Chieftains Have Vital Game At River Road

Friona High School's Chieftains were travelling to River Road Friday night (October 4) for their first district "road game" (no pun intended).

Coach James Morton has been attempting to stress the importance of Friday's game to his players. Morton feels that the winner of this game will have the inside track toward the district championship.

The Wildcats always give the Chieftains a run for their money, especially in the games played in north Amarillo.

River Road may have started off its 1996 schedule by losing all three of their non-district games, but that was not an indication of the "real" Wildcat team, Morton believes. The team beat a tough Dalhart team on the Wolves' home turf last Friday, 38-26.

In their opening district game, the 'Cats racked up a whopping 504 yards on offense, and clicked off 28 first downs.

But hopefully the Chieftains will field a better defensive team at River Road on Friday. The Chiefs ranked second in the area's conference 3A teams on defense, allowing just 188 yards per game, and also ranked second on team offense, averaging 309.8 yards per game.

The rankings are compiled and published by the Amarillo Daily News & Lubbock A-J each week.

Runningback Andy Kendrick leads the area in scoring with 32 points.

Also, receiver Angel Vega is the area's second-leading pass receiver with nine catches for 159 yards. Teammate Quint Ellis is right behind with 90 yards on the same number of catches.

Kyle Grimsley is the second-ranking passer with 23 completions for 291 yards. He also is second in rushing with 268 yards, and Kendrick is fifth with 257 and Daniel Cuevas is seventh with 239.

Friona was ranked in the state's top 20 by the Harris Rating system two weeks ago, falling out a week later, and was expected to be back in that group this week.

ON NOVEMBER 5, voters have the unique opportunity of voting for an executive branch which matches the legislative branch of government, so that both will be pulling in the same direction. This is the first real chance of that happening in our lifetimes.

Just think what we could accomplish; what progress could be made toward balancing the national budget, toward returning more government to the state and local levels, just by having a president and a congress with the same party affiliation.

For as long as I can remember, our presidents and congress have been struggling against one another to get things accomplished, sort of like salmon swimming upstream. Is it any wonder that we all feel that our government is mired in status quo, accomplishing little?

It will also be our opportunity to return some dignity, honor and integrity to the office of the Presidency. Plus it will be our last chance to vote a man into office who served his country well in WWII and lived through the struggles and progress which have been the evolution of today's America.

A friend of mine in Lubbock is trying to keep her young teenage son out of the drug scene. She is hearing such comments as "Look, Mom! Bill Clinton smoked marijuana and he got to be President. What's so bad about that?"

This is precisely why character matters so very much in our leaders and most especially for the person who holds the highest office.

Pres. Clinton's big push toward making tobacco illegal among teens is nothing but a smokescreen to cover the fact that, during his administration, huge sums have been cut from drug enforcement funds: the DEA has lost 227 officers; the drug-policy office has been slashed from 147 positions to 25; drug-enforcement positions in the FBI, Coast Guard and Customs Service have also been cut drastically.

The result of such casual attitudes toward drug enforcement during the Clinton administration is this: drug use among teens age 12 to 17 has nearly doubled since 1992; the street price of cocaine and heroin has gone way down; LSD experimentation among high school youth has reached the highest level in 20 years (an increase of 183 percent between 1992 and 1995); cocaine-related emergency room cases are up 65 percent; heroin-related emergency room cases are up 120 percent. Hard-won gains in lowering drug use during the Reagan-Bush terms have just disappeared.

Yet, the President is worried that one in three teens who smoke cigarettes will have his life cut short by tobacco.

For a person who is seeking re-election to the highest office, President Clinton is carrying around a very large basketful of burdens: draft dodging, Viet Nam War protesting, extramarital affairs, underhanded profiteering in cattle futures market, Vince Foster "suicide," attempted takeover of health care, Rose Law Firm, travel office firings, Whitewater scandals, the Mena Arkansas "mafia," veto of the partial birth abortion ban, "lost" FBI files, refusal to disclose his medical records, the Dick Morris prostitute scandal, FOB (friends of Bill) currently languishing in prison such as Webb Hubbell, the McDougals, Dan Lasater and others.

Steinbock Scores Perfect Entry in Week 4 Contest

So you thought just because River Road had a losing record they couldn't beat Dalhart? Over 90 percent of the entries picked Dalhart to beat River Road.

Most contestants were singing the Dalhart, Kansas City, and Carolina blues after the week four Friona Business Football Contest. All three teams lost in "upsets".

Only three contestants managed to pick more than 14 games correct, in spite of the fact that everyone got a free pick when the Star listed a game in error between Dumas at Canyon. They did not play, so that was counted as a correct guess.

Shirley Steinbock of Muleshoe had no competition for first prize of $20 as she turned in a perfect 16-game scorecard.

Just like Santa, we checked her entry twice but sure enough she picked River Road, San Diego, and Jacksonville in the upset games.

Two contestants had 15 correct guesses, Wayne Amstutz of Hereford and Hal Ratcliff of Friona. Amstutz missed only the Carolina game, while Ratcliff missed on the Kansas City loss to San Diego.

In a tough tie-breaker runoff, Amstutz claimed the second place prize of $10 with his Dallas 22, Philadelphia 18, prediction, just two points off the official score of Dallas by 23-19.

Ratcliff gets a hard-earned $5 third place finish as he guessed Dallas by 21-14 over the Eagles, only 7 points off.

Nine players were close behind with 14 correct picks. They were: Mark Zachary, David George, Courtney Carthel, Jack Clark, Bobby Wied, Mark Neill, Eufemia Torres, Raul Brailiff, and Jo Blackwell.

Overall scoring was good in week four as upsets were at a minimum. Another 25 contestants stayed in the total point race with 13 correct picks.

Overall point leader after four weeks is Wayne Amstutz with 55, followed by Shirley Steinbock, 54, Jack Clark, 53, and Kent Patterson, Thomas Reed, and Bobby Wied with 50.

A point standing list is elsewhere in this issue. There are nine more contests, plenty of time to earn the weekly prize and stay in the running for the $100 grand prize.

Good luck and good pickin'!

October Has Fall Feeling; Temps Given

The Friona area has had a touch of fall in the air as the calendar turned its page to October.

Tuesday, October 2 saw a beautiful Indian Summer day, when the temperature hit 87 degrees. However the next day saw a cool front come through with high winds, dropping the temperature to 45 by nightfall Wednesday.

The .61 inch shower that was measured on September 27 rounded out the rainfall for the month. Total received in September in Friona was 3.49 inches--almost a duplicate of August's total of 3.48 inches.

After getting only .50 inches of rain during the first five calendar months of 1996, the local gauge has now registered 13.98 for the year, 13.38 of which has been received since June 1.

Chieftains Flex "D", Beat Tulia

The Chieftains turned in their most impressive defensive performance of the season last Friday, limiting the visiting Tulia Hornets to just 47 yards offense, and toppled the Hornets, 27-7 to open District 1-3A play with a win.

Having started their first three games by getting behind at halftime and then having to come from behind (which they did twice for wins), the Chieftains played a new flawless first half, and went to the intermission with a 21-0 lead.

"It was our best defensive game, and our best game overall," said coach James Morton.

"Kyle executed the offense perfectly, allowing us to hold onto the ball and keep Tulia's offense off the field," he said.

Tulia managed one first down on their opening series, but Friona forced a punt and took over on their own 30.

On Friona's second possession quarterback Kyle Grimsley engineered a 54-yard scoring drive to give the Chieftains the early lead.

Quint Ellis gained nine yards for a first down. David Shelby raced 36 yards for what would have been a touchdown, but a holding penalty against the Chiefs brought the play back.

Grimsley rambled nine yards on a counter-option play to give Friona a first down at the Tulia 20. Daniel Cuevas reeled off a nine-yard gain, moving the ball to the Hornet 11-yard line.

Grimsley lofted a pass to Andy Kendrick who caught the ball just outside the goal, and raced into the end zone for the touchdown. A running try for two points was stopped short, but Friona had a 6-0 lead with only 2:08 left in the opening quarter.

Tulia started off in a hole after the kickoff, and fumbled the ball back to their own seven yard line, where they had to punt. The Chieftains charged in an attempt to block the punt, and partially succeeded. They took over on the Tulia 36.

Taking advantage of the shortened field, it only took Friona nine plays to again light up the scoreboard.

Shane Blackburn gave Friona a first down with a three-yard gain. Grimsley, on the option keeper, raced seven yards to get to the Tulia 15, where it was again first down.

Friona faced third and three at the Tulia eight, and Kendrick got the three on a big play, setting up a first and goal at the five.

Grimsley faked a handoff and raced across the goal-line for a 12-0 Friona lead. The Chieftain quarterback then tossed a pass to Kendrick for the two-point conversion, and Friona had a 14-0 lead with 7:24 left before halftime.

Tulia put together a pair of first downs—the only time they did that all night—and moved the ball to their 44-yard line. At that point, Kendrick sacked the Tulia quarterback on first down,

BLACKBURN GAINS....Shane Blackburn (31, dark jersey), makes a gain against the Tulia Hornets in last week's game. Teammates Charlie Milner (71) and Juan Santiago (50) were blocking on the play. Friona won the game, 27-7.

J. V., Frosh Topple Tulia

Friona High School's freshman and junior varsity Chieftains downed their counterparts at Tulia last Thursday evening.

The JV team scored a 28-12 win, to take their third win of the season against a single defeat.

The freshmen scored a 24-6 win, which evened their season record at 2-2.

Matthew Kendrick led the JV's offense, gaining 142 yards on 15 carries, including two touchdown runs. Kendrick also caught a pass for a 50-yard gain. Hugo Rivera added 116 yards on eight tries, and also had a pair of touchdowns.

Justin Daniel rounded out the scoring with a two-point play.

Kendrick was also the pace-setter on defense. He and Rudy Torres each had five tackles. Twelve members of the team had at least two tackles.

Joseph Bandy was a busy boy for the freshman Chieftains. He racked up 181 yards rushing on 11 carries (16.5 yards per carry). Adrian Cruz added 68 yards on 13 attempts, and also scored a touchdown.

Bandy and Daniel Wiseman each had seven tackles for the freshmen.

and tipped his pass attempt on second down.

On third down, the Chieftains shook the ball loose from the Hornet carrier, and Perry Hanes hopped on the pigskin at the Tulia 35.

Grimsley whipped a pass to Steve Arias, who made a nice catch. Cuevas then had a timely six-yard gain for a first down at the Tulia 22. Grimsley tossed a pass to Kendrick on first down, then raced nine yards on the keeper play to set Friona up with a first and goal at the Tulia four.

Kendrick blasted the four yards for the third Friona touchdown. Mario Pina, who took over place-kicking duties for the injured Angel Vega, split the uprights and Friona had stretched its lead to 21-0. Only 36 seconds were left in the half.

An on-side kickoff backfired on Friona, and the Chiefs had to play some defense in the last minute of the half, but held the Hornets and took over on their own 40.

On Friona's second possession of the third quarter, Grimsley ran 12 yards, and Cuevas 11, and the Chieftains seemed on their way to putting the game away.

But the Hornets knocked the ball out of Grimsley's hands, and returned the fumble all the way to the Friona 15-yard line.

Tulia took advantage of the break and scored on a fourth-down play when QB Jeremy Patton hit Austin Dunn with a five-yard scoring play. Friona's lead had been cut to 21-7 with 2:27 left in the quarter.

Jr. Teams Score Wins Over Tulia

Friona's seventh and eighth grade Braves scored wins last Thursday against Tulia teams.

The eighth graders downed Tulia, 34-20. Matthew Mata gained 180 yards on only five carries (36 yards per carry!). He scored on runs of 59, 61 and 51 yards. His three TD runs accounted for 171 yards!

Josh Burleson scored on a seven-yard run, and Josh Snyder added a score on a four-yard run.

Burleson also starred on defense, where he was in on ten tackles. Abel Santiago had five. Snyder had four tackles, as did Jose Garza and Cesar Carrera. Garland Buske, Justin Boyd, Matt Mata and Michael Ortiz had three tackles each.

Jared Buske and Simon Salinas each recovered a fumble, and Aaron Hendrickson had an interception.

The seventh graders scored an 8-6 win. Osvaldo Almaguer ran 57 yards for a TD, and had 78 yards in all. David Gonzales gained 43 yards, and ran the two-point conversion that was the difference in the game. Jose Frias added 21 yards.

Timothy Padron and Almaguer also led in tackles with six apiece.

Patton turned in the first interception thrown by Blackburn. But the Chieftain defense again was equal to the occasion and forced a punt. Friona took over on their own 14-yard line following the punt.

The Chieftains then put together one of their nicest drives of the season. Cuevas was the man of the hour. Friona weaved seven first downs in the drive, and running back Cuevas made the necessary yardage for first down four times. Shelby ran for another first down, and Grimsley again made the payoff run from 11 yards out on the option keeper.

On the scoring play, Grimsley had the ball right in the hands of Kendrick, his option back, but took it back and ran in for the score.

The PAT kick was low, but Friona had hiked their lead to its final margin, 27-7.

The Chieftains had eaten up 7:27 of clock time on the important drive. They gained 86 yards on 15 plays, all running attempts. They converted on two of two third-down attempts, and six other times on second down.

Cuevas took his turn at being the team's leading rusher with 118 yards. Kyle Grimsley had 92, and Andy Kendrick 53.

Coach Morton pointed out that linebacker Juan Santiago had a couple of big hits, and that middle linebacker Fidel Rodriguez also played well.

"Quint Ellis had three quarterback sacks, Cecil

Friona Fire Dept. News

By DARRELL BARLOW
 Congratulations to TOM O'BRIAN for winning the new pickup in the Friona Fire Department's annual raffle in conjunction with Maize Days. Thanks to all of the many people for donating to the Friona Fire Department in this way. This allows us to update our department, and allow us to do a better job in fighting fires. During the rainy spell that we have had, 4-Way Pump and fire chief Jim Taylor, John Taylor and others worked on the new truck to get it ready for the Maize Days parade. These guys have done an outstanding job, and we are very proud of our new truck. The Fire Department was called out on a vehicle accident about 3:30 a. m. and stayed until the S.P.S. representative repaired their pole and lines. We were there 'till about 7 a.m. The department was called out on Sunday, September 15 to a truck and train collision at the Cattle Town Feed Yard crossing. There was also a vehicle fire during the month. Be sure to check your fireplaces before using them for the upcoming cold weather. The mornings are a little darker now, so watch out for the children walking to school.

Rhea/Hollene Meal Was Well Attended

The Mexican food supper at the Rhea-Hollene Activity Center on Saturday, September 21 was attended by 45 people.

Special guests were Lloyd and Betty Louise Rector. She played her baritone and tenor saws and large and small accordians. She told about playing saws.

She provided some small instruments for the children to accompany her as she presented "Battle Hymn of the Republic." Then the children and one older child tried their hand at playing the saw and accordian.

It was announced that the well for the Activity Center and cemetery will be drilled within the next few weeks.

The Rhea-Hollene community would like to thank the following people and businesses who have made donations for the well: Buster and Doris Herington of Farwell; Helton Oil of Farwell and Rhea; Mrs. H.L. Hughes of Hollene.

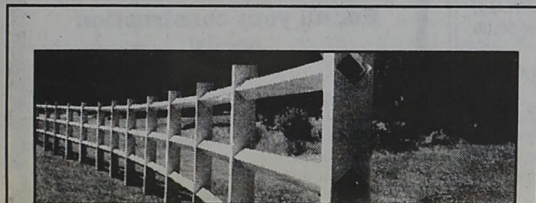

Also, Eldred and Maxine Brown of Rhea-Hollene; Don Murphy of Bovina; Joe Allen, Herbert and Cecelia Schueler, Sherley Anderson Elevator, Friona Wheat Growers, all of Rhea; Tom Hudson of Hudson Insurance, Clovis, New Mexico.

Also, Clarence and Wynona Martin, Parmer County Implement, Parmer County Pump, Lakeside Parts, The Friona Star, Friona State Bank, Brockman Sales, Kendrick Oil and Ethridge-Spring Insurance Agency, all of Friona.

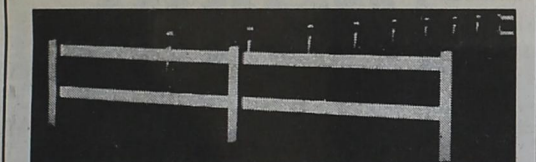

The memorials given in honor of Cordie Potts of Rhea will be used for the well. If anyone would like to make a donation for the well, they may be sent to the Rhea-Hollene Activity Center, c/o Cecelia Schueler (treasurer), HCR 2, Box 88, Friona, Texas, 79035.

Texas Lottery Sets New State Records

For the fourth time in its four-year history, the Texas lottery has set new records for ticket sales, prizes paid to players and profits earned for the state and retailers, Nora Linares, executive director of the Texas Lottery Commission, has announced.

"I'm very proud," Linares said of the Lottery's record-breaking performance in fiscal year 1996. "We've been setting and breaking records since the very first day we sold Texas Lottery tickets."

"Our team here at the Lottery, along with more than 16,000 retail partners across the state, has been able to develop and sell a wide variety of games that our players find fun and entertaining. I hope I'm not sounding like a broken record when I say thanks for helping us break another record."

Unaudited Texas Lottery sales for fiscal 1996, which ended August 31, totaled $3.4 billion, up 13 percent from the previous year. Linares noted that the $2.1 billion in Texas Lottery instant ticket sales and $870 million in Lotto Texas sales ranked those two products No. 1 among all U.S. lotteries. (According to the September 1996 edition of LeFleur's Lottery World, an industry publication.)

"Cash 5, our newest game, was a bit hit with nearly $300 million in sales since it started in October of last year," Linares said. "And Pick 3, the daily game, showed a 3 percent increase to $145 million."

Estimated profits to the state jumped by about 10 percent to $1.1 billion, Linares said. That brings the total Lottery earnings for the General Revenue Fund to more than $3.8 billion since the games began in May 1992.

Methodist Revival Slated for October 13

A revival is scheduled to begin Sunday, October 13 at the First United Methodist Church at 205 fourth Street in Bovina.

Pastor Neely Landrum of Bovina would like to invite everyone for this special time of worship and fellowship.

My Turn

former FBI agent Gary Aldrich. If the library doesn't have these, I'll loan you my copy of the later one.

Where there's so much smoke, there's bound to be some fire. Our current president has little to recommend him for the office which he holds. We need a president who can challenge us to restore the values we have lost, who can establish a higher standard for our actions and help to inspire us toward future greatness.

With the voters' penchant for choosing charisma over substance, I am afraid to think what might happen to our country if Clinton is re-elected to a lame-duck term with no re-election accountability looming before him.

Rodney and Leah Reidel of Weatherford won a $32.3 million Lotto jackpot in September 23, 1995, drawing to pick up the biggest prize of the year. The Reidels were among millions of players who won a record $1.9 billion in prizes.

"That's the most prize money Lottery players have ever received in a single year from any single U.S. lottery," Linares said.

Fifty-three Lotto players won jackpot prizes totaling $484 million during fiscal 1996. Other big prize winners included nine players who won $1,000 a week for 20 years in the "Weekly Grand" scratch game and 470 who won top prizes of up to $366,490 in Cash 5.

Players and state coffers weren't the only ones to rake in record amounts of money from the Texas Lottery last year. Lottery retailers, who earn a five percent commission on every sale and a one percent bonus for selling certain top prize-winning tickets, earned more than $175 million during fiscal 1996.

The year's top-selling Lottery retailers, by game were: total sales, Hester Oil Northside, Seminole, $3,981,002; Scratch Games, Hester Oil Northside, Seminole, $1,958,500; Lotto Texas, Hester Oil Northside, Seminole, $1,563,527; Pick 3, Hoai Huong Fabric, Port Arthur, $602,182; Cash 5, Town and Country #1, McAllen, $416,381.

"I can't promise we'll break even more records next year," Linares said. "But I can guarantee that we will continue to do those things that made us the very best lottery in the United States."

C. Turner Entertains Study Club

President Nellie Shelton welcomed members of Modern Study Club and their guests to the October 1, 1996 meeting, at the Women's Clubhouse.

Martha Rutherford gave a Federation report entitled "Anatomy of a Club," a comic description of a typical club member.

Guest musician Charles Turner entertained at the piano with improvisations of the once-popular tune "A Tisket, a Tasket," in three different modes of music.

The members and their guests answered the roll call with the name of a butterfly or some interesting and informal fact about the butterfly.

Katherine Blackburn, program director, stated "Did you know there are 16,000 different kinds of butterflies in the world and 7,000 of them in North America?"

Mrs. Blackburn stressed the kinds of plants one would need to plant in order to attract butterflies to their neighborhood. Many butterflies are in danger of extinction because their habitats are being destroyed.

Also, spraying certain kinds of insecticides on the foliage of many plants endanger the butterfly. She also related many interesting facts about the butterfly.

The club meeting closed with the recitation of the club collect, followed by a social hour.

Seniors Reminded Of Lunches

Food is necessary for life, but fellowship with others makes life enjoyable. Join the food and fellowship on Monday and Thursday.

Out Here

By RON CARR

"Hello."
"Hi Harry, is mother home?"
"Naw, they have gone to Amarillo."
"Again?"

Maybe I am lazy. Or maybe I had enough of big cities when I lived in Dallas, Washington, D. C., and Tulsa.

Whatever the reason, during my year and a half as a resident of Parmer County, I haven't been moved too often to make the drive to Amarillo or Clovis like a lot of you do.

I have ventured up to Hereford once or twice and I drive to Canyon every Friday to get our award-winning newspaper printed.

But otherwise the shopping, visiting, eating out urge doesn't overwhelm me so that I have to drive up to Amarillo for entertainment, or worse, to shop.

I am not much of a shopper. I am more of a looker. So it was that last weekend, one looker and two shoppers loaded up and went to Amarillo.

The Country Peddler show was in town. My mother and a friend of ours, Sherry Allison, were going to the show so I decided to tag along.

Actually I was going along to look, take pictures, talk to some of the people, and maybe gather some unique information for a newspaper story.

Besides, mother was driving and she bought lunch, so it was some good entertainment on an otherwise quiet Saturday.

The Country Peddler Show had been advertised on TV and many of the little ladies around town were buzzing about it. Figured it must be a big deal.

Well I went. Took my camera and note pad along in search of interesting crafts and people.

Too bad for me. The sign at the entrance to the great hall which housed the show said "No Cameras, No Sketching." Didn't want anyone stealing ideas from the Peddlers, so I put away my camera. Darn it.

They had a plan of attack. First we patrolled the outer perimeter of booths, ignoring the ones just across the aisles because "we will come back to them."

After covering the entire outer part of the giant hall, we began an assault on the aisles that went back and forth horizontally, this time hitting booths on both sides in rapid bursts.

By this time, the aisles and booths were getting crowded, but we were determined. Completing each of the "horizontal" aisles, we then had only a few "vertical" aisles to rack up a 100% completion factor, visiting every booth.

Some we stopped at, some we didn't. A few booths only earned a glimpse as we passed by. Like the ones that sold oak furniture (none of us needed any furniture, especially blond oak).

Or the lady who made brightly painted dolls from corn husks. Everyone was saying they were cute, but not many people were buying them.

The food sellers had out some samples. One had a variety of dips in small bowls with pretzels to dip with. A sign said "no double dipping." Sherry asked what that meant. When I explained it meant not to dip a pretzel, lick it off, and dip the same pretzel again, she said "Yuck, do people do that?"

The apple juice sellers were giving samples in those little cups like you use to rinse at the dentists office. Lots of people were drinking the samples, saying "ummmm, that's good," but not many were buying the juice.

The candle booth was very popular. The two handsome young studs, dressed natively in long sleeve shirts and walking shorts, were charming the crowds with information about cheap wax and wicks in those store-bought candles.

Their candles did smell real good and they were selling them as fast as they could sack them. Mother and Sherry said they could buy them cheaper at Bi-Wize after we had spent 15 minutes at the booth.

As we pressed on, I muttered something under my breath about "you get what you pay for."

I was amused at the many little signs and sayings that were printed on all sorts of items for sale. One booth that sold Christmas doo-dahs, had a sign by the cash register that said, "On Comet, On Cupid, On Master, On Visa."

My favorite booth was a large one that sold photographs and refrigerator magnets among other things. One of the magnets said "When I die, bury me at WalMart. That way my wife will come to visit."

Another sign for sale said "Laundry room...drop your britches here." These Peddler people, they are really cute and cool.

Mother got upset because the purse man was not there.

She checked it out. The show organizers said the purse man didn't like to do shows too close together, since he had done Lubbock he chose not to do Amarillo.

Too bad for him. My mother would have bought enough purses to pay his expenses.

And the basket weaving people, as seen on the TV ads, had an illness and skipped Amarillo also. Since my mothers main two Peddlers were not there, she bought one small iron made of iron. The kind little kids used to play with.

You know, an iron iron. She collects them.

We went to lunch at Gardski's where they served gravy with parsley and garlic salt in it, so we spent our lunch hour wondering why some so-called cook would ruin white gravy with parsley. It gave us something to talk about.

With much of Saturday left, the ladies charged off into the sunny afternoon in pursuit of more shopping bargains. After all we had spent over half a day and only had an iron iron to show for it.

The Crafters Mall and that huge Antique Co-op store on Sixth Street took care of the rest of the day. How do people think up so many gee-gaws and doo-dads to make and sell?

That Crafters Mall is fun. It would be a good place to do some unusual Christmas shopping. It was there I discovered the world of shoe charms and button covers.

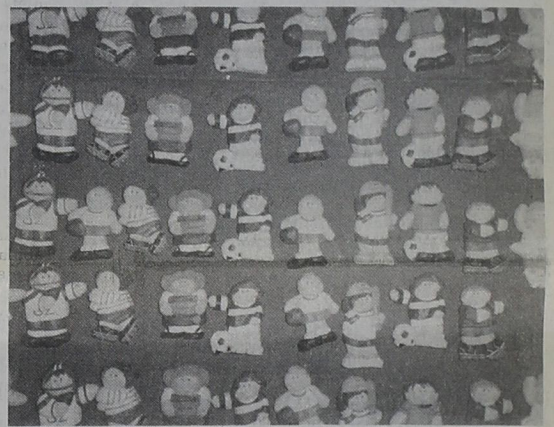

At the antique place, where we spent several hours browsing, they had a lot of old stuff, most of which looked old.

Mother bought more here than at Peddlers. She found a nice antique toothpick holder. She collects those too.

Sherry picked up a bone box. The lid hinge was sprung and wouldn't close all the way, but she didn't care because she was going to put some artificial flowers in it.

I spotted a box of Tinker Toys. As a kid I spent hours building things with Tinker Toys. Thought my kids would really like them too, but when I saw the antique price of $24.95 for Tinker Toys that I used to pay fifty cents for, I knew that over the years I must have thrown away a fortune.

I couldn't figure out why Parmer County people went to Amarillo so often. But it was fun, and different, and something to do. Especially if someone else drives and buys lunch. Thanks mother.

What's Going On Here?

The alley in the 800 block between Summit and Prospect streets has been a tough place to deposit trash for a good while, due to excessive use by a business in that block. With due respect to the City of Friona--who brought in an additional dumpster this week--both the old one and new one were full before the homeowners could use the trash receptical. ## Two Friona Students Receive WT Grants

The West Texas A&M University Foundation, thanks to a challenge grant from the Amarillo Area Foundation (AAF), has eased the way for 40 students to attend college.

Receiving scholarships from Friona were Courtney Carthel, freshman mathematics major, the Josephine Anderson Leadership Scholarship, and Carmen Perez, a senior general business major, the WTAMU Foundation Leadership Scholarship.

In 1992, the AAF issued a challenge to the WTAMU Foundation that included establishing leadership scholarships benefitting students from the top 26 counties in the Texas Panhandle.

To keep the grant, the WTAMU Foundation has to establish ten new leadership scholarships each year for a four-year period ending August 31, 1996. The AAF pays a total of $2,000 in scholarship awards toward each fund over four years.

"We're thrilled to have donors who care about the university and have funded these leadership scholarships," Sid Walker, executive director of development, said. "We are also truly grateful to the Amarillo Area Foundation for providing this incentive that generated support for WTAMU and its students."

The WTAMU Foundation will recognize the AAF donors and scholarship recipients at a reception from 4:30-6 p.m. Tuesday, October 8 in the Mary Moody Northern Hall Atrium on the WTAMU campus. Walker said the reception provides an opportunity for donors to meet the students who benefit

Auxiliary Has Had A Busy Existence

The Parmer County Community Hospital Auxiliary is celebrating its 40th year as a club in 1996. Deke Kendrick has done some research on the club's history and we are printing it just as she submitted it to the Friona Star.

By DEKE KENDRICK RUMMAGE SALES

The Hospital Auxiliary could write a book on "Our Rummage Sales." That first one was November 16, 1957. The proceeds made the down payment on the landscaping for Parmer County Community Hospital.

To begin with, there was one gigantic fall sale. In 1982 a spring sale was added. Now the Hospital Thrift Shop is a monthly affair most of the year. During the past forty years, sales have netted thousands of dollars used by the Auxiliary for purchases and contributions to the hospital.

Older members reminiscing about the rummage sales mention the fall years when many "Braceros" from Mexico were working in the area. With the help of interpreters, they were excellent customers, frequently outfitting their entire villages.

The hours for the sale were extended into the night. Husbands of Auxiliary members were enlisted to help with the sales, as some could speak a little Spanish. There were fond memories of the fun both customers and clerks enjoyed. Martha Clements had a real knack for selling.

Modeling the merchandise was a form of entertainment when business was slow. Finding an item for sale that had been a gift caused a bit of embarrassment to both parties. Sale articles range from excellent to "not-so-great." Tricks of shoplifters and price tag changers are well known.

In 1974, the Auxiliary voted to ask the mayor to declare October "Hospital Rummage Sale Month" and ask that there be no garage sales during that time. No report is found concerning the outcome of the request.

Locations for the Auxiliary Rummage Sales and Thrift Store have been numerous and interesting. Generous owners of vacant buildings donate their use. At least ten moves have been necessary in the past. One sale was held in the Kendricks' garage and driveway. At the present time, a new location is needed.

Times have changed over the four decades and rummage sales are not so profitable, yet they still add money for PCCH needs.

BITS AND PIECES

Forty years of "Minutes of the last meeting" yield interesting tidbits. The Auxiliary has been in the drapery business since its inception. There are many entries concerning buying drapes, cleaning drapes, putting pulleys back on drapes and eventually, switching to blinds.

The TV rental program has also come in for much discussion-how to collect the fees, buying new stands, moving from portable sets to permanent installation and switching to color in 1977.

There has been one mother-daughter president set-Irene McFarland and Lois Barnett, and one mother-in-law/daughter-in-law set, Katy and Ann Osborn. June Spring and Elizabeth McLellan are the two to serve two terms as president. Connie Neelley has the record for most offices held and Sandra Rainey has been treasurer for the last ten years. Connie is starting 1996 as president and Sandra is still treasurer.

The hospital administrators have been very grateful for the Auxiliary's efforts. Numerous letters of gratitude and praise are recorded.

Typical of earlier years is this report: "...Hospital manager gave a report at a regular Auxiliary meeting." Concerns and needs include several repairs and replacements. The nursery floor is cracked and needs repair. Some rooms need replastering and decorating. Kitchen stove needs to be replaced. Two automatic beds are on order. The Auxiliary voted to contribute $1,000.00.

"How to get the old-fashioned Coke machine out of the front lobby" was the topic for more than one discussion. In some minutes, a screen was proposed to hide the unsightly culprit.

In 1968 the plans for "An Old Folks Rest Home" were presented by the hospital. The Auxiliary voted to help when more details were available. At a later meeting the forming of an Auxiliary for Prairie Acres was discussed with the manager at that time. He discouraged the idea, so no further action was taken.

The Auxiliary has always been interested in landscaping and plant care-even to watering the plants in the lobby. There was great rejoicing when the treasurer reported, "the last installment has been paid on our landscaping bill."

Although officers were elected for one-year terms in the beginning, everyone served two years, so it became official in 1978. The office of secretary-treasurer grew too big for one person and in 1982, that office became two.

Nursery and labor room furnishings are reminders of bygone days when babies were delivered here. The Girl Scouts' offer to make bibs was readily accepted. The Auxiliary contributed $3,500.00 to equip the two labor rooms.

The first Auxiliary float entered in the Maize Days parade was in the fall of 1957. One of the strangest entries is in the December 5, 1968 minutes. It was reported that the hospital declined our $1,000.00 donation toward building costs, with their thanks, since they did not need it at that time.

For the many members over the years, working with the Auxiliary to help PCCH has been a rewarding experience. The goal is for the next forty years to be as successful.

DICTIONARY OF CAMPAIGN DOUBLE SPEAK: A Survival Guide for Voters.

WHEN THEY SAY THIS ABOUT PETE LANEY:

His record is being distorted.

His opponent doesn't understand the issues involved.

His votes have been misinterpreted.

Repeat sex offenders should not be placed on probation. That's why he voted against chemical castration for paroled sex offenders.

His vote was for assessments on the earned surplus of businesses.

He voted to expand the sales tax base instead of raising the tax rate.

THEY MEAN THIS:

No one ever expected anyone would look at his voting record!

We've got to come up with some excuse about why Laney always votes to raise taxes, why he voted against an elected State Board of Education and against letting the people vote on if they wanted an elected Board or appointed board. Folks back home won't like that!

How dare ordinary, working men and women discuss Laney's voting record. What makes them think that just because he votes to raise taxes, it's a tax increase? What do they know anyhow?

Hope they don't find out that in 24 years in Austin Laney never filed a bill to prohibit paroling sex offenders and, to this day, sex offenders are still being paroled and still committing sex crimes.

Why, that's more creative than Clinton's "fair share" and his "everybody must make a sacrifice" explanation for higher taxes! Hope they don't figure out that "assessments" are really taxes and "earned surplus" is really income.

Think they'll figure out that this is still a tax increase on everyone? Think they notice that he never votes for cutting spending and making government smaller?

Let the House Journal of record votes speak for itself: Laney voted for a corporate income tax on 8/5/91 vote #134 and again on 8/13/91 vote #215 and #216. For increased sales tax on 6/30/84 #130; 6/30/84 #131; 6/30/84 #150; 7/2/84 #173; 7/3/84 #217; 9/27/86 #52; 9/27/86 #61; 7/2/87 #99; 7/2/87 #105; 7/20/87 #176; 7/20/87 #186; 4/19/90 #32; 4/19/90 #34; 5/24/90 #32; 8/5/91 #142. For expanded tax on elective medical services on 7/2/87 #88. For expanded tax to other services on 7/2/87 #92. For a tax on insurance premiums on 7/2/87 #93. To make temporary taxes permanent on 3/5/87 #38; 3/5/87 #41; 7/2/87 #78; 7/2/87 #105. For increased fees on 4/22/85 #231; 5/26/85 #588; 8/5/91 #140; 8/5/91 #147; 8/5/91 #149; 8/5/91 #152.

Whoever came up with the statement, "There is no constant in our lives except change," surely hit the nail on the head.

After saying "St. Anthony's Hospital" and "High Plains Baptist Hospital" when we are referring to Amarillo hospitals for many years, we're going to have to learn to say "Baptist High Plains Hospital" and "Baptist St Anthony's Hospital."

We can do it, but it will take some time to get used to the recent name change of these two health care institutions.

Sunday will be the last day folks at Friona United Methodist Church will be hearing the present pastor, Lee Roark.

The next day he will begin his duties as chaplain for the Cardiac Intensive care and Trauma Center of Baptist St. Anthony's Hospital.

He has been working with the local Methodist Church three and one-half years and his presence will be sorely missed by many of the congregation.

Roark, who spent ten years serving as a chaplain at Lubbock's Methodist Hospital, is also a former pastor of the Methodist Church at Dimmitt, where he served during the years 1975-78.

While he has been living here, he has been actively associated with the Parmer Division of the American Heart Association, the local Ministerial Alliance and the Noon Lions Club. He has also worked closely with Parmer County Community Hospital, Prairie Acres and the local police department.

Roark said, "Moving away was a most difficult decision for me to make. The community has been so good to me and for me, but this was a calling I felt obligated to honor."

The Friona Star staff joins other residents of the community in wishing him the best in his new role.

Leon and Jeffie Talley spent the weekend visiting relatives in Carlsbad, New Mexico. They were guests in the home of his parents, Alton and Mary Lee Talley, who recently moved there from Carrizozo.

They also spent some time with her father, Harley Davis, who divides his time between Carlsbad and Anchorage, Alaska, and his maternal grandmother, Carmen Petross, who is a resident of the Assisted Living Center of Lakeview Christian Home.

Incidentally, Mrs. Petross will be 90 years old in January.

The Talley's middle son, Troy, and his wife, Nicole, who live in Lubbock, spent the weekend visiting in the home of her parents, Jay and Krita Potts of the Rhea community.

Troy, a graduate of Texas Tech University with a major in landscape design, began a new job Monday. He is the supervisor for all the football fields in the Lubbock Independent School District.

Those of you who are interested in genealogy will probably be particularly interested in learning about a radio program which is devoted entirely to this subject.

It is called the Family History Show and is broadcast weekly from radio station KRLD in Dallas and can be heard from KGNC in Amarillo or KFYO in Lubbock each Sunday evening from 10 p.m. until midnight.

On a recent Sunday evening, Friona Star editors and publishers, Bill and Carol Ellis were interviewed on the air. This couple has been publishing a newsletter for Ellis Cousins Nationwide eighteen years and were asked to share some of their experiences and expertise with listeners.

The name of their publication, which comes out quarterly, is Ellis Cousins Newsletter and is distributed nationwide.

At the present time they have subscribers in every state in the union except Hawaii and one of the Dakotas, as well as several provinces in Canada.

Carol said, "We've had several inquiries from abroad, but don't really have much to offer residents of other countries since most of our information has do do with Ellis families within the United States."

Michael Matthews, host of the show, asked the Ellises several questions regarding the origin of the newsletter, the source of information and other facets of such an endeavor.

Carol said, "It is interesting to note that the majority of people who are interested in genealogy are retirees who live in Florida, Arizona, California and Texas."

Lois Weatherly is home after spending a few days visiting with her sister, Arvis Phillips, and other kin and kin who live in the Greenville, Texas area.

Marca Lynn Herring has returned to her work at Friona State Bank on a part time basis following an absence of several weeks following major surgery.

While she has been recuperating at home all three of her daughters, Kriste Haile of Fort Worth, Jamie Herring of Lubbock and Jill Coatia, who lives in Spokane, Washington, have been here.

Dorothy Jackson, another Friona State Bank employee, is a medical patient at Baptist High Plains Hospital in Amarillo. Her condition is satisfactory.

Mr. and Mrs. L.R. White had a house full of company last weekend. Their out-of-town visitors included Marie Hughlett and Kathy Troubfield of Dallas; Jimmy and Jaquita White and Kyle of Fort Towson, Oklahoma and Kent and Karla Hughlett, who live at Nocona, Texas.

Also, Elaine and Brent Harmon of Norman, Oklahoma and Max and Gail White and children, Jeremy and Amy, who live at Shallowater.

Local family members joining in the fun and festivities were Ted and Sharon White and Bill and Jeri Lynn White.

A family dinner in the country home of Joe Bob and Connie Johnson Sunday was a going away courtesy for their oldest daughter, Mindy Johnson, who left early Monday morning for Seattle, Washington.

Mindy, a graduate of Friona High School and Southern Methodist University, Dallas, from which she holds a degree in theatre arts, has been home several weeks.

Following her graduation in the spring, she went to Ithaca, New York, where she served as a stage manager at a summer theatre.

Until May of 1997, Mindy will be interning in stage management at the Seattle Repertory Theatre. Seven plays will be presented during this time. They are "Uncle Vanya," "Sylvia," "Ballad of Yachijo," "Neat," "Royal Family of Broadway," "The Cider House Ruler-Part II" and "True West."

Abbey, the second daughter of the Johnsons, is attending Texas Women's University at Denton and was home for the weekend.

Others present, besides the hosts and their youngest daughter, Joni, were the grandparents, Edith Johnson and Carl and Velma Schlenker.

Mary Crump, one of Friona's poets who has had two books published during the past year, will be an honored guest at the Annual Book and Author Dinner, which will be held in the Grand Plaza, Amarillo Civic Center, October 15.

Friends of The Amarillo Library, which is the sponsoring organization, will be honoring area authors who have had a book published during the past year.

Mary has had two books of poetry published, "Electric Fence" and "High Lonesome."

Congratulations, Mary! Keep up the good work.

If you are a victim of procrastination as I am, the following suggestions should be beneficial to you:

1. Stop talking and decide to do it.
2. Set a deadline.
3. Learn to master your moods.
4. Burn your bridges behind you.

5. Take the first step.
6. Be optimistic.
The advice I read about this subject was concluded with the following admonition.

What have you been putting off? Do it now!

Area Cattleman P. Morgan Dies

Paul Albert Morgan, longtime area cattleman, died Wednesday, September 25, 1996. He was 79 years old.

Graveside services were held at 2 p.m. Friday in Memory Gardens Cemetery with Dick Greenhaner, pastor of St. Paul Lutheran Church in Muleshoe, officiating. Arrangements were by Schooler-Gordon Funeral Directors.

Morgan was born in Wiota, Iowa, a small community about 60 miles east of Omaha. He farmed in Iowa until his late 30s. He also had helped build the Alcan Highway in Alaska.

He moved to Denver in 1958 and operated feed yards for the Denver Union Stock Yard Co. He then moved to Lubbock in 1967 and ran a feed yard there, and later moving to Friona where he built Hi-Plains Feed Yard and served as part owner and manager.

At the time Hi-Plains Feed Yard was completed, it had the largest capacity of any feed yard in the state.

When he came to Friona, he brought several of his longtime employees, including Lester Roth, who passed away just last month in Friona.

In 1971, he moved to Amarillo and was feedlot manager for Producers Grain. He retired from there after ten years of service.

He married Ruth Tibken in 1940 at Maryville, Missouri. He attended Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church. He was preceded in death by a son, Kent Carl Morgan.

Survivors include his wife; five sons, Dennis Morgan and Larry Morgan, both of Amarillo, Michael Morgan, John Morgan and Terry Morgan, all of Dallas; a brother, Russell Morgan of Wiota; three grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were sons, Dennis, Michael, Larry, John and Terry Morgan and Joe Morgan, a grandson.

ARTIST OF THE MONTH.....Friona Art Association has named Lynn Gowens as the Artist of the Month for October. Her oil paintings will be on display in the lobby at Prairie Acres. Lynn is pictured here with Prairie Acres employee Barbara Armstrong. Lynn has been painting since 1970 and has had workshops from Billie Long Homer, Mary Lena Burke, Phyllis Sanders, Eunice Peterson, Fran Fraizer and J.D. Keel. She says she is looking forward to retirement so she can spend more time painting and sketching.

YOUR EYES

Back-To-School Checkup

Some years ago, a study of adult illiterates found a surprising factor: more than 70 per cent of them had vision problems that had never been discovered. They didn't know they weren't seeing the way they should. Little children, too, don't know whether what they see is what they should see.

Parents may notice some signs of vision problems--if a child squints while watching television, for instance, or complains that letters on the screen aren't clear. Even in a very young child, caregivers may note an inability to focus on and follow objects, excessive blinking, chronic tearing or eyes that are misaligned.

As school time approaches, we owe it to our children to equip them for success in learning. We buy them books and pencils, new sneakers for school sports. Surely we should ensure that they see well enough to use them. Be sure to schedule a back-to-school optometric examination for your child.
