Texas Gulf Producing Company of Midland is to start operations at once at its No. 1 Texas-American Syndicate, which is slated to be an 8,000-foot wildcat to test the Ellenburger in Southwest Crane County. The prospector will be 960 feet from northeast and southeast lines of section 25, block 4, H&TC survey. That makes it nine miles east of Grandfalls, six miles west of the Tucker field and eight miles northwest of the Abell field, which is in North Pecos County.

The Texas Gulf exploration is being supported by Sinclair Oil & Gas Company. It will drill to 8,000 feet, unless it gets a test of the full Ellenburger section at a lesser depth.

Clear Fork Test Is Slated For Andrews

Sinclair Oil & Gas Company has spotted location for its No. 1 R. A. Cox, which is to be drilled as a wildcat in extreme Northwest Andrews County.

The prospector is contracted to go to 7,600 feet to test the Clear Fork.

The drillsite is 660 feet from west and south lines of section 8, block A-30, psi survey. That makes it 27 miles northwest of the town of Andrews and 10 miles east of Eunice. Location also falls three miles south of the Gaines County line and five miles east of the New Mexico-Texas state line. Elevation at the location is 3,410 feet.

Shallow Explorer Is Staked In Pecos

In North Pecos County, 14 miles southwest of the town of Imperial, R. H. (Bob) Henderson of Midland has made location for his No. 1 Hines, which will be drilled as a 3,000-foot cable tool wildcat. Drillsite is 390 feet from west and 1,650 feet from south lines of section 11, block 112, TC survey. Operations are to start at once.

Cable Tool Wildcat Slated For Reeves

J. J. Gerhardt of Midland has spotted location for a 2,800-foot cable tool wildcat in extreme Northwest Reeves County, five miles west of Orta.

The prospector will be drilled as Gerhardt's No. 1 P. B. Wilson, 330 feet from north and east lines of section 48, block 58, T-2-S, T&P survey.

That puts it two miles east of the Culberson County line and four and one-quarter miles west of the Chapman field.

SE Midland Test Is To Run Casing

Magnolia Petroleum Company is preparing to test casing to make production tests at its No. 1 Arch Benge West-Central Midland County exploration, which is one location southeast of the same concern's No. 1 Timmerman, Pennsylvania discovery.

Magnolia No. 1 Benge took a four and one-half hour drillstem test in the top of the Pennsylvanian porosity at 10,485-557 feet. A 1,600-foot water blanket was used. Gas surfaced in 65 minutes. Gas volume was at the rate of 40,000 cubic feet per day.

No Water Signs Recovery was the 1,600-foot water blanket, which was heavily oil and gas cut, and 750 feet of gas cut and slightly oil cut drilling mud. There were no signs of formation water.

Top of the Pennsylvanian porosity was at 10,480 feet, which is 25 feet low to the same point in the No. 1 Timmerman.

Location is 660 feet from west and 1,980 feet from north lines of section 9, block 40, T-3-S, T&P survey. It is 12 1/2 miles southwest of the City of Midland.

Magnolia No. 1-A Parks, a one-location northeast offset to the Timmerman discovery had reached 5,390 feet in line and is drilling deeper. It is located 660 feet from south and west lines of section 15, Charles F. O'Neill survey, A-876.

House Redistricting Is Completed

129-4 Vote Puts Bill On Shivers' Desk

AUSTIN—(P)—The House Tuesday completed action on the legislative redistricting bill and sent it to the governor.

The action finished the Legislature's part in reapportioning the representatives' districts according to the last population count.

Monday, the state senatorial redistricting measure was sent to the governor. This is the first redistricting in the state since 1921.

The House agreed to a minor Senate change in its redistricting bill Tuesday by a 129-4 vote. There was no discussion.

A resolution calling for an investigation of organized crime in Texas was introduced by Rep. Clyde Whiteside of Seymour.

Whiteside's resolution said there was evidence the laws of Texas were being "openly and flagrantly violated by organized crime."

It was similar to a resolution by George Nokes of Corsicana, except

The new legislative districts in the Midland area, as provided by the redistricting bill passed Tuesday, include:

District 99—Lynn, Dawson, Gaines and Andrews.
District 101—Martin, Howard, Glasscock, Sterling, Reagan and Irian.
District 102—Midland, Crane, Upton and Pecos.
District 103—Winkler and Ector.
District 104—Hudspeth, Calhoun, Loving, Ward, Reeves, Jeff Davis and Presidio.

The House plan calls for study now and between sessions. The Senate proposal calls for a current investigation only.

Grand Jury Bill Approved Whiteside's resolution was referred to the State Affairs Committee. Nokes' resolution also is in committee.

An anti-crime bill which would allow grand juries to remain in continuous session for a year received special House attention Tuesday.

Within a matter of minutes, the House passed the bill by a heavy majority. The vote was 116-5.

The author, Rep. H. A. (Salty) Hull of Fort Worth, said the grand jury in Tarrant County is in the midst of an investigation of crime in his county to keep the jury in session to finish the investigation.

The House adopted an amendment making provisions of the bill effective only for one year. The measure now goes to the Senate.

Committee action Monday brought unanimous approval of a proposed constitutional amendment to knock off the $35,000,000-a-year ceiling on public welfare. The House Agriculture Committee did not consider the question of requiring a state mortgage on property of persons receiving old age assistance.

1,000 First Marine Vets Of Korea Land In San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO—(P)—Some 1,000 Marine veterans of Korea began wading ashore Tuesday through three days of red tape—all that separates them from a furlough home.

The veterans—1,167 First Division leathernecks who came cheering through the Golden Gate Monday—were promised they would be paid off and granted 30-day leaves by Friday, if possible.

The Leathernecks are veterans of the bitter, battling retreat from Changjin Reservoir. Most of them were wounded, 400 convalescing. But all were walking. And all happy to be among the first returned home under the Marines' new rotation system.

They lined the rails of the transport U.S.S. Breckinridge shouting: "Have no fear, the First is here."

Wives, sweethearts, wounded buddies and officials greeted them.

Army Asks 60,000 Draftees In May

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Army Tuesday called for 60,000 men from the draft in May.

This brings the total Army requests for draftees to 590,000 since drafting began last year.

The other military services depend upon voluntary enlistments for their manpower.

The Army call for 60,000 in May is 20,000 under the monthly requests it has made since January.

GI's, Marines Gain Against Battling Reds

TOKYO—(P)—Parkia-clad American Marines, attacking over new-fallen snow, drove slowly ahead Tuesday in Central Korea. The Chinese Reds resisted bitterly.

The Leathernecks were pushing toward the key communications hub of Hongchon, 15 miles north of recaptured Heongsong. Some of the Marine elements were 11 miles from Hongchon.

On the Marines' right flank, elements of the U. S. Second Division were reported to have advanced more than a mile despite the snowstorm. This was in an area southeast of Heongsong and north of a lateral highway.

AP Correspondent Nate Polowesky said the Doughboys found "hundreds of enemy dead" in the area.

The Chinese Reds are believed to have concentrated their largest frontline forces at Hongchon. General MacArthur said another big Red force—the Chinese Third Field Army—is moving toward the front from Northeast Korea to support the Communist Fourth Field Army.

MacArthur's report was the first indication of a large shift by the Third Field Army. He said it was comprised of several army corps, possibly up to 90,000 men.

Lowest temperatures forecast Tuesday night are 22-30 in the Panhandle; 28-34 in the South Plains, and near freezing in the upper Red River Valley. A few snow flurries also were indicated for the Panhandle late Tuesday night and Wednesday.

There was no indication of a third great ice storm like the others Texas has suffered this Winter.

However, the weather will feel considerably cooler because of high temperatures the last few days. Six points reported minimums of 68 degrees Monday night. They were Big Spring, Brownsville, Houston, Corpus Christi, Laredo and Alice. The lowest temperature recorded was 43 at Salt Flat.

Monday's maximums ranged from 70 at Texarkana to 87 at Laredo.

It was warm and cloudy over most of the state Tuesday.

Scores Flock To Pay Off Tickets

Scores of overtime parking offenders began making voluntary payment of fines this week as city police began checking up on those who have failed to report after receiving violation tickets.

More than 50 persons reported at the police station Monday to pay fines of $1 before warrants were issued against them, in accordance with plans announced Saturday by the department.

Others were parading into police headquarters Tuesday.

At the same time Assistant City Attorney Ed Sutt continued the preparation of warrants to be served on those who have received traffic tickets but failed to show up.

He issued a dozen Monday against persons who have received moving traffic violation tickets. He said about two dozen would be issued Tuesday against overtime parking offenders.

By The Half-Dozen One man appeared at the police station Monday and produced a half-dozen red tickets.

"I've been carrying these around a long time," he said. "I guess I'd better pay them before you come after me."

Another man walked in and tossed a red ticket in front of Mrs. Gene Butler, the police department secretary, and said he wanted to pay it.

Mrs. Butler took one look at it and gave it back.

It wasn't a violation ticket, although it was the same color and size and the man reported he had found it stuck in his windshield wiper.

It was only an advertisement from a service station and on it were printed the words:

"We have shown you the courtesy of dropping a nickel in your parking meter."

"Please show us the courtesy of doing business with us some time."

Deputies Hopeful Of Agreement On Big Four Agenda

PARIS—(P)—Deputies of the four great powers went into their second session Tuesday in an attempt to find out whether a conference of foreign ministers on international tensions can be arranged.

The four deputies were expected to get down to cases, after the general statements Monday by the West and the Soviet Union on what they believe should be discussed in a major Big Four parity. Tuesday's session well could tell the story whether a conference will be possible.

At the first meeting Monday, two agenda proposals were presented—one jointly by Britain, the United States and France, the other by Russia.

A French spokesman said later he thought the two suggested slates could be brought together.

Two Bellhops Fined On Bootleg Charges Two negro bellhops were fined a total of $500 Tuesday morning when they pleaded guilty before Judge Clifford C. Keith in County Court to charges of illegal sale of intoxicating liquor.

Both are employed at a Midland hotel. One was fined $200, the other $300.

'This Is Midland' On Display At New Downtown Location

"This Is Midland," the beautiful painting of Midland's skyline, went on display Tuesday in the show window of the Midland Hardware and Furniture Company. It will remain on display there several days before being moved to another location.

Saint-Lou, the noted French artist who painted the typical scene and donated it to the citizens of Midland, will be at the Midland Hardware and Furniture Company to visit with those who come to see and inspect the painting. Several others of Saint-Lou's paintings also are on exhibit in the show window.

Auction Sale Planned The Midland scene, painted from a location near the intersection of Wall and Baird Streets, will be sold to the highest bidder by The Reporter - Telegram with the entire proceeds going to the Midland Memorial Hospital.

Saint-Lou and his wife are visiting Midland while on a tour of the United States. They arrived here from Dallas about three weeks ago. Prominent in painting, music, movie and writing circles of France, Saint-Lou has been termed by many as France's "ambassador of good will."

He has established a temporary studio at El Campo Moderno here. Citizens of Midland and area cities are invited and urged to view the "This Is Midland" painting.

Four New Victims Increase Midwest Storm Toll To 20

By The Associated Press A new blizzard and cold wave knifed into the snow-plugged upper Midwest region Tuesday, leaving at least four victims frozen in Western Canada and Montana.

The storm, accompanied by intense cold, scudded across Western Canada and Montana and pushed into Wyoming and the Dakotas. Cold wave warnings were issued for Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas.

A mother and her two children died during a horseback ride from their stalled car in the Montana blizzard. More than 35 passengers of three stalled buses were marooned overnight in 20-below-zero cold in Alberta, Canada. In British Columbia, the frozen body of Mrs. A. Weisner, 40, was found a short distance from the spot she left a midnight bus during the storm.

The storm—third in the Midwest in seven days—cut visibility to zero and sent the mercury skidding far below zero in Montana and North Dakota. It brought the week's storm death toll to at least 20.

Public Schools Week Reminds Citizens Of New Services Inaugurated Under G-A Laws

Public Schools Week is being observed in Texas, reminding citizens of the important part the schools play in developing the youth of the state.

The recent passage of the Gilmer-Aikin Bill by the state's legislative bodies brought about many changes and improvements in Texas' schools.

Under the Gilmer-Aikin laws, several new positions and services have been added to the school system of the Midland Independent School District.

Jack Mashburn, a member of the coaching staff at Midland High School a number of years, was selected to serve as dean of students. He is in charge of student guidance, with various responsibilities ranging from counseling to compiling personal records on students.

Exceptional Children
A teacher of exceptional children also has been added since the passage of the G-A bill. Mrs. Rachel Drake is the instructor of students who are handicapped in some way that under ordinary teaching conditions would retard their development.

Other developments brought about by the G-A laws include the appointment of R. C. Michener as consultant of music. He is in charge of vocal music training in all the Midland schools, in addition to directing and teaching the vocal groups and classes of the high school.

Mrs. Marion Owen is the Midland school nurse, and is in charge of the health programs for all schools.

Luscious Liz' New Romance Leaves MGM In The Dust

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD — Exclusively Yours: The Elizabeth Taylor-Stanley Donen romance is moving much too quickly even for MGM. . . Doug Fairbanks, Jr., I hear, has a real "sleeper" in his independently typed, "Mr. Drake's Duck." It's about a duck that lays a uranium egg.

It's Montgomery Clift, at a lot less than the $200,000 he asked for as the lead in Warners' "Force of Arms"—a yarn about a GI and a WAC in Italy. . . Ann Druyan is boiling over the rumor that her marriage to Igor Dega, who's given up dancing for a career as a movie agent, is on the rocks.

Sylvia Gable is fuming over a big Sunday supplement story on Clark's love life. The veteran Hollywood writer devised most of the dialogue for Carole Lombard and dandied Sylvia by listing her previous marriages.

A Southern theater owner is reported to have cleaned up with Ingrid Bergman's "Joan of Arc." He marquee'd it "Joan of Arc—Her Passion."

Joan Caulfield, blushing over her attempts at a sexy walk for "The Lady Says No!" cracks: "Any chorus girl can do a sexy walk but when I try it I look like Junior Miss entering an ice cream parlor."

Florence Marly is the next glamour doll to get the big RKO-columbia build-up. RKO will release her independent starrer, "Tokyo File 212." . . . Geraldine Brooks, who leaves for Paris in April for "The White Road," is considering "The Stockings" with Italian Producer Ferruccio Carmelli.

New Titles
Joan Leslie and her doctor husband have named their twin girls, Patrice Joan and Ellen Marie. . . Jose Ferrer can stop grieving about Clifton Webb doing the movie version of his stage chick, "The Silver Whistle," which has been retitled "You Only Love Twice." The character has been changed into a Belvedere type.

Latest Hollywood tourist attraction is Hamburger Hamlet, owned and operated by two film players, Harry Lewis and Marilyn Conrad. They feature Shakespeare and such signs as: "This above all to cheese blinities be true." . . . The retakes on the love scenes between Jane Russell and

14 Million Persons To Make Errors On Income Tax Returns

WASHINGTON — (AP)—Up to 14 million persons will make tax mistakes of $5 or more on their income tax returns this year.

That estimate is based on checks by the Bureau of Internal Revenue in previous years. Most mistakes are made on returns which report income or loss from a business or profession, including farming.

These mistakes often cost taxpayers considerable time in correcting them and extra money in the form of interest on under-payments. (Thousands also lose tax money by failing to take all their allowable deductions and exemptions.)

Audits show that in 1948 almost half of the 7,500,000 individual returns which reported income or loss from a business or profession contained tax errors. This was more than twice as high as that indicated for 48,000,000 returns which did not report income or loss from a business or a profession.

Most of the latter returns were made by persons whose incomes largely were from wages subject to withholding tax.

The most common error is erroneous claiming of dependents. About one of every four claims for dependents outside the immediate family of the taxpayer is wrong.

Many mistakes and costly omissions are made by taxpayers who wait until the last day or two to make returns.

Your return need not be filed until March 15 but it's a good idea to start work on it earlier.

Unborn Lambs Sell At New Record High

SAN ANGELO — (AP)—Sheep buyers here report a new record price for unborn lambs.

Gordon Nowell, Sheffield, Texas, rancher, contracted Monday to sell 3,000 to 4,000 Rambouillet Spring lambs for $35 per hundred pounds.

The lambs, mixed muttons and wethers, are to be delivered in the fall.

Three Attendants Charged In Death Of Insane Patient

MILLEDGEVILLE, GA. — (AP)—The unusual death of an insane hospital inmate has brought murder charges against three attendants at Georgia's huge mental hospital.

Loyd Hooks, 23, of Jenkins County died Thursday of strangulation caused by a handkerchief jammed in his throat.

Murder charges were filed Monday against three hospital attendants, C. W. Beckum, Alton Lingwood and J. Arthur Huff. Hospital Superintendent T. G. Peacock said he swore to the warrants on the advice of Solicitor General Carter S. Baldwin.

The men were jailed without bond. All three denied the charge they forced Hooks to swallow a handkerchief. They told a coroner's jury the inmate swallowed the piece of cloth voluntarily and that they tried unsuccessfully to retrieve it.

Dr. Peacock said Hooks' death "first was regarded as a suicide, but then we received additional evidence of foul play and asked for a coroner's inquest."

AVOID MOTH DAMAGE

To avoid moth damage to rugs, keep them thoroughly clean. Remove immediately any spots which may occur and vacuum often, taking extra care in dark areas under furniture and in corners. Use the de-mothing attachment of your vacuum cleaner to force a reliable anti-moth crystal vapor into the rugs occasionally. Expose them to light and air when feasible.

The rule concerning good light on your rug for close work is not without exceptions. Switch the lamp to your right if your left-handed.

Greyhound Bus Strike Settlement Reached

SAN FRANCISCO —(P)— Tentative settlement of the four-day strike that has stopped Greyhound bus operations in seven Western states was announced Tuesday by Federal Conciliator Omar Hoskins. Terms of the settlement were not announced.

Hoskins issued the statement after a mediation session that lasted until almost 2:30 a.m.

He said the "language of the agreement" has been drafted and that he is hopeful the buses will be running by Friday morning.

Hoskins' announcement was the first cheerful note in the almost constant peace talks that began last Friday when some 3,600 Greyhound drivers and station attendants walked out in a wage dispute.

The government negotiator said the two factions were to meet again Tuesday for a final check of the contract's language. Then the agreement will be submitted to the union membership for ratification.

Vagrancy Charges To Be Filed Against Gypsies In Dallas

DALLAS—(AP)—Sheriff Bill Decker said he would file vagrancy charges Tuesday against 30 gypsies. Deputies arrested the wanderers Monday at a camp near Garland. Decker brought them to the county jail to be photographed and fingerprinted. Officers have been on the lookout for gypsies since six divided tribes gathered here recently to watch over a wounded boy, Lawrence Young, 15, shot near Brownsville about two months ago by another gypsy. Police said they feared violence would break out if the boy died. He now is recovering, and officers thought the gypsies had moved on. Some of them had been jailed as vagrants. Detective Capt. Will Frits said the gypsies arrested Monday told him they were traveling from Brownsville to Arkansas. Frits said he thought they had come from Arkansas into Texas. "These tribes are probably stirred up over what has happened around here the past week," Frits said. "They don't like to be put in jail and probably want to come back and steal us blind."

Christmas Comes Out Of Deep Freeze For Returning GI

KANSAS CITY—(AP)—A gaily-decorated Christmas tree stood in the Roscoe Gillaspie home Tuesday. Holiday cards decked the mantel and a piece of greenery hung from the front door. The Christmas-in-March was for the Gillaspies' 22-year-old son, Bob, a U. S. Navy seaman home on leave. On December 25 he was aboard the cruiser Rochester in Japanese waters and missed the celebration at home. So his mother took part of the turkey and ham from the family's dinner and put it in cold storage. She saved the greeting cards and preserved the Christmas tree in the basement. Now Bob's having his Christmas.

Desperadoes And Pal Who Aided In Escape Vanish Without Trace

OMAHA—(AP)—A pair of cocky desperadoes and a pistol-wielding companion who helped them flee a sixth-floor downtown Omaha jail Tuesday had vanished without a trace. Officers, who sought the pair in four states, admitted they hadn't a clue. Missing also was a black coupe, the car in which the three were last seen about midnight Sunday. "Into the early hours Tuesday cars bearing staff troopers and sheriff's officers prowled the countryside in the Southeast Nebraska area where the trio had disappeared. A sheriff's car went as far as Tarkio, Mo., apparently without turning up a lead. Officers described their quarry as desperate, vicious and trigger-happy. Termed Tough Cookies.

The jail breakers are Dewey Battershaw, 21, of Omaha and Victor Sweet, 24, Hartington, Neb. They had been held in Douglas County Jail here under $10,000 bond in connection with a filling station holdup. "Cocky, overbearing x x x tough cookies," said police.

Sunday, according to Douglas County Sheriff Richard Collins, Dewey Battershaw's young brother, Clifford, 17, went to visit his brother. He escorted both to freedom behind the muzzle of a German pistol. Their flight began on a city transit bus with two hostages, a deputy sheriff and an attorney. Later they took a car and held its driver at gunpoint. They exchanged that car for another, and added the driver to their hostages. At a farm near Auburn they freed the four captives, took the farmer's black coupe. Then they disappeared. Without other leads, authorities hoped they still might pick up the trail in that Southeastern Nebraska area.

Tunneling Convict Relates Activities During His Freedom

BALTIMORE — (AP) — Joseph Holmes, the tunneling convict, returned to Baltimore after his escape with the idea of getting "a ship out of the country."

Holmes said he had visited New Haven, Conn., Philadelphia and several other cities during the two weeks he was free.

The 32-year-old convict was caught near downtown Baltimore Saturday night after a $5 holdup in the vicinity of the Washington Monument.

He pleaded guilty in police court Monday to carrying a gun and robbing Mrs. Mary Ruis. But he denied he tried to kill Patrolman Frank Plunkett during the ensuing chase.

Holmes is held on a charge of being an escaped felon. He faces a maximum sentence of 42 years, besides the 10 years still pending on the 20-year burglary term for which he was serving time.

Holmes spent 20 months digging a 70-foot tunnel beneath his cell which led to freedom outside the prison wall. He made his break February 18 but was captured less than two weeks later.

Ukrainian DP Family Of Four Begins New Life In Midland

A new life began Tuesday in America, in Texas, in Midland, for a family of four persons—the Horbans.

They are Ukrainians, displaced persons, coming here under sponsorship of the First Methodist Church.

There's the father, Konstantine, who is 68 years of age. There's the mother, Domscha. She is 61. The son and daughter are Nicol, 26, and Anna, 20.

They are to work as caretakers at the church. The Methodists are providing a residence.

Furniture and household goods are being contributed by church members and others. And an appeal has been made for anyone who wishes to contribute such to contact the church office.

The Horbans come to Midland through the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief. They are coming under the Displaced Persons Act of 1947, which was passed by Congress, authorizing the admission to the United States of 208,000 displaced persons over a period of two years.

'Chosen Few' The Methodist Church in America is asking to resettle 2,000 persons or approximately 800 family units. The American government chose those to be admitted.

The Midland church has been in the process of obtaining the family for months.

The Horbans arrived Monday by train. They came through the New York City Port of Entry.

A delegation from the church met them at the train here, including the Rev. Luther Kirk, pastor, and Reagan Legg, Jack Godard, Jim Thorne and J. B. Terry. Children Speak English.

Nicol and Anna speak English. The mother and father do not. An appeal also is being made for Polish-speaking persons of Midland to contact the church for conversation with the new citizens.

Presently the family is living at a hotel. Soon it will move into a residence.

A warm West Texas sun shone down on the Horbans when they alighted from the train at Midland.

"It's nice. Midland she is pretty big," said Anna, looking at the skyline.

"New" home. Fine. I know the American cars are powerful," said Nicol. "I worked as plumber first class for U. S. Army in Germany."

Worked In Germany Nicol worked in Germany during World War II.

"It (Germany) was 'kapoof' when the Americans got through," he says.

"We have many things to look forward to in our new home," Anna says while passing a department store window in Midland and pointing.

"It is strong, it is so clean and active," Nicol says of Midland.

He and his sister were at the church bright and early Tuesday morning.

"We want to go to work. We are anxious to get started," they said.

When Nasty Colds Leave You WEAK AND RUNDOWN HADACOL CAN HELP

If Your System Lacks Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron, Which HADACOL Contains

When a nasty cold leaves you in a weakened and run-down condition, HADACOL can help build you up if your system is lacking in Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron, important elements contained in HADACOL. Many folks have found that this fine family formula helps overcome these deficiencies and soon they feel good again.

Mrs. A. Jimenez, 141 East 13th St., Fort Arthur, Texas, gave HADACOL to her young son, Floyd, after he had recovered from a bad cold when she heard how HADACOL was helping folks suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron. It helped him so much in regaining his strength and energy that Mrs. Jimenez says she is always going to have HADACOL on hand for Floyd.

After about a bottle and a half I could notice an improvement. His appetite picked up and he had increased strength. I think HADACOL has done wonders for Floyd, and can't praise it enough. I have continued to give him HADACOL and intend to always have it on hand for Floyd."

Here is Mrs. Jimenez's statement: "My son Floyd was very subject to colds. He's eleven years old, and he was run-down, didn't seem to have an appetite at all, and just simply lacked energy. I heard about HADACOL on the radio, and it was about this time that Floyd was just recovering from a bad cold. He was very run-down, lacked an appetite, and he just started giving him HADACOL. After about a bottle and a half I could notice an improvement. His appetite picked up and he had increased strength. I think HADACOL has done wonders for Floyd, and can't praise it enough. I have continued to give him HADACOL and intend to always have it on hand for Floyd."

Men, women and children of all ages are praising HADACOL for supplying Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron which their systems lacked. Don't let that "After-Cold Run-Down Feeling" drag you down—HADACOL can help you too, if you suffer such deficiencies. Sold on a strict money-back guarantee. You'll feel great after the first few bottles you take or your money back. Trial size, $1.25; 14 family economy size, $2.50.

'The Big Grab'

One of a series exposing the Federal Government's confiscation of the oil-rich Tidelands

(Copyright 1951, The Dallas Morning News)

By ALLEN DUCKWORTH

The big oil companies came in for quite a lashing during the "Big Grab" campaign.

Arguments that the states had a clear and legal title to undersea lands off their shores were drowned out by the howl that the big oil barons must be cornered.

It is true that the big oil companies spent vast sums in trying to protect their titles. They had invested money. And they made no secret of trying to save drilling rights they had purchased, in good faith, from the individual states.

Little emphasis has been placed on the influence exerted on the oil-ers side by those supporting the "Big Grab"—those who wanted federal leases and who demanded that those having state permits be treated as trespassers.

We touched a bit on that in Monday's article, when we related how W. W. Chapin of San Francisco made frequent calls on "Honest Harold" Ickes while Ickes was secretary of the Interior, and how the department took more than casual interest in Chapin's attempt to secure oil lands off the California coast.

Back To Pearson

Now, let us turn back to the newspaper files of April 18, 1949, to a column by Drew Pearson, the Washington columnist. To quote: "Salt Lake City's dignified, white-haired postmaster, I. A. Smoot, called on President Truman the other day to plead for a strong hand in crushing the oil lobby. The lobby is now pushing another bill through Congress to restore the rich Tidelands to the states.

"There was no hedging in Truman's reply.

"As long as I am President," he declared, "I will never permit the submerged oil lands to go back to the states."

Pearson didn't tell the whole story. So we will have to look further for information on I. A. Smoot of Salt Lake City, Utah.

The dignified postmaster Pearson mentions made his White House visit after the California decision of the Supreme Court saying the state did not own its Tidelands. This decision later was applied to Texas and Louisiana. Then, as now, Congress was considering a resolution to override the court's far-fetched opinion.

Unofficial Business

An uninformed reader might get the idea Postmaster Smoot was up there in Washington on official business, such as getting his mail sacks repaired or suggesting that they put better glue on the back of stamps, and decided he had better drop in and tell President Truman what the big oil companies were up to.

Smoot is a former state land commissioner of Idaho. After going to Utah, he became prominent in politics and served in the Legislature. President Roosevelt named Smoot postmaster in 1933.

A District of Columbia suit now on file is trying to force the Department of Interior to issue federal leases on Tidelands under the non-competitive system.

A plaintiff listed in the suit is "I. A. Smoot of Salt Lake City, Utah." And if we look on the records of the Department of the Interior, we find that "I. A. Smoot" filed application LA-053269 on April 8, 1938, for an 800-acre federal lease of California Tidelands.

J. Stuart Watson, assistant executive officer of the State Lands Commission of California, says the Smoot application covers an area "about three quarters of a mile" from where oil is being produced by state-let leases.

Calls On Truman
A pleasure pier of the City of Long Beach runs out over the tract

Smoot wants to lease via federal permit, Watson reports.

Watson estimated that the land Smoot wants is worth at least a million dollars. He called that a "conservative" estimate.

Smoot called on Truman in 1949. According to the Associated Press Salt Lake City Bureau, Smoot did not retire from the postmastership until Dec. 1, 1950. So, it appears, Smoot was on the federal pay roll when he called at the White House to do some lobbying against the oil lobbyists and in favor of I. A. Smoot.

Incidentally, since retiring from the post office, Smoot has been connected with Consolidated Uranium Mines Company, Inc., The Associated Press reported.

The suit Smoot figures in now involves persons who applied for federal leases years ago in hopes the United States Supreme Court eventually would rule in their favor. But they still haven't received those leases, because the Department of the Interior believes a stronger leasing act is needed.

Former Ickes Attorney
Three attorneys signed the petition in the suit by Smoot and thirty-nine others.

One of those attorneys was Max Barash.

Max Barash was chief counsel for the Department of the Interior's Geological Survey Department when Harold Ickes was secretary of the Interior.

Later, in private practice, Barash took the suit in behalf of the oil lease applicants against the Department of the Interior, where he once worked (Barash told the Washington Bureau of The Dallas Morning News that he dropped out of the case some months ago, but declined to say why.)

Ickes, no longer secretary of the Interior, is plugging for recognition of those leases under the Mineral Leasing Act of 1920, even though he once said that act should not apply to Tidelands. Main objection to the leasing act is that it provides much less income from oil rentals and royalties than the states have been able to obtain.

Who's Influencing?
Returning to the subject of who was influencing for what, Congress records contain some letters written by persons who think it would be a terrible mistake not to hand out Tidelands leases on a non-competitive bid basis.

Congress is discussing that now. There are two phases in congressional consideration at present. A movement is in progress to override the Supreme Court opinion completely and declare the states have full control over Tidelands leasing. Another piece of legislation concerns "temporary" leasing arrangements, so that oil production and exploration can go on while it is being decided once and for all who owns those lands. That's where the issue of competitive bids, a state system, comes in as against federal noncompetitive bids.

One of those who wrote to Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney to say that competitive bidding would be "against the public interest" was Arnold M. Setter of Salt Lake City, Utah.

The record shows that an Arnold M. Setter has filed application for a federal oil lease on 230 acres of Tidelands.

J. H. Morgan of Salt Lake City wrote to Senator O'Mahoney along the same line.

The record shows that folks by the name of Morgan in Salt Lake City have filed applications for hundreds of acres of Tidelands leases. The list includes John H. Morgan, Merin Morgan, N. O. Morgan, N. G. Morgan, Sr., and John H. Morgan, Jr.

Grace Hull of Salt Lake City protests competitive bidding. The record shows that a Grace Hull has an application for a 780-acre Tidelands lease.

Clarence I. Justheim, Salt Lake City oil promoter, has been loud in his protests against state ownership of Tidelands.

The record shows that a Clarence I. Justheim has filed application for federal leases on more than 3,000 acres off the California coast. And there are other applications under the name of Margaret L. Justheim.

Why all the fuss over what kind of leasing act the Federal Government shall use when and if Uncle Sam takes complete control of the Tidelands?

B. L. Krebs, a New Orleans Times-Picayune writer, revealed two years ago that the federal leasing act as now written allows far less income than does the Louisiana system.

Krebs showed that federally-owned land, in one case, was leased in Louisiana and brought only $161 for a three-year period. But if the leasing had been done by the State of Louisiana, the return to the public treasury would have been $27,000 the first year, half that amount each year for the two succeeding years.

Competitive Bids
One of the reasons the states get more money is that they call for competitive bids. In certain cases, under the federal leasing act, bids are not asked. They just pass out the leases.

So here we go again with "Honest Harold" Ickes.

Back in 1946, "Honest Harold" appeared before a Senate committee and stated that the Tidelands should be made "a federal oil reserve." Furthermore, he said, "the mineral leasing act of 1920 is not applicable to submerged lands."

Two years after Ickes said that, he appeared before another congressional committee. He had resigned from the Truman Cabinet, was admitted to practice law before the United States Supreme Court, and had become a newspaper columnist.

Rep. J. M. Combs of Texas read from Ickes' column of Nov. 3, 1947, in the Washington Evening Star. "Recently the solicitor of the Department of Interior, Mastin G. White, also of Texas, and the attorney general agreed that the Federal Leasing Act did not extend to those California Tidelands. I challenge this finding."

25 Cents Per Acre
Asked Congressman Combs: "Did you write that?"

Ickes replied: "I wrote that." Combs pressed further: "Now then, under the Federal Leasing Act, I will ask you if it is not true that if that act applies to Tidelands then, under the law the department will have to go and take the applications for leases in there, in the order in which they were filed, and parcel them out to those applicants at 25 cents an acre. Is that not right?"

Ickes: "Whatever the provision is: yes."

And that testimony came from a man who, two years before, had said the leasing act should not apply to Tidelands, and who had said those valuable lands should be set aside as a federal oil reserve.

Attorney General Price Daniel of Texas has told Congressmen the difference between state and federal control in terms of dollars.

Texas leased 350,000 Tidelands acres to oil companies, prior to the Ickes-inspired lawsuit against the state, for more than $7,000,000.

If the federal leasing act that Ickes supports had been applied, instead of competitive state bidding, the income would have been only $87,000, Daniel estimated.

Kentucky Edges Oklahoma A&M In Final Cage Poll

NEW YORK —(AP)—The University of Kentucky Wildcats won No. 1 rating Tuesday as the nation's best college basketball team for 1951 in the final Associated Press poll. But it was only by the skin of their teeth—a bare 26-point margin over Oklahoma A&M.

It was the second No. 1 ranking for Kentucky in the three years of the AP basketball poll of sports writers and sportscasters. Kentucky, the top team of 1949, rated third a year ago when Bradley captured the lofty honor.

However, Oklahoma A&M, which suffered a stunning setback Monday night at the hands of Detroit 62-52, actually received 10 more first place votes than Kentucky.

This upset matched the Kentucky debacle of Saturday, when underdog Vanderbilt clipped the Wildcats 61-57 in the Southeastern Conference Tournament finals. Voting in the poll was completed Monday before the Oklahoma A&M-Detroit game.

Kentucky, which has clinched a berth in the NCAA tournament, has been voted the nation's top team for the last seven weeks. Oklahoma A&M must beat Houston Wednesday to clinch the Missouri Valley title and an NCAA berth. The Aggies (26-3) end the regular season against Kansas in a non-conference tilt Saturday. Kentucky (27-2) has ended its regular season.

With 185 ballots cast in this twelfth and last poll, Kentucky got 45 for first place, compared with 55 for the Oklahoma Aggies. Kentucky edged home first, however, because of receiving a heavier vote for the No. 2 spot.

Kentucky has declined to play in the National Invitation Tournament at Madison Square Garden beginning Saturday. The Wildcats will meet an "at large" team not yet selected in the NCAA first round at Raleigh, N. C., March 20. If victorious there, Kentucky will travel to New York for the eastern semifinals and finals March 22 and 24.

Oklahoma A&M can have the one open place left in the 12-team NIT tournament if it desires. The decision is expected soon.

The leading 20 teams with points based on 10 for first, nine for second, etc. (First place votes and season records in parentheses):

Argentina Picks Off Eight Boxing Titles As Fans Shout, Boo

BUENOS AIRES —(AP)—The first Pan American games drew toward a close Tuesday with track and field winding up Tuesday night and the United States definitely on top in that sport.

However, on an unofficial point basis, in all 18 sports on the program, Argentina has an edge with 728 to 577 for the U. S.

In track, which is the center of the Olympic type program and with only four championships undecided, the United States is ahead with 11 titles against four for Argentina. Cuba has two and Colombia, Brazil and Chile have one each.

In women's track, with two championships still undetermined, Argentina and Chile each have two crowns, and Mexico, Peru and the United States one each.

Basketball ends Thursday night in what probably will be a humdrum of a game between the U. S. and Argentina, world amateur champion. Monday, Argentina defeated Panama 65-54, and the U. S. knocked off Chile 69-50.

Equestrian sports, boxing, shooting, baseball, tennis, polo and swimming are in their final rounds.

As competition entered the eighth day, here are the point totals following Argentina and the United States:

Mexico 190, Brazil 167, Chile 161, Cuba 83, Peru 82, Trinidad 26, Guatemala 20, Colombia 16, Venezuela 14, Jamaica 12, Panama 11, Ecuador 8, Haiti 7, Paraguay 3, El Salvador 1.

Nowell Lee of Covington, Va., John Stewart of Washington, Va., and Willie Hunter of the U. S. Army all tied their boxing bouts as Argentine judges gave eight straight decisions to Argentine boxers. A crowd of 20,000 shouted protests for 15 minutes after Lee's heavyweight defeat.

Argentine officials later apologized to Capt. Don Miller of the U. S. team and said the decisions were "unfortunate." Miller and Coach Francis Duffy of Philadelphia said they would not try to have the decisions reversed. Miller said the judges assigned "did not know boxing."

Horace Busby, Midland Indian business manager, reported Tuesday that utility infielder - Outfielder George Firmbach and Outfielder Gus Pena have signed with the Midland club. Both are limited service players.

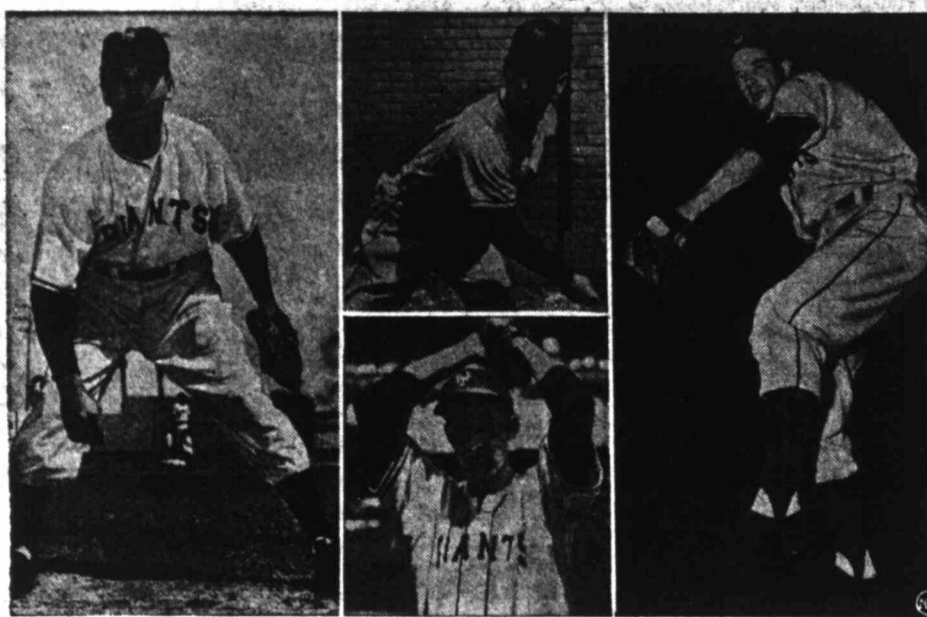

Firmbach hit 311 last season and finished behind Jim Prince as the heaviest hitting Indian batsman. Pena comes back to the Indians after being out of organized baseball last year. He performed with the Midland club in 1949, batting just under .300. Not a long ball hitter, he is remembered by Midlanders for his fielding ability.

The addition of the two Indians to the roster brings the total signed to five. Others who have signed for the '51 season are Pitchers Eddie Jacome and Leon Hayes and Infielder Eddie Melillo.

EL PASO — A squad of 39 hopefuls reported to Texas Western College Coach Mike Brumbelow Monday for the start of Spring football training. Only 12 lettermen reported from the squad that won seven of ten games last season. In addition to the lettermen, the turnout for the Spring sessions included eight squadmen, 14 freshmen lettermen, and five junior college transfers.

Brumbelow announced that "about a dozen other boys" are expected to join the squad within a few days. Completion of a 10-game 1951 schedule for the Miners also was announced by Brumbelow. The Miners will open the campaign Sept. 22, meeting North Texas State in El Paso.

The complete schedule:
Sept. 22—North Texas State at El Paso.
Sept. 29—New Mexico A&M at El Paso.
Oct. 6—ACC at Midland.
Oct. 13—Arizona University at Tucson, Ariz.
Oct. 20—New Mexico U at Albuquerque, N. M.
Oct. 27—Cincinnati University at Cincinnati, Ohio.
Nov. 3—Texas Tech at El Paso.

MHS Tracksters Round Into Shape

Rounding into shape after two weeks of work, Midland High School's tracksters went through their paces at the Memorial Stadium oval Monday. The Bulldogs' first meet will be in Fort Worth, March 16 and 17.

Coach Thurman L. (Tugboat) Jones reported he is pleased with the progress being made by the track lads.

"They have been running three and four miles a day," Jones said, "and seem to be in pretty fair shape."

Dick Spencer, Roy Kinsey, Roddy Braun, Hal Robbins and Johnny Kennedy have been working on the 100 and 220-yard dashes, and it is from this group Jones expects to pick a 440-yard relay team.

In both the high and low hurdle events, Robert Keisling and Harold Hensley have been drilling. Keisling also will enter the high jump. He capped this event in the junior division last year.

Norman Drake is drilling on the half-mile run and Bill Medart is training for the rugged one-mile run. Jack Burris is looking good in the 440-yard dash and also will run a lap on the mile relay team.

Illness has prevented pole vaulter W. H. Black from doing much work, but he seems about ready to go now. West Elementary Coach Edwin Nixon, who last year cleared more than 13 feet while performing with Howard Payne College, has been called in to help Black with his vaulting form.

Husky Jimmy O'Neal and Jerry Culp have been working at losing the shot and discus and probably will represent MHS in these events.

The three teams tied for the conference championship. The conference champion automatically goes to Kansas City but only one team can go, thus the three-way playoff.

If TCU wins it will meet Texas at Fort Worth. If A&M wins it will take on Texas at College Station. In either event, Texas gets the remaining game or games at home.

Engineers To Play Cabbies In Odessa
In the final pre-state tournament game for both teams, Midland's Rotary Engineers and Checker Cab Odessa High School gym at 8 p.m. Tuesday, according to Engineer coach Jack Ellis.

Rotary has defeated the Cabbie 'B' team on two occasions this year, but has yet to meet the powerful Cabbie 'A' five. Both team won tournaments last week qualifying them for the state TAAF tournament to be held in Houston this weekend.

Rotary has racked up 25 wins in 28 starts this season. Checker Cab has dropped three contests in 27 starts.

Both teams plan to leave Thursday for the state tourney in Houston.

Webb Leaves For Spring BB Training
Midland baseball owner-manager Harold Webb left Midland Monday for Fort Worth and was to proceed from there to Monroe, La., to make plans for the Indians' Spring training session.

The Indians are to begin the Spring grind Saturday with the Oklahoma City Indians. Webb's partner, H. W. Donohoo, will take care of business details here while Webb is in the Spring session. Donohoo reported he will attend the last week of the drills. The session is due to last until April 5.

10 Berths Unfilled In NCAA, NIT

NEW YORK —(AP)—Illinois and St. Bonaventure have been added to the growing list of tournament teams, leaving 10 berths open in the NCAA and NIT basketball championships.

Illinois clinched the Big 10 title and an automatic post in the NCAA playoffs Monday night by outlasting Michigan State 49-43.

Earlier, St. Bonaventure had agreed to participate in the NIT. This left only one place open for the Madison Square Garden tourney—probably for Oklahoma A&M.

Here's the tournament picture following Monday night's games: NCAA—Illinois (19-3), Columbia (21-0), Arizona (24-4), Brigham Young (24-7), Kentucky (27-2), North Carolina State (28-4) and Kansas State (21-3).

NIT—NC State (28-4), Belmont (18-4), Lawrence Tech (20-2), Dayton (23-4), Arizona, Brigham Young, St. Louis (21-7), LaSalle (22-6), St. John's (22-3), Seton Hall (22-5) and St. Bonaventure (18-5).

There still are nine spots open in the NCAA. Six will be filled by "members at large," or independent teams, and three by the winners of the Missouri Valley, Southwest and Pacific Coast Conferences.

The NIT opens here Saturday with afternoon and night double-headers involving the eight unseeded teams.

Eliminations in the NCAA will be held in Kansas City, New York and Raleigh, N. C. The playoff game is set for March 27 at Minneapolis.

Four Texas Teams Left In Running For NAIB Tourney

By The Associated Press

Four Texas teams are left in the running for two places in the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball.

North Texas State, champion of the Gulf Coast Conference, was shoved out of the race Monday night when Southwest Texas State, champion of the Lone Star Conference, whipped the Eagles 79-57.

Southwest Texas State and Texas Tech, top Texas team of the Border Conference, get together Tuesday to decide the site and date of a playoff that will furnish one of the teams in the NAIB Tournament at Kansas City March 12.

The other spot will go to the winner of a game between Austin College, champion of the Texas Conference, and East Texas Baptist College, top independent team. They play at Greenville Thursday night.

Southwest Texas had little trouble winning over North Texas. The Bobcats were behind only once—in the first five minutes. They led at the half 40-31. Pat Kelly of North Texas was high point man with 21. J. C. Mayes paced the Bobcats with 17.

Eddie Melillo may not lead the league in home runs or hit .300, but show us a boy who'll time a blow better when the runs are needed. Then too, he's a real scrapper. That's important brother, and how!

George Firmbach banged a sturdy 311 last season and is one of those guys who'll play a different position every inning if called upon to do so.

Gus Pena isn't a slugger by any stretch of the imagination, but he does hit a lot of scratch singles and manages to get on the first sack quite frequently. And he's been known to make a catch of a drive in the outfield even if he has to plow up the turf of Indian Park to do so.

All of which makes it seem as if we look for the Indians to romp off with the Longhorn League pennant.

But we won't go that far. Being somewhat pessimistic, we

King's Row

By LARRY KING

In the Spring a young man's fancy may turn to love, but since we're already married our fancy naturally turns to baseball.

And since Saturday is the start of Spring baseball training for the Midland Indians, a couple more players have signed and the weather is beginning to get a baseball feel to it, to what more appropriate place could said fancy turn?

Therefore this is a good time to slant a few base hits in the well-known Hot Stove League.

To begin with, it seems to us that the Midland Indians are doing strictly OK in the signing of players thus far.

Pitching—something Midland needed last year as badly as Daisy Mae needs Lil Abner—is going to be better for Midland this year if the two hustlers already signed are any indication of the hurlers Harold Webb and H. W. Donohoo are going after.

Leon (Hook) Hayes has the ability to be a 20-game winner, we think, if he rounds into shape. Eddie Jacome—who last year had the best earned run average in the East Texas League while with Longview—easily could win 20 in this loop also. A couple of years back, he won 22 with Vernon.

But, Harold seems to be back stronger than ever this year and he and Donohoo are looking forward to giving Midland a vastly improved diamond outfit.

And that's about all we can ask.

Mexican Second Sacker Looks Good To Hank Greenberg

TUCSON —(AP)—If he lives, say the Cleveland Indians, Roberto Avila of Yera Cruz, Mexico, is going to show the American League a whole lot of second-basing during the coming season.

The only question in the minds of Roberto's teammates is whether the 170-pound bundle of baseball dynamite from below the border can avoid the high-flying spikes of his indignant opponents. A second baseman sometimes is a sitting quail on the double play.

Avila has ridden the Cleveland bench much of the last two seasons, acting as understudy to that remarkable infielder, Joe Gordon. Now, with Joe retired to managerial pastures, it is up to the chunky little Mexican to take over. Other clubs are skeptical, but not the Indians.

"Gordon says he's ready, and that's enough for me," says General Manager Hank Greenberg.

Vinegar Bend Mizell May Be Lefthanded Dizzy Dean, Say St. Louis Cardinal Bigwigs

By JACK HAND
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. —P— Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell, an unspooled farm boy from the turpentine land of the Deep South, is hailed as a "lefthanded Dizzy Dean" by normally sane observers in the St. Louis Cardinal camp. "Best looking prospect I ever saw in our camp," said Manager Marty Marion. "Can't miss," added Scout Buddy Lewis. "I'm aiming to make it," said Mizell, still property of the Cards' Houston farm, but probably not for long. Sounds interesting, so you collar 20-year-old "Vinegar Bend" the day after he struck out four Cards in a row. He's a 200-pounder, about six-foot-three. A dead ringer for Preacher Roe, only there's enough of him to make two of the Preach. Geography Confusing The geography is a little confusing. It seems he went to school at Leakeville, Miss., but "gets mah mail" at Vinegar Bend, Ala. "I guess 100 people live there now," he said. "Bunch of us boys got up a team to play Sundays when we wasn't turpentineing. The Vinegar Bend Rebels. Mostly the kin folks came out to see us play. "We read about those tryout camps, so four of us boys went down to Biloxi. They had me throw to

Scribes, Radio Men To Have Inning At Longhorn Conclave

BIG SPRING —P— Sports writers and radio announcers will have their inning here Sunday at the Longhorn League's promotional clinic. League President Hal Sayles Monday said he is sending special invitations to the press and radio representatives from the eight member cities. "We realize the tremendous part newspapers and radio stations have played in the growth of the game," Sayles said. "We are counting on them for many ideas in planning our program for the minor leagues' Golden Anniversary year."

College Grid Game Set Here Next Fall

Officials of the Midland Optimist Club announced Tuesday that plans have been completed for the proposed game between Texas Western College and Abilene Christian College football squads here next October 6. Coaches of the two schools met here late in January to talk terms and the schools reached an agreement last week. The game is an attractive offering to Midlanders, because the coaches of both schools are former Midland residents. ACC Mentor Garvin Beauchamp was assistant grid coach at Midland High School during the 1949 season and TWC Coach Bumbelow lived here several years ago while operating a sporting goods business. Proceeds of the game, after expenses, will go for charity purposes in Midland, members of the Optimist Club announced.

Permian Basin Softball League Is Organized

CRANE — A six-team Permian Basin Softball League was organized here Sunday, with possibly three other teams due to join the loop before play begins May 1. Teams entering the new loop include Western Plastic Company of Midland, Carter Hardware of Odessa, Tennessee Milk of Odessa, C. W. Brown Motor Company of McCombs, Monahan's Jay-Cees and the Gulf Oilers of Crane. Officers will be elected at the next meeting, slated at 3 p.m. March 18 at the Community Hall here. Two games per week will be played in the league, with action coming Tuesday and Friday nights. Teams from Kermit, Pecos and Andrews may enter at a later date. The league still is open for membership to other teams. He alluded to the Senate's 55 to 31 vote Monday scuttling an amendment by Senator Morse (R-Or.) to fix 18 years and six months as the lowest induction age. That left intact and thus indirectly approved the committee's proposal to drop the draft age from the present level at 19 to 18 years old. Morse won something of a victory, however, when Chairman Russell (D-Ga.) of the Senate Armed Services Committee moved a surprise compromise on another point. Morse had sought to cut the length of service from the 26 months provided in the administration bill to 21 months, announcing that if this move lost he would propose a two-year limit. Russell accepted the two-year proviso and the Senate approved it on a voice vote. The Pentagon had asked for 27 months' service.

Lamesa Skipper Asks Fans' Idea On Negro Players

LAMESA —P— Manager Jay Haney of the Lamesa Lobos of the West Texas-New Mexico League wants to know what fans think of his idea of hiring negro baseball players. He announced recently he would hold a tryout March 19 for negro players. In an open letter published in The Lamesa Daily Reporter, Haney said the club had received little comment on the plan. He said club officials want an opinion from fans "before any further action is taken on the matter." Haney said calls to the armed forces had caused a shortage of ball players and that Lamesa needs to find two good rookies. "The way I figure," he said, "if he don't hit it, it can't go through any holes." There isn't a trace of pop-off in this likeable lad. He just tells you what he really thinks. For instance, he hit only one home run last year. It came in the final playoff. The fans took up a collection and gave him $220. Appearing on a radio program recently, he was asked how many homers he hit last year. "Two hundred and twenty dollars worth," was the answer.

Senate Seeks Early Passage Of 18-Year Draft; UMT At Stake

WASHINGTON —P— Administration leaders drove Tuesday for early Senate passage of the bill to draft 18-year-olds, with the old issue of universal military training at stake. Senator Taft (R-Ohio) lined up with Senators Bricker (R-Ohio) and Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.) in an effort to knock a UMT provision out of the manpower measure. The Administration's bill would set up the machinery for universal training although it would not go into operation until the President certified that the need for compulsory service had passed. Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Texas) floor manager for the bill, predicted confidently that the Senate will beat down the UMT opposition. He also predicted the Senate will defeat an amendment by Taft to limit operation of the manpower measure to four years. Amendment Scuttled "We got over our toughest hump in defeating the 18 1/2-year-old draft proposal," Johnson told reporters. He alluded to the Senate's 55 to 31 vote Monday scuttling an amendment by Senator Morse (R-Or.) to fix 18 years and six months as the lowest induction age. That left intact and thus indirectly approved the committee's proposal to drop the draft age from the present level at 19 to 18 years old. Morse won something of a victory, however, when Chairman Russell (D-Ga.) of the Senate Armed Services Committee moved a surprise compromise on another point. Airline Heads Are Invited To Visit Midland And Area

Executives of the three commercial airlines serving Midland and area will be invited to visit Midland on separate dates to view the rapid growth and development of the city and section and to discuss with interested groups the further expanding and improving of airline services here. The decision to invite the airline heads to visit Midland as special guests of the Chamber of Commerce was reached at a meeting of the organization's Aeronautics Committee Monday afternoon. The invitations will go to Robert Six of Denver, president of Continental Air Lines; C. R. Smith of New York, American Airlines, and Gen. Robert Smith of Dallas, Pioneer president. Bill Collins, chairman of the Aeronautics Committee, presided at the session, at which airline problems, needs and flights were discussed. Other guests included J. P. "Bum" Gibbins, Ted Lowe, Clyde Sharrar, Stanley Erskine, C. C. president, and Manager Delbert Downing. Long-Range Program The Chamber's long-range program of further expanding Midland's position as the commercial aviation center of the Southwest will be continued this year. The committee members attending the Monday session voted to request the Civil Aeronautics Board to reconsider its order to the Pioneer Air Lines to discontinue its service from San Angelo to Fort Worth on the grounds that such action would affect Pioneer's Midland flights. Midland interests did not have the opportunity of protesting the order before it was announced by the C.A.B. The committee discussed the feasibility of requesting Continental to institute Convair service, originating at Tulsa with a turn-around point at Midland to improve service to Tulsa, Bartlesville and Oklahoma City.

GI's Marines—

(Continued From Page One) In Korea, told a new conference the Reds have plenty of men to launch a big counteroffensive. But he expressed belief such an attack is not imminent. Ridgway added that his forces "at the moment" could stop a Red offensive. The ex-paratrooper general spoke confidently of his Eighth Army's capabilities and praised the support he has received from General MacArthur. Ridgway went to Korea from Washington to succeed Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker, who was killed in a jeep accident north of Seoul in December. Ridgway commanded an airborne division in Europe in World War II. On the battlefield, a six-inch snow slowed the determined Allied push Tuesday through the craggy mountains and rice-paddied valleys across the peninsula east of Seoul. Units of the First Marine Division took Hill 336, three miles northeast of Hoengsong, Tuesday after other elements punched to points four miles north and northwest of the rubble-torn Monday. The Reds pumped artillery, mortar and machine gun fire into the Leathernecks Monday but fell back. Air spotters reported an estimated three Chinese battalions directly ahead of the Marines, from five to six miles north and northwest of Hoengsong. On the east-central front, Korean Reds fought bitterly from log bunker dugouts on rugged ridges near Taemi, a mountain stronghold from which they were routed Monday. Taemi is 10 miles northwest of Pangnim, eastern road junction of one of the main east-west highways running to Hoengsong and Seoul. The Reds' new positions were under assault by the U. S. Second and Seventh Divisions. A combination American-French ground, artillery and aerial assault chased the Reds out of Taemi. But air reconnaissance Tuesday showed 1,500 Reds were moving into the area from the northeast to reinforce 3,000 to 5,000 North Koreans already there.

City Defers—

(Continued From Page One) sixth bus in reserve in case of breakdowns. The fare would be either 10 cents or 15 cents, the buses would be kept clean and in good repair, they promised, and the schedules would be met within two minutes. But why couldn't they use the more-modern pusher-type buses, asked the councilmen? It is a matter of cost, explained the Spinks. The school-type buses cost $4,000 each. The pusher-type cost $10,000 each. The capital investment would be too large for the unknown venture. However, they added, if business proved to be good enough to justify the larger buses, there would be a conversion later on to that type. So far, the Spinks are the only operators who seriously have sought the franchise to supply the city with its first public transportation system since last Fall. The councilmen — Jack Wilkinson, W. F. Hejl, Frank Shriver and J. W. McMullen — promised to think it over and let them know within a few days. Mayor William B. Neely and Councilman H. E. Chiles, Jr., were not present for the informal discussion.

The association will be formed to serve as an organization for registration of the cattle.

Thompson Defends Depletion Allowance

WASHINGTON —P— Oil men from New York to California drew up a solid front of opposition Tuesday against the Treasury's proposal to cut the depletion allowance on oil and gas wells. They declared such a move would reduce revenues, discourage the hunt for new sources of supply, and even endanger the physical existence of the nation in a world threatened with war. Ernest O. Thompson, member of the Texas Railroad Commission, oil regulatory body for the nation's largest producing state, led off arguments against the treasury proposal at an open meeting of the House Ways and Means Committee. "I respectfully suggest and recommend to you that you do not change the present 27 1/2 per cent depletion allowance," Thompson said in a prepared statement. He said a third word can be avoided only if we are "amply prepared to defend ourselves, and we cannot be amply prepared to defend ourselves unless we have ample oil supplies." "Ample oil supplies will not be obtained, in my opinion, if you tamper with the 27 1/2 per cent depletion," Thompson stated. WATER HEATER EXPLODES, SETS FIRE TO HOUSE Minor damage was reported when a hot water heater exploded Monday night in a house at 207 North Lee Street. The resulting blaze was extinguished quickly by city firemen.

Collazo Murder Case May Reach Jury Wednesday

WASHINGTON —P— The government and defense rested Tuesday in the trial of Oscar Collazo, accused of slaying a White House guard during an attempt to kill President Truman November 1. The case is expected to go to a federal court jury of nine women and three men Wednesday. If convicted, the 37-year-old Puerto Rican Nationalist faces a mandatory sentence of death in the electric chair. Collazo was the only witness called by the defense. He staked his life on a story that he and his companion, Griselio Torresola, planned a demonstration in front of Blair House, but had not intended to kill anyone.

Sheriff's Posse To Ride In Odessa

About 40 members of the Midland County Sheriff's Posse are expected to ride in the parade of the Sand Hills Hereford Show in Odessa Wednesday, Capt. Cal Boykin said Tuesday. The parade will begin at 10 a.m. It will be the only event in which the posse will participate, according to Boykin. Odessa's event will be the second parade for the Midland posse this year. The Midlanders rode in the Southwestern Livestock Show parade in El Paso last month and were judged the second best mounted group. Boykin said the next event in which the posse will participate probably will be the Midland World Championship Rodeo.

North side location makes this two-bedroom home a good buy. It has many nice features, including electric range wiring, detached garage, two panel ray heating units, solid concrete drive, and well-developed lawns and shrubs. Good loan already in force—just pay equity and assume payments.

We have two practically new 2-bedroom homes whose owners are being transferred, and must sell their equities. They are on paved streets, both have car ports, venetian blinds and many other nice features. GI loans already made. Just make this equity payment and move in!

It's no wonder so many people have chosen Loma Linda as a place to live. It's quiet, safe from hazardous traffic, the streets are paved, and only a few minutes from Main and Wall. Construction has begun on several more two- and three-bedroom F.H.A. homes in Loma Linda—let us show them to you. You may still select the floor plan, the site and the colors that exactly suit you.

Radio Faces Turn Red At Broadcast Of Uncensored Talk

DENVER.—(AP)—Radio Station KMYR gave its listeners an uncensored lecture on telephone wiring Monday, couched in language on which the Federal Communications Commission frowns. Frank White had just started his last piano number when a strange voice broke in. "X?XXX! These x?wires always give me fits. I've worked on 'em before and I know how tough it is to fix them." Studio executives tore their hair and called for engineers. A second mystery voice joined the conversation. Female workers blushed. The uncensored conversation went on eight minutes before the trouble was tracked down: Two telephone company workers were repairing wiring in a seldom-used portion of the studio. They tapped into the station's transmission lines, and their small phones acted as microphones, broadcasting every word they said. Station executives said the main switch wasn't thrown because engineers were working on a new transmitter and tower, not yet in operation. White's chief worry was: "A lot of nice old grandmothers listen to my show—and I don't think they liked what they heard."

newsmap above illustrates the ramifications of the two major crime syndicates described in the interim report of the Senate Investigating Committee headed by Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee. The report said a New York-Miami crime "axis" is headed by gambler Frank Costello and Joe Adonis. The other axis, between Chicago and Miami is bossed by Tony Accardo, the Fischetti brothers and Jake Guzik. These groups, the report said, constitute a "phantom" underworld government which "carries out its own executions." Arbitrator of axis disputes is "Lucky" Luciano, deported vice racketeer, now living in Italy. The report also blasted Continental Press, national racing news service, as being controlled by hoodlums of the Capone regime.

30-Year-Old Floorboards A Gold Mine

FORT MADISON, IOWA.—(NEA)—There's no gold in the streets of Fort Madison, but there's $20,000 worth of it in the floor of a factory here.

The gold has been accumulating in the floorboards for 30 years in a pen manufacturing plant. Now that the plant is getting ready to move into a new building, a metals-reclaiming concern eagerly made the big bid for the 10,000 feet of old flooring, which will be "mined" to retrieve gold chips and dust. Prospecting would have been a lot richer, however, if it weren't for the elaborate precautions taken every day by the W. A. Shearfen pen company. The gold-working departments are given special night-time vacuum cleanings, and all aprons and smocks used by gold workers are laundered on the premises. Laundry water is put through settling tanks, and the winnowings are combined with the sweepings and dust. The blended dust—assaying as high as $60 a pound—is stored in ordinary garbage cans until it's shipped away for reclaiming. Otherwise, say company officials, $100,000 worth of gold would vanish in the air or down the drain every year.

Southerners Map All-Out Fight On Cotton Price Pegs

By The Associated Press Cotton exchanges in Texas and other Southern states remained closed Tuesday for trading in cotton futures as growers mapped a fight against new price ceilings.

Sharp criticism was the almost unanimous reception of the week-end action of the Office of Price Stabilization in putting price ceilings on raw cotton at the farm.

In Washington, Southern legislators announced plans for an attempt to get Congress to kill the order.

Dallas cotton traders and shippers demanded immediate removal of the order describing it as "unworkable, unenforceable and absolutely unnecessary."

J. M. Locke, president of the Houston Cotton Exchange, said the order would destroy one of the most efficient marketing systems ever devised. He said members of the exchange were "stunned" by the order.

Ridiculous Situations "There are many ridiculous situations brought about by the order," Locke said. "As an illustration, the ceiling price at Lubbock is 75 cents a bale less than Houston. However, merchants in endeavoring to calculate their maximum sales prices find that the export price ceiling on Lubbock cotton is $3.15 per bale higher than similar cotton originating at Houston.

"As a result," Locke said, "it automatically reduces the Lubbock price ceilings $3.15 per bale on export sales. All of the interior points in Texas would have to reduce their prices to meet the port export price."

E. F. Creekmore, president of the New Orleans Cotton Exchange, predicted major cotton exchanges would remain closed if the order stands.

Howls in Congress Chairman Maybank (D-SO), chairman of the Senate Banking Committee, which handles price control legislation, said the cotton price order sets up a policy that could be extended to meat, wheat and wool which are not controlled at the farm.

He declared that he and other members of his committee intend to "do something drastic, if we have to, so the bureaucrats will not have the authority to run around doing something perfectly silly."

Representative Rankin (D-Miss) Monday told the House: "It is appalling to see the communistic mistreatment that the cotton growers of this country are now receiving at the hands of the federal government."

He said the new order is "robbing the cotton farmers of $100 a bale," since the price "is fixed at 26 cents a pound less than cotton is selling for in Brazil."

I John 1:5-7; 26:16-18; Jas. 4:6-10 THE FIVE STEPS OUT OF THE DUNGEON

Perhaps our world as a whole will have to find grace in the dungeon. As a world we are suffering from self-inflicted pain and self-chosen bondage. We are in dungeons of our own making. Perhaps we shall find in our dungeons.

As I have mentioned previously Dr. Sorokin, head of the sociology department at Harvard, says that the world's crisis is the result of the breakdown of a senate order—an order that believed the only reality was that which comes to us through our senses. That idea has exhausted itself. It is not able to take us any further. Life must form around another idea. He says that idea is the Sermon on the Mount.

In order to make this transition, Sorokin says that society must go through five stages: (1) Crisis. (2) Calad. (3) Catharsis. (4) Charisma. (5) Resurrection. This is an interesting and startling conclusion, for Christianity teaches that these are the very steps through which the individual or society go.

(1) Crisis. As the old order goes to pieces, the person of society is confronted with a choice of going down with the old or choosing a new way. The Chinese have a word for crisis made up of two characters: danger and opportunity. Those two things are in every crisis.

(2) Ordeal. There is the consequent suffering of having to change. This is the ordeal of repentance and reversal. Roots have to be torn up. The suffering may be acute. (3) Catharsis—the cleansing from old ideas that led to this bankruptcy. Repentance is metanoia—literally, "change of mind," of outlook. (4) Charisma—grace. Sorokin uses the New Testament Greek word, for it is God's grace we have to get—empowering to live in new ways. (5) Resurrection. Life is reborn, individually and collectively. Grace has been found in the dungeon. Life had to get worse before it would get better.

Perhaps you as an individual will have to pass through these five steps to Resurrection. O God, my Father, Thou dost make us go through dungeons to open doors. How it must ring Thy heart to have to stand aside and let us fall! But Thou dost love us too much to let us succeed on low planes. Precipitate the crisis that we may go through the catharsis to the Resurrection. For we must be new—at any price. Amen. Smaller Companies Fall In Line With Auto Wage Boost

DETROIT.—(AP)—Smaller companies in the auto industry began lining up behind the "Big Three" Tuesday in the five-cents-an-hour cost of living wage increase.

Packard was the first, announcing the boost for its 9,000 production workers.

Ultimately a total of 1,000,000 auto workers are expected to get the added nickel an hour under escalator wage contracts. It brings the average pay to about $1.83 an hour.

Since the weekend General Motors, Ford and Chrysler have given the raise to 565,000 employees for a total of an estimated $14,890,000 in the next three months.

In addition, commensurate increases were given salaried employees of the three firms. This will run to another estimated $3,250,000.

Army To Call More Medical Reservists

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—The Army announced Monday that 300 medical and 100 dental officers of the Medical Service Reserve will be called to duty during April.

Those being ordered to duty are men who were trained at government expense during World War II and who had less than 90 days' active military service.

VANDEMBERG'S CONDITION REPORTED STILL SERIOUS

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) rested comfortably Monday, said a report on his condition.

The senator, 66, remains in serious condition, however, after his relapse a week ago from a series of operations.

Captain William Kidd, famed pirate, was a well-known citizen of New York and lived at Pearl and Hanover Streets when not at sea.

Reporter Visits 'Little Ones'—

Church Nurseries Vital To Religious Worship Services

By Tanner Laine

Waaaaaasaaaaa! Junior might have used to wail in church.

Along about the middle of the sermon, Sallie might have started the chant: "Daddy, I wanta drink of water."

They don't anymore. They're in the nursery.

Nurseries in the various Midland churches have become vital to the religious programs.

Basically, they care for the children while parents attend worship services.

Here is how it works:

Mr. and Mrs. Midland Smith go to the church of their choice. Perhaps they have an infant or a child of pre-school age. They entrust the children to a nursery, provided by the church.

Here the children are kept by a kindly and skilled woman. She may be paid for her services or she may be a volunteer. In all cases, she loves children.

The nurseries are clean, comfortable and inviting. They are well-equipped with small furniture fitted to the tots. In the case of infants, there are baby beds. There are toys of all kinds and many story books.

Parents come and get their children when worship service is over. They are able to worship in the knowledge and relaxation — their child has excellent care.

It all works out very nicely. Most churches of the city have these nurseries, large or small. It is a thriving business, for Midland has many churches.

At one of the younger and smaller churches of the city, Mrs. Florence Marberry, who has a very full schedule of keeping children during the week, keeps the church nursery on Sunday.

She will not charge for her service. "I want to help," she says. St. Mark's Methodist Church is very grateful that she does.

On a recent Sunday, we visited some of these church nurseries of Midland. It was a pleasant trip, believe us.

We visited four nurseries—First Christian, First Presbyterian, First Methodist and First Baptist. Let us tell you what we found.

We Found Frankness
First, let us tell you, we found frankness as only children have it.

At one church, a sharp-eyed little boy asked the nursery-keeper: "What's he doing here?"

Meaning us.
Told, he blurted out: "Well, tell him to get out of here, he's too big!"

Another little boy wanted to know "who whacked your hair all off?"

Of all the Hopalong Cassidy and Roy Rogers, we did find. One sturdy youngster gave his actual name as Hopalong, and he pointed to a friend who always was Roy Rogers.

They were playing "Ring Around Rosie" and "Mulberry Bush" at the First Christian Church nursery when we arrived. Mrs. Emma Presley is in charge here. She is a paid nursery-keeper and has been in charge of it since last Summer. She loves the work.

To her, it isn't even work—it's a pleasure.

"You get to know the children and love them," Mrs. Presley said.

Eighteen-month-old Nancy, in a yellow dress, and mighty cute is in this nursery and she came during Sunday School and will stay during church.

Handsome little Brock puts on his Navy coat and is leaving. His mother tells him to tell the teacher he had a nice time.

The nursery is warm and bright. Here a little boy pushes along a fire engine. There a little girl is "coloring".

An assortment of toys are being used.

"Another girl has my coat", pipes out one little girl. The nursery-keeper straightens out the problem.

Immediate Problem
At the First Presbyterian Church, Mattie West keeps the nursery. She is a veteran of five years service. Mattie has an immediate problem this morning—a little girl is crying and her daddy has to go sing in the choir.

Mattie can handle it. She has done this thousands of times. The negro woman is beloved by all the children brought to her to keep.

"Let them play. Let them select their games. Each one has his or her ideas", says Mattie, drawing on her experience of many years in the nursery.

The children know Mattie. Soon they are all playing, a lot of different games are going at once within the large nursery room. Mattie is busy making up baby beds while keeping a practiced eye on all the 15 youngsters in her care this day.

They are in all sizes and ages. Little Donna is in a play pen. Sarah and Sallie have a game going. Cynthia took a fall but is up and playing in no time at all.

"My daddy works where you get groceries", a bright little girl tells the reporter. "You know him."

Yes, we sure do. That pleased her and away she ran to play.

They are all playing now. Mattie is humming a song, she has just heard on the church organ, and so we slip away to another church and another nursery.

Next is the First Methodist Church. It keeps three nursery rooms. One is for infants. Another is for toddlers (ages one to two). A third is for other children up to school age.

Mrs. J. N. Slaughter is keeping the Crib Room. There is an infant only six weeks old in one of the beds. Mrs. Slaughter has children of her own. She does an excellent job with the tiny ones.

Two were in her lap when we walked in—yes, they were giving out with some lusty cries.

These Are Crying Today
"I'm sorry, these are crying today," says Mrs. Slaughter.

"Is there any Sunday when they don't cry a little," we replied.

Two or three babies are asleep. One is ready for a bottle. The mother has left word with the nursery-keeper at what time that bottle is due. Gene is sleeping in a funny position.

"He always does," says Mrs. Slaughter. She knows. And she knows exactly the time he will go to sleep.

There are two boy babies and three girls to keep the keeper busy today.

We step over to the toddler's room. Geneva Merrell is keeping it today. She is reading a story to some bright-eyed charmers. And the questions are popping thick and fast. A husky little boy that Tugboat Jones is going to see plenty of in about 14 years, is engrossed in the story.

"See the old donkey and the old duck," he points.

Rosie sees them. She is right by the story-reader. Pat and Rosemary are on hand.

Mrs. S. H. Gwyn is keeping the third group at First Methodist. She is reading a story and all the time overlooking several young Hopalong Cassidys who aren't listening.

Mrs. Gwyn is a veteran nursery-keeper. She knows how. She knows children.

Here we are at the First Baptist Church. Here are three nursery rooms of the church's extended service program. There are infants, children in the one and two-year range, and those of three and four years.

We Are Marching
Mrs. Walton Porter and Mrs. G. H. Higdon are keeping the older group today and we watch. One church school teacher and one parent form the team to keep this group. Different parents and teachers perform on various Sundays.

We are marching today. One child holds up the Christian flag and another carries the Stars and Stripes. Sammy is red-haired and individualistic. He pushes a chair in front of him.

Edith Elaine and Quinlan Gay are nice little girls and know that "we don't sit on tables in God's house."

Ken and Donny, brothers, are fine fellows of the bright T-shirt and suspenders age.

Dixie is a charmer. So is Melody. "Marilyn is my name," one tells me.

The record-player was now playing a religious song, as we took leave.

Church soon would be over. Mother and daddy would be coming for all the Sammys, Rosies, Genes, Dixies and Melodys, we had seen on our tour of nurseries.

Yes, daddy and mom would be picking up the Hopalong, too.

Sooner Cancer Is Discovered The Easier It Is To Remedy

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service

Until measures have been discovered to prevent cancer and to treat it by some chemical or tissue preparation (and this may not be so far off) every grown-up should be alert to early suspicious symptoms. This is most important because even with the methods of treatment which we have today a high proportion of cures can be obtained if this disease is recognized early and appropriate steps taken.

What are the signs then which raise suspicion and should lead us to have X-rays or other investigations? Abnormal bleeding from any of the body openings is one. This is by no means always caused by cancer but it should never be ignored without trying to trace what is causing it.

The appearance of a lump anywhere on the body also should be investigated. In such cases the doctor often wants to make a little cut into it so he can remove a tiny portion of tissue and examine it under the microscope for cancer cells.

Since cancer attacks the stomach or intestines more often than any other one part of the anatomy any loss of weight which cannot be explained by dieting or some other obvious reason should not be ignored.

Difficulty in swallowing, loss of appetite or anemia are other signs requiring attention. Long continued hoarseness or a cough which does not clear up should also send one for examination.

All this means that we should not delay in the presence of suspicious signs even if they often prove to be a false alarm. And if a cancer almost anywhere is caught early it can be treated successfully. There are three methods of attacking it: to cut it out—surgery—to use X-rays, and to use radium.

Doctor Decides

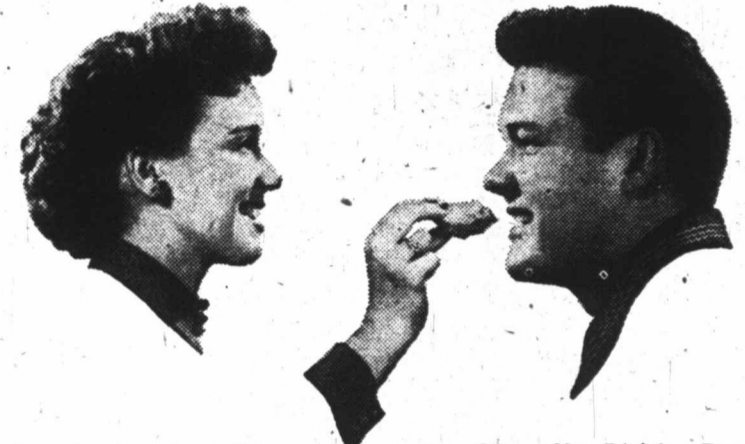

Great strides have been made in all of these. For example, it now is possible even to remove and thereby cure many cancers of the lungs though 25 years ago this seemed impossible. Which of these methods to use and how to use them is, of course, something that can be decided only by the trained doctor.

In discussing this subject it always is necessary to warn against worrying about cancer so much that life no longer is worth living. Some people do this and it just doesn't make sense. We should strive to be reasonably careful not to overlook anything important but at the same time to avoid getting into a state of chronic fright.

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Defense Mobilization Director Charles E. Wilson, who used to consider himself something of a boxer, got all fouled up with radio and television fight fan audiences when he made his last report to the nation.

It did all right—but with unexpected backfire. Friday night also is a big fight night on radio and TV. This particular Friday night happened to be the time for Joe Louis' comeback attempt with Andy Walker at San Francisco and there was a good Madison Square Garden card in New York, topped by the Janiro-Pruden bout.

Daddy Ringtail :: By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Under The Apple Tree

Uncle Bunkum from the zoo was visiting at Old MacDonald's farm. Uncle Bunkum, you may remember, always and always tries very hard to stay out of mischief, but often he doesn't try hard enough. He laughed a cackled laugh to think about it. Yes, he was going to get into mischief, he was very much afraid, all on the very fine day I'm telling you about. Uncle Bunkum walked down to the apple orchard to get him a big red apple from an apple tree. Old MacDonald had told him to do it and so he wasn't yet into mischief. "Nessie," but—again came the cackled laugh—it wouldn't be long before some mischief was happening. Old MacDonald had said that Uncle Bunkum mustn't—whatever happened, he shouldn't—open the little white box that was on the ground beneath the tree full of apples. After carefully looking back up the path that led to the farmhouse, all to be sure that no one was looking. Uncle Bunkum reached out a finger to touch the box. He did touch it. Nothing happened. He drummed it with his fingers. Still nothing happened. Humph! Why then shouldn't he open it. Why? Why? Why? Well, the main reason was that the box belonged to Old MacDonald, and Old MacDonald had said not to open it. Oh, but Old MacDonald would never know. No one would know. Uncle Bunkum was thinking, if he raised the cover of the box just enough to peep inside.

But then came a noise of "wrong-a-a-a!" The noise was a conscience getting ready to talk. "See here, Uncle Bunkum," said the Conscience. "You behave yourself, and don't you try to look away when I'm saying my say." "I hear you, Mr. Conscience," said Uncle Bunkum. "Uncle Bunkum," said the Conscience, "get yourself away from that box. It's full of bees who are trying to sleep all winter. Do you want to get yourself stung all over? Get yourself away from here now." And so Uncle Bunkum got himself away from there in a hurry. He didn't get into mischief at all. And it's much, much easier to stay out of mischief, I guess, when you know what would happen if you didn't. Happy day! (Copyright 1951, General Features Corp.)

GI Upset By Rumor Of Women's Draft

WASHINGTON —(AP)—Rep. Albert (D-Okla.) said he has received only one complaint from a service man in Korea—and that was one against any drafting of American women.

"The reason for his letter," the soldier wrote, "is to make a gripe on the drafting of girls in the states. I have heard that the U.S. is thinking about this."

Saying he hoped it is only a rumor, the serviceman from Southeastern Oklahoma added that if it is an actuality, he believes "We might as well quit this fighting" and let the Chinese "take over here and anywhere else they want to go."
