Captain M. T. Neenan, his wife and their son Tim arrived here last week during his 30-day leave from the Far East with an engineering group.

Captain Neenan, in an exclusive interview with the News Review, said in no uncertain terms that he is not kicking this country around might get hurt if they do not get out without knowing what they are doing.

Neenan, former business manager of the local hospital has in over half a century of service as a carrier. We hereby commend him as a recruiter.

WANTED TO SCHOOL

William R. Jackson, who has been training at Lackland Airfield near San Antonio, during his 30-day leave, was in Hico Monday, Sept. 10, to see his office training at the University of Alabama.

First Class Jackson is in the 3476th School Squadron of the U. S. Air Force. His training will include business processes and instruction in operation of office machines.

Billy Jones of Alexandria, La., arrived last week to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jones, during his 30-day leave. He left Sunday with his brother, Wayne Jones, who is in the service, and Billy will spend part of his leave there.

October Draft Call Increased by 65 from Texas Boards

Hico, Texas, Sept. 10.—State Selective Service headquarters here last week to increase the draft call for October from 10,000 to 10,650 men, Brig. Gen. Paul L. Wakefield, state director of Selective Service, said.

The increase for October is 65 men, General Wakefield said, "and will be easily met. We are ready for much larger increases if the nation needs them."

The increase of 65 in the Texas call is a national increase of 65 men. Original October call for the nation was 41,000. Adjusted call is 41,650.

As a result of adjustment in the call, 15 local boards in 11 counties are scheduled to receive a slight adjustment in their draft calls.

Boards to receive an increase are located in San Antonio, Ennis, Houston, Baytown, Beaumont, Arthur, Lubbock, Waco, Sweetwater, and Orange. Draft calls were scheduled to be mailed last week end by state headquarters.

General Wakefield explained that such a small increase in the call cannot be equitably divided among 137 local boards and that adjustments have to be made later. Receipt of small calls over a period of time becomes a series of adjustments and readjustments," the state draft director said.

CAGED... A group of west Berlin youngsters look on as workmen in the American sector of Berlin go about erecting a wooden cage around the huge Soviet war memorial. The memorial erected by the Reds in 1945 has infuriated west Berliners, and the cage will save it from further attacks. The Soviets have been asked to remove it but have refused.

Subscribing Is Like Paying Preacher

Promise of Rain in Trade For Subscription Pays off

Comparatively new residents of this section, Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn Templeton moved from San Angelo to a "better" climate and are making their home on the former Red Walker place in the Duffau community, after trading with H. H. Gaston for the property about a year ago.

Mr. Templeton was fairly well depressed (weren't we all during the drought?) Saturday when he came by the News Review office to open a subscription to the local paper, and said half-heartedly, "It will rain here some time, won't it?"

They moved out of what was considered to be the drought area, and came here last year while the grass was green after unusually heavy summer rains. Now San Angelo has had more than its due share of moisture, and the fields of Eden haven't been so verdant during an unusually hot and dry summer. We promised our friend that it was sure to rain pretty soon—it always had—and besides, subscribing for the home paper is just like paying the preacher when it comes to bringing a change in luck. Fortunately our promise was made good Sunday night and early Monday morning, when there was enough rainfall to consider the drought broken.

Although the rainfall was a little heavier in Hico than in some parts of the country surrounding, we hope and trust Mr. Templeton is as pleased with our raimaking as we are with having him as a subscriber and his family as citizens of this section.

The Templeton children are attending school both at Hico and Duffau, and probably have made a wide acquaintance here already. Orville Templeton, age 16, is a student in Hico High School, and their daughter, Donna Jean, age 10, is attending Duffau school.

Mrs. M. A. Cole said she had almost forgotten when our office inquired because she hadn't been here in so long. Her daughter, Ardis Cole, usually renews her subscription, but this year brought Mrs. Cole in for that duty and we were glad that she had the occasion to come by again.

Mrs. Harold M. Goolsby of San Antonio spent the week end here recently, but was so busy with visiting that she didn't have time to come by and pay her subscription in person. Anyway, she left the two bucks with her dad, Penn Blair, who came by later to have her paper sent on. We still think Yetta should have come in to see us herself—maybe she will have more time the next time she is back home.

"Tomorrow I will go to work as a Lieutenant. I put the double bars on my shirt today, and it looks like somebody else's shirt," was the word Sam Abel recently wrote his mother here. His promotion from lieutenant (jg) was received last week in Corpus Christi. His niece, Jo Linda, came by to bring in their new address in Corpus Christi and delivered the message that they still want to receive the News Review.

E. L. McGuyer of Rockdale, who still has a lot of friends around here in spite of the fact that he's probably been too busy to come up regularly to see them, mailed a check recently for his renewal to the News Review, of which he has been a subscriber for the last decade. A former county commissioner, we notice from his letterhead that Mr. McGuyer is now in the construction business.

Mrs. C. B. Segrest was in the office last Friday to renew her subscription to the News Review. She said that she always reads the paper and then sends it to her sister, Mrs. Nettie McWilliams.

Mrs. Lotus L. Gosdin of Muleshoe, who is known better here as the former Dorothy Holladay, brought her 3-month-old son, James Lee, by the office Saturday. While she and her husband were here visiting her relatives, she said she had talked her sister, Mrs. Pete Jenkins, into taking care of the young fellow while they do some more visiting. And his pleasant disposition seemed to indicate that he wouldn't be too much trouble.

Pete Gano, who evidently has grown taller than his brother Frank since the family moved from here to Stephenville, came by the newspaper family's house while spending the week end in Hico, to renew a subscription for his mother, Mrs. Merle Gano, who is employed at the Stephenville State Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Ritchey of Marathon sent a check for renewal of their subscription this week. Back here during the summer, attending to the business of renting the Porter home to Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Cook, Martha enjoyed a bit of visiting with old friends in Hico and promised that she would send in her renewal, as usual, for another year.

Always punctual, Mrs. J. M. Anderson of San Angelo has renewed her subscription to the News Review this week, saying that she doesn't want to miss a copy. And to be sure that she won't, she sends in her renewal regularly.

Mrs. Royce Lee Mackey of Stephenville (that's the way the papers up there divide the name Stephenville) is receiving The Hico News Review now through the courtesy of her grandmother, Mrs. Mollie Harvey, who said she thought so much of the Hico paper that she wanted to send it to both of her granddaughters, Mrs. Mackey and Mrs. Don Wadlington, Dallas. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Tullio Carpenter of Hico.

Renewals due this month which were included on regular accounts with the News Review were paid by W. M. Horsley and R. A. Herdington Sr.

People thought when Mrs. T. A. Randal went out of the grocery business she would have a lot of time on her hands. But it appears she is kept busier than ever with running various errands like paying...

Local Harvester Dealer Asks Public To Demonstration

Paul Neel, owner of Neel Truck and Tractor Company, announced this week that International Harvester's home economist will hold a "Frozen Food Facts" demonstration in the sales room of his store in Hico Thursday evening, Sept. 20, beginning at 7:30 p. m.

The Frozen Facts demonstration will be both interesting and educational in that the preparations for freezing meats, vegetables, fruits and pastries will be discussed. The preparations for the serving of these foods will be demonstrated also.

A similar demonstration last spring proved quite popular. Mr. Neel said, and the invitation is again extended to all persons interested in frozen foods to attend this free showing. Refreshments will be served and door prizes will be awarded.

Same Teams to Meet Sunday for Second Game in Shaughnessy

By LEON LEWIS

Iredell took the first game over Shiloh last Sunday by a score of 11 to 2 in the Shaughnessy playoff, while Duffau was winning over Johnsonville 11 to 7. This gives the two top teams big percentage to be in the final three-game playoff if Duffau and Iredell both win next Sunday.

The final games will begin the following Sunday and will find Iredell at Duffau for the first game. Iredell goes to Shiloh for the second game next Sunday and will play in Dublin Park. It is supposed that Johnsonville will again play at Duffau next Sunday.

Go see these games. From here out they will be real ball games.

Second Community Visit This Year

Lions and Ladies Sponsor Dinner Program at Carlton

Carlton Gymnasium was the scene Tuesday night of the second community dinner sponsored by the Hico Lions Club for local and Carlton men and their wives. Members of the Carlton Order of the Eastern Star were responsible for preparing and serving the meal, which consisted of chicken and dressing, English pea salad, candied yams, cranberry sauce, pickles, pie and iced tea.

The program was opened with the singing of a verse of "America," led by Supt. O. C. Cook of Hico. Rev. Chester Sylvester, Baptist pastor at Carlton, gave the invocation.

Introduction of members and guests of the Lions Club followed, after Lion president Robert B. Jackson called upon those present to announce their names. Lion Truman E. Roberts was called upon for an extemporaneous speech to the assemblage, and he expressed the members' appreciation for such fine hospitality. Supt. H. E. Walton of Carlton responded to this speech with a cordial welcome from the citizens over there.

For the major part of the evening's entertainment, Lion Cook served as program chairman, introducing young Morris Risenhoover, who played several piano selections, including "Mockingbird Hill," "Chattanooga Shoe Shine Boy," and "It Is No Secret."

A vocal solo, "Can't You Hear Me Calling Caroline?" was rendered by Miss Thoma Rodgers, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Chester Sylvester.

Adding a light touch to the program, Mrs. R. B. Jackson gave a very humorous reading. She was dressed in costume which added to her comical interpretation.

Concluding the formal program, a trio of voices sang a capella selections, "I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen" and "Only a Touch of Thy Hand, Dear Lord." The trio included Miss Thoma

J. S. Minter

Another of Carlton's citizens has passed away.

J. S. Minter in failing health for several months, passed away Sept. 4, 1951 at 5:20 p. m. in the Hico Hospital where he had been a patient for a week.

Funeral services were held in the Baptist church Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, conducted by his pastor, Rev. Chester Sylvestor. He was born on March 9, 1863 to Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Minter of Morgan County, Ala. In early life he was converted and joined the Baptist church and had been a member of Calton Baptist Church for many years. On Dec. 10, 1890 he was united in marriage to Miss Spurgeon Thompson in Morgan County, Ala. To this union was born one daughter, Mrs. Grace Fine of Carlton.

Mr. and Mrs. Minter moved to the Carlton community about 52 years ago. His wife being an invalid, they moved into town and made their home with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Fine. The town and community have lost a wonderful neighbor and father and a real friend, always ready to minister to his neighbors who were sick and in sorrow. We had been neighbors for years and when sickness and death entered our home, he was there ready to lend a helping hand. We who knew him best deeply feel the loss in the going of our long-time friend and neighbor.

He has been promoted to a better life and has been released from all suffering, sorrow and trouble. His is joy, peace, happiness, comfort and rest in the Great Beyond.

His wife preceded him in death on Feb. 19, 1949. He is survived by his daughter; two granddaughters, Mrs. Bobby Moring of Cotton Center and Mrs. Daymond Weaver of Hico; four great-grandchildren, Deborah and Belinda Moring of Cotton Center and Barry and Larry Weaver of Hico. Many other relatives and a host of friends also mourn his passing. Three sisters and three brothers had preceded him in death. He was the last of seven children, claimed by death.

All funeral arrangements were under the direction of Barrow-Rutledge Funeral Home of Hico. Pallbearers were Virgil Battershell, Charlie Proffitt, Purley Sharp, Dock Finley, Jim Pierce and Claud Gibson. Honorary pallbearers were Rance Sowell, Lee Turney, Fred Geye and W. L. Fisher.

Burial was in the local cemetery. Deepest sympathy is extended to the sorrowing relatives in the loss of their loved one.

Out-of-town relatives attending the funeral were: Mrs. Harve Miller, her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Laymon Miller and Barbara, and Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Bacon, all of Stephenville; Mrs. Lonnie Thompson, her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Couch, and Mrs. Lizzie Roberson, of Gustine; R. E. Ford, Dallas; and Norville Akin, Stephenville. received almost an inch and half of rain Sunday night, for which we feel all are very thankful. It will be very beneficial to the lands and ground for fall...

is a disabled war veteran of World War II and it will be remembered by many that he was held prisoner by the Japanese for more than three years. We regret to lose them, but wish for them much success in their new adventure. Isaac Porterfield of Waxahachie spent the week end here visiting in the home of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blakley, and brother, Walter Porterfield. He said he decided to get out and drive his son's little car a tiny roadster with the steering wheel on the right side, and soon found himself quite a distance up this way so decided to drive on up and his sister persuaded him to spend the night. So he went to a nearby telephone and called home to let the folks know where he was and that he wouldn't return until Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lockhart and Barbara of Picooke visited Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Heyroth. Friends and acquaintances of Mrs. Charlie Stephenson of Glen Rose will be sorry to learn that she is seriously ill at her home in Glen Rose. Her husband, Rev. Stephenson, has been very helpful in the promotion of singings over the county in the past several years, but having suffered a heart attack he has hardly been able to attend singings and had to avoid singing at all. We miss them so much and our prayers are with them in their illness. Nathan Ford of Dallas was in Fairy last week end greeting old friends. He was down to attend funeral services for a relative, Mr. J. S. Minter of Carlton, on Thursday. E. M. Hoover carried a load of cattle to Fort Worth Monday for Mrs. Emma Ogle. Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison, Ruby Jean and Darrel of Dublin visited here Sunday afternoon in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison, and Texie; the writer, and with Mrs. Allison's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, and family. We have been requested to announce that the low and since the good rain the grass and weeds are going to grow. So we hope all who can will make a donation to this worthy cause. Mr. and Mrs. John Abel and the writer attended singing at Hico Sunday afternoon and visited after singing hours in the Oliver Burnett home. Mr. and Mrs. George Stringer and Cathy of Hico visited Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison, and Texie. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Porterfield moved Saturday to the stucco produce house which has been completely remodeled on the interior, with partitions, clothes closets and a shower added. All who have had the privilege of inspecting it say it is very nice and cozy. We mentioned in last week's news the fire at the Edd Craig ranch and later learned about the same time a fire was raging at the place belonging to Mrs. Craig's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Oglesby, near Lanham, where a chicken house was destroyed and a number of acres of grass land burned off. And the next day, which was Monday of last week, the barn at the home of Mrs. Beatrice Oglesby was destroyed by fire. A portion of the maize and corn crop had been stored in the barn and Mrs. Oglesby's brother, Louis Heyroth, who makes his home with Mrs. Oglesby, and his son Billie were gathering corn and had just finished the noon meal when the blaze was discovered. The Hamilton fire department was called and a portion of the feed was saved, although some of it was badly scorched. Origin of the fire was unknown but it was thought it could possibly have been set by a glass jar which was in direct rays of the sun by the barn. Jerry Richardson received a broken finger on his left hand last Wednesday week, while playing with an air gun. He began his first year in school the following Monday. Since he is left-handed, he has probably had some static trying to use the right hand, or if possible, using the injured one. An item of news which we received too late for last week's letter is the celebration of the 47th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve King on Sunday, Sept. 2, at the Glen Rose park. The celebration was also in honor of Mrs. King's birthday, also that of Mrs. Tom Munnerlyn of Hico and Mrs. Dobie Strickland of Stephenville. Those present for the happy occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Cleve King, Mr. and Mrs. Carl King and Lynn, Fairy; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Munnerlyn, Hico; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Munnerlyn and Mr. and Mrs. Owen Trammel, Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Dobie Strickland, Mrs. Allie Newman and Mr. Ballentine, Stephenville; Mr. and Mrs. John Odom, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCullen, Denton; Mr. and Mrs. Rogers and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Creech and granddaughter, Granbury. All enjoyed a bountiful basket lunch at the noon hour. We wish for them many more such happy occasions. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wolfe of Woodson spent the week end with his brother, H. H. Wolfe, and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Claud Brunson visited Sunday in the home of their son, Dave Brunson, and family at Morgan.

Mrs. Alvin Beard and daughters, Judy and Opal Gean; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harcrow and children, Marian Lee, Rachel, Anna, and John Layton, Wago; Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Sanders and children, Cathy and Tommy, Mesquite; Mr. and Mrs. John D. Lowe Sr., Weatherford; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Lowe and children, Lam-pasas; Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Schiller and Ronald Lee, Lampasas; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Springer, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lowe Jr., Houston; Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Hudson, Jackie Lowe and Rebecca, Weatherford; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jameson and Malyna Jane, Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Goyne, Wilma Grace and Malinda Lou, Fairy; Mr. and Mrs. George Switzer, Breckenridge; C. E. Deisher, Sammie and Norman D. Delsher, Stephenville, and Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Bazar of Fort Worth. Friends who attended were Miss Zella Goyne, Messrs. Ed and Duane Crist, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Lam-inack and Kenneth, and Messrs. Tyrus King and Fred Jones Jr., all of Hico.

CLAIRETTE - By - Mrs. Henry Mayfield

The light rain that came Sunday night has cooled the atmosphere to some extent. A large crowd attended the "Wagon Wheel" wedding and shower given in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. Neely Friday night at the school auditorium. Several from Hico, Duffau and Salem attended. Mr. and Mrs. Rob Sherrard have been at the bedside of their son Billie at the Stephenville Hospital for the past two weeks. Billie underwent a second operation in less than two weeks, and has been quite ill. At last report he had improved a little. The Busy Bee Club met last Thursday, with Mrs. Simpson Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Will Alexander visited their children at Kerrville recently. We are sorry to report Mrs. Nora Dowdy has been ill in the Hico Hospital for the past few days. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mayfield and son Sam Mayfield and Mrs. Dorothy Erick took dinner Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Andy Duncan and Shirley of Fort Worth, and visited Charles Erick at the City-County Hospital and Mrs. Charlie Dowdy at the Harris Memorial Methodist Hospital. We are glad to report both patients are slowly improving. Mrs. Roy Harvey was called to Mineral Wells Friday due to illness of her daughter, Mrs. Horace Roe, but came home Sunday and reported Mrs. Roe better. Randy, her son, came home with his grandmother to stay a few days.

LODEN FAMILY REUNION

The Loden family began gathering Saturday afternoon, Sept. 1, 1951, for their annual family reunion. Due to the excessive heat the meeting was not held in Hico as usual, but the participants went out to the farm where the older ones grew up, and which now belongs to George Loden. Before dusk a considerable number had arrived, and they enjoyed supper together. There by the light of the campfire they visited, talking of old times and new until far into the evening. A host of them spent the night at the farm. Those who went home took guests, returning early the next day. Many others arrived Sunday morning, some having driven all night to be able to attend. George and Ben Loden had the barbecue cooking by good daylight. Everyone who came brought food for the noon meal which was truly enjoyed by all. Just before dinner a general assembly was held conducted by Mrs. W. E. Goyne. The program was as follows: Song by all, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." Prayer, W. E. Goyne. Scripture Reading, Judges 24:1-31, J. D. Lowe Jr. Roll Call by heads of families. Recognition of Guests. Business Discussion. Solo, "The Pearly White City," Ralph Loden. Grace at the Table by Mrs. John D. Lowe Sr. The afternoon was spent in more visiting. Supper together was enjoyed, and the last of the company departed by nightfall, except for the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. George Loden, and their family who remained overnight. It is expected that another meeting will be held at the same time and place next year for another happy holiday together. Those who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. Ben Loden and Billy of Waco; Mr. and Mrs. Truman Loden and Paula Kay, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Loden, Waco; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Luckie, Mary Lou and Johnnie, Weatherford; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lisenby, Tahoka; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis and sons, Jack L. and Jimmie Frank, Lubbock; Mrs. Wendell Gilbert and daughters, Gail, Sue and Paula Kay, San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Loden, Hico; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Loden and sons, Geary Don, Larry and Rick-ey Jean, Lampasas; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel McPherson and sons, Bob-by Dan, Tommy David and Kenneth, Stephenville; Mrs. Catharine Osborn, Magic City, and her son, Garth Osborn, Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. George W. with BETTER LIGHT for home study

Brighter light makes a brighter student. The right light for home study makes concentration easier... prevents eyestrain, fatigue and poor grades. For easier, less tiring home work, the lamp on your child's study table should be 25 inches high and 15 inches from bottom of shade to desk top. It should be equipped with a wide, light-lined shade and a diffusing bowl that conceals the bulb and prevents glare. The bulb should be an inside frosted 150-watt bulb or a 50-100-150-watt three light bulb (turned to 150 watts when used for study). The lamp should be placed immediately to the left of the work papers or books and 12 to 18 inches from the front edge of the desk or table. Let us help you select the right lamp and bulb if your present equipment does not meet the above specifications. See us about it today. Better light means better grades!

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMERS

From Mrs. Carrie Brown, Marcellus, Mich.: I remember about 80 years ago men drove through the country buying wood ashes. They were called "ash cats." The ashes were to make soap. They always paid with tin ware, no money. Later, my mother saved ashes and made her own soap. Never saw any toilet soap until years later, then it was a pink soap with strong perfume.

From Mrs. C. A. Wheeler, Hannibal, Mo.: I remember when grandmother made cornmeal mush in the big iron kettle and stirred it with a wooden spoon for supper, any left over was fried for breakfast next morning.

From Mrs. Georgia Fowler, Somers, Iowa: I remember when as soon as the threshing was done in the fall, we took a clean bed tick out to the straw stack and filled it with nice clean straw. That was to be our only mattress until next threshing time, but with a feather bed on top of it, we thought it was fine.

From E. C. Wyatt, Elkins, W. Va.: I remember when cooking was done over an open fire, and biscuits and corn pone and salt risen bread were baked in an iron oven with a long handle and covered with an iron lid with a rim around the top to hold live coals. Pots were hung on iron chains with hooks at each end. The chains were called trammels. One end was hooked over an iron bar called a lubber pole, while others were fastened to an iron bar called a crane which could be swung around in any position.

From Mrs. Lily S. Radley, Peoria, Ill.: I remember when women wore their watches attached to a long gold chain with a plain gold slide on it having jewel sets in the slide. These watches were worn in their belts or in a little watch pocket sewed on their dresses.

SUCCESSFUL PARENTHOOD

By MRS. CATHERINE CONRAD EDWARDS Associate Editor, Parents' Magazine

"IF I MAKE my old fur coat do another year, Janie can have piano lessons this fall." How many mothers have pondered similar sacrifices and fathers, too, been willing to give up personal needs for the sake of the children. Of course, it happens every day, for parenthood requires self-sacrifice. Kept within sensible bounds, this ability to put others first is a most satisfying experience, particularly if the children appreciate the things being done for them.

I know of a father who at 45 started taking piano lessons. Though he never became a virtuoso, he became competent enough to accompany family singing sessions and his playing provided many happy hours for himself and for others. Adults who bemoan the fact that they didn't take advantage of the opportunities of youth forget that it's never too late to learn something for which you have a natural bent.

DALE CARNEGIE

MORGAN C. JUDD, Knoxville, Tenn., says before he could solve the Big Problem in his life, he had to form a whole new philosophy of living. He learned that this had to be done by his own self and that anything another contributed in the way of help was merely help.

He awoke one day about six years ago to find himself definitely an alcoholic. He had suddenly realized that every time he took a drink, he wanted to keep on drinking until he "drew a blank." The habit, of course, had come upon him by degrees, and in the full belief that when he wanted to stop drinking, all he had to do was to stop. Now he knew it was not as simple as that.

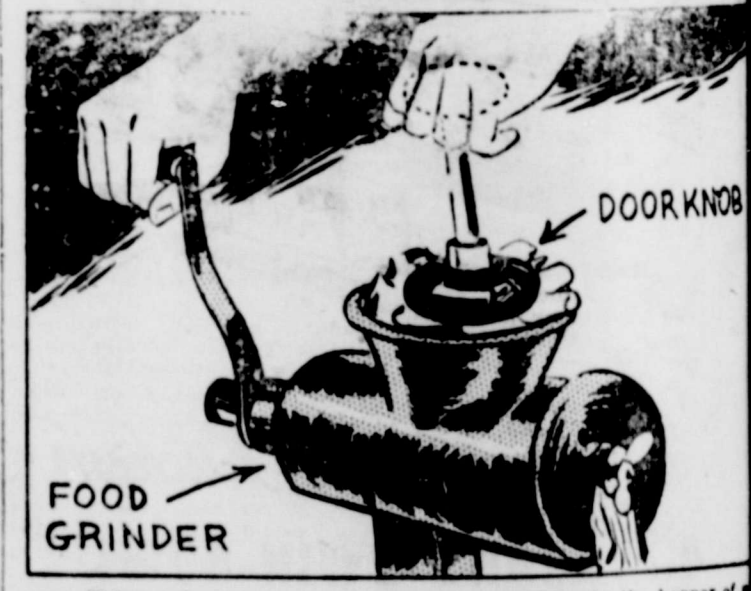

1—Every day decide that you won't take a drink today. Never mind about tomorrow, that will take care of itself. Live for today only. 2—Forget your own problem by becoming interested in others. There were other sage pieces of advice, but Morgan Judd says these two alone were sufficient for him.

V-PIG BY PAUL TULIEN

CHARLEY WALTERS had promised to come at one o'clock to help me with my hay, but it was almost two before he finally came. And he wasn't wearing the grin that had won him the name of Happy back in our school days. "What's the matter, Charley?" I asked. "Did the rain delay you, or did your wife run off with the hired man?" He ignored my question. It hadn't rained, and Charley had neither wife nor hired man. "Remember Ben Rant's pig that got its picture in the paper because it had a V-shaped marking on one side?" he asked. "You bought it?" "No. It's gone and they say I stole it." "You!" I exclaimed. He savagely stabbed the ground with his pitchfork. "I've got a pig with a V on it too, and some skunk driving by happened to see it, so he hot-footed it to Ben to tell him where his pig was."

A car stopped on the highway and a man got out and came across the field toward us. It was Chris Dawson, editor of the paper that had printed the pig's picture with a humorous story that the V stood for vittles. "I came to see about the pig, Charley," he said. "I don't like to see a dispute like this. It isn't good for the community."

Using a doorknob to pack meat or vegetables in the hopper of a food grinder keeps the task from being tiresome or dangerous.

Holiday Trips Are Theme of Opening Review Club Program

The Hico Review Club began their 1951-52 club year on Thursday afternoon, September 6, with a seated tea in the lovely home of Mrs. Odis Petsick. Esther Reed daisies and gladioli were used in decoration.

Members were served with refreshments of sandwiches, punch, nuts, mints and cakes. Mrs. J. E. Lincoln presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. R. B. Jackson gave comment on the new club yearbooks, and Mrs. Wayne Rutledge presided at her first meeting as club president to deliver the annual president's message.

ing her subscription—which she did Tuesday morning—and visiting around over the country. This, of course, does not include keeping up with her husband, "Mister Tullos" who also does his share of running around, trading quite a bit, and griping about something that results from not taking advice from people who know how to run his business.

Fern Jordan, who claims either Hico or Carlton as his residence, living between the two communities, came by the other day to pay his subscription to mark him up another year. He gets about his duties as a county commissioner in his usual good-natured manner and renewed his subscription with that same attitude.

Jerry Brown of Hico Route 2 is a new subscriber to the News Review, having turned in his order to Leonard Howard at the Hico News Stand.

Renewed to the News Review has been entered by Mrs. May Dorsey Bates, who still likes to read the hometown newspaper after she gets through with Time Magazine, to get her mind off of weighty matters of world significance and down to earth.

Tullus Carpenter, who seems to have been living a life of ease for the past few weeks, is right on the ball in spite of his leisurely attitude. He not only bought the newspaper folks a round of coffee one day this week, but the next day stopped them and forced them to take the money for renewal of his subscription. That was some tussle, but he won it—naturally.

In paying his account at the News Review this week, C. M. Hedges renewed his subscription to the Hico paper for another year. Just for that, next time he gets interested in our barbecue headquarters we'll let him pull up a chair and fill up. Provided, of course, he brings the meat. We'll furnish the fire.

While visiting here on vacation, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Cole decided they wanted another dose of the old home paper, and came by the office to have the paper sent to their home in Fort Worth.

Mitchell-Jones
Miss Margaret Ann Jones of Fort Worth and Bascom Loran Mitchell Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Mitchell of Iredell, were married at 3:30 p. m. Sunday, Sept. 2, at the North Fort Worth Baptist Church. Rev. James N. Morgan officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Jones, 3235 Sondra, Fort Worth.

Miss Nina Gibbs sang, accompanied by Mrs. T. D. McCullough. Pfc. Donald B. Mitchell was his brother's best man. The bride's brothers, Harold, Henry and Joe Jones, were ushers.

Miss Helen Sue Johnson, who attended the bride, wore an aqua ankle-length dress of net over taffeta. She carried pink carnations.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white Chantilly lace gown over taffeta, with an ankle-length skirt. Her hat was of starched Chantilly lace. She carried a white orchid on a Bible.

At a reception held at the church, Misses Venita Bracewell, Carrie Jane Farr and Barbara Rogers served refreshments.

After a trip to Galveston, the young couple will be at home at 4915 Byers, Fort Worth. The bride wore away a mauve shantung suit with brown accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Mitchell attended their son's wedding.

Concluding Installment— REVIVED AND CONVERTED By STELLA JONES

Jim told Inez, "No more of that laundry. I am making good money now. So don't do any more." She had worked very hard while he was on his spree.

Clara went to the revival service one night with her parents. She loved to dance and go other places. She didn't think about religion. She went to Sunday school and church some, when she would get up in time. One night the preacher delivered a powerful sermon and she was happily converted. Her parents had got revived up.

She had a boy friend, age 19. He had finished high school and had gone to college one year and would go again in the Fall. The college was in the city where he lived. Clara expected to finish high school the next year. They had been sweethearts for several years.

Finally the revival came to an end. The night after it closed he phoned her to go honky-tonking. He hadn't heard about her conversion as he had been out of the city for a few days. She said no.

"Alton, I can't go quite yet. Come on over and I will tell you." He came over and she told him the glad news.

"There will be," she said, "a social tonight on the church lawn for the converts and we will go, even though you are not among us." She was one of the officers in it. Clara told him that this new life was a happy life. Alton Brown enjoyed the social as well as the others. It wasn't long till he got the spirit, was converted and joined the Baptist church with her. All the churches in the city got the influence of the meeting. Many were saved through Jim's influence.

Clara's father was a druggist and she helped him in the drug store some.

When Alvin was 21 and Clara 18, they were happily married at the home of her parents. The happy couple left after the reception for a honeymoon trip. They came back to a beautiful home and they soon furnished it. A fine shower was given to them.

Alvin was in business with his father, who had a big store of general merchandise. Alton took a business course in college, which is supposed to help. The young couple were very happy, both being teachers in Sunday school, and they were loved by all. They often would entertain their young friends and they would be entertained by them.

Jim climbed up more and more. He was the head one in the garage. After a while he decided to go into the garage business for himself. He had many men working for him. His payroll was so big it's a wonder he wasn't driven back to drink when the ghost walked. But he had time to be at home with his family. He would help his wife out so much. He would have family prayer. He and his wife and son would read in the Bible every day.

After a few years a pair of twins were born to them—a girl and a boy, named Nola and Olan. They were beautiful babies. As soon as they were old enough they were dedicated to God in baptism. Clara and Alton loved the babies very much, which is natural with most parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Hastings had many friends. By the Christian influence that came from Jim and his wife, many were saved. They thought, "If Christ can save him and make him like he is, we want some of it." Many were saved through him, for, like the man in the Bible, he would tell his friends what the Lord had done for him. Some of his old pals he had in former days would try to lead him off. Some would tempt him. But he told them, "No siren, nothing doing." He would point them to Jesus.

Jim will never forget the night he went to the revival in the place of getting on a big binge. He did untold good to one and all and all were happy through his influence. He held an office in his church. Inez was one of the teachers in the Sunday school. They gave of their means and helped the poor and needy. He would lift up the poor, drunken man and help him, for he knew how it was.

I hope all will enjoy this story.

THE END.

PUZZLE NO. 147

Answer to Puzzle No. 146

"Let's Talk Live Stock"

By TED GOULDY

Fort Worth, Sept. 8.—The September movement of cattle and calves out of Texas may easily set a record this year. The livestock agents of rail lines at Fort Worth are sitting up nights trying to get livestock cars back to Fort Worth and other central shipping points in the State to take care of the thousands of cattle and calves.

The unusual aspects of the movement this year are that South Texas shipments are much heavier than usual because of the drought. This may mean that shipments next Spring from that section will be abnormally small.

Another phase of the movement is that most of the shipments are going great distances. Most shipping points are far enough away from the Southwest that few if any of these cattle will ever come back. Destinations in Arizona, California, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico in the West, and all across the Midwest, South Central and to Southeastern points, appear on the rail car billings going out of Fort Worth.

It is very difficult to get these empty cars back fast enough. Another factor in the car shortage is that a good many were lost or damaged in the Kansas City or other floods in that area.

There has never been a time when careful breeding and care in handling, including good supplemental feeding, has meant so much to livestock producers.

Examples are numerous on the Fort Worth market every day. Typical of the quality emphasis was the 35 steer calves from John W. Herring of Henrietta in Clay County. They weighed 451 at $39.50. Another Clay Countian, Bryant Edwards, who was formerly head of the Cattle Raisers' Association, had about six loads of steers weighing around 1,250 pounds at $34.50 last week.

While there is some unevenness in most classes, the really finished steers never waver, or at least have not in months. Another shipment of those good steers from San Marcos this week sold, weighed 996 and sold at $35. Makes several shipments over the past two months to Fort Worth at that same price.

There was an inquiry the other day from USDA heads in Washington as to why "Fort Worth reports so many ewes in the runs recently." Seems the Washington observers feared Texas was going out of the sheep business.

Answer to this: In recent years more old ewes have been held longer than normal. Ranges are dry and poor making it virtually impossible for broken mouthed or toothless old ewes to make it another season.

Many aged ewes are bringing their owners a great deal more money than expected, because surprisingly, they are not selling for canners as expected but are being sold for stockers on the market.

Example of what the careful sorting can mean in dollars are these sales: Dell Curry of Pecos had 290 canner and medium ewes at $11.50. BUT sorted out of his shipment were 111 solid mouthed or cheater mouthed ewes at 92 pounds at $17.

Mrs. Lillian Lewellen, Coleman, had 56 old ewes, 23 canners at $10.50 and 33 breeders at $16. R. G. Evans had a load that was 50-50 canners at $10.50 and stockers at $16. Out of 135 old ewes, Carl Robinson of Big Spring, Texas, had 41 breeders at $17 and 94 canners at $10.50 and expressed surprise at the "high market."

Mrs. Olivena Loven, Clyde, Tex., had 127 ewes, 65 of them sorted out for stockers at $17 and only 62 going for canners at $10.50.

Topsy calves and yearlings were numerous this week; in this bracket were some "department store" calves at $37.25. We call them "department store" because they came off the ranch of O. P. Leonard, one of the "Leonard Brothers" in the famous Fort Worth department store. These calves came from Hood County.

Phillip Dietrick and his brother from Montague County had some $37.50 calves at 430 pounds. Phillip tells me the Clay County Pioneers are looking for a swell meeting the 14th and 15th of this month. A. W. Kornegay of Malone had some $35 and $37 calves. Yep, care in breeding and care in handling are adding up to lots of extra dollars these days on the market.

Best hogs this week came from Bill Bentley of near Gatesville and they were cross bred Hampshires. It makes a great pork producing animal. He used Hamp sows and Berkshire boars.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
Easy Makes His "Cat" Tread Lightly

Driving home on Three Ponds Road yesterday, I was flagged down by Easy Roberts' boy Skeeter. "Take it slow," he advised. "Dad's crossing this road with our tractor, just beyond the bend."

Around the curve I saw why Skeeter stopped me. Easy had laid two rows of old truck tires across the road, and was driving his new "Cat" tractor over them!

"More trouble this way," Easy explains, "but it does keep those tank tracks from tearing up the asphalt when I have to cross over to our other fields. After all, the roads belong to all of us—and I guess I'd get mad if someone else chewed them up."

From where I sit, Easy is my kind of citizen. He doesn't just give democracy lip service. He honestly believes it's his duty to consider the other fellow's interests. Whether it's the right to use the public highways or the right to enjoy an occasional glass of beer, Easy's out to protect his neighbor's "right of way."

RECENTLY, a study was made to determine the present state of health and well-being of 78 diabetics who had been placed on a diet and Insulin twenty years before. Previous to Dr. Banting's discovery of Insulin in 1922, their chance of survival for more than two or three years would have been slight.

It was found that 77 of the 78, or 98 percent, were alive and living active, useful lives.

Diabetes cannot be cured, but scientific management under the direction of a physician gives comfort and happiness to people who are otherwise without hope. Do not be misled by claims for so-called diabetic cures. There is but one safe treatment, and it is thoroughly understood by your physician.

We maintain complete stocks of diabetic supplies, subject to your doctor's specifications.

Prolific Family of Rod-Shaped Germs Called Three Bears

If the bug family of rod-shaped germs were compared with the Three Bears, the bacteria would be Daddy Bear, the virus would be Baby Bear and the rickettsial would be the Mama Bear, about midway in size between Daddy and Baby Bear.

These rickettsial germs get around to mankind mainly by means of ticks, lice, mites or fleas as these insects feed upon persons or animals who have diseases and then latch on to you. Rat fleas spread the rickettsial disease known as murine fever, and ticks are the source of such diseases as Rocky Mountain spotted fever, Q fever and Bull's fever.

Typhus fever is frequently confused with typhoid fever, both in name and in symptoms of the disease. They are two distinct illnesses, however, with the most common distinction perhaps in the rash that they produce; with typhoid when the rash breaks out, it stays broken out when you push on it; with typhus the rash turns white and disappears for a moment when you push the skin in.

You have a real bad headache with typhus fever, a headache that lasts the whole two or three weeks of the disease. It's the kind of headache that makes you want an ice cap on your head all the time and since you usually run a pretty high fever that may lead to delirium, the ice cap is a good idea. In addition to bed rest and such treatment as might relieve the aching head, your doctor will probably prescribe one of the new medicines such as aureomycin to carry you through typhus with minimum discomfort. There isn't much danger of any complications with typhus if sensibly treated and one good thing about the disease is that once you've had it, you're immune.

Spotted fever, sometimes called by its full name of Rocky Mountain spotted fever is a more serious illness than typhus and in times past has had a high death rate. The new drugs have not only cut down on the complications which can arise from spotted fever but also seem to be cutting clear down on that mortality rate.

Spotted fever is caused by tick bites and is common all over the world. You usually get sick very suddenly with this disease, just developing awful headache, muscle and joint aches, shaking chills and fever, hurting eyes, upset stomach and maybe even baldness, your hair suddenly falling out. You have a high fever and you do feel real sick.

The rash from which spotted fever gets its name usually appears after the second day of the illness, first breaking out around the wrists and ankles and then spreading all over the body, even on the palms of the hands and soles of the feet.

Since ticks are more common in rural areas than in towns, spotted fever is common in the country. Every tick is not infected, of course, but knowledge of a recent tick bite, followed in 2 to 14 days by a sickness such as described above would perhaps speed up your doctor's diagnosis and permit him to start treatment early.

Wood ticks, rabbit ticks, dog ticks, and the Lone Star tick which is often called the cattle tick are the brands which spread spotted fever by their bite.

The Lone Star tick also carries around the rickettsial germ that causes Q fever, a disease much milder than spotted fever and without a rash. The Lone Star tick can infect cattle with Q fever and the germs may be carried to humans through the raw milk from an infected cow even though the cow doesn't seem to be ill. That's why pasteurization of milk is so essential.

Q fever epidemics have occurred among those in contact with cattle such as dairymen, packing-house, slaughterhouse, and laboratory workers.

Though some of the symptoms of spotted fever may also mark Q fever, they are usually much milder; Q fever nearly always has some of the symptoms of pneumonia accompanying the disease, such as chest pains and cough.

Bull's fever flared up at Camp Bullis during the training of servicemen for World War II. Those afflicted with the disease were invariably from other parts of the country. The Lone Star tick was considered responsible for this inhospitality to visiting servicemen, which laid them up with fever ranging from 102 to 105 degrees for about a week or two and then went away.

Good singers will be present, he said, and everybody is invited. The singing will be at Littleville Baptist Church at Hamilton, on that evening.

"EASY DOES IT"
BY HELEN MALE

SAVE TIME preparing meals by seasoning three pounds of hamburger according to your taste. Make a long roll of it and wrap in heavily-waxed paper. Freeze. Cut off what you need for hamburger suppers or meat loaf dinners.

Spiced prunes are the ideal garnish for roasts, chops or fowl because you can prepare them in advance and refrigerate. Use 3 cups whole prunes, 1 cup cider vinegar, 3 cups water, 2 cups brown sugar, tightly packed, and stick cinnamon. Stick whole cloves into the prunes and simmer in the syrup made of the other ingredients until the prunes are plump.

Fruit desserts offer fine relief from hearty meals. Try fruit cocktail topped with raspberry, lime or cranberry sherbet.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
Gumdrops Bars
2 cups brown sugar
4 eggs
1 tablespoon cold water
2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 cup chopped pecans
1 cup sliced gumdrops, assorted flavors

Beat eggs until very light; add water and sugar and beat thoroughly. Sift together flour, salt and cinnamon. Mix one tablespoon of flour mixture with pecans and gumdrops and shake off excess. Add flour mixture to egg mixture; fold in nuts and gumdrops. Pour into well-greased pan, to about 3/4-inch thickness. Bake 20 to 25 minutes in a moderate (350° F.) oven. Cut into bars. Serve plain or frosted with confectioners' sugar icing.

New salad combinations are always welcome: pineapple chunks, thick banana slices, halved maraschino cherries and a sprinkling of coconut take nicely to sweet French dressing or whipped cream and mayonnaise.

A colorful sundae sauce uses 1/4 cups of dry apricots ground, with 1/4 cups of honey heated just below the boiling point. Add apricots and 1/2 cup maraschino cherries to honey and stir to blend. Try this on vanilla or mint ice cream.
