'95 Champ Seright Wins Weekly Prize

It was a nasty week for football contest number three. Upsets were like Noah's Ark, they came in two's. In high school, if you picked Claude and Littlefield (most did) you missed.

In college games Tennessee and Texas or Texas Tech and Auburn were bad choices.

And the granddaddy of pro losses were San Francisco and Green Bay. The Chicago and Miami losses also put some contestants back in the pack.

The week's top picks were 13 out of the 16 games, managed by only two players, John Seright of Lubbock, and Doug Carthel of Friona.

Alone in third place with 12 correct picks was long time contestant, and former overall grand prize winner, Jack Clark of Friona.

Seright's only incorrect picks were the losses by Littlefield, Auburn, and Miami. Yes, he did pick Carolina over the Forty-Niners.

Carthel missed only the Claude loss to Bovina, and Green Bay and San Francisco.

Even this week's tie-breaker was a rough guess as Buffalo beat Dallas 10-7. Seright won the $20 first place prize with a tie-breaker guess of Dallas 18, Buffalo 21, which was 22 points off.

Carthel's optimistic prediction of Dallas 27, Buffalo 16 was 26 points away so he settles for the $10 second prize.

Clark, alone in third place did not need a tie-breaker as he puts the $5 in his back pocket.

Four contestants managed to struggle in with 11 correct guesses. They were Kent Patterson, Josh Burleson, Martha Rodriguez, and Eddie Gauna.

Everybody else had ten or less correct. That is the bad news. The good news is that no one surged ahead in the total points race. Total points after three weeks are elsewhere in the paper.

And, we already know that in last week's contest our mysterious game selector person included a game that wasn't played, Dumas at Canyon.

When an incorrect game is included, everyone gets credit for a correct guess. So, in week four, you got at least one correct. See how easy this is.

City, School Tax Rates To Drop!

The City of Friona, as well as the Friona Independent School District, have come up with unusual announcements for this day and time:

The tax rates for the two entities will be lower in 1997 than they were for this year. The City tax rate for fiscal year 1997 will be 52 cents per $100 valuation. This is 12 cents per $100 valuation, and is 19 cents under the tax rate for 1994, which was 71 cents.

The school's tax rate will drop from $1.11 per $100 valuation in 1995-96 to $1.07 for the 1996-97 school year.

City Manager Paula Wilson said that for the average home owner, the city's new rate should amount to a saving of $36.60 on city property tax. She based this figure on a $30,500--which she said was the average "tax value" for a house in Friona. Residents can figure their own savings by referring to their last tax statement.

The proposed lower tax rate for the City of Friona is due to two things, Mrs. Wilson said: (1) The city has paid off a $1 million bond, which was issued in 1982, and (2) The one-half cent sales tax passed by local voters in 1995, which was ear-tagged for property tax reduction.

The million-dollar bond was passed in '82 to purchase a water field north of Friona, dig wells, a storage tank and piping.

In other news, the City of Friona announced that it has been awarded a $159,250 grant from the Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission, for the construction of a new municipal swimming pool.

The grant was part of $6 million that the TPWC awarded to Texas cities for the new fiscal year. Twenty-one state communities benefitted from the grants.

The grant money will need to be matched by the city. It is derived from a state tax on sporting goods. The city plans to tear out the old swimming pool and start over on the same site.

The present swimming pool was constructed in the late 1950s, and has been in a sad state of repair in recent years. "We just couldn't put the amount of money into it that would have cured the pool's problems," Mrs. Wilson said. "An on-site investigation by the funding organization went a long way to Friona's request approval," the city manager said.

The city spokesman said that in addition to the swimming pool, a sand volleyball court and picnic tables will be constructed.

Also, the city manager reported that the two new city water wells have been completed, and water samples sent to the Texas Water Quality board have shown the water is clear with no problem.

"The city engineer completed his inspection last week, and we are just waiting for the 'official' word from the state agency, so the wells can be tied into the city's water system," Mrs. Wilson concluded.

After having to place the city on an emergency yard watering system this summer, the city managed to be spared a worse situation, when the rains began in June.

Temps Fall; Expect 30s With Rain

Temperatures in Friona, which had reached the month's high of 89 on Sunday afternoon, plummeted down to 42 by midnight Thursday, with lows expected in the high 30s either Friday or Saturday morning.

A light rain also began falling Thursday evening, after 11 consecutive days without moisture. Cotton farmers need the exact opposite--hot and dry. Maybe this will be accomplished next week.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:
As I watch the Dallas Cowboys lose their game, I realize how much our presidency and "America's Team" have in common. They have an owner, a coach and a president whose character we all have come to question more than once. A president who has reaped the rewards and accolades of a previous administration's policies and an economy that was already on the rise. A coach who was handed a team whose foundation was solid and successful. If either falls from the top, will anybody grieve? Or will we continue to reward those who succeed no matter how they got there? I hope that in November, the American people will recognize that character is truly the main building block for anything lasting. And the bridge back to when character meant something is America's only hope for the future. If character is present, then nothing but right will come of it. Besides, a horse that is broke is pretty easy to ride.

Friona celebrated her 50th anniversary last weekend, and had plenty of help doing it. From every standpoint, the anniversary event was a success, reports Wright Williams, president of the Friona Chamber of Commerce, which sponsored the promotion. Only thing which didn't exactly go to suit the celebration was the weather--which turned out to be windy all three days, but it didn't completely mar the celebration.

FOR ELECTRICITY

Deregulation: Is It The Right Answer?

You may be hearing that some big industrial groups are proposing radical changes in the electric utility industry. They are proposing that electric consumers should choose where they buy their electricity and are suggesting their rates are too high. Most of these large companies are located in Houston, Dallas, San Antonio, Austin and other large cities.

If you asked a room full of people if they would like to have a choice, many would probably raise their hand. But how would choice and competition in the electric industry affect you and me?

A brief look at the history of the electric utility business may help us answer that question. Some of you still remember years ago when city folks had a choice of where they bought their electricity. However, beyond the city limits there was darkness. Most utilities were not interested in serving sparsely populated rural areas. It was not profitable. This is why you see member-owned electric cooperatives primarily serving these areas today. It makes you wonder, will competitors really be standing in line to serve the needs of rural Texas tomorrow?

These large companies point out that other industries (airlines, natural gas, railroads and telecommunications) have been deregulated and so should the electric industry. It is true that these industries have been deregulated, but are you and I better off?

Experts are challenging the safety and reliability of the airline industry since deregulation. Some of the new carriers that have sprung up have questionable safety records. It seems as though there are more choices when flying from Austin to Dallas, but it's more expensive to fly to smaller communities these days, if you can reach them at all.

A lot of people still do not have natural gas as an energy option since deregulation, especially in rural areas. Where natural gas is an option, there is only one choice of supplier. I also have not noticed that my rates have decreased.

It's hard to say how deregulating the railroads has affected us. With all the mergers and consolidations it appears that there is actually less competition. That does not seem like a good thing. We used to have passenger rail service where I live. That service has been discontinued since deregulation.

Long distance telephone rates for large companies may have gone down since deregulation, but most of us see possible savings of only a few pennies a month. One thing did change about my telephone service, however, I had to get an unlisted number. Now I can enjoy my dinner in the evenings without being interrupted by the many long distance companies who were promising me big savings if I switched.

Roughly 70 per cent of any electric bill is made up of the cost of generating the electricity consumed. The other 30 per cent of the bill covers the costs of getting the electricity from where it is made to the consumer, safely and reliably. Cooperatives work hard to hold down the 30 per cent of the costs that they directly control.

Electric cooperatives in Texas supported legislation passed in 1995 that cover lower generation costs. Co-ops are just now beginning to see the benefits of these lower generation cost that we can pass along to our customers. However, cooperatives are concerned that if the industry is restructured further, our customers might not ever see the full benefits of this new wholesale competition.

Electric cooperatives have always put their customers first. If there is a way to provide electric service better and/or cheaper we want to do it. At a recent statewide meeting, electric cooperatives in Texas passed a resolution. This resolution says that cooperatives oppose any electric industry restructuring scheme that does not benefit all our member-consumers. This resolution contains ten criteria (things like safety, reliability, convenience and appropriate consumer protection) that should be met before any new laws are passed.

Electricity is not optional for our customers. It is an essential part of the quality of life that we all enjoy today. Cooperatives want to make sure that the electric utility industry is not radically changed simply because other industries have been deregulated or because of promises of lower rates.

If you are a cooperative member-consumer you have a stake in this debate. You might want to ask yourself--will all Texans really get more choices and lower rates if they change the electric industry?

Wiseman Named Spelling Director

The Amarillo Globe-News and West Texas A&M University, Canyon, will continue the annual National Spelling Bee for students in public, parochial and private schools for 1997.

The educational regional bee will be held on April 5 on the campus of the university in Canyon where approximately 40 county champions will compete for the 1997 district title and the opportunity to participate in the Scripps Howard National event in late May in Washington, D.C.

Directors in each county will select the date of their eliminations and are asked to report the winners' names to the newspaper no later than March 22. The director for Parmer County is Kevin Wiseman, principal of Friona Junior High School.

Rules state that any student who will not be in a grade higher than the eighth or older than 16 by the end of the current school year may participate in the Spelling Bee.

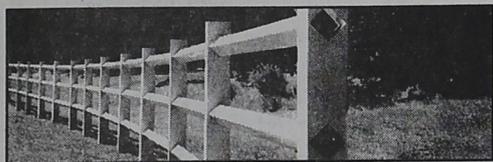

The AGN-WTSU event has two levels of competition. The Junior Bee is for students in grades five and below; the Senior Bee is for students in grades eight and below. County bee directors are free to combine the two contests if they prefer. However, each county is eligible to send a junior winner and a senior winner to regional. Normally the juniors do not compete; the exception being if he/she wins the county title.

All county champions will be guests of the sponsors on April 5, beginning with a luncheon on the WTA&M campus. There will be prizes for all contestants.

HOMECOMING WIN

Chieftains Overcome Mustangs, Penalties

by BILL ELLIS

It may have appeared to fans attending Friona's homecoming game against Shallowater that the Chieftains were getting a lot of unwarranted penalties.

But Coach James Morton said that the penalties for the most part were justified.

The Chieftains, then, may have been their own worst enemy last Friday, and had to play twice as hard to score the 11-7 win over the Mustangs.

"Getting that many penalties is bad enough, and when you lose the offensive yardage we did, it made it even worse," said Coach Morton.

Friona was flagged 11 times for 120 yards. Those 120 yards would have been bad enough, but when you factor in the yardage that the flags wiped out, the total would be closer to 250 yards.

Then, to make matters worse, Friona's first 15-yard penalty of the game, with 23 seconds left in the first half, enabled the visitors to score their only touchdown. This came after the Chieftains had buckled down and played some inspired defense in the closing portion of the second quarter, to turn Shallowater away from their goal.

The Chieftains forced a fourth down at their own 18-yard-line, and caused Shallowater to go for a 35-yard field goal.

Andy Kendrick blocked the kick, and tried a return. But Friona was flagged for clipping, and the Mustangs got the ball back.

A pass play connected for a touchdown and the kick sent the visitors to halftime with a 7-3 lead, after Friona had dominated the first two quarters, but only came up with three points to show for all of their efforts.

Shallowater drove for four first downs on the first possession of the game, but Friona's defense stiffened and forced a punt.

After a short kick gave them the ball at their own 25, the Chiefs put together a drive of their own.

David Shelby reeled off a 26-yard gain on Friona's first offensive play. Kyle Grimsley tossed an 11-yard pass to Angel Vega, moving the ball to the Mustangs' 15. Next, he hit Shane Blackburn with an eight-yard gain to Shallowater's six.

But the Mustangs held, and forced Friona to settle for a field goal. Angel Vega's kick wasn't overly high, but it cleared the cross-bar dead center, giving Friona a 3-0 lead with 2:05 left in the first quarter.

Jesus Mata blocked a Shallowater punt, and Friona took over at their opponents' 18-yard line.

Grimsley hit Vega for eight yards, but on fourth and three from the 10, Daniel Cuevas was stopped for no gain, and Friona came up empty on points.

Friona allowed the Mustangs only six yards, and regained possession of the ball. Grimsley fired a 24-yard pass to Quint Ellis, moving the ball to the Shallowater 30. But once again, a penalty stalled the team, and Shallowater took over and drove 81 yards for

JV Chiefs Off To A Good Start

The Friona Junior Varsity Chieftains are off to a good start for the 1996 season.

The team tied Littlefield, 12-all in their first game, and then came back for a 27-0 win over the Lubbock Westerners sophs.

Scoring in the Lubbock game for Friona were Mario Pina, on a 20-yard pass from Sheon Polk, fullback Matthew Kendrick on a short drive; halfback Hugo Rivera on a run, and Jeff Rando on a dive.

Rando had reeled off a long run, being tackled on the Lubbock one yard line. He was given the ball again, and dove into the end zone.

Mario Pina booted one PAT and caught a pass for two points after one TD.

Last Thursday evening, the Chieftain JVs traveled to Shallowater, and came up just short in a 20-9 loss.

Rivera scored Friona's touchdown on a 65-yard run. A two-point attempt was stalled. Pena kicked a 35-yard field goal for Friona's other three points.

Middle linebacker Rudy Torres, tackle Christian Candenedo, defensive end Justin Daniel, cornerback Matthew Kendrick were singled out by coach Mike Herbert for their defensive play for the team.

own. Vega returned the second half kickoff to midfield, but a clipping penalty brought it all the way back to Friona's six-yard line. That effectively was a 44-yard penalty.

Grimsley got Friona going on a sparkling 43-yard run, getting back to the midfield area. But three plays later, Friona coughed up the ball.

Grimsley got the ball back for Friona with an interception, and ran the ball down to about the Shallowater 10. But-another clipping penalty brought it back to Friona's 43. That amounted to a 47-yard penalty.

The next time Friona had the ball, Grimsley hit Andy Kendrick on what would have been a ten-yard gain, only to have it wiped out by another 15-yard penalty. That was the fifth major penalty (60 yards in penalties) in less than a quarter of game time.

But the Chieftains didn't give up. Grimsley hit Ellis on a 15-yard gain to the Shallowater 13, bringing up a big fourth down play. Blackburn took the handoff, slanted to the outside and outran his defenders to the end zone. Guess what? No penalty on the play!!!

Grimsley hit Ellis again on the two-point play and Friona led for the first time in the second half, 11-7, with 2:41 left in the third quarter.

Shallowater answered with an impressive drive, getting a first down at the Friona 14. But two great defensive plays by Hugo Santiago kept the Mustangs out of the end zone. Friona took over on their own seven yard line.

Kendrick ripped off gains of 13 and 17 on two successive carries, getting Friona out of its hole to the 37. Grimsley added ten and seven on keeper plays, and Friona was out to the Shallowater 46.

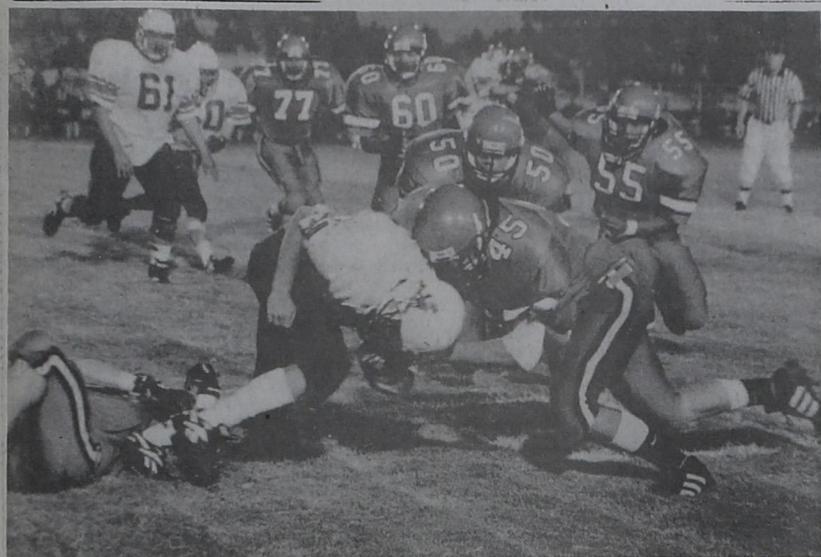

Slowed by yet another penalty, Friona rebounded with a 23-yard gain on a Grimsley pichout to Kendrick for 23 yards, and then the QB rambled nine yards on a keeper play to help the Chieftains maintain control with a first down at the enemy's 25.

The Mustangs regained possession and moved from their own 21 to their 42. But defensive gems by Cecil Cooper, Fidel Rodriguez, Blackburn and Grimsley forced a big fourth down play, and Hugo Santiago hit the quarterback a lick, forcing a 12-yard loss, and the last Shallowater threat was ended.

Friona ran out the last 49 seconds of the clock, to post their second straight win, and please the large homecoming crowd. The loss was the first of the year for Shallowater.

The two schools have only met five times on the gridiron, and they play each other very tough. Friona has now scored two wins, Shallowater two, and there was one tie, in 1994.

Tidbits: After three games, Kyle Grimsley leads area class 3A passers with 243 yards. Angel Vega is second in receiving with 159 yards. Friona is second on team defense, allowing 293 yards pergame.

WELCOME TO FRIONA....Shallowater's Rusty Workman, white jersey, had the ball, but was met head on by Quint Ellis (45) and Juan Santiago (50), as other defenders Hugo Santiago (77), Eloy Trejo (60) and Fidel Rodriguez (55) come in to help. Friona held the potent Mustangs well below their offensive average. Friona's 11-7 win handed Shallowater its first defeat of the season. (Photo courtesy Clovis News Journal)

Tulia Hornets Visit For Dist. Opener

The Tulia Hornets are back in Friona's district, and visit Chieftain Field for the opening night of district play September 27.

The Hornets may only have a 1-2 season record, but Coach James Morton feels that Tulia will be tough, as usual. Last year Friona won the non-district clash, but it took an outstanding effort for the Chieftains to win, 19-14.

"Tulia will be tough. They always play us hard," Coach Morton said. "They look to have their act together."

After opening their season with a pair of losses, Tulia blistered Lubbock Cooper, 42-13 in their homecoming game.

Tulia is led by quarterback Jeremy Patton, who scored four touchdowns for the Hornets last week on runs of 11, 14, five and 19 yards. He led the Hornet rushers with 84 yards, and also did the punting, averaging 34.2 yards per kick.

Friona is healthy for the most part. Wide receiver Angel Vega is questionable, after hurting his ankle against Shallowater. Vega is a sparkplug both on offense, where he leads the team in receiving (and is second in the region), and on defense. He also kicks extra points and punts.

The Chieftains would like to score a record fourth win in a row over the Hornets. Friona beat Tulia on their home field, 22-14 in 1994 when Friona won district, and 14-8 the previous year. Tulia had beaten the Chiefs six years in a row prior to 1993.

J. H. Teams Drop Pair

Friona's junior high Braves dropped a pair of games here last Thursday to Shallowater teams. The eighth-grade was edged, 14-8, and the seventh graders lost, 20-0.

Matt Mata ran for a four-yard touchdown, and also scored a two-point conversion for the eighth graders. Mata gained 82 yards, Josh Burleson 18 and Josh Snyder gained 11.

Cason White was one for 10 in passing for 15 yards, and Mata was one of four for 31 yards. Michael Ortiz caught a pass for 31 yards and Josh Burleson snagged one for 15 yards.

Josh Burleson and Joseph Bandy led the defense with 11 tackles each, and Abel Santiago had nine. The team is now 1-1 for the season.

The seventh-graders were led by David Gonzales with 35 yards rushing, and Dario Hernandez had 11. Timothy Padron led the defense with 10 tackles, and Hernandez added seven.

Next game for the squads is scheduled at Muleshoe October 8.

Out Here

By RON CARR

During my years in the travel agency industry I booked a lot of hotel rooms at some of the fanciest, and not so fancy, hotels in the world.

They often had well known names like Hilton, Hyatt, or Holiday Inn, with huge advertising budgets, big reservations offices, and best of all, toll free 800 numbers.

Other customers would come in and ask for a smaller, less expensive place with a quieter, homey atmosphere.

That is when a travel agent would try to find their copy of the Bed & Breakfast Guide, instead of the International Hotel Reference Index.

"George Washington Slept Here" is an old saying that describes what a Bed & Breakfast was and is. In the early days of Colonial America, hotels and inns were few and far between. Travelers often relied on the kindness of strangers to provide a bed for the night.

During the Depression, travelers always drove through the middle of town. There were no superhighways. A house with a sign in the front yard reading "Tourists" or "Guests" meant that a traveler could rent a room for the night and have a cup of coffee in the morning for about $2.

The money represented needed income for the owner as well as an opportunity to chat with an interesting visitor.

In the 1950s, the country guest house became a popular alternative to costly hotel high-rises and motel monotony.

In Williamsburg, Virginia, a visitor from Germany opted to stay at a B&B to improve her conversational English. When the hostess saw that she was having difficulty understanding directions, she personally escorted her on a tour of Old Williamsburg.

In Friona, Texas, when a young couple with a five-month-old baby stayed at the Jackson Street Inn, hostess Geneva Gustin made a quilt pallet in the large den for the baby to play.

She also dusted off an old high-chair, unpacked a vaporizer for the little one's stuffiness, and helped the mother and baby to find a pediatrician in Clovis.

These personal services are not to be found in major hotels and motels, one of the main reasons people opt to stay in a B&B.

Of course, in Parmer County, there is not much of a problem with high rise hotels. In fact, there are not too many motels to choose from.

Leland and Geneva Gustin are the innkeepers at the Jackson St. Inn at 901 Jackson in Friona.

The house was originally built by Dalton and Estelle Caffey, sold to Carl and Velma Schlenker, and the Gustins bought it in 1976.

The Schlenkers, who had four children, added the upstairs, with its two large bedrooms and a bath, and built the large den that today houses a big screen TV, snooker table, and the authentic working wooden telephone booth which came from a drugstore in Spur.

In 1980 the Gustins built the covered and enclosed area that houses the heated indoor pool. Geneva Gustin estimates that the house today is approximately 3800 square feet.

Geneva and Leland Gustin have been involved in many ventures around Parmer County over the years, from farming to barbeque.

Geneva had a shop on Main Street called Middle Door. They ran a barbeque joint, Poor Boys. They got into oil well digging just in time for the oil bust in the 80s. They took a turn at the auction business and Geneva still has a booth at a Clovis craft mall to sell her vests, throws, and other creations.

During my visit this week, she was making dried tomatoes and working on a quilt in her well-equipped sewing room.

It is an active family. They raised son, Donnie, and daughter, Dianna, here on Jackson Street. Donnie graduated from FHS in 1977 and started farming. Today he lives and farms in Farwell.

Dianna graduated in 1980, went to Tech, then to North Texas and back to Tech for her masters.

Today she lives in Tempe, Arizona, and works in the State Attorney General's office in Phoenix.

Geneva and Leland now boast four grandchildren (plus two step grandchildren).

Donnie and Dianna's upstairs bedrooms now serve as the B&B's Rose Room and Coral Room and rent for $55-$65 a night to B&B guests.

In spite of their many business endeavors Leland has spent a majority of his career involved in the trucking business. Thus, the reason that the Jackson St. Inn is for sale.

Leland is working now full time for Bell Trucking Company in Temple, Texas. They have a lot and house plans picked out to build a home on Lake Belton, with a big sewing room over the garage.

In 1992, when things were a little slow, the Gustins decided to utilize all their rooms, indoor pool and recreation area, to welcome those weary travelers to and through Friona.

The Jackson St. Inn opened for business. Geneva says the only thing they had to buy was a bedroom set for the Red & Green room, which has a full size lower and twin upper bed. Sleeps 3, plus bath, for $55-$65 a night.

When necessary they rent their private master bedroom, the Rust Room, with a kingsize bed and private bath, for $75 a night.

All prices include breakfast prepared by Innkeeper Geneva. During pheasant season, when their regulars from Waco and Austin return, she provides a rate which includes three meals a day.

They can also include son Donnie as a hunting guide, plus hunting vehicles if needed.

They have an 800 reservation number, are listed in several B&B guidebooks, and accept credit cards, all in the comfortable living room which doubles as the B&B office.

Guests are served meals at the dining room table with its antique crystal chandelier. Meals are served on china and crystal dishes. Guests also have access to the kitchen, refrigerator, and washer and dryer.

The big screen TV is popular and the Gustins offer a whole closet full of movie videos too.

While they do get some customers for one and two night stays, the majority of guests stay for weeks or months. Many are employees of, or visitors to, Excel.

Out of town wedding guests are common clients. Recently some officials in town to consult with the school board stayed at the Jackson St. Inn.

Geneva is definitely a craft and people person as evidenced by her six sets of china and the two to three christmas trees she puts up each year, complete with a multitude of decorations.

Leland has a collection of Texaco cars and planes and has started one for his youngest grandson too. On one wall is a display of figurines of U. S. presidents up through LBJ.

You can sit in the authentic old barber chair in the den to watch a game of pool on the old pool/snooker table that came to Friona from England by way of Denver and Hereford.

For now she is keeping the B&B open for business in case the future new owners want to continue operating as the Jackson St. Inn. She says they might be willing to sell some of the furnishings with the house.

Could be the next owners will just convert it back to a private family residence.

In which case it would be a small loss for Friona and Parmer County. As the brochure says, "Warm, down-home Texas hospitality awaits you at this comfortable hide-away...enjoy a relaxing stay in the crisp, clean air of the western Texas Panhandle."

P.S. Watch for the Gustin's garage sale. It should be a doozy.

Candace Ingram, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cris Ingram, entertained those present with vocal selections accompanied by Charles Turner.

This was the largest Texas group in the 32 year history of the youth tour, which was promoted by President Lyndon Johnson in the 1950s.

While in Washington, the Texas teenagers visited with their Congressman Larry Combest and observed the legislative process in action. They also witnessed Senator Bob Dole's Senate retirement ceremonies and the announcement of his candidacy for President of the United States.

Other highlights of the trip included seeing the many monuments, memorials, museums, capitol building, the White House and attending the U.S. Army's production, "The Spirit of America."

Nellie Shelton, club president, called the meeting to order. A period of silent tribute was observed in memory of Ilene Osborn. She was a charter member of the club and continued as a member for 65 years, serving as club president from 1962-64.

Town Talk

By JUNE FLOYD
Call 247-3681 With Your News Items

If I keep busy being glad And cheering others
who are sad

Even though my heart
and bones may ache a bit, Maybe I will forget to mention it.

This little ditty, limerick,
poem or whatever it may be,
has been meaningful to me for several years and has been requested for Town Talk by one of our regular readers.

For a number of years it occupied a place of honor under the glass on top of my desk.

Hope you like it.

A birthday dinner in the home of Bob and Lydia Wylie on Sunday honored one of their daughters, Debra Baxter, who was observing a birthday.

Guests, besides the
honoree and her husband, John, were Corben, Cameron
and Courtney Baxter; Jimmy, Misty and Rainey Williams, Opal Baxter and Zane and Janis Polson and daughters,
Loran and Jessica; Gerall,
Mary Beth, Shyla, Amber
and Erica Wylie; Cris, Karen, Kayla, Lory, Kathy and Weston Wylie, all of this community.

Also, Bob, Janet and Meagan LaBrue of Lubbock;
Jerry, Nancy and Jessica Whitfield of Amarillo and Robin, Jathan and Emily
Williams of Plainview.

An afternoon of fellowship followed.

Word has been received in Friona of the recent injury of Mae Magness, a former resident, who is currently living in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Mae fell in her apartment and is recuperating from a broken left arm. Long time friends know her as being so left handed her right hand only functions as a helper to her left one, so are concerned about her helplessness.

Her address is: Burgundy
Place-Apt. 807-8887 South
Lewis, Tulsa, Oklahoma, 74137 and her telephone number is 918-298-6449.

Mr. and Mrs. R.E. Snead spent a few days last week visiting in the home of their son-and daughter-in-law, Jim and Sheryl Snead, who live in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

The Sneads attended the New Mexico State Fair while they were there.

Out-of-town visitors in their home early this week were Janet Woodard and Kayli Denson, who live in Abilene, Texas.

Out-of-town weekend visitors in the home of James and Sue Procter were Ross and Edith Peterson of Lamesa, Texas.

Peterson is Sue's brother.

Mark and Lisa Zagorin and daughters, Katharyn and Caroline, who have been living in Washington, D.C.
recently moved to Austin, Texas.

Mrs. Zagorin, the former Lisa Taylor, and the girls spent several days last week visiting in the home of her mother, Geraldine Taylor.

Other out-of-town guests
in the Taylor home last week
were Charlene and Roy Lee Jones of Ruidoso, New Mexico and Suzanne and Ronnie Wood of Pampa.

Charlene is Geraldine's sister and Suzanne is her daughter.

Bill Stewart, a longtime resident of Friona, observed his 96th birthday on Sunday.
His daughter, Billie Chandler
of Albuquerque, New Mexico, spent the weekend with him.

She returned to her home Monday.

Ruby Hassenpflug baked a birthday cake for Bill and several friends visited him to wish him a Happy Birthday.

Mildred Guinn came over from Hereford. Mildred is a former resident who assisted in taking care of Bill several years.

Others visiting him included Connie Perez and Martha Clements.

Jane Osborn, the wife of Dr. Charles Osborn of Amarillo, has been critically ill and confined to the

Intensive Care Unit of High Plains Baptist Hospital
several weeks.

One of his aunts, Martha Clements, reported on Tuesday that even though Jane's condition was critical she had shown some improvement in the past few days.

Doris and Eugene Boggess returned home Tuesday evening after making a flying trip to the Northwest to visit their son, Joe, and his wife,
Wendy, and their children,
Dusty and Jared.

The couple flew from Amarillo to Spokane, Washington, then rented a car and drove to White Fish, Montana.

Enroute they heard a strange noise and pulled off the highway to determine the cause of it. Almost immediately some travellers who were going the opposite direction stopped to assist them.

They soon found a problem with the front
bumper of their rented vehicle and one of the strangers informed the Texans that it wasn't really much of a problem.

He and his companion removed the bumper without any tools folded it up and placed it between the seats.
Soon the Boggesses were on their way again and made the rest of the trip bumper-less.

The way I heard the story was that Eugene remarked, "You really don't need a bumper unless you are going to bump into something."

They reported a nice trip
and were somewhat surprised that the colors in the White Fish-Kalispel area had not started changing yet.

"Everything was still green, which is unusual for mid-September," Doris said.

Did any of you "old timers" happen to recognize the unidentified man in the picture of Mr. Spring's General Store in last week's paper?

After spending some time trying to find someone who could identify him last week,
I gave up. However, later Goldie Griffith, who was employed at the store at the time the picture was made, called and reported she

MISTY CHESHER M. Chesher Is In FHS Program

By Misty Chesher

I am the seventeen year old daughter of Albert and Jan Chesher. This is my first year in the Vocational Co-op program. I am a senior this year at Friona High School.
I am employed by Hi-Pro Feeds.

By working at Hi-Pro, I have learned many new job experiences. I do different jobs such as answering phones, filing, making new folders, and helping anyone who needs my help. This has helped me by giving me responsibility and has helped prepare me for my future.

I would like to thank Libby Procter for giving me this opportunity. Also, a special thanks to the employees at Hi-Pro for welcoming me and are always willing to help me out. I really enjoy working with all the nice employees.
By working at this job, I will have lots of experience for my future.

thought it was J.A. (Bob) Wylie.

When I called Bob to learn whether he had seen his picture in the paper, he had not seen the paper. Later, he looked at the picture and positively identified himself.

Ruth Stevick, who was a patient at the local hospital several days, has been dismissed and is recuperating satisfactorily at home.

Earlier she had by-pass surgery in Amarillo and had been at home several days before having a problem which required
hospitalization.

Recent out-of-town visitors in the home of Natalie Williams have been Ralph and Waneta Taylor of DeSoto, Texas and Helen and Mandy Sachse, who live in Amarillo.

Ralph is Natalie's brother,
Helen is her sister and Mandy
is Helen's granddaughter.

Janice Miller and her daughter, Mara, have been visiting in the home of Roy and Eva Miller. They departed on Thursday after spending five days here.

Janice lives in Los Alamos and Mara is a senior at a university in Santa Cruz, California.

Eric Rushing reported early this week that his paternal grandmother, Mattie Rushing, a former resident of Friona and Farwell who now lives in Clovis is making satisfactory progress.

She was injured in a fall in her home recently and has been confined to a convalescent home.

Her daughters, Roberta Holland of Houston and Bonna Lee Holland, who lives in the Washington, D.C. area, have both been with her.

We're borrowing a contribution Jamie Herring of Lubbock made to the August issue of "Newsletter-South Plains Rehabilitation Association."

As most of you probably know Jamie is the daughter of Glen Herring and Marla Lynn Herring, who have lived here most of their lives,
and granddaughter of D.C.
and Margie Herring and Meryle and Olive Massie.

Several years ago she was involved in an accident which left her permanently disabled.

Since that time she has graduated from Friona High School and Texas Tech University, from which she holds a Bachelor of Science Degree. She also holds a Master's Degree in health organization management from the same institution.

At the present time, she is employed by Alternative Health Care in Lubbock and recently represented her company at a seminar in Dallas.

The following was copied
from the publication
mentioned earlier:

DID YOU KNOW?
Did you know that
disabled people:

- *Like to make their own decisions?
- *Enjoy living as much as anyone does?
- *Work?
- *Play sports?
- *Enjoy relationships?
- *Enjoy romance?
- *Have non-disabled
friends?
- *Live independently?
- *Are not sick?
- *Are able to have children?
- *Are not always mentally challenged?
- *Think for themselves?
- *Are not incompetent?
- *Are neither superhuman?
- *Get married?
- *Are more readily spoken to by children than adults?

Did you know? Many people know; More do not.

Every day I am amazed
by people who do not know.
If you know, help spread the word by asking your friends if they know. Jamie Herring."

Little Ailee Gee, daughter of Ashlee Gee, had an emergency operation in Methodist Hospital, Lubbock,
Sunday evening.

Her great-grandmother,
Elthie Hand, reported Tuesday morning that she is making satisfactory improvement, but will probably be hospitalized
several days.

Faith Herring, daughter of Jarrell and Karen Wright
of Friona, graduated September 27 from the International Business College
in Lubbock. She received a degree as a medical office specialist and transcriptionist.

According to folk lore, the proper item for making a wish upon are: *a penny; *birthday candles; *a found pin, if you pick it up; *a wishbone, if you get the bigger half when breaking it in two pieces with someone else; *an eyelash blown from the back of the hand.

Alaskan Cruise-Tour Being Formed By Friona Couple

The beauty and grandeur of Alaska makes it one of the most popular destinations in the world.

An eleven-day cruise-tour of Alaska is being planned for next summer. The dates will be June 6-17, 1997.

Bill and Carol Ellis are arranging the cruise on Princess Cruise Lines' Crown Princess for their Ellis Cousins Family Association and for any interested Farmer County residents who would like to go along.

The Tour will begin in Anchorage where the group will board a domed observation train, "The Midnight Sun Express" and travel to the heart of Denali National Park. They will overnight at the Denali Princess Lodge.

After a tour of the park and a view of Mt. McKinley, reboard the train to Fairbanks for an evening.

The cruise portion of the tour begins at Seward and travels south through Glacier Bay, Skagway, Juneau, Ketchikan and along the Inside Passage to Vancouver.

The cruise on the Crown Princess will be for seven nights with up close viewing of the wonders of Alaska.

On the Crown Princess, the Ellises have reserved outside staterooms with large picture windows. On board the seven-night cruise, passengers will enjoy shows, entertainment, dances, many activities, and, of course, non-stop gourmet dining.

Arrangements are being finalized and details will be available very soon. Since the cruise-tour season to Alaska extends only from May to September, space sells out quickly. A deposit of $250 per person will hold your place on this June 6 departure.

The final cost of the cruise and tour will be approximately $2700 per person based on double occupancy. This includes the land and cruise arrangements as described above.

Not included will be individual air transportation to and from Anchorage and Vancouver and travel insurance.

However, Princess Cruise Line will have air arrangements available from your departure city.

Group members will be allowed to upgrade their ship accommodations, or arrange air deviations, as long as such requests are made well in advance.

A detailed brochure will be available. For a copy of the brochure, or for further information contact the Ellises at 806-247-3053, or 247-2211 or write P.O. Box 789, Friona, TX 79035.

YOUR EYES

Can You Avoid Cataracts?

Once upon a time, we believed that everyone got cataracts, that this vision problem was an inescapable part of growing older. But it's not so. Good health habits can postpone cataracts and perhaps even prevent them.

Exposure to sunlight causes the most harm, and the effects are cumulative. Farm workers and fishermen develop cataracts earlier than office workers; people in the tropics get them younger. Research indicates that wearing a hat with a brim and sunglasses to protect against ultraviolet rays can slow the formation of cataracts.

Smoking is an eye hazard, too. Tests at Johns Hopkins Hospital found a strong correlation between cigarette smoking and cataracts; heavier smokers ran greater risks.

Now diet has been found to be involved, too: antioxidants like vitamins C and E and beta carotene seem to offer protection.
