

VOLUME LXII

HICO, TEXAS, FRIDAY, JULY 5, 1946.

NUMBER 7.

"SO YOU DON'T LIKE TEXAS" is the title of a booklet issued for free distribution to veterans by the Hico Chamber of Commerce.

"This is your first trip to Texas. You have been here a few weeks and you are more than ready to go home. Texans are all right, but you just cannot get along with them."

"You have been taught that if a thing needs to be done, then do it right now. Texans are a little different. They reason that if you wait until tomorrow or next week or next year, maybe you will not have to do it. It usually works out that way, especially if there is somebody like you around all fired up to do it right now. Which is all right with Texas."

"A native Texan would rather sit down and talk it over than get the job done. He likes to talk and after he has told you his family history, he sits back expectantly, eager to hear you tell yours."

"To you, the furrier from up north (which may mean that you are from Kentucky or California), Texans seem nosy. It isn't that you have anything to hide, but you wonder why anyone should be interested in things which are strictly none of his business."

"There is only one way you can ruffle the easy-going Texan. Ruffle him? You will make him fighting mad. You persist in it. That one thing is to try to change him, to teach him to become like you. He does not want to be like you. He confidently expects to live to put flowers on the graves of people like you, and he usually does. He reasons that if you don't like this country you can go back where you came from. And sure enough you do!"

"Or maybe you don't. Probably circumstances detain you a while longer, an unwilling guest in friendly Texas. What happens? Do you continue to try to change Mr. and Mrs. Texas into a perfect composite of Messrs. and Meesdames Massachusetts, Maine, Michigan and Montana? No, you realize you might as well try to change the miles of grassy plains into a range of snow-capped peaks."

"So you admit, a bit grumpy perhaps, that Texans are Texans, and that is that. And since you cannot change them, you must make the necessary adjustments to get along peacefully with them. But how? The answer is simple. Be yourself and allow them to be themselves. Do your job as it should be done when it should be done, and let their jobs go undone unless that interferes with your own work. In that instance you may prove the native gently, and if he does not respond, then do your job and his too. He will smile tolerantly and think you are a sap."

"And you? In time you will be the boss. He may resent it for a day or an hour, but no longer. After all, if you want to work yourself to an early grave for the sake of a few extra dollars or a little added glory—well, it's a free country."

"As his boss, you will realize that you cannot drive him. You cannot even lead him without slowing down, and that would be fatal to anyone geared as high as you."

"So you leave him somewhere behind. And when you go, he will give you a surprise party with presents. You are so deeply touched that you are embarrassed, and to hide your feelings you are brusque. But your Texas friends do not hold that against you because they have learned from experience that you are a square shootin' guy, even tho' you have never learned to let your hair down."

"With your drive, your success in Texas is assured. At the height of that success, you take a trip back home. You rush out to see old friends, to give them the glad hand. The first fellow you meet seems a bit cold, not half as glad to see you as you are to see him. It could not be that he is jealous of your success. No, impossible. He must be worried about something. Perhaps you were not sufficiently interested in him and his business. Should you look him up again, ask some friendly questions?"

"You meet some other friends, and they are all alike, lacking in warmth and friendliness. None of them have done as well as you, doubtless due to the stiff competition in that country. But they should not resent your success. No, jealousy was not the answer. But what?"

"Disappointed in your vacation, you return to Texas and feel a glow at the prospect of getting back into the old business. Your Texas friends and acquaintances welcome you back, give you the

TROMBONIST

TOMMY DORSEY

DALLAS, June 2.—It's State Fair of Texas-bound for Tommy Dorsey and his orchestra, plus Ziggy Elman, the hottest trumpet player in captivity; Tamer Aswad, popular Assyrian baritone; and 36 other instrumentalists who have followed the Dorsey baton to the top spot in the nation's band hierarchy.

R. L. Thornton, president of the State Fair association, has announced that Dorsey and his orchestra have been booked to appear in Fair Park Auditorium Oct. 5-20 for the first postwar State Fair. A total of 22 performances will be presented, Mr. Thornton said.

Dorsey, the nation's ace popular bandleader and trombone virtuoso, will have an augmented concert orchestra of 28 pieces. The surrounding show, expected to include other entertainers of equal note, will be arranged by the special attractions committee, made up of Julius Schepps, chairman, W. H. Heitzelberger, vice-president and general manager of the State Fair association, Jordan Ownby, and Charles R. Meeker Jr., Auditorium manager.

The State Fair association has allocated $100,000 to underwrite the stage show, Mr. Thornton said. This is said to be the largest guarantee ever posted for a State Fair Auditorium production.

Katy Now Offers Through Service To New York

ST. LOUIS, July 1.—Additional through sleeping car service between San Antonio and New York, via Dallas, will become effective on July 7, officials of the Frisco, Katy and Pennsylvania Railroads announced today.

The new service becomes effective on the same day that the Katy-Frisco "Texas Special" starts operation as a through train between San Antonio and New York in conjunction with the Baltimore and Ohio.

Sleeping cars will operate eastbound from San Antonio, via Dallas, on the Katy-Frisco "Texas Special," arriving in St. Louis the following morning at 8:30 a. m. They will depart for New York at 10:00 a. m. on the Pennsylvania's "American," arriving in New York the following morning at 7:55 a. m.

Westbound, the through cars will leave New York daily at 7:50 p. m., on the Pennsylvania's "American," arriving in St. Louis the following afternoon at 3:40 p. m., and leave St. Louis on the Frisco-Katy "Texas Special" at 5:30 p. m. to arrive in Dallas at 9:55 a. m., and San Antonio at 5:35 p. m. the next day.

The through sleeping car service will be in addition to the through train service announced by the Katy, Frisco, NYC and B&O railroads earlier this week. The "Texas Special" will operate from San Antonio to New York and Washington, carrying both chair cars and Pullmans. Using this service, passengers eastbound leave San Antonio at 8:45 a. m.; Dallas at 4:15 p. m.; Fort Worth at 4:00 p. m.; arriving St. Louis at 8:30 a. m. the next day, and with arrivals at Washington at 7:35 a. m. and New York at 8:00 a. m. the second day.

Westbound departures of the through train will be at 7:30 p. m. from New York and 8:05 p. m. from Washington, leaving St. Louis at 5:30 p. m. the next afternoon with arrivals in Dallas and Fort Worth at 9:55 a. m. and San Antonio at 5:35 p. m. the second day.

glad hand; they say they missed you, ask interesting questions, hope you had a nice trip. You are grateful for their interest, flattered by their warm welcome.

"Alone you ponder, What was the matter with the old friends back home? Don't you know? They are the way you used to be. You are a Texan now!"

Post-War Edition Of Texas Highway Map Is Off Press

AUSTIN, July 1, Sp1.—Another bid for out-of-state tourists is in the making as the Texas Highway Department announces limited quantities of its first postwar color travel map are now rolling off the presses.

The expected bumper crop of summer tourists in the Lone Star State will be guided over Texas highways with the aid of a map that will give visitors a brief introduction to the State's points of interest. In addition it will afford a complete, accurate, easy-to-read travel map for the use of all.

The de luxe map is expected to be the most popular feature at the Department's Information Bureau which have been reopened at strategic points to supply postwar tourists with reliable up-to-date facts on highways and tourist attractions which support one of the state's largest and fastest growing "cash crops."

The postwar edition carries a small scale map of the United States, the usual large scale insets of the State's metropolitan areas, strip maps of the main Texas travel routes and the Pan American Highway into Mexico. It gives mileages between towns and carries a supplementary mileage chart. The highway marking system is explained with illustrations and there is a column of miscellaneous facts about the nation's largest State.

Shown also are the State and National parks, some of the old Missions, and other points of historical interest. Twenty-six color pictures, which will be changed in each subsequent edition, depict typical Texas scenes.

The outside of the map, when folded for mailing, bears a picture of the State Capitol and another of Governor Coke Stevenson. Below the Governor's picture is his official greeting "To Motorists Everywhere." In his message Governor Stevenson extends to the people of other States and Nations a cordial invitation to visit Texas and enjoy the hospitality of its people. "The highways of Texas are yours," he says. "Use them freely for your business and pleasure."

Plenty of Produce Available to Meet County Food Needs

Hamilton County residents will offset short supplies of meat, wheat, fats, and oils by consuming nearly 7,208,600 pounds of the nation's bumper fresh fruit and vegetable crop to maintain high nutritional standards this year, it was predicted today by a leading food distributor.

"Fresh fruits and vegetables will adequately supplement the limited supplies of many foods now available," said Harvey Baum, head of A. & P. Food Stores' produce-buying operations. "Increased use of perishable produce will permit shipment of other foods to those hunger-ridden nations now subsiding on daily diets ranging from 1,000 to 1,500 calories as compared with an average of 3,300 calories for this country."

Part of the fresh fruits and vegetables consumed by Hamilton County residents comes from this county's 1,897 farms and neighboring growers. Large amounts of perishables are received from other sections to meet the county's year-round needs. The development of more efficient distribution methods, Baum said, has helped double fresh fruit and vegetable consumption in the past 25 years and makes possible a greater selection of foods necessary for a well-rounded diet and a higher standard of living.

Basing his estimates on preliminary indications of food production and consumption for 1946, Baum said that each person in the county will eat an average of 1,695 pounds of food this year. This represents a 10 per cent increase over the 1935-1939 average, with fresh fruits and vegetables accounting for nearly one third of the food to be consumed, he added.

FEATURE WRITER FOR HOUSTON PAPER VISITS IN HICO THIS WEEK

Jim Carroll, who is making a swing around the State on an assignment from the Houston Press, visited Hico Tuesday for an interview with a few people on the governor's race. The feature writer had already covered East and Northeast Texas, and his schedule called for visits in every section of the State before the July Primaries.

In connection with the tie-up of politics and State University matters, Carroll also was seeking information in the home town of a prominent instructor at State University, Dr. Everett Hale, who was reared here but moved away several years ago.

PAPER EARLY THIS WEEK

As per announcement in last week's paper, this issue of the News Review is being put in the mails early in order that it may be circulated locally before July 4.

It is realized that many items have been missed on account of the misplaced press day, but the excellent cooperation of correspondents, advertisers and the general public in responding to the plea for early copy has made it possible for the News Review force to observe the annual holiday, along with the rest of the town.

Indications at press time were that the entire town would observe the usual custom of closing for the holiday.

Thanks are due our friends for making our plans work out as they did.

Displays of New Cotton Fabrics At Dallas Exhibition

DALLAS, July 2.—Extensive displays of new fabrics that will help cotton to maintain its leadership in the textile field will be a feature of exhibits at the seventh annual Cotton Research Congress at the Baker Hotel, July 8-9. Sam E. Kent, Dallas, member of the exhibits committee, said today. Home Demonstration Agents and club members, teachers and students of home economics, retail merchants and others interested in men's and women's wear are being extended a special invitation to see the exhibit, Kent said.

Fashion, smart color combinations and newest textures in fabrics for women and children will be stressed, but the men will not be slighted, he points out, as the exhibit will contain fine combed cotton fabrics developed for men's apparel. An industrial fabrics booth also will be included.

Cotton clothing also will be a feature of a special night session of the Congress, July 8, arranged by the National Cotton Council, Burris C. Jackson, general chairman of the Statewide Cotton Committee, Congress sponsor, has announced.

"Cotton, a World Force," the theme of the 1946 meeting, will be discussed by authorities on international trade, domestic cotton policies, cottonseed products, and farm production. Exhibits of farm machinery, food and feed products from cottonseed, research results, and other developments are planned.

The Junior girls of the Hico Baptist Church have recently organized and have chosen "Light Bearers" as the class name with blue and gold as class colors, and for a song, "Send the Light." For a class motto we have chosen Matthew 5:16, "Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good works and glorify your Father, which is in Heaven."

The class members are Marcelyn Dodd, president; Dorothy Bullard, vice president; Wilma Joyce Woodard, secretary; Frances Tomlinson, assistant secretary; Thelma Jean Rainwater, treasurer; Mary Helen Phillips, Wynnell Trantham and Peggy Jan Ellis. Our teacher is Mrs. Clarence Gibson.

We want all girls, ages 9 to 12 years who are not members of any other Sunday School class to join our class. REPORTER.

State Health Officer Gives Information On Rat Pest Control

AUSTIN, July 1.—Because of the economic losses they cause to industry and commerce and the annoyance they create in homes, rats have been considered a serious menace to mankind since long before their role as vectors of disease was understood. Today at least six diseases which are transmitted to man from the rat are known to medical science, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. These diseases include the dread plague, typhus, trichinosis, a form of jaundice, tapeworm, and food poisoning. The whole history of the role rats play in the transmission of disease remains as yet unknown.

"It is necessary to public health," Dr. Cox said, "that a continuous rat control program be maintained in every urban and rural area throughout Texas. This is of especial importance on farms where rats may flourish by feeding on grain and other farm products."

The doctor pointed out that rats like other living things, require food and shelter if they are to propagate and increase in number. Destroying their shelter and breeding places includes the employing of ratproof design in buildings, the use of ratproof materials in construction, employing ratproof methods of construction and installation, and providing for periodic inspection of buildings to insure permanent safety. This program will force the rat out into the open where its destruction may be accomplished.

Of equal importance as a control measure is the elimination of all food supplies. This consists of storing all foods in ratproof buildings or in ratproof containers, the proper storage and disposal of garbage, and careful feeding of stock to prevent waste food from being picked up by the rats. By observing these control measures, the community will benefit not only in the eradication of a nuisance and economic menace, but in improved health conditions and the prevention of rat-borne diseases.

World's Largest Land-Based Bomber Ready for Tests

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Construction of the world's largest land-based bomber, the XB-36, has been completed at the Fort Worth plant of Consolidated-Vultee Aircraft Corporation, and a five to six weeks' ground test program has been initiated, the Army Air Forces announced today. Initial flights of the new bomber are not scheduled until later in the summer, the date depending on the progress of the ground and taxi tests.

Upon completion of the tests, the new airplane will be assigned to the Strategic Air Command, which has the responsibility of planning and executing all AAF commitments requiring long-range and heavy bombers. The XB-36, designed and constructed under the supervision of the Air Materiel Command, is powered by six Pratt-Whitney 3,000 horsepower engines. It has a wing spread of 230 feet and a fuselage length of 163 feet. Pusher type propellers are set into the after part of the wing.

The XB-36 requires a crew of 15 who are accommodated in pressurized compartments.

REVIVALIST

REV. W. L. HUGHES

A revival meeting will begin at Olin Baptist Church July 7, according to announcement from members with request for publication in the News Review.

Evangelist W. L. Hughes of Houston will do the preaching in the meeting which will continue through July 14th. The general public has a cordial invitation to attend.

Announce Plans For Repatriation of World War II Dead

The American Legion passes on to the general public the following information which is of special interest to those who lost sons and husbands in the recent war:

On May 16, the War Department announced complete plans for the repatriation of 328,000 World War II deceased military and naval personnel buried outside the continental United States. A five year period is provided by the law but the War Department expects to complete the project much earlier. Cost is estimated at from 195 to 215 million dollars or $700 per man.

Under the law families will have the option of: Having the remains returned to the United States for final interment in a National Cemetery near their home. The cost of this will be borne entirely by the government.

Returning the remains to the United States or possessions for burial by next of kin in a private cemetery. The government will pay $50 toward the local burial expense and bear all cost of shipping the body home. Cremation at government expense is authorized when desired.

Burying the deceased in a permanent American military cemetery overseas. Caskets will be available this fall and the first shipment of war dead is expected at the end of the year.

Shipment of the deceased soldiers and sailors will be in special funeral vessels. Liberty ships, tank carriers and plane carriers will be adapted for the work. They will be painted white with a wide purple band circling the ship. Upon arrival the flag-draped seamless steel caskets will be transferred under military escort to thirteen redistribution points in special funeral trains composed of converted hospital coaches. The bodies will then be forwarded to place of burial.

It is estimated that the bodies will arrive in the United States beginning next year at the initial rate of 1200 a month, increasing to about 18,900 monthly by the end of 1947.

The first bodies to be returned home are expected to be those now buried in Hawaii and Belgium. In Hawaii, victims at Pearl Harbor total 3317, 1248 Army, 1516 Navy and 453 unidentified now buried in seven temporary cemeteries in the Islands. In Henri Chappelle Cemetery in Belgium 17,321 are buried. Fully checked, next of kin will soon be asked to state their wishes. These will be followed by those in France, Africa, Middle East, Mediterranean and the United Kingdom. Shortly afterwards, the return of remains will begin in the Caribbean Area, Bermuda, Australia, the Solomons, Philippines, Iwo Jima, Okinawa, China, India and Burma.

The American Legion is assisting in every possible way in the execution of this solemn trust.

Revival At Duffau Church of Christ To Start Friday

A meeting will begin at the Duffau Church of Christ at 8:30 p. m. ENSIGN ROSS GETS LEAVE BEFORE GOING TO ANOTHER SCHOOL

Ensign Moody Ross arrived in Hico Tuesday on a short leave after receiving his commission in the United States Naval Reserve Sunday, June 30, in commencement exercises at the University of Notre Dame, Indiana.

His class will be the last to be trained at Notre Dame under the Navy's war-time training program. Since 1941 a total of nearly 12,000 ensigns—more than the officer strength of the Regular Navy at the start of World War II—have been commissioned at Notre Dame. At the exercises Sunday, commissionees were presented to 133 graduates of the Naval R. O. T. C., announced Captain J. Richard Barry, U. S. N., Commandant of the Notre Dame Unit.

Moody has re-enlisted in the Naval Reserve for another year and expects to report to Portsmouth, New Hampshire, by June 13 for training as a supply officer.

From all appearances the local lad seems to like the Navy pretty well, as he wants to ship out to sea as soon as he is let out of school.

S/Sgt. Douglas Helvey, stationed at Bergstrom Field near Austin, where he is helping the Air Corps train Chinese as transport pilots, spent the past week end here in the home of his father, W. H. Helvey.

County H. D. Agent Gives Tips on Peaches And Potatoes

Harvesting Irish Potatoes

Irish potatoes should be thoroughly matured before harvesting if they are to be held in storage, J. F. Rosborough, Horticulturist for the A. & M. College Extension Service, cautions growers.

When the potato plants have lost their vigor and the leaves have begun to turn brown, then check the potatoes. Apply pressure to the skin of the potato with the thumb. The skin of a matured potato will resist the pressure, while the skin of one still immature will slip easily.

During the rainy weather of the last few weeks, Irish potatoes may have developed small, raised, white spots over the surface of the skin, which are commonly called water blisters. Potatoes in this condition decay rapidly if they are not properly handled. If the soil is beginning to dry out, the potatoes may be left for 10 to 14 days in the soil during which time the white spots on the surface will disappear.

In the event that the potatoes having water blisters have begun to rot in the soil, it will be necessary to harvest them and spread them out in a shady location where the wind can absorb the moisture given off by the potatoes. Water soaked potatoes will rot quickly if placed in storage. Keep them outside in the shade until the surface of the skin appears normal.

Peach Leaf Curl Control

Right now leaves on many peach trees are curling up and then dropping off—in some cases the trees have shed most of their leaves.

This condition, according to J. F. Rosborough and C. R. Heaton, horticulturists of the Texas A. & M. College Extension Service, is aptly known as peach leaf curl. It's always at its worst in cool, rainy seasons, such as we have been having over the eastern part of the state this year.

Rosborough and Heaton have been getting so many letters about peach leaf curl that they've decided to tell you a little about it—it's a fungus disease—it not only gets the leaves, but sometimes the twigs. Swells them up about 4 or 5 inches from the tip. Such twigs may die and drop off and in any case you needn't expect them to do much in the way of setting fruit next year.

What to do about it? Nothing much, right now, they say. The time to control leaf curl is during the winter when the trees are dormant. Then a lime-sulphur spray will give 90 to 95 per cent control the next year by killing the spores of the fungus. The same spray will hold San Jose Scale, Brown rot, and Scab in check.

Since leaf curl lowers the vitality of the tree and means less twig growth—and less fruit next season—Rosborough and Heaton say anything you can do to stimulate the growth of the tree will help, mainly frequent, shallow cultivation—and a little fertilizer. STEPHEN R. HARRISON, County Home Dem. Agent.

Earl Huddleston Gives Stand On Current Issues

Oglesby, Texas
 June 28, 1946

TO THE VOTERS:

I wish to give my stand on Old Age Assistance Grants, which are being cut, and Other Issues.

I am sure that most of you know that Old Age Assistance grants are being cut each month which I do not think is fair and have made protest to the Governor and Legislature. The County Welfare Workers and State Welfare Director are not to be blamed. The last legislature appropriated around seven million dollars more per year for Old Age Assistance; however, after the legislature adjourned, the people voted the Constitutional Amendment whereby more money could be spent for Social Security, so what was put in the Old Age Fund by the legislature is not now sufficient to take care of the amount allowed by the constitution of Texas, which is forty dollars per month for those eligible. I have been informed by State Welfare Director that there is money available in the State Treasury if the legislature sees fit to place it in the Old Age Fund, to take care of present needs; in other words, to pay the full amount under the constitution. I favor this being done because the aged people are entitled to this under the Texas Constitution, and further, they need same on account of the increased cost of living expenses. I have written Governor Coke Stevenson and have asked that if he calls Special Session of Legislature for The Redistricting The State in September that he include the question of placing more money in Old Age Fund which I feel the Legislature, if The Governor will submit this, which he must do before The Legislature can take the matter up.

I propose to use my influence as your Representative to this effect. I intend to vote for Redistricting if a fair bill is offered and think also that provision should be made then to strengthen our Law Enforcement Work in Texas by placing more men on Law Enforcement Force in order to check the mounting crime wave in Texas. Also I favor making provision for separate schools for Negroes. I do not favor the colored attending White schools under any circumstances, but do think we should attend to the matter of providing education for them in separate schools at once because the Texas Courts have ruled that we must do this or they can attend our schools. They gave us six months to make provisions so I think all good citizens will agree that we should do this.

I feel like the people are entitled to know my stand on these questions is why I am giving same to you.

Sincerely,
EARL HUDDLESTON,
 Rep. 94th District.

To The People
 OF COMMISSIONERS PRECINCT 3,
 HAMILTON COUNTY:

In previous advertisements of this nature you have been told about the way your finances and business have been handled by me as your commissioner. I am glad to report that with the precinct out of debt, there is now a nice cash balance on hand. I intend to use this money only for the most essential purposes, with the advice of substantial citizens, as long as I am privileged to handle your affairs.

Naturally I am proud of this record, and believe the taxpayers will be equally proud. During shortages of everything I haven't been able to do all the work I would have liked to do. However I believe I have followed your wishes in conserving money. Now with the war over I plan to keep in step with progress and believe we are entering a period when many improvements can be made that have not been possible recently.

Strict economy has been my watchword during the war years, but now an effort is being made to get in shape to take advantage of many opportunities to make wise investments and furnish employment through increased work on the roads.

I respectfully call your attention to the following statement, covering receipts and expenditures from December 20, 1945 through June 26, 1946:

MONEY RECEIVED

L. O. Vereckler, road work	$ 80.00
Raymond Lowe, old tire	7.50
L. A. Jaggars, cross ties	8.00
R. B. George, I tractor and refund	2,550.00
C. M. Tinkle, posts	12.50
Jack Sheppard, terracing	175.00
Wallace Ratliff, posts	18.00
C. A. Russell, 3 rims	8.00
Mrs. Dorothy Carpenter, road work	80.00
Hedges Ranch, posts	2.50
Jess Cole, road work	25.00
Bosque County, road work	74.00
John Giesek, terracing	287.00
Charlie Leeth, mowing hay	1.50
L. A. Jaggars, ditching	8.00
R. B. McClure, lumber	25.00
A. H. Burden, old tires	19.00
J. H. Woodard, lumber	11.00
City of Hico, street work	925.00
L. C. Jameson, mowing hay	7.50
TOTAL	44,554.30

DISBURSEMENTS

Labor	$ 1,194.10
Machinery Parts	472.25
Tires for Trucks and Maintainer	698.84
Machline Work on Trucks	209.05
Oil, Gas, and Diesel Fuel	577.91
Lumber, Wire, and Cedar Posts	1,522.02
1 R. D. Ford Tractor	5,290.00
TOTAL MONEY PAID OUT	12,276.77

With the precinct clear of indebtedness, there remains in the treasury at Hamilton, $23,444.32; in the bank at Hico, $3,478.38; and a sum of about $600.00 due on terracing (signed up by the Government). A sum of $1,850.00 has been put into U. S. War Bonds. This makes a total of $29,372.70 through the 26th of June.

The public is invited out at any time to inspect machinery and see how the work is handled by my operators. I would especially like to have the people see the equipment, some of which is being replaced by new machines.

In matters pertaining to road work, as in those pertaining to finances and conduct of the county's business, I have tried during the time I have been privileged to hold the office to use the best of my energies and judgment. I am making every effort to handle the county's affairs in a business-like manner, and welcome any constructive criticism or suggestion from taxpayers at any time.

Sincerely,
R. W. HANCOCK,
 Commissioner, Precinct 3, Hamilton County.

Dear Sue,

Monday
It's great to hear that you've started to build at last! Sorry, I'm an amateur about floor plans and such -- but I can give you experienced advice about one thing...your new refrigerator.

Get a Servel Gas Refrigerator. And if you can't get one right now, make your old refrigerator do until you can. Because when you do get a Servel, you'll forget refrigerator worries -- for good!

You see, we had a lot of trouble with refrigerators, till we switched to a Servel Gas Refrigerator. And I can tell you now -- I'd never have any other kind!

All during the war our Servel stayed perfectly silent...giving us the finest food protection...really dependable refrigeration service. Jim explained to me that that's because it hasn't a single moving part in its freezing system -- nothing to wear or get noisy -- and always on the job!

That's the one piece of advice I'd like to pass along, Sue. Make sure you get a Servel.

Meanwhile -- have fun with your house!

Love,

Kate

YOU and your fellow citizens spent two billion dollars to produce the atom bomb. You employed scientists and paid them high wages. You paid the salaries of the members of government whose duty it was to bring about the development of this weapon before the enemy "beat us to it."

Commissions have been appointed; plans have been promulgated; foreign enthusiasts have suggested brilliant schemes for giving our property away to the world in general — and to Russia in particular. The latest proposal is to destroy our bombs and then turn the secret gracefully over to the rest of the world upon their promise not to use it.

In normal times such profligate suggestions wouldn't be considered. But times are not normal, nor are some of the people who make the times. So you who own this secret be prepared to instantly squish any move in Washington, or in the U. N., or elsewhere — to destroy our bombs or to divulge the secrets of their composition. Before their security is destroyed, the American people must demand a referendum to allow them to decide by a majority vote whether or not to trust other and more aggressive nations with our continued existence upon this earth.

Some of the advocates of this stupid altruism say that the Russians probably have the secret anyway, so why not divulge our knowledge and avoid hurting anyone's feelings. How touching!

It is far more probable that it would take the Russians — at the very least — 10 years to develop their first bomb. And in the meantime perhaps some genius may invent a system to prevent war.

Sit down for a moment and analyze just how you would be feeling today if certain other nations possessed the power to plant atomic bombs in New York, Chicago, San Francisco, etc. Would you feel as secure as you do now? Think it over seriously — and if you believe your "life and death" secret is about to be given away without your consent — tell your congressman that you consider the atom bomb your property and that you demand the right to vote upon its disposition. And don't delay too long — because the "Give America Away" boys are well aware of the sure results of such a referendum and will try to "jump the gun" on us while we sleep. Let us forget — the atom bomb is just as devastating today as it was when it was dropped on Hiroshima.

Six-Inch Sermon REV. ROBERT H. HARPER

The Law in Jesus' Day. Lesson for July 7: Deuteronomy 6: 4-9; Matthew 5:17-19; Mark 10:17-22. Memory Selection: Matthew 5:17

The lessons of the third quarter show the attitude of Jesus toward the ancient laws and his full approbation of them.

The first part of the lesson text is the passage beginning, "Hear, O Israel; the Lord our God is one Lord." The people were commanded to love Jehovah with all their heart, soul and might.

Matthew writes that Jesus said he had not come to destroy the law or the prophets but to fulfill. This shows his own attitude of unquestioning allegiance to the commandments. But he was sorely displeased with a professed loyalty to the law when it was so carried out as to miss the spirit of the law entirely.

In the last scripture of the lesson we read of a rich young man who came to Jesus, asking how he might inherit eternal life. Jesus bade him sell all that he had to feed the poor and to come and follow his Lord. And he went away sorrowful, for he had great possessions. And there is no evidence that he ever returned inquiring the way of life. So did the young man show that he had kept the letter of the law, according to his own claim, which Jesus allowed, but missed the spirit of the law entirely. Let us strive at all times to keep the whole of the law because we keep the law of love.

VETERANS QUESTION BOX

Ed. Note: This newspaper has arranged with the Washington Bureau of National Weekly Newspaper Service, 1616 Eye St. N. W., Washington 6, D. C., to answer questions pertaining to servicemen and veterans. These questions will be answered in this column if addressed as above. No replies can be made by mail, but this paper will print answers to all questions received.

(Note to all readers—As of March 19 the war department will not release positions of any units in the armed services for reasons of military security. The army says that while redeployment was in effect and units were being moved about, it did permit publication of their whereabouts, but will not continue doing so. So please do not ask us to give positions of units in the future.—Editor.)

Q. My son is with the 160th General hospital in France. When will he be home? — R. J. S., Denver, Colo.

A. From your letter, I have no idea when he will be home. The 160th General hospital, however, was inactivated in France in February. He may have been transferred to another outfit.

Q. Does a marine who enlisted before his 18th birthday come under selective service or regular marine enlistment and if so is he eligible for discharge on points? — Mr. E. L., Joliet, Ill.

A. I cannot tell from your letter. He may have been inducted, or he may have been inducted, for three or even four years.

Q. I would like to obtain pictures of quartermaster operations during maneuvers between the 71st light division and the 89th Light Division at Hunter Liggett Military Reservation, California, during February, March and April, 1944. Also pictures of quartermaster operations during maneuvers of 2nd Infantry division on the upper peninsula of Michigan in the spring of 1943.—H. K. B. Jr., Allentown, Pa.

A. Write to pictorial section of the U. S. signal corps or the quartermaster corps, War Department, Washington 25, D. C.

Q. My son was badly wounded in service overseas and entitled to the Purple Heart, but they did not give it to him. He was discharged October 2, 1945. Can you tell me why he didn't get it? — A mother, Denver, Colo.

A. No, I cannot tell you why he didn't get it, but suggest you write to the Decorations and Awards branch, Adjutant General's office, War Department, Washington 25, D. C. Give full name and serial number.

Q. I would like to know where the American prisoners of war are, or have been taken from a German prison camp near Linburg. My brother-in-law was one of the prisoners.—Mrs. J. L., Scottville, Mich.

A. The war department says all American prisoners of war have been repatriated and those who wished to come home have been brought back to the States.

Q. As my son is in the maritime service, will he receive a discharge, or on his return will he be subject to draft? Also will he receive any benefits? — Mrs. D. R., Olney Springs, Colo.

A. Men of the maritime service are not members of the armed forces and hence are not subject to benefits under laws enacted for benefit of service veterans. They do have, however, re-employment rights under certain conditions, and if service is for not less than 32 months, 5 per cent of which has been on active service, and if he is between 18 and 26 years old, he is given a War Shipping Administration certificate relieving him of consideration under the selective service system. There is pending in congress legislation intended to grant some rights and benefits analogous to those of the armed forces.

Q. Is Battery A, 545th Fa. Bn. still overseas? — A. L., Parkersburg, N. C.

A. Battery A, 545th Fa. Bn. arrived in Los Angeles on the Marine Tiger, January 7, 1946.

Q. Can you tell me when the Communication Unit, Navy, 3923 Yokosuka, Japan, will return to the U. S. A.? — K. L. S., Pueblo, Colo.

A. The navy says this is restricted information.

Q. My husband is on the USS Platte, an oil tanker. Can you tell me where it is at present?

A. The USS Platte is plying China waters between Japan and China.

Q. My son is on the YMS 475. Can you tell me when he will be back to the States? — Mrs. G. G. W., Live Oaks, Fla.

A. Navy says YMS 475 was scheduled to arrive in San Francisco March 26.

HOUSE AND HOME

ALL the house-furnishing departments are showing trays in profusion and if you are tray-minded you can choose just what your pocket book affords. But do invest in a set of trays. They will save you many steps and labor in other ways. From large to small, trays make beautiful and most acceptable gifts, too.

When you or some other member of the family must lunch alone, why not have a tray lunch-oon? An attractive tray carried to some part of the house or garden quite away from the scene of the morning's activities is cheerful and restful. Furthermore, it's no more work to set a tray than it is to arrange a place at the table or clear off a corner of the kitchen cabinet.

Porch and garden meals are easily served on trays. Let the family fill their own trays, cafeteria style, then join the group on the porch or lawn to eat.

Sunday night suppers are another meal that can be served on trays to advantage. Each person can serve himself.

The same sort of foods can be served on trays that would be served from the table. Simple meals always are desirable in summer and of course this type of meal is ideal for tray service.

Rolls and sandwiches make the tray service easier since they save room and give a festive air to the meal.

When you choose your trays, be sure to select them large enough to take the dishes without overcrowding. Oblong trays hold more than oval ones of equal length and breadth and will be found more convenient to handle. Round trays are awkward for this purpose and are impracticable.

It's attractive to have matching tray cloths and napkins. Gingham in half-inch checks makes effective sets. An inch fringe on both serviettes and cloths finishes them quaintly.

STUDY SHOULD NEVER CEASE

YEARS ago, a boy in Jewett City, Conn., was obsessed by the same desire to improve himself that is responsible for Walter Hoving's success. The family needed money, so John was taken from school at the age of twelve to get a job. He did get one—sweeping out a factory. He never went back to school again.

But he had a desire to learn. In the evening after a day at the factory, he would haul out his books and try to study. He would fall asleep, awake, walk the floor, then go back to his studies. It seemed foolish for a boy of his age to try to better himself, but he kept on studying.

The thing that interested this boy was machinery. Especially delicate instruments. Precision instruments. He read everything he could find on the subject. After a time he got to know so much about precision instruments that he was given a job in a precision machine shop. Delighted. Here was the kind of work he adored. The other boys in the shop loafed away their evenings, but John didn't.

While working in a rifle-making factory, John got an idea for a new kind of rifle and set to work to perfect it. That boy's name is John C. Garand. Yes, the inventor of the new Garand automatic rifle which has been officially adopted by the United States government. He is now considered the greatest gun designer in the world.

He wouldn't be that today if he hadn't advanced himself; if he hadn't been willing to pay the price of study and self-improvement. As Walter Hoving says, "The desire to be better educated and to improve your position in life is always present as a driving force among worthwhile people."

SUCCESSFUL PARENTHOOD

By MRS. CATHERINE CONRAD EDWARDS Associate Editor, Parents' Magazine

LABOR SAVING WITH NEW BABIES

"TAKE a lot of rest and enjoy your baby," these are the parting words the doctor gives a young mother as he dismisses her as a patient after her baby's birth.

But how are you going to save your strength when you feel as if you hadn't any? And how are you going to rest when there are so many things to do for the baby? There used to be a grand-mother or a maiden aunt in nearly every family who took charge of the baby for a month or so. But while this saved a young mother's strength it also built up a tradition of many changes of clothes for infants, with at least one period of the day when they were dressed in handmade finery. Nowadays babies wear simple gowns and wrappers all day long. But even this plain baby wash can be reduced in volume.

A little extra care in covering baby's clothes during the orange juice and feeding sessions will usually mean one less change a day. For this purpose, make an over-all bib of waterproof material, large enough to cover the shoulders and the whole dress or nightgown. If baby is in his crib spread a waterproof cover to catch the dribbles and save the sheet. If you can't use a diaper washing service, use disposable diapers.

Trays are indispensable for saving steps with a baby—feeding tray, bath tray and dressing tray are the most necessary. Men are good at streamlining work so get your husband to help you plan the minimum equipment — the fewer items you have to wash and sterilize the better, yet if you don't watch yourself you'll be using both a pitcher and a measuring cup, for instance, when one graduated pitcher would do the work of measuring and pouring.

Many doctors are advising oil baths only for the first few weeks and these are the easiest to give, as well as being beneficial to skin and scalp. The baby can be cleansed from head to toe with pieces of cotton dipped in oil without being taken from his crib. (Use a waterproof pad to protect the bed clothing.) Pull up a chair and make yourself comfortable—and take your time.

By the time sponge baths, and later tub baths, are on the daily schedule you will have regained sufficient strength to lift the baby with ease. But devise ways to keep baths simple and enjoyable. For example, put tapes on large bath towels and tie one around your waist before beginning the bath. You lift the baby onto this after you've washed him, without having to reach for and spread a towel on your lap. Then you untie the apron strings and proceed to dry the baby.

C. E. Edmiston Makes Statement To County Voters.

To My Friends of Hamilton and Hamilton County:

Since the primary election is only a short time away, I wish to say it will be impossible for me to see each voter in person, as the duties of the office will not permit me to call on you in person. Therefore I take this method of earnestly soliciting your vote and influence in the Primary Election on July the 27th.

Since Senate Bill Number eighty-seven of the Legislature amended sub-section fifty-two, article 199, Title 8, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, providing for reorganization of the 52nd Judicial District and providing for the addition of Bosque County thereto, changing the time and term of holding court in the counties of the 52nd District, providing for a continuous term, the District Clerk duties have compelled him to be at his office most of the time.

And to therefore in order to render the service that the patrons expect and are entitled to, I must stay on the job.

I wish it was possible for me to see each one and thank them for the words of encouragement that have been spoken to me in the days gone by, and the splendid vote given me in the past, but as stated above that the extra duties of my office prevent me doing so.

Therefore in closing I am asking you to return me to this office on my record that I have made in the past, and in the event of re-election, I promise continued diligence and the same courteous attention to all who have business at the office.

I will be very grateful indeed for anything said or done in my behalf, and to each of you I extend a special invitation to visit this office at any time.

Sincerely your friend,
C. E. EDMISTON,
District Clerk.

Mrs. Audrey Elkins from El Paso is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ramage and with other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Johnson and family of Waco spent the week end in the home of his brother, M. H. Johnson, and family. Russell Johnson returned home with them Sunday afternoon to Waco, where he has accepted employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Askey and daughter, Ann, who have been making their home in Marlin several months, spent the past ten days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy French. Charles French, brother of Mrs. Askey carried them to Waco Sunday where they will make their new home.

Mrs. T. A. Duncan, writing to renew her subscription, notified also of a recent change in address from Atlanta, Ga., to The Evergreens, Anchorage, Ky., where they are happily situated while Thalbert is president of H. P. Selmans Co., a ladies' specialty store in nearby Louisville. Maxine included a bit of news which will be of interest to the many friends of the former Hicoans: "We bought a house in Anchorage which is 15 miles from Louisville. We have 18 acres of land and it's like living in the center of a park. We will be gentlemen farmers if we can get someone to do the work. One of our neighbors made $1299 on one acre of tobacco. We have a big orchard of apple, peach and plum trees, a vineyard of two varieties of grapes, and several long rows of strawberries, boysenberries, blackberries and raspberries. There is a big space for a garden, two big fields, a cow lot and a space for chickens with a good chicken house. We also have a four-room servant's house, a tool house and a huge barn. Our house has ten rooms and is Colonial. One of our neighbors raises horses for a hobby, and we want to raise horses, too. Best regards to all our friends there."

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Heldburg of Hollywood, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Billy Thomason of Brownwood, and their mother, Mrs. Mollie Harvey spent Sunday with their brother and son, Tullio Carpenter. This is the first time that Mrs. Harvey has had her family together in 26 years. Tullio's wife served a fine dinner, Mrs. Harvey said, and the rest of the day was spent in pleasant conversation of old times and taking Kodak pictures.

3 YEARS EXPERIENCE AS DEPUTY ASSESSOR-COLLECTOR IN HAMILTON COUNTY

Our Nation's 170TH Birthday

★ WE'VE A RIGHT TO CELEBRATE THIS YEAR. We've a right to really make this Independence Day a wonderful occasion. For it is the 170th Anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence . . . it is our first peacetime Fourth in many long years.

We again renew our pledge of allegiance to America with "our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor."

We Need Ability In Congress

R. M. (BOB) WAGSTAFF

We cannot have a strong Congress unless it is composed of strong Congressmen. The problems facing this country in the post-war years demand the strongest Congress this country has ever known. We should not be satisfied with any other kind.

This nation must solve the problem of war or peace; must balance its budget and finance a $270,000,000,000 debt; must maintain farm prices at parity levels so that agriculture will be on a level with industry; must eliminate most boards and bureaus and keep this government under control of the people's representatives.

Problems of this character can never be solved unless we send to Congress men who are well qualified for the office.

Bob Wagstaff is fifty-three years of age, a native of the district, a veteran of World War I, a successful lawyer of the highest standing. His record in the 42nd and 43rd Legislatures shows him to have been an outstanding leader with the ability to accomplish things in a legislative body. His record and experience qualify him to represent the people of the 17th District.

There is no substitute for experience. Wagstaff's years of experience as a successful lawyer, and his remarkable record in the Texas Legislature, guarantee that the voters will make no mistake when they

Clara Linton Talks Of Candidacy for County Dist. Clerk

To the People of Hamilton County:

Realizing that I shall not have the privilege of meeting personally many of the people of the county before the primary election, July 27, 1946, I take this manner of greeting every one.

Knowing how easily the impression may be obtained that I am not eligible to hold office in this county, I wish to state that my citizenship was unquestionably established in Hamilton County prior to my announcement early in the year of my candidacy for the office of District Clerk.

Soon after the close of the war, my job on the Stephenville newspaper, the Empire-Tribune, terminated, and I was succeeded by a young veteran, a well-trained newspaper writer, when he received his discharge. I returned to Hamilton, where my household furnishings were stored, on December 30, 1945, and am at home with my brother, Ben Linton, near town, which was my official residence all during the two years that I was in Stephenville.

In Texas and the Deep South, many men, well-informed and progressive, still retain the chivalric idea that women are unfitted for holding public offices. Through my newspaper work as reporter, I gained sufficient knowledge of the duties of a District Clerk to assure myself that I can qualify for satisfactory service to the Court and to the people of Hamilton County. I am in, need of the job, and I shall be most happy to have the privilege of continuing my residence where I have lived since early childhood.

Respectfully asking for your influence in behalf of my candidacy for the office of District Clerk of Hamilton County, and your vote in the Democratic Primary, July 27, 1946, I am

Your friend,

NOT BIG ENOUGH FOR THE JOB

Is your home wiring system big enough for its job?

The amount of electricity that a wire can conduct is limited by the size of the wire, just as the amount of water a pipe can carry is limited by the size of the pipe. Wiring that is too small drops voltage and causes lights to dim and appliances to operate sluggishly . . . frequently results in blown fuses due to overloads. An insufficient number of branch circuits and outlets necessitates the use of unsightly, unsafe extension cords and limits the use of additional appliances.

If you plan to build, buy or remodel a home, it will pay you to insist on Adequate Wiring. Make sure you have enough circuits of large enough capacity to permit you to enjoy full measure electrical living. Don't let yourself be handicapped by "skimpy" wiring.

What is adequate wiring?

Adequate wiring simply means a service entrance large enough to bring in as much electricity as your home may need at any time, enough branch circuits of large enough wire to conduct a full measure of electrical energy to your lights and appliances, plus plenty of outlets and switches, properly located. Adequate wiring is the key to better electrical living.

TO MY MANY FRIENDS:

I have been asked to express my opinion with regards to the Rio Grande National Life Insurance Co. that you may know with whom you are doing business.

It is indeed a pleasure that I have this opportunity to endorse a company that has in reality become an institution of Hico.

During my stay in your midst I have been called upon to make out claims for many holders of insurance policies, among which were many claims against the Rio Grande National Life Insurance Co. The more than fair manner with which the above Company have treated their policy holders, and the prompt manner in which claims have been paid can best be expressed by the use of the word, "AMAZING."

Fairy

By Mrs. J. O. Richardson

We received a light shower of rain early today (Monday) which has given us somewhat cooler temperatures.

Most all farmers completed their combining last week and a few are already breaking land for another crop.

Mrs. W. E. Goyno, who is attending college at Brownwood, spent the week end at home. Miss Zella Goyno, sister of Mr. Goyno, is staying at the home during her absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Driver and family of Dallas returned home Sunday after a week's visit in the homes of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Driver and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Parks and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Price of Austin spent from Friday until Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Cox.

Misses Daphne and Patsy Ann Hoover of Stephenville spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover. The girls are employed at John Tarleton College.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobert Proffitt of Hobbs, N. M. were in our midst last week inspecting the P. L. Cox home. They are making preparations to build a new residence on their farm and ranch property (the former Stubblefield place) between Hico and Fairy.

Several of this and surrounding communities rejoiced to hear the voice of Pvt. Elzie Lee (Rab) Parks by transcription over the radio one night last week. He is stationed in Tokyo.

Mrs. Hardy Walker and son of Corpus Christi came in early Sunday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Emma Lackey, and other relatives.

Mrs. T. L. Betts of Fort Worth spent the week end here with her husband.

Elder Stanley Giesecke of Hico filled his regular fifth Sunday appointment at the Church of Christ Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sellheimer of Hamilton visited Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison and Texie Dell.

Mrs. Gladys Cox and niece, Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, were in Hico Sunday night visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill McGlothlin and visiting their new grand-daughter, recently born to Mr. and Mrs. Claud Barnett. Mrs. Barnett is the former Miss Marcelle McGlothlin.

A danger sign is needed badly at the corner of the two-story

Woodman building, which obstructs the view of the Hico and Cranfills Gap roads. We came near having a wreck there last week when a car coming in from the Hico road came near crashing into a truck. The party in the car swerved to the right and on down the street, striking a tree and coming to a stop in a ditch. Will this necessary action be delayed until a life or lives have been taken?

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Patterson and little daughter of Dallas were week guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Patterson.

PURINA SPRAYS WILL DO THE JOB

O.P.A. Is Dead!

But Hoffman's Policy of Quality Merchandise at Fair Prices is Not Dead!

Our Prices Remain the Same!

ONLY IN INSTANCES WHERE THE MANUFACTURER FORCES US TO DO SO, WILL WE RAISE ANY PRICE.

If Price Rises Occur, Buy Only What You Need!

The Merchandise Hoarder only helps feed the fire of inflation, by creating scarcities and depriving his neighbors of a fair share of merchandise they need.

To guard against this we reserve the right to limit quantities on any goods we sell.

WE NOW offer for sale merchandise that has been almost unobtainable. With O. P. A. restrictions out of the way we feel that this type of goods will again become plentiful.

Nylon Hose
$1.65 per pair
Limited one pair to the customer, and sold to women only.

Men's Dress Shirts
$2.49
Limited one shirt to customer. Sizes 14½ to 17.

Sheets

"For our Disabled War Veterans --All they need at whatever cost"

Gib Sandefer
— FOR —
Representative

17TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

(Subject to Action of the State Democratic Primary, Saturday, July 27)

While not a GI of World War II, Gib Sandefer served alongside the rank and file of the nation's armed forces on far-flung battlefields of the global conflict.

He declined a Navy Commission that carried with it an essential and important desk assignment in Washington, D. C., to become a Field Representative, in combat areas, of the American Red Cross. He served in the China, Burma, India theater, in Africa and Italy.

Sandefer's months of service with American troops engaged in conflict convinced him that this nation can never do too much for those who will bear the scars of battle throughout their lives.

Gib is keenly interested in and understanding of the problems of all veterans. The first plank of his platform reads: "For GI Joe and His Sister Jane—the help and encouragement of a grateful country, in every way that can be accomplished. For our disabled war veterans all they need, at whatever cost."
