CSOC Gets Oil And Gas Shows On DST In Ector Wildcat

Cities Service Oil Company No. 1-Q Cowden, wildcat in Central Ector County, is drilling below 9,140 feet in Pennsylvanian lime after taking a drillstem test in that formation from 9,086 to 9,109 feet. Tool was open one hour. There was a fair blow of air for 45 minutes which diminished to a weak blow the last 15 minutes of the test.

Recovery was 50 feet of oil and gas cut mud and 210 feet of very heavy oil and gas cut mud. There were 3,000 feet of free gas in the drillpipe. Gravity of the oil was 35.1 degrees.

Flowing pressure was 120 pounds and pressure after a 15-minute shut-in period was 650 pounds.

The Pennsylvanian was topped at 8,512 feet on a minus datum of 8,537 feet.

Location is at the center of the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section 9, block 43, T-2-S, T&P survey and six miles west of Odessa.

Shell Is To Drill Deep Wildcat In Shallow Seagrave Oil Field

Shell Oil Company is to start operations at once at its No. 1-E Sepp, which is slated to be a 9,000-foot wildcat to try for production in the Ellenburger in Southeast Crane County.

It is on the northwest side of the shallow McCamey field and it is 10 miles northwest of the town of McCamey. That makes it approximately 11 miles south of the town of Crane.

Drilling will be with rotary tools. The drillsite is 680 feet from north and 4,000 feet from east lines of the south 52.5 acres in the H. T. Sepp survey No. 6.

Phillips Schedules Deep Wildcat Test In Reagan Sector

Phillips Petroleum Company spotted location for a 10,500-foot Ellenburger wildcat in North-Central Reagan County.

It will be drilled as No. 1-A Kenneth, 666 feet from west and 661 feet from north lines of section 16, block F, C&M survey and three miles north of Stiles.

It is three and one-half miles east and slightly north of production in the Spraberry Trend Area. Operations are to start at once.

Mississippi Link Producer Finaled In NE Borden Area

The Superior Oil Company has completed No. 8-580 Jones as a link producer between Mississippi production in the Fluvanna field of Northeast Borden County.

The new well was finished for a daily flowing potential of 202 barrels of oil through a 20/64-inch choke and from open hole at 8,915-8,940 feet. Gravity of the oil is 41.7 degrees and gas-oil ratio was 639-1.

It is one and one-half miles north and slightly east of Mississippi production and one and one-quarter miles south and slightly east of production from the Mississippi. It also is one-half mile southwest of an Ellenburger producer.

Site is 1,890 feet from north and 680 feet from east lines of section 580, block 97, H&TC survey and three and one-half miles northwest of the town of Fluvanna.

Phillips, Magnolia Complete Extenders To Andrews' Fields

Extensions have been completed to two fields in Andrews County.

The Block 12 (Ellenburger) field of Southwest Andrews County has been extended one-quarter of a mile to the north and one-quarter of a mile west with the completion of Phillips Petroleum Company No. 4-EE Texas University.

The well was finished for a daily flowing potential of 1,361.88 barrels of oil and no water. Gravity of the petroleum was not reported. Gas-oil ratio was 688-1. Tubing pressure was 420 pounds.

Production was through a one-half inch choke from open hole between 10,970 feet, where 5 1/2-inch casing was set and total depth of 10,710 feet.

High Court Kills Water Injunction

Ruling Leaves Room For New Suit In Martin

AUSTIN—(P)—The Supreme Court Wednesday struck down the Colorado River Municipal Water District's injunction against operation of the Martin County Water District.

The Colorado River District's "delay of seven months in filing the suit was unreasonable," said the majority opinion by Chief Justice John E. Hickman. Associate Justice Graham B. Smedley dissented.

The Colorado River District brought suit after the Martin County District adopted regulations cutting off much of the water supply of wells in the county which CRMWD planned to use to supply the cities of Odessa, Big Spring and Snyder.

District Judge Jack Roberts had ruled here last March 22 that an order of the State Board of Water Engineers defining the Martin County District's boundaries was not reasonably supported by substantial evidence. The case was appealed directly to the Supreme Court.

The high court, however, said its opinion should "not be construed as holding by implication that the board's order was not reasonably supported by substantial evidence. Had the appellants (CRMWD) filed their suit in time they would have obtained the relief sought."

The majority opinion apparently left the road open for the Colorado River Municipal Water District to continue its contest on other grounds.

Justice Hickman's opinion said: "The section of the statute under which this suit was filed provides for bringing of two classes of suits—one attacking orders of the board, which must be brought in Travis County, and the other attacking the order or rules or regulations of the district, which must be brought in the county in which the district or a part thereof is located. No Bar To Test"

MARTIN JUDGE IS ALL SMILES

STANTON—Martin County Judge James McMorris, who has led the water district's court battle, was all smiles when advised of the court's decision.

"The decision eliminates two years of awfully hard work on my part, and naturally I am most gratified at the outcome."

"The decision eliminates two years of awfully hard work on my part, and naturally I am most gratified at the outcome."

Justice Hickman's opinion said: "The section of the statute under which this suit was filed provides for bringing of two classes of suits—one attacking orders of the board, which must be brought in Travis County, and the other attacking the order or rules or regulations of the district, which must be brought in the county in which the district or a part thereof is located. No Bar To Test"

"The Martin County District filed a plea to the jurisdiction of that part of appellants' (CRMWD) petition which attacked the validity of the rules and regulations.

"The trial court sustained that plea in so far as it constituted an independent ground of recovery, without prejudice however to their right to file suit in Martin County, but enjoined the enforcement of the rules and regulations not on the ground that they were unreasonable or confiscatory, but on the ground that the order of the board creating the subdivision was invalid."

"If appellants (CRMWD) are dissatisfied with those rules and regulations and desire to test their validity, this suit will constitute no bar to their right to do so."

Justice Smedley contended the Supreme Court had no jurisdiction over the lawsuit on direct appeal. He said further he felt "all three (Continued On Page 16)

COMPACT COMMISSIONERS—J. C. Wilson of Pecos, left, and John H. Bliss, center, and Berkeley Johnson, both of Santa Fe, N. M., are members of the Pecos River Compact Commission, which will convene here Thursday. Wilson is the Texas representative on the commission. Bliss represents New Mexico and Johnson, the federal government.

Pecos Compact Members, Staffs Assemble For Meet

With members and their staffs of the Pecos River Compact Commission on hand and with Texas and New Mexico state officials expected to arrive later in the day, the stage was set Wednesday afternoon for the commission's fourth annual meeting here Thursday. The session is scheduled in Hotel Scharbauer, beginning at 9 a.m.

J. C. Wilson of Pecos and John H. Bliss and Berkeley Johnson, both of Santa Fe, N. M., are the commission members.

Texas Attorney General John Ben Shepperd and New Mexico Governor Edwin L. Mechem were to arrive here by plane Wednesday afternoon. They will be the guests of honor at a dinner to be given Wednesday night by Commissioner Wilson.

Members of the commission's engineering advisory committee, headed by R. J. Tipton of Denver, Colo., met here Wednesday morning to complete their reports and to prepare recommendations to be submitted at the commission meeting Thursday. Other members of the committee are R. L. Lawry of Austin, John Erickson and John J. Vandertulp of Santa Fe, and C. J. Anderson of Pecos.

It is around a recommendation of Tipton's that the commission employ a full-time representative to promote and coordinate efforts to improve the quantity and quality of the river water in cooperation with federal agencies, that much of Thursday's discussion is expected to center.

Results of area mapping, check of stream gauges, plans for the construction of an irrigation storage reservoir at Los Esteros, and the proposed construction of a salt cedar by-pass canal at the head of Lake McMillan also are expected to come in for considerable discussion.

The commission also will review the results of studies of the inflow-outflow formula for the allocation of Pecos River water.

Tax Lien Against Gambling Kingpin Filed At Abilene

ABILENE—(P)—The government Wednesday filed a second income tax lien in as many days against Frank Costello, reputed New York gambling kingpin currently serving a prison term for contempt of Congress.

Wednesday's lien, for $388,161.17, was filed with the U. S. district clerk here. H. C. Broadbudd, chief of the Abilene division of the Internal Revenue Bureau, said it covered a bureau assessment for income tax for the years 1941, 1942, 1944 and 1945. Broadbudd described it as against "any and all property."

It wasn't immediately known the extent of Costello's holdings in this area.

Tuesday, a federal income tax lien covering the same amount—$388,161.17—was filed against Costello in U. S. District Court at Oklahoma City. Glen Curry, assistant director of the Internal Revenue Bureau there, said the lien apparently was intended to tie up profitable interests owned by Costello in Western Carvin County, Oklahoma, probably oil holdings.

Curry explained, "This lien will put all companies and other business concerns on notice that Costello cannot dispose of his holdings because of the tax lien."

Costello was sentenced for refusing to answer questions by the Kefauver Senate Crime Investigating Committee. He's serving an 18-month federal prison term and faces possible deportation to his native Italy.

Midlanders Urged To Help Children With Dime Cards

Parents of Midland school children were urged Wednesday to encourage small fry to fill their School Dime Cards and return them before the close of the March of Dimes Drive January 31.

The distribution of the Dime Cards began Wednesday in Midland schools under the supervision of W. R. Houston, dean of students of San Jacinto Junior High School.

Ray Gwyn, county campaign director, pointed out that "The school cards the children fill and return to their teachers in January work all year in providing the necessary care and treatment for every patient, research for polio-prevention and for education of polio precautions which are furnished every boy and girl in the nation each year."

"We feel that through participation in a health crusade of special interest to them, the children will learn the importance of personal and public health and be more ready to assume the responsibilities of citizenship."

Skies Drip In U. S. Areas But Sun Smiles On Texans

By The Associated Press

Continued mild to warm temperatures and partly cloudy skies featured weather in Texas again Wednesday.

It had been the same since Sunday when a quick thaw erased all signs of last Friday's and Saturday's sleet and ice storm.

The Weather Bureau said a few showers were probable in East Texas as Wednesday night or Thursday, but otherwise saw no real change in the weather.

Maximum temperatures in Texas Tuesday ranged from Dallas' chilly 64 degrees to a hot 87 at Brownsville. Other highs Tuesday included Tyler 60, Abilene and Amarillo 61, Waco 62 and Houston and San Antonio 72.

Skies were dreary and drizzly over wide areas of the country Wednesday but there was no severe cold weather.

The southeast got the heaviest rainfall. Rain in the Northwest slackened.

Showers and snow flurries hit areas in the Central and Northern Rocky Mountain regions while light snow fell in the Western Great Lakes and Upper Mississippi Valley. The only areas of clear skies extended through most of the Plains States and the Southwest.

No sub-zero temperatures were reported.

GRID BANQUET INTEREST LOW

Where are the Bulldog football boosters? Tickets to the annual banquet have moved slowly this week.

Sale will continue through noon, January 26, the day of the banquet in the high school cafeteria. The banquet will honor the A squad and cheerleaders.

Tickets sell for $1.50 each. They may be obtained at the Chamber of Commerce offices in Hotel Scharbauer or the high school principal's offices.

Woman Hurt When Car Crashes Pole

Mrs. Nell White, 603 South Fort Worth Street, was injured Tuesday afternoon when the automobile she was driving crashed into a telephone pole at D Street and Community Lane.

She was admitted to Midland Memorial Hospital for treatment.

STOUT DEFENSE PROVES FUTILE

CORSICANA—(P)—A man put up a stout defense before City Judge Clay Nash Wednesday on a charge of beating his wife with a chair.

"Judge," he said, "I didn't hit her with that chair. She just thought I did."

Judge Nash, refusing to credit the wife with that vivid imagination, fined the defendant $10.

At $6.25, the index compared with $6.80 a year ago, a drop of 5.3 per cent.

Food Price Index Holds On Unchanged

NEW YORK—(P)—Wholesale food prices held unchanged on average this week compared with last, according to the Dun & Bradstreet food index.

At $6.25, the index compared with $6.80 a year ago, a drop of 5.3 per cent.

LATE NEWS FLASHES

NEW YORK—(P)—A federal jury Wednesday found all 13 second-string Communist leaders guilty of conspiring to teach and advocate overthrow of the U. S. government.

WASHINGTON—(P)—Two railway witnesses suggested to Senate investigators Wednesday that someone may have tampered with the brakes—possibly twice—before a Pennsylvania Railroad train crashed into Union Station here last Thursday, injuring more than 50 persons.

SAIGON, INDOCHINA—(P)—Vietminh guerrillas Wednesday captured the strategic mountain pass outpost of Deo Mong, about 275 miles north of Saigon, routing the French-led Vietnam garrison.

WASHINGTON—(P)—President Eisenhower Wednesday sent to the Senate for confirmation the nominations of former Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., as representative to the UN and Harold E. Stassen as director for mutual security.

IKE STANDING PAT—

Wilson Remains On Cabinet List

WASHINGTON—(P)—The White House said Wednesday President Eisenhower still intends to name Charles E. Wilson to the post of Defense secretary.

But the nomination will not be submitted to the Senate Wednesday, James C. Hagerty, Eisenhower's press chief, told a news conference.

Beyond that, however, Hagerty sidestepped reporters' questions about Eisenhower's intentions regarding the controversial Wilson appointment.

Hagerty said he knows of no change in the President's decision to appoint the former General Motors president to the Cabinet.

Wilson's prospective appointment had been challenged by some Republicans and Democrats who quoted laws saying no federal official on a contract making level may hold a financial interest in a company which owns defense contracts.

Hearing Delayed To Friday

General Motors, from which Wilson resigned as president, is the nation's biggest defense contractor. Some senators have said Wilson should divest himself of $2,500,000 worth of GM stock before taking any Cabinet post.

Hagerty refused to discuss Eisenhower's early-morning 75-minute conference with Herbert Brownell, Jr., his attorney general-designate, though reporters assumed the talk was about Wilson.

The Senate Armed Services Committee, which has been studying the prospective Wilson appointment, has put off hearings on the matter until Friday. Originally it had been scheduled to take up the case again Wednesday.

The eight other Eisenhower Cabinet members, hurriedly nominated officially after his inauguration Tuesday, apparently were in line for Senate confirmation Wednesday. That would let them move into their jobs.

Senator Morse (Ind-Ore), who blocked the confirmation move with an objection, said he was ready to vote Wednesday on the nominees. Barring unexpected lengthy talk, they might all be confirmed by nightfall.

Bills To Boost Pay Of Teachers, State Workers Introduced

AUSTIN—(P)—Bills to boost the pay of public school teachers and state employees were introduced in the 53rd Legislature Wednesday.

Senator A. M. Alkin, Jr., Paris, introduced the bill to raise teachers' pay a flat $600 a year.

Senator Johnny B. Rogers, Austin, proposed a 15 per cent increase on the first $3,000 of state workers' wages. He proposed a minimum of $1,800 a year.

A constitutional amendment calling for four-year terms for all state, county and district officials was offered in the Senate by Doyle Willis, Fort Worth.

Willis' resolution would leave the present two and six-year terms of representatives and judges as they are.

Bills to ban television sets in the front seats of cars where drivers can see them and to set how much alcoholic content (.15 per cent) a driver must have in his blood to be considered a drunken driver were introduced by Willis.

The Senate watched Howard Carney, Atlanta, sworn in as secretary of State, heard a brief address from Wright Morrow, Houston, and then adjourned for the day.

Midlanders Donate Blood To Fighters

Far from the booming guns of the battlefield, Midlanders began giving their blood Wednesday for their fighting men.

Shortly after 9:30 a.m., husky, 25-year-old James Johnson, a field service man for the Hughes Tool Company, appeared at the Red Cross headquarters at 619 West Indiana Street.

"Well," he proclaimed, as he and two fellow workers approached Rosebud Stacy, executive secretary of the Red Cross Chapter here, "I'm ready to give some blood."

And behind him—the first donor to appear on the opening day of the two-day visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile—other Midlanders began crowding in unexpected numbers.

By noon, approximately 50 persons had contributed one pint of blood each.

"It looks like Midland will have no trouble at all in reaching its quota," said Miss Stacy as she surveyed the donors resting and sipping coffee after giving their blood.

SINGLE ARROW GET 'UM SCALP

SAN ANTONIO—(P)—A 14-year-old Injun shot an arrow Tuesday night and scalped a paleface.

E. Gallegos, 43, drove up to his home, stepped out of his car and an arrow pierced his hat. It also pierced the skin on his head, enough that he was taken to a hospital for one stitch.

A neighbor boy told Officer C. T. Flanigan he shot the arrow while playing. The matter was settled amicably.

Allied Sabres Down Seven Commie Jets

SEOUL—(P)—Allied Sabre jet pilots shot down seven Communist MIG jet fighters and damaged three others in battles high over North-west Korea Wednesday, the U. S. Fifth Air Force said.

Two U. S. jet aces, Col. Royal N. Baker, McKinney, Texas, and Maj. Robinson Risner, Oklahoma City, each was credited with his eighth MIG destroyed.

Wednesday's battle was one of the biggest in several months. U. S. pilots destroyed eight MIG's last Wednesday—the most in one day since September.

On the ground, Allied troops hurled back sharp Communist attacks on the frozen eastern front while the Peiping radio boasted of an unconquerable defense line of tunnels across the Korean Peninsula.

Flying Saucer Or Balloon? Mayor Says 'Scopticootus'

The people called it a flying saucer.

Aviation Director Clyde Sharrer got out his binoculars and said it was only a big plastic balloon, bobbing around at 15,000 or 20,000 feet. He said it probably was released at Pryor or Big Spring.

CAA spokesmen confirmed this. But the mayor stuck to his story, after squinting at the object.

"That's what it is—a scopticootus," he seriously told all callers. "It operates on the principle of the well-known gyrisophagus but, combined with certain elements of the lesser-known orbicootus, it causes ordinarily sensible humans to crane their necks and start telephones ringing all over the city."

'Flying Discs' Harass U. S. Jets Guarding North Japan

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD

A U. S. AIR BASE, NORTHERN JAPAN—(P)—Mysterious flying objects—"rotating clusters of red, white and green lights"—have been sighted over Northern Japan by American airmen, the Air Force disclosed Wednesday night.

Intelligence reports placed the sightings close to Russian air bases in the Kurile Islands and Sakhalin. They added:

"There are too many indications of the presence of something... to be considered an observation of nothing."

Col. Curtis R. Low, commander of the northern division of the Japan Air Defense Force, said the flying clusters were seen by fighter pilots and ground personnel and were tracked on radar.

The official reports he released were similar to those describing "flying saucers" in the U. S. One said the lights appeared to hang motionless at times and at other times disappeared with blinding speed.

Col. Donald J. M. Blakeslee, World War II ace and commander of an escort fighter wing, took detailed observations on one rotating cluster and tried in vain to intercept it in a jet.

Near Red Territory

The sightings occurred over the frozen, ice-locked reaches of Northern Japan, a land tense with continued air harassment by nearby Russian fighter planes.

Russian territory in the Kurile Islands is only four and one-half miles northeast of Hokkaido, Japan's northernmost island.

The intelligence report said Blakeslee, Fairport Harbor, Ohio, sighted a mysterious object twice on a night flight, December 26. Object Flees

The report said Blakeslee closed on the object after extinguishing all the lights on his aircraft "to make certain he was not getting some reflection from his canopy surface. When all lights were out, he noticed no change in the appearance or brilliance of the object and its color scheme."

The object increased speed and vanished in 30 seconds.

Blakeslee made a second approach, five minutes later, with all lights on. This time the object disappeared in five seconds.

The report pointed out that Blakeslee, not knowing the size of the object, had no way of knowing how close he got to it.

Ike Has Almost 25 Top Posts To Fill On Independent Staffs

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—President Dwight D. Eisenhower now has not quite 25 top positions to fill immediately out of about 100 places on the most important independent commissions, boards and agencies below Cabinet rank in his new Administration.

This count is indicated by a check on some 25 of these organizations. It shows 11 actual vacancies to fill, eight resignations definitely submitted, with a few others expected, and four appointments as yet confirmed by the Senate.

Atomic Energy Commission—Chairman Gordon Dean (D) may resign his chairmanship. His term as commissioner expires in June, 1953.

Export-Import Bank—The chairmanship is vacant, caused by the resignation of Herbert Gaston (D). Appointment of Wilson L. Townsend (R) to Ex-Im's board has not been confirmed by Congress.

Federal Reserve Board—No vacancies and no resignations expected. Chairman Paul Herzog is a Democrat, but he worked under Dewey in New York.

Federal Trade Commission—James M. Mead (D) will resign as chairman, but hold his job as commissioner till 1955.

Feudin' Sisters Bury Hatchet; Dig For Scene To Do Together

By ESKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

Excitingly Yours: Olivia de Havilland and Joan Fontaine on the screen together for the first time? Hollywood wasn't big enough for the two feudin' and fussin' sisters until they buried the hatchet recently, and now, if producer Lester Cowan is persuasive enough, they may do a scene together in "From Main Street to Broadway."

She's been very cooperative. The delay in filming her scene boils down to finding the right material for her. For Olivia and Joan together. We've discarded a number of ideas, including a scene from "Romeo and Juliet."

A Hollywood producer was approached by some one close to Betty Davis on the idea of co-starring Betty and Tallulah Bankhead in a movie. Then he consulted Tallulah. Her answer was a big "NO."

George Sanders hasn't read the script of "Duo," the picture he's about to do opposite Ingrid Bergman for Roberto Rossellini. There is no script!

Mrs. Taylor, John Hemingway Are Married

Mrs. Beulah Taylor and John T. Hemingway, Jr., were married at 7 p.m. Saturday in the home of Mrs. Jewell Anderson, 311 East Pine Street, with members of both families attending.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Horton. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hemingway of Midland.

The Rev. Robert Snell, pastor of the Trinity Episcopal Church, officiated for the wedding. Mrs. M. C. Grigsby of Big Spring was matron of honor and O. L. McKinney was the best man.

The bride was given in marriage by her son, Zack Taylor of the New Mexico Military Institute, Roswell. She wore a navy blue suit with white collar and an ice blue feather hat. She carried a white satin prayer book, topped with white camellias.

Elizabeth Hardy and Mrs. Anderson assisted with the reception. Out-of-city guests included Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Grigsby and Mr. and Mrs. John Rudolph of Big Spring, Mary Lou Mallicoat of Odessa and Zack Taylor of Roswell. After a short wedding trip, the couple will be at home at 2008 West Washington Street.

TO JOIN HUSBAND—Mrs. John R. Breathwit and three-month-old son, James Raye, above, left last week to join Lieutenant Breathwit at Dachau, Germany, where he is battery executive officer of an armored field artillery battalion. Lieutenant Breathwit is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Breathwit, 3207 Mariana Street.

League Makes Plans For Charity Ball

The Midland Service League made further plans for its annual charity ball Tuesday at a meeting in the Trinity Episcopal parish house.

The ball is to be held February 23 in the Midland Country Club. It was reported a total of 1,976 hours had been worked by members during November and December. The group decided to help with the blood bank January 22. Mrs. Murray Fadden, president, presided over the business session.

Forty-five members attended.

GOLF ASSOCIATION TO CHOOSE OFFICERS

The Ladies Golf Association of the Midland Country Club will elect officers Friday at a luncheon meeting in the clubhouse.

The time will be 1 p.m. All members are asked to attend.

Elizabeth Ward Returns To Home

Elizabeth Ward, author of "No Dudes Few Women," a book on the life of the Navajo Indians in the Western United States, has returned to her home in San Bernardino, Calif.

She had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ward, 1400 South Camp Street, in Midland. During her stay in this city, the writer autographed copies of her book at the Book Stall.

NEW OFFICERS TAKE OVER

New officers of the St. Agnes Guild of the Trinity Episcopal Church took over their duties Monday at a meeting in the home of Pauline Lee. Nine members attended.

Terminal P-TA Has Program

The Terminal Parent-Teacher Association met Tuesday in the school for the showing of a film on "Honesty."

The Rev. Bruce Matthews, pastor of the Terminal Methodist Church, which now is being organized, gave the opening prayer. Give A Pint Of Blood Now!

Many Midlanders long have felt this headquarters city of the Permian Basin Empire has been neglected in the nation's blood collecting program and that they, too, should have the opportunity of contributing blood for emergency uses.

That situation now has been corrected and a Red Cross Bloodmobile is in the city collecting blood for use at home and abroad.

It is hoped that as many Midlanders as possible will cooperate in the program, investing pints of blood in a cause which may save the lives of others. But Midlanders will have to hurry to get in on the program, since the bloodmobile will be here only through Thursday. Dial Nos. 2-2639, 3-3618 or 4-6161 NOW for an appointment. Giving blood is safe, simple and painless, with every precaution taken for the protection of the donor. Doctors and trained nurses are on hand to take the blood.

Blood is a national resource and as such it is as much a weapon of defense as guns, tanks and planes. Unlike weapons, however, it cannot be manufactured. It cannot be mined or fabricated. It must come as a free donation from the veins of men and women of good will. It is essential to the nation's health, strength and security.

The total blood needs of the nation are great; blood is needed for current use by the armed forces; it is needed to fill the immediate requirements of civilians; and above and beyond these daily needs, there must be blood for a national plasma reserve ready for use in any emergency, civilian or military, which might arise. To fill all of these important and continuing needs, the National Blood Program needs your support.

Remember, the Red Cross Bloodmobile is in Midland Wednesday and Thursday. ACT NOW.

Consolation In A Failure

There is not much comfort in the French cabinet crisis, especially since it brought down the government of Antoine Pinay, by all odds the most successful French premier in the postwar era.

But one consolation can be found—the efforts to form a new government made by Jacques Soustelle, representing the forces of General DeGaulle, were an utter failure.

The DeGaulleists, of course, are not nearly strong enough to have formed a government without the coalition support of other parties. And this fact naturally would have tempered the extremes of any program to which DeGaulle would have lent his weight.

But the conclusion hardly can be escaped that to have put the DeGaulle forces in the saddle would have been to enthrone irresponsible nationalism at a time when the whole urge of the best European elements is toward more responsible internationalism.

Soustelle's lack of success was the happiest failure of 1952.

It all depends on you whether you start on a shoe-string and become a success, or just take a good lacing.

Something New Has Been Added

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson
(Copyright, 1953, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)
Drew Pearson says: Charles Wilson antagonized senators during committee appearance; Confidential report on G. M. profits may influence Wilson's confirmation; Arthur Summerfield passed inspection in a breeze.

WASHINGTON—Inside fact about the confirmation fight of Charles E. Wilson is that Senator Byrd of Virginia telephoned Senator Saltonstall of Massachusetts, chairman of the Armed Services Committee, one week before the hearings, in order to warn of the law which might bar Wilson from becoming secretary of Defense.

Byrd did this as a friendly gesture to Eisenhower, thinking that Eisenhower would want to throw the matter out with Wilson in advance. Eisenhower's headquarters then was alerted by Senator Saltonstall and Wilson was called in and advised on how to handle the Senate hearing.

However, Wilson's appearance before the committee flabbergasted not only senators, but Ike advisers who had briefed him. Particularly surprising was his statement that he had planned to handle General Motors' contracts as secretary of Defense. Also surprising was his attitude toward the senators. He acted as if he were doing them a favor by appearing before them. At times he positively was rude. Particularly antagonizing were his sermons on his own integrity and the implication that he belonged to the ruling class.

Senator Saltonstall, whose family dates back to the Pilgrim Fathers, is a mild-mannered, tolerant gentleman, but even he did not relish Wilson's behavior.

One of the most emphatic of the senators expressing doubts about Wilson was another Republican, Duff of Pennsylvania, former governor of that state. Duff pointed out that the law is the law and that every county, city and state has a law similar to the federal law making it illegal for a government official to handle contracts with companies in which he has ownership.

Senator Cooper of Kentucky, another Republican, also expressed his disapproval. Cooper disagreed slightly with Duff, but only on a technicality.

Pyramiding G. M. Profits
Meanwhile, three other factors have disturbed senators about the three General Motors men in the Cabinet, plus one in the "little Cabinet."

1. A hitherto confidential report on how General Motors pyramided defense profits. Prepared by a Senate Armed Services subcommittee, the report shows that General Motors farmed out contracts to one subsidiary which would add a profit, then to another subsidiary which added a second profit, until sometimes three profits were added into one contract, all at the expense of the taxpayer.

2. General Motors has been among the leaders of defense suppliers who want a 12 per cent profit on all government contracts, instead of the present six per cent.
3. A General Motors man, H. R. Boyer, was responsible for a $68,000,000 order on vertical turret lathes for the Air Force going to General Motors, when another smaller company, the Bullard Company of Bridgeport, Conn., bid one-third of this price. The latter scandal was the object of an investigation by the House committee probing military waste after this column revealed the facts in February, 1952. At that time Republican congressmen were extremely critical of the manner in which General Motors wasted several million dollars.

The facts then developed, which now are being reviewed by senators, showed that Boyer, chairman of the government's Aircraft Production Board and a General Motors official, had urged military procurement officials to approve a contract with the Fisher Body Division of General Motors for 757 vertical lathes, despite the fact that Fisher Bodies had no experience in this field. The price to be paid was $90,000 per lathe, although the Bullard Company, an experienced concern, charged the government only $38,000 for the same lathe.

In addition, defense officials working in cooperation with Boyer agreed to "rent" General Motors all but 80 out of some 570 units of tooling machinery needed to fulfill the contract. Later it turned out that the units were not actually rented, but a free gift to the company.

Under cross-examination by Congressman Paul Cunningham of Iowa, a Republican, Assistant Air Secretary R. L. Gilpatrick admitted that General Motors official Boyer "personally recommended to me that the best way to get on with this job from a time standpoint" was to give it to Fisher Bodies.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written For NEA Service
Several California bridge experts are expected to appear in Dallas Wednesday for the beginning of a bridge tournament. Since Dallas is my home town, I will take more than a passing interest in the tournament.

When I think of California bridge experts, I am reminded of Dr. Edward Frischauer's sparring debut during California's "Bridge Week" tournament. Dr. Frischauer has been one of the leading players in California for some years, but before all the trouble started in Europe many years ago, he was a member of a famous Viennese team.

The sparring defense I just mentioned came about when Dr. Frischauer held the East cards in the hand shown today. West opened a low spade, dummy discarded a club, and East's queen forced out declarer's ace of spades. Declarer immediately led his queen of clubs, and Dr. Frischauer took his ace at once.

He immediately returned a spade, forcing dummy to ruff with the five of trumps.

Declarer could see that this defense could give him trouble, so he immediately cashed dummy's king and jack of clubs in order to get rid of his own last two spades. Having done so, he led the queen of hearts from dummy.

Without a single quiver, Frischauer played the king of hearts to win the trick. He then returned his last spade, which South was able to ruff in his own hand.

Declarer led a second trump, and this time West was able to win the trick with the ace. Now West led a fourth round of spades, and East's nine of hearts could not be shut out. If dummy discarded, Dr. Frischauer could ruff with his nine of hearts immediately; and if dummy ruffed with the jack of hearts, the nine of hearts would immediately become the master trump.

Q-With neither side vulnerable, the bidding has been:
North East South West
1 Heart 2 Diamonds
You, South, hold: Spades 8-6-2, Hearts J-7-6-5, Diamonds 4-3, Clubs K-J-7-5. What do you do?

A-Pass. This hand is not good for hearts, a doubleton and some strength in clubs. You have a count of five points in normal high-card strength, one point extra for the jack of your partner's bid suit, and one point for the doubleton. The total is seven points, but you should have at least eight points for a bid after East's overcall.

CARD Sense

THE STORY: Carney Wilde, private detective, is in a fix. He has been asked to locate Jack Jones, son of the store owner, now being held in the Federal House of Detention. A group of young men, including Jack's brother-in-law, has a violent temper and was a guerrilla leader in Poland.

"So what?"
Maxwell's voice rose higher. "Mr. Jones said to call you about the publicity. He figured if nobody had made a complaint against Jacobs yet, maybe you could get it hushed. I talked to Captain Handemann and there ain't no complaint on file. That gives you a little time."

"All right, Maxwell. The thefts give the motive, though. We may have trouble here if you're quiet. Where did Jacobs kill himself?" I found a pencil on a shelf and wrote the directions on the back of an old envelope.

Maxwell wanted to talk some more but I cut him off short and sent him back to the search. I hung up and went back to the library. Rudi and Jack looked up when I came in.

"I've got to leave for a while," I said. "We're winding up that comes theft case. Will you still be here in about an hour or so?" Jones nodded. "We'll wait for you."

CLOSE to the road in a small clearing stood a boarded-up farmhouse with a blue-and-yellow county police car parked near the door. Near it at the side was a black coupe that had the city seal on its side panel. I pulled in between them and parked.

A plainclothesman waved and came across the lawn, holding out his big brown hand. He covered the distance in three fast steps and grabbed my hand in a lousy grip.

"Your boy told me you might be coming, Carney," he said. "I had a radio call from Captain Handemann. He said you knew about this guy."

RRC Quizzes Firms On Supply Situation

AUSTIN—Major oil purchasing firms have been asked to answer seven questions on the oil supply situation to aid the Railroad Commission at its February 18 statewide oil production hearing.

Chairman Ernest O. Thompson asked companies to answer the questions by February 10 and to send a responsible official who could elaborate on or explain the data furnished, if necessary.

The questionnaire asks the following:
What do you consider ample stocks of crude, gasoline, kerosene, distillate and residual in the U. S. for May 1 and November 1 of this year?

Kansas Hike Jumps U. S. Crude Output

TULSA—Domestic crude oil and lease condensate production showed a daily average increase of 47,950 barrels to 6,216,250 barrels during the week ended January 17, the Oil and Gas Journal reported Tuesday.

The Journal said cumulative production for 1953 now stands at 100,479,180 barrels compared with 109,469,300 barrels at this time a year ago.

Kansas accounted for most of the net gain, rising 36,000 barrels to 351,900.
Other gainers included Louisiana, 450 to 600,525. Oklahoma had the largest loss, down 2,700 barrels to 529,600. Other declines included Arkansas, off 450 to 76,600, and New Mexico, 800 to 178,350. Production was unchanged in Texas, 2,921,750.

my car and crossed his ankles. He was just about my height and he weighed a little more than I did. Connelly was a good cop. "Let's go have a look," I suggested.

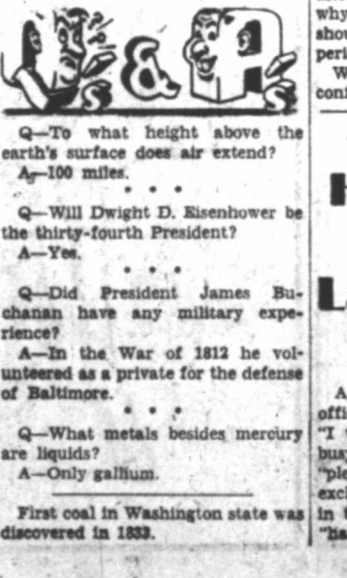

"It's not pretty. He's in the front room." He aimed his thumb at the farmhouse.
Connelly was right. There was nothing pretty about William Jacobs. Apparently he had been sitting huddled in the corner when he shot himself through the mouth.

The top of his head was gone. His arms were stretched out far in front and I could see that he was wearing black cloth sleeve protectors under his dark gray jacket. His suit was worn and a little shiny along the seams but it was painfully clean and well pressed. The trousers weren't quite as crisp but they showed signs of recent brushing. In his right hand he still held loosely a large blue-steel .38 revolver. His eyes were open and staring.

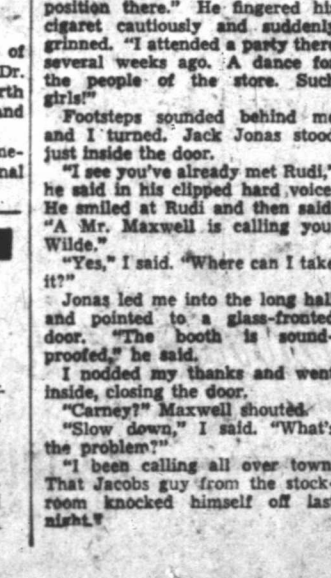

THE uniformed county cops stepped down the weeds around my car and stood waiting to hear my story. They were both tall, heavy men and they looked like father and son. The elder held a dog-eared notebook and a long pink pencil ready. "This is Sergeant Kimbrow, Carney," Connelly said, indicating the man with the notebook. "What's the deal on this man?" I coughed my throat clear. "He's a stockroom clerk at the Jonas Store. He was looting the place and we were getting close to him. I suppose he decided to do a hitch before we picked him up."

"We'd like to leave out the part about the store," I added. "It explains why he shot himself, but it won't do the store any good to have it made public."

Soloists To Appear In Bach's 'Magnificat'

Six of West Texas' best-known singers have been selected to take solo parts in the Midland Symphony and Choral Association's presentation of Bach's "Magnificat." The program is planned for 8:15 p.m. Saturday in the San Jacinto Junior High School Auditorium. Soloists will be Mrs. Robert Shirley, Mrs. Wilson Blurton, George DeHart and Ross Graham, all of Midland, and Mrs. H. Pijan and Ira Schantz of Lubbock.

Mrs. Shirley, soprano, received her vocal training at Smith College in Northampton, Mass., and the University of Kansas City. She sang in operatic productions at the schools and taught for some time after receiving her degree. Mrs. Shirley is soloist at the First Methodist Church here.

Mrs. Wilson Blurton will sing the other soprano solo part. Like Mrs.

Sweaters Are Aglitter For Evening

Sweaters increasingly show the influence of real glamor for holiday and resort wear. Here, black pearls are used on gray wool (left) for a handsome cardigan designed by Rosanna. Buttonless, it hooks at the neckline and is edged in black pearls and shining jet chips. Pearls and sequins on Winter white wool (center) help to create a sweater of great beauty. Slightly fitted at the waistline, it buttons high at the neck. Another jeweled white wool (right) has flower and leaf detailing of clustered pearls, sequins and transparent bugle beads. Both of these white sweaters are by Peggy Parker. Favored colors are black and white for their dramatic value.

Price is a point, of course. You can't get a cashmere sweater with ermine collar and wristlets for mere peanuts. But you can get a gorgeous white wool sweater with pearl-and-sequin trim at a price that won't floor you.

Many of these new sweaters take cognizance of the fact that a woman is not built like a barrel and neither is she straight up and down, like a bean-pole. The new sweater nips in at the waistline, as it ought to have done long ago.

While color emphasis naturally stresses either black or white (since these colors or most dramatic with jewelry or fur trim), there are lots of smoky and heather tones, too.

'Understanding The Bible' Is Methodist WSCS Study

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met in circles Monday for study on "Understanding The Bible." Mrs. W. F. Schafer was hostess to the Belle Bennett Circle and Mrs. R. T. German to serve luncheon for the Spiritual Life Group Saturday. It was also decided to give $10 to a needy Midland family.

Mrs. J. L. Tidwell gave the opening prayer, the devotional and led the study. A short play, "My Word Is a Lamp," was presented by Mrs. Schafer and Mrs. German.

Others attending were Mrs. Molly McCormick, Mrs. B. E. Braselton, Mrs. J. P. Garson, Sr., Mrs. John Ficke, Mrs. J. H. Harrison, Mrs. Stacey Allen, and two guests, Mrs. B. W. Golladay and Mrs. J. H. Frazer, WSCS president.

Mrs. Ralph Smith led the study at the meeting of the Winnie Prothro Circle.

The group met in Mrs. Smith's home, with Mrs. R. C. Maxson conducting the business session and the opening prayer was given by Mrs. Velma Smith. It was announced the next meeting will be held February 2 in the home of Mrs. Jess Miles.

Others present were Mrs. Joe Hewett, Alice Friberg, Dorothy Maxson, Lucy Manning, Florence Patterson, Mrs. Hugh Bliss, Mrs. Olga Boles and Mrs. W. C. Howard.

The Eleanor Luton Circle met with Mrs. Jack C. Carmichael. Mrs. A. W. Augustson led the opening prayer and Mrs. D. L. Coleman conducted the study. Others present were Mrs. J. Y. Brown, Mrs. Rec E. Goodwin, Mrs. C. E. Dorsey and Lona Sebak.

Mrs. Bob Houston led the lesson for the meeting of the Irene Nix Circle in the home of Mrs. H. E. Jaaks, 3301 Park Lane.

The opening prayer was led by Mrs. R. O. Smith and Mrs. C. F. Byrd presided for the meeting. Others present were Mrs. L. W. Winke, Mrs. E. F. Kennedy, Mrs. S. W. Howell, Mrs. D. W. Peterson and Mrs. B. B. Seawright.

Members of the Mary Scharbauer Circle met in the home of Mrs. Noel Oates, 610 North Main Street, for

Boy, 9, Accepts Odessa Challenge

Nine-year-old Randolph Hurt, Jr., a fourth grade student at David Crockett Elementary School, is the first to accept the challenge thrown at Midland Monday by Brooks Harmon, "Ector County chairman of the March of Dimes."

Randolph, in accepting the challenge, said that his present allowance would not permit him to pledge over a penny per point scored by the Midland Bulldogs against the Odessa team when the two play a basketball game here in Midland Friday night.

"I don't get too much money from my Dad," the boy said, "but I think I can give the March of Dimes a penny for each point they score against Odessa. I figure the score is going to be about 95 to 88. That will still leave me a nickel out of my dollar. I may even throw in the nickel."

Here is the way the Point-Pledge works: Just call March of Dimes Headquarters, 4-8259, and give your name and address and how much you will donate to the March of Dimes for each point Midland scores against Odessa in the basketball game. On if you prefer, just drop a card or letter to P. O. Box 272, Midland giving this information. Then after the game is over and before the March of Dimes Drive ends send in your contribution.

Ray Gwyn, county director, said Wednesday that "Reports from Odessa indicate that the Point Pledge caught on and many dollars have been pledged against the Midland team."

Gwyn urged Midlanders to get behind the Point Pledge to support the home team and the March of Dimes at the same time.

Hardison To Talk Panhandle Geology
Ensign Stanley Hardison, geologist with Kerr-McGee Oil Industries, Inc., will discuss "Geology of the Panhandle" at the fortnightly drill of Naval Reserve Petroleum Company 8-1 at 5 p.m. Thursday in the Naval Reserve building at Midland Airport.

Lt. (jg) William E. Gilson, a partner of Gilson-Kaiser, consulting geologists, will discuss naval amphibious tactics at the drill.

Navy Department films will be shown by Lt. A. M. Derrick, executive officer and training officer.

Mrs. Howard Heads Mother's March On Polio
Mrs. Ray Howard, 608 Outhbert Street, has been named chairman of the Mothers' March on Polio in Midland. It was announced Wednesday by Ray Gwyn, county director of the annual fund-raising appeal for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The Mothers' March is to be staged between the hours of 6 and 7 p.m. on Thursday, January 29.

In accepting the chairmanship of the Mothers' March, Mrs. Howard said, "Like every woman, I want to do my part in the fight against polio by assisting in the March of Dimes. We never know where or when polio will strike and must therefore do everything we can to raise the money necessary for any emergency, whether in our own country or in a distant part of the nation."

"In accepting this honor, I share the feeling of every woman in Midland County who places the safety and well-being of her children above any other consideration."

Stressing that it will take many volunteers to conduct successfully the Mothers' March, Mrs. Howard asked that women who will assist call Mrs. Ed L. Gardner, telephone 4-9638.

The MATURE PARENT

When You Ask Child A Favor, You're Giving Him A 'Choice'

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
The cake was in the oven when Shirley's mother discovered she needed more confectioners' sugar for its icing.

She threw the empty carton away—and hesitated. Then she went out to the sun porch where her child was sprawled on the couch, devouring a banana and a new comic.

"Do me a favor, dear, will you?" said Shirley's mother. "Run down to the store for me. I need more sugar."

It took 15 minutes to get Shirley going. She protested, dithered and found six separate reasons for not going.

By the time she returned, her mother's sense of grievance against her uncooperative child was ready to explode. As she ripped open the carton of sugar, she said bitterly, "I never knew a girl like you. Just you wait till you want me to do you a favor. Just remember—don't ask me again to fix the hem of your skirt. I am not going to do favors for you, if you're so ugly about doing them for me."

Snowbound Families In California Facing Shortage Of Supplies

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—Two small mountain communities in Northern California are nearing the end of their food supply after floods and slides cut off their contact with the outside world. A three-day supply is left in Sawyers Bar and Forks of Salmon in the Trinity Alps of Siskiyou County.

County engineers said all available snow tractors would be used to haul in supplies over the mountains.

Men will carry the supplies when the tractors can go no farther.

Relief expeditions are underway to many other communities isolated by the storm in the Yreka, Calif. area.

Sounds stalwart, doesn't it? It isn't. It's dishonest—and it's why Shirley so resents doing "favors" for her mother.

A favor, let me remind us, is what we voluntarily grant to someone else by our own free choice.

So let's get this straight. Shirley has not gone to the store for her mother voluntarily of her own free choice. She has gone because she has no other alternative. The choice between going and not going has not been offered to her. She knows as well as I do that she's been ordered to go to the store. The fact that her mother has ducked taking honest responsibility for her order by pretending that she has offered Shirley a choice is infuriating to this 12-year-old person.

I don't blame her for being mad. We can't ask people to do us favors—and then attack them when they decide not to do them. Shirley's mother has produced confusion and resentment through her failure to appreciate this. Look at the reality that exists. Shirley has obeyed the order. Yet, through muddled thinking, she has been punished by losing the use of her red skirt.

Pacific Area Red Cross headquarters here said spot checks showed 740 families—2,500 to 3,000 people—were routed from their homes by rising water from the weekend storm. A spokesman said 514 families have been unable to return.

The storm-plagued Oregon coast was hit by a tornado Thursday which ripped off roofs and shattered windows.

Divers still are searching for a Northwestern Pacific locomotive which was pushed by a slide into the Bel River near Scotia Bluff, killing three men. They failed to locate the bodies or the engine Tuesday.

As children grow, they become increasingly hard to fool. They despise us when we evade honest demands we have every right to make because we're scared of defiance. They know perfectly well we're scared of not being regarded as sweet, considerate, understanding parents.

If we wish to give an order, we should say, "Put down your comic and go to the store for me, please." If we wish to ask a favor, we should say, "Will you help me by going to the store for me, please?"

And if Shirley prefers not to help, she should not be sent to the store. Nor should she be reproached for making the decision we have offered her.

Knowing the difference between orders and requests is vital to acceptance of our authority.

STUDY MATERIAL TOO PLENTIFUL

ALTA, UTAH—(AP)—The only avalanche research station in the U. S. was without scientific equipment Wednesday due to an avalanche.

Ranger Montgomery M. Atwater of the U. S. Forest Service, which operates the research station at this resort in the mountains near Salt Lake City, said two snowslides on Flagstaff and Cardiff Mountains buried the installation's instrument tower and equipment under tons of snow, brush and debris.

"Our research installation has been back 10 years," Montgomery said.

Daddy Ringtail

Daddy Ringtail And What To Do With A Witch

Daddy Ringtail, your monkey friend, had an extra special problem. He was camping at night in a strange part of the Great Forest. He was sitting close by his campfire, looking out at the dark around him, when there came a play-like witch who insisted she was very real.

Oh, she sounded real enough and very much like a witch. She had a dangerous laugh of "cackle-ack-ack," just as much like the laugh of a witch as any laugh that you ever heard. She was dressed all in black with a black coat and a tall black hat. Her hair was straggled and straggled, and her nose was like a cucumber. Yes, she looked very much like a witch, and a witch is what she said she was, except everyone knows that a witch is something that isn't. There aren't any witches at all, in fact.

But the witch flew into a rage with insisting she was really a witch, and the noise of her rage was being heard by Daddy Ringtail. But because a witch is something that isn't what can you do to get rid of a witch that isn't really at all?

This is a very serious problem, as anyone can understand, and I don't know what might have happened, except a frog came hopping along with a friendly smile and a green coat he was wearing with black buttons down the front.

The frog was carrying a bottle in his hand, and he explained that he had spilled and lost the friendly medicine he rubbed at night on his tired and aching feet which were tired from all the hopping those feet had to do. Yes, and the name of the medicine he had lost was "Witch Hazel," and please had Daddy Ringtail seen it anywhere?

Daddy Ringtail had seen it, of course, and he pointed to where the Witch Hazel stood with her trying to pretend she was a real witch. She saw she couldn't do it any longer, and she began to melt like water into the friendly medicine she was supposed to be. Back she ran into the bottle all ready to be rubbed on any feet that were tired and aching if you were a frog. And this story is what to do if you meet a witch, but you won't ever meet one, I'm happy to say, because there really aren't any. Happy day!

Newsmag above shows how changes in corn supplies in postwar years have influenced year-to-year changes in prices. Increased demand for corn also contributed to the rise in prices from 1949 to 1951. With the harvesting of the 1952 crop of 3307 million bushels, second largest on record, corn prices declined seasonally, and in November and December averaged 10 per cent lower than in the same period of 1951. Total quantity of corn under loan or owned by the CCC on Dec. 31 is the estimate for the 1952 total, and is shown to indicate the part of the supply held under the price-support program in the first quarter of the marketing year. ## IN SPITE OF 3,501 HANDSHAKES— Official Feet Suffer Most In Texas Inaugural Shindig

By MARTHA COLE

AUSTIN—(P)—It took 14 hours and 3,501 handshakes for Gov. Allan Shivers to be inaugurated governor of Texas.

He started at 10 a.m. Tuesday dressing for the inaugural parade and wound up at midnight, still shaking hands.

The governor started out quite properly on the round of four inaugural dances Tuesday night, dressed in white tie and tails and even a top hat.

But it was bound to happen sooner or later. Somebody presented him a plain old Texas hat, about a two and one-half-gallon, at the square dance in the City Coliseum. And the governor plopped it on his head.

The square dancers were by far the merriest of the 200 persons of the Highway Patrol estimated helped the governor celebrate his second inauguration. Some 2,500 of them stood up and sang "The Eyes of Texas" for Shivers and his party when they got to the City Coliseum about 10:30 p.m. Gov. and Mrs. Shivers and Lt. Gov. and Mrs. Ben Ramsey joined in the clapping in tune with "Dixie," and Shivers said a few words about he wasn't going to make a speech, "but I think all you people that came here."

While he spoke, young John Shivers, 12, shuffled through the crowd in the door and asked, "What's going on?"

Children Watch

The three older Shivers children—John, Allan, seven today and Marialice Sue, five—wanted to see everything. They watched the morning parade from a reviewing stand.

From Many States

"You'd be surprised at the number who were from out of town, cities in Texas, California, Oklahoma, Arkansas. We didn't have time to ask them if they were just tourists or what."

Nobody complained about his right hand hurting from so much handshaking. It was feet. Even the men complained after standing up for two hours solid.

Mrs. William J. Murray, wife of a railroad commissioner, walked down the hall gingerly, holding her red satin slippers, after it was all over.

"I hope they all were voters," she quipped.

Former Classmate Denies Remington Followed Red Line

NEW YORK—(P)—A fellow student of William W. Remington at Dartmouth College in the 1930's says the two tried to break up a campus club which "in some respects followed the Communist Party line."

William Wolf Goodman, a 35-year-old Danbury, Conn., hat manufacturer, testified Tuesday at the second Federal Court perjury trial of Remington, a former $10,000-a-year Commerce Department economist.

Goodman gave his testimony when Remington, appearing as his own witness, took a break in his witness stand appearance. Remington returned to the witness stand for more cross-examination Wednesday.

Goodman's testimony was offered by the defense in an apparent move to counter testimony by other former Dartmouth students that Remington was a Communist during his college days.

"We joined with others to break up the American Students Union there and form the Dartmouth Liberal Club," Goodman testified. "The ASU in some respects followed the Communist Party line and we, who wanted free discussions, not discussions along the Communist line, broke it up."

Texas Legislators Study New Budget Scheme, Bills

AUSTIN—(P)—Legislators came to work late Wednesday—after helping celebrate Governor Shivers' inauguration Tuesday night—and found another proposed budget on their desks. It suggested even less spending than the governor has recommended.

The new set of figures came from the legislature's own agency, the Legislative Budget Board.

The board offered a budget that would take 162 million dollars out of the general revenue fund for state expenses the next two years. That is slightly more than is being spent for the current biennium. It is about four million dollars less than the governor proposed last week.

Shivers' budget ran higher chiefly because of salary increases he suggested for some state employes and college teachers.

Salaries are held at current levels in the Budget Board's plan, but the board said requests for more money would confront lawmakers.

Those requests, as diagnosed by the board, would exceed 100 million dollars for the two-year fiscal period beginning September 1. The board's budget would allow an estimated surplus of 19 million dollars to apply against the requests. New revenue would have to be found if the Legislature wanted to spend more.

No Highway Boost

Like the governor's, the board's budget did not consider possibility of expanding the highway construction program 100 million dollars a year as requested by highway officials.

With two budgets in hand, the Legislature was ready to get at the task of figuring out its own budget ideas.

A House appropriations subcommittee settled down to that job Wednesday afternoon when it began hearings on money requests of state departments. Among the first scheduled to be heard were the state auditor, the Blind Commission, the comptroller and the Board of Control.

Filing of bills continued at a fast clip, particularly in the House, where midnight Wednesday night will be the deadline for introduction of bills carrying low priority numbers which the representatives drew Monday.

Water Bill Filed

A bill to give cities exclusive control of drilling and operating water wells within one mile of their city limits was introduced by Rep. Marshall O. Bell of San Antonio. He said cities needed the power to protect dwindling underground supplies.

Bell also introduced a proposed constitutional amendment to prohibit the state or any political subdivision from every levying an income tax or payroll tax. He has been unsuccessful in earlier attempts.

A measure to spend $100,000 for rehabilitation of the Legion Sanatorium at Kerrville was introduced by Rep. Joe Burkett, Jr., Kerrville. He said the sanatorium would help house tuberculosis patients to be transferred from Weaver H. Baker Sanatorium when that hospital is closed to make way for reactivation of Moore AFB at Mission.

Divorce Wait Asked

Children becoming six in September could enter public school that month instead of having to wait a year under a bill introduced by Rep. Herman Yezak of Bremond. Present law requires children to be six on or before September 1 to enroll in tuition free.

Rep. William A. Miller, Jr., Houston, filed a bill to make couples seeking divorce wait 90 days if they had no children, 180 days if they have children.

Crown Prince's Tour Cost Set At $305,000

TOKYO—(P)—The Finance Ministry Wednesday decided on a $305,000 outlay for Crown Prince Akihito's six-month tour of Europe and America.

The crown prince, who will leave March 30, will attend the coronation to Queen Elizabeth II in June and visit 11 countries. The sum, still to be approved by the Cabinet, will cover gifts for the heads of countries to be visited as well as expenses.

BUSINESS VISITORS

Mrs. L. M. Martin and Mrs. Coy Cope were here Monday from Seagraves.

Political Pros See Ramsey In 1954 Bid For Shivers' Office

By DAVE CHEAVENS

AUSTIN—(P)—Political professionals Wednesday looked on Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey's inaugural address as a possible opening bid for the governorship two years from now.

It had elements that have proved themselves politically productive in the past.

The speech by the tall, taciturn East Texas lawyer introduced as "the Sage of San Augustine" had folks touches fresh from the pinyon woods. It blended religion and practical politics and held out hope for the old folks and wards of the state.

It underlined water saving, rural roads and teacher salary increases as outstanding, vital issues before the Legislature.

Ramsey's political future has been the subject of considerable speculation. When Shivers steps out at the end of his second elective term, the doors will be wide open for a conservative candidate with a well-established political background.

Was Joint Candidate

He began his political career in 1930 when he was elected to the House from San Augustine County. He served there four years and in the Senate eight years, where he was named president pro tem.

Ramsey was elected lieutenant governor in 1950 and again in November as the joint nominee of the Democrats and the Republicans.

His back-home interests concentrate on rural electrification, soil and water conservation and improved forestry. In the Senate, he sponsored labor regulatory legislation.

Ramsey was appointed secretary of State by the late Gov. Beauford H. Jester and was reappointed by Shivers. He resigned to make the race for lieutenant governor.

The wisecracking, 48-year-old East Texan has never lost a political race.

"HAPPIEST DAY" OF HER LIFE—Mrs. Mary Kitmiller, above, is wheeled from an ambulance for a preview of her "dream home" in Chicago's suburban Park Ridge. Friends, neighbors and sympathizers banded together to provide the home when she was ordered evicted from her present residence for non-payment of rent. Fund raisers collected more than $14,000, and volunteer workers are building the home, which is in the $20,000 class, for about $7000. Mrs. Kitmiller made the trip with the aid of a portable respirator, as she is still confined to an iron lung.

Downtown Coin Containers Placed For Dimes Campaign

The distribution of more than 200 March of Dimes coin containers to department stores, shops, drug stores and other strategic places in downtown Midland and Midland County began this week. Ray Gwyn, county campaign director, announced Tuesday. The disbursement of the tiny iron lungs is under the direction of Mrs. Jerry Byer and volunteer workers of the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority.

before because this year there are many more patients in real respirators. During the 1952 epidemic, which was the worst in history, the National Foundation met more than 2,175 emergency requests for respirators, several right here in Midland. This was not only an all-time high for any single year but surpassed the number supplied in the previous three years combined.

"Respiratory polio," Gwyn continued, "requires the most expensive form of patient care and this treatment must be maintained sometimes for many months and even years. This point is brought closer to home and is of particular concern of the Midland chapter since one small Midland girl is required to spend each sleeping minute in an iron lung." Gwyn added, "This child must remember to breathe. During her waking moments she controls her breathing with res-

FISH 'N' CHIPS SHORTAGE DUE

LONDON —(AP)— Food-short Britain Wednesday faced a new threat to one of its favorite items of diet—fish. The Russians say they are going to ban British fishermen from a nine-mile belt of Soviet coastal waters in the Barents Sea area.

These waters are a prime haunt of plaice and haddock, both popular fish on Britain's table. The ban is expected to hit the British fish supply line hard.

Mrs. Murphy is a former missionary to Korea. Peggy Williams became the bride of Earnie Higdon January 10 at a ceremony in the Tabernacle Baptist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Williams of Kermit. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Higdon are the parents of the bridegroom.

educated muscles, however, since she cannot concentrate on muscle control while asleep, it is necessary that an iron lung be employed to perform this important function."

In addition to the distribution of the coin collectors, downtown shoppers Monday noticed many posters being placed in shop windows and on counters by the Order of Rainbow Girls who have undertaken this project.

The Midland County March of Dimes will continue through January 31. Contributions may be mailed to March of Dimes, Box 272, Midland.

Midlanders Plan Entries In Stock Shows Next Month

Midland County youths Wednesday had made plans to enter livestock in two of the state's top exhibitions next month.

County Agent Charles Green said that he and Norman Drake will take two steers to the Houston show which opens February 4.

Several lambs will be entered in the San Antonio Livestock Exposition the week of February 12.

"We are depending on quality rather than numbers this year," Green pointed out.

Plans for attending shows other than those at San Antonio and Houston will be formulated later this month, Green said.

Wide Problems Presented Compact By Pecos River

Signing of the Pecos River Compact between Texas and New Mexico in December, 1948, climaxed 35 years of dispute between the two states. Hailed as a milestone in cementing relations between the states and dividing the water in the Pecos River, observers point out that the commission created by the compact still face many difficult problems. Engineers estimate it may be another five years before results of the compact are felt on the river.

Although the Pecos River, which rises in the mountains of North-Central New Mexico empties into the Rio Grande, near Langtry, Texas, is not a large interstate stream, it is believed to have more problems than any river in America.

Summer, N. M. project was built in 1883, followed by development at Carlsbad in about 1888. With the advent of the Texas & Pacific Railway into the Barstow and Pecos, Texas areas, Barstow commenced and developed its first irrigations from the river on a commercial basis, Red Bluff Reservoir, the master storage in Texas, with a capacity of 300,000 acre feet of water, was constructed in 1931 near Oris, Texas. Texas irrigation from the waters of the Pecos River first began in about 1878.

Prior to 1941, rainfall and runoff usually were sufficient to serve these projects and deliver in Texas the equivalent capacity of Red Bluff reservoir at least every four years. Since 1941, however, the four year flood cycle which largely sustained the river has been broken, and engineers agree that, no matter how carefully water is conserved no real relief is likely until the present 12 year drought is ended. Meanwhile the Pecos River Commission is laboring to save and allocate such water as is available by cracking down on illegal uses and eliminating the costly losses to nature.

Following Dunlap's death in 1944, Gov. Coke Stevenson appointed Charles H. Miller of Barstow to the post of Compact Commissioner. It was during Miller's tenure that a compact finally was urged in December, 1948, and ratified by both states and Congress. Shortly after being named to the position of Texas commissioner under the new compact, Miller died.

Governor Shivers then appointed J. C. Wilson of Pecos, long-time Texas leader in farming and irrigation circles and recognized authority on Pecos River problems, to fill the post of Pecos River commissioner. Wilson now is rounding out his first full term. Under his leadership the commission has completed studies and plans for elimination of the salt cedar problem, improvement of the quality of water, reduction of illegal pumping, control of silt, and aerial mapping of the river.

Two Elderly Sisters Are Hit-Run Victims

BALTIMORE —(AP)— Two elderly sisters were killed Tuesday night when struck at an intersection by a speeding hit-run automobile. Police said one of the bodies was dragged 100 yards.

Police charged Carroll M. Johnson, 30-year-old negro, with causing the death of the two women and also placed six traffic charges against him.

Pronounced dead on arrival at a hospital were Margaret Farrell, 68, and Mary Farrell, 62.

Plane Survivor Describes Harrowing Hours On Raft

MANILA —(AP)— Choppy seas surged over the rubber raft. Three American Coast Guard fliers, chilled to the bone, braced against the icy waters.

The raft bobbed and drifted inside a treacherous reef. Land was perilously near — the unfriendly coast of Communist China. There was safety there from the angry seas and winds—but danger, too, of almost certain imprisonment or death.

"We were so cold we didn't care who got us, just so they had fire to keep us warm," says Lt. John Vukic.

Then, in midnight darkness, the U. S. destroyer Halsey Powell picked its way expertly through the reef and plucked the frozen, bedraggled men to safety.

That ended seven and one-half hours of misery for Vukic, of Pittsburgh, the pilot; Joseph Miller, Jr., chief aviation machinist's mate, of Long Beach, Calif.; and Robert F. Hewitt, aviation structural mechanic, third class, of San Diego.

All Battered, Bruised
They were crew members of a Coast Guard Mariner amphibian that overturned in heavy seas, burned and sank Sunday after picking up 11 of 13 Navy airmen shot down off Swatow, a Red China port, by Communist shore batteries.

Vukic told their story Tuesday at Sangley Point Naval Base, southeast of Manila. All three were battered and bruised. Hewitt had a back injury. Vukic sported a black eye.

The other five crewmen of the Mariner were killed. Two Navy airmen were killed and four are missing and presumed dead.

The other seven were taken to Formosa, from where the Coast Guardmen were flown to Manila and the seven Navy men to Okinawa, their home base.

Vukic said his crew spotted a half-inflated, half-burned lifeboat holding the 11 Navy survivors at 4:20 p.m. Sunday.

He set the big amphibian down on the rough waters without trouble while other planes circled overhead.

Couldn't Stand Up
"The survivors were so physically exhausted they had to be assisted into our plane—they couldn't stand up," Vukic said. Hours later Vukic knew just what that meant.

On the takeoff, the Mariner lurched and a wing dipped into the sea.

"My seat broke and that's the last thing I remember. The next thing I knew I was in the water. My left eye was full of blood and my right eye was blind."

Vukic and six other men made it to a life raft—but couldn't inflate it.

The planes overhead dropped more rafts. Vukic, Miller and Hewitt clambered aboard one.

"The three of us tried to paddle back to the others, but we could not make it. We paddled with our hands and feet. Finally we got so tired we just sat down and lost sight of the crew and plane."

About 9 p.m. they spotted the rescue ships.

The Powell deftly maneuvered into position and picked them up. Aboard, they found the seven Navy men already had been rescued.

BROTHER RODNEY FIGHTS ON— Roger Lee Brodie Dies After 34 Days In Coma

CHICAGO—(P)—Tiny Roger Lee Brodie, Siamese twin who for 24 days amazed the medical world by surviving a head-to-head surgical separation, died Tuesday night.

The 16-month-old boy had been in a deep coma since the history-making operation December 17. His brain circulation was impaired and his condition had been listed "very precarious" since the separation from his brother, Rodney Dee.

Attending physicians had expressed amazement that he survived the 12 hour and 40 minute operation.

The surgery on the twins, who were born joined at the top of their heads, was the first time in medical history the patients had survived such an operation.

Rodney, since the separation, has undergone two plastic procedures to put skin over his brain. He has shown some signs he is on the road to recovery. However, he must undergo further surgery and his condition still is regarded as critical.

"Roger's death was not an unexpected development by any means," said a spokesman at the Neuro-Psychiatric Hospital of the University of Illinois.

The spokesman said attending physicians had explained several times that Roger's chances of recovering consciousness were "virtually nonexistent."

"The child had received minute-to-minute care since the operation," he said. "Feeding through the nose tube continued on a half-hour schedule until a few minutes before he died.

"His condition had gradually worsened, almost imperceptibly. There was a definite indication of sinking during the day, a gradually slowing pulse rate."

It was during the twins' separation that surgeons discovered there was only one superior sagittal sinus, the main passageway or vein draining blood back from both brains. Because Rodney was holding up much better during the operation and surgery in his favor could be more easily performed, he was favored for "survival of the fittest" by the surgeons. They gave the sagittal sinus and most of the brain covering to Rodney and took the bigger chance on Roger's survival.

Parents of the twins, Mr. and Mrs. Royt Brodie, were informed of Roger's death late Tuesday night through a relative as they have no telephone in their farm home near Moline, Ill.

Police said this is what Mrs. Marilyn Meitner, 26, told them Tuesday after she hurled her three-week-old baby girl, Phyllis Ann, out a third-floor window. The baby died a few hours later.

The father, Marvin Meitner, a butcher and egg jobber, said a wife had been nervous and melancholy since the birth of the child, their first in the three years they have been married.

Mrs. Meitner was not charged pending psychiatric tests.

HALLS TOO CROWDED TO DANCE, BUT— Happy Republicans Wassail In Double-Jointed Jubilee

By RELMAN MORIN WASHINGTON—(P)—Happy Republicans wassailed on into the wee hours of Wednesday in a last great and gala jubilee marking the inauguration of President Eisenhower.

And Eisenhower and his lady celebrated right along with them. They didn't holdout until the final curtain at 3 a. m., but departed at 1:18, comparatively the shank of the evening. Long lines of limousines and taxis, stalled in traffic, still were bringing guests when he left. The new President was in fine fettle, right up to the end. He still looked daisy-fresh, although his day had begun 18 hours earlier and had included the most impressive event any American can experience—being sworn in as President of the United States.

This was a double-jointed jubilee. At opposite ends of Washington two big, bull-cheated halls had been given over to the celebration. One was the National Guard Armory, the other the McDonough Auditorium at Georgetown University.

White Ties, Bare Shoulders Officially, it was a white-tie and bare-shoulders event, and most of the guests conformed. Tickets were $12 apiece, and you had to know somebody who knew somebody to get them.

It was a brilliantly dressed throng. There were tiaras and lognettes, fabulous jewels—or some very expert copies thereof—full flaring gowns with trains, and décolletage that defied gravity. Orchid corsages were as common as dandelions on a Summer lawn.

Well before the President's first appearance, most of the celebrities were on hand—Cabinet designees John Foster Dulles, Martin P. Durkin, George M. Humphrey, and Wilson, Harold E. Stassen, named to be mutual security director.

Most of the senators and congressmen had taken boxes. A long line of well-wishers waited patiently to shake hands and exchange a few words with Senator Robert A. Taft of Ohio, Eisenhower's great rival for the Republican nomination. It was obvious Tuesday night he had lost none of his popularity.

Movie personalities, some of whom had entertained Monday night, moved around the room gazing at political celebrities pretty much as people usually gaze at them. Few people sat still. They moved, endlessly, wheeling round and round the room.

Ike, Mamie Appear At 10:45, the Marine band in blue-and-scarlet crashed out the opening bars of "Hail to the Chief," the song that announces the arrival of all Presidents.

Then, in an upper box, Eisenhower and Mamie and the members of their family filed in. A cheer went up. The President waved and made the V-gesture with his up-raised arms. His wife smiled a little girl's smile.

Instantly, opera glasses and lognettes blossomed all over the room, most of them trained on her dress. It had been photographed before, but there were exclamations when the women actually saw it. It was "Renoir pink" and studded with 2,000 rhinestones. She had matching gloves and evening bag.

Sen. John—apparently the shyest member of the family—wore the dark blue dress uniform of an Army major.

After the Eisenhowers' arrival, actor Adolphe Menjou, in the role of master-of-ceremonies, urged the guests to dance. Some of them tried. But by this time the crush was too great. It was hard to walk, let alone dance. A woman fainted.

Guests Keep Coming And still the guests kept coming. Across town, an identical scene was taking place. The President, who didn't get there until after midnight, stood, half leaning on the balcony rail, all the time he was there. He exchanged quick, animated remarks with Mrs. Eisenhower and other members of his party.

Eisenhower appeared ready to leave when another set was announced—and that brought him back to the rail instantly. It was the West Point Choir. The cadets, in trim grey with red chevrons, marched on stage. First they sang their famous anthem, "The Corps." Then a spokesman announced that they would do a song written especially for the occasion, and for a highly renowned graduate of the academy.

Its title: "You'll Never Get Away." One stanza ended with the line: "One short term won't do." Crater Lake, Ore., was discovered in 1853.

Jap Fishermen See Soviet Fighters Down U. S. Plane

TOKYO—(P)—Japanese fishermen just released from Soviet captivity said Wednesday they saw Russian fighter planes and ground guns shoot down a U. S. B-29 Superfort last October 7 off Northern Japan.

One fisherman said he saw two Russian fighter planes chase the B-29, heard gunfire and then: "Black smoke started to stream from the American plane and it crashed into the sea at a tremendous speed."

The fishermen gave their accounts to Japanese reporters at Nemuro on the Northern Island of Hokkaido. Three fishing craft with 23 crewmen were released after six months of hard labor on the Russian-held island of Yuri near Hokkaido. They had been seized for allegedly poaching in Russian waters.

The accounts they gave varied in some detail but most said they saw two Soviet fighters chase a B-29 while they were fishing under Soviet orders.

The fishermen said Soviet soldiers guarding them immediately ordered the fishing boats back to Yuri, where they were put under confinement. They made no mention of sighting any parachutes from the B-29.

"Unjustifiable Attack" The U. S. government hotly protested the incident to Russia, demanded compensation for the "wanton and unjustifiable attack" and warned of possible grave consequences from the "reckless practice."

Yoshio Miyaho, 25, said he and 15 other Japanese prisoners saw a Russian plane dive at the Superfort and "fire furiously."

Moments earlier he had seen a single-engine plane and a four-engine aircraft flying side by side. The single-engine plane suddenly went into a dive, its guns firing.

The four-engine plane, he said, faltered and began to lose altitude, leaving a trail of smoke. It disappeared behind a hill.

Miyaho's account made no mention of a second Russian fighter nor did he say anything of ground fire.

o Renew the Spirit that Built Our Country

HAVE FAITH

In God
In Ourselves
In Our Fellow Men
In Freedom

IN THE FAITH WE PLACE IN GOD... in ourselves as individuals... in our fellow men and... in Freedom—rests the future of our nation!

The faith of our country's founders was a sturdy and simple faith.

They believed in the Power which sustains through any crisis. Upheld and guided by that Power, they believed in their own strength to do: to achieve, to build.

And, thus sustained and fortified, they believed that Freedom was more than an abstract dream: they made it an accomplished fact.

This Freedom is our children's birthright—ours to hand on to them and to their children—undiminished, undespilled.

This is a sacred trust—one in which we must not fail.

Yet these are troubled times. What can we do?

We can do as those before us did... renew the spirit that built our country.

We need... Faith in God, Who answers prayer... Faith in ourselves, and in our work... Faith in our fellow men, their courage and their honesty... Faith in Freedom... and in its strength!

When we have done these things—and only then—can we be secure in the knowledge that our children will be free and our country safe.

We must not fail.

and 665 feet from east lines of the west half of section 17, block 12, University survey and 22 miles southwest of Andrews.
Magnolia Petroleum Company has completed its No. 1-38995 University as a half-mile south extension and third producer in the Magutex (Ellenburger) field of Northeast Andrews County.
The extension gauged 208 barrels of 40.4-gravity oil plus 11 barrels of salt water in 24 hours of flowing through an 18/64-inch choke and perforations from 13,832 to 13,847 feet.
One-oil ratio was 132-1 and flowing tubing pressure was 400 pounds. It is 660 feet from north and west lines of the south half of section 17, block 8, University survey and one-half mile south of the opener of the field.

Turner Schedules 3,000-Footer In NE Terrell Area

Fred Turner, Jr., of Midland No. 1 Kennie Noelke is to be a 3,000-foot wildcat in Northeast Terrell County.
Location is 1,320 feet from south and west lines of section 6, block A-2, TCRR survey. It is seven miles southwest of Sheffield. Drilling is to start soon.

Three Wildcats Will Be Dug In Schleicher

Locations for three new wildcats to seek production in the Ellenburger have been staked in Schleicher County.
Two of the explorations are to be drilled by C. L. Norsworthy, Jr., of Dallas. The third is to be undertaken by D. E. Vasser of Natchez, Miss.
Norsworthy No. 1 Sam E. Jones of Eldorado is to be a 6,200-foot project in Southeast Schleicher County. It will be 14 1/2 miles southeast of Eldorado.
Location Given
Drillite is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 35, block K, GH&SA survey. It is five and one-half miles southeast of the Page (Strawn) field.
It has been spudded with cable tools. Rotary will be moved in soon. The wildcat is on a lease secured by Norsworthy in a farmout deal with The Texas Company.
Norsworthy No. 1 Mrs. R. S. Spencer is to be a 6,000-foot development, also in Southeast Schleicher. It is three and three-quarter miles north and slightly east of the location of the Norsworthy No. 1 Jones.
It To Start Soon
The drillite is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 49, block A, John H. Gibson survey. It is six miles east of the Page

Two Discoveries In Coleman Are Being Completed

Two sand discoveries in Coleman County are in the process of being completed.
Coronet Oil Company No. 1-37 Morris, Morris sand strike six miles northeast of Silver Valley was shut in for storage after it had flowed 250 barrels of oil daily through perforations in casing at 2,556-87 feet.
Location is in section 37, block 2, GH&SA survey.
Carl Hogard No. 1 Eulus Johnson, indicated Gray sand discovery eight miles northeast of Silver Valley, was bottomed at 3,223 feet with casing set at 3,190 feet. Operator was preparing to drill cement on the casing.
This wildcat flowed oil on drillstem tests in the Gray sand from 3,160 to 3,175 feet and from 3,150 to 3,175 feet.
Location is in section 91, block 2, GH&H survey.

Drilling with rotary tools is to start soon.
D. E. Vasser of Natchez, Miss., No. 1 W. F. Meador is to be a 6,500-foot prospector in Central Schleicher County. Location is 400 feet from north and 2,535 feet from west lines of section 4 1/2, block EEE, and four and one-half miles northwest of the Page (Strawn) field. It is four miles east of Eldorado.
Drilling is to start soon. Rotary tools will be used.

General Crude Sets 6,500-Footer Project In SW Stonewall

General Crude Oil Company No. 2 Pauline Ybarra is to be a 6,500-foot Ellenburger wildcat in Southwest Stonewall County.
Location is 660 feet from west and 1,990 feet from north lines of section 175, block 1, H&TC survey. It is nine and one-half miles southwest of the town of Aspermont and four and one-half miles northeast of the Double Mountain (Pennsylvanian) field.
It is five and one-half miles northwest of the Frankirk (Ellenburger) field.
Drilling with rotary rig is to begin at once.

Intex Gets Slight Oil Shows In Reef In Nolan Project

Intex Oil Company of Dallas No. 1 R. E. Gracey, project five-eighths of a mile southwest of the Rowan and Hope (Strawn reef lime) field in Northwest Nolan County, is bottomed at 6,420 feet and is preparing to run electrical surveys.
Operator took a drillstem test of the reef from 6,370 to 6,420 feet. Tool was open two hours. Gas came to the surface in 14 minutes.
Recovery was 60 feet of slightly oil and gas cut mud and 120 feet of heavily oil and gas cut mud.
Location is 660 feet from north and east lines of section 49, block 23, T&P survey, four and one-half miles west of Sweetwater and one-half of a mile east of a 7,453-foot dry hole.

West Texas Projects Plugged, Abandoned

Two more wildcat explorations in West Texas have been reported plugged and abandoned.
Carter & Carter of San Antonio plugged No. 1 Webster, wildcat in Central-East Schleicher County, on total depth of 4,905 feet in Ellenburger. Top was called at 4,670 feet, elevation 2,256 feet.
The Ellenburger was not tested. The Canyon sand had some indications of production, but it was decided the project would not make a commercial producer.
Location was 330 feet from north and east lines of the southeast quarter of section 1, block 8, TW&NG survey. It was dug 25 miles east of Eldorado.
Great Western Drilling Company No. 1 J. S. Oats, wildcat in West-Central Pecos County, has been plugged and abandoned on total depth of 2,274 feet in sand and lime.
Location was 330 feet from north and west lines of the north half of the northwest quarter of section 195, block 3, T&P survey.

Low Stakes Site For Lea Explorer

Ralph Lowe of Midland will drill No. 1 Hair as a 7,000-foot Clear Fork project in Southeast Lea County, New Mexico.
Location is 1,980 feet from north and west lines of section 30-248-38. It is three-quarters of a mile northwest of production in the West Dollarhide (multipay) field in the extreme southeast corner of the county.
Operations are to start at once.

SW Sterling Pool Gets New Project

Honolulu Oil Corporation has staked location for No. 5-A C. H. Sugg in the Spraberry Trend Area of Southwest Sterling City.
It is 660 feet from the most southerly north line and 660 feet from the lease line of a 3,520-acre lease or 660 feet from the most of 299.6 barrels of 38.3-gravity oil with a gas-oil ratio of 850-1.

Production was through a 24/64-inch choke from perforations between 3,965 feet and 3,994 feet and 3,996-70 feet in 5 1/2-inch casing set at 4,015 feet. Total depth is 4,094 feet.
Top of pay was picked at 3,962 feet. Elevation was not reported. Tubing pressure was 110 pounds and there was a packer on the casing.
The well is 330 feet from north and west lines of section 473, W. A. McGrew survey and five-eighths of a mile east of upper Gardner production in the Hull-Dobbs field.

C-N Runnels Gets New Prospector

John J. Eisner of Abilene has staked location for a 4,800-foot rotary wildcat in Central-North Runnels County.
It is No. 1 J. P. Davidson and is located 387 feet from north and 1,867 feet from east lines of Thomas T. Green survey No. 490.
It is one-quarter of a mile east of Winters and one and three-quarters miles northwest of production in the Winters (Caddo) field which produces from the Caddo lime at an average depth of 4,491-4,516 feet.
No. 1 Davidson is on a 92-acre tract and elevation at drillite is 1,812 feet.
Drilling will begin immediately. Ab-Text Drilling Company of Abilene has the contract.

Water Source Found At Wildcat In Terry

Great Western Drilling Company located source of water which developed on swabbing tests in No. 1 Brit Clare, wildcat and indicated producer from the Glorieta in Northwest Terry County, and was preparing to shut off the water.
It was found to be coming from around the casing shoe above the pay section.
Last natural gauge reported from the wildcat was from 20 to 39 barrels of clean oil hourly. The water came in after the pay section had been treated with 5,000 gallons of acid.
No. 1 Clare is 1,980 feet from north and 660 feet from west lines of section 22, block D-14, C&MRR survey. It is eight miles north of Tokio and two miles northeast of production in the Prentice field.

New Parcel Post Rate Hike Sought

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission Wednesday disclosed a petition from the Post Office Department for a new increase in parcel post rates.
southerly north line of the section and approximately 800 feet due east of the Reagan-Sterling County line in section 46, William B. Dean survey.
Rotary tools will be used to drill to projected depth of 5,300 feet, beginning at once.
No. 5-A Sugg is 25 miles southwest of Sterling City in the former Weddell area.

Failures Plugged In SE New Mexico

Two wildcats in Southeast New Mexico have been reported plugged and abandoned.
Amerasia Petroleum Corporation No. 1 B. A. Crawley, wildcat in Northwest Lea County, one and one-half miles north of production in the Moore (multipay) area, was quit on total depth of 11,025 feet in the Devonian.
The test was dug 660 feet from south and west lines of section 12-115-32e.
Basabe & Rupe Drilling Company No. 1 Carl I. Ryberg, wildcat in Central-North Lincoln County, has been plugged and abandoned on total depth of 1,320 feet in shale.
It was dug 1,980 feet from north and east lines of section 24-28-14e. It was 12 miles southeast of Corona.

Glasscock Sector Given New Oiler

Sohio Petroleum Company No. 1-B Bigby has been completed as a new producer in the Spraberry Trend Area field of Southwest Glasscock County.
The new well was finished for a daily flowing potential of 249.23 barrels of 39.1-gravity oil through a 24/64-inch choke and from perforations at 6,766-6,820 feet.
Pay was fractured with 2,000 gallons. No water was made with the oil. Gas-oil ratio was 925-1 and tubing pressure 200 pounds. Pressure on casing was 500 pounds.
Location is 1,980 feet from south and east lines of section 17, block 38, T-8-S T&P, survey.

C-S King Project Plugged, Abandoned

Continental Oil Company has plugged and abandoned its No. 3 Alexander estate, wildcat in Central-South King County, at total depth of 6,600 feet in Cambrian sand showing salt water.
Location was 1,980 feet from north and west lines of section 89, block F, H&TC survey and nine miles southeast of Guthrie.

NW Reagan Field Gets New Tester

Phillips Petroleum Company is to begin immediately on its No. 1-A Kenneth, project three miles northwest and three and one-half miles east and slightly north of production in an undeveloped portion of the Spraberry Trend Area of Northwest Reagan County.
The project will be drilled to 8,000 feet with rotary tools.
Drillite is 666 feet from west and 661 feet from north lines of section 16, block F, C&M survey and three miles north of Stiles.

SW Glasscock Field Gets New Project

Hinley Company of Midland spotted location for No. 2-AA TXL in the Spraberry Trend Area field of Southwest Glasscock County.
It will be dug 660 feet from north and 1,980 feet from east lines of section 19, block 35, T-4-S, T&P survey and 20 miles southeast of the city of Midland.
It is slated for an 8,000-foot bottom.

BUSY WITH THE BUNTING—Thousands of flags and banners are fluttering off the production line at William Parrack's flag factory at Rockford, Essex, in England. With the help of only 17 employees, Parrack hopes to produce at least ten miles of bunting by April, and all of it will go to decorate the Coronation route over which Queen Elizabeth II will travel in June. Union Jacks, red-and-white ensigns, and the colors of Scotland, Ireland, and Wales are hand-printed on wool, then washed and dried.

HAD TOUCH OF EVERYTHING—Everybody Can Agree I-Day Was Granddaddy Of Shebangs

By ED CREAGH
WASHINGTON—(AP)—It was a symbol and a clashing of cymbals. It was an extravaganza and a prayer.
It was part Mardi Gras, part Saturday night at the country club, part old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration, part of a simple appeal for divine blessing.

It was a little bit of everything that's America—a husbandly peck on the cheek for Mamie Eisenhower, a cowboy's lasso flipped around her soldier-President, a saucy display of bare-limbed high school cuties, a doleful chorus of "Auld Lang Syne" for a man going home to Missouri.

West Point cadets and Amman's midshipmen marching with precision.
Yes—and elephants, a dog team from Alaska, an atomic cannon, a George Washington, an Abe Lincoln—name it and chances are you could find it in the confetti-showered parade that filled up Pennsylvania Avenue with a new president of the United States at its head.

I-DAY MAKES GOOD HUNTING

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Columnist Westbrook Pegler responded cheerfully Tuesday when a man greeted him as he sat in the press section at the presidential inauguration ceremonies.
Then his greeter, special press server Hugh Duffy, handed the newspaperman a two-year-old summons and a copy of a complaint in a $5,100,000 assault-libel-conspiracy suit.

All this and much more—that was Washington on "I-Day."
The "I" stands for both "inauguration" and for "Ike."
It had its solemn moments Dwight Eisenhower saw to that. He broke precedent by opening his inaugural address with a prayer, one he'd composed himself in the silence of the awesome morning before his formal elevation to the highest office in the land.
Then—
Mamie With Ike
The Inaugural Parade. Blaring bands, whooping Indians, prancing

She spotted in a hotel room window a single spectator, feet on down, a bottle tilted to his laughing, she tugged at the coat-tails of her standing, waving husband.
He missed that one.
But he roared with laughter when, after he was seated in the presidential reviewing stand, six pretty girls rolled by in Missouri's "Gateway to the West" float—wearing fur coats.

Shriners To Elect 12 New Directors

Ballots listing the names of 24 nominees from whom 12 will be elected to serve as directors of the Midland Shrine Club for 1953, have been mailed to club members.
The nominees are Martin G. Brown, Dr. L. B. Pemberton, Dr. Henry Schlichting, Edwin Autrey, Robert Baker, O. J. Hubbard, Hubert McClure, Earl A. Johnson, Ray Frank Gardner, H. N. Phillips, R. D. Scruggs, Clifford Wilderspin.

Charles W. Crawley, H. B. Mills, Kenneth Slough, Richard H. Knox, James H. Green, Emil C. Rasmann, Frank A. Smith, Harvey Conger, J. C. Wilson, O. L. Johnson, Keith M. Stuart and John Lucas.
The ballots, according to President John Hughes, must be post-marked before midnight Friday.

The transport Gen. E. T. Collins is due Wednesday from the Far East with 2,061 Army men.

Court Clerk Stars On Inaugural Scene

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The millions who have looked at pictures of President Eisenhower taking the oath of office, or watched the event on television screens, have looked straight into the face of Harold B. Willey.
Willey is the clerk of the Supreme Court. He held the Bibles on which Eisenhower rested his hand as Chief Justice Vinson administered the presidential oath. Necessarily, he was neatly centered in most of the photographs as well as the TV depiction of the historic event. In some, because of the chance of background, his face is rather more prominent than the new President's.
It is the first time Willey has served as Supreme Court clerk at a presidential inauguration. He was appointed only last Fall.

Tourist Robberies Mount In Mexico

MEXICO CITY—(AP)—The United States Embassy here is reported concerned over the increasing incidence of tourist robberies and their cars stolen.
About three automobiles belonging to tourists are stolen each week, authorities say, and there have been three robberies of tourists recently.
Mexico City has 3,000 uniformed policemen for its 3,000,000 population. They average about $20 a month each in salary.

Midland Fighters Tackle Odessa

New Novice May Join Inter-City Tiff

Luther Tyree, 150-pounder who eventually will trim down to the 147-pound welterweight division, joined the Midland Golden Gloves force Wednesday as it prepared for an invasion against Odessa at 7:30 p.m.

Tackling Odessa—and possibly some fighters from other West Texas cities—will be the second outing for the Midland group.

The bouts will be held in Odessa's Electric Street Wrestling arena.

Tyree, a novice, at times has worked out with Midland's team in its Air Terminal gym. His permanent listing on the squad enlarges the group to 19 who plan to enter the Odessa regional.

Officials of the Optimist club, sponsor for the team, expected about 15 or 16 of the boys to get in on the tussle Wednesday.

Open class fighters Flyweight Chilly Reeves, Bantamweight Bill Burns, Lightweight John Pointer and Welterweight Charlie Crites will lead the Midland team.

Pointer, perhaps, is the only doubtful one on the list, for, when he joined the team, he said that outside business may keep him from serious competition until the February 30-31 regional. He is a former district champion at Breckenridge who recently moved to Midland.

Meanwhile, Odessa officials announced that possible entries from Monahans (other than Benny Davis, 120, who regularly makes team trips with the Odessans), Andrews and Kermit will contend at the fight night.

Green Wants Fight
Former Andrews football Coach Neil Taylor is seeking more fights for his prize protege, Spud Green, 145-pounder, and will have his boy at the bouts. Green, remember, whipped Crites of Midland in the recent Brownfield fights.

A good, strongly built shortie, Green is a novice, but has had only one less bout than Crites, who fights open class—four and five, respectively.

Taylor may bring two or three others as teammates to Green but the others are in the junior divisions mostly.

But, with all the entries Wednesday—promising about 20 fights all told—the bout is chiefly Midland vs. Odessa in a pre-regional showdown between the biggest two squads bidding for the team trophy.

Local Scuffles
The Midland squad (most of whom will fight Wednesday): Juniors—Larry Jonas, Doyle Pittman, Leroy Reeves, Jerry McGee and Jerry McReynolds.

Novices—Tyree; Bobby Cast, 170; Don Warren, 130; Boyce McKnight, 136; Tex Wilson, 125; Carroll Jonas, 115; Gail Nelson, 112; James Rogers, 117; Don Evans, 125; and Jack Henley, 140.

And the open fighters. Odessa's team numbers about 30. Weigh-ins for the bouts begin at 6 p.m. in the arena and matches will be arranged afterwards.

Tentatively, by comparison of weights, these bouts are in the offing (Midland first): Burns against Davis, Charlie Crites against Loy Mead and Pointer against Don Curtis.

Tickets for the fights can be purchased at the arena, $1 for adults and 50 cents for students, Odessa officials announced.

OFF TO ODESSA—Midland juniors who will make the trip to Odessa Wednesday night to fight in the inter-city bouts are, left to right, Doyle Pittman, Jerry McReynolds, Leroy Reeves, Jerry McGee and James Rogers.

Kid Favored Over Cardell

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Kid Gavilan, the world's welterweight champion, Wednesday night meets a rough but relatively unknown fighter, Vic Cardell of Wilson, Conn., in a 10-round non-title bout.

The fight will be televised nationally, and it takes on added interest because of this:

It's Gavilan's last showing before he meets the popular Chuck Deyve in a championship bout in Chicago, February 11.

Cardell is in an enviable spot. He has everything to gain, and little to lose.

If he does the unexpected and whips Gavilan, it obviously would put him in line for a crack at the title.

Cardell at least has been talking a good fight.

"I'm confident I can give Gavilan a better fight than Deyve can," Cardell said.

Cardell bases his belief on this: He beat Carmen Bastillo, a fighter who licked Deyve, only to have the decision rescinded and turned into a draw.

"I like my chances," Cardell said. "I expect to be still around and swinging at the finish."

Midland's Juniors Hit Stone Barrier; Lose Four In Day

Midland Junior High Schools, Cowden and San Jacinto, found Tuesday a blue day to tackle Odessa in basketball—in four games, Midland lost four.

San Jacinto traveled to Odessa and dropped the featured ninth grade clash, 55-38, after the Mustang eighth graders fell, 41-20, both to Bowie.

Cowden played host to Crockett and slipped 52-42, in the ninth grade encounter. Crockett's eighth-graders eked out a 29-28 margin. In the ninth grade set, Jim Owens' eight points led the Midlanders.

Larry Cooper of San Jacinto proved the day's high scorer as he drove in 16 points during the clash of Mustang-Bowie elders.

David Miller made eight, Gregor Smith and Bill Yeatherman five each and Bobby Hillin two for the San Jacinto eighth graders.

Both Midland clubs next competition comes in the Odessa Junior High invitational Friday and Saturday.

DeZavala Quint Sets Pattern In Makeup Grade School Games

Sam Houston, West and DeZavala scored triumphs Tuesday in makeup city elementary school basketball games.

DeZavala set the pace, running over Crockett, 40-18, behind the sparkling play of Santos Franco. Franco tallied 17 points for the individual lead with Steven Perez following with 10.

West trimmed Terminal, 33-19, and Sam Houston clipped South, 30-10, in the other games.

Arnold won high honors in Terminal's game with 10 points, edging the nine by Bobby Dickey of West. Cold weather postponed these games last Friday.

Red Trial Jurors Continue Deadlocked

NEW YORK—(AP)—A Federal Court trial jury, in deliberations unprecedented for their length, pondered a seventh day Wednesday the fate of 13 second-string Communist leaders.

The jury, which took the case last Thursday had devoted about 47 hours to actual deliberations when it was locked up Tuesday night for a sixth time, at a Manhattan hotel.

Joltin' Joe Moves Nearer To Line-Up In Cooperstown Row

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK—(AP)—Joe DiMaggio is expected to be voted into baseball's Hall of Fame Wednesday when the ballots are counted for the 1953 election.

Bill Terry, Dizzy Dean and Al Simmons are other stars of the past who are certain to receive strong support from the 10-year members of the Baseball Writers Association, who do the voting.

DiMaggio, who retired after the 1951 World Series, is eligible for the first time after one year's inactivity. Seventy-five per cent of the votes are required for election.

There is no accurate figure on the number of votes cast but it is expected to approximate the 234 of last year. Only players, now inactive, but who have seen active service in the last 25 years are eligible.

DiMaggio's consecutive game hitting streak of 56 in 1941, an all-time major league record, probably will be more than enough to boost him into the elite company in the Cooperstown, N. Y., Hall of Fame.

For 13 active years with the New York Yankees, from 1936 through 1951, with time out for military service, DiMaggio had a lifetime batting average of .325 with 2,214 hits in 1,736 games.

The veteran writers have been choosy in their voting, naming only four men in the last three years. They have picked 25 of the 62 men in the Hall of Fame. The others were selected by a special committee.

The late Harry Hellmann and Paul Waner made the grade last year, Hellmann with 203 votes, Waner with 195. Terry fell 21 short of the required 176 with 155 votes.

Dean had 152, Simmons 141, Bill Dickey 139, Rabbit Maranville 133, Dazzy Vance 105 and Ted Lyons 101.

Turner hasn't anything against Michigan state's Chuck Deyve, but he hopes Gavilan retains the welter crown February 11 in Chicago when the Cuban Hawk risks his championship against the sparkling collegian. Turner wants to win the title from Gavilan to even the score on that other defeat.

Tuesday night, fans went home wearing clothsops on their noses. They were asking, "What happened to Deyve?"

Bobby, who hails from both Miami, Fla., and San Antonio, Texas—take your choice—was a fighter without any fight. After winning the first two rounds, he might as well have gone home for the night.

Deyve was disgusted with himself. The tall Texan ventured an opinion that prompted no argument. "I was lousy. I didn't have a thing."

Turner Licks Bobby Dykes, Eyes Gavilan

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—"Well, that's half the job done," said young Gil Turner as he sat on his dressing room table Tuesday night after whipping Bobby Dykes.

The 22-year-old Philadelphia welterweight has lost only two bouts in a 36-fight career, one to Dykes and one to Welterweight Champion Kid Gavilan. The thumping he gave Dykes Tuesday night avenged one defeat. But there's still Gavilan.

Game Panel Considers Open Season On Does

AUSTIN—(AP)—The Game and Fish Commission will consider possible legislative action, including a suggestion to allow a limited harvest of doe deer, when it meets Friday.

Hill Country landowners and hunters have been pushing for legislation to allow a limited and regulated harvest of does in a restricted area as a means of balancing the deer herds.

George Milkan, regarded as the most outstanding pro basketball player in history, recently took his third Minnesota bar examination.

MIDLAND AREA STUDENTS TO GET UT DEGREES

AUSTIN—(AP)—Al H. German and Charles Alfred Tom of Midland and Roy Lee Bell, Jr., of Rankin are among the 127 students in the College of Business Administration of the University of Texas, who are candidates for graduation at the end of the first semester, January 31.

Vernon (Buddy) Barron of Temple, Texas Tech's 1952 grid captain, did not miss starting a football game for three successive seasons, but he's limping now. He broke a foot while skiing in New Mexico.

Club Directorate Delays Elections

Directors of the Midland County Club will meet within the next week to name a president and vice president.

Selection had been planned Wednesday but some of the directors were out of town on business, Roy Minear of the board reported.

Stockholders have authorized the board to name the top officers.

Pittsburgh Pirate rookie pitcher Ron Neccial has been with five different teams since he began with Salisbury, N. C., in 1950.

Average Of $3,551 Paid For 155 Head In Hereford Show

DENVER (AP)—A total of 155 animals sold for $550,470 Tuesday night at the Hereford sale of the National Western Stock Show.

The average of $3,551 an animal is the second highest in National Western history, topped only in 1952.

The grand champion bull of the show, TR Zato Heir 88th, was sold by Roy L. Turner of the Turner Ranch of Sulphur, Okla., for $42,000 to J. R. Strauss of the Strauss-Medina Hereford Ranch, San Antonio.

Two other Turner bulls brought the third and fourth highest prices of the sale.

The show reserve champion, Prince Larry O, brought the second highest price, $35,400 from the Hammon Hereford Ranch of Wichita Falls, Texas. The bull was consigned by the Woody Hereford Ranch of Barnard, Kan.

TR Zato Heir 137th, half brother of the grand champion, was sold by Turner for $29,000 to Hi-Point Farm of Romeo, Mich. Another half brother, TR Zato Heir 85, went for $29,500 to the Long Meadow Hereford Ranch of Prescott, Ariz.

Mother, Three Tots Die In Burning Home FREDERICK, OKLA. (AP)—A mother and her three children died Tuesday night in flames which swept their two-room frame dwelling after a kerosene lamp exploded.

Victims were Mrs. Erma Jean Thompson, 22, and Alfred, four; Gray, two; and Dell E., 10 months. A fourth child escaped unhurt.

The father, Alfred Thompson, 27, was hospitalized with severe burns. Police reported the explosion occurred when Thompson poured kerosene from a five-gallon can into a lamp, which apparently was overturned.

REPORTING THE TOP NEWS IN REAL ESTATE

THE BOSS-MAN ASKED ME to count up the number of homes that we have sold since December. Being humanly lazy, I stopped after counting 22 which our firm sold. This proves that when looking for your ideal home, KWM is the place to go. Look you close, some dreams are fulfilled in this column.

FASHIONFUL OF NEW ENGLAND, because this exquisite home is on Ridgela, where the trees are taller than Texas tales. Two lovely bedrooms, colorful and huge den, "white" room, elongated kitchen with dining area, and magnificently generous (15x21) living room. Attached garage, lots of storage, and carpeted throughout. For your outside dining room there are trees, attractive lawns, and the open, almost dustless sky as appointments. Only the price is down-to-earth. $15,500.

IF I WERE Eloquent WITH WORDS I would attempt a description of the home that is available on Country Club Drive. It is a study in graciousness. Two huge bedrooms, paneled den, two private rooms of ceramic tile, utility room, attached garage, and bathroom living room. The kitchen defies articulation. Central heating, air-conditioned, completely carpeted, and flanked with closets. Cedar fence, a thousand-dollar landscaping job, water well, patio, and a treasury of finer features. Dramatically reduced for a rapid disposition.

ONLY TWO LEFT ON KESSLER STREET from an original 19 which were constructed. We have taken great pride in handling these Austin Construction Company homes—and this was our first venture in GI homes. We sincerely believe that these homes offer the veteran more for his money than any that we have seen. Almost all purchasers are college graduates and their families. On alternate Thursday nights, the men will play poker while the women baby-sit, and vice versa when the women hold their cat-togethers. But what kind of a home is it that we're selling? Call our office and we'll be delighted to show you. Only $600 down for the veteran.

DID YOU ENJOY our open house last Sunday? Now inspect these homes more thoroughly with one of us. The addresses, again, are 1108 Lanham, 2507 Country Club Drive, and those in the 2800 block of Louisiana. The personal touch is the purchasing touch. Like a game of tag, you get in touch with us, and we'll do the rest.

WESTWARD BOUND FOR CALIFORNIA, and so this owner must sell his attractive home consisting of 3 bedrooms, comfortable living room, kitchen with area for your breakfast suite, and 8x12 storage room. Located in western section. Assume GI and FHA loan and make payments of only $65 per month. Priced at $9,500.

ALGUN YOUR REQUIREMENTS to the offerings of this new, brick home in the northwest area. 3 bedrooms, 2 tile baths, huge kitchen with walk-in pantry, and 2-car attached garage. The living and dining room combination is 31 feet of beauty, with a wood-burning fireplace as the focal point. Entrance hall, w/w carpeting in warm tones, central heating and air-conditioning, TOUCHPLATE silent switches. It's got its own water well. Approximately 1,800 square feet of living area. Invitingly priced at ONLY $21,500.

IT'S NOT THE SIZE of the dollar that counts, but OUR strength to stretch it for you. And if you have 1,500 of them, we could stretch them into a most attractive 2-bedroom ASBESTOS siding home on the SUNNY south side. Immaculate because it's practically new, it has a warm living room, large kitchen, lots of closets, and attached garage. Distributed heating, air conditioning unit, blow-off fan in kitchen, washer connection. Lovely lawn, tile fence, paved street. Assume the GI loan with payments of $60. ONLY $10,200.

WHAT A DEAL on Dallas near David Crockett! When you're driving around, stop by 943 North Dallas Street. Two bedrooms, nice living room, clean kitchen. Can be purchased for as little as only $1,250 down. Priced at $5,950.

'Citizen' Truman Rolls Toward Home

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
ENROUTE TO INDEPENDENCE, MO.—(P)—Harry S. Truman, 66, ex-President of the United States, took the long trip home Wednesday.

After almost eight years as the head of a great government, he headed for Missouri in the role of "Mr. Truman, private citizen."

And alone with Mrs. Truman in the splendor of the private railroad car in which he had stormed the country in many a fiery campaign trip, he had opportunity to reflect again upon an eventful career and take thought of the future.

His emotions were stirred, as they have seldom been stirred before, by the sendoff he got at Washington Tuesday night at the end of a trying day in which he surrendered the presidency to Dwight D. Eisenhower.

CONTROVERSIAL SCARF—Scottish Nationalist Wendy Wood, above, wears one of the souvenir coronation scarves imprinted with the legend "Elizabeth I Queen of Scots," which has touched off controversy in Scotland. Nationalists claim that union of the crowns of England and Scotland occurred after the rule of the first Elizabeth. Wendy wore the scarf deep in "enemy" territory when she appeared at a Nationalist meeting in London.

Hundreds of cheering Democratic followers thronged around the rear platform of the presidential car which Eisenhower had placed at his predecessor's disposal. District of Columbia Commissioner F. Joseph Donahue described Truman as "the greatest friend" of "little people all over the world."

An obvious lump in his throat, the gray-haired Truman, his wife and daughter by his side, responded that "in all my career, and it has been a long one, I've never had an experience like this."

"This is the first time I've had the experience of being sent home in a blaze of glory," he went on. "I'll never forget this if I live to be a hundred—and that's what I expect to do."

Truman is due in Independence, Mo., Wednesday night for a hometown welcome.

Meanwhile, his long-time secretary, Matthew J. Connelly, is flying to Kansas City from Washington to set up private offices for his boss in the Federal Reserve Bank Building.

Seminole Gathering Hears Wiggins Talk

SEMINOLE—Dr. D. M. Wiggins, Lubbock banker and a former president of Texas Technological College, was the speaker Tuesday night at the annual banquet of the Seminole Chamber of Commerce. More than 150 persons from Gaines and neighboring counties attended the function which was held in the school cafeteria.

"Education — the Keystone of Democracy" was the subject of Dr. Wiggins' address. He was introduced by L. O. Daugherty, Seminole banker and civic leader.

Joe W. Anderson is president of the Seminole Chamber, and H. C. Kyle, a former Midland resident, is manager.

Guests included James L. Daugherty and Burvin Hines of Midland.

Highway Board Sets Hearing On Projects

AUSTIN —(P)—The Highway Commission will hear road project requests of 16 delegations Thursday.

Highway matters to be discussed, by counties, include:

Hockley—Routing and right of way requirements for State 290 in and adjacent to Levelland.

Lubbock, Hockley, Terry, Gaines, Andrews and Ector—right of way requirements for Lubbock to Odessa highway.

The commission will hear an application for movement of oversize houses from Sunray to Amarillo.

Mother Of Midland Residents Interred

LUBBOCK—Funeral services for Mrs. W. E. Renfrow, 52, wife of a Texas Ranger and the mother of two Midlanders, were conducted Wednesday in the Trinity Baptist Church. She died Tuesday.

Survivors include the husband; two sons, Billy J. Renfrow of Midland and James B. Renfrow of Lubbock; five daughters, Betty Lou Renfrow of Midland, Mrs. Ralph Emerson of Dallas, and Joyce Renfrow, Mrs. J. B. Lambert and Mrs. F. Majors, all of Seagraves, and five grandchildren.

BUSINESS IN CITY
John Chinn and Roy Melton of Eunice, N. M., were business visitors here Wednesday.

Midland Lions Hear Four Speakers At Regular Meeting

A talk on Lionism by a veteran club member and comical readings by three high school girls featured the program at the regular meeting of the Lions Club Wednesday noon at Jimmy's Bar-B-Q.

Ernest Sidwell was the Lion speaker, using the subject, "Do I Get Value Received From What I Put Into Lionism?"

He answered his own question in the affirmative after listing the many and varied benefits derived from active participation in Lions International.

The readings were by Barbara Munson, Janie Wilcox and Beverly Smith, all members of the Speech Department of Midland High School.

The program was arranged and presented by James L. Daugherty. Announcements were made concerning the District 2-T-2 mid-Winter conference to be held in Midland Saturday.

Prison Disturbance Rages Into New Day

BELLEFONTE, PA.—(P)—Shouting defiance, some 325 rebellious convicts again spurned surrender ultimatums Wednesday in their barricaded cellblock at the Rockview State Penitentiary and refused to release six guards held as hostages until their "gripes" are honored.

It was the third day of their surprise insurrection. Tuesday night, 400 of Rockview's prisoners capitulated to a demand for Gov. John S. Fine who warned that additional jail sentences would be given to every man who continues to defy authority.

The newest rejection of the state's efforts to bring peace to the prison came in a yelling exchange between Deputy Attorney General Edward Friedman, standing on the ground outside Cellblock "A" and the convict leader who peered out barred windows 30 feet above.

Friedman sought to negotiate a surrender of the convict rebels who launched the rioting Monday night. During the rioting, hundreds of mattresses have been burned and plumbing and other fixtures have been ripped off walls and thrown out cell windows.

Friedman said the convicts must first release the hostages and throw out seven guns before a settlement would be discussed.

The prisoners who gave in to Governor Fine held no hostages and were not armed, but burned mattresses and other articles causing damage estimated by prison officials as running into the thousands of dollars.

Their surrender came two hours after the main cell block group shouted a defiant "No" to Fine's ultimatum and fired two shots while dousing the electric lights in the block.

Compact—

Engineers, and several members of the Red Bluff Water Power Control District.

Legal advisers to the commissioners also are in Midland for the conference. Claude Mann of Roswell and Irwin S. Moise of Albuquerque are the advisers to the New Mexico commissioner, while William L. Kerr and Emil Rasmann, both of Midland, are the legal advisers to the Texas commissioner.

Governor Mechem will be the guest speaker Thursday noon at the regular meeting of the Midland Rotary Club, at which all out-of-city visitors here for the commission meeting will be special guests. Richard Brooks is the Rotary Club president.

Shepperd, Mechem Expected To Talk Along Legal Lines

Attorney General Shepperd, acting as a personal representative of Gov. Allan Shivers, is expected to discuss with Governor Mechem the Rio Grande and Pecos River Compacts and ownership of underground water supplies.

New Mexico, according to a news release from Austin, has threatened to sue Texas over the drilling of water wells along the Texas-New Mexico border.

The Pecos agreement provides for apportionment of water from the Pecos River between Texas and New Mexico.

The Rio Grande Compact, signed by Colorado, New Mexico and Texas in 1938, has been the subject of a recent lawsuit in the U. S. Supreme Court.

Injunction—

reasons" presented by GRMWD in its motion to dismiss the appeal were sound.

"The right of direct appeal is narrowly defined in the Constitution and statute and in the rule, and it ought to be kept within narrow bounds," Smedley argued. "The Supreme Court is a court of limited jurisdiction, and it should remain so. My conviction is even stronger that the opinion of the majority is erroneous in its decision that this case is governed by the substantial evidence rule. . . . The opinion of the majority . . . enters well into the forbidden realm of judicial legislation."

Smedley said the injunction was granted against enforcement of rules and regulations of the Martin County District which "is not a state board, commission or agency." The Constitution, Smedley said, contemplated direct appeals only from orders of state agencies.

SOMETIMES IT'S HARD TO BE A LADY—Curtsying in a fashion which no countess could equal, Christine Knox, two, above, greets a tilted visitor at the annual Children's Blue Bird Party, in London. Below, Christine almost forgets she's a lady, tells Gustavo de Meo to get off her train or she'll let him have it, as the amorous two-year-old attempts to steal a kiss.

Toastmasters Hit Texas Motor Law

The Texas Motor Vehicle Inspection Law came under fire at the regular meeting of Toastmasters in the Cactus Club Tuesday night.

A majority of the Toastmasters believe the law is basically sound and necessary, but needing revision and improvement rather than outright repeal or legal replacement.

President Benton Howell presided. Bob Pine served as topic master.

Four speakers were introduced by Toastmaster Guy Breneman. Rudy Berg related an amusing anecdote on "Deer Hunting," Jerry Harris told a tale in dialect of "Old King David," and Clyde McMahon followed with a serious discussion of the question "Should Teenagers Be Allowed To Drive?" John Braue was the final speaker, talking on "How Men Dress."

Dr. Henry Schlichting was the general critic, reviewing the speeches. He was assisted by critics Wesley Martin, Jack Blake, Benton Howell and C. E. Singletary.

Tom King, recently elected to the post of secretary, served as grammarian.

Midlander Burned In Home Accident

W. G. Smith, Jr., 401 East Nobles Street, an employe of the Standard Oil Company, was burned about the face and hands Tuesday afternoon while connecting a stove at his home.

He was given emergency treatment at Western Clinic-Hospital for first degree burns and discharged.

DAGMAR'S DEFLATED—
She's Not What She Used To Be

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK —(P)—There isn't as much Dagmar as there used to be. She just decided she was "too much of a good thing." So now she's in a new economy-size package.

And if the Republican Administration is looking for advice on how to trim down figures, Dagmar stands ready to help. Deciding her own blonde abundance was outgrowing the nation's television screens, she has trimmed her weight a full 20 pounds.

The new Dagmar, a canny lass who skyrocketed her income from $25 for her first video show to $7,500 a week for personal appearance tours, is positively slinky now instead of buxom.

"Honey"—she calls everybody that — "too much weight stymies my mind. The fat was getting around my brain. Now I can think faster. But I'm lucky. When I diet, the weight comes off all over me. I feel so little."

She said, however, that whittling down her shape hadn't hurt her celebrated chest expansion—42 1/2 inches normal, 45 expanded. Nor does she feel that her new svelte shape should stir any alarm in two potential blonde rivals — Zsa Zsa Gabor and Marilyn Monroe.

"I never did feud with anybody," she said mildly. "The country is so big there is room for all three of us—even when I breathe deeply."

"But Marilyn sure was smart to get her picture on that calendar. People have to look at a calendar to see what day it is. That way they get to see more of her."

Dagmar portrays a dumb blonde, but in real life she is about as dumb as an albino fox. She is a big, breezy, cheerful gal—as informal as a backyard clothesline hung with laundry.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING,
WHERE WOULD WE BE!

Advertising is the Spark Plug of Business, And Good Business is What Makes Good, Steady Work!

WHEN you read the advertising in this issue—wherever you read or hear advertising—remember this:

Advertising's job is to sell goods. Poor sales mean pay cuts, layoffs, fear and worry all through the family. Good sales mean steady work, pay increases, promotions, peace of mind for all.

For when advertising sells goods, there's just naturally more work to be done. In the factory that makes the goods. In the mines and on the farms that produce the raw materials. In the transportation lines, stores and businesses that handle the goods. Yes, and in the banks, insurance companies, machinery houses, real estate firms, builders, etc., that service that factory. It's a never-ending chain.

So be grateful for advertising for bringing you fine products at good values. But most of all—thank advertising for making your job more secure.
