News, Like Gold, Where You Find it

You Can Read Anything in This Subscribers Chatter

Cabbages and kings are seldom discussed in this column. Neither has the department ever won any prizes, ribbons, plaques or honorable mention for repeating (without due credit) bits of wisdom, humor or philosophy clipped from Reader's Digest or some of the various and sundry trade magazines that originate some mighty clever stuff.

However, an effort is made to print, from time to time, some items of information we consider of general interest, but for one reason or another fail to get around to in the regular news columns. Take it or leave it—it is conducted mostly for our own amusement anyhow. It is never meant to be malicious or too personal, but it is our way of thanking our best friends.

Mrs. A. L. McNally was a recent office visitor and renewed the News Review subscription for herself and her mother, Mrs. Bettie Worrell.

"I think I owe somebody a dollar and a half," said M. L. (Lee) Rainwater the other day as he cheerfully volunteered the sum for renewal of another year's time on his and Mrs. Rainwater's subscription.

Another version of the above story was repeated by R. N. Hanshaw, Hico Route 1, when he came by one day last week. "I believe I am carrying around somebody else's money," was the clever comment. After he had thus indicated his willingness to hand over the dollar and a half, we marked up his subscription for another year.

Two renewal subscriptions were turned in last week by Leonard Howard at the Hico News Stand, one for Mrs. T. B. Perry and also one for E. J. Brewer, Hico Route 7.

A. L. Newlin, Hico Route 5, renewed his subscription last week. He had noticed that some of the subscribers said that they couldn't do without the home paper, but he said he could do without it. However, he just didn't want to. Thanks, Mr. Newlin.

Renewal to the News Review for a year from expiration date was received through the mail recently from Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Auvermann, Hico Route 7.

Coffee-drinking has its advantages, as well as its disadvantages. While sipping Java one morning recently, Bill Grubbs slipped the NR skipper a dollar and half to pay his subscription for another year. Living in Hico also has its advantages, he found, for before he moved down from Fort Worth the NR sub cost him two bucks. He and his wife and children also seem to enjoy the many other good features of residing in this section, and seem perfectly content in their modern, convenient home out Carleton way. Incidentally, it would be nice to have several hundred accounts on one's books like Bills. He needed a light switch in a hurry last month and found we had an extra one. Now he pesters the heck out of us to look up the bill on same and let him pay off for that. Maybe we're waiting for the price to go up on a black market basis.

Mrs. George M. Stringer has ordered a subscription to be sent to her husband, who has been recalled to active duty with the U. S. Navy, after spending time in this service during World War II. George, whose rating is HM/3, is on the medical staff at a naval hospital way out in San Diego, Calif. Peggy and Cathy Ann are continuing their residence in Hico while Papa George is under Uncle Sam's command.

Mrs. Nannie Smith observed her birthday Tuesday, and said she was looking forward to having her 100th birthday next year. Friends called to visit her at the home of her son, Frank Smith, whom she makes her home. Mr. E. B. Gamble provided her birthday dinner, as has been her custom for several years.

Mrs. Noble Haile was in a fortnight ago to subscribe for the paper to be sent to her father, A. T. Anderson, long-time citizen of this community now living at Comanche, who just feels better over there when he has a Hico paper to read when he feels like it.

"Better come get this money if you want it," said a late-afternoon caller Monday of last week. So the stereotyper ran over his equipment getting up front to take a renewal subscription from Bloof Howerton, City, who is always agreeable and prompt about taking care of this matter.

Vernon Hyles, Gen. Del., has been entered as a new name on our subscription list. He is very welcome, and we hope that he will be happy and better informed for the next six months. That way, maybe we will be privileged to count him a regular subscriber.

The News Review is glad to welcome J. C. Bromley of Carleton as another of its new subscribers. He came by one day last week to add his name to the mailing list. Pretty soon we'll have a hundred per cent of those good folks of that community as members of our happy family of readers.

Mrs. W. A. Jenkins, smiling in her usual pleasant manner, was in this office Tuesday of last week to renew her News Review subscription for another year. She has been a regular subscriber for a number of years, and we're always glad when our readers express their interest by continuing to take the paper.

H. H. Miller, who is attending NTSC in Denton this summer, enclosed his mailing label and two dollars for renewal in a letter to the News Review, recently. He and Mrs. Miller, who have been teaching for several years in the Odessa schools, still like to keep up with their Hico friends, and know they are always welcome to come back for a visit.

"Guess I've been getting enough free copies—better pay up," Mrs. Alvin Casey said good-naturedly as she renewed a subscription for another year including the few "free copies" as she called them. Mayme is one of our steady readers, who is also considerate in reporting news to the staff.

T. J. Wood, postmaster at Johnsville, has renewed his subscription to the News Review, having gained satisfactory delivery for some time now. For several weeks he missed getting the paper on the day that he should have received it, and was quick to come in and tell us about it and try to determine the origin of the delay. He is just as quick, though, about complimenting good service, and it's always a pleasure to have him come in for a chat.

Luther Knox said he wanted his friend, Mayor T. J. Hale of Olin, to get a paper that had some news in it, so he opened a subscription to be sent to him, starting last week. Thus we believe it helps to have friends who promote your business, and no matter how many errors Luther can find in our paper (he reads it closely just to do that), still he brags to other people about the merits he finds in the News Review. Among these merits Luther called Mr. Hale's attention to was the advertisement of the Knox & Tulloh hen that talks. If you didn't read that ad last week, turn to the regular K. & T. space on the want ad page and see what it's all about. It is being repeated by request—ours!

A. H. McCommon, who has been engaged as band director at Hico Public Schools beginning September 1, is a new subscriber to the News Review. Mr. and Mrs. McCommon and two children, Michael and Patricia, moved here early in July from Waco and are occupying the house vacated by Suplt. and Mrs. O. C. Cook, who moved to the Porter residence. The new band director expressed enthusiasm over the idea of beginning work here, and is presently commuting between here and Waco, where he is employed with Western Union.

L. W. Weeks, Hico Route 4, has mailed a renewal subscription to the News Review for another year. Mrs. Weeks, a daughter of J. J. Smith of Hico, is a little bashful about having her name in the paper too often, but we're going to take a chance on divulging the information received from her dad—she considerably prepared and served a bountiful dinner to Mr. Smith one day this week upon the occasion of her parents' anniversary of her parents. Mrs. Smith passed away several years ago.

BOOSTERS BRING RAIN BACK AFTER ISSUING REUNION INVITATIONS

Returning home Tuesday afternoon from the annual booster trip, the local citizens who had spent the day spreading greetings from Hico and invitations to the 65th annual reunion arrived here in time to claim credit for "bringing the rain from Bosque County," as skies began to cloud up and bring a welcome respite from the torrid heat. Perhaps the cool spell will encourage more visitors, who are expected to attend from towns near and far.

Tyrann E. Roberts, local attorney, was speechmaker in the towns visited by the booster caravan, and told a large number of citizens in surrounding towns.

Olin Baptist Church, Organized in 1878, To Have Homecoming

The Olin Baptist Church, now 73 years old, invites its former members to come back home this Sunday, July 29, for a day of worship and fellowship. This church was organized in 1878.

Rev. C. A. Morton of Gatesville, who pastored his first church at Olin, will be the 11 o'clock speaker. Other past pastors will speak throughout the day. Basket lunch will be served by the ladies of the church and community at the noon hour.

Harold Lewallen of Stephenville, who is a college student preparing to be an evangelistic singer, has been asked to lead the song services during the day. "Come and hear your former pastors speak and meet old acquaintances, and make new ones," is the invitation issued by Hylon Vickers, pastor of the Olin Baptist Church, who requested this announcement.

William J. Barmore, 91, died at his home in Waco Saturday, July 21. He had lived at Altman most of his life until about 25 years ago, and has relatives and friends in and around Hico. He was a brother-in-law to B. F. Williams of Hico.

Funeral services were conducted from Connally's Funeral Chapel in Waco at 10 a. m. Monday, with Rev. J. Dean Costley officiating, assisted by Rev. Sam Cluck. Burial was in Rosewood Cemetery.

DOCTOR'S WORD PICTURE RECALLS HICO SCENES OF FIFTY YEARS AGO

ED. NOTE—A glance into occupations and habits of previous residents of this community is generally customary at the time of the annual old settlers' reunion. The News Review was privileged in receiving a letter this week from one who presents a picture a little out of the ordinary from the usual reminiscences. The letter is reprinted below, with the hope that our readers will enjoy the observations of the doctor whose practice was, in his day, as it is now, a vital part of the whole community.

Rule, Texas
July 17, 1951

Editor Hico News Review:

Having occasion to read a recent issue of your paper, I failed to find the name of anyone I knew in Hico fifty years ago. At that time Hico was the best town in Hamilton County, and compared favorably with the surrounding towns. It had several general mercantile establishments, where you could buy groceries, dry goods, and hardware from a paper of pins to buggies and wagons. She boasted several wagon yards, and as I remember, three livery stables in each of which was kept stocked some high-stepping horses to let to the "Drummers" who wanted to make the local territory and to the young blades who wanted to take their girls for a Sunday afternoon drive. Buggies shined, replete with whips in the holders and the ever-present laprobe.

Besides the mercantile establishments mentioned above, there was a flourishing flour mill and several gins. There were a number of doctors in Hico at that time. As I recall now there was Dr. Hubbert who owned a drug store run by his son, Will, who later also became a physician; Dr. Hall, who also owned a drug store; Dr. McCollum, who later moved to Fort Worth and had a large clientele, and passed away in that city; Dr. Durham, who graduated from the University of Texas Medical School in Galveston the year following my graduation at the same school in 1898. Dr. Barham came to Hico a year or two before I left Alexander, where I was located.

Last, but by no way, not least, there was Dr. Wyoang—a gentleman and a scholar, and an accomplished musician, as well as being a learned physician. Dr. Wyoang was connected as professor of one of the two medical colleges then established in Texas.

There were two newspapers. If I remember right, one of them was the Hico News and the other was The Hico Review. Walter Fowler, who later moved to Rule, Texas, and founded the Rule Review, and later moved to Hamlin, Texas and founded the Hamlin Herald, was editor of one of the papers. W. E. McDaniel was editor of the other paper. He sold his paper and moved to California where he passed away several years ago.

The churches were active. Dr. Gilliam was the Baptist pastor, but the names of the pastors of the other churches I fail to recall. John Adams, who was a salesman in one of the local stores, was the pastor of the Alexander Baptist Church for a while.

Those were the "Buggy Days," when transportation was a problem, where doctors met and "consulted" at the patient's bedside, and when if surgical procedure was indicated, they summoned the housewife to produce a bunch of hot water with which they boiled their instruments and proceeded to operate in the home. And, believe it or not, their successes compared favorably with operations in the hospitals in this day. Rubber gloves and the stethoscope were unknown at that time.

Hail to Hico, the nice town between the hills and on the creek!

They All Like to Come Back Here

MAN WHO MOVED AWAY IN 1913 ANTICIPATED VISIT IN THIS SECTION

When Oden Chapel had its homecoming July 22, one of its former residents planned a long trip to greet old friends whom he hadn't seen in many years. Claude Adams, now of Corpus Christi and an early resident of Chalk Mountain, told a lot of the history of this surrounding vicinity as he remembers it, when writing a letter recently to Cecil E. Sergist to inquire about bus schedules to the Chalk Mountain vicinity the fourth Sunday in July.

Mr. Adams, now 81 years old, lived on the land now occupied by Flat Top Ranch, and has fond memories of this locality, as told in his letter which follows:

Dear Sir: I hope you will not be out of patience with me, for I am going to give you my reasons for writing you again for a little information. I spent some of my happiest boyhood days in that country out east of Hico some eight or nine miles at that time was Chalk Mountain. I moved there in 1883. I was a boy at that time, approximately in my 13th year.

We bought a place two miles south of the old Chalk Mountain schoolhouse in the Reeder neighborhood. Our community center at that time was Chalk Mountain, but soon afterward they organized another community right east of where we lived and called it Rough Creek. After a few years, it assumed the name of Oden Chapel.

Back in my day there, we had the old brush arbor, and oh! such shouting as we had at those old summer camp meetings. That my happiest days there. Our country has all been bought up and put in the Flat Top Ranch, of which place you are likely aware. But the community retained the grounds there, including the Chapel graveyard and arbor. The people have all moved away, and houses are all gone, but they have a homecoming every year—the fourth Sunday in July.

I wanted to be there and meet what old timers there are left, which are not many, but possibly there are a lot of grownups who were children when we left that country. I know this is my last chance, and I want to get someone close so that I can get to Oden Chapel the fourth Sunday in July. I have friends at Glen Rose and also at Walnut Springs, and want to know if there is a bus going from or by way of Hico to Walnut Springs . . . or if I can get a bus going to Cranfills Gap.

When I left that country in 1912, I loaded my emigrant car at Alexander (I was then living two miles west of Claiborne), and since then I have lived in several parts of Texas. Yes I used to come to Hico "way back in the '80s."

When I left that country, William Connolly, Carlton Brothers, Petty Brothers, Joe Stovall, C. L. Lynch and Jumbo Cole were the main merchants of the town. I helped to set that telephone post at the corner of Connolly's store, so you can see I am no spring chicken.

Hope you will favor me with the requested information. Thanking you in advance, I am

Yours sincerely,
CLAUDE ADAMS.
P. S.: The reason I was asking about Cranfills Gap is that it took its name from my wife's people; her maiden name was Cranfill, and she has some few relatives still living there. That's where I lived in 1907, and if I make the trip I'll come back through there.

young man who has received his draft notice or physical and has not received his orders to report for induction may still volunteer for enlistment in the Navy's greatest Navy until August 1, 1951.

Raymond E. La Fon, Navy Recruiter from Waco, Texas, will be in the Hico Post Office from 9 a. m. to 12:00 a. m. each day until further notice.

Tommy Abel, ADE/3, was not least bit disturbed over the prospect of having to go back to Hico this week end, having arrived in Hico Wednesday afternoon from San Diego. Not wanting to travel that far, when he arrived home, he was charged with an emergency duty with the Navy as soon as he returned.

Tommy is the first of the young men around here, who were recalled from inactive status, to be discharged. He went back to the service October 2, 1950, and considered among those able to the Navy at that time because of his experience in World War II. He has been stationed in the Pacific on the USS Shubury Sound, while his family was living out in California.

By
Mrs. Henry Mayfield

Mrs. Sam P. Mayfield

Funeral services were held Wednesday, July 18, at 2:30 p. m. at the Clairette Methodist Church for Mrs. Malvina Mayfield, 78, wife of Sam P. Mayfield, who passed away Monday, July 16.

Mrs. Mayfield had been in ill health several months, but got better and was able to do her housework for awhile, when she was taken ill again the last of May. Her daughter, Mrs. Sallie Ragsdale, of Clifton moved her mother to her home to take care of her, and she passed away there. Clairette Malvina Brown was born November 15, 1873, at Warsaw, Mo. She came to Texas as a small girl, and was married to Sam P. Mayfield Sept. 1, 1889. To this union were born seven children. One daughter, Mrs. Minnie Harvey, and one son, Rube Mayfield, preceded her in death a few years ago. She had been a member of the Methodist Church since she was very young.

Brown of Hico.

The floral offerings were beautiful. Pallbearers were her grandsons, Cecil, Grady, Joe and Cotton Mayfield, Bill Dorsey and Andy Duncan.

Rev. W. L. Connell conducted the funeral services. Burial was made in the Clairette Cemetery. Barrow-Rutledge Funeral Home had charge of all the arrangements. Relatives and friends from Dallas, Fort Worth, Stephenville, Chalk Mountain, Cranfills Gap, Carlton, Hico, Clifton and other places attended the services.

The Methodist revival closed Sunday night. Rev. Jack Poppy of Scranton assisted Rev. W. L. Connell, J. A. Walsworth of Pleasant Hill led the singing.

The ladies of the Methodist Church pounded Rev. and Mrs. Connell Saturday night with gifts and the church gave Rev. Poppy a love offering.

There are numerous nice homes in Hico, some old and some new. The most beautiful ones are not necessarily those constructed in recent years... there are those that have weathered many a Reunion, yet have held their beauty as only a home built for permanency, and properly maintained, could be expected to keep on lasting.

Fairy
By Mrs. Eunice Messingale

We feel sure all are very thankful for wind to turn the mills again. Many were almost without water for both household and stock use.

We are very sorry to report Mrs. Brittle Little a patient at the Hico Hospital since Friday of last week. She fell at her home in Fairy on Thursday, inflicting a slight head injury. She fell soon after the noon hour and lay on the floor for some time, before being able to get to her bed. Mrs. Oran Williford, a neighbor who is very attentive and thoughtful of Mrs. Little, had been in several times during the day to look after her needs and to see how she was. She was there around noon and, finding her still doing very well, she did not return until 4:00 p. m. when she learned of her fall. She carried Mrs. Little to the hospital, but since she was unable to secure a room, she was treated and returned home Friday morning.

Friends and acquaintances of Mrs. Roy (Kit) Carson of Blue Ridge community, near Hamilton, will be sorry to learn she is a patient at the Hico Hospital. She underwent major surgery last week and is reported to be recovering nicely. The Carson family are former residents of Fairy, and her many friends here will be glad to know that she is doing nicely.

Mrs. Ernest Brummett has also been a patient at the Hico Hospital for several days during the past week, following an operation on her jawbone, performed by a bone specialist in a Dallas or Fort Worth hospital. Mrs. Brummett has undergone several similar operations during the past two years. Being ill quite a bit, she was advised by physicians to have her teeth extracted, which she did, only to learn that she would have to undergo several operations before she could have her teeth made. It is thought this will be the final operation necessary. She has suffered much, and we sincerely hope she will soon be completely recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn and Jimmie Don and the writer visited last Sunday in the home of their sister and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison, Ruby Jean and Darrel of Dublin. All enjoyed the noon meal of good eats prepared by the ladies, after which the menfolk prepared a freezer of ice cream, packed it in ice, and all went to the swimming pool at Stephenville, where the kiddoes took a plunge, returning home in the late afternoon. All enjoyed the ice cream, cake, pineapple pie and ice cold watermelon.

We are sorry to learn of the illness of Mrs. Mattie Kavanaugh of Hamilton. She suffered a heart attack Sunday of last week. The Baptist Vacation Bible School closed last Friday with a nice commencement program, rendered by the kiddoes, preceding the initial service of the revival, which is in progress this week, and is being conducted by Rev. R. C. Tension of Hamilton. Members of the church are sorry that they did not get the announcement of this revival made in last week's news. A cordial invitation to these services is extended to all. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lockhart and Barbara of Pidooke were supper guests of her parents last Sunday evening on their return from Alexander, where they had attended the Pendleton reunion, held at the Alexander Park. The Pendletons are relatives of Mr. Lockhart. Mrs. Pat Patterson and children of Dallas visited from Monday until Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison and Textie. She accompanied Mrs. C. C. Hendricks and Barbara, who visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Olga Duncan. Barbara remained for a visit with her grandparents. The ladies are the former Misses Robbie Lee Allison and Essie May Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Anderson were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Springer Sunday. The Andersons' daughter, Miss Virginia, is visiting for a few days in the home of her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Guinn and family, at Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison and Darrel of Dublin visited here Monday night to be with his sister, Mrs. Pat Patterson, and children. Mrs. Allison visited a short while with the writer.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to take this opportunity to thank each of you from the depth of our heart for every kind deed, for the beautiful flowers and cards of sympathy, and for words of encouragement. All of these things helped to make the burden a lot easier to bear. The loss of our dear mother was a great loss, but we feel that God's will was accomplished. We also want to thank you for your prayers, which meant so much to us. We will always remember all of you because of the wonderful way you stood by us. May God's richest blessings be upon each of you as our sincere prayer.

Your friends,
Rev. & Mrs. Chester Sylvester.

Your Bank Helps the Rancher . . .
. . . the Farmer . . . the Merchant!

Have you ever stopped to think of how many cattle, sheep, goats and various kinds of livestock have been raised . . . the number of acres of farm crops that have been produced . . . because your bank could invest money in loans to farmers? Consider also the commercial loans that keep the wheels of business turning . . . assure the buying public of better goods and better services when they spend their hard-earned money.

In the free enterprise system which is the backbone of American economy, the bank is one of the keys to successful business operation. Good farmers, good ranchers, good merchants, successful professional men, and men of many skills have often been able to trace their success to a simple loan. Although loans are a mutual benefit to both the bank and the individual or firm, it is just one of the many banking services you can find at the First National. Let us tell you about them—at your convenience.

but many fond memories of the especially remembers the big dinner twenty years ago, when he had as his guests the inimitable Dink, now Mrs. George G. Gollightly of Hamilton, and her son, Roland Forgy, both former members of the News Review staff.

Maynard Marshall and family of Corpus Christi are receiving the News Review through the courtesy of his father, Marvin Marshall, who renewed a subscription for them recently.

Renewal for Mrs. J. D. Givens of Loraine, Texas, has been paid
by her brother, Weldon Pierce, so that she can continue to read the news from her former home each week.

B. N. Strong, who has been getting his paper at Iredell so long
he and his wife have up to now failed to remember to have the address changed to Hico, got around to passing on the word that he wanted his paper to come here.
We're glad to have him and the Missus with us. In between bites
at a local cafe Saturday morning, Badge also dug down for the price of another year's renewal. Any time a man as busy as that fellow is on Saturday, sale day at his livestock auction, ring, takes time to attend to a little detail like this,
we appreciate it. Thanks, pal.
In fact, thanks twice—again for the cappuccino you paid for as a bonus.

Mrs. G. W. Lewis recently entered a new subscription for her cousin, W. C. Cassidy, and family of Hico Route 2.

F. B. McLean of Hico Route 4, who has been living here for about a year, came in the office the other day to become a new subscriber to the News Review. Formerly a subscriber to a publication self-styled "Your County Newspaper," he said he believed he wanted to change to the local paper to get news of this vicinity.

W. E. Goynes, News Review subscription agent at Fairy, has mailed a renewal for Hon. Robert Parks, mayor of Fairy. We are always glad to receive subscriptions from the good people down that way, and feel especially dignified through having association with gentlemen like Messrs. Parks and Goynes. The local paper never had more steadfast friends, and we would like to take this occasion to thank them for their many acts and words of kindness and encouragement toward the present management over the last two decades and more.

M. J. Chaney, Hico Route 2, who gets his mail that way as an accommodation to keep him from having to walk through this heat to get his mail in town, was in to renew his subscription again the other day. The Chaney's have been residents of this section for a long time, and have been subscribers to our paper as far back as records are available. Though it's a little late to mention it, Mr. Chaney lost his neighbor to the west down along Grubbs Branch not long ago. When the Petsicks purchased and moved into the home of the late Dr.

C. M. Hall, they sold their residence next door to the Chaney's and it was moved down south of here somewhere. Just wait long enough and the News Review will tell all the news, in some shape,
form or fashion.

R. F. Laminack, Iredell Route 2, renewed his subscription to the News Review for another year while visiting next door with Raymond Lowe the other day.
R. F. and his wife, the former Mary Alice Crist, are neighbors to the Ramages in peaceful Black Stump Valley. They stay quite busy raising crops and that new baby boy, Kenneth Ray, born last Spring.

Mrs. Paul Lane, visiting here from Midland recently, came by the office to bring us a new subscription from Mr. and Mrs.
Harry Yoeham, also of Midland,
but formerly of this vicinity. Mrs.
Lane and family live in a trailer camp operated in Midland by the Yoehams, and Doris said she had heard them say they wanted to subscribe for the News Review.

Among our new subscribers is Mrs. A. M. Givens of Fort Worth who brought her sister, Mrs. H. E.
Wilson, home Wednesday of last week after a visit in her home and also with her sons, Grady and Raymond Wilson, of Fort Worth.
Before returning to Fort Worth,
Mrs. Givens came by the News Review office to subscribe.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks for every kindness shown us during our recent sorrow. We

Serial Story—Part II—

SHERLEY LYNN

By STELLA JONES

(At the conclusion of Part I, Angus had just invited Sherley
to go with him to visit his sister.) Sherley replied, "Angus, I would enjoy going, but I have to study that night," he went alone.
A very rich and beautiful girl was visiting his sister. Her name was Mira Hall. She was an only child. She wanted Angus herself, just like some of the others, but nothing doing. Some of the girls tried to break them up.

Mira told him, subtly, "I would be more suitable for your wife than she would. I am rich and everything, and she is a poor working girl."

They talked to him, but he loved her that much more. Other girls wanted him.

On Christmas Day, he was in Sherley's home, and he asked her to be his wife.

"I have loved you a long time,"
"I have loved you too," she said.

He kissed her and embraced her,
and put a pretty little diamond ring on her finger. The glad news was told to her parents. On Christmas night, his sister and husband and Mira were there, and he told the glad news to them. His father approved of the match, but the others didn't.

During the Christmas holidays,
Sherley and Angus enjoyed themselves.

The college he went to was in the city where they lived. He was in his second year in college.

Time passed away, and in June, Sherley finished high school. She was the valedictorian of the class, and it was a big class so this was quite an honor. She received many nice gifts. All in her class knew she was engaged to Angus, and most of them were glad. Some were like others who didn't approve of the match. She got a scholarship and went to the college he was in.

She would work on Saturdays
in the jewelry store.

When Angus was 22, he and Sherley were married on a beautiful day in June. The wedding was in the home of her parents. Her father had reformed, so he gave her in marriage. Her dress was of white satin and was very beautiful. His parents, his sister and brother and Mira Hall were there.
The wedding was a very simple
one. The couple left after the reception for a honeymoon of two weeks. A nice shower was given them at the reception. Her goingaway dress was blue beemberg sheer, and was beautiful. It suited her. The Walkers also attended the wedding.

A fine home was ready for them.
They would live in the city.

Mrs. Walker (the rich woman) had got in good health. She would keep her own house, and she had a nurse girl for the twins. Mrs.
Alwood would help her with the house cleaning and she did the laundry. She loved Mrs. Walker, and all loved her. She kept the twins a great deal.

The Walkers gave Sherley a big check when she finished high school.

One night in January, after Sherley was married, Mr. Alwood had gone across the street to visit a neighbor man that was ill.
The street was a little slick, and there had been a freeze. He slipped as he was coming home—right at his home—and broke his left
hip. He was taken to a hospital, but the break was so bad that he died in a week. (He carried insurance, which helped some.)

Some would throw it up to them
that he was drunk, but he had reformed, as we said before. His wife stayed with him, and Sherley, Angus and Harry were with him when he passed away.

Angus entered college again in the fall. The term he would finish he had a place in the bank, after he finished college—if he didn't have to go into military service.

Angus and Sherley were very happy, even though they had a hard time with their courtship, as so many tried to break them up.
His parents got to where they loved her very much, and she loved them. Mira finally got a rich husband a few years her senior.

Angus helped some on Saturdays in the bank. He told her, "No more working in the store."

He wanted to get her a maid.

"Oh, Honey Boy, I don't need any maid! It will be a pleasure to keep house for you."

But she weakened a little, and got a girl to clean the house. She had a fine washing machine, and she did her own laundry.

She took music while in school and graduated in music while in college. She had a piano and could play anything.

Some girls came to her and asked her to teach them, so she had 12 pupils.

"Don't you all have a music teacher there?" she asked.

"Yes ma'am, but she is a crabby thing, and we don't like her. She is too high anyway."

The children learned under Sherley's teaching. In a year or two, another teacher was employed, and she was fine—much better than the other one.

Some went to her, but six of them wouldn't leave Sherley.
Sherley was a fine woman.
Because she had been a poor working girl and was married to a rich man, she didn't feel above anyone. They had many friends.
Some that didn't like the idea of him marrying her were her best friends. She was loved by all, and all loved her. They would entertain their friends, and they would go to their friends' home. All would have a big time.

His parents and his sister and brother thought she was grand.
Her mother loved Angus also.
They visited her a great deal,
and she visited them. The place
she had held in the jewelry store
was turned over to her brother,
and he did sure fine.

She will not forget the time
when Angus came in and bought the pearls. He had been in there before, but this was the first time he had bought anything from her. She thought to herself, "He is mine—even if I never get him."
But she did, and they are very happy.

It does not pay to try to break up a love affair. For Sherley and Angus were intended for each other, and they lived happy ever afterward.

State Health Officer George W. Cox, in a statement flatly refuting claims by a University of Texas biochemist that fluoride in municipal drinking water might speed up the development of breast cancer, said the M. D. Anderson cancer research center, an adjunct of the University of Texas, completely supported the State Health Department's contention that fluoride additions to city water supplies does not accelerate the trend toward mammary cancer.

The state health agency has for the past two years recommended that municipalities add fluoride in the amount of one part fluoride to one million parts of water as a deterrent to tooth decay among children.

Also in support of the health department's position is the word of Dr. H. Trendly Dean, director of dental research, National Institute of Health.

Dr. Dean says he and Dr. Howard E. Anderson (unidentified) have carefully evaluated the data in respect to the alleged relation of fluoride water to an accelerated rate in the development of mammary tumors, and are of the opinion that the evidence does not warrant modification in the policy of recommending fluoridation of public drinking water supplies.

Dr. F. A. Bull, director of dental health in Wisconsin, in a letter to Dr. Cox, wrote that the Wisconsin health department has been accused of contributing to the cancer incidence for the past six years.

"We're going ahead, despite these deterrents, with fluoridation," Dr. Bull said.

Dr. Cox said the same bone of contention came up years ago when chlorine, now a common addition to drinking water, was first used to disinfect water supplies.

"Further postponement of fluorides in water would penalize children unnecessarily," the health officer said. "They deserve its cavity-preventing properties, and the State Department of Health will continue to recommend its use by any and all cities in the proper proportion."

DENTISTS "ON WHEELS"—Present methods of assignment of dentists in theaters of operation are being revised to make all types of dental service more readily available to troops. Under the new plan, dental officers will be withdrawn from all units smaller than a division. Dental services will be provided instead by various types of mobile detachments and teams for all troops in theater of operations. Yes, the "old Doc" will now be mobilized.

AIR FORCE FINANCE OFFICE IN NEW HOME—The Air Force has moved its finance office to Denver, Colorado. Dependents of airman seeking information concerning family allotments are asked to write to the Air Force Finance Officer, 3800 York Street, Denver, Colorado.

proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas amending Article III, Section 51a, providing that the Legislature shall have the power to provide assistance to and provide for the payment of some or residents of the State of Texas who are needy aged persons over the age of sixty-five (65) years, needy blind persons over the age of sixteen (16) years; needy children under the age of sixteen (16) years; removing the Thirty-five Million Dollars ($35,000,000) limitation upon expenditures for such purposes and providing for a limitation of Forty-two Million Dollars ($42,000,000) upon such expenditures; providing a maximum payment of Thirty Dollars ($30) per month from State funds for old age assistance; prohibiting payment of assistance after disposition of property under certain conditions; providing for the acceptance and expenditure of funds from the Federal Government of the United States of America for such assistance; providing that the payment of such from State funds shall never exceed the payments from Federal funds; providing for the necessary election, and providing for the form of ballot, proclamation, and publication.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
Section 1. That Section 51a of Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended, and the same is hereby amended so that the same shall hereafter read as follows:
"Section 51a. The Legislature shall have the power, by providing for the payment of assistance to and provide for the payment of some or residents of the State of Texas who are needy aged persons over the age of sixty-five (65) years; needy blind persons over the age of sixteen (16) years; needy children under the age of sixteen (16) years; removing the Thirty-five Million Dollars ($35,000,000) limitation upon expenditures for such purposes and providing for a limitation of Forty-two Million Dollars ($42,000,000) upon such expenditures; providing a maximum payment of Thirty Dollars ($30) per month from State funds for old age assistance; prohibiting payment of assistance after disposition of property under certain conditions; providing for the acceptance and expenditure of funds from the Federal Government of the United States of America for such assistance; providing that the payment of such from State funds shall never exceed the payments from Federal funds; providing for the necessary election, and providing for the form of ballot, proclamation, and publication.

"(1) Needy aged persons who are over the age of sixty-five (65) years; provided that no such assistance shall be paid to any inmate of any State-supported institution, while such inmate; and provided that any resident of the State, if otherwise eligible, may not be excluded who has resided in the State for five (5) years during the time (5) years immediately preceding the filing of the application for such assistance including the one (1) year continuously immediately preceding the filing of such application; provided that the maximum payment per month from State funds shall not exceed more than Thirty Dollars ($30) per month.

"Any applicant for or recipient of assistance, including the spouse in such instance, who shall dispose of any property, other than real property, after June 1, 1951, and any person who initially applies for assistance after June 1, 1951, who has disposed of any property, other than real property, after June 1, 1951, shall be ineligible to receive assistance; provided that if such property is disposed of by bona fide sale and conveyance, and for value commensurate with the actual market value thereof, such disposition shall not affect eligibility for assistance if it is shown that all proceeds from such sale have been used by such person and spouse for normal living expenses; or if the purchase of other real property of like value, or if any recipient of assistance or spouse shall sell or convey any real property, other than such property, for an amount less than its actual market value, such person and spouse shall not receive assistance until the expiration of the period of time during which the net proceeds of said sale have been used for normal living expenses had the actual market value been realized therefrom.

"(2) Needy blind persons who are over the age of sixteen (16) years; provided that no such assistance shall be paid to any inmate of any State-supported institution, while such inmate; and provided that any resident of the State, if otherwise eligible, may not be excluded who has resided in the State for five (5) years during the time (5) years immediately preceding the filing of the application for such assistance including the one (1) year continuously immediately preceding the filing of such application.

"(3) Needy children who are under the age of sixteen (16) years; provided that no such assistance shall be paid to any child, if otherwise eligible, may not be excluded who has resided in the State for one (1) year immediately preceding the filing of the application for such assistance, or, if said child is under the age of one (1) year, whose parent or other relative with whom the child is living has resided in the State for one (1) year immediately preceding the birth of such child.

"The Legislature shall have the authority to accept from the Federal Government of the United States such financial aid for the assistance of the needy aged, needy blind, and needy children as such Government may offer not inconsistent with restrictions herein set forth; provided, however, that the amount of such assistance out of State funds to each person assisted shall never exceed the amount so expended out of Federal funds; and provided further that the total amount of money to be expended out of State funds for such assistance during the year ending June 30, 1951, shall never exceed the sum of Forty-two Million Dollars ($42,000,000) per year.

"Should the Legislature appropriate hereto in anticipation of the adoption of this Amendment, such Acts shall not be invalid by reason of their anticipatory character."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be qualified by the qualified electors of Texas at the Election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the Second Tuesday in November, 1951, at which election there shall be printed on such ballot the following clause:
"FOR the amendments to the Constitution giving the Legislature power to set up a system of payments of assistance to needy persons over sixty-five (65) years of age; to needy blind persons over the age of sixteen (16) years; to needy children under sixteen (16) years of age; removing the Thirty-five Million Dollars ($35,000,000) limitation upon amount of State expenditures for such purposes; disqualifying persons who dispose of property under certain conditions; providing a maximum payment of Thirty Dollars ($30) per month from State funds for old age assistance; providing that expenditures from State funds shall not exceed the expenditures from Federal funds with respect to any individual; and providing conditions as to residence within the State in order to be eligible to receive assistance; and providing a limitation of Forty-two Million Dollars ($42,000,000) per year on State Fund expenditures for such purpose each year."

Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and Laws of the State of Texas.

Sec. 4. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election, and shall have the foregoing proposed Amendment published as required by the Constitution for proposed amendments thereto.

Sec. 5. Sec. 6. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election, and shall have the foregoing proposed Amendment published as required by the Constitution for proposed amendments thereto.

Sec. 7. If at said election, a majority of the votes are FOR the Constitutional Amendment authorizing a statewide system of retirement and disability pensions for appointive county officials and employees, and AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment authorizing a statewide system for retirement and disability pensions for appointive county officials and employees, each voter shall strike out one of said clauses on his ballot, leaving the one unmarked which expresses his vote upon the proposed Amendment.

Cariton

By Mrs. Fred Geyer
DAN A. KUNKEL

The Methodist church was filled Friday afternoon at 2:30 with sorrowing relatives and friends who had come to pay their last respects to D. A. Kunkel, who passed away July 18 at 8:30 p. m. in his farm home, after a lingering illness of several months. He and his family had been residents of the Cariton community for the past ten years.

He was born November 6, 1903, in Falls County. At the age of 15 he was converted and joined the Methodist church. On Nov. 13, 1924 he was united in marriage to Miss Freda Schlemmer. To this union were born two sons: Wilbur Otto Kunkel of Hamilton and Dan Kunkel Jr. of Cariton; two daughters-in-law, one grandson, Otto Kunkel of Otto, Texas, four sisters and one brother also survive. There are many other relatives and a host of friends who mourn his passing.

Burial was made in the local cemetery, with Barrow-Rutledge Funeral Directors of Hico in charge of all the arrangements. I failed to get the names of the pallbearers.

CLAUDE SMITH

The entire town and community were shocked Thursday night when the news was received that Claude Smith had passed away suddenly at his home about 9:15 p. m. Shortly after retiring for the night he and his wife were talking; suddenly he was silent and she found he had breathed his last. Although in ill health for several months, his death was unexpected. He had been to his doctors in Dublin Thursday morning for a check-up and the doctor reported him greatly improved.

His pastor, Rev. Chester Sylvester, conducted the services Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in the Baptist church. He was assisted by a former pastor, Rev. E. E. Dawson of Hico, and Rev. H. E. Dutton, local Methodist pastor.

He was born February 10, 1878 near Carlton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Smith. In young manhood he was converted and joined the Baptist church and had been a member of the Cariton Baptist Church since 1944.

On Nov. 13, 1898 he was united in marriage to Miss Fannie Cook. He passed away Feb. 1, 1944. In 1942 he was married to Mrs. Ella McKenzie and they made Cariton their home since their marriage. He was a faithful attendant at Sunday school and church when his health permitted.

Surviving him are his devoted wife; three stepchildren, Mrs. Claud Phillips of Lubbock, Mrs. Avery Coffman of Cariton and Hugh McKenzie of Hico; one sister, Mrs. Frankie Bingham of Dumas, Texas; one half-brother, Uncle Ben Smith of Cariton. Also there are host of other relatives and many friends who grieve at his passing.

Barrow-Rutledge Funeral Directors of Hico had charge of all arrangements, and burial was in the local cemetery. Pallbearers were George Driver, Edgar Smith, Charley Bain, Nell Clark, Dock Finley and J. C. Moreland.

Out-of-town relatives attending the funeral were: Bailey Smith, Henderson; Truman Smith, Ranger; Mrs. Elwyn Delaney, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Clint Richbourg, Clairette; Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Partin, Mrs. L. C. Vaughan and son, Waco; Mrs. Chas. Munsinger, Hasse. Out-of-town friends attending were: W. P. Barnett, Omer Graves and Ed Sullivan.

Dublin, and Mrs. Morgan Martin, Clairette.

The many friends of these two families extend their deepest sympathy to the grief-stricken members in the loss of their loved ones.

She will remain in the hospital until about the 26th, and will then be moved to the home of her nephew, J. E. Farrar, in Austin. Her niece, Mrs. Dow Self, is caring for her while she is in Austin.

Mrs. Jessie Finley left Saturday for Albany to visit her brother, B. H. Hitt.

Mrs. J. C. Moreland and daughter, Mrs. Thomas Williams, attended the funeral in Hamilton Monday morning of a close friend, Obie Pierce.

Mrs. Wayne Chapman and children of Irving visited the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watt Sharp Sr.

Mrs. Hallie McFatter returned to her home in McCaulley Saturday after a week's visit here with old friends.

Lee Charles McKnight of Goldthwaite and Dock Sharp of Crane spent the week end with their parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Watt Sharp Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Stephens visited Sunday in Stephenville with their son, Charles Stephens, and family.

Misses Mattie and Emma Hickerson of McGregor, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. Joe O'Connor of Temple spent Sunday with their sister and aunt, Mrs. J. B. Lowe and daughter, Miss Marlie.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Blanchard of Stephenville and her mother and grandmother, Mrs. Lillie Anderson and Mrs. J. H. Tull, are in Abilene attending the Tull family reunion.

Mrs. Laymon Smith and baby of Austin visited the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Proffitt. Her husband came up for the week end. They returned home Sunday afternoon.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to take this opportunity to thank each of you from the depths of our hearts for your words of sympathy, the flowers and food, and for every kindness which helped us in our time of sorrow at the death of our husband and father, Dan Kunkel. All of these things helped to make the burden a lot easier to bear. We will always remember all of you, because of the wonderful way you stood by us. Our sincere prayer is that all of you may be blessed.

MRS. DAN KUNKEL AND FAMILY.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

What's So Funny?

Just finished reading a magazine article that "proves" you and I don't know what's funny.

A bunch of psychologists came to this sad conclusion after telling jokes to college students. Very often they would give out with what they considered a side-splitter—and not get even a chuckle in response. Other times the students would laugh their heads off at stories that weren't considered really funny.

Maybe I'm wrong, but what makes a psychologist such a better judge of humor than the rest of us? If a man gets a kick out of a joke that proves it was funny to him—doesn't it?

From where I sit, when psychologists try to set up a standard for a sense of humor they're getting too serious for me. Stands to reason that different people laugh at different things, just as they have different tastes for most everything. I'm partial to a glass of beer with meals myself—but I promise not to make any "wise-cracks" if you prefer tea.

DOES THIS OLD HEN BELONG TO YOU?

THIS OLD HEN SAID:
"Well, this makes me mad! I worked mighty hard to lay that egg. Took me about two days here in this July heat, but there it is. Guess my Boss will do like he did last time I laid—just let my egg lay out here in the heat all day while some of these other old birds set on it and kick it around. Wonder is that it's not broken anyway. It was pretty dirty, too, by night, but my Boss won't care."
"He'll just fuss at the produce man because he called it a No. 2."
"Wouldn't it be nice if my Boss would gather the eggs two or three times a day, clean them and put them in a cool place, then case them after they are cool and during the hot weather sell two or three times a week to—"

"OLE SARGE"

FORT SAM HOUSTON, TEXAS—Small business specialists have been appointed at each of the five military districts, located in the capitol cities of Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and Texas, which comprise the Fourth Army area. These specialists will assist small business—those having 500 or less employees—in obtaining contracts with the government or in obtaining sub-contracts with government prime contractors.

TEXANS WIND UP DRILL AT CAMP POLK—Men of the 112th Armored Cavalry Regiment, Texas National Guard Unit, were breaking camp last week at Camp Polk, La., after two weeks of intensive training in modern warfare. The men were training with live ammunition and warfare conditions.

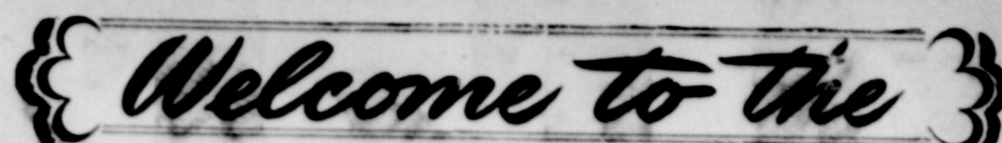

ENLISTMENTS EXTENDED—A message implementing the President's July 6th order to extend all enlistments expiring after July 8, 1951, and before July 1, 1952, was flashed to all commands last week. Thousands of servicemen will be affected.

ACTIVE MILITARY GET FURTHER SERVICE LIFE INSURANCE DIVIDEND—A new delay has been added to an old one making it certain that most military personnel on active duty will be many months late in receiving their second dividend on National Service Life Insurance. Except for those who waive part or all of their premiums under the terms of the new indemnity insurance law, those who have been paying their premiums by allotments can forget about any particular month in which they expect their check. And those who waive may not be any better off. By contrast "civilian veterans" are getting theirs at a rapid, well-ordered clip. The $140 million mark—about 20 per cent of the total of $685 million to be paid—was passed in checks sent out this week for the second dividend. The story dates back to last November, when the delay began with a months-long impasse in future planning. Since then it has been complicated by the April 25th enactment of the new insurance law.

WIDOWS' MEDICAL CARE EXPLAINED—Unmarried widows of Armed Forces personnel whose death occurred while on extended active duty or in a retired status are made eligible for medical care at Army Facilities by a new change in regulations. The facilities will be given on an available basis, and the hospital must be reimbursed for the dependent's subsistence rate. Elective care is not authorized.

See you in the papers. SARGE.

HICO REUNION

WE, TOO, ARE PIONEERS!

The Gulf States Telephone Company entered business in 1910 and has grown with Hico and Hamilton County, making it possible for the people of this section to enjoy one of the most useful of modern conveniences—the TELEPHONE!

Day or night, the telephone is one means of instant contact with those outside of the home. Friends meet friends on a moment's notice. . . . Invitations are extended and accepted. . . . Alarms are spread quickly. . . . Emergencies are met with the aid of the telephone.

This company and its employees extend the heartiest congratulations to the settlers who celebrated their first Reunion, and to those of today, on the occasion of their
