Floyd Completes Delaware Opener In Loving Region

Jay H. Floyd of Midland has completed his No. 1 W. D. Anderson as a wildcat discovery from the Delaware sand in Northwest Loving County.

The well flowed 24 hours through a 20/64-inch choke to make an initial production of 58 barrels of 49-gravity oil plus five per cent water. Gas-oil ratio was 740-1.

Top of pay is 3,106 feet and total depth is at 3,107 feet. Five and one-half inch casing is set at 3,089 feet. The pay section was acidized with 750 gallons.

Location is 1,850 feet from north and 330 feet from east lines of lease in section 2, block 57, T&P survey. That makes it 15 miles northwest of Orta.

Murphy, Et Al, To Drill Pennsylvanian Tester In Tom Green

Murphy Corporation of Midland and El Dorado, Ark., and associates are to start operations at once on their No. 1 Dr. E. H. Jones, which is to be Pennsylvanian reef lime wildcat in Central-West Tom Green County.

It is projected to 6,800 feet or a test of the Pennsylvanian at a lesser depth. The driller is three miles south of Tankersley.

The location is 1,850 feet from west and 320 feet from south lines of section 759, Anton Lettenburg survey. The south line of the section is the north line of Dove Creek.

On Oil Farmstead
The prospector is being drilled on acreage secured from The Ohio Oil Company in a farmstead deal.

Ed L. McCollum of Midland worked up the deal which has resulted in the arrangement to drill this wildcat.

He secured a spread of leases in that region and turned them to Murphy and associates to drill. Consideration received by McCollum for working up and turning the deal has not been reported.

Wolfcamp Flows 50 BO In Two Hours At Andrews Tester

Standard Oil & Gas Company and Anderson-Prichard Oil Corporation No. 5-P Fasken, Southeast Andrews County wildcat, flowed 90 barrels of clean oil in two hours in a drillstem test of the Wolfcamp (Permian) lime at 8,220-80 feet.

The tool was open for two hours and 34 minutes. Gas surfaced in five minutes and oil began to flow out at the top in 30 minutes.

The oil flowed for two hours and four minutes. The flow during the last two hours was gauged. In the first hour it made 22 barrels of oil and in the second hour the flow was 28 barrels of oil.

No Water Signs
Average shut-in was two-tenths of one per cent basic sediment. There were no signs of formation water.

Open flowing bottom hole pressure was between 800 pounds and 1,025 pounds. Shut-in bottom hole pressure after 15 minutes was 2,950 pounds.

Top of the Wolfcamp is at 8,340 feet. Datum on that marker is minus 5,232 feet.

Is Drilling Ahead
The prospector is drilling ahead below 8,478 feet in lime. It is due to go on to 13,200 feet to explore the Ellenburger.

Location is 15 1/2 miles southeast of the town of Andrews and 20 miles northwest of the city of Midland. It is 660 feet from north and 810 feet from east lines of section 10, block 42, T-1-N, G&M&B&A survey.

It is inside the shallow Midland Farms (Grayburg) field and it is one mile southeast of the lone producer in the Midland Farms (Ellenburger) field.

Superior Finishes Ellenburger Well In Midland Pegasus

The Superior Oil Company has completed No. 2-18 Windham as a one-half mile extender to Ellenburger production in the Pegasus (multiphase) field of Southwest Midland County.

The new well, located one-half mile south of a recently completed long northeast extension to the field, was finished for a daily flow of 290 barrels of 51.8-gravity oil through a 20/64-inch choke and from open (Continued On Page Fourteen)

Blustery Cold Front Slams Texas

Unity Outlook 'Encouraging,' Dulles Reports

WASHINGTON —(P)— Secretary of State Dulles came home from a fact-finding trip to Europe Monday and went straight to the White House to tell President Eisenhower what he had learned.

Dulles and Mutual Security Director Harold E. Stassen told newsmen on their arrival at the airport they were "encouraged by what we have been told by leaders" of the West European nations.

The two men went directly to the White House, where they spent an hour with the President.

Pausing only briefly as he left the White House, Dulles told reporters he and Stassen told Eisenhower "about the highlights of our trip."

The 10-day swing through Western Europe took Dulles and Stassen to the capitals of seven friendly nations. His chief objective: to find out where these countries stood on the question of setting up a joint military force against possible Communist aggression.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) Republican floor leader, said after a White House call that Congress is shooting for a July 4 adjournment and he believed it could be achieved.

Taft gave this quick rundown on subjects which he said will be taken up by Congress in this session and which he said he is certain of approval.

They are:

1. Reorganization of executive departments and agencies.
2. Appropriation bills to be ready for action by the Senate not later than May 15.
3. Statehood for Hawaii.
4. Amendments to the Taft-Hartley Act.
5. Limited extension of some controls on prices and allocations in critical situations.
6. Tidelands oil land ownership, which probably will mean action by Congress to return control of the offshore oil deposits to the states.
7. Extension of the Reciprocal Trade Act.
8. Action to simplify customs procedures.
9. Extension of the old age and survivors insurance to cover groups presently excluded.
10. Extension of aid to schools in critical areas.
11. The addition of two commissions for the District of Columbia.

He said he will make a report to Congress.

Stassen said the days of their trip "will be known in future years as 10 great days of service by the secretary of State to the cause of peace and freedom."

While they were away, Eisenhower issued his now-famous order releasing Chiang Kai-Shek's forces for salaries against the Chinese Communist mainland.

Some senators have asked that Dulles come before them to explain just what this order entails. They are expected, also, to query him about recurrent rumors that a naval blockade might be clamped on the China Coast.

Told that such rumors were circulating in the capital, Dulles said: "It's something that would be discussed in Washington."

As for himself, he said he "knew nothing" about the talk of a blockade.

DON'T OVERDO A GOOD THING

That Scotchlike tape being distributed by the Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce looks fine on the rear bumper of automobiles.

But the Texas Highway Patrol warned Monday, it shouldn't be overdone.

"Some motorists," explained State Highway Patrolman Ociel Renfro, "have been putting it on the front bumpers, too."

That is against the law since red lights of any kind on the front are reserved for emergency vehicles.

Kerr Says Low Cattle Prices Sowing Seeds Of GOP Defeat

WASHINGTON —(P)— Senator Kerr (D-Okla.) said Monday President Eisenhower's new secretary of Agriculture is "sowing the seeds" for a Republican defeat in 1954 by not stopping the decline of farm prices.

He predicted the Republicans will lose Congress in the next election if Eisenhower keeps Kerr, Taft, Benson in his Cabinet and if Benson doesn't "act to halt the drop in beef and other farm prices."

Kerr made this prediction after Senator Alken (R-Vt.) accused Democrats of trying to use the farm situation—Alken said it was inherited from the Democrats—as an issue to capture Congress.

Alken, chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee, said the new Administration expects prices of cattle, wheat and other farm products to stabilize. He said Benson "is not going to be stamped into doing anything."

Kerr last week introduced a bill to direct federal price support of beef cattle at full parity out of $25,000,000 of agriculture funds. He told an interviewer:

"In 1948, the farmers feared certain things if the Republicans won, and they re-elected Truman."

"In 1952 they permitted those fears to be lulled and they elected Eisenhower. The present indications to me are that before this year is up they will realize their mistake."

Calls For Price Pega
Kerr said Benson has authority under legislation expiring at the end of 1954 to support beef prices at 90 per cent of parity, but has not done so. Parity is a price declared by law to be equally fair to farmers and consumers.

Kerr noted that the parity price of beef cattle on January 15 was listed at 92 per cent of parity. But he said it now is about 82 1/2 per cent of parity.

CONSOLATION KISS—Senator Kerr (D-Okla.) cheers Mrs. Shirley Malone, 17, with a kiss at a "consolation" luncheon given for the Muskogee girl by Oklahomans in Washington. Shirley thought she had won a nation-wide essay contest and came to Washington only to learn the judges later had ruled her entry resembled too closely a national magazine article.

Story Of Parsons Holiday Vacation In Hawaii Unfolds

WICHITA FALLS —(P)— Mary Jean Parsons spent the recent Christmas-New Year holidays in Hawaii and returned just two weeks before going on trial for the murder of her bridegroom, her wealthy father testified Monday.

In a surprise move, the state called Burton Fieger as a rebuttal witness.

District Attorney Will Clayton drew from him a story of how he took his wife and daughter to Honolulu in a "hurried-up trip." Fieger's testimony was over heated defense objections.

The defense has indicated it will plead insanity for the pretty 22-year-old blonde defendant, daughter of wealthy Tulsa, Okla., parents, being tried on a charge of murder with malice in the death of Lt. Richard O. Parsons, Jr., Pleasantville, N. Y.

Takes Place
The state is trying to show Mrs. Parsons did know right from wrong—legal basis for an insanity plea—when her husband was shot last February 18 in their El Paso apartment.

Here is how Fieger's testimony went under questioning by Clayton: Q. Were you registered at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel at Honolulu—Dec. 18, 1952? A. (After some hesitation) Yes. Q. Did you leave Hawaii Jan. 12, 1953? A. Yes. Q. Did you travel by Pan-American Airlines from San Francisco (to Hawaii)? A. Yes. We couldn't get steamship reservations. Says Doctor Advised Fieger said he took Mary Jean on the trip on the advice of a doctor. When they returned, he testified, they took Mary Jean back to Timberlawn, Dallas mental hospital, "as fast as we could."

THIS SWEETIE NOT SO SWEET

A Midlander found out Sunday you can run into someone besides Richard when you knock on the door. According to the report, he politely rapped on the portals of his girl friend's home.

She opened the door and proceeded to shove an ice pick into his left chest. The caller was given emergency treatment at a Midland hospital and released.

Ike Approves More Hay Program Funds For Southern States

WASHINGTON —(P)— President Eisenhower has approved allocation of $1,500,000 from his emergency relief fund to continue the government's hay program in drought areas of the South and Southwest.

Oklahoma senators and House members said Monday they were advised of the action following their pleas that the extra money is needed until Spring pastures relieve the situation.

Senator Monroney (D-Okla.) and aides of Senator Kerr (D-Okla.) told a reporter the Agriculture Department will use the money to help pay freight on hay brought into the area from the Northern states for livestock feed.

Monroney estimated Texas and Oklahoma will receive the benefits of about 80 per cent of the total allocation, although no state breakdown was given.

Anderson told a CBS television panel Sunday beef supplies are running ahead of demand and, therefore, "you have got to expect some sort of adjustment of agricultural income."

The sag in farm prices generally can be traced to this supply-demand imbalance, Anderson said.

Senate Quiz Puts Bradley On Hot Spot

WASHINGTON —(P)— Gen. Omar Bradley faced tough, closed-door questioning Monday by some senators who trace "fabulous waste" in overseas building to top-level military planning.

The chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff was called before the Senate Armed Services Committee for discussion of a secret and highly critical report filed by Senators Long (D-La.) and Morse (Ind-Ore). Newsmen and the public were barred.

Polar Base Under Fire
Long said he had a number of questions about a Polar air base, obviously the one at Thule in Greenland, and about a costly plan for duplicating communications facilities.

He told a reporter: "It cost about 100 million dollars to build a 20 million dollar air base a few hundred miles from the North Pole. When we put in a 100 million dollar base there it will cost a billion dollars or more."

Long said he and Morse, who co-authored the secret report after a visit to Thule and other overseas installations; questioned the need for such a huge base.

There was some waste on actual construction of a lot of these projects," he said. "But the real fabulous waste came in the high-level planning."

"Why should we have thousands of men and every type of aircraft overhaul located up there when a smaller installation could have served defense needs?"

Long said he and Morse found there was a proposed $500,000 contract to erect a three million dollar communications system within 40 miles of ample communications facilities operated by another U. S. Service.

No 'Frontal Attack' Planned, Says Taft

WASHINGTON —(P)— Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said at the White House Monday the Administration apparently is not considering a "frontal attack" against the Communists in Korea.

Taft, the Senate GOP floor leader, made this statement to reporters who questioned him when he came from a legislative conference with President Eisenhower.

He said there were ways to bring pressure on the Red Chinese other than by direct assault on their troops in Korea.

He told reporters he had favored generally the plan of Gen. Douglas MacArthur for bringing pressure against the Reds by bombing Manchuria, using Chinese Nationalist troops and blockading the China mainland.

PREFERS JAIL TO CORRUPTING YOUTH— Pat Won't Talk In Public Of Going Astray For Jelke

NEW YORK —(P)— Pat Ward's attorney said Monday the red sedition girl will refuse to testify in the vice trial of Minot F. Jelke III unless the court is closed to the press and public.

"She would rather go to jail," said her attorney, J. Roland Saxe, Jr. He made the statement to reporters as General Sessions Judge Francis L. Valente pondered whether to draw the curtain on the 19-year-old Miss Ward's testimony in the sensational case.

Four West Texans Die In Air Crash

SAN ANTONIO —(P)— Four West Texans enroute to Port Isabel on a fishing trip were killed Monday when a single-engine plane crashed 17 miles north of San Antonio.

The dead, all from Lockney: Rhea Mitchell, 36; his brother, Glenn Mitchell, 26; George Turner, Jr., brother-in-law of Rhea Mitchell, and the Rev. J. R. Naylor, 33, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Lockney.

The party left the Plainview airport, 18 miles from Lockney, about 7:30 a.m. The plane crashed about 9 a.m.

Victims' Bodies Mangled
The plane, a Beechcraft, was owned by Rhea Mitchell who was the pilot.

All four were thrown from the plane and their bodies mangled. The wreckage burst into flames after cutting a swath through trees on the Ashley Ranch and the engine was hurled a considerable distance. Bodies of the plane's occupants were scattered 150 to 250 feet.

First persons to reach the wreckage was Anton Friesenhan and A. A. Uecker, who saw it coming down. No one was close enough to see the actual crash.

The party was enroute to Port Isabel, near Brownsville, to join the Mitchell brothers' parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Mitchell, on the fishing outing.

The Mitchells were members of Mr. Naylor's church.

Rain, Cold Front Moves On Midland

Rain-starved Midlanders received faith-boosting words from the Weather Bureau Monday.

Charts at the CAA station at Midland Air Terminal called for moisture late Monday. A rain-laden front moved in this direction from New Mexico. The question with Midland observers: "Will it hold until it reaches West Texas?"

Winds which whipped across this sector at 40 miles an hour were expected back Monday afternoon but with less intensity. Gusts up to 35 miles an hour were predicted.

Although temperatures climbed Monday morning from a 50-degree minimum, they faced the possibility of a plunge to freezing or below Tuesday morning.

Name, Clean Shirt, Moolah Are Passkey To Cafe Society

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK—(AP)—Just what is cafe society? How does one get ahead in it?
The current vice trial of a so-called cafe society playboy has aroused fresh interest in this mysterious social order. It sounds so glittering and glamorous, compared to the stuffy, smooty old "400" of the past.
Some Broadwayites say there is no such thing as cafe society. They regard it as a pleasant legend dreamed up to entertain the folk in the hinterland.
Generally, however, cafe society can be said to consist of the people who regularly patronize a number of celebrated mid-Manhattan watering troughs. These plush-lined zoos differ basically from the old-fashioned corner saloon only in the fact they provide no free lunch and have replaced their swinging doors with a velvet rope or a gilded flunky.

Rule Of The Ring
To belong to the old "400" you had to observe a certain code of behavior. You had to have morals as well as manners. In cafe society the only prevailing rules are those of the late Marquis de Queensberry.
To rise quickly in this neon-lit circle you should have a clean shirt, a big name and a pocket full of money. If you have enough money and spend it freely, the name-fame and clean shirt requirements will be readily waived.
Some beginners have the idea that their standing in cafe society is determined by the number of headwaiters they know by their first names. That is wrong. Your rating is fixed by how many headwaiters know your name.
The surest way to become a man of distinction with a headwaiter is to slip him a $5 bill and tell him who you are. Do this a few times and the memory of George Washington may slip his mind, but he will never forget you. Everybody Else A Bum

There is only one other rule in cafe society conversation. Whoever is at your table at the moment is a great guy—and everybody who isn't is a bum. This isn't all a matter of polite etiquette. It is based on the fact that if you back stab the people at your table they may get up and walk away and leave you to pay the check.
But cafe society is an escalator of people going down as well as up. How do you know when you're through? You know it when you go to your favorite gilded den at the usual hour and find the headwaiter has seated someone new in your very own seat at your very own table in the corner reserved for the true elite.
This is the most crushing disaster that can happen in cafe society. You reel out of the place a broken man, knowing you no longer belong to the inner circle.
There is nobody in the world left for you to associate with—except people.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla.—(AP)—Former President Herbert Hoover was reported Monday to be recovering rapidly from a mild attack of influenza.
Lawrence Richey, onetime White House secretary and an old friend said, "He ought to be out of the hospital in a couple of days and ready to go bonefishing before long."

Rich Husband's No Problem (?) In This Working Girl's Career

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
"I don't have as much trouble as people think I do."
That's luscious Marjorie Steele describing the career problems of a girl who's married to a millionaire. Her hubby may be Huntington Hartford, heir to the A&P grocery fortune, but Marjorie's working girl status doesn't get the "Ha-ha, you must be kidding" line in movie-town's casting offices.
Currently playing a sexy charmer in "No Escape," she told me: "Most people realize I'm serious about acting." There was a small part for her in "Face to Face," a movie Hartford financed, and she's beaming: "I got good reviews and, best of all, I wasn't criticized for being in one of my husband's pictures."
It's a big personality switch for Nelson Eddy in his new night club act—snappy rhythm numbers, smart sayings and a satire on his own "Shortnin' Bread." . . . Lex Barker wants Lana Turner to accompany him to Hawaii, but Lana has her eye on Europe. . . . Steve Cochran's agent is filing a lawsuit against him in a contract squabble that's too hot to be handled by Screen Actors Guild.

Bing Crosby's no longer ducking the public's gaze on his dates with Mona Freeman. They were together at the Palm Springs Doll House . . . Aside to Time, Quick Coronet and Reader's Digest magazines: Thanks for the mentions and the quotes . . . Alida Valli, the Italian-born beauty, and hubby Oscar de Mejo are still juggling the fate of their marriage. "We're good friends, but we're still separated," she told me. "There are no plans for divorce, at the moment, however."
Nothing But The Worst
A film director was asked if a star he just worked with was a Communist. "I don't think so," said the director. "With his ego he wouldn't be a Communist unless he could be Stalin."

Oscar for the ad-lib howl of the year goes to Chill Wills. Narrating "Francis Goes to the Big Town," as the voice of the mule, Chill commented over a scene of Wall Street:
"A lot of my cousins had their assets frozen here in 1929."
Chill, one of Hollywood's unsung ambassadors of good will, collected $44,194 for the March of Dimes on a 13-hour TV telethon in Dallas with Hungarian-born Eva Gabor as one of his stars. Winced Chill: "She couldn't understand me and I couldn't understand her, but she looked great."
The bit role played in "Houdini" by Paramount's new singing rave, Joanne Gilbert, will remain in the film but she'll receive no screen billing. She did the part before her Mocombo hit sprinkled stardust in her hair. . . . Found, a movie cowboy with cows. Roy Rogers has 10 of 'em on his San Fernando Valley ranch—for the table and as atmosphere in

When and if the Jackie Coogan story reaches the screen, his five-year-old daughter, Joan, will play the kid star at the same age. . . . Mickey Rooney and Eddie Bracken will team in "Fireman, Save My Daughter." . . . Exhausting dance rehearsals for U-I's "Walking My Baby Back Home" have Donald O'Connor and Janet Leigh, virus victims, on the verge of collapse. They may have to change this one to "Carrying My Baby Back Home."

"I've got 35 people on the stage," he complains, "and I can't think of anything, but a stink bomb to get them off."

Hungary Puts Tax Bite On Bachelors, Childless Couples
BUDAPEST, HUNGARY—(AP)—Hungary's Communist government has outlined a sweeping new program to encourage bigger families—and has said that bachelors, spinsters and childless couples should help foot the bill.
A new bill, signed by Prime Minister Matyas Rakosi and put before the Parliament Sunday, calls on unmarried people and couples without families to kick in four per cent of their incomes as a special tax.
The revenue will help the government pay for 450 forints (93¢) worth of diapers and other clothing for newborn babies.
In addition, government allowances for broods of more than three children will be increased. Allowances for families with but one child will be discontinued.

June Haver Enters Convent To Prepare For Church Career

LEAVENWORTH, KAN.—(AP)—June Haver, 26-year-old blonde movie actress, quit the glitter of Hollywood to enter a convent Sunday.
She began a two-year course of training to become a Catholic nun at the Sisters of Charity sanctuary near here.
The actress announced her intentions last week and said she wanted "to consecrate my life to the service of God in His sick and in His children."
The Sisters of Charity is a sisterhood that prepares its candidates for nursing in hospitals, caring for orphans and teaching in parochial schools.
There is a six-month probationary period, after which the training may be terminated either by the sisterhood or the candidate.
Miss Haver had reached a weekly salary of $3,500 in her movie career. Her career also had brought her personal tragedy.
She and musician Jimmy Zito were married in 1947 but a divorce followed a few months later. She and Dr. John Dusik, a dentist, resumed an old friendship. He died unexpectedly in October, 1949, while they were reportedly planning to be married.
The actress also suffered a back injury while doing a dance during the filming of her last picture. It kept her from work for months.

Flattering Cottons Won't Crumple

By GAILE DUGAS
NEA Woman's Editor

NEW YORK—The pretty, feminine look of resort cottons forecasts the future of summer dresses. The ladylike look, with delicate shoes, ruffled parasols and flattering hats, is back.

It's much easier to maintain this poised and lovely look now than it once was. The new cottons are up to all sorts of delightful tricks. They keep a finish, resist wrinkles heroically, are slow to wilt and fast to recover in a tub of suds. All this means that the days of wearing a dress in the hot sun for an hour, only to have it crumple, are gone.

The sleeveless scooped-neck cotton (left) is by Larry Aldrich. It has a gentle, ladylike skirt pleated in tiers. The skirt that's infinitely flattering and easy to wear. This is in a disciplined cotton by Bates and in wonderful delicate pinks, blues and yellows.

The pretty look is developed by Adele Simpson in a cotton (right) that has little shirred sleeves, a scooped-out sweetheart neckline and very full, soft skirt with tiny ball-fringed peplum. The pastel color range is used here with navy and black included, too.

The past Matrons, Past Patrons Club named its new officers Friday at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Leo Baldridge.

Those elected were Mrs. Vera McLeRoy, president; Mrs. G. C. Rhodes, vice president; Mrs. A. R. Gilson, secretary; Mrs. Bernard Collins, reporter; and Mrs. M. A. Floyd and Mrs. Baldridge, telephone committee.

The group played canasta following the business session. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Stephenson, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Rhodes, Mrs. M. A. Floyd, Mrs. A. R. Gilson, Mrs. W. D. Hargrove, Mrs. McLeRoy, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Nellie Neeler and Florence Ann Yeager.

Each month, all the girls of the school who have birthdays during that month celebrate at one time. Each girl has her own dinner party and her own cake, brought in with candies blissing.

A Valentine motif was featured for the Friday party in the Hockaday dining room. After dinner, the girls were entertained by a dance program presented on the campus by Nikita Tallin and his ballet group.

A Salute To Boy Scouts

The Boy Scouts of Midland and other cities and communities across the land this week are passing in review as the nation observes Boy Scout Week.

It is one of the more important of the many special week observances of the year, and as such deserves the interest and attention of all citizens.

It is the forty-third birthday of the Boy Scouts of America, with its membership now at an all-time high of 3,250,000 boys and adult leaders enrolled.

In Midland and elsewhere, citizens this week will pause to present a great big and well-deserved salute to our Boy Scouts. May the program of Scouting continue to expand and develop in the Buffalo Trail Council and elsewhere.

Since 1910 more than 20,200,000 Americans have benefited by the training, fellowship, handicraft skills and high adventure of Scouting, and have been strengthened by the high ideals of the Scout Oath and Laws.

Boy Scout Week this year places a major emphasis on "The Scout Family." This surely is a two-way recognition. It honors the many fathers of Scouts among the 850,000 adult volunteer leaders in the organization.

It salutes the 127,209 mothers who give generously of their time as Den Mothers in the Cub Scout ranks. It is here that the enrichment of family life is a main objective. Through doing things together boys and parents learn to know each other better. This emphasis upon strong family ties helps to build a stronger America.

A total of 58,934 churches, synagogues, schools, civic and fraternal groups sponsor the nation's 84,300 Scouting Units in an effort to strengthen family life and build a better future citizenship in the community.

Still, additional sponsors and leaders are needed here and elsewhere in order that more boys may have the advantage of Scout training.

It is a challenge to one and all as the nation observes Boy Scout Week.

It's strange, but even for folk who have been doing it for years and years, it's still hard to get out of bed in the morning.

A match has been invented that can be ignited 100 times. That's 100 reasons why kids shouldn't play with one.

Dry rot costs lumbermen millions, says a scientist. And just think how much it costs the U. S. government.

The trouble with most every man's home town is that it needs a change of climate.

The difference between success and failure often is keeping your mind on your work instead of your work on your mind.

Afraid Of The Plunge

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

Europe calls his bluff, then he not only ends up with no United European Army, but also he pulls the financial props out from under our Allies in a way that is bound to result in economic dislocation, political recrimination, increased communism and perhaps eventual war.

—Again they will tell you that war began when Hitler marched into Austria; or when he first came into power in Germany in 1933, just 20 years ago this month. That is getting a little closer, but I still don't think that was the time when the first seeds of war really were planted.

I think they really were planted with the depression of 1930-31 when the United States withdrew its economic support from Europe, which was followed by the closing of the banks of Vienna, Berlin and Paris; and by the bitter jockeying for power of France and Germany.

Our economic support to Europe in those days was not in the form of Marshall Plan aid or mutual security. It was in the form of loans — loans which American bondholders confidently expected would be paid back. Those loans, incidentally, were backed up by weighty and encouraging words from none other than our present secretary of State, John Foster Dulles.

History has a peculiar way of repeating. It happened that Dulles has taken some other significant trips to Europe prior to this one, and one of them was in 1926 when he urged continued loans to Europe. The Coolidge Administration at that time was skeptical about these loans, and Parker Gilbert, our reparations commissioner, made some statements frowning on them. But Dulles, who then represented the bankers, felt otherwise.

"It is of tremendous importance," he said on April 28, 1926, "that nothing occur to bring about any long continued cessation in American lending to foreigners. There is no reason," he continued, "why we for many years to come should not build up our investment abroad."

It was the subsequent realization by the American public that these loans were not to be repaid that caused the sudden turning-off of the financial spigot and the depression in Europe, with the suspicion, the bickering, and the power politics that followed.

Of late we have been more realistic. We have given money to Europe, not loaned it, and the loss is being shared by the entire public, not by the investing public. But the fact is that whether in the form of loans or Marshall Plan aid or mutual security aid, dollars are flowing to a people who are living on an artificial economic level there is trouble. You can't continue them indefinitely. But, on the other hand, you have to be careful how you turn off the flow.

Dulles on his current mission to Europe is taking a somewhat different approach than he did in 1926. Instead of urging continued money to Europe, he is warning that if our Allies do not unite on a West European Army, then we will pull off the flow of dollars. That is a calculated risk he probably has to take. But if he fails, if —Will helium burn? A—It will neither burn nor explode. Q—What is the origin of the word 'potpourri'? A—It is from the French, and means literally, 'rotten pot.' The English borrowed the word, and it now denotes simply a mixture.

Q—How long have trucks been designed for special purposes? A—Special designs of trucks came into being about 1928.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY

Monday is bridge lesson day, and as usual I will discuss bidding according to the point-count method so that beginners and average players can see how the experts bid. Just in case you're not familiar with the point-count, here it is: count four points for each ace in your hand; three for each king; two for each queen; one for each jack. There are 10 points in each suit, and 40 points in the entire deck. You and your partner usually need 26 points to make a game; 23 points for a small slam; 37 for a grand slam.

South's opening bid of two no-trump showed stoppers in all suits, balanced distribution, and 22 to 24 points. North's response of three North-South bidding sequence: NORTH: A 8 8 7, 10 9, Q 10 5 4, K Q J. WEST: 8 7 5 4, None, 10 5 4. EAST: 10 9 3 2, K 7 4, J 9 3 2, 9 5 2. SOUTH (D): K Q J, A J, A K 8 7 6, A 7 5. Both sides vul. South West North East: 2 N.T. Pass 2 A Pass, 3 A Pass 3 N.T. Pass, Pass Pass 3 N.T. Pass. Opening lead—A-5.

clubs asked South to show a bid-dable major suit if he had one. South went to three diamonds to deny a bid-dable major. North then decided that his count of 12 points added to the South hand would produce a total of 34 to 36 points. He therefore went to a small slam in no-trump.

West opened a low heart, East put up the king, and South won with the ace. Declarer happened to be Lee Hasen, a prominent New York attorney and also one of the best bridge players in America. Lee could see that 13 tricks were ice cold if the diamonds broke normally.

The only problem was to guard against the possibility that either defender had all the missing diamonds. Declarer may make a few preliminary plays in the black suits, but these tell him nothing. The important point is that South must begin the diamonds by leading to dummy's queen! This guarantees the slam against four diamonds in either hand.

As the hand was actually dealt, East had the four diamonds, and declarer could lead diamonds twice through the dummy to finesse through East's jack-nuts.

If West had held all four diamonds, South would have cashed all the tricks in the black suits, reducing his own hand and dummy to three diamonds and a heart. West would be obliged to hold the queen of hearts and three diamonds, and would then be put in with the queen of hearts and forced to lead away from his jack of diamonds.

CARD Sense

Q—The bidding has been: South West North East: 1 Diamond Pass 1 Heart Pass? You, South, hold: Spades K-J-8, Hearts 7-3, Diamonds A-Q-J-8-3, Clubs A-K-Q. What do you do? A—Bid two no-trump. You have a

WASHINGTON COLUMN

State Of Union Message Gives Congress Heavy Work Program

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON — Whew! President Eisenhower's Ground-Hog Day message on the State of the Union is something that should send the congressmen scurrying back into their holes. But not to sleep for six weeks. There was enough work outlined in this message to keep Congress working for six months. Or six years. Hard.

In the first two weeks of the Eisenhower Administration, some of those in Congress have taken the bit in their teeth. They have shown signs of wanting to reduce taxes right away, spending three-quarters of a million dollars investigating mistakes of the past, limit the President's power to reorganize the government and cram his style on appointing the men he wanted to his Cabinet.

All this was because there was no clear program from the White House. But that period should be over now. The President's message outlined an 11-part work program that should keep the Congress busy, not on proving mistakes of the past, but on shaping new and constructive programs for the future.

The aim is to get the country out of the mess it's in and not merely to dig deeper into the mire. Furthermore, in the President's opening paragraphs he puts it right up to the congressional leadership to work with the other leaders of his Administration for joint efforts to realize his program. He wants cooperation, not opposition.

One of the more amusing aspects of the message is that the President at first apologizes because he hasn't had time to prepare a program that covers everything. But then he gives Congress the business, outlining a work load that would stall an elephant.

The President's own immediate actions will, of course, get all the headlines. He will withdraw the U. S. fleet from the Straits of Formosa. He will allow price and wage controls to expire on April 30. He will do everything he can to balance the budget. He will end segregation in the District of Columbia. He will recommend continuation of the federal rent control and reciprocal trade agreements. He will strengthen civil defense because—with a past slap at ex-President Truman—Russia does have atomic bombs. And so on. This is the spot news. Perhaps the most intriguing part of the Eisenhower message, however, is its listing of future messages and recommendations the President will make to Congress. As if he had not actually piled up enough work for the immediate future, he promises that he has lots of other nice things in mind for the help to do. And here he is positively sensational.

First off, in foreign policy, he tells Congress he will ask for a policy declaration "making clear that this count of 19 points in high cards, balanced distribution, and stoppers in all of the unbid suits. All of these features are described by your record of two no-trump."

"The woman let it out in a little sigh and shook her head. 'It isn't easy... or pleasant... to talk about it,' she said in a muted voice as she pressed her fingers against her crystal-handled fan. 'I've been trying to get my courage to the point of doing something for weeks now, and when Lida mentioned your name...'

"Mrs. Jones recommended me?" Lida asked. She nodded. "Lida knows of the trouble I've had with Claude... I put the pencil down on the desk blotter and pushed it around with a finger tip. 'I gather this is a divorce matter?'

"Oh, no," she said in a horrified voice. "I'm a Catholic, Mr. Wilde. Divorce is out of the question." "All right, All right," I said impatiently. "Claude is your husband, I assume?" When she nodded, I said, "And you want just enough to manage a legal separation with all the odds on your side. Is that it?"

Most of the sure, competent appearance disappeared when the tears came, and suddenly she was a timid, frightened woman of more years than she had when she came in my office.

"It's so unfair," she said in a choked voice. "He makes me so completely miserable and he doesn't even care..." She touched a handkerchief delicately under her eyes so she wouldn't rub off too much makeup. When she felt she was presentable again, she looked up at me. "Why would any man want a woman with gray hair? Even if she is younger than I am? Do I look that repulsive? Am I that old and haggard?"

JUST then I realized what she had said. It took that long to register. I wiped the grin off my face and went back to my chair and sat down quietly. "What's your

As soon as I had the information I opened the phone book and checked with Walker Coal & Coke. Everything seemed in order there. The home address she had given me checked with the phone book and the maid who answered my call said that Mrs. Ogilvie was out shopping. I thought that was enough clearance.

"All right, Mrs. Ogilvie," I said finally. "I'll see what I can do about it. Just what do you want done?" "Why... I don't quite... If it's a separation, you just want a club you can hold over his head: Sort of genteel blackmail. Is that all you want?"

"You needn't be so objectionable about it," she snapped. "You don't know just how objectionable I would like to be. Mrs. Ogilvie," I said flatly. "But I'll get what you want. Call me sometime tomorrow afternoon."

Mrs. Ogilvie left in a flurry of pleasantries. Everything was too pat, and it gave me a crawly feeling along my back.

A Salute To Boy Scouts

The Boy Scouts of Midland and other cities and communities across the land this week are passing in review as the nation observes Boy Scout Week.
It is one of the more important of the many special week observances of the year, and as such deserves the interest and attention of all citizens.
It is the forty-third birthday of the Boy Scouts of America, with its membership now at an all-time high of 3,250,000 boys and adult leaders enrolled.

In Midland and elsewhere, citizens this week will pour to present a great big and well-deserved salute to our Boy Scouts. May the program of Scouting continue to expand and develop in the Buffalo Trail Council and elsewhere.

Since 1910 more than 20,200,000 Americans have benefited by the training, fellowship, handicraft skills and high adventure of Scouting, and have been strengthened by the high ideals of the Scout Oath and Laws.
Boy Scout Week this year places a major emphasis on "The Scout Family." This surely is a two-way recognition. It honors the many fathers of Scouts among the 850,000 adult volunteer leaders in the organization. It salutes the 127,209 mothers who give generously of their time as Den Mothers in the Cub Scout ranks. It is here that the enrichment of family life is a main objective. Through doing things together boys and parents learn to know each other better. This emphasis upon strong family ties help to build a stronger America.

A total of 58,984 churches, synagogues, schools, civic and fraternal groups sponsor the nation's 84,900 Scouting Units in an effort to strengthen family life and build a better future citizenship in the community.

Still, additional sponsors and leaders are needed here and elsewhere in order that more boys may have the advantage of Scout training.
It is a challenge to one and all as the nation observes Boy Scout Week.

It's strange, but even for folk who have been doing it for years and years, it's still hard to get out of bed in the morning.
A match has been invented that can be ignited 100 times. That's 100 reasons why kids shouldn't play with one.

The trouble with most every man's home town is that it needs a change of climate.
The difference between success and failure often is keeping your mind on your work instead of your work on your mind.

Afraid Of The Plunge

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Drew Pearson says: Ferment that spawned Hitlerism again rampant in Europe; crucial turning point in history; U. S. withdrawal of economic support to Europe in 1930-31 was step leading to World War II.

—Again they tell you that war began when Hitler marched into Austria; or when he first came into power in Germany in 1933, just 20 years ago this month. That is getting a little closer, but I still don't think that was the time when the first seeds of war really were planted.

I think they really were planted with the depression of 1930-31 when the United States withdrew its economic support from Europe, which was followed by the closing of the banks in Vienna, Berlin and Paris; and by the bitter jockeying for power of France and Germany.

Our economic support to Europe in those days was not in the form of Marshall Plan aid or mutual security. It was in the form of loans—loans which American bondholders confidently expected would be paid back. Those loans, incidentally, were backed up by weighty and encouraging words from none other than our present secretary of State, John Foster Dulles.

History has a peculiar way of repeating itself. It happened that Dulles has taken some other significant trips to Europe prior to this one, and one of them was in 1926 when he urged continued loans to Europe. The Coolidge Administration at that time was skeptical about these loans, and Parker Gilbert, our reparations commissioner, made some statements frowning on them. But Dulles, who then represented the bankers, felt otherwise.

"It is of tremendous importance," he said on April 28, 1926, "that nothing occur to bring about any long continued cessation in American lending to foreigners." "There is no reason," he continued, "why we for many years to our investment abroad."

It was the subsequent realization by the American public that these loans were next to worthless that caused the sudden turning-off of the financial spigot and the depression in Europe, with the suspicion, the bickering, and the power politics that followed.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Monday is bridge lesson day, and as usual I will discuss bidding according to the point-count method so that beginners and average players can see how the experts bid. Just in case you're not familiar with the point-count, here it is: count four points for each ace in your hand; three for each king; two for each queen; one for each jack.

There are 10 points in each suit, and 40 points in the entire deck. You and your partner usually need 26 points to make a game; 28 points for a small slam; 37 for a grand slam.

clubs asked South to show a bid-able major suit if he had one. South went to three diamonds to deny a bid-able major.

North then decided that his count of 13 points added to the South hand would produce a total of 34 to 38 points. He therefore went to a small slam in no-trump.

West opened a low heart, East put up the king, and South went with the ace. Declarer happened to be Lee Hazen, a prominent New York attorney and also one of the best bridge players in America. Lee had an easy 23 tricks were his old if the diamonds broke normally.

That's why the Dulles trip is so crucial, why the great goal of peace can be either achieved or fumbled in the next few weeks.

State Of Union Message Gives Congress Heavy Work Program

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Whew! President Eisenhower's Ground-Hog Day message on the State of the Union is something that should send the congressmen scurrying back into their holes. But not to sleep for six weeks. There was enough work outlined in this message to keep Congress working for six months. Or six years. Hard.

In the first two weeks of the Eisenhower Administration, some of those in Congress have taken the bit in their teeth. They have shown signs of wanting to reduce taxes right away, spending three-quarters of a million dollars investigating mistakes of the past, limit the President's power to reorganize the government and cramp his style on appointing the men he wanted to his Cabinet.

Hungary Boots Out State Police Chief, Two Jewish Aides

BUDAPEST, HUNGARY—(AP)—The Hungarian government has ousted the boss of the country's powerful state police, Minister of Justice Gyula Deak.

A one-sentence communique in Sunday's papers announced the dismissal but did not give any reason. The announcement said only that Deak had been replaced in the cabinet by Bela Kovacs, apparently a newcomer to Hungarian ruling circles.

The American-sponsored Red-White-Red Radio in Vienna, Austria, said Deak had been kicked out of his job and arrested along with his deputy defense minister, Col. Gen. Sandor Nagradi, and the chief of the Hungarian secret police, Lt. Gen. Gabor Peter. The broadcast said all three are Jews.

Sunday's communique was the first official confirmation of purge rumors that have been rife in Budapest the last three weeks. Deak has been mentioned frequently among a dozen officials reportedly purged two weeks ago.

The former lawyer, about 36, was one of the first organizers and chief officials of the State Security Office, but he had served less than three months in his top ministry post. Previously he had been deputy minister of justice.

POSITIVE THINKING THE POWER OF

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

Inflow Of New Thoughts Can Remake You

A famous psychologist says, "There is a deep tendency in human nature to become precisely like that which you habitually imagine yourself to be."

It has been said that thoughts are things, that they actually possess dynamic power. Judged by the power they exercise, one readily can accept such an appraisal. You actually can think yourself into or out of situations. You can make yourself ill with your thought and by the same token you can make yourself well by the use of a different and healing type of thought. Think one way and you attract the conditions which that type of thinking indicates. Think another way and you can create an entirely different set of conditions. Conditions are created by thoughts far more powerfully than thoughts create conditions.

Think positively, for example, and you set in motion positive forces which bring positive results to pass. Positive thoughts create around yourself an atmosphere propitious to the development of positive outcomes. On the contrary, think negative thoughts and you create around yourself an atmosphere propitious to the development of negative results.

Henry J. Kaiser told me at one time he was building a levee along a riverbank, and there came a great storm and flood which buried all his earth-moving machinery and destroyed the work that had been done. Upon going out to observe the damage after the water receded, he found his workers standing around glumly looking at the mud and the buried machinery.

He came among them and said with a smile, "Why are you so glum?"

"Don't you see what has happened?" they asked. "Our machinery is covered with mud."

"What mud?" he asked brightly. "Look Around You!"

"What mud?" they repeated in astonishment. "Look around you. It is a sea of mud."

"Oh," he laughed. "I don't see any mud."

"But how can you say that?" they asked him.

"Because," said Mr. Kaiser, "I am looking up at a clear blue sky, and there is no mud up there. There is only sunshine, and I never saw any mud that could stand against sunshine. Soon it will be dried up, and then you will be able to move your machinery and start all over again."

How right he is. If your eyes are looking down in the mud and you feel a sense of failure, you will create defeat for yourself. Optimistic visualization combined with prayer and faith inevitably will actualize achievement.

Following are seven practical steps for changing your mental attitudes from negative to positive, for releasing creative new thoughts, and for shifting from error patterns to truth patterns. Try them—keep on trying them. They will work.

1. For the next 24 hours, deliberately speak hopefully about everything, about your job, about your health, about your future. Go out of your way to talk optimistically. This will be difficult if it is your habit to talk pessimistically. But you must restrain yourself from pessimism even if it requires an act of will.

2. After speaking hopefully for 24 hours continue the practice for one week, then you can be permitted to be "realistic" for a day or two. You will discover that what you meant by "realistic" a week ago actually was pessimistic, but what you now mean by "realistic" is something entirely different; it is the dawning of the positive outlook. When most people say they are being "realistic" they delude themselves; they simply are being negative.

3. You must feed your mind even as you feed your body, and to make your mind healthy you must feed it nourishing, wholesome thoughts. Therefore, today start to shift your mind from negative to positive thinking. Start at the beginning of the New Testament and underscore every sentence with Faith. Continue doing this until you have marked every passage in the four books, Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. Particularly note Mark 11, verses 22, 23, 24. They will serve as samples of the verses you are to underscore and fix deeply in your consciousness.

Memorize Passages

4. Then commit the underscored passages to memory. Commit one each day until you can recite the entire list from memory. This will take time, but remember you have consumed much more time becoming a negative thinker than this will require. Effort and time will be needed to unlearn your negative patterns.

5. Make a list of your friends to determine who is the most positive thinker among them and deliberately cultivate his society. Do not abandon your negative friends, but get closer to those with a positive point of view for a while, until you have absorbed their spirit, then you can go back among your negative friends and give them your newly acquired thought pattern without taking on their negativism.

6. Avoid argument, but whenever a negative attitude is expressed, counter with a positive and optimistic opinion.

7. Pray a great deal and always let your prayer take the form of thanksgiving on the assumption that God is giving you great and wonderful things; for if you think He is, He surely is. God will not give you any greater blessing than you can believe in. He wants to give you great things, but even He cannot make you take anything greater than you are equipped by faith to receive. "According to your faith (that is, in proportion to) be it unto you" (Matthew 9:29).

The secret of a better and more successful life is to cast out those old, dead, unhealthy thoughts. Substitute for them new, vital, dynamic thoughts. You can depend upon it—and inflow of new thoughts will remake you and your life.

NO. 4—THE LEGISLATOR

Old State House, completed in 1853, is replete with Lincoln memories. Here the Twelfth General Assembly, of which he was a member, held its last session in 1840-1841. In its Supreme Court chambers he argued some 200 cases, and in the House of Representatives, he delivered one of his most profound speeches in reply to Stephen A. Douglas. Here in June, 1858, Lincoln delivered his famous "House Divided" speech. On May 3 and 4, 1865, the body of Lincoln lay here in state while a silent throng passed in final homage to their fellow townsman.

Army Cites Higher Munitions Output

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Army said Sunday more than 32,000,000 rounds of artillery and 3,000,000,000 rounds of small arms ammunition were made last year, but it did not say how this compared with its needs.

The Army issued a statement, apparently in response to recurrent stories of ammunition shortages in Korea. It said ammunition production rose from 1,000,000 rounds in the first month of fighting in Korea to 30,000,000 rounds in a six-month period of 1952.

Asked if this meant ammunition problems had been solved, an Army spokesman insisted no shortages had existed and that rationing in Korea had been standard procedure to prevent waste.

Pravda Sees Formosa Order As Grounds For New Tirade

MOSCOW—(AP)—The Soviets reacted in print for the first time Monday to President Eisenhower's order denaturalizing Formosa. They blasted it as an attempt to prevent a settlement of the Korean War and to expand fighting in the Far East.

The Communist party paper Pravda declared in an editorial: "It is not clear that the intention of the United States to make use of Kuomintang (Nationalist Chinese) gangs for organization of acts of aggression against China purports as its sole purpose not to permit cessation of bloodletting in Korea and to expand the scale of war action in the Far East?"

The newspaper said America's new Formosa policy and the "ultimatum and demands" on Western Europe by U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles "have aroused new aggravations of disagreement in the camp of the Anglo-American bloc." Pravda termed this "the inevitable result of the policy of the United States—a policy which contradicts the basic vital interest of all humanity."

Old Navy-Air Force Rhubarb Brews Again On Capitol Hill

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The old, angry names and arguments which were bandied about in the famous fight between the Navy and Air Force over B-36 bombers and super-carriers are being heard again in the Pentagon.

Some of the heat is just a flareup of debate about the missions the services should be given. But it is given new intensity by the approaching necessity of filling the chairmanship of the Joint Chiefs of Staff when Army Gen. Omar Bradley finishes his assignment next Summer.

The Navy and the Air Force each thinks it is its turn to provide a chairman.

The Navy's Adm. Arthur Radford, finished with a week of Washington conferences including a meeting with President Eisenhower, left the capital at the week-end to return to his Pacific Fleet command. Those who saw him go thought he seemed quite pleased with events, though he didn't say what they were.

The Air Force didn't relish the town talk that perhaps Eisenhower might tap the admiral for the Joint Chiefs post.

Vandenbergs In Line

If precedent set in the selection of Bradley was followed, Gen. Hoyt Vandenberg, chief of staff of the Air Force, would be the logical candidate. As Army chief of staff, Bradley was a member of the Joint Chiefs when he was named. Vandenberg is, in length of service, the senior of the three members. He was appointed first in April, 1948, then last year was given a short-term reappointment.

The Joint Chiefs, top military planning body, is comprised of the chiefs of staff of the three services and a non-voting chairman.

Vandenberg and the Air Force were less than enthusiastic about approval given by the Administration and Congress a year ago to build the first of the 60,000-ton Navy flattops from which planes carrying atom bombs could be launched. When the Navy returned with a request for a second and then a third big carrier, Vandenberg opposed the plan in the Joint Chiefs organization. The complaint later was made that Joint Chiefs' approval on the other ships, costing 209 million dollars each, was circumvented.

Radford is a naval aviator, an exponent of carriers and a veteran of the B-36 fight.

Much of Radford's experience has been in the Pacific, now the focal point of military and political attention in light of Eisenhower's new policy on Formosa.

Navy hostility to Vandenberg as Joint Chiefs chairman is pegged strongly to the belief that he and Gen. Curtis LeMay, commander of Air Force medium and heavy bomber forces, are the leading exponents of strategic bombing—done only by Air Force planes.

To some degree, this belief has worked against Vandenberg in the past in relations with the Army. But Vandenberg's supporters argue that he plugged for major expenditures on strategic bombers only because during the days of military economy he believed that was the most economical means of discouraging Russia from starting a war. Now, his proponents say, he gives equal emphasis to the fighter-bomber and interceptor forces.

Should Eisenhower turn again to the Army because he wants a neutral man in the hot seat of the chairman, he would have several candidates to pick from. They include Gen. J. Lawton Collins, a Joint Chiefs member since August, 1949; Gen. Matthew Ridgway, who succeeded the President as supreme commander of North Atlantic Treaty Forces in Europe, and Gen. Alfred Gruenther, NATO chief of staff for both Eisenhower and Ridgway.

Ringleaders Sought In Recent Outbreak At Arizona's Prison

FLORENCE, ARIZ.—(AP)—Warden Lon E. Walters promised to take steps to prevent more turmoil Monday after a normal routine returned to the Arizona State Prison.

The quiet contrasted with the last 72 hours of near-rebellion, which reached a dramatic point Saturday with the brief capture of a prison guard.

Warden Walters ordered guards to shoot without waiting if the convicts get out of hand. But he said he thought the trouble was over.

For the first time since their first sit-down strike Thursday prisoners were released en masse Sunday from their cell blocks. Only a few of the 500 who took part in the bedlam even glanced at the heavily armed guards as they marched to meals and prison activities.

Walters still was attempting to learn who the ringleaders were. He said "eight or nine" are suspects. The real reason for the outbreaks was not known.

It took a tear-gas barrage to force the convicts into complete submission.

Daddy Ringtail And Mugwump's Temptation

Mugwump Monkey, the monkey boy, was sitting up in a tree. The tree was across the Elephant Path from the very tall tree with Daddy Ringtail's monkey house in the top. Mugwump sniffed, and sniffed, and sniffed. He smelled a something that smelled very much like a scrambled coconut pie. Mugwump sniffed again. The scrambled coconut pie smelled very good. Why, it smelled wonderful. Mugwump climbed across the Elephant Path, following his nose to the place where the smell of the scrambled coconut pie was coming from. Oh me, and oh my, my! There was a scrambled coconut pie sure enough. It was sitting in the window of Daddy Ringtail's monkey house, right where Mother Ringtail had put it to cool. Mugwump hid by the outside of the window, standing on the limb of the tree. He could hear Mother Ringtail singing inside in the kitchen, but she couldn't hear him, because he wasn't making any noise. And there was the scrambled co-

NEED HELP FROM LEGISLATURES? Only 24 Of 242 Channels For Educational TV Sought

By WAYNE OLIVER
NEW YORK (AP)—The fate of educational television is hanging in a balance that may be tipped one way or the other by midyear.

It looks now as if a large proportion of the 252 TV channels set aside for noncommercial educational stations—"schools of the air"—will remain unclaimed by the June 2 deadline set by the Federal Communications Commission.

The commission has warned that after that date it may open any of the unclaimed channels to commercial use, supplementing the 1,800 channel allocations already made for commercial stations.

So far, less than two dozens applications for educational stations have been filed. The commission has granted 14 of these.

Educators generally are enthusiastic about the idea of educational stations for telecasts into schools to supplement regular classroom work, and into homes for adult education courses. But the hitch is getting the money from state legislatures.

Seven of the permits for educational stations have gone to the New York State Board of Regents, which proposes a 10-station statewide educational network—most applications of the educational TV plans so far advanced.

Regent Jacob L. Holtzmann says the fate of the New York plan will have a profound effect on other similar state-wide networks.

But the New York plan, calling for three and one-half million dollars to build the 10-station network and one and one-half million a year to operate it, faces uncertain prospects at best in the State Legislature now in session.

Some of the other proposed educational stations have more definite prospects.

The University of Southern California has a station under construction at Los Angeles with a $500,000 grant from the Allan Hancock Foundation. It is due to go on the air within the next few weeks.

The University of Houston in Texas hopes to have a station on the air during the Spring—possibly by April. The Kansas State College of Agriculture and Applied Science at Manhattan plans to have its educational station in operation before the year is out.

Basic Question
Of the other four permits, three have gone to the Connecticut State Board of Education for stations at Bridgeport, Hartford and Norwich, and the fourth to the New Jersey Department of Education for a station at New Brunswick.

A basic question involved in educational TV is whether it's better to set up noncommercial educational stations or to put educational programs on commercial stations.

There's strong support for both sides of the issue, with considerable sentiment for giving commercial permits to educational institutions so they could use part of their time for sponsored programs that would pay part or all of their costs.

School Shows Profit
The Iowa State College at Ames has been operating WOI-TV since early 1950 as a commercial station, telecasting enough sponsored programs to meet expenses and show a profit. It's the only educational institution currently having a TV station on the air.

But several others plan to follow the same idea. Michigan State College at East Lansing, Mich.; Cornell University at Ithaca, N. Y.; the University of Missouri at Columbia; and Harding College at Memphis, Tenn., all have obtained regular commercial TV permits.

Meanwhile, numerous educational programs are being telecast over privately owned commercial stations by schools and colleges.

Major Tragedies Boost Toll Of Weekend Fatalities To 32

By The Associated Press
Two tragic mishaps, each killing nine persons, highlighted the weekend's violent death toll in Texas which counted 32 persons dead.

Of those killed, 11 died in traffic accidents.

Seven children and two adults, all negroes, burned to death late Saturday night when fire ravaged their dilapidated East Texas farm home near Tyler.

Early Sunday, two cars collided in a head-on crash near Weatherford, 28 miles west of Fort Worth, and killed nine other persons.

There were no survivors in the East Texas farm tragedy, and only one person survived the auto accident near Weatherford.

All six occupants of one of the cars—three men, two women and an infant—were killed instantly.

Three of four negro soldiers riding in the second vehicle also died before help reached them. The lone survivor remained in critical condition Monday.

Dead in the fire were: Susie Holt, a woman whose age was estimated at between 90 and 100 years; Eula Mae Thomas, 30; two daughters of Mrs. Thomas, Betty, nine, and Lavern, six; Mabel Petty, 13; Roger Petty, six; Clementine Petty, three, Gail Patriek, three, and five-month-old Rhee Calloway.

Victims in the auto smash-up included: Mr. and Mrs. Arvil Hubert Bergham, both about 22 years old, Fort Worth; their six-week-old son, Rickey Dale; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Calvin Moseley, Fort Worth; and Lester E. Roberts, 32, Carlton, Texas.

Wolter's Air Force Base identified the three negro soldiers killed as Roosevelt Jones, Garcia Martinez and Curtis Laughlin. The base did not release the ranks, ages or hometowns of the victims. Injured in the wreck was George A. Bondurant, Bondurant was taken to Carwell Air Force Base hospital for treatment.

These were among the other violent deaths reported in Texas over the weekend:

Garland Woman Dead
A 33-year-old Garland woman was killed instantly and her husband was injured critically Sunday night when their car crashed into a house at Garland, northeast of Dallas.

Dead was Mrs. E. M. Hudgins, Hudgins, 37, was reported in critical condition.

In Nacogdoches, Mrs. Dewey Shofner, 35, was stabbed to death in her home. A 26-year-old man was arrested in the case but had not been charged early Monday. Mrs. Shofner, a school teacher, ran from her home shouting, "He stabbed me." She died in a hospital about an hour later with five stab wounds in her body. Two deep wounds were in her chest.

James H. Moore, 73, died of self-inflicted gunshot wounds. Justice of the peace, Pendleton of Mineola ruled Sunday. Moore's wife was found Sunday by his wife in his Mineola residence.

Twenty-one-month-old Linda Marie Bartell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Bartell, Jr., Seminole, Okla., was killed Saturday when struck by a car as she stood in front of a service station on Highway 56 South of Lufkin. Two cars sideswiped and one went out of control and struck the child.

Train Kills Farmer
Don Spurling, 21, a farmer who lived near Rockwall was killed Saturday by a train. Spurling was driving his tractor across a railroad trestle when he was hit from the rear by a Missouri-Kansas-Texas steamtrain. Train crewmen said Spurling made any attempt to jump it was just when the train hit at about 60 miles an hour.

The engineer of a Missouri Pacific passenger train died in a Houston hospital Friday night a few hours after his locomotive smashed into a truck carrying 3,400 gallons of gasoline. G. B. Perry, 70, of Palestine, died of burns. The fireman, John P. Hattenbuehler, 35, Houston, was burned critically.

The body of a man identified as George W. Richardson of Hillsboro was found Sunday in the Colorado River at Austin. An autopsy report gave the cause of death as drowning.

General Approves Life Term Ordered For Colonel's Wife

TOKYO (AP)—A Far East Command general Monday approved and sent to Washington for review the life sentence of Mrs. Dorothy K. Smith for the knife slaying of her Colonel-husband here last fall.

A general court martial last month found the 40-year-old daughter of retired Gen. Walter Krueger guilty of premeditated murder of Col. Aubrey Smith.

The record of the trial now goes to a military board of the judge advocate general's office in Washington.

Mrs. Smith will be sent to the U. S. She has been held in the prison ward of an Army hospital.

The sentence was approved Monday by Brig. Gen. O. S. Rolfe, commanding general of Headquarters and Service Command of the Far East Command.

Mrs. Smith is appealing the verdict on grounds she was temporarily insane at the time of the stabbing.

Teachers Move In For Senate Hearing On Salary Increase

AUSTIN (AP)—More than 1,000 Texas teachers began converging on the Legislature Monday to ask a raise in pay.

Their major appearance will be before the senate's committee on education in the Senate Chamber at 7:30 p.m. Individual members of the legislature were expecting personal calls as well.

Charles H. Tenyson, executive secretary of the Texas State Teachers Association, said no effort was made to get the teachers to come to Austin for the hearing.

"But there's a lot of personal interest in it and teachers know they're entitled to come if they want to," he said. "Letters and inquiries to me in the past week or so indicate they'll pretty well fill the Senate Chamber and its gallery."

The hearing is on a bill by Senator A. M. Aikin, Jr., of Paris to raise teachers pay $600 a year.

An impressive array of talent has been booked to speak. Included were former State Senator R. L. Proffer of Denton, now president of the TSTA; Mrs. Elsie Parnell of Mineral Wells, president of the Texas Classroom Teachers Association; H. W. Stullwell, superintendent of Texas public schools; and Mrs. R. Lee Filer of Waxahachie, former representative who is now a teacher and author of a book on the Gilmer-Aikin education laws.

First Big Hearing
The hearing is the first major one of the session slated to bring a big turnout. It comes as the Legislature heads into its second month, earmarked by the state Constitution for public hearings on bills introduced during the first month.

In backing the bill, TSTA contends Texas schools opened last September with 1,000 teaching vacancies and the trend was growing worse.

The bill would cost the state 33 to 35 million dollars a year.

Governor Shivers has recommended a 10 per cent cost of living adjustment in salaries. That would mean $340 a year increase on the minimum $2,400 salary.

Van Fleet Bids Troops Farewell

SEOUL (AP)—Gen. James A. Van Fleet bade farewell to the U. S. Eighth Army's Korean battlefront Monday and said:

"My only regret is that we didn't finish the job."

The Army commander, who turns his tremendous job over to Lt. Gen. Maxwell Taylor Wednesday, made his last front-line stop at the U. S. 1st Marine Division.

"God bless you, good luck and good shooting," he told Marine Maj. Gen. I. A. Pollack and his staff.

That marked the windup of a three-day "hall and farewell" tour by Taylor and Van Fleet.

Van Fleet, who has commanded all United Nations ground forces in Korea for 22 months, leaves for Japan Wednesday on the first lap of his trip back to the U. S. and retirement. He will spend several days in Japan, then fly to Honolulu to join his wife for a few days rest.

The Van Fleets will travel by ship from Honolulu to San Francisco.

Mayor Kim Tai Sun of Seoul said about 100,000 Koreans will line the streets of this capital city to say goodbye to the man they have proclaimed their "friend, protector and brother in arms."

Day Of Honors
It was a day of honors for Van Fleet.

During a briefing at the U. S. 2nd Division headquarters, Van Fleet learned he had been awarded The Netherlands' highest decoration—knight in the Order of Orange Nassau with swords. The Netherlands commander, Lt. Col. Cornelius Schlerood, said the formal decoration ceremonies would be held later in the U. S.

At the U. S. 7th Division, Van Fleet was given a chromium-plated bayonet and a small bayonet badge worn by combat infantrymen.

At the British Commonwealth Division, killed pilots of the famed Black Watch played "My Home" as the general's light planes landed.

Second in command will be Harry O. Blanding, Jr., of the Temple Telegram, formerly of Corsicana.

Allison, managing editor of the San Antonio Light, was elected president of the association. Other officers elected Sunday were Blanding, first vice president; Ray Parr of the Amarillo Globe Times, second vice president; R. J. Waite of the Houston Chronicle, secretary, and Bill Collins of the Midland Reporter-Telegram, treasurer.

J. Q. Mahaffey of the Texarkana Gazette was the retiring president. Blanding, Parr, and Waite were advanced one notch and Collins was named as a new officer.

Nod From President Gives Name 'Ike' Official Okay

By ED CREAGH
WASHINGTON (AP)—If you're talking or writing to the new tenant of the White House, custom dictates that you address him as "Mr. President."

But if you're talking or writing about him—or, for that matter, if you yell a greeting out the window when his motorcade passes by—it's okay to call him "Ike."

That's the word from people in close touch with the new President. And they add that people who called Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower "Mamie" before January 20 continue to call her "Mamie" today.

Some of those who know the first family's feeling sum it up this way: Eisenhower regards the nickname as "a mark of affection, not one of disrespect. He doesn't think it detracted from the dignity of his past office. He doesn't think it detracts from the dignity of his present office."

In face-to-face meetings, or in correspondence, it's doubtful if anybody outside his family calls him anything but "Mr. President," except when somebody forgets and addresses him as "General." The occasional use of his military title doesn't appear to surprise or displease him.

Mrs. Eisenhower's reaction to "Mamie" has not been made quite so clear, but she smiles and waves—as she did in the inaugural parade—when bystanders hail her by her given name. Formally, of course, she is addressed as "Mrs. Eisenhower." But one of her secretaries, phoning a Washington newspaperwoman the other day, said casually that "Mamie hasn't made up her mind" about something or other.

It looks as though the names "Ike" and "Mamie" are here to stay.

Allied Warplanes Pound Red Centers As Fighting Slows

SEOUL (AP)—Allied warplanes pounded anew at Communist front-line positions and supply arteries in Korea Sunday night and early Monday while ground fighting tapered off to small-scale patrol clashes.

South Korean pilots—flying propeller-driven Mustangs—took part in Monday's strikes against Chinese front positions and rear area supply dumps.

The raids followed the bombing of a key supply center near Pyongyang by 11 American B-29's Sunday night. The Air Force said the 50-acre supply center was left in flames.

The Eighth Army reported that Allied tanks, resuming their bunker-busting tactics, destroyed or damaged 75 bunkers, 21 caves, 14 observation posts and 12 gun positions.

In Tokyo, Far East naval headquarters announced that at least four U. S. warships could be called on short notice to bombard Communist positions with guided missiles "should the war situation require their use."

The four ships were named as two specially converted submarines, the Cusk and Carboneg, and two heavy cruisers, the Boston and the Canberra.

Riot Of Insane Criminals Incites Community Protest

CROWNSVILLE, MD. (AP)—A weekend riot of insane criminals at Crownsville State Hospital was still under investigation Monday as officials ran into a new uprising of angry neighboring residents.

Mrs. Robert C. Adams, outspoken critic of conditions at the negro mental institution, challenged the legality of using it to confine murderers and robbers.

Wayne Longeman, Anne Arundel County manager, suggested that maybe the state should set up an island prison for insane criminals.

"A sort of Alcatraz of Maryland," he said.

Twenty of the 68 rioters were shipped off to Baltimore City Jail shortly after a two-hour revolt Saturday night was subdued by guards, firemen and police from as far away as Baltimore, 19 miles north.

They used tear gas and fire hoses to quell the inmates and free three guards who had been held hostage. One of the guards suffered a long slash in the back but the wound was described as not serious.

He and two others were rescued after barricading themselves in a small room at the start of the riot. Howling convicts threatened and taunted the hostages, set fire to mattresses and newspapers, tore iron grillwork from windows and smashed furniture in their third-floor ward.

Three escaped by climbing down a 30-foot rope of bed sheets and dropping 30 more feet to the ground. One was recaptured within an hour, another at dawn and the third late Sunday.

Chinese-Soviet Split Possible, Thinks Tito

WASHINGTON (AP)—Yugoslavia's Marshal Tito thinks that, with a little encouragement, Communist China's Mao Tse-tung might do what Tito did—break away from Russia.

So said George V. Allen, ambassador to Yugoslavia, during an NBC television interview Sunday. He said Tito had told him many times that "we ought to make it a little easier for him (Mao) to break away."

Chiang's Guerrillas Report Successful Attacks On Chinese

TAIPEI, FORMOSA (AP)—The Chinese Nationalist Defense Ministry reported Monday a guerrilla band of women seized a small island off the coast of Chekiang last week and then successfully defended it against 30 Communist soldiers.

The ministry said seven Reds were killed and the rest captured. The ministry added that the small island had been "repeatedly occupied and abandoned by the Reds."

A raid by some 1,500 guerrillas in Inner Mongolia was reported by the Nationalist Ministry of the Interior through its news agency, Ta Tao.

It quoted underground sources in Peiping as reporting the guerrillas came out of their hideouts in the Khingan Mountains January 2 and battled Communist regulars 34 hours before withdrawing.

The agency asserted that as a result the scheduled departure of a battalion of Mongol cavalry for Korea was deferred.

Sale Of 39-Cent Sirloins, T-Bones Stirs Near-Bedlam

COLUMBUS, OHIO (AP)—Housewives who lost out on an opportunity to buy round, sirloin and T-bone steaks for 39 cents a pound Sunday will get another chance Tuesday.

The Meats Supermarket sold 7,000 pounds of New Zealand beef for that price Sunday. It is expecting another shipment of 15 sides Tuesday.

Sunday's sales provoked a near-bedlam. Police were called to control the crowd.

Louis McClaren, manager of the meat department, said the meat was purchased from a Chicago packer whom he declined to identify.

The meat probably was part of a shipment of 60,000,000 pounds of frozen New Zealand beef shipped to this country via Canada last September.

In Washington, John Heimburger, counsel for the House Agriculture Committee, said last week only about a third of the New Zealand beef had been sold and the rest was stored in Chicago. He said Agriculture Department officials think the beef is competitive only with lower American grades.

The Ohio Cattle Feeders Association already has asked the government to restrict imports of frozen beef.

Young Belgian King Calls Off Vacation

BRUSSELS, BELGIUM (AP)—Young King Baudouin made plans Monday to visit Belgium's flood-damaged areas after a hurried dash home to quiet criticism of his vacation trip to the Riviera.

The monarch returned by train Saturday from Antibes, France, where he went early last week, reportedly to recuperate from an attack of influenza.

Belgian newspapers criticized him sharply for holidaying while his fellow countrymen still were struggling with the after effects of the floods in which 23 Belgians died and property damage was estimated at more than 20 million dollars.

Bulldogs To Meet San Angelo Quint

Pampa, Amarillo Top 1-AAAA Bill

The only team last place Midland possibly can catch in the District 1-AAAA race is the Bulldogs' first basketball opponent this week.

San Angelo, which has won but three of 11 District 1-AAAA games, stands three ahead of the winless Bulldogs, with only three to go for both clubs.

San Angelo invades Midland's court at 8 p.m. Friday. After that, the league's sixth place club, Abilene, which handled Midland roughest in the first round by scoring an 88-51 win, comes here at 8 p.m. Saturday. Midland would have to win those two and its Odessa game February 17, while San Angelo lost three, to get a tie for seventh place.

Baylor Holds Shaky Perch Atop Ladder

By WILBUR MARTIN Associated Press Staff

Those "quicksand" standings of the Southwest Conference dragged down another pace setter last weekend—this time Texas—and that left the surprising Baylor Bears on top, for the moment.

Baylor took over the lead in dramatic fashion by edging Texas, 60-58, and Texas A&M, 47-46.

As of the moment, Texas and Texas Christian are tied for second and Rice and Arkansas for fourth with Texas A&M and SMU finishing out the standings.

But Monday night at Houston, Arkansas and Rice battle to see which one is really out of title contention.

Two free shots by Murray Bailey in the last two seconds gave Baylor its decisive win over A&M.

Southern Methodist made its best showing against Arkansas, losing 66-71, but the Mustangs are still looking for their first loop win.

TCU Vs. ACC

In the only non-conference game, Texas Christian plays Abilene Christian Monday at Abilene.

Last week's lopsided results saw Texas Christian polish off Arkansas, 49-46; A&M beat Southern Methodist, 51-43 and Rice hand non-conference foe Sam Houston an 81-54 licking.

Two free shots by Murray Bailey in the last two seconds gave Baylor its decisive win over A&M.

Southern Methodist made its best showing against Arkansas, losing 66-71, but the Mustangs are still looking for their first loop win.

Cena Schwinger of Rice continued to pace season scoring with 298 points and John Starkey of Baylor leads conference scoring with 141 points.

The longest price payoff in the history of the Hialeah race track was not to win—but to place. In 1932 Baal's odds were $968 to $2 to place.

H-SU Slides Back To Third In Border League Basketball

By The Associated Press

Arizona stretched its Border Conference basketball lead against a Texas team last week, and this week tries to see if it can do the same against its sister quint in the Sunshin State.

Hardin-Simmons dropped into a tie for third place after an unsuccessful trip west in the sagebrush circuit and New Mexico A&M pulled up to a tie for fifth with West Texas State.

Results last week: Texas Western 89, West Texas State 57; Hardin-Simmons 85, Arizona State (Flagstaff) 79; Bradley 65, Arizona 52; New Mexico A&M 67, West Texas State 61, Arizona State (Tempe) 79, Hardin-Simmons 70; Arizona 72, Hardin-Simmons 67; Texas Tech 94, Texas Western 68; New Mexico A&M 66, Texas Tech 58.

Seminole-Andrews In 8-AA Showdown

Seminole makes its last bid Tuesday night to get in on the gravy in the District 8-AA basketball race—the Indians, trailing by a game, tackle league leading Andrews.

A win for Andrews would mean the title for the Mustangs although they have a Friday night game at Pecos to close the season.

Only Seminole (5-3) besides Andrews (5-1) is playing above-.500 ball in the five-team league. Monahans has won two of seven, Kermit and Pecos two of six.

Andrews last Friday won its fifth game by 46-42 over Kermit as Ronnie Hucklebe of the winners scored 12 points. Jackie Gothard, the all-state footballer, sunk 22 as Seminole won its fifth game, 36-44, over Monahans. Pecos did not play.

Monahans has an open date Tuesday while the two leaders clash at Andrews and Pecos goes to Kermit. Friday, Kermit plays at Monahans and Andrews at Pecos.

Bulldog Netters Try Bronchos Tuesday

Midland Bulldog tennis players open a busy week Tuesday with a return match here against the Odessa Bronchos.

Two other schoolboy squads also confront Coach Frank Ford's netters this week—Colorado City there Wednesday and San Angelo there Saturday.

The Odessa matches start at about 1 p.m. Midland will be seeking revenge for a 6-4 loss in December.

GM Says Fain Deal Put Sox In

By GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK (AP)—Frank Lane of the Chicago White Sox cemented his position as the tradingest general manager in the history of baseball when he obtained First Baseman Ferris Fain from the Philadelphia Athletics in the Winter's most important deal.

Since he took the job in 1948 with the avowed intention of "making some changes," Lane has taken part in 79 deals involving a total of 139 players. Not a single man remains of the White Sox team he inherited from his predecessor, Leslie O'Connor.

Lane believes the acquisition of Fain made a genuine flag contender of the Sox.

He emphasizes that his new first baseman had 150 assists last season to Robinson's 89, a point we do not recall having seen brought out at the time the deal was announced.

Lane figures this defensive improvement alone could mean five or six games in the coming race.

Early betting quotations here make Rocky Marciano an 8 to 5 favorite to retain his heavyweight title when he fights Jersey Joe Walcott for the second time on April 10 at Chicago.

This has created some surprise in view of the fact that Pappy Joe was far ahead on points and looked a certain winner when Rocky poleaxed him in the thirteenth round last Summer.

The explanation, as we get it, is that the wise money figures Walcott shot his bolt in the first bout, when he made probably the greatest flight of his long career, only to lose. The odds makers doubt he can shake off the memory of that terrible lout hook which in a split second deprived him of his senses.

AT $25 A TICKET— Welter 'Mismatch' Grows In Interest

CHICAGO (AP)—About 20,000 persons are going to pay up to $25 apiece Wednesday night to watch Chuck Davey try to capture Kid Gavilan's welterweight title in a match whose popularity grows by the hour.

If you're wondering why—since many fight experts say the undefeated challenger shouldn't even be in the same ring with the rugged Cuban kid—the answer possibly can be found in one word: "Contrast."

In personality and background these two fighters are direct opposites.

Davey, fair-skinned and blond, is quietly serious, almost studious. Gavilan, sleek and dark, is jovial, often boisterous.

Davey, a Detroit policeman's son, was reared in comparative security—the bleak "have-not" background of Gavilan, son of a Cuban field worker, Educated Fighting!

Davey has education, much more than most Americans. He is a graduate of Michigan State College, holds both bachelor's and master's degrees, is a former Air Force officer.

Gavilan got most of his education in the ring. He had his first bout 15 years ago at the age of 12.

Davey went into professional boxing after he'd gotten his degree, mostly because he wanted to enrich himself but also, he says, because he likes the sport.

With Gavilan it was mostly a case of grabbing an opportunity to rise from the cane fields.

So it was by widely divergent roads that these two fighter traveled the distance from obscurity to boxing fame.

In the Chicago Stadium ring, muscle and skill and heart count most.

TO BIG LAKE
Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Wise, 907 West College Street, were weekend guests in the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Yates, Big Lake.

There also will be an 18-hole stroke-play tournament Saturday at San Antonio for the golfers who fail to qualify for the final 36 holes of the open with $2,000 in prize money.

Kroll Among Toppers
Kroll, New Hartford, N. Y., will go into third place among the leading money-winners Monday. With first money he will bring his total for the year to $4,315; with second money his total will be $3,718. Harper, Portsmouth, Va.; former National PGA champion, can go into third place with second money, in which event his total would be $2,800; he will have $3,400 with first money. Mangrum leads the money-winners with $6,148. Bolt is second with $4,225.

Kroll shot a one-under-par 70 Sunday to tie the Harper. He did it as the result of an eagle on the eleventh hole, driving the green on the 301-yard hole and sinking a six-footer. Harper did a 62, failing to win first place because of trap trouble on hole No. 10 where he was over par.

The final round was played in a terrific dust storm which Ed Furgol of St. Louis said created "the worst conditions I ever saw on a golf course." Furgol shot a 79 to finish with 285 and a tie for sixteenth place. He won $127.50.

Ralph Blomquist, Eagle Rock, Calif., who did 71 on the final 18 was third with 279, winning $1,000. Art Wall, Jr., Pocono Manor, Pa., turned in a 69 and won fourth money of $800 with 290. Les Blagel, Baltimore, who was tied with Harper for the lead at 206 through 54 holes, scrambled to a 78 Sunday and tied for tenth place at 282, winning $303.23. He blamed poor putting and some bad lies for his failure but said, "Oh well, I'll win some other time."

Whether the El Paso Open will be held next year has not been determined.

The prize money will have to be $15,000 then. Malcolm Webb, chairman of the tournament committee at the El Paso Country Club said, "We'll have to think it over."

BULL DOZER—Antonio Ordóñez, one of Spain's leading bullfight-masters, puts an almost perfect pair of banderillas into his target while the Mexico City crowd leans forward, spellbound. In this gambit, Ordóñez had to step between the charging animal's horns. (NEA)

Nation's Cagers Waiting Late To Determine NCAA Entries

NEW YORK (AP)—The annual NCAA Basketball Tournament is only one month away and yet most conference races have not gone beyond the halfway point.

This is the month when they separate the men from the boys. Schedules are devoted almost exclusively to conference games from now until tournament time. Winners in 14 conferences and nine independent clubs play in the NCAA tourney.

Oklahoma, for example, currently sets the pace in the Big Seven with a 3-1 mark. But the surprising Sooners have eight games still to play, including a tough pair at Kansas Tuesday and at Kansas State Saturday.

Similarly, Indiana and Illinois are exactly at the halfway mark in the Big Ten. Indiana (9-0) starts the second round by playing host to Wisconsin Monday night while Illinois (7-2) will be playing at Michigan Saturday night, beating Northwestern, 55-51 triumph against Wisconsin.

Also at the halfway mark is Oklahoma A&M, the hardy perennial of the Missouri Valley Conference. The Aggies have won their five conference games, including a 40-58 overtime decision over St. Louis Saturday night, and should make it six against Wichita Thursday.

Louisiana State, scourge of the Southeastern Conference with Kentucky out of action this year, takes its 7-0 record against second-place Florida (5-1) Tuesday night. After that the Bengals will have only five more conference contests.

Washington is about the only conference power with a pretty clear-cut claim to the crown jewels. With 10 straight wins, Washington has only six more to go in the Pacific Coast Conference's Northern Division and it's hard to see how they could lose it now. After that, of course, they'll have to beat the Southern Division winner—probably California—for the right to enter the NCAA.

Odell, Michelosen 'Available' To SMU

DALLAS (AP)—Two nationally-known football coaches denied Sunday they had applied for the job as coach of the Southern Methodist University Mustangs.

But both said they were interested. "I did not apply for the job, but I'm available," said Howie Odell, deposed Washington University coach.

SMU Athletic Director Matty Bell said Saturday that Odell put in his bid by a telephone call from Seattle.

"I haven't applied but I'm interested in the position," said Johnny Michelosen, against football coach at the University of Pittsburgh and former coach of the professional Pittsburgh Steelers.

Bell announced Friday that Michelosen's application had reached his desk.

Odell and Michelosen predicted in separate statements Sunday that a Texas would be chosen to succeed H. N. Rusty Russell who resigned a week ago.

Bell said he would submit the lengthy list of applications to the SMU faculty athletic committee Tuesday for action.

ACC Wildcats Near Texas Circuit Crown

By The Associated Press
With the end of the season looming closer, Abilene Christian's Wildcats need just a few more victories and they'll tuck another Texas Conference basketball title in their trophy case.

Actually, there's not too much danger the Wildcats won't do this. It looks like a question of just how soon they'll clinch it.

Last week, ACC made it eight wins against no losses in league play by dusting off Howard Payne, 76-64. That gave it a three-game edge on the Yellowjackets.

In other games, Austin dropped two to Howard Payne, 89-79, 89-85, but licked McMurry twice, 85-81, 103-72. In a non-conference game, ACC dropped a 76-52 decision to Midwestern of the Gulf Coast Conference.

Monday, Abilene Christian takes on Texas Christian at Abilene and Texas A&I meets Howard Payne in the first of a two-game series at Brownwood.

Friday, McMurry and Abilene Christian start a two-game, cross-series and Austin and Texas A&I open a pair in Kingsville.

Of the regular 1952 National League shortstops, Chicago Cub Roy Smalley played the least number of games at the position. He was in 82.

Harper, Kroll Vie In Play-Off For El Paso Prize, Other Pros Head For San Antonio

By HAROLD V. BATHOFF
EL PASO (AP)—Veterans Chandler Harper and Ted Kroll play for first money in the $10,000 El Paso Open Golf Association Monday while other hotshots of the Winter tour roll on to San Antonio for the $10,000 Texas Open and its various side events.

Harper and Kroll, periodic tournament winners and usually in the money of all of them, finished in a tie for first place Sunday, each posting six-under-par 273 for 72 holes. They clash Monday in an 18-hole playoff to determine which gets $2,000 first money. The loser will take the $1,400 second prize. The two also will split one-half of the $1,500 pro-amateur at San Antonio is scheduled Monday with a $4,000 invitational pro-amateur Tuesday. The Texas Open starts Thursday and all of the linksmen on the Winter tour will be there, including Cary Middlecoff, Jimmie Demaret, Tommy Bolt, Lloyd Mangrum and Julius Boros. Jameson Nips Babe, Betsy For Golf Title

MIAMI BEACH, FLA. (AP)—Betty Jameson, San Antonio, and Mary Lena Faulk, Thomasville, Ga., walked off with top honors in the $2,500 Women's Invitational Open Golf Tournament at the Bayshore Country Club Sunday.

Miss Jameson won the professional division, taking the match and $875 first money with a par three on the fourth extra hole of a sudden death playoff.

Miss Faulk was the first among the amateurs with a sparkling 36-74 over the 6,238-yard course. This combined with her 73 Friday for a good 147.

Play among the top professionals saw Miss Jameson, Betty Rawls of Austin, and Mrs. George (Babe) Zaharias, Tampa, Fla., in a triple tie after 54 holes with 223 each.

On the first extra hole, a par five, all three got five.

On the second extra hole, Mrs. Zaharias ended up with a one-over-par five and dropped out of the match.

Miss Jameson and Miss Rawls both had par fours on the third extra hole.

On the fourth Miss Jameson holed out in three and took the match when Miss Rawls overshot the green and came up with a four.

City Transfer Can Move, Store Items Of Any Description

When it comes to moving, you can count on the City Transfer and Storage Company, now located at its new warehouse building, 2001 West Florida Street.

Gene Shelburne, Jr., co-owner of the company, said, "We even crate furious dogs and giant pianos. A few times we have had to hire a vet to get wild dogs in our crates. Yes, indeed, we've packed everything from entire offices to carloads of bricks."

And the company does its jobs well, too. It has to, since it has exclusive charter here for two great motor line outfits—the Alamo Motor Lines and the Daily Interstate Common Carrier Service. Practically no place is too far for these concerns.

The new concrete block warehouse is fireproofed and has 7,800 square feet of floor space. "The fact of our expansion shows that the people of Midland have confidence in us," Shelburne said. It was just a few years ago, in 1947, that City Transfer opened its doors.

At the new building, the phone number continues to be the same—2-3821.

Eisenhowers Attend Historic Dedication
WASHINGTON—(P)—President and Mrs. Eisenhower Sunday attended the dedication of an historic presidential document: Lincoln's draft of his first proposal to do away with slavery.

The Eisenhowers watched attentively as the Rev. George M. Docherty, pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, where Lincoln worshipped, conducted a simple dedication ceremony. The handwritten document was given to the church by Barney Balaban, president of Paramount Pictures.

Hospital Dedicates Cobalt Cancer Bomb Free Booklet On Repainting Given Visitors At Velvin's

NEW YORK—(P)—A cobalt bomb, said to be the most powerful cobalt source now in use to treat cancers, was dedicated Sunday at Montefiore Hospital.

The bomb consists of wafers of radioactive cobalt which fire X-rays at internal cancers. Its rays equal those of a 3,000,000-volt X-ray machine and give as much energy as all the medically used radium in the world. Hospital officials said the bomb is the first cobalt source supplied to a U. S. hospital by Canada. It was made in the Canadian atomic energy pile at Chalk River, Ontario.

Attempts to collect taxes on whiskey led to the so-called "Whisky Insurrection" in Pennsylvania in 1794 which was suppressed when President Washington sent troops.

Free Booklet On Repainting Given Visitors At Velvin's

Free booklet—"The Art of Making Old Things New"—will be given away here to those who are interested.

Valued at 80 cents, the books discuss repairing, announces Jim Velvin, manager of the Velvin Lumber Company, 204 North Fort Worth Street, the company which makes this outstanding free offer.

The Velvin Lumber Company is at present featuring Weldwood Plywood, something entirely new and modern but still old-fashioned in strength. Weldwood Plywood panels are very easy to install, and you can make cabinets, furniture and storage walls out of them. They will last you as long as the house lasts you, Velvin declares.

"We have a combined experience of 80 years," Velvin pointed out.

And the company does its jobs well, too. It has, since it has exclusive charter here for two great motor line outfits—the Alamo Motor Lines and the Daily Interstate Common Carrier Service. Practically no place is too far for these concerns.

Hospital Dedicates Cobalt Cancer Bomb

NEW YORK—(P)—A cobalt bomb said to be the most powerful cobalt source now in use to treat cancers, was dedicated Sunday at Montefiore Hospital.

The bomb consists of wafers of radioactive cobalt which fire X-rays at internal cancers. Its rays equal those of a 3,000,000-volt X-ray machine and give as much energy as all the medically used radium in the world.

Hospital officials said the bomb is the first cobalt source supplied to a U. S. hospital by Canada. It was made in the Canadian atomic energy pile at Chalk River, Ontario.

Attempts to collect taxes on whisky led to the so-called "Whisky, Insurrection" in Pennsylvania in 1794 which was suppressed when President Washington sent troops.

The Velvin Lumber Company is at present featuring Weldwood Plywood, something entirely new and modern but still old-fashioned in strength. Weldwood Plywood panels are very easy to install, and you can make cabinets, furniture and storage walls out of them. They will last you as long as the house lasts you, Velvin declares.

"We have a combined experience of 80 years," Velvin pointed out.

"We are equipped to give advice on any phase of construction. We have contractors that can do any size job of house-building." And not only that, reminds Velvin the company also has a "house doctor" who can do anything for home repairs.

SOVIET STOCKS UP ON LONG-RANGE BOMBERS—

The Soviet air force has completed the build-up of its long-range bomber force and is planning now to provide it with better and faster planes rather than increase its size, thinks Gen. Nathan F. Twining, vice chief of staff for the USAF. He says the Soviets have at least 1,000 long-range TU-4 medium bombers, right, copied from the U. S. B-29. One of the "newer and faster" super-bombers is thought to be the TuG-75, below, which the USAF calls simply "Type 31." The prototype of this six-engined craft is reported to have been test-flown in September, 1950, so it is assumed to be in regular production now. The planes thought to be the TuG-75 was first described by Charles W. Cain, British journalist, aviation authority and author of "Military Aircraft of the USSR."

The Russian TU-4 bomber, a copy of the U. S. B-29 Superfortress. Photo taken from a Soviet newscast acquired by the Department of Defense in Korea.

SIZE: About that of Consolidated B-36 bomber. Over-all length, 167 feet; wingspan 223 feet; weight 350,000 pounds.

POWER: Six turbo-jet engines of unknown, but "probably high" h.p.

SPEED: Estimated at 450 m.p.h., cruising.

RANGE: Estimated at least 10,000 miles.

WINGS: Swept-back, flexible, like Boeing B-47 bomber, with tremendous fuel capacity.

CREW: Probably 22 men, used in two "watches."

This is an artist's conception of the new Russian intercontinental bomber thought to be the TuG-75. It was drawn from the data brought from behind the Iron Curtain by a technician reported to have worked on its development.

Two Alarms Answered By Midland Firemen

Two minor fire runs were made by the Midland Fire Department Sunday over a comparatively quiet weekend.

A fire blamed on washing clothes in gasoline occurred at the home of L. C. Stevens, 315 1/2 South Big Spring Street, at 1:25 p.m. It was put out with little damage.

A motor on a heating unit caught fire at the residence of Dr. T. N. Houston, 1203 West Wall Street, at 6:40 a.m. It was extinguished with a carbon dioxide hand unit. Minor damage was caused.

Shivers To Study Pardon Pay Report

"If he is a state employee or official, I propose to see that all the facts are turned over to the grand jury for proper action," the governor said in a statement.

Report Shows Texas Service Roll Growing

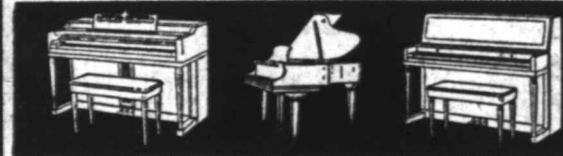

AUSTIN —(P)—Texans entering the armed services in January totaled 5,954, topping reported separations by 17 per cent.

Brig. Gen. Paul L. Wakefield, state Selective Service director, announced Monday the draft took 5,106 Texas men in the month. Enrollment supplied 3,848, with the Air Force leading in recruits. The services separated 4,992 Texans.

★ DR. JORDAN SAYS ★

Cleft Palate, Harelip Surgery Improves Speech, Appearance

By EDWIN F. JORDAN, M. D. Written for NEA Service

E. D. has asked for a discussion of cleft palate and wishes to know whether a child born with this defect ever will be really normal, and whether medical science knows the cause.

It is not possible to discuss cleft palate without also mentioning harelip, which almost invariably accompanies the former.

Now, in cleft palate there is a split in the bone and soft tissues at the center of the roof of the mouth. The failure of the bone and soft tissues to grow together occurs before birth and is therefore present when the child is born.

When the defect extends to the upper lip, harelip is said to be present. This name is used because of the supposed resemblance between the human harelip and the divided upper lip of a hare, which is known in this country as a rabbit.

The exact cause of harelip or cleft palate is not known. Possibly, in some cases at least, it may be caused by some injury during the growth period of the unborn child. German measles in the mother during the first three months of pregnancy and the appearance of congenital defects of the infant may have some bearing on this.

The presence of a cleft palate or harelip at birth not only affects the appearance of the child, but also interferes with the production of voice sounds and, therefore, results in serious speech difficulties.

Treatment involves surgery. The first step is to decide what operation should be used, and at what age it should be started. All of the operations are somewhat alike since they involve bringing the separated bones together. Dental work also is needed.

When harelip is present, the soft tissues overlying the bone, including the lip, have to be cut carefully and sewn together in a way which will bring good function and leave as inconspicuous a scar as possible.

Man Can Cover Scar

A successful operation for cleft palate and harelip greatly can improve the speech as well as the appearance. A boy who has had a successful operation can often completely ignore the past difficulty, since he has the additional advantage of eventually being able to grow a mustache to cover whatever slight scar might remain.

The improvement in the treatment of cleft palate and harelip is owed to the ingenuity and persistence of a great many surgeons. Numerous prominent persons have overcome any difficulties which might remain after surgical treatment.

TO BOOST MILITARY MORALE

New York Housewife Starts 'Note From Neighbor' Drive

NEW YORK —(P)—One day Mrs. George Blakeslee began to think of the bleak look she had seen on the faces of servicemen turning away from mail call empty-handed.

Of the young corporal, home from Korea with a wounded leg, who said: "The most important things to the men overseas are food and mail."

Of the letters from her soldier son, urging her to "do something about the apathy toward the men who are serving overseas."

Mrs. Blakeslee, chic blonde wife of a New York neurologist, reached for the telephone.

A few weeks later, representatives of 19 leading American industries met at a luncheon called to launch a "Note From a Neighbor" campaign, approved by the Department of Defense.

It is not a pen pal program—in which strangers write to strangers—but a campaign for new letters from friends, neighbors and business associates to men they know who are serving overseas.

"The apathy toward the boys who are serving overseas has been terrible," said Mrs. Blakeslee. "I felt it would do them a great deal of good if we could all make them know that what they are giving is deeply appreciated and that they are remembered warmly back home."

No committee sponsored the luncheon. Mrs. Blakeslee ran it alone. A leading American industry footed the bill, with the stipulation that its name be withheld. Mrs. Blakeslee explained the project and read commendatory messages from C. E. Wilson, secretary of Defense, and Gen. James A. Van Fleet, retiring as commander of the U. S. Eighth Army in Korea.

"This flow of spontaneous friendliness from the folks back home will add immeasurably to our morale," said General Van Fleet.

Methods discussed at the luncheon for starting the "Note From a Neighbor" campaign included points like these:

Prepare a list of the company's overseas personnel for employees to consult, but do not circulate it, lest it fall into the wrong hands.

Put a slip in the pay envelope or a notice on the bulletin board telling employees about the program and informing them that the list is available.

Give the house organ a story.

Burglars Take Silver From Bank At Bynum

HILLSBORO —(P)—The First National Bank of Bynum, 10 miles east of here, was burglarized on Sunday $500 and $1,300 in silver Sunday.

Entrance was gained to the bank by breaking in a rear door.

Boy Scout Training Outlined For Diners

The work of the Boy Scout program in developing today's youngsters into tomorrow's citizens was described Monday at the weekly luncheon-meeting of the Kiwanis Club.

The speaker was P. V. Thorson, executive of the Buffalo Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America.

Thorson explained that the main purpose of his organization is the development of men of character, trained for citizenship.

In Midland alone, he explained, the Boy Scout movement reached more than 1,000 boys in 1952 and that figure will be larger this year.

Thorson was introduced by Dr. Doyle Patton, chairman of the club's Scout committee.

President Frank Beconi presided at the meeting, held at Jimmy's Bar-B-Q.

NEXT time you hear or read advertising, just stop and analyze how it affects you.

Its purpose is to sell goods or services. More sales mean more work to be done. That means more jobs in the firm that advertises . . . and more jobs in the hundred and one firms with which it does business. It's a never-ending chain.

Now when more jobs open up, that means more security for everyone. It means promotion to many, with wage increases. It means opportunity—particularly for friends, and sons and daughters of present employees.

Whether or not you work for a firm that advertises, remember that this modern method of mass personal selling affects your company's business and its future. Hence it affects your job and your future.

Advertising, by selling goods, starts businesses humming, makes them bigger. That's how advertising affects your job. For tomorrow, it creates opportunity . . . for today, it makes your job more secure.

Other Ways Advertising Helps You:

1. Brings you better goods for less money.
2. Makes shopping more pleasant and easier.
3. Has given us the world's highest standard of living.

Advertising...^{BY SELLING MORE GOODS TO MORE PEOPLE} Makes your job more secure

More Price Ceilings Due Quick Death

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower Administration Monday checked a long list of items yet to be freed from price ceilings and started dismantling its now-defunct wage curb machinery.

In carrying out his pledge for a swift return to a free-market economy, President Eisenhower already has wiped out all wage controls and eliminated ceilings on meats, clothing, furniture, restaurant meals and a host of other things.

He has promised to end remaining price controls in a series of orders before April 30, when legal authority for wage-price controls expires. Still under control Monday were such items as:

Milk, bread and bakery products, cigarettes, cosmetics, stoves and refrigerators, lumber, most paper and cardboard, major metals, petroleum products, and such grocery store items as cereals, jams, jellies and some soups.

In ending wage controls, Eisenhower gave blanket approval to all cases still pending for government okay. This meant an immediate pay raise for perhaps a million workers.

SCHOOLWORK IS TAXING—The long arm of the income tax law is reaching into Chicago high schools. Here Estelle Kern is shown helping a Waller high school class with its income tax returns. Most of the students are merely filing to reclaim taxes withheld from their part-time pay, but nine of them earned enough to be required to pay taxes.

Windy City Cowpoke Is Top Cash Winner At Fort Worth Show

PORT WORTH (AP)—Bob Maynard, a Chicago native who earned more than $100 a second, was the No. 1 money-winner of the Southwestern Exposition and Fair Show Monday.

Other rodeo champions crowned last night were:

Bareback bronc — Ralph Buell, Buffalo, Wyo.
Calf roping — Glenn Christian, Centralia, Okla., who tied two calves in 34 seconds flat.
Saddle bronc — Clinton Hill, Elk City, Okla.
Steer wrestling — James Bynum, Waxahatchie.
Royal King, owned by Earl Albion Comanche, won the cutting horse championship.

Matthews and Miss Hollowell, on a date, had driven to a city park after a movie.

Miss Hollowell, unable to speak because of her injuries—all of her teeth were shot out—wrote out an account of what happened after that.

The gunman, she said, came to the parked car, poked a gun at them and told Matthews to drive him to nearby Churchland. Matthews agreed—on condition that he be allowed to drive his girl friend home first.

It was raining hard.

At a street intersection not far from the park, the gunman—described by the girl as a white man about 50 and stockily built—ordered Matthews and Miss Hollowell to get out of the car, but he never gave them the chance.

Matthews was shot twice. A point-blank blast ripped into Miss Hollowell's face as she tried to cover it with her hands in terror.

The assailant was gone when nearby residents found her there.

Seattle Youth Lives After Being Buried Beneath Avalanche

SEATTLE (AP)—A 17-year-old youth who spent eight hours buried in a Cascade Mountain avalanche, said Sunday, "I just kept praying and I guess it worked."

Larry Schinke was one of three Seattle boys, all 17, caught in the tons of snow that tumbled down a steep gully Saturday as they were climbing toward a cabin on an overnight ski trip.

One died. Schinke was rescued from what was his sure would be an icy grave, and the third fled from the avalanche's path and fled for help.

The dead boy was Keith Jacobson, son of Berne Jacobson, city editor of the Post-Intelligencer.

Word of the tragedy, in the Cascades 60 miles east of here, was brought out by Ed Almquist, the third member of the youthful party.

Schinke was dug out by rescuers late Saturday night, eight hours after he was entombed beneath four feet of snow an arm thrown overhead created an air pocket, allowing him to breathe. He suffered only from shock and exposure.

Ban On Narcotics, Win Asked In Iran

TEHRAN, IRAN.—(AP)—The Iranian government says paradise-seekers must get along from now without the jug of wine. And without opium too.

A bill unanimously approved Sunday by the Majlis (lower house of Parliament), demands that Premier Mohammed Mossadeq's government within six months ban the manufacture, import, sale or purchase and consumption of all derivatives. The cultivation of opium poppies must be discontinued within two years. Addicts will be given cures.

Blizzards Hamper Dutch Repair Job

AMSTERDAM, THE NETHERLANDS.—(AP)—New blizzards, driving like icy whiplashes over the Dutch floodlands, brought further hazards and misery Monday to the men repairing Holland's shattered dikes.

The wind-whipped water, snow and ice complicated the engineering problems of the ceaseless effort to mend temporarily the vast protective network before the next flood tides on February 16. Government engineers thought they could do the job.

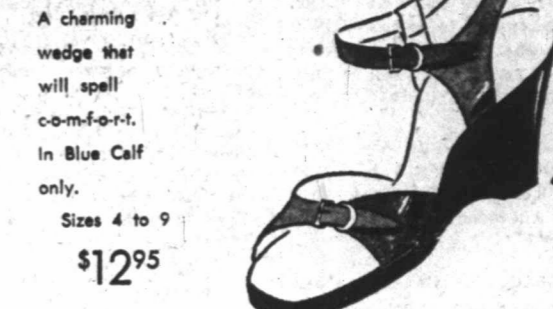

The rough weather, however, threatened to ground Dutch, American and British planes flying in vital supplies.

Despite bad weather, three of Holland's young princesses flew over the snow-framed flood areas Sunday.

Taft's Amendments To T-H Law Fails To Please Unions

MIAMI BEACH, FLA.—(AP)—The American Federation of Labor is prepared to launch a new and specialized attack on the Taft-Hartley labor law. It's expected focus on 19 or 20 major points.

AFL action will follow a statement issued Sunday by the CIO Executive Board in Washington criticizing changes proposed by Senator Taft (R-Ohio) in the Taft-Hartley Act.

The CIO said the changes fall short of "the standard of justice and fairness to labor promised by President Eisenhower" and characterized them as "pretty liberalizations... coupled with new anti-union restrictions."

A special committee of top AFL leaders has been studying the changes for weeks. Its report, based in part on answers from presidents of unions affiliated with the AFL, is reported ready for study by the AFL Executive Council.

The council is starting the second week of its mid-Winter session here at the Monte Carlo Hotel.

From authoritative sources, however, it was reported that demands for changing the act likely will include the following:

1. Permission in certain cases for unions and employers to sign what in effect would be closed shop contracts.
2. The right to engage in secondary boycotts, if they are called in support of a legal strike. The Taft-Hartley Act outlaws the secondary boycott, a method used by one union to give active support to an affiliated union on strike.
3. Elimination of the requirement that union officers must sign an oath that they are not Communists before their unions can use the facilities of the National Labor Relations Board.
4. Eliminating the 90-day injunction provision designed for use in strikes which imperils the national health or safety.

Use Of Narcotics By GI's In Korea Grows Widespread

SEOUL.—(AP)—U. S. Army and Air Force officers are worried about a new type of Korean War casualty: the serviceman who becomes addicted to narcotics.

Official reports Monday showed: Twelve to 15 soldiers and airmen are tried each month by general courts martial on narcotics charges. Most are convicted, but many offenders are never caught.

Most offenders picked up the habit in Korea, although some are former addicts who resumed the use of narcotics here because of the plentiful supply.

Korean peddlers sell heroin on the streets. Marijuana grows wild.

An agent of the Army's Criminal Investigation Division said narcotics are cheaper here than in the U. S. The military courts usually sentence narcotics offenders to one to two years in prison and discharge them from service.

Confused Red Units Shoot At Each Other In Darkness

WESTERN FRONT, KOREA.—(AP)—Two Chinese Red units fought a bitter, bloody battle between themselves recently, egged on by an American captain who directed mortar fire on each.

It started when an American raiding patrol hit a Chinese outpost under cover of darkness, shot it up and then raced back to its own lines.

The Chinese were so confused they poured rifle fire at one of their own patrols passing the Red
