The Pecos Summer Normal

Opens With Excellent Exercises at the First Christian Church—Members Are Very Enthusiastic

At 10:17 Monday morning in the auditorium of the First Christian Church, the welcome meeting to the Normal Students was held. Bro. Cole gave the invocation, and Judge Buck in his characteristic way extended to Normal students a hearty welcome to the city of Pecos with all its attractions.

Supt. Thomason of Stanton made the response to the welcome address in his own pleasant way, interspersing it with many amusing anecdotes to the pleasure of the large audience assembled.

A very pleasant number on the program was a male quartette by Messrs Miller, Taggart, Barstow, Kruaskopf. Then little Miss Mary Wood gave in her own inimitable way a very interesting little reading on Domestic Infelicity.

The next on the program was a song by some of the School children, "Away Out West in Texas," which was well received. Then came Col. J. E. Rodgers of Dallas who entertained the audience as only he can. His address was unique in ever particular, scholarly, forceful and resplendent with interesting illustrations, sparkling with wit and humor.

He captivated his hearers from his first word and they never lost his power for a moment to the cease.

This the first Normal opens with bright prospects for a successful term, with more than sixty enrolled and prospects for the number to reach eighty.

This is as fine a class of Normal students as the writer has met in Texas, and we believe this will be the best Normal in Texas from the point of successful applicants for certificates.

Let the good people of Pecos lend every effort for the comfort and success of these excellent young people who are our invited guests. The Record extends a hearty welcome to you, and best wishes for your success.

IS THE WHEAT GOOD?

An exchange says two men were some time ago disputing over their respective churches. One was a Christian and the other a Presbyterian. Finally one of them called a neighbor who was passing by and asked his opinion as to which he thought was the better church in which to be saved. "Well, neighbor," he said, "my son and I have been hauling wheat nearly forty years. There are two roads that lead to the mill; one is the valley road and the other leads over the hill, and never yet has the miller asked me which road I came, but he always asks, 'Is the wheat good?'"—Bowie Cross Timbers.

Uncle Woody Johnson was called to Barstow Monday morning and the Normal students failed to hear that good talk that he promised to make for them. We feel sure that he will be extended another opportunity before the Normal closes.

HOMER L. MAGEE AT MIDLAND

Perhaps the greatest sermon that has been preached in Midland in many a day was the baccalaureate sermon of Midland College by Homer L. Magee at the Christian Church Sunday night.

Success, and How Achieved was the subject chosen by the gifted man of God, and he said in part:

"Our different ideas of success or failure are due to our different standards of measurements. Gods measurements are ability and opportunity. Success, therefore is the achievement of the greatest good possible with our ability and our opportunities. Our work of life must be the work of God. Men do not recognize God's authority, and therefore spend their energy in direct conflict with His will. Again others recognize God's authority, but unable for various causes to adjust themselves to this authority. Every man has his place. Peter could not be Paul, nor Paul Peter. The task of education is to help us find our place and to fit us for it. Pray not for tasks equal to our power, but rather pray for power equal to our tasks. Remember success measured not by the good we accomplish, but by the good in proportion to our ability. There must be work and not play. Jesus' life was life of increasing activity. With Him, it was 'I must.' The frivolous things life can have but little of the time of the successful man.

"Our work must be done now. While it is today. The night cometh when no man can work. Jesus must heal the blind man now. The opportunities of yesterday are not the opportunities of today, and those of to-day are not of the to-morrow. Too many lives are wasted by living in the future. Now is the accepted time."—Midland Examiner.

This is a nice compliment to this excellent young minister of Pecos. We are glad to see that our neighboring town appreciates him also.

Tom C. Swope, of Houston, Texas, State Secretary of the State Wide Prohibition Amendment Association, in a private letter to a cousin of his in Pecos, says:

Our organization is going to be pretty well effected and I am perfectly confident that we have the votes with which to win, if our people only get out and vote. All of the argument is on our side and we have a good, big majority, but when July 22nd comes we cannot afford to have a single man stay at home.

Let all lovers of "Home and Mother" see that there is an organization of the Prohibition forces in each and every community in the County. Do it now. Don't delay.

Those who have been requested to see that the Prohibition forces are organized thought-out the country should see to it that the work is done at once. There is danger in delay.—Committee.

Within five years Reeves Co will double in population and taxable values. Watch and see.

State-Widers In Mass Meeting

Enthusiastic Meeting of the Central State Wide Committee Held at the Courthouse on Friday

There was a meeting of the Central State Wide Prohibition Committee, of Reeves County, held on Friday, June 2 1911, there being a full attendance of the committee.

After prayer by Rev. Van Camp, of Toyah, the Chairman, W. D. Cowan, explained the object of the meeting to be for the purpose of arranging plans for the conducting of the campaign for the adoption of an Amendment to our State Constitution to be voted on July 22, 1911. On motion of Rev. Cole, all visitors present were allowed and requested to take part in the discussions of plan, etc. The Chairman then called for suggestions as to the best method to pursue in order to get the voters of the County to realize the importance of working in the interest of the Amendment and of voting on the 22nd of July. Mr. F. W. Johnson being present, made one of his characteristic and enthusiastic speeches, not only emphasizing the importance of everybody getting busy, but offering his own services with his fine automobile whenever and wherever they could be used, from now on until the polls closed on the 22nd of July.

After talks by Revs. Smith, Miller, McCarver and others, as to the best methods for work, etc., a motion was made by H. L. Magee and adopted, that the Executive Committee arrange for rallies at different points in the surrounding country and in Pecos, and for speakers, as needed. Rev. McCarver and C. L. Heath were appointed a committee to arrange with the editors of our papers for space to be used in the interest of "the Cause" during the campaign.

The graduating class of Pecos High school of 1911, to gather with Messrs. Short, Camp, Morrill, Martin, Hon. Drane and Dr. Neil were invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Long to spend a few hours Saturday evening in "Good-Time College." The amusement of the evening was begun by the matriculation for the literary and athletic courses. The literary courses consisted of lists of amusing and silly questions on the subject of Mathematics, English and Etiquette. The pupil giving the least correct answers was considered the most scholarly. Two athletic courses "Tug of war" between the Freshmen and Sophomores and Foot Ball between the Juniors and Seniors. The Students finishing these courses were awarded miniature diplomas; those failing were given small dunce caps. The next feature of the evening was the President's reception at which delightful refreshments were served. The conclusion of the work at "Good-Time College" was commencement which was the time for home going.

Sheriff Brown and family left Wednesday for Mineral Wells for a few weeks stay.

Entered as second-class matter February 24, 1911, at the post office at Pecos, Texas, under the act of March 3, 1879.

Good roads bring thrift to the consumer and wealth to the nation.

Good roads make better homes, happier residents and more patriotic people. Build good roads.

That park we want and need so badly, and that everybody is so anxious about is soon to materialize. Come in and say to the Record people what you think about this much need park.

The first watermelons of the season were received here Saturday. To a poor pencil pusher they resembled "gold eagles."

Don't forget the mass meeting Thursday 15 of June at court house to consider the proposition of having a celebration on July 4. Everybody is requested to be present.

The Record does not think it is necessary to exaggerate about our delightful climate, our abundant water supply, and our wonderfully fertile soil. It is difficult to get an outsider to believe the truth about our many advantages.

We desire to say that the most enterprising and progressive citizens are investing their means in land and city property in Reeves expecting to get good profits on their investment, and the Record feels certain they will not be disappointed, for the greatest development for Reeves Co. is in the near future.

An inordinate desire to get something for nothing leads to greed in business and unless restrained sometimes results in crime but every property owner in Texas can get something for nothing in a perfectly legitimate way by joining in the crusade for improving and extending our transportation facilities.

Improving public highways adds three times their cost to contiguous land; building new railroads adds $64,000 per mile to adjoining property and improving waterways increases property values. Improving public highways and building railroads is the only honest way of getting something for nothing, and the property owners of Texas can get rich by improving and increasing their transportation facilities.

Dr. M. Francis, Veterinary Surgeon of the A. & M. College, who has been making a special study of fever among Texas cattle since 1888, reports that the results of his experiments have been highly successful and that the death rate among Texas cattle from fever which was 50 per cent in 1888, is now only about 5 per cent. Over 60,000 head of cattle have been saved during this time by Dr. Francis, an approximate saving to their owners of a half million dollars. The Texas experiment station of the A. & M. is doing great good for the agricultural and live stock interests of Texas and its Department of veterinary surgery deserves special commendation for their efficient services to the stock growers of the State.

Sealy recently held a mass meeting for the purpose of discussing the construction of a cotton oil mill. $25,000 was subscribed as a starter, and an additional $10,000 has been promised. Work on the new mill will be started at once and it is hoped to have the mill in operation for the fall cotton crop.

THE Laundry Bag says:

"Believe me! I'm the wise one on the collar question. I know why some collars get saw' edges, crack, break at the ends of the fold.

And I know why Corliss-Coon collars don't—at least until they're so old it's no disgrace.

Their 'gutter seam' prevents saw' edges; their overcast stitch' prevents cracking; their cut-away interlining prevents breaking at the ends of the fold.

"Such collars are bound to hold the record for laundry trips—and they do!"

—Grandma Dycat is in the city the guest of her daughter Mrs. L. F. Harrison; grandma is one of the early settlers of this city, and her husband published the first paper here: It was in old Pecos, then situated near the river. Our city was then a rough and rollicky little village, and at a time when a six-shooter ruled the day and song and dance ruled the night. Times have changed and the little village has grown into a city of over 2500 souls of moral and well-to-do citizens, full of enthusiasm and public enterprise.

WHO'S WHO AND WHY

STIMSON NEW WAR SECRETARY

Henry Lewis Stimson, the new secretary of war, is a progressive Republican of the Roosevelt stripe and has been considered as Roosevelt's right hand man in politics. Stimson is forty-three. He comes of a Knickerbocker family and was born in New York September 21, 1867. At Yale he was a member of Psi Upsilon and Skull of Bones. After he graduated from Yale in '88 he went to Harvard and received his master's degree in '89 and his law school diploma in '90. In 1893 he became a member of the law firm of which Elihu Root was a member, and in 1906 President Roosevelt took him from a lucrative private practice to make him United States district attorney for the southern district of New York. During the three years that followed Stimson distinguished himself in the prosecutions of the sugar trust, Charles W. Morse and railroad rebaters.

Last fall Roosevelt nominated him for governor of New York and Stimson and the colonel stumped the state, going down to defeat in the Democratic landslide, after a spectacular campaign.

In person, Stimson is tall, slender and impressive. He has dark hair and wears a small mustache. His diction is precise and his delivery much like that of an attorney reading a brief in court.

THE ORIGINAL INSURGENT

Representative Henry Allen Cooper of Racine, Wis., is declared entitled to the distinction of being the first insurgent in congress. Mr. Cooper was an insurgent before the word "insurgent" came into use. He has been in congress 16 years, and he has been an insurgent 16 years.

Before the "stalwarts" in Wisconsin had Robert Marion La Follette to trouble them, Henry A. Cooper of the first Wisconsin district was inclined to muss up the program of the regulars. He was elected first to the fifty-third congress. Once or twice an effort was made to defeat him for the nomination, and after that they tried to defeat him at the election, but he has been returned to each succeeding congress.

When Cooper went to congress for his first term he was placed upon the committee on Pacific railroads. The Pacific railroad funding bill was before the committee, and the young man from Racine proceeded to raise a row, which was an innovation for that committee on that particular bill. He was "sent for" a number of times, and some of the big lobbyists for the railroad labored with him to get him to "see the light," but Cooper refused to see it. He fought the claim of the railroad and spoiled the program.

CARNEGIE GETS GOLD MEDAL

What he called his greatest mark of honor was received the other day by Andrew Carnegie, when 21 American republics bestowed upon him a gold medal bearing on one side the words "Benefactor of Humanity," and on the other "The American Republics to Andrew Carnegie." It was the first time in history that such a tribute from so many nations had been paid to an individual, and the scene, which took place at Washington, was highly impressive.

Senor de Zamacona, the Mexican ambassador, made the presentation speech. Secretary of State Knox presided and President Taft spoke in eulogy of the gifts which Mr. Carnegie has made for the cause of peace on this hemisphere and throughout the world. Members of the diplomatic corps and men high in official life filled the hall of the Pan-American Union building, where the ceremonies were held and for the erection of which Mr. Carnegie gave $1,000,000.

In accepting the medal Mr. Carnegie told of his deep feelings on being informed last autumn of the honor conferred upon him by the Pan-American conference at Buenos Ayres, when 160,000,000 people, forming 21 sovereign nations, through their representatives voted to bestow upon him this signal honor. The great steel master was visibly moved by a powerful sense of this remarkable evidence of appreciation.

IS NOW PULLMAN PRESIDENT

Robert Todd Lincoln, son of Abraham Lincoln, presented his resignation as president of the Pullman Sleeping Car company the other day, and John Sumner Runnells, vice-president and general counsel of the company, was elected president.

Mr. Lincoln, who is retiring from active office on account of ill health, has been president of the car company since George M. Pullman died in 1897. He is now 68 years old, and has been away from his office on account of poor health much of the time for several months. Mr. Runnells meanwhile has administered the office duties.

Mr. Runnells has been general counsel of the $120,000,000 Pullman company since 1887, and has been vice-president since 1905. He was born in Eppingham, N. H., July 30, 1844, graduated from Amherst college in 1865, and after studying law at Dever, N. H., removed to Iowa and became private secretary to the governor of the state. From 1881 to 1885 he was United States district attorney for Iowa.

THE HEAT AND COLD RIDE THE TOBOGGAN

MERCURY GOES UP AND DOWN AT GREAT PACE.

DEATHS FOLLOW EXTREMES

Whole West Has Had a Novel Hot Weather Experience for Several Days.

Chicago, Ill., June 5.—Swept by a torrid heat wave, which left three victims in its wake, Chicago Sunday passed through the hottest June 4 in its history and at bedtime was shivering with the cold.

The remarkable gyration of the heat wave started at 5 a. m., with the temperature standing at 65. At noon the mercury had jumped to 82 and at 4 p. m. to 95.3, five degrees hotter than any June 4 on record and one degree warmer than any day so far this year.

The mercury fairly tobogganed back in its tracks after the four-hour heat wave, which left the city's inhabitants sweltering and gasping for breath. In the six hours between 4 and 10 p. m. a drop of 31.3 degrees took place, the thermometer standing at 64.

Chicago's heat wave was but a taste of what the whole West and Southwest have been undergoing for several days. The heat was dry and burning.

Nashville, Tenn., and Phoenix, Ariz., tied for high places in the heat record, with 100 degrees. At 7 o'clock the mercury was still at 98 at Phoenix and 92 at Nashville, Springfield and Cairo, Ill.; Atlanta, Ga., and Montgomery, Ala., tied for second place, with 98 degrees.

Omaha, St. Louis, Kansas City, Des Moines and Keokuk had temperatures of 96 degrees. Northern Wisconsin and most of Michigan had heavy rains.

"Red" Lopez Is Dead.

Cananea, Mexico: "Red" Lopez, ordered imprisoned by Francisco I. Madero, Jr., on the charge that he had "sold out" to American interests while in command of a section of the insurrecto garrison at Agua Prieta, has been put to death. Lopez was being conveyed here to serve an eight-year sentence imposed by a court-martial. Conflicting stories are told by the guard which was accompanying Lopez. One is that the former insurrecto leader had been shot while attempting to escape; another that he pleaded to be executed rather than taken to prison. It is alleged also that Lopez had confessed to having received $4,000 for the surrender of Agua Prieta to the Fed erals.

Harmon Ready for Fray.

Cincinnati: Gov. Judson Harmon has openly declared war on William Jennings Bryan and Gov. Woodrow Wilson. Saturday afternoon he gave out an interview by Lieut. Gov. Hugh L. Nichols in which he stated that since Bryan and Wilson prefer to fight, he will spare neither one in his speeches. Nichols is the director general of Harmon's Presidential aspirations. He also said Harmon's Presidential booming offices in Cincinnati will be enlarged and that he will personally have charge of these offices.

Engaged Couple and Others Drown.

Salt Lake City: Six people were drowned in Utah Lake Sunday when a launch on which sixteen people were attending a party given in honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Vera Brown and Edward B. Holmes, capsized. Among the drowned were the prospective bride and groom, and two children of Capt. Frank Brown, owner of the launch.

An Echo from the Post.

New York: Gen. Tom Thumb's coach of state is for sale and the public may have the opportunity of competing for this relic of the greatest dwarf who ever lived. It was presented to him by Queen Victoria in 1854, when he was visiting in England and making his peregrinations before the crowned heads. Many Americans remember this diminutive coach as an attraction at the Barnum shows.

Business So Good Tour Deferred.

New York: The 1911 Glidden tour to have started at Washington June 21, has been postponed until autumn. Numerous automobile manufacturers reported they had sold their output of the 1911 model. Rules of the tour require each entry to be a car of which there are at least twenty-five similar ones in stock. The manufacturers said they would not be able to make up the requisite number of model cars for several months.

Stamford Carnegie library will be formally opened on June 22.

The ONLOOKER by WHELAN D. NESBIT

Ladies will pass a sound resembling a Salome kiss.

The horse is a contrary brute. You may attire yourself perfectly for driving, from gloves to shoes, and may hold the whip at the exact angle prescribed in the statutes in such cases made and provided, and still the animal will casually nibble the foliage along the way and will carelessly attempt to climb fences or telephone poles.

And when you have concluded that it is mad, the boy from the livery stable will come, with his blue jumper and his chew of tobacco, bump to the seat, grab the reins and advise the animal to g'lang. It will instantly g'lang at a Maud S. pace.

Driving a horse is more of an accomplishment than an attainment.

Hopeless Ambition.

They seek Washington in his library at the close of his second term and urge upon him that he stand for a third election.

"No, gentlemen," he tells them. "It is a proud compliment you pay me, and any man, no matter how advanced in years, or how pleasant his circumstances, would be hesitant to decline the nomination, but I realize that it is useless to keep on being re-elected."

"Why general, you could be elected president every time, as long as you like," broke in one of the patriots.

"I know, but do you realize that I should have to serve 25 or 30 terms before I could have the honor of being nominated in Chicago? What's the use of waiting?"
