

VOLUME LXI

HICO, TEXAS, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1946.

NUMBER 40.

A "Believe-It-Or-Not" was submitted to the NR by Mrs. George Tabor.

Mr. and Mrs. Tabor were advised this week that a scrap of paper used by their daughter, Lois, in an examination at the local school had traveled from Hico during the scrap drive to a point hundreds of miles away, and then back again.

Bryant lively found the paper used in packing around bottles of catsup consigned from a point in Indiana to N. A. Leath & Sons here in Hico.

Which ought to convince Miss Lois that those good grades are really worth working hard for—one can never tell who might get hold of scrap paper.

Doc Sellers, skipper of the Rising Star Record, has found that it's civilians many times who need rehabilitating instead of returned servicemen. Recently he remarked that the boys are more befuddled by the change in home folks than they are over any changes they themselves may have experienced.

"It has been our plan to treat and talk to them just like we did before they went away," he wrote in his column.

Like Doc, we have found most of the boys (and girls) deadly serious about getting set up again in a good job, a business of their own, or getting into school.

"People are complaining about the bread we will be getting before very long," reads an article from Miss Ethel R. Hander, Hamilton Co. Home Demonstration Agent, "but if they would realize they would be healthier for it they'd stop complaining."

"The trouble with the American people today is that they want the higher refined foods. This might be because the food looks better or because they think it tastes better, or probably because they heard some high-pressure talk about it."

"Our grandparents ground their own corn into meal and wheat into flour or took it to a nearby mill to have it ground. They got the benefits of all the food Nature had stored in the corn or the wheat because they ground the whole grain and used it."

"About the time large numbers of men were being examined for the service and a large per cent were being rejected because of their health due to diet deficiency, nutritionists began work to get flour enriched. After considerable planning and hard work flour mills were compelled to enrich flour."

"The public is responsible for its good health or bad depending on its demands on the manufacturers."

Many people may wonder why the News Review runs so much publicity about enlistments and re-enlistments in various branches of the service.

One guy even asked the editor why he didn't fall for some of that propaganda himself, if he wants to save the country.

But in all sincerity the local paper has tried to cooperate with the government in the matter of keeping its fighting forces from dwindling down too far in the let-down that came following the end of the war. Just because the shooting has stopped is no sign that we should cease our efforts at security.

So it was encouraging and refreshing this week to learn the news contained in a letter from Col. William H. Nelson, commanding officer of the Army Service Forces, Dallas Recruiting District. He wrote:

Dear Mr. Holford: Regular Army enlistments in this district have now passed the 14,000 mark—actually exceeding the full complement of an Army Division, recruited since last September.

"To you and the citizens of Hico I want to express the gratitude of the U. S. Army Recruiting Service. Your extraordinary support is a vital factor in the campaign to meet the urgent personnel requirements of the new peace-time Army."

"Obviously many people in this area understand the tremendous responsibility thrust upon our shoulders by the war. Ours is the task of securing the peace, fulfilling the important postwar commitments for international order."

"We have won two wars with blood and sweat, but we have only begun to fight for the peace. We have an obligation to the nation, to the men who died, to all humanity. But we shall meet those obligations only through the kind of support we are now receiving in this district."

"To aid in the achievement of our mission the Congress has passed legislation enhancing the appeal of Army life to the individual. Today we offer more than ever before—higher pay, family allotments, reenlistment with rank, education, liberal retirement benefits and many other inducements."

Young Children Pick Up Germs of Tuberculosis Easily

AUSTIN, Feb. 18.—Speaking of children and their susceptibility to tuberculosis, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, said: "Few people realize that babies and young children are very likely to catch tuberculosis if they are kept in the rooms with persons who have the disease at an infectious stage, or use the same dishes, sleep in the same beds, or are handled and kissed by people who have tuberculosis."

"Babies and young children pick up the germs of tuberculosis just as readily as they pick up the germs of measles, whooping cough or any of the so-called children's diseases. But tuberculosis is different in certain particulars. Unlike most diseases, it has more than one form. Babies who get tuberculosis may not show the symptoms we associate with the disease in older people. But the disease in most cases develops rapidly and is likely to end fatally. Tuberculosis in babies and young children is a very serious matter, but recent studies have shown that if young children are removed promptly from contact with the disease and given the necessary care, many lives can be saved."

"A great deal can be accomplished whenever tuberculosis develops, whether young or old. If the presence of the disease is recognized when it is in its early stages and if medical attention is secured promptly."

"Tuberculosis does not just simply happen. Nobody is born with the disease. Everybody who develops tuberculosis gets it from some other source. Children and young people who have been in contact with persons ill with tuberculosis are especially likely to contract the disease."

NEW LIFE FOR WASTE LAND... Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Reed, Tucuman, N. M., show their satisfaction as they watch the first fresh water to reach their parched acres, where the bureau of reclamation is constructing a large irrigation project. When completed the project will supply water to 65,000 acres of fertile but arid land. The development is one of hundreds in the west which will provide jobs for at least 50,000 World War II veterans and farm homes for some 55,000 families.

Army Regulars Land Fast Jet-Propelled Plane by Remote Control

Robot control of jet-propelled planes in flight is one of the newest developments of the U. S. Army Air Forces. The radio-control truck shown in the right foreground is manned by Regulars. It is their job to maneuver the plane in flight by means of television and telemetering devices. Men in the Regular Army may attend a wide variety of technical schools. Qualified civilians, 17 to 34 years of age, inclusive, may apply for enlistment in the Regular Army.

Announcement to Voters of the 94th District of Texas

I am taking this opportunity to announce for State Representative of Hamilton and Coryell Counties, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary in July. I would have announced sooner but due to circumstances beyond my control, I was unable to do so.

Although I have been away from this region for the past three years, I have done my best to keep up with current affairs in Central Texas and the State government, and I firmly believe that more could be done in the legislature to improve the government.

Being a native of Coryell County and Central Texas, I can readily understand the problems and needs of this District and will, if elected, do my utmost to help solve them and to further the interest of Texas as a whole.

In the past while attending the University of Texas, I have had occasion to work in both the Senate and House of Representatives and one or two State departments where I acquired some experience in the working of the State government.

In presenting myself as a candidate, I would appreciate any consideration that you may see fit to give me.

Sincerely,
BAYNE BLANKENSHIP.

Vehicle Owners Urged to Register Properly In 1946

AUSTIN, Feb. 18.—The Motor Vehicle Division of the Texas Highway Department today urged all Texas motor vehicle owners to see that the titles for vehicles to be registered in 1946 are in order.

Many people do not understand the importance and value of the Title Act, and do not realize that the Certificate of Title Act was passed to improve the validity of titles on motor vehicles, thereby making such title comparable to an abstract on real estate.

Motor vehicle owners who have acquired vehicles, and who have received assigned titles from the previous owners, are urged to apply at once for their titles in order that the transactions may be recorded and the new owners shown on the title records of the Department. Motor vehicle owners are also urged to register their equipment by purchasing the 1946 plates as soon as possible. It is a common practice throughout the State for owners to wait until the last week in March, thereby creating congested conditions and long lines of applicants in the various tax collectors' offices. The county tax collectors are experiencing difficulty in obtaining help, and you will be aiding them and yourselves by obtaining 1946 license plates during February or in the first part of March and not waiting until the last day or days.

Movement Started For G I Training In Hamilton County

A vocational school for returned servicemen is being sought through a move initiated by the Hamilton County Board of Education. The board met in the office of County Superintendent Bert Patterson Tuesday and adopted by unanimous vote a motion "that the Hamilton County Board, in conjunction with the County Superintendent, sponsor the Hamilton County Vocational School for returned war veterans, adult citizens and senior high school students."

The course of study, including some 65 or 70 vocations, was approved. Present at the meeting, called to order by E. L. McKinley, chairman, were J. W. Jordan, G. J. Balze, R. G. Krueger, W. B. McPherson, and County Superintendent Bert C. Patterson, secretary to the board.

Another motion, which carried, proposed that the course of study for Hamilton County Vocational School be presented to the State Committee for approval of schools for returning veterans with the request that said school be approved by the State Committee.

A committee composed of Patterson, County Judge W. J. Harris, and V. M. Santy, superintendent of Hamilton schools, came to Hico Wednesday to confer with D. F. McCarty, president of the local school board; J. E. Lincoln, superintendent, and other interested persons, and reported that the plan had met with unanimous approval here.

All veterans interested in securing such a school for on-the-job training in agriculture and small business are requested to sign their names and indicate the course desired on petition forms to be sent to the State Committee. The forms are available at the office of Barnes & McCullough in Hico, according to J. E. Lincoln, who was assisting the Hamilton committee in its local work.

In sponsoring this Vocational School," Patterson said, "the County Superintendent and the County Board of Education request the moral support of the Selective Service Board, the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Hamilton Lions Club, the Chambers of Commerce, and any other civic organizations of Hamilton County, together with the public schools of Hamilton County, to render every assistance necessary to promote, establish and carry on a successful program."

ON THE USS HYDROGRAPHER, Donald R. Lewis, motor machinist's mate, second class, USNR, Route 1, Hico, Texas, served on this auxiliary, a surveying vessel, during part of her war cruise in Atlantic and Pacific waters.

The small vessel, which operated under the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey before being commissioned in the Navy in May, 1942, operated in Alaskan waters at Attu, Adak, and Kiska, under hazardous conditions and was commended by Admiral F. W. Rockwell, who commanded Task Force 51 during the Attu invasion.

In the Pacific, the vessel established navigation aids, charted and surveyed anchorages, channels, and harbors in Makin Island, Kwajalein, and Guam, where fighting was still going on even as the craft commenced her task. DEAN SPAULDING TELLS OF BAD ACCIDENT WITH JET PLANE IN CALIFORNIA

March Field, Calif., February 12, 1946
Dear Mr. Holford:

I'm not doing anything so I thought I would drop you a line or two. We had a very bad accident today involving a close friend of mine, Captain Homer Worley, who was killed in a P-80 jet, the Shooting Star. He left the field about 9:30 this morning and he crashed about 11:30 in the morning, and they didn't find him till 4:30 this afternoon. The plane was a total wreck as they only found parts of his body; for example, they found his ring in one part and his watch in another.

This Captain was Engineering Officer and I worked for him since November as this was when the 39th Reconnaissance Squadron was organized. We didn't get our Jet Planes in until we hit March Field about the first of December and he was devoted very much to the future of these Jets. His death now brings the total to two as the other was the famous Major Bong. Captain Worley was married and the father of an 18-months-old child. He was only 26 years old.

Well, that is about all I have to say right now as I have a few more letters to write, and I hope this note finds you in the best of spirits and health.

Yours,
PVT. DEAN SPAULDING.

HORTON TRACY, NOW A LIEUTENANT COLONEL, IS ANTICIPATING DISCHARGE

"Here it is at last—we're headed for home—leaving for Texas this week," says a note from Mrs. H. H. Tracy, postmarked at Bethesda, Maryland. She is the former Doris Sellers of Hico.

"So from now on, we hope," the message continues, "our permanent address will be Fort Stockton. We've surely been anxious to start toward home, but it looks as if everybody is beating us out. Horton got to be a Lieutenant Colonel, but even that didn't keep us from yearning for Texas, and today he's going through the separation center at the Pentagon Building. I hope to heavens they don't find something to keep him longer."

"I hope we can come to Hico this Spring—five years it's been since I was last in Hico. I never did think I'd be away that long."

"We have a cute little red-headed girl you'd like—not quite as 'pink' as Carolyn used to say her hair was—but her Granddad Sellers says she gets it from him. He can't prove it now, can he?"

Doris sends best regards to all her old friends in this section, and wishes them good luck.

WILL YOU TAKE ONE LAST LOOK...TOO SOON?

There have been a lot of farm sales in this locality in the last couple of years. Just count up the number of farmers you know who have given up their places...given them up during the best opportunity in their lives for making real money. Why? Run over in your mind, once more, the list of farmers you know who have retired. Didn't most of them quit just because they were physically unable to go on any longer? They were hard workers, but they had worked too hard for too long. Many men past sixty right around here have found a way to add years to their active career on the land. They are using the Ford Tractor with Ferguson System. They have done away with back-breaking labor.

Implements attach to their tractors so easily their six-year-old grandsons can actually put implements on or take them off. Hands that have years of hard work written on them now move a little finger tip lever that sets, raises or lowers ground tools. While their work is easier, they are getting more done, and they are doing it at far less cost. Most important, they are continuing to live the kind of life they want to live. The next time you are going by our place of business stop in for a few minutes and let us tell you about the important features of the Ford Tractor with Ferguson System and Ferguson Implements...the modern farm equipment that will add years to your active life on your farm.

Mrs. J. O. Richardson

We received a slow rain over the week end. Grain is looking fine and winter grass is also pretty and green, making us feel that spring is just around the corner.

Preparations are being made to open a picture show here in the Woodman building, over the Edwards and Williford garage. Repairs are being made on the upper floor. At this writing we have not learned the name of the operators or when their first picture will be shown.

Several from here attended singing at the Church of Christ in Hamilton Sunday afternoon. Those whose names we secured were Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Parks and daughter, Miss Ovie, Mrs. Brittle Little, and Mr. and Mrs. Claud Brunson.

P. L. Cox underwent a major operation at Hillcrest Memorial Hospital in Waco Monday morning. Latest reports were that he was resting fairly well since the operation. His daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Price of Austin, came in Thursday of last week to be with him, as Mrs. Cox is visiting in San Diego, California. Mr. Cox was conveyed to Waco Friday afternoon of last week. If his condition remains fair, he is expected to be able to return home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Patterson and two children, Joan and Butch of Dallas, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison, and family. Mrs. Patterson is the former Miss Robbie Lee Allison. Mr. Patterson came to Hamilton Saturday for a load of produce for Mr. Davidson of Hamilton.

Mrs. T. L. Betts of Fort Worth spent the week end here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brummett were guests of Mrs. Brittle Little on Valentine's Day. Mrs. Brummett stated that their daughter, Mona, had undergone a major operation in California, where she now resides, on Friday, Feb. 8, for an embedded goiter and also an appendix operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitt Whitson of Dallas spent the week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Whitson, and to be with his former classmate and friend, Buster Blount and wife of San Antonio.

Last Saturday afternoon we heard a rap on our front door and who did we find but our former neighbor boy, Buster Blount, of San Antonio and his new bride of hardly three weeks. They came over to spend the week end with his friends and former neighbors in the Fairy community. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Blount, accompanied them as far as the home of her mother, Mrs. Webb and son, J. D., of near Hamilton and spent the week end there. We'll have to admit Buster gave us a big surprise. But we must say we greatly admired his charming young wife, Ada, with beautiful brown eyes and hair, and during our short acquaintance find her to be a most lovable character.

Buster, Glenn and family attended the funeral of his father at Walnut Springs Thursday of last week.

Blount - Braswell

On Tuesday, Jan. 29, at 8 p. m. Mr. Howell Granger Blount and Miss Ada Braswell were united in marriage at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Richey of Grassland, Texas, with Rev. Johnson, Nazarine minister of that place, officiating.

Howell is an only child of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Blount of San Antonio, but formerly of Fairy. He recently received his discharge from the service after several years of overseas service, and is a young man of sterling qualities.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Braswell of Portales, New Mexico, but formerly of San Antonio and Brownwood. She is a most charming and lovable character. She was in her Senior year of school work.

We wish for this handsome couple the very best that life affords. Howell will be employed with the Civil Service at San Antonio, a position he held prior to entering the service. They will be at home at 329 Canavan Ave., San Antonio.

Rains are getting to be so numerous out this way that we neglected starting this news in the customary way. But we really had that old-time chunk mover Sunday night when over two inches of rain fell here. We have beautiful sunshine today (Monday). The hard rain packed the roads and many of the farmers are in town.

B. M. King has been on the sick list for several days, but seems to be better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ross of Fort

Worth spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jenkins.

Jake Lackey and wife visited Mrs. Lackey's sister, Mrs. Stanley Roach.

Tom Wallace, a student at JTAC and a discharged war veteran of the Air Corps, preached an excellent sermon at the Church of Christ last Sunday. He will return the third Sunday in March.

Bob Money of near Breckenridge spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. L. B. Giesecke, and family.

Pack Brown and family spent Sunday with Pack's mother, Mrs. Henry Killion, and husband who reside in the Harbin community.

Mr. and Mrs. Dub Howard are the new parents of a 9½-pound son, born Friday in the Stephenville Hospital. All concerned are doing well.

This correspondent and his wife attended a birthday dinner at McGregor given for their granddaughter, Nita Lee King, who was 12 months of age last Friday.

EXPERT DESIGNING

Gives Each New Freedom Gas Kitchen a Feeling of Spacious and Roominess

FIRST CHOICE of New Home Planners

Study the design of the New Freedom Gas Kitchen above and you'll see why it is in a class by itself.

While small and compact, the kitchen is so expertly designed that it has the feeling of spaciousness. Its three work centers—preparation, cooking and clean-up—are located and spaced to save steps. There is plenty of storage space and adequate work surfaces. And right in the middle of this lovely kitchen is the preferred cooking appliance—the automatic gas range. In your remodeling or new home plans be sure that whatever "make" range you buy, around which to build your New Freedom Gas Kitchen, carries the CP seal. Then you'll know it has all the best features of dozens of ranges combined into one.

"TAX" FOR WAGE INCREASES

Higher prices appear to be the formula for settling strikes. If manufacturers are permitted to get more of their goods, they will naturally be in a position to pay higher wages. Perhaps it is the only way out. But what such a settlement means is this: the wage increases which labor has demanded are going to be paid by the people. When you pay more than the price named in the original ceiling, you will be paying that extra amount in order to help meet the wage increases demanded by the automobile workers. All along the line, no matter what you buy, a tax will be added for wage increases. The people who will suffer most from this limited inflation will be those who didn't strike, who don't belong to unions, and who will have to pay higher prices without getting any increases in income.

REACHING FOR THE MOON

In the history books of the future, January, 1946, may be recorded as one of the most important months of all time. For in January of this year the people of this earth made their first actual contacts with the moon and with the sun.

The moon was contacted by radar from Belmar, N. J. The sun was contacted from Australia.

To those of us who are not scientists, these contacts may mean little. The fact that an electrical wave was sent out into space and bounced back to register an impression on a man-made instrument leaves us rather cold. As one newspaper reporter said, after watching the experiment, "It is the dullest show on earth."

But to scientists it is packed with excitement. For it apparently heralds discoveries which may eventually change our lives even more than will the discovery of atomic energy.

FAIR PROFITS

The American public is under the impression that automobile manufacturers enjoy profits amounting to more than three times their actual profits.

That amazing discovery, which undoubtedly has much to do with labor's rebellion against management, was made as a result of a nationwide survey sponsored by profit would be a fair one—although no automobile manufacturer in the country has made a profit as high as that either during the war or before the war. Over the years, a profit of six to eight per cent seems to have been about normal for the automobile industry. Yet, according to the survey, the average citizen thinks these big manufacturers make a profit of over 20 per cent.

IT'S TRUE

Two-headed snakes are fairly common.

A 16th century Earl of Oxford was fined 15,000 marks, or $50,000, for too lavishly entertaining his king, Henry VIII of England.

Ancient Babylonian businessmen of 3,000 years ago occasionally organized holding companies.

"Cracking" will convert as much as 80 per cent of heavy oil into gasoline.

The natural "chimneys" in the Valley of Ten Thousand Smokes in the course of a year will yield 1,250,000 tons of hydrochloric acid and 200,000 tons of hydrofluoric acid.

One pound of the element uranium No. 235 has a power output equal to 5,000,000 pounds of coal or 3,000,000 gallons of gasoline.

This and That . . . by Joe Smith Dyer

MUSICAL COMPLAINT:

I may be a little bit old-fashioned when it comes to music—real harmony—because I like the songs that were written when men and women were really romantic.

Compare the old songs and the semi-classical pieces with the abject, tainted words and the awful asinine whine of the present-day composer or singer and see which you like best. Compare some old song writer and then think of the awful agony of the acknowledged or modern and popular song writer of today. They really do not write songs—they just compose a lot of noise.

When one thinks of Mendelssohn or Wagner or some of the other song writers of another day and then turns on the radio and listens to the time wasters who repeat unrelated triangle "dirt" that half rhymes, and all set to jazzed-up tunes of some half-heaven tribe, it makes many people wish that some genius would give us a way to radio our resentments with a nice dozen of rotten eggs.

NOT SO DUMB:

The farmer's daughter may not be so dolled up, neither is she so dumb. Here they are telling a story about a salesman who was traveling over the country in a beautiful new car which broke down in front of Zeke McCool's place many miles from town. While the garage men were working on the car, that smart salesman took Zeke's daughter, Dora, for a ride with a horse and buggy. The high-pressured salesman had driven out quite a distance and had made the old horse trot and, not being accustomed to so much exertion, the old animal toppled over and died.

Thinking to take advantage of the opportunity the salesman—who was strong on having people sign on the dotted line—turned to Dora at his side and boldly stated that he intended kissing her right then and there.

"Kiss?" she asked. "What is a kiss?"

"Don't you know what a kiss is?" he asked.

"No," she replied.

"Well," he said, "a kiss will put new life into you."

"Oh," she exclaimed, with sudden enlightenment. "Then kiss the horse and let's go home."

Dora was not so dumb, and the salesman was speechless, so they both walked back to Dora's home where the members of the farmer's family all know their stuff.

The most fun is found in sincerely striving. Arriving is the end.

Wee Bits of JESTURE

(Opinions expressed in this weekly feature are the writer's, and not necessarily those of the News Review.—ED.)

Well, folks, I got "misquoted" in last week's column. It seems my boss (Editor) like myself can not talk about "bureaucrats and polecats" without getting them mixed up and last week in preparing my script for the press, he made a mistake and "bureaucrated" me twice.

Now, folks, ordinarily a misquotation would have been ignored by me, but this one reflects on my knowledge of politics and I feel that it threatens my whole "political career." Yes, that's right, I might as well come clean with it and let you folks in on my secret, so here it is—I am going to enter politics! Sure, I knew you would be surprised, all right, but as a matter of fact I have been making plans for some two or three months to enter politics and here a while back I just sat right down and ordered me an 800-page encyclopedia that tells all about how to become an expert in "bungling."

Don't know but what I'll do a little "yachting on the Potomac" myself. So far, I have read only some two or three chapters of it, but it is very easy to see that by reading it through, I can become an expert "bungler"; that would qualify me for any position in "official Washington" including the White House.

Gosh, I just happened to think of something. Say, Boss, your paper isn't like the "Stars and Stripes" paper, is it? I sure don't want to be exiled on Okinawa for expressing my opinions. But, confound it, I'm just not going to allow myself to get "weak in the knees". After all, I am trying to bring democracy back. Why, somebody might even "dare me to question their integrity." Then what would I do? Let me think, now, what would I do? I got it! I'd just wait and see how "Mr. Ickes comes out."

SENIOR NEWS

We want to thank everyone who has donated paper to our paper collection. By the time you read this we hope to have completed our drive.

We thought we would have our play selected by now but a few minor difficulties arose and we finally compromised by ordering more play books.

JUNIOR NEWS

We were happy to see such good ball games as we saw Friday night between Hico and Eastland. The boys game was close, and very exciting, but our boys finally won. The girls won also.

Seems like the Junior Class is going to dwindle down to nothing. H. C. Connally has gone to Dallas.

One of our teachers is also leaving us. She is Mrs. Colwick who has been teaching typing and Junior Business since Mid-Term. She told us Friday that Mrs. Blair would take her place. We hope she enjoys her new home.

We have missed Dale Haggard from our class for several days. She has been ill with ptomaine poison.

We would like to thank the people who bought sandwiches Friday night. We certainly appreciated your business and cooperation.

We still miss the smiling faces of Mrs. Slaughter and Mrs. Roberts from the lunch room. We hope their health will soon permit them to be back again.

We received our play books Monday and are beginning to try out for the parts. We hope everyone enjoys it.

FRESHMAN NEWS

Our class is very sorry to have Mrs. Colwick, our Junior Training teacher, leave us. We want to welcome our new teacher, Mrs. S. E. Blair Jr.

Last February 9th, the Freshmen had a nice farewell party for Norma Joy Jackson, not knowing she was going to stay here. All of us are very glad she can stay.

We are very proud of all the freshman boys and girls who play basketball.

If anyone would like to know some good (?) cooks, just ask Miss Hammons about the Freshman girls' biscuits and muffins, made in Homemaking class.

HOMEMAKING NEWS

Last Thursday night a very nice time was had by all the boys and girls who went to the Homemaking party in the Band Room.

Twenty-six young people enjoyed the games such as "I Sail My Ship", "Blowout", "Streets and Alleys" and many other delightful games.

We then went to the Homemaking cottage for refreshments and the Valentine box.

Refreshments were in the form of box suppers. There were many lovely boxes decorated to suit the occasion. Tea was served for the beverage.

The first year girls had to make a lovely Valentine box in red, white and blue colors.

Everybody who attended the party was pleased to think that no one could have had a nicer time than they did on that Valentine's day.

SPORTS EDITION OF THE MIRROR

Last Tuesday night the Tigers went to their ancient rivals' gym to tangle with the Bulldogs, and came back with one of the Bulldogs' teeth, while the Tigers left a little hide in the mouth of the Bulldogs — in other words, the girls lost their game and the boys took theirs. The girls put up a good scrap against the Bulldogs, who had them bested in height and weight all the way around. The boys had better luck, and after a very hard-fought game came out with a 19 to 16 win.

Friday night found Eastland in the Tigers' gym, and this time both girls and boys walked off with both victories. The girls had no trouble at all winning their game, but the boys played for all they were worth during the whole of the game.

This year's conference in basketball is by now nearly at its close, but don't forget about the County Tournament. Look for its date in this column in the near future.

IN THE CRYSTAL BALL

A mist lies over the crystal ball. Then a light shines through and the first vision appears—Wendall Seago courting up a storm with Betty Dodd. Bobbie Jaggars was with James Howerton on the exact same night (Friday, to be exact).

Sunday, James Lee was buzzing around in his car with some girls whose identity was not revealed.

Donald and Willa Dean were together Saturday. The strangest things happen.

Juan G. certainly looked worried for a while Thursday night. I have but one question to ask: Why?

Odell Terry was seen in a green pick-up Thursday night, and he wasn't by his lonesome, either. All we want to know is: "Who was with him?" What have you got to say for yourself, Odell?

Norma Joy was awfully angry Friday night, and we noticed that Dub wasn't with her. Who knows the whole story? If you really want to know, see me and we'll conjure up a vision.

We have the most astonishing news for you. It's actually the most bewildering and unheard-of thing that has ever been known to happen in the limits of our fair city. Jack was lone-wolfing it Friday night! No dame, no nothing.

My curiosity has really been aroused by Bonnie H. and Yvonne W. Who were those guys they were with Friday night? And what were they doing in Hico of all places?

Ah! Peace has prevailed. Norma Joy and Dub were together Saturday night. You know the old saying—"All's well that ends well." Laverne Parker was seen on the arm of Ralph Turner at the show Saturday night. Likewise Patsy Ruth and Terry Thompson.

Again my curiosity is aroused. Who was on the other end of the mysterious phone call Wanda Jean McLendon received?

I intend to find out sooner or later if Melvin Jaggars still wants to see Maldee Ash, and if so what about?

Odell Terry enters the picture again this time with Mary K. Something has been puzzling me for quite a while. Who is Delvin Stone and why is he getting to be so popular with certain H. H. S. girls?

Look, you-all, there's a paper shortage but that stuff isn't so scarce that you couldn't manage a letter every once in a while, no asking advice, to kind of show there's still someone reading this column. After all, we have a little pride, me'n my It, and we'd certainly appreciate a bit of correspondence so's we can air our views, even if they aren't very good. So, please, huh?

REFLECTIONS

The subject I have picked for this week concerns a very small group of people. It is not a pleasant one and I know that writing it isn't going to make me very popular but believe me, what I am going to say is not only my opinion but the opinion of a large majority of high school students, teachers and citizens of Hico. It's called "Loyalty."

When we played Eastland here Friday night, there were certain H. H. S. students who persisted in cheering for Eastland. That, of course, was all right, but the bad part was that they razed our own team.

It so happens that these students were girls who play basketball themselves. I hardly think they were justified in booing our team and I know they didn't gain anything by it. It's true that the boys often tease the girls about losing a game, but I have yet to hear them "boo" the girls while they are playing.

Not only was it rude in the girls to do this, it showed very poor sportsmanship. You may think this all was very clever; that it made people notice you and it did. But not for the reason you think.

The people who noticed you were not admiring you at all and what they had to say later wasn't exactly complimentary. Of course you meant all of your insults for the boys alone, but they weren't the only ones you insulted. Their families, friends and the school all felt your unjust criticisms and won't soon forget them. There's no reason or excuse for what happened; girls, I think you owe someone an apology.

While we're talking about basketball and such there's another little difficulty that must be overcome and that's slamming the referee. Remember, he's not being paid for his job and he wants to be treated just as square as he tries to treat you. It's hard for him to see everything that goes on during the game and everyone makes mistakes. If you aren't careful you'll get an awful inferiority complex and start thinking that he's always for the other team. So stop calling him names and treat him fair, you'll find he's just as human as you are.

There are times when the ring of a telephone bell seems as vital as a heartbeat. A sick child . . . fire on the farm . . . an accident . . . sick livestock . . . Emergencies such as these make the telephone, with its lightning-like ability to speed help, a true friend in need to the farmer. That is why telephone service remains a "must" for so many farmers at all times.

Keeney's Hatchery

Baby Chicks, Poults, Remedies and Supplies

We Sell and Recommend TEXO Poultry and Livestock Feeds

HICO, TEXAS
 February 22, 1946

DEAR MR. FARMER:

Have you ever noticed, in your visits to Hatcheries, that a great number of the hatcherymen always have a surplus of chicks and invariably have to sell their chicks at reduced prices to move enough of them out of batteries to keep running their incubators? Had you ever stopped to think why this is the case? There's a reason.

We have an average size hatchery — 56,000 eggs — and set about as many eggs as the average hatcheryman, but you've never seen us over-crowded with chicks. We attribute this, not to luck or super-salesmanship, but to the fact that we have always produced QUALITY chicks and sold them at a price the farmer can afford to pay. Through the years the buyers have learned that they can depend on Keeney's chicks to live and grow, lay and pay. Every precaution is taken to see that our eggs are properly incubated and hatched in a way that will produce a chick that will live. We would appreciate your coming in and inspecting our equipment.

If you are interested in raising a few more chicks, getting a few more eggs per bird, then get your chicks from KEENEY'S.

Write us, call or come to see us for your CHICKS and POULTS. All chicks and poults are U. S. Approved or U. S. CERTIFIED.

We have a complete line of brooders, oil and electric; feeders, founts, and Chick and Turkey Starting Feeds. We will both lose money if you fail to see us.

Yours for QUALITY at fair prices,

KEENEY'S HATCHERY

HEALTH WITH A SMILE

Heat Treatment for Asthma

By Dr. J. B. Warren

Asthma is not due in all cases to any one cause, some cases being caused by defects of nose and throat, others by allergy to various substances—pollen, dust, furs, feathers, foods. Treatment in these cases is by correction of defects and desensitizing by the allergic substances.

Fever produced by high frequency currents was tried and found to be a safe method of treatment. The temperature is kept at 104 degrees F. at rectum, for eight hours. Usually two treatments are given.

AN AMERICAN . . . "I know I am going to die, but I want to die an American citizen," said Mrs. Francine Heltterbran, 43, Charleroi, Pa., a native of Belgium. Judge Roy S. Carson, Washington county, went to her home, where she had been confined for 18 years by an incurable internal ailment, with her citizenship papers.
