Gulf Oil Is Preparing To Plug West Texas' Deepest Oil Project

Gulf Oil Corporation is preparing to plug and abandon its No. 1 Theo Winfield, et al, the deepest petroleum exploration ever drilled in West Texas.

The prospector penetrated to a total depth of 15,468 feet in an unidentified, barren shale, and operator then ordered it plugged.

At the total depth of 15,468 feet Gulf No. 1 Winfield is 189 feet deeper than Phillips Petroleum Company No. 1 Ada C. Price, another dry hole 12 miles to the south-east.

Deeper Than No. 1 Price

The Phillips No. 1 Price had held the West Texas depth record until about a week ago when the Gulf wildcat progressed below 15,279 feet, which was the bottom of the hole on the Phillips failure which was abandoned in 1944.

Phillips No. 1 Price, located in section 11, block 101, TC survey found the Eilenburger—but encountered no shows of production in that formation.

Found No Eilenburger

Gulf No. 1 Winfield had not encountered the Eilenburger in digging to 15,468 feet.

It is located nine miles southeast of Fort Stockton and 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from west lines of the south half of section 3, block 132, T&STL survey.

No formation markers on the deep dry hole have yet been officially released.

Wilshire Completes Sixth And Largest Oilier In Upton Field

The Wilshire Oil Company has completed its No. 24-129 McElroy as the sixth and largest producer in the Wilshire-Ellenburger field in West-Central Upton County.

This new oil well is one location west of the opener of the field.

The development reported a 24-hour potential of 4,150 barrels of 33.2-gravity oil and no water flowing through a one-inch opening on tubing. The potential was based on an actual flow of 2,421 barrels of oil in 14 hours.

Gas-oil ratio was 696-1. Flowing tubing pressure during the completion test was 600 pounds.

From Open Hole

The production came from open hole at 12,076-12,296 feet. That section had been washed with 1,000 gallons of mud acid.

Top of the Eilenburger is at 12,075 feet, which is a datum point of minus 9270 feet. That makes the new Wilshire well 43 feet low on the top of the Eilenburger to Sinclair Oil & Gas Company No. 1 McElroy, opener of the field.

Location of the new producer is 660 feet from south and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 129, block D, CCSD&RONG survey. It is 18 miles northwest of Rankin and about the same distance northeast of McCamey.

The seven-inch casing is cemented at 12,076 feet. Total depth drilled is 12,296 feet.

Dr. M. M. Leighton, chief of the Illinois Geological Society, will be guest speaker for the West Texas Geological Society's first fall meeting in the City-County Auditorium in Midland Friday night.

His appearance in Midland is sponsored by the Distinguished Lecture Committee of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists.

He will discuss the subject "Natural Resources and Geological Surveys."

W. Dave Henderson, president of the WTGS will preside at the Friday night meeting, which will start at 8 p.m.

Spraberry Trend In Midland, Glasscock Gets Two Wildcats

One and one-quarter miles north of the closest production in the southwest side of the Driver-Spraberry field of Southeast Midland County, Sharples Oil Corporation spotted location for a 7,300-foot Spraberry wildcat.

It will be drilled as No. 1-F TKL, 660 feet from south and west lines of the southeast quarter of section 22, block 37, T-4-S, T&P survey.

Paul F. Barnhart of Houston No. 1-25 M. L. Conroy is a new wildcat exploration in Southwest Glasscock County.

Cold Front Pushes Into West Texas

By The Associated Press

A cold front from Colorado moved deeper into Texas Friday.

The front, dropping temperatures as much as 10 degrees, hit the Panhandle around midnight. It had moved south of Lubbock by daybreak.

The front traced a line between Childress and Hobart, Okla., Friday morning, showing a north-to-south face to East Texas. The Weather Bureau said this indicates the front's movement to East Texas will be slow, while West Texas will feel lower temperatures earlier.

Winds Shift To North

At Salt Flat, Wichita Falls and west toward El Paso, winds were shifting to mild northers ahead of the front.

Winds up to 30 miles and blowing dust hit Lubbock.

The front was expected to cover the Panhandle area, the South Plains and the north part of East Texas by Saturday morning. It will move farther south Saturday.

The highest temperature reported Thursday was 104 at Presidio. The low maximum was 85 at Galveston and Brownsville.

Overnight temperatures ranged from 78 at Brownsville to 52 degrees at Amarillo and Dalhart.

Rain in Texas Thursday was limited largely to the coast. Beaumont had 35 inch, Corpus Christi 57, Galveston 23, Victoria 58 and Pinalco 49.

House Votes Salary Hikes For 1,500,000 Government Workers

WASHINGTON—(AP)—More than a million and a half postal employees and government white collar workers could look forward Friday to around $400 a year more in their pay envelopes from now on.

Three pay increase bills retroactive to July 1 and totaling $670,000,000 annually were shouted through by the House in rapid-fire order late Thursday.

The Senate had approved almost similar measures earlier—one of the biggest pay boosts ever given federal employees at one time—and a Senate-House compromise Committee must iron out the differences.

The pay increases voted Thursday were to help government workers—especially those in the lower pay brackets—offset the rising cost of living.

About 500,000 employees of the postal service get the basic $400 pay boost, although new employees entering the service will get as much as $700. Postal employees who have not received an advancement in the three lowest pay grades since 1945 would get $600.

Tax Benefits Granted To Aid Texas Project

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The drive for expansion of aluminum capacity got a major boost Friday with approval of tax benefits to help the Aluminum Company of America complete a $115,000,000 project in Texas.

The plant, to be located in Milam County, near Rockdale, will produce primary aluminum, the Defense Production Administration said.

The new aluminum project was certified for 80 per cent of the plant cost.

Printing Firm Head Says Boyle Hired In Case 'Some Things Might Develop'

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The head of American Lithofold Corporation Friday testified he was told his company gave $90 cameras as "good will gestures" to several government officials. Those he named included Presidential Secretary Matthew J. Connelly and William M. Boyle, Jr.

Robert J. Blauner, president of the St. Louis printing firm, said his information came from Cecil Green, the company's Washington representative.

Blauner told Senate investigators Green named Turney Graiz, one-time assistant to Boyle, and Frank Prince, recently ousted RFC loan official, among others who received gift cameras.

McGee Sanity Trial Moved To Midland On Change Of Venue

LUBBOCK—(AP)—Richard McGee, condemned slayer of a father who rejected him as a possible son-in-law, will have his sanity tested in Midland October 13, before Judge R. W. (Bob) Hamilton in 70th District Court.

Judge Victor Lindsey Thursday ordered McGee's sanity hearing moved to Midland on a change of venue based on the "constitutional question of whether the defendant could get a fair trial in Lubbock County."

McGee, bearded and openly pleading sanity at Thursday's hearing, was sentenced to die for the 1948 slaying of R. L. Allison. The shooting followed an argument between McGee and the Allison family over his attentions to Betty Jane Allison, 18 at the time.

Interrupts Court

The Pampa man was clad in a gray sweatshirt and khaki trousers when Lindsey ordered the change of venue. He interrupted the court to ask questions.

"Judge, may I ask you a couple of questions?" he blurted out.

"Yes sir."

"Can they try me for insanity if I don't want to be tried for insanity?" McGee asked.

"Sure."

"Can I reject the trial?"

"I don't think so, Richard."

"Can I plead sanity, myself?"

"You can plead anything you want to, as I understand the law."

"Can I demand to get on the witness stand to prove my sanity?"

"I don't think we will gain anything by further discussion on this matter, Richard," he said.

McGee sat down. "Okay," he said.

Polio Bounces Back To Summer Brackets

AUSTIN—(AP)—Polio bounced back into its summertime high brackets last week.

The State Health Department Friday reported 87 new cases for the week ended September 15. This was 14 higher than in the preceding week.

The state's total for the year rose to 1,283 cases.

Young Vandenberg Moved To Washington

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—Lt. Hoyt Vandenberg, Jr., son of the Air Force chief of staff, was transferred Thursday to Walter Reed Army Hospital at Washington for treatment of auto collision injuries suffered near here September 10.

Vandenberg was a student pilot at Hondo AFB. He suffered fractures of the left thigh and elbow.

Bowie Ripped By $200,000 Blaze

BOWIE, TEXAS—(AP)—Fire destroyed most of a downtown Bowie business block before dawn Friday.

The stubborn blaze began about 1:30 a.m. and roared out of control three and a half hours despite efforts of firemen from four North Texas cities.

The blaze began in the two-story, brick Garrett Furniture Company. It raced through this building to the nearby Bowie Bakery Building and leaped to other structures.

At 5 a.m. the fire was pronounced under control. Hours later small blazes still were breaking out and canned food still was exploding intermittently from the heat.

Fire Chief Alvin Baccus estimated damage at $200,000. Mayor David Major estimated it at $160,000.

Bowie is a city of about 5,000 persons in North Texas, about 6 miles northwest of Fort Worth. Firemen from nearby Decatur, North Texas and Henrietta helped fight the blaze.

Seven Firms Affected

Seven business firms were burned out or damaged. The Garrett Furniture Building was destroyed. The fire then raced into the Bowie Bakery Building, destroying the John Lanekaster Barber Shop, the Ira Cafe and Apartments, the Merchants Wholesale Grocery, and The Bowie News.

Damaged firms included the Center and Whitecotton Grocery, the Montague County Co-Op and Lovell's Laundry. Most suffered roof damage. The laundry building cracked and was declared unsafe.

The burned buildings were on Smythe Street, one street off Main Street.

Garrett, owner of the furniture company, said he believed the fire started in wiring at the rear of his store.

Army To Buy Beef In Foreign Nations Outside Soviet Bloc

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Army Friday ordered the purchase of up to 10,000,000 pounds of beef in foreign countries outside the Soviet bloc.

A request to domestic packers for bids on 13,000,000 pounds of boneless beef brought offers of only 190,000 pounds from two small packers.

Major packers refused to bid, citing government price controls and a shortage of high quality beef as the reason.

An Army announcement said the action was designed to "insure an uninterrupted flow of meat to Army, Navy and Air Force personnel overseas who are normally supplied from Eastern Seaboard points."

The Army did not specify countries where the beef would be purchased. It said it was asking bids from representatives of all potential suppliers of large quantities of beef in countries other than those of the Soviet bloc.

This apparently could include Argentina, one of the world's biggest producers. Germany, Spain and other Western European and South American nations.

George Turns Deaf Ear To President's Tax Hike Request

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman's request for $4,500,000,000 more in taxes than the Senate Finance Committee recommended brought this reply Friday from Committee Chairman George (D-Ga.):

"Not one more cent, as far as I am concerned."

The veteran senator added he is confident the Senate will approve without substantial change the estimated $3,506,000,000 tax increase voted by his committee.

Brakes Save Man From Drunken Driving

A 48-year-old man landed in jail early Friday because his brakes were too good.

Police Lt. Chester Sprague, on routine patrol, suddenly sniffed the air and detected the odor of burning rubber.

Stopping to investigate, he found the man trying his best to pull away from the curb. But his emergency brakes were locked and the automobile wouldn't budge.

Investigating further, Lieutenant Sprague found the driver too drunk to know what was wrong and booked him on charges of drunkenness.

Oil Expert Drops Hints Of Rationing

JENNINGS, LA.—(AP)—The U. S. government's top oil expert Friday hinted broadly that gasoline and oil rationing may be necessary next Winter unless petroleum output is increased.

Bruce K. Brown, deputy administrator of the Petroleum Administration for Defense, warned that free-market defenses may collapse unless petroleum production is hiked.

Brown said in a speech that if the oil industry is denied the steel it needs for expansion, "it is only a question of time before there will be a new wave of protests from automobile owners and home owners heating with oil."

Conclusion Inescapable

"That conclusion is not a happy one with all its implications of rationing, but it is inescapable," he added.

Brown, at Louisiana's celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of its oil industry, said oil production must be increased "not just here, but in every friendly nation in the world."

"The alternative could all too easily be a collapse of the closely intertwined defense of the free world," he said.

Brown said free-world oil production lost 610,000 barrels a day when Iran's Abadan Refinery closed June 20. He added that this has been particularly offset.

Brown said: "We cannot go on dipping into stockpiles indefinitely. We urged expanded production as mandatory—and soon."

"When Winter weather strikes and United States demands for oil go up, the strain will be on," he said.

"Since the first quarter of 1951 we have been rocking along with a supply of steel about 75 per cent of the amount that the oil and gas industry was using in the months just before the Korean invasion."

"Unless the situation is bettered, and soon, we are in for trouble."

Parade, Free Movie Slated On National Kids Day Saturday

The Midland Junior High School Band, followed by a fire truck and members of the police department, will lead a parade Saturday morning in observance of National Kids Day here.

The parade will leave the junior high school at 9:15 a.m. and proceed on Illinois Street, to Main Street. It will move on Main Street to Texas and West on Texas to the Yucca Theater, where a free movie will be shown for all elementary and junior high school-age students.

"Down to the Sea in Ships," plus a color cartoon, "Texas Tom," will be shown.

Sponsored by the Kiwanis International and the National Kids Day Foundation, the program Saturday has been set aside to focus attention upon the problems and accomplishments of youth throughout the United States.

Midland Mayor Perry Pickett issued a formal proclamation declaring Saturday National Kids Day and called on all citizens to cooperate to the best of their abilities in making the event a success.

Jim Wheeler is chairman of the Kiwanis Boys and Girls Committee in Midland and is in charge of arranging Saturday's show.

11 Known Dead, 45 Injured When Train Jumps Tracks

WEEDON, ENGLAND.—(AP)—A speeding express train jumped the tracks here Friday, smashing five coaches and killing at least 11 persons, including an unidentified U. S. Air Force corporal.

Another 45 passengers on the 15-coach train, bound from Liverpool to London, were injured.

Earlier, police had said 20 persons were killed.

The accident occurred as the train was leaving Stowe Hill Tunnel, half a mile south of here on the main London-Liverpool line.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The House Rules Committee Friday cleared for House debate a bill expanding the lending power of the Export-Import Bank by $1,000,000,000.

ATHENS—(AP)—An invitation to Greece to join the Atlantic alliance in its expanded form, which also will include Turkey, was hailed by press and political leaders here Friday as "the only real guarantee of our security."

MANILA—(AP)—The Manila Times correspondent in Laguna Friday night reported that Gov. Gregorio Santayana of Quezon Province had been released by a kidnap gang which seized him Wednesday.

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—Manly Fleischmann, the nation's defense production chief, Friday told the AFL convention here the U. S. has the capacity to pour out 30,000 tanks and 50,000 planes a year—plus strategic stockpiles "to carry us through a year of total war."

Three Tank Columns Hit Staging Area

EIGHTH ARMY, KOREA—(AP)—Allied armored columns jabbed into the north corner of the old Communist Iron Triangle in Central Korea Friday, shot up everything in sight and then withdrew for the night.

It was, perhaps, the heaviest armored thrust of the war. Infantrymen followed the tanks into action.

Elements of three Allied divisions smashed northward within a short distance of Pyongyang, apex of the triangular area used last Spring as a massive build-up area by the Chinese and Korean Reds.

One tank-infantry column north of Chorwon, the southwest corner of the triangle, met only light resistance from Reds lining the hills.

A second armored column met bitter opposition north of Kumhwa after poking northward only a mile. "It seemed as though the Reds had anti-tank guns in every nook and corner of the valley," an officer said.

The toughest resistance was met by the third tank-tipped column, northeast of Kumhwa. The column ran into a hall of anti-tank fire near a town and a "knockdown dragout" battle ensued.

'Operation Cleaver'

The armored thrusts on the central front were the first heavy Allied attacks in that sector since the Communist offensive last May was rolled back.

The thrusts were dubbed "Operation Cleaver." But they were not labeled officially an offensive. Rather they were armored raids.

Pyongyang, apex of the triangle which also is bounded by the key cities of Chorwon on the southwest and Kumhwa on the southeast, is 28 miles north of Parallel 38.

Bitter fighting flared across 80 miles of the Korean front, all the way from the triangle area eastward to the Sea of Japan.

On the east-central front, the Reds hurled fresh troops into the bloody "Battle of the Hills." They stopped the month-old Allied advance in its tracks.

Only local patrol clashes were reported from the western front.

UN Delays Answer On Truce Talks

TOKYO—(AP)—Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway Friday withheld his answer to a Communist proposal to resume the Korean truce talks at Kaesong.

But while the move to resume armistice talks hung fire, Allied armor roared out loudly across the Korean battlefield.

The battle of words over how to get the wheel of peace revolving was as quiet as the actual battle was loud.

Even Red China's Peiping radio—the Communist sounding board that pours out tens of thousands of words each day in anti-United Nations command propaganda—was notably silent.

Hopes Rise High

There was only a dribble of hashed-over complaints of Kaesong neutrality violations where torrents used to flow.

Meanwhile, hope rode high in Tokyo and at the advance UN command camp near Munsan that the truce talks would be reopened despite Ridgway's silence and the rising crescendo of action along the battlefield.

There still was no definite indication when the supreme Allied commander would answer the message of Thursday from the Red leaders, North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung and Chinese Gen. Peng Teh-Huai.

A spokesman in Ridgway's public information office said he still was awaiting word that the commander in chief has begun drafting his answer. The answer was expected in 24 to 48 hours.

Ridgway's delay may be deliberate for psychological reasons. He may want to let the Communists sweat it out a few days before giving the UN reply.

Fires Damage Two Abilene Recreation Spots Early Friday

ABILENE—(AP)—Two Abilene recreation centers were damaged early Friday in fires which raged simultaneously for a few minutes.

The Bowling Palace, in downtown Abilene, was damaged severely when a blaze broke out about 12:25 a.m. H. M. Wight, operator, said each of his eight alleys was valued at about $3,500 and all were heavily damaged.

Five hundred seats in the left field bleachers and a portion of fence were destroyed at Blue Sox Stadium. Firemen answered the call to the stadium at 12:39 a.m. while still fighting the Bowling Palace blaze.

The second game in the final round of the West Texas-New Mexico League Shagunnessy playoffs will be played here Friday night despite the fire, Mack Eplen, one of the owners said.

Eplen could not estimate the loss.

A barn under construction at Municipal Airport suffered light damage in a blaze reported minutes before the Bowling Palace alarm.

Mossadegh Said Ready To Postpone British Ultimatum

TEHRAN, IRAN.—(AP)—Informed sources Friday said Premier Mohammed Mossadegh is dropping plans to send Britain an ultimatum on the stalled oil talks until after the British election next month.

A note demanding the reopening of negotiations which were broken off last month will go to London soon—but minus the threat to expel within 15 days the last British oil technicians left in Iran, it was reported reliably.

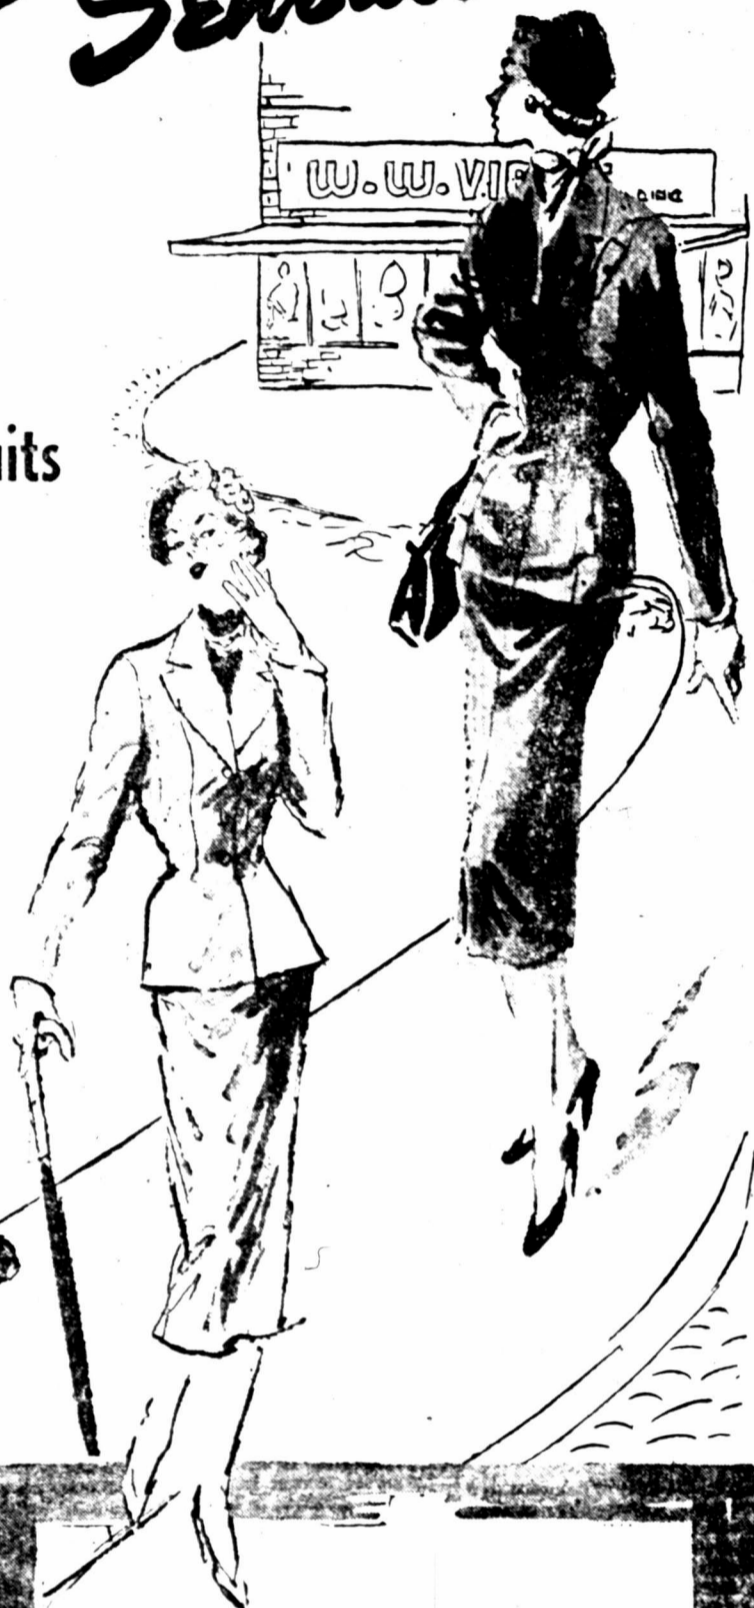

The switch in tactics is said to be based on Mossadegh's belief Prime Minister Clement Attlee could not make any further compromise with Iran while fighting the election against the Conservatives. The main opposition party, led by Winston Churchill, has advocated a tougher policy with Iran.

Docile Danielle Darrieux Is Past Temperamental Stage

By ESKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD—Behind the Screen: Danielle Darrieux, the human volcano in the temperamental league, informed me today she's past the door-slammings, foot-stamping stage of her career.

The new docile Danielle, back in Hollywood as James Mason's leading lady in "Five Fingers," whispered: "When I was young, I was real temperamental. I must say I am ver' calm now. I learn to be calm. People not understand I am also very shy. When I don't know people, I am like wild animal. I hide from people."

She admitted she had erupted a smidgen when she found out that MGM had brought her from Paris to play Jane Powell's mother in "Rich, Young and Pretty" earlier this year.

Ben Franke said, "they say I have much courage to play mother part. They know me so well since 20 years. They know I can't be no more of beg girl like Jane Powell. They say, 'Ah, Darrieux, she must be amuse herself.'"

Any Paris gowns to give Hollywood movie queens the blinks? Danielle signed: "En Franke" said, "they say weath pants and animal. I hate the outside life. Anyhow, Paris gowns are much too expensive. Eyes only reach South American girls weath diamonds who buy those gowns. Not French girls!"

Real Progressive
"I'm just a modern gent. I'm all for the new thing."
Famed stage star Walter Hampden talking out loud about his experiences in TV.

"It's difficult and you keep wishing that you could do a scene over, but I find it exciting," said the actor who played "Cyrano" before Jose Ferrer was born. "Funny thing, I'm new to TV fans. They're all young people who never heard of me."

Hampden had his chance at movie fame as a matinee idol back in 1921 when he was offered a contract to do Hall Craine's "The Christian."

"I turned it down. Sometimes I wonder what would have happened if I had come to Hollywood then. I'd have a different life, I'm sure."

Grant Withers doesn't know whether to go ha-ha or boo-boo. A total of 48 of his old movies are playing the TV circuits and the bill for his fan mail gets bigger every month.

"I'd been going along for years paying 12 bucks a month for routine service," Grant spilled it. "All of a sudden all these old pictures hit TV and I get a fan mail bill for $84. Then the bill jumps to $100 and $200. TV is going to break me."

Grant's playing small character roles at Republic these days and has been promised a whack at holding production reins. Until TV came along to remind him of it he had put behind him the glory of having been a leading man to Billie Dove, Corinne Griffith, Dolores Costello and Lois Wilson.

"I'm not bitter about not being a star today," Grant, who was once wed to Loretta Young, told me. "I'd rather sweep out a sound stage than be a bank president."
On Being Happy

"I became a director because it was what I wanted to do. If other women directors crack through that's fine. But I had no thought of helping my own sex when I became a director."

Ida Lupino talking on the set of "Day Without End" at RKO.
Ida's right up there with Eleanor Roosevelt, Claire Booth Luce and Margaret Chase Smith as a heroine of womankind, but—

"But I still maintain," grinned Ida, "that it's a man's world and I'm glad to be in it."

I didn't know it until Piper Laurie told me, but there's a passel of newborn babies being tagged with her name.

The woods, it seems are full of Piper O'Berens, Piper Papadopoulos and Piper Pomerantz.

"I guess I started something," giggled Piper, who's co-starring for the last time with Tony Curtis in UI's "The Son of Ali Baba."

"We split up after this. I think it's a good idea from the long point of view—better for us and for the studio, too."

Romance or career for the flame-haired newcomer?
"I'm not wise enough to put anything first," Piper confessed. "If I fall in love, there's just nothing I can do about it."

Frankie Beats Wife Nancy To Draw By Filing Divorce Suit

LAS VEGAS, NEV.—(AP)—Crooner Frank Sinatra has beaten his wife, Nancy, to the punch by filing his divorce suit in Nevada before she institutes hers in California.

But he's not going to marry Ava Gardner until Mrs. Sinatra gets her interlocutory decree. In fact, Sinatra and Miss Gardner pulled stakes Thursday night and returned to Hollywood, where, he said, he planned to talk to his estranged wife.

Mrs. Sinatra's California decree is scheduled to be issued about October 8.

Sinatra has told friends he and Ava will be married in about three weeks, when he returns from New York television show commitments.

American Airlines Buys New Planes
The purchase of 24 DC-6B passenger planes and 6 DC-6A cargo planes, at an equipment investment of $35,000,000, for delivery in 1953 was announced Friday by the board of Directors of American Airlines, Inc.

The contract, with the Douglas Aircraft Company, is in addition to the 17 DC-6B's which are being delivered to American this year at an investment in excess of $19,000,000.

When both orders of DC-6B's and the DC-6A's are delivered, American will have increased its number of seats available by 37 per cent and doubled its cargo capacity. The DC-6B's carry 52 passengers and 8,000 pounds of cargo, 4,000 more than the DC-6's. The DC-6A Airfreighters carry 27,000 pounds of cargo.

Delivery will bring America's fleet to 158 planes, including 45 standard DC-6's, 4 DC-6 Air Coaches, 75 twin-engine Constans, and 13 four-engine DC-4 Airfreighters.

American's completely postwar fleet of passenger planes is the largest of any airline in the world.

Shore stations usually can track down a break in a trans-oceanic cable to within half a mile.

Nickels For Parking

A five-cent piece, the lowly nickel, if you please, doesn't buy many of the things it once did, but it still is an important and essential coin when it comes to parking meter operation.

The City of Midland, for instance, takes something like $1,000 a week from its parking meters. Broken down into nickels, that is a lot of five-cent pieces.

Perhaps that is one reason why motorists, particularly women, seldom have a nickel when tying up at a parking meter—parallel or otherwise.

And that turn is responsible for a spirited "change" service in most downtown business establishments daily.

Now, merchants do not complain about providing this free service to motorists, but it does require a certain amount of time and the "stocking" of an adequate supply of nickels to meet the ever-increasing demand.

One businesswoman suggested recently that all stores, particularly grocery stores, see to it that nickels always are given in change as a means of meeting the nickels-for-parking-meter-demand. A good suggestion.

One downtown establishment recently was forced to abandon a practice of keeping a parking change basket near its front door when patrons apparently mistook it for a free coffee-money container. At any rate, the basket went broke. Other methods have been tried, but still there seems to be a definite nickel shortage among Midland motorists.

Perhaps the city could install change machines at convenient locations throughout the business district. Well, it is an idea anyway.

To make it all the worse, some fellow up in Washington the other day proposed that the lowly nickel be done away with since, he said, it won't buy anything anymore. The fellow likely doesn't own an automobile, or else he is not confronted with the problem of parking his vehicle in a parking meter-conscious city such as Midland.

Surely the proposal will not receive serious consideration.

It is true the once all-important nickel will not purchase all the items it once did, but it still is mighty important when it comes to renting parking space, purchasing your week-day Reporter-Telegram on the street, or in patronizing most soft drink vending machines.

A Coy Trick Invented By Democratic Presidents

DREW PEARSON ON THE WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND

Drew Pearson says: Army chief consoles discharged West Pointers; Eisenhower figures Allies prepared by late '52, urges continued efforts to sell America.

WASHINGTON — It never was meant to be published, but Gen. J. Lawton Collins, the Army chief of staff, has written a private letter to the spokesman for the 88 discharged West Point cadets. In it he made the strange statement that while they were not good enough to be West Point officers they still were good enough to be Army officers.

"I will say for the Army that your separation from West Point in itself will not be grounds for disbarment from the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, Officers Candidate Schools, or other similar programs under Army jurisdiction," General Collins wrote to the discharged cadets through their spokesman, Herbert Johnson.

In other words, the Army's military boss officially recognizes what reserve officers so bitterly have criticized, that the West Point clique is a separate and superior caste. In contrast, General Marshall, who retired last week, was not a West Pointer, which many civilian unit veterans who turn out reserve officers maintain the highest ethical and academic standards.

General Collins' letter, explaining his policy, stated: "The frank admission of guilt and wholesome spirit of repentance which I find... confirm my first impression that those involved in this affair, while openly admitting their violation of the cadet code of honor, are not fundamentally men of bad morals or character."

Reasons For Leniency. "They have, however, fallen into evil ways. They have not, in the words of the cadet prayer, preferred the harder right instead of the easier wrong, and in their failure have brought sorrow upon themselves and upon the military academy."

"Many of the group," General Collins continued, "have made partial amends for this past offense by the straightforward way in which you have assisted the authorities in investigating this matter and in putting the situation to rights."

"I sincerely hope that you will all leave the academy determined to redeem this early fault by the character of the lives which you lead hereafter."

Note: Although past violators of the honor code received dishonorable discharges, Collins showed special leniency to the 88. He explained to them: "I did not feel that the conduct of the cadets warranted the usual discharge presently given in honor cases; that is to say, one which indicated discharge under conditions other than honorable."

However, in justice to cadets who have received this type of discharge for honor offenses in the past, one cannot justify an honorable discharge in the present case. Instead, it has been decided to allow the cadets to resign and to receive a simple administrative discharge without specification as to circumstances.

Eisenhower Reports. General Eisenhower is well satisfied with the progress in Western Europe's defense program, he told a congressional group in Paris recently. Then he added: "But the job I'd like to see accomplished isn't half done."

Eisenhower figures it will take another year, "probably by the end of 1952," to get our Atlantic Pact allies in top shape, militarily and economically.

He explained he was thinking in terms of "total defense" against possible Soviet aggression anywhere this side of the Iron Curtain. This didn't mean, he said, that Atlantic Pact armies under their aegis already prepared to give a good account of themselves if called to action in the meantime.

Ike added some pointed provisos to the Capitol Hill delegation, led by Republican Senator Homer Ferguson of Michigan, one of which was that the people of the United States and Congress must not "let down" in their support of the Atlantic Pact program.

"I know that most Americans realize that we cannot afford to let that happen, with the world in its present state," Eisenhower emphasized. "Too much is at stake."

Other provisos Ike mentioned were the continuance of some economic aid to our European allies, as well as efforts to sell America behind the Iron Curtain. While he didn't mention specifically propaganda balloons, he made it clear that we cannot afford to overlook any device to get the truth of our sincere peace efforts to Russian satellites.

He also strongly endorsed a proposal by Rep. Harold Cooley of North Carolina, chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, that advanced American farming techniques be put to work in Western Europe to conserve the soil and increase food production.

Eisenhower said he wasn't too much concerned about Communist activity and anti-U. S. propaganda this side of the Iron Curtain. But he seriously is concerned about another Iron Curtain—Arab outbreak, which Russia might parlay into a third world war.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY. Written for NEA Service.

One of the strong points of the expert bridge player is that he makes life as difficult as possible for his opponents. For example, suppose the opponents can defeat the expert's contract—is he down-hearted? Not a bit of it. It's still their job to find the right defense, and the expert will do what he can to complicate their job.

Today's hand would be muffed by most average players but would be made by most experts for just the reason described. Let's examine the difference.

The average player wins the first club in dummy or in his own hand at random, draws two rounds of trumps, and then leads the jack of diamonds. West naturally ducks in order to let East win with the king of diamonds. East, just naturally, returns the jack of spades; and the fat is in the fire.

South must take the spade finesse, and the contract is defeated.

Bridge hand diagram showing North, West, East, and South (D) cards and their suits.

When the finesse loses. Two diamonds and a club must be lost no matter what happens, so the loss of a spade trick is fatal.

The expert sees all this coming and therefore wins the first trick in dummy with the ace of clubs. His next step is to return the deuce of diamonds from the dummy.

The opponents can still defeat the contract, but they have to find the right defense instead of having it handed to them on the proverbial silver platter.

East must put up the king of diamonds. Do you know anybody who will meet that defensive play? I'll agree that a great expert will occasionally come up with the right defense. But if this type of play is made against him ten times a month, he'll meekly play low six or seven times out of ten.

Eight or nine times would be closer to the truth, but I wouldn't want to be considered ungenerous.

Once East is persuaded to play a low diamond at the second trick, the hand is home. West must win the first diamond, and West is in no position to lead spades.

West must lead another club as good as any, and South wins with the king. South then draws two rounds of trumps and leads his other diamond.

This sets up dummy's queen before the spades have been touched. South can get to dummy with the ten of trumps to discard his queen of spades on the queen of diamonds.

Spades, of course, is child's play. Q—The bidding has been: North East South West 1 Diamond Pass 2 You, South, hold: Spades 7-5-4, Hearts 8-3, Diamonds Q-7-2, Clubs A-J-9-6-3. What do you do?

A—Bid two diamonds. Your hand is strong enough for one voluntary response—but not strong enough for two bids. You can either show the clubs or raise the diamonds, but you cannot do both. The raise should

WASHINGTON COLUMN

German 'Peace Contract' Will Help Stop Soviets In Europe

By FETER EDSON. NEA Washington Correspondent.

WASHINGTON—This new "peace contract" idea for Germany is another smart diplomatic move. It's on a par with John Foster Dulles' idea for negotiating a peace with Japan, instead of trying to work out a treaty in formal international conference.

Although ex-President Herbert Hoover and others have advocated a separate and final peace treaty with Germany—leaving the Russians out of it—that idea has been ruled out for several reasons.

Germany is not "united," the eastern zone being under Russian-Communist control. The Allied zones of Berlin are separated from the Federal Republic of Western Germany. The Western powers never have recognized the Russian-imposed boundary separating Eastern Germany from Poland.

To conclude a formal peace treaty with the West German Republic would be a tacit recognition that none of these conditions possibly could be changed. So some kind of an interim arrangement had to be worked out.

The original idea was for a new "contractual relationship." This was strictly lawyer-talk, in four-dollar words. Headline writers have shortened it to "peace contract."

Since that seems to describe accurately what it's all about, this shorter name probably will stick.

It has been kicked around in Allied conferences on Germany almost two years. The need for it grew naturally out of the changing situation in Europe. Signing of the North Atlantic Pact, creation of the Western European army under Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, and the desire to bring German armed forces into this army all contributed to the peace contract idea.

Outbreak of the war in Korea speeded up work on the peace contract. Diplomats and military leaders then recognized that the same kind of Communist aggression might begin in Western Europe. It was necessary to speed preparedness for that.

U. S. High Commissioner to Germany John J. McCloy spelled out the principles of the new relationship with Germany in closed meetings of Senate Foreign Relations and House Foreign Affairs Committees last June. To that extent at least, Congress has been briefed on what was afoot.

Now, as a result of the Washington meetings between U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson, British Foreign Secretary Herbert Morrison and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman, outlines of the plan have been made public. High Commissioner McCloy has gone back to Germany with orders in his hip pocket to start negotiations for peace contract with the German government at Bonn.

The present time table calls for a "contractual relationship" to be preferred since it is more likely to get the partnership to a playable contract.

TODAY'S QUESTION. The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spades 7-5-4, Heart 2, Diamonds Q-J-7-2, Clubs A-J-9-6-3. What do you do?

FETER EDSON

What's RIGHT? You are speaking to a person who seems to be a little hard of hearing.

WRONG: Talk in a very loud voice.

RIGHT: Talk as distinctly as possible, not speaking too rapidly or running your words together.

"How's that?" His face was colorless. "Look here, man. You saved my life today. I'm not forgetting that. But this is an order. If you're afraid—"

"Yes, Captain, I'm afraid. Also I'm using my head, not losing my hair. And you're suffering shock. Better go lie down someplace."

"He's right," young Wanda broke in, earnestly. "It would be murder to send a man out now. And he wouldn't get to the fort before Carrington started looking for us."

The obviousness of this made Fetterman furious. "I believe I'm senior here, Wanda. Any question of that?"

"None at all, Captain. Just giving my opinion."

"Here they come!" yelled a trooper.

And come they did, wave after wave, with about 80 to the wave, each group dashing a little closer before breaking and washing back, the last bunch breaching our wagon line, 15 or 20 of them riding their squealing ponies into our midst.

Had the others followed in, another massacre would have been official.

Of those who got into the wagon circle, one rode his way out, perhaps living to boast of his exploit, but I take leave to doubt it. I might have known more of his fate but for the fact that he rode me down going out. I woke up in Fort Phil Kearney, not much worse for all the excitement, save a respectable scalp-wound which mercifully spared me the jolting details of the ride back to one of Carrington's mule drawn ambulances.

As soon as I could I went to see Carrington. "Colonel, I want to resign," I told him. "Now, Clayton, slow down. I know Fetterman and you had a little fun, but—"

"He's a fool," I interrupted. "He also requests your discharge, which I refused. Now, Clayton, I want you to stay on. I'll back you up, when you're right."

"Sure, Colonel. It's fair. But that's neither here nor there."

"Well, what's eating you, man?" "Colonel, it's Ed Geary's opinion, and mine through him, that the whiskey running that goes on out here has more than a little to do with the hostile outbreak. High with the attitudes of the big chiefs like Red Cloud and Crazy Horse, you understand. But you know that for every rald led by one of their rank, there's a dozen wagon-train burnings and settler-scalpings with which they have nothing to do and which are, in fact, expressly against their orders."

"Well, what of it?" The Colonel's question showed impatience. "You know an Indian will do anything when he's drunk. We can't help that."

"I THINK you can," I disagreed, "and I'm willing to help you. Back in Kansas City I had a little back-up against the man who Geary says is the big wheel in these whiskey operations. I know this man, I know he's out here, operating, and I want to go after him. If you'll give me 30 days and a few men, I can—"

"I'm sorry."

"No need to be, Colonel. I'll ride my trail the way I read it, sign, anyway."

"Well I regret your attitude. Though perhaps it's just as well. You've been listening to Geary too hard. He's half Cheyenne. I think you've gone Indian, on us, Clayton, and when a scout gets soft on Indians his usefulness to the Army is questionable. If there's anything else I can do for you, Clayton—"

I started to say there wasn't when I remembered a forgotten voice. "Colonel, my compliments. Should our paths cross again..."

I turned to Carrington. "There is something you could do, Colonel. I'd like to know where General Custer is now."

Summer Gets Early Brush-Off In West, Midwest Regions

By The Associated Press
Summer got a cool, wet brush-off over Western and Midwest states Friday. But it continued warm over much of the eastern third of the country and in the far Southwest. The summer season ends at 4:38 p.m. (CST) Sunday.

Snow fell in the Central Rockies. Cheyenne, Wyo., reported snow and the mercury at 33 above early Friday. It was 32 above at Laramie, Wyo.

The cold Canadian air over the northwestern quarter of the country extended into the Midwest, ending a mild spell. It dipped south into the Oklahoma Panhandle early Friday.

Light showers fell in the upper Mississippi Valley and the Lake Superior region. There also was rain along the Gulf Coast, from Galveston to Mobile.

Temperatures were mild in the Southern states, the Ohio Valley and the Eastern Great Lakes region. They were near normal in the Middle Atlantic states.

The Julian Alps are in Northwestern Yugoslavia.

Head Of A&P Food Chain Succumbs In Manhattan Elevator

NEW YORK —(AP)— John A. Hartford, 78, chairman of the board of the A&P chain of food stores, died Thursday after a heart seizure in a Manhattan skyscraper elevator.
Hartford succumbed after he stepped into an elevator on the fifty-sixth floor of the Chrysler Building. He had been attending a board meeting of the Chrysler Corporation, of which he was a director.

The A&P—The Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company—was founded by his father, George Huntington Hartford, in 1859, with a single store on New York's Lower East Side. The business then was called the "Great American Tea Company."

The son conceived the idea of an "economy store," which he opened in Newark, N. J., in 1913. This idea developed into more than 15,000 stores in 1951, when the super-market method was introduced and food store consolidations started. There now are about 4,700 A&P stores.

Long known as a "mystery man" of big business because he shunned publicity, Hartford hit the headlines in 1945 when he said he loaned Elliott Roosevelt $200,000 in 1939 and finally settled the debt for $4,000.

The son of the late President Roosevelt then was interested in a Texas radio chain. The matter became a political football before the House Ways and Means Committee finally allowed Hartford a tax deduction on his $196,000 loss.

Hartford was known as "Mr. John" to the thousands of A&P employees. He frequently visited as many as 3,000 of the company's stores in a single year.

Fewer Automobiles In Dealer Showrooms
WASHINGTON —(AP)— There are one-fifth fewer passenger cars in dealers' showrooms now than there were in June. The number is expected to drop even lower early in 1952.

The National Production Authority (NPA) Thursday told an automobile advisory committee meeting there an informal survey showed a 20 per cent decline in new passenger cars in the last three months. The drop began in June, when stocks were at an all-time high.

Physicians Again Visit King George

LONDON —(AP)— King George VI, who is suffering from a lung ailment of an undisclosed nature, was visited by his doctors Friday for the fourth time in 48 hours.

A crowd of several hundred persons outside Buckingham Palace saw Sir John Weir, the king's chief physician, and three associates enter the gate shortly before noon.

It was reported in court circles that the treatment prescribed so far for the ailing monarch consists mainly to rest.

Army Scout Report Kidnaped Filipino Governor Seen Alive

MANILA —(AP)— Philippine Army scouts Friday reported kidnaped Gov. Gregorio Santayana of Quezon Province was alive and held in a mountain hideout.

Army forces, reports from Laguna Province said, did not move in on the kidnapers for fear the governor might be hurt. Instead, emissaries were attempting to open ransom negotiations.

Santayana was seized Wednesday near San Pablo City. The scouts said they saw the governor late Thursday, limping about the camp with the aid of a cane.

Czechs Demand U. S. Return 31 Refugees

LONDON —(AP)— Czechoslovakia has demanded that the United States send back 31 refugees who escaped to Germany when an engineer raced his express train across the border September 11.

The Prague radio said a sharply-worded demand was served on the U. S. Embassy insisting on extradition of the refugees on charges they kidnaped the 77 other passengers on the train and damaged Czechoslovakia railway equipment.

The note also accused them of threatening the lives of the other passengers.

Small Tropical Storm Aims Blow At Mexico

NEW ORLEANS —(AP)— A small tropical storm, ambling along in the Southwest Gulf at about seven miles an hour, was expected to move inland into Mexico south of Tampico late Friday.

The Weather Bureau here said the storm, with strongest winds estimated at 60 miles an hour over a small area, was about 110 miles southeast of Tampico.

John Nathan Poe Rites Held Friday

STANTON —(AP)— Funeral services were to be held in the First Methodist Church at 3 p.m. Friday for John Nathan Poe, 65, widely known Martin County rancher and livestock dealer, who died Wednesday afternoon in Big Spring of a heart seizure.

In ill health more than four years, the rancher's death occurred while he was attending a livestock auction at the Big Spring Auction Sales Arena.

The Rev. J. E. Harrell was to officiate with interment in Evergreen Cemetery. Poe is survived by the widow, Mrs. Betty Poe; two sons, J. D. of Stanton and G. M. of San Angelo; the mother, Mrs. D. M. Poe of Hamlin; two brothers, Guy and Fleet Poe both of Hamlin, and a sister, Mrs. W. L. Palmer of Lubbock.

Newsmen Decline To Ban Staff From Galleries Of Congress

WASHINGTON —(AP)— A committee of Washington newsmen has decided representatives of the press, the Russian news agency, may continue to work alongside them in the press galleries of Congress.

The standing committee of correspondents voted unanimously Thursday night not to expel the press reporters because, it said, it "fervently believes that the principles of a free press cannot be upheld by abridging them."

"The committee holds that man's right to see his neighbor through his own eyes and to form his own opinions on that neighbor's conduct is basic to our liberties," it added.

Yearby Completes Oregon Revival

The Rev. Vernon Yearby, pastor of the First Baptist Church, returned to Midland Thursday night from Drain, Ore., where he conducted a 10-day revival meeting.

Mr. Yearby was one of 40 Baptist preachers from Texas and Oklahoma who journeyed to Oregon to conduct the series of simultaneous revival meetings.

Also in the group was the Rev. L. D. Ball, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lamesa. Mr. Yearby will preach at the regular services here Sunday.

Houston Geologist Dies In Plane Crash

LAKE CHARLES, LA. —(AP)— A Houston geologist, Dr. E. W. K. Andrau, 51, died Thursday night when his British-made aircraft plunged into an abandoned rice field near Lake Charles Air Base.

The twin-engine deHavilland plunged into the muddy field a mile northeast of the base just after it had been given clearance for landing.

Sheppard Defends New Election Code

AUSTIN —(AP)— Texas' new election law gives party officials new power to make sure only loyal members vote in its conventions and seek nomination in its primaries, says Secretary of State John Ben Sheppard.

He suggested the State Democratic Executive Committee seize upon this new latitude and fortify the law with strict rules including "more stringent requirements for qualification of its party members."

Sheppard's suggestions were made in a letter Thursday to J. E. Wheat of Woodville, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee that meets Thursday in Snyder.

Sheppard said the new code would be explained at Snyder by Dean Abner McCall of the Baylor Law School, chairman of the commission that wrote the first draft of the revision.

Denies Critics Charge
The secretary denied the new law can be used to destroy the Democratic Party in Texas. He said it gives the executive committee power to strengthen the party.

Critics have charged that the code provision saying "any qualified voter" could participate in a Democratic precinct convention would open the doors to Republicans or Dixiecrats. They charged the provision permitting a person's name to appear on the ballot twice would wipe out party lines.

Sheppard answered the cross-firing was for general elections only, and did not apply to primaries. He added new regulations which could be written by the executive committee should "take care of any confusion that might arise regarding this section."

Panel Recommends More Women In Armed Services

WASHINGTON —(AP)— An advisory committee on women in the services Thursday recommended to the Defense Department that the present figure of 30,000 women in the armed forces be increased to 112,000 within the next few months.

In an initial report made to the department after hearing addresses by top officials, the committee said the need was urgent and that:

"There are sufficient numbers of American women to meet all the needs of maintenance of home, industry, educational and medical institutions as well as military requirements."

The 112,000 figure would include women in the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines and the Nurse Corps and Medical Specialist Corps of those services.

The advisory committee is composed of 49 women, representing a cross section of civilian life.

11 Allied Soldiers Wounded By Mistake

The nationalities and names of the wounded men were not disclosed. Three British divisions and d troops from the United States, France, Belgium and The Netherlands are taking part in the maneuvers.

Man's World? Not So, Avows Woman Insurance Agent

LOS ANGELES —(AP)— You think this is a man's world? Well, take a look at this:
It comes from Lillian L. Joseph, New York agent for the Home Life Insurance Company. She spoke Thursday before the National Association of Life Underwriters convention.

"Women," said she, "constitute about 43 per cent of the stockholders who own the corporations of America."

"They own 65 per cent of the accounts held in mutual savings banks. They hold title to 40 per cent of the 30,000,000 homes in this country."

"Women pay 80 per cent of all inheritance taxes and 40 per cent of all property taxes."

"They directly control the spending of 80 per cent of the national income." Which leaves, as Miss Joseph pointed out, 20 per cent for the men to spend for themselves.

The underwriters then proceeded to elect a man—Charles Cleeton of Los Angeles—president of the association. David B. Flugelman of New York was elected vice president.

Truman Sets Policy For Grave Markers Of Korean War Dead

WASHINGTON —(AP)— The word "Korea" will be inscribed on markers on graves of all U. S. armed forces men killed in that country and interred in national cemeteries.

President Truman ordered this Thursday, untangling red tape which had prohibited such identification because the Korean conflict is not officially a war.

The President ordered that the word "Korea"—but not Korean war—should be inscribed on markers. The headstones of servicemen interred in other than national cemeteries may carry any inscriptions relatives desire.

Seven Miners Die In Airplane Crash

The plane was coming in for a landing.

Wind Shift, Volunteer Firemen, Save Town Of 1,120 From Destruction By Forest Fire

FORKS, WASH. —(AP)— Red-eyed volunteer fire fighters and a "providential" shift in wind direction were credited Friday with saving this little logging town of 1,120 persons from blazing destruction.

A forest fire which started a month ago from engine sparks from a logging railroad, then lay dormant until Thursday, finally passed the town Thursday night.

But the 20,000-acre fire did not head westward ahead of an east wind until it had scoured off a two-mile-wide strip on the north and east sides of town. Nineteen buildings were consumed by flames, including two sawmills, two big logging truck garages and 15 residences.

"It looked impossible to save the town at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon," recounted J. W. Hull, owner of the Forks Telephone Company. "Then the wind shifted, providentially, you might say."

Some 65 per cent of the population was evacuated over smoke-choked highways and by airplane during the afternoon and evening. They were ordered to remain out of town for the night, even though the fire danger lessened in the "ghost town."

A dozen state patrol cars cruised the streets to guard against looting. Road blocks at both the north and south end of town sifted those allowed to enter.

Townsmen who remained credited the Forks Volunteer Fire Department with saving the town. They held the line against the fire until State and National Forest Service crews and highway and construction camp workers arrived to give them a hand.

Bone Sliver Found In Auto Crash May Save Woman's Arm
WICHITA FALLS —(AP)— Oklahoma Trooper Paul Scott's vague knowledge of bone surgery was enough to save a 37-year-old Oklahoma woman to regain full use of her mangled right arm.

Mrs. Mildred Reynolds was one of four persons injured in a wreck on U.S. Highway 81 near her home, Comanche, Okla., Wednesday night. Troopers Scott and Joe Bowling, checking the wreckage, ran across the piece of bone, a sliver about five inches long. Scott said he almost threw it away, but suddenly remembered something about restorations doctors make these days.

After contacting a doctor in Comanche, the troopers rushed the bone fragment to Wichita Falls Clinic Hospital, where Mrs. Reynolds had been taken. They made the 50-mile run in an hour.

Dr. Jack Maxfield, who performed an emergency operation Thursday on Mrs. Reynolds' arm, indicated the limb would have been rendered useless had the bone not been retrieved.

Metal Duplication
Dr. Maxfield immediately placed the bone in a chemical solution to prevent its deterioration. He said it will be sent to the Austenal Laboratories in New York City, where a metal duplication can be made.

The doctor said the humerus bone in Mrs. Reynolds' arm broke off at the elbow and snapped in two. It pierced the flesh and slipped through the small opening into the wreckage of the car.

Dr. Maxwell said he has placed a silver pin in her forearm to keep the muscles in her upper arm from contracting.

Unless complications arise, Dr. Maxwell said he believed he could operate on Mrs. Reynolds in about a week or 10 days and place the metal mould in her arm. He said it would function like the humerus bone normally had and said it may restore the full use of her arm.

Mrs. Reynolds was driving an auto which collided with another driven by Joe Newton Watson, 29, of Duncan, Okla. Watson and a passenger in his car, Ann Cimmino, were injured, but not seriously. Mrs. Reynolds' 20-year old daughter, Betty, also was injured.

Daddy Ringtail

By WESLEY DAVIS

Daddy Ringtail And Tail In The Saddle

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, was not at home in his monkey house, high in the top of the very tall tree, right in the middle of the Great Forest. He wasn't at home because he had gone for a visit with Old MacDonald who has a farm.

Yes, and Uncle Bunkum who lives at the zoo was not there in his monkey cage. Uncle Bunkum was not at home because he too had gone for a visit with Old MacDonald who has a farm.

"Welcome to the farm, you folks!" said Old MacDonald with his Old MacDonald voice, and the chin pitching and bucking to throw him off, and so Old MacDonald was pitching and tossing up and down, only touching the pillow in the saddle when he came down from the pitching.

"Sit down, Old MacDonald!" shouted Uncle Bunkum. Sit down tight!

"Too late! The horse had thrown him. Old MacDonald had sailed through the air to fall in a great big haystack which Old MacDonald had arranged to fall in. He wasn't hurt.

"Mercy me!" said Uncle Bunkum. "Daddy Ringtail, I do believe I shall have to ride that horse myself."

Yes, Uncle Bunkum said he would ride the very next morning, except he would want to be tall in the saddle with a pillow in it—and don't forget the haystack to fall in. Oh no, and Happy day! More Sunday.

CENTRALIA, ILL.—(P)—Chicago Bear crack halfback Charlie Hunsinger is just a milkman at heart. To report for training at Rensselaer, Ind., he had to leave his first love—farming. whiskers shook up and down on his chin when he said how happy he was to see the folks.

"Come on down by the barn," said Old MacDonald, "and watch while I teach my new horse to let people ride him."

"Right with you, Old MacDonald," said Daddy Ringtail. And Uncle Bunkum said he was right with him too, and so away they all hurried down by the barn. There inside the corral was the wild horse which Old MacDonald was trying to teach to let people ride. Old MacDonald jumped in the saddle.

"Old MacDonald sits tall in the saddle," said Uncle Bunkum to Daddy Ringtail. They were standing close by the fence.

"That's because of the pillow in the saddle," said Daddy Ringtail. And now the horse was pitching and bucking, and Uncle Bunkum could see enough to see the pillow that was tied to the saddle where Old MacDonald could sit on it.

But Old MacDonald now was not doing much sitting. The horse was

CLOSE-UP OF FAITH

You have to come very close to Faith in order to discover just what it is!

You see, Faith isn't a set of theological books, as some folks may think.

And it isn't just "the religious point-of-view," as others sometimes infer.

And certainly it doesn't take years to gain, as popular fiction occasionally suggests.

No! Faith is the simple trust of a child in God... the certainty that He cares... that He loves... that He helps.

Faith, after all, is believing! And for a little girl, or a full-grown man, the place to learn to believe is the Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship, strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Bulldogs, Ysleta, Meet Friday Night

YSLETA—Tugboat Jones' Midland Bulldogs of District 1-AAA and the Ysleta Indians of District 2-AAAA tangle here at 8 p.m. (MST) Friday in the second grid contest of the year for both elevens.

Ysleta has nine starters back from the outfit which Midland defeated 14 to 7 last year, while the Bulldogs have but three. However, Midland holds a weight advantage of approximately 11 pounds per man in the line.

Missing from the Ysleta backfield is Jesse Whittenton, runner and passer de luxe who was an all-district choice at quarterback last year—but Coach Roger McAdams says "we are out to win, and don't figure to miss Whittenton to a great degree."

Downing To Broadcast
The Midland team arrived here at noon Friday, after leaving Midland at 7 a.m. Coach Jones said his squad was in good shape physically. Kickoff time is 9 p.m., Midland time. Radio Station KCRS, Midland, will air a play-by-play report of the game. Delbert Downing will handle the play-by-play account.

Harmon Comes Up With Metropolitan Tournament Win
BLOOMFIELD, N. J.—(AP)—Pete Cooper fell apart in the last round of the Metropolitan Open Thursday and Claude Harmon was there to catch the pieces and win the title.

Harmon came through with scores of 69 and 70 over the Forest Hill layout to finish with a winning total of 275.

Cooper who had a commanding lead going into Thursday's play, took a 71, then a 74 and barely finished second with a 277 total.

Vic Ohezal carded a pair of 71's to tie for third with Clarence Doser at 278.

Houston Takes Three Game Lead In Series
SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—San Antonio is hanging on the rope in the Texas League championship playoff series. They must beat Houston four straight games or fade from the title picture.

The Buffs made it three to nothing Thursday night with an 11-5 victory in San Antonio.

Fred Martin, the aging Houston ace, limited the Padres to six hits in winning Thursday night. Three were home runs by Babe Martin, Jim Dyck and Danny Balch.

Jerry Witte got his first homer of the playoffs. It was the Houston first baseman's thirty-seventh of the season.

Printing Snarl To Delay Safety Tests For Autos
AUSTIN—(AP)—Compulsory car inspections, required by a new law this year, probably will be delayed until January 1 pending printing of car safety certificates.

The delay resulted when the states' printer contended his contract did not include the gummed certificates.

Ninety-day delivery is sought on the printing job. This would mean delivery by the printer in late December, with car inspections unlikely to start before the new year.

Safety certificates must be secured before 1952 license plates can be obtained.

TWO MIDLANDERS ENTER COLORADO SCHOOL
Two Midland men have entered Colorado School of Mines at Golden, Colo., for the fall semester.

Frank P. Troseth, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Troseth, 1005 West Texas Street, is a graduate student in geophysics, while Milward K. Miller, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milward Miller, 604 West Kansas Street, is a sophomore studying geology.

YOUNG BLOOD—Running, kicking or passing, the accent is on youth in the National Football League with such recruits as Kyle Rote, left, Ebert Van Buren, center, and Brad Rowland. Rote of the New York Giants was a two-year All-America at Southern Methodist. Van Buren, who'll play along side his celebrated brother, Steve, with the Philadelphia Eagles, followed him as a crashing carrier and kicker at Louisiana State. Rowland of the Chicago Bears did everything superlatively for little McMurry of Abilene, Tex. (NRA)

Two Unknowns, Old Pro Lead Reading

READING, PA.—(AP)—Two unknowns and an old pro, tied for the first round lead in the $15,000 Reading Open Tournament, agreed Friday it will take some fancy putting and accurate driving to cop first money.

That sentiment is echoed by Jim Turnesa, chunky Doug Ford and blond-haired Jimmy Clark from Laguna Beach, Calif., each posted a 69, two under par.

In the first group were Jerry Barber, Earl Stewart, Jr., of Dallas, Clayton Heafner and Ed Tabor.

Bracketed at par were Tommy Bolt, Ed Oliver, Jack Burke, Jr., of Houston, Skip Alexander, Bob Gajda, Ted Kroll and Milon Marusic.

Jim Fernier, a pre-tournament favorite along with Cary Middlecoff, and Lloyd Mangrum, leading money winner, carded a 35-37-72.

Carlos Bernier, playing for Bristol, Conn., in the Colonial League in 1950 stole 53 bases in 52 games. He's now running wild on the bases for Ben Chapman's Tampa Smokers.

FRAT'S CHOICE — She was busy competing for the title of "Miss America" at Atlantic City, N. J., but Carol Mitchell of Rochester, Ind., found time to accept the title, "National Sweetheart of Kappa Delta Rho," a social fraternity, Miss Mitchell wears the "Miss Indiana" banner at Atlantic City.

Austin College Wins Texoma Bowl By 28 To 6 Count
DENISON—(AP)—Austin College held a 260-pound brass locomotive bell Friday as the prize for winning the Texoma Bowl football game.

The Kangaroos raced over South-eastern State of Oklahoma Thursday night, 28-6, before 3,500 fans.

Roy Jackson gained 98 yards in 14 runs, scoring one touchdown and kicking four extra points. Leonard Ehler, Charles Grandstaff and Jerry Sims got the other Austin College touchdowns.

The bell is donated by the Katy Railroad and will go to the team that wins the Texoma Bowl game each year.

Al Cervi, playing-coach of the Syracuse Nationals in the NBA, has been honored as the Syracuse "man of the year in athletics" for 1950.

Schoolboy Teams Meet Friday Night

By The Associated Press
Port Arthur plays at Odessa Friday night in the feature of Texas schoolboy football's first big weekend.

The game matches the Port Arthur team, generally rated tops after two weeks of play, and an Odessa eleven that may be the power of the West.

Lamar (Houston) will be at San Antonio to play Thomas Jefferson in another Class AAAA feature, while down in Class AAA, Breckenridge will be at Wichita Falls and McAllen at Harlingen in headline tests.

Other top games Friday night in the rousing, 300-game schedule involving the four classes—AAAA, AAA, AA and A—have Arlington at Irving and New London at Van in Class AA and Wink of Class A clashing with Kermit of Class AA.

A smattering of games was played Thursday night. In Class AAAA, Paschal of Fort Worth whipped Highland Park of Dallas, 32-14; Forest (Dallas) edged Poly (Fort Worth), 13-6; Jefferson (El Paso) downed Cathedral (El Paso), 15-0; Burbank (San Antonio) and San Antonio Tech battled to a 7-7 tie, and Conroe straggled Sam Houston (Houston), 20-0.

Others
In Class AAA, South Park of Beaumont took a 20-6 trimming from Lake Charles, Louisiana, and Lanier (San Antonio) licked Texas Military of San Antonio, 31-7.

In Class AA, Lakeview blasted Wellington B, 47-0, and St. Thomas (Houston) beat French (Beaumont), 20-6. In Class A, Lefors whipped Pampa B, 32-6, while Lakeria was downing Port Isabel, 34-14.

CARDS NOW PIRATES
PITTSBURGH—(AP)—When the New York Giants last visited Forbes Field they found six former St. Louis Cardinals facing them—Rocky Nelson, Bill Howerton, Joe Garagiola, Ery Dusak, Ted Wilks and Murry Dickson, who went with the Pirates last year, beat the Giants in the first game. In the second game, Jim Hearn, another former Cardinal, won for the Giants.

Oklahoma Anglers Rope 'Em In With Crank-Style 'Phones

HUGO, OKLA.—(AP)—You grind-it telephones are being used by folk in these parts to put a mess of fish on their tables—and not by calling the corner market.

They are telephoning for fish—and getting them on the end of their lines.

The fishermen don't get a "Number please" from an operator although they are cranking the old-style telephones.

This fishing is based on sending an electrical charge through the water, and shocking fish into unconsciousness.

Haskell Watson, a state game and fish ranger, says there's no trick to making the gear in this atomic-age.

The fishermen take the crank phone, extend two wires out of it, attach them to two large squares of screen—and then they're ready to fish.

Fish Rush To Top
They drop the screens to the bottom of a lake or stream, give a couple of healthy cranks on the phone.

"After the shock," Watson says, "the fish come to the top like a wild Brahman."

The fish jump to the top of the water," he adds, "and the rodless angler nabs them in a net."

Watson says there's no accurate way to measure the number of fish being landed by the telephone route. "But," he explains, "when they catch from 300 to 400 pounds a day, you know an awful lot of fish are being pulled out of southeast Oklahoma streams."

Do Double Duty
And the old-style phones bring a premium in the area since the new fad in fishing began a month ago. "Between 75 and 100 phone sets are being used to fish here now," he says.

Then he adds:
"It has been reported that in areas where old style phones still are in use, the owners take them off the wall, go fishing, and then return to install their phone and call their neighbors to tell about the catch."

The ranger says it's legal to catch all but game fish by the new system.

Undersheriff Bob McDonel says no complaints have been filed. "That's probably," he explains, "because everyone who can get a phone has gone fishin'."

Here They Go Again: Ratliff Grabs For That Crystal Ball

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor
Texas A&M in California, SMU in Georgia, Arkansas in Oklahoma and Texas, TCU and Baylor at home push off the Southwest Conference football campaign this weekend.

Rice opens the season next week. The Aggies, favorites for the championship and rated sixth nationally, get the ball rolling in one of the toughest inter-sectional schedules the circuit ever attempted.

The Aggies play UCLA at Los Angeles Friday night in a top test. Both teams are quite ambitious, each had six victories last season, and each is bulging with experience. It marks the start of Ray George as head coach of the Aggies.

A&M is a touchdown favorite but should win by a better margin than that. If not, the Cadet prestige will take a tumble.

SMU, ready to fling that ball with abandon, meets Georgia Tech at Atlanta Saturday. The game isn't creating too much interest. Fans recall how easily the Methodists handled the Yellow Jackets last season.

Tech apparently is much stronger, and SMU isn't any better. It might be quite a ball game.

Arkansas remembers a jarring upset last year when the "thin 30" of Oklahoma A&M licked the Razorbacks, 12-7, in the season opener. There's more manpower at Stillwater this time and Arkansas would appear in for a tough afternoon in its jaunt to Oklahoma Saturday.

At home, the eyes of Texas rest on Austin, where Ed Price sends his first team as head coach into action against a Kentucky eleven that's rated seventh in the nation.

It will be a question of Texas, heavy on defense, stopping the devastating passes of Babe Parilli. Parilli is considered the best pitcher ever to come to Memorial Stadium.

TCU and Baylor play night games. The Christians take on dangerous Kansas at Fort Worth, and Baylor opens the season against up-and-coming University of Houston at Houston. TCU is a solid favorite to beat Kansas—a team that never has been able to lick the Christians.

But the duel between Gil Bartosh, great frog quarterback, and Charlie Hoag, the ground-eating star of the Jayhawks, should be something to see.

Baylor faced Houston U., 34-7, last year but doesn't expect to attain such a superiority this time. Houston has its best team in history featuring running Gene Shannon.

Blind Man's Buff
We should know better, but picking them is so much fun and our reputation can't go anywhere but up, therefore:

Texas A&M-UCLA—A solid, two-touchdown vote for the Aggies.
Texas-Kentucky—Kentucky was ranked seventh the last time it came to Texas to play; SMU took care of that. The Longhorns will do the same Saturday—a ballot for Texas, by one touchdown.

TCU-Kansas—There'll be a lot of scoring but TCU will do the most of it—TCU by two touchdowns.
SMU-Georgia Tech—SMU will fire a notch or two in everybody's estimation after this game—the Methodists by a touchdown.

Arkansas-Oklahoma A&M—The Razorbacks will nip the Aggies.
Baylor Houston—Bear with us while we pick the Bears—Baylor by three touchdowns.

Yankees Go Half Game Out Front; Giants Defeated

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Thanks to Joe Collins' timely home run, the New York Yankees took a half-game lead into Fenway Park Friday for their dog-eat-dog series with the Boston Red Sox. Cleveland, idle Thursday gets its big chance to storm into first place while the Yanks and Red Sox wrestle. The Indians play three games with Detroit, a team they have beaten 16 out of 17 times this season.

Ford Frick Named To Post Of Baseball Commissioner

CHICAGO—P—Ford Frick, with a dramatic assist of sportsmanship from Warren Giles, is baseball's new commissioner.

Giles late Thursday night threw his full support behind the National League president to break a deadlock of club owners and hand sports' biggest job to the gray, lean, 56-year-old Frick.

Frick was given a seven-year contract at an annual salary of $65,000, about $25,000 more than he received as head of the senior circuit.

Frick is baseball's third commissioner. He succeeds A. B. (Happy) Chandler, who resigned last July 15 after the club owners had refused to vote him a new contract.

Until Giles, the courtly, white-haired president of the Cincinnati Reds made his unparalleled gesture, the 16 major league magnates had wrangled almost 12 hours in a vain attempt to get the required majority of 12 votes.

Hung Jury
In the first hour of their session, they had trimmed the list to Giles and Frick. But from then on they were stymied, and probably still would be if Giles had not made his surprise move.

Like a hung jury, the owners cast ballot after ballot—approximately 20 in all—but never did either candidate collect more than 10 votes.

After Giles appeared before the owners and withdrew his name, the following vote was 14-2 for Frick. Then the Cincinnati executive made a motion that a final ballot be taken and that it be unanimous.

That is how Frick—climaxing a varied career running from newspaperman, assistant English professor and radio commentator to the National League presidency in 1934—obtained the full 16 votes.

Giles said he did what he thought best for the interest of baseball—"the closest thing to my heart."
Chandler in 1945 succeeded the late Judge Kennesaw Mountain Landis, who had served as baseball's first commissioner since 1921, following the Black Sox scandal.

Upon the death of Landis, there was a movement toward Frick as his successor. At that time, Giles was reported ready to become president of the National League, should Frick be named.

Although this maneuver was defeated by the selection of Chandler, the way now may be cleared for it.

Down here where they play their football with a reckless, colorful abandon, in the Southwest Conference, teams are cranking up their 1951 models and hitting the grid highway.

It's early yet, but probably more than one of the SWC teams will wind up in the annual bowl games come January 1.

"Bowlings" teams the loop in the past have been Texas and TCU, with six New Year's day appearance each. Texas A&M has five, Rice and SMU three each, Arkansas two and Baylor a lone trip.

Texas has met with most success, winning four, getting a tie and losing one. The Longhorns defeated Georgia Tech, 14-7, in the Cotton Bowl on the first day of '48, tied Randolph Field, 7-7, in the same bowl a year later, whacked Missouri, 40 to 7, in '48 in the Dallas classic, defeated Alabama, 27-7, in the Sugar Bowl in 1948 and the following year thumped Georgia, 41-28, in the Orange Bowl. Tennessee ended the Longhorns' all-winning ways last January 1 in Dallas, 20 to 14.

Other records show:
TCU: Sugar, '36, defeated LSU, 3-2; Cotton, '37, defeated Marquette, 16-6; Sugar, '39, ripped Carnegie Tech, 15-7; Orange, '42, lost to Georgia, 40-26; Cotton, '45, lost to Oklahoma A&M, 34-0, and Delta, '49, fell to Mississippi U., 13-9.

A&M: Sugar, '40, took Tulane 14-13; Cotton, '41, ousted Fordham, 13-12; Cotton, '42, lost to Alabama, 29-21; Orange, '44, lost to LSU, 19-14; Presidential Cup, '50, thumped Georgia, 40 to 20.

Rice: Orange, '47, defeated Tennessee, 8-0; Cotton, '38, defeated Colorado, 28-14; Cotton, '50, took North Carolina, 27-13.

SMU: Rose, '36, lost to Stanford, 7-0; Cotton, '48, tied Penn State, 13-13; Cotton, '49, won from Oregon, 21-13.

Arkansas: Cotton, '47, tied LSU, 0-0; Dixie, '48, upset William & Mary, 21-19.
Baylor: Dixie, '49, defeated Wake Forest, 20 to 7.

When Ysleta and Midland kick off in their grid battle Friday night, we won't be there.
The missus and yours truly have been awaiting the arrival of a future fullback, who has yet to show.
Consequently, we're sticking around home base until the big moment arrives.
Tanner Laine will be in El Paso covering the Midland-Ysleta go.

The club tournament now is underway at Ranchland Hill Country Club.
Play has continued all week, and other matches will be played this weekend.
We'll have a story for you Sunday on all matches played this week, plus next week's parings.

'Bravest Soldier I Ever Met,' Is The Way Buddies Describe Medal Of Honor Winner

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Private First Class Story was the bravest soldier I ever met. That was the simple claim of Cpl. Charles O. Courtney of Monroe, N. C., after Pvt. Luther H. Story had helped save his life and the lives of other members of his squad during the earliest and fiercest fighting of the Korean campaign. Story became the 13th man to win a Congressional Medal of Honor in the Korean fighting. And according to experts on bravery awards, Story's gallant action places him among the top ranking of all-time great U. S. heroes. At 17, Story enlisted in the Army from his home town of Americus, Ga., in 1948. After service in Guam and Saipan he joined the occupation forces in Japan. When Korea was invaded by the Reds he was as green and as unprepared for combat as the rest of his outfit, which had been rushed from Japan to help stem the advance of the Communist aggressors.

Known As 'All Ways' Story was with his unit in Korea since Sept. 1, 1950, after having been pushed back to the Nakdong River with the rest of the UN troops. Story was a lean, hardened, combatwise infantryman who knew well the ways of the foe. He also had a reputation as "a guy with plenty of guts," although before the fighting began he was considered a pretty ordinary kind of soldier. On this day, however, he proved his courage as few men in military history have been able to prove it. He had led his weapons squad to a rocky ridge overlooking the Nakdong River. The enemy began storming the position, trying desperately to keep Story's men from digging in, and in the first rush, his machine gunner was wounded. Grabbing the gun from the bleeding man Story stood up and poured devastating fire into the charging North Koreans. In a few moments more than 100 of the enemy lay scattered on the hillside. The charge was broken. To New Position Later that day, moving to a new position he had been ordered to take, Story spotted an enemy truck loaded with troops and towing an ammunition trailer coming down the road. He told his men to find cover. But Story crouched in a ditch until the truck came abreast of him. Then he stepped boldly onto the road and calmly began lobbing grenades into the vehicle. It slowed and a furious volley of shots aimed at him rang out. When he had pitched all his grenades, the ammunition trailer was still intact. A few shots were still coming from the truck. Story quickly ducked into the brush, found his men, got another armful of grenades, and proceeded to finish the job. The noise drew other Red units to the scene. Story was forced to lead his men back to another unit from his outfit and together they tried to advance through a rice field. Corporal Courtney describes the ensuing action: "While moving through a rice paddy they began a Banzai attack on us, but it didn't last long because we shot hell out of it. But there was a machine gun in front of us which began taking a real toll of the men. "I found Story and asked him about pulling out. He told me that if we wanted to leave we could, but that he was staying. He said, 'I would cover for us.' Private Story was wounded himself, but ignoring it he kept up a steady firing from all weapons he carried. As Courtney was moving back, aiding some wounded, the enemy made another charge alone. Story fought off the attack. It gave the rest time to get to safety. When last seen he was firing furiously and shouting advice to his retreating comrades. He is still carried on Army rolls as missing in action. Story was unmarried, and presumed dead, leaves behind his parents, and sister and brother.

Governor Declines To Back Shepperd On Loyalty Pledge

AUSTIN—P.—Governor Shivers Friday indicated he would not go along with Secretary of State John Ben Shepperd's proposal for new ironclad rules to insure party loyalty. Shivers said he thought Shepperd was expressing a personal opinion in a letter to State Democratic Executive Committee Chairman J. E. Wislak. "I am not going to suggest that the committee pass any resolution," Shivers said. "I think the Snyder meeting (September 27) is more of a social get-together—just to get acquainted." Asked if he opposed the party pledge suggested by Shepperd, the governor replied: "I would personally have no objection to signing a pledge at any time, but courts have held that pledge doesn't mean anything except at the time you take it—that you're not bound by it before or afterward."

Not Seeking Presidency The governor said he knew nothing of a reported plan for the Texas delegation to the next presidential convention to back him for the presidency as "a favorite son." "That's one thing I'm not a candidate for," he said. He added, however, that he would go along with whatever the party wanted to do. He said he didn't know if the Texas delegation might have more bargaining power that way or not. Shepperd said Thursday he believes Texas' new election law gives party officials new power to make sure only loyal members vote in its convention and seek nomination in its primaries.

Strategists Work On Party Platforms For October Ballot

LONDON—P.—British party strategists toiled over policy statements Friday in an attempt to hammer out platforms for the October 25 elections before the weekend. Prime Minister Clement Attlee makes his first campaign speech Saturday at a Scottish Labor Party conference. At about the same time, Winston Churchill and his Conservative Party aides will hold their first formal campaign session to complete the party's manifesto—the statement of election aims to the people. Most of it has been drafted by R. A. Butler, who was education minister in Churchill's wartime coalition cabinet and now is one of the Tory brain trust. The Labor Party manifesto probably will be given its finishing touches at a party national executive committee meeting Monday.

Texas Trucker Faces Manslaughter Charge

CHILLICOTHE, MO.—P.—A manslaughter charge was filed Thursday against a Galveston, Texas, man in the death Tuesday of three Lamar, Colo., persons. Charged was Charles W. Saunders, 26, reportedly the driver of a tractor trailer involved in an accident that killed Mr. and Mrs. Howard Leggett and their son. A coroner's jury held there was "culpable negligence" by the truck driver. Saunders in a hospital, did not testify. Witnesses testified the truck was passing another car on a curve.

House Votes

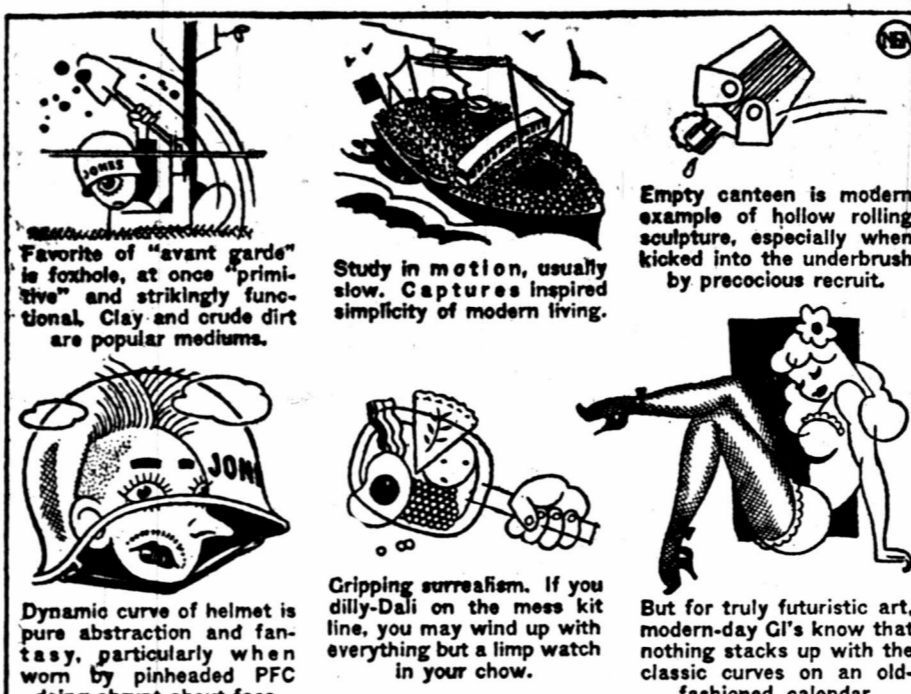

(Continued From Page One) post offices would get a 20 per cent increase in their salary. Hourly employees would get 20 cents an hour more. In another bill, the House also voted salary boost aggregating $18,900,000 to the nation's 42,000 postmasters and 28,000 postal supervisors. The House then voted $417,445,000 a year in increases for approximately 1,043,614 employees of the legislative, executive and judicial branches of government. Legislative employees—those working for Congress—got a special break. The House adopted an amendment by Representative Burton (D-Tenn.) giving them a pay boost of ten per cent or $400, whichever was the higher, with a top of $800. About 995,000 of the non-postal service workers covered by the increase are civil service employees. The remainder are employed by federal courts, Congress, the Veterans Administration's department of medicine and surgery, and the foreign service.

Allied Armor

(Continued From Page One) times they were thrown back. It was the strongest Communist stand in months. Early Friday, 209 armed Korean Reds tried to enter Allied lines with a fake offer to surrender. When their ruse became apparent, UN artillery and warplanes opened up on them. At least 50 Reds were killed by the artillery. Pilots said they couldn't estimate casualties from the air strikes, because the North Koreans took refuge in thick foliage. But the Air Force reported "80 to 90 per cent coverage" of the area where the Reds sought cover. Ten mile away, 22 Korean Reds did surrender. Stunned by constant pounding from the air, they laid down their arms and crossed the lines with their hands held high. One out of 50 persons in Singapore owns an automobile.

ART IS WHERE YOU FIND IT—When New York's Museum of Modern Art let its long hair down recently with the announcement that the G.I. Jeep "is one of the few genuine expressions of machine art," an NEA artist blew his heret! Contending that the museum overlooked many other examples of esthetic inspiration in Army life, this garret-dweller supported his argument with the above illustrations. He admitted, however, that when one's critical faculties have been dulled by long hours of sculpturing spuds, there's nothing like the traditional "barracks art" at lower right.

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Pat Rooney, the New York-born leprechaun whose tapping feet have delighted America for 63 years, blinked contentedly in the sun on his tiny balcony overlooking Broadway and decided success was his at last.

Big Three Agree On Separate NATO Middle East Force

OTTAWA—P.—The United States, Britain and France have agreed substantially on organization of a separate North Atlantic Treaty military command in the Middle East. It was reported Friday, when Greece and Turkey join the Atlantic alliance. Diplomatic informants said this was an unexpected result of private Big Three talks held here during breaks in the Atlantic Council. The last of these was held Thursday just before the council, as the last big decision of its Ottawa meeting, finally voted unanimously for Greek-Turkish membership. The conference ended in late afternoon. The next session will be held in Rome in November, and Gen Dwight D. Eisenhower, NATO commander in Europe, is being invited to report personally on the progress and future requirements of his force. Turkey Is Keystone The plan feared to have been agreed on tentatively—subject to expected approval of other NATO members and Greece and Turkey—would put Greece under General Eisenhower's European command. "Turkey would serve as the keystone of a new command around which the powers here hoped to coordinate the strategy and armed forces of the key Middle Eastern countries, like the Arab states, even though they do not belong to NATO. The contention of the military men is that the practical basis for such an extraordinary grouping of countries could be found in their common need for a joint defense against possible Soviet attack. The heart of the idea therefore is to forge a new and powerful military element on Russia's flank, to link it tightly with NATO through Turkey but not to be bound by NATO membership limitations in making it effective.

Taft Condemns Brannan Farm Plan

GRAND FORKS, N. D.—(P)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) Friday said the Truman Administration farm subsidy proposals are a "fraud" to promise high prices to farmers and low prices to consumers. The Ohio senator said farmers are entitled to support prices just as much as laborers are to minimum wages. Taft assailed the Brannan farm subsidy payment plan which Congress has rejected, without directly naming it.

washed with 500 gallons of mud acid. The total depth is 8,641 feet and top of the Pennsylvanian is at

'All Measures' Will Be Utilized To Get Fair Cotton Price

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Brannan Friday asserted all reasonable and available measures will be utilized to help producers receive a "fair price" for cotton.

Brannan, in a letter, outlined some steps the department has taken.

His letter was a reply to a plea
by Representative Abernathy (D-Miss.) for government action to help cotton producers who planted a huge crop this year in response to government pleas. Prices are sagging.

One suggestion is that the government stockpile up to 3,000,000 bales of cotton for the defense effort. Brannan said such suggestions "present several problems when related to the policies and objectives of the stockpile legislation." He did not detail these problems.

Being Considered
He added that the suggestions "are receiving serious consideration in conjunction with other agencies and congressional leaders."

Brannan listed these as other steps initiated or promoted:
Lifting quantitative export allocations for cotton and placing exports on open-ended allocations.

Initiation of a special field program fully advising producers, credit agencies and cotton industry and other interested groups of the cotton supply and demand outlook, the record of cotton loan program benefits and how to get CCC loans.

Urging the ECA and the military to buy raw and finished cotton now.
To encourage exports, the Export-Import Bank was asked to recultivate its cotton credit export program and "the bank indicated it is prepared to give prompt consideration to requests for financing cotton exports."

Republicans Blast Truman Prediction Of Victory In '52

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republicans blasted at President Truman's 1952 victory predictions Friday while Southern Democrats took grim note of his intent to help draft his own party's platform.

Almost to a man, Republicans disputed hotly the President's assertion at a news conference Thursday that this opposition has no issues and is resorting to misrepresentation and smear.

Senator Knowland (R-Calif.) put the sentiment of many of his colleagues into words with the declaration: "The people will have a chance to decide whether there are any issues in 1952 and they will express themselves on efficiency and integrity in government by electing a Republican president."

"Let Him Dream"
Republican National Committee
Chairman Guy G. Gabrielson said in a statement:

"The people know the issues.
Under the Truman Administration
there have been corruption, inflation, high taxes and war. If Mr. Truman wants to shut his eyes and pretend they don't exist, let him enjoy the dream while it lasts."

The President's observation that he intends to have a hand in drafting the 1952 Democratic program seemingly indicated that Southerners who hope for softening of the 1948 civil rights plank at a next year's convention will have a fight on their hands.

Recognizing this, most of the Dixie lawmakers avoided public comment.

Senator Thorpe (R-Minn.) said he thinks Truman is taking "something of a positive position and hoping that he will kid the American people into believing him."

"He fooled the people once that way in 1948, but I don't think he'll be able to do it again," they said.

Andrews Moves To Get Off 'Black List' For Braceros

ANDREWS—For some reason unknown here, Andrews County appears on the "black list" as far as Mexican national labor is concerned.

Judge Milton Ramsey left El Paso
by plane Friday for Mexico City to confer with Mexican government officials. Ramsey previously has contacted the American Embassy in Mexico City and also the Mexican consul in Alpine but neither enlightened him on the question.

Since it is only a matter of days until this needed labor should be available, the quickest means of clearing up the misunderstanding is being used.

Ramsey was misinformed on the trip by Judge James McMorries of Stanton. They will meet with Mexican officials Saturday.

State Seeks City For Location Of Training School

AUSTIN (AP)—The Youth Development Council is looking for a community to volunteer as the location for a $400,000 boys training school.

The council isn't sure whether the new unit will house the "maximum security" or "minimum security" youths. The first group is in the minority but it is made up of the toughest cases, the boys who need special treatment and probably a long period of rehabilitation before returning to society.

The second group, "minimum security," contains the youngsters who generally can be given a good bit of freedom and can be returned quickly to their communities as good citizens.

Three Man Committee
Unable to agree which group should be left at Gatesville, presently the state's lone training school for boys, the council directed a three-man committee to study the problem extensively and report next month.

Several members said they doubted a minimum security school could be built for $400,000 in view of the greater number of inmates it would have to house and because workshops and classrooms would be needed if the community could not furnish them.

Others thought the minimum security youngsters should get the advantage of a modern school and one without the stigma already attached to Gatesville. And they thought it should be near an urban area such as Dallas, Houston, Fort Worth or Beaumont, where psychiatric aid would be available.

INJURES RIGHT HAND

the Texas Highway Construction Company, received abrasions of the

ing. He was given emergency treatment and released at Midland Memorial Hospital.
