HICO G. L. FINDS TRANSPORTATION IN AUSTRALIA A TRIPLE ON SLOW SIDE

Australia June 27, 1944. Dear Holfords: I received three copies of the News R. today and have thoroughly enjoyed them. I haven't written in a good while, but honest, I have been having a hard time writing to Mom and Dad lately.

Things have really changed up around here since I first arrived, but here's hoping that before I get home I can get a smell of Tokio; and I could probably do that from five hundred miles or more. As long as I am away from home, I'd like to travel around and who knows I may never get an all-expenses-paid trip again.

July 4, I started this letter a week ago and I am going to finish it if it takes another week. We didn't celebrate today with a holiday, but the Aussies took off for us, so I read in a paper. They have about a seven-day holiday every other week over here now, so I guess in peace time they must have it fairly easy.

I received a letter from Mother telling about Raymond Howerton's death, but I already knew about it and couldn't mention the fact. I'd like to send my congratulations to Babe Horton for doing such a good job in Europe. No sooner than he got there, than things started rolling. Maybe by the time you get this, he will be on his way over here to help sink Tokio.

I am sweating out a furlough now and this time I intend to go to Melbourne. They are pretty good about giving us furloughs, and if it wasn't for transportation difficulties we could go on a trip every six months. We fly down and well, I guess you could call it a ride back on a train. But it's really a trolley on the last four days and nights. The last time I was down south I thought I was coming back on a boat and think I would have gotten the best of the deal if I had.

You may have gotten some copies of Yank, but I am sending you some anyway. We can keep pretty well up to date through them, although you do have to stand in line half a mile long to get one—they don't run out just before your time.

Your friend, RAY. (Cpl. Ray Cheek)

SGT. HAROLD RUSSELL, TAIL GUNNER ON B-29 REPORTS FROM C-B-1

June 10, 1944. Dear Holford: It may be a big surprise to hear from me, but here I am. I have received a few of your papers since March, and I began to realize how much I miss the home paper when it doesn't come, especially the With the Colors column—and the rest of the paper, too. Holford, you couldn't do a better job than you're doing. [A blush and a low bow from the sweat-soaked editor.]

I am sure I have never told you I was in the China-Burma-India Theater, and am stationed in India. But now I can.

I am a tail gunner on a B-29 Super-Fortress, and I really like the work. I guess you have been getting lots of news about the B-29. Well, it is doing everything they say it does, too. I had some clippings that I was going to send you, but must have misplaced them.

I have been over the hump and over in China several times. The Chinese people sure are friendly and would do anything possible to help you.

I had better sign off, and hope to see all of you soon.

Yours, SGT. JOHN H. RUSSELL. P. S.: The monsoon season is here. Rain, rain, rain.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM LOCAL MAN OVERSEAS—LET'S DO THIS MORE OFTEN!

India, E. P. D. Company 3 July 1944

Dear Mr. Holford: I have been trying to write you a letter ever since leaving the States, but every time the occasion presented itself, something always interrupted. But after receiving the March 24th issue at this late date, I decided to not let a day pass without at least writing a few lines, hoping I won't become so involved as did Engineer Henry.

You know Mark Twain once said in his writings that people had not seen anything until they had seen India. Even that statement does not cover it fully for it surely is a most unusual and interesting place—even in time of war. From riches to rags; from jewels to clay; from sublime to unbelievable; all stirred up with a combination of ancient to modern, create a living illusion that makes it necessary for you to pinch yourself to believe what the eyes see. Practically everything in India is done by hand and by the sheer force of numbers alone. And the majority of these people cling to customs and habits almost as old as history, yet they have a culture and intelligence that can measure

"Home Boy" Due to Conduct Services At Duffau Meeting

G. W. (WASH) McCOLLUM

The Duffau Church of Christ has announced a series of gospel meetings to start Friday, July 21, and continue through Sunday, July 30.

Eld. Stanley Giesecke, local minister, will have charge of the preaching at the first three services. It is announced after which the preaching will be done by G. W. (Wash) McCollum, a native of this section, now pastor at Ardmore, Oklahoma. Services will begin at 9 o'clock each evening.

"Wash" will expect you to be here on the dot," the announcement reads. "He is interested only in the salvation of souls. It will do you good to hear him if you want to hear pure, unadulterated gospel."

Important Notice To All County H. D. Club Members

There will be an important meeting for all Home Demonstration Club members, next Saturday July 22, at 3:30 o'clock in the district courtroom at Hamilton.

Due to A. & M. College's recent action in dismissing Miss Mildred Horton, State Agent and Vice-Director of Extension Service, Miss Onah Jacks, State 4-H Club Agent and Miss Minnie Grubbs, District 4 Agent, without stated reason or hearing, your Texas Home Demonstration Association's board of directors have taken definite action.

It is imperative that each club woman in the State of Texas receive further information and express their opinion on said action. If your name is on our 1944 club roll, this is your meeting regardless of regular attendance to club meetings. Come! It is your duty as a rural Texan!

INSTALLING COOLER AT CPS POWER PLANT HERE

A new evaporative cooler has been installed at the local power plant of Community Public Service Co., according to the local manager, O. L. Davis. Helping with the installation and tuning up last Saturday were a number of out-of-town company representatives who worked with Davis, W. H. Green-slit, and Sam Kirkland.

Among the visitors in town for the day were C. P. Coston of Clifton, division manager; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McMahon and children, and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kunds of Fort Worth.

The latter spent the week end in the Greenslit home.

British Royal Army Nurses in France

Members of Queen Alexandra's Imperial military nursing service, which is attached to the British army, are shown on their arrival in France to assist in tending the wounded. A truckload of the nurses is shown here on their way to captured territory of the Normandy front. Thousands of American and British nurses are now carrying on their work in France among the civilians as well as the military population.

Election Saturday, Also Occasion For Precinct Conventions

Saturday, July 22, is the time set for the Democratic first primary, and the interest in politics that has been evident for the past few days indicates that there will be about the customary number of ballots to count in boxes of this community, in spite of the fact that politics got off to a slow start this year.

A. A. Brown, Democratic precinct chairman at Hico, was up from Camp Hood last week end making arrangements for the holding of the local election. He said that he would be unable to be here to supervise the balloting, but expected to make appointments of an election judge and assistants. It is understood that all ballots and supplies are on hand.

Mr. Brown also called attention of Democrats to the fact that this is the time for a precinct convention, and hoped that there would be a sufficient number present to send delegates to the county convention and transact whatever further business might come up. The convention has been announced for the regular time, 2 p. m., to be held upstairs over the city hall.

Farleton College to Again Offer Inter-Collegiate Sports

Special to The News Review: STEPHENVILLE, July 17. — J. Thomas Davis, Dean of John Tarleton Agricultural College, has announced that the college will again enter the ranks of colleges to maintain inter-collegiate sports. All inter-collegiate sports were discontinued by Tarleton in 1942 due to travel restrictions and to a shortage of suitable player material.

Athletic Director Jimmie Marshall has issued a call to candidates for a fall semester football team and is contacting other colleges and army camps of the area to complete a schedule.

Plans are also under way to re-institute intercollegiate basketball competition during the 1944-45 season. It will be recalled that the Tarleton Nowboys set a world's record during the 1935-36-37 seasons for consecutive games won.

Wife of Former Hico Newspaperman Called by Death

Word was received here Thursday morning of the sudden death of Mrs. Ida T. Aiton, 814 South Cumberland, Dallas. Funeral arrangements are pending word from her three sons in service, two of whom are on the East Coast, and the third on duty at the Fleet Post Office, San Diego, California.

Mrs. Ella Bullard, mother-in-law of Mrs. Tracy Bullard, the former Mary Aiton, left for Dallas immediately after receiving the message. The late John M. Aiton owned and edited the News Review for a number of years, and the family has a large number of friends in and around Hico.

REVIVAL AT PRAIRIE SPRINGS

The News Review is requested to announce that there will be a revival meeting at Prairie Springs Baptist Church, starting Friday, July 21 (tonight) and lasting a week.

Services will begin at 9:00 p. m. Rev. R. A. Cox of Stephenville will do the preaching. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Notes From Office of Hamilton County Home Demonstrator

Miss Thelma Keese, Hamilton County Home Demonstration Agent, has requested publication of the following information: "As chairman of the War Food Committee which had its regular monthly meeting in Hico Monday night of last week, I regret that I did not see to it that some story was gotten to you about the meeting. The nine of us who were there enjoyed the meeting which was held at the H. E. Cottage very much. Mr. Knox and Mr. and Mrs. Keeney all contributed to the program which was about poultry and poultry products.

"Below I am mentioning the orders for pears that the group working as the co-op buying committee of our H. D. Council is getting up. Since Miss Hammons is not here in Hico, I just assume that Mr. Lasater is acting as chairman or that he can tell you who is. Mr. Bramlett might know, since he is in charge of the canning center."

Pear Orders As part of the cooperative buying program which the Home Demonstration Council is carrying out this year to help people in the county to have more fruit, orders for pears are being placed this week with community chairmen. All persons interested in obtaining pears through their should place their names on the chairman's list now. The order will be closed without advance notice.

On Canning Fruit Juices Fruit juices may be canned safely without the use of sugar; however, adding it helps hold the color and flavor of the juice.

This assurance comes from Mrs. Winifred Levenenz, specialist in food preservation for the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, who says she has received numerous inquiries on the subject from Texas homemakers. The juice may be canned in glass fruit jars or in bottles with crown caps. If it is put up in bottles, a capper must be used. The specialist especially warns against sealing bottles with corks dipped in wax or paraffin, because this type of seal will not withstand processing.

Bottles and jars should be smooth-free from nicks and cracks. After washing, they should be heated in water until it boils. Crown caps for the bottles should be wiped clean with a damp cloth but should not be washed. Just before the caps are used they should be dipped in boiling water.

Mrs. Levenenz advises handling only small batches of ripe, firm fruit at a time. She says the secret of keeping the fine natural flavor and color of the fruit lies in heating just enough to sterilize but not so much that the color and flavor change.

Berries, red cherries and plums are prepared for juice by removing the pits, crushing, and heating to simmering. Then they are strained through cloth bags. Add sugar as desired, about a half to a cup of sugar for each gallon of juice, depending on the sweetness of the fruit. After the sugar is added, heat the juice again to simmering and pour into the hot jars or bottles. Fill jars to one-fourth inch of the top and bottles to one-half inch of the top. Adjust the lids of jars or seal caps on bottles. Process either pint or quart jars or bottles in a boiling water bath for 15 to 20 minutes.

Funeral Services Held July 9th For Mary June Harris

Funeral services for Mary June Harris were held at the Barrow Funeral Chapel on Sunday, July 9, at 5 p. m., conducted by Rev. O. D. Carpenter, pastor of the First Baptist Church, assisted by Rev. Floyd W. Thrash, pastor of the Hico Methodist Church. Burial was made in the Hico Cemetery.

Mary June was born June 2, 1933 to Neely and Lerona Harris and died July 6 in the Stephenville Hospital after a short illness. She attended school in Iredell. Her father passed away seven years ago. She leaves to mourn her going: her mother, one sister, Mrs. Juanita Parton, and four brothers, Delmas with the armed forces at Atlanta, Ga., Pat, Arnold and Jeff of Hico.

OPENING SERVICE STATION

Hershel Sherrard of Clairette announces this week that he has leased the Gulf Station, formerly operated by L. J. Chaney on the Stephenville highway.

For several months this station has been closed and Louis has given his entire time to his machine and welding shop, located in the same building, which he will continue to operate.

A display advertisement in this issue of the paper extends to the public a cordial invitation to visit with them.

Infantile Paralysis Expected Frequently In Next 3 Months

Austin, July 18.—"Infantile paralysis can be expected to occur more frequently during the next three months," declared Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. "This disease is always more frequent during the hot months."

"The germ responsible for infantile paralysis is so small that it escapes detection even with the most powerful microscopes. The first symptoms are usually vomiting, headache, fever, stiffness of the neck, pain in the legs, irritability and drowsiness. Complete recovery may follow such an illness; but in more severe cases, the germ penetrates the nervous system, resulting in paralysis of nerves controlling one, or more, groups of muscles. Some remarkable recoveries have been noted.

"Flies, or other insects, while under suspicion, have not been demonstrated to play a part in the spread of this disease. Infection spreads from person to person with the droplets attending coughing and sneezing. Children and grown people that are healthy may be carriers of the germ. When present in epidemic form, about one child in each hundred is apt to suffer an attack.

"Early recognition and diagnosis are essential. The use of immune serum may be a factor in preventing paralysis. A period of complete rest is essential for muscles that are affected. If parents note any symptoms of illness in their children, the family doctor should be consulted at once."

Sherman Man Awarded Degree of Lone Star Farmer

The following dispatch from daily papers concerns J. A. "Hot" Alexander, formerly of Garland, and the uncle of Mrs. Harry C. Alexander, the former Harry Aycock, now of that city.

SHERMAN, July 17.—For his interest and cooperation in work with Future Farmers of America, J. A. Alexander, superintendent of the Woodmen's Circle home west of Sherman and president of the Sherman Chamber of Commerce, has been awarded the honorary degree of Lone Star Farmer by the Texas association of FFA.

The award was made by L. I. Samuel of Arlington, superintendent of North Texas area of FFA, as part of a program for Sherman Rotary Club.

Alexander is the fourth Sherman citizen to receive the degree which is given on recommendation of vocational agriculture teachers of this area. Others who hold the honor are Lee Simmons, Frank Thompson and John H. Perry.

Volunteer Firemen Attend Meeting At Gorman Tuesday

The Hico Volunteer Fire Department was represented at the Mid-Texas Fire Association Tuesday night, which met at Gorman, Texas.

The Gorman department had some interesting demonstrations in dealing with incendiary bombs. Some contest runs were made in extinguishing a mock fire on the roof of a two-story building.

After the exercises the visiting teams were served cantaloupe, ice cream, and cake. The Hico team consisted of Ollie Davis, Sherman Robertson, Chas. Meador, Lewis Chaney, Reese Carmichael, and George Griffiths.

New H. E. Director For Lone Star Gas Company Announced

MISS JULIA HUNTER

Appointment of Miss Julia Hunter as home economics director for Lone Star Gas Company has been announced by Will C. Grant of Dallas, advertising director for the company. Miss Hunter succeeds Miss Albertine Berry who resigned to accept another position.

Miss Hunter has been assistant home economics director. Her first experience with the gas company was as home economist in the Galveston division. A native of Sherman, she was graduated from high school at Denton where she attended North Texas State Teachers College and later received her B. S. degree in home economics from the Texas State College for Women. Before coming with Lone Star, Miss Hunter was home management supervisor for the Farm Security Administration in the Wichita Falls area, and prior to that time taught home economics in the public schools.

General aims of the home economics department are to give friendly service to customers through timely and authentic information; show customers how to use their gas appliances to the best advantage, and how to take proper care of these appliances; spread the news of latest inventions and improvements in gas ranges, refrigerators, water heaters, heating equipment and air conditioning, and to give general household assistance.

Specific activities include two radio programs weekly, one over WFAA Tuesday morning at 8:45 and the other on Friday morning over KRLD at 9:15; the weekly Modern Homemaking Bulletin on recipes and household advice which has a peak circulation of 30,000 copies each week; classes to promote food conservation through home canning; nutrition courses on ways to provide properly balanced meals; demonstrations before home economics classes, women's clubs and service groups.

No changes in the general operations of the department are contemplated, Mr. Grant said, but plans are being made for a considerable expansion after the war. In addition to Miss Hunter, the home economics staff now consists of Margaret Nevill, Dallas; Winifred Cantrell, Waco; Arvilla Patton, Denison; Mary Sue Herndon, Wichita Falls; Lucie Lee Carley and Sue Glaze, Fort Worth.

SMALL FIRE SUNDAY NIGHT

Fire about 11 p. m. Sunday called members of the local department to the residence of Mrs. J. O. Davis, where a fire in bedding in the apartment of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Russ was quickly extinguished.

Hico School Board Announces Several Faculty Changes

The Hico School Board, in session Wednesday night, accepted the resignation of I. L. Lasater as superintendent. Mrs. Virgie Lasater, a commercial teacher, Mrs. Jewell S. Miller, third grade teacher, and Rev. Floyd W. Thrash, elementary principal.

Mr. Lasater has accepted the superintendency of Winters Public Schools, Winters, Texas. Mrs. Miller will teach with her husband in the Iredell schools. Rev. Thrash will devote all of his time to his church pastorate.

On July 19th, the Hico School Board elected Mr. J. E. Lincoln of Coolee, Texas to succeed Mr. Lasater as superintendent at Hico. Mrs. J. E. Lincoln was elected to teach in the elementary school.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln have been connected with the Coolee Public Schools since the departure of H. T. Pinson who was given a leave of absence for the period of his military service. In connection with the announcement, Mr. Lasater made the following statement: "I wish to take this opportunity to express my appreciation and thanks to the Hico school officials, teachers, patrons, and students for the splendid cooperation and association while we were connected with this school and community. "It has been more than a pleasure to work here among a group of people who have been so considerate and friendly. We regret to leave this community at this time, but we believe opportunities must be carefully considered and accepted if justifiable.

"Mrs. Lasater and Mary Katherine Join me in expressing these words of appreciation. They are visiting relatives in Roswell, New Mexico during the month of July."

The above announcement came from the office of I. L. Lasater, acting superintendent of Hico Public Schools since the departure of H. T. Pinson who was given a leave of absence for the period of his military service. In connection with the announcement, Mr. Lasater made the following statement: "I wish to take this opportunity to express my appreciation and thanks to the Hico school officials, teachers, patrons, and students for the splendid cooperation and association while we were connected with this school and community. "It has been more than a pleasure to work here among a group of people who have been so considerate and friendly. We regret to leave this community at this time, but we believe opportunities must be carefully considered and accepted if justifiable.

Navy Mail Service Ready for Volume of Christmas Mail

DALLAS, July 17.—The Navy Mail Service has already initiated plans to handle the volume of Christmas mail for Navy, Marine, and Coast Guard personnel stationed overseas. Mail this year is expected to exceed last year's record figures, according to Eighth Naval District Headquarters.

The 30-day period from September 15 to October 15, 1944, has been designated as Christmas Mail Month for Bluejackets, Marines, and Coast Guardsmen outside the United States. With distances so vast and fleet operations so widespread, every effort should be made to mail early in this period in order to assure delivery of packages to men in the farthest outposts.

Christmas gift packages this year will be accepted for mailing only within the present limitations of weight and size—five pounds in weight, 15 inches in length and 36 inches in length and girth combined. Perishable articles will not be accepted for mailing and every effort will be made to discourage the mailing of fragile articles that cannot survive transportation to war zones.

Emphasis is being placed on the necessity of addressing packages properly. Incorrect addresses may hold up the mails an average of 90 days and sometimes longer. Last year, several thousand Navy Christmas packages were delayed due to this factor.

Plans are now being formulated by the War, Navy and Post Office Departments in conjunction with the Office of War Information and the War Advertising Council for a nationwide campaign to inform the public of all phases of Christmas mail regulations in an effort to secure wholehearted cooperation in mailing early, wrapping packages carefully, and addressing them properly with the purpose of insuring safe and prompt delivery of the servicemen's Christmas mail.

Where Do We Go From Normandy?

In his first press conference on the Normandy beachhead, Lieut. Gen. Omar Bradley, commander of the American ground forces, points the way toward Berlin. The general was obviously pleased at what he had to tell the war correspondents. The capture of the port of Cherbourg made it possible for him to turn his eyes toward larger and stronger fields, eventually with eyes set on Berlin.

Well it is hot and dry in School District 23, Erath County.

We are blessed with candidates this week, which is perfectly natural. I suppose, at this stage of the game, it is presumed that this box, No. 7, will vote its entire strength, which normally is 180.

Loy Nichols and family of Midland, together with Mrs. Nichols' parents, were visiting relatives here Monday night.

Stanley Roach and Marvin Bailey have returned from the Amarillo country, where they have been assisting in the bumper wheat crop. Edd Bradford and wife of Hico visited Edd's sister, Mrs. F. M. Holland, Sunday afternoon.

C. R. Burgan and Lon Lackey visited homefolks last Sunday. These men work on the new highway near Lipan.

G. K. Lewallen, brother of Marvin Lewallen, visited relatives here last week. G. K. was escorted by his new bride. Their home is in New York City.

Now for the crop outlook: The south part of our community received a two-inch rain last week. Grain was fairly good, out on the prairie, and threshing is completed. Cotton and peanuts are looking good. Some pretty fair corn. We are needing a rain very badly.

We are going to expect you to attend our meeting, which is announced in another part of the paper this week.

HOUSTON WHITE MAKES STATEMENT TO ALL THE PEOPLE OF HAMILTON CO.

I express my heartfelt thanks for your help during the time I have served as your Sheriff. Without your backing, Hamilton County would not have the reputation in Texas of being law abiding and standing for law enforcement, so that as a result the worse criminals stay elsewhere.

The office of Sheriff belongs to you and I have served because you hired me to do the job. I have never forgotten that I am just working for the people, and to any criticism that I have served you a long time, I can only say that I am proud because you have so often placed your trust and confidence in me, and that I regard it as a compliment instead of a mark against me, because you do not fire a hand in your private business because he has stayed with you sometime.

To repay you for this trust and confidence, I have been ready, day or night, to do my duty to the extent of my ability, without regard to pay or profit. I refer you to the men on the juries for their impartial opinions where you have not had occasion to come in contact with law enforcement in any way. The protection of you, your homes, families and property from crime comes first with me. I also appreciate those citizens who are big enough to realize there is nothing personal or political about good enforcement, and who though personally interested, stay with me as long as I am in the right, for they will not be a party to a wrong.

We all agree that our fine men who are giving so much on foreign fields should not lose out at home and we want the next election to have in it those who cannot run or vote this time. I would not, if I could, make a "second term" claim against a man who could not run now and they are getting the training to make first-class officers.

I want you to treat this as my having asked you in person to give me your vote and influence, until I can thank you as I go about the County on business, for then I will not be using my tires, gasoline and car for personal use. I promise you the best service in my power to give, and if you see fit to honor me again, it will be my aim to enforce your laws fairly and impartially, without fear or favor.

Thanking you again for past and present consideration, I am Sincerely yours, HOUSTON WHITE, Candidate for Re-Election as Sheriff.

Fighting Together... FOR VICTORY!

Hundreds of thousands of bags of TEXO Range Feeds have been delivered this season to food-producing cattlemen in the Southwest, who understand the full significance FOOD is playing in winning the war and will play in "writing the peace." Your job of producing FOOD is important . . . is vital . . . as is the harder job of our men on the firing lines. We are proud of our part in helping you to produce more "FOOD FOR VICTORY."

However, because of conditions beyond our control, we have been unable to make shipments as fast as we'd like. We know you'll understand that we are faithfully filling to the best of our ability all contracts accepted by us. Considering shortages of ingredients, delays in transportation and the lack of manpower, we feel that we are doing a good job. Burrus Feed Mills have been producing "around the clock" to supply you . . . and will continue to produce and deliver your TEXO Range Feeds as fast as possible under present war conditions.

The Burrus motto of three generations, now as in the past, is "To give our fellowman the best possible products that honest business procedure, science, capital and labor can produce."

Your Vote for Congress Is An Important Vote!

R. M. (BOB) WAGSTAFF

NO OTHER PLACE ON THE BALLOT IS AS IMPORTANT TO YOU AS THE OFFICE OF REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS

You are electing the man who will represent you in decisions which will vitally affect the future of this nation. You cannot afford to make a mistake. This country faces more serious problems than ever before in its history.

This nation must solve the problem of war or peace; must balance its budget and finance a $300,000,000,000 debt; must solve the unemployment problem; must restore trade with foreign nations; must eliminate most boards and bureaus, and keep this Government a democratic republic.

Problems of this character can never be solved unless we send to Congress men who are well qualified for the office.

Bob Wagstaff is a native Texan, a veteran of World War I, a successful lawyer of the highest standing. His record in the 42nd and 43rd Legislatures shows him to have been an outstanding leader with the ability to accomplish things in a legislative body. His record and experience qualify him to represent the people of the 17th District.

He has never held a full-time political office and is not a perpetual office seeker. He will bring a fresh viewpoint to the solution of problems which confront our nation.

JESSE E. MARTIN FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL The Only Ex-Serviceman in the Race!

Fairy

By Mrs. J. O. Richardson

We have had about one inch of rain since our last writing, but it still seems dry and dusty, with high temperatures.

This community was well represented at the Blood Donor Center at Hamilton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Jenkins and two small sons of San Saba county have moved recently to the farm and ranch home they recently purchased from Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Hutchens. The place is known as the Hughes place. Mr. and Mrs. Hutchens have purchased the A. O. Allen place in the Falls Creek community and are making some repairs on same. We understand they are residing in Hico until the house is ready for occupancy. We regret to lose Mr. and Mrs. Hutchens from our community, but welcome the Jenkins family into our midst.

Mrs. A. L. Newman is suffering from the effects of poison ivy.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolfe and two children, Mrs. Daisy Bass, and Mrs. Florence Willingham of Woodson, Texas, and Mrs. Fannie Ray and husband of Brownfield are visiting here at this writing, in the home of their brother, H. H. Wolfe, and niece, Mrs. Wallace Edwards. Frank and his sisters formerly resided here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Brummitt spent last week end in Dallas, as guests of their daughters, Misses Maggie and Geraldine. They were joined there by Mr. and Mrs. Robert (Red) Hedgpeth and baby, who had been visiting relatives in Houston during his furlough. Sorry we do not have his rating. He is serving as a cook in the Army. Robert formerly resided here and attended Fairy school.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison and son, Texie Dell, spent Sunday in Waco as guests of their daughters and sisters. Mr. and Mrs. Della Seago and daughter, Sherry Dell, Mrs. Edwin Sellheimer, and Miss Peggy Ruth Allison. Mrs. Sellheimer expects to leave soon to join her husband who is in the service and stationed in Kansas.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Parks have recently received a cablegram from their son, Cpl. Audie Parks, stating he had landed safely overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss Newman, Mrs. E. M. Hoover and daughter, Patsy Ann, were visitors in the P. L. Cox home Sunday afternoon and night to be with Cpl. and Mrs. Charles Price of Austin. Mrs. Price is the former Miss Marcelle Cox. Corporal Price is stationed in Orlando, Florida, with a machine records unit. He and Mrs. Price had been to Corstean for a visit with his mother, returning by Fairy to visit her parents. They returned to Austin early Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers attended a family reunion near Jonesboro last Sunday, given in honor of his brother, Frank, who has been home on furlough. He will return to Camp Shelby, Miss., today (Friday).

Mr. and Mrs. Mose Jones and son of California have spent several days here visiting relatives. They returned late Sunday, accompanied by his brother, Merriam Jones, and stepmother, Mrs. Margaret Jones, who will spend several days there visiting her children and grandchildren.

Mezames N. S. Sellers, Willie Gilmer and Norman Thompson were visiting Monday afternoon in the home of their son and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers.

Horse-Car Used as 'Object Lesson'

Mayor Roger D. Lapham (right) took a few pointers from J. H. Grashaw, veteran motorman, as he began operating a horse-drawn street car up Market street, in San Francisco. The car, withdrawn from retirement, headed a parade to dramatize the need for unifying and modernizing the San Francisco street car system.

Final Statement From Sam M. Russell, Candidate For Re-Election to Congress

On this the eve of the first Primary election which is to be held Saturday, I desire to express my appreciation for the fine spirit of friendship and cooperation that has been extended me since I have been your Representative in Congress. I am also grateful for your understanding of the conditions existing during these trying times.

Most of you know that Congress recessed just a few days ago and that by reason of the many important measures that were coming up daily, I felt it my important duty to stay on the job and help protect the best interests of our Country. I believe you would rather I did than come home and campaign for reelection. As a result of this situation it has become physically impossible for me to see you personally and campaign with you. It would have been one of the happiest privileges of my life to visit in the homes of all the people in the District.

It is for this reason that I now come to you in my final word, addressing you as my friends and asking that you help me in the election next Saturday. Your support in the past has meant much to me. It has been an inspiration and encouragement through the hard days of the grind we have had to go through in the Nation's Capital. Now it will be doubly encouraging for me to go back to Washington and carry on in the interest of the great people of my District, State, and Nation. It is my desire to do this for you, and it will be doubly encouraging to receive a large vote at your hands next Saturday. I take this method of asking each of you to consider this a personal appeal, and that you give me your kind consideration and vote of confidence on Saturday, the 22nd of July, for which I shall always be grateful, and shall try to repay you with the best service possible.

I am,

SAM M. RUSSELL

O. R. Clifton and Mrs. Bill Nix were Stephenville visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Hodges of Kermit and Mrs. Floyd Yocham of Rankin visited Mrs. Ray King and children Wednesday night, and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Yocham Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moore, John Allen and Janice were Stephenville visitors Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Bill Nix, who had spent last week with her parents, returned Saturday to Paris, where her husband is at Camp Maxey.

Sgt. and Mrs. Vernon Jones of Waco visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry McAnelly and Mr. and Mrs. Mack Jones, Thursday night and Friday.

Martin Bingham visited his sister, Mrs. J. H. Goad, in Hico Sunday.

Aug 10th is cemetery working day at Altman. All who can, come help clean the yard.

Your electric refrigerator will last longer and cost less to run if you . . .

Keep the Condenser Clean

The condenser of your electric refrigerator looks something like the radiator on your car and serves a similarly important purpose.

The condenser's job is to cool the refrigerant and dissipate the heat it absorbs from the food compartment. On some models, it is vertical and fan cooled; on others, it is horizontal and cooled by convection. Usually it has fins attached to the coils to increase the cooling area.

Dirt and dust deposited on the condenser interfere with its cooling efficiency and increase the running time of the motor, resulting in higher operating costs.

To prevent this, clean the condenser periodically. A bottle brush or the suction hose of a vacuum cleaner are ideal tools for the job. Keep the entire machine compartment clean . . . a clean piece of mechanism fails much less frequently than a dirty one.

CAUTION: Be sure refrigerator is disconnected at wall outlet before you start to clean machine compartment. Otherwise, refrigerator may start up and injure you.

B. O. BRIDGES
(Delayed).—Benjamin O. Bridges, 81, died at his home, 11 North St., Temple, Texas, Tuesday morning, June 5, at 3 o'clock, after an extended illness. He was born July 5, 1862, in Anson County, Ala., and had lived in Bell County for the past 10 years. He lived in Fairy and in Hamilton County for 40 years, and was a member of the First Christian Church. Mr. Bridges is survived by his wife, three sons, W. N. Bridges of McGregor, L. A. Bridges of Odessa, and B. E. Powell of Brenham; seven daughters, Mrs. O. L. Langston of San Antonio, Mrs. L. O. Stewart of Pacific Grove, Calif., Mrs. H. R. Wood of Big Spring, Mrs. Ollie Ammons of Houston, Mrs. E. E. Bouldin of McGregor, Mrs. Hiram Lacher of Richland Springs, and Mrs. Elizabeth Cornick of Temple; 24 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held at the Hewitt funeral home the following Wednesday at 2 p. m., conducted by Rev. Noel Keith, assisted by Rev. Roy Langston and Rev. Roper of McGregor. Burial was in the Hillcrest Cemetery. Knob Creek Masonic Lodge had charge of the services at the grave. Acting pallbearers were his grandsons. (We received the above obituary from his son, W. N. Bridges of McGregor, last week. Mr. Bridges was a man of many friends and had many friends here who were grieved to learn of his passing. We extend our sincere sympathy to all those bereaved.)

HITLER'S COWARDICE CONTINUES

If the final decision in war was in the hands of a referee, as it is in a prize fight, this would seem the logical time for him to step into the center of the ring and stop the fight.

But the big difference between this war and a prize fight is that Hitler has others doing his fighting for him.

Even the Germans will soon realize that it isn't courage which keeps Hitler forcing them to fight—it's the rank fear of cowardice—the fear of what will happen to him personally when he admits defeat.

RUBBER SOLUTION PERMANENT

One of the greatest permanent benefits our nation has derived from our war with Japan is the overcoming of our dependency on remote islands of the Pacific for our supplies of vital rubber.

When the war started, the processes for making synthetic rubber had been fairly well worked out. But had it not been for the war it probably would have been many years before synthetic rubber would have been made in quantities large enough to meet the demands of American industry.

Never again will we be out in the position of having to depend on imports for our supply of this vital material, which is a great step forward in our nation's self-sufficiency.

THE NEW WONDER DRUG

The wonder drug, penicillin, has become a reality for the public, after months of experimentation. The cures effected by penicillin have seemed so sensational to the people reading about them, and the mystery surrounding the drug has grown to such proportions because of the extremely small supply available to the public, that it is good news indeed to hear that a process has been found for producing penicillin in large quantities.

Immaculately clean factories now house great vats in which the penicillin mold is grown. In a few short months production has been taken out of the bottle stage and expanded to the point where thousands of tanks are used to hold the mold plants.

HOUSE HOME

By MARY E. DAGUE

With gardens demanding our time and energy and canning pushing us to the nth degree, we housewives must make our heads save our heels.

Try to get the strenuous jobs over in the morning—in the cool of the day—and take care of the lighter chores as the heat increases.

Another way to save yourself is to take full advantage of all your electrical equipment. If you have an electric range with a time thermostat learn to use it so that you can have time away from the kitchen.

One dish meals with a simple salad and dessert are ideal summer dinners. One hot dish is recommended for every meal and a casserole dish of meat and vegetables is easy to prepare and to serve.

There are ever so many varieties of table mats that merely need to be wiped off with a damp cloth to keep them immaculate.

Wee Bits of JESTURE

[Opinions expressed in this weekly feature are the writer's, and not necessarily those of the News Review.—ED.]

Man's knowledge may enable him to keep up with the whereabouts of migrator fowls in changing seasons of the year, but so far as I know, his knowledge has not advanced to the point that it enables him to keep track of "sound political platforms" after the election is over.

Sound political platforms are, in some respects similar to the Constitution and Bill of Rights. If we, the American people, could enjoy the many treasures that those two great documents bestow upon us, there would be many more smiles and a lot fewer long faces.

Distraction on the Home Front

THIS AND THAT

By JOE SMITH DYER

BREAKFAST TOGETHER:

Always having breakfast together causes more family fights than anything else that I know of.

"Come on to breakfast, honey. It is ready now." And husband says: "It can't be ready yet because I haven't heard you scraping the toast."

That little remark starts the first round.

The second round is well under way when they kiss and make up and he rushes out to the garage to get out the car and finds that wife has left the lights on all night and the battery has run down.

Finally he rides the street car, or runs to work and when he gets to the office he strides in without speaking and calls his wife and says: "Just leave the car alone. Don't tinker with it. You don't know anything about the battery." And under his breath he says "or driving it either" and then he slams up the receiver.

Have you ever heard of a man making love, or proposing, at the breakfast table?

A man doesn't usually love anyone at breakfast and no one loves him at that early hour either.

Lightning flashes and sharp thunderous bolts pass between man and wife at the breakfast table. (There are exceptions always).

Breakfasting together is good at bringing up electrical storms in families. (There are exceptions here, too).

I'm glad that I have never eaten breakfast, but even if I did I'd have no one to fuss with, or at, except the cat and the parrot.

ONE MAN'S BLOOD IMMUNIZES WORLD:

A blood sample taken from an African native named "Asiba" 17 years ago has protected millions of people all over the world from the dreaded yellow fever.

This fact recently was announced by the Rockefeller Foundation.

The sample was taken in 1927 at the foundation's yellow fever laboratory at Lagos, West Africa, and was injected into a rhesus monkey from India. "Asiba" recovered but the monkey died.

The foundation has announced that all yellow fever vaccine manufactured during the past seven years has been from the original

A FEW MEMORIES OF PARIS BEFORE THE WAR:

The three good men who stood behind a plush pulpit in the old style Paris theatres and, with a smile, assigned you to your seat.

The valiant effort of an American tourist whom I overheard trying to induce a Paris fruit merchant to cross out one of the P's in "Grappe Fruit" but that is the correct way of spelling it in French.

The flower girls on the Madeleine: some of the slenderest ones came close to 200 pounds.

Noon in the Place De LaConcorde—a dead square came to life as the bells rang out.

The speed of Paris elevators—a good French snail could beat them upstairs.

The woman who thought I was a choir boy in Notre Dame and who insisted on giving me a franc for a Holy Candle.

The Seine at night from the back platform of a bus headed toward Montparnasse.

A little bit of personal gossip told me about Louis XV by one of the caretakers at Versailles. And wouldn't you like to know?

Working and waiting, patience and perseverance—these things mean more to the average American than almost anything else now. Slow and sure is very much better than fast, and failure.

Buster Brown

Candidate for

State Senator

21st Senatorial District

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 21ST SENATORIAL DISTRICT OF TEXAS:

Buster Brown, as Tax Assessor and Collector of Bell County, has proved himself to be a faithful, fair, courteous, capable and honest public servant. He deserves to be promoted.

Buster Brown favors and will work for a payment of $40.00 per month for all the aged needy citizens of Texas. He will not wait until he has been Senator for three years to find out whether the old folks in his district are getting a square deal.

Buster Brown realizes the seriousness of the financial difficulties which are endangering our public schools—the seriousness of the loss of our teachers who are giving up their professions because their salaries are too low—and the seriousness of the lack of transportation facilities for the pupils. He has promised, and his word is his bond, to give his best efforts toward solving these problems by providing more funds for the public schools.

Buster Brown believes that if a boy is old enough to fight he is old enough to vote, and that his uniform is all that should be required of him. The Constitution should be amended to exempt every soldier from paying a poll tax in time of war.

The present incumbent is urging his reelection on the theory that he has a right to a second four-year term in this office. But he has failed to inform or remind the people that four years ago he ran against and defeated a man for his second term upon the proposition that four years is long enough for anyone to serve as Senator.

Our boys in uniform will not be here on election day. It is the duty of every one of us here at home to vote. Let's all go to the polls Saturday and elect Buster Brown Senator in the first primary.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Martin and Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Lockhart of Stephenville visited here Sunday with friends and relatives. Mr. Lockhart manages the shop at the super-service station which Martin Brothers recently sold. The Martins have just returned from a trip to the Rio Grande Valley, and have practically perfected their arrangements to go into business at Robstown in the near future.

Those visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Funk and family this past month were: Their son, L. A. Funk, and wife and two sons, J. L. and Frank, of Houston; also their son from Illinois, J. E. Funk, and wife and children, Judy and Neil; Mrs. Bill Whately, their daughter, of Holliday; their two granddaughters, Dorothy Jean and Yvonne Tankersley, of Eastland; and their grandsons, Larry Wade and Paul Tankersley, and Dale Whately, also of Eastland.

Ray C. Connally has written from San Antonio to change his address to 918 Clower St., that city. "Hope it's not as hot at Hico as it is here," Ray's note adds. "Bertha Jean and I are getting along fine and have a lot of fun regardless of the heat. Wish you could come around—I have machinery as complicated as your old press to repair every day. Regards to all." Ray wrote on the back of some stationery from the San Antonio Air Service Command, where he seems to have some authority around the Maintenance Division.

A letter from S. A. Clark at Lubbock this week enclosed check for subscription renewal to his old home-town paper. Uncle Sam's remarks, addressed to the editor, will be interesting to his many friends here: "My eyesight is some better, but I still can't read the papers, Mattie and our housekeeper read them to me, but that is not like reading them yourself. But I can't complain. I never fail to get up, wash my face and hands, and eat three times a day. I can't stay up longer than ten or fifteen minutes on account of my leaky heart. Mattie gave me an army cot last year and I would go out in the back yard about 7 and usually stay until about 10, and am doing the same this summer. Mattie is teaching the last six weeks of summer term. She has to leave home at 7, gets home at 12, but doesn't have to go back in the afternoon. We have Margaret Templeton, my granddaughter, this week. She is to be married to Pilot Sterling Pile as soon as he can get a leave of absence. He was stationed for several months at Monroe, La., where she was teaching, and was transferred about June 1st to Hobbs, New Mexico. Best wishes and regards to all."

RECENT MARRIAGE OF SERVICE MAN, FORMERLY OF HICO, ANNOUNCED

Mrs. T. U. Little of Stephenville has announced the marriage of her son, T/Sgt. F. S. Little, to Mrs. Avas K. Guffee of Abilene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Norris, Roscoe, Texas, on July 7th at First Methodist Church, St. Petersburg, Fla.

The Rev. R. Z. Tyler, pastor of that church, conducted the beautiful double-ring ceremony that united these young people in the sacred bonds of matrimony.

They will remain in St. Petersburg until the army releases Sergeant Little from Don Ce-Sar Place where he is recuperating from 27 months of service with the U. S. Army Air Forces in the Southwest Pacific theatre of war. From there the Army will decide where they will be located.

MR. AND MRS. PRATER ANNOUNCE RECENT MARRIAGE OF THEIR DAUGHTER, LOUISE

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Prater have announced the marriage, on July 1, of their daughter, Louise, to J. D. Cox of Fort Worth.

The bride was graduated from Iredell High School with the class of 1942 and has many friends in this section who will wish for her and her husband happiness and success. The groom has worked in this community at various times and is well and favorably known by a number of local people.

The couple plan to make their home at 1125 Hawthorne St., Fort Worth. They are both employed at the Consolidated bomber plant.

ON TSCW HONOR ROLL

Special to The News Review: DENTON, July 17. — Miss Mary Ellen Haggard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haggard of Hico, is among 226 students listed on the Deans Special Honor Roll for outstanding scholastic achievement during the second semester of the 1943-44 session at Texas State College for Women. Twenty-four of the group made all A's.

To qualify for the honor, a student must have at least two and three-tenths as many grade-points as hours of credit, complete at least nine hours of work, and must have no failing or incomplete grades on her college record.

Each student on the list received written notice of the honor and congratulations from Dean E. V. White for attainment of excellent scholarship.

Miss Haggard is majoring in Bacteriology and Laboratory Diagnosis at TSCW.

America's Super-Fortresses Step Up Global Warfare

Japan Raids Prove Power Of Air Giant Command

Devastating as the B-29 Superfortress initial raid on industrial targets at Yawata on Kyushu island, Japan, was, it was only the first of many softening up attacks which are being planned by the new air command. The new fortress makes possible attacks on Japan much earlier than was possible with other types of airplane.

"The use of the B-29 Superfortress in combat brings actuality to an air forces' plan made years in advance for truly global aerial warfare," Gen. H. H. Arnold commented on new Fortress raid. "It proves that our planners and engineers, coupled with the capacity of American industry, are an unbeatable combination. The result is here, a highly complicated and most deadly airplane, capable of delivering the heaviest blows yet known through air power."

"I assume the heavy responsibility for its employment under the joint chiefs of staff with full confidence in its potential use."

"This employment of the B-29 makes possible the softening up attack on Japan very much earlier than would be possible with aircraft hitherto known to combat. This mighty weapon advances the bomber line a long way."

"The Superfortress is not going to win the war by itself, nor has anyone thought it will do so. It will, however, like its predecessors the B-17 and B-24, strike at the sources of enemy strength, and prepare the way for ultimate decision by our well-established team of land, sea and air forces. In our new strategic thinking, the B-17 and B-24 will now become medium instead of long-range bombers, and our B-25 and B-26 aircraft will become short-range bombers. These smaller planes will travel no less distances than they do now, but the B-29 will attack from much greater distance, and with much more power."

The existence of a new aerial organization, the 20th air force, with jurisdiction over all activities of the Superfortress, was announced by the war department, following an announcement of the combat use of the B-29 in the China-Burma-India theater of operations.

Gen. H. H. Arnold, U. S. army, commanding general of the army air forces, is also commanding general of the 20th air force which will operate directly under control of the joint chiefs of staff, with headquarters in Washington, D. C. Brig. Gen. Haywood S. Hansell Jr., U. S.

army, is the new organization's chief of staff.

The 20th air force was created by the joint chiefs of staff as the application of a new refinement of global warfare. The great range of the Superfortress made permanent assignment of the 20th air force to individual commanders uneconomical, since it is capable of striking from many places at a single target, and its employment requires close coordination of operations.

Operation of the B-29 in combat was the realization of a strategy conceived by Gen. H. H. Arnold, U. S. commanding general, United States army air forces, more than two years before this country entered the war.

In 1939, the first mass production of the existing long-range bombers of the AAF—the B-17 Flying Fortress and the B-24 Liberator—was getting under way. They were only 29 of these planes in operation and General Arnold recognized that already they were too small and had been outstripped by the ultimate necessities of global war.

With the United States at peace, this plane was intended specifically for hemisphere defense, capable of flying from strategic points in the Americas more than a thousand miles to sea and back again, with a bomb load.

Late in 1939, on the basis of specifications drawn by the materiel command, the AAF asked aircraft manufacturers to submit designs for the super-range plane. The design submitted by the Boeing Aircraft company, producer of the B-17, was accepted.

With the entry of the United States into the war in December, 1941, the specific purpose for which the Superfortress had been intended was changed. It became an offensive weapon rather than a defender.

This change necessitated revision of the design, and once again the plans submitted by Boeing were accepted. The plane was successfully in production by last year, but behind this lay years of preparation—the drafting of bales of technical data, sheets and blueprints, performance of thousands of experiments and tests, the daring venture of inaugurating a vast tooling and production program while the aircraft was still in the blueprint stage.

In 1943, as production of the Superfortress was getting under way, Brig. Gen. Kenneth B. Wolfe, U. S. army, chief of the production division, materiel center, Wright field, Ohio, during the development stages of the B-29, proposed to General Arnold that it would be practical to work the bugs out of the new plane even while it was being produced. If practical, this procedure would save much time in the long step from the factory to the battle line.

General Wolfe estimated that he could save six months by taking the planes as they came off the assembly line and putting them through strains equivalent to combat, at the same time that transition schooling of the flying personnel was in progress.

General Arnold directed him to carry out this time-saving enterprise. A bomb wing, comprising four groups, was activated at Marietta, Ga.

The success with which General Wolfe fulfilled his mission, backed by the energetic support of General Arnold, is attested by the operation of the B-29 in combat at this early date.

A thorough test in battle still lies before the Superfortress. It is the most complicated flying mechanism ever assembled by any nation, and many of its innovations are now receiving their first test. Use of the plane must be confined for many months to sporadic missions, and many problems of bases, training, production, modification and supply must be worked out before its full power may be exploited.

It carries a greater bomb load, is far faster, has greater altitude and longer range than any other bombardment plane in the world. It bristles with 50-caliber machine guns and 20-mm. cannon.

Its wing, of completely new design, has the highest coefficient of lifting ability to speed of any wing. Its 16-foot four-blade propellers are the largest on any aircraft. It is flush-riveted and butt-jointed throughout.

The plane is long and cylindrical, with slender, tapering wings, and an elongated nose extending well ahead of the wings. It has a single fin and rudder similar to that of the B-17. A double-wheel tricycle gear, both on the main landing gear and on the nose gear, supports the B-29. The pilot and copilot, with the bombardier in front of them, occupy the same compartment, in the tip of the nose of the plane.

TO THE VOTERS OF HAMILTON COUNTY:

On Saturday, July 22, we go to the polls to vote to the best of our knowledge.

I will say, I am forty-one years old. I have been farming and ranching in Hamilton and Coryell Counties since 1924. In connection with farming and ranching, two and one-half years of this time I spent in the mercantile business, eight miles south of Hamilton at Terral's Trading Post. With the patronage and assistance of my friends, I will gladly say that I have gotten along fine.

We Americans have the privilege of voting as we see fit and as men and women we must certainly allow each other this privilege.

If you have decided I will do for Sheriff, fine. If not, fine.

Respectfully yours,

N. Y. TERRAL

General Merrill Again Receives Honor

Why Re-Elect State Senator Lovelady? BECAUSE:

HIS ACTIVITIES AND ACHIEVEMENTS during his first term ranks him as one of the leading State Senators of Texas, which is a splendid credit to our District and our appreciation should be shown by re-electing him.

HIS ABILITY is recognized by his being appointed Chairman of some of the most important Committees of the Senate, viz: Committee on Education, Joint Committee to Rewrite and Recodify the School Laws, and a member of the Joint Committee to Supervise the Spending of Rural Aid.

HIS EFFORTS to aid the common people of this District as well as the entire State have resulted in raising the school per capita tax from $22.50 to $25.00, of which bill he was co-author; raised Confederate Pensions from $25.00 to $50.00 and widows $30.00 per month, of which bill he was author; reduced State Ad Valorem Tax five (5) cents on the $100.00 valuation, of which bill he was author, and he sponsored all legislation which more than doubled Old Age Pensions, and he was author of the bills that vitaminized flour and oleomargarine so that all people would be assured of sufficient vitamins in these important foods.

DURING HIS FIRST TERM, he has never missed a roll call and has been very active in looking after the best interests of the people of his district and the State.

HE HAS NEVER VOTED FOR A SALES TAX—"the tax on Poverty"—and never intends to, but has always voted for a Natural Resource Tax, which puts any new or increased taxes where they belong. He helped reduce the state debt by thirty million ($30,000,000.00) dollars.

HAS AIDED IN SECURING of new and additional Highways for the several counties in his district and is now working with these counties for still more highways and farm-to-market roads.

ANY OFFICIAL WITH A GOOD RECORD is entitled to be re-elected to a SECOND TERM. Senator Lovelady has refused to bow to the will of lobbyists representing special interests.

FINALLY, SENATOR LOVELADY'S RECORD is clean and above reproach and has not been impeached and he deserves to be re-elected, because he has faithfully represented the district in an efficient manner, and if re-elected, will continue to do so.

WE, THE FRIENDS OF SENATOR LOVELADY IN HAMILTON COUNTY, SUBMIT THE ABOVE FOR CONSIDERATION BY THE VOTERS OF THE
21ST SENATORIAL DISTRICT.

Pioneer Settler of Hamilton County Died At Axtell

Mrs. Mattie Mullins, 79-year-old pioneer of Texas, died of a long illness Saturday morning, July 8, at 2 o'clock, at the home of her son, I. F. Mullins, near Axtell. Mrs. Mullins was born in Alabama in 1865, and spent most of her life in Hamilton County, near Olin and Hico, and in McLennan County. She was married to Isaac Pinkney Mullins, who passed away in 1941. To this union three children were born, and survive her: Mrs. Carrie Graves of Valley Mills, J. L. Mullins of Hico, and I. F. Mullins of Axtell. She is also survived by thirteen sisters, twelve grandchildren, eighteen great-grandchildren, one brother, and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Mrs. Mullins had been in bad health since July 27, 1921, when she suffered a bad stroke leaving her an invalid. She was taken care of by her husband until his passing away a few years ago. Then her son, I. F. took care of her until her death. She had another stroke about two weeks ago.

She joined the Methodist church when a young child, lived a devoted life, and was loved by everyone.

Pallbearers were her grandsons, Edwin Mullins, Raymond Mullins, Zimmie Mullins, Isaac Graves, Audrey Grave, and Alvie Graves.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in Riesel. She was laid to rest beside her husband in the Riesel cemetery. The floral offerings were large and beautiful, which showed she had many friends who will mourn her passing away. She is gone, but not forgotten.

CONTRIBUTED.

up to some of the other countries in the world.

We live in bamboo and palm huts called "Bashas" and have indulged in the luxury of having a Basha Boy, an Indian boy who comes daily to make up the bunks, wash the clothes, shine the shoes, and do other odd jobs all for the sum of 60c weekly each. He speaks about 25 words of English and by using hands and fingers for pointing plus a phonetic listing of common words used (your sister would do great with this book—Mares & Oats, etc.) we can carry on a surprising conversation and usually end up by getting the thought across without too much difficulty. His name is Abdul and it seems that practically everyone in India has the same name. Pineapples and bananas grow over here in abundance and every morning Abdul shows up with a quantity which he sells on the side at 1 rupee each for the pineapple and the same price for a dozen bananas. One rupee is equal to 30c in American money.

Last week a bunch of us slipped over to a little village for supper in the only restaurant in this neck of the woods and I know that I can go Duncan Hines one better now on unusual eating places. Of course, his book was confined to American establishments, but there couldn't be any anywhere to equal this one. Of course, it was Chinese serving the usual menu you find in the states, but the building was the thing that hit my eye. It was built up against the side of a high range of hills that reach clear up into the clouds and right into the middle of a small lake; in fact, you had to walk across a long bridge to get to the front door. But the thing that caught my eye most was the "air-conditioning" system. They had rigged up two huge wooden fans that hung from the ceiling vertically on ropes. To these was attached a mass of ropes with one single strand poking out a hole in each side of the room. On the outside and on each side of the building a native stood by. One would pull, then the other, each timing his pull right after the other so that a gentle, cool lake breeze filled the room, but the presence of all the apparatus overhead kept everyone a little apprehensive lest the rope broke. Everything went well until the natives got out of time—one pulling when it was the other's time and vice-versa. So the system went out and we had a ringside seat to one of the best arguments I have ever seen which ended up in a kicking spree by both concerned. The manager hastily brought in a relief crew and "all was well."

At the present time the monsoon season is beginning and the rain is near perpetual. According to a pamphlet on India which came into our hands, it rains over a thousand inches during this season and we will all probably be web-footed before the great day for leaving comes.

What a life!

I enjoyed Miss Stella's "Easter Story" and believe it to be one of her best feature stories published to date.

Listening to the radio over here is something else that never ceases to be interesting. We have a short wave set and can pick up stations all over the world. The other night we had Tokyo on the line, listening to their "News In English" broadcast and it was a corker for propaganda. Mixed in with the news is recording of American swing bands and the voice of a Japanese girl whom we have dubbed Tokyo Lil, who drools with a Southern Chicken-Fried Accent. She said, "Now you-all just make yourself real comfortable out there; LEAN YOUR RIFLES AGAINST A TREE AND SETTLE DOWN to listen to Artie Shaw and Begin the Beguine." What a laugh that got. If the Japs are dumb enough to think that such stuff would help them out of the mess they are in, they must be pretty dumb. Berlin sends out the same hot air, but Herr Goebbels' material is even thinner, but always with the threats of (1) Newer, (2) Terror Inflicting, and (3) Secret Weapons to come. And with the same canned music.

Well, I said I wouldn't write a long letter so I'll stop right now. It would be easy to fill up a whole page of your swell paper—but not with the desired results. In fact, I don't know that I've been half-way around the world. I still haven't seen any two individuals who work half as hard as you and Mrs. H. do with yours. Every inch of it is swell reading, and you deserve a pile of credit.

Best wishes to all of you.

Sincerely,
LEIGHTON.

Word has been received here by S. L. Trimmer that his nephew, Willie Joe Trimmer, who was attached to the Second Marine Division, was killed in action at Saipan. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Trimmer, live at Stamford and were former residents of Hico.

Mrs. Mary E. Jackson, Route 1, Hico, has ordered a subscription to the News Review to be sent to her son, Edgeworth Kidwell, who receives his mail in care of the Fleet Post Office, San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mackey, Route 7, Hico, have heard from their son, Pvt. Doyle F. Mackey, who was in a hospital in Italy for about three months, but is now on duty again as an M. P. in North Africa.

Pvt. Horace Ross, who is stationed at Camp Bowie, spent the week end here with his wife and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watt Ross.

This poster "Fire Away" shows a scene aboard the U. S. Submarine "Dorado." The artist, the celebrated American painter Georges Schreiber, has caught the action during the very tense moment before the passing craft is identified as friend or foe.

The painting is authentic in every detail for the artist was actually aboard the Submarine at sea. He ate and slept with the crew. He worked with the men and stood watch with the officers. A short time after leaving the Submarine, it was lost with all hands.

MEMBER OF FIRST BATTALION OF STATE GUARD VISITS HERE ON HIS RETURN FROM CAMP

First Sergeant Frank Mullican of Wink, member of the Texas State Guard, visited here the first of this week in the home of his father, A. J. Mullican. He was returning from 30 days of special instruction under supervision of the Eighth Service Command, recently offered at Camp Bullis, San Antonio, under supervision of the Regular Army, which was attended by representatives of State Guard units all over Texas.

Sergeant Mullican is rather proud of the background of his particular outfit, and justly so, since it was the first battalion organized in Texas, and so far as records have shown, in the entire nation. Charter for the four-county set-up, with headquarters at Wink, was granted Oct. 6, 1940.

Interest in the Texas State Guard is high, the visitor reported on a call at the N. R. office. Some people have the misconception idea that the home defense units, which mushroomed directly after Pearl Harbor, have outgrown their usefulness, but that is not his opinion as he thinks there still exists a definite and growing need for such protection, and he believes this need will continue for some time yet. The organization was formed long before the war, and shortly after the mobilization of the Texas National Guard, now a component part of the 36th Division, and the value of such training as Guardsmen are now receiving is fully demonstrated by the record of this fighting division overseas.

Mrs. L. L. Brewer has had a recent letter from her son, Vernon Lee Brewer, S 2/c, acknowledging receipt of mail from her, but he was worrying because he hadn't heard lately from his dad. Part of Vernon Lee's letter read: "Mother, don't get your hopes too high, because I will not be coming home for quite a while. I am not in the States now—I am in the Pacific. They told us that we would get a 30-day leave, but have we got it yet? No. . . . Mother, I haven't been able to see Raymond Hefner but I have seen a lot of the home-town boys. They were Morse, L. G. Autrey, Cecil Moore, and Paul Izell. Boy, we had a lot of fun talking about old times. I went over twice to see Morse, but he wasn't there. Tell Morse's wife hello for me, and ask her to send me his address. Tell all the folks hello for me. God bless you, and good luck.—Your Sailor Son."

"Boy, I wish I could have walked in the other day when you were looking for me," wrote Walter Ramey, S 1/c, from overseas to his mother, Mrs. Betty Ramey, after telling her she was the dearest mother in the world. Walter added that he was quite busy during the invasion of Europe, but added that he hoped to be back in the States before long, and would call home as soon as he set foot on land.

Vernon Seales, motor machinist's mate, second class, in the U. S. Navy, will receive the News Review for another six months since his father, J. F. Seales, came in and ordered it for that length of time, saying that he hoped it would all be over and that his son would be back home by that time.

A. C. W. J. White has been transferred from Drake University at Des Moines, Iowa, to Santa Ana Army Air Base, Santa Ana, Calif., according to his wife, the former Dorothy Rose, who is making her home here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones.

JACK HOLLIS IS FINDING PLACES NOT TO GO ON HIS VACATIONS IN THE FUTURE

The other day while talking with Petty Officer Luskie Randall, home on leave, the editor recalled an incident from the old days when the sailor and another fellow were working together in the Corner Drug Store. The other fellow was Jack Hollis, and the incident concerned a little glass-tossing that went on, which had Luskie bumfuzzled for a time. The outcome of the conversation was that if the editor didn't hear from one Jack Hollis pretty soon, he was going to pitch a Coca-Cola glass across the Pacific and hit him in his noggin'.

And what do you know! Right after that in comes in a letter from Cpl. S. T. Hollis from New Guinea, saying he was still looking for his first paper since he landed. He gave orders to have it started at once, but by the time his letter arrived in the States he should have received a copy of the NR through the foresight of a very good mutual friend who thoughtfully took care of the matter for him. And we might add that it wasn't his charming wife or lovely daughter, either, for we seem to have lost track of both of them.

Jack gave the editor a recipe for one of his favorite jungle refreshments, which we appreciate—but we pass this time.

"We are located right on the coast, and if it wasn't for the work it would be like a vacation. But the next time I take a vacation, it sure won't be a place like this!"

Fred Driver, Route 3, Hico, was notified Tuesday by the War Department that his son, Pvt. J. D. Driver, who has been missing since the fall of Bataan and Corregidor over two years ago, is declared dead. Private Driver's mother, Mrs. Ola Rider of Clarkwood, who is the daughter of Mrs. C. W. Shelton, was also notified.

A little son, Daniel Bryson, was born to Cpl. and Mrs. Cecil B. Reeves Wednesday morning in the Hillcrest Memorial Hospital in Waco. Mrs. Reeves, the former Sarah Frances Meador, has been making her home here with her mother, Mrs. Nettie Meador, while Corporal Reeves is serving overseas.

Pvt. J. B. Ratliff accompanied his brother, Wallace, to Fort Worth Sunday, where he boarded a train to start his return trip to Camp Lee, Va., where he is stationed. Doug's wife and son, Bobby, left by bus Monday for Plainview, where they will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Matlock.

ENSIGN NEEL WRITES HIS FEELINGS DURING INVASION WORRIES ABOUT HOMEFOLKS

Mr. and Paul Neel have received a letter from their son, Ensign Billy R. Neel, communications officer on an LST participating in the invasion, which they kindly allowed for publication. Ensign Neel's remarks will be interesting to most of our readers, especially those who have sons and husbands overseas. It follows:

July 1, 1944.

Dear Mother, Daddy and Jack:

I received mail day before yesterday. I got one letter from you, Daddy, dated June 7th. I know everyone was excited over the news, and I know all of you worried over my being safe ten times more than I did. Often I have heard my men say, "I'm not worried about myself, but I am worried about my family's worrying."

I have inspected some of Hitler's "Western Wall of Fortress Europe." To look at the concrete and steel gun emplacements which have living quarters underground, one would think just that—"Impregnable." But it would have taken defenses like the world has never seen to have stopped the military might which struck that invasion coast. I am enclosing a message given us just before we left for France. We also received a very inspiring letter from General Montgomery saying that every man must realize that there can be no failure and we must succeed at all costs. Every man realized what was expected of him, and every man, to my knowledge, did his duty well.

When the going got hot I had a feeling like I have never experienced before. I'm sure almost everyone felt as I did, but I wouldn't call it being scared as it is always termed. There is a complete psychological difference inasmuch as one doesn't have a feeling of fear, and I saw no one turn "white as a sheet." I could feel my heart beating faster, but that was the only reaction I noticed resembling being scared. Probably the psychologists have a name for this feeling to differentiate it from being plain scared, but I don't know what it is. Of course, in the future if anyone asks me if I were scared, I'll say "Yes" because they would call me a liar if I said "No" and I wouldn't have time to stop and explain that which they wouldn't believe anyway. It really doesn't make any difference, but I just thought my idea about it might be interesting to you.

Daddy, I'm certainly proud of you. You're a real business man, and proving it. I only hope I do half as well. . . .

I'm still feeling fine.
Lots of love,
BILLY.

P. S.: I could use some Air Mail envelopes already stamped—can't get stationery and stamps.—B.

Mrs. Betty Ramey enjoyed a visit last Friday from her niece, Mrs. Jessie Vandergriff Jr., who was accompanied by her husband, a sailor, and their six-months-old baby. Mrs. Vandergriff and baby live at Valley Mills, and they were on their way to Stephenville, where his parents live. J. C. Vandergriff Jr., S 1/c, has been in the Navy for 20 months, and overseas for 15 months of this time. He has made four convoy trips, having visited New Caledonia, Pearl Harbor, Honolulu, and other places which are still a military secret. This is the first time he has been home since entering service. He left for San Francisco Sunday.

William M. Hodnett, MoMM 2/c at a Naval Air Base, has written his mother, Mrs. Eva Hodnett to have his address changed. "I hope some day that I will be getting the Hico paper again," he added, "as I sure do miss it." He remarked in his letter that he hadn't heard lately from his brother, Harry, a Staff Sergeant at the Army Air Base, De Ridder, La. We are hereby and herewith ordering Sergeant Harry to write Petty Officer William "Red" and Harry both ought to report to the paper oftener, as we know very little about their business.

All Mrs. Frank McClure and Betty Jo have to do now to figure out the present location of their Seabee husband and daddy is to locate some pretty seashore scenery somewhere in the Pacific. He wrote, giving a slight change in his address, which they could read, but they are having trouble reading his mind. However a fellow has to get along with his censor, doesn't he, Frank?

Conrad A. Proffitt, S 1/c, who has been recovering from rheumatic fever for the past three months in the hospital in San Bernardino, California, is hoping to be back on duty by Friday of this week.

Sgt. Joe Morgan of California visited his dad, Sam Morgan, last week.

July 1, 1944

Dear Holford:

Received your letter not long ago but just now getting around to answering it, but I know you'll be glad to hear from me.

Well, I've changed address again as you'll notice, but I don't think I'll change again for some time. I would like to go to Ireland in a fast car again, wouldn't you? Well, it wasn't too bad, but it would scare you for a while anyway.

I'll close now, and write again soon.

As ever,
TOM.

Sgt. Lawrence Shipman, recently transferred from Camp Maxey, Paris, to Camp Crowder, Mo., has been home on furlough for several days. He has been just loafing, he said—hunting, fishing and laying around. Saturday afternoon he was hunting again—for Camel cigarettes—saying he didn't know about the local shortage as he'd been getting plenty of his favorite brand of smokes. His sister, Inez, who has been working at Fort Worth, dropped everything and came home when she heard her brother was here.
