203 W. 12th; Mrs. Walter Wilmet 810 Barkley and Ray Christenson 21 S. Endicott; Outdoor scenes, L.F. Hand 722 Steele Drive; Scott Vernon 712 Bernice and Max Banks' trailer house located at the Baker & Taylor yards. The first 3 places in each class won $25, $15 and $10, gift certificates from the Chamber of Commerce.

We apologize to L.F. Hand for fouling up on his picture in the weekend paper. In Perryton, our printers switched pictures on us. This upset Susie a lot and I don't blame her for they went to much work and expense to make their home so very beautiful this year.

I don't think I have ever seen a home more "Christmasy" looking than Mrs. Walter Wilmet's was. I hope she enjoyed the very best season ever in this lovely place. I understand this will be her last holiday in this particular home. She has sold it and will be moving sometime in the very near future.

I do want to say that G.K. Rupprecht makes the best Santa Claus I ever saw. Everyone else seemed to think so too, especially all the residents at Pioneer Manor Nursing Home.

ONE OF THE PRETTIEST Christmas scenes in town was this Nativity setting, portrayed by youths from the First Christian Church. They decorated the niche on main street where the old theatre used to be with backdrops, straw and bales of hay and various live characters performed each evening. Those who appear in these two pictures are as follows: Wise men, Debbie Reimer, Donna Wirsdorfer, Denise Standerfer, Shepherds, Karen and Elaine Reimer, Connie Vernon, Mary, Brenda English, Joseph, Donnie Wirsdorfer.

Exchanges of Series E and Savings Notes for new Series H Bonds amounting to $308 million were reported for the first eleven months of 1972, 33% above the $231 million exchanged in 1971.

Salary Hike Approved For county Officials

Hansford County Commissioners Court has voted to give every full-time county official, clerk, deputy, etc. a 5.5 percent wage increase.

In accordance with a recent law, a legal publication to this effect is being printed in the newspaper.

The salary hike will affect some 35 employees which includes all elected officials and employees at the Court house and all the county road men.

The yearly cost in extra funds will run between $5,000 and $10,000.

The Court proposed a 10 percent wage increase for county employees last year, but this was refused by the Wage & Price Commission which allowed only a 5.5% increase in accordance with the price freeze.

If no controversy is forthcoming concerning the wage proposal, the new salary increase will become effective January 1.

A painting by Cornelius Krieghoff, "The Blacksmith's Shop," is featured on a forthcoming Canadian issue, commemorating the 100th anniversary of the artist's death. The stamps will be of 8-cent denomination and were issued by the Canadian Post Office Nov. 29.

Born in Europe in 1815, Krieghoff emigrated to the United States in 1837 and nine years later, to Canada, where he became a leading artist. In 1953, he settled in Quebec

City, where he remained for 13 years and did some of his finest work. His paintings of winter scenes reflect the happy influence of his life in Quebec.

Eight stamps commemorating the bicentennial of the American Revolution will be issued during 1973, the U.S. Postal Service announced. The stamps are in the Bicentennial Series, which began in 1971. The issuance of additional stamps is planned through 1976.

NEW SOCIAL SECURITY LAW UPS EARNINGS

Starting in 1973, people who are working while getting social security benefits can earn more but never lose more than $1 in benefits for each $2 earned, according to Howard L. Weatherly, social security branch manager in Pampa.

"The more you earn, the higher your total income will be," Weatherly said. "Under the new social security law, social security payments will be reduced by $1 for every $2 earned over $2,100 in a year."

Previously, monthly payments were reduced by $1 in benefits for every $2 earned between $1,680 and $2,880 in a year--and by $1 for every $1 earned over $2,880.

"People 72 and over will continue to get their full social security benefits regardless of earnings," Weatherly said. Under the new law, people under 72 can earn as much as $2,100 in a year and get their full social security benefits. Different rules apply to people getting social security disability benefits if they work.

In addition, starting in 1973, full benefits can be paid for any month in which an employee's wages are not more than $175--or he didn't perform substantial services in self-employment. Previously, the monthly limit was $140.

"Also, starting in 1973, only your earnings in the months before you reach 72 will be used to figure what benefits are due you for those months," Weatherly said. "Before, earnings in the entire year you reached 72 were counted in figuring benefits due you for months before you were 72."

Another feature of the new law assures that the earnings exemption for people getting social security payments will go up automatically in future years as earnings levels increase, Weatherly said. The first year there can be an automatic increase is 1975.

Social security pays monthly benefits to eligible retired and disabled workers and their families--and to families of deceased workers who were insured under social security.
