Hospital Directors Set Budget for Year

The annual Hansford Hospital report for the year 1972 and the proposed budget for 1973 was presented to the board of directors at a recent meeting.

Submitted by S. M. Anderson, Administrator, the board of directors adopted a budget of $349,550.00 for the ensuing year. Last year's budget was $343,100.00 and the hospital was able to operate $7,000 below this figure.

In submitting the annual report, Anderson said the hospital would receive income in the amount of $345,446.00 this year as follows: taxes $10,446.00, hospital income $200,000.00, Medicare $135,000.00.

The major portion of the $349,550.00 budget will be paid in salaries—$203,000.00 is the figure proposed to be paid to employees in 1973. Other major disbursements listed: drugs $12,000, supplies $14,000, groceries $15,000, utilities $14,000, laboratory $16,000.

A report for the year 1972 (ending September) revealed a decrease in business to the tune of $61,892.00 from the year 1971. This reflected the "doctor shortage" when the hospital operated some six months with only one physician.

Total patient days for 1972 was 3618. Patient average was 10.1 a decrease of 1081 days from 1971. There were 52 births in 1972, a decrease of 18. There were 89 surgeries and only 727 admissions. Average stay per patient was 5.06 days. 18,439 meals were served. The total business for 1972 was $287,592.98. Cost per patient day was $78.79.

At the annual board meeting, Dr. Kleeberger reported that some progress has been made in the X-ray department (the county is purchasing much needed equipment for this department) and that with the addition of Dr. James Thomas and the coming of Dr. Ahmed, the Hospital Medical Staff would be in much better shape. Dr. Kleeberger recommended that the present Medical and Dental Staff be reappointed as follows: Dr. R. L. Kleeberger, Dr. James Thomas, Dr. R. D. Stephenson, Dr. Bill Brooks, Dr. Earl Novak.

The board accepted his recommendation.

Mr. Anderson reported that Dr. Thomas is in need of more space in his office building and that the lab at the hospital also needs more space.

City Police Report

Police Chief Leland Wood reports the following motor vehicle accidents investigated by his office the past week:

January 17, at Sanders & Collard streets, a 1968 Chevrolet driven by Robert J. Cody, Liberal, Kansas, and a 1968 Ford driven by Servando Salinas Jr. No injuries. Minor damages.

January 19, in the 200 block of S. Snider, accident involved a parked 1971 Oldsmobile owned by Buddy Sparks, and a 1965 Ford driven by Georgia A. Gaither. Minor damage.

January 21, at the shopping center parking lot exit, a 1973 Buick driven by William Whitson, and a 1970 Pontiac driven by Monte Black. Moderate damages, no injuries.

Mr. R. L. Wyatt is a patient in the Newman Memorial Hospital, Shattuck, Okla.

Rev. B. T. Shoemaker, pastor First Baptist Church, motored to Winters, Texas Wednesday where he conducted funeral services for a friend.

Mr. Merrell Johnson is in an Amarillo hospital this week undergoing tests.

McIntyre To Head Livestock Group

Named to head the Livestock Producers Association for the coming year is Ben McIntyre, of Spearman.

Serving on the slate with McIntyre will be Rick Kline of Amarillo as first Vice President, and Tom Christian, of Claude, second vice. The officers were named from some 150 producers, feeders and stocker operators in attendance at the one-day business session held in Amarillo Monday.

Following the business session and luncheon, various panel discussions were enjoyed throughout the afternoon on subjects such as syndication to allow tax benefits; financing from the banker's point of view; effects of cattle funds on the feedlots, particularly in the future; screw-worm eradication; problem of scabies, etc.

One very interesting topic of discussion pointed out that this area could become one of grain import, rather than export—because of increasing feeding operations.

Mr. McIntyre, a rancher, is well known in the Spearman area. He and his wife Nancy live some 20 miles SE of Spearman. They drive into Spearman for church and their children attend Spearman schools. Both are active in various civic groups.

Martin Fund Set Up

A "Bill Martin Fund" is being established at the First State Bank, Spearman, by friends and neighbors of the well-known Spearman couple.

Mrs. Martin is very ill and is expected to be hospitalized for some time. Bill Martin recently retired from many years service with the Spearman Police Department.

Anyone wishing to show their love and appreciation through contributions, may do so by making checks payable to the Bill Martin Fund and sending them to the First State Bank.

Such contributions would be greatly appreciated. Anyone who has ever experienced a long, drawn-out hospital illness knows what a tremendous expense burden this can be.

Spearman is full of people with "big hearts"... people who do desire to "help in some way." Often times, the monetary means of helping is most needed---and most appreciated.

throughout the building. Stewart asks the public to bear with him during this major repair to the building just as they have during the past few weeks of reorganizing the store merchandise.

MAJOR BUILDING REPAIRS WILL NOT HAMPER BUSINESS AT T.G. & Y.

The T.G. & Y. Store of Spearman has been undergoing a drastic face lifting lately. Manager Luke Stewart has been redesigning each part of the store, department by department.

A great deal of new merchandise has been added to the stock and recent visitors have found items they hadn't noticed before. This is due to the new methods of display. One of the highlights of the new floor plan is the small appliance department showing a large selection of modern small appliances. This display is set up where record albums were formerly on display. Adjacent to the appliances is the stereo tape department. The selection of tapes has been more than doubled.

The artificial flower department has been completely redone making it much easier for customers to select the blooms and greenery of their choice.

According to Stewart, the revamping is about one third finished. However, there will be a stoppage in this program for awhile as workmen move in to reinforce the roof of the building.

Manager Stewart says the store will remain open during this construction, however areas where steel workers are in action will be roped off for the protection of customers and employees. Steel beams supported by metal posts embedded in the floor will be attached to the ceiling

Mgr.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne West are the new managers for Merchant's Freight Lines. Mr. West took over the business Monday, January 15.

Mrs. West (Lila) will be the office manager for the company which is located on the Gruver Highway. Mr. West will be in charge of deliveries.

West has been employed as maintenance man at Hansford Hospital for the past three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Giddens, former Merchant's manager, have moved to Oklahoma City.

division were given by Collard Real Estate, Baker & Taylor, Hansford Implement and Excel Chevrolet.

Taking first place honors was the Gruver 7th grade girls team and the Dalhart 7th grade boys, Canadian's 8th grade girls and Spearman 8th grade boys.

Spearman Auto, Spearman Super Service, Equity Elevators and Beedy Furniture purchased the trophies presented to first place teams.

Canadian's 8th grade girls won the sportsmanship trophy, presented by KBMF-FM radio. Canadian 7th grade boys were named the best "sports" with this trophy being presented by the Spearman Reporter newspaper.

LYNX BACK IN FIRST PLACE

The mysterious Spearman Lynx, who somehow never seem to give up, are back in the thick of the District race, exactly as this newspaper had predicted a week ago. Tuesday the Lynx headed for Boys Ranch, with 2 of their starters at home nursing bad ankles, and facing sure elimination in their first half of the district race. But, fate seemed to smile on the Lynx Tuesday night, as they rallied for an easy win over Boys Ranch 73-39. Randy Schell, King of the lynx hit 15 points, as did Brown and Hendrick, to lead the red hot Lynx. Both Beedy and Floyd did not go to the game at the Ranch.
In the meantime, Dalhart thoroughly thrashed the Elks 42-34, to give the Lynx a tie with Stratford in the first half standings.
Should the Lynx beat Stratford the second half,
they will be the district representatives in the playoffs.

Here at home, the Lynx-ettes didn't fare so well, in the non district encounter with Canyon, as they lost 36-35. The Lynxettes won the important first half of District 1-AA however, and are the un-disputed district leaders.

The Lynx teams will open the 2nd half of the district race at Dalhart Friday night, and this will be the most important of the 2nd half for the Lynx.
It will be a good game to watch, as both the Lynx and Lynxettes will be putting their best foot forward at Dalhart Friday night.

State Senator Max Sherman of Amarillo (District 31) was named Wednesday by Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby to head Senate Natural Resources Committee.

Hobby named chairman for all nine of the Senate standing committees.

He said he feels the assignments provide equitable representation for all geographical areas of the state.

"These appointments recognize the expertise of individual senators regardless of seniority," Hobby said. "However, the continuity of experience is an obvious asset, which is reflected in my assignments of senior senators."

"With substantive committee appointments, freshmen senators also will have a chance to make real contributions to the many complex problems confronting this 61st Legislature."

The newly adopted Senate rules call for the nine standing committees while during the last legislative session
Senate standing committees numbered up to 27.

ROUND UP

Ups Interest Rate On Crop Loans

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24--The U.S. Department of Agriculture announced today an increase in the interest rate on commodity loans to producers to more nearly reflect the borrowing cost of money to the Commodity Credit Corporation. The interest rate was increased from 3.5 percent to 5.5 percent, per annum, computed on a daily basis. The new rate will become effective with 1973 crop year loans and will apply to all prior crop year loans which are extended on or after January 1, 1973. The availability of current crop loans to producers and producer cooperatives are continued as in past years. The loans provide interim financing for producers during harvesttime gluts, and allow producers to hold and maintain control and ownership of commodities not currently in demand. Commodity loan operations have been carried out by CCC since 1933. During the past fiscal year 1971-72 a total of 1,672,296 loans were made to producers, individually and through producer cooperatives, for a total value of $2,680,812,542.

Ft. Worth Stock Show Opens Jan. 26 With Stock Record

Ft. Worth (Sp) - A swelling crowd of 13,008 head of stock will be on exhibit during the 77th annual Southwestern Exposition and Stock Show, Jan. 26 through Feb. 4, reports W.R. Watt, Jr., stock show general manager. The stock show office staff processed entries of 569 in cattle classes; 1,460 in sheep, 1,741 sheep, 1,738 in pigs with an estimated 500 entries for rabbits, guinea pigs and pigeons being

In noting that junior entries are up over 400 head above the previous year, Watt said, "The increase indicated gaining interest among young people in the livestock and agricultural fields. This is a good thing, as our youngsters are our future." Another boost in show entries was in the Polled Hereford division, the Stock Show being host this year to the Golden Anniversary of the American Polled Hereford Association. The show will also host the National Meet of the American Bantam Association, with an estimated 2,500 entries in the poultry division. The Stock Show opens Friday for a ten-day run through Feb. 4 on Amon Carter Square. All show facilities are open to visitors, and the show has ample parking space. New breeds showing this year include Simmental and Limousin in the Junior Steer Show, and Peruvian Pasos in the Horse Show. An exhibition is planned for an exotic Italian cattle breed, Chianina. Also set is a sale, the First National Gelbvieh Cattle Sale. Sales planned include commercial Herford females, performance tested Angus bulls, Polled Hereford, Limousin and Simmental cattle, Charolais bulls, and Quarter Horses. An estimated $1 million is expected as the gross of the Stock Show breed sales. The sale of champion steers will be held at 9 a. m. Tuesday, Jan. 30. Other sales will be held for champion barrows and lambs.

quarter ended December 31, 1972. If employers make timely deposits of the full amount of the tax due, ten additional days are allowed to file the return. The Director said that employers who received a pre-addressed Form 941 "Employer's Quarterly Federal Tax Return," should use this form to report their tax liability. Other employers can obtain blank copies from their local IRS office.

The last day of January is also the last day to report and pay any balance of Federal Unemployment Tax not over $100.00 for 1972, using Form 940. If the balance of tax due is over $100.00, the employer must make a deposit with FTD Form 508. If the full amount of the tax is deposited on time, employers may then file the return no later than February 10, 1973.

Texas farmers and fishermen who did not file a declaration of estimated Federal individual income tax by January 15 may have a tax deadline of March 1, 1973. Mr. Coppinger said that if at least two thirds of the gross income was earned from farming or fishing, and no estimate was filed by January 15, 1973, these taxpayers must file their 1972 Federal income tax return and pay any tax due by Thursday, March 1, 1973, to avoid penalty for underpayment of estimated tax.

Farm Debts Are Growing

There is "compelling evidence" that Texas farmers' debt situations are getting heavier every year, according to three economists with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. Farmers appear to be "carrying over" significant amounts of loans and find themselves borrowing large amounts simply to repay previous debts, Lindon J. Robison, Dr. Peter J. Barry and Dr. John A. Hopkin said. Indicating the extent of the situation, they said, is the fact that in seven of the years from 1962 to 1972, farmers' debt payments exceeded gross farm income.

Projections to 1980 indicate more of the same. Even with a conservative two percent inflation rate--it was three percent between 1962 and 1970--the ratio of non-real estate debt repayments to the total cash farm income is projected to increase from .93 in 1970 to a high 1.42. A ratio of one means that the repayments and income are evenly matched, below one there is more cash than repayments and above one the payment exceed the income. Little, if any, real growth has occurred in cash farm receipts from farm marketing. Cash receipts per farm seem to be on the increase because farms have been growing

Rural Youth Don't Care For City Life

WASHINGTON--Rural families will be able to stay closer together in the future because of the opportunities possible through rural development. Rural development simply means "making rural America a better place to live and work," says William Erwin, Deputy Under Secretary of Agriculture for Rural Development. He adds, "A lot of people in rural areas are tired of watching their young people move away to cities to find work."

Thirty-four percent of the people surveyed in a poll said they would prefer to live in open country. Yet only 12 percent live there. This indicates that many men and women living in the city today would much rather be back in the country where they started, if only they could find a decent job. Some return even without one, so disillusioned are they with city life.

One rural community made special efforts to train its youth for "export"--for specific jobs available in surrounding cities. But even with such preparation, 25 out of 40 graduates of the program turned around and went back home. "City life simply wasn't for them," said Mr. Erwin, who, on Jan. 4, was nominated by President Nixon to fill the new post of Assistant Secretary of Agriculture for Rural Development. One rural development effort local people can undertake is to try to create more jobs in their local areas. That way, young people don't have to leave.

The deputy under secretary has talked to thousands of rural people across the country about rural development. "When you talk about rural development in a little community, people often say we don't want those big city problems brought out here," he reports.

"But when you say 'how about giving your sons and daughters a chance to stay home,' they get enthusiastic about development."

Figures bear out the importance of a greater variety of jobs to all rural people, farmers as well as nonfarmers. For instance, 62 percent of farmers make more money from off-farm work than they clear from their farm business.

In fact, more farmers, as well as their sons and daughters, are finding a job in local industry a good way to hold on to the rural way of life they like while enjoying incomes that come closer to matching city levels.

highest regular dividend paid under the program. An additional 147,000 veterans who have World War I ("K" prefixed) United States Government Life Insurance (USGLI) can expect $21 million.

In Texas 6,850 World War I veterans with USGLI policies will receive $1,003,000 while 183,972 World War II NSLI policy holders will receive $13,824,000. Dividends for Texas World War I veterans will average $146 and veterans retaining NSLI policies from World War II service will average $75.

Under the new program adopted in 1972, the WWII dividends can be used to purchase paid up additions to the insurance coverage. As of year's end, 908,838 WW II veterans had elected to purchase the paid up insurance rather than receive the dividends in cash.

Coker noted that 1973 will be the sixth consecutive year dividends on NSLI have been increased. NSLI dividends will average $71.61 per insured veteran, while USGLI dividends will average $142.57 per insured.

The increase in dividends is due mainly to higher yields on investments of the two insurance trust funds, it was explained.

VA insurance officials stressed that the dividends will be paid automatically to those who have not elected to apply them to additional coverage, and veterans need not contact the agency.

The $297 million in dividend payments scheduled for 1973 compared with a record $286 million paid veterans with NSLI and USGLI policies in 1972. Those dividends averaged $68 and $135 per insured, respectively.

"The aggregate of $297 million which goes to USGLI policy holders in 1973 is the same as the 1972 amount, but the individual shares are higher because there are fewer World War I veterans," Coker pointed out.

He explained that dividend amounts are determined by the type of insurance, amount of coverage, veteran's age and age of policies. The individual shares range from a few dollars to several hundred dollars.

In force as 1972 ended was $27.8 billion in dividend-paying NSLI and $729 million in USGLI. VA has paid nearly $9 billion in dividends since inception of the programs.

Beef Picture Still Stable

COLLEGE STATION--Beef prices continue steady across the nation despite increased production and increased livestock marketings. The main reason is the increased demand for beef due to the continued growth in the United States population and rising per capita disposable income, says Dr. Edward Uvacek, livestock marketing specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

He points out that the U.S. population increased by 2.2 million from July 1, 1970, to July 1, 1971 and that per capita disposable income rose 7 percent during that same period from a year earlier. "This has placed all sorts of demand on the only slightly higher total meat production."

Prices for feeder cattle continue up due to good feed grain crops during the past year and the continued expansion of large commercial feedlots in the Texas High Plains and in the Midwest.

Citing figures from the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Uvacek notes that cattle numbers have changed relatively little from 1966 to 1970. Beef cows and heifers have increased by about 3.5 million while dairy cows and heifers have decreased by some 3 million. The average value per head of all cattle rose from $133 to $179.

In Texas dairy cow and heifer numbers remained stable during the four-year period while beef cows and heifers increased only about a half million. The average value per head of all cattle in Texas increased from $115 to $155.

"The real striking statistic as far as beef cattle are concerned is the growth in the cattle feeding industry in Texas," points out Uvacek. "Cattle feeding jumped 58 percent during the short period from 1969 to 1972."

"Of course, this phenomenal growth has put Texas in the driver's seat as the nation's top cattle feeding state."

Pioneer Life in Panhandle Recalled by Canyon Woman

when most people can find a style of their choosing. In the next few weeks we'll be discussing the fabrics, colors, and accessories for spring 1973.

Let Me See by Sybil

The following article concerns the family of one of Spearman's former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Campfield. The article was submitted by Mrs. W.R. Greever, Mrs. Campfield is a sister of Mrs. Greever. Many people here remember the Campfields as being the depot agent here many years ago.

Daryl McKee, staff writer for the Amarillo Globe-Times, wrote a story which concerns "pioneer life in the Panhandle as recalled by Mrs. Campfield" who now resides with her husband in Canyon, Texas. The article follows.

Shortly after the turn of the century, Avis Ethel Crawhorn and her family were living out of a covered wagon on a desolate site in Hansford county. Then in 1904 they moved into a half dugout. She is now Mrs. Harry Earl Campfield who lives with her husband in Canyon.

She came to the Texas Panhandle in 1902 when she was 4, aboard a covered wagon. Her stepfather, J.T. Matney had bought land on a site that is now Morse.

When they came down to the south of Hansford county that summer, the man who had homesteaded the land and sold out to Matney didn't want to lease--so the family (her mother, stepfather and 4 children) lived out of the covered wagon for almost a year.

Mrs. Campfield recalled that her mother had to cook out on an open fire, keep order about the wagon and care for the children, especially the 6 month old boy Virgil. Times were hard.

They moved back up to Oklahoma for a while but returned to their Texas spread when it was vacated in 1904.

"Mother drove the surrey. It had fringe around the top," said Mrs. Campfield. There was also a mule team and her stepbrother drove cattle on horseback.

They moved into the half dugout that the homesteader had left behind. There they stayed for almost a year, planning and then working toward a new home.

Building a house on the barren plains of the North Panhandle was no easy task. Mrs. Campfield recalled, Matney had to freight out lumber from Channing. He enlisted the only 2 neighbors for the construction.

After nine months hard work, a 1 1/2 story house big enough for the whole family was built.

Meanwhile, said Mrs. Campfield, her stepfather had tended to other work and the farm began to produce. Livestock roamed the farmyard and a crop of alfalfa was planted.

Periodically the neighbors would get together and drive their cattle to the railroad depot in Higgins.

There was no town at Morse when her family owned the land. She recounted the trips she and her sister would make to the postoffice in Zulu, three miles away.

"We girls rode sidesaddle," she said, "because my stepfather thought women should ride that way." She also recalled the trips to Hansford (which later moved & was re-named Spearman.) The community Christmas tree is an especially clear memory, as are the overnight trips to the town on Christmas.

Life on the open plains could be hazardous. Although people tried to have fire guards plowed around their homes, there was at least one prairie fire every spring. She remembered her father fighting one all one night and when he came back home his clothes were scorched and his mustache singed.

Hail could be bad for someone caught out in the open. Her brother was caught in one out on the prairie and sought shelter under the team of horses.

In 1918 Mrs. Campfield moved to Canyon to begin her college career. She was 20 at the time and the school was "mostly girls."

Later she was a primary teacher at Paducah and then in Spearman. In Spearman she met Harry Campfield who was working as a depot telegraph agent. Campfield had come to Texas as a telegraph agent for the railroad, working first at St. Francis just north of Amarillo and then moving up and down the line.

The couple married not long after meeting in Spearman.

Mrs. Campfield's quarter-section inheritance has since been sold to the Townsite Co. of Morse, a group formed to develop the site.

Mr. Campfield has retired after 48 years with the Santa Fe Railroad Co. He and his wife lead a quietly modern life in Canyon.

Billy's mother gave us some constructive criticism a while back by saying "you all need to make better heads for your stories." I guess we do get in a rut. It's difficult to think up eye-catching headlines for every story. Others have the same problems I guess. I noticed where one Church pastor noted his sermon topic on the announcement board in big bold letters WHAT IS HELL? and just below this "Come hear our new organist." You gotta watch it.

IF THEY STILL have Ripley's Believe It or Not... I think the Vanderburg family would make the headlines in that column. Surely Everett and Louise Vanderburg set the record of being grandparents of the most--in the least amount of time. They have three children, 2 daughters and 1 son. All have had (or will have) twins. First Linda & Jim Davis had twin girls (their first.). Then their son Jack & Donna Vanderburg presented them with twin grandchildren (a boy & a girl). Now, to everyone's surprise their other daughter, Nelda & Leroy Callaway are expecting twins, come March. This must be a record of some kind. Grandma Vanderburg is in the hospital. But I don't think it from too much grandmother-ing.

CAN YOU IMAGINE how it would be to have to live with gasoline rationing--again? I say "again" for some of us old timers remember back in WW II days when you purchased gas according to how many coupons you possessed. If they ration gas again--I'll have a head start on the coupon business. The other day I was rummaging for something and ran across some of those old gasoline ration coupons. The books were tucked inside Billy's Marine Corps discharge papers--and it brought back memories. At the Marine Base in El Centro, Calif. Billy could not get gas coupons. Here in Spearman people could not buy cigarettes. He would send me cartons & cartons of cigarettes, and I would trade these to Walt Sanders, who then owned the 66 service station. Walt would supply me with gas coupons for Billy. Dear little ole Walt... he would do anything for soldier boys. None will ever forget him either. If you can remember when gas was rationed--you don't have to worry about the draft.

Which is about to end, they say. And it probably will, regardless what Congress says or does--RMN doesn't seem to need Congress anymore. He simply waves a magic wand and enacts all sorts of laws--takes away all sorts of "goodies"--freezes all sorts of funds--without ever consulting Congress. He has abolished more Programs & Acts in the past few months than the law allows! In fact, the Constitution does NOT allow--I bet he could be impeached if Congressmen ever wake up to just what all he has been doing. Emmett Sanders says! I don't doubt it. My good friend and loyal Democrat the late Mrs. Carrie Cotter always said it always stopped raining when the Republican took office. It has. We've had the worst winter since 1898. Who was in office then I wonder?

GOOD HEALTH is a prized possession--something to be sought by those who don't have it and something to be held onto by those who do. I know this, so I faithfully visit my doctor twice a year, but he is one of those know-it-alls who feels he must keep up with all the latest medical facts & surgical techniques. With all the rapid advance in medical science, everything he knew in July, is obsolete in January.

This is all well and good for him, knowing he is keeping on top of all the latest... but it certainly keeps the patient in hot water. Like--the hormones you've been taking to keep from having cancer, are now known to cause it! And the surgery you had done just 6 months ago is now known to be ineffective and should be done over! Well...perhaps its not quite this bad but I have decided for sure to cut down my visits to once a year. I'm no glutton for punishment. I'd rather receive these new little shocks on the annual basis. It's alright for HIM to know it all... but I still hold with the idea that what I don't know makes me feel better.

Mrs. Florence Adams of Borger was a guest Saturday of Mr. and Mrs. W.V. Hull. Altha Groves called in the afternoon. Mrs. Adams' daughter, Laura, now Mrs. Walker Lane of Ogden, Utah, lived with Altha when she was assistant band director here under Sam Watson.

Local Married Women Leading Double Lives

In Hansford County, more married women than ever before are leading double lives--as home makers and as job holders.

In stores, factories, business offices, the professional fields and elsewhere, women at work is the order of the day.

Managing the double life takes a bit of doing. Making it possible is the array of labor-saving devices and equipment that has cut down the time needed for household chores.

In addition, there is the great variety of prepared and semi-prepared foods that enable them to turn out a meal in jig time.

The latest figures indicate that no less than 28.8 percent of the married women in Hansford County are now employed outside the home or are looking for such employment. In 1960 the ratio was 24.8 percent. Nationally, there are nearly 19 million married women who go to work each day. Some of them have full-time jobs and some part-time jobs. They outnumber their single sisters by about 50 percent.

The facts and figures are from the Department of Commerce, the Labor Department and others.

They show that married women have drastically altered the job market in the past decade. They accounted for 43 percent of the total number of new job opportunities and about 75 percent of the female employment gains.

Much of the increase has been due to middle-age women, who have more time on their hands, now that their children are growing up.

However, the major advance in the past five years has been among younger married women, those in the 20 to 24 age bracket, working to supplement their husbands' income. There are 40 percent more of them at work now than there were in 1966, says the Department of Labor.

The figures for Hansford County show a rising proportion of women-married and unmarried--holding down jobs.

The 1960 census listed a total of 569 in the labor force, equal to 28.2 percent of the local female population of working age.

According to the latest census, it has now reached 30.2 percent, with a working force of 642.

If you will be sewing them now is the time to begin planning. For ideas look in pattern books and fabric departments. There is a wide selection available from which to choose. Let's talk about styles for a starter. Separates are still good with the appearance of the baseball shirt, smock and aviator or bombardier jackets. Skirts have wide waistbands, trouser pockets, pleats and zipper fronts while the leg size is the most important on pants. Yoked seaming, waist line pleats, front zippers and deep cuffs are also visible for pants. Dresses may be chemise or shirt dress, slip dress, tent or pinafore style. Shirt collars, button fronts, tucked bodices, tie backs, ruffles, square necklines and white collar and cuffs are today fashion. Waistlines, belts, drawstring belts, dropped shoulders and halter tops also make the scene. This is truly a year

Franklin Mint Treasurers On View At Tech

LUBBOCK--Sterling silver Christmas plates by Norman Mclellan, silver medals commemorating each of the United States and 100 bronze medals commemorating the history of the United States are among a collection of Franklin Mint pieces on display as the Treasurers of the Month at The Museum of Texas Tech University. The collection, borrowed from Royce W. Waltrip of Leland, will be on display from Jan. 17 through the end of February, according to Mrs. D. Holmes, chairman of the Treasurers of the Month committee of the Women's Council of the West Texas Museum Association. An assistant professor of American History at Southwestern College in Levelland, Waltrip began his collection of the 100 medal series commemorating the history of the United States. He acquired that collection in 1968 and has since become a charter member of the Franklin Mint Collector's Society. Waltrip explained the Franklin Mint is a privately owned corporation with headquarters in the United States and subsidiaries in Canada and Europe. The mint is not affiliated with the U.S. Mint or any other government agency. With assets of more than $1 billion, it is by far the world's largest and foremost private mint, he said. The Franklin Mint produces currency for several foreign countries, but none for the U.S. is the prime source of commemorative coins, medals and collector's ingots, said Waltrip. The Waltrip collection is complete. He continues adding to it as new issues are issued and as older issues become available from other collectors. The display at the museum does not represent his full collection. Among the collections Waltrip has on display are a set of 50 ingots, one for each state; a set of presidential mini-coins issued in a velvet case complete with magnifying viewer for detail examination; a set of presidential commemorative medals; 12 medals from the Michelangelo Series; a 12 1/2 inch Gallery of Great American and a five Balboas Panamanian coin and a five Balboas Panamanian coin proof. Waltrip said the Franklin Mint has been commissioned to issue the 1973 presidential inaugural medal, one of which he added to his collection in it is available.

New Goal For Agriculture

COLLEGE STATION--Dr. John E. Hutchison, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, has announced that preliminary preliminary estimates indicate that gross agricultural income in Texas for 1972 will exceed the $3.76 billion goal set in 1968 to be reached by 1976. This announcement was made to news media representatives attending a recent Extension Press Day banquet at Texas A&M University.

"The record agricultural income level forecast for 1972 is a consequence of a number of interacting factors," Hutchison said. One item was the establishment of a specific income goal for Texas agriculture by the Extension Service in cooperation with other agricultural agencies, organizations and individual leaders which permitted independent action designed to achieve the objective by all interested groups.

"Another key factor," the director says, "was the development by Extension specialists of comprehensive production and marketing guidelines, embodying all the best practices from modern research, for each economically important agricultural commodity produced in the state."

These guidelines were then placed into the hands of each of the respective producers of these commodities by local county agents. The widespread application of these practices was a major contributor to the achievement of the state-wide goal.

Hutchison noted that another factor was generally favorable weather conditions for most areas of the state, coupled with fairly stable prices.

However, the director cautioned that unfavorable harvesting weather in the western cotton producing areas of the state may still reduce income estimates--but these estimates have recognized that considerable cotton and other crops were still in the field.

While recognizing the substantial increase in gross agricultural income, Hutchison emphasized that net income in terms of returns on investments in production agriculture still lagged behind comparable returns for nonagricultural industry. "Production agriculture remains one of the most competitive industries in American, and the need to improve net returns on investments in farming and ranching is still critical--especially for the family farmer," he said.

On the assumption that 1972 cash receipts from agriculture will exceed the $3.76 billion goal, Hutchison issued a challenge to try for $4.76 billion by the end of crop year 1976. He asked news media representatives for their reaction to the suggested new goal and stated that he planned to meet with state agricultural leaders to determine whether they consider the new objective feasible.

"It will take the combined efforts of the total agricultural industry if the objective is to be reached," he emphasized, "and those of you with the agricultural press have a vital role to play in such a massive undertaking."

Focusing other remarks on the future role of the Extension Service in Texas, the director pointed out that the 70-year old principles of Extension education which have evolved since Extension had its beginning with a boll weevil control demonstration in Kaufman County in 1903 have been so adequately tested that they can be put forward with confidence as a guide to effective programs today.

"Extension education has become a well-defined discipline and the Extension service is recognized as an effective education delivery system for teaching and motivating people."

Hutchison states that he expects Extension to be asked to undertake expanded efforts to achieve specific goals established at the national, state and local levels.

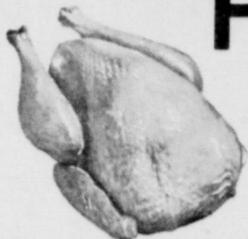

"It is my conviction that the Extension Service, which reaches into each county and each community of the state, should be willing to undertake any program which has the potential for improving the economic and social welfare of the people of the state--so long as adequate resources are provided to support the additional activities without diminishing in any way the essential services for farm, ranch and rural people," he concluded.
