Good Ellenburger Shows Are Logged In Upton Wildcat

Sinclair Oil & Gas Company is reaming hole in its No. 1 McElroy Ranch, wildcat in Northwest Upton County, in preparation for a drillstem test of the Ellenburger.

That formation was topped at 12,042 feet, elevation 2,781 feet. That makes it 1,781 feet high on the Ellenburger to the same formation in The Wilshire Oil Company No. 1 McElroy, a dry hole two and one-half miles to the northwest.

A core taken from the No. 1 McElroy Ranch from 12,060 to 12,110 feet showed good signs of possible production.

Recovery was 90 feet of which 10 feet was hard dolomite, four feet of fractured dolomite with good oil stain and good odor. The next eight feet was hard dolomite followed by five feet of fractured dolomite with good stain and odor. The remainder of the core was 20 feet of tight dolomite with some fluorescence and three feet of fractured dolomite with good porosity and large vugs, good stain and odor.

The prospector had already shown for possible production from a lime section on a drillstem test at 9,376-9,411 feet.

Drill site is 660 feet from south and 1,960 feet from east lines of section 129, block D, CCSD&RNG survey.

Glasscock Project Logs More Shows

Amerasia Petroleum Corporation continues to develop shows of petroleum in its No. 1 Eula A. Woody, Central-West Glasscock County wildcat, one and one-half miles east of the northeast side of the Tex-Harvey field.

The latest signs of oil and gas in this project came in a drillstem test at 7,590-7,712 feet. The tool was open six hours.

Recovery was 125 feet of gassy oil which was a mixture of new oil and of oil used in drilling the hole. There were no signs of water. Operator is now coring below 7,760 feet in sandy shale.

This exploration topped the Sprberry at about 6,823 feet and it showed for possible commercial production in a test at 6,823-6,901 feet.

It has continued to log shows of oil and gas in streaks all the way down to its present level of operations.

Operator plans to dig ahead until the project investigates the full producing possibilities of both sections of the Sprberry and also of the Dean sand.

Location is 675 feet from west and 661 feet from south lines of section 10, block 36, T-3-S, T&P survey. That makes it about 20 miles southeast of the City of Midland.

NE Val Verde Test Is Drilling Shale

R. J. Carway No. 1 Guida Rose, Northeast Val Verde County gas discovery from the Pennsylvanian lime from the section at 9,851-10,003 feet, is drilling ahead past 10,025 feet in black shale, and has apparently gone out of the section which made the gas.

This exploration, located 18 miles northeast of Juno and 35 miles southwest of Sonora, ran a three hour and ten minute drillstem test on the interval at 9,851-10,003 feet.

A 2,000-foot water blanket was used. Gas surfaced as soon as the tool was opened. Gas-cut water blanket started flowing out in 19 minutes.

Gas cut mud came to the top in 33 minutes. At the end of one and one-half hours the gas volume was at the rate of 3,120,000 cubic feet per day. The gas volume dropped to a daily rate of 2,830,000 cubic feet at the end of one and three-quarter hours and it had increased to the rate of 3,400,000 cubic feet per day at the end of three hours.

Recovery was 360 feet of gas cut drilling water and drilling mud. Open flowing bottom hole pressure varied between 2,000 pounds and 3,000 pounds. Shutin bottom hole pressure after one hour was 6,700 pounds.

Top of the Pennsylvanian lime was called at 9,890 feet. Elevation is 1,971 feet. Location is at the center of the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 2, GC&SF survey.

Field In SE Terry Gets New Producer

Tide Water Associated Oil Company has completed its No. 1-B J. P. Nystel as the third producer in the Corrigan field of Southeast Terry County.

The well flowed 24 hours through a 10/64-inch choke to make an initial production of 441.27 barrels of oil and no water.

Trio Jailed In Air Force Robbery

14 Reported Killed In Air Line Disaster

SIoux CITY, IOWA—(P)—A DC-3 Mid-Continent Airline plane crashed and burned here Friday and 14 persons were reported killed.

A Sioux City Journal reporter said 14 persons were killed, including the pilot and co-pilot, and that eight persons survived.

The north-bound ship was coming in for a landing when the crash occurred about 9:11 a.m. Witnesses said visibility was fair, but a sudden snow squall blotted out the plane just before the crash.

It was Mid-Continent's second crash this week. Last Tuesday, 29 passengers and the crew of four walked away from one of its airplanes just before the craft was enveloped in flames after crashing at Tulsa, Okla. Six of those aboard the Houston-bound plane were given hospital treatment but none was injured critically.

In Kansas City, Mid-Continent identified the crew members as Capt. James Graham, Kansas City; First Officer Phillip K. Toler, Mission, Kan.; and Marilyn Woodbury, Kansas City, hostess. Also aboard was another first officer, Ernest F. Ellert of Overland Park, Kan., who was to be stationed here.

Bridgewater Is Lone Candidate For Mayor With Deadline Near

Percy F. Bridgewater appeared headed Friday for the job of mayor of ever-growing Midland.

Long active in civic affairs, Bridgewater was the lone candidate for mayor as the deadline for filing for the April 3 election appeared less than 24 hours away.

The filing deadline is at noon Saturday, and City Hall heard no talk about a possible opponent for Bridgewater.

But for the three City Council posts, a lively trio of races appeared likely.

Two of the posts already have drawn three candidates each, while the third has a pair of contestants. Candidates Listed

Of the three councilmen whose terms expire, only Frank N. Shriver is seeking reelection. Opposing him for the Place No. 1 spot are J. B. McCoy, drug store operator, and B. H. Grube, a businessman.

For the No. 2 Place, which is being vacated by H. E. Chiles, Jr., the candidates are R. B. (Bum) Cowden and Frank True.

For the third spot, now held by J. W. Hejl, the candidates are J. W. (Johnny) Starr, Robert R. Currie and Lee Thomas.

As soon as the deadline is passed, the official list of candidates will be posted by City Secretary J. C. Hudson on the bulletin board in the City Hall.

Six Divisions In Europe In 1952 Is Present U. S. Plan

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Defense Department was reported Friday to have told Congress it expects to have only six American divisions in Europe by July 1, 1952, unless war breaks out.

This information bore out statements by Secretary of Defense Marshall that there are no present plans to increase U. S. commitments to the North Atlantic Defense Force being formed by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Sensators told newsmen the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committees were told, in answers to a series of questions put by Senator Knowland (R-Calif.), that present plans call for sending two additional U. S. divisions to Europe this year.

Marshall said four more divisions would be furnished in all to join under Eisenhower's command the two now in Germany on occupation duty.

RFC Probe Again Aims Plant Grab

WASHINGTON—(P)—Roy Fruehauf, Detroit industrialist, swore Friday that Joseph H. Rosenbaum, Washington lawyer, told him in 1949 he had two RFC directors "in his hip pocket."

He said Rosenbaum named Directors Walter L. Dunham and William E. Willett.

Fruehauf testified before a Senate Banking subcommittee which is investigating charges the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, big government lending agency, has yielded to influence in making loans.

Rosenbaum, in an earlier appearance, denied he had ever made the "hip pocket" statement.

Fruehauf told the senators Dunham blocked efforts to rescue Carl G. Strandlund's Lustron Corporation from financial collapse only a few hours after a negotiator had withdrawn a $10,000 retainer fee to Rosenbaum.

Strandlund charged from the witness chair Thursday that Dunham was involved deeply with "financial wolves" he accused of having conspired to strip him of control of Lustron, big prefabricated housing plant at Columbus, Ohio. The plant was financed almost entirely by $7,500,000 borrowed from the RFC.

Stanton Entry Is Nosed Out For Grand Champion At Angelo

SAN ANGELO—(P)—A handsomely-squared 1,100-pound calf shown by Johnny Wigley, 11, Goldthwaite 4-H Club boy, was ribbed as the champion Hereford steer of the San Angelo Fat Stock Show Friday.

After picking the Mills County animal over the light-weight and reserve championship winner exhibited by Johnny Fisher, 16, Stanton 4-H Club boy, the judges turned their attention to the Aberdeen-Angus calves.

PLUNGE VICTIM—Joseph H. Dowd, above, co-pilot on a Pioneer Air Lines Denver-bound flight from San Antonio, fell from the plane while it was in flight at about 4,000 feet. Dowd had gone to investigate a rear door which apparently was not locked securely.

Marines Advance In Bloody Fighting

TOKYO—(P)—U. S. Marines swept through abandoned Hoengsong Friday and stabbed deeper into the heart of Red defenses on the Central Korean front.

Communist resistance stiffened all along the Allied line. On the east-central front, Korean Reds wearing South Korean uniforms knifed inside American positions and fought the Doughboys hand-to-hand.

Rebuilding Of WSB Hits New Obstacle In Unions' Demand

WASHINGTON—(P)—Rebuilding of the shattered Wage Stabilization Board Friday ran up against a major obstacle—a demand by unions that it handle labor disputes as well as wage controls.

Economic Stabilization Administrator Eric Johnston was making cautious moves to fashion a new industry-labor-public board to replace the nine-man panel from which organized labor has withdrawn its three representatives.

Top labor leaders, acting on orders from the United Labor Policy Committee, shored up the mobilization agencies with resignations Thursday, in protest against alleged "unfair" wage control and "big business" domination of the defense drive.

Plan Proposed To Regulate Texas Telephone Rates

AUSTIN—(P)—A Corpus Christi lawmaker Friday unfolded a plan to regulate long distance telephone rates inside Texas.

Rep. John Barnhart says he'll introduce the proposal in bill form when the House reconvenes Monday. The Legislature adjourned for the weekend at noon Thursday.

Rate regulation, Barnhart believes, would result in lower phone bills.

The provisions in his bill have been recommended by the Legislative Council, research right-arm to the Legislature.

The council found that, while Texas rates compare favorably with those in other states, long distance calls to points outside the state cost substantially less than calls inside the state covering the same distance.

For example, the council investigated this situation in Austin: A six-minute, daytime call to Texarkana, Texas, costs $3.15. The same call from Austin to Texarkana, Ark., costs only $2.10.

Under the Barnhart plan, regulation would be carried out by a new division of the Railroad Commission.

Bus Franchise Hearing Postponed

A scheduled meeting Friday of the City Council to discuss a proposed bus franchise has been postponed until Monday afternoon.

City Manager W. H. Oswald said the meeting was postponed when he was notified that the bus operators seeking the franchise would be unable to attend until Monday.

Price Picture—Confusin' But Not Amusin'

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK—(P)—Prices are coming down. And prices are going up. You can read both statements in your newspaper. And both are true.

If prices going both ways is confusing, so is most everything else about the state of our economy. Let's look at some of these two-way trends as reported Friday.

Commodity prices—particularly of foodstuffs and farm products—have been dropping several weeks, at the producers' level if not in the stores, until the last few days. Grain prices Thursday suffered a sharp setback in Chicago.

Packers Pay More

But the boys who put food in cans and those who quick-freeze it tell us their prices on the coming crops—the prices you'll be paying next Summer and Fall—will be higher by 10 per cent, 15 per cent, 25 per cent. Canners and packers say they will pay farmers more this year than last for fresh fruits and vegetables.

Wholesale food prices, rising for 20 weeks, have slipped back a little for the first time since October 10, Dun & Bradstreet tells us. A few cents have been shaved off the price of luxury meat cuts in some retail stores.

But the Office of Price Stabilization apparently thinks food prices will continue to rise. It is reported setting its pricing rules in that direction only. Food processors are to be allowed to raise their prices as farm prices rise, but are not to be required to lower prices on processed food when farm prices drop.

Clothing prices are due to rise this Fall, too, according to most clothing manufacturers.

Cayuga Eliminates Stanton From State Basketball Tourney

AUSTIN—(P)—Big Sandy and Cayuga took easy victories Friday in the semi-finals of Class B of the State High School Basketball Tournament.

Cayuga beat Stanton 55-30 to eliminate the last West Texas team in this division, and Big Sandy downed Moulton 53-24.

Glenn Fields scored 19 points to top Big Sandy's scoring, and Carol Locksted was high for Moulton with 10.

One other division—Class A—settles finalists Friday.

Kelly Jim Duncan scored 21 points in Cayuga's easy victory. Bobby McClain was high for Stanton with 21 points.

Texas Observes Independence Day

By The Associated Press
A few Texas flags were raised Friday. A few institutions closed. Did you stop to wonder why? Did you know?

It's Texas Independence Day.

On March 2, 1836, a little band of courageous men gathered in a blacksmith shop at Washington-on-the-Brazos and adopted the Declaration of Independence that changed the destiny of Texas and of the United States.

Texans—Texians, they called themselves then—went on to win freedom from Mexico, to set up an independent nation and to bring it into the United States as its largest member and one of its richest.

Entire Sum Of $33,000 Is Recovered

WICHITA FALLS—(P)—The $33,000 taken in a daring military payroll holdup here Wednesday has been recovered and three men, one an Air Force corporal, are in jail.

Charged with theft of government property are: Cpl. John Joe Hersch, 21, Del Norte, Colo., who had claimed he was taken hostage by the man who held the gun.

First Draft Test Ballot Set Monday

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Senate agreed Friday to a test vote Monday on the controversial issue of lowering the draft age to 18 years and six months.

The present Selective Service Act allows induction at age 19.

A pending bill approved by the Senate Armed Services Committee would allow calling up of 18-year-olds.

The test will come on an amendment by Senator Morse (R-Ore) to make the minimum age 18 1/2 years.

Older Men First

The committee bill would require local draft boards to take older men in the present 19-to-26 draft manpower pool before calling any 18-year-olds. It also would require that the 18-year-olds nearest 19 be inducted first.

The Morse proposal would eliminate both these restrictions, allowing boys 18 1/2 years of age as well as those 19 to 26 to be taken at the same time.

Morse said he also would allow boys between 18 and 18 1/2 to volunteer.

The test will be the first on a series of amendments proposed to the broad Universal Military Training and Service bill. It has been debated intermittently this week and the voting agreement was by unanimous consent.

Senator Cain (R-Wash) urged Friday that the nation draft 18-year-olds because "we need every man we can get in Korea." Cain had sharp criticism for Morse's proposals.

Red Cross Drive Is In Full Swing In Midland County

Red Cross pins and stickers were appearing throughout the business district Friday as scores of volunteer workers continued their canvass in the 1951 Red Cross campaign here.

The drive opened Thursday following a "kick-off" breakfast in Hotel Scharbauer. A progress report meeting is scheduled Tuesday afternoon.

A report of first-day returns was not available Friday. The county's quota is $15,000, of which 72.5 per cent will remain here for use by the Midland County Red Cross Chapter.

The drive in the residential sections will be launched next week, under the direction of Mrs. Robert Stripling.

G. E. Merahon is the general chairman of the finance campaign here.

Oklahoma's Coach Reported Considering Oil Job In Midland

OKLAHOMA CITY—(P)—Bud Wilkinson was reported by the Daily Oklahoman Friday as considering seriously a $50,000-a-year offer from a Midland, Texas, oil firm.

The coach of the nation's top football team dismissed the possibility of his taking the Texas job, saying: "I really don't think anything will come of it."

"I'm no more serious about this than I have been for the last three or four years. I'd certainly have a lot of thinking and talk to do before anything like that."

The Oklahoman did not name the firm. The story said the deal might break about March 31.

Maharajah's Moolah Built Lush Location In Calcutta

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
 NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—Guys and Dolls: A former Hollywood florist has turned out the first English language feature film ever made in India.

Ken McDowd, an amiable, non-ulcer ridden producer and his lush technical version of Rumer Godden's "The River" will be hitting the Bijous before the year is out.

Ken persuaded some maharajahs in the Aga Khan money class to dig into their diamonds and rubies for financing, then built a complete studio in Calcutta. His stars are Hollywoodites Tommy Breen and Arthur Shields and a high-caste Indian Hedy named Radha Sriram.

Indians are movie bugs, according to Ken, and read Hollywood fan magazines the way you'd think they read "The Rubiyat of Omar Khayyam." Deadpanned Ken:

"People are always coming up to me and asking how Esther and Ben were doing with their restaurant."

The male moviegoers whose popcorn started popping again when Joan Caulfield paraded around in bathing suits in "The Petty Girl" will get another peek at her chassis in "The Lady Says No." Joan, who will do a jungle dream dance in a sarong and a zip-tease in a beach oufit, told me:

 "I'm not letting down the boys. My costumes will be even briefer this time."

Hubby Frank Ross is putting Joan through her paces in the picture and the word is circulating that he's getting a comedy performance out of her that's close to Jean Arthur quality. Jean is Ross' ex-wife.

I'm not one to toss a bombshell into Warner's front office, but Marty Melcher, Doris Day's groom-to-be, let it drop that Doris is on the ho-hum side about the movie queen business. Sitting in the future Mrs. Melcher's dressing room on the "Moonlight Bay" set, Marty said:

"She could quit tomorrow and not miss it."
 His capsule essay on Doris Day, film star:

"Doris is Doris. She's herself, and no Stanislawski method about it. Some actresses go wild looking for roles, but Doris isn't a pouter. She's in pictures because it's her work and it's gone fine so far."

"She had a tremendous career as a record artist. That's easier than pictures. You come down from the mountain, make your records and then go away for a couple of years."

Bob Crosby will warble "Let's Make Comparisons" to a life-size dummy of brother Bing for a five-minute sequence in RKO's "Two Tickets to Broadway."

"Leave us face it," says Bob, "the dummy cost 'em more than I did. But it's a cheap way to get Bing in the picture."

Bob's acting in the film has Howard Hughes in a talkspin and they're talking more important roles. It's the first movie Bob has made in four years after finally talking his five-day-a-week radio sponsor into letting him become transcribed like Bing.

World's His Oyster
 Shelley Winters can worry about her movie career, but Keeffe Braselle's relaxing, Once movie town's will-i-never-make-the-grade boy, Keeffe stopped fretting about options, roles and the bigwig who falls to say hello since his assignment to "The Bradley Mason Story" as a heavy.

He doesn't hit the movie screens in Paramount's "A Place in the Sun" until December. He shrugged:

"They keep sneak previewing it over and over. I know a guy who's seen it 10 times. Every time he goes to the movies the picture is on."

Sally Forrest and agent Milo Frank are losing their tempers over the "they'll-never-get-married" prophecies of movietown crystal-gazers. Blue-eyed Sally, who's Mickey Rooney's leading lady in "The Strip," told me:

"I don't know where the rumor came from. I pick up the paper and read that Milo and I have called the whole thing off. That's not true. We're going to be married, but we don't know exactly when, that's all."

Ida Lupino's blue-eyed-discovery has made four films since last May and defies anybody to accuse her of parroting Ida in "Vengeance Valley" and "Excuse My Dust."

Single Ring Ceremony Unites Bobby Perry, H. T. Hilliard

In a single ring ceremony Saturday in the First Presbyterian Church, Bobby Perry became the bride of Harry Talbot Hilliard. Dr. R. Matthew Lynn, pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Edna Greene Perry of Pineville, Ky. The bridegroom is the son of Thomas J. Hilliard of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mrs. Frank Miller, organist, played the nuptial music, including "Because," "Liebestraum," and the traditional wedding march and recessional. During the ceremony she played "O Perfect Love."

The vows were read before background arrangements of white stock, lilies of the valley and candles. The bride, given in marriage by D. C. De Vito, wore a navy blue silk dress and jacket with navy accessories. She wore a navy straw hat with an illusion veil and white gloves. Her colonial hand bouquet was of white carnations.

The couple was attended by Betty Jane Perry, sister of the bride, and Thomas J. Hilliard, father of the bridegroom. Miss Perry wore a pale mauve silk dress with a bolero jacket and a matching maline hat. She carried a colonial hand bouquet of purple violets.

Ushers were Thomas J. Hilliard, Jr., of Pittsburgh, brother of the bridegroom, and John B. Ashmun. Honorary ushers included Frank M. Jackson, Richard T. Burke, George Bush, James C. Richie, Robert Whitaker, L. W. Douglas, Jr., of Dallas, Henry Hillman of Pittsburgh and Nelson Mead of Dayton, Ohio.

Following the wedding a reception was held in the Ranchland Hill Country Club. In the receiving line with the couple were Mrs. Dudley Armstrong and Mrs. George Mead, aunts of the bridegroom; De Vito, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Hilliard, the best man and the maid of honor.

When they left for their wedding trip to Jamaica, the bride was wearing a Spring green gabbardine suit with cocoa accessories and a white orchid corsage. After March 15 the couple will be at home at 301 East Maple Street in Midland.

Out-of-city guests at the wedding were Hilliard and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hillman of Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Jackson, Jr., of Providence, R. I.; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hilliard, Lexington, Ky.; Mrs. Armstrong, Lancaster, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Blair, Corpus Christi; Frederick Hamilton, Ferris Hamilton, H. L. Dillon, Jr., and Douglas, Dallas; Mead and Mr. and Mrs. George Mead, Dayton, Ohio; Bruce Calder, Goldsmith, and Robert Parish and Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds Bell, Houston.

Mrs. Hilliard received her degree from the University of Kentucky where she majored in geology. Hilliard was graduated from Princeton University.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Cates were hosts to the Promenaders Square Dance Club when it met Tuesday night in the Midland Officers Club.

Members calling for the dances were E. M. Bradberry, H. L. Hagler and Cates.

Other members present were Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Albright, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bradberry, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brady, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Doran, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Watson and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pickens.

Youth Center For McCamey Planned

McCAMEY—Plans for the organization of a Youth Center here are being developed under the sponsorship of the Recreation Committee of the McCamey Chamber of Commerce.

A meeting of representatives of various clubs and others interested in the Youth Center project will be held at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday in the City Hall, when preliminary steps toward establishing the center will be taken.

Mrs. Faye Gwyn, a former director of the Midland Youth Center, and other representatives of that organization will attend the session.

Political Meeting Attracts 10 Persons

The scheduled city-wide political meeting Thursday night in the courthouse attracted only 10 persons, who dispersed at 9 p.m. after it became apparent the attendance would not be swelled by late arrivals.

The meeting was arranged by Col. J. B. Wright. Percy F. Bridgewater and Robert Currie, candidates for mayor and council place 3, respectively, were among those present.

Busse To Appear In VFW Hall Friday

A capacity crowd is expected to jam the VFW Hall Friday night when Henry Busse and his orchestra play for a dance sponsored by Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 4168.

Busse's 18-piece orchestra is a top-notch attraction from coast to coast, and is extremely popular in this area. When Busse played for a dance at the VFW Hall last year, many couples were turned away from the crowded dance hall.

The orchestra plays for dances and programs in some of the nation's top dance palaces, hotels and theaters. The Palladium in Hollywood, New York's Strand Theater and Hotel New Yorker, the Chase Hotel in New Orleans, the Coconut Grove in Los Angeles and the Schroeder Hotel in Milwaukee are among the major establishments where Busse is booked.

Easter Fashion Story Given At Children's Style Show

Easter lore came to life Thursday night when the St. Ann's Mothers' Club presented its second annual Children's Style Show in the high school auditorium. The story of Flopsy, Mopsy, Cottontail and Peter was interwoven with the Spring fashion scenes in a script by Mrs. Fred Wright, Jr.

Mrs. Frank Thompson was the narrator and music to set the mood of the five scenes was furnished by Diana Daugherty, organist. The tale of Peter Rabbit was introduced in the prologue when Dinah Dorsey read a bedtime story to her sleepy little brother, played by Buck Dunn. He soon fell asleep and began dreaming of the bunny family. Mother Bunny was played by Lou Ann McGee, while the parts of Flopsy, Mopsy, Cottontail and Peter were taken by Julia Herrell, Ann Cahoon, Ann Kennedy and Dickie Dixon.

The first fashions were presented in a playtime scene with the following models: Mary Francis Glasscock, Okema Davis, Virginia Lou Wilkinson, Joan Redding, Helen Short, Judith Ann Jeter, Judy Roper, Wright, Bobby Wright, Judy Roper, Essie Stripling, Carol Swick, Mary Jo Hightower and Jean Ann Crawley.

Dances Presented
Between the scenes the students of Georgia Goss Harston gave three dance numbers. The Tyrolean Dance was presented by Claire Hood, Susan Speers and Eve Northrup. Two solo numbers were given by Susa Harston and Jackie Collier.

Scene two was the Easter parade. While the song of the same name was being sung as a duet, the young models strolled "down the avenue" in their new Easter clothes. Those participating were Elaine Ficker, Karen Keith, Mary Lou Dickey, Carolyn McKnight, Greg Lathrop, Collier Cowden, Carolyn Ray Cole, Brenda McClurg, Billy Bain, Patty Peck, Patricia Munn, Johnnie Marie Henderson, Ann Jones and Andy Cowan.

A between-the-scenes interlude featured dances by the students of Bob Richards. Leading off was a novelty tap dance given by Sally Cooper, Sara Pickett, Shirley Robertson, Sally Taylor and Andrea Beale. This was followed by Carolyn Cook doing a specialty number, "Little Rock Get-Away." A symphony

Membership Opened in New Lions Club
Membership was opened in a new Lions Club for Midland at an organizational meeting Thursday night in the South Elementary School Cafeteria. Eleven members were inducted, paid dues and were issued pins. The Rev. J. B. Stewart was elected temporary chairman of the organization. Another meeting has been called next Thursday night at the same location. Twenty members are needed as a minimum for organization. The Midland Lions Club is sponsoring the new organization and a delegation from it was present at the Thursday night organizational meeting. The club will not necessarily carry the name of any designated sector of Midland, although it is being organized to serve the South part of the city. "Midland is large enough for one or two new clubs," James Daugherty, immediate past district governor, said at a recent meeting of the Midland Lions Club.

The Social Order of Beauceants made plans in its Thursday meeting for a covered dish supper to be served to the Knights Templar March 20. The meeting was held in the Masonic Hall.

Those attending were Mrs. G. G. Hazel, Mrs. W. B. Hunter, Mrs. W. G. Epley, Mrs. Dewey Pope, Mrs. J. B. McCoy, Mrs. P. M. King, Mrs. H. M. Spangler, Mrs. L. C. Stephenson and Mrs. A. C. McNeil.

A Proclamation

Midland is fortunate in that more than 50 per cent of its girls between the ages of seven and 17 are enrolled in Girl Scout training. These girls are learning, through doing, the American way of life: self-government, where each girl accommodates herself to the large purpose and good of the group; serves the group purpose, and learns to share in both the blame and the praise of others in Scouting.

Midland Girl Scouts again this year will share in the responsibility of supporting their Girl Scout Little House by conducting a Girl Scout cookie sale Saturday. Therefore, I, William B. Neely, mayor of the City of Midland, Texas, do hereby declare Saturday, March 3, "Cookie Day" in Midland, and heartily urge each citizen to support the Midland Girl Scouts in their endeavor to maintain their Little House.

(Signed) William B. Neely Mayor

Smith Quits U. S. Post To Rejoin Pioneer Air Lines

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Robert Smith of Dallas, on leave of absence as president of Pioneer Air Lines, Thursday resigned as vice chairman of the National Security Resources Board and announced he would rejoin Pioneer.

He has been on leave from the airline since July 29, 1950, when he took the NSRB post.

Smith submitted his resignation to President Truman Wednesday effective Thursday.

The pioneer president pointed out that the main task for which he had come to Washington now was finished and he did not believe he was needed in the capital at present.

Stripling To Speak At Church Program

Robert E. Stripling will be the guest speaker Tuesday at the "Ladies Night" program given by the men of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church. The former chief investigator for the Dies Committee on Un-American Activities is from Midland.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Howard will be in charge of the arrangements. The program will be held at 6:30 p.m. in the fellowship hall of the First Presbyterian Church. Reservations may be made by calling 514 or C. E. Bissell, president of the organization, phone number 492-W.

Midlanders Organize Workshop Theater

A theatrical workshop was organized Thursday night in the City-County Auditorium by Midlanders interested in the theater. The purpose of the workshop is to give both the experienced and unexperienced actors and technicians a chance to develop their talents.

The workshop will include all phases of the theater and is open to everyone.

A nominating committee was selected to present a slate of officers at the next meeting to be held April 5. The nominating committee includes E. J. Elliott, Mrs. Robert Conkling, Mrs. Robert Fitting and Wally Jackson.

It was decided to present two one-act plays and a radio play at the next meeting. The cast, director, stage manager and crew members for each play were selected from the workshop members. The plays will be presented April 5 and will be open to members of the workshop and the Community Theater and their guests. Anyone interested in joining the workshop is asked to contact one of the nominating committee members or Art Cole.

PASTOR WILL SPEAK IN REVIVAL SERVICES

Revival services are scheduled to begin Saturday in the West Side Baptist Church. The pastor, the Rev. Alton Towery, will be the speaker for the series of services. Services will begin at 8 p.m., preceded by a prayer service at 7:30 p.m.

Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.—1 Cor. 14:20.

Petty Political Play: The Senate acted with good sense and dispatch in reporting for floor action a universal military service bill that reflects the competent testimony it heard on all sides of the issue.

Some lawmakers are demanding that the House wait until the troops-for-Europe controversy is settled. These men apparently are hoping we somehow will be able to get by with a small total of ground forces, in spite of all the firm statements of our generals that this is a dangerous course.

Would a major city which desperately needed to expand its police force put off doing it until a decision was made whether to send part of the existing inadequate force out to protect a suburb? It's hardly likely, since the basic need for more men is clear even if the present force is kept at home.

Some members of the House Armed Services Committee are looking for comfort in the Army's announced intent to avoid calling up more National Guardsmen and reservists, and to release those now on duty after two years' service.

If the Army can do this, say these men, then why do they need 18-year-olds? The legislators who raise that question must not listen carefully in committee hearing, and they certainly don't read their newspapers closely.

In the first place, the idea of universal military service is to create a huge pool of trained military manpower for use in event of a major war. The existing backlog of guardsmen and reservists does not constitute such a pool, whether these men are on active duty or not.

Secondly, the reservists and a good share of the guardsmen are veterans. They have answered one call and in a very real sense it is an injustice that these men should have to be summoned a second time.

What the congressmen actually are saying when they question the need for an 18-year-old call-up is that they're content to let veterans bear the burden another time, rather than endure a little political pain.

What is the use of presenting able testimony to these lawmakers if they are determined to ignore it and instead, as one columnist put it, to "recruit prejudices" in support of their preconceived opinions?

Lawmaking in a critical time requires men to rise above ordinary levels. It calls for fair-mindedness, for a sober sense of duty, and for backbone.

Word To The Wise: Assistant Secretary of State Edward Miller will be in Argentina before long. In the likely event that he meets President Juan Peron, he is expected to convey the notion that this country is sharply displeased at the ill-disguised efforts to silence La Prensa, the great Buenos Aires newspaper.

A government-sponsored union, by picketing the newspaper building, forced a printers' walkout that has shut the paper down for several weeks.

The move is but the newest in a series of attempts by Peron to crush an opposition voice which he finds inconvenient and uncomfortable to endure.

When La Nacion, another reasonably independent Argentine paper, took up the cudgels for La Prensa and began reprinting American editorials critical of Peron, the government press wanted to snuff out La Nacion, too.

None of this is making Argentinian good will in America, as Miller will be well advised to tell Peron.

Lots of activity in the hog market these days can be blamed on the selfish hoarders. Some folks count to 10 before starting a fight. Promoters count to several thousand.

You're safer in an auto that won't start than in one that won't stop at the proper time. Making light of your troubles makes it a lot easier for you to see your way clear.

(Copyright, 1951, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.) Drew Pearson says: Bulgarian refugee, who fled Iron Curtain, says people warned U.S.-Britain were about to attack them; Reveals so many Russian troops in Bulgaria; Bread is scarce.

BESIDE IRON CURTAIN, ADRIANOPLE, TURKEY—I have just interviewed a Bulgarian refugee who fled to safety across the Turkish borders one hour before I talked to him.

He did not know for instance, exactly what the United Nations was. He thought the Korean war was won by America, having heard the Voice of America broadcast that MacArthur was bringing U.S. troops home by Christmas.

Have a Laugh

By BOYCE HOUSE

Mr. Rabinowitz was born in Southern Europe and he did not have exactly perfect mastery of the English language, but he was a successful merchant in a small American town.

One day he was walking back to the store after lunch at home when he was overtaken by a married woman who was driving a new car and she offered to take him to the store. When the car drew up at the curb and he got out, he said, "Much obliged." She said, "Don't mention it."

He looked around, dropped his voice to a whisper and said, "Oh, no, I won't."

So They Say

Most depressions in this country have started with the loss in farm purchasing power. We can't let the farmers go broke as they did in 1929.

Too many persons in public life are compromising in order to become popular.

On questions where there is conflict in views at home and where I feel I have better sources of information, I vote in Congress on the basis of my own convictions.

Germany's split will lead to war. Germany's unification will secure peace. (Chancellor Konrad) Adenauer's attitude (refusal to negotiate unity with Communists) will lead to chauvinism and finally to civil war.

At first, Jean did not trouble herself over Teresa's defection. The shop was busy. The cutters cut, the fitters fitted, the seamstresses sewed, the models modeled, and the customers bought. Everything was as it had been and was meant to be.

Then one early October afternoon she discovered the backlog of sketches was exhausted. There were no new designs to project, no new fashions to proclaim. Immediately Jean set down and looked Mr. Panciera and reality straight in the face. No little hope or faith, no further waiting for her.

"Our rustic genius is either alive or dead," she said flatly to Mr. Panciera. "If she's dead then we are, too, and we'd better sell out quick for the best price we can get."

"But she's alive. She's much too vigorous and healthy to die on us like this. She has many years ahead of her, I'm sure."

JEAN continued to pass. From Cedarbrook came only a silence, complete and profound. Paul Panciera postponed his trip to Europe and began to live with dread by his side.

His exuberant belief in his destiny was shaken, the sunny present grew misty, and he caught himself casting furtive looks toward a chill and empty future.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY Written for NEA Service. When the hand shown today was played in a team-of-four match, the results were very instructive. One player decided to make his guess at the second trick, and fell right on his nose. The other player gathered all possible information before making his guess, and, as a result, didn't really have to guess at all.

Table with columns for NORTH, WEST, EAST, SOUTH (D), and N-S vul. It lists various card hands and scores.

made by means of a successful guess in the trump suit. However, at both tables the hand was played at three no-trump.

In the first room, South won the opening lead with the ace of spades. He then decided that the East's spade bid probably indicated some shortness in clubs. He therefore laid down the ace of clubs at the second trick.

That was the end of the hand for this declarer. He could win a spade, four hearts, a diamond, and two clubs—for a total of eight tricks. However, he could never make his ninth trick.

When the hand was played in the other room, the declarer saw no reason to jump to conclusions about the clubs. He saw that there was no harm in taking a few heart tricks first.

At the second trick therefore, South led a heart to dummy's ace and returned a heart to the king. On the second round of hearts East discarded a diamond. This was very revealing, if East were short in hearts, he was unlikely also to be short in clubs.

South continued by leading a heart towards dummy, finessing the ten. East discarded the ten of diamonds on this trick and followed with a small spade when dummy next cashed the queen of hearts.

Declarer returned to the hand with the ace of diamonds, noting carefully the fall of East's jack of diamonds. East's actual distribution was then quite clear. Declarer therefore won the first club trick with dummy's king, discovering the club break. He was then able to finesse clubs, thus scoring 11 tricks.

Ike Will Need Sharp Shears To Cut NATO Red Tape

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent. WASHINGTON—General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower assumes his new supreme command in Europe handicapped by one of the biggest bundles of red tape ever devised by the bureaucratic brain of man.

Strangely enough, the contract was the same at both tables. Six clubs could, of course, have been kept informed to keep noses from getting out of joint.

Also, off at the side is a Finance Ministers' Committee and a Shipping Production Board and a Shipping Board which have to be cut in on the picture for their responsibilities.

General Eisenhower is not working for the U. S. government, President Truman, the Department of State nor the U. S. Department of Defense directly. He is an international citizen, employed by 12 governments.

He can have no U. S. political adviser at his headquarters. If he had one, he would have to have 12. He does have a Military Liaison Staff. It is made up of 12 bright young men through whom he can communicate directly with the 12 NATO member governments, and vice versa.

General Eisenhower's command is really only one of three under the North Atlantic Treaty. A North Atlantic Ocean command, to run naval defense and shipping, is just now being set up. The third element is the U. S.-Canada command for western hemisphere operations.

General Eisenhower's own command in continental Europe is in turn being organized into three main theaters. The northern front covers Norway and Denmark. The central front covers France and Germany north of Switzerland.

The southern front covers Italy below Switzerland. Greece and Turkey, while they have been invited to become associated with the NATO countries, have not yet been included in European defenses. Spain and Yugoslavia, General Eisenhower can't even visit, because they're not in NATO.

Questions and Answers

Q—Under the new Congressional reapportionment, how many seats will the State of California gain? A—Seven House seats. This is because the population of California rose 53.8 per cent over 1940, the previous census.

Q—Do all states have official songs? A—Fewer than half of the 48 individual States have official songs of their own. Often one finds one or more widely popular songs, habitually associated with a certain State, yet possessing no official or official standing whatever.

Q—In what battle did General Jackson acquire the nickname "Stonewall"? A—The name originated during the First Battle of Manassas when Gen. Bernard Bee rallied his men with "Look there stands Jackson like a stone wall."

Q—Are kangaroo hides of commercial value? A—Yes. The hide is made into handsome leather goods and the hair coat into rugs or clothing.

The Gold Mannequin

By Myles Connolly. THE STORY: Just at the moment Paul Panciera and Jean Roland were ready to close up their exclusive cove about "Jean Paul" as a top, an unknown artist, "Teresa," whose address is General Drilvery, Cedarbrook, N. Y. submits sketches that sets them back on their feet. Teresa needs many more sketches, but Mr. Panciera and Jean are unable to find out anything about the artist, except that the payments of $25000 were satisfactory. They make a trip to Cedarbrook but no one named Teresa lives there. Mr. Panciera, planning a trip to Europe, asks Teresa in September for some new and unusually striking dresses, and receives no answer. Days pass and no word comes from the mysterious designer.

are, too, and we'd better sell out quick for the best price we can get."

"But she's alive. She's much too vigorous and healthy to die on us like this. She has many years ahead of her, I'm sure."

JEAN continued to pass. From Cedarbrook came only a silence, complete and profound. Paul Panciera postponed his trip to Europe and began to live with dread by his side.

His exuberant belief in his destiny was shaken, the sunny present grew misty, and he caught himself casting furtive looks toward a chill and empty future.

"She will write. She has to," he assured Jean Roland trying to assure himself. "It is in the necessity of things, in the inevitability of things."

At first, Jean did not trouble herself over Teresa's defection. The shop was busy. The cutters cut, the fitters fitted, the seamstresses sewed, the models modeled, and the customers bought. Everything was as it had been and was meant to be.

Then one early October afternoon she discovered the backlog of sketches was exhausted. There were no new designs to project, no new fashions to proclaim. Immediately Jean set down and looked Mr. Panciera and reality straight in the face. No little hope or faith, no further waiting for her.

"Our rustic genius is either alive or dead," she said flatly to Mr. Panciera. "If she's dead then we

San Antonio Symphony To Give Concert Here Friday

The San Antonio Symphony will give a concert at 8:15 p.m. Friday in the Midland High School Auditorium. The Midland Civic Music Association is the sponsoring organization.

Franco Auri, the guest conductor, is the regular associate conductor of the New York Philharmonic Symphony.

His first professional experiences were gained in little opera houses around Naples and Milan. In 1928 Auri came to the United States and was engaged as assistant conductor of the Pennsylvania Grand Opera Company in Philadelphia. The following year he joined the Chicago Opera Company and that Summer, became connected with the Ravinia Opera.

In 1932 he came to Texas and directed two Summer seasons of the Dallas Symphony and founded and conducted the Sinfonietta of Dallas, a string orchestra.

Later he returned to New York and joined the staff of conductors of the Federal Music Project. He later was appointed musical director and conductor of the Chautauqua Symphony Orchestra.

The San Antonio Symphony was founded 12 years ago by the late Max Reiter, its permanent musical director and conductor until his death in 1950.

Each season the orchestra gives concerts in San Antonio and other major cities in Texas.

4-H Club Has Demonstration

Pauline McWilliams gave a demonstration on selecting patterns and material at the Tuesday meeting of the Greenwood 4-H Club in the school cafeteria.

The group discussed selling coffee and sandwiches at the stock show. Girls who will sell are Ada Jane Meisner, Joyce Graham, Betty Hughes and Sandra Roberts.

The bedroom demonstrators will meet at 2:15 p.m. Tuesday with Mrs. Luther Eggleston, adult leader.

Others attending were Sally Harding, Edith Eggleston, Uvonne Rutledge, Aileta Russell, Flora Olea, Jimmie Nell Rutledge, Patsy Morgan, Janice Bohannon, Judy Blocker, Helen Albrely and Mrs. Eggleston.

George Washington was the only President of the United States who never lived in the 19th century.

AAUW Writing Group Meets

Mrs. Forbes B. Pennycook was hostess to the Creative Writing Group of the American Association of University Women at a meeting Wednesday night in her home.

Mrs. John S. Powell gave a report on several articles from the magazine, "The Writer." The group also discussed other writers' magazines including "The Writer's Digest" and "Pen Money." Some of the members' work was read and discussed.

Refreshments were served to 10 members and guests.

Transmission of pictures over telephone wire first was demonstrated on May 19, 1924.

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Salt Sank The Ship

The sky was blue above. Great white clouds were sailing across it like beautiful ships. The sight was pretty to see. Daddy Ringtail said it was. Mugwump said it was too. "Daddy Ringtail," said Mugwump, "why is the water in the sea so salty?"

Daddy Ringtail began to answer the question by telling the story of a magic day in the long ago. A man had a magic mill with a spout. When the man said magic words to the mill, out from the spout would pour anything that the man was wanting.

"What about an elephant?" asked Mugwump. "Would an elephant pour out?"

Daddy explained that elephants don't pour. Only water and sugar and salt and things like that will pour if you have enough and a something to pour them out of.

"Anyway," said Daddy Ringtail, "the man would say the magic words, and out from the spout would pour the thing the man was wanting."

Said Mugwump: "What were the magic words he said?"

Well, Daddy Ringtail didn't know the magic word, because the man would always whisper them, but one day the captain of a ship from far away was listening when he shouldn't have been. He heard the magic word. Yes, and he slipped away with the magic mill and took it away to his ship. He said the magic word for salt to pour out. He wanted to fill his ship with salt, and then to sail away home to sell it.

The salt poured out from the spout of the mill. It poured out and out and out in a stream that might have been water if salt had been what it wasn't. Salt, salt, salt, and more salt until at last the ship was full.

Oh, the captain tried to stop the mill from its pouring of salt, but he couldn't. He hadn't heard the magic words to do he stopping. And so at last the ship was so full of salt that it sank to the bottom of the ocean. But the little mill kept pouring out salt, salt, salt and more salt. It pours out salt to this very day. Daddy Ringtail explained, and that is why the ocean water is salty. And that was the happy end of the story that really happened, play-like. Happy day!

U. S. Gets Blame For Indecent Books

LONDON (AP)—Home Secretary Chuter Ede has ordered a country-wide drive against indecent publications. They are said to be mostly of American origin.

They are reprinted by small-town printers in this country, and are believed to be circulated through a lending library which spreads indecent literature throughout Britain. Some of the books are typewritten and leave little to the imagination. Traffic in indecent literature and pictures is said to have had a startling increase in the last two years.

Texas Luck Gains Cage Playoff Edge

AUSTIN—(P)—The playoff to pick the Southwest Conference representative in the regional NCAA basketball tournament was set Friday, and the luck of Texas' Jack Gray gave the Longhorns an edge.

Gray called three coin tosses correctly here Thursday and won (1) a first round bye, (2) "home" team honors in the final playoff series.

Texas Christian and Texas A&M tangle at 8:30 p.m. next Thursday at Waco.

The winner of this "sudden death" game will meet Texas in a two-out-of-three game series. If Texas Christian wins Wednesday, the TCU-Texas series will start March 19 at Fort Worth. The second and third games—if needed—will be played in Austin March 13 and 14 or March 12 and 14, depending upon the availability of Gregory Gym.

If Texas A&M wins, the series will start March 10 at College Station, then switch to Austin on March 13 and 14 or March 12 and 14.

Gray, A&M Coach John Floyd and Texas Christian Coach Buster Brannon met with Abbe Curtis to make the playoff plans. The three teams tied for the Southwest Conference championship. The playoff will have no bearing on the conference, the three being official tri-champions.

In the last shot of the conference campaign, Arkansas beat Rice 57-43 Thursday night at Little Rock.

The final conference standings:

Team	W	L	Pct
Texas Christian	8	4	.667
Texas A&M	8	4	.667
Texas	8	4	.667
Arkansas	7	5	.583
Southern Methodist	6	6	.500
Baylor	3	9	.250
Rice	2	10	.167

Blackwell, With Nothing To Lose, Sees Good Season

TAMPA, Fla. — (P) — Lane shoulder in 1948, kidney operation in 1949, appendicitis in 1950. What does 1951 hold for Ewell Blackwell?

"Nothing left to cut out," says Blackwell. "I ought to be all right this time."

Blackwell still bends with a high wind. Even at 200 pounds he is a willowy six-foot-six. But so far, he's healthy. And that's bad news to National League hitters.

The surgeons carved Blackwell but nobody sliced that murderous side arm slinker. The fast ball still comes by way of third base to give righthanded hitters the shakes.

"How's Blacky?" you ask on arrival at the Cincinnati camp. The answer is "Great." Right away you are reminded the National League's last 25-game winners both pitched for the Reds. They were Paul Derringer and Bucky Walters in 1939.

Blackwell doesn't talk about 25 or even 20. "As many as I can," he says. But he has his eye on the 20's. Last year he struggled through a miserable early season, and still wound up 17-15.

"I might have made 20," he says. "When I came down with that appendicitis attack I had two more turns. And I might have got another on relief. Maybe it cost me the slickout lead too. Sphahnle (Boston's Warren Spahn) beat me out by only three."

Training Camp Briefs

Williams Looks Good In Batting Practice

SARASOTA, Fla. — (P) — Ted Williams connected solidly against only three of the 38 pitches tossed him in his first 1951 batting practice but his Boston Red Sox teammates were impressed by his performance.

"He was facing Ellis Kinder and Harry Taylor and they were really throwing," Manager Steve O'Neill pointed out. After watching Williams take all of his swings, Trainer Jack Fadden was certain Williams' fractured elbow would be as strong as ever inside a month.

Puerto Rican Stabs At Jethroe's Position

BRADENTON, Fla. — (P) — Puerto Rican Luis Marquez has a one-day start on Sam Jethroe for the Boston Braves first-string center field berth. Jethroe was one of the 10 Tribe players to miss the combined squad's first workout. An off-day absentee was Manager Billy Southworth, now the club's thirteenth gripe victim.

Marquez displayed much of Jethroe's famed speed and his hitting was far from being impressive.

Uncle Sam Reaches For Cub First Sacker

AVALON, Calif. — (P) — It was blue Thursday for Chicago Cub Manager Frankie Frisch. Rain pelted Catalina Island and cancelled workouts. In the midst of the bad weather came word from Preston Ward, No. 1 first base candidate, that Uncle Sam instead of the Cubs probably would get his services.

Rain Cancels Drills

PASADENA, Calif. — (P) — Chicago White Sox drills were washed out by a heavy downpour Thursday.

Big Ralph Kiner Reports For Workouts

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. — (P) — Big Ralph Kiner, the National League home run king, expected to take his first workout with the Pittsburgh Pirates Friday. Kiner, whose slugging was the only bright spot in the Pirates lineup last year, said he feels "great."

Vanishing Indians Worry Hank Greenberg

TUCSON, Ariz. — (P) — Cleveland's general manager, Hank Greenberg, still was looking for some vanishing Indians Friday. Pitcher Mike Garcia and Second Baseman Roberto Avila, both official holdouts, haven't showed up for training yet.

In addition, he still hasn't spotted Outfielder Thurman Tucker, First Baseman Herb Conyers and Outfielder-Third Baseman Orestes Minoza.

Avila was stranded in Juarez, Mexico, with visa difficulties; Garcia is holding out for more money at his Visalia, Calif., home, and the others are just late.

Canyon, Marfa Go Down In Tourney; Stanton Advances

AUSTIN—(P)—Finalists will be determined in two divisions of the Texas High School Basketball Tournament Friday, while a third—Class AA—swings into action.

Cayuga tangled with Stanton and Big Sandy met Moulton Friday morning in the semi-finals of Class B, and then Gatesville tackled Bowie and Sinton ran into Brenham at the same stage in Class A.

Argentina Rolls Up Cycling Victories To Hold Lead In Games

BUENOS AIRES — (P) — Argentina matched cycling victories against the United States track triumph to hold on to the unofficial leadership in the first Pan American games as athletes entered the fourth day of competition Friday.

However, whatever humiliation the U. S. may suffer when all the returns are in has been softened considerably by Mal Whitfield's leading his teammates to the first grand slam of the games in the 800-meter run, and Bob Richards' pole vault performance was like nothing ever seen before in South America.

The unofficial point totals now stand:

Argentina 221, United States 179, Mexico 59, Chile 55, Brazil 48, Peru 43, Cuba 15, Colombia 11, Ecuador 7, Trinidad 5, Jamaica 4, Panama 3, Guatemala 2 and Paraguay 1. Newly-crowned champions: 800-meter run—Mal Whitfield, U. S., 1:53.2. Pole vault—Bob Richards, U. S., 14 feet, 9 1/4 inches. Discus—Jim Fuchs, U. S., 160 feet, 4 inches. 5,000-meter run—Gicardo Braio, Argentina, 14:57.20. Women's 100-meter dash—Julia Sanchez Diaz, Peru, 1:22. Three-meter dive—Joaquin Capilla Perez, Mexico. 50-meter small bore rifle kneeling and standing team—Argentina. 4,000-meter individual "persecution" cycling—Jorge Vallmitjana, Argentina. 1,000-meter sprint cycling—Antonio Gimenez, Argentina. Australian elimination 40-lap cycling—Ezequiel Ramirez, Chile.

Lamesa Schedules Tryouts For Negroes

LAMESA — (P) — The Lamesa Lobos of the Class C West Texas-New Mexico Baseball League will give negroes a chance to make the team March 19. If any are signed, it will be the first time negroes ever played in organized baseball in Texas. Manager Jay Haney said any interested negro player is invited to attend a one-day tryout at his own expense. Traveling expenses will be refunded to any signed.

Haney said club officials decided to stage the tryout after many negroes asked for a chance when they heard Haney might use two Cuban negroes on his team this year.

Yale's Line Coach Accepts Tech Post

LUBBOCK — (P) — Yale University's line coach is moving to Texas Tech. James Wyatt Posey, 32, Thursday signed a one-year contract to be Tech's line coach. DeWitt Weaver, Tech's new head coach and athletic director, wouldn't announce details of the contract.

Posey served as head coach at South Georgia College from 1947 through 1949. His teams lost only three games, one of them a bowl game. He coached two winning bowl teams.

He was graduated from the University of Georgia in 1942 and served five years in the Army.

Basketball Games On Statewide Network

A statewide radio network of 31 stations will carry the Final AA, A and B Championship games of the State High School Basketball Tournament Saturday direct from Gregory Gymnasium in Austin. The broadcast will begin at 2 p.m. with the Conference B game, while the Conference A game will be heard beginning at 3:35 p.m. The night broadcast of the Conference AA game will begin at 9:15.

The afternoon and night broadcasts will be carried by Radio Stations KBST—Big Spring, KCRB—Midland, KOSA—Odessa, KIUN—Pecos, KGKL—San Angelo.

Poul Ball Injures Cards' Stan Musial

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — (P) — Stan Musial became the St. Louis Cardinals' first casualty of the Spring training season. He was struck by a lone foul ball that broke a blood vessel in his left ankle Thursday.

King's Row

By LARRY KING

From a few comments we slipped around to hear, it would seem Midland fans are pleased over the signing of infielder Eddie Mellillo by Harold Webb and H. W. Donohoo.

Mellillo had penned a note to the Midland baseball men last week, saying he would like to return here to play baseball since Midland was the scene of his first real professional action and Webb was his first pro manager at Clovis, before he came here.

Two of Midland's four class men already are signed. Besides Mellillo, there's Hurier Leon (Hook) Hayes, Eddie Jacome, another hurler recently purchased from Longview, and if he links an Indian pact.

Then there's always the possibility Catcher Kenny Jones, Shortstop Scooter Hughes and First Baseman Jim Prince will fall to stick with Oklahoma City. If so, since they all were sold on an optional basis, Midland will have a chance to get them back.

Even should the three stick with Oklahoma City, Webb and Donohoo have a couple more class men in mind.

If the class limit is raised when the Longhorn loop officials again meet—March 11—then the Indians will be sitting pretty.

Another Midland baseball man has been called into the service. He's Bob Philion, catcher-outfielder of the '50 team.

Philion sent a note to Indian Business Manager Horace Busby saying he has been ordered to report for induction. He wintered in Somerville, Mass.

San Angelo baseball officials deplored last week that Jimmy McClure would be with the Colts this season. But Friday the Colts announced that the southpaw hurler will be back with the San Angelo team—but only as a pitcher and pinch hitter this time. McClure was the Colt manager last season.

He won 18 games and lost nine last season, even though bothered by a sore arm. His earned run average was a very good 1.98 and he hit .298.

More mail on Midland's past grid record and grid stars: A letter, unsigned—said Olen Fryar was one of Midland's best backs ever, scoring 48 points in 1930 and 62 points in 1931.

The letter relates that Fryar also was quite a defensive man. It also was called to our attention that Stanton had a tackle named Woodrow Wilson in 1930 who later was named to some All-America teams while performing with Army.

Jimmy Chaucery, former MHS athlete, drops us a line from Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio. Chaucery just finished his basic training and now is waiting assignment. Max Harris, who tolled some for the Midland Indians last year as a pitcher, also went through the basic training session with Chaucery.

The two Midland boys report they are starting to get ready for the baseball season. Chaucery, a catcher, is giving Harris a target at which to throw.

And still another Longhorn League player answers the call to colors.

Latest to go is Roswell's Cotton Lindloff, third baseman and outfielder with the Rocket team last season. He has just passed his Army physical and expects to report for service any day.

DOTS AND DASHES: Jack Russell, former Baylor star and now a New York Yankee, is working with Baylor ends in Spring training now. . . . He has three good ones to work with in Harold Riley, Stan Williams and Bob Trout. . . . Latin American and West staging a rugged battle for the Elementary fifth grade cage championship here. . . . One more victory by the Latins would set it up for them. . . . Stan continues to hit the free throws. . . . The Buffs made 16 of 21 against Big Spring and 15 of 19 against Midland earlier in the year but lost both. . . . However, Leo Fields laid hit 'em all season and still are doing so in the state meet. . . . The Bison now have won 30 games and lost two. . . . Paul Nolen leading Texas Tech scoring and also Border conference point making. . . . He's averaged 18.1 in 13 games, using his six-foot, 10-inch frame to advantage. . . . End of the Row for now!

Ferris Fall Re-signs With Philadelphia's

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. — (P) — With all but two players on hand, the Philadelphia Athletics got down to the real grind of Spring training Friday.

Best news in the camp, of course, was the re-signing of First Baseman Ferris Fair.

Western Plastic Falls In Tourney

ODESSA—Phillips of Odessa slashed Western Plastic Company of Midland 54-38 and Odessa Bill Hale Motors whipped Crane Sheriff's Posse 58-37 here Thursday night in first round play of the Texas Amateur Athletic Federation tourney.

The winner of the tournament will earn a trip to the state TAAF meet in Houston later this month. Finals will be unreeled Saturday night.

Friday's action will find Midland's Rotary Engineers playing Holder Grocery of Odessa at 7 p.m. and the McCamey News Publishing Company five going against Garden City All-Stars at 9 p.m.

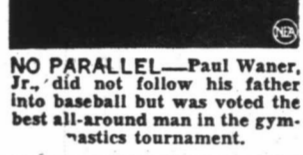

Phillips broke out in front early and led Western Plastic all the way, being in front 30-12 at halftime. Everett Thrill scored 13 to pace the winners. Western Plastic's Bryan Clark tallied 14 points.

Lefty Roberson paced Hale, hitting for 17 tallies. Carl Hesel topped Crane with 11 points. It was 31-15, Hale, at halftime.

The score:

Phillips (54)	Fg	Ft	Pt
Thrill	6	1	23
Pulliam	3	2	8

NO PARALLEL—Paul Waver, Jr., did not follow his father into baseball but was voted the best all-around man in the gymnastics tournament.

Mystery Witness In Cage Scandal Jailed In Florida

NEW YORK—(P)—A mystery witness brought from Florida was to be questioned Friday in the ever-widening probe of fixed college basketball games.

The witness, a man said to have been brought here by Assistant District Attorney William P. Sirignano, is reported by some sources to be a former Long Island University player. However, District Attorney Frank S. Hogan's office refused to identify him.

Announcement that the man would be brought here and questioned came soon after the district attorney hounded by Eddie Gard, accused go-between in the game-fixing scandal, and Harvey Schaff, suspended New York University player.

Hogan said "questions were answered" by Schaff and Gard, but he would not promise new developments "immediately."

Schaff and Gard, former Long Island University player, are among 12 big-time college players or former players arrested on bribe charges since the scandal was disclosed.

Ferrier Sets Pace At St. Petersburg

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — (P) — For a tournament that figured to be dominated by youngsters of the golf tour, the $10,000 St. Petersburg Open had a look of "egg" about it at Friday's beginning of the second round.

Jim Ferrier, big Australian who plays from San Francisco, held first place with a near-record seven-under-par 64. His age—36.

Tied for second place were Pete Cooper of Ponte Verda Beach, Fla., aged 36, and Skee Riegel of Tulsa, Okla., also at 36. Each of them went around the 6,285-yard Pasadena course in 67.

Youth was still around, though. Tom Talkington, 24-year-old, linkyman of Royal Oak, Mich., playing his second major tournament, was one of 10 players tied for fourth place with 68.

Tourneys To Name Texas Entries In National JC Event

Regional tournaments will be held in Texas this week and next to determine representatives to the National Junior College Athletic Association Basketball Tournament in Hutchinson, Kan.

At Amarillo Friday night and Saturday, Howard County, Cisco, Amarillo and Clarendon Junior College will vie.

At Tyler March 8-9-10, seven colleges will compete. They are Victoria, Henderson County, Lon Morris, Wharton County, Allen Academy, Tyler and Kilgore.

Barking Dogs Bring Trouble To Boy, 14

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind.—(AP)—Jackie Wyatt, 14, wouldn't have got in trouble if the dogs hadn't started barking. On the other hand, Jackie leaped out of an upstairs window to see what the family Dalmatians were barking about, lost his balance and tumbled out. He slid down a porch roof, flipped in mid-air and broke his right leg when he landed.
The boy couldn't arouse the family, but the dogs kept barking. Two hours later, Jackie's father, John Wyatt, heard them and looked outside to investigate. He found the boy trying to crawl toward the house.
An average of 87 persons a day are killed in traffic in the United States.

AURORA, Ont.—(AP)—Transport drivers who stop in the all night coffee shop here ask for "bacon and Bach," or "coffee and Strauss." The shop has an electric organ on which Rudy Dicaro of North Bay plays request numbers and he's pleased at the number who want good music.

India Has No Plans To Make Atom Bomb

NEW DELHI—(AP)—India is seeking out the raw materials of atomic energy and building plants to process them, but it plans to make no atomic bombs. This country's Atomic Energy commission emphasizes the uranium, thorium and beryllium being mined in India will be used for peaceful purposes only.
Veins of uranium—some quite large—have been found in parts of India. Beryl is common, and there are large deposits of monazite sands.

SERVICE FOR CONFERES
KARACHI—(AP)—Delegates who attended the third annual Moslem conference got clipped—free of charge. The Pakistan Barbers Association gave free haircuts to all delegates.

HOUR OF DECISION...

For a certain proud young father, this is a red letter day, and rightfully so! Certainly few events in his life hold greater significance for man than the hour when at last he beholds his first-born, a tiny, fragile, human being, but just then the most important person on earth.

But on such a day the new father should pause for a moment of serious reflection. The new arrival is a challenge and a grave responsibility.

Will Dad conscientiously attempt to establish a pattern of life exemplifying Christ's teachings, which his child may accept as a model? Or will the youngster be forced to make his own search for God?

Bring your little one to God's House. Here he will learn of the Heavenly Father and His wondrous love. Here is priceless training for character building, and a fruitful, satisfying life.

HOLY BIBLE

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Swallowing Seeds Rarely Can Be Blamed For Appendicitis

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service

Mrs. E. asks whether there is any way a wife can help her husband who is suffering from a persecution complex, "not at home but from all others he is in contact with." Another reader inquires if there is any cure for a guilt obsession, and if so what.

These questions show how much misery is caused when the mental processes get out of balance. And unfortunately there is no easy answer or quick cure to suggest. Some complexes such as these can be helped and some not. A visit to a psychiatrist (mental specialist) is in order.

Q—Is it true that swallowing seeds, such as grape, can cause appendicitis?

A—You should get a more accurate diagnosis than this.

Q—I have a goiter and have been told that it is making me nervous and it should be removed. But you recently wrote about multiple sclerosis and some of my symptoms are the same so I wonder if the operation would do any good?

A—A goiter does not cause multiple sclerosis and the two conditions are hard to confuse. It would be wise for you to follow the advice of someone who knows your case!

Q—What are the symptoms of tic douloureux and what can be done for it? This person has it on the left side of his face.

A—This is a neuralgia involving the trigeminal nerve which supplies part of the face and surrounding structures. The most outstanding symptom is extremely severe pain, usually on one side of the face only. The treatments most often employed are injections of alcohol into the nerve and cutting the nerve surgically. Anyone with this affliction deserves our greatest sympathy.

Q—Is cancer of the uterus or any other kind of cancer common among adolescents?

A—Cancer of all kinds is uncommon among adolescents though it can occur.

Q—The glands on the right side of my neck are enlarged and at times give me a choking sensation. Could this come from nerves?

A—The two most likely possibilities are enlarged lymph glands from infection or some internal disease, and goiter. You should consult your physician at once in order to find the exact cause.

Q—Can acid stomach or hypertension of the stomach over many years lead to cancer or other serious trouble?

A—The stomach is normally acid and what hypertension of the stomach is I haven't the faintest.

Monahans Methodist Church 'Over Top' On Building Fund

MONAHANS—The Methodist Church building fund campaign, which was launched six weeks ago with a goal of $100,000, went over the top with a total subscription of $110,724 as more than 200 members and friends of the church gathered at the school cafeteria Wednesday night for a victory dinner and to give thanks for the success of the campaign.

At the close of the solicitation workers' reports a total of $89,894.60 had been subscribed.

A number of supplemental pledges were added to previous pledges and an additional $12,000 contribution by Mrs. Recessa Estes Gray brought the grand total to $110,724.

Spiritual Life

The Rev. J. N. Whetstone, pastor, and O. G. Rudy, general campaign chairman, said the drive not only was a financial success but had a deepening effect on the spiritual life of the church.

Special music was provided at the victory dinner by Mrs. B. B. Cantrell's junior choir under the direction of Mrs. W. D. Parker. Mrs. Kate Arent was at the piano.

Mrs. H. L. Stuckey's Philathea Bible Class prepared and served a turkey dinner.

COTTON FOR JORDAN

AMMAN, Jordan—(AP)—The Jordan Government is encouraging cotton planting in the Jordan Valley, north of the Dead Sea, Low-stem body of water in the world. Tens of thousands of acres have been purchased for distribution to farmers in the area and new irrigation wells are under construction.

Continental Buys Seven New Liners

DENVER, COLO.—Continental Air Lines, Inc., announced Friday the purchase of seven additional Convair-Liners, model 340, from the Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corporation at San Diego, at a cost of $4,300,000.

The purchase agreement provides an option for Continental to acquire three extra Convair-Liners, if desired at the time of delivery, to begin in September, 1952.

The seven new planes will augment Continental's fleet of five Convair-Liners and 10 Douglas DC-3 21-passenger transports.

Robert F. Six, president of Continental, in announcing the plans for expansion of the company's fleet of planes, pointed out that the major change of the 340 model from the 240 Convair-Liner is the increase in passenger complement from 40 to 44.

Take Off Ugly Fat With This Home Recipe

Here is an inexpensive home recipe for taking off unguilty weight and helping to bring back aluring curves and graceful slenderness. Just get from your drugstore, slenderness, four ounces of liquid Brountrax. Add enough grapefruit juice to make a pint. Then just take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. Wonderful results may be obtained quickly. Now you may slim down your figure and lose pounds of ugly fat without taking anything harmful. If the very first way to lose bulky weight and help regain slender, more graceful curves, return the empty bottle and get your money back.
