BUSINESS CLUB WILL MOVE ITS HEADQUARTERS

PROPOSITION OF THE SAN ANGELO CLUB FAVORABLY RECEIVED AFTER LONG DISCUSSION.

PAID SECRETARY TOPIC GOES OVER

Members Go On Record as Favoring the Raising of a Bonus to Attempt Establishing Packing House.

A postponed meeting of the Business Club was held Monday night and the attendance was large.

Under the head of communications the president read the answer of President Davidson of the Frisco, announcing receipt of wire sent him relative to the proposition of the Frisco coming here.

A party in Kansas wanted to know if a bonus would be paid for an overall factory. The letter was referred to the manufacturing committee with instructions to go after the enterprise hard.

Alfred Hulsey had a letter on file asking for bonus information relative to a proposed railroad from Cisco to this place. The letter had been answered to the effect a proposition was wanted. The letter was referred to the railroad committee.

President Broome called attention to the committee appointed to induce the city council to establish a grade line and urged that some action be taken.

The San Angelo fair committee was requested to submit a written report of money collected by the next meeting, so as to show same on the minutes of the club. The same action was taken with reference to the Dallas fair committee.

A whole raft of members of important committees were absent, curtailing the usual number of reports.

Club Rooms.

Under the head of new business, the proposition from the San Angelo Club, to supply headquarters for $30 a month for the club, in the enlarged quarters. The matter was received with some silence and George E. Webb finally broke the ice by declaring the Business Club ought to have a home of its own. He thought the offer ought to be carefully considered. The only obstacle he saw was a financial one. "One of the troubles of our club," he said, "is we are not putting enough money in it."

In reply to a question, President Broome said the finances show $62.94 in the general fund and $266.01 in debt and pasture fund, and the club's debts aggregate between $500 and $600. The club has 291 members and there are 113 names past due, the same being more or less hard to collect.

"We must have more money and more money to run the club properly." The secretary is of the belief he can collect $194.50 of the uncollected dues without much trouble.

Mr. Anderson declared the people here don't realize the importance of the club and he favored making the club larger and bigger.

The question of the best method of increasing the revenues of the club was discussed at some length and it was finally decided to refer the matter to the board of directors to recamp the rules so as permit heavier dues from volunteers.

Accepted.

The proposition of the San Angelo Club was accepted, after many nice and well deserved things had been said about the organization.

The question of paying the incidental expenses in connection with the Morgan Jones proposition was discussed at great length. It was finally moved by R. Wilbur Brown that a committee be appointed to assist the secretary to collect back dues for the purpose of meeting such outstanding

OUR THREATENED PLAGUE.

The signs of the times and the temper of the chief executive all indicate that Texas is to be afflicted with an extra session of the legislature in January.

Months ago The Press-News predicted that this extra session would be called and at the time it cited the belief of Jeff D. Cox, a member of the legislature from Rockwall county, and one of the shrewdest and best posted men in the state, to the same effect.

The purpose of this extra session will be to pass a law that will be a bait to the advertisers of San Angelo are not frustrated that the outcome will prove expensive, if not ruinous to the advertisers of San Angelo.

Gov. Campbell's real object in calling the legislature of the 31st house and senate in extraordinary session will be for two things:

1st. To so amend the laws as to force railroads to pay proportionately a greater amount of taxes than all other interests.

2nd. To pass a 2-cent passenger fare law.

The Press-News believes that the first is unjust and that the second is not only unjust, but unwise.

When the intangible tax law was passed it provided that intangible values, the amount of which is fixed by law specifying conditions governing intangibles, should be paid in full. In the Katy case the courts held that railroads should be taxed equally with other interests.

The court held, and to the mind of The Press-News justly held, that it was not in the province of the legislature to make fish of one kind of property and fowl of another kind for purposes of taxation.

The situation is squarely up to the people here. We are with you, if you are with us. We don't want blandishments; we want demonstrations.

Col. Roosevelt is paying his own expenses while hunting in Africa, says a press report. How lucky it is to have a "Brother" Charley.

By the way, the time is drawing near when the census will be taken. Let's do our duty now to see that San Angelo makes the proper showing.

Have you ever read the lines of the poet who wrote "Thrash away, you'll have to rattle on that kettle drum of yours; taint a knowing kind of cattle that is ketched with mouldy corn."

It should be remembered that all mercy is not justice and all statements are not sworn to. The man who is honest is the man who wins life's race. The tortoise beat the rabbit. Watch us grow. We keep our eyes open all the time. We know the difference between shams and sweet-toned sounds.

Bully for Robert Lee. The people of that hustling and deserving place are going to the mountain instead of waiting for the mountain to come to them. That's about the quickest way to get a railroad, any way.

The enterprise of the merchants of San Angelo is forcibly reflected through the advertising columns of The Press-News. Merchants who know that competition is a stimulant to induce them to put forward their best foot appreciate the value of proper publicity—and, well, just read The Press-News today from cover to cover and you will find yourself well paid for the time used.

A WORD PERSONAL.

There comes a time in the affairs of all men when the desire to commune with neighbors, with friends and with acquaintances holds sway. Such a time has now come when The Press-News.

The Press-News is not dallying with a theory. It is face to face with a condition, a condition so heroic that it must be met with a heroic candor.

When The Press-News was acquired by the present management, but little aside from mechanical assets and a more or less disorganized business plant, was obtained. New money—not San Angelo bonus money, either—new blood and new ideas were poured into The Press-News.

As success began coming as a result of the efforts put forth, a green-eyed aspect was given the local newspaper situation. A morning edition of the contemporary newspaper was announced.

There is not room in San Angelo for three daily newspapers. There is room here for two newspapers. The morning opposition merging its identity with its evening parent has made a rate of 12 1-2 cents an inch for space in both papers.

The Press-News will not cut its throat by meeting this rate. The Press-News believes that if the plans that resulted in this rate being offered as a bait to the advertisers of San Angelo are not frustrated that the outcome will prove expensive, if not ruinous to the advertisers of San Angelo.

The Press-News is not complaining. The Press-News intends to occupy its present field as long as the people of San Angelo express a desire to have two newspaper plants here. But The Press-News wants this desire to be a material substance, not an ethereal vapor.

Now if George M. Bailey, the man with the soft pedal larynx and cultivated eye for the beautiful, who indites the charming sonnets and so forth that cause the editorial page of the Houston Post to blossom forth each day like a mint bed in Kentucky, could come to San Angelo and whiff these glorious days and gorgeous nights, we would then have some one competent to compose an epic poem worthy of the great inspiration.

The American people despise Peary because he denied to Cook the glories of being a discoverer and sought to get a monopoly on that game; the Standard Oil company finds itself in hard lines in many states on account of its gobbling qualities.

Be a man in the conflict, not a mouse in the hole. Be a soldier in the army of the common people, not a camp follower living on the bounty and misfortunes of the arm-bearers.

Down at San Angelo, where there is a greater per capita of enthusiasm and energy than in many other towns, the hustlers have found time, in spite of their fair and their auto races and the busy season in the wool crop, to start a movement of great importance.

The fact that it will be pushed forward to success. The objects of the congress are briefly set out as follows in The San Angelo Press-News:

1. Bringing the entire West together in one general organization that united and concentrated efforts may take the place of individual undertaking.

2. Diffusing information throughout the state, and elsewhere, concerning the resources, conditions and needs of the West, to the end (a) that the northern, eastern and southern parts of the state may know of our country as they know that of every other section; and (b) that those sections may be made to feel that we are of the same flesh and bloom—that our prosperity is their gain and our needs their wants.

3. Attracting, by united and systematic effort, as well as individual energy, people to populate our unsettled prairies and capital to develop our undeveloped resources.

4. Improving our educational facilities.

5. Forming committees, if need be, to properly present such appeals, if any, which the West might desire to make to the legislature, such, for example, as the need of experimental farming stations throughout the West for the benefit of the many, many men of small means here, and coming here, to till a new and strange soil.

6. Uniformly improving and bettering the public roads and highways.

7. Encouraging railroad building over all the West.

8. Doing everything possible to promote the welfare of the farmers and the farming interest of the West, realizing that our ultimate well being depends on the agricultural development of the country.

The fact that several local and district organizations are now working to accomplish practically the same results as those hoped for by the proposed congress, should not prevent any one who is interested in West Texas from joining in this newest move. All such organizations are good things, and all should co-operate in hearty spirit.

The congress can and will accomplish one thing. It will bring all these enthusiastic West Texas workers into elbow-rubbing proximity. They will exchange ideas and brag about each other's towns. It is a good thing for the citizen of Midland to learn that Abilene now has a brand

Paris, Oct. 25.—I understand several American women have been the victims of an extraordinarily ingenious blackmailing scheme which has been exposed by the arrest of two of the gang of scoundrels by the Paris police. One of the gang, who possessed the manners and appearance of a gentleman, would take up his residence in a fashionable hotel, where he would work his way into the favor of women who were staying there alone. His attentions were of the most correct and straightforward character and seldom failed to win for him the high regard of his victim.

From the ordinary courtesies and attentions of a fellow guest this man would by slow and insidious methods lead up to the stage at which he and the lady would take short walks into the town. A little later these would be extended, until by slow degrees the man would succeed in taking the woman for a long ramble in the woods or on the hills.

While out on such an expedition they would be confronted apparently by two police officers—in reality two disguised accomplices of the man—who made certain accusations against the couple. This of course they stoutly denied, but the "police" showed every intention of taking the couple to the nearest station, where they would be charged. Only the production by the man of all the money he happened to have upon him would cause the "police" to consider the matter, but they invariably decided that the bribe was insufficient.

Thereupon the innocent woman would also empty her purse into the hands of the two "police," and often followed this by taking off all her jewelry and throwing that in with the money.

On these terms they were allowed to go, the "police" promising that no scandal would follow.

But the blackmail did not end here. Hardly had the unhappy woman regained her hotel when the two "police" officers would call on her and appeal for help on the ground that they had been dismissed for accepting the bribe which the woman and her companion had given them. As a rule further money was paid.

The swindle was only discovered when an American woman who had fallen into the hands of these rogues went to the chief of the Paris detectives and told him the whole story.

A cure for the dreadful sleeping sickness seems to have at last been discovered, as the experiments conducted at Dakar on the principles laid down by Dr. Laveran of this city are reported to have proved satisfactory. Dr. Laveran first discovered that the malady was due to a parasite. The next step was to find the preventive measures for the persons afflicted with it. The credit of leading to the discovery is given to an American, Dr. Evans, who used an emetic of aniline. This treatment was followed here and applied at Dakar to a number of cases. In each instance there was an immediate improvement after the first application, and in a short time the patients were entirely cured.

A surgical operation of a most extraordinary character is reported from Constantine, Algeria. During a quarrel between two workmen one was stabbed in the heart and taken to hospital, apparently dying.

Dr. Martin gave him chloroform, and having broken three of his ribs, cut into the heart's envelop and removed three and a half ounces of clotted blood.

Then, taking the heart in his left hand, the doctor pulled it out until he saw the wound. A pressure of his hand on the heart made it beat more strongly, but irregularly.

Dr. Martin made three stitches and put the heart back again. The man is still alive and there is every hope of his recovery.

Some letters have been discovered from which it appears that the author of "The Three Musketeers" was madly in love with the celebrated actress Rachael, who, however, did not return his affection. They first met in 1828 when the play of Dumas' "Mademoiselle de Belle-Isle" was produced, but he seems to have been too busy at the time to trouble about the tender passions. In 1843, however, Dumas met Rachael once more at Marseilles and at once tried to storm her heart with ardent love letters. Unfortunately for him, her affections had already been bestowed upon the diplomatist Walewski, an dall that he got for his pains was to be told not to be a fool.

It is doubtful whether anything ever recorded concerning the methods adopted by suicides in putting an end to themselves equalled in horrible determination the case of the young Josephine Kipoché at the Theater Moncey, who absolutely gave herself over to fierce lions to compass her death. Her action was inspired by a quarrel she had had with her sweet-heart, an assistant at the menagerie. To carry out her purpose she examined the lions, and stretching her arms through the bars of the cage, was devoured by them. The animals seized the woman's arms, mauled her on the face and breast and tore her shoulder away. The body was recovered in a terrible condition.

During the coming year the eminent composer, Julius Massenet, will be president of the Institute of France. Since the middle of the last century only one other musician has enjoyed a similar distinction, and he was Ambrose Thomas of delightful "Mignon" fame. Thomas was once more president in 1865, and again in 1890. M. Massenet, who quite apart from music, is a man of the highest general culture, will no doubt be a worthy successor to his great musical colleague.

M. Lefort, president of the Academy of the French Dancing Masters, has invented a new dance, which is likely to become the most popular dance of the coming season in Paris. It is called the "Aeronette."

The couples take positions as for an ordinary waltz, and the first measures are danced to rapid gallop time with a forward movement, intended to represent the start of the aeroplane. The rising of the flying machine from the ground is indicated by the dancers raising their arms above their heads as though to imitate the flight of a bird. Then the dancers take a few steps in advance, and the "aero-plane in the air" is shown by means of a gliding step, the partners at the same time swaying their arms slightly to and fro to imitate the movement of the aeroplane while finding its equilibrium. This is repeated several times. The "Aeronette" ends with the "descent of the aeroplane," of which the couples give a realistic imitation by vaulting lightly from one foot to the other and inclining the head. The new dance, which is described as "graceful and tout-à-fait mondaine," was warmly applauded by the assembled professors.

The prefect of police, Mr. Lepine, has just held his annual review and parade of police dogs in the courtyard of the city barracks. M. Lepine entered the courtyard and all the dogs, at a sign from their policemen keepers, gave the three regulation barks. Some of them barked four or five times more than was necessary.

The animals were then put through their paces. A man got on a bicycle and pretended to try to escape. A dog, which had first been carefully muzzled, was sent after the fugitive. The animal, finding that it was unable to use its teeth, kept furiously butting into the bicycle and did not leave off until it had succeeded in knocking the machine over.

The dogs eventually formed fours and marched past the prefect, much to the delight and amusement of the privileged onlookers. The animals turned about with marvelous obedience at the word of command. M. Lepine ordered extra rations of bones as a reward for the dogs' intelligence.

The Paris municipal council has recently turned its attention to the fraud of the pretended poor. About 400,000 are expended yearly in pensions for incurables and destitute old people. It has now been discovered that an immense percentage of this money has been wrongly spent on people who do not need it and who are often wealthy. For years past money has been paid out to "incurables" who were cured long ago, to "cripples" who are well and strong and to "destitutes" who are perfectly well off.

Now that all these frauds have come to light, the municipality hopes to economize on fully half of its pension list.

ANNUL

Father of Eloping Bride Says Fictitious Names Were Used.

Canton, O., Oct. 25.—Alleging that fictitious names were given in the application for a marriage license here, Rev. J. R. Jacob, pastor of the First Methodist church at Massillon, said tonight that he intended to seek an annulment of the runaway marriage in Pittsburg of his daughter, Helen Lucille, 29 years old, to H. C. McIlwain of New York City, traveling salesman for a motor car house.

The pastor was informed of the wedding by a special delivery letter handed to him in church during preaching and he cut his sermon short to go to Pittsburg, where he found his daughter and brought her home with him. Mr. McIlwain declared that a business deal made it impossible for him to return to Massillon at once. He went to New York City, saying he would return to Massillon to join his bride immediately.

The elopement followed the meeting of the young people early last week. Miss Jacob left home, saying she intended visiting a Canton chum. A telephone message next day revealed that she had not been with her friend and the letter announcing the marriage in the personage of a Rev. Mr. Giles in Pittsburg followed. McIlwain and his bride were found in a Pittsburg hotel registered under assumed names.

"My daughter does not want to live with him now," said the pastor tonight. "Oh, I was not in my right mind," sobbed the girl when her father brought her home.

BOARD.

After Furnishing It Brother-in-Law Crager Decides to Sue For It.

New York, Oct. 25.—Joseph Crager, a retired merchant, has brought suit against his brother-in-law, Joseph Cohen, a real estate man, for $39,000 for board for twenty-six years. Cohen left Crager's home in West 180th street, on August 1 last and went to the home of another brother-in-law in Mount Vernon because he had tired of paying $25 a week board to Cohen for the last year.

Cohen got the Cragers to come here from Carbondale, Pa., in 1883, and the complaint states that Cohen has had good board with them ever since. Cohen says in his defence that he has made his will in favor of Crager's two daughters, who run the house, and that it was understood that he was not to pay board on that account.

Probably there is no class of merchandise on which you must depend so much on the integrity and business honor of a store as when buying Drug Store Goods. HINDE'S ELEVEN READY FOR GAME

Having nearly enough men to start the Fort Concho football team, H. K. Hinde will begin practicing right away.

"We have one of the best football coaches in Texas, and are going to have the best team in West Texas," said Hinde Monday. "A. Keene, of Georgetown, is here and he is a crack player. Last year he caused Southwestern to win fame by his fine coaching, and he intends to do the same thing here this season. Besides him, there are several fine players in town, among whom is Hubert Beyette, the fastest quarterback in the state.

"Already we have several games on hand and one of them will be played Saturday with the college. The college has an idea that it can beat all the teams around here, but its day will be a thing of the past when we get in the ring."

Mr. Hinde was elected captain, Joe Spence manager and Keene coach.

Runaway.

A horse driven by W. T. Kingston became frightened and ran down Chadbourne street. At the corner of Chadbourne street and Twohig avenue he crashed into two vehicles owned by W. H. Allen and J. W. Hazelwood and left but very little of them. Mr. Kingston was thrown to the ground and bruised about the head and face, but luckily no one was seriously injured.

Educational Society.

The Woman's Educational Society will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the First Methodist church, and the executive board will meet at the same time.

Horses and Mules.

Webb Christian and J. W. Christian shipped two car sof mules and horses Monday, the horses going to Temple and the mules to Parsons, Kan.

Picnic.

With a happy heart and a smiling face the Abbott High School students will leave Tuesday afternoon for Hoskin's ranch to spend several hours on a picnic. The affair is in charge of Mrs. Abbott and one of the most enjoyable times of the season is looked forward to.

The time will not be spent solely in enjoyment, for the senior class is going to spend a few minutes of the time botanizing.

Mrs. Astor Wants Divorce.

Publishers Press. New York, Oct. 25.—Mrs. John Jacob Astor, wife of one of the biggest hotel men in the world and leader of Four Hundred club, has sued for divorce.

H. S. Bonner arrived in the city Monday from Dallas. He is now in the employment of Thomas Cochran, general insurance agent of that place.

Souvenir Set of Majestic Ware Free!

IF YOU will call at our store during our Majestic Demonstration Week and allow us to show you the many advantages and superior qualities of the Great and Grand Majestic Range, and will purchase one at the regular price, we will give you FREE the beautiful and useful Souvenir Set of Ware illustrated in this advertisement. This ware is made to match the quality of the Majestic Ranges, and we know all ladies will see the beauty and utility of this set, especially the first three pieces, which are entirely new and can not be had alone by purchase, except at a very high price. The prices of Majestic Ranges are the same, but we give the set FREE with each Majestic Range BOUGHT DURING DEMONSTRATION WEEK, ONLY.

Reasons Why the Great Majestic You Should Buy

First—it has the reputation of being the best range money can buy.

Second—it not only has the reputation, but IS the best range made, and we will prove this to us if you will let us.

Third—it is constructed of malleable iron—material you can't beat—and of charcoal iron—material that resists 300 per cent greater heat than steel—is riveted together air-tight. No heat escapes or cold air enters range; thus uses very little fuel to do perfect work.

Fourth.—The reservoir alone is worth the price of the range over any other reservoir made. It boils 15 gallons of water, is heated like a teakettle, with pocket against left-hand lining, and is movable and sets on a frame, hence can not wear out. When water gets too hot it can be moved away from fire.

MAJESTIC RANGES use less fuel, heat more water—and heat it hotter; cost practically nothing for repairs; last three times as long; bake better; easier to keep clean and give better satisfaction than any other range in the market. If you knew positively that the above statements were true, wouldn't you buy a Majestic at once? COME IN DURING DEMONSTRATION WEEK AND WE WILL PROVE IT TO YOU.

Roundhouse.
With about 150,000 brick on hand, the Orient construction gang will start work soon on the brick part of the roundhouse. This is only a partial amount of the brick that will be used in constructing the building and about 200,000 more are expected in any day. The exact number of brick that it will take is hard to tell, as yet no real estimate has been made for that part of the work.

Paid Secretary.
The proposition of a fully paid secretary went over until the new phase of financing the club is perfected.

Mr. Atwood urged promptness in closing up the hospital matter, on account of danger of losing the institution. Dr. March, a member of the committee, presented indications he would get busy.

Orient Hospital.
The question of soliciting the Orient to establish a hospital here was carried easily. A committee will be appointed to this end.

E. E. Bailey suggested the $90,000 subscribed for the Morgan Jones road be turned over to a packing house. It was emphatically stated this money could not be diverted, but the club went on record favoring a packing house, if one can be secured. A bonus of enormous size could easily be raised.

Mr. Broome, in reporting the Morgan Jones road, said Col. Jones stated he would not sign until the Paint Rock road is developed. Col. Jones is of the opinion the Santa Fe has bought the Paint Rock road. He may become a live issue again in San Angelo.

After considerable desultory discussion, at times quite lively, about railroads, the following new members were elected: Edgar S. Hamilton, William Forrest, Will Rau, D. J. Burk, Dr. Menzies, James Farr, G. I. Carmean, B. L. Thorne, W. C. Blanks, H. C. Sandifer, A. L. Armour. Three cheers were given for the new members and the meeting adjourned.

Orient Work.

"Fine, fine," said Master Mechanic McLain of the Orient Monday afternoon in commenting on the progress of the mechanical work that is going on in San Angelo.

"The work is being done in superb style and everything is certainly getting along nicely."

After mashing down on a goodly portion of a nickle plug of "navy" that he held in his left jaw, Col. McLain expressed himself in regard to San Angelo.

"This is the best place on the Orient between here and Wichita, Kan, and this city has got that one jumping

Roundhouse.

With about 150,000 brick on hand, the Orient construction gang will start work soon on the brick part of the roundhouse. This is only a partial amount of the brick that will be used in constructing the building and about 200,000 more are expected in any day.
The exact number of brick that it will take is hard to tell, as yet no real estimate has been made for that part of the work.

The proposition of a fully paid secretary went over until the new phase of financing the club is perfected.

Mr. Atwood urged promptness in closing up the hospital matter, on account of danger of losing the institution. Dr. March, a member of the committee, presented indications he would get busy.

Orient Hospital.

The question of soliciting the Orient to establish a hospital here was carried easily. A committee will be appointed to this end.

E. E. Bailey suggested the $90,000 subscribed for the Morgan Jones road be turned over to a packing house.
It was emphatically stated this money could not be diverted, but the club went on record favoring a packing house, if one can be secured. A bonus of enormous size could easily be raised.

Mr. Broome, in reporting the Morgan Jones road, said Col. Jones stated he would not sign until the Paint Rock road is developed. Col. Jones is of the opinion the Santa Fe has bought the Paint Rock road. He may become a live issue again in San Angelo.

After considerable desultory discussion, at times quite lively, about railroads, the following new members were elected: Edgar S. Hamilton, William Forrester, Will Rau, D. J.
Burk, Dr. Menzies, James Farr, G. L.
Carmean, B. L. Thorne, W. C. Blanks,
H. C. Sandifer, A. L. Armour. Three cheers were given for the new members and the meeting adjourned.

noon in commenting on the progress of the mechanical work that is going on in San Angelo.

"The work is being done in super-getting along nicely."

After mashing down on a goody

he held in his left jaw, Col. McLain expressed himself in regard to San Rock Island.

 New York, Oct. 25.—The report of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway company for the year ended June 30 last shows a balance available for dividends amounting to $6,156,000, which is $1,488,000 in excess of the same item in last year's report. The gross earnings were largely increased and the operating expenses did not grow in proportion. There is a surplus carried to profit and loss amounting to $2,236,000 as against $788,000 in the year 1908.

Operating expenses amounted to $42,513,000, as against $42,136,000 in 1908. The increase was more than accounted for by an appropriation for maintenance of way, structures and equipment, considerably in excess of $1,100,000. Transportation expenses, so-called, fell off $752,000.

The net operating revenue, after the deduction of taxes, which were $481,000 greater than in 1908, stood at $15,400,000, as against $14,553,000 a year ago. The increase was 12.56 per cent. Interest, rentals, hire of equipment and other items left a balance available for dividends amounting to $6,156,000, as compared with $4,718,000 in 1908, an increase of 20.69 per cent. After the payment of dividends at the rate of 5 1/4 per cent, a surplus was left of $2,236,000.

OPEN SEASON GAME HUNTING BEGINS NOV. 1

Synopsis of New Law.

It is unlawful to kill deer from the first day of January to the first day of November, or any female deer of spotted fawn at any season of the year. It is unlawful for one person to kill more than three buck deer during the months of November and December. It is unlawful to kill turkey from the first day of April to the first day of December or more than three turkey during the months of December, January and February of each year. It is unlawful to kill any doves or quail between the time embraced from February 1 to November 1, or for any person to kill more than twenty-five of each during the months of November, December and January. It is unlawful for any person not a bona-fide inhabitant of and resident citizen of Texas for six months last passed to kill any game without first procuring a hunting license from the game commissioner, said license costing $15.

It is unlawful for any person to kill game, except in the county of his residence or in the counties adjoining the county of his residence without procuring a hunting license from the game commissioner or county clerk. Such licenses cost $1.75.

Any person found hunting in the open season and who shall refuse to show his license to any deputy game commissioner or peace officer is liable to penalties provided under the game law.

On November 1 the open season for hunting game, protected by the laws of Texas, will begin. It is for the benefit of those who may have become confused relative to the amended game laws as enacted by the Thirty-first legislature that the above extracts are taken from the new game laws and published. The synopsis covers the more important features of the law and the provisions, which if not complied with will result in trouble because of the intention of the game commissioner of Texas to enforce the game laws to the letter this season.

The various changes brought about by the last two seasons of the legislature relative to the game laws of this state have caused no little worry on the part of hundreds of residents of this city, and while the new regulations have been dissected by the more expert sportsmen, there are many even now not acquainted thoroughly with the provisions of the game law as it stands today.

Judging from the activity already manifested in this city with the near approach of the hunting season, the deer and game birds will doubtless be much sought after during the next sixty or ninety days, the open season for doves and quail extending until the last day of January next year.

It has been no uncommon sight during the last few days of the present month to find many taking down the shotguns from the racks or out of the cases, giving them a thorough oiling and such care as is necessary to put them in first class condition to be used when the proper time comes. The shops of the local gunsmiths is another indication that bespeaks of the approach of the open season. At these various places the employees are now and have been for the past two weeks working almost overtime in repairing guns damaged during the last season. The demand for fowling pieces and ammunition at the local sporting goods establishments shows that preparations to seek game in the surrounding territory will be carried on this year on a very large scale.

The time has already arrived when parties are being formed to spend the first few days of the open season in the surrounding pastures and woods.

Inquiries made during the past week from farmers, whose lands are located within this county show that game is unusually plentiful. Deer this season, according to reports, are many, and in splendid condition. Notwithstanding quail last season were rather scarce in many sections of this and surrounding counties, there is every reason to believe that the supply this season will be all that could be expected, farmers reporting that they are to be seen in large coveys almost constantly. While doves have been plentiful in this section, it is said they are fast disappearing. This fact was predicted when the game law was amended, making the open season begin the first of November instead of earlier. Much objection has been raised to fixing the opening so late, as at this time the doves have practically left this section.

NOVELS.

Bought for $4000 from Old Servant Who Thought Them Valueless.

London, Oct. 25.—J. Pierpont Morgan has bought the original manuscripts of the late George Meredith's novels "Diana of the Crossways," "Lord Ormont and His Auntie" and "The Amazing Marriage," paying therefor the sum of $4000. Meredith gave the manuscripts to an old and faithful servant, who served him for thirty years, but who received no legacy in the author's will, which stated that adequate provision had been made for him.

The owner of the manuscripts did not know, however, until quite recently the value of his possession. Indeed, it seems that he only treasured the manuscripts as gifts from his employer, hardly understanding that they were valuable at all. It is said his wife was more than once on the point of throwing them away. It was only by fortunate chance that an admirer of Meredith heard of the existence of the manuscripts and arranged for their sale.

They were in bad condition, disarranged and time-worn, but after much labor they were collated and found to be nearly perfect, except "The Amazing Marriage," of which eight chapters are missing.

paign has been determined upon to eradicate the little parasite.

Dr. J. C. Bloomfield, president of the city board of health, has been examining the students at the request of the faculty, and he reports that at least 30 per cent of the boys are suffering from hook worms.

Many of those examined, Dr. Bloomfield said, are members of wealthy families, which, in his opinion, discredits the belief that the disease is only prevalent among the poor.

Some of those afflicted with hook worms are members of the university football team, and physicians say that the hook worm is undoubtedly responsible for the poor showing the team is making, as one effect of the parasite is extreme physical sluggishness.

Since Dr. Bloomfield's report the faculty has been looking into class standing of those afflicted with hook worms, and in every case their standing is lower than those who are free from hook worms.

Stockmen on Trial.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 25.—George Sabin, Thomas Dixon, Edward Eaton, B. Brink, M. A. Alexander Charles Ferris and William Keyes, prominent cattlemen of the Big Horn country, were placed on trial at Bason, charged with the murder of Joe Alameda and Joe Emge, sheep owners, and Joe Lazer, a sheep herder. These men were slain in the Spring creek raid on the night of April 2, when herds of sheep were killed and maimed and the bodies of the men burned in the camp wagon.

JOSS PAPER.

The Way This Popular Chinese Material is Manufactured.

The principle districts in the Yangtze valley in China in which the manufacture of joss paper is carried on, Sonshing, Ningpo, Hangtschau and Futschau, lie to the south of Shanghai. Young bamboo trunks are placed in ditches in layers with a covering of lime between them. The ditches are sometimes as large as thirty feet wide and ninety feet long. Water is poured over the mass and the contents allowed to remain until the trunks have rotted, which sometimes takes as long as three months.

After the lime-water has been drawn off the mass is placed in a ditch provided with stirrers, where it is washed. The reduction to fibers takes place in mills drawn by buffaloes. After a second washing the material is ready for the mold of the papermaker. In China as well as in Japan the mold consists of fine bamboo sticks. For this reason the paper is always ribbed.

The product is squeezed in wedge presses, dried on a board and then covered with tin. The pulverized metal is strewn over the sheets and hammered between the fibers with hammers of soft wood. The chief difficulty lies in this hammering, and in spite of the thinness of the paper the Chinese attain a shining surface of tin. The paper is packed in bales of 3,000 or 3,200 sheets.

QUEER JAPANESE FISH.

One That Uses Its Fin as a Sail—How the Dorado is Caught.

One of the most interesting of fish of Japanese waters is the oriental sail fish (Histiophorus orientalis). The generic name, given by Dr. Guenther, means the sail bearer and refers to the huge dorsal fin possessed by the species.

The fin stands higher than the body above it and is used as a sail before the wind. It is a large fish, ten feet in length and weighing 100 pounds. They swim about usually in pairs in rough and windy weather, with the huge fins above the water.

It is a favorite food fish, and the annual catch is nearly 2,000,000 pounds. The sail fish is caught by means of a harpoon.

Another food fish, known as a dolphin or dorado, is sometimes caught in a curious way. The fishes congregate under a decoy bush and raft made of bamboos and are then caught by hooks baited with squids, or the decoy bush is surrounded by a seine net, and the dolphins are driven by beating the surface of the water with sticks. This fish is eaten both fresh and salt and is as great a favorite in western Japan as the salmon is in the northeast.—Zoologist.

Scotch Sabbath.

For traveling, trading and all the things one must not do on the Sabbath, Scotland, of course, must ever hold the palm. Not in the seventeenth century alone, but through all the ages and even unto the present day the Scotch Sunday has a law unto itself. There is the experience of James Payn, for instance, in the Edinburgh of only the seventies. "In the street where I first resided," he wrote, "it struck me that to judge by the drawn down blinds the people spent a good deal of their time upon the seventh day in bed. On my second Sunday, however, I was undeceived, for my landlady came up and informed me that, though she had not spoken of it last Sunday, she must now draw my attention to the fact that it was not usual in Edinburgh to draw up the window blinds on the Sabbath and that the neighbors had begun to remark upon the 'unlawful appearance' of her establishment, which had heretofore been a God fearing house."

Heat as a Healer.

Heat is one of the most important of stimulants to living cells. The hot bath is the commonest means of applying heat as a therapeutic agent and is useful in a great number of conditions, especially to plethoric individuals and in advanced tuberculosis. The usefulness of local applications of hot water is well known. The general hot douche is a remarkable means to bring blood to the surface of the body, to accelerate the circulation, etc.—Exchange.

Oak Mark For Government Surveyors.

The sky line north of Mountain Home, Ark., rises in two long curves, then flattens out and leaves in silhouette above the crest of what is known as Wallace knob a solitary tree. It is such a strikingly lovely tree that no visitor to the town fails to notice it and ask how it got there. Then he hears that several years ago the government engineers decided to find out the exact fall of the land from Denver to Atlanta, Ga. Wallace knob on account of its elevation was chosen as one of the three chief observation points in a huge triangle. To mark this knob with a conspicuous object to sight at all the trees on it were cut off but this one marker. It is an oak fifty or sixty feet in height.—Kansas City Star.

REAPER THINS RANKS OF VETS

REPORT OF PENSION BUREAU SHOWS SUBSTANTIAL LOSS.

OVER HALF MILLION

During Last Year 51,581 Names Were Dropped From Uncle Sam's Rolls, However.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Death's invasion of the fast thinning ranks of the war veterans caused 48,312 names to be dropped from the pension rolls last year. Of this number 32,831 were survivors of the Civil war. The total loss to the pension roll from all causes was 51,581.

In striking contrast to these figures, comprised in the annual report of Vespasian Warner, Commissioner of Pensions, is the statement that the government paid out in pensions in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1909, $161,930,703, the largest amount ever disbursed for this purpose in one year.

Summarized, the report shows: Number of pensioners at the beginning of the year, 951,687; number of new pensioners added to the roll, 46,088; pensioners on roll at close of the year, 946,194, a net decrease of 5493.

CONSECRATED.

School Pupils Carried the Stones and Raised All the Money.

Greenwich, Conn., Oct. 25.—The Right Rev. Chauncey B. Brewster, Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Connecticut, consecrated Rosemary Chapel, a church which has the double distinction of being paid for by young girls and of being the only purely middle English Gothic structure of the sort in America.

The chapel belongs to Rosemary Hall, a school for young women. Work was begun three years ago by the students themselves, who collected stones and carried them one by one to the spot which the building was to occupy.

The idea originated with the students, and the school authorities agreed on the condition that all of the money should be raised by the efforts of the girls themselves.

Near the school is the estate of George Lauder, Jr., and from him the Rosemary girls got permission to clear his lots of stones. Thereafter no girl was supposed to return from a walk without some stones. In a year a pile of rocks was collected sufficient to begin work.

T. E. Blake, a New York architect, undertook the designing of the Chapel. It was his aim to build a structure which would be true, even to the smallest detail, to the Gothic architecture of the fourteenth century.

The walls are of rough stone, much of which the girls gathered, the rafters and timbers are hand hewn, the glass is hand made English amber glass, the floor is of imported red Welsh tile, the interior of the walls is unfinished stone and even the roof is slated after the fashion of the churches of the fourteenth century, when nails were not used.

All of the money used was raised from fairs and other enterprises by the girls.

SUFFER.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The Indian Bureau has given out an intimation that the zeal of congress to probe matters of Indian affairs has resulted in obstructing the allotments and annuities to which the Indians must look for subsistence and consequently the Indians are in need of food.

At the present time, when a subcommittee of the senate is investigating the affairs of certain Indian tribes in Wisconsin to discover faults in administration, the Indian Bureau in Washington gives out a statement placing the responsibility on congress for the desolate conditions of the Wisconsin Indians. The statement says:

The Indians of the Wisconsin Winnebago tribe recently have had reason to believe that their annuity moneys are being tied up needlessly and that there is the lot of all who suffer from departmental red tape. The congress committee now engaged in council with these Indians is looked to for aid, since owing to crop failures the tribe is in poor shape to face the winter months and perhaps at this time it will be shown to the needy ones that the withholding of their annuity payments, which are usually made in November, is the result of congressional action and that little help can be extended when such an edict goes forth.

In The Great Physical Effort

required in the attempt to make out a case for the State Banks, some glaring misstatements have been published, especially so in the introduction of the names of several old established banks, the inference conveyed being that they were all State Banks. The names of four Banks and one Trust Company were furnished to the public, and of this number three of these banks have been operating under National charters for varying periods of time, from nine to forty years.

These are the banks named:

Bank of North America, Philadelphia. This bank has been doing business for over forty years under National Bank charter No. 602.

Bank of New York, National Banking Association, has been doing business for over forty years under National Bank charter No. 1393.

Bank of Pittsburg, National Association, holds National charter No. 5225.

The Bank of the Manhattan Company, formerly supplied the City of New York with water, and is operating under a "special privilege" charter from the State of New York. The New York Clearing House statement of October 16, 1909, shows the bank to have deposits of $35,800,000, and not deposits of $84,000,000, as has been stated in the advertisement. The New York Clearing House statement of October 16, 1909, shows that there are six National Banks in the New York Clearing House whose deposits run from 72 millions to 167 millions. There is no wind in the New York Clearing House weekly statement.

The Girard Trust Company of Philadelphia [not Pittsburg], while a large concern, does very little commercial business, confining its operations to the handling of the various trusts in its care.

According to the statements of the banks, the Fourth National Bank, the Philadelphia National Bank, the Girard National Bank, all in Philadelphia, each carry larger deposits than does the Girard Trust Company.

The various bankers whose names have been so freely used are very largely identified with National Banks; in fact, the banker who wishes permanent financial prominence either for his bank or for himself, must be identified with the National Bank system, and frequent changes to the National system by State Bankers are noted.

The National Banks are pleased to have the public know of the laws regulating their operation, and want published about them. The National Banks are now more carefully supervised than ever before in their history. They have the capital and resources with which to conduct their business, and your patronage is solicited by one of them.

"THE TRUTH, THE WHOLE TRUTH AND NOTHING BUT THE TRUTH."

Roanoke, Va., Oct. 25.—Following a quarrel, Charles Reinhart shot his thirteen-year-old bride today.

Reinhart has made no statement about the matter, but seems to be in great trouble.

GAME.

High School and College Play Football Tuesday Afternoon.

Tuesday afternoon the College and the High School will engage in the fourth game of the series. The game is scheduled to begin at 4 o'clock and a promise has been made that it will be the fastest exhibition of the season, as both teams are in fine shape and are on to many fancy tricks.

The College has made avowed declarations that it will never again suffer defeat from any team in San Angelo, and the school had done the same thing, so it is easy to see that it will be a warm contest.

It will likely be played on the College grounds. The rooters will be there in full blast with class colors flying, and their yells will resound from the North Concho to the South Concho.
