Y. W. A. Organized
The Y. W. A. of the Iredell Baptist Church has been organized for some time, but has not been officially recognized.

Our officers were elected as follows: President, Nancy Strange; vice-president, Dorothy Bateman; secretary, June McCoy; program chairman, Jo Ann McCoy; treasurer and social chairman, Jeane Moore; membership chairman, Nelda Gosdin, and song leader and reporter, Sue Montgomery.

Our plan is to help Mrs. Fouts, our sponsor, to carry on the work with the G. A.'s. As our New Year resolution we adopted this little verse:

"Giving of my talents? Why I didn't even try.
But changes will be made as 'Fifty-One passes by'.
We hope that you, too, will resolve to give yourself and of your talents to God."

Lone Star delivers comfort, cleanliness and convenience to 17,871 new stores

If you go shopping today, the comfort of the store you trade at will likely be provided by Lone Star Natural Gas Service. The store will be cleaner and the merchandise will be fresher because natural gas is so clean.

It is impossible to imagine a modern and successful store without natural gas service. In the last five years 17,871 new stores have been opened in cities we serve. That's one of the reasons for our building program in which we have invested over 80 million dollars. Though virtually all materials and labor for building natural gas pipe lines, compressor stations and other facilities have gone up in price, our commercial rate has not been increased. The truth is, Lone Star commercial rate for stores is lower today than 10 years ago.

Lone Star is keeping abreast of the growth of every community it serves. At the same time we are keeping the price of natural gas service down.

NOTICE To City Tax Payers

All city taxes were due and payable on October 1, and if not paid by the last day of January will be delinquent.

Delinquent taxes are subject to penalty and interest, and it is greatly to your interest to take care of your taxes BEFORE THE FEBRUARY 1 DEADLINE.

Delinquent Taxes

We still have some delinquent taxes on our books and those owing such taxes are urged to come in and see about them.

According to law, delinquent taxes are a valid lien against any real estate property and in case of a sale of property, must be satisfied. In other words, you could not give title to your place if there were any unpaid taxes against it.

We need all the tax money we can get in to make badly-needed improvements in our water and sewer system, and hope all loyal citizens will pay in full.

Fairy

By Mrs. Eunice Massengale

Most farm work is at a standstill due to dry weather conditions, but most everyone is busy making needed repairs about the home during leisure time.

Carl Ray Sellers received a letter from Leon Springer of Miles, Texas, stating that he would probably not move this year to his place here which he recently purchased from Clifford Tinkle, better known as the A. R. Hoover place. He has part of the place sown and plans to rent the house and probably some land for row crops later.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleave King and Mr. and Mrs. Carl King left Saturday morning for Ballinger in response to a sad message informing them of the death of their little grandson and nephew, Terry Farmer. No particulars were given in the message. We hope to be able to give further information in next week's news. Terry is also a nephew of Mrs. Chester Wood. We extend deepest sympathy to all in their bereavement.

Leca Jane Blakley spent Monday night with Jerry Gean Dunklin at High Rise Ranch. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Blakley, went to Fort Worth Monday afternoon, returning home Tuesday. They carried a load of well fed yearlings and spent Monday night with his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Licett.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn and Jimmie Don, and Mrs. Eunice Massengale spent Sunday in Dublin visiting in the home of their sister and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison, and family. In the afternoon the writer and her granddaughter, Carolyn Sellers, attended the Shiloh Singing Convention held at Comyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Fulton and family have moved to the former Sills place. We welcome them into our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison and son, Texie, and Miss Doris Aleene Streater of Lanham visited last Sunday night week in the home of their son and brother, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison and family of Dublin.

Our school was dismissed at noon on Friday of last week through respect to the lively boys, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Edd Lively of Olin, and pupils of Fairy School, due to the death and burial of their half-brother, Andrew Loyd of Electra. Those from here attending services at Hico were Prof. Irvin Jones, Elzie Lee Parks and Mrs. Eunice Massengale.

We are very sorry to report Mrs. Henry Wilson ill at this writing.

Due to a conflicting program at Turnersville last Friday night, the basketball game between the Fairy and Turnersville teams was held on Thursday night instead of the following night as announced. Our boys and girls played hard but lost by only a small margin. We believe the scores for the girls were 32 to 33 in favor of the visitors, with the boys' scores being 27 to 29 in favor of Turnersville.

FAIRY SCHOOL NEWS

Eighth Grade News

January 4 we went to Cranfills Gap. The girls struggled to win, but in vain. The score was 9-20. Clark was high scorer. The boys also lost in a race between height. Their scores were 10-17, in which Harley scored 6.

We welcome Roy Howard to our class, who is five feet, nine inches tall, weighs 144 pounds, has blue eyes and brown hair. He likes movies with Roy Rogers and Betty Davis. His favorite foods are carrots and ice cream. His sports are football and basketball. He came here from Weinert, where he played football and basketball three years each.

We had a party January 1. Punch, marshmallows and cookies were served. Some reported a good time.—Horace Griffiths, reporter.

Seventh Grade News

The Seventh Graders have made some belated New Year's resolutions. They are as follows:

- Jimmie Gordon—To move closer to Hico for romantic reasons.
- Billy Abel—To leave the curtain strings alone.
- Jerry Woods—To pass Seventh Grade tests.
- James Hodges—To stay away from lumber yard.
- Sherry Cunningham—To quit gossiping.
- Durward Brooks—To ask for the car more.
- Shirley Clark—To catch a boy friend.
- Archie Duncan—To comb his hair more often.
- Arthur Sullivan—To cut gasoline bill.
- Jeane Clark—To trade desks with James.
- Freddie Massingill—To quit playing cards in class.

We have a ball game with Hico Tuesday of this week. We also have or will try to get a game with Cranfills Gap Friday evening. We have two new students in our grade. They are Merline Fulton and Jerry Woods.

We have our mid-term tests this week, which we all dread. Will see you next week, I hope.—Shirley Clark, Reporter.

Duffau

By Elmer Giesecke

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Baley of Stephenville spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Phillips. We are glad to see Marvin able to get around after spending several months in the hospital, as a result of two broken legs and other injuries received a year ago in a car wreck. They were once Duffautes.

Mr. and Mrs. Billie Jo Roberson of Stephenville have been recent visitors with their parents, Crinty Roberson and wife and Ben Herin and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Burgan of Fort Worth visited Max's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burgan, and family last week end.

The Duffau school boys overwhelmed the Iredell grade school boys in a game of basketball by a score of 32 to 19 Friday night. The Duffau boys lost to Hico 48 to 34 last Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hutson have moved back to their homes here. The men work at Convair in Fort Worth and presumably will furnish their own transportation to and from the plant, as they had done for several years previous to their moving there.

New Katy Bridge Over Whitney Lake Is Near Completion

Dallas, Jan. 15.—Virginia Bridge Company will complete the steelwork this week on the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad's huge bridge across the Brazos River near Whitney, Louis W. Robertson, contracting engineer in Dallas for that United States Steel subsidiary, reported today.

Erection crews will swing two massive girders into place Monday for the last of the enormous crossing's 25 deck plate girder spans. Erection work on the final girder span will be finished by the end of the week. The 50 great girders in the bridge, two to a span, are the largest ever fabricated in Virginia Bridge Company's Birmingham, Alabama, plant.

Erection of the spans across a series of 24 gigantic concrete piers rising from the floor of the Brazos River valley began late in August. They have been placed at a rate of better than one a week. Universal Atlas Cement Company, another of U. S. Steel's principal subsidiaries, supplied cement for concrete piers supporting the steel bridgework.

The giant bridge is part of a 10.9 mile M-K-T relocation between Whitney and Meridian, necessitated by the Corps of Engineers' mammoth Whitney Dam now nearing completion across the Brazos a few miles downstream. It will span at a point over half a mile wide the immense lake being backed up by the dam.

Because of their great size, Virginia Bridge Company is employing its most powerful derrick car to set the girders in place. It is one of only three in the country sufficiently large to handle this particular load.

One of the major relocation jobs resulting from the $42,000,000 Whitney Dam and Reservoir project, the bridge is the longest steel railroad bridge to be built in Texas since World War II. Relocation of the 10.9 mile strip of track is scheduled for completion in May and a portion of it, including the crossing, may be put into use before that time. The structure is an imposing study in steel-and-concrete statistics. Its total length will be 3,052 feet. The girders are 121 feet, 10 inches long by 10 feet, seven inches deep—so big that in shipment from the Birmingham plant a girder filled one gondola car and stretched almost half the length of flat cars placed before and behind the gondola. The girders weigh 88,600 pounds apiece.

NORMAN E. SECREST

Lone Star Gas Co. Introduces New Sales Assistant to Dealers

Appointment of Norman E. Secrest as dealer sales assistance supervisor for the Lone Star Gas Company in this territory has been announced by F. L. Carmichael of Fort Worth, division general manager. With headquarters in Fort Worth, Mr. Secrest will direct Lone Star's program of aiding gas appliance dealers in the promotion and sale of modern gas equipment for the home.

The program includes financing of dealer paper on approved gas appliances; sales meetings and training of salesmen and appliance servicemen; customer cookery demonstrations; advertising and other means of developing sales prospects, and special promotion material for dealers handling gas refrigerators.

A native of Ennis, Mr. Secrest joined Lone Star at Waco on Jan. 1, 1939, and on June 1, 1940, was transferred to Dallas, where he was dealer sales assistance representative until his Fort Worth division appointment became effective on Jan. 1.

Mr. Secrest was graduated from the Ennis High School and attended the University of Arkansas and Southern Methodist University. He is a member of the Christian Church. Mrs. Secrest is the former Miss Faye Stacks of Palmer. The Secrests have a son, Michael, age 15.

HAS LETTER FROM SON SERVING IN KOREA

Mrs. Ellard Bullard was much relieved last Friday to receive a letter from her son, Sgt. Winston Bullard, who is serving with a quartermaster unit in Korea. The letter was dated Jan. 4, and imparted the information that he was leaving for Seoul. This was the first time Mrs. Bullard had heard from her son in several weeks.

Well, there is some doubt that the nation will produce the sixteen million bales of cotton the Department of Agriculture has asked for.

One thing sure, we'll have to do better with yields per acre than we have averaged in the past. Some of the leading cotton observers don't believe farmers will respond to the need with all-out planting of cotton.

There will be some increase, undoubtedly, but lots of folks have learned that some of our old cotton land just shouldn't be used for that crop until it has been rebuilt. The extra production will mostly have to come from increased yields from fertilizing, keeping the bugs and disease down.

Given good conditions, we might make it.

Insects have been blamed for lots of things, but now they're being implicated in the dust bowl.

The dust bowl, we can add for the benefit of the younger generation, is not a New Year's football game. What the bugs have to do with causing the dust bowl seems to be their destructive action on small grain and other plants which help protect the soil when they're sticking in the ground but leave it exposed when they're eaten, broken off or deteriorated.

By the way, the drought of recent months together with the cold weather, means a greater threat of dust blowing than in a good while. There has already been some around Lamesa. Plus a little in Erath and nearby counties.

Every year lately the Fort Worth stock show has had some new facility or other to show off at the big exposition in late January.

This time it's a new turkey-rabbit-poultry building between the sheep barn and cattle barn number one. Last year it was a new judging barn and sales arena.

This time it won't be necessary for the poultry and rabbits to double up with the sheep, and also every group can stay throughout the entire show without having to move out for the next group.

This is the last column I'll be writing in this space. My successor at WRAP, W. A. (Doc) Ruhmann, will be taking over and since he knows more farming and ranching than I ever hope to, you should find him good reading. Doc has been county agricultural agent in Tarrant county for about five years, is a native of Kenedy county, and a purple heart veteran of World War II.

As for us, we're going to the U. S. Foreign Service and hope to help Uncle Sam get his money's worth for the amounts we are spending in Europe. Our assignment is to be Athens, Greece.

Paul Homer and Bride To Make Their Home In Carlsbad, N. Mex.

On Christmas Day, Miss Norma Watkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Watkins, became the bride of Mr. Paul Homer, son of Mrs. Cleo Homer of Carlsbad, N. M., at the State Avenue Baptist Church in Kansas City, Kansas. The Homers formerly lived in Hico. The following account is taken from a Kansas City paper:

The single ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Herman Taylor. Mrs. Raymond Griffith, organist, played selected wedding music and accompanied Rev. Floyd Durham as he sang "Because." Mrs. Floyd Durham and Mr. Raymond Griffith sang "I Love You Truly."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a royal blue velveteen suit dress with a corsage of white gardenias. She carried a white lace handkerchief which belonged to her mother, and a small white Bible.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Wayne Barnett, attired in a green street length dress accented by a red rosebud corsage.

Mr. Warren States acted as best man, and ushers were Messrs. Richard Canfield and James Morgan.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. A 3-tiered wedding cake frosted with pink rosebuds was topped by a wreath holding a miniature bride and bridegroom. Assisting were Mrs. Merle Wilson and Mrs. Melvin Watkins.

Guests were received by the bride's mother, who wore a green print crepe dress with green accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds.

The couple will establish a residence in Carlsbad, N. M. Out of town guests: Mr. and Mrs. Jess Watkins of El Dorado Springs, Mo. and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Watkins and Miss Mary Jo Watkins of Topeka, Kan.

CAPITOL—Jan Garber does a nice job on two new songs, "That's Where My Money Goes" and "Heads You Do, Tails You Don't" ... And, not satisfied with that moving disc, Jan comes up with still a second that's sure-fire ... "Blue Christmas" and What 'cha Gonna Get Me for Christmas?" Jimmy Wakely and Margaret Whit- ing have a cutie in "Silver Bells" backed by "Christmas Candy" ... And the beautiful "Autumn Leaves" is given two fine rendi- tions ... one by Ray Anthony coupled with "Mr. Anthony's Boogie" ... the other by popular Jo Stafford backed by "Autumn in New York".

MERCURY — "Silver Bells" turns up again as a natural hit for the new team of Kitty Kallen and Richard Hayes ... It's backed by a song that's headed for the top of the Hit Parade, "A Bushel and a Peck" ... Roberta Quinlan and Jan August join forces in a light little disc containing the screwy new hit, "Molasses, Molasses" and "Orange Colored Sky" ... "I'll Never Smile Again" is given a terri- fic shot in the arm by Ralph Martiere and don't be surprised if it's just as big a hit as it was 10 years ago when it catapulted Frank Sinatra to fame ... "I Only Have Eyes for You" backs it.

Mrs. Cyrus King Is Hostess Jan. 11 to Carlton H. D. Club

Carlton's Home Demonstration Club had the first meeting of the new year in the home of Mrs. Cyrus King on Thursday, Jan. 11, with nine members and one vis- itor present.

Each lady answered roll call by naming "my favorite rose or an- nual flower." Yearbooks were filled out, and programs for the year were assigned.

Mrs. Walker Curry demonstrated setting out a rose bush, and Mrs. Leonard Weaver, a visitor from the South Hico Club, discussed proper handling of dahlias.

The club welcomes Mrs. J. S. Flowers as a new member. Other members present were Mrs. Lynn Harbour, Mrs. L. V. Cooper, Mrs. Avery Coffman, Mrs. Elton Sam- ford, Mrs. J. B. Jaggars, Mrs. H. L. Williford, Mrs. Curry and the hostess, Mrs. King.

Use of Commercial Fertilizers In Gardening Told to Club Members

E. R. Lawrence, Hamilton County agent, was guest speaker at the meeting of the Hico Garden Club at First Methodist Church Friday, Jan. 12. Mrs. John Golightly and Mrs. C. H. Boyd were host- esses.

"Gardening in Our Community" was the subject of the program, including a discussion by Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Golightly on "A-B-C of Insecticides and Fungi- cides."

Mr. Lawrence explained "Soil Building" and applied his informa- tion to the effects of fertilizers on flower gardens. He told the ladies that the soil here is a sweet soil and does not require the addition of potash, but needs only nitrogen and phosphorus, the other two ingredients of commer- cial fertilizers. Explaining how to read the names of those sold com- mercially, (such as 16-20-0, etc.) he said that they are a combination of nitrogen, phosphorus and pot- ash, in that order. For example, 16-20-0 contains six parts nitro- gen, 20 parts phosphorus, and no pot- ash.

Mrs. Paul Neel will serve for another year as president of the club, as a result of the re-election of all the former officers at this first meeting of 1935. Others are as follows: vice-president, Mrs. L. N. Lane; secretary, Mrs. Mar- vin Marshall; treasurer, Mrs. Al- vin Casey; historian, Mrs. B. E. Gamble; reporter, Mrs. Weldon Pierce. Mrs. Boyd was appointed to serve as parliamentarian.

Going Up! Still Down!

Take a look at this cost-of-living index from the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics.

It shows that while most other items have gone up and up, the cost of electricity is still below the 1935-1939 average. It actually costs less per kilowatt hour, on the average, than pre-war!

We're proud of this industry record, which has been made possible by careful business management plus greatly increased use of electricity.

And you can rely on us to continue to do our best to hold the line against inflation, although rising costs are making the task more difficult all the time.

STATISTICS REVEAL GOOD RESULTS OF SAFETY EDUCATION

Drivers of high school and college age should be the best drivers of all, having the best eyesight and being at the age when their muscle coordinations are at the peak. Yet they have a rate for accidents that almost doubles that of the older drivers.

The average boy starts to drive in his third or fourth year in high school. The new course of Safety Education is made for these persons more than any other group because they have not learned to drive and may be taught the safe methods of driving more easily than a driver who is set in his habits.

The latest statistics are showing the results of this course. These statistics show that the students enrolled in this course have had from 40 to 60 per cent fewer serious accidents than those who are not taking the course. This should show, conclusively, the need for this driving course in every high school in the country. A reduction of from 40 to 60 per cent in every community of the youths involved in accidents would quickly show in the overall total in accident fatalities at the end of the year.

HICO GIRLS VERSUS CRANFILLS GAP GIRLS

On Friday night, Jan. 12, the Hico girls played the Cranfills Gap girls in a very nerve-racking game with the scores being 41 to 41 at

Value Your Health More Than Riches

Some folks think that fine clothes and fine, big houses are the most important things in life, but these things really don't mean too much if a person doesn't feel well enough to enjoy them. Most folks don't realize this, but Mrs. Lucy Braswell, of Route 2, Stone Mountain, Ga., realizes it very well. Mrs. Braswell takes HADACOL, and by taking HADACOL she found she is helping her system overcome deficiencies of Vitamins B, B, Niacin and Iron, which HADACOL contains.

Here is Mrs. Braswell's own statement: "I have been sick for some time with stomach disturbances. I began taking HADACOL and I have been taking it about six weeks. I am so much better and much stronger. I will continue to take HADACOL. It sure has helped me. I tell my friends about HADACOL. I can't praise HADACOL too much. I am 59 years old."

THIS FUNNY WORLD

Some of the students do funny things once in a while, so here are some of the things that have happened to a few of them:

At a recent dance Roline Chaney asked a certain girl for the last dance. She replied coldly, "You have just had it."

Jean Sutt: "I don't want to be a millionaire—I just want to live like one."

- H H S -

PARENTS ARE NO PROBLEM

How are family relationships among the relatives in your family? Mother, for instance? Is she having a good time bringing you up, or is she getting worry wrinkles? Maybe you could cooperate more.

First of all, how are you in the compliment department? If she's going out, do you tell her she looks pretty? You know how much it means to you when someone says, "My, but you certainly will wear the gang tonight in that super outfit!" Well, that thrill is something you don't outgrow, so you might try a word of praise on Mother. You'll give her a wonderful send-off.

What about restrictions? Every time she says you can't do something, do you make a noise like a wounded lion? Remember, she's just trying to protect you. If you think she's old-fashioned, why not try talking things over with her, instead of raging and wailing? She may be willing to compromise if you convince her that you have good reasons for your point of view.

Do her friends always see the best side of your disposition? Nothing will make your mother happier than to have you do her proud in front of her friends. So give her a chance to preen her feathers.

Does she get cross sometimes? Could be she's tired. Instead of feeling abused, how about lending a hand with the chores? Or showing a little understanding? You could offer to prepare dinner now and then. It isn't the work she makes you do that lightens her job—it's the little things you volunteer to do.

Do you have fun talking together? Or does she get only yes and no out of you? How about telling her what goes on in your life? How about showing some interest in what she's doing? Of course she wants to know all about that new boy in school. And she may be just dying to tell somebody what "They" say about her new hat. Many mother-daughter teams are really strangers because they never talk.

Naturally you want somebody your own age for a bosom pal. Just the same, a girl's best friend should be her mother. But how about Mother? Who's her best friend? It ought to be YOU.

And what's the situation with Father? Are sparks flying all the time, or are you real pals? Remember, fathers enjoy being treated like the human beings they are. A little thoughtfulness on your part can make life a lot happier for that man.

Yes, here we go right smack into the compliment deal again. Father likes a kind word now and then. That new necktie, for instance—did you tell him it looked nice? Do you sincerely say kind things to your dad, day in and out, or do you just butter him up when you want something? Have a heart! The man likes a bit of appreciation for his own sake, not just for his handouts.

Do you have a little respect for his pocketbook? The next time you start coaxing him for some expensive "extra", sit down and figure out just how long Father will have to toil in order to pay for it.

Do you brush off his advice? Maybe his angle is worth listening to. Why not give him an open ear and an open mind? Could he be'll save you a headache.

Do you know your father? Or is he a stranger you see only at the dinner table? If he puts around, try giving him a hand with the hammer or screw-driver. You may find that he's a lot of fun and an interesting companion.

Can Dad get a spell of peace and quiet around the house now and then? Try making Father cozy and comfortable.

With this new approach, don't be surprised to discover that you can enjoy life with Father—if you will give him a chance to enjoy life with you.

WORM'S EYE VIEW

I am back again and all recovered after last week's ailments. It seems to me that this school has some of the wackiest boys in it! Take Kenneth Johnson, for instance...

Kenneth goes by the nickname of "Shorty." He got this name down in the grades because of his height. You could never tell now that he was really short—he is about five foot, six or seven inches. "Shorty" has the loudest, curly red hair and a bunch of freckles on his cute face.

"Shorty" is one of the comedians who can tell a funny joke and not even crack a smile. He is continually driving the teachers batty and sending the girls screaming for a nut house to put him in!

You will have to give him credit though, he certainly isn't any dim-bulb. His brains are clicking all the time. "Shorty" is a Senior this year and makes some of the highest grades in the class. He is in track last year.

Seriously, everyone likes "Shorty" and the teachers let him get away with murder practically, because he is such a swell person. He is a nice guy to have for a friend or a boy friend! If I were a girl I wouldn't let him out of my sight!

GOOD NEWS FOR CAREER SEEKERS.—The army has announced that volunteers seeking training at specified technical schools will be granted same upon volunteering for the Army. (Repeat—Volunteering). The applicant will be assured of technical training at the school of his choice. All applicants for this program must have a high school education. Air minded applicants who tried for the "Flying Cadet" program prior to Jan. 1st, 1951, and failed to pass the qualifying mental exam, may now re-apply immediately, due to the use of a new type examination. Interested young men may call at their nearest U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station.

PRESIDENT TO PRESENT MEDAL OF HONOR AWARDED GENERAL DEAN TO HIS WIFE.—The nation's highest award, the "Congressional Medal of Honor," which was awarded to General Dean because of his "examples of excessive gallantry committed always at the threatened portions of his front lines," will be presented to his wife, Mrs. Mildred D. Dean of Berkeley, California, by President Truman, this week. The fighting officer had been listed as missing in action, since the earlier days of the Korean war. The last man who saw him, related to correspondents that "he was fighting with fury, like the soldier he was. At the same presentation, Mrs. Lavon Henry, wife of Lt. Frederick F. Henry of Clinton, Okla., will receive the Congressional Medal, posthumously awarded to her heroic husband. The gallant officer was cited for his "last man stand," as his unit withdrew to safety, in the bloody fighting in Korea.

NAVAL MEDICAL OFFICERS TRANSFER DATE DEADLINE SET.—Commissioned officers of the Medical, Dental, Nurse and Medical Service Corps of the regular Navy and Naval Reserve will have until July 9, 1951, to request transfer to another branch of the Armed Services. It was also announced that no officer would be transferred without his consent, the consent of the service to which he requests transfer. Reserves may transfer only to a reserve component and regulars to regular service.

BETTER RESULTS can be achieved when you use powdered eggs. If you reconstitute them and allow to stand overnight in the refrigerator before using. For reconstituting, use 2 tablespoons of water for 2 tablespoons of powdered egg, the equivalent of one fresh egg. After relish jars are opened, always store them in the refrigerator. They keep almost indefinitely in this way.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Turkey Omelet (Serves 4)
4 ounces medium noodles
3 eggs, separated
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/4 cup milk
1 tablespoon melted butter
1 cup diced turkey or chicken
2 tablespoons butter
Cranberry sauce
Cook noodles in boiling, salted water until tender (about 5 minutes). Drain and rinse. Beat egg yolks; add salt, pepper, milk and 1 tablespoon butter. Combine with noodles and turkey, mixing well. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Melt 2 tablespoons butter in heavy skillet. Pour egg mixture in skillet and cook over low heat 3 minutes. Then place in moderate (350°F.) oven for 15 minutes. When done, fold over and serve hot with cranberry sauce.

Pickles preserved in brine are susceptible to spoilage. Use about one teaspoon of oil poured on the surface after the jar is opened to prevent the growth of mold. If you want to keep bread moist and fresh, store in a plastic bag and refrigerate. Unless the bag is used, mold may develop on the bread.

Soft cookies should be stored like cake. If placed in a cookie canister or tin box, keep an apple in the package to provide moisture. To keep crisp cookies from softening, store in airtight containers. Close the box immediately, and do not allow moisture by way of air to enter the container.

Large, canned hams should be refrigerated or they will spoil. After buying them, store in your own refrigerator before using.

THIS PETTY PACE
BY BROWN LEE YATES

A PSYCHOLOGIST REPORTS that happily-married men are safer auto drivers than the unhappily-married. This seems not to apply to the just-married, happy or unhappy. Did you ever see a bridegroom careening his car down the street in a quick dash for a destination where later he'll have time on his hands? He has one arm around the bride's neck, the other around the bride's luggage, leaving the steering wheel to its own devices. A scientific comparison between the happily and the unhappily just married cannot be made, because it's hard to find an unhappily just married male. There are probably plenty of them, but they refuse to let on and they cut up with the crowd just as if they were happy. Anyway, it's hard to tell one. But there's nothing in the antics at the wheel of any just-married man to impress the chairman of the safe-driving campaign—horn blasting, tires screaming, car gragging old shoes, tin cans, mama's extra girdle and several hapless pedestrians. Maybe it's the groom's last gesture as the real power behind the wheel. Realizing that tomorrow he'll be under the dictates of a back seat driver, he follows the impulses he knows he'll have later, such as chasing unmarried spectators to a pole. Law allows him this last fling with purchase of the marriage license, realizing marriage will make him a good candidate for submissive citizenship later on. However, should he try to extend his fling and refuse to obey the voice of safety at his side when the honeymoon's over, he is headed for a horseshoe curve on the matrimonial road, the psychologist says. The lady is apt to thumb a ride on somebody else's wagon. A survey shows careless drivers have three times the divorce rate of safe ones. Which proves that men are willing to risk life and limb in a bid for freedom.
