Ellenburger Wildcat Is Scheduled Near
Midland City Limits

Drilling is to start at once on a 13,500-foot wildcat one mile west of the Midland city limits.

The prospector will be Ralph Lowe of Midland No. 1 Ines G. Fasken. It is to drill to the Ellenburger—unless it develops commercial production at a lesser depth.

The exploration is to be approximately one-quarter of a mile northwest of the Texan drive-in theater, and 660 feet from northwest and northeast lines of section 6, block 39, T-3-S, T&P survey.

Rotary equipment is now being moved to the drillsite and actual drilling will start as soon as the equipment is ready.

The new wildcat is four miles due north of Lowe's No. 1 Hill, a flowing discovery from the Dean sand of the lower Permian which was completed several weeks ago. The Lowe No. 1 Hill is the closest oil well to the new prospector.

Discovery In Pecos Slated For Flanker

Wood River Oil & Refining Company, Inc., of Wichita, Kan., staked location for a 900-foot flanker stepout to C. H. Murphy & Company No. 2 Maude Ford, recently completed discovery and producer from the McKee sand in North Pecos County.

The prospector will be drilled as the No. 1 J. Williams, 330 feet from east and southwest lines of section 4, block 3, H&TC survey.

It is contracted to go to 5,500 feet with rotary tool.

The No. 1 Maude Ford was completed through perforations at 5,175-53 feet. The discovery was finalized for a daily flowing potential of 336 barrels of 43-gravity oil.

SE Ector Project
Logs Shows On DST

Some shows of gas, some free oil and a slight indication of sulphur water were developed at Vina Bagwell, Southeast Ector County wildcat in a drillstem test in the Basal Simpson sand and dolomite at 13,800-14,000 feet.

The tool was open three hours and 30 minutes. There was a slight blow of air at the start of the test. It gradually decreased to almost no blow by the end of the test.

A 2,700-foot water blanket was used. Recovery was 2,510 feet of free gas in the drill pipe, ten feet of clean 46.9-gravity oil, 360 feet of heavily oil cut water blanket, 2,340 feet of slightly oil cut and heavily gas cut water blanket and 1,710 feet of slightly oil cut and heavily gas cut drilling mud.

Salty Taste
The bottom 900 feet of the mud had a salty taste. That mud tested for a chloride content of 70,000 parts per million. There was no free salt water in the fluid which was recovered.

Open flowing bottom hole pressure was between 1,830 pounds and 2,160 pounds. Shut-in bottom hole pressure was 3,640 pounds after 20 minutes.

Operator is drilling ahead below 14,018 feet. The project is to drill to 14,080 feet and then circulate up samples from the bottom to try to determine if the Ellenburger has been reached.

Some sources reported that signs of Ellenburger material was encountered at 14,018 feet. Top of the Ellenburger had not been officially reported. Elevation is 2,937 feet.

Location is at the center of the northwest quarter of section 48, block 49, T-3-S, T&P survey. It is five miles northwest of the Sweetie Peak multiphase field of Southwest Midland County.

Oil Heads Reported In C-E Midland Test

El Capitlan Oil Company No. 1 Mrs. W. A. Hutchison, Central-East Midland County wildcat, two miles south of the Tex-Harvey field is making hole below 7,051 feet in sand and lime in the Spraberry.

During the last 24 hours, while operator was deepening from 7,045 feet to 7,061 feet, using cable tools, the well made six barrels of oil. Each head was estimated to have been approximately 20 barrels of oil. There were no signs of formation water.

Operator plans to continue drilling ahead for a little distance and then stop and make a production test.

This extender had previously swabbed 235 barrels of oil in 24 hours from the section at 7,027-34 feet.

Location is 660 feet from north and 1,880 feet from west lines of section 38, block 37, T-3-S, T&P survey. The prospect is 17 miles southeast of the City of Midland.

GOODBYE AGAIN—Therman Matheny, tire inspector at the B. F. Goodrich plant in Akron, Ohio, gives a farewell kiss to the last whitewall tire to be built for the duration of the present national emergency. He's been through this before, because twice in less than 10 years the snappy whitewalls have been banned by government order to conserve crude rubber, titanium dioxide, zinc oxide and other essential raw materials.

Two Lonely Hearts
Killers Die In Chair

OSSINING, N. Y.—(P)—Lonely hearts killers Martha Beck, 31, and Raymond Fernandez, 36, died Thursday night in Sing Sing Prison's electric chair, calm and dignified and pledging an undying love for each other.

The 200-pound murderess, her fat bulging under the straps, was the last of four persons executed in the space of 24 minutes.

She entered the high, bare death chamber unassisted, squeezed into the tight-fitting chair with difficulty and smiled ever so faintly at the two attending matrons.

"So long" formed on her lips, but her voice was silent.

Four minutes earlier, the prison doctor had muttered "I pronounce this man dead" over the body of her partly-bald Romeo, her partner in murder-for-profit.

It was Sing Sing's first quadruple execution in four years.

The parade of death began with John J. King, 22, of Long Island City, sentenced for the holdup-murder of William H. Huppe, 29, air line radio operator, last March.

King's face was a study in terror. He was dead at 11:05 p.m.

Drill To Die
Richard Power, 22, sentenced for the same crime, was the second to die. He went quietly, his hands folded and his eyes closed. He seemed to be praying.

Fernandez' brown eyes were sparkling when he entered the death chamber. His charms had been fatal bait for love-starved widows.

The suggestion of a smile played at the corners of his mouth, and he obligingly adjusted his arms for the five guards strapping him into the chair.

At the last moment he kissed a crucifix offered by the Rev. Thomas Donovan, Roman Catholic prison chaplain.

At the first jolt of the current, the little Hawaiian-born Spaniard strained against the belts.

A newspaperman's pencil fell to the floor with a startling clatter.

Weird, Perverted Romance
Fernandez was dead at 11:13 p.m. Fernandez and his paramour's love for each other—a weird, perverted romance—persisted through their 19-month separation in prison.

A few hours before they died, they issued statements through Mrs. Beck's lawyer, Herbert E. Rosenberg.

"My last statement to my attorney," the murderess said, "is that I have sinned and society will know that I am paying this debt.

Woman Grabs, Escapes With Adopted Child

WEST, TEXAS—(P)—A red-haired, 22-month-old girl was reported snatched from the arms of her foster grandmother here Friday.

Sheriff C. C. Maxey said he had been unable to find any trace of Peggy Evelyn Moore—adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moore last November 22—or a black-clad woman who, he said, entered the Moore home.

Maxey told reporters he suspected the child was taken by the child's real mother, believed to be native of Greenville, N. C.

The Moores told this story: Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. Mary Brickta, 61, was watching PEGGY Evelyn while the wife took Moore, a West undertaker, to work. About 8:30 a.m. a woman with black hair, about 35, and wearing glasses, entered the Moore home, Mrs. Brickta said.

"This is my child and I've come for it," Mrs. Brickta quoted the woman as saying. Peggy was in her bed, still dressed in her pajamas.

Leaves Coat Behind
The two women struggled when the woman picked up the child, Mrs. Brickta said.

The woman finally subdued the grandmother and left with the baby, the Moores told Maxey, but left a black coat behind. She grabbed a pink dress from a bed as she left the house.

Maxey said he had been able to trace a black-clad woman who took a bus from Waco to West and then walked to the Moore home. There the trail ended, he said.

Maxey said it was possible the woman and child left in a car that was waiting for them in West.

District Court records in Waco show that Peggy Evelyn was offered for adoption on the grounds of dependency and neglect, and that the real mother voluntarily signed an adoption release.

Body Of Student
Frank Victim Is Found In Red River

NATCHITOCHES, LA.—(P)—The body of Alan Kaplan, 18-year-old Chelsea, Mass., freshman student at Northwestern State College here, was found Friday in the Red River near the outskirts of Natchitoches.

Kaplan disappeared on the night of March 1 when he bolted into woods, the victim of a college prank. He had gone to a 100-foot bluff about three miles from here to meet a non-existent blind date friends were supposed to have arranged.

The youth, and college companions who had designed the prank, met another student posing as an "irate husband" who fired a shotgun into the air.

Kaplan ran into the woods apparently frightened by the prank.

Two Missing Girls
Found Dead Friday
In Old-Type Icebox

MESA, ARIZ.—(P)—Two little girls, missing since Thursday afternoon when they went out to play, were found dead inside an old fashioned family-type icebox here early Friday.

Coroner Jack Hunsacker expressed the belief they had smothered to death.

The victims, identified as Ester Gutierrez, seven, and her sister, Julia, four, were discovered by their father, who had searched throughout the night with police in an attempt to find the children.

They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gutierrez of Mesa. Hunsacker said he could find no evidence of foul play.

Five Persons Hurt
In Auto Accident
North Of Odessa

ODESSA—Five persons suffered injuries Thursday afternoon when two automobiles collided about five miles north of here on State Highway 51.

Two persons were treated for lacerations at an Odessa hospital. R. E. Stephens, Goldsmith, driver of one car, and Charlotte Smiley of Odessa, a passenger in Stephens' automobile, were treated at the hospital.

Harold Gene Madison of Kermit, the driver of the second automobile, was accompanied by Mrs. C. I. Malow and her daughter, Louise, of Odessa. They received minor cuts and bruises.

NOTHING TO ADD—Edwin W. Pauley, above, in Midland on one of his frequent visits, Friday declined to comment further on testimony presented Thursday to a Senate subcommittee investigating the RFC. "I authorized a statement to be issued in Washington yesterday," he said, "and I'll just stand on that."

Diary Adds
To Leads In RFC Probe

WASHINGTON—(P)—Senators probing into the operations of the RFC picked up new trails Friday from a clue-filled diary which said President Truman once intervened through an aide in behalf of an applicant for a big loan.

The diary came from the desk of Walter L. Dunham, a Reconstruction Finance Corporation (RFC) director. He quickly became one of the chief targets at a closed door hearing before a Senate Banking subcommittee conducting the inquiry. The group later made public a stenographic record of his testimony.

Truman Himself
Subcommittee members dug from the diary word that John R. Steelman, a top White House aide, had called Truman himself in telephone calls to RFC directors last June 30 after some of them balked at a proposed $12,000,000 loan to construct a garage and bomb shelter under Boston Common.

Dunham was an opponent of the "No, sir," Dunham replied twice when he was asked whether Steelman "ever urged you or any director to act favorably on a loan which you thought you should disapprove."

Fulbright handed the diary to Dunham, asking him to read a June 30 entry which said in part: "Mr. John Steelman White House (Continued On Page Five)

C. A. Price, 64, Dies
At Residence Here

Charles Albert Price, 64, died Thursday night at his residence, 508 South Mineola Street, of a heart ailment. He had been in ill health several months.

He operated Price's Laundry and had resided in Midland a year and a half. He came to Midland County from Dawson County in 1942 and farmed in the county before moving into Midland to establish the laundry.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday in the Newline W. Ellis Chapel, with interment to follow in Fairview Cemetery. The Rev. R. Luther Kirk, pastor of the First Methodist Church, will officiate at the services.

Price was born March 13, 1886, in Jackson County, Miss.

Survivors include the widow; four sons, Curtis and Howard of Midland, C. A., Jr., of Snyder and Roy Price of San Angelo; two daughters, Mrs. Harry Yant of San Jose, Calif., and Lena Marie Price of Midland; two brothers, Will of Moriarty, N. M., and Houston Price of Abilene; two sisters, Mrs. W. M. Wilkerson of Lamesa and Mrs. Jewel Madderra of Marine City, Calif., and nine grandchildren.

Red Cross Returns
Pass $5,000 Mark

Returns in the Midland County Red Cross finance campaign Thursday were in excess of $5,000. Murray Fasken, commercial district chairman, announced. An exact figure was not available.

G. E. Mershon, general campaign chairman, said many volunteer workers still have not made final reports and that the total is expected to be near the $10,000 mark by Saturday night.

The campaign, Mershon stated, will continue until the $15,000 goal is reached. He said leaders are hopeful of completing the drive long before the March 31 deadline.

Scores of volunteer workers, both men and women, are soliciting Red Cross funds in the downtown and residential districts.

Contributions also may be mailed to the Red Cross, Midland, Texas, or left at the Chamber of Commerce.

GI's Gain On All Fronts In Latest Drive

TOKYO—(P)—Allied troops ripped gaping holes in Communist lines as they drove ahead as much as four miles Friday in their big new Korean offensive.

Thousands of Red casualties were added Friday to the more than 17,000 killed or wounded in the first two days of the Allied northward push.

A U. S. Ninth Corps spokesman said "The enemy seems to be high tailing it" along the entire west-central front.

He indicated a general withdrawal from the U. S. Eighth Army's major offensive was in progress.

Ninth Corps troops pushed northward up to four miles Friday through rough country.

U. S. 25th Division troops killed or wounded an estimated 2,000 Chinese in gaining a bitter mile on the western end of the thundering 70-mile front.

The gain deepened the 25th's Han River bridgehead to five miles. The division made three assault crossings Wednesday about 15 miles east of Seoul.

With air and artillery support, the 25th Division Doughboys drove small pockets of enemy from high ground five miles north of the river crossings. Red resistance was described as moderate. American casualties were slight.

Short Of Food, Ammunition
Thirty prisoners captured Friday said their forces suffered heavy casualties from the roaring artillery barrages, air poundings and infantry attacks.

The prisoners said they were short of food and ammunition. They said also that other Chinese soldiers were eager to surrender, mainly because their officers almost invariably fled when artillery barrages hit their defense positions.

Welcome
Rain Falls
In Midland

Moisture of measuring proportions fell in Midland early Friday and was gauged at .12 inch at the City Shop. The CAA Communications Station at the Midland Air Terminal reported .18 inch.

The welcome and much-needed rain was the heaviest in Midland since September, although the recent snowfall provided more moisture.

Farmers and ranchers were happy about the rain, but commented only that "it didn't last long enough." A sharp drop in temperatures accompanied the rain. The CAA Communications Station reported a low of 34 degrees at 7:30 a.m. Friday. The high reading Thursday was 86 degrees.

The forecast for Friday night and Saturday by the U. S. Weather Bureau was for a slight rise in temperature and continued cloudiness from the Pecos Valley eastward.

The moisture here will help in bringing out grass and weeds and will benefit farm lands.

Art Exhibit Slated
Sunday In Office Of Reporter-Telegram

Residents of Midland and other Permian Basin Empire cities will have the opportunity Sunday of seeing and studying the beautiful "This Is Midland" painting and other works of art of Saint-Lou, famous French artist, at a special viewing in the Reporter-Telegram office, 221 North Main Street.

Viewing hours will be from 3 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. Sunday. The public is invited.

The "This Is Midland" painting, a typical Midland skyline scene, now is on display at the Midland Hardware and Furniture Company, Highest Bidder.

Saint-Lou has donated the painting to Midland, with the request that it be sold to the highest bidder, and with the proceeds going to the Midland Memorial Hospital, which opened for service here last July. The Reporter-Telegram is arranging the sale. Everyone will have the opportunity of bidding for the oil paintings of Paris and Mexico and numerous portraits will be on display Sunday at the Reporter-Telegram. The artist and his wife will be on hand to discuss the works of art with interested persons.

Mr. and Mrs. Saint-Lou are visiting Midland while on a tour of the United States. He is known as France's "Ambassador of Goodwill."

McCamey Lions Club
Again Contributes To Joan Edwards Fund

The Joan Edwards Recovery Fund has received a $224.72 check from the McCamey Lions Club—the proceeds from Lions Club-sponsored benefit basketball games played between the McCamey News Publishing Company and the House of David and the News and Arkansas Travelers.

The money has been forwarded to Mr. and Mrs. Jap Edwards of Rankin, parents of Joan Edwards, who was injured seriously in an automobile accident between Midland and Odessa Jan. 17, 1948.

The young woman, a former Reporter-Telegram employe, has been unconscious since that time. She now is at the home of her parents in Rankin.

The McCamey Lions Club was among the first to contribute to the Joan Edwards Recovery Fund in the Summer of 1948, and since then the club has sponsored numerous benefit events for the special fund.

Search For Sooner
Fugitives Shifts
To Wichita Falls

WICHITA FALLS—(P)—Two tough Texas brothers who broke out of an Oklahoma jail may be using a stolen ambulance to elude police.

Roadblocks were thrown up in this area Thursday night after reports the big, black ambulance had been seen at a night spot here near the home of Chester Lee and Norman Davenport.

The Davenports overpowered a jailer, took his gun, and fled the Mayes County, Okla., jail Tuesday. They fled in the jailer's automobile, later found abandoned.

They had been held on an armed robbery charge in connection with the abduction February 13 of Oklahoma Highway Patrolman Loyd Francisco. He was released unharmed after a six-hour ride at gunpoint.

One Man Missing In Superfort Crash

WOODLAND, CALIF.—(P)—Wearry searchers plodded the mucky lowlands of Butte Creek north of here Friday for trace of an Air Force lieutenant who parachuted out of a stricken B-29 bomber Thursday.

Eight of the missing flier's fellow crew members jumped to safety, moments before the Superfort crashed in flames.

The search for First Lt. Harry D. Bolton of Vallejo, Calif., continued through the night.

Gene Tierney Is Leading On Your Hip Parade

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD — Hips are back in Hollywood thanks to an Italian lass named Sylvia Mangano and Gene Tierney is admitting that she's leading the hip-hip hooray parade in "The Mating Season."

Gene, still rounded and Venus-shaped on the set of "The Secret of Convict Lake," made no secret about it.

"My husband," she said, "likes women to be heavy. I weighed almost 135 pounds when I made 'The Mating Season.' It doesn't interfere with the chic of a woman to have curves. And there's no trouble photographing her. I'd like to keep heavy."

Negro Woman Who Survived Freezing Loses Both Feet

CHICAGO —(P)— Mrs. Dorothy Mae Stevens, whose survival from a record low temperature of 64 degrees made medical history, underwent the amputation of both legs nine inches below the knees Thursday.

The condition of the 23-year-old negro woman, who was found frozen stiff in a South Side alley on February 8, was reported as "satisfactory" at Michael Reese Hospital.

A hospital spokesman said the amputation was decided upon as a "life-saving measure." Doctors earlier had expressed hope no major amputation would be necessary and only skin grafting would be required.

Jesus gave an intimation of His death when a woman came to Him in the home of Simon, the leper, in Bethany, and anointed Him with precious ointment.

His disciples protested. Such costly ointment might be sold to feed the poor. Jesus rebuked them, saying: "To have the poor always with you but me ye have not always."

St. Matthew relates He continued: "For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial." Some have said she was to bury Him in her own balm.

Diary—

telephoned. Said the President had requested him to call each director of the RFC regarding the garage to be constructed under the Boston Common, Boston, Mass. x x x

"Mr. Dunham questioned the legality of the loan. Dr. Steelman also stated that the study of the situation revealed that conditions would justify extreme interest on the part of RFC."

William M. Boyle, Jr.

The RFC directors approved the loan that same day, but the money never was turned over because the applicant, Motor Parks, Inc., did not meet the conditions the agency laid down for security.

Dunham also testified that William M. Boyle, Jr., Democratic national chairman, once "asked me if I would use my influence" to have George Tribble, a Baltimore insurance man, appointed a director of the Preferred Accident Insurance Company, an RFC borrower.

The diary recorded that Tribble got the job; that Dunham reported on it to Boyle's office, but that Dunham later balked at a proposal to make Tribble president of the company.

Dunham, a lifelong Republican, conceded he became a member of "a social group" which had lunch with Boyle "two or three times." Other he said, were William E. Willett, an RFC director also under fire from the subcommittee; White House Aide Donald Dawson, and E. Merl Young, husband of a White House stenographer.

Edwin W. Pauley

Boyle's office once asked, he said, that a firm headed by Edwin W. Pauley, former Democratic Party treasurer, "be made special and approved" to operate a government-owned rubber plant in California.

The diary reported that Dunham promised Pauley's Pacific Rubber Company "every consideration," and that Pauley got the contract after Dunham called a man in the National Rubber Reserve, an arm of the RFC.

Pauley, through a representative here, issued a statement saying Pacific Rubber had been operating at a disadvantage as it did not have a synthetic rubber plant to operate in conjunction with its tire manufacture.

"We were not successful" in correcting the situation, Pauley said. He added: "If this is supposed to be an example of 'influence' on the RFC, it was not very good influence, because we were unable to get the consideration to which we were entitled."

In Midland, Texas, Pauley Friday declined to discuss the RFC testimony further.

'The Big Grab'

One of a series exposing the Federal Government's confiscation of the oil-rich Tidelands

(Copyright, 1951, The Dallas Morning News)

By ALLEN DUCKWORTH

There are those who insist that Pappy O'Daniel of Texas was able to contribute little during his term in the United States Senate.

That is not true. He coined a classic term: "Legal looting."

The term was applied to the methods used to put across the "Big Grab"—the political conspiracy to saw off valuable seaward boundaries of the states of Texas, Louisiana and California.

This fight is nearing a climax. Texas is pleading for Congress to override a warped, politically-tainted edict of the United States Supreme Court.

Texas has a selfish interest. Those submerged lands off its coasts are leased to oil prospectors. The school kids of Texas have a stake. Oil lease revenue goes to the public school fund.

There's more than a selfish interest.

Spurred in Bureaucracy

Texas is trying to awaken other states to the menace.

If that strange philosophy spawned in the waters of bureaucracy is allowed to stand, the extension of federal seizures could wipe out any horizon dividing the title to property. State control of waters, fish, piers, riverbeds, lakes and all other submerged lands could be transferred to the Federal Government.

Under the Constitution, the Congress is the maker of laws. The Supreme Court interprets them—or is supposed to.

Now the Supreme Court, in the Tidelands case, has started making laws. It has started breaking solemn agreements. And the President of the United States has aided and abetted.

Three times did Congress refuse to grant the Justice Department authority to proceed against the states to seize their oil-bearing Tidelands. That was back in the thirties.

Texas was in there fighting from the start, although the original attack was against California because California took a lead in tapping offshore oil deposits.

After all, fifty-three past Supreme Court decisions had favored state control of offshore lands.

And, in the special case of Texas, the United States had agreed that Texas could keep all vacant lands "lying within its limits" when it joined the Union.

There must be a reason for the "Big Grab" plot. Jimmy Alfred, while Governor of Texas, had an explanation. Said Alfred:

"When lands become valuable somebody wants to get them."

Roosevelt Was A Piker

Alfred was a good New Dealer, but he couldn't digest the plot cooked up by the "Big Grab" chefs headed by "Honest Harold" Ickes, the secretary of the Interior.

Falling to get congressional action, the "Big Grab" crowd ignored Congress and turned to the courts, anyway.

But it is interesting to recall that while Franklin D. Roosevelt was alive, nothing was done about suing the states.

Roosevelt has been criticized severely for favoring super powers for the federal government. But he was a piker along that line when compared with President Truman.

Six weeks after President Roosevelt died, the "Big Grab" really got going.

The argument had been that oil drillers with California leases were trespassers.

Attorney General Francis Biddle filed a suit against the Pacific Western Oil Company for trespass on 144 acres of productive Tidelands off the coast of Santa Barbara County, California.

Law Isn't Perfect

Now, as every citizen knows, when a suit is filed in federal district court, each side has a chance to present evidence. The case can be appealed to a circuit court. And, if desired, it can be taken all the way to the Supreme Court of the United States.

While every citizen understands that simple judicial system, every citizen also knows there are cases in which certain parties do not want to hear evidence. Too, every citizen knows the law isn't perfect and that a smart lawyer who looks close enough and long enough is likely to find a loophole—in his favor.

The states, alarmed by this lawsuit in California, pressed for Congress to clarify ownership of the Tidelands; to say flatly that the Federal Government had no claim.

Law and precedent were on the side of the states, but you can cloud any title, no matter how good, with a lawsuit, no matter how weak.

'The Big Grab'

One of a series exposing the Federal Government's confiscation of the oil-rich Tidelands

(Copyright, 1951, The Dallas Morning News)

By ALLEN DUCKWORTH

Congressional sentiment leaned toward the states.

This didn't set well in the "Big Grab" circles. It became evident to them that they must put new gears in their strategy.

Tom Clark Arrives

While Congress deliberated on the quit-claim legislation, a new Attorney General came to the Cabinet—Tom C. Clark of Dallas, Texas.

Obviously, the congressional resolution would blow the district court trespass suit right into the bay.

There must be some way to go right to the Supreme Court, with no dilly-dallying with evidence and testimony.

The "Big Grab" found a path to the Supreme Court itself under Article III, Section 2, of the Constitution, which reads:

"In all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers, and consuls, and those in which a State shall be a party, the Supreme Court shall have original jurisdiction."

That was a wonderful idea, as you shall see.

The Attorney General dismissed the district court trespass suit against the oil company.

A suit as an "original" action was filed in Supreme Court against California itself! Such procedure is rare.

Harold Ickes has taken full credit for the switch of the case from district court in California to the Supreme Court in Washington. Writing in his newspaper column, "Man to Man," back in July, 1947, Ickes said:

"I decided that the surest and quickest route was a beeline to the Supreme Court itself."

With Truman's Blessing

After Roosevelt died, relates Ickes, Attorney General Biddle, with the blessing of President Harry S. Truman, filed the district court suit. That wasn't good enough for "Honest Harold."

"I had always urged the filing of an original suit in the Supreme Court," the Ickes story goes.

After Tom Clark replaced Biddle as Attorney General:

"I persuaded President Truman to instruct this Attorney General, Tom Clark, to dismiss the suit in the district court and file an original proceeding in the Supreme Court."

"Thus we were able to get a much quicker final decision than if the case had dragged its weary way from the district court to the circuit court of appeals and then to the Supreme Court."

Mark you well that this Supreme Court suit was filed while Congress had before it the quitclaim resolution in favor of the states.

Congress wasn't in as big a hurry as the "Big Grab" crowd.

Congress didn't do its job overnight. It held exhaustive hearings. It heard both sides, including Harold Ickes.

Congress passed the quitclaim resolution in 1946.

President Truman slapped a veto on the resolution.

All Right For 'Grab' Boys

The President's reason for a veto: The case was before the Supreme Court and "the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court should not be interfered with while it is arriving at its decision."

When the "Big Grab" boys made the beeline to the Supreme Court while Congress was deliberating, it was all right.

When the Congress acted while the Supreme Court was deliberating, it was all wrong.

Or was it that there was a rather certain feeling that the Supreme Court would deliver the goods as per schedule?

Justice Black wrote an opinion June 23, 1947, saying that the Federal Government had first say on California's offshore oil lands.

Justice Felix Frankfurter, in his dissent, registered judicial shock. As liberal as is Frankfurter's background, the Roosevelt appointee insisted that the Supreme Court was taking over a function of the Congress.

The "Big Grab" crowd had won its first round. It then cast hungry eyes at the school kids' land in Texas.

Dreaded Cancer Does Not Kill Persons Without Ample Warning

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

Cancer is on the minds of lots of people as a result of which many questions are sent to me, a few of which are answered today.

Q—Could one have cancer of the lungs, heart and abdomen and not know it but die suddenly?

A—Cancer is not one of the causes of sudden death. It seems hardly possible that someone could have such an extensive cancer and not know it.

He has stomach trouble but served during the last war in the Army. Could he have had a cancer all this time?

A—It seems that your friend has a bad case of cancerophobia—abnormal fear of cancer. He should go to a physician in whom he has confidence and have a complete examination, including X-rays. If nothing suspicious is found (which is probable) he should make a real effort to forget this worry which must make life a torment for him.

Q—My mother has a cancer and we would like to try anything. Is there any chance that ACTH or cortisone would help?

A—Temporary improvement is the best that has been reported so far from these preparations. As yet there is no wonder drug for cancer.

Q—My brother developed a lung cancer several years ago and had one lung removed. He has been fine since. He used to be a heavy smoker. Could the smoking have had anything to do with this?

A—I can only say this: there have been several studies on the question, which suggest but do not prove, that there is an association between heavy smoking and lung cancer. Some doctors have been sufficiently convinced to give up smoking themselves and others have not.

Q—A year and a half ago my husband was told he had a cancer of the duodenum. He was not operated on but has continued to work every day, has gained weight and has a ravenous appetite. How is this possible?

A—The duodenum lies just below the stomach and is a not uncommon location for cancer. In a case like this there are two possibilities, I think. Perhaps your husband did not actually have a cancer at all or if he did the cancer may not have interfered with the emptying of the stomach or the digestive processes so that he has been able to get enough nutriment.

Q—I have recently noticed some white spots on my tongue and lining of my mouth. Could this turn into cancer?

A—This is probably a condition known as leukoplakia. It should be treated at once by stopping smoking, and by medical measures. It is not cancer but can develop in that direction and should be taken as a warning which if heeded in time can be prevented from causing future difficulty.

Q—Can anything at all be done to prevent cancer?

A—This is the big question. With the exception of a few special kinds of cancer which are brought on by irritating chemicals or other special forms of injury to certain tissues there is not much which can be done today to prevent cancer. If we could choose our ancestors it would almost certainly help since a tendency to the disease seems to run in some families.

Q—My husband and I have a dear friend now more than 40 years old who has been worrying about having cancer since his school days.

Q—Can anything at all be done to prevent cancer?

With the exception of a few special kinds of cancer which are brought on by irritating chemicals or other special forms of injury to certain tissues there is not much which can be done today to prevent cancer. If we could choose our ancestors it would almost certainly help since a tendency to the disease seems to run in some families.

DADDY RINGTAIL

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Plays A Joke

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, had come to visit with Old MacDonald who has a farm. Old MacDonald was working and working as fast as he could. "I have to make hay while the sun shines," said Old MacDonald with a friendly laugh.

"Make hay while the sun shines" is a something that people are often saying. They mean you can't make hay while the rain is falling down, because the rain will fall on the hay and get it wet. Yes, and if you were a donkey or a cow, you wouldn't like to eat any hay that is wet.

Well, there was nothing Daddy Ringtail could do to help Old MacDonald with his making of hay while the sun was shining, and so Daddy Ringtail sat down beneath a tree to watch. Old MacDonald kept working hard and fast, and every little bit he would look up at the sky—hoping and hoping that a raincloud wouldn't come along and hide the sun to keep it from shining.

worked faster than ever to hear it—so fast that you could hardly see him. The thunder rumbled and bumbled and bounced around in the sky again, and Old MacDonald began to work faster than anyone ever worked before or since. Why, Daddy Ringtail was afraid that he might wear himself out like an old shoe that is all used up and not good for anything any more. And then Daddy Ringtail saw what the trouble was.

The Rainmaker was hiding in the bushes nearby. The Rainmaker was saying some magic words. He was saying: "Been teen, leather feather drip!" Those were the words to make thunder in the sky, for the Rainmaker was playing a joke on Old MacDonald.

Daddy Ringtail asked the Rainmaker please not to do it any more, because only an unkind joke would make anyone work as hard as Old MacDonald was working. Jokes are happy things, all right, you know, if they aren't unkind to people. Happy day!

SIDE GLANCES

"No one would have noticed a dent like this on the old car—buying a new one was your own fault!"

No one can make hay while the sun shines. If the sun isn't shining and while Daddy Ringtail was sitting there, thinking these things, watching Old MacDonald do the making of hay as fast as he could the thunder rumbled and bounced around in the sky. Old MacDonald

Israel's First Circus Having Tough Time

TEL AVIV—(AP)—The first circus in this country has celebrated its first anniversary gaily, although under somewhat austere circumstances. The circus—an ex-soldiers' cooperative enterprise—which has its tents in Ramat Gan, near Tel Aviv, has no lions because the food controller can't allocate them enough meat. There is enough fish file in the country, but lions don't like it. A bear act could be booked only because the bear's owner undertook to bring the honey with him.

ALLEY BOY

What's wrong with this boy? Why does he loiter in the alley, sneering at the world around him?

Good for nothing... juvenile delinquent... future criminal... those are some of the answers we hear.

But is there really anything wrong with this boy that religious training wouldn't have cured?

Long ago, if given the chance, the Church could have begun to mold his character along noble lines. A Christian home, Christian teachers and Christian pals could have kept him away from the alley—on a high road.

One of the priceless opportunities America offers her children is the advantage of religious training. A child cannot accept this opportunity himself. It is up to his parents to recognize its essential value, and to cooperate with and support the Church in its life-building work.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Aching Hand Puts Snead Far Back In Miami Beach Open

MIAMI BEACH, FLA.—(AP)—The flashy shooting of Al Brosch, the aching left hand of Sammy Snead, and golf's "Mexican rhubarb" shared the conversation spotlight Friday as the $10,000 Miami Beach Open Golf Tournament entered the second round.

With not a galleryite following his game, Brosch, the 39-year-old redhead from Garden City, L. I., fired a 66, just one stroke over the record for the Normandy Isle course. This established the first-round pace for the field of 153.

Snead had a gallery of about 400 as he shot a 69 despite his throbbing south paw, to go into a nine-way tie for twelfth place. The West Virginian said the hand, fractured last December, "hurts me all the time."

A doctor followed him over the first nine, ready to shoot novocaine into the hand if it pained Snead too much, but Sammy settled for a strip of adhesive tape.

Vic Ghezzi and Jimmy Demaret, two of the players fined by the PGA for competing in the unannounced Mexico City Open Tournament last month, did not compete. Ghezzi was barred because he refused to pay the fine. A Texas fan paid for Demaret.

Texas, A&M Start Crucial Cage Playoff Series Friday Night

COLLEGE STATION.—(AP)—Texas and Texas A&M square off here Friday night in the first of a best two-out-of-three series to pick the Southwest Conference's entry in the Western Regional NCAA Tournament at Kansas City.

The Aggies knocked Texas Christian out of the running 50-44 last Tuesday.

The three teams had tied for the Southwest Conference championship and the playoff was arranged to pick the entry in the National Collegiate Athletic Association Tournament March 21.

The teams switch to Austin Monday night and if a third game is needed it will be played there Tuesday.

The Aggies are favored to beat Texas in the playoff, though the Longhorns have the advantage of the last two games at home. A&M hasn't beaten Texas on the Longhorns' home court since 1934.

U. S. Cage Victory Puts Final Touch To Pan Am Games

BUENOS AIRES.—(AP)—Some two thousand athletes watched quietly Friday while the flags of 20 nations were hoisted down in pomp and ceremony at the end of the first Pan American Games.

The placid scene contrasted with the hysteria that prevailed in the wee, small hours Friday morning after the United States defeated Argentina for the basketball championship 57-51.

It was the last and most dramatic of Pan American contests, ending after midnight.

President and Senora Peron attended Friday's pageantry, patterned after the 1948 Olympic Games in London. After the torch was extinguished, competitors and officials left the country with a promise to assemble again in 1953 at Mexico City for the second Pan American games.

Barstow Goes Down In First Round Of Girls Cage Tourney

AUSTIN.—(AP)—One division moved into semi-final play and another opened action Friday in the first girls basketball tournament in Intercollegiate League history.

Denton Valley of Clyde and Troy moved into the semi-finals of Class B Thursday.

Sulphur Bluffs meets Claude and Duncannon plays Industrial of Vanderbilt to determine the other Class B semi-finalists.

Class A action opens with Plano meeting Itasca; Carrizo Springs taking on McLean; Comanche playing Decatur and Fredericksburg meeting West Columbia.

Class A semi-finals are scheduled Saturday morning. Championships will be determined in both divisions Saturday night.

Trouble came in twin size for Barstow, as Jean and Jo Farmer led Denton Valley to a 51-20 victory. It was Barstow's first defeat of the year.

Jean made 16 points and Jo 15. Troy beat Warren 50-42, pulling ahead in the second half after the lead had changed hands eight times.

The girls this year are writing the record book and when they get through 63 marks will be on the books—21 in overall tournament play and 21 records for both Class 4 and Class B.

Collazo Indicted On 13 Counts In Basketball Scandals

NEW YORK.—(AP)—Salvatore T. Sollazzo, alleged king-pin fixer behind college basketball's biggest scandal, was to be arraigned Friday on a 13-count bribery indictment.

In handing down the indictment Thursday, the grand jury considered only Sollazzo's alleged game-fixing activities involving four City College of New York stars and the attempted bribery of a New York University player.

The indictment charges Sollazzo with bribing or attempting to bribe basketball players to insure results which would clinch bets made on games.

District Attorney Frank S. Hogan's office said the grand jury based its indictment only on the first arrests made last month when the fix scandal rocked the sports world.

No mention was made by the jury of six Long Island University players or former players under arrest purportedly for taking money from Sollazzo to rig scores in Madison Square Garden games.

YANK AT OXFORD—George Yank, star watch and megaphone handy, is the coxswain of the Oxford University crew. He was formerly at Yale. Oxford, one oar manned by an Australian, meets Cambridge in the traditional race on the Thames, Mar. 24. (NEA)

Andy Hansen Again Having Arm Trouble

CLEARWATER, FLA.—(AP)—Andy Hansen, former New York Giants righthanded pitcher purchased from Minneapolis by the Philadelphia Phillies, is having arm trouble again.

Hansen was forced to retire in the eighth inning of Thursday's intracamp game because of a recurrence of the arm trouble that forced him to give up baseball last September 1.

Border Olympics Underway

LAREDO.—(AP)—The vanguard of 981 track and field performers moved out Friday in the nineteenth Border Olympics. Preliminaries of the junior college division, in which 10 teams had entries, were first on the program.

Friday afternoon, some 500 school-boys whip through trials.

The big show comes Saturday, when the universities and colleges swing into action with preliminaries in the morning. Finals of the junior college and high school classes are in the afternoon and the main events—seven universities and 13 colleges finally battling time and distance—at night.

Aggies Defend Crown

Texas A&M puts its championship on the line against Texas, Rice, Baylor, Southern Methodist, Texas Christian and the lone out-of-state entry—Louisiana State.

Schreiner Institute defends its championship in the junior college division, North Texas State in the college division and Odessa, featuring its great sprinter, Joe Childress, in the high school class.

Entries in the college division are North Texas, Abilene Christian, East Texas State, Howard Payne, McMurry, Southwest Texas State, Sul Ross, Texas A&I, Texas Western, Trinity University, University of Houston, Stephen F. Austin and Texas Lutheran.

Battling Schreiner in the junior college division are San Antonio, Howard County, Edinburg Regional, Del Mar (Corpus Christi), Odessa, Laredo, Texas Southmost, Victoria and Southwest Texas.

One Southern divisional state tournament has already been set up at Sinton, under the sponsorship of the Sinton Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with the Plymouth Oil Company. The event will be held in mid-July.

Tentative sites for the North divisional Texas tournament are Longview, Kilgore or Henderson. Either Alpine or Odessa is favored for the West Texas tourney. Pasadena is favored as the site of the East Texas event.

The Alpine Cowboys, 1950 Texas champions, finished in a fourth place tie in the national ratings last season in the national tournament at Wichita.

Rotary Picked To Beat Texarkana

HOUSTON.—Midland's Rotary Engineers of West Texas and the Texarkana All-Stars were to clash here Friday afternoon in the first round of the state Texas Amateur Athletic Federation tournament.

Site of the contest was Houston Public School gym. The Engineers—winners in 26 of 29 contests, and led by former Kentucky U ace Jim Lane and North Texas ex-flash Bennie Rutherford—ruled a slight favorite to defeat the East Texas team.

Texas, Sooner Ags Top Cage Defenders

NEW YORK.—(AP)—The Texas Aggies and Oklahoma A&M were tied among national college basketball teams Friday for top defensive honors. Each permitted an average of 44.5 points per game.

Arkansas, 45.9, ranked third; Texas, 47.7, sixth, and TCU, 48.9, tenth.

Wearne Is Given Release By Indians

H. W. Donohoo, Midland baseball owner, announced Friday that Pitcher Hal Wearne has been given his outright release by the Indian club.

Wearne won but four games while losing 12 with the Indians last season. His earned run average was 5.05.

Russ Christopher Gets Back In Harness

TUCSON, ARIZ.—(AP)—Russ Christopher, whose career as a relief hurler was interrupted by a heart condition, is ready to go back to work for the Cleveland Indians.

The 33-year-old righthander began working out with the San Diego farm camp here Friday.

DER BINGLE TO TAKE GANDER AT 1951 BUCS

SAN BERNARDINO, CALIF.—(AP)—Bing Crosby, vice president of the Pittsburgh Pirates, expects to get his first glimpse of the 1951 Bucs on Sunday.

Crosby, recovering from a kidney operation, will watch the Pirates play the St. Louis Browns at Burbank.

SECURITIES LICENSE

AUSTIN.—A general securities dealer's license for John C. Williams of Midland was issued by the office of John Ben Shepperd, secretary of State.

Kentucky's Spivey Heads All-America Selection By AP

NEW YORK.—(AP)—Two of the game's tallest players at seven feet and six-nine, two medium-size players at six-four and six-one and a diminutive five-eight sparkplug make up the 1951 Associated Press All-America basketball team.

Selected by a vote of 227 sports writers and broadcasters were:

Bill Spivey, Kentucky seven-footer whose great rebound work helped Kentucky to the Southeastern Conference title and to No. 1 ranking in the final Associated Press poll.

Clyde Lovellette, Kansas six-niner, exceptionally fast for a big man who this year set a Big Seven Conference scoring mark of 286 points in 12 games.

Gene (Squeaky) Melchiorre, Bradley's "midget George Mikan" at five-eight, who repeatedly has demonstrated inspiring leadership qualities on the hardwood.

Sammy Ranzino, six-one North Carolina State, whose ability under pressure has played a big part in bringing Southern Conference titles to N. C. State the last four years.

Bill Mikky, six-four, Temple, who has no weakness according to his coach. He scored 731 points in 25 games for a 29.2 average, handled 178 assists and grabbed 460 rebounds.

Second, Third Teams

Spivey, Lovellette and Mikky are juniors. Ranzino and Melchiorre seniors.

Dick Groat, who rimmed 831 points for Duke this year; Bob Zawoluk, St. John's, Brooklyn; Bill Garrett, Indiana; Gale McArthur, Oklahoma A&M; and Ernie Barrett, Kansas State, made the second team.

A third team is composed of Mel Hutchins, Brigham Young; Whitey Skoog, Minnesota; John Azary, Columbia; Mark Workman, West Virginia; and Frank Ramsey, Kentucky.

12 Cage Teams Set For Opening Of NIT In Garden Saturday

NEW YORK.—(AP)—It's basketball tournament time again... and starting with the National Invitation Tournament here Saturday until the final of the NCAA Tournament on March 27 in Minneapolis, the top teams in the country will scramble for these two coveted crowns.

The NIT in Madison Square Garden is set with 12 quintets ready. The final is March 17.

The NCAA picture is not quite complete. Five places remained open Friday. Champions of the Pacific Coast and Southwest Conference will fill two, while the other three will be taken up by Eastern "at large" teams—not members of 10 major conferences, whose winners automatically get bids.

As for the NIT, only one New York school—there usually are three or four—will play. That's St. John's, which, incidentally, is one of the teams trying for both the NIT and NCAA titles for the first time. CUNY won both last year.

Cincinnati, St. Bonaventure, Belmont, Brigham Young, Dayton and Lawrence Tech never have played in the NIT before. The other half-dozen—Arizona, St. John's, St. Louis, North Carolina State, La Salle and Seton Hall—are NIT veterans.

A third team is composed of Mel Hutchins, Brigham Young; Whitey Skoog, Minnesota; John Azary, Columbia; Mark Workman, West Virginia; and Frank Ramsey, Kentucky.

East Texas Baptists Clinch NAIB Berth

By The Associated Press

East Texas Baptist College of Marshall had one of Texas' spots in the NAIB Basketball Tournament clinched Friday and Friday night Texas Tech and Southwest Texas Tech for the other.

East Texas Baptist Thursday night licked Austin College, Texas Conference champion, 66-51 for the right to play in the tournament at Kansas City next week.

Texas Tech, top Texas team in the Border Conference, and Southwest Texas, Lone Star Conference winner, meet in Lubbock.

Longhorn League To Meet In Big Spring

BIG SPRING.—Longhorn League owners and managers, along with sports scribes and radio announcers of the towns in the loop, will meet here at 1 p.m. Sunday in the Settles Hotel.

Biggest point of discussion will be the raising of number of class men. The limit already has been hiked from three to four, but is expected to go even higher.

Promotional plans will be discussed by the loop and player transactions announced.

Layne, Satterfield Battle Friday Night For Crack At Charles

NEW YORK.—(AP)—Rex Layne, the Utah walloper, and Bob Satterfield, an up-and-coming larrupier from Chicago, battle Friday night in Madison Square Garden. Out of the 10-round scrap may come a new challenger for Ezzard Charles' heavyweight crown.

The 22-year-old Layne, who zoomed up with his decision over Jersey Joe Walcott, then lost prestige in a dull victory over Cesar Brion, aims for a knockout to regain popularity.

Texas has more miles of railroad than any other U. S. state—15,670 miles.

Landlords Hear Two Association Officials Blast Rent Controls

Rent control would throttle landlords and damage the war-effort, a small audience of property owners from three cities was told here Thursday night.

State Rep. Carlton Moore, Houston, president of the Texas Apartment and Property Owners Association, hurried charges of socialism at official Washington and challenged his listeners to battle rent control legislation pending in Congress. He also ripped into attempts to establish socialized medicine.

Only 25 property owners, representing Midland, Odessa and Big Spring attended the meeting held in the district courtroom of the Midland County Courthouse. They pitched in with sums up to $100 to combat federal rent control.

Jack Pinkston of Dallas, managing director of the association, explained two rent control bills now before a congressional committee. One of the bills, he charged, does not limit appropriations for its administration and also would deprive property owners of constitutional rights.

Pinkston said a group will go to Washington next week to oppose the bills. The present control law expires March 31, he said.

"Spineless Hypocrites"

He said Texas congressmen stand 14-7 against rent control.

"Senator Lyndon Johnson will be for these bills and Tom Connally probably would be if he weren't coming up for reelection next year," Pinkston said.

Moore spoke forty-five minutes and said rent control would hurt the war effort in defense areas.

"The national government is lined up from top to bottom with communism while our boys are dying by the thousands to fight communism," he charged.

"If you continue to sit idly by and elect spineless, doublecrossing hypocrites to public office you are going to have a revolution. Even in our own state government I defy you to name one thing you can do without paying taxes or getting a license."

He said government seizure of Texas Tideland was only a forerunner to control of the school system.

The two men will hold a similar meeting at El Paso Friday night.

The MATURE PARENT

Child's Misbehavior Is Test Of Parents' Love

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

A child's misbehavior is always a test of his parents' love. Until we can accept the idea that the impudence, lies, tantrums and defiance our youngsters exhibit are by-products of our own fears and insecurities, we have little real hope of helping them overcome their problems.

This is a hard idea to accept because it hits us where it hurts—in our own self-satisfaction. And here's where love comes in. If we do not love, we will resist the battle for self-knowledge. The quality of our love is under test.

If the love is of good quality, it will give us strength to welcome this idea joyfully and with increasing gratitude. Our discovery of ourselves leads to the discovery of our child.

When this idea is accepted, we find our feeling for our child flooded with a wholly new appreciation of his value to us. We are humble with thanksgiving for the relationship that has inspired us to find ourselves.

Parenthood Strains Courage
Many of us get by until our child is born. We do a fair job of work; if our marriage has not come up to our romantic expectations, it is satisfactory enough. When our baby is born, we say: "My life is set—and what's all this talk about the problems of parenthood?"
Parenthood will teach us, if we are teachable, that we are never set. If we have not learned already, it will teach us that the fear that kept us from defending a false charge made against us by a friend is the same fear that now makes us afraid to demand consideration from our child.

It will teach us that the self-doubt that kept us from asking for the raise we had earned is the same doubt that now weakens our stand on bed-time. It will teach us that the moral cowardice that let our family dictate our choice of a profession is the moral cowardice our child exploits by making embarrassing scenes in public.
Like no other human relationship, parenthood strains the seams of our courage and character. For whether we know it or not, it has forced us into leadership—and if we love and want to lead well, we cannot evade the job of knowing why and where we are going.

Livestock Show Judges Selected

Judges for the county section of the Midland Livestock Show have been obtained, J. R. Cuffman, a member of the show committee, announced Friday.

G. W. Barnes, district extension agent from Fort Stockton, will judge the county steers. E. L. Tiner, supervisor of vocational agriculture for the Alpine area, has agreed to judge lambs. L. M. Hargraves of Texas Tech will judge the hogs in both the county and district shows. Cuffman also announced that Jim Gray of San Angelo will judge lambs in the district show.

Midland County animals to be entered in the county show will be weighed Tuesday afternoon and judged Wednesday morning, the opening date of the show.

Livestock for the district show will be weighed Wednesday afternoon, judged Thursday and the sale will be held Friday.

An estimated 100 lambs, 40 calves and 45 hogs will be entered in this year's show, according to Cuffman.

Ed Stitt Elected President Of First Presbyterian Men

Ed Stitt, assistant city attorney, was elected president of the First Presbyterian Men of Midland at the annual officer election meeting of the laymen's group held Thursday night in the church's Fellowship Hall. He succeeds Al H. Vineyard.

George Van Huset was named vice president, succeeding Nelson Puett, and John E. Reid was elected to succeed Sol Bunell as secretary-treasurer.

Three slates of candidates were submitted by Frank Stubben, Ernest Sidwell and Bill Collins. The officers election annually is a high spot in the club's entertainment program.

A church progress report was given by Dr. R. Matthew Lynn, pastor, and W. H. Crenshaw, president of Men of the Church of the El Paso Presbytery, reported on recent Synod and Presbytery conferences. The Rev. Lewis O. Waterstreet, pastor, and C. A. McClintic of the St. Andrews Presbyterian Church were special guests.
The dinner was prepared and served by members of Circle 5, Women of the Church.

GREAT MOVEMENTS BORN OUT OF TROUBLED TIMES

Great movements come out of dark periods. Men find grace in the dungeon. Dr. Kenneth S. Latourette has traced some great movements born of dark periods. In 1789 the French Revolution broke out and was followed by the Napoleonic wars which lasted from 1792 to 1815. In the span of those distressing years the following events occurred: 1792: In the year of the Reign of Terror in Paris the Baptist Missionary Society was organized, growing out of the work of William Carey. 1799: When Napoleon was returning to France from his campaign in Egypt in an effort to break Britain's communications with India, the Church Missionary Society was formed. 1804: About the time that Napoleon was giving England the greatest threat of invasion she has had between the venture of the Spanish Armada and the Nazi attempt in 1940, the British and foreign Bible Society was organized. 1810: at a time when New England was distraught by our attempts to maintain our neutrality in the Napoleonic wars, and when we were on the eve of our second war with Britain, the American Board of Commissioners of Foreign Missions was organized. 1812: While American ports were being blockaded by the British, the first party of American missionaries sailed for India.

When the world is at its worst, Christians are at their best. In Harold Church, Staunton, England, there is an inscription: "In the year 1653 when all things seemed were throughout the nation destroyed or profaned, this church was built to the glory of god by Sir Robert Shirley, whose singular praise it was to have done the best things in the worst times, and hoped for them in the most calamitous."

The Christian takes pains and makes them into pains of childbirth, bringing forth new movements when in the dungeon of calamity and limitation. Philip had "four unmarried daughters who prophesied." (Acts 21:9, Moffatt.) They took their spinsterhood, sublimated it, and made it spiritually creative. They brought forth new hope, new souls, new movements.

O my Father, Thou has shown me the indomitable way. Even in the hell of frustration and pain Thou art there, inspiring, creating, and making victorious Thy surrendered children. How very grateful I am that the dungeon can do for me what the fire did for the Hebrew children—only burned off their fetters! Free me, even by fire, Amen.
