TV Has Public Clamoring For Stars Of Yesterday

By ERSKINE JOHNSON NEA Staff Correspondent HOLLYWOOD — The back-into-the-spotlight-after-20-years casting of Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell in an hour's radio version of "Seventh Heaven," left movie moguls blinking. The blinking changed to amazed confusion when Hollywood learned the inside story behind the casting.

The boys at Fox are denying that "Sweet Sister," just announced for the production state, is the true story of Olivia de Havilland and Joan Fontaine.

"Hill Number One," a TV version of the first Easter, will star Ruth Hussey with Jerry Fairbanks producing. The hour-long show will be televised Easter week.

Robert Young draws $150,000 for his stint in RKO's "Half Breed." It's a deal that was set by Dore Schary before Howard Hughes took over the studio.

The Andrews Sisters' bow-out of their radio show to concentrate on TV is costing them $5,000 a week. Judy Garland, no longer with the studio, is still among the richest in the fan mail count at MGM.

When he first arrived in Hollywood in 1934, Paramount was worried about his shaggy-Joe look, but decided to let well enough alone and resist the temptation to pretty him up.

Once, Fred says, the late Carole Lombard decided he could stand the Robert Taylor touch. "She plucked my eyebrows. Said that all the boys around town were having it done. It was a great mistake. I had to keep ice bags on my eyes for days."

Midland Artist To Exhibit Works Sunday Afternoon

Walter Lane, a young Midland artist who returned from Minneapolis last month, will hold the first showing of his work here Sunday afternoon, he announced Tuesday.

Twenty pictures, including portraits, studies of horses, flowers and fruit will be shown by the young Midlander in the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. (Eddie) Simms, 1211 West Missouri Street, from 2 until 5:30 p.m.

Many of the pictures on display will be for sale, he said. Lane's last private showing was in St. Paul, Minn.

"The pieces of work I plan to show Sunday will give people interested in art an idea of the type and caliber of painting I am capable of doing," Lane said. Lane said he is available for commission painting.

Mediums of the paintings to be shown Sunday are oils and water colors, and Lane said he may display "one or two" ink sketches.

Lane completed his art training at the Minneapolis Art Institute, one of the leading art schools in the nation. Alexander Brooke, Howard Cook and Gustav Krollman, famous artists, were among his instructors.

Two Counties Fight Rabid Fox Menace

WOODVILLE, TEXAS — (AP) — Foxes are worth two dollars a head in Tyler County—if they are rabid and dead. County commissioners got tired of heavy livestock losses to rabid foxes in this East Texas area and passed the bounty measure Monday.

Commissioners in adjoining Jasper County also plan a bounty on rabid foxes. The Tyler commissioners court also ordered all dogs in the county quarantined and vaccinated.

J. F. Connell, farm manager of Gov. Allan Shivers' farm near here, said the governor had lost five valuable cows and one sheep from rabies.

House Committee Sends F-M Road Bill To Floor

AUSTIN — (AP) — Administration forces won a round Monday night in their fight to cut $30,000,000 off their new-tax needs for the next two years.

By 14-5 vote, the House State Affairs Committee approved and sent to the House for debate Rep. Callan Graham's compromise bill to finance farms-to-market roads. The vote was a sharp reversal of the 15-3 decision by which the Highways and Roads Committee had disapproved Graham's original proposal a month ago.

The legislator from Junction told reporters his bill would not come before the House earlier than next Monday. He indicated he would canvass support for the plan before calling for a showdown on the floor.

Essence of his proposition is to halt a $15,000,000-a-year outlay from state general revenue for rural road hard-surface construction. He would make surplus highway funds do the job. The surplus now is split between county and state, and counties can use their share to retire road bonds or build and maintain lateral roads. The lateral roads generally are dirt construction.

County judges and commissioners, with a few exceptions, lined up against Graham's bill in the four and one-half hour public hearing. They said counties need the cash they get from the surplus highway funds to build cheap but serviceable caliche or gravel roads for their school buses, rural mail trucks and farm trucks. They said black top roads are fine but they cost so much it will take 20 years to build all the mileage needed to serve country folks.

Graham drew strong support from the new State Highway Commission chairman, E. H. Thornton, Jr., of Galveston, and two East Texas county judges, Earl Sharp of Longview, Gregg County, and Thomas Sharp of Carthage, Panola County.

One cent of the four-cent state gasoline tax goes to the state road bond assumption fund, where the surplus occurs. Thornton said it was a fine idea to apply that surplus to road construction. "Users Should Pay" "It's fundamental that the people who use the highways ought to build the highways," he asserted.

As the argument that counties need the cash refund for maintenance purposes, Graham replied that counties have the right to levy a

Plastic Surgery Is Producing Some Amazing Results

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service alike. Sometimes many operations—some of them small ones—over many months or even years have to be carried out before the job is completed as far as is possible. Risk Involved There are some risks involved, of course, but thousands can testify to good results, and some are back living normal lives who would not have dared face their fellow man unless they had been made to look more like the rest of us.

Complicated plastic surgery is not something to enter into lightly either for the patient or the surgeon. But almost miraculous results have been accomplished in this field and its possibilities are still growing.

This is a field which has advanced particularly during each of the world wars. The reason is obvious, but our surgeons have risen to the challenge and as a result remarkable reconstructive operations can be done today. Many people have been given new ears or noses, for example.

This is no simple job, however, because it involves taking cartilage from a rib and transplanting it (after reshaping it to the desired form) to the right place. Then it has to grow a blood supply to keep it alive, and after a time one or more additional operations have to be undertaken to cover the area with skin.

It is an amazing thing, this plastic surgery. When the problem is complicated, as is often the case, enormous patience is called for on the part of patient and surgeon.

"I had heard so many stories about the functional middle-age period peculiar to women—I hoped I'd escape such symptoms. But I didn't. I found myself terribly embarrassed by hot flushes—I suffered such restless nights, and I could sense myself getting irritable and cranky—due to this cause. My druggist recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. I can understand now why he called it 'the woman's friend.' Pinkham's Compound gives me amazing relief. I find if I take it regularly—don't miss a day—it helps build up resistance against such middle-age distress. P. S. Pinkham's Compound is very tasty in a little fruit juice. Superb Job By Dulles

John Foster Dulles has just given his country and the world a superb demonstration of capable diplomacy at work.

When he came back, he brought the draft of a peace document acceptable in its basic terms to the United States, Japan and our principal Pacific Allies.

This job was accomplished by Dulles and whatever staff he may have used. There were no widely heralded peace conferences in gilded government halls.

If the draft now on the table can be put into final form without losing any of the excellent harmony which exists among the prospective signatory nations...

It is notable that this country and the others involved propose to move toward a final settlement in the same way they have proceeded thus far: using normal diplomatic channels.

Russia, of course, has no part in these negotiations. The Kremlin has blocked every attempt to attain a Japanese settlement.

East-West relations in Asia have deteriorated too much for the Soviet Union even to be considered.

That fact is reflected in the terms we and the Japanese are agreed to in the treaty draft brought back by Dulles.

It is heartening to find this positive, hopeful element in an area so confused and generally discouraging as the Far East.

A formal treaty with Japan crystallizing this hopeful relationship is earnestly to be desired.

For a better way to add insult to injury, consider the bandits who held up a western jail and robbed the prisoners.

Drew Pearson says: Danger for democracies in breakup of anti-Communist coalitions in France, Holland, Italy; De Gasperi is indefatigable fighter for democracy; How Scelba's anti-riot squads protected Eisenhower.

(Ed. Note: Drew Pearson is on a flying tour of Europe and the Middle East, surveying the world situation.)

ROME — The real background reason why the governments of France, The Netherlands and Italy are having trouble staying organized today is that the fear of communism is vanishing.

Four years ago, when I was in Italy with the Friendship Train, Mayor Giuseppe Dosso of Bologna refused to greet the train because it was a Communist parade.

However, shortly after Communist Deputy Aldo Cucchi and Valdo Magnani resigned from the Communist Party, the government police began to find huge stores of hidden arms—many of them in the exact spots I had said they were hidden.

There is a very good reason for these sudden discoveries. For Magnani and Cucchi were not mere run-of-the-mine members of the Communist Party—they were key leaders in its military hierarchy.

Italy's minister of Foreign Affairs, Carlo Forza, a vain old peacock who has lectured before thousands of American women's clubs while in exile and who has done a magnificent job for Italian foreign affairs.

Now the Christian Democrats would like to get his job. Another they wanted even more passionately was that of Rinaldo Ossola, minister of Defense, who led the anti-Fascist Garibaldi Brigade against the Mussolini Black Shirts in Spain, then bolted the Communists when they got control in Spain and went to the United States where David Dubinsky's International Ladies Garment workers took him under their wing.

One of the most interesting figures in Italy is the man whose job it was to prevent embarrassment to General Eisenhower when the general visited Italy—namely, Minister of Interior Scelba. Some people predict that, if ever a man on horseback rides in Italy again, Scelba will be him—though, he being both a cynic who doesn't take himself too seriously and a Sicilian who isn't popular with the Italian people, I doubt it.

Had they got one of their own number in Paolardi's all-important defense job—which corresponds to General Marshall's job in the United States—they would have more lush war contracts to award and more juicy jobs to hand out to deserting friends than ever before in Italian history.

The man who 'blocked' the hungry members of his own party and finally went out in Italy actually began life as an Austrian. De Gasperi once served in the Austrian Parliament. He vigorously opposed Mussolini and, to escape execution by the Fascists, took refuge in the Vatican where he worked in the library for 15 years.

When Eisenhower came to Rome the Communists were given one square in which to demonstrate. They could say anything about Eisenhower they wanted, true or Weird hands have a way of happening to my friend Alfred Sheinwald, perhaps in the same way that accidents always seem to happen to a certain type of person.

West opened the queen of diamonds, and Sheinwald playing the South hand won with the king. To provide against a bad trump break declarer immediately cashed his two top clubs before leading a trump to dummy's ace.

It looked as though he would have to lose two trumps and two hearts, but there was still lots of fight in the hand.

East had to take the trick since otherwise South would simply ruff a diamond or a club for his tenth trick.

West found himself in a peculiar squeeze. If West ruffed, dummy would play low, and South would lose only one heart trick.

Sheepish Senator McCarran Finds Immigration Service Gets His Goat

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—The stiff, controversial McCarran act intended to keep subversive immigrants out of the United States and control those who are already in, now has backfired against the author of the act himself.

The whole system worked so well that last year Senator McCarran got through another bill—a public law this time—to admit up to 250 more Basque "skilled shepherders" on regular visas, regardless of Spanish immigration quotas.

But when Congress passed the big McCarran act, it bars from admission anyone who is now or ever has been connected with a totalitarian government or movement.

They might have been admitted on temporary visas if they could prove no official connection with the Spanish Falange.

There's a new bill now before Congress instructing the Immigration Service to interpret the McCarran act more liberally.

Two Months, Two Bills
In the first two months that the new 81st Congress has been in session only two bills were enacted into law.

More than a thousand new bills have been introduced in the Senate, and more than 3,000 in the House.

None of these measures was passed by both branches. That's the speed with which the country's problems get solved in time of crisis.

Arabs Bite Inflation's Dust
While the United States is shelling out for many relief and rehabilitation projects throughout the Arab world, the Arabs themselves are having trouble raising money to build a Mohammedan mosque in Washington.

Q—Will the Treasury Department redeem partially destroyed paper money?
A—If three-fifths of a bill can be rebuilt, the Treasury will replace it at full value.

Q—Are such diseases as influenza and the common cold wide-spread among the Arctic natives?
A—No, Arctic natives, because of their isolation, are often relatively free from some of the widespread infectious diseases such as influenza, measles and the common cold.

Q—Has the American language been officially recognized?
A—American is not yet recognized as a separate language, though recognition of its special vocabulary, differing from England's English and Australia's English, has been marked by several publications.

THE STORY: Tim Reese, a crippled veteran, is the most valuable designer of the gown shop 'Jeans Paul' but he has no idea of his value to the firm. He had started to obtain money for an operation to make him walk, but was discouraged when the operation was not successful.

She stood up. "I think I'd better go." She was trying to be modesty herself. "I'm conceited enough as it is."

"I won't see you again before you leave for Europe?" His question trailed a wisp of pathos.

She shook her head. "I don't see how I can ever make it with all the packing and preparations I have to make."

He smiled and stepped closer to her. "I'll be thinking of you all the time, though."

"You will? On the level?" He could hardly believe this unhoppled show of affection.

She saw his incredulity, hastened to convince him of her sincerity. "I'll be thinking of you while I'm in Europe, too."

JEAN ROLAND laughed her pretty, studied laugh. "How could I ever guess ME from your description? I'm just a walking clothes rack. You, of all people, should know that."

HE relaxed, grinned. "Well, a guy in my spot telling a girl like you loves her is hardly what you'd be called in order. I was afraid you'd be embarrassed."

Have a Laugh

Official Addresses Realtors, Wives At Ladies' Night Event

Failure of thousands of Texas real estate dealers and agents to furnish required information for licenses creates a heavy task for the Texas Real Estate Commission.

L. D. Ransom, executive secretary of the commission headquarters at Austin, outlined administrative problems Monday night to an audience of Midland real estate men and their wives. It was the Midland Real Estate Board's ladies night banquet.

Ransom, at one time secretary to the Texas Railroad Commission and secretary to the late Gov. Beauford Jester, said his office has issued 23,000 real estate licenses. He lightened his address with numerous anecdotes. The dinner was given in the Crystal Ballroom of Hotel Scharbauer.

Since they were first minted in 1896, the government has turned out 4,400,000,000 nickels.

Abundant Living

By E. STANLEY JONES

II Cor. 13:8; Ps. 1:3-5; Jude 12; Matt. 13:6-

"VANISHED THE RIPE FRUIT OF THY SOUL'S DESIRE!"

We have seen that the Christian is the natural, common-sense way to live. The opposite is true: all evil has the doom of decay upon it. There is this penetrating passage: "Vanished the ripe fruit of thy soul's desire!" (Revelation 18:14, Moffatt.) The fruit of the soul's desire is ripe, and lo, it vanishes. Just when evil promises most, it lets us down. It "keeps the word of promise to our ear and breaks it to our hope." Lust ends in disgust—"vanished the ripe fruit of thy soul's desire." Money, after you have toiled and labored for it, ends in becoming a worry and anxiety—"vanishing the ripe fruit of thy soul's desire."

There is another passage in Revelation 17:11 (Moffatt): "As for the Beast which was and is not." That is the biography of every "Beast" with a capital "B," and every "beast" with a small "b." "The Beast which was and is not"—not "will be." Evil has no future—it was and is not. Only good was and is and will be—it has a past, a present and a future. Evil, by its very nature, is self-destructive. It is an attempt to live against the nature of reality, and it ends only in self-destruction. The New Testament therefore says that sinners "perish"—they do here and now—the life forces break down, disintegrate. Every evil person renders himself unfit to survive. He will not obey the law of survival; so he perishes. Romans 7:5 (Moffatt) says: "The sinful cravings... made us fruitful to death." "Fruitful to Death"—

REGARDLESS of inflation or deflation, war or peace, fire or flood... life insurance continues to be the "best buy" in providing for the welfare of your family and in attaining financial security for yourself. This is well indicated by The Equitable's 91st Annual Report. During 1950 more people bought more Equitable life insurance protection than ever before. New Ordinary and Group insurance written last year amounted to $1,410,000,000, bringing The Equitable's total insurance in force to $15,278,000,000.*

*This total insurance in force represents money held for future delivery. When due, every dollar of that sum will be paid. But, as a responsible institution of thrift with more than six million people who look to us for economic security, we are concerned with the purchasing power of those dollars when they become due. For mounting inflation, man-made, threatens not only the worth of the dollar but the very existence of our national enterprise.

Indeed this threat is as real and deadly as the Red menace against which we are arming. But the plain fact is that in the fight against inflation we, as a nation, are hiding under the bed! When we freeze wages or prices, we are merely doctoring the symptoms of the inflation-disease rather than the disease itself. If we are to stop the inflationary trend, the makers of our public policies must deal with the monetary causes of the inflation. They must control the expansion of bank deposits and the constantly increasing money supply.

There's nothing mysterious about this inflation. More and more people are beginning to realize that the stories they read on the financial pages of their newspapers have a direct relationship to the prices of food, furniture, and other living essentials advertised in the same newspapers a week later.

Inflation is everybody's concern from the Wall Street banker to the Missouri housewife. In the fight against it, the American people—you and your neighbors—must learn to look beyond the local grocer's bill and the meat prices in the butcher shop... you must look to Washington, the seat of our Government, where the monetary policy is made. More than that, you must make your own voice heard among the law-makers. Congress should be interested in your views on inflation, and your Congressman is as close as your nearest mail-box or telegraph office. Simply stated—the action that you and your neighbors take can well decide the destiny of our country.

That's what we mean by "Operation People U.S.A."

DADDY RINGTAIL

Daddy Ringtail And Rain-Making

"Rainmaker," Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, said one day not long ago when they met in the middle of the Elephant Path, "Rainmaker, the Spring will come with a Spring rain."

The Rainmaker looked up at the sky. He saw that the trees were still bare of leaves, but the warm sun upon them was doing its best to tell them that Spring was coming, coming, coming. When Spring comes, leaves come on the trees again.

A bird sat in the top of the tree. His head was hunched down close between his shoulders. He sang not a word. He looked like he too was waiting for Spring before singing again. And close by, in a hollow tree, was the faint hum of bees who were trying to awaken from a long Winter nap. They too were ready for Spring.

Everyone, it seemed, was ready for Spring, and Winter was waiting to go, and Spring was waiting to come — waiting for a warm Spring rain to fall from the sky. Yes, and the making of a fine Spring rain to fall from the sky was Rainmaker's business.

The Rainmaker took off his hat. He pointed a finger at the sky. He said the magic words: "Been teen, leather feather drip!"

Lightning flashed. Thunder rumbled and bumbled. But a warm Spring rain did not fall down. The Rainmaker's words were the magic words to make the rain fall up — up where you can't see it. Oh, but the Rainmaker now was only practicing.

He rubbed his hat against his sleeves to get off a spot of dust if one were there. Again he pointed at the sky, but this time — these were his magic words: "Been, meena, bona stry, rain fall down or I will cry!" And the Rainmaker made a secret signal with his hand for the rain to be a warm rain of Spring. That is what it was, and Spring has come to the Great Forest, and soon it will come to all the world. Happy day!

AEC Boss Drops Broad Hint Of New Atom Tests

WASHINGTON — (AP)— New tests with U. S. atomic weapons far out at sea or dropped from airplanes at places other than the testing sites used up to now may be in prospect. A broad hint of this comes from the Atomic Energy Commission itself.

This developed out of an AEC news conference Monday at which a reporter asked, in connection with the recent experimental explosions at the Nevada Proving Ground, whether there will be other tests. To this, Chairman Gordon Dean answered: "We have some tests coming along later on."

In Nevada?
"There may be some there, maybe in some other places."

Eniwetok? (The atoll in the Marshall Islands where the government has established a proving ground.)
"That is a permanent location."

Then Dean added:
"I don't know the places where they might be but we are going to make some more tests."

Different Places, Conditions
Would he mention possible other sites?
"You see, there is always the possibility you could take one (atomic weapon) out in the middle of the ocean, or roll one out in a plane," Dean replied, "I don't want to pinpoint it."

In addition to Eniwetok and the

Models Open Drive For More Money, Better Conditions

TORONTO — (AP)— Eleven beautiful artist models here say that rising living costs, cold drafts in studios, and baby sitters are making their lives anything but a bed of roses and champagne.

They've joined the Artists Models Federal Union (AMFU) and are trying to recruit 39 similar posers, as well as fashion and photographic models, in their drive for more money and better conditions.

The girls told AFL Canadian organizer Russell Harvey they are paid $1.25 an hour and haven't had a raise since 1947. On call seven days a week, they said they average only $20 to $30 a week, and from it they must pay all expenses, even baby sitters for those with babies.

Their two biggest employers are the Ontario College of Art and the board of education. At the college, one model complained about poorly-heated studios and the drafts on her bare skin in life classes.

"Why sometimes I get so chilled I can't speak," she said.

The actress, wife of advertising executive William Ross Howard, flew back here with the sick youngster, who was taken to Children's Hospital for the diagnosis. He received a transfusion.

Miss Lamour has been working on a film at Sarasota. Howard and their sons, including Tommy, one, were with her. Work on the picture is finished.

THE WAY TO CALVARY

After the Last Supper, Jesus and his apostles sang a hymn and walked out to the House of Clopas. His partying from them was seen. He said, "All of you shall be scandalized because of me this night."

Peter confessed, plucking his tunic. But Jesus answered, "Verily I say unto thee that this night before a cock crow thou shalt deny me thrice."

Then Jesus went into the Garden of Gethsemane to pray. In that last night agony, he implored, "My Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me. Nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt." His weary disciples fell asleep.

Small Bombs Explode Outside Italian And U. S. Offices In Rome

ROME —(AP)— Fourteen persons reportedly were held for investigation Tuesday after small bombs exploded Monday night outside the U. S. Embassy and Italy's Foreign Ministry.

The two explosions broke window panes and panicked passersby, but no one was injured. An automobile parked alongside the Foreign Ministry Building, the Chigi Palace, was reported badly damaged.

Police said bits of a handwritten leaflet found near the explosion at the Foreign Ministry were signed "La Legione Nera" — "The Black Legion."

Another similar leaflet found near the scene said: "While the government of renunciation trades off Italian Trieste, the Fascists avenge the honor of Italy and of Mussolini."

Premier Alcide De Gasperi and Foreign Minister Count Carlo Sforza begin conferences on Trieste and other problems in London Tuesday with top British officials.

Both Italy and Yugoslavia are claiming Trieste, which was taken from Italy by her World War II peace treaty.

The explosion in the embassy courtyard shattered three windows, scarred the building slightly and left a hole in the ground a foot wide.

Francesco Maria Tallani, recently appointed Italy's new ambassador to Spain, called on U. S. Ambassador James C. Dunn to express the Italian government's regret at the incident. Tallani formerly was chief of the protocol office.

Elliott Roosevelt, California Heiress To Wed Thursday

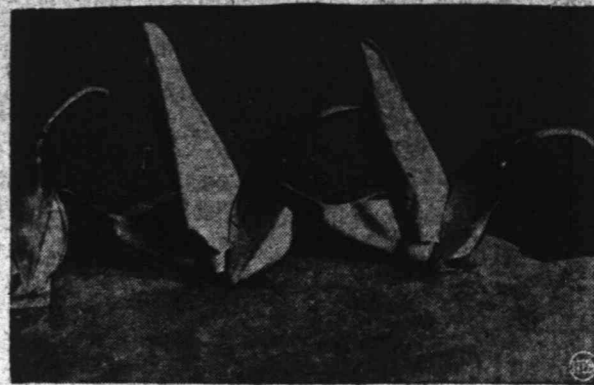

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. —(AP)— Mrs. Minerva Bell Ross, California heiress, and Elliott Roosevelt, son of the late President, plan to be married here Thursday.

Mrs. Ross, 39, was granted a divorce in Key West Monday from Dr. Rex L. Ross, Jr., of Santa Monica, Calif. She and Roosevelt then drove to Everglades, seat of Collier County, 90 miles west of Miami, and applied for a license to wed.

They told County Judge S. B. Jolley they would return Wednesday afternoon for the license and that they planned to be married by Dade (Miami) County Circuit Judge George E. Holt Thursday. A close friend said the wedding would take place at Miami Beach.

Roosevelt told reporters he is going into the tourist court business at Marathon, about 100 miles south of Miami in the Florida Keys.

Mrs. Ross is the daughter of the late Alphonso E. Bell, millionaire real estate developer and oil operator in Southern California. Bell, who died in 1947, was the developer of the exclusive Bel-Air residential district in Los Angeles and as an oil operator was the discoverer of the Santa Fe Springs oil field.

Four Young Boys Drown As Makeshift Raft Disintegrates

MEDFORD, MASS. —(AP)— Four young boys were carried to their deaths Monday on a flimsy, makeshift raft. A fifth boy was saved.

They drowned in an isolated bog opposite Oak Grove Cemetery as one by one they fell off the raft into the water.

The dead are: Albert Battista, nine; his brother, William Battista, seven; Richard Pagliuca, seven and George Mason, eight. All were students at St. Joseph's Parochial School.

The survivor, Gilbert Mason, nine, George's brother, gave police this dramatic account of the tragedy: "The raft started to fall to pieces and one after another we fell overboard. The water was icy cold. They went under one after the other."

Gilbert said he hung onto the raft and screamed and remembered nothing more until he woke up in a hospital.

His screams were heard by a neighbor who ran to the bog with a rope and pulled him ashore.

Police and firemen recovered the bodies in five feet of water. They said the bodies were spaced a few feet apart, enmeshed in the mud and grass.

The spot they were trying to cross was 25 feet wide, police said.

President Continues Carefree Vacation At Resort In Florida

KEY WEST, Fla. — President Truman pursued his carefree way at this semi-tropical naval submarine station Tuesday. But Secret Service men stayed on the alert, guarding him even at his swim. He didn't even have to worry about filing an income tax return by Thursday. He mailed his return in on February 15, his press secretary, Joseph Short reported.

The lighter note is Truman's new cap. It is a sloppy, white-crown number, with blue wedges, and a long bill. He wore it to and from the beach Monday.

There still is no word as to when Donald S. Dawson, presidential administrative assistant, is coming down. His name has been dragged into a Senate investigation into alleged influence on RFC directors.

Truman will hold a news conference at 3 p.m. Thursday when reporters will be able to question him on the inquiry. He denounced the committee's first report as asinine.

The president hasn't missed a day at the beach since his arrival March 2. Secret Service men, as usual, swim with him and Navy patrol boats provide extra security for his swimming place, moving back and forth around the beach.

Testimony Links Alabama's Big Jim Folsom With Investigation Of Alleged Parole Sales

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — (AP) — Testimony linking former Gov. James E. Folsom to reports of a $1,000 payoff gave a startling turn Tuesday to an investigation of the recent wholesale release of convicts.

The story was told by a state employe Monday to a legislative committee which is looking into pardon and parole activities during the closing months of the Folsom Administration.

It also involved Folsom-appointed Bill Drinkard and Glen Vinson, who dominated the parole board 15 1/2 months before they went out of office along with Folsom on January 15.

More than 1,000 paroles and 350 outright pardons were granted during the time the Folsom appointees controlled the board's policy.

The witness Monday was W. G. Smith, a worker at the state docks at Mobile. He quoted a reformed desperado, Roy Dickerson of Mobile, as saying $1,000 was paid for a pardon for a convicted killer, and that the money was split among Folsom, Drinkard and Vinson.

Smith was subpoenaed to tell what he knew, if anything, about the release of Norris E. Kervin, who had served less than seven months of a 25-year murder sentence when he was pardoned on January 11, four days before the end of Folsom's term in office.

The witness quoted Dickerson, a one-time bank robber who has been mentioned previously in testimony about other paroles, as saying Kervin could get out of prison for $1,000.

money or anything else of value in return for paroles or pardons. Dickerson, who reformed after 15 years of crime, won recognition for his comeback last year when Folsom appointed him an honorary colonel in the state militia.

It was while serving a 25-year term for the $81,000 robbery of the Phenix-Girard bank at Phenix City, Ala., in 1920 that the desperado decided to go straight. He was rewarded with a parole in 1938 and restoration of his citizenship two years later.

Chandler, Beaten In Test Vote, To Resign Post Soon

MIAMI BEACH, FLA.—(AP)—Baseball Commissioner Albert B. (Happy) Chandler will resign his post within the next six months, regardless of whether his successor is elected, it was learned Tuesday.

A close friend of the commissioner told The Associated Press Chandler had debated the idea of quitting immediately after his repudiation by the major league owners Monday but was advised against it.

As was the case in St. Petersburg three months ago, the magnates voted not to reelect Chandler to a new term. In a written secret ballot, nine owners voted for Chandler and seven voted against him. He needed 13 for reelection. The former Kentucky senator's seven-year contract ends April 30, 1952.

"Happy knew he was ticked Sunday after a talk with Clark Griffith of Washington, his staunchest supporter," the Chandler intimate said. "He suggested resigning then but was advised to reserve decision until he talked with his closest friends among the baseball magnates."

Back To Politics
"Chandler knows he cannot hope ever to be reelected now. He is sick of baseball and disgusted with the way he has been mistreated by some baseball men. He wants to get out of it as soon as possible and return to his first love, which is politics."

The erstwhile Chandler was meek and mellow Monday in sharp contrast to his attitude at St. Petersburg, when he was bitter and battling and vowed he'd serve out his term to the last second. This time he said he would do anything the club owners wanted him to do, and that he would make it as easy as possible for them to elect a new commissioner.

In the event Chandler resigns before a new commissioner is elected, all his powers and duties will be exercised by the Executive Council. The council consists of Presidents Ford Frick of the National League, Will Harridge of the American League and Club Presidents Tom Yawkey of the Boston Red Sox and Warren Giles of the Cincinnati Reds.

Lobo Manager Jay Hanev has announced the negroes "will play if they are good enough to play in the West Texas-New Mexico League."

10—THE REPORTER-TELEGRAM, MIDLAND, TEXAS, MARCH 13, 1951

MHS Tracksters Face Strong Foes

Midland High School's track team ran through a lengthy workout Monday in spite of chilly weather, preparing for the Southwest Recreation Track and Field Exposition at Fort Worth, Friday and Saturday.

The competition this weekend will be the first of the year for the MHS team. Coach Thurman L. (Tugboat) Jones hasn't yet named the team he will take to the meet and said he won't know "for two or three days" who will make the trip.

Looking good for the Bulldog team thus far is Billy Medart, running the one-mile distance, Jack Burris in the 440-yard dash, Robert Keisinger in the hurdles and W. H. Black in the pole vault.

Fifty-two high school teams from Texas, Louisiana and Oklahoma are expected to enter the meet. The Bulldogs aren't expected to create much of a stir against the strong competition, although Jones said some of the youngsters "might surprise us."

Teams Entering
The high school teams entering are: Texas: Abilene, Amarillo, Arlington, Aspermont, Brady, Brownwood, Burleson, Canton, Crozier Tech of Dallas, Sunset (Dallas), Highland Park (Dallas), Woodrow Wilson (Dallas), Deer Park, Garrettsville, Graham, Granbury, Grandview, Iraan, Irving, Itasca, Jacksonville, Beverett's Chapel, Overton, Lubbock, Odessa, Pampa, Port Neches, Gladewater, Seminole, Sherman, Stamford, Weatherford, White Deer, Cleburne, Childress, Phillips, Perryton, Grand Ealine, Hillsboro, Plainview, Lamesa, Big Spring, Denver City, New London, Ennis and Midland.

Oklahoma: Ardmore, Duncan, Henrietta, Hobart and Central of Oklahoma City.
Louisiana: Byrd of Shreveport.

Joe Louis Reported Stricken By Influenza
DETROIT—(AP)—Joe Louis was reported Tuesday to have the flu, and his bout with Omelio Agrononte here March 28 was postponed indefinitely.

Olympia Matchmaker Nick London announced the postponement in saying he'd been advised by Joe's manager, Marshall Miles, that the former heavyweight champion was ill.

Louis and Agrononte were to have met in a 10-rounder. Louis outpointed the Cuban in a previous bout.

Big Jim Ferrier Paces Seminole Pro-Amateur Joust
PALM BEACH, FLA.—(AP)—Amateurs joined professionals Tuesday in the $10,000 Seminole Pro-Amateur Golf Tournament.

Play began Monday in the 54-hole event that offers $7,000 in prize money to the low scoring pros. Another $3,000 goes to pro members of the winning teams.

Big Jim Ferrier of San Francisco, who won $2,000 on successive Sundays in taking top money in the St. Petersburg and Miami Beach Opens, continued his sub-par golf Monday with 35-32-67 over the 6,873-yard Seminole Golf Club course to pace the field.

Tony Penna of Delray Beach fashioned a 34-34-68 over the par-72 layout to trail Ferrier by one stroke. Jack Burke, Jr., Houston; E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, St. Andrews, Ill., and Lloyd Mangrum, Chicago, were tied for third with 69's.

Ben Hogan, making his first tournament appearance since the Phoenix Open, had a 32-36-70 to tie with Lew Worsham of Oakmont, Pa.; Shelly Mayfield of Cedarhurst, L. I., and Gary Middlecott of Memphis, Tenn.

King's Row Training Camp Briefs

Red Fahr Again Whitewashes Yanks
TUCSON, ARIZ.—(AP)—The talk of the Cleveland Indians' camp Tuesday was Gerald (Red) Fahr.

Drafted from Shreveport of the Texas League, the tall right-hander hurled three more scoreless innings against the New York Yankees Monday, making it six in a row for himself.

Fahr held the Yankees hitless from the seventh through the ninth innings. He was lifted for a pinch hitter in the last of the ninth, and his successor, George Zverevik, led New York score two in the tenth for a 10-8 victory.

Good Hit, No Field Is Rookie's Record
PHOENIX, ARIZ.—(AP)—Mickey Mantle, highly regarded New York Yankee rookie, continues to live up to his press clippings as a hitter.

Mantle has banged out seven hits in ten trips to the plate for a lofty .700 mark. Mantle however, is having trouble learning the finer points of outfield play. Mantle, a shortstop, is being groomed to take Joe DiMaggio's place in centerfield when the big guy retires. Monday, Mantle misplayed two fly balls into extra base hits as the Yanks edged Cleveland 10-8 in 10 innings.

PREACHER ROE AIMS AT TWO CLUB RECORDS
WEST PALM BEACH, FLA.—(AP)—Preacher Roe, star lefthander of the Brooklyn Dodgers, is gunning for two club records this year.

Roe would like to win more games than any Dodger lefthander in history and also is striving to become the highest paid-Dodger pitcher of all time. The record for most wins by a Brook lefty is 22 and the salary is $25,000 by Dizzy Vance.

4-Fer JOE ADCOCK IS CINCY MAINSTAY
TAMPA, FLA.—(AP)—Joe Adcock, Cincinnati Reds' outfielder who was turned down when he tried to enter the armed forces, is one of Manager Luke Sewell's big hopes nowadays.

Said Sewell of the 23-year-old Louisianan, "I'm sure Joe is going to come through in a big way. He's the type of athlete who can't miss. He's aggressive, always asking questions and a tireless worker."

VENEZUELAN KEYSTONE COMBO LOOKS PROMISING
SAN BERNARDINO, CALIF.—(AP)—The first Venezuelan keystone combination in big league history may be in the making by the Chicago White Sox.

Chico Carrasquel, the Caracas Kid, remains the Sox shortstop mainstay. But the surprise is Luis Garcia, recently signed by the Sox. After watching Garcia working out at his regulation station on third base, Manager Paul Richards tried him at second against the Chicago Cubs Sunday and was highly pleased with his cat-like grace.

Committee Votes To Kill State Board
AUSTIN—(AP)—The recently-created State Board for Hospitals and Special Schools has lost round one in a legislative fight for its life.

The Senate State Affairs Committee Monday voted 11-4 for a bill to abolish the nine-member agency that the Legislature two years ago charged with directing the care of the state's 21,000 wards.

Under the bill, the board's duties would be turned back to a reorganized three-member, part-time Board of Control.

Brigham Young, St. John's Earn NIT Semi-Finals

NEW YORK—(AP)—Third-seeded Brigham Young breezed into the semi-finals of the National Invitation Basketball Tournament Monday night, but St. John's, the No. 1 entry, almost was ousted.

While Brigham Young trimmed St. Louis with surprising ease 75-58, St. John's had all it could do to nip fired-up St. Bonaventure 60-58 before 10,124 at Madison Square Garden.

Steers Square Playoff

AUSTIN—(AP)—The big showdown is Tuesday night—Texas or Texas A&M will become the Southwest Conference's representative in the National Collegiate Athletic Association Regional Basketball Tournament at Kansas City.

All square in their play-off series, the teams clash in the third and final game.

Texas evened things Monday night with a breathless 35-34 triumph registered in the last four seconds. Substitute Guard Leon Black, fouled by Walt Davis, Aggie center, sank a free throw that mean Texas A&M again had been thwarted in its fight against a baffling jinx.

Free Throws Pay Off
In 17 years A&M has not won from Texas on the latter's home court. In 21 years the Aggies have won only once.

A&M took the lead in the series last week by beating Texas 45-33 after having kicked Texas Christian out of the race with a 50-44 triumph.

Seven thousand fans shook the rafters of Gregory Gym as George Scalling pitched in a field goal to tie the score at 34-34, then came the foul and Black's "money" point.

Texas won the game with accuracy on the free throw line, sinking 13 of 18 attempts. The game was tied 19-19 at the half.

Leroy Miksch of the Aggies led the scoring with 12 points.

Texas, Texas A&M and Texas Christian finished in a tie for the conference championship, hence the playoff to determine the circuit's team at Kansas City, starting March 21.

Flying Sisters Will Enter TAAF Tourney
Midland's Flying Sisters, winners in six of eight basketball contests played this year, have registered and will enter the state TAAF fem cage meet Friday and Saturday in Cactus, near Amarillo.

Coach Ruthie Lee Woods said approximately a dozen girls will make the trip. No pairings have been announced for the tourney.

The Washington Monument was completed in 1884. It is a marble obelisk 555 feet high.

The sardvark has cylindrical teeth which are without enamel or roots.

Someone Apparently Got Burro Steak

BARSTOW, CALIF. —(AP)—From the evidence, somebody had apparently dined illegally on burro steak. Police reported finding the carcasses of four "wantonly slain" wild burros on the desert near here. A quarter had been cut from one of the younger, and presumably more tender ones.

A California law provides severe penalties for the capture or killing of the wild burro, which was once threatened with extinction from over-hunting. Officers said someone with a high-powered rifle picked off the animals apparently for the sheer pleasure of killing.

Blood Donated By Occupation Forces

TOKYO —(AP)— Soldiers and civilians on occupation duty in Japan are donating whole blood to be flown to injured fighting men on the Korean front. Many persons have donated as much as three pints of blood since the blood bank of the 40th Medical General Laboratory opened in Tokyo last July 5. Mobile blood bank teams travel to cities outside Tokyo.

Sky Tunnels Used As Safety Measure

LONDON —(AP)— Aircraft flying from London to Paris, Brussels and Amsterdam are now operating under a plan for greater safety in the air. Airways used in the plan are, in effect, sky tunnels 10 miles wide within which civil aircraft flying at heights between 3,000 and 11,000 feet are separated from each other at intervals of 1,000 feet. Aircraft in an airway are under the control of the ground organization and their movement is regulated so that no two aircraft can be in the same place at the same height and time. Trans-Atlantic air traffic has been using an airway from the Irish Sea to London for six months and eventually the airways system will cover the British Isles.

Soviet Peasants Resist Kremlin's Farm Mergers

WASHINGTON —(NEA)— The Kremlin is making a massive new effort to "industrialize" Soviet agriculture and is meeting the stiffest resistance the Russian peasantry has shown in 20 years. Acts of sabotage and even open violence are occurring almost daily. Observers here believe Premier Stalin's recent "assurance" that World War III is not inevitable was largely designed to calm the frayed nerves of jittery peasants, whose restive behavior is being recorded by the Soviet press from Moscow to the distant regions of Kazakhstan. Allied intelligence reports this is the first widespread peasant resistance since the Kremlin's farm collectivization campaign of 1930-

Proxy Substitutes For Stricken Pastor

CENTERVILLE, IOWA —(AP)— The Rev. C. L. Bartholomew, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here, spent many weeks away from his church in Florida recuperating from a voice paralysis which resulted from an attack of bulbar poliomyelitis. His sermons were heard regularly by his congregation, however.

He mailed them each week and they were read to the congregation by Max Ellis, an insurance man and a member of the church choir. The pastor wanted to resign when he was stricken, realizing that it would take time for him to recover. His congregation said "no." An unnamed Centerville resident donated $500 to provide ministers during Mr. Bartholomew's absence.

Ken Regan Opposes Proposed Basic Water Data Commission

WASHINGTON—Rep. Ken Regan, 16th district, strongly opposed the proposal of Rep. John Murdock of Arizona that the government spend $220,000,000 for a new set-up among federal bureaus to obtain basic water data. Through opposition of Regan and others on the committee, the House Interior and Insular Affairs sub-committee has decided to suspend hearings on the bill which largely amounts to tabling the proposition.

"It was ridiculous," said Regan, "because we now have the weather bureau, the geological survey, the coast and geodetic survey, the bureau of reclamation, the army engineers, and other groups in government which are already doing this work. We also have the President's Water Resources Policy Commission which just recently came out with two thick volumes about water."

"Arguments put forward that we need this agency to measure rainfall on both sides of the mountain do not stand," said Regan, "as it is a simple matter of arithmetic to determine the average rainfall over a valley beneath and then divide up the average by the acreage. No, I am not going to vote to spend any more government money on such an agency."

Mrs. William Ryan Attending Special 'Help Hubby' Class

STILLWATER, OKLA. — When Mrs. William E. Ryan of Midland, Texas, watches her husband receive his Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree this Spring she will be equipped to help him get off to a good start on his career.

Mrs. Ryan is going to school, too, in Oklahoma A&M College's special class for wives of senior veterinary medicine students. It's a course designed to help "the little woman" learn how to be a real help-mate to her veterinarian husband.

Mrs. Ryan and 17 other wives are learning how to keep animal records and financial books, ethics and public relations, types and uses of veterinarians instruments, simple laboratory tests and other basic information.

The special one-semester class, set up under direction of Dean C. H. McElroy of the School of Veterinary Medicine, is one of the first of its kind in the nation.

SHOT BY OWN TROOPS

After outflanking the Union forces at Chancellorsville in 1863, the Confederate general, "Stonewall" Jackson, was accidentally shot by his own men.

U. S. Per Capita Income Is Highest

LAKE SUCCESS —(AP)— United States citizens by far enjoy the world's biggest average per capita income—$1,450 apiece—a recent U. N. survey states.

The survey, made by the UN statistical Office, covered 70 countries having 90 per cent of the world's population and still more of its income. Figures were based on official and semi-official statistics for 1949 and on tentative estimates prepared by the UN Statistical Office. The survey also revealed these facts: Eight countries having one-tenth of the world's population received in 1949 over half the world's income. They were the United States, Australia, Canada, Denmark, New Zealand, Sweden, Switzerland and the United Kingdom.

A 17-foot control board in the New York office of a large oil company traces the progress of every gallon of oil product in the 450-mile pipe line in the midwest. Dispatchers set markers and adjust charts to show exactly where every product is, 24 hours a day. Products more through the line at about four miles an hour.

Paris Has Bootleg Flower Market

PARIS —(P)— A bootleg flower market is flourishing. Oddly enough, it is located near police headquarters and a bridge over the Seine is the place where the biggest business is done.

Bootleg sellers pay no rent for stalls, and generally operate without licenses. The flower sellers say they do this to eliminate the middle man. They operate in the pre-dawn, just before the day shift policemen take over from the ones who have been working since midnight. They have to look out for ambitious police, cops who have had arguments with their wives or ones whose stomachs are acting up. Otherwise they get along without interference.

Livestock Show History Discloses Steady Growth

The Midland County Livestock Show has been a growing institution since its inception 10 years ago.

But the sound growth of the event for the youth of the area has required unselfish cooperation and hard work. Since 1941, when the show was born, interest and entries have increased steadily.

Premiums for the exhibitors grew from $200 in 1941 to $850 for the 1951 show. Midland businessmen, through their Chamber of Commerce, have worked closely with the county agents, 4-H Club and FFA officials to guarantee the youths a bigger and better Midland County Livestock Show each year.

While many enterprises closed down during the war years this livestock event continued in operation. It gives the winners of smaller area shows the opportunity to bring their champions to the larger market.

Bought By Coffee Shop
Back in 1941, the grand champion steer was purchased by the Hotel Scharbauer Coffee Shop for 28 cents a pound, the following year the champion brought 33 cents. Steadily, the bidding went up and in 1950 the top steer price was $1.05 paid by the Midland National Bank to Jimmy Holloway of Stanton.

While the Midland Chamber of Commerce is sponsor of the show it is operated by its own officers. Ac-ording to Delbert Downing, chamber manager, the Chamber of Commerce secures the prizes and financial backing.

The show's officials handle the weighing-in, sifting and schedule of events.

Competent judges have been selected to carry out the policy of the officials to use the single judge system. For the District Show Thursday, Frank Newsome, County Agent at Alpine, will judge the fat steers; Jim Gray, San Angelo, fat lambs, and L. M. Hargrave, Texas Technological College, Lubbock, the fat hogs.

Barnes To Judge
For the county show judging Wednesday the judges will be G. W. Barnes, District Agent, Fort Stockton, fat steers; J. A. Gray, Extension Service animal husbandman, San Angelo, fat lambs; Euel Limer, Texas Technological College, Lubbock, fat hogs. Hargrave and Limer will judge the commercial steers.

Young Holloway showed both the grand champion calves last year and in addition to winning at other West Texas shows has captured top places in Midland shows of 1943 and 1946. Bonnetta Cox, Glasscock County 4-H Clubber, won over a field of 120 lambs with her heavyweight crossbred entry, while Charles Locklar, Midland County 4-H Club member, showed the grand champion barrow after winning the county contest.

Holloway and Miss Cox spent the night in the lobby of Hotel Scharbauer with their winning animals, a tradition of the Midland show that has attracted wide attention.

BIG BARROW—This pig went to market at the 1950 Midland Livestock Show and brought 50 cents a pound from the Midland Production Credit Association. Charles Locklar Midland 4-H Club member, showed his barrow to the Grand Champion award, winning both the county and district awards.

Iceland May Get Trees From Brazil

REYKJAVIK, ICELAND. —(P)— Trees of Brazilian origin may decorate gardens and parks in the capital of treeless Iceland in a few years. Kaj A. Svanholm of Rio de Janeiro has offered the city 5,000 eucalyptus plants from Brazil. He visited Iceland last summer and thinks they might grow well.

Last fall the Iceland government sent a special envoy to Alaska to gather seeds for Iceland's forestry program.

Outside of Britain and Ireland, the only left-side driving is listed for Europe as in Sweden, Iceland, the Channel Islands, and the Isle of Man. The latter pair are under British control. But on Gibraltar and the islands of Malta and Gozo, both under British control, right-side driving is the law.

British-controlled areas account for the 10 in the western hemisphere where there is left-side driving. These include Bermuda, the Bahamas, British Honduras, Trinidad, the Leeward and Windward Islands, and Jamaica.

Skilled First Aid Corps Is Big Factor In Atom Civil Defense, Says Blandy

By ADM. W. H. F. BLANDY, U.S.N. (Ret.)
President, Health Information Foundation

NEW YORK —(NEA)— The cities of America are beginning to face up to the fact that atomic bombardment is a distinct possibility for many of them. Some have discovered that the most important single factor in civil defense against the atom bomb is trained health personnel.

Hospitals can be destroyed. To wipe out the doctors, nurses and first aid workers of an entire metropolitan area, however, would be impossible.

Even with widespread destruction of property—and this is a secondary consideration to the destruction of human life—temporary quarters for the injured can be improvised quickly. But there is no quick substitute for people who know what to do in an emergency.

No city in the world can support enough doctors and nurses to give ideal care to the victims of an atomic bombing. But any city can train enough laymen in first aid to keep many of the injured alive until fully trained personnel can reach them.

For this reason I believe enormous numbers of citizens must be trained in first aid and so organized that they can work effectively.

Should Have Training

Particular attention must be given to the training of citizens in sections outside a city's presumed target area, for such people would be most likely to survive an atomic bombing and could be rushed to areas of need after the bombing. Some member of every family should have first aid training.

The American Red Cross has been given the responsibility, in the interests of civil defense, for this mass training in first aid. All the 370 chapters of Red Cross throughout the country have been notified to prepare classes in which individuals can receive this training in self-survival and in giving assistance to their families and neighbors. It is not necessary to be a civil defense worker to receive the training.

We should all keep ourselves in the best of health. Anyone who has seen the rigors which civilians undergo in combat areas will appreciate the importance of good health as a patriotic obligation, as well as a means of survival.

The healthy have a far better chance to live through such experiences. And, for the good of our country as a whole, it will be valuable in wartime if the least possible attention need be given to the sick as a burden to be superimposed on care of the injured.

This is a good time for every community in America—whether a target city or not—to take a good look at its health resources.

In most sections of this country, communities will be pleasantly surprised to discover how much has been accomplished in the field of health, how much help is available to them once they know where it is and how to get it.

If deficiencies are found in a community's health facilities they should be corrected now.

Pestilence goes with war.

Community-wide immunization against contagious and infectious diseases can conserve our strength when the pinch comes. Supplies of such common medicine cabinet items as thermometers, bandages and the simpler remedies which doctors recommend can be invaluable in emergency and are very useful in ordinary times.

Studies Begun

Some communities, like Clinton County, Ohio, already have undertaken studies of health resources and have found them valuable. With the aid of 400 residents, they learned the facts about such matters as the prevalence of certain diseases—such as undulant fever, caused by drinking unpasteurized milk—sanitary conditions, and the extent of immunization against communicable disease.

This was done simply by asking questions of the county's 30,000 inhabitants. Now only Grade A pasteurized milk can be sold in the county. 4-H Club members are testing wells and the health department is improving sewage disposal.

In Richmond, Va., some 38,000 citizens were put through a medical assembly line and tested for such diseases as tuberculosis, heart disease, high blood pressure and others. Many cases of hidden diseases were found in time to begin treatment early, when chances of recovery are highest. Other cities in various parts of the United States have undertaken similar programs.

Doctors Overloaded

During World War II our doctors and nurses at home were overloaded with the task of caring for patients left behind by physicians who had gone to war. The armed forces have once more begun to absorb doctors and nurses in large numbers.

So we need right now to plan how to meet such a situation again, the more especially because if there is another major war it may be fought to some extent within our borders. The planning cannot all be done at national levels.

Communities must help themselves.

In the final analysis individuals must help themselves. We might begin with a realization that, just as civilians can be taught to fight at the front, so they also can learn to take care of their basic needs at home.

Stock Show—

Agent Charles Green, secretary of the show, said.

Weighting Is Wednesday

Livestock for the district show will be weighed Wednesday, beginning at 1 p.m. Sifting of livestock for the district competition will begin at 6 p.m. Wednesday.

Judging of the district entries will begin at 9 a.m. Thursday and continue through the day. The auction sale will be held at the Midland Livestock Auction Company's sales barn, starting at 1 p.m. Friday.

FFA members and 4-H Clubbers from Crane, Ector, Upton, Martin, Glasscock, Andrews and Midland Counties will show fat calves, lambs and hogs in the big district meet.

Show officials are expecting 100 lambs, 45 calves and 40 hogs to compete. The number of entries is not expected to match the record-setting entry list of last year's show. But officials hoped this will boost the average sales price.

A. O. Bohannon served as president of the 1950 Midland Livestock Show and was re-elected to that post this year. Other officials include R. L. Miller, vice president; Green, secretary; Kit Carson, treasurer; Kelly Lewellen, recording secretary; and Les Floyd, general superintendent. All of the officers, with the exception of Lewellen, held the same offices last year.

Judges for the show have been obtained, as well as an auctioneer. Committee chairmen report all is in readiness for the show, which is held to encourage youngsters who are participating in FFA and 4-H Club livestock programs.

16 Top-Flight Ice Skaters To Appear On Program Here

"Rhythm On Ice," a sparkling show sponsored in Midland by the Midland Shrine Club, will be presented at 8 p.m. March 21 and 22 in the Midland High School Auditorium.

A cast of 16 top-flight ice skaters will appear in the show, with Neil Golden's orchestra furnishing musical arrangements. Star of the show is George Arnold, acclaimed as one of the top ice skaters in the United States. Also featured is lovely Carol Williams, featured rope-trick artist, formerly with Sonia Henie's famous troupe.

The show will be presented on a portable ice rink. It is adjustable to the size of almost any stage. Freezing plates are laid out in the desired number, then the platform is assembled. From three to four hours are required to produce the ice needed for the production.

"Rhythm On Ice" was produced by George Arnold at Paramount's Hollywood studios. A film of the same name was produced in Hollywood and won the runner-up award in the Academy Award presentations in the short subject field.

Made popular by the film, the show coming to Midland ran a year in New York's St. Regis Hotel. It has been presented in many cities throughout the United States. Its appearance here will be one of the first presentations in the Southwest.

Shrine officials said tickets may be obtained at radio station KCRS or at City Drug.

Portable Purifying Unit Is Invented

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— An answer to one of the greatest hazards of a city's water supply—may be a portable purifying unit invented by a California Institute of Technology professor.

Dr. Alexander Goetz' 12-pound "sanitizer" has been tested by county health officials and proven capable of turning murky water from the Los Angeles River into a clear, drinkable liquid.

The unit sucks up water like a small pump and filters it through powdered earth that renders dangerous bacteria harmless, Dr. Goetz says. He estimates it can be produced for from $30 to $50 a unit and can purify 50 quarts of water an hour at a cost of only a few cents per gallon.

Some communities, like Clinton County, Ohio, already have undertaken studies of health resources and have found them valuable. With the aid of 400 residents, they

Pilot Is Winging His Way To A Degree In Medicine

NEW YORK —(NEA)—Eugene Greider, Jr. is working his way through college, but there isn't any danger he'll try to sell you magazine subscriptions.

When Greider runs out of cash for his college bills (or for his wife and four-year-old daughter), he climbs aboard a four engine air freighter and pilots it across the North Atlantic to places like Brussels or Cairo, or across the Pacific to Japan.

A 31-year-old veteran of Navy patrol plane and transport duty, Greider spent 350 hours and covered 70,000 miles last year flying his way through New York Medical College.

He had completed a three-year pre-medical course before the war and found himself broke. So he joined the Navy, got his wings, and flew anti-submarine patrol in the Atlantic, air cover for the Normandy landings, and later piloted hospital transport planes.

Makes Wrong Turn In Right Direction

BUTTE, MONT. —(AP)—A local resident was freed in police court on a charge of drunkenness, but got mixed up on the doors and walked into the cell block instead of through the exit to the street. County officials then phoned to have him held on a charge of failing to provide for minor children. Police reported he had been released. While a constable searched for him, the city jailer, making routine rounds in the cell block, found the man still wandering around looking for the way out.

INFLAMMATION SIGNS

The four "cardinal signs" of inflammation in living tissues were recognized 1900 years ago as redness, swelling, heat and pain, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

When the war ended, Greider still wanted to be a doctor—and he still needed money to finish medical training. So he signed up with Seaboard and Western, a cargo Airline. Between studies he has skippered one of their DC-4s called the

When he started the long climb toward becoming a doctor, Greider decided he wanted to be a pediatrician. Now he's thinking about switching to flight medicine when he finishes internship and residency.

His daughter, Cheryl, four, thinks he'd be a wonderful children's doctor, though. She says the kids would never mind the pills—or even castor oil—if they could listen to Greider's flying stories at the same time.

Tycoon Charles Awes Washington And Reminds His Secretary Of Her Dad

WASHINGTON —(NEA)—The two secretaries were talking about their important new boss just after he moved into his office in the old State Department Building.

"Everybody treats him just like he's God come to Washington," said one of the girls. "But he reminds me more of my dad."

That was the mood Charles E. Wilson set when he made the transition from business tycoon to government tycoon, a move he made with the ease of a man who has done it once before.

The new chief of Defense Mobilization had a pleasant laugh as he signed the form required to prove he has accepted legal custody of a block, chromium-trimmed water pitcher, a chromium tray and three glasses, the executive-class fountain pen set and leather-trimmed desk blotter.

The second most important man in the government, next to the President, laughed again and said "sure" when he was asked if it was all right to move a big fern from Stuart Symington's office to his own inner office. It seems the fern is "for inner offices of top level executives," and it was dying for lack of water.

Wilson's first official pronouncement was to tell the two pretty secretaries assigned to him they could go home at 5:30 and shouldn't bother to stay as late as he probably would every night. His working schedule is from about nine in the morning to seven or eight in the evening. He also told them to use their own judgment on whom to let in his office and whom to put on the telephone.

For the first week, exercising this judgment was the biggest chore the secretaries faced. At one stage there were 13 calls being held on the line. And more than nine persons waiting outside to see him. Most were job seekers. At one point he was overheard saying:

"Naw, Dick, you're too darn old to do it again. Go back to playing golf and be content with the knowledge that you did the greatest job ever done on machine tool production during the last war."

Charles E. Wilson—"The only reason I'm here is to see that guys like you stay home and produce . . ."

To another he said:

"We don't want you here. The only reason I'm here is to see that guys like you stay home and produce like you've never produced before, but like I'm sure you can."

Even for the last one out in the evening he walks to the door and gives him his big hand in a hearty shake.

The only flat order he's issued to the girls is that he will accept no speaking engagements "for a while at least," and that he won't have time to go to any social events. They're to tell that to anyone who asks—and hundreds have asked.

About half the time the famed head of General Electric Corporation eats lunch in his office. When he doesn't he lunches with one or another official and does business at the same time.

When the crop of visitors got too big to handle in the small outer office, they set up a reception room down the hall.

The girl who runs it has made herself an authority on Wilson's life, although she hasn't seen him yet. She's more than willing to answer questions about his past and volunteers information you don't ask her about.

Reads Description Her favorite is reading a description of Wilson from an old magazine which says:

"He is over six feet tall, erect as a major of infantry, ruddy of countenance, and fairly bursting through well-tailored clothes with the abrupt, muscular movements of a massive frame."

With reverence in her eyes, she tells you he's a pillar of the Baptist Church, quit school at 13 to take a 43-a-week job and in 40 years worked up to the $175,000-a-year presidency of GE, is the world's greatest production genius and that he calls his wife every night in Scarsdale, N. Y., and goes home every weekend.

When Wilson was vice chairman of the War Production Board during World War II his feuds with other members of the board sometimes became the talk of the town. So far he's sailing pretty smoothly in his new billet. But as one man who knows him well and is with him now says:

"They're saying that Charlie has mellowed. But just wait 'til someone tries to foul him up and you'll see what happens."

Whitefish, Montana, Has Envoy To Korea

WHITEFISH, MONT.—(AP)—The Whitefish Chamber of Commerce has a new branch in Korea. John F. Joy, Whitefish locomotive engineer serving with a railroad outfit near Taejeon, wrote Chamber President Shirley Lincoln:

"I have been accused of being the Chamber of Commerce for the State of Montana because of my continual talking about it. I would appreciate any literature you could send me so I could proudly display it."

The chamber hastily sent printed matter, informed Joy that he now is official envoy to Korea and told him to invite anyone he sees to visit Whitefish—anyone south of the 38th parallel.

Arrangements Made To Purchase Rice

BANGKOK —(AP)—The Philippines and India have both completed arrangements for the import of 150,000 tons of Thailand rice, four times the quantity imported in 1950.

A Philippines government representative said the rice will be paid for in dollars, the total cargo costing $30,000,000.

Cow Bells Ring, Class Bells Don't

Anyway, he had a good excuse. A Prairie Lea 4-H clubber visited the Midland County Agent's office Monday and told of staying away from school to bathe his calves and pigs for the Midland Livestock Show.

But the temperature was too low for both the boy and the animals.

"I'll just wait until Tuesday and bathe them while they're in the trailer," he said. "They won't get muddy that way."

Milliken Is County Agent For Andrews

ANDREWS — Andrews County now has a full-time county agent, appointed by the commissioners court.

I. C. Milliken, formerly of El Paso, has assumed the duties of county agent. Prior to the appointment of Milliken, one county agent served Andrews, Ector and Crane Counties.

Milliken is a graduate of Texas A&M College and has had three years experience in the county extension service. He is married and has one child.

Hubert Martin was county agent in the three-county system. Andrews County farmers and ranchers have advocated the employment of a full-time agent for some time.

Pig Poses Unique Problem For Heads Of Livestock Show

This should add gray hairs to official heads.

One youngster bringing his milk fed pig to the Midland Livestock Show wasn't worried one whit Monday over the rules. They are silent, he said, when it comes to the source of milk.

His pig gets it straight from the cow.

"Just follows her around all the time and worries her down," he said.

Students Make Excellent Jurors

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. —(AP)—One morning in 1936 several students in the news reporting class at the State University's School of Journalism found themselves moved out of the spectators' seats in Judge George Morrison's District Court in New Brunswick, and sworn in as jurors. That was the beginning of a unique learn-by-doing program which Professor Hubert Ede's reporting classes have been carrying on regularly for the past five years.

"The reason I like to have students serve on juries is that they do such a fine job. I don't know that I've ever had any better, more serious jurors than the Rutgers kids," Judge Morrison said.

"There is an age requirement of 21 years for jurors in this state," Judge Morrison explained, "but we hit on the practice of letting both attorneys in a case to waive that fine."

Regan Urges Further Study Of 'Wheat To India' Proposition

WASHINGTON—The House may vote soon on the question of sending wheat and food grains to India. Rep. Ken Regan, 18th District, says he understands there are many rich people in India who can well afford to pay this government something for this grain. Also he has heard from some constituents that they had to pay 25 cents for a loaf of bread at some places in El Paso.

From former Rep. Ben Gull, Pampa, Regan has heard there is a bug in the Panhandle about to destroy the wheat crop. There might come a day when wheat would be needed at home, he said.

While not wishing to hold needed food for starving people, Regan said he thought the whole question should be studied fully, especially since he understands that India could get food if she would be willing to maintain more friendly relations with her neighbor, Pakistan.

The government is registering the 17-to-24 age group but says it has no intention of calling up the 17-year-olds. Of the 290,000 youths expected to register in the manpower mobilization scheme, 135,000 are Malays, 120,000 Chinese, 32,000 Indians and Pakistanis, and 3,000 others.

Parisian Decorator Who Got Stuck With Noodles For Diet, Turns 'Em Into Jewelry

Mme. Valentine Welter: The guests thought it was ivory.

Paris—(NEA)—Mme. Valentine Welter doesn't know the old American expression, but nevertheless she's using her noodle. Also her husband's noodle and any other noodle she can lay her hands on.

The noodles she uses are the edible kind. She makes things with them, things like necklaces, earrings, hair ornaments and the like.

Mme. Welter is a graduate of the Beaux Arts and is a well-known interior decorator. But her doctor condemned her to a long diet of noodles. After she'd been decorating her own interior with noodles for a while, she became fascinated by the slippery little things.

She discovered that they come in many tricky shapes and sizes. Her artistic sense prompted her to fashion them into different forms, then enamel them in gay colors.

"There are something like 80 different kinds of noodles," says Mme. Welter. "I use them all."

When noodles were rationed in France, Mme. Welter would exchange her precious ration tickets for other things, getting noodle tickets in exchange. For people who preferred steak, it was a good deal all around.

Now she finds her noodly knickknacks have become a good source of income. Don't tell anybody, but a bride at a fashionable Paris wedding wore a diadem made out of solid noodle. Everybody thought it was ivory.

Blueberry Pie Is Served During Exam

LOS ANGELES—(P)—The final examination in a short story course at the University of Southern California was as easy as pie—literally.

Professor Lynn Clark's students studied magazines last summer. One day they came upon an inviting picture of a blueberry pie. "You've never tasted blueberry pie until you've eaten some of my wife's," he bragged. To prove it, he brought one to the final examination and served it. "This will not become a regular feature of the test, however," he said.

A&M Offers Basic Military Science At Summer Session

COLLEGE STATION—First year basic military science will be offered by Texas A&M College during the Summer session of 1951, Dr. C. Clement French, dean of the college, announced.

This work will be available for all freshmen who enter in June, 1951, for present freshmen who entered in February, 1951, and for entering transfers from junior colleges, whose military course work is less advanced than their academic standing, Dean French said.

"By taking advantage of this opportunity students may advance by one semester their date of graduation and possibly reserve commissioning," the dean said.

"Texas A&M College, with its long history of training men for service to their country, both in military and civilian fields, recognizes its special obligation in the time of emergency," Dean French pointed out.

Special Duty Cited

"As one of eight colleges in the country classed as a military college by the Department of Defense, it has a special duty to facilitate the production of qualified reserve officers through its ROTC program. Under this plan, supervised and supported by the Department of Defense, a man may take the necessary military work leading to his reserve commission while securing, at the same time, preparation in the field of his future professional activity.

"Any deferment in his military obligation which may result for those enrolled in such an ROTC program is entirely under the regulation of selective service and in accord with the overall defense plans of the armed service," Dean French said.

In the early days of the industry, public telephones were contained within a box which was opened by the insertion of a coin. Chairs are very ancient, but until the sixteenth century they were used as emblems of official splendor rather than for common utility. It is believed that the first cast iron was made in England about 1350, although it had been made elsewhere before that. The word "cattle"—formerly meant all farm animals but is now commonly restricted to those of bovine type.

THE DODGE reputation for dependability and long car life is a matter of record... a record of 37 years... a record no other car can match.

And with the many new advancements engineered into the great '51 Dodge, this famous dependability makes Dodge an even bigger value, an even bigger dollar buy.

Prize Is Offered For Peace Thesis

OSLO—(AP) A $1,400 cash prize is offered by the Institute for Social Research here for the best paper submitted before April 1, 1952, on the relevance of research to the problems of peace.

The project is intended to open the eyes of authorities to the "lamentably low level" of investment in this field of study, according to Erik Rinde, chairman of the board for the Institute. Contestants are expected to look into conditions for establishing a "science of peaceful adjustment," and to outline ways to integrate such a science from already existing social sciences. Principal aim of the project will be to "muster scientific resources for research on conditions underlying a possible lasting peace," says Rinde.

Record Claimed For Prima Ballerina

MELBOURNE — (AP) — Members of Melbourne's National Theater Ballet Company, are claiming a record for the prima ballerina, Lynne Golding, who dances the dual role in the ballet "Swan Lake."

When European companies perform "Swan Lake" it is only danced about once a month because the prima ballerina's role is so exacting. Each performance means two hours on the stage, and demands a high degree of skill and stamina. Miss Golding danced the role six times in one week here as part of a ballet festival for the Australian Jubilee celebration.

Opera Star Pinza's Daughter Sings Also

PITTSBURGH — (AP) — Claudia Pinza, daughter of opera star Ezio Pinza, would like nothing better than to follow in her father's footsteps in popular singing.

Claudia, a pretty brunette who in private life is Mrs. John Boller and the mother of a 17-month old boy, sang three years with the Metropolitan Opera Company. Lately she has been singing in theaters and not long ago she came to Pittsburgh to make her night club debut.

Talking about her father, she declared: "In South Pacific he made so many more friends than he had in opera, though I'd like to sing for them, too. I want to sing for everybody."

American Supplies One-Legged Italian With Artificial Limb

WASHINGTON — (AP) — American ships entering the port of Pozzuoli, Italy, should get tender treatment from a one-legged harbor pilot named Aquilino Montagnaro. An American naval officer supplied the pilot with a new lightweight artificial limb, the one material thing he needed and wanted most, but could not obtain.

Capt. Parke H. Brady of the fleet oiler Taluga in August, 1949 noticed the pilot had trouble climbing the ship's ladders. Montagnaro was wearing a 24-pound jointless leg of wood and iron.

Last year when Brady was in Rome for the Holy Year, he obtained a plaster pattern of Montagnaro's leg. Then he had a local firm build a six-pound leg of duraluminum with movable joints. An Italian admiral returning home from a mission here delivered the leg to Montagnaro. Authorities of the port of Pozzuoli made a ceremony out of the presentation.
