INDEPENDENCE DECLARATION HAS HAD MANY ESCAPES — As America celebrates the 175th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, few Americans realize the exciting, thrill-packed life the great document has led. Homeless for the first 101 years of its life, it had narrow escapes from "dangers of invasion from without and convulsions within." It survived journeys to 10 cities in five states as well as two wars on American soil. Above are illustrated some of the adventures the Declaration experienced in its drama-packed history.

The Cause Of Independance

All Americans cherish the way their ancestors wrested heir freedom from the British. Independence Day symbolizes that feeling of pride.

With the menace of Communist Russia abroad in the world, it is particularly fitting that we rededicate ourselves each year to that spirit of independence. We canot be too zealous in guarding the freedom we fought so bravely to win almost 200 years ago.

With our long heralded tradition of freedom and independence, we have served the world as model. More than this, we have lent moral and sometimes practical support to other peoples struggling to gain their own independence.

At the peace conference following World War I, "self-determination"—the right of a people to govern themselves-was championed strongly by President Woodrow Wilson. The peace treaties marked the birth of a number of new nations.

Some will say we pushed this movement for independence too far, that we assisted in creation of countries not yet equipped politically to govern themselves and incapable of supplying more than a fair fraction of their fundamental economic needs. Austria, a tiny frame for huge Vienna, is cited as example.

But actually the problem thus created is merely the same economic and political disunity which haunts the whole of Europe. The small nations are but exaggerated Philadelphia Independence Comillustrations.

The ultimate solution apparently lies in some kind of European federation which yet will allow independence- signed; which caused me to do some leving peoples a large measure of self-government and cul- extra reading about our great

This we must understand. Some of us see Asia as a land which must be "shown" the ways of democracy. But Jefferson and the founding fathers the Asiatics associate westerners with colonialism, and we gave us not merely a goal for good cannot hope to eradicate quickly their bitter memories of past oppression.

In keeping with our tradition of helping others to independence, we must be wholly sympathetic to their selfgoverning impulses. We must lend every aid we can, but | Faith in Man without seeking in any fashion to impose upon them any charges against King George, what part of our own pattern of life. They have to judge for the Declaration of Independence themselves what we have that they might wish to copy.

So far we Americans have not been too aware of the is more important than man. No, depth and strength of Asia's postwar stirrings. This day of independence here is a good day to resolve that once more the United States will stand with the seekers after independence—as we always have done before.

Texas League-

Eagles, Buffs Hold Fast To Positions

By The Associated Press You might be foolish to go by the old belief that the team on top on July 4 will win the pennant - at least in the Texas League. Houston's there at the moment, holding a one-game lead over Dallas. But it took cooperation from Fort Worth to bring this about. Fort Worth clipped Dallas 6-0 Tuesday night while Houston was being blanked by San Antonio 4-0.

In other games, Shreveport downed Beaumont 5-2, and Tulsa smothered Oklahoma City 10-3. Veteran Tommy Fine held the hard-hitting Buffs to just four hits and that's all Vincente Lopez and Mel Himes let Dallas have. It was Fine's fourth straight victory and his ninth of the season. Austin Knickerbocker homered for

San Antonio in the second. Bob Bundy batted in three of Fort Worth's runs as the Cats collected ten hits off Walt Lanfran-

Dave Jolly pitched and batted Tulsa to victory, knocking in four runs with three singles. The official major league baseball rules specify that the home club shall furnish team benches which shall be not less than 25 feet from the base lines.

Southpaws To Vie In Baseball Game

A battle between left-handers will be staged Wednesday night at In-dian Park when the Firemen and the Eagles meet in an exhibition baseball game at 8 p.m.

Charles Crowley will be the start-ing hurler for the Midland Fire De partment team while Ernie Nelson, former Indian pitcher, will start on of the Eagles. There will be no admission charge and the public is invited.

Cracked Skulls Keep Missionary Hopping

SEATTLE -(P)- A Seattle woman is going back to Pig's Peak to mend broken heads and minister spiritually to the Bantu people of southeastern Africa. She is Estella MacDonald, who has spent most of her adult life working with natives of Africa as a missionary for the Church of the Nazarene. She sails from New Orleans soon. She will be returning to Pig's Peak, where she served from 1941 to 1947 in Swaziland, South Africa. She recalls from her previous sojourn there that most of the medi-

Dixie Defies Protests At Coon Contest

FULTON, MISS. -(P)- Southrners could watch the annual coonon-a-log contest here Wednesday protests from New York despite protests from New York and Memphis "busybodies," Sheriff J. H. Gillard declared.

Both the sheriff and the Sportsmens Club sponsors said they were tired of out-of-state interference in Mississippi affairs.

Robert F. Sellar of Albany, N. Y president of the National Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, Tuesday sent Sheriff Gillard a telegram objecting to the sched-

The Memphis Humane also protested.

"They object to Mississippi having such events as this, while in New York and Memphis they go to boxing and wrestling matches where more people get killed than coons do in such events as this at Fulton," the sheriff said. Old Southern Sport

Coon-on-a-log is an old Southern sport that started long before the war, between the states. A log is secured in the middle of a river or pond with a live coon on it. One by one, hounds are loosed to swim Tom Powers and Lewis Powers of out and try to knock the coon into

Judges and timekeepers score the dogs on their coon-dunking ability. The coon has a second who stands ed in the best performance Mon- by ready to rescue him it a dog succeeds.

"We the SPCA have been informed that a coon-on-the-log fight will be held July Fourth sponsored by Sportsmens Club in your city. These fights are in a violation of anti-cruelty laws and should be stopped. There are over 500 anticruelty societies x x x opposed to such brutal spectacles. The sheriff commented: "I believe I know more about Mississippi law than busybodies in New York and Memphis."

"Those people wouldn't know a coon if they saw one." remarked H. G. Betts, secretary of the sponsoring club.

or even seriously hurt. The coon handler holds a rope attached to the coon's collar and can separate the two anytime either is in danger of serious injury."

The coons are raised in captivity ror these contests

Police Seek Clues To Whereabouts Of Missing Woman

Police Wednesday were seeking some trace of a 56-year-old Indianapolis. Ind., woman who reportedly disappeared here last Saturday, the eve of her wedding day.

She was identified as Alice Horner who arrived in Midland last Wednesday to marry a man employed on a construction project

Betty Dean, 205 South Main, a friend of the woman, reported to police she had not seen her since Saturday afternoon and feared something had happened to her. At the tourist court where the woman registered, her baggage and clothing were undisturbed, police
