$30.00 Per Acre Profit Made on 20 Acres

Notwithstanding This Has Been A Hard Year, B. T. Biggs Clears $600 Profit on Farm

B. T. Biggs, who is not only a real estate dealer and trader, but a farmer as well, and a good one at that, reports that from a 20-acre patch, fifteen acres of which is in alfalfa and five in cotton, he this year cleared on the rents alone, after all charges for water had been paid, just $600.

This brings the profits to Mr. Biggs, after the water has been paid for, for rents alone to $30 per acre. This has been an exceptionally hard year on irrigation farmers from the fact that they have been short on water almost all the year.

Even $30 per acre is not so bad for a rental income. Just think what the renter must have made for his labor—$90 per acre, or enough to buy some of the best farms in the county.

Reeves is not such a bad farming county, after all, and if you are not satisfied with your lot, depending upon rainfall, better get a move on you and come to Reeves county, where there are no absolute crop failures.

Come to Reeves and buy an irrigated farm.

Biggest Cattle and Ranch Sale in Years

W. D. Cowan & Sons Purchase Joe P. Seay's Cattle and Lease Range at Private Terms. Hollebeke Sells

W. D. Cowan & Sons this week closed a deal with Joe P. Seay for his cattle and ranch. The cattle were bought outright and a five year lease secured on the ranch.

This ranch is located west of Toyah, partly in Reeves and partly in Culbertson counties, and is one of the finest ranches in West Texas.

The cattle on the Seay ranch are of the best graded white faced stuff and the ranch, containing many sections of land, is well watered and the recent rains have made the grass fairly good. The consideration is private.

Collier & Love this week purchased the P. V. Hollebeke ranch and cattle, just this side of the Guadalupe mountains, in the Oria country. This is a splendid ranch and the rains have made the grass fine. This purchase was made necessary in order to obtain grass for the Collier & Love herds which have suffered greatly on account of the drouth on their ranges, and it is believed to be much cheaper and more satisfactory to buy the ranch and cattle than try to secure the grass and pay the price asked.

Of course, there are drouths in West Texas, the same as everywhere else, but regardless of this there is no better stock country in Texas than this section, and the fact that the older cowmen of the country are still buying shows their faith in the country. They have all made and lost money, but those who have stayed with the game are all satisfied and growing steadily in wealth.

Football and Basketball Next Saturday

Purple and Gold of Pecos Will Make Strenuous Effort to Offset Defeat at Hands of Midland Last Year

When the last whistle blew on that memorable Thanksgiving day one year ago, the Purple and Gold were marching triumphantly down the gridiron for a coveted touchdown, amid the cheers of hundreds of loyal and enthusiastic rooters. Those who desire to see the struggle renewed and the longed-for touchdown made will have their wishes gratified next Saturday, when the Pecos High School football team clashes with the venerable (and last year invulnerable) Midland College team.

We have always found Midland College a foe worthy of our mettle. Her worthiness was demonstrated last year by a victory of 56 to 0. They won because they were the better team; so all recriminations are in vain. The Purple and Gold fought them to the last trench and went down to defeat still fighting. But if the writer reads the signs of the times correctly, when the last whistle has blown and the dust has settled upon the gridiron next Saturday, the laurel wreath of victory will rest upon the brows of the Pecos High School gladiators.

Next Saturday's game will be the greatest gridiron classic that has ever been staged in Pecos. The game will be stubbornly fought from beginning to end. The High School team has the material and fighting spirit that will prove invincible next Saturday. Some 25 or 30 huskies have been preparing daily for the fray, under the efficient tutelage of "Hurry-Up" McCasland. The team is showing wonderful form and Mr. McCasland has succeeded in developing a machine with great driving and plunging power, which seems capable of crushing all opposition.

Several of last year's stars will be seen in the line-up. The aggressive and deadly-tackling Jim Prewitt will be seen carrying the ball for many yards' gain. Forward passing Jones, the plunging full back, Burette Hefner and his brother Wycliff Hefner, the sturdy tackle; and Walter Ruhlen, the invincible center, will be seen in action. With these great football stars of last year's team as a nucleus, and the wealth of new material the Pecos High School eleven bids fair to win in Saturday's game.

A game of basketball will be played between the Midland College girls and the Pecos High School girls, and an interesting game is promised.

Residence of Jim Payne Destroyed

Defective Flue Causes Total Loss of New Home. Alarm Sounded Too Late to Save Contents

Fire destroyed the beautiful new home of Jim Payne just to the south of the city yesterday morning at about 6:30 o'clock. After the fire alarm sounded the fire boys and citizens of the town rushed to the scene. The first arrivals found the entire top of the back part of the house in flames, and as there was no water accessible, the fire boys could do no work with water. The chemical engine was brought into service, however, to save the ice cream house and some of the fencing.

The residence and contents were practically a total loss, as only a few pieces of furniture and very little clothing were saved.

At the time of the fire it is understood that Jim Payne was out in the country. In all probability the fire caught from a defective flue.

The house was insured for $12,000, but that is a small portion of the loss.

This is the supremely important Duty of the hour. Surely those whose hearts beat in sympathy with our ideals of Liberty, Honor and Righteousness, need little urging to be present at these meetings.

All are invited—men women and children—and all are equally interested. Your country has never failed you. Woe to him or her who fails the country in its hour of need. Your fellow-citizens are watching you!

$224.51 Paid for One Bale of Cotton is Probably Highest Price Paid for A Single Bale in This Section. No Premiums included in Figures

The Balmorhea Land & Cattle Co. brought in five bales of cotton Wednesday which was sold to O. J. Green for the neat sum of $720.46. The seed from this cotton netted the owners $162.10, making a total of $882.56.

O. J. Green also bought from these people one bale of cotton weighing 715 pounds, for which he paid $185.90. The seed from this bale weighed 1287 pounds which were also sold to Green for $38.61, making a total of $224.51 for this single bale of cotton.

This is probably the highest ever paid for a single bale of cotton in this county, straight for cash, and not including premiums.

Let the man come forward who now has the nerve to say that cotton is not King.

WAKE UP AMERICA

We are at war---and you are acting as though we were at peace.

War is a contest of sacrifice---the country that sacrifices most will win.

Our allies are heaping upon the altar of freedom half of their incomes and savings of years.

Our enemy is bankrupting himself, starving himself, offering, in his frenzy of effort, his children and his old men to the god of battle.

No power can stay a German victory but sacrifice---real sacrifice---on your part.

The country that has acted as a father to you, the boys who are fighting for you, and have the right to be considered as your sons, are calling your better self for help in their hour of trial.

The man who says "I can do better with my money," may speak the truth, but he is a traitor who sells his moral rights to American citizenship for a few dollars.

Your country, your boys in France, your fellow citizens, your God, and your conscience are calling.

PRESIDENT PROCLAIMS OCT. 24TH LIBERTY DAY

Washington, Oct. 14.—President Wilson in behalf of the Liberty Loan, tonight issued a proclamation setting aside October 24th as Liberty Day, and urging the people of the Nation to assemble on that day and "pledge to one another and to the government that represents them the fullest measure of financial support."

"Let the result be so impressive and emphatic," the President urges, "that it will echo throughout the empire of our enemy as an index of what America intends to do to bring this war to a victorious conclusion."

The President's proclamation follows:

"By the President of the United States of America:

"The second Liberty Loan gives the people of the United States another opportunity to lend their funds to their government to sustain their country at war.

"The might of the United States is being mobilized and organized to strike a mortal blow at autocracy in defense of outraged American rights and of the cause of liberty. Billions of dollars are required to arm, clothe and feed the brave men who are going forth to fight our country's battles, and to assist the nations with whom we are making common cause against a common foe. To subscribe to the Liberty Loan is to perform a service of patriotism.

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do appoint Wednesday, the 24th day of October, as Liberty Day, and urge and advise the people to assemble in their respective communities and pledge to one another and to the government that represents them the fullest measure of financial support. On the afternoon of that day I request that patriotic meetings be held in every city, town and hamlet throughout the land, under the general direction of the Secretary of the Treasury and the immediate direction of the Liberty Loan committees which have been organized by the Federal Reserve Banks. The people responded nobly to the call of the first Liberty Loan with an oversubscription of more than 50 per cent. Let the response to the second be even greater and let the amount be so large that it will serve as an assurance of unequalled support to hearten the men who are to face the fire of battle for us. Let the result be so impressive and emphatic that it will echo throughout the empire of our enemy as an index of what America intends to do to bring this war to a victorious conclusion.

"For the purpose of participating in Liberty Day celebrations all employees of the Federal Government throughout the country whose services can be spared, may be excused at 12 o'clock Wednesday, October 24.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done in the District of Columbia, this 12th day of October, in the year of Our Lord, 1917, and of the Independence of the United States of America the 42nd.

YES! LIFT A CORN OFF WITHOUT PAIN!

Cincinnati authority tells how to dry up a corn or callus so it lifts off with fingers

You corn-pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezone applied directly on an aching, tender corn or callus stops soreness at once and soon the corn or hardened callus loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without pain.

A small bottle of freezone costs very little at any drug store, but will positively take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to irritate the surrounding skin.

If your druggist hasn't any freezone tell him to get a small bottle for you at his wholesale drug house. It is fine stuff and acts like a charm every time.—Advt.

IF THE COMMUNITY THRIVE

No community can prosper or become a desirable place in which to live unless there be a few of its citizens who are willing to give some of their time and money for the advancement of the things which are of general interest to the community. In every prosperous, happy, inviting community there must be at least a few who will give of their time and money for the improvement of the public school, the roads, the cemeteries, the churches, the social conditions and the public health. Take any community in the world, whose citizenship gives no attention to these matters and you will find a community to which no good people will move, and from which every progressive family would like to depart. Isn't this the God's truth?—Troup Banner.

THE TEST OF STEEL

Brutus is credited with having said of his action in stabbing Julius Caesar "Not that I loved Caesar the less, but that I loved Rome more." He explained his action further by saying that as a friend he loved Caesar, but as he believed Caesar to be an enemy of the State, he slew him.

The true American of German descent does not love the German people less, but he loves America more.

The test of a man's greatness is his devotion to his duty. The Judge who sentences a man to death does not look with pleasure and satisfaction upon the blanched face of the criminal. The thought of the culprit's wife and children, the seriousness of sending a man upon a journey through the unknown affords no pleasant reflections. The action, too, is taken in cold blood, after mature reflection, it may be after sleepless nights. The Judge does not swerve, however. Duty is clear.

The American of German origin, like the Judge, has heard the evidence in America versus Germany. Evidence has been presented so convincing, so overwhelming of a great wrong perpetrated upon a long suffering people, that the decision must be made, the verdict passed, and the sentence carried out—even though it be one of death to the accused.

The American of German descent is not asked to indulge in vulgar abuse of the race that gave him birth. It was reluctantly and regretfully that the American Nation entered the war, and reluctantly does the American of German descent take the same course.

The Great Teacher of Humanity has told us that if our eye offends us we should pluck it out; if our hand offend us we should cut it off. Figurative language, but most applicable to the present situation.

Loyalty to an adopted country is more binding than to the Country of our birth. The latter condition of birth is accidental, the former a deliberate assumed duty.

Your fellow-citizens are paying especial attention to your attitude, and your actions in these days of the Second Liberty Loan. They realize that your Americanism is on trial. ACT, that they may judge as to what kind of men you are. You do not have to talk, but with dignity place upon record the purchase of a Liberty Bond to the very limit of your financial ability.

Many of our business men are showing the proper spirit in pushing the sale of the 2nd Liberty Loan Bonds. Note their advertisements in The Enterprise. Each and every one is paying for the space at the regular rates. This shows who is who and those that are really behind the government and the boys at the front with not only their good wishes but their money as well. Last week the Pecos Valley State Bank had a large space advertising these bonds, but this week they are occupying a still larger space. Showing some public spirit, eh?

Liberty Bonds are sold on the installment plan, with a payment of 2 per cent at time of purchase, 18 per cent on November 15th, 40 per cent on December 15th, and 40 per cent on January 15th. You can pay in full at the time of application for any bond up to the value of $1000 is you wish. Buy today. Interest on these bonds is 4 per cent, payable on May 15th, and November 15th.

It has been proposed to postpone the investigation of the State government from November 1 to January 1, but Hon. W. M. Fly, chairman of the House investigating committee, is opposed to the postponement. There is no good reason for putting it off beyond the 1st of November. "Do it now" is chairman Fly's motto.

Governor Hobby has appointed 103 delegates to represent Texas at the ninth annual convention of the Southern Commercial Congress at New York City, October 16th to 17th. Among the list is the name of F. W. Johnson of Pecos. Mr. Johnson is a booster from the word go and has never been a "slacker" at any time—he never will be.

The Enterprise this week printed 2,600 hangers advertising Turkey Day for Pecos. This big event will be pulled off on Tuesday, November 20. There are valuable premiums being offered by our merchants and the top market price is assured. Better get your turkeys ready and bring them along on that day.

Hon. W. G. McAdoo, secretary of the U. S. Treasury, is coming to Texas to speak in the interest of the Liberty Loan, and will make his first speech at Dallas next Sunday morning.

President Wilson has issued a call for the mobilization of 3 billion dollars in gold to be used as a reserve fund, and has asked the banks of the country to supply the gold.

It begins to look as if Germany will get no more eats from this country, for a time at least, and neutrals will get only a small portion as long as the war continues.

What are you knitting, pretty maid? She purred as she dropped a stitch: A sock or a sweater, sir, she said; But blamed if I know which.

The patriot's credentials—a Liberty Loan Bond. Got yours?

HARVEY WILSON KILLED IN AUTO WRECK NEAR EL PASO

From the El Paso Times we clip the following in regard to the death of Harvey Wilson, who for several years was a resident of Balmorhea:

Harvey Wilson died Saturday afternoon at the Rolston hospital from injuries sustained early Saturday morning when a motor car which he was driving for the Lewis Service Station, 416 Mesa Avenue, turned over on the Ysleta road. Three men, whose names are not known, are supposed to have been in the car when it went into the ditch. The men rented the car by the hour Friday night, but whether they were with Wilson when a bolt came out of the steering wheel, causing the wheels to turn in and the car to overturn, could not be learned by the management of the station for which the chauffeur worked.

W. E. Hewitt, 214 West Rio Grande street was riding toward Ysleta in a jitne bus, driven by H. Valdez, 2202 Magoffin avenue, when he came upon the overturned car by the roadside. The two men removed Wilson from beneath the machine and rushed him to the emergency hospital at police headquarters from where he was taken to the Rolston hospital. Wilson was injured internally besides sustaining a broken back and a fractured skull.

Relatives of Wilson from Reeves county will probably arrive in El Paso Sunday to arrange for the funeral.

The father and mother of Mr. Wilson left Saturday for El Paso, and had the remains shipped to Toyah and from there to the family home at Balmorhea, where they were laid to rest.

Harvey Wilson had gone to El Paso but a few months and secured a position as driver of a motor car, and was thus engaged when he met his death. The Enterprise extends sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

THE RED CROSS NEEDS YOUR HELP

The Red Cross Chapter of Pecos met in the club room of the library on the afternoon of October 4th, in an important business session.

It was with much regret that the resignation of Mrs. Willie-de Woods King had to be accepted. She has so ably filled the chair and, being the instigator of Red Cross work among us, the Chapter feels at a great loss without her assistance. She awaits a call at any time to further fill her duties for the Red Cross at the front.

The election of officers for the Pecos Chapter resulted in the following being named:

Mrs. J. W. Moore, chairman of the Chapter; Mrs. J. Y. Leavell, vice-chairman; Mrs. Wm. Garlick, treasurer; Mrs. H. N. Lusk, secretary; Mrs. H. H. Johnson, reporter.

The Chapter meets on each Thursday at 3 o'clock p. m., at the library, and those who do not serve in any other club, or if you do, and can help on this day too, are earnestly requested to do your bit with us. We need your help. If you can't sew, surely you can knit. A recent call from Red Cross headquarters in France, from Major Murphy, a member of General Pershing's staff, says to begin shipping at once one and one-half million each of knitted mufflers, sweaters, socks, and wristlets. In view of the shortage of fuel and the coming of winter with its intense cold, you are urged on behalf of our soldiers and those of our allies to do something to help. They are doing so much to help you.

It is the desire of the Chapter that they have the address of every one of our noble Reeves County boys who have laid aside their work and professions, left their loved ones to serve in any form, "Our Country." We request those who have the addresses of our boys to send them immediately to our chairman of the "Remembrance Committee, Mrs. J. F. Ross, Pecos, Texas.

We wish to furnish the public a complete list of the names and addresses as soon as possible.

The Christmas work was fully discussed. We must not neglect our boys at that time. Christmas packages must leave for France by the middle of November. All work along this line must be considered NOW.

The main point is that each and every one do something, and DO IT NOW! If you cannot sew or knit there are many ways, you can give a dollar or a dime—there are scores of ways to help through the Red Cross.

The Euterpean, Twentieth Century and the Merry Wives Clubs have laid aside their year's book of study, and are devoting their club days to sewing for the Red Cross.

The Chapter wishes to thank all for their hearty cooperation and the following for their generous donations:

Mr. Miller, 5 machines for sewing for Chapter.

Mrs. Sid Kyle, 1 bolt of outing.

Miss Lillian Poe, $.50 for sewing goods.

Pecos Drug Co., Talcum for all the comfort bags.

Pecos Mercantile Co., dry goods department, soap for all the comfort bags.

Baptist Ladies Aid Society, testaments for all our boys.

Meet with us next Thursday. REPORTER FOR RED CROSS.

A CORRECTION

In the write-up of Mrs. Ward's birthday anniversary last week The Enterprise stated that Mrs. H. H. Johnson with Mrs. Beulah Wilson and Mrs. T. J. Hefner entertained in honor of Mrs. Ward. It should have been Mrs. R. S. Johnson instead of Mrs. H. H. Johnson, so the latter informs The Enterprise.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

On last Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sparman entertained with a dinner, the occasion honoring the 30th birthday of the head of the family Mr. Sparman. A few intimate friends of these good people were invited to make merry with them, being Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, and Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Moran.

The dinner was served family style and was a most beautiful one, culminating with the cutting of the birthday cake. It was proposed that the guests each blow out one of the candles which adorned the cake, at the same time making a wish for the future happiness of the honoree, but Mrs. Phillips, who was first at the bat, blew such a blow that she extinguished all the candles, so there was nothing left for the other but to eat the cake, and wish it had been larger.

AGED MEXICAN DIES

Pablo Ralles, aged father of Moise Ralles, who left with the last bunch for Camp Travis, died at his home in Pecos Monday. He is said to have been one of the best Mexicans in Reeves County.

Doings at Saragosa

Rev. C. A. Dickson, having sold his stock and leased his ranch, has moved from Carmel to Saragosa and has purchased the residence recently owned by Mrs. W. T. Wheat. He is now having an additional two rooms built, which will add much to its appearance and give much more room.

J. W. Wilson, an old and highly respected citizen of the Borillo country, died at his home last Tuesday, and the remains were brought to the home of his son, Neil, in Saragosa, on Thursday morning, where funeral services were held, being conducted by Rev. C. A. Dickson, his former pastor. Interment was in the cemetery at Saragosa.

While Misses Maggie Williams and Katherine Erwin were returning from school at Balmorhea last Thursday, the auto in which they were riding overturned in some way, but they fortunately escaped injury.

H. Robbins was a passenger on the early train Saturday, for Pecos.

Mrs. J. W. Goode came out from Pecos Thursday evening for a visit with the home folks.

Mr. Metzger and son, and A. T. Albright, of Carmel, were here last Friday on a business trip.

Mr. Nunn of Cross Plains, was here last week. He has a few sections of land near Carmel.

Several from Saragosa attended the funeral of Harvey Wilson at Balmorhea Monday.

Mrs. W. C. Fullilove of Snyder, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Waskom.

Mrs. Jesse Williams went to Pecos Monday.

BUCK WON'T LEAVE PECOS

If any of our readers gained the impression from reading the article in last week's issue, that J. A. Buck was about to quit Pecos and become a farmer in eastern Texas, we wish to quickly disillusion them. In an interview with that disciple of Blackstone, this week, he stated that he has not the faintest idea of leaving Pecos. It's true that he is going in for farming on an extensive scale, but this phase of his life's work will be carried on by proxy, which means he will let the other fellow do the work. Buck is one of our best lawyers, and we are glad to report the fact that he has no intention of leaving Pecos.

STATE SUPERINTENDENT DOUGHTY HERE SATURDAY

On next Saturday Pecos is to have the honor and pleasure of entertaining State Superintendent of Public Instruction, W. F. Doughty. As this is the first time we have been thus honored, it is to be hoped that a large representative body of citizens will attend the reception to be tendered Mr. Doughty in the auditorium of the High School building. As a state, Texas has been peculiarly fortunate in having a long line of able men as State Superintendents of Instruction; it can be safely said that we have never had a more competent and self-sacrificing official than Mr. Doughty in this office. He has refused many tempting offers of positions which paid a more remunerative salary and carried with them as much of honor as the one he now holds, simply because he has felt that his great work in Texas was not yet completed. He is universally loved and trusted by the teachers of the State.

The following brief program will be rendered at the High School at ten o'clock Saturday morning: Song, "Your Flag and My Flag," by the High School.

Address on the part of the county schools, by Judge Jas. F. Ross. Welcome from the Pecos Valley Commercial Club, by T. Y. Casey.

Responding for the local school board, W. A. Hudson, President. Address, Hon. W. F. Doughty. Song, "You Can't Guess What He Wrote on My Slate," Floy Vickers. Memory Gem, High School. Music, High School Sextette.

The Domestic Science Department will serve luncheon in the dining room, the girls of the Senior Class acting as hostesses. A special invitation is issued to all trustees and teachers of the county and neighboring counties to be present and hear Mr. Doughty.

Respectfully,
T. J. YOBE.

GRANDMA KISER PASSES AWAY

At eight o'clock a. m. on Tuesday, October 16th, 1917, Mrs. Ellen Kiser, mother of our fire chief, E. B. Kiser, died suddenly at the family home in North Pecos. She had not been well since Sunday, but was not thought to be in a critical condition. She was on her feet a few moments before her death. She had lain down and had dropped off to sleep and quietly, without a struggle, she ceased to breathe.

"Grandma" was approaching her 77th birthday, having been born in Kentucky, December, 1840. She was the widow of Enoch Kiser, who resided here some years ago, but later moved to Tatum, N. M., where he died some five or six years ago. The wife came back to Pecos and has made her home with her son, Edgar, caring as best she could for his three daughters. She was the mother of nine children, four of whom are living, two sons and two daughters.

Mrs. Kiser became a Christian in early life and, at the time of her death was a member of the Church of Christ in Pecos.

The funeral services were conducted from the home Tuesday evening, at five o'clock, by Homer L. Magee, and the remains were laid to rest in Fairview.

The sympathy of the entire community is extended to the son and granddaughters, and also to the other children and relatives who were not able to be present.

BRISBANE TELLS HOW TO WRITE

A young lady named Hazel who acknowledges that she has passed twenty-two years on earth, wrote to Arthur Brisbane, editor of the New York Evening Journal, asking advice on how to write. This is Mr. Brisbane's reply:

A young lady writes that she is 22 years old, her name is Hazel, and she would like to become a writer and wants advice. Here's a little of it:

Young Miss Hazel says: "I suppose you get a great many letters from people who feel that they would like to take up newspaper work. I want to do something, but don't know exactly how to go about it."

Here is an answer which ought to be better:

Dear Young Creature:

We feel as sorry for you as for a yellow, fluffy, new-born chick that we once saw walking across an ocean of white eggs in an incubator, not one of her little brothers or sisters had yet hatched to keep her company. We thought "what a hard life you are going to have, poor little chick, scratching, struggling; later laying eggs and having them taken away from you; wanting to set, and forbidden to set, at last ending in the frying pan. As we felt about that chick, starting so courageously across the ocean of white eggs, we feel about any young woman trying to earn a living by writing, or in any other way.

Writing is not easy, and not pleasant work. Wanting to write does not mean that you can write or ever will be able to write in a fashion worth while. On the contrary, those who can write often hate to do it, because they do it with intensity, and intense hard work is unpleasant.

Try to arrange earning a living in a way that is not exhausting, physically or mentally.

After working hours practice writing. Try to write for the public exactly as you would write a letter to your mother, with a little more concentrated attention. Do not write it as though you were posing for your photograph at Niagara Falls with your new husband. Be natural, relaxed. You might practice on editors of papers. Address your letter "To the Editor of such and such, an editorial."

Begin, of course, by saying that he is perfectly wonderful. That will get his attention. Then add something of your own from a woman's point of view. If he throws it in the wastebasket in spite of the fact that it contains a compliment for him--you may be quite sure it wasn't worth printing.

Whatever you do, if you think you are going to make a writer, WRITE EVERY DAY A GREAT DEAL.

When you see a man laying bricks with great ease, it means he has laid many bricks before you saw him.

So it is with writing. It is more of a trade than an inspiration, except in the case of the great geniuses--and you can count them on the toes of one foot--men like Shakespeare, that produced perfect work, as a hen that lays an egg, not knowing how.

You will find in the beginning, of course, that thinking earnestly makes it hard for you to write, and writing makes it hard for you to think. Little by little you will do both at the same time, the quality depending on what you have inside your young head.

Remember that the old things that everybody knows are the most important--old emotions, old virtues, old vices.

The writing of stories is at present not a profitable one.

ceed. And it is possible in fiction to preach good sermons and do useful work, which is probably what you, being so young, have in mind.

The art of writing is "seeing a thing clearly and describing it simply," whether you see a man fall from a fourteenth story window and light on his head, or see a thought coming to life in your own brain, and describe it as it shapes itself.

Say to yourself, "I will put into words just how a human being feels under certain conditions; for instance under the influence of jealousy." You may never be able to write about it from experience.

Try to imagine what it is like, then write how YOU think a jealous man or a jealous woman would feel.

For instance, take these two extracts, one from Shakespeare one from Byron:

I had rather be a toad
And live upon the vapour of a dungeon
Than keep a corner in the thing I love
For others' uses.
--Othello, Act 3, Scene 3.

It is as if the dead could feel
The icy worm around them steal,
And shudder, as the reptiles creep
To revel o'er their rotting sleep,
Without the power to scare away
The cold consumers of their clay!
The Glaur--Lord Byron.

Read these two quotations slowly and then read your own; don't be discouraged if yours is not the best of the three.

Bear in mind the saying: "To convince others, be yourself convinced." Try to write always in serious mood. Say to yourself: "I am one of fifteen hundred million ghosts that live on this planet, walking around for a few minutes in a dress made of flesh, blood and bones and nerves. And I am going to use my ghostly brain to be of use to the other poor ghosts, making mistakes and wondering what to do."

RATES FOR INSURING SOLDIERS IS ANNOUNCED

Washington, D. C. Oct 14.—Samples of the insurance policy the government will write for its soldiers and sailors were made public tonight by the War Risk Insurance Bureau of the Treasury Department. Plans for the placing of the policies in effect will be outlined here next Tuesday at a conference of the treasury officials with representatives of the navy and officers and enlisted men at thirty-two cantonments.

Details of the policy disclose that risks will be written upon the lives of men and women between the ages of 15 and 65 in all branches of the army, navy, marine corps, coast guard, naval reserve, national naval volunteers, nurses "and many other branches of the United States service serving with the army and navy." Announcement was also made that "rates at ages higher or lower will be given upon request."

Premiums computed on a monthly basis vary between 63 cents per $1000 at the age of 15 to $3.35 per $100 at the age of 65. Between 21 and 31 years the following monthly premiums will be charged per $100 of insurance (the limit being $10,000):

21 to 23 inclusive, 65c; 24 to 25, 66c; 26 and 27, 67c; 28, 68c; 29, and 30, 69c; 31, 70c.

During the periods of total disability the insurance will be paid, not in one lump sum, but monthly for twenty years, should the disability continue for that period. Should death occur before twenty years the remainder of the policy will be paid at once to the beneficiary.

Provision is made for family allowances, for wounded and cripples, for compensation in case of death or injury without cost and for the additional protection of insurance at cost.

In cases of partial disability the amount of compensation is determined by a schedule to be based upon the extent of the impairment or earning capacity. Total disability payments are to be increased above the figures named in the policy where the insured has dependents.

"Where the injury or disease is caused by the willful misconduct of the man," the policy reads, "compensation will not be paid."

The policies will be issued in multiples of $500. No policy, however, to be issued for less than $1000.

LEMONS BEAUTIFY AND WHITEN THE SKIN.

Make This Beauty Lotion Very Cheaply For Your Face, Arms and Hands.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quarter pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice thru a fine cloth so that no pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, and hands. It is marvelous to smoothen red, rough hands.—Advt.

The venerable old axiom that all that goes up has to come down is in serious danger of being contradicted in the case of the food prices.

A Letter From Washington The Food Administrator Writes Us: "The use of baking powder breads made of corn and other coarse flours instead of patent wheat flour is recommended by the Conservation Division of the Food Administration. The wheat needed for export is thus conserved, and at the same time healthful food for our own people is provided. The circulation of recipes providing for these uses would be of assistance in carrying out our plans." The following recipes for Corn Bread and Rye Rolls save wheat flour and make attractive and wholesome food for every day when made with DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER CORN BREAD RYE ROLLS

MAIL CHRISTMAS GIFTS EARLY TO U. S. SOLDIERS IN FRANCE

Christmas packages for members of the American expeditionary forces in France should not be mailed later than November 15 if they are expected to reach their destination by December 25. Bulletins issued by the Postmaster General at Washington, calling attention to the mailing date and telling what articles may be sent to the men in the trenches have been received at the Pecos postoffice.

The principal articles classed as unmailable are intoxicants of all kinds, poisons, inflammable materials, including friction matches or compositions which may damage the mails. Perishable matter will be accepted, but nothing should be sent that will deteriorate within six weeks.

Special care should be taken that all packages are securely wrapped to withstand rough handling. As all of the packages will be inspected before being loaded on mail vessels, it is requested that they be wrapped and tied so as to admit of inspection.

All packages must be fully and legibly addressed and conspicuously marked "Christmas mail". The addressee's company, regiment or the organization to which he belongs, followed by the words, "American Expeditionary Forces," should be written on the packages. In the upper left-hand corner the name and address of the sender should be placed. No kind of stickers should be placed on the addressed side of the package. The cost of postage in most instances will be one pound of friction of a pound.

CALOMEL DYNAMITES A SLUGGISH LIVER

Crashes Into Sour Bile, Making You Sick and You Lose A Day's Work

Calomel Salvates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nouseated tomorrow; besides it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to the children; they like it.
