Campaign Extends To Midland Schools

Midland youngsters will have an opportunity to help handicapped children this week by contributing to the Easter Seal drive. It was announced by Mrs. Robert Fitting, chairman of the Easter Seal campaign.

Easter Seal packets, through which the children may make their donations, are being placed in the schools this week, she said. The seal campaign, now being conducted in Midland by the Children's Service League, is held annually to raise funds for crippled children. Of the Easter Seal Baby funds collected 75 per cent will remain in Midland County and 25 per cent will be administered by the Texas Society for Crippled Children, Inc., with which the League is affiliated.

Currently the League is working on plans to set up a cerebral palsy treatment center here to be staffed by two physical therapists under the direction of Midland doctors and a board of directors. In the past money contributed during the campaign has been used for doctor bills, medicine, wheel chairs, braces, special shoes and transportation for children needing out-of-city treatment.

Further information on the drive can be obtained by telephoning Mrs. Fitting at 2-3019. Contributions should be sent in care of the Children's Service League, Box 1214.

Craft Group Plans Activities

Plans for forthcoming activities were discussed when the Craft Group of the Palette Club met Monday in the club's art center at 604 North Colorado Street.

The group will sponsor a china painting class in the near future. Mrs. B. W. Golladay was named chairman for the project and authorized to secure an instructor.

Members also voted to meet on Thursdays, in addition to their Monday night sessions. The Palette Club is open all day on Thursdays for people who want to paint.

Mrs. F. E. Swenson was named treasurer of the group. Presiding was Mrs. R. S. Bogardus, president and teacher for the group.

Others present were Mrs. Addison Young, Mrs. O. P. Mason, Mrs. Joe Birdwell, Mrs. B. P. Davidson and Mrs. Clarence Hale, president of the Palette Club.

Ocean steamers can sail 2,000 miles up the Amazon.

Manners MAKE FRIENDS

The custom of calling on new neighbors is all too often neglected today. Mrs. Jones meets a neighbor who has been living across the street for three months and says: "I'm ashamed I haven't been to call on you—but I've been so busy. You know how it is..." The neglected neighbor says she understands. So a lame excuse once again takes the place of old-fashioned friendliness. It is really a shame, for human beings haven't changed just because everyone today can claim to be too busy to bother about anyone else.

A newcomer will remain an "outsider" unless someone bothers to be neighborly.

HD Club Adds New Members

Two new members were added when the Prairie Lee Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday in the home of Mrs. J. C. Brooks. They are Mrs. Carl Leonard and Mrs. Jasper Proctor.

Mrs. Earl Kinsey and Mrs. L. D. Quain gave a demonstration on variety of meats, and a demonstration for new members was given on Swedish weaving on huck towels.

Mrs. W. B. Stanley gave a report on the County Home Demonstration Council, and it was reported that six club members helped to prepare and serve food at the stock show.

Mrs. O. N. Reed was a visitor for the meeting.

The next meeting will be on April 21 in the home of Mrs. J. A. C. Hughes.

Malenkov Must Prove Himself

"Caesar has no heirs." The expression means that a despot's power cannot really be transferred to a successor.

This is as true of Russia after Stalin as it is of any tyranny in history. Georgi Malenkov officially has donned the late dictator's mantle.

The very magnitude of Stalin's power, enhanced by the myth of his unsurpassed greatness and perfection, meant that none of the competitors for his place could have anything like his stature so long as he lived.

Stalin was master of the Communist Party, the Soviet government, the secret police and the Red Army.

Malenkov, his designated successor, is presumed master only of the party and government machinery. This is no minor advantage, but it is not what Stalin had.

Very possibly this agreement was arrived at in advance, to give outward appearance both to the Russians and the world of a smooth, orderly transition.

Malenkov will not be Stalin until he has made Beria, Molotov and Bulganin his absolutely faithful servants.

Nor will Malenkov be Stalin until he has built a Malenkov myth. This will not be accomplished in a moment, if it can be at all.

What can Malenkov do to create a legend for himself? Obviously, at the minimum he must hold what Stalin acquired. If China or any of the satellites should weaken the ties of Soviet empire, Malenkov will be marked a failure.

But his own words suggest his ambition is greater than merely to preserve Stalin's gains. In 1946 he said: "Greatly mistaken are those who think that one can live on the merits of the past. . . . Wise history shelves such people in the archives."

If Malenkov cannot press his rivals into genuine subservience, if he cannot construct a new myth around himself, then his present hold on the Soviet leadership will slip, and the reins of real power will pass to a stronger competitor.

Rear View Of A United Front

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Copyright, 1953, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc. Drew Pearson says: Kansas storms over Chairman Wesley Roberts; Washington reviews Roberts' job recommendations; Roberts' connections and friends are with big utilities.

WASHINGTON—While Republicans in Kansas are stewing over the lobbying activities of the new chairman of the Republican National Committee, Wesley Roberts, Eisenhower Republicans in the Senate aren't too happy about some of the new GOP appointments OK'd by Roberts.

They're not being quite so vocal about it in Washington as in Kansas, where ex-Gov. Alf Landon is comparing Roberts to Bill Boyle, ex-chairman of the Democratic National Committee. Nevertheless, some comparisons are being made here too.

Boyle, it's recalled, got a $12,500 fee in connection with an RFC loan to American Lithofold, while Roberts got an $11,000 commission in connection with the sale of a house to the State of Kansas which six Kansas ex-officials have testified belonged to the state anyway.

More important in the long run, however, are the appointments which a party chairman helps to make. Since the chairman of either the Republican or Democratic committee passes on most political appointments, his voice in shaping the destiny of the party—and the nation—can be all-important.

Most observers agree that the Eisenhower Administration got off to a good start with its initial appointments. At that time, Attorney General Herbert Brownell did the screening. Of late, he has been busy in the Justice Department and Chairman Roberts has had greater choice and leeway. Here are some of the men he has either recommended or OK'd:

Jeff Robertson of Kansas to be chairman of the Federal Power Commission in which job he would pass on oil and gas rates, vitally important to Northern consumers. Robertson immediately was opposed by two staunch Republicans, Senators Ferguson and Potter of Michigan, with the former denouncing Robertson for his connections with the oil and gas industry.

It now has developed that Wes Roberts, who backed Robertson's appointment, received a fee of $3,750 from an important gas and oil company, Citrus Service, during eight weeks in 1951 when the Kansas Legislature was in session. In this connection, Kansas Senator William Weigand has charged that Roberts actually lobbied the bill through the Legislature giving the gas companies the right of eminent domain in seizing underground storage facilities. In Kansas, Alf Landon calls Roberts a messenger boy for the gas and oil interests, while in Washington Roberts' critics point to the coincidence of Roberts' lobbying and his backing of Robertson for the key Federal Power Commission.

Ex-Congressman Albert Cole of Kansas—to be housing administrator, in which job he must pass on public housing. Cole is the darling of the real estate lobby, opposed the housing-clearance bill when in Congress, but despite this was backed by Wes Roberts for the key housing post.

Some GOP senators griped at the appointment, and Senator Irving Ives of New York, a strong Eisenhower Republican, said he was voting for Cole only on the assurance that Cole would fairly administer the Public Housing Act regardless of his earlier opposition to it.

First thing Cole did when he was confirmed, however, was to telephone Akron, Ohio, and hold up construction of an important 300-unit housing project. Craig Sheaffer, the Sheaffer Pen King—to be assistant secretary of Commerce. Sheaffer was OK'd by the Republican National Committee despite the fact that he was a backer of certain rabble-rousing interests with which President Eisenhower certainly doesn't associate himself.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By OSWALD JACOBY Written for NEA Service

Even the very best bridge players don't always make the perfect play on every hand. This is true of the average bridge player too, but there is an important difference. The average bridge player may miss the correct play in a particular situation and never realize he has made a mistake.

When the expert misses the right play, however, he eventually sees his mistake and is therefore prepared to make the right play the next time he meets a similar situation.

Bridge hand diagram showing North, South, West, and East cards. North: 103, 43, A10662, QJ83. South (D): AQJ75, AKQ86, 88, 88. West: 884, J97, K4, AK752. East: AK82, 1052, QJ753, 104. Includes a table for East-West vul. and a closing lead of K.

West opened the king of clubs, continued with the ace of clubs, and then led a low club. E. J. Mori, one of Pittsburgh's great bridge players, ruffed with the deuce of spades and declared over-ruffed with the five. "I saw too late," said Mori, in telling me about the hand, "that I had missed a very pretty play."

South next led his singleton diamond to dummy's ace and continued with the ten of spades from the dummy. The trump finesse succeeded, and South was able to draw all of the trumps with the ace, queen and jack. It was then easy for declarer to take the rest of the tricks, making his contract with an overtrick.

Since Mori is a first class bridge player, he was the first to see his mistake. It's an unusual situation, but you can bet your bottom dollar that if the situation ever recurs he will automatically come through with the winning play.

When West leads a third club, East must ruff with the nine of spades. South must use the jack to over-ruff, and this will eventually cost South a trump trick. South must enter dummy with the ace of diamonds to lead a spade for a finesse through East.

South can easily take two trump tricks with the ace and queen (East will surely cover the ten with his king), but then West will win the third round of trumps with his lovely eight.

EARTH ABIDES

by GEORGE R. STEWART Copyright 1949 by George R. Stewart. Used by permission of the publisher, Doubleday, Garden City, N.Y.

HE found the two boys in front of his own house. Three dogs were ready. A rifle-barrel was sticking out from one wagon. Ish considered for a moment. "Oh, say, Bob," he said, "run in, please, and get my hammer."

"Aah, why do you want that?" "It might come in handy for breaking a lock." "You can always use a brick," said Bob, but he went.

Ish used the momentary delay to pick up the rifle and check that the magazine was full. This was pure routine, but Ish himself was the one who insisted on it. Ish, at times when he woke up in the night, still remembered vividly the occasion when the dogs had trailed him.

Bob came back, and at once handed the hammer to his father. It was the same old hammer—that he had picked up long ago, just before the rattlesnake bit him. The handle had been weathered and cracked then, and it still was. He had often thought of choosing a new handle in some hardware store and fixing it to the head.

As a matter of fact he could just as well have picked out a whole new tool. Actually, however, he had little use for the hammer. By tradition he took it along every New Year's Day when he cut the more routine, but Ish himself was the one who insisted on it. Ish, at times when he woke up in the night, still remembered vividly the occasion when the dogs had trailed him.

Dick tried the door; it was locked. "No," he said, "this one's too new. I mean she was too new. One that was better broken in will be easier for us."

WASHINGTON COLUMN

Benson Favor's Letting Farmer Work Out His Own Problems

By PETER EDSON NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—Representatives of the U. S. dairy industry are being called back to Washington for further conferences with Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson and Department of Agriculture experts on milk and butterfat support prices.

This is a follow-up action on a conference of 13 dairy industry leaders with Secretary Benson in mid-February. It was after this conference that Secretary Benson made his decision to support dairy prices at 90 per cent of parity for another year, beginning April 1.

This decision came as something of a surprise. It generally had been expected that Secretary Benson would announce a much lower support level. In a speech at St. Paul just before the dairy support-price announcement, Secretary Benson had declared that government supports should be considered as disaster insurance only. He had said that farmers should rely more on their own devices and less on government bounties.

It later was revealed that the secretary's apparent inconsistency in finally approving continuation of the 90 per cent dairy supports was based on an appeal from the industry representatives. They asked for more time to work out some new program of their own.

The purpose of the second meeting with dairy industry representatives is to get them moving on developing their own program. It now is estimated that the higher support level on dairy prices for the coming year may cost the federal government as much as $60,000,000. Butter bought by the government and kept off the market in storage for a year would have to be converted into oil and sold at a loss, or else given away.

It was to avoid this loss that serious consideration was given to lowering the support level. A drop to 75 per cent of parity would have cut butter prices by 10 cents a pound or so.

The lower price might have increased consumption and thus reduced the surplus. This offered what seemed to be a sensible solution to the problem. It would have been deflationary. An alternative, to reduce the support level gradually, had to be ruled out because the law did not permit it. Price-support levels must be announced in advance for a full crop year.

So against what seemed to be his better judgment, the secretary announced continuation of the 90 per cent support program. This decision was made only after consideration by the new Agricultural Advisory Committee and the Eisenhower Cabinet.

But the deciding factor was the assurance of dairy industry leaders that they would work out some better plan themselves. This reliance on agricultural industry representatives to work out their own salvation without government subsidy is apparently to be a

Lions Club Elects New Officer Slate

Results of the annual officer election of the Midland Lions Club, held Wednesday noon, were announced Thursday by club officials. The officers for 1953-54 are: Duke Jimeron, president; Bob Pine, Carl Hyde and Morris Howard, vice presidents; C. E. Nelson, secretary-treasurer (elected); Victor Horn, Lion tamer; Red Roberts, tall twister; and Art West and Norman Taylor, directors.

L. V. Basham is the retiring president. The new officers will be installed at the club's first meeting in July.

LITTLE LIZ

Why hasn't someone tried to split an atom by mailing it in a package marked "froggie"?

It had once been a service station. The door was open. Inside the little office, though it was walled in glass, the sunlight filtered through in subdued yellow. Twenty-one years of fly-speck and blown dust had coated the windows thickly.

He saw the old telephone directory hanging from his book beside the long-dead telephone. As he took the book and opened it, bits of brittle yellowed paper broke off from the pages and went fluttering to the floor. He found the address of what had once been the local agency for jeep.

Half an hour later, when they came to the proper street corner, Ish looked through the dirty display window, and his heart jumped with boyish excitement at seeing a jeep actually standing there. Dick tried the door; it was locked. "No," he said, "this one's too new. I mean she was too new. One that was better broken in will be easier for us."

Sam Houston P-TA Names New Officers

Mrs. Jack Walcher was elected president of the Sam Houston Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday at a meeting in the school.

Other officers chosen were Mrs. Eld Ammerman, first vice president; Mrs. John Younger, second vice president; Mrs. William Anders, secretary, and Mrs. R. L. Hanson, treasurer.

Announcement was made that 684 persons had visited the school during Texas Education Week. Room count for the event was won by Miss Sides, Miss Penny's and Mrs. Cornett's rooms. The program, led by Mrs. J. L. Myers, featured a panel discussion on "Problems of Our Schools." Those participating were Frank Monroe, Tugboat Jones, Lucy Mashburn, Carlton Downing and Rosalind Redfern. Holt Jowell was a special guest.

John Redfern spoke to the group on the organization of a YMCA and the need for fathers to help with the Little League program. Mrs. Carlotta and Mrs. Cornett's rooms won the room count for the day.

FROM TUCUMCARI

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brown of Tucumcari, N. M., are visiting this week in Midland.

Worry of FALSE TEETH Slipping or Irritating?

Don't be embarrassed by loose false teeth slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, talk or laugh. Just sprinkle a little PASTETIN on your plates. This pleasant powder gives a remarkable sense of added comfort and security by holding plates more firmly. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (anti-acid). Get PASTETIN at any drug store.

Mrs. Goldsmith Gives Program

Mrs. C. M. Goldsmith was program chairman for a meeting of the Woman's Wednesday Club in the home of Mrs. Marion Flynt, 101 North B Street.

She discussed the history of the Midland Library Association and the Woman's Wednesday Club from the time they both were organized.

Further plans were discussed for the golden anniversary tea to be held by the club April 15 in the home of Mrs. George Glass.

A social hour concluded the meeting. Members present were Mrs. Erla Payne, Mrs. Guy Cowden, Mrs. R. L. Miller, Mrs. C. W. Chancelor, Mrs. Goldsmith, Mrs. William Kerr, Mrs. Ida Fay Cowden, Mrs. C. R. Steinberger, Mrs. Andrew Fasken and the hostess.

Officers Named At Meeting Of Lamar P-TA

Officers were elected when the Lamar Parent-Teacher Association met Tuesday in the school auditorium.

They are Mrs. T. E. Liles, president; Mrs. J. W. Baldwin, first vice president; Mrs. L. E. Noblitt, second vice president; Mrs. H. E. Wilson, secretary; and Mrs. Thurman Fyfe, treasurer.

A program was given by Brownie and Intermediate Girl Scouts, directed by their leaders, including Mrs. Raymond Nance, Mrs. Coy Knight, Mrs. Frank Papp, Mrs. Henry Anderle, Mrs. R. H. Jackson, Mrs. Walter Davis and Mrs. J. H. Ball.

J. B. Ashmun discussed plans for a YMCA in Midland, stressing the need for such an organization and pointing out how the city's youth would benefit by such a program.

During the business session it was announced that Cub Scout Pack 47 has refunded the $50 it was loaned by the unit in the Fall.

It also was announced that the unit's April meeting will include a family night supper. Tickets will be sold for 50 cents each to cover the cost of the meal.

Mrs. E. L. Chaffin, Mrs. T. E. Liles, Mrs. A. W. Ward and Mrs. A. J. Tisdale were appointed to a committee to revise the unit's by-laws.

Room count prizes went to Mrs. Grenade Peters' first grade and Nettie Jo Barton's fourth grade.

At a meeting of the executive board Tuesday morning in the home of the president, Mrs. R. B. Smith, the group elected Mrs. J. Wayne Campbell as a delegate to the district conference in April.

It was voted to contribute to the Community Ambassador project and to the fund for a national life membership for Mrs. J. J. Black.

Ferry, Motorship Collide In Channel

ROTTERDAM, THE NETHERLANDS—(AP)—The big Belgian ferry Prince Charles collided with the 6,140-ton British motorship Liantant in the English Channel Thursday but was reported returning to Ostend, Belgium, under her own power.

There was no word of any casualties.

Personal To Women With Nagging Backache

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent urination. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 10 million kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. $50-A-Week Worker Rejoices As Daughter No. 13 Arrives

PITTSFIELD, MAINE—(AP)—Lloyd Brooks looked at his newborn thirteenth daughter Thursday and decided that "if we're ever going to have a son, guess we'll have to adopt one."

But Brooks said he nonetheless was pleased with the arrival Wednesday night of eight-pound, two-ounce Lorene Avis.

When his new daughter's arrival was announced, the 37-year-old, $50-a-week textile worker dashed happily up to the delivery room of Oseopathic Hospital in Waterville shouting:

"I know it would be another girl." Both the baby and Mrs. Brooks were reported doing well. The mother, who is 37, tips the scales at 100 pounds.

The other 12 Brooks girls rejoiced that the newborn is a sister and not a brother.

The oldest, 15-year-old Eunice, exclaimed: "If she had been a boy we'd have had to send her back. Boys are always fighting."

The new baby was scheduled to be born at home but at the last moment it was decided to transfer Mrs. Brooks to the hospital because Alma, 14, came down with the German measles.

Dr. Frank E. Hascom, who delivered the baby, said Mrs. Brooks may be permitted to return home next Sunday. The baby, however, will be kept at the hospital until Alma's measles clear up.

The Brooks live in a converted schoolhouse of four rooms—three rooms and a bath downstairs and an unfinished room upstairs.

Mrs. Brooks' father, 78-year-old Benjamin Webb, lives with them. In addition the family keeps two dogs, two cats and a guinea pig.

The Brooks were married in 1927. Besides the newborn, Eunice and Alma, the Brooks children are Elaine, 13, Ervina, 11, Rosalie, nine, Janice and Janet, eight-year-old twins, Donna, seven, Hazel, five, Rae Jean, four, Eleanor, three, and Joyce Ella, 18 months. Dad and Mother Brooks expressed gratitude for gifts they have been receiving to help ease out their family livelihood. Brooks hasn't had work in recent days.

Tigers Prove Tough Enemy To Nationals

By BEN PHELAGA
Associated Press Sports Writer

When they were moving the franchises maybe somebody should have shifted Detroit to the National League.

The 1953 Tigers can beat National League teams—seven victories in seven exhibition games.

They can't beat American League teams—three losses in three exhibition games.

Last year's Tigers couldn't beat American League teams very often, either. They lost 104 times in their own social circle and finished last.

Madison-Marlowe Team

Wednesday the Tigers beat the Cardinals, 5-0. Last week they beat them, 4-9. In the two games St. Louis has managed only nine hits. Dick Marlowe, up from Buffalo where he was 10-10 last year, and Dave Madison, with the St. Louis Browns last season, gave up six Wednesday.

If the Tigers can get that kind of pitching when they start playing for keeps, they'll be beating American League teams, too.

Good pitching wasn't a Detroit exclusive Wednesday. Washington and Brooklyn both got it but the Senators got a run to go with it and blanked the Dodgers, 1-0. Walt Masterson and Julio Moreno collaborated for Washington.

Serna Hits Long Ones

Both Chicago clubs won. The Cubs edged the St. Louis Browns, 5-4 in the ninth inning at Los Angeles and the White Sox overpowered Los Angeles at Fullerton, Calif., 12-9. Bill Serna homered twice for the Cubs.

The New York Giants lost their fourth straight, this time to the Cleveland Indians, 10-6.

Cincinnati bunched five hits in the sixth inning to score four runs against the Boston Red Sox and went on to win, 4-3.

SPORTS PARLEY— Indians Discover A Player Signed Worth Two In Camp

By CHARLEY ESKEW

Dale Carnegie authored the book "How to Win Friends and Influence People" and no doubt has the personality to pick up pals wherever he goes. But if the smiling scribe would learn a lesson more, he might drop in at the first unfolding of the 1953 tent by Midland's Indians Sunday at Fredricksburg.

The boys could show him a thing or two—how to win friends and build up a ball club. Without a doubt, to be an influential Indian these days means to bring a buddy to camp.

That's what's happening. The result will be that about six new faces will join the Tribe in its Spring drills—three or four for sure.

In the long ago, Catcher Ed Menapace signed the second Midland contract which, according to the Carnegie addition system, made a total of three inked Indians—he was bringing along a rookie hurler, Thomas McCormick, from some New York college.

It is not wise to mention here that Julio de la Torre, too, is reporting soon after inserting in a recent letter to General Manager Horace Busby, "I want to tell you that I have a good catcher, if you need some catcher."

Midland, therefore, could expect one good catcher but for the saving grace of Solon McCarran whose law required all aliens to show employment papers and a $10 bill to enter the U. S. By last Midland count, though, the good catcher was being left behind for want of either requirement.

Others, though, do not face battle with the government, like Julio, and consequently will pack the Nimitz Hotel teeming full by next Monday.

A rookie pitcher, Bud Fisk, this week was signed to a Midland try-out contract on the recommendation of Woody Pennington, utility player, who has seen the chunker work.

And now, the latest one, Charles Tanner, a pitcher too. Tanner is the 19-year-old brother of Gordon Tanner, catcher, who signed this week and said he would report to Midland Sunday. Brother Charles, a right-hander, is coming along to compare his skills with the requirements of making our club.

Looks like a lot of people are bringing along a fourth for bridge, rather than setting up the '53 club. Yet who's complaining? Certainly not the Indians officials. Bridges, the chiefs say, what looks like an easy way to fill a roster may prove a boon—some gem could be uncovered by bringing all these ballplayers to training.

Manager Jay Haney has said, in that respect, "I never turn down a chance to look over a rookie. Might get a good prospect." Looking, at least, is cheap.

However, he has one suggestion to any other matriculating member bringing in a pitcher—make him a lefty.

There are 13 right-handed chunkers, but not a wongrinder in the Wigwam.

MHS Nine Opens Play At Odessa

ODESSA—Midland High School ended three years of baseball inactivity at Oiler Park here Thursday afternoon when it squared off against Odessa. Branches in the first of two non-district games.

The clash was scheduled to begin at 3:45 p. m.

Coaches Keith Bobo and Louis Grevelle had not announced their starting hurler before the game, but versatile Boyce McKnight, a right-hander, was indicated as the likely choice.

McKnight was tabbed for three innings with any of three hurlers—Snooky Roberts, Jack Harris and J. N. Steele—due to come in for similar workouts.

The Midland lineup: Jesse Hatfield, catcher; Walter Bingham, first base; Don Hudson, second base; Owen Grisham, shortstop; Billy Kiser, third base; and Bill Greenhaw, James Claborn and Gerald Holt, outfield.

Midland Thinly-Clad Set For Odessa Relays

The Midland High School track team, with its hopes cast especially on defending its 1952 mile relay title, drilled Thursday for the two-day West Texas Relays and passed out assignments to 18 of the undermen.

Coach Edwin Nixon said the same quartet which copped the mile relay title in the Border Olympics last week would be together in the Friday and Saturday meet at Odessa.

Dale Jobe, Robert Keisling, Roddy Braun and Roy Kimsley recorded a 3:32.8 time at Laredo, just three-tenths of a second off the mark, and Coach Nixon said except for one incident the team might have set a record.

The mark at Odessa is 3:32.2, four tenths of a second faster than the Midland time.

The incident at Laredo round Braun slipping above 54 seconds on his quarter-mile when he was "boxed in" on a turn. Nixon said it was one of Braun's slower quarters.

The rest of the Midland group went under 84 seconds with Kimsley anchoring the group with a $1.7 quarter-mile.

Here are the tentative assignments the Midland coach made up for the Relays (with best records listed):

- 100-yard dash—Braun (10.1) and Jimmy Watson.
- Pole vault—Terry Fuglar (10-foot-6) and Larry Palmer.
- Shot put—Lionel Crisp and Lee Wood, no marks so far.
- Discus—Keisling (41 feet) and Bill Mims.
- High jump—Orman Hubbard and Dave Moody, no records to date.
- Broad jump—Keisling and Paul

Moran, both jumping better than 20 feet.

- Mile—Bob Mace (4:34) and Tommy Spencer.
- 120-yard high hurdles—Keisling (15.6.)
- 180-yard lows—Keisling (20.2.)
- 440-yard relay—Watson, Braun, Mims and Kimsley, no record on this team since Mims joined the first four this week.
- 880-yard relay—Watson, Jimmy Hicks, Mims and Kimsley, no record.
- Sprint-medley relay (440-220-220-880)—Dale Jobe, Paul Moran, Kenneth Schrum or Hicks and Keys Curry.
- Mile relay—Braun, Keisling, Jobe and Kimsley.

The Midland team leaves for the meet about noon Friday.

SWC Baseball Clubs Set Busy Schedule

By The Associated Press

Rice, Texas and Texas A&M open the Southwest Conference baseball season this weekend. That will bring all members of the league into action, Southern Methodist, Baylor and Texas Christian having been playing for a couple of weeks.

Texas and Baylor get together at Waco Thursday. Rice meets Texas A&M at College Station and at Houston Saturday.

Texas Christian and Sam Houston State play at Huntsville Friday night.

Saturday Baylor and Texas get together at Austin while Texas Christian again plays Sam Houston State at Huntsville. Rice engages Port Arthur of the Gulf Coast League at Port Arthur.

66ers Upset In AAU Meet

DENVER—(AP)—Chet Noe, a 21-year-old Oregon collegian, outplayed two of the biggest-name centers in basketball to flip over Phillips 66ers—champs seven out of the last 10 years—in the second round of the National AAU Basketball Tournament Wednesday night.

Noe, a deceptive drive-in artist, bagged 28 points to guide unseeded Everybody's Drug of Eugene, Ore., to a 66-52 victory over the Bartlesville, Okla., club which led only four of 54 games this season.

Clyde Lovellette, last year's national collegiate scoring leader with the NCAA Champion Kansas team, and Chuck Darling, who set Big Ten scoring records in 1952 with Iowa, had only a 20-point total between them. Lovellette hooked in 12 and Darling tossed in eight.

Lovellette and Darling alternated each quarter against Noe but—fresh as they were—they couldn't stop his brilliant faking and drives to the basket that paid off with two points.

Here's the score board for the tourney:

Second round—Sampson Air Force Base, Geneva, N. Y. 71, Los Angeles (Kirby Shoes) 64; Carbondale, Ill. (Ritz Cafe) 81, Blair, Neb. (Kelly-Ryan) 64; Eugene, Ore. (Everybody's Drug) 66, Bartlesville, Okla. (Phillips 66ers) 52; Houston (Ada Oilers) 60, Denver (Murphy-Mahoney) 50; Los Alamitos, Calif. Naval Air Station 89, Mitchell Air Force Base, N. Y. 57; San Diego, Calif. (Grihalva Motors) 59, Denver (Central Bankers) 49.

Thursday's quarter-finals—Sampson AFB vs. Los Alamitos NAS; Everybody's Drug vs. Carbondale Ritz Cafe; Peoria Cats vs. Houston Ada Oilers; Quantico Marines vs. San Diego Grihalva.

Pete Cooper Salts Down Top Seminole Cash; Snead Flops

PALM BEACH, FLA.—(AP)—The winning score was the same but the Seminole Golf Club's $10,000 Pro-Am Golf Tournament had a new champion today to replace its 1952 winner, Sam Snead.

Pete Cooper finished with a 36-hole total of 138—the score Snead posted a year ago—to pick up $1,800 Wednesday. Cooper scored a 66 Tuesday but needed a par 72 on his final round.

Bunched at 140 were Al Besselink, Ben Hogan and Herman Scharlau of Boca Raton, Fla., who won $733.33 each.

Johnny Palmer, Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Texas, and Ted Kroll scored 141 to win $400 each.

Hoosiers Win NCAA Crown, 69-68, On Late Free Throw

KANSAS CITY—(AP)—Indiana's hurrying Hoosiers proved their right to the title of the nation's No. 1 basketball team by annexing the fifteenth NCAA tournament of champions banner, 69-68, over Kansas University's fiery Jayhawkers.

Coach Branch McCracken's Hoosiers did it in a furious running and shooting battle climaxed by Bob Leonard's winning free throw with 27 seconds remaining before 10,500 partisan Kansas fans in Municipal Auditorium Wednesday night.

The Washington Huskies took consolation honors, 86-69, over Louisiana State.

In winning the Big Ten champions presented McCracken with his second National Collegiate Athletic Association blue ribbon. The first one came in 1940.

The score was close throughout the furiously played game between the hard-pressing teams. Indiana led, 30-19, at the quarter, the score was tied, 41-41, at the half and the Hoosiers were in front, 59-58, at the three-quarter mark.

Don Schlundt was the bandleader in Indiana's march with 30 points. B. H. Born canned 28 for Kansas before finally getting his fifth personal foul with Indiana leading 62-61, and five minutes remaining.

The climax came when Dean Kelley drove in for a fielder that tied the score 68-all with a minute and five seconds to go. But seconds later Kelley fouled Leonard and the Hoosiers' great guard had two shots coming.

Leonard missed his first pop, but dropped in the second try.

Two Pro-Am Golf Tournaments Set Here

LUBBOCK—One tournament was slated for Midland in April and another in September as the West Texas Pro-Am Golf Association prepared its annual Summer schedule in a meeting here Wednesday.

Officials Thursday announced two months of the card, with Ranchland Hill Country Club of Midland slated to play host at the weekly pro-am April 20.

Midland Country club was not slated to entertain at one of the meets until September 30, when at the request of Pro Boyd Huff, that club asked to put near the end of the Summer swing.

The Midland Country Club has a full schedule of other tournaments and PGA qualifying rounds to run off earlier in the year.

Fryhoyer, Brewer Voted Best Players In Pecos Cage Loop

PECOS—A player from Security State, the champion, and one from the Mentone team have been nominated the best all-around players of the recently-completed Inter-City Basketball League race in Pecos.

James Fryhoyer of Security State and D. Brewer of Mentone topped the list of eight who were placed on the all-star team. The others were Charley Smith and Frank Downs of Security State, T. Hopper of Mentone, Charles Perkins and Bill Boykin of City Electric and Jim Briggs of Farmers.

The three who placed from Security State also led that team to a city championship after recording 17 consecutive victories. They later added the championship of a Pecos tournament sponsored by the Jaycees.

The two all-star leaders also won scoring honors in league play, with Brewer's 127 the high. Fryhoyer tallied 127 with Hopper making 90, Smith 78 and Perkins 78.

MHS Golfers Tangle In Playoff To Form Odessa Relays Entry

Coach Audrey Gill of Midland High put six golfers into their final rounds of a playoff Thursday to determine which four would make up the Bulldog squad at the coming two-day West Texas Relays.

Coach Gill said the top four from the playoffs would enter the Friday and Saturday tests at Odessa.

Engaging in the 36-hole inter-squad duel are Lettermen Marcelino Moreno, Lee Sneed and David Bredlove and Squadsman Luke McFarland, Dickie McHargue and Buzzy Bray.

The Bulldogs team so far has tackled Odessa twice and lost.

MILWAUKEE IN MAJORS—

NL Owners Okay Braves' Transfer

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla.—Monday, April 13. Pittsburgh, now Milwaukee is big league and Boston is a one-club town after the first major league franchise shuffle since 1903—perhaps only a sample of things to come.

The time will arrive when only New York and Chicago will be two-club cities in the opinion of owner Lou Perini of the Braves, who Wednesday received unanimous approval to move his Milwaukee franchise to Milwaukee and a 7-1 sanction to transfer his Milwaukee franchise in the American Association to Toledo.

The Boston Braves became the Milwaukee Braves when the American Association accepted a $50,000 payment for "damages" suffered by the loss of Milwaukee. The Braves were in the process of losing an exhibition game to the New York Yankees when the change was approved.

There was no solid opposition to the Braves' transfer in the National League meeting. The owners said most of the time was consumed in discussing the problems involved—particularly the schedule.

The new schedule finds Milwaukee swapping places with Pittsburgh in the original playing chart. The Milwaukee Braves will be a "western" team and Pittsburgh will become an "eastern" team in the league realignment.

As a result of the shift, Milwaukee will open the season at Cincinnati in the traditional early opener.

Marine Raiders Smash Red Unit

SEOUL—(AP)—U. S. Marine raiders, striking in pre-dawn fog and rain with flamethrowers and bayonets, smashed a Chinese company Thursday as the Reds huddled for an assault on Allied western front positions.

A Marine division spokesman said that of the 175 Communists surprised at the Chinese outpost northwest of Bunker Hill, an estimated 50 were killed and 85 wounded.

"We killed a lot of them," said one of the raiders, Pfc. William W. Wetzel of Bunking Springs, Pa. "We could hear their wounded moaning out beyond the fire."

The Marines, wearing armored vests, began their raid behind heavy artillery and tank fire. Then the men carrying the flamethrowers moved out.

"We spotted fighting holes and bunkers by the light of our own

Legislative Panels Talk Schools, Movie Prices, Divorce Law

AUSTIN—(AP)—Committee work continued at a fast pace Wednesday in the Texas Legislature.

The Senate State Affairs Committee deadlocked, 10-10, on a bill to permit Del Mar Junior College at Corpus Christi and Hardin Junior College at Wichita Falls to offer bachelor degrees. It will go to the Senate floor on minority report.

The same committee recommended, minus debate, a House-passed bill to pay the way for higher movie prices, without an additional state tax. Movie men had said they needed the bill because of increased cost of showing three-dimensional pictures.

The Senate Civil Jurisprudence Committee approved a bill to cut from 10 years to seven the waiting period before extended absences of husbands or wives could be used as grounds for divorce.

Cooked garbage for hogs—to avoid disease believed to stem from uncooked feed—was recommended for passage by the Senate's Committee on Stock and Stock Raising.

Arsenic Poisoning Kills 85 Steers, Laboratory Finds

SANDEBSON—Eighty-five Hereford type steers died from arsenic poisoning here, a San Antonio laboratory report revealed Thursday. Source of the poisoning has not been determined.

The steers were among a shipment of 205 head arriving from Spofford Monday night. Forty-four were dead by the time the unloading had been completed Tuesday. Eighty had died by Tuesday night and five more died Wednesday.

A Del Rio veterinarian performed post-mortems on two of the animals and sent samples to the San Antonio laboratory.

Originally from Mexico, the cattle were being shipped to Brawley, Calif. Serum shots continued Thursday.

Howard County Five Faces Sooners First

HUTCHINSON, KAN.—(AP)—Sixteen teams were certified Wednesday for the National Junior College Basketball Tournament here March 24-25.

Howard County Junior College of Big Spring, Texas, will meet Eastern Oklahoma A&M in a first-round game at 8 p.m. March 24. Eastern Oklahoma of Wilburton lost in the regional tournament at Amarillo but was selected to replace a regional winner that couldn't make it here.

Abusing Official Brings Suspension From Slocum School

AUSTIN—(AP)—The Interscholastic League has suspended Slocum High School in boy's basketball competition for the 1953-54 season because of alleged mistreatment of a game official.

The league's Executive Committee ruled Slocum would be barred next season after hearing testimony about events at a game between Slocum and La Poyner January 30.

The committee found that Referee Alton Allen of Athens was subjected after the game to verbal abuse and was struck by the Slocum coach, Beta Walters.

Bell Telephone Executive Finds City's Growth Amazes

A splendid future looms for West Texas in the opinion of J. M. Black of St. Louis, operations vice president of The Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, who was in Midland Thursday on a tour of his company's properties in this part of the state.

The utility executive said he was impressed greatly by what he has seen in the Permian Basin and amazed at the growth of West Tex-ing a vital service to this development.

"I have been hearing and reading a lot about West Texas and its growth," the telephone vice president said. "From what I have seen, I join in those optimistic reports I have heard, and predict a great future for this section."

"Cities in this territory, and in all of Texas, for that matter, have doubled and more than doubled their telephones in the last several years. Midland has done better than that. This city has more than five times the number of telephones it had right after the end of the war."

"At the end of 1945, this city had a little over 3,000 telephones in service, while today the figure is more than 17,000. Last year's gain alone was more than 2,500," he pointed out.

This rapid growth has brought numerous problems for the telephone company in its efforts to furnish telephone service, Black went on. He cited that the company has changed Midland's telephone service to dial operation recently, and that already an addition to the company's building here has been made necessary by growth of the city. Contract was let early this month for construction of the addition, which will double the size of the structure.

"We have been going full steam ahead ever since the end of the war trying to keep up with the demand for service," Black assured. "While we haven't fully caught up yet, we have made some real progress."

Black was joined here by W. L. Prehn, of Dallas, general manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company for Texas.

J. M. Black

as and of his company in this area. "This section, like the rest of Texas, is going through a period of rapid growth and development," Black observed. "Our company is proud and happy to be growing along with it, and to be contribut-

Midland High Band Leaves For Annual Dallas Festival

The Midland High School Band with 70 members was scheduled to leave here at 1:30 p.m. Thursday for Dallas where they will participate in the annual Highlander Music Festival.

The invitational festival, which is sponsored by the Highland Park

Public Schools of Dallas, yearly attracts bands, orchestras and choirs from all over Texas and several nearby states.

The Midland band and its director, Ralph Mills, will journey in the Bulldog bus and one chartered bus and will return Saturday night. In addition to clinic work and concerts, the Midland Band will compete Saturday with high school bands from Longview, Seagoville, Abilene, Austin and Byrd High School in Shreveport, La. The Midland band will present its offering at 9:25 a.m.

Friday evening the Midland band will participate in a band pageant honoring sweethearts of all bands present. Skippy Clemens, the Midland High School band sweetheart, will be in the pageant escorted by Don Hargrove of Midland.

Midland also has been chosen as one of four bands to give a special marching demonstration Friday night and a number of band members will participate in the festival's Grand Concert in McFarland Auditorium at SMU Saturday night.

Refugee Jet Pilot Believed Enroute To Canada Or U. S.

COPENHAGEN, DENMARK—(AP)—A young Polish Air Force lieutenant who fled his Communist-dominated homeland in a Soviet-built MIG-15 jet fighter was believed enroute Thursday either to the United States or Canada.

The Justice Ministry announced Wednesday night that Lt. Franciszek Jarewski had left Denmark. At his own request, the ministry added, his destination would not be disclosed.

Jarewski, 21, landed the speedy jet on the Danish Baltic island of Bornholm March 6. He was recognized formally as a political refugee last Monday. The Danish government, after its Air Force experts examined the plane thoroughly, had agreed to return it to Poland and it probably will be loaded on a ship this week.

Jarewski was quoted soon after he landed as saying he was fed up with conditions in Red Poland and wanted to take refuge in either the United States or Canada.

Red Cross Gifts Lagging At Crane

CRANE—Contributions for the Red Cross drive here are lagging about $1,000 short of the quota set for Crane. It was announced by Mrs. Myran Neil, chairman.

Mrs. Neil reported that $120.70 had been collected by Tuesday and attributed the slowdown in the campaign to a lack of volunteer helpers. Contributors and workers by Tuesday were: Robinson Clinic, Dean Culp; Humble Camp, Jess Davis; Court House, Ken Spencer; and Elementary School, Jim Nevins.

TO SPEAK HERE—W. St. John Garwood, justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, will address the Episcopal Men's Club at 7 p.m. Friday in the Trinity Episcopal Parish House. Members of the city's bar association also are invited to attend.

Midlanders Named Section Leaders

Ines Parker and R. C. Michener, Midland Public Schools supervisors, and Don L. Mitchell, Midland Senior High School principal, were elected recently to offices of the District IV Texas State Teachers Association.

Ines Parker, art supervisor here, was elected vice president of the Art Section; and Michener, music supervisor, was elected vice president of the Music Section.

Principal Mitchell was elected as a member of the arrangements committee to prepare for the district meeting in 1954, which will be held during March at Big Spring.

Permian Basin Oil And Gas Log—

It is two and one-half miles east of the Lindermann (McMillan) field. Rotary tools will be used to drill to projected depth of 4,800 feet. Operations will begin at once.
Deepening from 4,069 to 4,500 feet is planned at Murray Petroleum Company of San Angelo No. 1 J. M. Clayton, wildcat in East-Central Rannels County.
It is 2,025 feet from north and 1,650 feet from east lines of section 124, ET survey and one mile south of the Clayton pool.
The project had been abandoned last December.

NW Kent Wildcat Gets Gas And Salty Mud In Reef Tests

Novi Equipment Company of Fort Worth and associates No. 1 J. N. Self, Northwest Kent County wildcat, 16 miles northwest of Clairmont, is bottomed at 6,132 feet in the upper zone of the Pennsylvanian reef line and is taking electric logs. The prospector has run two drill-stem tests in the reef. They found slight shows of gas and of salt water. No indications of oil were logged.
The first test was at 6,098-6,122 feet. The tool was open one hour. There was a slight blow of air for eight minutes and it then died.
Recovery was 10 feet of slightly gas cut drilling mud.
Took Second Test
The exploration deepened to 6,152 feet and ran a one hour drillstem test at 6,140-52 feet.
Recovery was 210 feet of free gas and 210 feet of gas cut salty drilling mud. An analysis of the mud revealed that the salty taste came from salt water. There were no shows of oil.
After the electric logs are completed the wildcat probably will be plugged and abandoned.
Location is 2,173 feet from south and west lines of section 9, block B, psj survey. No official reef top has been reported. It is thought to be between 6,120 feet and 6,140 feet.

King Discovery Is Finaled In Rannels

E. K. and E. M. Burt of Wichita Falls and Abilene have finaled their No. 1-B Robert Spill as a King sand discovery in Northeast Rannels County.
It was completed for a daily pumping potential of 87 barrels of 43-gravity oil and no water.
Production was from open hole section between 2,343 feet, where 7-inch casing was set and total depth of 2,350 feet. Top of the pay was picked at 2,343 feet on derrick floor elevation of 1,788 feet.
Operators reported the top of the Saddle Creek at 2,030 feet and the base at 2,065 feet.
Location of the new opener is 260 feet from south and 3,580 feet from east lines of J. C. McLean survey No. 534 and five miles southeast of Winters.
It is also three-eighths of a mile east and five-fifths of a mile southeast of Caddo production.

Humble Is To Drill Spraberry Project At SE Midland Site

Humble Oil & Refining Company No. 1-C Louise H. Shackelford is to be a new exploration in the Driver sector of the Spraberry Trend Area in Southeast Midland County.

The drillsite is 900 feet from south and east lines of section 12, block 28, T-4-S, T&P survey. It is 32 miles southeast of the city of Midland.
Drilling to 2,300 feet for a test of the Spraberry horizon is to begin immediately.

Discovery Steeped In SE Tom Green Flows In Strawn

Taylor Oil & Gas Company No. 2-A George Foster Rust, northeast steeped to the discovery well of the Rust, South (Strawn) field of Southeast Tom Green County, flowed 39 barrels of 40-gravity oil in 12 hours.
Production was from open hole at 4,499-4,515 feet.
Testing continued.
Location is 330 feet south of the most northerly south line of survey No. 15 and 1,313 feet from most westerly portion of the Lucindy Byrfield survey No. 3, abstract 4923.

Mitchell Wildcat Is Bottomed In Strawn; DST Is Scheduled

El Capitan Oil Company No. 1 Dixon, wildcat in Southeast Mitchell County, 20 miles southwest of Colorado City, was bottomed at 6,760 feet in the Strawn reef with electric logs being run.
After the logs are taken a drill-stem test will be taken over the section of the Strawn reef drilled.
Strawn was topped at 6,720 feet, elevation 2,023 feet.
If the project fails in the Strawn 1 will be plugged back to test for shows in a Pennsylvanian sand encountered when that formation was drilled.
Location is three miles southwest of Sun Oil Company No. 1 McCabe, recently completed Pennsylvanian discovery and 467 feet from north-east and southwest lines of section 2, J. P. Smith survey.

C-E Eddy Wildcat Plugged, Abandoned

Gulf Oil Corporation No. 1 Federal-General American, wildcat in Mexico, has been plugged and abandoned and unsuccessful attempts at completion in the Pennsylvanian through perforations from 9,100 to 9,140 feet and at 9,160-9,200 feet.
Those perforations were treated with 8,000 gallons of acid.
The project was drilled to 13,341 feet in lime where it failed to find production.
Location was 660 feet from south and 580 feet from west lines of section 24-17s-29e.

Fort Stockton Area Gets Another Test

Miracle Oil Company of Lockhart No. 1 Eaton is to be a new development for the Fort Stockton field of West-Central Pecos County. It is five miles northwest of the town of Fort Stockton.
Location is 1,872 feet from north and 330 feet from east lines of section 5, block 146, T&STL survey. Drilling to 3,250 feet is to start immediately.

NE Schleicher Field Gets North Offset

Murray Petroleum Company of San Angelo will drill No. 2 Jeff Harkey one location north of production in the two-well Butler (Canyon) field of Northeast Schleicher County.
Location was staked 1,650 feet from south and 330 feet from east lines of section 76, block H, GH&SA survey. It is slated for a 5,200-foot bottom.
Operations are to start at once.

Magnolia Completes Two Midland Oilers

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 9 D. T. Bowles and No. 1-B Shackelford each have been completed as new wells in the Spraberry Trend Area field of Midland County.
No. 9 Bowles, 660 feet from south and 2,631.8 feet from west lines of section 4, block 37, T-5-S, T&P survey, was completed for a daily flowing potential of 383.4 barrels of 39.7-gravity oil through a 24 3/4-inch choke and from open hole at 7,718-7,919 feet.
Gas-oil ratio was 561-1 and tubing pressure from 200 to 325 pounds.
No. 1-B Shackelford, 660 feet from south and east lines of section 4, block 38, T-5-S, T&P survey, was completed for a 24-hour flowing potential of 281.97 barrels of 37.4-gravity oil through a 24 3/4-inch choke and from open hole at 7,271-7,381 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 1,010-1 and tubing pressure 175 pounds.

Cattlemen Reaffirm Aversion To Curbs, Supports, Subsidies

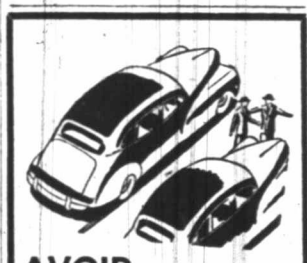

HOUSTON—(AP)—Southwestern cattlemen have ended a convention here with the assertion that "we expect and demand nothing more of our government than the opportunity to operate with freedom and fairness."
The concluding session of the annual convention of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association also expressed "strong opposition to any form" of price supports, subsidies and production controls.
Both expressions of belief were in resolutions the cattlemen approved at the concluding session.
Other resolutions congratulated President Eisenhower for the removal of "artificial price controls and compulsory grading regulations," and commended Agriculture Secretary Benson for his understanding of cattle industry problems.
Two resolutions addressed to Congress recommended:
1. That tariffs and reciprocal trade agreements be revised to remove beef import threats to the domestic industry.
2. That administration of Mexican labor contracts be transferred to the Department of Agriculture from the U. S. Labor Department.
The Legislature was asked to:
1. Approve an "adequate" appropriation for the State Livestock Sanitary Commission.
2. Approve a proposed bill which would permit landowners to receive annual fees for use of land by public utility firms.
All officers, including President T. L. (Jack) Roach, Amarillo, were reelected.
New directors elected for the association include W. W. Jones, Beeville; Toben Armstrong, Armstrong; Fred Craddock, Pawhuska, Okla.; Thomas M. O'Connor, Victoria; F. M. Wulff, Brady; Cleave Kerr, El Paso; R. A. Brown, Throckmorton; W. J. Lewis, Jr., Clarendon; and Jack Phillips, West Columbia.

TO CANADA—R. Douglas Stuart, 57, of Lake Forest, Ill., is the new U. S. ambassador to Canada. He is a former president of the Quaker Oats Co.

German Men Say American Women Are Cold, Silly, Dull.

By GRACE HALSELL
Reporter-Telegram
Special Correspondent

MUNICH, GERMANY—American women in Germany are cold and aloof, and probably frigid. So say the German men.

Many would like to date American girls working in Germany, but almost to a man the Germans say the girls stay in "tight little circles" in their American service clubs.

"How do you ever have occasion to meet them?" the Germans ask. Then, once they have met, the Germans fear the "spoiled" American girls would never be content to spend a quiet evening talking over a glass of wine.

They believe the girls are "seeking thrills" and must have money spent on them.

Here are a few reasons why German men don't date American women.

(For accuracy, the interviews largely were obtained for Reporter-Telegram readers by a German newspaper reporter. Thilo Reichardt of a Munich publication; at my request, he queried Germans on "Why Don't You Date American Girls" and here are a few answers):

Ulrich Frodion, 30, dentist:—"The American girls wouldn't even look at us with our little earnings. I couldn't treat a girl as nicely as I'd like to because of financial reasons."

Hanns Schramm, 38, street-conductor:—"I don't know how to get acquainted. They never go out alone."

Rolf Gail, 26, reporter:—"I like our girls better. The American ladies act silly, seem to be always schizophrenic, and are so hysterically unrealistic about life."

Anton Schrap, 36, physician:—"I would love to do so, but remember that it is difficult for Germans to get in touch with Americans, especially with girls. Moreover the poorest GI can furnish more money for a date than a German man will ever be able to."

Ludwig Sperr, 31, editor:—"I dated American girls several times and was delighted by their looks, though they seem somehow artificial."

Peter Drevitz, 34, lawyer:—"The girls are always well taken care of by Americans. They form big classes where a German can't get into. How should I meet a girl then?"

Gustaf Winterberger, 36, plumber:—"The Americans with their big cars certainly wouldn't be satisfied sitting all night with some glasses of beer in a quiet, nice little hang-out. They are spoiled. They would want champagne."

Gerhardt Graft, 29, a count:—"They don't appeal to me."

Detten Schielermacher, 27, stage-designer:—"They are either cold and frigid, or are sentimentally seeking sophistication and relief from their overwhelming dullness."

Quenther Popitz, 31, student:—"I haven't even got enough money for myself, how can I ever think of dating a spoiled American girl who wouldn't understand me at all, and who might try to 'sponsor' me, because it's so 'very original' to help a poor foreign student."

F. Anton, 25, actor:—"American girls seem artificial . . . and cold. They seem to have capacity for sentimentality, but not for real warmth or love."

UNEXPECTED MOVES

Forming the U. S.-Mexico border from El Paso to the Gulf of Mexico, the Rio Grande River has been known to change its course so quickly that farmers who thought they lived in Mexico woke up to find themselves in Texas.

GALLUP, N. M. — The old gods are talking in the mountains. To them and their people, the Navajo, have come the white men searching for uranium—the metal of war.

And while blasts from atomic explosions light up Navada skies, the fearful Navajo are preparing to appease the gods from whose mountain homes the war-metal was torn. Navajo nature gods provide for their people. But the things of nature must not be wasted. And they must be taken with the proper courteous ceremonies of thanks.

Uranium has brought unexpected wealth to the tribe. But to the mountain dwellings of the Talking God and his brother, the Calling God, it brought mutilations as uranium-hungry miners bored into the barren hills.

In the sacred Lukachukai Mountains of Eastern Arizona, the Navajo heard the disturbed voice of the "Ye-Ei," the souls of the living mountains.

All-Night Chanis They have scheduled a "blessing way" or "hozhooji," one of the most sacred of Navajo ceremonies to placate the aroused spirits.

Like most Indian ceremonies, it won't be held by the white man's calendar. When the moon is full, the blue Lukachukai peaks will bear the all-night chanis of the penitent Navajo.

The Lukachukai are only one range of numerous sacred peaks scattered over what once was Navajo hunting ground in Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona.

Many food experts recommend that adults consume at least one pint of milk a day.

Youth Center Chatter

By JOAN FITZGERALD

Hi! For a short time we will be taking the place of your regular reporter, Nancy Lou. Last Friday night Mary Wynn was given a surprise party and she told us she really was surprised. Mary was sixteen! Congratulations, Mary. Congratulations also to our Youth Center members of the MHS track team. They journeyed to Laredo last weekend to the Border Olympics. Dale Jobe, Roddy Braun, Robert Kessler and Roy Kimesey won the mile relay and Roy also won the preliminaries in the dash, and won the quarter-mile race. Myrt now has a new car. He got it last weekend and it is really a beautiful one. It's a red and white number. He really is proud of it. Grace Boles, Barbara McMillan and Sadie Nugent had a wonderful time at Texas Tech over the weekend. It seemed they had a nice picnic. Jane Calley is back at the Youth Center after being in the hospital last week for surgery. Glad to have you back, Jane. Shirley Green is sick this week. We hope you get well soon, Shirley. New Equipment Arrives. New pool table equipment arrived at the Youth Center last week and everyone is enjoying it no end. The boys' ladder table tennis tournament is scheduled next week, so those of you who are interested be sure and sign up with Myrt. Thanks are in order to Don Fritz for taking pictures of everybody at the Masquerade Ball. Myrt put all of the pictures on the bulletin board and everyone enjoyed seeing the different costumes. Wanda Moore and Teresa Jones were seen sitting under the seats after Vesper Choir at the Methodist Church last Sunday. Why were you so red, girls? Dona Ingham held a slumber

Benefits From Texas Rains Spotty, USDA Analysis Indicates
AUSTIN—(AP)—Farm and ranch benefits from recent rains in Texas have been spotty, the Agriculture Department said Thursday. In the High Plains, the rain was of no consequence. In the Low Rolling Plains it was better. East of a line from Wichita Falls to Abilene, moisture is now ample to carry wheat and oats well along to maturity. But all through the Northwest, more rain was needed although wheat was showing better color. The USDA survey covered conditions through Tuesday noon. Field work was stopped over all the eastern half of the state because of wet ground. Some cotton, grain, sorghum and corn was planted in southern and southwestern counties where only light rain fell. Development of early commercial vegetables were satisfactory. Range grass was starting but it still was short over the Western Plateau ranching country. Supplies To fancy up an apple pie when guests are coming, shape soft yellow cheese into small balls. Roll the cheese balls in paprika and tuck two small pieces of green leaf in the top of each. Circle the apple pie with the party cheese balls before serving.

Be Firm, Consistent In Dealing With Child's Destructiveness

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service
From time to time it seems like a good idea to devote this column to a few questions which parents have sent in dealing with problems which they have with their children. One mother tells me her nine-year-old boy is very destructive. If things don't go his way he goes into a tantrum, and when scolded or punished he laughs. He is average in school, but sets the same way there as at home. I am sure the parents of many small boys have similar experiences. It seems normal for most youngsters of this age to be destructive, but of course this should not be allowed to get out of hand. Children, like grown-ups, try to get their own way, and they take almost any method which seems to be successful. Evidently this little boy has found going into a tantrum a good way. What is needed is a firm, consistent policy so that the little boy will learn that destructive activity and tantrums do not pay. Just what method to use should be thought out carefully in advance and probably the family physician or someone else who is qualified outside of the immediate family could help in devising methods which should be followed both at home and at school. I get many letters from parents who are distraught because their children have the nail-biting habit. They ask if there is a way to stop this. It is a common childhood habit seen most often in children who are tense and emotional. It does not cause any harm to the health and most children stop when they start meeting others at a social level. Threats of punishment are out of place, but sometimes offering of a reward, if the habit is discontinued for six months or more, is helpful. It is best to be kindly and helpful about the habit and not give it an exaggerated amount of attention. Another mother asks if thyroid pills would have any harmful effects on a young baby, and for what are they usually given. Thyroid pills would not have any harmful effects unless more were given than the infant needed. They usually would be given to an infant for a condition called cretinism, which is absence of functioning of the thyroid gland. This is rare. Mrs. S. wants to know what to do about her three-and-a-half-year-old daughter who is having constipation difficulties. Regulate Her Diet. If at all possible this should be regulated by diet rather than by medicine. Once in a long while there is a structural difficulty of the bowel which is responsible for constipation in a youngster, and this should be diagnosed as early as possible. To avoid sowing the seeds for future difficulty, this problem should be taken up with the family physician or the child's pediatrician. Mrs. C. A. M. is pregnant and tells me that she dislikes milk and wonders if her baby will have sound bones and healthy teeth in spite of this.

Man Discovers Wealth In Downtown Office

Joe S. Doakes discovered a wealth of free information in the Chamber of Commerce office the other day. Delbert Downing gave him a copy of "Gardening in Midland," and Joe found that if he follows the advice in this free booklet, that deals entirely with local problems, that he is going to conserve, not only himself, but his pet.

Joe told us about it, and we got a copy. It's good. Since one of our interests is lawn-mowers, we would like to call your attention to page 18, where it says, "White Stems, developed over a lawn after mowing, are caused by a dull mower. In addition to making an unsightly lawn, it is extremely harmful to the grass." There is more, but this gives you the idea.

We've time to get your mower sharp and in tip-top condition, before the rush. Phone us.

MEMBER OF DUESSELDORF COMPANY—

Texan Finds Opera In U. S. Surpasses That Of Europe

DUESSELDORF, GERMANY—(AP)—Europe, which used to lord it over American opera, "can't touch American voices and musical training any more," says a Texas singer engaged here as the leading mezzo of the Dusseldorf Opera Company.

"Tall, brunette Elizabeth Fritchett has been singing in Europe since Autumn of 1931. She sang in Rome and in Italian Summer opera before coming here to win a two-year contract. In her spare time she has visited most of the leading opera companies of Germany and Italy and the big musical festivals where the stars of the continent gather.

Need Experience
"And from what I've heard," she said in an interview, "Europe can't touch American voices. We've got so many good voices that I've found people in Italy and Germany surprised at them and their good training. I've had Italians tell me that Americans far out-distanced them in voice and training, and that is a compliment because I think the Italians are well ahead of the Germans."

"But what American singers don't have—and what we have to come abroad to gain—is operatic experience. We can't get it at home because we don't have enough opera companies. Even our Metropolitan has only a four-months season.

Graduate Of SMU
"Often in America you hear the most gorgeous voice, and you find you never heard of the person. If only all those voices could come here and get daily experience in a 10-months season. Some are lucky enough to get it here, and in Italy, Austria and especially Switzerland."

Miss Fritchett is the daughter of Mrs. J. W. Halsell of Dallas and a graduate of Southern Methodist University. She came to Europe in 1931 on a Fulbright scholarship. Previously she had found concert, radio and television work at home.

"But when I decided on an operatic career I couldn't get enough experience at home," she said. "I feel this is necessary before taking a crack at the big time in the Met."

Lohengrin Debut
So after a year in Italy she met Prof. Eugen Szenkar, director of the Dusseldorf opera, and obtained an audition. This landed her a two-year contract as the first mezzo of this company, which ranks about fourth in Germany.

She made her operatic debut as Ortrud in Lohengrin. Now she is

Spiritual Diary for Lent

Behold, I stand at the door, and knock.—Revelation 3:20.

Today's Message
Think of the mind of God as brooding in these days over the minds of men. He has such a time with us, for He will not force His way in. "Behold," He says, "I stand at the door and knock."

It's a strange appeal in a day when the doors of human personality are battered down. Dictators' leutenants say to the people: "Have this mind in you which is also in our leader." And they have it—or appear to have it—and the dictator is satisfied. But God just stands at the door and knocks, for He seeks not an outward allegiance but a willing devotion.

Many a time the door is unanswered. Who's there in the cellar perhaps, or we peep through the window to see who's there and decide we're not "at home." Or we open the door and then firmly push it shut while He's trying to tell us His story. But the uncomplaisant God is brooding over the minds of men, knocking, seeking from them a willing devotion.

—BRUCE B. MAGUIRE
Pacific Southwest Director,
Student YMCA, Los Angeles.

Today's Prayer
Eternal Spirit, Thou wouldst not beat me into submission by Thy way, but win me by Thy love. May I answer the call of love at the door of my life and let Thee in. Amen.

Far Northern Crops Proved Worthwhile

EDMONTON, CANADA—(AP)—Far north wheat yields of 48 to 80 bushels an acre have been obtained on observation tests at Fort Simpson, 325 miles north of Edmonton.

Horticultural crops hold a primary interest in work at the Fort Simpson experiment station.

The part played by vegetables in raising the standard of living in northern communities is realized, along with the need of building up scientific data," says J. A. Gilbey, head of the station.

Daddy Ringtail

Daddy Ringtail And The Terrible Pout

The Huffen Puffen, the friendly wolf, once had a terrible pout. He had it because he decided no one thought he was really as important as he thought he was. "I am the Huffen Puffen, I think I am," said the Huffen himself. He was the Huffen Puffen, he was, he was. He was a very important somebody indeed, he thought.

Pout, pout, pout. The Huffen was pouting, you see, all with his lower lip stuck out. And how did this begin to happen?

It all began when someone said the Huffen wasn't half as important as he thought he was. "Oh yes I am!" cried the Huffen. "I am too half as important as I think I am."

Well, there he had said he was only half as important as he thought he was. But he was quite, quite sure he was really all as important as he thought he was. Not just half. "Oh no I'm not half as important as I think I am!" cried the Huffen in a great confusion.

"That's what I said in the first place," the other someone answered. "Huffen, you aren't half as important as you think you are."

This confused the Huffen more than ever. He also was upset that no one understood how important he was. Why he was about to get a complex about it, Daddy Ringtail said. Meeey me! How dreadful if this should happen—if the Huff-

Midland RRC Reports 49 New Explorations

BONER OF THE YEAR—There's an engraver in England whose face is as red as the Queen's Guards' tunics. In engraving the official coronation medallion pictured above, he got the "Z" (arrow) in "Elizabeth" backward. The boner was not discovered until proofs had been made and distributed both in Great Britain and the U. S. The entire lot had to be re-minted. There's no word on what happened to the engraver.

A total of 49 new explorations were reported to the Midland District of the Oil and Gas Division of the Railroad Commission of Texas last week.

Included in this number are 11 wildcat projects.

Ector, Hockley and Kent Counties each claimed two new prospectors. Borden, Culberson, Gaines, Pecos and Yoakum Counties each reported one new wildcat.

Andrews County led the list with six new field sites. Scurry County reported five new testers.

Three new projects were established in each of Cochran, Gaines and Ward Counties. Crane, Dawson, Garza, Hockley, Midland and Pecos Counties each reported two new locations.

The remaining projects were established one each in Glasscock, Howard, Kent, Loving, Terry and Winkler Counties.

GENERAL CASH TAXES TELLERS

PARRIS ISLAND, S. C.—Pvt. Raymond N. Cash, 17, the son of General Hubert Cash, was assigned to a recruit platoon here.

The recruit was asked what branch of the service his father had been in.

"None," he answered. "General is his first name!"

The young Leatherneck said his father frequently caused a stir in banks when he tried to cash checks made out to "General Cash."

Radio Hams Explore New Transistor Use

NEW YORK—(AP)—Radio hams are delving into a new field, that of the transistor, tiny germanium crystal device being developed to take over some of the jobs of the vacuum tube.

One of the first steps has been design of a low power transmitter operating on 146 megacycles, QST, publication of the American Radio Relay League reports. One unit was heard 25 miles away with a power supply of only 22 1/2 volts from a dry battery.

'VETERAN' OF THE AIR AGE—Tommy Whiles, experienced air traveler at the age of five, boards a plane at the Midland Air Terminal. The youngster has logged thousands of miles since age of five months. With him is a Continental Airlines hostess, Ruth Woltenmath.

Five-Year-Old Boy Travels Thousands Of Miles By Air

Tommy Whiles, five-year-old veteran of the air travel, probably has logged more flying time and distance than most adults 10 times his age.

The youngster has been traveling by plane since he was five months old. He has piled up 80 hours in the air over a distance of 17,500 miles.

Tommy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Whiles, who lives at Terminal. His father, Bill, is reservations manager for the Continental Airlines at Midland Air Terminal, which probably explains Tommy's air-mindedness.

The first trip made by the blond, blue-eyed boy covered more than 1,000 miles. It was a round trip from San Antonio to Chicago. Since then, he has not missed a year without a plane trip.

Recently Tommy made his first "solo" flight, a plane ride alone to San Antonio from Midland to visit his grandparents. He has made more than 20 air hops from Midland to San Antonio.

Tommy has done plenty of traveling in Texas by air. He has flown to Dallas, Houston, Corpus Christi, and San Antonio often.

He is planning another "solo" flight to San Antonio. Coming up on his schedule is a 4,000 mile trip this Summer.

The little boy acts just like any accomplished air traveler aboard a plane. He fastens his seat belt, and he wanders about the plane all by himself.

Tommy takes it all in stride. One of his proudest possessions is a set of pilot's wings from Continental Airlines' Junior Pilot Club.

A new development in gas refrigerators is an automatic ice maker. It freezes ice cubes without the use of trays, and automatically replaces them as they are used.

Wholesale Food Prices Rise Again

NEW YORK—Wholesale food prices, as measured by the Dun & Bradstreet food index, rose sharply this week, with boosts in coffee accounting for about half the rise. The latest index figure was 66.42, highest since the 66.44 recorded last October 7.

The figure was 27 per cent higher than the 66.29 for last week and down 1.8 per cent from the 66.54 of a year ago.

Reforestation Gets Impetus in Jordan

AMMAN, JORDAN—(AP)—Half a million trees were planted in ceremonies organized by the Jordan government last month to promote a nation-wide reforestation program. This program aims at replenishing the forests which once stood on what is now barren desert.

Under the direction of the Department of Forestry, forests already are appearing in areas completely desert 10 years ago.

Guy Lombardo To Play In Odessa Saturday Night

The Guy Lombardo Show is headed this way! Yes, Guy Lombardo and His Royal Canadians will appear in the High School Gymnasium in Odessa at 8:15 p.m. Saturday, under the sponsorship of the Odessa Chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha.

Guy Lombardo

Scores of Midland residents are expected to be on hand for the special attraction. A long-time favorite of millions of Americans, Guy Lombardo has introduced more songs which subsequently became hits than any other band leader in history. Since 1929, when Lombardo first became a "name" orchestra, more than 260 songs first introduced by the Royal Canadians have skyrocketed to the top.

It is not alone in finding new song hits that Lombardo has no peer, however. Another of his talents is digging up old tunes from his files, dressing them up with new arrangements, and putting them back on the best-seller list.

A season never goes by in which half or more of the nation's song favorites thus haven't been introduced or revived by Lombardo.

Lombardo has assembled a group of top entertainers for his 1953 tour of the nation, and all will be seen Saturday night in Odessa.

TIP FOR SPRING ADVENTURE—

Escorting Child To Circus Becomes Lesson For Adults

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—If you don't have a child, borrow one—and take it to a circus this Spring. It's a real adventure. And you'll learn a lot.

Such as:
1. A child's stomach will hold more than a woman's handbag.
2. A child has a more civilized and humane sense of entertainment than the average grown-up.

Frances and I made the experiment recently. We took our god-child, Nina, to the Polack Brothers vest-pocket circus, which raises about a million a year for the Shriner's fund to help crippled children.

Nina is blonde and five and serious and pretty. The trip to the circus was partly to help her recover from a great sadness that threatens to blight her life—her desperate inability to grow pig-tails.

Can't Keep Up
The circus began, quieting the chaos into bedlam. In the next two hours I tried gamely to match Nina's appetite. Between us we consumed two bottles of pop, two bags of popcorn, two sticks of ice-cream, a box of taffy candy and two scores of pink spun cotton candy.

"Oh, this is fun—this is really, really fun," said Nina, waving her cotton candy and leaving half of it in my hair and left ear. She loved the merry clowns and the animal acts, the trained chimpanzees, the gentle elephants, the galloping camels, the beautiful women on the prancing white horse. But the high wire walkers and the trapeze artists made her nervous. Such acts thrill adults because a misstep or poor timing may bring death to the performers.

Nina only felt sorry for them. She could hardly bear to watch them. She gripped Frances and me tightly by the hand and her little palms were damp with perspiration.

"I hope they don't fall," she whispered. She got her biggest laugh from a capering brown cloth horse that came apart and disclosed two men.

"Oh, I knew it was a trick," she said, bobbing her head wisely. "I knew there was somebody in it all the time. They didn't fool me."

As we left, I was hiccupping biliously, but Nina said she was hungry. The man with the cotton candy came by, and Frances said, "I think I'll buy some more and rub it in your hair. You have no idea how distinguished you look with a touch of pink at your temples." At the dog, Nina paused and looked back wistfully at the wonderland we were leaving.

"Thank you for bringing me, Hal and Frances," she said, politely. "It was real nice—really nice. Can we come again tomorrow?"

Baksheesh Bothers Egypt's Government

CAIRO (AP)—Premier Mohamed Naguib of Egypt has cracked down hard on "baksheesh" Baksheesh means up or bribe and for years under past governments baksheesh has been the key to almost everything in Egypt.

Through a baksheesh you could obtain a seat in a packed movie or an important government contract. Ex-King Farouk, it was charged, had helped make the baksheesh a sort of national institution. He himself is accused of having collected

Reforming VA Strips Governmental Gears

WASHINGTON—Clashing plans for the reorganization of Veterans Administration could develop into one of President Eisenhower's first major domestic headaches.

Involved in the growing dispute are the possibilities of the White House becoming embroiled in a bitter fight with the powerful national veterans organizations, a congressional probe of VA and a threatened roadblock in the new Administration's effort to cut down on federal spending.

Everyone concerned agrees the sprawling VA is in need of a drastic shakeup. That includes Veterans Administrator Carl R. Gray, Jr., Near Crisis Stage.

A soaring veteran population caused by the Korean war and evidence of a deterioration of VA's medical service combine to bring the whole subject to near crisis stage.

Just after the election, Gray announced he was launching a major reorganization of VA. Most veterans experts interpreted this as either an attempt by Gray to hang on to his job or that Gray had a commitment from the new President that he would stay.

Efficiency Study

Other VA administrators have continued in office through party changes. Furthermore, Ike is a personal friend of Gray. A railroad executive, Gray ran Ike's transportation system in Europe during World War II.

Whatever Gray's motive, his VA shakeup is now under real fire. Last year, at a cost of $400,000 Gray hired the management firm of Booz, Allen & Hamilton, to study VA's operation and report what was wrong with it.

No New Ideas

But when he explained his plan to members of Congress he stated flatly that the firm's report had failed to come up with any new ideas. Members of the House Veterans Committee are now demanding more to know whether Gray threw down the drain. And they plan to call him on the carpet for details.

James W. Cochran, Commander-in-Chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, charges that the new Gray plan "carries the earmarks of elaborate expansion, with functional duplications."

Creates New Jobs

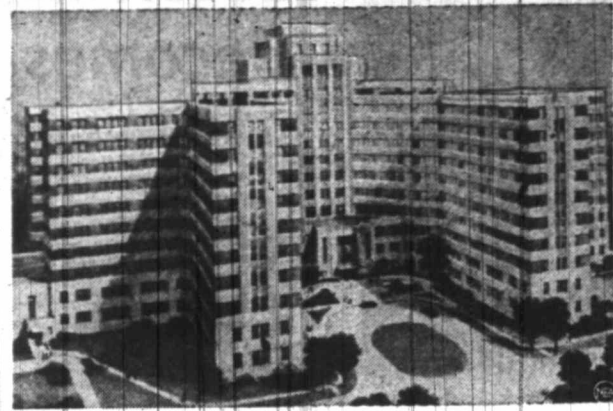

He points out that the plan "creates several new top-flight positions of deputy administrators and assistant administrators which will result in far greater overhead costs, plus adding two separate engineering services; four budget and financial officers; and four separate personnel officers."

The other veterans organizations are just about as skeptical of Gray's plans as the VFW. Their fear is two-fold: that continued inefficiencies at VA will result in a steady decrease of service to veterans; and that it will lead to increased public demands for cutting back the whole veterans program.

Bill Rallying Point

However, the big rallying point for the vet organizations, the VA and even the House Veterans Committee is opposition to the Hoover Commission plan for reorganization of VA.

Opposition to the Hoover recommendations centers on the plan which would run all federal hospitals.

VA medical program includes hospitals like this which Hoover Commission would put under a federal hospital agency.

Mrs. Hobby's Role

One American Legion spokesman declares: "The great harm of Eisenhower will not carry any weight if the President tries to take the hospitals out of VA, because we'll fight it for all we are worth."

The White House reports indicate that such a reorganization of Uncle Sam's medical services might be part of proposed legislation which would make Oveta Culp Hobby's Federal Security Agency into a government department and give her full cabinet rank.

Would Dismantle VA

Her FSA is already a holding company for the other health, education and welfare activities of the federal government. It was a card-veterans program and dismember the VA—despite a veterans population which is increasing at the rate of more than 70,000 per month—the best defense of the present program is a streamlined, highly efficient Veterans Administration.

Others Study Case

In the last several years, management studies of the VA's activities have cited the VA as one of the most inefficient agencies in the government.

The unanimous judgment is that the agency has become far too centralized, resulting in endless red tape. The management firm of Booz, Allen & Hamilton reports: "Central office executives have extended their power to the point where field officials are continually frustrated in their work by the need to make frequent and voluminous reports, and the constant visit of inspection teams going through their files."

Red Tape Abounds

Part of this central control machinery is the constant issuance of manuals and new instructions for the "guidance" of field employees.

For the education program alone there are eight long manuals, four series of pamphlets, 87 technical bulletins and 735 paragraphs of regulations and procedures, as well as a number of circulars, letters, information bulletins, telegraphic notices and VA instructions for VA field personnel.

Forms To Fill Out

In addition, there are 121 forms currently in use, along with 72 different form letters covering various subjects. GI education benefits are furnished from 70 "widespread and separate operations," according to the BA&H report, which adds that consolidation into 14 plants would add efficiency and save $4,500,000.

This general picture of top management's part in the education program is true of the other activities of VA.

Waste Pointed Out

Numerous examples of waste are cited in the VA insurance program. If vets paid premiums quarterly, instead of monthly, $5,000,000 per year in clerical costs would be saved. Commercial insurance firms have an average payment frequency of 2.5 premiums per policy per year.

Another waste is the VA practice of auditing every active account once a month. Commercial practice shows once a year is adequate.

GI Insurance Notices

Practically all GI premiums are due the first of the month. This causes peak loads at every insurance office twice a month: one for the mailing of the notice, and one for the recording of the payment.

Between those peak loads many employees have nothing to do. Spreading out premium due dates over the month would eliminate this uneconomical situation and permit the reduction of the staff.

Payment of Claims

Payment of claims to vets is the most costly VA program, involving more than $2,000,000,000 a year. It is done through 75 field stations.

The BA&H report estimates that millions could be saved by doing the job from 10 centers.

It also recommends that small disability payments be made quarterly instead of monthly, to produce another million dollars' worth of savings.

Other Recommendations

Recommendations for improving the VA's medical service involve bringing five separate units of the VA under one head. VA Administrator Gray is trying to do this, in part, with his own reorganization of the agency.

But he has rejected all suggestions to achieve savings by consolidating various offices of VA which are now scattered all around the country.

VFW's James Cochran: He sees earmarks of big expansion.

in the interests of greater economy and efficiency all the government hospital and health services should be put under that agency.

Only slightly less distasteful to the vet groups are other proposed plans for dismemberment of VA. They include turning the entire GI loan program over to a federal housing agency, giving the GI education program to the U. S. Office of Education, and making an independent government corporation out of the insurance program.

Abolish Agency

There is also serious talk about the possibility of dissolving VA completely, with the remaining claims and pension programs being taken over by Social Security Administration.

TEXAS LADY LOST 27 POUNDS

It's simple: It's amazing how quickly one may lose weight, unsightly fat—no money back. Here is a home recipe to help take off ungrainy weight and help restore graceful slenderness. Now get the improved Baracrate. Mix with grapefruit juice as directed on label and take according to directions. The watch the fat is most seen to melt off from neck, chin, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles. The improved Baracrate contains in capsules, in addition to liquid, appetite curb tablets, which help to lessen the taste buds which lie on the surface of the tongue. If the very first bottle and tablets doesn't show you the way to reduce, safely and easily, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Lost 27 Pounds

"I cannot say enough for Baracrate. It has helped me many ways. First, I lost 27 pounds. I also got rid of the fatness and bloating that made breathing difficult." Signed: Rose Warren, Box 111, Knox City, Texas.

10 Pounds Lost

"It is a pleasure to endorse Baracrate," writes Mrs. J. E. Moore, Route 4, Cleburne, Texas. "I have lost 10 pounds taking Baracrate."

Julie Steps Into Harness Of Ernie Pyle's Shetland

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—(NEA)—Julie, a seven-month-old Shetland sheep dog, is stepping into a celebrity's harness.

Julie belongs to Mrs. Ella Steger of Albuquerque, nurse and companion of the late Mrs. Ernie Pyle. Her illustrious predecessor was Cheetah, a Sheltie who shared the limelight with the late Ernie Pyle, famed war correspondent, whenever he came home to New Mexico from his travels.

When Pyle was killed in the Pacific in 1945, Mrs. Pyle gave Cheetah to Mrs. Steger.

"I had her for 10 and a half years," Mrs. Steger recalls wistfully.

MIDLANDERS BACK FROM FORT WORTH, DALLAS

Mr. and Mrs. Neil B. Steuer and Laddie Platt have returned from Fort Worth and Dallas where they attended a dog show.

Sir Lucky Chips, a Dalmatian, belonging to the Steuers, took top honors in the dog show.

ENROUTE TO ARIZONA

Mrs. Carl Cornell stopped here for a visit with her sisters, Mrs. L. M. O'Neal and Mrs. L. C. Rome, Gulf Camp, enroute to her home in Phoenix, Ariz., after a visit with her mother in Sweetwater.

TO DALLAS

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Malone and children left late Tuesday for a several days visit in Dallas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Malone.

VA insurance program, which keeps these workers busy writing checks, would become independent government corporation under one of the proposals for dismembering the VA.
