Flies Should be Kept from Contact with Food or Drink.

Thousands of children and adults die every year from diseases carried by the fly. Typhoid fever, tuberculosis, summer complaint, cholera, intestinal diseases, and frequently death follow closely in the trail of the trail of the common house fly.

"The control of the fly menace comes at the top of the list of necessary public health measures which should be applied by every city and community in the State," urges Dr. J. W. Brown State Health officer.

"The most effective measure for control is to prevent breeding," he said. Flies breed in filth, and about eight days are required to complete a life cycle. During her lifetime of several months one house fly lays from 400 to 1000 eggs. Thus it can be readily seen that in a season which usually begins in spring of the year, to descendans from one fly number countless thousands.

"To eliminate flies the breeding places must be destroyed; Manure piles, garbage, and other organic filth furnish the requirements of warmth, moisture and food necessary for the propagation of the fly. Flies should be kept from contact with food or drink or utensils in which such food and drink are prepared and served. Likewise they should be kept from access to privy vaults where they pick up infection, which they later spread to humans by contact with the food and drink and by unwashed hands and utensils.

"See that your windows, doors and porches are screened so that the stray fly from some careless neighbor places control the flies' access to your home community that will establish standards of cleanliness in your community that will eliminate the fly."

Eggs laid by pullets the first year of egg production are not worth as much for hatching as eggs laid by hens after the first year of egg production has been completed, according to J. R. Couch, poultry husbandman, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.

This statement was picked up from the press bulletin issued by the Texas Experiment Station which went on to say that not as many chicks from pullets survive rearing as compared with those from hens.

It is also brought out in this press release, that during the first laying year losses from death were 10 percent greater among the pullets from pullets than among the pullets from hens.

Barnett Asks for Same Job.

C. W. (Barney) Barnett, completing this year his first term as District Clerk of Tom Green county, has announced he will be a candidate to succeed himself in the Democratic primary for this year. He pledges the same efficient and courteous service which has been given in the office in 1934 after serving three years as the deputy in charge of office work in the sheriff's department. He resigned in 1934 to make the campaign. He first came to San Angelo 20 years ago and for four years was employed in the San Angelo National Bank. He later returned to Oklahoma, his native state, where he spent several years and came back to San Angelo in 1926 to make his permanent home.

Mr. Barnett is married, his wife is the former Miss Marie Hewitt, daughter of former Sheriff Bob Hewitt. The couple have one daughter, Joe Lu, who is attending school in San Angelo.

Texas Old Age Assistance.

This is the second of a series of questions that the people of Texas are asking. Orville S. Carpenter state pension director, answers them frankly and to the point:

Q. How many people are there in Texas past the age of 65 years?

A. 300,000.

Definitely, if Texas gave each one of these $30 a month, would the Federal government pay half of it?

A. No.

Q. If each of the 300,000 assistance, where would the money come from to pay the bill?

A. It would come only from the taxpayers of Texas.

Q. Could we pay everyone past 65 years of age $30 per month if we desired and were willing to do so without the millions that the Federal government will contribute?

A. No, we could not because the Old Age Assistance Amendment to the Texas Constitution provides for payments not to exceed $15 per month per person.

Q. Then $15 per month would be all that we could pay if we gave everyone past 65 years of age assistance without the help of the Federal government?

A. Yes.

$50,000 Exposition Hall of Religion

It's a long way from the "gospel riders" of early Texas, who carried a pistol in their holster and a rifle in their lap as they rode around their "circuit," to the $50,000 Hall of Religion now being built on the grounds of the Texas Centennial Exposition, the $25,000,000 World's Fair which opens in Dallas June 6. Religious lore of Texas over a period of 400 years will be housed in the building, which is being sponsored and built by stockholders of the Lone Star Gas Company. From the top of the building's 75-foot tower "The Eternal Flame of Life" will burn from the Exposition's opening until its close, November 29.

Dealing With Others

THE longer we live the more we shall need to deal kindly with the limitation of others. Many are doing their best, even though there are some things which they cannot do very well. Parents, teachers, employers, and all the rest of us need to be patient and kindly when we face the limitations of our friends and loved ones. Criticism will not help. "Nagging" will be out of place. Let us take certain limitations for granted, and move on with appreciation of all the other good things we find in friends.—E. B. Allen.

Italy Annexes Ethiopia, Defying the League

TRIUMPHANTLY and defiantly, Benito Mussolini formally proclaimed the annexation of conquered Ethiopia by Italy and the restoration of the Roman empire. As did Disraeli in the case of India, he made his monarch emperor of the African realm, and Marshal Badoglio was appointed viceroy.

The duce did not know and apparently care what the League of Nations would think about this swallowing of one of its members by another member.

The league council met in Geneva to deal with the question and seemingly intended merely to condemn Italy's action and then adjourn until June, when France's new leftist government will be in power. First, however, it decided, over the protest of Baron Pompeo Aloisi of Italy, to keep the question on the agenda; and because Wolde Mariam, representative of Ethiopia, was permitted to take his seat at a closed sitting of the council, Aloisi stalked out of the room. This was his statement to the delegates:

"I have the honor to declare that the Italian delegation cannot admit of the presence at the council table of the so-called Ethiopian delegate.

"There exists, indeed, no semblance of organization of the Ethiopian state. The only sovereignty existing in Ethiopia is that of Italy.

"All discussion on the subject of the Italo-Ethiopian difference would, consequently, have no object.

"Therefore I find myself obliged to refrain from participating in the discussion."

Mariam told the council the greater part of the country west of Addis Ababa remains free and independent and continues to defend itself, and the council still considers that Emperor Haile Selassie's government is in existence. For the present, apparently, there will be no move to lift the sanctions against Italy.

Prime Minister Baldwin of Great Britain refused to tell questioners in parliament what attitude his government would take now in the matter of recognizing Italian sovereignty over Ethiopia.

Four Navy Radio Men Rewarded for Bravery

THE four navy radio men who manned the transmitting set in the American legation at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, keeping this government informed of the rioting in the Ethiopian capital and helping fight off bandits, are to be advanced in rating for outstanding conduct.

This decision was made by the bureau of navigation at the urgent recommendation of Minister Cornelius Van H. Engert, who in a message to the Navy department praised them "for commendable zeal and efficiency in the performance of duty under unusual and difficult circumstances."

W. E. Tanner, acting chief radio man, will be made chief radio man effective August 15. W. L. Pitts, radio man first class, will be given a course of instruction after his return to the United States to qualify him for the same rating. C. F. Cavanah and J. W. Anslow, radio men second class, will be promoted to radio men first class.

Leon Blum's Program for France Given

LEON BLUM, leader of the National Socialist and organizer of the "popular front" of leftists that won the recent French elections, will be practically the dictator of France when Premier Sarroul and his cabinet resign on June 2 and the new government takes office. Blum laid down this four-point foreign policy program which he said the nation would follow at least until the next election in 1940:

1. Adherence to the League of Nations.
2. Consolidation of European peace.
3. Promotion of mutual assistance pacts.
4. Progressive disarmament.

Speaking to the national Socialist council Blum said: "We must consolidate the country against Fascist attacks. We must put the republican spirit in all high administrations, and we will deprive the Fascists of all secret means of propaganda."

Ickes-Hopkins Feud Moves to Senate

SECRETARY ICKES' supporters were easily defeated by the Harry Hopkins forces in the house fight as to whether the Public Works administration should share in the handling of next year's relief funds. But it was understood the feud would be revived in the senate under the leadership of Senator Hayden of Arizona, Democrat and a member of the appropriations committee.

The house majority voted according to the wishes of the administration on the relief bill, which is a $2,334,229,712 measure carrying $1,425,000,000 to finance the Works Progress administration after July 1.

In addition to the relief appropriation, the bill carries $458,631,860 for the social security program, $39,900,000 for the Tennessee Valley Authority, $400,000 for continuing the communications commission's telephone inquiry, and various new and deficiency amounts for other agencies.

The most important amendment permitted to be added to the bill by the house leaders was one submitted by Representative William P. Connery providing that the prevailing wage in communities be paid to WPA workers. The Hopkins organization will pay out approximately the same sum per man per year, it was explained, but will work the men only one, two, or three days a week where they formerly worked four, five and six days each week.

In a surprise move the house also voted to bar aliens "illegally within the limits of the United States" from receiving jobs under the WPA program. Most of the opposition came from two radicals, Vito Marcantonio of New York city and Gerald J. Boyleau of Wisconsin.

Ickes signified his acceptance of defeat in the battle for funds by ordering an immediate cut of 25 per cent in PWA personnel in Washington and throughout the country. This affects 2,000 persons.

Senators Seek Compromise Corporate Tax Bill

OPPOSITION in the senate finance committee to the corporate profits tax in the administration's $803,000,000 revenue bill was so strong that both Democrats and Republicans sought for some compromise. Treasury officials were heard in favor of the measure as passed by the house, but former treasury officials and various business and industrial leaders speaking in opposition were seemingly more persuasive. Senator Tom Connally of Texas put forward a plan he thought all might agree upon. It would retain the 15 per cent corporation income tax and repeal only the capital stock and excess profits taxes, instead of repealing all corporation taxes as proposed in the house bill. In addition it would superimpose a graduated tax on undistributed earnings, exempting the first 20 per cent on the amount retained. The house bill reaches a maximum of 42 1/2 per cent of the total income if none is distributed.

Senator Byrd of Virginia, another of the Democrats opposed to the house bill, showed, in a letter to Secretary Morgenthau, that 11 of the largest corporations in the country would pay no taxes under the Roosevelt bill.

Landon Ticket Loses in California Primary

CALIFORNIA'S Presidential Republican preference primary, eagerly awaited by the whole country, resulted in the defeat of the Landon slate of delegates that was put forward by William R. Hearst and Governor Merriam, with Landon's tacit consent.

The winning delegates, backed by Herbert Hoover and nominally pledged to Earl Warren though uncommitted, carried the state by a majority of about 90,000. Mr. Warren announced at once that he released them from their pledge, to vote as they see fit in the convention.

This looked like a blow to Governor Landon, and to a certain extent it was; but his managers claim at least 18 of the delegates will go over to the Landon on an early ballot. Moreover, many friends of Landon deprecated the fact that Hearst was supporting him, believing it would do him more harm than good; and they were glad to see him freed in part from what they consider an incubus.

Democrats voted almost solidly for Mr. Roosevelt. Upton ("Epic") Sinclair's ticket received something over 100,000 votes, and that of John S. McGroarty, Townsend plan supporter, about half as many.

In South Dakota a slate of uncommitted delegates favoring Landon won over a ticket pledged to Senator Borah, though the margin was slender.

American Red Cross Meets in Chicago

SOME two thousand delegates were present when the annual convention of the American Red Cross was opened in Chicago by Admiral Cary T. Grayson, the national chairman. Speakers at early sessions included Mayor Ed Kelly, and Ralph Christian, school-boy of Birmingham, Ala., representing the Junior Red Cross. Mrs. Elizabeth H. Vaughan, a nurse of St. Louis, was awarded the Florence Nightingale medal for her long record of service.

Dr. Thomas Parran, Jr., the new surgeon general of the United States public health service, was present and made a speech, and talks were delivered by Robert E. Bondy, director of national disaster relief, and others who directed activities in the flood and storm areas.

Yellow cream cheese spread on buttered wafers and browned in a moderate oven makes a very good accompaniment, to serve with appetizers, soups or salads.

Two thicknesses of heavy brown paper are much better than a cloth to use when pressing. Sprinkle paper with water and iron until dry. News-papers may be used instead of brown paper.

Peat keeps soil around azaleas cool, moist and porous during the hottest days in summer.

When making small buns or cakes, flour the tins well instead of greasing them. This plan is much less expensive and the cakes never stick to the tin.

AMAZING NEW STOVE USES 96% AIR-4% FUEL

Housewives Everywhere Now Can Enjoy Modern Gas-Cooking Service At Low Cost, Thanks to W. C. Coleman's Invention

Utilizing the principle of carburization used in present day automobile engines, W. C. Coleman, noted inventor and pioneer manufacturer of gas-pressure appliances, has invented an amazing new cooking stove that makes its own gas from ordinary lead-free gasoline.

An ingenious device converts liquid fuel into vapor gas—then mixes it with fresh, live air so that the fuel, when it reaches the burner, is actually about 96% air and 4% vapor gas. This remarkable invention has effected fuel-saving economies which, combined with the heating efficiency of the Coleman patented Band-A-Blu Burners, makes the new Coleman Safety Range cheaper to use than wood, coal or kerosene.

Housewives everywhere express appreciation for the convenience, safety, economy and beauty of a stove which provides cooking equalling that of the finest city gas range.

Readers of this paper wishing full information about these wonderful Coleman Ranges will receive beautifully illustrated literature and a valuable stove check card by addressing a postcard to Mr. W. C. Coleman, Dept. WU-237, Wichita, Kansas.—Adv.

Now What Excuse Does Prof Suppose Senior Will Use?

The reason he didn't have his theme, explained Fred Lemmer, University of Minnesota senior, was because his typewriter broke down. There had been other alibis, recalled Prof. Edward Weaver. "The next time," he supposed, "I suppose you'll tell me your house burned down." Without his theme the next time, Lemmer said: "Sorry, professor. My house burned down." It did, too, firemen affirmed.

STAR DUST Movie • Radio

By VIRGINIA VALE

IF YOU'D like to see a motion picture that has everything, be sure to be on hand when "Under Two Flags" is shown in your neighborhood. It's great! Ronald Colman donned his Foreign Legion uniform again for this one. Claudette Colbert gives a fine performance, and so do Rosalind Russell and Victor MacLaglen. In fact, the whole cast is good. And the story! No doubt you're familiar with it; it has been popular ever since Ouida wrote it, years ago.

Now that the reticent Garbo has broken down and talked and been photographed and been interviewed by reporters, almost anything can happen. Arriving in New York on her way back to Hollywood from Sweden, she made no effort to dodge newspaper men. She did her best to give a good interview but was so nervous that it was almost pitiful. After all, facing cameras and reporters is no easy thing to do; it's an art, one for which most of our movie stars almost go into training.

Garbo

Microphone fright is a strange thing, as the news reels show you over and over again. Take the case of Nellie Grainger, the air line hostess who showed such remarkable courage when the plane she was working on crashed not long ago. Her bravery saved two lives. But when she posed for the news reel boys she was so frightened that she could hardly speak!

Sylvia Sidney wanted to dodge the people who appeared to interview her when she traveled from Hollywood East, but she had a good excuse—make-up poisoning, an ailment that causes a good many of the stars to suffer, and in some cases does lasting damage.

Want to enter a beauty contest, girls? If you do, you'll be interested in knowing how at least one experienced judge works. He is Max Factor, Hollywood's make-up king, who has judged more than 1,400 beauty contests during the 27 years he has been in Hollywood. Here's the way he picks winners.

Skin and complexion get 15 points. Regular, well-formed features especially large, clear eyes, count for 15 more. Five points for soft, well-groomed hair, and five for slender, well-manicured hands. And 15 each for a well-proportioned figure, graceful carriage, a pleasant, vibrant personality, and inherent intelligence and poise.

These are the days when a talented child is a better investment than stocks, bonds or real estate. The greatest difficulty is that, provided you have the child, you've got to be a talented parent as well, for success is likely to spoil the child, and then movie and radio contracts go by the board.

Young Walter Tetley, who is fifteen now, and began his career when he was six, has the right kind of mother; consequently he is now heard on about 12 important network radio shows each week—Town Hall Tonight, the March of Time and Showboat among them.

Buck Jones experienced one of his worst moments recently in Max Factor's studio. Buck is planning to do his next "western" in color, and wanted some advice on make-up for it, so he went, naturally, to Factor, who has specialized in Technicolor make-ups ever since Hollywood began going color-mad; he's responsible for the realistic effects in "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine." Buck Jones And though Buck has been in pictures for years, he was embarrassed almost to death when he walked into the salon and had to tell the hostess, in front of a lot of beautiful ladies of the movies, just why he was there.

Radio has done something to Fif D'Orsay that Hollywood couldn't. Her fiery temperament used to be the bugaboo of the directors for whom she made pictures, but when she gets up in front of a microphone, with some 20,000,000 people listening in, she doesn't dare blow up. No matter how she rages inwardly, she goes on without a break, and usually by the time the broadcast is over the rage is gone, too.

ODDS AND ENDS . . . Spring may be here, but Paramount is getting ready for autumn by making a football picture . . . Bette Davis rushed home to Hollywood from her New York vacation, just in time to be asked to take a three-weeks' layoff, without pay . . . It's all in her contract; she works forty weeks a year . . . John Boles has just signed a new contract with Paramount, which calls for $50,000 per picture . . . Think of the income tax he'll have to pay!

Divided Skirt and Shorts Combination That Equips the Young Lady for Sports

PATTERN NO. 1875-B

You know yourself that half the enjoyment of any sport is spoiled if you aren't correctly dressed, and really there's no excuse for not being equipped for any active sport when a model such as illustrated is so easy and inexpensive to make.

Instead of the divided skirt, you may have shorts if you prefer, for the pattern is perforated at just the proper length. Notice the small sketch.

The Spirit of Jefferson

By RAYMOND PITCAIRN
National Chairman
Sentinels of the Republic

"Since the days when Jefferson expounded his code of political philosophy, the whole world has become his pupil."

Many Americans undoubtedly recalled that tribute during the recent birthday honors to the author of our imperishable Declaration of Independence.

How well, one wonders, do those of his pupils who wield political power today, remember the teachings of the Sage of Monticello? How faithfully do they apply his principles? Let's recall—for them and for ourselves—some of the precepts that Thomas Jefferson left us as a guide. Here, in his own words, is a record of his answers to many of the problems which confront us today—

Our Constitution

"I do, with sincere zeal, wish an inviolable preservation of our present Federal Constitution according to the true sense in which it was adopted by the states."

"No Constitution was ever before so well calculated as ours for extensive empire and self-government."

Public Debt

"Taxation follows public debt, and in its train wretchedness and oppression."

Economy in Government

"I am for a government rigorously frugal and simple."

"We must make our election between economy and liberty, or profusion and servitude."

Centralization of Power

"It is not by the consolidation or centralization of powers, but by their distribution that good government is effected."

"Were we directed from Washington when to sow and when to reap, we should soon want bread."

Personal Liberty

"A wise and frugal government, which shall restrain men from injuring one another, which shall leave them otherwise free to regulate their own pursuits of industry and improvement, and shall not take from the mouth of labor the bread it has earned. This is the sum of good government."

Freedom of the Press

"Our liberty cannot be guarded but by the freedom of the press, nor that be limited without danger of losing it."

The People

"If we can prevent the government from wasting the labor of the people under the pretense of taking care of them, they must remain happy."

"So long as our public men—and we, ourselves—remember those teachings, the spirit of Jefferson lives. When we forget them, that spirit dies—and with it the true spirit of America."

The Growth of Bureaucracy

By RAYMOND PITCAIRN
National Chairman
Sentinels of the Republic

During the past five years the population of the District of Columbia, seat of our national government, has increased more than 25 per cent.

No state, or group of states, has approached that rate of growth during the same period. It compares with a population increase of 3.9 per cent for the nation as a whole.

What caused the jump? A recent report of the Census Bureau, whose estimates supply the figures, attributes it to an unprecedented peace-time influx of Federal employes to jobs in the scores of new bureaus and commissions functioning during the past few years at Washington.

These are significant facts. They introduce an arresting element of novelty in the American picture. Except during the brief emergencies of war-time our most striking growths heretofore have occurred along what might be described as our geographical and industrial frontiers.

Population increased at the swiftest pace in states where new and productive lands were being developed by agriculture; in cities where new and productive industries were originating and expanding.

Inevitably such growth meant greater opportunity for the men and women who took part in the development; greater wealth for the nation and its citizens as a whole.

But an unprecedented increase of job-holders at Washington has quite a different meaning. It shows only a growth of Bureaucracy. Unlike the men and women who, by their energy and their labors, continue to develop America and to bear the costs of its government, many political job-holders produce little or nothing. They consume, instead—out of the share of all men and women who labor in the home, on the farm, in the factory or in business.

And the greater the number of those who merely consume, the greater the burden on those who produce.

Christoval 25 Years Ago.

The following local items are clipped from the Clever dated in 1911:

Harry Petsch, with his pack of hounds last week, chased a bob cat and a coon up the same tree and captured both.

M. A. White has traded his irrigated farm north of town to H. E. Jackson for a residence in Miles.

A lamp exploded upstairs in the Holland hotel last Saturday night, and by prompt work it was extinguished with very little damage.

The Presbyterians and their friends will give a "pounding", at the residence of Mrs. Laura Hill tomorrow night complimentary to their pastor, Rev. W. Sha'p. All are invited to come and bring a pound.

Mrs. V. M. Bowen and daughter, Miss Fannie, and Miss Lu'pie Gowen visited the San Angelo fair Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Carl and three children of Fendleton, Bell county, are visiting Mr. Carl's sister, Mrs. B. T. Welch, and family. Mr. Carl, who is a merchant in his home town, purchased an irrigated farm a few weeks ago as an investment, but since he has seen it and the Christoval valley, he has concluded to hold it, and we have hopes of having him as a citizen. He is very favorably impressed with our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Barnes are visiting Mrs. B's sister, Mrs. J. T. Reasonover, while attending the San Angelo Fair.

Allen Palmer of Eldorado was here Wednesday greeting his old friends.

New Mexico, and is erecting a cottage on the property.

Byrd Hill and Robert Freund returned Monday from a hunting trip in the wilds of the Pecos river. They brought home six deer and the head of an eight-point buck, which Mr. Hill (who is an inexperienced hunter) says was the largest deer he ever saw. Bob Freund stated that the deer acted like they had never seen man before, but they were quick to make a get-away. Ducks and quail were plentiful and they were well pleased with their successful trip.

Oscar Shelton, who, with Wil DeLong, is hunting and trapping in the Chisos Mountains in Brewster county, writes for the Observer to be sent him at Marathon, which is his base of supplies.

Harry Petsch, Louis Jones, Nick Carter, Alex Simmons and Charles Riley passed through town Wednesday morning with a fine bunch of Suffolk and the celebrated Quarter-horse breed of horses owned by William Anson of the Head-of-the-River ranch.

Dan and Charley McCrohan, who have been assisting Mark Fury with his branding, were in town Tuesday.

Miss Mabel Holland gave a masquerade party Thursday night of last week to her Sunday school class and their invited friends. The young folks enjoyed the fun of guessing who was who, after refreshments were served.
