Physical Therapy Added By Hospital

A physical therapy program that treats acute musculoskeletal problems on a referral basis is now being offered by Parmer County Community Hospital.

Administered by Joe Holland, registered physical therapist, the new program has been accepting referrals since July 10.

Holland explained that the goal of physical therapy is to assist in the rehabilitation and restoration of normal function following disease or injury. Physical therapy has been proven to be of value in the treatment of stroke victims, accident victims and industrial-related injuries such as carpal tunnel syndrome.

Therapeutic exercises, massage and manipulation, and a variety of other techniques are used by the physical therapist in the restoration of joint and muscle function. Electrical stimulation units, ultrasound, traction and exercise equipment, and modalities of heat and cold are available through Parmer County Community Hospital's program.

High Plains Baptist Hospital of Amarillo was helpful in determining equipment needs and providing technical assistance during the program's planning stages.

Holland said physical therapy services will be expanded as determined by community needs.

Parmer County Community Hospital is managed by Preferred Management Corporation.

LAST MONTH, WHEN officials from the State Department of Highways and Transportation held their pre-construction conference in Friona dealing with the first phase of work on U.S. Highway 60 through Parmer County, an interesting point was made.

In his remarks, District Engineer Rhea Bradley pointed out that the contract for construction on the first phase of the highway, from the Deaf Smith County line to Friona, called for 520 working days.

"That, of course, depends on the weather, and whether or not we are held up too much due to bad weather," Bradley said.

This caused Friona mayor Clarence Monroe to make the observation that precious few outside activities had been bothered up to that point in the current calendar year, by too much rain.

Bradley then remarked that a highway project of this nature practically always insures that there will be some rain delays. And Parmer County Maintenance Chief "Tiny" Moore even said something to the effect that he would guarantee there would be some rain delay.

At this point, ye editor got in on the act and promised to quote Moore's promise. (Remember that at that point in time the year's measurement in Friona stood at around 4.3 inches of rain.)

The weekend prior to the scheduled beginning of the actual work on the highway, northeast Parmer County, and southeast Deaf Smith County, got the biggest rain that it had received in about two years.

So much, in fact, that whatever the construction company had planned for the first week's activity on the new road was postponed!

Here we had been doing everything in our limited power to induce a rain—even going so far as to wash our car a time or two—but nothing seemed to work.

Come to find out, what we really needed all the time was for the contract on the highway to be awarded and scheduled. Now the farmers of the area can join the other motorists in lamenting the fact that the contract was not awarded last January, as it was originally scheduled. Crop prospects might be better at this point.

Better late than never, we suppose.

WELL, HE DID IT! Nolan Ryan, that is. Won his 300th game of his fabulous career at Milwaukee this past Tuesday night.

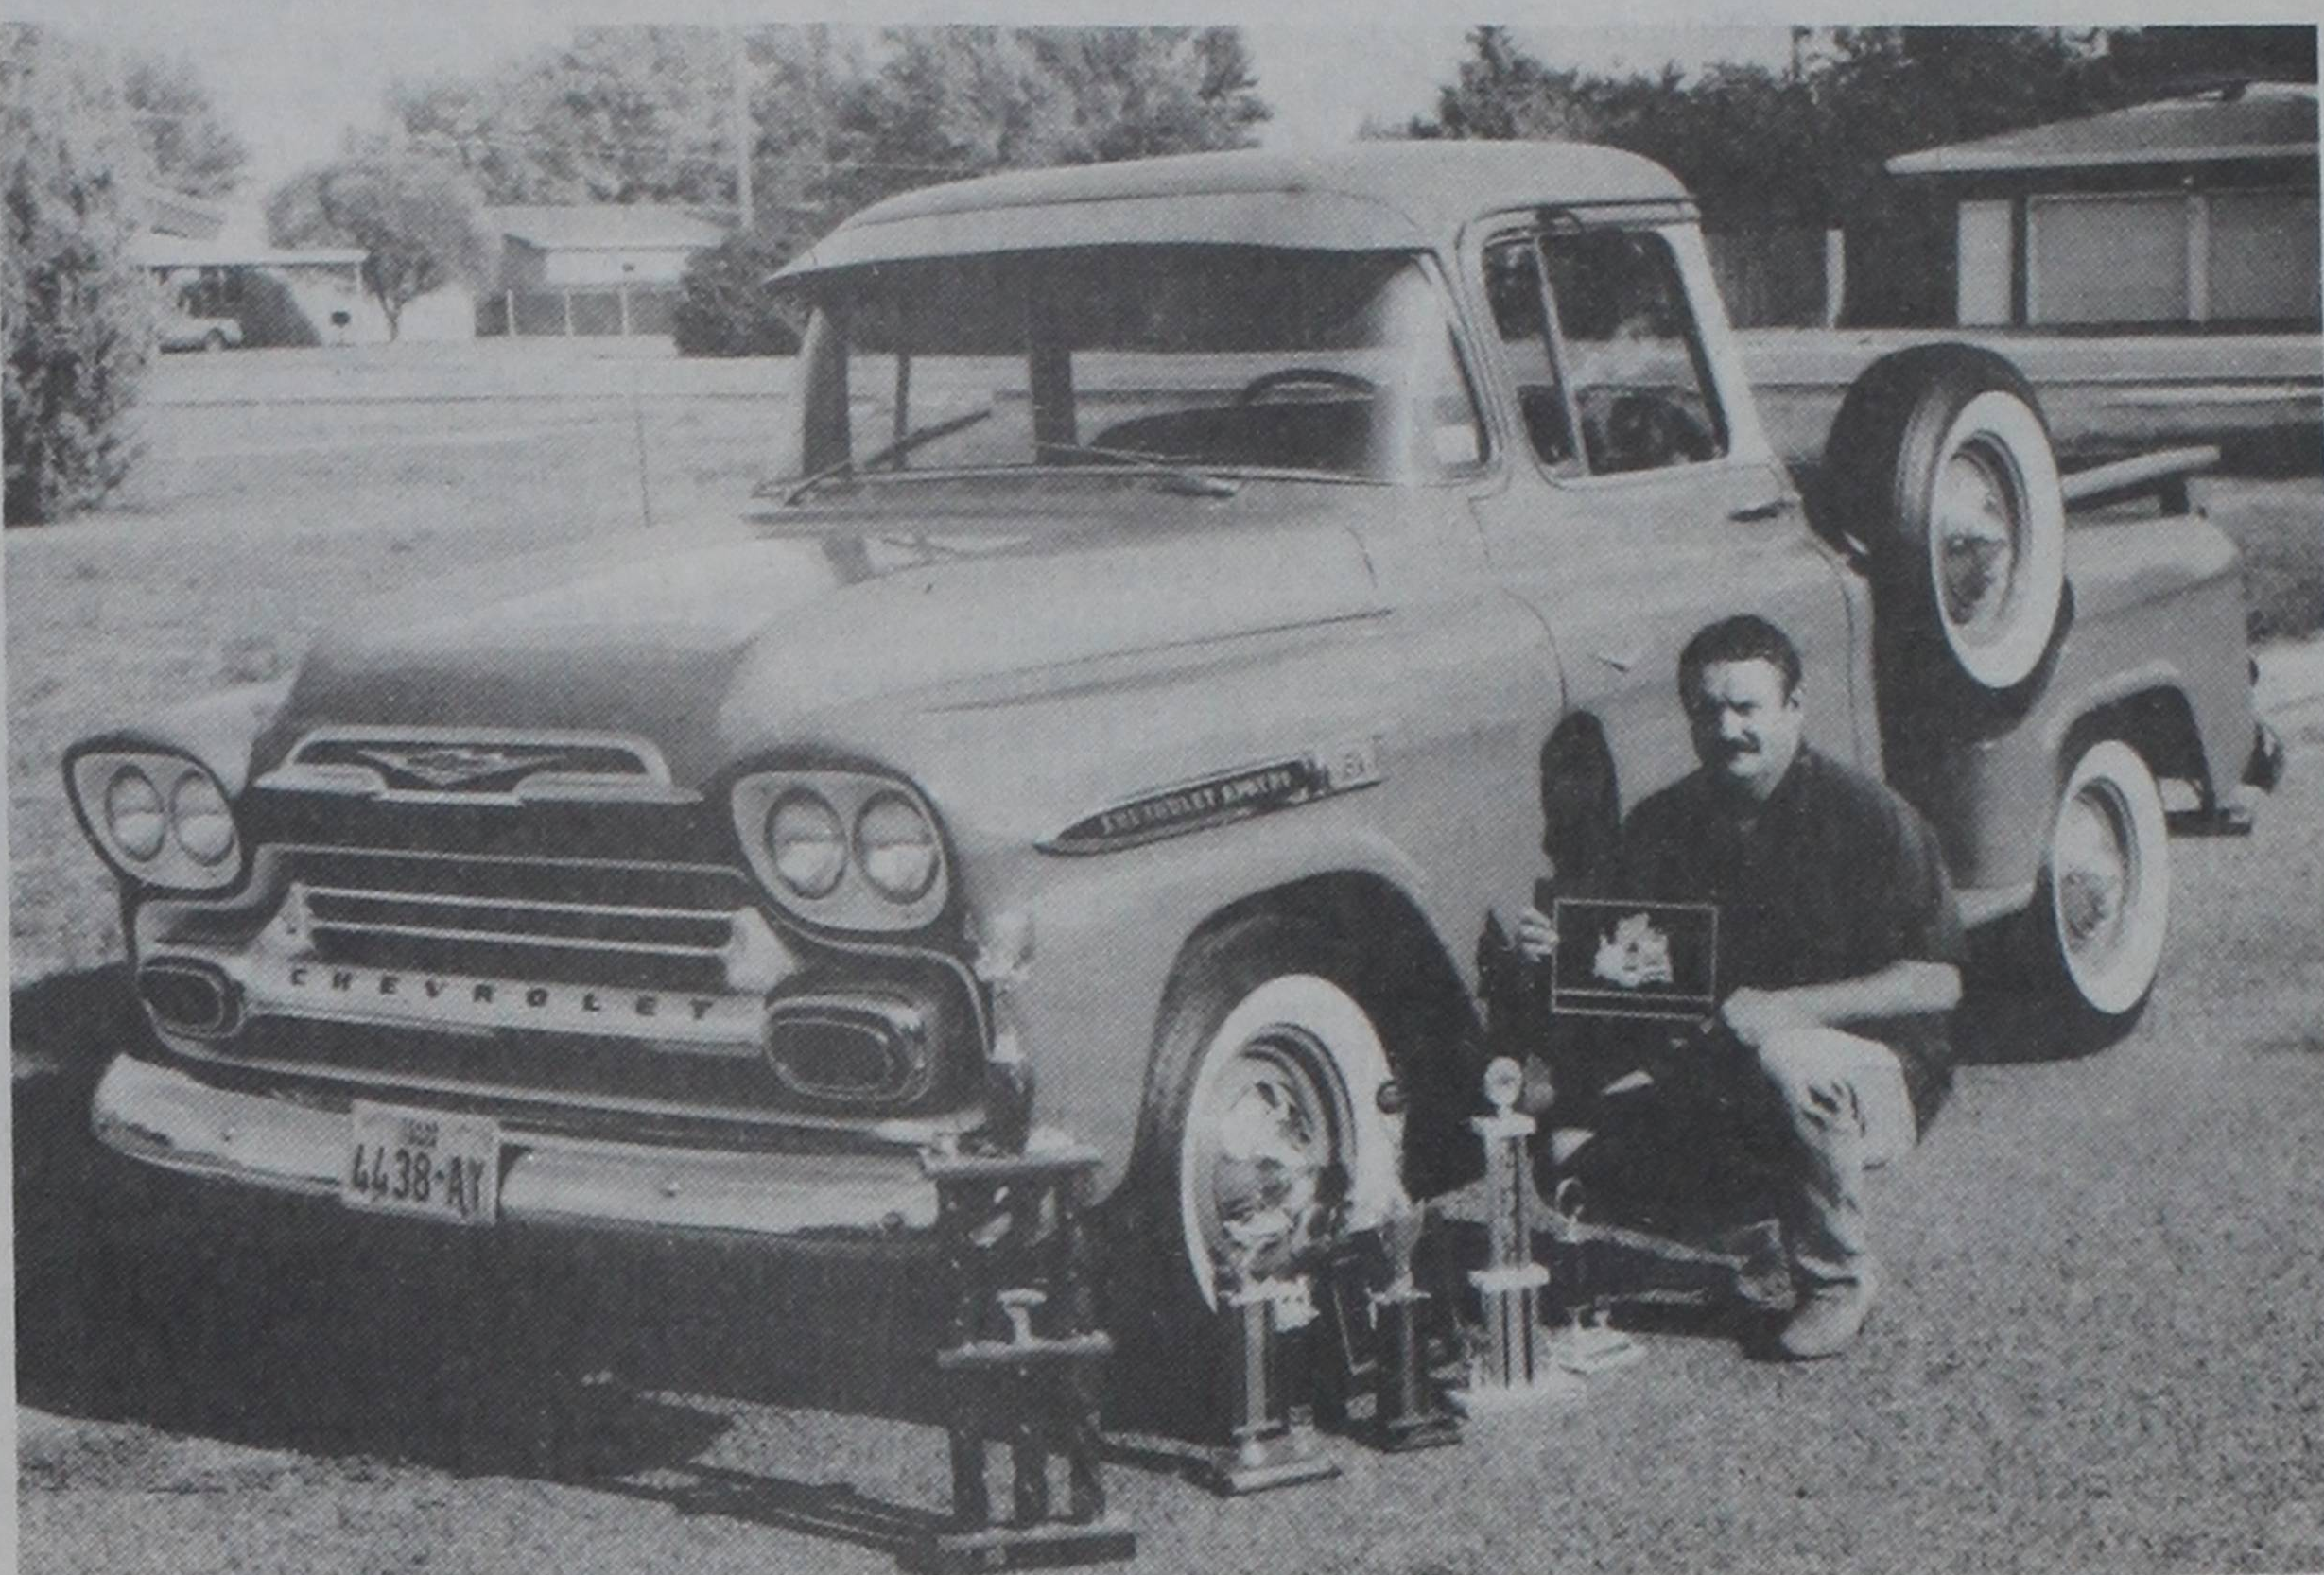

Since ye editor discussed Ryan in this space two weeks ago, the pride of Texas has won his 299th and 300th games, becoming only the 20th pitcher in the history of major league baseball to reach the 300-win plateau.

With over 5,200 strikeouts, 300 wins, and six no-hitters to his credit, Ryan surely will be a cinch to be inducted into baseball's Hall of Fame whenever he becomes eligible.

That is, if the Rangers' pitching ace ever decides to retire. At age 43, Ryan routinely goes about his business, getting strikeouts on "boys" half his age.

We thought an interesting trivia point to Tuesday's game, and one you lesser Ryan fans might have missed, was this one: The Milwaukee Brewers had a lineup dominated by veteran players on Tuesday, and there were only two members of the team's starting lineup that Ryan had not already scored at least one strikeout against in his stellar career.

But before the game was over, these two "new faces" flailed at strike three, and added their names to Ryan's amazing list of strikeout victims, which numbers well over 1,000 different players.

WINS AGAIN...Dr. Gary Cash, a local antique auto buff, is shown holding one of the plaques he has won with his 1959 Chevrolet Apache. This past weekend, Dr. Cash won the "Best Restored" award, 1958 and up. He displays trophies he has won with the truck at Houston, Dallas, Amarillo, Roswell and Clovis. In all of the shows he has entered, Dr. Cash's red beauty has never placed lower than runnerup.

Church Of Christ VBS Aug. 6-10

August 6-10 has been set as the dates for Vacation Bible School at the 6th Street Church of Christ in Friona.

This year's V.B.S. will be held for two year olds through junior high school age and will be from 9:30-11:30 a.m. each morning, Monday through Friday.

The theme for this year's school will be "Island In The Son" and will focus on I Corinthians 13.

Several activities will be held in conjunction with the Bible lessons. Puppets, skits, songs, crafts and refreshments will highlight each day's activities. All the children of the community are invited and encouraged to attend.

Cheerleading Clinic Is Scheduled

A cheerleader clinic will be held at Friona High School August 13-15 from 9 a.m.-11 a.m. each day.

Cost for the clinic will be $10 per person.

The clinic will be for girls ages three through sixth grade. The girls will be divided into three groups according to age.

The groups will be taught by the 1990-91 Friona High School varsity cheerleaders.

The girls will do stretch exercises, learn cheers and chants, and learn the fun of cheerleading. On Wednesday, August 15, a short pep rally will be held to show some "Friona Spirit" and allow the participants to exhibit what they have learned.

For more information, or to enroll your child, call Tana Stephens, FHS Cheerleader sponsor, at 247-2430.

Artwork Tickets Available

Tickets on the Ben Konis painting to be given away September 8 during the Maize Days barbecue are available at An Added Touch, Ethridge-Spring Agency, Inc., Friona Wheat Growers, or from any member of the Community Heritage Society.

Stop Worrying & Start Living

By John I. Walker, M.D.

Recently some friends showed us a video they had made during their visit to China. They had scenes of each other being blasted by gale-force Arctic winds as they stood, or tried to stand, on the Great Wall of China. Bundled against the cold, staggered by the wind, they looked more like inebriated half-frozen explorers, (as in, "Hey, Buddy, have you see the Great Wall of China?") "Yeah, you're standing on it.") than American tourists. When I told them they should turn their experience in to America's Funniest Home Videos because it was good for a few laughs, they got mad and wouldn't speak to me the rest of the night, which gave me plenty of time to contemplate China's Great Wall.

Built by Emperor Shih Huang-Ti, who wanted protection against invading Mongols, the Great Wall of China took hundreds of thousands of laborers over fifteen years to construct. When the empire fell, invaders played no part in the collapse, but, instead, rebellion and destruction came from within.

Worry is like the Great Wall of China. It can block you from going anywhere, but it can't stop problems from within. Worry is stupid—it's negative goal-setting. If you think about what you don't want to happen, it is most likely to happen.

Most of us realize the uselessness of worrying, but this recognition alone often fails to prevent our negative ruminations. We then try to build bigger psychological walls only to feel worse. As philosopher James F. Byrnes said, "Too many people are thinking security instead of opportunity. They seem more afraid of life than of death."

Many of us worry so much that we let the fear of failure deter us from our goals. Worriers need to remember that success is based on persistence more than accomplishment. To stop worrying, stretch your personal comfort zones. Each time you do so, each time you take a risk, you're more able to grow without a fear of broken self-confidence. You'll accomplish if you persist.

A group of business experts commissioned by U.S. News and World Report, January 15, 1990, reported success often eludes us because we haven't failed enough. Career management consultant Tom Williford reports that failure is often the key to success because people who are willing to risk failure have the best chance at succeeding if they learn from their mistakes.

In my psychiatric practice, I've noticed that the suffering of failure is often the best thing that ever happened to someone. Not only can failure acquaint us with our limitations, but it also motivates us to change our behavior. Rather than taking failure personally we would do best to accept failure as part of life.

Peace of mind, one of the most beautiful jewels of wisdom, results from long and patient efforts in self-control. Equanimity indicates ripened experience and a deep and abiding knowledge of the laws and operations of thought. The more tranquil a person becomes, the greater the success, the influence, and the power for good in life.

The wise man knows that today is life; the fool is always getting prepared to live, always building walls. If you're waiting for some magic day when you have each problem walled up and taken care of then you'll still be waiting the day the world comes to an end. Life will never be simple or perfect.

Whether it is generally known by the majority of our citizens or not, it is nevertheless a fact that our city commission has levied what it calls a street tax on all citizens between the ages of 21 and 60 years, of $1.00 each. Purpose of the tax is to make an effort to keep our streets and gutters in passable and presentable condition. It is also provided that this tax may be paid in labor if the citizen so desires, rather than cash, and the rate of pay shall be $2 per day, so that a married man may pay for himself and his wife with a day's labor.

A raise in school taxes was approved for the Friona Independent School District for 1975-76, due to the new Public School Financing Law and the reduction of the assessed evaluation of district property, for the current year. The board, after much study and discussion, voted to raise the ratio on real estate from 37.5 per cent of the evaluation to 50 per cent, and reduce the tax rate from $1.80 to $1.55. This would bring about an increase in real estate taxes of approximately 14 per cent, it was pointed out.

Deposits at Friona State Bank set a record for mid-year, it was revealed this week. The bank's June 30 statement revealed that Friona State Bank had deposits of $20,842,645.42. This was a healthy 12.5 per cent increase over the total of $18,526,573.11 which the bank had on deposit at the same time a year earlier.

A ruling in the cause of death of 32-year-old Linda Lou Cargle was being withheld pending lab investigation on samples of the woman's blood. Mrs. Cargle was discovered at her apartment at the Saratoga Gardens Apartments. She was pronounced dead at Parmer County Community Hospital at 10 p.m.

Money Matters

A Series Of Informative "Plain Talk"

Thoughts Regarding Your Money Matters

Money Is A Form Of Energy

The subject of money is an interesting one. People lie for it, die for it, marry for it — not to mention spending most of their lives working for it. In spite of the fact that money affects us all, most people know very little about money.

Money is a form of energy that makes it possible to go places, have things, as well as serving as a sort of yardstick by which we measure success.

To make money work for you it must be controlled. First, you must control spending it. The next step is taking the excess and making it work for you. This is not always easy because money is easier to spend than it is to save.

Since money is our business, we've got the experience and the expertise to help you get the financial side of your life into a controlled, disciplined plan that will pay you dividends for the rest of your life. Stop in and see us.

We Think Money Matters!

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

MUSIC TO STILL THE SAVAGE BREAST!

THE FIRST MENTION OF DAVID IN THE BIBLE IS TO BE FOUND IN I SAMUEL:16. KING SAUL, HARD AT WAR WITH THE PHILISTINES, HAS BEGUN TO SHOW THE FIRST SIGNS OF HIS MENTAL ILLNESS, DEEP MELANCHOLIA, IF NOT OUT-AND-OUT SCHIZOPHRENIA! IN THOSE TIMES, IT WAS FELT THAT MUSIC HAD A SOOTHING EFFECT ON THIS AILMENT, WHICH INDEED IT HAD AND SAUL'S ADVISERS SENT FOR YOUNG DAVID, WHO WAS KNOWN TO BE AN EXPERT PLAYER. THEREAFTER, WHEN SAUL WENT INTO DEPRESSED FITS, DAVID WOULD PLAY AND SAUL WOULD BE SOOTHED AND REFRESHED, AND SOON CAME TO LOVE DAVID AS HIS OWN SON. HOWEVER ...

... DURING THE NEXT SIX YEARS, AS THE LAD GREW FROM YOUTH TO YOUNG MANHOOD, SAUL'S ATTITUDE BEGAN TO CHANGE—FOR DAVID SHOWED A FINE APPTITUDE AS A WARRIOR AND LEADER, GAINING GREAT POPULARITY WITH THE PEOPLE. SAUL, IN HIS DEPRESSED MENTAL STATE, BEGAN TO SEE DAVID AS A THREAT TO HIS OWN RULE, LET ALONE THE FUTURE RULE OF JONATHAN, HIS SON, WHOM HE TRIED TO ENTICE INTO KILLING DAVID—WHICH JONATHAN WOULDN'T DO BECAUSE HE WAS A CLOSE AND SINCERE FRIEND. BUT, UNDERNEATH THIS GROWING OBSESSION TO SEE DAVID DEAD, LOVE FOR HIM STILL REMAINED WHICH BECAME QUITE EVIDENT, IN THIS WRITER'S OPINION, WHEN, THE LAST TIME DAVID PLAYED FOR HIM, SAUL TOOK UP HIS JAVELIN (I SAMUEL:19) AND HALF-HEARTEDLY ATTEMPTED TO PIN DAVID TO THE WALL. THE TRIBE OF BENJAMIN, OF WHICH SAUL WAS A MEMBER, WAS RENOWNED AS THE GREATEST OF LEFT-HANDED MARKSMEN (JUDGES:20-16) WITH SLING, SPEAR, OR ANY OTHER WEAPON OF WAR AND, FOR A WARRIOR OF SAUL'S GREAT CALIBER, TO MISS HIS MARK IN THE CLOSE CONFINES OF A ROOM, OTHER THAN ON PURPOSE, WAS IMPOSSIBLE! BUT IT DID SERVE AS A SIGN TO THE ESCAPING DAVID THAT FROM HENCE HIS LIFE WAS ENDANGERED, EVEN THOUGH THE KING DID NOT, PERSONALLY, INTEND TO HAVE DAVID'S BLOOD ON HIS OWN ROYAL HANDS!

Spectacular fishing, huge open water schools and a feeding frenzy matched by few other fish are all trademarks of the white bass. Also known as the sand bass, this fish prefers clear water reservoirs linked to river systems with bottoms of gravel, rock and sand. This fish is easily identified by the thin black lateral lines on the silver-white scales.

This fish runs in open water schools that can be several acres in size. Locating the whites can be a little frustrating at times, but once you're onto a school, the action can be non-stop. You can catch them as fast as you can get a lure or live bait down to them.

Whites spawn in the tributaries in water ranging from 58 to 64 degrees. Since they are not a nesting fish, the female spreads her eggs in the current while the male fertilizes them as they sink. The eggs stick to the structure and hatch within one to two days. Extremely prolific, the female may produce over a half million eggs in one spawn. The tiny fry will then form into dense schools, a trait that sticks with them for life.

Research has shown that these schools roam constantly. Some move up to seven miles in one day. Tagged whites have been found more than 100 miles from the release sight in river systems. Except for spawning time, these fish can be suspended at any depth. Following forage seems to be a main factor in their movements.

Summer can be the most difficult time to locate a school. In lakes where predatory aquatic birds roam, many anglers carry binoculars to spot the birds swooping down to the surface. This usually indicates that forage fish are being forced to the top by a school of white bass. The birds pick up the wounded fish on the surface.

Creek channels, river beds, roads and ravines are the most likely underwater highways for these fish. Gravel or sand flats adjacent to deep water are priority locations. Sunken islands in ten to twenty feet of water can attract whites. Shore anglers can hook up with these fish on rip-rap, docks or bridges particularly at night.

Whites prefer to feed at night, early in the morning or late in the evening this time of year. Artificial lures used for whites include small crankbaits, inline spinners, pony-head spinning jigs, rattling lures, grubs, spoons and top water plugs. Minnows work, but time spent rigging will cost you several fish.

White bass are extremely sensitive to sound. Noise can force them to flee the area. Casting out to the school instead of presenting the bait straight down will reduce your chances of spooking the fish. At times, this fish will become very size selective in its food. A different sized lure of the same type will be rejected when the school is onto a particular size of forage.

When feeding, the whites will push a school of baitfish into a crowded area of the surface or shore. The fish will then dive into the school hitting everything they target extremely hard. Forage fish fly into the air trying to escape. Fast retrieves work best as the white is accustomed to chasing swift prey in open water.

The white bass is another fish that schools according to their size. Small whites locate another school if the size is not to their liking. If you bring up a pound and a half white, then you've struck paydirt. Marker buoys are of little use as you will have to keep up with the forage to keep up with the school. Stay off the school, cast to it and keep scanning the immediate surface area. The school will go deeper eventually.

The use of binoculars to track movement of the birds as well as any surface disturbance is known as jump fishing. When signs of feeding whites betray their location, the jump fisherman will motor to the area throwing out shallow running or top water baits until the school sounds, then move directly over the school fishing vertically with spoons. Move onto the school only after they have taken to the depths.

Tracking a sounding school involves a lot of guessing as to the direction of movement. Most anglers follow the same path the fish were on at the surface while probing the drop-off area with a grub, spoon or tailspin lure. Fancasting the area with crankbait might locate the shallower schools.

Eliminating wasted time is a key element when onto a school of whites. Rigging a double leadhead jig with a plastic grub can produce double hook-ups. Place the jigs at least 8 to 12 inches apart to allow for proper action.

After hooking a white, fight it for a few seconds as the action will draw other fiercely competitive whites. Just before boating your fish, let your partner cast out or secure the rod and cast with another rod. Keeping several rods rigged at one time will keep you working during the action. If you break your line, backlash your reel or get the line tangled, the spare rods will keep you fishing. Carefully swing the fish into the boat to save time involved compared to netting fish.

If you do not have a livewell, keep a large cooler with ice, you can throw the whites into the cooler eliminating the time it would take to put them in a basket or onto a stringer. The ice will keep them fresh. If you have confidence in your ability to boat the fish, bend down the barb of the hook with pliers. This will enable you to unhook the fish easily, but you could lose a few in the process.

Few fish offer the chance to hook up on every cast, but then few fish match the competitive ferocity of the white bass. Fishing doesn't get much better than getting onto a school of whites during a feeding frenzy.

It's getting to be the time of year when heat induced thunder storms can pop up around a lake. Not only wind, but lightning is extremely dangerous when caught out in the open. Till next week, keep a tight line and good luck.

Pleasant Hill Reunion Set

The Pleasant Hill School and Community Reunion will be held Sunday, August 5 at the Pleasant Hill Community Center Building (nine miles north of Texico on Highway 108, one mile west), from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Those attending are asked to bring their family, a basket lunch and enjoy visiting with friends.

A rare opportunity presented itself in Friona Sunday afternoon and a large number of our residents took advantage of it. Don't know when, if ever before, we've all been able to greet so many local residents and former residents in such a short time.

The fun and excitement really had three hubs. A retirement party honoring Dr. Paul Spring and his office nurse, Martha Mae Pruet, at Friendship House; a Golden Wedding Anniversary reception honoring Ralph and Waneta Taylor at the Community Room of Friona State Bank and a Sixty-Fifth Wedding Anniversary honoring Charles and Martha Russell at Friona Woman's Clubhouse, were going on at the same time, so the only decision we had to make was in what order to attend them.

Some out-of-town people I saw were Shine and Elsie McFarland of

Students Present Program

American Legion Post 206 and the Ladies Auxiliary held a meeting July 26 at Puddy's Dine Inn. This meeting included a meal and three guest speakers.

The speakers were this year's delegates to Boys and Girls State. This year Post 206 and Ladies Auxiliary sent two boys and two girls to represent the community at state.

The two girls were Holly Grimsley and Amy Israel. The boys were Wes Drake and Wade Procter. Amy was unable to attend due to being at church camp at the time, but she sent her parents to represent her.

Holly, Wade and Wes each gave a report on what they did at state. Each of them stated that they enjoyed the experience, learned a lot about state government and would recommend the experience to anyone.

A short business meeting followed the speakers. Post 206 has recently purchased a building to use as a Post home and improvements to the building were discussed.

American Legion and V.F.W. members are remodeling the building in the evenings at 7 p.m. and all members are urged to attend as their schedules permit.

Tucumcari; Tom and Wright Williams of Lubbock; Johnny and Christy Spring and son, Travis, of Canyon; Glen and Edith Taylor, Hereford; Clayton and Maedell Taylor, Wolfforth, Texas; Carol Dean Huggins, Farwell; Susie Spring, San Antonio; Don and Priscilla Pruet Chrysler, Amarillo; Keith Taylor of Abilene; and Edwin Taylor of Lubbock. By the way, he's been going by his first name, Charley, so long that when he hears someone say "Edwin" he immediately knows the person speaking is from Friona.

In addition to the fun of having three receptions at one time, there was some confusion. One out-of-town couple stopped at the Taylor reception and after being there awhile, asked, "Where's Dr. Paul?"

Ilene Osborn has had out-of-town company. Her second son, Joe, who lives in Austin, came up for a few days. He reported that he's enjoying being a grandfather.

His son and daughter-in-law, William and Donna Osborn, who also live in the capital city, have a daughter, Catherine. Joe says, "Carolyn and I are enjoying her very much."

About forty descendants of the late Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Ferguson, pioneer Hale County residents, met at the Senior Citizens Center in Hale Center for a family reunion Sunday.

Friona residents who attended were Mr. and Mrs. V.M. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Holt and daughters, Glenna and Reba; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ferguson and Doris Smith and daughters, Heather and Alicia.

Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Caussion of Clovis, New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Numan Loafman and children, Jennifer, Brooke and John, who live in Fort Worth arrived in Friona Thursday for a visit in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loy Loafman.

Other out-of-town visitors in the Loafman home were Mr. and Mrs. Don Loafman and son, Wade, of Plainview, Texas. These three also visited in the home of Mrs. Loafman's mother, Mrs. Juanita Wright, who is convalescing satisfactorily from hip surgery.

Mrs. Inez Rule had out-of-town company last week. Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Allen of Tacoma, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Wright, Roll, Oklahoma and Tasha Riley, Lubbock, were here. Allen is Inez's brother, Mrs. Wright is her sister and Tasha is her granddaughter.

Local visitors in the Rule home were Zay Beach and Alta Collier. Zay, a long time Friona resident, who has lived in Muleshoe several years, is presently living here.

Randa Carter, Fort Worth, arrived Sunday for a visit in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Procter, Jeff and Jenny.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnston of Davis, Oklahoma, were weekend visitors in Friona. He is a cousin of Alvin Gaines and she is a cousin of Elizabeth Ferguson and Geneva Williams.

These five met at a local restaurant for breakfast before the Johnstons departed for their home Monday morning.

Clyde and Georgia Fields and two of their grandsons, Mac and Trevor, who are sons of Roger and Lou Fields, recently had a nice trip down state.

In Austin, they were joined by David Fields, Clyde's and Georgia's youngest son, who is stationed at Bergstrom Air Force Base.

These four then went to San Antonio, where they visited many attractions and did a lot of other fun things. Enroute back to Austin they also visited several historical sites in the San Marcos area.

One of the highlights of the trip was a tour of the Capitol Building. Mac, who is working on a Boy Scout merit badge, wanted to do several things and visiting with a state official was one of them.

When the group arrived at the office of Teel Bivins, he was not in, so they decided to wait a few minutes. Within a very short time, a University of Texas student from Amarillo appeared and someone in the office instructed him to "give these people a VIP tour."

Georgie reported, "He was very polite as well as knowledgeable and gave us a real interesting tour."

Frionans being in Austin reminds me... Josh Snead, youngest son of Gary and Kay Snead, recently had a fun experience. He spent several days with two of his cousins, Shayne and Shae Woodard, who live there.

Shayne is on the staff of Senator Bill Sims, San Angelo, who is the chairman of the State Board of Agriculture and spends a great deal of time in the Capitol.

Josh had the privilege of being a page in the Senate and House of Representatives several days.

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Woodard and Eric this week are Mr. and Mrs. J.E. Helderman of Houston. Helderman is Linda's father.

Jimmy Bainum, a native Frionan and a 1960 graduate of Friona High School, and his wife, Barbara, who live at Palmer Lake, Colorado, were recent visitors in the home of Glendel Jones.

One evening Thelma Jones and Valton Howard joined Glendel and the Coloradoans for a steak fry.

One evening last week Glenna Holt and Debbie Carlton of Hart, Texas, honored Reba Holt, who was observing a birthday, by taking her to Palo Duro Park to see "Texas."

Then Tuesday evening, Elizabeth Ferguson, Geneva Williams and Doris, Heather and Alicia Smith attended this gala extravaganza.

Everyone I've heard mention it has said, "That was the best performance I've ever seen," or words to that effect.

From my point of view, it seems that most of our residents should eat well this winter. It seems that just about everyone I know is either pickling, preserving, canning, freezing or jelling something or other.

One evening this week Ben Osborn was unloading ears of corn by the wheelbarrow full, so I'm guessing the Osborns will be eating a lot of good roasting ears when the snow flies.

As I've worked up the plums I picked on the Matador Ranch recently, I've missed by collander. I'm hoping the person who borrowed it more than one year ago reads this and returns it.

Then, too, Sue Procter would like for someone who has a pressure cooker with a lid that doesn't fit to contact her. She has forgotten who borrowed her cooker last and wasn't aware that the cooker and the lid which had been returned to her didn't match until she started to pressure something recently.

Please folks...help us out if you can.

Out-of-town visitors in the home of Rene and Jinx Snead have been Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gray, Neptune, New Jersey; Shannel Woodard, Lubbock; Ruth Redwine, Groves, Texas; Leona Underwood, Nederland, Texas; Brenda Barbee, Buna, Texas; and Beverly Dingo, Slidell, Louisiana.

The Sneads and Grays spent Tuesday and Wednesday visiting with Janet and John Payne and Jim and Sheryl Snead and children, Layle and Clint, in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

The Grays, who are Joan Ahrhart's parents, are also visiting with her and Jenny.

WIN CONTEST....A grooming contest was held at the Lamb County Classic steer show July 21 in Littlefield. Eight steers were brought in off pasture and youngsters competing in the contest drew lots to see who performed different tasks as far as grooming a show steer. Members of the first place grooming team were Rusty Simmons of Friona, Justin Scott of Hereford and Clay Hurst of Friona. Jerry Simmons (back) coached the team.

Prairie Acres Party Line

By CAROL DELEON
I will open this week by giving a great big "congratulations" to Charles and Martha Russell on their 65th wedding anniversary this past Sunday. I know they had a big day. Again, congratulations!

Thank you this week go out to: Florence Dorsey for donating bread; Mr. and Mrs. Schilling for the delicious cucumbers, as we really enjoyed them; Vuthill Loanman for giving peaches that the residents really enjoyed with their evening meal; Greta Warren for donating material scraps that we will work at getting into either quilts or lap robes (either way they will be useful); and finally Dale and Evelyn Randolph for giving us the beautiful and delicious squash. I hope that I recognized everyone but if I miss someone or something please feel free to let me know.

Our deepest sympathies go out to the Randolph family in the loss of their loved one, Grace Kanaga. She was a very special lady and we will surely miss her.

We have really missed Gertie for our Bible reading. Hope to see her soon.

Our birthdays this week are: Fred Lloyd, July 29, 1905 and Corrine Schaffer, August 1, 1897.

The Lloyd family shared cake and celebrated with us. It was a lot of fun.

We want to welcome Leta Tannahill to Prairie Acres. We look forward to getting to know her better.

There was a donation made in memory of Elsie Mae Peddy by Eufaula Ethridge.

Learn from the mistakes of others--you can never live long enough to make them all yourself.

Parents Night Slated By Youth Group

Friona's Union Congregational Church is sponsoring a "Parents' Night Out" on Friday, August 10 from 6 p.m. to midnight.

The church's youth group is sponsoring the activity, and will look after young children that evening. Donations will be accepted to benefit the church's youth activities.

To find Union Congregational Church, turn north on Euclid Street and go to the end of the street.

Thank You

"Thank You," two little words we hope will convey the way we feel to all our friends, patients and residents of Friona, Parmer County and the surrounding area.

Thank you, Friona Chamber of Commerce, Women's Division, and the Hospital Auxiliary for the wonderful reception on Sunday, July 29, 1990, which will remain as one of our cherished memories.

Thank you, one and all for all the beautiful plants, flowers, cards and personal notes of love, sharing and best wishes for our future.

Thank you, C.L. and Nola Vestal for all the work and the showing of "our film," also a cherished memento.

Thank you, Martha Mae, and all the former and present staffs of Parmer County Community Hospital and Prairie Acres for 40-plus years of dedicated service and commitment.

All the above and much more has indeed made us feel that our life in Friona has been as rewarding to us as perhaps it has been to this community.

Thank you, too--our children, Susie, John, Christie and Travis, who have been to us a joy and whom we love and appreciate very much.

We both sincerely thank you, one and all

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruno G. Amora, Jr. of Austin.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Valton Howard of Friona.

The church altar was decorated with spiral candleabras, baby blue satin bows and baskets of flowers. The pews were marked with matching blue bows.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of European taffeta designed by her mother. The gown featured a low "v" neckline and long tapered puffed sleeves. The full skirt featured a long cathedral length train accented with appliqued flowers.

Her waist length veil was accented with tiny white roses with a double layer of netting and lace.

She carried a bouquet of blue and white roses with blue and white satin ribbons and greenery.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Debbie Villarreal. Sylvia Amora served as the maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Julie Howard, sister of the groom, Delores Espinoza, Sharon Lee and Sylvia Cruz.

The matron of honor wore a royal blue taffeta dress with "v" neckline and puffed tapered sleeves. The maid of honor's dress was off-white and the bridesmaids' dresses were baby blue, designed identical to the one worn by the matron of honor.

Their halo headpieces featured tiny roses, greenery and baby's breath.

They carried baskets of white and blue roses accented with long flowing satin ribbons and greenery.

The groom wore a long tailed white tuxedo with baby blue cummerbund and tie and white rose boutonniere.

Attending his son as best man was Valton Howard. Groomsmen were David Howard, brother of the groom, Mike Maynard, Kato Villarreal, brothers-in-law of the bride, Rudy Hernandez and Benny Whitehead, cousin of the groom.

The groom's attendants wore black tuxedos with baby blue cummerbunds and ties and boutonnieres of blue and white roses.

The flower girls were Tabitha Villarreal and Yolanda Rodriguez, nieces of the bride.

Ring bearers were Matthew Villarreal and Richard Rodriguez, nephews of the bride.

Candle lighters were Clyde and Leilani Abergana. They also served as ushers.

Wedding selections were presented by Nephtali Luna, uncle of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Amora wore a two piece beige linen dress. Mrs. Howard wore a royal blue dress. Their corsages consisted of baby blue and white roses accented with satin ribbons and greenery.

A reception was held in the church Fellowship Hall, prepared by church friends of the bride's family.

A buffet meal of barbecue chicken, summer sausage, potato salad, baked beans and cabbage slaw was served to the wedding guests.

Following the meal, cake and punch were served including a toast to the bride and groom.

The three tiered wedding cake was topped with the bride's parents' cake top that they used on their own wedding cake. Julie Howard and Debbie Villarreal served at the reception table.

Special guest at the wedding was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Gloria G. Soliz.

The couple met the groom's family at Tres Ritos, New Mexico for two days then went on to Denver, Colorado for their honeymoon. They are making their home in Amarillo.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Seven Risks To The Ownership Of Money

Good investment ideas are everywhere--even in Big Spring, Texas. That's where Dan Wilkins has been helping people invest their money for nearly 25 years.

Ask Dan about the economy, and you'll get down-home Texas logic you can take to the bank. "The economy changes," Dan said, "but there's always the same seven risks of owning money."

The first risk is lack of liquidity. You always need some ready cash for emergencies. Money-market funds or interest-paying savings accounts can solve this risk. Your money is always available and it earns a little while it sits.

Declining prices is another risk. No one likes to see their investments lose value. Certificates of deposit are an excellent way to get a reasonable return without risk of principal. Staggering CD maturities may even make them safer.

The biggest risk to money is inflation. Your only defense is to own something that outpaces inflation. Traditionally, common stocks, equity mutual funds, and real estate have met this challenge.

The other side of inflation is deflation. Although deflation is improbable, it's not impossible. One way to minimize the risk is to own long-term bonds or government securities that protect today's high interest and promise to keep it coming.

Another money risk is taxes. Because no one seriously believes taxes will disappear, tax-free bonds offer a reasonable hedge. With these investments you can enjoy your income without sharing it with the government. Retirement plans, IRAs and deferred annuities offer limited protection from taxes now, but eventually you'll have to pay.

A real concern, particularly to those on a fixed income, is the lack of rising income. Imagine a 1990 lifestyle on a 1980 income. The only way to answer this risk is to own things that offer opportunities for more income. Dan likes high-grade utilities and mutual funds. He loves to tell about his favorite utility stock, which provided about a nine per cent return in 1980 when he bought it. Thanks to increasing dividends and the increasing value of the stock, the $10,000 invested in 1980 brings in about 14 per cent today, based on the original investment.

The threat of any major change in society is always a financial risk. An economic depression or devaluation of the dollar can destroy years of financial planning. Investors who might have put all their faith in the peso at 12 to the dollar would find they had virtually no buying power today. Precious metals or securities, as well as currencies of other countries, offer a possible hedge for such money risk.

Finally, the psychological fear of having too much invested in any one place can lead to sleepless nights. The remedy is to diversify your investments.

These seven risks of owning money make a lot of sense, whether they come from New York, N.Y. or Big Spring, Texas.
