Asks Further Assurance On Neutral Zone

TOKYO —(P)— Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway Tuesday told the Reds Korean cease-fire talks will not be resumed until they assure him they will keep their Kaesong neutrality agreement.

The Allied supreme commander, acknowledged the Red apology for last Saturday's violation of the neutral zone. Then he told them that wasn't enough.

In a strongly-worded message to the two Red commanders in Korea, Ridgway said he needed new assurances that Communists will keep their word.

Cadets May Resign Or Else, Says Army In New Statement

WASHINGTON —(P)— The Army said Tuesday any West Point cadet who refuses to resign after admitting he breached the Academy honor code will be discharged regardless of his refusal.

Each first will be given the opportunity to resign, however. An Army spokesman said "appropriate action" will be taken against any cadet already graduated if evidence is found that he was involved in classroom cheating.

The Army's stand was set forth in a statement which also was to be released at West Point by Maj. Gen. Frederick K. Irving, Academy superintendent.

The statement said almost 80 cadets have admitted cribbing on examinations. About 90 have been accused.

The Army issued its new statement Tuesday after unanimously vigorous reactions to the original announcement last week on the cribbing scandal.

Reds Revive Two-Year-Old Peace 'Offer'

WASHINGTON —(P)— Russia has made a new bid for a five-power "peace" pact. First reaction here augured a flat rejection.

Russian President Nikolai Shvernik revived the two-year-old Soviet offer Monday night in a surprise letter to President Truman.

"It's the same old chestnut tied with a new ribbon," said a high American official who studied the letter's contents.

Shvernik's message, bristling with denunciations of Western "war-mongering," was accompanied by a 2,500-word resolution proclaiming Russia's alleged "dedication to world peace."

This appeared to be Moscow's answer to a resolution Congress passed last June. The American document expressed friendship and goodwill toward the Russian people.

President Truman sent it along to Shvernik, technically Russia's chief of state, July 7. And he called on Russia's leaders to make it public so the Russian people can learn the "peace aims of the American people and government."

Russia's reply came from the Presidium of the Supreme Soviet (Parliament), a small group which acts when the Russian Legislature is not in session.

In his accompanying letter, Shvernik called for an agreement by the United States, Russia, Britain, France and Communist China to disarm and prohibit manufacture of atomic weapons. He reiterated Russia's willingness to agree to some form of inspection as a guarantee of her good faith.

Irate Parents Plead With President For Accused Cadet Sons

WEST POINT, N. Y. —(P)— Irate parents Tuesday pleaded that President Truman restore to duty their accused cadet sons, whose pending dismissals from the U. S. Military Academy have started a congressional inquiry.

Presidential intervention for the 90 cadets, who face expulsion for cheating at examinations, was sought by a number of their parents now on the West Point campus.

The parents sent a telegram appeal to Truman Monday night, shortly after a Senate Expenditures Investigating subcommittee announced in Washington it would begin Tuesday checking complaints that the cadets got what some of them called a "raw deal."

Both Maj. Gen. Frederick A. Irving, Academy superintendent, and Head Football Coach Earl "Red" Blaik, whose vaunted team was hit by the dismissal order Friday, have stated they would like to see such an inquiry.

In their telegram to President Truman, the parents said: "The dismissal in disgrace and without trial of our 90 sons at the Military Academy is a travesty on the American idea of justice and a needless waste of the lives of these young men. We petition you to make their punishment fit their crime."

"Your order restoring them to duty without prejudice subject to proper cadet discipline, permitting them the right to normal graduation and commission, would be appropriate, charitable and a fatherly act of understanding leadership."

Eight Injured When Streamliner Strikes Stalled Automobile

MALVERN, ARK. —(P)— At least eight persons were hurt early Tuesday when a Missouri Pacific streamliner hit a stalled automobile at a Malvern crossing.

The two-unit diesel engine overturned after tearing up about a quarter-mile of track. At least five cars were derailed, but none overturned. The last 10 cars, most of them Pullmans, remained on the tracks.

The railroad's district surgeon, Dr. Peter Thomas, said nobody was injured critically.

Two trainmen, Engineer T. C. Fox of North Little Rock and Fireman G. D. Fisher of Little Rock, suffered lacerations and bruises. Four women passengers were taken to Little Rock for further observation.

Two other passengers were hurt. Malvern is 45 miles south of Little Rock.

The train, the first section of the "Texas Eagle," was bound for San Antonio from St. Louis. It carried several Pullmans brought in from the East over other lines. The second section of the "Eagle," bound for West Texas, was running close behind, but wasn't involved in the wreck. This second section was due in Midland, Texas, at 4:14 p. m. Tuesday.

The operator of the automobile—who wasn't identified by authorities—was taken into custody. He told them he tried to stop the train. No charges have been filed.

Poor Dane Clark—Everyone's Worried About Him But Dane

By KRISTINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD — Dane Clark sputtered like extra-hot butter in the lobby popcorn machine and leaped out at movie stars who can't see an inch beyond their fringed eyelashes.
And all because I happened to mention that a lot of guys and dolls around town were saying that it was a pity about him!
"Oh, yeah?" growled Dane, his eyes narrowing the way they do on theater screens when a sullen blonde moll informs him that another mobster has muscled into his racket. "What do they mean by that?"
Movie heroes in turtle-neck sweaters and perfumed super-belles in mink trench coats, I said, were downright pained that Dane was no longer lounging around custom-built swimming pools and living the plush life of a flicker king.

They were asking, "What ever happened to Dane?" over the tinkle of ice cubes at parties and shuddering at the thought of a big star having to scrounge around in television to keep the jars of imported caviar in his icebox.
"Everywhere I go," I finished, rubbing it on thickly, "people are saying, 'Poor Dane Clark!'"
A shade of flame-thrower crimson flowed into Dane's face.
"Little wisps of steam curled up from under his collar."
He let me have it with both barrels.
"I've got news for Hollywood," he boomed. "I'm making more money today than I ever made. I still have my home here. And I've got a Park Avenue apartment that costs me an arm and a leg. I can manage it all, too. Easily."
"There's big money in television. I've done every New York show that's to be done. And none under $1,500 a shot. But don't believe that $5,000 a show stuff."

Nobody gets that kind of money. "I made three pictures a year. No more than that. When I left Hollywood, I did 'Time Running Out' in France and 'Highly Dangerous' in England. I did 'Never Trust a Gambler' at Columbia, a white back and now I'm doing 'Port Defiance'. All this talk about Dane Clark not making any more movies. Why, turn down pictures."
"I left Hollywood because I'm an unhappy guy when I'm not working every day. I don't go in for making ceramics. My idle periods got me into trouble. I want to work, that's all."
"Television has been wonderful for me. I've been depleted, bloody and bowed after a show, but I've been happy, too. The pressure of doing a new show every week is good for me. And the money I'm paid keeps me from being so economically desperate that I'll lunge at a movie I don't like."
"I've turned down some movie scripts that were horrible. I couldn't do that without TV. I'd have been economically strangled."
"Another thing I'm not a polite guy. In Hollywood I was always sticking my nose on the other side of the fence. They told me to mind my own business when I questioned a story point. But on TV I come in full of ideas and instead of being maligned or chastised, I'm loved for it."
"In TV, in 15 weeks I do 15 different kind of roles from tough guys to part-fall comics. Brother, I'm getting muscles on my artistic soul."

"I don't knock Hollywood. To me movie acting is harder than the stage or television. To do it right, I mean, TV's made a better actor out of me. It's here to stay. Every movie actor will be in it. It's hard and tough. A lot of actors will have to get rid of that baby fat."
Dane slowed down and muttered that he'd probably talked too much. Some people might get the idea that he didn't like Hollywood. Why, he was proud of Hollywood and the brainy lads and lasses behind the scenes.
He had to rush over to the customer's for the buckskin duds he wears in "For Defiance."
"The producer," he said, "is being very finicky. I have a suspicion that Jacques Path or somebody is doing my cowboy outfit. The pants have to be tight. I told the producer that I wouldn't be able to move. He said not to worry, that the horse would be doing all the moving."
"You like horses?" I asked.
"I don't know," he shrugged. "I've never been on one before."
It was my turn to say it:
"Poor Dane Clark."

The MATURE PARENT
Don't Blindly Accept Advice You Don't Believe

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
Early one morning in August, Mrs. White's mother-in-law arrives at the Whites' beach cottage to spend the rest of the Summer.
That afternoon, when young Bill and Kate come clamoring into the kitchen for sandwiches after their swim, their grandmother says, "My gracious, Ellen, you don't feed the children between meals, do you?"
Although Mrs. White already has opened the breadbox, she closes it quickly. To her children, she says, "No, no sandwiches. They'll spoil your supper. Run along and play."
At supper, Mrs. White is so irritable and short-tempered that her children call her attention to this fact. Their grandmother says, "My goodness, Ellen, you don't take that kind of back-talk from young ones, do you?"
Mrs. White says, no, she doesn't. To prove it, she sends young Bill and Kate to their rooms without dessert.

By the end of the month, Mrs. White has lost 15 pounds and the control of her children.
She has lost weight and control because she's afraid that her mother-in-law may regard her as an incompetent parent.
When other people offer us suggestions on how to train our children, we should accept them politely. Then we should consider them for their value or lack of value to us. If we decide we like the suggestions, we should put them into practice. If we decide we don't, we should forget them as soon as possible.
We never should permit ourselves to be high-pressured into using advice that we do not believe in with all our hearts and minds.
How We Feel Is Problem
Usually, it is our emotions about the people who offer us counsel that make our problems.
Mrs. White, of course, disliked her mother-in-law. Her dislike expressed itself through fear of displeasing her. Her emotion about her guest made an unhappy Summer for everyone.
Mrs. Black, on the other hand, dislikes her mother-in-law, but does not express her resentment through fear. Mrs. Black expresses her dislike through frankly curt and unkind rejection of all suggestions made by her mother-in-law. She won't have too happy a Summer either. Neither Mrs. White nor Mrs. Black have learned how to take child training suggestions.
It's a good idea to credit others with a sincere desire to help until we're sure that their motive is not honest. If we are convinced that criticism, dislike, jealousy or a desire to humiliate us are behind their suggestions, then we should courteously but most firmly explain that we prefer to figure out our problems for ourselves.
There is no compulsion upon us to accept the advice of people who want to see us fail.
It is pretty important for us to deal with other people's child-training advice. If we don't, we may find ourselves accepting it out of fear or rejecting it out of anger.
The truth is, that we can't get results from anyone's advice until we have digested it thoroughly ourselves and made it a part of our own point of view. Once we see this, we cease to have problems in dealing with either well-intentioned or malicious advisers. We know why we do what we do and can say so without offense.

★ THE DOCTOR SAYS ★
Before Iritis Is Treated, Exact Cause Must Be Found

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D.
Written for NEA Service
"Are either ACTH or cortisone of any curative value for iritis victims having a history of arthritis? Would such treatment be less drastic than triple typhoid vaccine?" So writes "A Reader" who evidently has iritis or has a relative who does.
Unfortunately it isn't possible to give a direct and straightforward answer to these questions.
There still are too many things we don't know about ACTH and cortisone. Both are powerful substances which exert some astonishing effects on tissue reactions.
But they are reported to have a favorable action on iritis—at least in some cases. Whether one of these substances should be tried, and whether such trial would be more "drastic" than triple typhoid vaccine, has to be left to the judgment of the physician in each individual case.
Iritis is a disease of the eye in which a portion of this organ known as the iris becomes inflamed. The cause of this inflammation is often obscure, but some cases have been traced to infections elsewhere in the body, such as an abscessed tooth, infected tonsils, tuberculosis, or syphilis.
Injury also not infrequently brings on iritis. For this reason besides treating the eye itself with drugs, heat and perhaps other measures, a search is usually made for a possible cause in another place.
There is risk of permanent damage to the eye from iritis. The risk is greater if the condition has been neglected and therefore anyone who develops such symptoms as pain in one eye, sensitivity to bright light, or unusual watering of the eyes should get going on treatment right away. The vision is too important to take unnecessary chances.

So They Say

Although diaphanous politicians and office-holders are a small minority compared with the hundreds of thousands of devoted, honest public servants, political corruption in the United States seems to have sunk to a new low.

Diets leave people hungry. Now, what I do is hypnotize them so they don't want to eat fattening foods. They eat, instead, other things. And they don't get hungry.
—Edwin L. Baron, sage performer, on starting school for dieting through hypnosis.
Psychologically we (Britishers) don't seem to be cut out as hotel proprietors. There is a feeling that there is something humiliating in taking in lodgers.

A race horse is just as much an instrument for gambling as a slot machine.
—Sen. William Langer (R-N. D.), suggesting government tax on race horses.
If any self-respecting Frenchman in his own country were given some of the (hotel) meals we tolerate he would ring the manager, strangle him, pull the place apart and leave without paying his bill. In this country (England) all you do is suffer in silence and then say, "It was not too good, was it?"

Shown above is the dining group, which offers choice of oval or rectangular table with plain or paneled top, two different styles of china cabinets, and three styles of chairs. Woods are imported cherry and imported walnut, with touches of black on pilasters if desired by the customer; and several accent pieces are in black with gold touches.

Important Settlement

It is pretty clear by now that while the Russian-controlled Reds in the Far East are putting on a slow-motion demonstration of peace negotiations in Korea, other Kremlin puppets are at work in the Near East to stir up trouble for the western world.

The Soviet pattern has been evident for some time in the Iranian oil crisis. Now it is spreading throughout the Arab states, where the Red propagandists are blowing hard on the coals of nationalism to start a fire which, the Kremlin fondly hopes, will make relations pleasantly warm for Russia and leave the U. S. and Britain out in the cold.

Russian-sponsored "peace" and "neutrality" campaigns and "national liberation" movements—high-sounding names for cold war—have gained momentum since Iran's nationalization of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company.

Since then, Syria has rejected U. S. offers of Point Four aid, and Lebanon, which had accepted such offers, now is talking about changing its mind. Another anti-west campaign is flaring up in Egypt, which has become openly hostile in telling England to get out of the Suez Canal zone.

All these danger signals increase the importance of a settlement in Iran that will preserve vital oil supplies for the west and, at the same time, cool off some of the Russian-fanned anti-west sentiment.

British bulldog stubbornness has been more fuel for the Russian fire. We were slow to get into the picture, although Iran, early in the crisis, asked the U. S. to step in and help figure out a settlement.

Now, W. Averell Harriman, acting as an oil mediator from the U. S., seems to have made good progress. He has gotten the British to agree to send a mission to Iran to discuss settlement.

This in itself doesn't mean agreement, of course. But it does indicate a break in the stubborn British attitude that Iran would come running to give in once the oil royalties stopped flowing into the coffers.

And if the talks now scheduled between the British and the Iranian leaders in Tehran result in a little yielding by both sides and thus end the dispute, it will be more than just saving vital oil for the free world's defenses in Europe. It also will take a lot of fire out of Russia's hot propaganda campaign in the Near East.

General Is Not Diverted

Enroute back to the United States after a month's tour of Europe, during which he talked with leading political and military figures, Elder Statesman Bernard Baruch declared that General Eisenhower, as commander of the Allied powers in Europe, is "leading the greatest crusade since Peter the Hermit."

Baruch added that "anyone seeking to divert Ike's attention to politics is doing Ike and the country a disservice."

So far, the general seems to have been pretty difficult to divert. There are a lot of politicians in this country who wish they could divert him at least enough to have him answer the question: "Is you is or is you ain't?"

How Long?

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

(Copyright, 1961, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Drew Pearson says: Tungsten deposits govern Korean cease-fire line; New Orleans reporter experiments with Declaration of Independence; Congressman Taber is careless with Voice of America facts.

WASHINGTON — One reason for the deadlock over the cease-fire line in Korea is that precious tungsten deposits are at stake in the juggling for position. For, without Korean tungsten, this country won't have enough tungsten to build jet engines, armor-piercing shells and, even more important, to supply atomic energy needs.

The pie-shaped slice of land held by General Ridgway's forces above the 38th Parallel, contains rich tungsten deposits. This is one reason Ridgway has been ordered to hold firm. Furthermore, the largest tungsten mine in the free world is located at Sandong, less than 60 miles below the 38th Parallel. This is another reason Ridgway wants to hang on to his stronger defense line above the 38th Parallel, and keep the Communists as far from Sandong as possible.

The shortage of tungsten is so desperate that we have rushed $2,000,000 worth of tungsten equipment to Korea in order to step up production at the Sandong mine and to reopen small mines above the 38th Parallel.

It is no secret that this country is over 2,000,000 pounds short of tungsten for civilian requirements alone. Normally the United States consumes about 14,000,000 pounds a year, chiefly for metal-cutting tools. This doesn't count the critically needed tungsten for jet engines, armor-piercing shells and atomic energy. In fact, our anti-tank warfare depends on these armor-piercing shells, which can't be built without tungsten. Yet the Russians know that the most tungsten we can scrape up this year will be about 12,000,000 pounds—unless the Korean mines can be rushed into full production.

Note — Our government has recently received several mysterious offers of Portuguese tungsten. The offers all mention the same figure—2,000 pounds. U. S. experts suspect these offers are feelers from Russia, which may be preparing to trade tungsten for critical war materials needed in the Soviet Union. Declaration of Independence

Two newspapers have now tried the experiment of asking Americans to sign a petition containing nothing but the Declaration of Independence and the original amendments of the U. S. Constitution. First was the Capital Times of Madison, Wis., which had 111 out of 112 people refuse to sign. Second was the New Orleans Item which had 24 out of 36 refuse to sign.

The New Orleans petition was circulated after both President Truman and this commentator had published the shocking 111 to 1 refusal in Wisconsin. Nevertheless, its results showed how many of the American people either have forgotten the inspiring precepts of the founding fathers or else become afraid of the expression of liberal ideas.

Here are some of the reactions received by Reporter Allen Johnson when he circulated the New Orleans copy of the Declaration of Independence and the bill of rights: "Three men," reported Johnson, "called me a Communist. One said, 'my family's with the government. It would get them in trouble. You know the FBI checks up on these things.'"

Another read Jefferson's stirring words: "Wherever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or abolish it. . . ."

"That," remarked the man approached by Reporter Johnson, "sounds Russian to me."

A housewife didn't like the amendment to the Constitution guaranteeing a free press and free speech. "That part ought to be narrowed down," she said. "There's too much talk going on." She refused to sign. Maybe Senator Joe McCarthy, who has circulated thousands of copies of his speeches through the mails at the taxpayers' expense, should circulate free copies of the Declaration of Independence instead. It might counteract some of the fear he has instilled in peoples' minds. Truth About Voice

Congressmen are always quick to put the lie to newspapermen when they don't like criticism. But it's not often that a congressman is called for a lie by his own colleagues. That was what happened to Congressman John Taber of New York the other day when he got careless of his facts regarding the Voice of America. Taber, campaigning to out the State Department's vitally important propaganda budget, quoted Ben Hibbs, editor of the Saturday Evening Post, as a foremost critic of the Voice. Hibbs is a member of a committee of distinguished Americans who advise the State Department regarding the Voice and other propaganda.

Jacoby On Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY Written for NEA Service

Suppose your partner opens the bidding with one of a suit, and the next player makes an overall. What should you hold to double that overall for penalties? Assuming that you double, what course should your partner adopt? Let's take the double first. When you double an overall of two diamonds or less you can afford to take chances. Even if the doubled contract is made, the opponents will not score a game. The misfire costs you very little.

When you double a contract of two hearts or more, you must be fairly sure that you can set it.

spades, after which he laid down the ace of hearts. South ruffed and West over-ruffed. Now West took the king of spades and exited with his last spade, after which he was bound to make another trump trick.

East and West collected 500 points. They could have made a game at no-trump, but were well satisfied with the result.

Today's Question: The bidding has been: South: West: North: 1 Spade Pass 3 Diamonds Pass. You, South, hold: Spades A-Q-J-7-3, Hearts A-10-5, Diamonds 9-8-2, Clubs 8-4. What do you do? A—Bid three spades. This rebid does not show extra strength but merely indicates that you have a rebidable suit. The strength of the spade suit is, after all, the only part of your hand worth talking about.

Answer Tomorrow: The bidding is the same as the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades A-Q-J-7-3, Hearts A-Q-5, Diamonds 9-8-2, Clubs K-4. What do you do? A—Bid three hearts. This rebid does not show extra strength but merely indicates that you have a rebidable suit. The strength of the heart suit is, after all, the only part of your hand worth talking about.

RIGHT: Find out what pattern the bride-to-be has selected and don't buy her flat silver unless you buy it in her pattern.

THE richest accident hadn't been Alan Barton's fault, but his automatic reflex was to fish in his pocket for a Singapore $5.

"You're American, I suppose?" "You bet," Alan grinned at the girl.

"I can tell it," she said severely, "because you think that everything can be squared by your dollar."

Alan took the girl firmly by the arm and showed a way through the crowd that had gathered. In a double ricksha, the girl instructed him to drop her at La Rotonde, Rue Catinat.

Alan said, "I suppose you're English?" The girl shook her head. "No. Colonial. A refugee from the Burma mess, and now stuck, I'm afraid, with this brewing one. I'm a nurse at the hospital here."

"Well, then, what've you got so sorry about, America?" "Nothing," the girl said. And to Alan's pleased grin, "—that the rest of the world hasn't got you make such a secret about yourself preserving your way of life, then go about the world trying to change everybody else's—like your Singapore five just now, spoiling the price for those who have to live here. The man's whole fare, if he had brought you safe to your destination, would have been 17 cents."

"Which one?" said Alan. "I do not ask your respect of anyone."

GOP Deadlock Over Taft And Ike Might Give Nomination To Warren

WASHINGTON — Contest shaping-up between backers of General Eisenhower and Senator Taft for the Republican presidential nomination has started a new line of political speculation in Washington. These two men are so opposed on foreign policy ideas that it would be practically impossible to get them to agree on a platform.

If anything like a close contest or a deadlock develops, GOP bosses are almost sure to start looking for an acceptable compromise candidate. With Governor Dewey ruling himself out and Governor Stassen having failed to show any strength in 1948, the likeliest possibility would be some candidate against whom nobody had anything. In this process of elimination, the name of Governor Warren of California is attracting considerable attention.

Scott Story Premature: Story that Rep. Hugh D. Scott of Pennsylvania was going to Paris to sound out General Eisenhower on his presidential ambitions was a little premature. Representative Scott was of course Republican campaign manager for Governor Dewey in 1948, and Dewey is now an Eisenhower backer. But when Representative Scott left Washington for Europe last week, he didn't even have an appointment to see General Eisenhower.

Real purpose of the Scott mission is business for the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, on Radio Free Europe. Representative Scott will go to Germany first, stop in Paris on the way back. He will visit his Princeton classmate, Ambassador David K. E. Bruce. And of course, he says, he hopes to pay at least a courtesy call on General Eisenhower.

Wouldn't Mind Salary Cut: Democratic big shots recently gave a dinner in honor of Rep. James P. Richards of South Carolina, new chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs. Secretary of State Dean Acheson was there, too, and after the dinner he was called on for a few remarks. He said he had had a fine time. They were all nice people and the dinner had been wonderful. "In fact," he said, "if I could get as good a dinner as this every night, I wouldn't mind it if they did out off my salary."

Queer Coincidence: In the House Ways and Means Committee hearings on the new tax bill, William E. Webb of Statesville, N. C., gave testimony in favor of increasing the taxes on mutual insurance companies. Mr. Webb testified on behalf of the non-mutual insurance business.

In the same hearings on July 15, 1951, O. Glenn Saxton, professor of economics at Yale, testified on behalf of the National Tax Equality Association. It has now been discovered that the testimony of Mr. Webb and Professor Saxton is exactly alike, word for word, comma for comma, period for period.

Rep. Daniel A. Reed of New York, in a statement inserted in the Congressional Record Appendix for July 20, presents evidence that this National Tax Equality Association "is now trying to raise colossal lobbying funds totaling more than $31,000,000 for use in attempting to high pressure and intimidate the United States Senate in connection with the pending tax legislation."

Meat Powerful Lobby: Experienced Washington legislative representatives who have been operating on Capitol Hill for many years now give credit to the American Farm Bureau Federation for being the most powerful lobby in Washington. This is as a result of the job done on price and wage control-renewal legislation. Formerly, top honors in the lobbying field were always given to American Legion.

Only A Gag, But . . . It's only a gag, but one Democratic congressman, Winfield K. Denton of Evansville, Ind., says he has considered introducing a bill to change the name of Washington's "MacArthur Boulevard" to "Ridgway Drive."

Representative Denton also speaks glowingly of "those two great Indiana Republican senators—I mean Beveridge and Watson."

Can't Please Everyone: Miners' wives are kicking because the paid-vacation John L. Lewis won for their husbands comes at the end of June. One wife of a Kentucky miner wrote to Mr. Lewis, saying: "I wish you would change this vacation period to the last week in December. It's very inconvenient for us women folks now. The men all go fishing and we like to go with them. But we have to stay home and do our canning in June."

Oldest U. S. Sen. Kenneth McKellar's latest blast at Atomic Energy Commission is regarded as nothing more than Tennessee politician's treachery.

—Ha-ha, I know you collectors guard your finds like jewels. I have known, however, for a long time that this bird exists somewhere to the North, and there we can proceed in comfort by the Messageries Fluviales at this season of the deep waters."

Alan wondered what fantastic notion this man might have about the values of rare birds so willingly to expose himself to the appalling discomforts and dangers of a monsoon season jungle. "It takes time, you know, Monsieur, to trap something so elusive that it has not been found for a hundred years. And the next season—"

Monsieur Benoit interrupted him. "Ah, you Americans! Always in the hurry. So you catch the next steamer. And you acquire in the meanwhile some specimens that bring much kudos to your name—the which, it seems to me as a businessman, translates to more money."

Translated into something, all right. Alan's lips widened into a thin grin. But he wouldn't want to wet nurse this city slicker. He said: "Have you a friend, partner or some such, who could come along? I mean to keep you company if I have to go in deep on foot?"

Benoit threw out his hands in a Gallic gesture. "Alas, Monsieur, I had one whom I could trust, but he's not so long ago died of one of the sicknesses that undermine a man in this climate."

Alan's breath sucked in slowly. Somebody else who presumably knew something about this bird had died. His grin went away and he said, "Okay, Mister. You buy the chips and I'll play." Benoit did not understand the situation, but everybody in the post-war world had learned the meaning of "okay." Benoit jumped up with a surprising alertness. "Splendid! I congratulate myself upon your company." He wagged a knowing finger. "I shall bring along the wines that on these steamers is execrable. And of course a personal servant who can attend upon us both."

A personal servant. That would mean two to be watched. (To Be Continued)

Ever-Growing Midland Looks Mighty Good To Traveler After 2,063-Mile Auto Trip

By BILL COLLYNS
Reporter-Telegram Staff

It's good to be back home in Midland, Texas, even after a fine vacation spent in cool (more or less) New Mexico and Colorado.

The only disappointing thing about it is we failed to bring the rain, which we enjoyed most of the trip home with us. We were beginning to think maybe we were responsible for the moisture, which made our 1961 vacation tour all the more pleasant, but I guess such is not the case. Here we are back in Midland all of 36 hours, and still no rainfall. Well, the Collyns family wishes it could have attracted some of the moisture to Midland and vicinity anyway. (Take it away, Brother Eddie Clayton).

But despite the lack of rainfall during our absence from the city, Ann Fowler, who lives just across the street, managed to keep the grass on our front lawn alive and green. Thanks, Miss Ann.

Ever-Growing City Looks Good

Dry or wet, however, Ever-Growing Midland looks mighty good to the traveler returning from a 2,063-mile, five-state (Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, Kansas and Oklahoma) vacation tour. Even though the trip was delightful in every way, and despite the fact we saw lots of new country and plenty of water, a West Texan just naturally feels better back in West Texas.

We just couldn't keep from stopping at the Texas-Oklahoma state line on the return trip and taking a picture of two of the huge Texas markers which welcome travelers to the Lone Star State.

The highways, too, immediately become wider and smoother when one enters Texas—causing of course faster driving.

But on the entire trip we did not see a single accident, or even a near-accident. Driving in the mountain country, one finds the most careful and most courteous drivers anywhere. It is a long way to the bottom of some of those mountains and cliffs.

In Denver, by the way, the traf-

Early-Prowling Animals Keep Officers Busy

For a brief few moments early Tuesday Midland police forgot about the troubles and tribulations of the human race.

The animals were keeping them too busy.

At 3 a. m., an angry voice called from the 1400 block of Harvard Street to complain about dogs turning over garbage cans in the neighborhood.

Officers D. L. Young and Bill Miller dutifully chased the dogs away.

A few minutes later, Midland Memorial Hospital called to ask assistance in keeping a couple of unwanted felines out of the building. They were ejected several times but kept returning.

With Promise Of Pride

Officers Loren Beatty and Joe Curry enticed the pair away from the hospital with the promise of a ride in their shiny patrol car.

At 2:30 a. m., an anxious woman in the 2200 block of Washington called to explain that her dog—usually even-tempered—was extremely excited. She feared prowlers.

Officers Beatty and Curry investigated but reported no dangerous prowlers in the neighborhood, although there hung in the air the unmistakable evidence of a recent visit by a skunk.

Aged Barstow Man Dies In Merkel

BARSTOW—W. N. Yates, former sheriff and long time resident of Barstow, died Monday in Merkel, a day following his ninetieth birthday.

He was a former sheriff of Ochiltree County and a retired rancher and farmer. He moved from the Panhandle to Barstow 40 years ago. Funeral services were to be held at 5 p. m. Tuesday in Elliott's Chapel in Abilene, with the Rev. J. T. McKlasick, Christian Church pastor, officiating. Interment was to be in Elmwood Memorial Park in Abilene.

Yates is survived by his widow, three daughters, Mrs. Raymond H. Tull and Mrs. H. C. Mullins, both of Abilene, and Mrs. Louise Black of El Paso.

An agreed judgment was reached in 70th District Court Monday under which Dr. L. C. Zee, a Midland dentist, agreed to pay G. W. Harmon $1,500 as total damages in an automobile accident June 21.

Harmon's suit had asked $10,500 for injuries claimed to have been suffered by his wife and four children.

H. J. Rucker of the firm of Perkins, German, Mims and Bell was attorney for Harmon, and Whitaker, Turpin, Kerr, Smith and Brooks represented Dr. Zee.

Judge Charles Sullivan of Big Spring presided.

Stanton Lions Hear Midland Man Speak

STANTON—Urging his listeners to slow down in their mad race against time, Wick Fowler, managing editor of The Midland Reporter-Telegram, spoke on the subject, "What's Your Hurry?" at the regular meeting of the Stanton Lions Club here Monday night.

The guest speaker was introduced by Garvis P. Ross, Stanton newspaperman. President Finley Rhodes presided at the gathering.

Dr. Norman J. Maberry of Midland, Lions club chairman, attended the session as a special guest. He spoke briefly concerning the community service aspect of Lionism. Bill Collyns was another Midland visitor at the meeting.

"What are you racing against?" Fowler asked, as he called upon the Lions to "slow down, take it easy, and enjoy life in your home community."

Packed with humor and down-to-earth philosophy, the address was well received by the large group in attendance.

Civil Pride Stressed

Suggesting that Lions Club members substitute civic pride for worry, over-work, fast-living and more worry, Fowler said there is nothing in Stanton that the Lions Club cannot make a little better if they will put forth the effort.

"Analyze your town and find out what it needs to make it a better city in which to live," the speaker urged. "Clean up your city and make it more attractive in every way, since strangers draw their first impression of your city from its general appearance."

Pointing out that the trend now is back to the rural community, Fowler said he has faith in the small towns because they are hopeful.

Boll Weevil Keane Within 500 Pounds Of Collecting Bet

HARLINGEN — Ed (Boll Weevil) Keen could win his bet. He needs to pick less than 500 pounds now to complete the 1,450-pound bet for a bale of cotton he said he could pick in a week.

The radio disc jockey spent 11 hours and 20 minutes in the field Monday and picked 229 pounds to make his total 1,500 pounds. He's got three days to pick the rest.

Keen stands to collect some $2,000 in prizes if he does.

He started last week, but was fanned-out three days. Judges ruled this was "an act of God" and couldn't count in the time limit.

Reunion Is Held By Merritt Family

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Merritt, long-time Midland residents, were the honor guests at a family reunion held Sunday, when seven of their nine children and members of their families gathered here for the annual event.

"And more than enough fried chicken was on the table for dinner," the elder Merritt said.

Sons and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Merritt attending the affair included Jack Merritt and family of Midland; Mrs. John Woody and family, Midland; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Collins, Carlsbad, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hill and daughter, Peecos; Barney Merritt and family, Midland; and Pat Merritt and family, Midland. Mrs. W. M. Powell of Midland was a special guest.

G. C. Merritt of Hereford and Mrs. Chilton Hobbs of Corpus Christi were unable to attend the reunion.

Farm Income Shows Sharp Gain

WASHINGTON — The Agriculture Department Tuesday reported farm income totaled $15,400,000,000 during the first seven months of this year. This was 17 per cent more than in the same period last year.

The department said farm cost prices rose an average of 12 per cent during the 1961 period.

Income from livestock was $10,700,000,000, or 25 per cent up.

Income from crops was listed as $4,700,000,000, about the same. Higher average crop prices were offset by smaller production.

Farm income in July was $2,600,000,000. This was 20 per cent more than in June and 11 per cent above July last year, mostly because of higher prices.

MATERIALS BY VELVIN—An example of the quality materials of the J. C. Velvin Lumber Company is the recently-constructed home of Robert Payne, at 1407 Princeton Street. This fine home, constructed of materials supplied by the Velvin firm, is only one of many in Midland which were constructed of Velvin materials.

The contractor on the above job was Grover Ponder.

Velvin Lumber Company Has Part In Growth Of Midland

Midland is building at a record rate in 1961 and the J. C. Velvin Lumber Company is doing its part. Although the company does not claim to have furnished materials for all of the new homes, $4,000,000 worth of building here since the first of the year, the J. C. Velvin Lumber Company has furnished material for its part of that.

Citizens are invited to drive by 1407 Princeton Street and see a new residence built and decorated with Velvin materials.

The J. C. Velvin Lumber Company is located at 204 North Fort Worth Street. And that new dial telephone number is 4-7591.

Friendly Firm
Velvin's has a complete line of building materials. Du Pont paints for every purpose are available. Color scheme plans are furnished cheerfully along with estimates by the friendly firm.

J. C. Velvin Lumber Company has been a reliable Midland firm since 1937. It first was the Velvin-Strauch Lumber Company. Velvin acquired sole interest in 1939, and he has built a fine reputation as a builder.

Velvin materials can be seen in many of Midland's newer and finer residences and other structures. Whether it be a new home or repair or addition to the old one, the J. C. Velvin Lumber Company is a trusted firm with which to do business.

Fleeing American Mother Held In Jail

CHERBOURG, FRANCE — Mrs. Philomene Kreisler Kirkwood was held in jail here Tuesday until a French court can decide whether to extradite her to New York City to face charges by her former husband that she was trying to take her son behind the Iron Curtain to be reared as a Communist.

A public prosecutor ordered her imprisoned Monday. Her eight-year-old son, Thomas, stayed overnight in a hospital because the hotels were filled with visitors for a bicycle race. Police held the passports of her present husband, Charles Kirkwood, and a friend, Sidney Fuller, so they could not leave until the extradition hearing.

Mrs. Kirkwood's former husband, George Kreisler of New York, has charged her with violating a court order forbidding her to take their son more than 25 miles from New York. He asked the U. S. government to request her extradition.

Mrs. Kirkwood loudly denied she was taking her son behind the Iron Curtain. She said she was going to visit her parents in Berlin, but refused to tell the prosecutor their names or address.

Two Persons Hurt In Auto Collision Still Hospitalized

Two victims of a Sunday automobile crash in which one person was killed and three injured remained in Western Clinic-Hospital Tuesday and one was listed as still in a serious condition.

Tommy Hart, five, suffered severe burns either from battery acid or hot oil or water, and hospital attendants said Tuesday he was in a serious condition.

Killed in the crash was Mrs. Thomas T. Hart, mother of the child. She was dead on arrival at the hospital.

Roy Maxey, 36, of Tarzan, still was hospitalized with head injuries. His condition was described as "fair."

Thomas T. Hart, father of Tommy, was released from the hospital Monday. He suffered head injuries in the accident.

The collision between automobiles of Hart and Maxey occurred about 8:15 p. m. Sunday at the intersection of North Lamesa Road and the Ranchland Hill Country Club road.

Funeral Rites Held

Funeral services for Mrs. Hart were to be held at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the Newbie W. Ellis Chapel with the Rev. G. A. C. Hughes, pastor of the First Free Will Baptist Church, officiating. Interment was to be in Resthaven Memorial Park.

Mrs. Hart was born Feb. 22, 1926 in Bell County, Texas. She was the former Bernice Evelyn Hicks. The Harts came to Midland about two years ago and lived on Route 2.

Survivors include the husband and son, the parents, two sisters, and two brothers, one of whom is stationed in Japan with the armed services.

Ridgway—

(Continued From Page One) been issued to your Kansas area guards to adhere strictly to the regulation that no armed guards would enter the conference area, in order that incidents similar to that of August 4 will not occur again.

"I have also noted that you describe such incidents as minor, accidental and trivial. Such incidents are of fundamental importance, as I have before pointed out. The incidents are neither minor nor trivial. Their accidental nature is in doubt . . ."

Ridgway had let the Reds ponder his next move more than 24 hours.

Stream Of Propaganda
Red radios at Peiping and the North Korean capital of Pyongyang kept up a stream of propaganda blaming the United States for the deadlock of negotiations.

Up to the cessation of talks, negotiators had argued nine days without progress on where to create a buffer zone between the opposing armies.

The Communists want the line moved back to the 38th parallel. Allied headquarters say the present battle front is the only line satisfactory to the United Nations.

Red propaganda radios insisted Tuesday there could be no compromise on the basic issue of a buffer zone. They called the UN insistence on the present battle front as the cease-fire line "outrageous and unacceptable."

The Pyongyang radio, in the last few days, has talked as though the North Korean are none too anxious for an armistice.

Peiping radio, on the other hand, has shown more of a willingness to continue talks until an armistice can be reached.

Council Discusses Proposed Clubhouse

The Beta Sigma Phi City Council discussed the possibility of building a club house when it met Monday in the home of Mrs. A. R. Ayles.

The club also made plans to act as hostesses at Pauline's Style Shop during its first few days under new ownership. Mrs. R. N. Hillin was appointed general chairman of this project.

Co-chairmen are Mrs. Randy Rubin, Elizabeth Knox and Mrs. Ernest Nasser. Mrs. A. R. Ayles, assisted by Lunelle Zeeck, will be in charge of advertising.

Aged U. S. Engineer Heads Rangoon Job

RANGOON—A 64-year-old American civil engineer is helping build Rangoon's new luxury airdrome to cost approximately $10,000,000.

It is the thirty-fifth Theodore Human, of Boston and Florida, has supervised in between spells of highway construction since 1939.

When this project is completed by the end of 1952 it will be about the sixth largest airdrome in the world with a concrete runway 8,100 feet long and 200 feet wide to accommodate 150-ton jets. It also will have an air-conditional terminal building worth approximately $5,000,000.

Hun was principal highways engineer with the Pacific Island Engineers at Guam—a Navy job—when someone recommended him to the Burmese government, then planning to expand the runway on its present airport.

He expected to remain in Rangoon until a man-sized job that will tie him down to this part of the world for two years.

Horsemeat Sold By Racketeers

NEW YORK—The sale of about six tons of horsemeat in Bronx and Harlem restaurants and butcher shops as filet mignon and round steak was discovered with the arrest of two men.

One prisoner, described as a member of a ring operating in New York, Buffalo, Jersey City and Baltimore, was caught with two hindquarters of horsemeat in the trunk of his sedan. He was trying to sell the 300 pounds to a butcher who called the police.

The horsemeat was bought out of the state for 25 cents a pound and sold in New York for 50 cents a pound, wholesale. The wholesale price for genuine filet mignon and round steak has been around 90 cents a pound.

WILD WEST JUNGLE LIFE

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Alta—James McRae's family has plenty of animal life. A lynx in the backyard scared the children and Mrs. McRae thinks it may have been looking for her chickens, her two Pomeranian dogs, or perhaps was chasing the monkeys living in the grove since they escaped from a carnival.

Farmers Reported Leaving East Texas, WINNSBORO—The farmers are moving out of this part of East Texas.

O. J. Gipe says the number of active farmers in the Winnsboro area has dropped from 3,800 in 1940 to between 1,100 and 1,200. Gipe is head of the Hopkins-Rains-Wood and Sulphur-Cypress Soil Conservation Districts. He blames economic pressure and the temptations of the big cities for the exodus.

"The day is gone," Gipe said, "when just anybody can make a living on a farm. Hit and miss farming today won't provide enough to feed and clothe a family, and keep them warm throughout the winter."

PAKISTAN RECRUITS GERMAN NURSES

KARACHI, PAKISTAN—The Pakistan government hopes to recruit at least 100 qualified hospital nurses from West Germany and Austria to fill vacancies in this country.

An acute shortage of nurses exists in Pakistan, due in part to the Moslem practice of Purdah among Pakistan's women. This practice requires the women to wear veils in public and excludes them from contact with other persons, especially males, outside their immediate families.

Daddy Ringtail :: By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Whistlesniffer

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, sat in his riverboat with Mother Ringtail, and Mugwump, and the Huffen Puffen, the friendly wolf. It was a happy vacation time, and the boat was floating on down the Whispering river where it ran through the Great Forest on its way to the sea.

"Happy vacation!" Daddy Ringtail shouted for fun. "Happy vacation, everyone!" Everyone laughed to hear him shout it.

But then Mother Ringtail said: "Daddy Ringtail, can something be the matter? I think the Whistlesniffer is following us. Listen!" Daddy Ringtail listened. Way out on the river somewhere he could hear the Whistlesniffer, whistling and sniffing as he swam along through the water. But the Whistlesniffer, of course, was a friend. "Of course the Whistlesniffer is a friend," said Daddy Ringtail, and he smiled when he said it because he really wasn't worried at all. But Mother Ringtail was afraid something indeed was the matter. Said she: "I know the Whistlesniffer is a friend, but listen how he whistles and sniffs while he follows us, whistling and sniffing, whistling and sniffing. Why does he do it, if nothing's the matter?"

Daddy Ringtail didn't know, and he said he didn't know. He put his hand to his mouth and called out across the water. "Oh, Whistlesniffer! Oh, Whistlesniffer!" The folks in the boat waited, while the whistles and sniffs came closer and closer. "We shall find out about this," said Daddy Ringtail.

And there came the Whistlesniffer, swimming through the water to the riverboat, whistling and sniffing as always. He was always whistling and sniffing when he came through the water, and sometimes he whistled and sniffed when he wasn't swimming. "Happy vacation to you folks!" whistled and sniffed the Whistlesniffer, when he was close enough to say it. And he whistled and sniffed that nothing was the matter at all. Mother Ringtail should not worry about him, he said, because he was only out swimming and whistling and sniffing, all for a little vacation of his own. And so Mother Ringtail didn't fret or worry any more, because no one should worry or fret when a happy vacation time has come. Happy day!

Fewer Texas Colleges To Play Football

By The Associated Press
Texas will have 43 colleges playing football this fall. This is a decrease of 11 from last year and the smallest number since the war.

Eleven discontinued football this year. Reasons included loss of manpower and patronage.

The biggest decrease was among the junior colleges.

There will be 26 senior colleges playing the game—four fewer than last year. Junior colleges playing football number 17—seven fewer than in 1950.

Lamar Tech was added to the Lone Star Conference and the Pioneer Conference, made up of junior colleges, took on Ranger College.

Among the senior colleges, Southwestern of the Texas Conference has suspended football. The Gulf Coast Conference lost University of Houston, which entered the Missouri Valley Conference. Three independents gave up football—University of Corpus Christi, Daniel Baker and East Texas Baptist. Among the junior colleges the Texas Junior College Conference fell from 10 to six and the South Texas Conference from seven to three.

Lost in the shuffle were Odessa, Weatherford, Panola, Southwest Texas, Edinburg, Regional, Laredo and Texas Southmost.

SOME EXTRA—Pamela Utting lowered her Surrey 100 and 200-yard breast-stroke swimming records to 1:20.4 and 2:33.4. The 18-year-old miss is a member of a London team meeting Paris and Berlin in a triangular meet in the German capital in September. She is a film extra. (NEA)

Minoso Heads AL Batsmen With .344

CHICAGO (AP)—Rookie Minnie Minoso of the Chicago White Sox continued to lead the American League batters during the week with .344.

Washington's Gil Coan dropped from second to fourth place. He has a .331.

Injured Ferris Fain of Philadelphia returned to second with an unchanged .334 while Detroit's George Kell went into third with .332.

The other leaders were Bobby Avila, Cleveland, .327; Ted Williams, Boston, .323; Nellie Fox, Chicago, .318; Hank Majeski, Philadelphia, .312; Dom Di Maggio, Boston, .308; and Billy Goodman, Boston, .304.

Oilers Take Indians, 7-3

ODESSA—After dropping their last four contests with the Midland Indians, Odessa's Oilers came to life to take a 7-3 win from the Zeke Bonuraless Tribe Monday night.

Ernie Nelson took the loss, his second against one win. Eddie Johnson gave up 10 hits in going the route for the distance. Nelson lasted two innings before being relieved by Dave McKenzie. McKenzie gave up two runs the rest of the way.

Midland scored in the initial inning. Stan Wilcox singled, went to second on an infield out and crossed the plate on Hayden White's bingle.

But Odessa picked up three in the second, two of them coming on a single by Kenny Peacock with the bases loaded. A home run with a man on base, hit by Leo Eastham, chased Nelson with nobody out in the third.

Midland got its remaining two tallies in the fourth. Kenny Jones walked, scoring from first on Gordon Tanner's double. Tanner took third on a wild pitch, coming in on J. E. (Gipper) Gibbs' hit.

Tanner was tossed by umpire Bruce Averill on a dispute over called strikes.

Midland moves to Artesia Tuesday night. Manager Zeke Bonura, who has been on the suspension list, probably will be back in the Indian lineup.

WT-NM Loop Has Its Troubles Also

By The Associated Press
Blame it on the weather. That's probably what the Abilene Blue Sox are saying after Skipper Hack Miller's run-in with the umpires cost the West Texas-New Mexico League leaders a 9-0 forfeit to Pampa Monday night.

Art Bowland got into an argument with Umpire Ross Beibeck in the fourth and Manager Miller joined in. The umpire ordered Miller to leave the field, saying he would forfeit the game if he failed to do so. Miller shouted that he didn't think he would do it.

He did.

Abilene was leading 1-0. They still have an eight and one-half game lead.

Ken Michale shaded Ed Arthur as the Lubbock Hubbers bested Lamesa, 3-1, to take over second place.

Albuquerque and Amarillo also tied up in a pitchers duel with Manager Herchel Martin piling one out of the park in the seventh inning to give Albuquerque a 1-0 victory. Borger came from behind to nip Clovis, 8-7.

Black Indians Win From Paris, 7 To 5

Johnnie Williams bested Lucky Mitchell on the mound, as the Midland Black Indians defeated the Paris Brown Bombers, 7-5, Monday night at Indian Park.

Shortstop John Williams homered for the Black Indians with one man on base. Manager Bennie Harrison got three hits, one a triple. John Williams will pitch against Sweet Flowers of the Paris team Tuesday night at the Park. Game time is 8:15 p.m.

Some Game, But What's The Score?

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Bob Hope pitched a mean curve ball—it sailed down on a tiny parachute.

Tony Curtis got the loudest screams from the fans, and Shelley Winters smashed a hit off the shapely delivery of Jane Russell.

So it went Monday night at the fifth annual "out-of-this-world series" baseball game sponsored by the Hollywood Junior Chamber of Commerce.

A spokesman estimated a capacity-plus crowd of 11,000 paid $23,500 to see a star team called "The Bob Hopefuls" play (Gary) Cooper's "Outthroats." Proceeds go to youth welfare activities.

The score? "NO, criminy, I don't know," croaked Andy Devine, the game's ponderous umpire, when the thing was over. He and co-umpire "Cuddles" Sakall were pushed onto the field in wheelchairs.

Danny Thomas was master of ceremonies. Cooper arrived on the Gilmore Field diamond in a fringed-topped surry with Marilyn Maxwell, Dorothy Lamour and Miss Russell.

These were among the "bat girls, arrestingly clad in shorts, who later got into the game. Others included Dorothy Malone, Gale Robbins, and Mona Freeman.

Hope stepped out of an imitation money truck onto a red carpet spread by an aide. Three bat girls saluted. The aide, announcer Hy Averback, in white tie and tails; caught the balls thrown by Catcher Frank Paylen and handed them to Pitcher Hope.

An elegant player, in shorts and snood like cap, Hope had a standing ovation. Acrobats Pat Moran flip-flopped safely onto home base while Hope stroled gracefully in his walk.

Lionel Hampton's band paraded around the bases, blaring out "Flying Home" when Hampton socked a homer. Bat girl Hattie McDaniel wore blue pedal pushers and loud socks.

Roy Rogers rode his horse Trigger around the diamond. At one crucial point Hope called a trade of his players. It turned out to be a crap game, and umpire Devine broke it up with a blank shot from his 45 pistol.

The "Hopefuls" included P a t O'Brien, Scott Brady, Howard Duff, orchestra leader Les Brown, and singer Harry Babbitt. Among Cooper's "Outthroats" were Frank Lovejoy, Mickey Rooney, Gordon MacRae, Don Taylor, Rod Cameron, and Steve Brodie.

Dusters, Oilers, Colts, Drillers Win In Longhorn

By The Associated Press
The Vernon Dusters had so much fun running the bases Monday night they gave little thought to heat prostration.

The Dusters, blisted out 16 hits and 14 runs in swamping the Roswell Rockets, 14-2, in a Longhorn League game.

Odessa scored seven runs in trimming Midland, 7-3. San Angelo edged Big Spring, 5-3, and Artesia nipped Sweetwater, 5-4.

Late inning uprisings, some successful, some wasted, kept fans on edge. Artesia scored three in the last of the eighth to wipe out a 4-2 Swatter lead for a victory. Big Spring counted two in the top of the ninth but fell short of overtaking San Angelo.

The Colts had scored three runs in the fourth inning and added a single marker in the fifth for a comfortable lead.

Two walks and a single loaded the bases for Artesia. Ken Cluley then smacked a double that cleared them and sent the Drillers out in front.

Odessa scored early to beat Midland. They got three in the second and four in the fourth then were content to hold Midland at bay.

The score:
Sweetwater 003 010 000-4 9 2
Artesia 200 000 03x-5 9 3

Houston Keeps On Rolling Right Along

By The Associated Press
Southern teams of the Texas League set up shop for an 11-day home stand and the last invasion of the season by teams from the North.

This is the road trip that can make or break the hopes of at least one team that wants to share in that Shaughnessy playoff cash.

Monday night, league-leading Houston boosted its margin over second place Dallas to nine full games as it knocked off Beaumont, 6-2, and Dallas lost to Fort Worth, 7-1.

San Antonio edged Shreveport, 3-1, and Tulsa rallied to beat Oklahoma City, 6-2.

Little Leaguers Meet Here In District Tourney

Would-be major leaguers, most of them 12 years of age, tangle in Midland Thursday and Friday in a district tournament of the Little League baseball tournament play-offs.

Three teams already are definite entries, having won subordinate tournaments over the weekend. Rugel Motors of El Paso, Abilene's Dixie Little League winners and Midland already have won their way into the meet here. Odessa and Portales, N. M., meet in Odessa Wednesday night to determine the fourth team to compete in the district tournament.

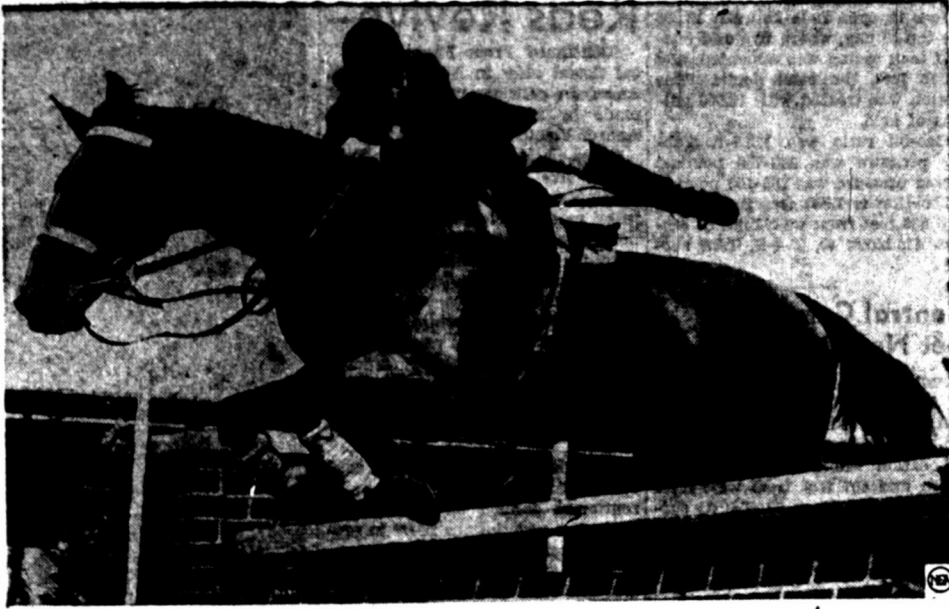

Rugel Motors of El Paso will meet the Odessa-Portales winner in the opening game at 10:30 a. m. Thursday. Midland-winner of the San Angelo subordinate meet—tangles with the Abilene nine at 2 p. m. Thursday. Winners will meet Friday for the title, and a trip to the Regional play at Houston, August 16 and 17.

At least one Midland business house has indicated it will close for the games. C. V. Lyman, oil operator, will close in order that employees may witness the contests.

Winners at Houston will go to Williamsport, Pa., for the Little League World Series—an annual affair.

Bob Collett, Lewis Williams and John Redfern, Jr., will ramrod the tournament here. The Midland team is managed by Bob Hillin.

Clarence L. "Biggie" Munn, head football coach at Michigan State College, was once awarded the Silver Beaver by the Boy Scouts of America for distinguished service to boyhood.

Grantland Rice, sometimes called the Dean of Sports Writers, came up with a pre-season all-America football team a couple of years back and that started it.

Scribes began to pick their teams before a whistle had blown or a squad had pulled on jerseys and blocking pads for the first time.

Recently, a national magazine not only picked a pre-season all-American team, but went so far as to name the "expected outstanding performances," strongest teams by sections and "probable leading scorers."

Before long, some bright young man will name a Spring practice all-America team, if the present trend continues.

Not wishing to be left out of the picking and predicting, we submit our Top Ten for 1952:

1. Ohio State.
2. Dame May Whitty.
3. Grapes.
4. Humming birds.
5. Margaret O'Brien.
6. Creme de menthe.
7. John L. Lewis.
8. Hadaool.
9. Army.
10. Harry Vaughn.

Of course, some of these were particularly hard to choose, as the competition was fierce in some instances. Grapes, for example, almost lost out to oranges. However, it was felt seedless grapes outnumber seedless oranges, thereby the nod went to grapes.

Dame May Whitty was a hard choice. Primo Carnera almost nosed into the No. 2 spot, but his general over-all efficiency and value was placed slightly less than the distinguished individual who got the nod.

Humming birds, too, belonged in the top 10, due to their extreme tastiness when served on toast, but it was difficult to displace the GI Bill of Rights in favor of the small fowl. Still, somehow, we did it.

Army belonged in the top 10 as a result of the publicity it is getting—something necessary for every top 10 chosen. Ohio State merely was picked because it expects to have one of the nation's top football teams—a quality sometimes counted in top 10 voting.

Creme de menthe and Hadaool fought neck and neck for a slot, and the impartial judges finally decided to place both in the top 10.

John L. Lewis, Harry Vaughn and Margaret O'Brien all were placed on the team by popular demand.

The order of the top 10 was obtained in a method fair to all. Judges rolled "high dice" for the honor spots. Anyway, you get the general idea.

Bookmakers Caught In Their Own Net
NEW YORK—A strange ball game attracted the attention of a Brooklyn patrolman. He saw one man tossing a rubber ball up to a second story window where a second man caught it in a net.

Watching revealed the man on the sidewalk took several bets from passers-by, stuffed the slips into a slit in the rubber ball and tossed it to the man with the net.

Both were arrested as bookmakers. Magistrate John F. X. Masterson observed: "This seems to disprove the district attorney's theory that bookies play ball with the cops. They play ball among themselves."

FILLS PITCHING NE EDs— Morgan Is 'New Whitey Ford' Of New York Yankees

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Yankees appear to have come up with a worthy replacement for 21-year-old Eddie Ford. He is 21-year-old Tom Morgan.

One of the reasons critics were predicting the fall of the Yankee empire last Spring was because of Ford's call to the armed forces.

"Where will the Yankees get a replacement for Ford?" They asked. "Who among Casey Stengel's newcomers is going to win those nine games that Ford copped after the Fourth of July?"

Early hopes that Morgan might do it faded when the young right-hander was shipped to Kansas City last May after losing his first start. But Morgan came back after a month of seasoning, and wasted no time filling Ford's shoes.

Stengel started him against Washington on June 28 and he responded by shutting out the Senators, 3-0. Since then he has racked up seven more triumphs without a defeat. His eighth straight came Monday night, a 4-0 white-wash job against the same Senators. It was his third shutout. He won a 1-0 hurling duel from Ned Garver of St. Louis on July 20.

The victory stretched the Yankees' first-place American League lead over second-place Cleveland to one full game and over third-place Boston to four games. Both Cleveland and Boston were idle.

In the only other big league activity, Chicago's fourth-place White Sox whipped the Tigers in Detroit, 10-1. First baseman Eddie Robinson cracked two home runs, a double and single to lead the Sox attack while right-hander Joe Doherty stopped the Tigers with five hits for his seventh win.

Morgan surrendered only five hits, all singles. The Senators staged scoring threats only in the first and eighth innings.

Gil Coan and Mickey Vernon singled in between outs in the first but Sam Mele struck out to end the inning. Pete Runnels singled and Cass Michaels walked to open the eighth, but Morgan retired the next three batters.

Gil McDougald, another Yankee rookie, accounted for the first two runs off former Yankee right-hander Dan Johnson, with his ninth home run to score Yogi Berra in front of him. McDougald drove in the third run with a long fly and Gene Woodling's triple, followed by Bobby Brown's single, closed out the scoring in the seventh.

He says Chandler, out of a clear sky, asked Rickey, early in the going, how much it would hurt the Dodgers if he should throw Leo out of baseball, and that startled tears burst Rickey's eyes.

Perhaps the most sensational charge made by Mann is that Chandler was influenced in his decision against Durocher by a letter from a very important man in Washington whose demands could not be ignored. Mann says that Chandler showed the letter to Rickey and Walter O'Malley, then acting head of the Dodgers.

Durocher, some may recall, had accused Larry MacPhail, then president of the Yankees, of having a couple of well known gamblers as his guests at an exhibition game in Havana. It was that, presumably for which Leo was on trial. Mann insists that all the evidence adduced at the hearings before Chandler tended to prove that the two men were, in fact, sitting in one of several boxes allocated to the Yankees.

Mann doesn't try to pin any wings on Leo. He knows the guy. But he simply says that this was one time where the dandy little manager got the worst of it. He says that the transcripts will support everything he has written—

if Chandler will produce them.

Mann Wants Happy On Hot Seat

NEW YORK—If Arthur Mann, who used to be Branch Rickey's assistant and close confidant, has his way, the baseball hearing down in Washington may yet turn into an extremely interesting and lively production.

Arthur has appointed himself a one-man committee to persuade the House inquiry to dig up the transcript of those two memorable sessions at Sarasota and St. Petersburg in 1947 which resulted in Commissioner Happy Chandler slapping a one-year suspension on Manager Leo Durocher of the Dodgers.

To that end, he has formally wired the presidents of the two major leagues a request that they ask Chandler to produce the transcripts, and he also has strongly recommended to the subcommittee conducting the hearings that it question the ex-commissioner on some aspects of that weird chapter in baseball history.

If they do, he says, it will make rich reading. He claims the boys down in Washington will gain a vivid word picture of how Chandler administered his own brand of justice, without supporting evidence, against a man whom he simply chanced to dislike. It cost Durocher $50,000 in salary.

Mann frankly admits to some prejudice in the matter. He loves Rickey, who was boss of the Brooks at the time Happy teed off on Leo. He does not appear to hold the deposed commissioner in much esteem, and he would like to see the congressmen do a good job on him.

Durocher, some may recall, had accused Larry MacPhail, then president of the Yankees, of having a couple of well known gamblers as his guests at an exhibition game in Havana. It was that, presumably for which Leo was on trial. if Chandler will produce them.

He says Chandler, out of a clear sky, asked Rickey, early in the going, how much it would hurt the Dodgers if he should throw Leo out of baseball, and that startled tears burst Rickey's eyes.

Perhaps the most sensational charge made by Mann is that Chandler was influenced in his decision against Durocher by a letter from a very important man in Washington whose demands could not be ignored. Mann says that Chandler showed the letter to Rickey and Walter O'Malley, then acting head of the Dodgers.

Durocher, some may recall, had accused Larry MacPhail, then president of the Yankees, of having a couple of well known gamblers as his guests at an exhibition game in Havana. It was that, presumably for which Leo was on trial. Mann insists that all the evidence adduced at the hearings before Chandler tended to prove that the two men were, in fact, sitting in one of several boxes allocated to the Yankees.

Mann doesn't try to pin any wings on Leo. He knows the guy. But he simply says that this was one time where the dandy little manager got the worst of it. He says that the transcripts will support everything he has written—

if Chandler will produce them.

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log-Prospect In Irion Gets Salt Water

263 feet from south and east lines of a 407-acre tract in block 509, Wharton County School Land survey, abstract No. 489.
It is scheduled to 4,500 feet. Rotary tools will be moved in and drilling will begin immediately.
Mid-Continent No. 1 Theiford is bottomed at 4,229 feet and is preparing to test and try to complete. Five and one-half inch casing is cemented at 3,800 feet.
Location is 330 feet from south and east lines of the 407 acre lease in Wharton County School Land survey, A-499 and three and three-quarter miles northwest of the Cree-Sykes field.

Glasscock Project Has Show Of Gas And Salt Water

Murphy Corporation and Ashland Oil & Refining Company No. 1 M. L. Couey, Southwest Glasscock County wildcat, 20 miles southwest of Garden City had a show of gas and some indications of salt water in a drillstem test at 8,010-45 feet. The zone tested is in the lower Permian. The tool was open one and one-quarter hours. There was a good blow of air at the start of the test and it continued until gas appeared at the surface at the end of one hour.
The gas was estimated to have been at the rate of 50,000 cubic feet per day. Recovery was 324 feet of gas cut drilling mud.
Chloride content of the recovered mud was 26,000 parts per million. Chloride content of the mud when it went into the hole was 13,000 parts per million. That difference has caused some observers to think that the project may have found a little salt water.
It is now drilling ahead below 8,065 feet in sand and shale.
Up to now the wildcat has not reported having developed possibilities of production. It has penetrated some streaks in the Spraberry which logged slight shows of oil and gas. None of those zones have developed any appreciable amounts of petroleum.
The wildcat is a drill to 11,000 feet to test the Ellenburger.

Gas-oil ratio was 785-1 and tubing pressure was 40 pounds.
Sinclair No. 4-A Little Midkiff, 690 feet from north and 1,990 feet from east lines of section 2, block 38, T-4-S, T&P survey, flowed 24 hours on potential test through open two-inch tubing and made 136 barrels of 35.8-gravity oil and now after completion was from open hole at 7-22-7,206 feet after Hydratrac treatment.
Gas-oil ratio was 740-1 and tubing pressure was 25 pounds.
The same operator will drill No. 16-C Little Midkiff 1,990 feet from north and 690 feet from east lines of section 1, block 38, T&P survey, T-5-S.
Sinclair No. 17-E Little Midkiff will be 1,990 feet from north and west lines of section 12, block 38, T-5-S, T&P survey.
The same operator's No. 18-E Little Midkiff will be 690 feet from the same section.

"We vouch for these young men. They are our sons."
The telegram was disclosed by retired Army Col. Harrison Travis of Atlantic Highlands, N. J., who said parents of 15 accused cadets had formed a "parents committee" to fight for their sons in Washington.
Sub-Panel Starts Probe
In addition to the telegram, Travis, a West Point graduate, said a delegation will appear directly to Defense Secretary Marshall.
Travis, whose son, Harrison, Jr., was a football squad member, said the right of courts martial was denied the 90 cadets. The academy previously said the cadets, as "inferior officers," did not have the right of a commissioned officer to ask a military trial.
While the parents supported their accused sons here, Senator Hoyt (D-N.C.) started the Expenditures subcommittee on its probe. He invited Senate Armed Services Committee members to take over the inquiry, but received no immediate reply.
Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) said the House Armed Services Committee wants none of it.
Several lawmakers - including Senators Welker (R-Idaho), Hunt (D-Wyo), Benton (D-Conn), and Kerr (D-Okl.) - said the West Point faculty must share the blame for the scandal, along with the cadets.

Gas-oil ratio was 1,328-1. Tubing pressure was 850-750 pounds; casing pressure was 200-100 pounds. Location is 1,990 feet from north and 690 feet from west lines of section 43, block 40, T-4-S, T&P survey.

It flowed sulphur water in the Ellenburger. Top of that formation was picked at 5,820 feet. Elevation is 2,335 feet.
Lario No. 1 Magnolia-Harris is the former Hudson & Hudson No. 1 Magnolia-Harris. Those operators drilled the development to 3,750 feet and then made a deal with Lario for that concern to take the wildcat over and deepen it to 6,000 feet or the Ellenburger, or production as a lesser depth.
Location of the dry hole is 330 feet from northwest and 3,300 feet from northeast lines of section 37, block 1, H&TC survey and 12 miles southwest of Crane.

Reds Revive-

cal Soviet offer in November, 1949, American officials recalled. It was made by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky.
Other nations did not trust Russia to live up to its word, these officials said, especially after Vishinsky made it clear Moscow would not agree to United Nations conditions for continuous inspection and international control of atomic energy plants.
Pure Propaganda Gesture
Moscow's move in reviving its proposal was viewed by officials here as "a pure propaganda gesture" designed to persuade the world America and not Russia is blocking world peace.
It obviously is timed, they said, to capitalize on the world peace sentiment fanned by the Korean cease-fire negotiations now in progress. Communist leaders throughout the world can be expected to hail it as part of Russia's current peace offensive.
President Truman and Secretary Acheson, however, are expected to condemn and expose the Russian maneuver at the earliest opportunity.
Truman ordered Russia's resolution and Shvernik's letter made public a few hours after they were received from the Russian Embassy.
Thus far, the American resolution and Truman's letter have been kept secret from the Russian people. The State Department's Voice of America has been broadcasting almost daily challenges to Russia's leaders to make them public if they are not afraid of the truth.
In his personal letter to the President, Shvernik said the conclusion of a Big Five peace pact would have "an exceptionally important significance in the improvement of Soviet-American relations."
Familiar Refrain
He couched this, however, with a familiar propaganda blast:
"The Soviet people has no basis for doubting that the American people also do not want war. However, the Soviet people know well that there exist in some states forces which are striving to unleash a new world war."
The lengthy Russian resolution repeatedly professed Russia's great attachment to peace. Russia, it maintained, has been pursuing this peaceful policy since Nov. 11, 1917, when the Communist state was formed. It added:
"The Soviet Union has no aggressive plans and does not threaten any country or peoples. The armed forces of the Soviet Union are not waging war anywhere and are not taking part in any military actions."
"The peoples of the Soviet Union are completely absorbed in executing the tasks of peaceful reconstruction."
American officials, who are used to Russia's propaganda blasts, scoffed at the last statement. Russia is so "completely absorbed" in peaceful reconstruction tasks, they said ironically, that it has mobilized the following:
1. More than 200 divisions.
2. The largest air force in world peacetime history—20,000 first line aircraft.
3. Almost 3,500,000 troops in Communist China and 1,000,000 in the Eastern European satellites.

In addition to the telegram, Travis, a West Point graduate, said a delegation will appear directly to Defense Secretary Marshall.
Travis, whose son, Harrison, Jr., was a football squad member, said the right of courts martial was denied the 90 cadets. The academy previously said the cadets, as "inferior officers," did not have the right of a commissioned officer to ask a military trial.
While the parents supported their accused sons here, Senator Hoyt (D-N.C.) started the Expenditures subcommittee on its probe. He invited Senate Armed Services Committee members to take over the inquiry, but received no immediate reply.
Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) said the House Armed Services Committee wants none of it.
Several lawmakers - including Senators Welker (R-Idaho), Hunt (D-Wyo), Benton (D-Conn), and Kerr (D-Okl.) - said the West Point faculty must share the blame for the scandal, along with the cadets.

TWIN STORKS VISIT TWIN SISTERS—Keeping up a life-long tradition of doing things together, these twin sisters, Mrs. Lyle Greene, 23, and Mrs. Henry Sybo, each gave birth to a daughter within 24 hours of each other at Lutheran Hospital, Cleveland, O. As Eleanor and Frances Forsythek, the mothers suffered through measles, chickenpox and even tooth extractions together, were high school football beauty queens together. Flying Vacation Of Young Texans Ends In Jail Cell

OKLAHOMA CITY —(P)—Two young job hunters who flew a little plane in and out of farm fields to ask for work were in jail Tuesday. Their dreams of a work-and-fly Summer tour through the West cracked up on a hard fact—the CPA wants its plane back.
Deputy Sheriff Y. V. (Salty) Burks identified the San Antonio youths as Warren Page and Bernard Morris, both 16. They are San Antonio Civil Air Patrol Cadets.
More than 50 CAP and Air Force planes had searched last Wednesday around San Angelo and Waco for the missing craft.
Burks said the boys told him they "just flew off" with the CAP plane from San Antonio for an aerial vacation tour of the West.
The following morning, the lads took off again, making several landings at farms looking for work.
Page said as they neared Oklahoma City "we saw these fellows working in a hay field, so we set the plane down there and asked 'em for a job."
"Later the boys flew the plane to another field and hid it under trees. They worked four days and earned $40 each."
Burks said Page, who did the flying, was a "pretty good pilot," landing the craft "in some pretty rough fields."
The boys were turned over to the FBI.

Displaced Farmers Seeking U. S. Homes

WASHINGTON (AP)—American farmers with labor problems can find a solution in the skilled European farmers now coming into this country from countries under the Communist yoke.

Rigidity tested by U. S. agricultural experts on their practical farming experience, the displaced farmers are mostly of German origin who were thrown off their farms by Communists. They are willing to start at the bottom as American farm workers. The more than 1,000 displaced farmers are dairymen, poultrymen, cattlemen, wheat and corn farmers, truck farmers and hog raisers, for the most part.

Persons interested in sponsoring a displaced farmer may obtain more information by writing to the Displaced Persons Commission, Washington 25, D. C., or to their state Displaced Persons Commission.

Ranch Style, 3-Bedroom
IN BEDFORD PLACE—NEAR COUNTRY CLUB

All of the refined features you have wished for are to be found in this beautiful red brick ranch style home, just completed by Edwin Brown at 1203 Princeton. Let us take you on a tour through this lovely home. Entering through the front door you step into an entrance-way with cloak and hat closet immediately to your left. A few steps to the right and you are in a cosy den with wood-burning fireplace, built-in book cases and lots of light streaming in through the windows that line one wall; is of knotty pine throughout that lends an atmosphere of coziness and comfort. A doorway from the den leads into the kitchen that is a domestic's dream, with multiple storage space, tile drains, double sink, hooded space over cook stove that has electrically controlled vent fan, connections for either gas or electric range, electric wall plugs galore, large closet for washing machine and another large closet for water softener and water heater. Also has circulating hot water. Adjoining the kitchen is a spacious breakfast nook from which a door opens into the large double garage, while another door leads into the dining room.

After entering the front door, a turn to the left leads one down a hallway past two huge clothes closets and the two large tiled bathrooms on the one side and the three spacious bedrooms on the other. One bath is with shower, dressing table, built-in mirror and modernistic fixtures. The master bedroom is of pink and gray tile, tub and very modern appointments. Here, too are to be found two other spacious closets. The bedrooms, all with southern exposures, are decorated in subdued, harmonizing colors. The large living room, which is situated between the bedrooms and the dining room, has a wood-burning fireplace, and practically all glass southern exposure. Double louver doors lead into the dining room, while French doors lead from the dining room onto the large back terrace. This home has best grade clear Redwood floors throughout, beautifully finished. Three phone jacks are an added convenience. A system of ducts connect all rooms for air conditioning. The large double garage has 9-ft. overhead doors and an enclosed 5'x20' storage room across the rear. The house and garage is 104 ft. frontage. The built-up double wood shingle roof has 3 ¼ ft. overhang all around. Terraced lot. Frontage is 120 ft. by 140 ft. deep. Prohibition Is Top Issue In Mississippi Primary Balloting

JACKSON, MISS.—Eight candidates, including a woman, sought the governorship of Mississippi in the Democratic primary Tuesday.

Liquor is illegal in Mississippi, and legislation was one of the principal campaign issues.

In one-party Mississippi, nomination in the Democratic primary is equivalent to election. If no candidate gets a majority in Tuesday's primary, the two top candidates go into a run-off primary August 28.

Term of office, beginning in January, is four years.

Gov. Fielding L. Wright, who bolted the regular Democratic Party in 1948 to become the States Rights' vice-presidential nominee, is not a candidate for reelection as under Mississippi law, a governor cannot succeed himself in office.

All gubernatorial candidates espoused the cause of States Rights.

A former governor, Hugh White, who served from 1936 to 1940, is among the candidates. Also seeking the nomination is Paul Johnson, Jr., whose late father was governor in 1940-44. Jesse Byrd, who ran third in a field office candidates in the 1947 primary when Wright won the nomination, is in the race again. The present lieutenant governor, Sam Lumpkin, also seeks the chief executive's post.

For the first time in the history of the state a woman is in the race. She is Mrs. Mary Cain, editor of a weekly newspaper at Summit, Miss.

Two Bone Dry Candidates

The other candidates are three attorneys—Ross Barnett, Kelly Hammond and Jimmy Walker.

Two of the candidates are bone dry. They are Barnett and Johnson. Barnett told the voters crime, highway accidents and alcoholism were more prevalent in wet states than in Mississippi. Johnson would oust sheriffs who fail to enforce the state's prohibition law.

Walker said the state has "the biggest alcoholic ward in the world," and called prohibition "a farce."

Byrd said legalization of liquor would provide taxes for needed improvements.

White, who votes dry, argued that prohibition is a matter for the legislature.

Lumpkin, with an unbroken dry record in his 20 years in the legislature, said he "would not stand in the way of referendum" submitted to the people on the liquor question. He said "I have an idea how the people will vote."

Mrs. Cain also believes in a state referendum, with a clause permitting local option in counties.

Hammond endorsed the idea of a referendum.

Midland Doctor Wife Steps Into Shoes Of Chiropodist Husband In Service

It may not be unusual for a wife to carry on for her husband when he is called into military service of his country.

But it is unusual when the woman takes over the exact work of the departed bread-winner.

Dr. Virginia Johnson of Midland, a chiropodist, has carried on the practice of her husband, Dr. A. V. Johnson, since he was recalled to active duty in October of 1950.

Captain Johnson is in Korea, stationed near Seoul with a medical battalion of the First Cavalry Division. He is eligible for rotation return to the United States in September, having gone overseas in January, 1951.

Captain Johnson was a member of a reserve officers unit called to duty in 1950 and is a veteran of World War II, during which he served four years.

The Johnsons came to Midland in July, 1948, and his office was opened on North Main Street.

"It still is open," Mrs. Johnson proudly says.

On page 38 of Life Magazine (May issue), Mrs. Johnson saw a picture of her husband. Of all things—he had a foot injury. He had not mentioned the incident in his frequent letters.

Eager to have their daddy home again are the two Johnson children—Jimmy, aged six, and Patty, four. Captain Johnson grew up in Baltimore, Mrs. Johnson in Snyder. They met while at school. She practiced chiropody in Dallas from 1939 to 1941 when he was in World War II service.

From Dallas, the Johnsons moved to Lubbock.

Mrs. Johnson is a graduate of the Illinois College of Chiropody and Foot Surgery.

Capital Police Nab 'Celluloid' Robber

WASHINGTON —(AP)—A well-dressed young man stepped inside a plush Connecticut Avenue apartment. He stammered, "I . . . must have made a mistake."

"I sure know you did," retorted Detective William Schilling, planted there to spring a trap on the capital's "celluloid" robber.

Police identified the young man as Kenneth C. von der Heide, 31. Inspector Robert V. Murray said he talked freely about three years of fast and easy house breaking which netted him jewelry, silver, furs and cash.

He used a piece of celluloid to trip the locks of some 250 apartments and hotel rooms, police said. Municipal Court Judge Thomas C. Scalley Monday night ordered him held under $20,000 bond.

School Projects Almost Completed

ANDREWS — When the 1951-52 school term opens on Labor Day, a new shop building and an addition to the Junior High School will be completed, according to an announcement by Supt. Thomas D. Hamilton.

The new gymnasium now under construction probably will be finished by November, Hamilton said.

The new buildings are modern structures of brick and tile and will help to relieve the school system's crowded condition.

Housed in the shop building will be a woodworking room, metal shop, auto mechanic shop, mechanical drawing room, photography department and a room in which radio and electricity will be taught.

Also in the shop building will be two lecture rooms and a finishing room for projects, in addition to office and storage rooms.

Approximately $30,000 worth of equipment has been purchased for this building with an additional $25,000 to $30,000 in equipment still to be bought.

The Junior High School building has had a complete face-lifting with new interior paint and furniture. A living room is being added to the homemaking department.

The new gymnasium will seat 1,200 persons.

Hamilton said five of 10 vacancies on the faculty were filled at a recent board meeting. Vacancies still existing are for art instructor, music teacher, for higher elementary grades, shop teacher, and sixth and first grade teachers.

Defendant In Traffic Injury Suit Denies Negligence In Mishap

Clarice P. Alexander, named as defendant in a $119,000 damage suit growing out of a traffic accident last February 15, Monday denied formally he was negligent in the collision.

The suit was brought by W. D. Turner and his wife, Ethel Turner, on July 3.

The Turner petition alleged Mrs. Turner received neck and spine injuries and a brain concussion as a result of a collision between her car and one driven by Alexander.

The suit said the accident occurred at the intersection of Big Spring and Florida Streets.

Murder, Suicide Attempt Ruled In Double Shooting

EDINBURG, TEXAS —(AP)—A pretty red-haired former waitress was shot to death and an automobile salesman critically wounded Monday.

Justice J. M. Chapa ruled murder in the death of Mrs. Dorothy K. Buster, 44, and attempted suicide in the shooting of Earl P. Fritch, 53.

Police Chief Fred Hunt said Mrs. Buster was "shot more than once."

He said he hadn't filed charges against Fritch because "I don't think it will be necessary."

Attendants said Fritch barely was "hanging on."

The shooting occurred in Mrs. Buster's apartment.

Fritch lived in San Juan, but worked in McAllen. He is married and has a son and two daughters.

Nation's Crude Oil Flow Dips Despite Big Gain In Texas

TULSA —(AP)—The nation's crude oil production dropped an average of 6,705 barrels daily during the week ended August 4 to a total of 6,126,200 a day. The Oil & Gas Journal said Tuesday.

Kansas topped the decline with a fall of 20,650 barrels to 310,300.

Other losers were Illinois, down 4,500 to 184,900; the Appalachian fields, off 1,500 to 38,500; Louisiana, 975 to 611,500; Michigan, 600 to 30,500; Colorado, 300 to 71,800; Mississippi, 250 to 100,250; and Arkansas, 190 to 76,750.

A lot of the loss was offset by a 19,255-barrel boost in Texas production, whose daily average totaled 2,760,675 barrels.

Also with healthy gains were Indiana, up 2,500 to 32,500; Oklahoma, up 2,000 to 508,750; and California and Wyoming, each up 600 barrels to 979,200 and 195,200.

Nebraska advanced 150 to 6,400, and 100-barrel gains each gave Alabama 3,050 barrels, Florida 1,825, Kentucky 30,400, Montana 23,400 and Utah 4,100.

New Mexico eased ahead 75 barrels to 147,200.

August demand was estimated at 2,690,000 barrels for Texas, 85,000 for Arkansas, 671,000 for Louisiana, 154,000 for New Mexico and 530,000 for Oklahoma.

Defense To Seek Prompt Trial For Slayer Of Father

DALLAS —(AP)—An early trial is in prospect for John Michael Hawkins, 16, who admitted slaying his wealthy father.

Defense Attorney J. E. Newberry said Monday, "We will probably work for an early trial."

Hawkins told police he killed his sleeping father, Wallace E. Hawkins, at their suburban estate early Sunday. The boy will be 17 February 11.

Until that time, he cannot be tried on a murder charge under Texas laws. He may be held in juvenile detention home until his twenty-first birthday if no murder charge is filed.

Hawkins was a former state legislator for Runnels County and one-time assistant attorney general.

Young Hawkins, at one point during questioning, said: "He kept after me about staying out late at night."

Services for Hawkins, 56, a vice president and general counsel of the Magnolia Petroleum Company, were to be held here Tuesday.

Later services and interment will be held in Austin Wednesday.

Government Will Renew Plea For Natural Gas Curbs

WASHINGTON —(AP)—Officials from 15 states have been called here Thursday, perhaps to hear a government plea for cooperation in restricting the use of natural gas.

They are from states which have natural gas control laws. The recently passed Defense Production Act provides that natural gas controls do not apply in such states.

Officials of the Petroleum Administration for Defense (PAD), concerned over a possible natural gas shortage, reportedly are drafting an order prohibiting use of natural gas in newly-constructed homes, and requiring licensing for industries. PAD has said a steel shortage, curbing pipe line construction, has restricted gas supply.
