Flowing Spraberry Discovery Finaled In NW Reagan Area

Paul F. Barnhart No. 1 Wimberly has been completed as a flowing Spraberry discovery in Northwest Reagan County.

A daily potential of 176 barrels of oil is credited to the discovery. The 24-hour test was taken on a 20 3/4-inch tubing choke.

Open hole section from 6,710 to 6,800 feet received a 4,000 gallon Hydracrac treatment.

Location is at the center of the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 15, block C, L&SV survey. That puts it three and one-half miles east of Texas Crude Company No. 1-40 Proctor, recently completed pumping discovery from the Spraberry.

The Spraberry in No. 1 Wimberly was topped at 6,795 feet. That is on a datum of minus 4,100 feet.

Tubing pressure during the completion test was 140 pounds.

Deeprock To Drill Pennsylvania Test In Central Howard

It has been officially reported that Deep Rock Oil Corporation will drill a 9,000-foot Pennsylvania wildcat in Central Howard County, six miles north of Big Spring.

The exploration will be drilled as the concern's No. 1 J. O. McCrary, 1,980 feet from east and 660 feet from north lines of section 1, block 33, T-1-N, T&P survey.

That puts it five miles south-east of the Bond-Canyon field.

Operations are to start in the near future.

Breedlove Wildcat In Martin Is Near Top Of Ellenburger

Pan American Production Company, Forest Oil Corporation and Houston Oil Company of Texas No. 1 F. D. Breedlove, Northwest Martin County flowing discovery from the Devonian lime is due to enter the Ellenburger at any time.

It topped the Simpson at 13,876 feet and is now coming ahead below 12,718 feet. The top of the Ellenburger is expected by some geologists to come in the core which is now being taken.

Elevation is 2,865 feet. The Montoya dolomite was entered at 12,506 feet. That formation was cored through. It did not log any shows of oil, gas or water.

Has Flowed Naturally

This wildcat flowed oil at the approximate rate of 45 barrels per hour natural from the Devonian between 12,070 feet and 12,148 feet. It found water below 12,148 feet. The Fusselman was topped at 12,207 feet. Top of the Devonian lime is at 11,956 feet.

Location is 13 miles northwest of Stanton and 660 feet from south and 4,820 feet from east lines of Briscoe County School Land, league No. 258.

NE Floyd Project Gets Granite Wash; Is To Be Abandoned

Houston Oil Company of Texas No. 1 John S. Lackey, Northeast Floyd County wildcat, 12 miles north and one mile east of Lockley is to be plugged and abandoned on a total depth of 10,384 feet in granite wash.

This prospector failed to find any signs of possible production in any zone it drilled through. It was started to try for production in the Pennsylvanian lime reef.

It failed to find any appreciable reef build up. The exploration was much lower, geologically, than had been expected.

Location was 330 feet from south and 900 feet from east lines of section 11, block D-2, GC&SF survey.

Truman Denies Peace Bid Rumors

Lower Bail Is Asked By Jailed Reds

NEW YORK — (AP) — Twelve of the 17 Communists arrested by the FBI in a roundup of America's Red leaders went to federal court Thursday asking lower bail.

Federal Judge Sidney Sugarman signed a writ of habeas corpus ordering an immediate hearing on a defense motion for lower bail bonds.

The bail set Wednesday by Judge Samuel H. Kaufman, ranging from $1,000 to $20,000 is "excessive" and "imposes incarceration before guilt is proven," the defense claimed, adding:

"It vitiates the presumption of innocence before conviction."

Defense Attorney Abraham Unger told newsmen he also would try to force the government to accept as bail U. S. government bonds offered by Frederick Vanderbilt Field, secretary of the bail fund of the Civil Rights Congress and reputed left-wing millionaire.

The roundup of Red leaders that netted the 17 in a series of dawn FBI raids Wednesday, widened.

More junior commissars are due for prosecution, authorities indicated.

Four Still Sought

Out of 21 Red leaders indicted, four still were sought.

A hundred FBI agents in 25 autos seized 16 here early Wednesday, and a seventeenth was arrested in Pittsburgh.

The roundup came 16 days after the U. S. Supreme Court affirmed (Continued On Page Seven)

Visiting Foreigners Have Definite Ideas About U. S.

By BILL WOODS

The dark, good-looking German explained the whole affair with just one word: "Facts."

He wanted to know about all aspects of American life, about industry and education, but primarily he was interested "in facts."

Heinz Kunkel was one of four foreign observers who made a whirlwind tour of Midland and Odessa Wednesday and Thursday to see American democracy in operation.

The four visitors were Robert Ruhl of Frankfurt, Germany; Mohammed Babiballa of Tripoli, Libya; Aslan Balian of Baghdad, Iraq; and Kunkel of Hamburg, Germany.

A fifth man in the group, Gerhard Merzyn of Hanover, Germany, became ill in Louisiana and had to slow his pace Wednesday for a rest.

Pat Hurley Tosses New Accusation At State Department

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Patrick J. Hurley accused the State Department Thursday of making "a deliberate attempt to disparage me" in its 1949 "white paper" on China.

Hurley, World War II ambassador to China, was testifying for the second day at the Senate inquiry into Far Eastern policy generally and the dismissal of Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Much of the questioning, as on the first day, turned toward the Yalta agreement.

Senator Wiley (R-Wis) brought out that one of those who attended the Yalta conference was Alger Hiss, a State Department official since jailed for perjury. Hiss was convicted of lying when he swore he did not give U. S. secrets to a pre-war Communist spy ring.

Wiley noted that Hurley, in his testimony Wednesday, had bitterly denounced the 1945 Yalta agreement as an "immoral and cowardly" pact which he said amounted to appeasement of communism.

Wiley then questioned Hurley as to who were "the prime actors in" (Continued On Page Seven)

Saturday Voting To Decide Fate Of Water District

STANTON—The fate of a proposed Martin County water conservation district will be decided at the polls Saturday.

Resident property owners in the 75-square-mile area of the proposed district will decide at that time whether to affirm its creation last month.

The voting will be conducted at Courtney School.

The district, which was ordered last month by the Commissioners Court, following a public hearing, is headed by A. E. Pittman, a farmer in the Tarzan community.

County Judge James McMorris said this week approval of the district will not bring any increase in taxes. Any taxing measures, he said, would have to be voted on at a separate election.

The district was ordered created for the purpose of adopting conservation regulations in the drilling and production of water in the area.

Year Is Gained By Free Nations, Says General Bradley

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Gen. Omar Bradley said Thursday in Korea "the free nations gained at least one precious year to prepare for whatever may come."

He told the inkfolk of 11 gallant men of the Army to whom he gave the Medal of Honor, the nation's paramount military decoration, that these men made an "eminent contribution" to attaining that period of grace.

Ten of the men—infantrymen, engineers, a medic, men and officers—are dead and one is missing in action. Of 23 medals of honor awarded to Army soldiers who fought in Korea, only three have been alive and present to receive them.

The chairman of the joint chiefs of staff recalled that "three days less than a year ago" the North Korean Communists crossed the 38th parallel to wage war on the Republic of Korea. This was "part of the continuing Communist plan to test the fortitude of the United Nations and the sincerity underlying their pledge taken at San Francisco five years before," Bradley said.

Industrial Group Of WTCC To Meet

ABILENE — (AP) — Appointment of E. L. Buelow of San Angelo as chairman of the Industrial Committee of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce was announced Thursday.

B. P. Bludworth, WTCC president, said the committee's first meeting will be held at 1 p.m. Friday in San Angelo. Others to attend will include Fred H. Husbands, executive vice president and general manager; James F. Melton, manager of the Taxation and Legislation Department; Alden L. Cathey, manager of the Public Relations and Membership Department; and George A. Logan, agriculture and livestock manager.

Stanley M. Erskine, Paul McHargue, Bill Collins and Delbert Downing, Midland members of the committee, plan to attend the meeting in San Angelo Friday.

Others from this area expected to attend the session include Don Donovan, C. W. Brown, R. E. Ruble and Oliver O. Jacobson, all of McCamey; James P. Simmons, Monahan; W. W. Munn, Big Lake; Karl Butz and William Davis, Fort Stockton; A. J. Mitchell, Rankin; and Hugh S. Munroe, Texon.

Conference Reveals No 1952 Plans

WASHINGTON — (AP) — President Truman Thursday discounted rumors of Korean peace proposals.

He told a news conference questioner no peace proposition had been taken up with him by the United Nations. He added he believed a thing of this kind would come to him if any action were contemplated.

He fired "no comment" replies in quick succession to questions regarding Iranian oil, congressional committee actions in toning down his inflation control proposals and Senate votes cutting 1 per cent from requested appropriations for federal personnel.

He said control and appropriation bills still are in the formative stage and he will withhold comment until they are passed.

He also declined to throw light on his 1952 political intention or to mix again in the MacArthur controversy.

A reporter asked if Jonathan Daniels, Raleigh, N. C., publisher and Democratic national committeeman, had shown anything more than sharp reportorial instinct in predicting at the White House Monday that Truman would run again next year.

The President, grinning broadly, replied the reporter had stated the case exactly.

One of the many "no comments" came when a newsmen sought presidential reaction on a charge by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) that Secretary of Defense Marshall was "masterminding" as the reporter put it, a great conspiracy without the President's knowledge. Truman said he didn't know how the senator could read his mind.

In a reference to the state visit of President Galo Plaza of Ecuador, Truman told questioners that international relations in general are better now than ever before in his history. He said he hopes to keep them that way.

He described President Plaza as a good man anxious to do the right thing. He said he and the Ecuadorian president would get down to business discussions Friday and communicate what he issued when they are ended.

Wage-Price Control Bill Is Approved

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Senate Banking Committee Thursday approved a wage-price control bill denying President Truman most of the broad new control powers he requested, and forbidding price rollbacks beyond the average on January 25-February 24.

Chairman Maybank (D-SC), said the action was taken by a 12-1 vote of the committee, Senator Dirksen (R-Ill) casting the lone dissenting vote.

Maybank said he will present the bill to the Senate Friday and that debate on the measure will start Monday.

Senator Moody (D-Mich) said he and others will wage a fight on the Senate floor to knock out the "restriction on rollbacks."

Maybank announced the committee had struck out a proposal to create an agency to help small business and industrial enterprises get a fair share of defense contracts, with an agreement to report out a separate bill to do the same thing.

Crashing Plane Decapitates Tot

DALLAS — (AP) — A five-year-old blond-haired boy was decapitated Thursday when a crippled single-engine airplane careened off a telephone pole near Skyline Airport and crashed in the back yard of an East Oak Cliff residence here.

The boy, Del Odis Farham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Farham, was picking peas in the back yard garden, his mother said. He was killed instantly.

The 24-year-old pilot of the airplane, Lester B. Lawson, Dallas, was rushed to Parkland Hospital where his condition was described as critical.

The boy's head and shoulders were severed completely from the rest of his body. Witnesses said they believed the plane's lower wing or struts (wire cables between the top and bottom wing) caused the decapitation.

Doughton Calls For House Approval Of Big Tax Boost

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Rep. Doughton (D-NC) asked the House Thursday to approve a $7,200,000,000 tax increase, and said he didn't see how the rates could be boosted any higher.

The 87-year-old North Carolinian heads the Ways and Means Committee which drew up the bill, due to come to a final vote in the House late Friday.

He endorsed the huge proposed increase, largest in American history, as urgently needed to finance the nation's defense program. But he told his colleagues solemnly:

Water Pump Record Broken Here Again

For the third time in three days, Midland used a record-breaking amount of water Wednesday.

The city's three water well fields produced 9,398,000 gallons of water during the day, almost a quarter of a million gallons more than was pumped the previous day.

"But that's about as high as we can get," said Henry Nunn, city sewage and water engineer.

"The water in the big storage tank was pulled to a 14-foot level by 10 p.m. Wednesday and during the night we were unable to refill it completely."

The tank—a 2,500,000-gallon storage reservoir in the western part of the city—has a full stage of 60 feet and the night's pumping was able to bring the level only to 52 feet.

"I consider it unlikely that we shall be able to increase substantially the yield of the federal tax system beyond what is included in the present bill."

"I say this in all frankness and sincerity, for I consider it essential that we face up to the fact that any higher tax rates on either individuals or corporations or excises would be exceedingly burdensome and difficult to impose."

Doughton said that under the current fiscal situation, Congress has three choices: increase taxes even higher than proposed in the pending bill; reexamine and reduce federal spending, both the ordinary operations of government and the military and foreign aid budget; or embark upon a renewed program of borrowing and deficit financing.

He rejected the idea of deficit financing, saying it would contribute to inflation and might permanently impair the government's credit. He said the proposed $7,200,000,000 tax hike is "as large an amount as could safely be collected from the economy under present conditions." Hence, he concluded:

"The only sound course, in my opinion, is to reexamine the score of federal activities and to cut expenditures to the bone."

The chairman of the tax-writing group noted this is the third tax increase by Congress since the outbreak of the Korean war a year ago. Taken together, they account for an estimated yearly revenue increase of more than $17,000,000,000.

Baby Is Born To Deanna Durbin

PARIS — (AP) — Deanna Durbin has given birth to a nine-and-a-half pound boy, named Peter "because it's a nice name," her husband said Thursday.

The child is Deanna's second. Her five-year-old daughter, Jessica, was born of her second marriage, to Hollywood Producer Felix Jackson.

Miss Durbin, 28, married 44-year-old Director Charles David in Sarreguemines last December 21 soon after her divorce from Jackson became final. The star's first marriage was to Vaughn Paul.

David has two children by a previous marriage.

The baby was born Wednesday in a hospital at suburban Boulogne-Billancourt. His full name is Peter Henry David.

City May Abandon Off-Condemed Jail

The City of Midland is considering abandonment of its City Jail, located in a building at the rear of City Hall, would be used only as a temporary lock-up.

"But prisoners who are being held more than a few hours," he added, "will be placed in the county jail."

Police said a 30-year-old negro escaped from the city jail sometime Wednesday afternoon. They didn't know he was gone until someone reported he was seen in East Midland a few hours after his arrest on a charge of drunkenness.

Police Capt. Jim Wilkerson said he had escaped by the simple process of punching a hole in the ceiling, climbing into the attic and then pushing aside some of the shingles on the roof.

The same negro escaped in a similar fashion about six weeks ago.

The city jail long has been cited as inadequate and even undesirable, having been condemned last year by inspectors of the State Department of Health.

was made only Wednesday but no recommendations have been announced.

The jail, built to accommodate only six prisoners, has held as many as 39 at one time. During May, there was a total of 177 prisoners in the jail, most of them during the weekend peak periods.

The city included $50,000 for construction of a new jail in last year's $3,500,000 improvement bond issue but no further action has been taken toward its construction.

Chandler Resigns As Baseball Czar

CINCINNATI — (AP) — A. B. Chandler resigned Thursday as baseball commissioner effective July 15.

The former Kentucky governor and senator who had held the commissioner's job since 1945, made his announcement at a conference with Warren Giles, president of the Cincinnati Reds and a member of baseball's executive committee.

Baseball club owners twice refused to renew his contract which would have run until May 1, 1952.

Rip-Snortin' Rodeo Boosters From Pecos Shoot-Up Midland

Midland had visitors Thursday—40 Pecos rodeo boosters advertising their big western show, July 2, 3 and 4.

And a "rip-snortin', gun-totin' bunch they were.

The boosters are on a tour of West Texas cities and visited Monahan and Odessa before arriving at Midland at noon. Dressed "western" they rode into town shooting large cap-pistols.

They were guests of the Midland Rotary Club at its weekly luncheon meeting in Hotel Scharbauer.

Judge Bean here

Heading the group was E. G. Stafford, Master of Ceremonies was J. V. Davis and the western music was played by the Gizzard "Cotton Choppers" orchestra.

"Cowgirl" singers included Martha Holmes, Thelma Hudkins, Bonnie Thomas, Ruthie Thomas and Sylvia Tate.

"Judge Roy Bean," himself, was in the group, impersonated by Fog Biggs, veteran Pecos citizen.

Frank Bonura of the Pecos Enterprise is staffing the tour. He said the group had been well received in each city visited.

The trip to Midland by the boosters is one of the three junkies planned by Pecos boosters in support of the rodeo show. All towns and cities in a 200-mile radius of Pecos will be visited.

Traveling in an air-conditioned bus, the boosters went to Big Spring from here.

Dr. N. J. Maberry, superintendent, announced the schools plan to raise $250,000 of which $40,000 will be used for the hospital in the capital city of Paraguay. Plans for the building of the new medical center will be featured in the program Saturday. The hospital, for which land already has been purchased, will be a medical and health education center where patients will be treated and young people trained as nurses. Members of the staff will make trips into the isolated interior. The Paraguayan government is backing the medical missionary activities. "The door stands open," government officials said, "for the missionary doctor to bring healing of the body and soul to the needy multitudes of Paraguay." This will be the sixth hospital the Seventh-Day Adventist Sabbath schools have helped to provide during the last two years. Others are located in Hiroshima, Japan; Basuto, South Africa; Belem, Brazil; Karachi, Pakistan and French Cameroons, West Africa.

Theater Group Slates Comedy By Philip Barry

The Midland Community Theater will present its first regular performance of "The Philadelphia Story" at 8:30 p.m. Thursday in the City-County Auditorium. The play opened Wednesday night with a special performance for negroes. Regular performances also will be given Friday and Saturday nights.

The play tells the story of the Lord family which hails from Philadelphia's upper-crust society. It was a popular production both as a Broadway comedy and later as a movie.

Mrs. W. F. Pennebaker, as Tracy Lord, the young society girl, has the leading role. Mrs. Pennebaker has had theater experience both in Midland and in her native New England where she attended Wheaton College in North, Mass., and the Katherine Gibbs School in Boston. She was a member of the Cambridge Dramatic Society. Since her arrival in Midland three years ago, Mrs. Pennebaker has appeared in "The Man Who Came to Dinner," "Pygmalion," "Miranda" and three minstrel revues. She also served as stage manager for the Midland production, "I Remember Mamma."

Tickets may be purchased at Tallorine or at the theater box office in the auditorium.

AND THAT'S 'THE PHILADELPHIA STORY'—Midland Community Theater actors rehearse a scene from the group's new play, "The Philadelphia Story," to be presented Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights in the City-County Auditorium. Those pictured are Bob Whitaker, Bill Pomeroy, Sonya Bermingham and Bill Cumberland.

McCarty-Hollander Vows Solemnized

CRANE—Betty Jo McCarty of Odessa and W. C. Hollander of Kermit exchanged vows in a single-ring ceremony Sunday in the Church of Christ, with R. V. Wood, minister, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. McCarty of Odessa. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Hollander of Crane.

The bride wore a pink and white brocaded lace dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. Eddie Carruth of Odessa was the bridesmaid and Ted Green served as best man.

A reception was held at the Gulf Recreation Hall following the wedding. The parents of the bride and bridegroom assisted the couple in receiving the guests.

A three-tiered wedding cake topped with bride and bridegroom figurines centered the bride's table which was decorated with white daisies and white tapers. Venona Hamblett poured and Mrs. Hays Damron served the cake.

Others members of the house party were Wanda Caudle, Jean Caudle, Wynell Heard, Betty Basham, Clesta Napier, Mrs. W. R. Hamblett and Mrs. C. J. LeClaire. Nona Lee Hollander, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the guest book.

Approximately 75 persons, including out-of-city guests from Odessa, Kermit and Snyder, attended.

Hollander was graduated from Crane High School and attended Abilene Christian College. The couple will live in Kermit where Hollander is employed with the Texas-New Mexico Pipe Line Company.

Mrs. J. A. Koesler of the Midland Floral Company spoke to the Green Thumb Garden Club Wednesday on "Corsages." Mrs. Walter Hallanan was the hostess.

Mrs. H. T. Hilliard was a new member. Others attending were Mrs. Paul Anderson, Mrs. P. V. Anderson, Mrs. Dayton Bliven, Mrs. C. W. Chancellor, Jr., Mrs. Tom Cole, Mrs. Howard Davis, Mrs. W. D. Hamm, Mrs. Jack Huff, Mrs. Joe Huff, Mrs. Lloyd Innerarity, Mrs. Frank Jackson, Mrs. John Leigh, Mrs. Gene McDaniel, Mrs. Bill Reeder and Mrs. Gilbert Thompson.

The next meeting will be held July 18 in the home of Mrs. W. D. Hamm, 2406 West College Street.

Sunday dinner sometimes means there are gray stains left on the table cloth. If so, treat the stains a special way because they're a mixture of protein and grease, and protein "sets" if plunged into hot water. The thing to do is to wash with water to remove the protein, then wash out the remaining grease stain in hot soapy water.

Zest For Leadership

More than a few able American observers complain sadly from time to time about the dearth of good political leadership in this country.

Even the most ardent backers of our present leaders feel that weakness and indecision and confusion play too great a role in our affairs these critical days.

France has suffered a continuing crisis of leadership almost since the end of World War II. Time after time, the delicacy of French political alignments has been given as the excuse for not doing something that needed to be done.

In Britain, whatever one may think of its goals, the Labor Party for several years did indeed provide a driving leadership. But today, a bare six years since its ascent to power, the party is running out of steam.

At least two U. S. journalists reporting on the British scene find the government gripped by virtual paralysis.

The fiery Aneurin Bevan, who some predict one day will be prime minister, still has not lost his zest.

Throughout free Europe there is a poverty of leadership, a shortage of men with the talent for governing.

World War II killed off or exhausted much of Europe's potential leadership. What is left has little heart for the job.

In this dreary situation, the United States is the one real hope. It still is young, economically sound, untouched by the ravages of war, and optimistic.

But the vigor and spirit are here. More than ever in our history we need to show what we can do.

Right To Precious Silence

Totalitarian police learned long ago that it helps to break a man down if you can bombard him with painful, irritating sounds and flood his quarters continuously with light.

There are even reports that some try to exact confessions by resorting to a device nicknamed the "glockenspiel": beating with sticks on a pail placed over a victim's head.

We're on guard against such abuses in this country. In fact, we're so careful to protect a man's ears and his right to choose silence that we won't let him be bombarded by sound in public places.

That's what the court had in mind the other day when it ordered the Washington street car company to stop broadcasting radio music and commercials to its riders.

Wrong Address

Have you ever slipped a letter into the wrong envelope and mailed it off? It happens in the best of families.

Our envoy to Iran, Henry Grady, in effect did just that the other day when he mistakenly handed to Premier Mossadegh a copy of a letter written by President Truman to Prime Minister Attlee of Britain.

Mossadegh is an emotional man, given to frequent bursts of tears in public. Grady's miscue sounds like the best excuse for a breakdown the premier has yet had.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service

"You're a crook and a low-life," said West sadly as South caught his singleton king of trumps.

Actually, declarer had not peeked and had not made a miraculous guess.

West opened the nine of clubs, and East continued the suit until South ruffed the third round.

The contract was now home, of course. South drew one more round of trumps and eventually gave up a diamond trick, making his game with ease.

Bridge hand diagram showing North, South, East, and West cards and a score of 11-0.

South did not know that the king of spades was going to drop.

For example, if the ace of spades caught only low trumps, South would try the ace and king of hearts.

If the jack of hearts failed to drop, South could lead to the queen of hearts, trying for a 3-3 break in that suit.

If East had the king of spades, he would then be forced to lead a diamond, giving dummy a free finesse.

What if West had the king of spades? If it happened to be singleton, South's play would catch it.

South would have been set if he had tried the spade finesse. He would have lost a trump trick, and then sooner or later he would have to give up a diamond trick.

Marshall Plan, Ahead Of Goal, Must Be Continued For Safety

By PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—One year ahead of schedule, the Marshall Plan for European recovery is practically over.

What is still more striking is that the original goal of the Marshall Plan is being achieved at almost $5,000,-000,000 less than was originally estimated.

The act, setting up the U. S. government machinery to administer the Marshall Plan, was signed by President Truman on April 3, 1948.

As of May 31, year and one month before the scheduled expiration date, allocations for the 17 Marshall Plan countries total $11,600,000,000.

The Congress is being asked to appropriate another $1,600,000,000 for Marshall Plan operations during the coming year.

This amount, plus the $11,600,000,000 already allocated, makes the $13,200,000,000 which is properly chargeable to the Marshall Plan as it was originally conceived.

The $400,000,000 aid requested for next year will go almost entirely to three countries—Western Germany, Austria and Greece.

If peace treaties could have been concluded with Austria and Germany and new governments recognized in their respective united territories, the recovery story there might also be near a conclusion.

Greece, of course, was in the midst of a full-scale civil war when the Marshall Plan began operations.

In all honesty, it must be admitted that Greece will require even more than another 18 months to catch up with the rest of Europe.

Excepting these three trouble spots, Marshall Plan aid for the rest of Western Europe's civilian economy could be written off as ended this coming June 30.

Great Britain officially withdrew from Marshall Plan assistance last December. France, Italy and the Low-Countries could withdraw now.

Denmark and Norway are back on their feet. Sweden and Switzerland, the neutrals in both world wars, needed assistance only to integrate their economies with the rest of Europe.

Portugal and Turkey could get along. Trieste and Iceland, the remaining two tiny areas in the Marshall Plan organization are, of course, special problems, not directly related to the larger problems of

Have a Laugh

By BOYCE HOUSE

Did you hear about the man who hit himself in the head with a hammer because it felt so good when he quit?

And then there was the one-armed stone mason. He would hold the chisel between his teeth and hit himself in the back of the head with the hammer.

And then there was the man with a gash on his forehead. Asked how he got hurt, he replied, "I bit my self."

"Away up there?"

"Yes, I stood on a chair."

Every Summer in Switzerland, 200 actors perform the historic story of William Tell in an outdoor setting at Interlaken.

had. The chances were they never would again, either.

Miss Grigg recently remained in her gray-cotton tank suit for the first two hours, "so as not to dribble powder and things on my graduation costume."

When she finally donned her black-satin bathing suit, and discovered that the zipper which ran up the length of the back had jammed, there was near pandemonium.

Most of the students, four Glamour Guides, and the floor mother all took turns tugging, or attacking with a nail file and bobby pin. It was a real emergency, because most of Miss Midge's bare backside bulged into view, rendering her highly unsuitable for graduation.

Mrs. Coxthalwaite sent out an SOS for the building's maintenance engineer, who arrived in overalls, knelt behind Miss Midge, and applied pliers and an oil-can till the zipper moved freely. The gap was closed; the day was saved.

On the way out, the engineer caught sight of Paris wearing white-satin trunks, and two orchids the size of horsehoes. He stood transfixed, like a pillar of salt, until the floor mother nudged him out the door.

DARIS and Lucilla were standing on either side of Mrs. Coips, and they had the watchful, over-bright cheerfulness of a nurse with a very ill patient.

Their friend's face was still set in the blank, staring expression she'd had when she came in that morning and told them her husband had asked for a divorce so that he could marry the woman who lived in the apartment below.

Now she roused herself to smile, with her courtesy, at Paris' description of Harry's reaction to Mrs. Coxthalwaite: "He took one look at that dame and you'd thought he was seeing snakes. 'Who's she?' he asks me. 'S-I tell him. That's the floor mother,' and he says, 'Well, a floor is all she'll ever be mother of.'"

"Shouldn't you be out there with him now?" Mrs. Coips asked. "Lissen, I'm not tryin' to do you a favor," Paris protested. "Harry's so nervous waiting for the show to go on he'd get me crazy too."

The Form Divine

by HILDEGARDE DOLSON

SEVERAL of the other students were content, as they tried on their New Year's for size or color.

The neatly coiffed Mrs. Cleery, silhouette and rouge subdued, told everybody proudly that her high-school-age daughter was no longer ashamed of her.

She had Lucilla, Paris, Mrs. Jallowitz and Mrs. Cleery stay after school for a last rehearsal of what Paris called their acts in the show.

GRADUATION DAY dawned hard, with a drizzle. It was hardly bathing-suit weather, and yet the atmosphere within the walls of Beautiful-You was so pinkly radiant and supercharged with excitement that the participants might well have got heat rash.

The ceremony was to take place at 12, but by 9:30 the dressing room already had the feverish backstage activity of a Little Theater Group on opening night.

Monsieur Jellieu pattered around the room bestowing a last touch to his creations, at times bending so close over a coiffure that he gave the impression of tasting it.

As each student emerged from a cubicle in her graduation costume, she attracted clusters of classmates who adjusted a strap or ruffle and admired the total effect.

The large Mrs. Varnsey was handsomely unbending in a navy-silk dressmaker swim suit with white dots along the hem.

Mrs. Cleery wore pleated chartruse shorts and harlequin tights in a harmonizing green. A busy matron named Ploos supplied an exotic note in bluish-pink Latex with a giant swordfish appliqued down the front.

There wasn't a dull eye in the house. Even Lucilla felt the headiness of victory. Later that day, Miss Willitt posed the students

Governor Shivers Approves 46 Laws

AUSTIN — (AP) — Forty-six new laws were approved by Gov. Allan Shivers Wednesday, including several anti-crime statutes. One clause down on policy racks. Another strikes at the use of bombs in gang warfare by slapping heavy prison sentences and fines on persons who manufacture or possess bombs for criminal purposes. Another amends the anti-burglary law to prohibit modern methods of safecracking. It assesses a minimum prison term of five years. The governor also approved bills allowing Texas to enter compacts with other states for mutual helpfulness in parole matters and to secure out-of-state witnesses for criminal trials. Shivers signed into law a bill allowing the fining of minors between 14 and 17 on conviction of reckless driving. Here's What They Do: Others on the list of 46 bills signed by the governor do these things: Authorize incorporated cities and towns which own part of an international toll bridge over the Rio Grande within the United States to issue bonds payable from revenues from the toll bridge to repair or improve the structure. Prohibit outside toilets in unincorporated villages to be located within 1,320 feet of any water well used for drinking water purposes. Applies only in counties of more than 350,000 population. Allow the general manager of the Texas prison system to appoint an assistant executioner to relieve the prison superintendent of that duty.

Admiral Could Move Fleet Headquarters From Hawaii Base To Guam Within 48 Hours

GUAM — (AP) — If a major war should break out in Asia, Adm. Arthur W. Radford could move his U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters from Pearl Harbor to Guam within 48 hours. One major purpose of the Navy's development of its Guam base since the end of World War II has been to make it a standby fleet command post.

Fleet headquarters would move to Guam—and quickly—whenever close direction of major naval forces in Asian waters should become necessary. The island was Adm. Chester Nimitz' headquarters for the two Ijima and Okinawa campaigns in the closing months of the Pacific war.

The time for moving forward—3,800 air miles west of Pearl Harbor—would depend on when the Navy's action missions became more important than its mission of supporting forward troops as in the Korean conflict. For instance, should a full military blockade of the China coast and amphibious landings there be undertaken, Pacific Fleet Headquarters likely would shift to Guam. But Pearl Harbor would remain the main logistical support headquarters.

The Navy has spent about $130,000,000 in building up Guam since V-J day. Projected work will run the total to more than $200,000,000. Navy Defense Post. Ten years ago, when the Pacific war started, Guam was a puny defense post quickly lost to the Japanese. The Navy in 1941 had begged $4,000,000 from a reluctant Congress. The island was lost before any money could be spent on a seaplane base.

When World War II ended, the Navy planned a Gibraltar-like defense bastion costing almost $1,000,000,000. But that program quickly was chopped down by shrinking military dollars and new evaluations.

It is ready now to take over if and when a big show comes in the Orient. The Navy's top project on Guam now is the expansion and improvement of a permanent communications center. A command headquarters must have close and immediate control of its forces. That requires fast and reliable communications.

The Navy has projected up to $34,000,000 for its Guam radio sending and receiving facilities. More than $8,000,000 has been spent already on this and $8,500,000 more is planned for the next fiscal year, after Congress passes its appropriation bill. Guam communications center already operates as the relay link with Navy warships off Korea and with the Navy's Far East Headquarters in Japan.

It is ready now to take over if and when a big show comes in the Orient.

Famous Ranger To Be Advisor For Films, Radio

DALLAS — (AP) — M. T. (Lone Wolf) Gonzaulas, famous Texas Ranger captain, says he will retire July 31 to become a technical advisor for the movies, radio and television. Gonzaulas, known among law breakers and peace officers for his lightning draw of a pistol, made his announcement Wednesday night but refused to go into details. He said the resignation had been under consideration for several years. He said he had completed an agreement as a professional advisor on Texas Rangers, gunfighting, and crime detection but would not reveal the name of the company for which he will work. Gonzaulas said additional details of his retirement would be announced July 10 at a gathering of law enforcement officers, newsmen and others at the Koon Kreek Klub near Athens.

Gonzaulas joined the Rangers Oct. 1, 1920. He became known as a "trouble shooter" for the Rangers, appearing and disappearing at any place in the state. He acquired the nickname "Lone Wolf" because he preferred to work alone.

Recently he has been stationed in Dallas.

Smith submitted a bid totaling $6,461.28.

that great drama" at Yalta "which so changed the world."
Not At Yalta
Hurley replied he was not at Yalta, but "there are a number of witnesses who were x x x."
"Well," said Wiley, "His was at Yalta, wasn't he?"
Hurley: "Yes, sir, His was at Yalta."
Wiley: "Do you suggest that we subpoena His?"
Hurley: "Well, I am afraid that there is a certain provision that enables a man to be relieved from testifying against himself, and I think, I don't believe you could get Mr. His—to tell you the facts about Yalta."
His attended the 1945 Yalta conference in his capacity as a state department official.
Hurley complained to the senators that some news accounts of his testimony "reported that I said the Yalta surrender was due to the cowardice of President Roosevelt."
Hurley added:
"I remember distinctly that I said that President Roosevelt was already a sick man at Yalta, and I did not attribute to him what transpired at Yalta."

Wage-Price—

Act, authorizing price, wage and other economic controls, is due to expire June 30.
The senate restriction would hold future beef price rollbacks to two per cent instead of the nine per cent Price Stabilizer Michael V. DiSalle has ordered added to the recent 10 per cent rollback on live cattle prices.
DiSalle said Wednesday night that adoption of the amendment would cost the American public at least $2,500,000,000 a year.
Declaring that it could only mean a "rolling forward of prices," the price chief told the International Circulation Managers of the United States and Canada that the amendment would "penalize the American people beyond any measure dictated by necessity or reason."

Rotarians Mix Baseball, Rodeo At Regular Meet

Midland Rotarians mixed baseball and rodeo at their regular meeting Thursday noon in Hotel Scharbauer as Pecos Rodeo boosters and Midland baseball officials described their respective sports.
The Pecos group, composed of 40 persons, was here to publicize the annual Pecos Rodeo, July 2-4. Glenn Stafford and J. V. Davis did the speaking, while the Cotton Choppers String Band furnished the music. Vocal selections were presented by Bonny Thomas, Ruth Thomas, Thelma Jean Hutchins, Martha Holmes and Sylvia Tate.
The baseball program, arranged by A. H. Vineyard, program chairman, was staged in observance of National Baseball Week.
Vineyard reviewed the history of baseball before turning the program over to Marion Flynn, president of the recently organized Midland Baseball Club, who introduced other club officials, including Directors R. D. Scruggs and Tex Carleton; Dr. H. B. Johnson, vice president; J. C. Smith, secretary-treasurer, and Zeke Bonura, manager.
Flynn discussed the organization of the home-owned ball club, which he said belongs to the citizens of Midland. He thanked residents for their support and urged larger crowds at the Indians' home games.
"Better support will mean better baseball," he said.
Bonura, in a brief address, said it is wonderful that Midland fans do not "ride" the home club players.
"Midland fans are the finest I have ever seen in organized baseball," he said. "This is most encouraging to our young ball players, a fine group of boys on the field and off."
"And all of the Indians like it here," Bonura stated.
Carleton, a former major league player, spoke briefly to conclude the meeting.

definite ideas about American life, from education to night clubs.
They were an alert group. Their questions never ceased, not even while they were dinner guests of Stanley M. Erskine, president of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, at the Midland Country Club.
Differ About Weather
But two Germans differed sharply with their companions about Midland weather. Ballan and Habballa said it was fine. They felt right at home.
"No," argued Kunkel, "it's horrible." Ruhl said it was too hot to breathe.
Kunkel, when asked what he thought of American women, inquired frankly: "You want my honest opinion?"
His honest opinion:
"You are doing a lot for sex in America with movies, magazines, newspapers and make-up, but your women are too cool. They are excellent hostesses and are very nice and polite, but I would never stay here without my wife, a German woman." To qualify his evaluation, Kunkel explained he has spent a good deal of time in France.
He had to laugh at the American custom of women dancing only with their escorts. In fact, he didn't have much to say for American night life in general.
"In America the night clubs close at 1 a. m., but in Europe they just get started at 11 p. m."
Ask For Details
The quartet worked up a lively interest in the game between the Midland Indians and the Artesia Drillers Wednesday night. They wanted to know details. "How much does the ball weigh, and who are the men in the black suits?"
When Rudy Escobar slammed the ball over right field fence to put the Indians ahead three to two in the third inning, Ballan wanted to know why the fence wasn't built higher.
"If it were higher the other team could get the ball," he reasoned.
Kunkel said the informality and friendship of the American people impressed him from the start. "I was glad to find there is no hate for us here," he said.
The five travelers are members of the staffs of the United States Information Centers in their countries. Their tour of West Texas is being sponsored by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Wendell Bedichek of the WTOC staff is traveling with them.
From San Angelo
The team arrived here Wednesday from San Angelo, and began an inspection of schools in Odessa in the afternoon.
Workshops in schools seemed to hold their interest over all else. Ruhl said he would like German schools to have physical plants like those of American schools. "We are too abstract in Germany," Ruhl said. "We have classrooms and gymnasiums, but we should have workshops like yours."
Ruhl, 35, isn't making his first trip to America. He spent three years in this country as a prisoner of war during World War II.
Kunkel, who is 34 and has a seven-year-old daughter, was a POW in England for six months. He said he is most interested in the oil industry. The group visited a nearby oil field Thursday morning to see a rig in operation.
Ballan at 28 is the oldest of the five. He has worked for the U. S. government for seven years and is the ranking native officer of the USCIS staff in Baghdad.
Kunkel was concerned that Americans understand the workings of USCIS in Germany.
"The American taxpayer pays for everything. You pay my salary," he said.
In the "Amerika Hauser," as the USCIS are called, everything is modeled after the American way. Kunkel said thousands of visitors go to the USCIS everyday to see American movies and hear American music.
"We have classes in your language and government taught by American professors."
Conditions in Germany are much better now, Ruhl said. Food is more plentiful. "But we have a big problem with refugees coming to the Western zone from the Russian zone. Approximately 100 come every day without food or clothes. We have to feed them and find work for them. It must mean something that so many are leaving the Russians."
Ruhl expressed surprise at the details of the program planned for them by the WTOC, and he's still amazed that in New Orleans a conductor held up a train for three minutes while he bought a ticket.
Following Thursday morning's inspection of a drilling rig, the group left at 10:30 a. m. for Lubbock. Other West Texas cities to be visited include Amarillo, Wichita Falls and Fort Worth.

Russia, China Sign Trade Agreement

LONDON—(AP)—Russia and Red China have signed a new trade pact designed to step up the exchange of goods between the two Communist lands, the Moscow radio announced Thursday.
The agreement, signed in Moscow Tuesday, apparently supplements the exchange set up in the original Russian-Chinese trade pact of February, 1950. That pact was for two years.
The announcement did not specify what type of goods was involved in the new pact.

the convictions of 11 top Communist leaders.
The 21 are charged with criminal conspiracy to teach and advocate overthrow of the government by force and violence.
The indictment was the first mass prosecution of Communists since the June 4 Supreme Court ruling upholding constitutionality of the Smith Act, under which the 11 top Red leaders were convicted in 1949.
The 21 were indicted for allegedly taking part in the same conspiracy for which the 11 were convicted.
U. S. Attorney Irving H. Saypol indicated here there would be further prosecutions. The special federal grand jury which indicted the 21 is continuing its work.
In addition, the 21 were accused of plotting to take the party underground to carry out the conspiracy in case of "emergency."

fight. An American Sabre jet and a Mustang fighter were shot down. Another Sabre jet is missing.
FEAF revised Red losses downward. The corrected total listed 34 Communist aircraft destroyed or damaged, instead of 28. Nine were listed as shot down (Six MIG-15 jets, two Stormovik attack bombers and a Yak fighter), one probably destroyed and 14 damaged. The damaged craft were mostly swift Russian-made MIG-15s.
Activities Slowed
Bad weather cut UN air activity to 486 sorties Wednesday, including 150 night attacks.
Allied predictions of a limited offensive Chinese offensive before Monday were reported by AP correspondent Jim Becker.
Becker said officers pointed out Chinese activity on the western front is similar to that preceding their April 22 offensive.
"It's the same pattern on a smaller scale," the officers said.
Allied patrols roam almost at will in front of UN lines.
But, one officer observed, "We know the Chinese are there and probably watching us go by. They want us to develop a false sense of security."
The predicted limited attack is not expected to be nearly as heavy as the previous Chinese Spring offensive.
To mount a major offensive the Reds would have to bring in fresh Chinese troops from Manchuria.

Midland High School Coach Thurmon L. (Tugboat) Jones arrived in Midland Wednesday to collect the boys signed up for a Summer camp in Colorado owned by Jones, Red Rutledge and Audrey Gill.

The youngsters are to depart Sunday in a chartered Greyhound bus for the Hidden Valley Camp for Boys, 60 miles from Denver.

Accompanying Jones to Midland from the Colorado camp—where the coaches and camp counselors have been putting the camp into shape—was assistant mentor Bernard (Pat) Patterson.

Jones reported the conditions "nice and cool" in Colorado and said it had snowed several times.

"We still have room for a few more boys," he said, "and parents may contact me at Hotel Scharbauer if interested, or if they have any questions about the camp."

Rutledge and Gill will arrive Friday to transport baggage to the Summer resort.

A full-scale recreation program is planned for the Midland youngsters at the camp, Jones said.

Texas League—Cats Help Eagles Slay On Top Of Loop

By The Associated Press

Generally speaking there is no love lost between the two Texas cities, Dallas and Fort Worth, but Thursday the citizens of Dallas had a kindly feeling toward their neighbors to the West.

The Fort Worth Cats gave the Dallas Eagles a valuable assist in the Texas League pennant chase Wednesday night. They trimmed the Houston Buffs in a neat pitchers' duel to save the lead for Dallas.

The Cats edged the Buffs 1-0 while Dallas was losing to the San Antonio Missions, 10-4. Houston trailed the Eagles by a half game going into action.

San Antonio tagged Ray Narleski, ace of the Dallas mound staff, for the loss to make it even more hard to take. It was the second loss of the season for the big fireballer and his second in a row.

Fort Worth used three pitchers but gave up only four hits and walked off with a thrilling decision.

Fred Martin was the loser and it was his error on a play at first base that gave the Cats their run. The victory was the first for Fort Worth over Houston in six games this season.

Beaumont exploded for four runs in the second inning to beat Oklahoma City, 4-1 and hang on to fourth place. Clarence Beers pitched the Roughnecks to the victory, scattering nine hits. His home run was the big blow of the game.

Tommy Reis, Tulsa relief pitcher, squeezed Alex Grammas home with a perfect bunt in the last of the tenth inning to give the Oilers a 6-5 victory over Shreveport. It was an uphill triumph for the Oilers, who were five runs down at the midway point.

Pat Garner Meets Sybil Flournoy; Ezell Gets Winger

BROWNWOOD — (AP) — Second round matches in the West Texas Women's Golf Association Tournament Thursday found favorites still shooting for the coveted crown.

Favorites, including Pat Garner of Midland, medalist, and Mrs. C. D. Lee of El Paso, defending champion, won as expected in first round play.

Pairings for Thursday match Miss Garner and Mrs. Sybil Flournoy of Midland; Mrs. Bill London, Brownwood, and Mrs. W. R. Whittier, Abilene; Mrs. Herschel Ezell, Midland, and Mrs. R. E. Winger, Fort Worth, and Mrs. Lee and Mrs. T. L. Sampson, Lubbock.

The Colonial Club in Fort Worth was named the site for the next tournament at a business session Wednesday. Mrs. London was elected president of the association, succeeding Mrs. O. B. Stephens of Abilene. Mrs. Ezell was named vice president and Mrs. Howard Edmiston of Brownwood, secretary-treasurer.

Longhorn League—Hot Fight Looms For First Division Places In League

By The Associated Press

The interest in the Longhorn League centers around a torrid fight for the last three positions in the first division as San Angelo holds a comfortable first place lead, but four clubs are bunched in the middle.

And the battle is a hot one. Second place Vernon is nine and one-half games behind San Angelo but only two games in front of fifth place Big Spring. Packed in the two-game spread between Vernon and Big Spring are Odessa and Roswell both very much in the scrap.

An example of the bitter battle turned up Wednesday night when Roswell and Odessa fought through 12 innings to an 11-11 tie. The game was called at the end of 12 because of the curfew rule.

Vernon was defeated by San Angelo 6-4 to tighten the fight in the middle bracket. Big Spring outlasted Sweetwater 12-9 to close in. Midland blasted Artesia 10-2 in the other game, strictly a second division battle.

Roswell scored twice in the ninth inning to tie Odessa then got another pair in the top of the twelfth as time was running out. But Odessa was not to be denied. The Oilers got a brace of tallies in the last half of the twelfth frame to gain a stand-off.

Indio Beltran notched his ninth win of the year as San Angelo beat Vernon 4 hits and two errors provided the winning run.

Sweetwater scored early but fell apart in the middle innings to let Big Spring take the decision. Midland counted seven runs in the third inning to smother Artesia.

WT-NM League—Look Who's Making Noises - Amarillo Begins To Move

By The Associated Press

The Amarillo Gold Sox are showing signs of snapping out of the doldrums that has kept them in the West Texas-New Mexico League cellar all season. They have won two in a row now and are only one percentage point behind the seventh place Clovis Pioneers.

The Gold Sox made it two in a row over Pampa with a 7-3 decision Wednesday night. It was their eighteenth win of the season and left them 26 games behind the leading Abilene Blue Sox.

The Blue Sox continued their winning ways with a 16-6 victory over Borger. Sam Hunter survived a five-run sixth inning to notch the win.

Albuquerque, 10 days ago the club threatened to overtake Abilene, lost another to Lubbock. The Hubbers took a 4-9 win on a four-hitter by Bob Michaels to drop the Dukes eight and one-half games off the pace.

Hapless Clovis, faced with a shortage of pitchers, brought in outfielder Pete Trabucco to start against Lamasa. He was raked for 12 runs in less than two innings and Lamasa went on to whom three others for a 20-9 win. Ted Wyberaneg was the beneficiary in the slugfest.

Blumenthal Whiffs 11; Indians Win From Drillers 10-2

Sweetwater's Swatters came to Indian Park for a two-game series, beginning at 8:15 p.m. Thursday. Manager Zeke Bonura has named no starting pitcher for the Indians.

Blazin' Gabby Blumenthal turned in his most creditable performance of the season here Wednesday night as he hurled the Midland Indians to a 10-2 win over the Artesia Drillers, striking out 11 batsmen.

Digging down deep when he needed his best stuff most, Blumenthal pitched himself out of three difficult situations in ringing up his third win against three defeats this season.

The Indians supported Blumenthal's performance with an 11-hit attack featuring home runs by Rudy Escobar and Scooter Hughes.

Artesia scored its only two runs in the initial inning, both unearned, on a pair of Indian errors. After that, Blumenthal had the Drillers eating out of his hand. He struck out the side in the fifth, whiffing dangerous Stubby Greer with the bases loaded. In the eighth, he retired Catcher Mop Brown on strikes with the sacks full and ended the game on a strong note by again whiffing Greer with a man on in the final inning.

A seven-run third inning chased Loser Lupe Lopez as Escobar blasted a pitch to the right field side of the scoreboard to score Dick Campbell and Blumenthal ahead of him.

Hughes collected his fourth four-bagger of the year in the eighth with the bases empty. Other features of the Midland offensive was the three-for-four hitting of Eddie Melillo and a ringing triple by Kenny Jones.

Swatters Bringing New Manager To Open Series Here

SWEETWATER — Julian Morgan, 32-year-old pitcher and manager, Wednesday signed to pilot the Sweetwater Swatters of the Longhorn League.

Morgan is the fourth Swatter manager of the season. He succeeds Joe Bratcher, business manager, who took over from Warren Slier. Both were temporary managers who took over after Earl Harriman was given the boot earlier this year.

The Swatters open a two-game series against the Midland Indians Thursday night in Midland.

MAJOR LEAGUES—Yankees Defeat Chisox 2-1 To Take Series Lead

By The Associated Press

The New York Yankees went one up on the Chicago White Sox in their crucial series with one game to go. Ed Lopat and Hank Bauer teamed to hand the league leaders a 2-1 defeat Wednesday to make it 2-1 in the four-game setto.

Lopat hurled his tenth victory of the season while Bauer scored one run and drove in the other. The Yankee victory cut the White Sox margin to two and a half games in the American League.

Lopat gave up 10 hits but the usually alert White Sox couldn't make them count for runs. It took three hits and a Yankee error to get their lone tally in the fourth inning.

In the other daylight game in the American League, Cleveland swamped the Boston Red Sox, 14-8. Bobby Avila was the star with three home runs, a double and a single.

Split Twin Bill

Detroit and Philadelphia split a double-header under the lights. The Tigers took the first game, 7-2, but the Phillies snapped back to win 5-4 in the afterpiece. Washington trimmed the St. Louis Browns, 5-1 in the other night game.

Warren Spahn and the Boston Braves gladdened the heart of Tommy Holmes, their new manager, with a 9-0 conquest of the Chicago Cubs in the only daylight National League game. Holmes was directing the Braves for the first time after succeeding Billy Southworth.

Spahn gave the Cubs five hits, struck out eight and allowed only one to move as far as third base. He also did alright at the plate, turning in a home run, triple and single.

Four night games were hotly contested. Brooklyn lost a 2-1 decision to Cincinnati. Philadelphia tripped Pittsburgh 1-0, and the St. Louis Cardinals edged the New York Giants, 4-2.

King's Row

by Larry King

Friday night is Eddie Jacome night at Indian Park.

The good-looking right hander has accounted for 13 of Midland's 22 wins, and has saved four others. Midlanders will shower him with a flock of cash donations and merchandise gifts.

We think the idea is a fine one, and we'd like to see Midlanders really show their appreciation. Home run hitters collect every time they knock one over the fence, and that's a fine tribute from generous Midlanders.

Although Jacome hasn't knocked the ball out of the park, he really has a pay day coming Friday night. Fans may drop donations in a container Thursday night at Indian Park, or bring the gifts to the press box and turn them over to yours truly, along with names of the Midlanders contributing.

—KR—

Here's a run down on the gifts thus far: Reporter-Telegram, $10; Fay Coil, $10; Mrs. C. J. Jensen, $5; W. E. King, Hi-D-Ho Drive Inn, $5; Larry King, $7.50; A Midland Fan, $5; a $50 pledge from Harold Webb, former owner of the Midland Indians; a watch from Ted Kruger of Kruger's Jewelry, a hat from Johnson's Hat Shop and $10 in dry cleaning from Copper Daugherty of Excel-Sure Cleaners.

—KR—

Two new players were due to arrive in Midland either Thursday or Friday.

Both are limited service performers from the Class C Evangeline League, according to Manager Zeke Bonura.

Plot, an outfielder, is reported to have a .322 batting average in the Evangeline loop, while a pitcher, Supnick has posted a 7-5 won-lost record.

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log-

will be the presentation of the National Safety Council's president's medal for emergency first aid performance to James F. Ormond, Sunray field engineer.

Ormond, now working in Sunray's Sourry County district, recently applied artificial respiration to a fellow workman, Kenneth D. Mullings, after Mullings inadvertently came in contact with an electrical wire carrying 11,700 volts, while working on a lease near Odessa.

The National Safety Council award was established in 1928 and is the council's only award for the saving of human life.

Events of the day will include bingo, baseball game between employees of the Odessa district and the Big Spring district, various contests and movies for children and all the family, and a typical West Texas barbecue dinner.

Plugging Report Is Filed With RRC On C-E Culberson Test

A plugging report has been filed on a Central-East Culberson County wildcat. The project was listed as No. 1 W. A. Scott.

It is reported to have drilled to a total depth of 1,935 feet in upper Permian lime, and to have been abandoned and plugged at that depth.

Location was 660 feet from east and 330 feet from north lines of the southeast quarter of section 23, block 114, pal survey. That made it 21 miles southwest of Orla.

Recent Application

An application to drill this exploration was filed with the Railroad Commission district office in Midland on June 16.

The plugging report on the same project was received at the commission office on June 20.

Apparently the wildcat had already been drilled when the application for a permit to start it was filed. No other information on it is currently available.

Tex-Harvey Field Is Extended East

El Capitan Oil Company reported completion Thursday of a three-quarter-mile east extension to the southeast side of the Tex-Harvey field of Central-West Glasscock County.

At the same time two more completed producers were added to the field.

The field extender was completed as the No. 2 Wraga-Hendrickson for a daily flowing production of 518.88 barrels of 36.5-gravity oil and no water.

Open hole from 6,835 to 7,000 feet was treated with 2,000 gallons of Hydracraft. The 24-hour completion test was made on a one-half-inch tubing choke. Gas-oil ratio was 612-

We have something here that you all have been hunting for and it sure won't last long. This delightful home has two nice size bedrooms, large living room and a roomy kitchen. Located in a good part of town on a good size lot. The owner says to sell his G.I. equity cheap, so let's get together. Requires a low down payment.

Here's a little 2 room cottage with 416 square feet of floor space. Has a bath. This cute little thing sets on rear of the lot. Buyer can build large home on front of lot. Price is right.

We have a fine two-bedroom home on a good corner lot. You'll like the picture window and the large screened back porch. These are just two of the fine features. There's a good 2-bedroom rental on rear of lot that brings in $80 per month.

Out of town property. This is a very good small farm for sale or for trade for Midland property. Oil all around it, royalties go with deal. Good 2 bedroom home included. Eight miles from town. Ask us about this one. It may be just what you've been hunting for.

Southern Cotton Men Don't Want Rates Unbalanced

MEMPHIS, TENN. — (AP) — Southern cotton men don't want the government to upset the delicate balance of railroad freight rates.
Railroads have asked for a 15 per cent rate boost because of higher operating costs. Most producers and shippers have opposed the petition.
The Memphis Cotton Exchange joined the ranks of the opposition at an Interstate Commerce Commission hearing here Wednesday—the last of a series of five.
The head of the exchange's traffic department, V. Alexander, said if the ICC determines that rate increases are necessary then:
"We urge that the increase be made on a flat percentage basis for the whole cotton belt and not piecemeal."
Commissioner J. Hayden Allredge of Washington who directed the hearing, heard testimony from representatives of all phases of the cotton industry, including shippers from cotton belt ports, such as New Orleans, Houston and Mobile.

McKinney Honors Ace Jet Fighter

McKINNEY — (AP) — "Jabara Day" was a big success in this little North Texas city.
Capt. James Jabara, history's first ace jet fighter, spent Wednesday shaking hands with the folks in his wife's home town. He rode in a parade, spoke at a luncheon and dinner, and attended a rally at the Legion Hall.
Everyone wanted to meet him and hear his views on the Korean war. Again and again he told of his experiences in shooting down six Communist jets over North Korea.
When asked about the controversy in the United States over the Korean war, Jabara had this advice:
"We have four people in Washington — the joint chiefs of staff — who are running the show. Each has over 30 years military service. Please, put your confidence in these people."
Mrs. Jabara is the former Nina Stiles of McKinney. They have two children, James, Jr., two, and Carol Ann, eight months.

A native of McGregor, Texas, he joined the law firm of Looney and Clark in Austin after finishing the University of Texas law school.

Eight Marines Dead, 23 Others Hurt In Training Accident

CAMP LEJEUNE, N. C. — (AP) — Two defective mortar shells fell short and burst into a company of advancing Second Division Marines here Wednesday afternoon, killing eight and injuring 23.
Witnesses said the mortar gunners saw the shells were defective a split second after they were fired during a routine training exercise at this big Marine base in Eastern North Carolina about 50 miles northwest of Wilmington. The gunners leaped to field telephones and notified a forward observation post. But before the warning could be relayed, the shells exploded among the forward group of the weapons company.
Bitter members of the company told a reporter they did not blame the mortar section, but felt that defects in the ammunition could have been noted by careful inspection.
Gen. Clifton Cates, Marine Corps commandant, was visiting the base when the accident took place. He ordered an immediate investigation and a board of inquiry was appointed.
A public information officer said that of the 23 wounded, 12 were in serious condition at the base hospital here.
No Officers Hurt
There were no officers among the casualties. The ranking man in the group hit by the mortars was a senior non-commissioned officer, who was killed.
The mortars were returned to the base and impounded for the investigation.
Members of the unit told a reporter a forward group of the weapons company was advancing through a wooded area when the two shells landed among the troops.
Then the scene became like a real war. Highways leading into the camp were clogged with ambulances. Other troops ran for cover. Field telephones started buzzing.
Sorrowing relatives who live near the base rushed to determine whether their loved ones were among the casualties. Official parties visited several wives notifying them that their husbands were killed or injured.
It was the second piece of hard luck at Camp Lejeune this week. On Monday and Tuesday about 110 Marines suffered food poisoning during the training maneuver. Navy Cmdr. L. V. Halliwell, the acting base medical officer, said all but two have returned to duty. He added investigation showed ham sandwiches caused the poisoning.

"Will you fix the baby's bottle, George? My horoscope today said to let others take leadership!"

Youth Center Chatter

By GAIL BAKER
Well, hi, everybody! Here I am—writing the column all by my l'il ole self this week. Trying to keep up with a job and also keep up with all the news of the teeners is a pretty large assignment, but here's hopin' I have all the exciting (?) news of this week, anyway!

This is the first day of Summer—to think it has been so terribly hot and was not even Summer, but it is NOW! Can it get any hotter???? (I wonder!)

We have seen so many exes home I do not even remember all of them. Saw Jimmy Conine and Bob Short the other night at the Center, and Bob was in one of his usual moods! (You who know Bob know what I MEAN!) Bob now has decided he is going into business for himself, manufacturing BLADELESS KNIVES WITHOUT HANDLES! We do hope all of your teeners will try to humor the poor boy! Really, though, Bob—all joking aside—glad to see you home—You, too, Conine!

The other night at the center we were introduced to a very nice girl who just recently has moved here from Cleveland, Ohio—Carole Cesa. Carole is to be a senior at MHS next year. Glad to have you with us, Carole, and we hope you like it here!

Here From Ohio
Also one night this week, we met Don Hofka from Toledo, Ohio. He plans on staying quite a while. Also met George Tracy from Philadelphia, Pa. George is working for the Atlantic Pipe Line Company. He says he has been here about three weeks and likes it fine.

Another new Youth Center member is Orlin Sims, who is working for KCRS. He has been here about two weeks. Glad to have you here, Orlin.

Also, home from college is Max Schaefer, who graduated here last year. How do you like being back home, Max?

While working at the telephone company, we have met many persons "eligible" for Youth Center membership—Billy Perry, Tommy Gilmer and Crowder Wharton. Billy is from Fort Worth, while Tommy and Crowder both are from Seminole. All three of these boys have graduated from high school, but, as stated previously they are eligible for YC membership. Be sure and visit the Center before returning home, fellas! Okay?

The other night Jean Waddill and Barbara Ware were at the Center—which is not unusual, because these girls are there most every night—wearing dresses alike—only different! What we mean is—they wore dresses alike only different colors. They surely are cute, gals! First Visit

I am ashamed to admit it, but the other night, for the FIRST time since it has been redecorated, I visited the upstairs part of the YC (for the girls only!) The Center has bought quite a bit of new furniture for this part of the building—red and chartreuse couches, and a red, chartreuse, and brown couch; two green-shaded lamps; three chartreuse, red, and brown chairs; two book cases; a brown ottoman; a brown table; and three very pretty pictures.

Last week in the column there was quite a blunder, which read as follows: "Basil work at the telephone office. Weaver and Francis Treadway, Dwayne Bush and Speck Culpepper spend their days at Mack's Chevron. . . ." (The lines rather got switched, eh?) Well, on top of spelling Frances with an "l," and making a boy out of a girl, it had FRANCIS working at a FILLING STATION!! She is an office clerk at the telephone company—sorry, Frances!!

Another of the MHS exes works at the telephone company—Don Mears. There surely are plenty of teeners working for the telephone company, eh?

The other day Mrs. Gildewell said that when the air conditioner was installed we could have another semi-formal dance. Well, two days later we walked into the Center and found it WAS installed, so it probably won't be long before we have that dance. I know many teeners will be looking forward to this event.

Many of us are looking forward to the Junior Olympics Meet in Odessa the last of July. There are to be events for boys and girls, too! Any of you gals feel energetic enough to run in the relays? If any of you teeners would like to enter the meet, you may obtain application forms from Mr. Gildewell, Youth Center director.

Glenn Baker has been working all Summer for the Western Natural Gas Company. Tommy Parker is working for the Studdert's Surveying Company. How do you like working instead of school, boys? (These boys graduated from Midland High this year.)

Not long ago Don Bradshaw tried his teaching ability on Lavonne Bell and Sherry Page. Don made an attempt to teach Sherry and Lavonne how to drive, but his efforts were not too successful. But, Don, remember—"If at first you don't succeed, try, try again!!!"

Tuesday, Beverly Kelsing had a "get together" for Peggy Minear (who graduated last year from MHS), who is back with us for awhile. Peggy has been living in Colorado. While talking to Evelyn Hejll the other day, we found out that Eugene Hejll, (Grad of '49) plans to be home the first of July. He has been attending ACC in Abilene.

Well, our pal Dean White from Lubbock finally got here! He took the long way here -- from Lubbock via North Carolina! Dean has been going to a camp there since he graduated from Lubbock High School. He is to work with Lyndell

Ross and Joe Diekmper (some more Lubbock friends) in the Tex-Harvey oil fields. (Dean is a second cousin of Mary Jo and Evelyn Hejll.) Good to have you with us, Dean! Hope you like Midland!

Working nearby at another station (Ever-Ready) is Larry Friday. Keys Curry and Thomas White still have their jobs at B&B and H&H respectively. Confusing - isn't it???

Robert Melton is helping (?) the Texas Highway Department in surveying. How do you like the sun, Robert???

Archery Team Selected
Kent Miller also has a job with a local contractor. Kent was away at college this year, too!

Forgot to mention it above, when writing about the Junior Olympics, that Midland is entering an archery team of six to eight girls. The archery meet is to be held August 1. The team will be announced next week.

The other day we ran right "smack into" Robert Price. Robert has been living in Fort Worth and attending Lanier High School. He says he surely does like it there. Good to have you back, Robert!

Larry Lynn is back in town too! Larry is another teener who was away at school the last year. Glad to see ya, Larry!

Nancy Steadman, Jane Stuart, Margi Cramer and Sarah Hendricks still spend their days at the Midland Country Club swimming pool. You gals surely must like to swim!

The other day when we saw Ann Shby we hardly recognized her. She has gotten a permanent, and

SEES INDIA TURNING RED
RANGOON — (AP) — A three months' tour of principal Indian cities has convinced H. Kuns of Nurnberg, West Germany, there is growing sympathy in Nehru's India for the Communist system.

"The only explanation is these people have never seen what communism is," he said.
Kuns speculated the wide gap between riches and poverty in teeming India "probably accounted for this feeling."

First aircraft carrier built by the United States was a 60-foot speedboat of the sea-level type. It carried a fully loaded bombing plane and would run full speed into the wind, so that the plane could take off.

certainly looks different. It looks good, Ashby!

Tennis Players Listed
Almost every afternoon and every night (since they now have lights there) one may find either Robert Pine, Clayton Tatum, Barbara Wilson, George James, Mark McKinsey, Stanley Krist, Pat Douglas, John Zant, Jack Wright or Betty Wilson (no relation to Barbara!) at the tennis courts! These teeners must have plenty of excess energy, because almost all of them have jobs, too!

Frank Miller acquired a new job Tuesday morning, when he started to work for Walker's Contracting Company. After his first day at work, Frank had quite a sunburn!

In order that we may cover all the news next week - - and each week after that, Mr. Gildewell has authorized the installation of a "news tip" box in the center. So if you know anything exciting - - or otherwise (just so it is news), please put it in this box - - or you may telephone No. 162-J.

So long for this week, everybody - you will HEAR from us again next week as usual. 'Bye, 'bye!!

'Joy' Introduced To Housewives Of Midland And Area

There'll be Joy in Midland Thursday night.
That's what Procter & Gamble representatives are promising housewives as they introduce the company's newest product, Joy, a new liquid detergent developed especially for washing dishes.

One teaspoonful or bottlecap-ful of Joy is enough to wash a large pan of dishes, company representatives say, and the product has a number of qualities making it particularly adapted for use in the dishpan.

An important feature, it is pointed out, is that Joy already is dissolved before it goes into water, thus speeding up the dishwashing task by making bountiful suds immediately, and avoiding the waste of undissolved particles. There is no sneezing when the housewife uses the new product.

Outstanding Features Cited
In addition, the housewife can avoid waste by measuring exactly the amount of Joy she needs. Because it was developed especially for dishes, its outstanding cleaning quality is in cutting grease. Being one of the new special detergents, Joy will not leave hardwater scum or film on dishes. The company also cites the feature of economy, and, finally, Joy is mild on hands.

Procter & Gamble states that Joy is the result of years of laboratory research, directed toward combining in one product all the features that would make it "perfect" for dishwashing.

Easy way to prepare prunes in Summer is to fill a quart jar with tenderized prunes, add boiling water cover, and put on the jar lid. Keep in the refrigerator for a few days and then serve.

Penthouse School Has No Vacation

DALLAS — (AP) — Here's a school that has no vacation for its pupils. It has no pupils. This penthouse school perched atop a building at Southern Methodist University is used by Prof. R. L. Blesse, Jr., in research sponsored by Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Company to provide information to architects and educators on best methods of daylighting classrooms to assure good vision for pupils.

The daylighting program is being conducted in a 32-foot square completely equipped classroom which is oriented so its windows face the cardinal points of the compass. The ceiling is adjustable in height and movable partitions can make any one side of the room the one open to the daylight. The room is complete even to chalkboards, desks and pin-up display areas. Instruments record changes in light and brightness for all conditions of daylight for any hour of the day and for any day of the year.

Kangaroos Making Sheep Men Jumpy

SYDNEY — (AP) — Thousands of kangaroos are moving in great mobs in the inland part of southeastern Australia and causing hundreds of sheep to die.
They are eating the grass and driving the sheep from waterholes. Feed is so scarce in some parts that sheep are being moved by road transport. One reporter who traveled 200 miles through grazing country along the Darling River saw hundreds of kangaroos, but few sheep. Permits to shoot kangaroos have been refused, but farmers and graziers are reported to be killing hundreds just the same.

Flavor Milk For Your Children

"SKYLINER"—FILLED ROLLS and flavored milk, a tempting treat for children's summer party.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Just as much in Summer as in Winter all the dairy foods are essential for children's health. Milk is one of the most important, so if the young folks in your house begin to lose interest, try flavoring their milk a little.

It will take only a minute to do. There are now packaged flavors for milk on sale. Or you can use many flavors from the pantry shelf.

Strawberry Flip

(Serves 1)

One cup milk, 3 tablespoons strawberry jam, few drops red food coloring.

Warm milk, add strawberry jam and coloring. Chill thoroughly and serve.

Spiced Honey

(Serves 1)

One and one-half tablespoons honey, dash cinnamon, 1 cup milk. Pour honey and cinnamon in glass. Mix well. Add milk.

Cherry-Cherry

(Serves 1)

One cup milk, 1 tablespoon maraschino cherry juice, few drops red food coloring. Mix together and serve.

"Skyliner" buns with the flavored milk.

(Serves 6)

Six hamburger buns, 6 tablespoons butter, 2 cups Humpty-dumpty filling, 2 cups Mad-Hatter filling. Garnishes: pimiento, carrot strips, sliced stuffed olives, sliced tomato, celery slices, black olives, capers.

Partially cut out center of hamburger rolls, leaving 1 1/2 inch layer at the bottom of the roll. Spread inside of each bun with butter. Toast buns in oven. Fill three of the buns with Humpty-dumpty filling and the other three with Mad-Hatter filling. Decorate each differently with your choice of garnishes.

Humpty-dumpty Filling

Four hard-cooked eggs, chopped, 1 1/2 cup diced American cheese, 1 1/2 cup celery, diced, 1 1/2 cup mayonnaise, 1 teaspoon salt. Blend all ingredients together. Store in refrigerator until needed.

Mad-Hatter Filling

One and one-half cups cubed cold meat, 1 1/2 cup diced Swiss cheese, 1 1/2 cup cubed green pepper, mayonnaise to moisten, salt to taste. Blend ingredients together; store in refrigerator until needed.

Wild Animals Sports, But Bandits Are Not

SINGAPORE —(AP)— Supplier of wild animals for Hollywood motion pictures, 36-year-old Dick Hatchcock of Los Angeles, has reached Singapore to find he cannot enter Malaya's jungles because of Communist terrorists.

Hatchcock, part owner of a private zoo in Los Angeles, said he had planned to hire hunters in Malaya to collect tigers, leopards, crocodiles, snakes and lizards. But all he has at present are several small crocodiles and a six-foot python purchased from Singapore dealers.

Said Hatchcock: "In the course of my career I have come across head hunters, cannibals, have had brushes with escaped leopards, been bitten by poisonous snakes, but I do not fancy a shot in the back from your bandits."

"No, Sir," he emphasized, "wild animals at least are good sports, but bandits not!"

DADDY RINGTAIL

Daddy Ringtail And Lion Tamer

Mugwump Monkey, the monkey boy, had been very busy reading a book. Now reading a book is usually a happy thing to do, but this book had given Mugwump a thought or mischief. Away he hurried to find the Huffen Puffen, the friendly wolf. The Huffen Puffen was sitting on a log and wishing there was something he had to do so he could think of the happy things he would like to do if it weren't for the something he had to do.

"Never mind about that," said Mugwump. "Huffen Puffen, how would you like to be a lion tamer?" "Huh?" asked the Huffen. And so Mugwump said it again. He said how would you like to be a lion tamer? Why, the lion tamer is like the man at the circus who pops his whip and makes the lions sit up on a box. And he pops the whip again, and the lions jump down and maybe do tricks like jumping over each other's backs, all because of the lion tamer's noise of whip popping. "Huffen Puffen," said Mugwump, "would you like to be a lion tamer with a lion to do some tricks when you pop your whip?" "That I would, I would," said the Huffen, "but I don't have a whip and I don't have a lion to make the popping noise." "Don't worry," said Mugwump,

By Wesley Davis
he explained how the Huffen really didn't need the whip at all. All the Huffen should do in his lion taming business was to look the lion in the eye to let the lion know just who was boss. "Really?" asked the Huffen. "Sure," said Mugwump. And so away they hurried out through the forest until they found a big yellow lion with black fur around his head and black fur on the tip of his tail. The lion was curled up sleeping like a cat beside the Duck Pond. "Go ahead, Huffen," whispered Mugwump. "Call me Lion Tamer Huffen," whispered the Huffen, and he tiptoed forward to wake up the lion and to look him in the eye to let the lion know just who was boss. Yes, and the Huffen carried a box in his hand so the lion could jump over it for a trick. Yes sir, Lion Tamer Huffen was on the job, and what happened next is going to surprise you even as much as the Huffen was surprised. Happy waiting for the rest of the story tomorrow. GI 'Occupiers' Give Germans U. S. Accent

Nightlife in Berlin, 1951: The music is American, and the scene could be a dance hall almost anywhere in the U. S. In one place, there's even in Texas and Arizona bar downstairs.

By RICHARD HOLLANDER
BERLIN—(NEA)—Germany is losing its British accent.
Time was, before the war—before all the wars—people in Germany who spoke any English at all sounded like Oxonians. This was understandable, because most teachers of English in Germany had studied in England, or under English tutors.
But the difference since the end of World War II—six short years—is evident on every hand. The Germans are acquiring an American accent against their better judgement, and certainly against their increasingly militant nationalism.

It isn't happening because the Germans like us any better than they like the British or the French, or, as a matter of fact, each other. Americanism is infiltrating Germany by osmosis—almost literally through the pores.
Likely the most important single element in this trend is the American GI himself. Working quietly, as an individual, and certainly without intent, the GI is proving to be what certain observers always thought he would turn out to be, namely, the greatest propagandist of modern times. The propaganda he spreads isn't always exactly what idealists in America would like it to be, but it's effective. GI Propagandists

Actually, history probably will point to two American GI propagandists. The first was the one who came to Germany in 1945 as the Conqueror. The other is the GI who came to Germany to make the Occupation a career. In some cases he's the same GI, but the difference in one of approach.

The Conqueror acted like one. In the early days, he traded in the open Black Market. He sold Mickey Mouse watches to the Russians for fabulous sums. He exchanged PX supplies with the hungry Germans for cameras, porcelain and, it is alleged in a song sung by Marlene Dietrich, submarines.
He strode the streets of Frankfurt, Stuttgart, Munich and a dozen other fallen cities, and, somewhat casually for an American, he left German-American offspring in many and many a bombed-out household. But he had a certain apple-pie air about him, and so, when he finally went home, many Germans remembered him with fondness.

Friday Meat Day Out For Catholics

SANTA FE, N. M.—(AP)—Catholics of the Santa Fe diocese this Fall lose their special, centuries-old privilege of eating meat on most Fridays.
Mgr. Carlos Blanchard, chancellor, explained the change was because Pope Pius XII wants to make uniform throughout the Catholic world the practice of abstaining from meat on all Fridays of the year.
Monsignor Blanchard said the change would take place sometime in September or October. The special privilege was granted by Pope Urban in 1089 to the faithful of Spain and all her dominions for defending Catholicism from the Moors. The dispensation was brought to the New World by the Spanish conquistadors.
Archbishop Edwin V. Byrne of Santa Fe expects the bishops of the El Paso (Texas) and Gallup (N. M.) dioceses to issue similar orders. The three dioceses make up the Santa Fe archdiocese.

When the Occupier came along, the Germans wondered what he would be like. He wasn't welcomed by any means. After all, he represented a long-term job, on that Germans now living might never see the end of.
But this Occupier brought a lot of America with him. If he was going to stay a long time, he wanted things he was accustomed to around him.

The Conqueror GI told the Germans about America—about the refrigerators and automobiles and abundant food. When he left, most of this was still pretty unbelievable hearsay to the Germans. The Occupier, on the other hand, set up an overseas version of the United States in the midst of the rubble. The Conqueror had had his frustrations, before and after the orders about fraternization, but they were hectic affairs, bound to end no later than day after tomorrow. The Occupier made more permanent liaisons. Today he is beginning to feel himself part of the landscape. More often than not he regards the American tourist the way any native does—as a nosy rubber-necker who ought to mind his own business. Different Downstairs

In the early days after capitulation, the only night clubs were officers' messes. GI clubs and hideaways in wrecked basements. Now there's plenty of liquor, plenty of cigarettes, plenty of night clubs above ground.
But downstairs there's a difference. Downstairs is the Texas and Arizona Bar. And the bar girls, in their vaguely Rio Grande blouses, all speak American. In accents ranging from Brooklyn to Dubuque with many a hint of Oxford.
The Occupier GI is learning German, but not as quickly as the Germans are learning American English. The Occupier is a propaganda unit with an effect all out of proportion to his numbers. He isn't making the Germans want to fight the Russians—nothing could do it short of actual invasion from the East, if that—but his cultural infiltration, for better or worse, is a deep penetration indeed.

JEEP TAKES ON TANK

CAIRO, ILL.—(AP)—A tough jeep charged an Army tank, and it proved only that tanks are still tougher. The tank was parked outside a Cairo garage, where an Illinois National Guard outfit keeps it, when the jeep came along. Not only did the jeep lose the match, its driver also lost—$100. That was the fine Magistrate Max Bevil fixed for reckless driving.

TEEN TALK

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures

NEW YORK... "Even Hollywood couldn't lure me from the circus." Youthful blonde Jeanne Sleeter, circus aerialist, who expressed her sentiments that way, just about sums up the attitude of circus folk toward The Big Top.

The attractive Jeanne recently had a very good chance to set her trapeze for the cinema. She is in several stunts, including substituting as aerialist for Betty Hutton in the forthcoming movie — "The Greatest Show on Earth" — but movietown glamor doesn't compare with circus life as far as she's concerned. Says she:

"It's quite a temptation, I know. And lots of young people would love it. But nothing can compare with the circus when you're born into it." Jeanne's grandparents owned the Moore circus. Her father was a trapeze star. Jeanne was born 21 years ago, practically under the circus tent, at Peru, Indiana, during the Hagenbauch, Wallace, Cole circus stay there. Her father now manages the Worth circus in Australia.

She never has pined for a little rose covered cottage with a white picket fence, and permanent mail box—"Nice to think about," she admits, "but it would be awfully dull after this. When you're part of the circus, the moving caravan is your home."

Kids who get the idea it would be fun to join a circus get a word of caution from Jeanne, who says: "It's a wonderful life, but it's not all play. It would be a terrific adjustment for girls or boys who are used to family life and permanent things. After they get on to the ropes, however, they'd love it."

On the other hand Jeanne thinks that perhaps most people get the impression that circus life is not normal, no real friends, and never a home. Says she: "I have friends and homes in all the big cities—New York, Chicago and the west coast. It is a lovely life, but not for the girl who might become nostalgic about it all. Me—I look forward to each stop."

Romance is something else again. It is not easy to find, but one meets boys as frequently as city girls do perhaps. Jeanne sitting on a trunk backstage at Madison Square Garden indicated the young boys rushing past and said—"Most of the circus boys are married. But I'm not interested in romance at the moment, anyway."

She is one of Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey circus' main aerialists—having been taught by Art Conella, now the circus manager, her father and uncle, Tuffy Gander, a once-famous aerialist.

Once when she was doing a panning leap, she took a bad spill. A neck injury kept her out of the act for several weeks.
The only other time she flubbed out was when an elephant who was supposed to carry her with one leg in his mouth, grasped her by the knee joint instead of the calf, injuring her knee cartilage.

She got back on the swing soon, however, as "all circus fight to get back in the ring after an accident." Loyalty keeps circus absentee lists at a minimum.

Jeanne took correspondence courses which put her through the eighth grade. Says she: "You learn so much about human nature in the circus that you never feel cheated of formal schooling." Apparently it is more than glamor that keeps the circus girl in "The Big Show." They are constantly traveling in train equipped with special cars with "berths fixed up like little homes" as Jeanne puts it, and separate cars for married people. Most beginners only make about $50 a week whether they ride elephants or wire-walk. Lots of them marry circus folk and under the tent it is like one big happy family. Children—such as Jeanne—carry on the family Circus tradition. Jeanne lives only to give a bigger thrill to circus audiences and in her lifetime only has wanted only one other thing. She says:

"The only thing I really miss is a brother. If I could have a brother to carry on with me, it would be wonderful. I'm the only member of my family now performing in the circus, and I hope we can carry on." Chances are that Jeanne will marry a big-top man and have that wish fulfilled. If only there were more bachelors in the circus!

Raspberry sauce, although traditionally served with peaches and vanilla ice cream as in Peach Melba, is equally delicious on pears.

New York Girl Finds 'Anything' Unpleasant

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—Barefoot and aroused, Emily Sanchez, a New York girl, stormed into the University Division Police Station and declared: "I don't like Los Angeles! Anything can happen here!" In her case, "anything" happened to be the theft of $900 worth of clothing from her auto—including her shoes.

Faded, one-color bath mats or small washable rugs can be given new life with a simple dye job. Wash as usual in your automatic washer with a good, rich suds to remove all soil and then add, in the second rinse, about a half-ounce of tint. Use more if you wish a darker shade. The third rinse will remove excess color. Dry in the shade.

Wake Island Lauded As 'Get Away' Place

LOS ANGELES—(AP)—If you long to "get away from it all," lend an ear to Hank Lucchesi, 32, a city-bred mechanic who thinks he has found the ideal place. He says it's Wake Island, the historic dot in the mid-Pacific where Marines made a gallant stand in World War II and more recently the site of a conference between President Truman and General MacArthur. Lucchesi recently returned from nine months on the island—he calls it "the rock"—where he worked for an airline.
"There's plenty to do," he says. "The sport fishing from motor launches is great. It's one of the healthiest spots in the Pacific. If they ever lick the common cold it'll be the healthiest place on the globe."

Guerins' Worries Prove Groundless

NEW ORLEANS—(AP)—When their first child was born 21 years ago, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Guerin wondered how they were going to send him to college. The financial future was not too certain.
Now the Guerins have no worries. Their three sons and one daughter have won 10 scholarships since their grammar school days.
The boys—W. L. Guerin, Jr., 21; Roland, 19; and Russell, 18—had scholastic averages ranging from 96.8 to 99.5 in high school. The daughter is Gloria, 14.
Season a veal stew with salt and freshly-ground pepper and plenty of paprika, and be sure to add a clove of garlic.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS WASTE

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday conditions, such as stress and strain, cause this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 13 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Swimtime Can Be Funtime If You'll Avoid Certain Hazards

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

An hour should be the minimum. The reason for this precaution is that after eating, the blood gathers near the stomach to aid digestion and is therefore not available to the muscles used in swimming or to keep the body warm. Cramps with possible drowning therefore are more likely if this rule is broken.

A friend who is also an experienced swimmer once commented to me that an important cause of drowning is alarm or excitement on the part of the swimmer who is in a little trouble. This exhausts the swimmer and he is less likely to use his head in getting out of the difficulty. This is a good point—it never helps to get panicky when in trouble.

It is awfully easy to feel that one isn't going to get into difficulty from swimming, but there is an element of uncertainty about it so that being prepared and a little careful pays off.

Latest addition to the family of "instant" products is a chicken bouillon cube. All you have to do is drop the cube into a cup, add boiling water and stir. The cube makes excellent stock for soups, gravies, and sauces for vegetables.

"I EXPECT HIM TO PROPOSE ANY DAY NOW..."

Bird's Words Risky For Mere Man's Use

UPLAND, CALIF. —(P)—When a pretty girl passes the home of Mrs. Evelyn Price, she's apt to hear a wolf whistle. The appreciative calls come from "Jimmy," Mrs. Price's talking mynah bird. And if the pretty girl has a few moments, Jimmy is always delighted to run through his vocabulary of more than 70 phrases.

He might rattle off such expressions as: "Hi, baby," "What's your name?" "I love you," "Oh boy," "Darn the dogs," "Put the coffee on," "I doubt it," or "Get the doctor."

Put them all together and they don't make sense, but Jimmy doesn't seem to notice. Other birds in the neighborhood don't seem to like Jimmy. He sits around for hours mocking their calls.

Advertise or be forgotten.

Old Time Flier Turns To Autos

BAKERSFIELD, CALIF. —(P)—Just 40 years ago, Henry A. McGregor made his first and last airplane flight. Then he abandoned aviation in favor of repairing automobiles. McGregor, now 66, is still an auto mechanic, but he likes to reminisce about his days as a bird man.

He had seen but one airplane, he recalls, when he built one in his backyard. "I flew by accident," McGregor recalls. "I took it out to a field and got in, started the motor and taxied forward. I noticed after a while that the bumps had ceased and looking down I found myself about 20 feet in the air, going about 35 miles an hour.

"I flew for about half a mile then settled back to earth. Then I turned it around and tried it the other way. It wouldn't fly. I know now that I was going against the wind the first time and with the wind the second time."

The next time McGregor attempted a flight, his machine struck a hole and nosed over, shattering a wing. A few days later, a whirlwind came along and smashed the thing to kindling wood.

Problem Of Child's Lies Is A Problem Of Fear

By MURIEL LAWRENCE

The problem of children's lying is a problem of fear. Of two fears—the child's and his parents'.

Children tell us lies because they fear the truth would expose them to disapproval and punishment. The parent who listens to the lie is afraid it's evidence of failure as a father or mother.

The first and last step in dealing with a child's lie is to get rid of our own fear. Until we have recovered our own self-confidence, we can't expect to persuade our child to give us his confidence, for he responds to our moods by sheer instinct.

We don't have to try to "understand" the lie. We don't have to delve anxiously for its motive. What we should do is what Mrs. G. did when she discovered her six-year-old Jane had told her a lie.

Mrs. G. took herself in hand. By Jane's supper time, she had succeeded. As Mrs. G. poured Jane's milk, she said, "Mrs. Williams tells me that Peggy did not give you the watch. I know that is a pretty watch, and some day we may get one for you. But this watch is Peggy's, not yours. When you want to tell me the truth more than you want Peggy's watch, let me know."

At bedtime, Mrs. G. placed the watch carefully on her daughter's table throughout the evening. Jane seemed to have an extraordinary thirst. Mrs. G. was coming downstairs after her sixth trip to Jane's room with a glass of water, when she heard Jane suddenly call, "Mummy!"

Mrs. G., on the staircase, closed her eyes for a minute—and then went back to the dark room to take her sobbing little daughter in her arms. Jane poured out the truth she was no longer afraid to tell.

Truth Is A Dividend
The length of time we have to wait for truth depends on the kind of job we have done with fear. It will be shorter as we continue to win over our child's confidence.

To abuse and attack a youngster for a lie is a dead giveaway that it has frightened us. Our fear adds to the child's fear of disapproval, denying him the very reassurance of quiet love that would give us the truth.

As Mrs. G. waited for Jane's call that evening, she made one of the most important discoveries in her motherhood experience. She thought, "Why of course I can't control Jane's feelings and thoughts. I cannot even be responsible for them. Jane's lie is her business. My business is trusting the love I have given to my child."

Winning truth from children is a dividend paid to mature parents who have learned to trust their investment of devotion and love in their children.

Marshmallow Drum, Firecrackers

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

Looking for Fourth of July favors the guests can eat and enjoy? Well, here's the answer—smooth patriotic drums filled with marshmallow, together with peppermint stick and maraschino cherry drum sticks.

Vanilla Mallow Drum
(Makes 6 servings)
Two egg yolks, slightly beaten, 1 cup milk, 1/4 pound marshmallows (about 16 marshmallows), 3 egg whites, dash salt, 1/2 pint heavy cream, whipped, 1/2 teaspoon vanilla, 6 peppermint candy sticks (five-inch lengths), 12 maraschino cherries.

In a saucepan, combine egg yolks and milk; blend well. Add whole marshmallows. Place over low heat until mixture is slightly thickened and marshmallows are almost dissolved, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and continue stirring until marshmallows are dissolved. Chill in a bowl, beat egg whites and salt until stiff. Fold in chilled marshmallow custard, whipped cream and vanilla. Pour mixture into six waxed paper cups (about 1/2 cup size). Freeze in frozen food compartment of refrigerator until firm.

VANILLA MARSHMALLOW DRUMS and marshmallow firecrackers delight this young patriot on July 4th.

To make drumsticks: Break candy sticks into 2 1/4 inch lengths. Place maraschino cherry on one end of each small stick. Cross two cherry sticks on top of each frozen drum.

To make paper cup drum: With lengths of red cellophane tape, edge the rim and base of the cup. Cross strips of tape around the middle of the cup to resemble a drum. If red cellophane tape is not available, water colors or colored pencil may be used.

PAPA DISAPPEARS BUT POP HOLDS ON

KANSAS CITY, MO.—Papa, the name most youngsters called their fathers 30 years ago, has all but disappeared from American usage. Of the same vintage, Pa and Paw are equally rare today, but Pop is still in good standing.

The only familiar names for father in use on Father's Day cards today are Dad, Daddy and Pop, said the Hallmark Company. Mama, Ma and Maw are only memories, too, the company states.
