Proclamation by the President of the U. S.

Bakers, Hotels, Restaurants, and Others Using Over 10 Barrels of Flour A Month, Must Get License

By the President of the United States of America.—A proclamation:

Whereas, under and by virtue of an act of Congress entitled "An act to provide further for the national security and defense by encouraging the production, conserving the supply and controlling the distribution of food products and fuel," approved by the President on the 10th day of August, 1917, it is provided among other things, as follows:

"That by reason of the existence of a state of war it is essential to the national security and defense, for the successful prosecution of the war and for the support and maintenance of the Army and Navy, to assure an adequate supply and equitable distribution, and to facilitate the movement of foods, feeds, fuel, including fuel oil and natural gas, and fertilizer and fertilizer ingredients, tools, and utensils, implements, machinery and equipment required for the actual production of foods, feeds, and fuel, and hereinafter in this act called necessities; and to prevent local or general scarcity, monopolization, hoarding, injurious speculation, manipulations, and private controls, affecting such supply, distribution, and movement; and to establish and maintain governmental control of such necessities during the war. Our Soldiers' Health Has First Thought

Eternal Vigilance is Observed to This End, and the Minutest Sanitary Law is Stringently Enforced

No one knows better than General Allen, commanding the 90th Division of the National Army, at Camp Travis, that an efficient army is an army composed of soldiers who are in good health. Those who have sent members of their respective families to compose this great division can have no more comforting thought than that everything that modern science, eternal vigilance and constant watchfulness can do is being done to keep the soldiers at Camp Travis strong in body and in the best of health.

In no line of endeavor is the motto "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty" applied with a greater energy than at Camp Travis. The 90th Division is like one great big family. Its efficiency as a fighting unit is impaired by each soldier in that unit who is sick. Not only to provide the greatest possible efficiency, but also to conserve the bodies of the soldiers for the future is one of the problems that has been brought to the attention of some of the foremost minds in the medical world, for the medical personnel now at Camp Travis is composed of physicians who have already earned their right to speak with authority upon matters of health, hygiene and sanitation.

Seized Cotton Seed Cake Ready for Cars

Food Administration Advises Cattle-men There Are 15,000 Tons Available to Fill Orders

Houston, Texas, Nov. 17.—Federal food administrator E. A. Peden has issued a statement relative to the disposition of cotton seed cake and meal, consigned to neutral countries, and held at gulf ports, which has recently been taken over by the Federal government and is to be used in affording relief for starving cattle in west and southwest sections of Texas.

The statement follows: "To the cattlemen of the drought area:

"The United States food administration at Washington advises having made available for the relief of cattle in the drought area 15,000 tons of cotton seed cake and meal, originally intended for export. Of this quantity, 2,821 tons, basis 41 per cent protein, were secured at $51.00 per ton, f. o. b. Galveston, in 200 pound sacks. The remainder was secured basis 43 per cent protein, at $53.50 per ton, f. o. b. Galveston, in 100 pound sacks, or $52.50 in 200 pound sacks. It is thought that most of it will be packed in 200 pound sacks.

"This cake is now being cracked, and sacked in Galveston, and will be ready for shipment at the rate of 400 tons per day, beginning November 19th.

"It is to be shipped into the drought area only. Orders for same should be forwarded by mail or telegraph, with bank guarantee. Terms, demand draft with bill of lading attached, to the Federal food administrator for Texas, Room 1110 Scanlan Building, Houston, Texas.

"The 41 per cent cake and meal will be in 200 pound sacks, at $51.00, but the 43 per cent protein product may be had either in 200 pound sacks at $52.50, or in bulk at $50.00.

"All of the above is upon basis price mutually agreed upon in Houston, Thursday, between cattlemen and the cotton seed crushers.

"Mr. R. F. Crow, assistant food administrator, and Mr. E. B. Spiller, secretary of the Texas Cattleman's Association will handle all orders, forwarding same to Galveston for shipment. As nearly as possible these orders will be executed in the same rotation in which they are received at Houston, but the Federal food administration will reserve the right to give priority to shipment to those territories where the distress condition of the cattle is most acute.

"Orders for shipment of cake direct from the cotton seed oil mills should be sent as far as possible, direct to the mills or through regular dealers and regular channels of trade, instead of being sent to the Federal food administrator. In other words, it is not intended that the customary channels of trade be unnecessarily interfered with or discouraged. On the contrary, the handling of this new cake should be done, as far as practicable, through the regularly established customary channels, care being taken to conform with the law and the rules and regulations promulgated by the Federal food administration.

"It should be borne in mind that a minimum carload of cake and meal is now thirty tons, and it is desired that all cars, if possible, be loaded to the maximum capacity, the conservation of cars, under existing conditions, being almost as essential as conservation of food.

"The railroads will cooperate in furnishing cars and hurrying shipments forward to drought-stricken area destination.

"Mr. J. H. Koefe, chairman of Galveston sectional committee, should be addressed direct by cattlemen and shippers, when cars cannot otherwise be promptly secured.

"E. A. PEDEN."

SIX AND ONE-HALF POUND BEET

Walter Whittenberg this week presented The Enterprise with a mammoth sugar beet, raised in his garden, with little care this season. The beet weighs 6 1/2 pounds and was raised on new ground, and is only additional evidence of the wealth of our soil in store for those who have the energy to sow and till same.

Many a man's failure is largely due to the fact that he failed.

British Smashing the Hindenburg Line

Surprise Germans and Advance Five Miles Playing Havoc With the Pride of the German Army

From the Dallas News we get the following account of the recent drive by the British:

The great Hindenburg defense line, upon which the German commander-in-chief had builded his hopes of holding the British from inroads into the open territory beyond has been smashed. And the task was apparently an easy one.

Attacking over a front of thirty-two miles, extending from the Scrape River east of Arras to St. Quentin, Field Marshal Haig, with his English, Irish, Scotch, and Welsh troops, has made one of the most rapid and spectacular drives of the present war, catching the Germans completely by surprise in the onslaught, capturing numerous positions which were regarded as impregnable and taking in addition thousands of prisoners and numerous guns. The depth of the advance is over five miles.

The apex of the offensive is apparently centered on the important railway junction of Cambrai, lying to the east of the old line midway between Arras and St. Quentin. Here, having taken the towns of Marcoing, Anneux, Graincourt and Noyelles, the victorious armies at last accounts were well within the ring of Cambrai, with its railroad lines and roadways branching out toward all the main points of the compass. Other towns taken include Benavis, La Vacyerie and Moeuvres. The last advices indicate that the British have not yet ceased their attack, but aided by monster tanks, which are leading the way, followed by cavalry, infantry, and machine gun detachments, are pressing forward for more conquest.

LIBERTY BOND OF FIRST ISSUE MAY BE EXCHANGED

Jack Love, of the Pecos Valley Bank, authorizes The Enterprise to state to those who hold interim certificates for the first issue of Liberty Bonds, that if they will bring them in the bank will have them exchanged for the second issue of Liberty Bonds free of cost. The Pecos Valley State Bank also proposes to take care of all interest due thereon, collecting same and placing it to your credit free of cost to you. NO HOPE HELD FOR MRS. BERRY

Mrs. Bertha Leo Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wilcox, who is critically ill in El Paso, was reported this morning as gradually sinking and growing weaker, with no hopes of her recovery. Her condition is the result of taking a tablet which she mistook for a headache medicine which she occasionally took for relief, the tablets being very similar.

The many friends of the family extend their sympathy and trust that a change for the better may occur.

NOTICE

Bids will be received by the City Council of the Town of Pecos City for the construction of a one-story fire station and office building, 40x60 feet, interlocking tile, cement floor. Plans and specifications can be secured from E. B. Kiser, at the present office of said town. Deposit of ten dollars required to guarantee return of plans and specifications.

Sealed bids will be opened at a meeting of said City Council to be held at 8 o'clock, p. m., on December 10th, 1917. Bids must be accompanied by certified check for five per cent of amount of bid to be forfeited in the event the bidder fails to make and file bond within twenty days after award or fails to sign specified contract. Any and all bids may be rejected.

Methodist Revival Drawing to a Close

Much Good Has Been Accomplished And Influence of Meeting Will Remain. Closes Sunday Night

The Methodist revival which has been in progress last week and this, will close Sunday night. Both Neal and Phillips have been doing faithful work during this time. Rev. Neal's sermons have been logical and convincing (at least they should have been convincing to those inclined to be convinced by good sound, logical reasoning) and intensely interesting.

Rev. Phillips, with the assistance of the choir has furnished a high class of music which has been enjoyed.

There will be no services Saturday, and on Sunday the meeting will close, and it is earnestly desired that all attend these remaining services, and give these men of God a crowded house at each service.

SCHOOL NOTES

"Alice in Wonderland" was the picture shown at the Pecos Opera House on the afternoon and evening of the seventeenth. It was brought here under the auspices of the High School, which was to receive half of the proceeds. After all expenses were paid the High School received about twenty-two dollars. Ten of this was given to the Red Cross.

The acting and setting of the picture was good, and the costumes were very effective, but owing to the nature of the story, and lack of plot, this picture was not so entertaining to the older people as it was to the children, who enjoyed it very much.

DORISSE JONES.

Current Events

The Pecos High School, like many other organizations of its kind, has arranged for the discussion of current events. Every Wednesday and Friday each pupil must have recent news to relate. The students are told to think, not of the minor happenings, but of the many important events that are now current. All are asked to subscribe for the "Independent" or "Literary Digest," two magazines well worth reading. Both of these papers mentioned will be used in connection with history and English work.

It is very essential that, at this time especially, we keep up with current news. More is happening today than ever before. At this time we ought to learn of events as they take place because of the wealth of knowledge that can be obtained. The students of this generation can help themselves as well as others by knowing the progress of the war. How much more important it is to learn the events that are taking place now than those of a thousand or so years back.

The High School fully realizes the necessity of keeping up with current events, so every person is making up his mind to help. Soon we will make good progress at the work.

SYBIL BOWIE.

The Organization of the High School.

The general plan or organization this year is to have a president of the High School, president and secretary of each class, a monitor from each grade, to serve one week, and the Students' Council.

The Students' Council is a new phase of school organization, but is used in universities, colleges and all good high schools. This student body is composed of two representatives, a girl and a boy, from each class, whose duty it is to meet with one of the teachers whenever it is necessary, to consider a matter of discipline, that is, all reports of misconduct on the part of any student; to receive and consider petitions and present them to the Board of Trustees. Concerning a matter of discipline, the case is put before the body by the superintendent, then each member writes his decision on a slip of paper, and hands it to the superintendent. They may be read aloud with the name, or names, of the offender before the High School, or the punishment may be carried out as the superintendent thinks best. Those elected by each class for the first half term are: 1st year, Woody Cowan and Alice Morrison; second year, Dorisse Jones and Hilliard Camp; third year, Jewell Cowan and Edward Warn; and fourth year, Hoyt Jones and Mabel Smith.

The president of the High School is Carrie Glover. The duties of this officer are to receive petitions and suggestions from the students and present such matter to the Students' Council. It is also her privilege to call the High School together to discuss any questions or important matters which may arise.

In the class organizations, those elected are: First year, Ruby Mae Bauchamp, president, Muriel Stocton, vice-president, Evelyn Slack, secretary. Second year, Walter Ruhlen, president, Gussie Richburg, vice-president, Mary McIlvain, secretary, and treasurer. Third year, Jim Prewit, president, Alice Hankins, secretary. Fourth year, Hoyt Jones, president, Wynne Goode, secretary.

A monitor, whose duty is to keep one study period a day for one week, is appointed by the superintendent.

Not only do we have High School organization, class organization, a judicial body, but also a literary organization, or the "Keeping-up Club." The officers of this organization are: Hoyt Jones, president, Novella Wilson, vice-president, Dorisse Jones, secretary.

CARRIE GLOVER.

The Basket Ball game between the Grammar grades and the High School resulted in a decisive victory for the High School team, the score being 22 to 4. The Grade team is furnishing our match team some good practice, and we expect to play "rings around" Midland on Thanksgiving Day, as we did in the last game.

IRENE PREWIT.

The "Keeping-Up Club."

The "Keeping-Up Club" is a literary club of the High school. It is organized under a president, Hoyt Jones, vice-president, Novella Wilson, secretary, Dorisse Jones. The club usually has its meetings on the last Friday in each month.

The work is divided among the classes. The first year class is to keep up with the events in Texas, and the latest inventions and discoveries; the second year is to keep up with the European war; the third year with England's part in the war; and the fourth year with events in the United States, and its part in the war. All of the classes are to keep up with the latest books.

We have planned to have at least two open sessions of the club during the year, so that the public may see what kind of work we are doing.

The program for this month will be postponed until the first Friday in December for various reasons. The program follows:

- Piano solo—Ora Pruett.
- Committee Appointed in the Last Legislature—Julia Magee.
- Recent Inventions,—Bert Ross and Leonard Lopoo.
- Chorus,—High School girls.
- Situation Along the Italian Front,—Hilliard Camp.
- Situation On Western Front,—Shelton Goode and Zara Sims.
- Labor Situation,—Novella Wilson and Mabel Smith.
- A Trip to Canterbury,—Juniors.
- Current Events,—High School.

The Great West

The sun flings down its scorching rays upon the level expanse of land covered by mesquite, cat-claw, and cactus. Adobe houses dot the plain every few miles. In the distance a chain of dust rises from the white strip called a road. The train pulls into the small town and puffs out again.

Rabbits lie under the sage and pant for breath. The Mexican woman sits on the shady side of her hut and builds cages for her young mocking birds, while her half-clothed children play with the heirloom of the family—the dog. This is the great West as it is NOT pictured in the "movies" and in books.

BARNEY HAYGOOD.

Embellishment.

One day Johnny was out in the yard playing with his dog, Jack. Jack was a fox-terrier, a foot tall. While Johnny was playing with his dog, another dog by the name of Tige, came up. Tige was a full-grown bulldog. Johnny did not know which dog could whip the other, so he set his dog on Tige. Tige got the better of Jack, but did not hurt him, because when Jack saw he was whipped he ran into the house.

Johnny ran into the house to find his mother; she was not there, so he ran over to a neighbor's house, where she was sewing.

"Mother, an old dog came over to our house a while ago and jumped on Jack. He chewed his ear off, hurt his foot badly, and pulled his tail off."

Mrs. Brown hurried home to see what she could do to relieve Jack. At the gate she met Mr. Brown, and indignantly exclaimed:

"Tom, poor Jack is about done for. I went over to Mrs. Smith's, and an old dog has been chewing on Jack since dinner. The dog has eaten Jack's eyes, scratched his ears off, broken four of his ribs, pulled one leg off, and knocked his teeth down his throat."

While Mrs. Brown was telling about the blind, earless, ribless, legless, and toothless dog, he ran out of the house and gave a bark of joy at seeing his master, Mr. Brown.

HIGHEST QUALITY AWARDS

People who weigh their words seldom speak lightly.

AN OLD MAN'S STOMACH

As we grow older and less active, less and less food is required to meet the demands of our bodies. If too much is habitually taken the stomach will rebel. When a man reaches the advanced age of 85 or 90, you will find that he is a light eater. Be as careful as you will, however, you will occasionally eat more than you should, and will feel the need of Chamberlain's Tablets to correct the disorder. These tablets do not contain pepsin, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels.—Advt.

$$$ WAFFLES $$$

We agree with you about waffles. They must be crisp. No! We don't doubt that your waffles are crisp. But perhaps you'd like them even more crisp.

If you would, why don't you try some economical Cottolene Waffles? Wholesome, economical Cottolene, you know, has a delightful habit of making all foods "crispy"—waffles included.

If you prefer to use your own recipe, be sure to use one-third less of economical Cottolene than you would of expensive butter. Why "one-third less"?

Simply this: Wholesome Cottolene is unusually rich—even much richer than butter. It contains no water or salt. So it goes farther.

Our recipe given here has an established reputation for making delicious, crisp waffles. Will you try it?

3 1/2 cups flour
2 rounded teaspoons baking powder
1 level teaspoon salt
2 cups milk
Yolks 4 eggs
Whites 4 eggs
1 tablespoon melted Cottolene

HOW SOLDIERS' WAR INSURANCE PROTECTS THE FAMILY

To officers and enlisted men and women of the Army and Navy of the United States and their relatives: The Secretary of the Treasury, through the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, has been charged with the administration of the War Insurance Law enacted by the Congress as a measure of justice to the men and women who have been called to give their lives, if need be, in the service of their country.

I wish to acquaint you with the benefits and privileges which your Government has placed at your disposal. It is essential that you and your families at home should know of your and their rights under this law, in order that full advantage may be taken of them.

To care for the wife and children of the enlisted men during their service, the War Insurance Law compels him to contribute up to one-half of his pay for their support. The Government, on application, will generously add to this allowance of from $3 to $50 a month, according to the size of the family. Moreover, if the enlisted man will make some further provision himself for a dependent parent, brother, sister, or grandchild, they may be included in the Government allowance.

If, as a result of injuries incurred or disease contracted in the line of duty, any officer or enlisted man, or an army or navy nurse should be disabled, provision is made for compensation of from $30 to $100 a month to him, and should he die, compensation of from $20 to $75 a month will be paid to his wife, his child, or his widowed mother.

In order, however, fully to protect each person and family, Congress has made it possible for every soldier, sailor, and nurse to obtain life and total disability insurance. This insurance applies to injuries received while he or she is in the service or after he or she shall have left it.

Exposure to extra dangers of war makes the cost of insurance in private insurance companies prohibitive. It was, therefore, a plain duty and obligation for the Government to assume the risk of insuring hundreds of thousands of soldiers and sailors who are making the supreme sacrifice. Under this law every soldier and sailor and nurse, commissioned and enlisted and of any age, has the right, between now and February 12, 1918, to take out life and total disability insurance up to $10,000 at very low cost, with the government without medical examination. This right is purely optional. The soldiers are sailors are not compelled to take insurance, but if they desire to exercise the right, they must do so before the 12th of February, 1918. The cost ranges from 65 cents monthly, at the age of 21, to $120 monthly, at the age of 51, for such $1000 of insurance. This is a small charge on a man's pay—small in proportion to the benefits it may bring. The premiums will be deducted from his pay, if he desires, thus eliminating trouble on his part.

To provide adequate protection until February 12, 1918; during the period when the soldiers and sailors are learning the details of this law, the Government automatically insures each man and woman commissioned or enlisted in the military service of the United States. It pays the man $25 a month during total permanent disability; if he dies within 20 years, it pays the rest of the 2400 monthly installments of $25 each to his wife, child, or widowed mother.

I desire to call the provisions of this just and generous law to the attention of our officers and enlisted men and women so that they might not be deprived of their rights from lack of knowledge. Full particulars may be obtained from the Bureau of War Risk Insurance of the Treasury Department, Washington, D. C. I earnestly urge that the officers of the Army and Navy give to the men under their command all possible aid in helping them to understand fully the benefits that this insurance may bring to their families and the small cost at which it may be obtained.

This is the greatest measure of protection ever offered to its fighting forces by any nation in the history of the world. It is not charity; it is simply justice to the enlisted men and women and to their loved ones at home, and each and every one of them should promptly take the benefits of this great law.

W. G. McADOO, Secretary of the Treasury.

"The audience at the auditorium Sunday afternoon to hear Miss Davault in the 'Music Master' was one of the most attentive that has come under the spell of an auditorium artist in a long time. Possibly any and all criticism of Miss Davault's work can be summed up in the simple statement that the eyes of many men in the audience were moist."—Houston Post, Oct. 19, 1914.

New York City April 24, 1915. My Dear Miss Davault:

On behalf of our members, I wish to thank you for the very fine entertainment which you gave us last evening. Your reading of "Polly of the Circus" held the men for a whole hour, in spite of the fact that many of them were obliged to stand during the entire period. I do not know that we ever had a reader here who pleased the men more and who put more into her work than you have done in the three programs which you have given us.

With best wishes for your further success, I am,

Very truly yours, RAY N. BRINKMAN, Social Secretary 23rd St. Y. M. C. A.

WASHINGTON WATCHES DARING MILITARY AVIATORS

Daring Italian aviators, in two battle planes of lightning speed, and a giant bombing plane carrying ten passengers, gave official Washington a marvelous example of what the American aviation corps must do to strike Germany through the air. All three airplanes flew without accident from Langley field, near Newport News, Va., to Washington in less than two hours. The distance was approximately 120 miles, and the average height maintained was 7000 feet.

In the great Caproni bombing machine, which has a wing spread of 85 feet, and 525 horse power engines, there were several governmental officials, who enjoyed the trip immensely, suffering no inconvenience whatever. After arriving here two of the airplanes thrilled thousands of spectators with feats of the air which filled the highest officers of the signal corps of the army with undiminished admiration.

The exhibition ended with the flight of the great Caproni machine over the city, carrying a party of persons, and the "bombing" of the White House by one of the smaller planes with bouquets of flowers, dropped from a great height.

Officers of the army and navy who witnessed the landing of the three machines and the wonderful aerial feats which they later indulged in, did not hesitate to say that the United States had yet a long way to go before it can equal the aviation corps of Europe.

Many members of the house and senate were present, and they were visibly impressed with the efficiency of the Italian machines and the skill of their pilots.

AN UNNOTICED ARMY

Without bugles, without music and only partially uniformed, a great industrial army is fighting, not in the trenches, but fighting, nevertheless, to aid in conquering Prussianism. It is the army of three million people who own and operate railroads in the United States. Most of them men; some of them women. With their families they form about one-sixth of the population of the United States. The story of this supplemental army has not been told to the public. Only insiders are familiar with the movements of this army. And they, skilled in traffic, are amazed at the results obtained. Really, there is only one railroad now in the United States, with more than 250,000 miles of track, hauling troops, moving freight, transporting mails, giving the first and best service to the government. The pooling of all the great transportation lines, making one great system, now makes for efficiency. The whole great system moves along, directed by five generals-in-chief, men who have made railroad a profession, men who have abandoned personal interests to serve the Nation. Coordinating the land forces of the United States was voluntary. Patriotism asserted itself when the Nation was in peril. There has been no industrial movement of such magnitude in the world's history. The great army has been unnoticed. But the service rendered has been of such nature as to be lauded by the Nation.—The Oklahoman.

COMPLAINT ALMOST GONE

"Foley's Honey and Tar is great," writes L. W. Day, 65 Campbell Ave., E. Detroit, Mich. "It relieves bronchitis quickly. My complaint has almost gone and I hope never to have it again." NEW "SERVICE" EMBLEM

Our Government has approved of a "service" emblem consisting of a red border, a white center and blue stars. The number of stars on each emblem indicates the number of men from that home or premises, wherever displayed, who have answered our country's call "To make the world safe for Democracy against autocracy."

It is urgently requested that these service emblems be displayed as conspicuously as possible by those only where some member of the family has joined the colors; and should be preserved as a badge of honor to the years to come, by those entitled to own one.

And List Your Land and Other Property

With them either for sale or rent. If you own vacant grazing land and wish to lease it, list it with us and give definite description so we can locate it. If you want to lease, see us and tell us what you want and where you want it.

In your description of land, give Section No., Township, Range, Land, T. and R. No., H. and Co. No., and sometimes it is better to describe by Townships. Be careful in your description.

We Give a Few of Our Best Bargains

191—A rare bargain. 50 feet lot, east front, 3 room house with front porch, fairly well situated. For quick sale $400. This piece of property can be bought in payments almost like paying rent.

192—5 room house on two lots. A good location. At a bargain on EXTRA GOOD terms.

193—10 acres in truck and poultry farm just outside the city limits of Pecos. This place has a four room well finished house, seed and planting plant, 1 1/2 acres wired with poultry wire, balance of place fenced with rabbit-proof wire. This is a nice little suburban home. Price $2000. Will consider a good city residence in Pecos or some other good town at right price in exchange for this property. Owner is professional and wants place in town.

194—Good business property bringing good rent, at a bargain. Owner a non-resident and wants to close on his interest here.

195—Good 4 room house well located, with artesian well in yard. Yard well set with grass and good shade. Corral and small barn. Price $800. Would consider some trade on this proposition.

Stone building and stock of goods and 12 or 15 room hotel in Pecos for sale at a bargain. This is a snap for some one who wants a proposition of this kind. For description write us at Pecos, Texas.

WANTED

We want a tract of several hundred acres of land in a country where the land is reasonably productive and adapted to a variety of crops. The principal crops being corn, peanuts, field peas, sorghum, hay, fruit and vegetables, and a native grass that will turf and set to a regular stand. Would like for 1-4 to 1-2 be in state of cultivation. Would not object to it being in small tracts, provided the tracts join. We want cheap land as we can find, but don't care to sacrifice everything else for cheapness. A few miles from railroad would not be seriously objectionable. Want good water for drinking and stock. If you have a tract that will come up to the above description let us hear from you.

For Rent—A 6 room house with 2 town. Plenty of water, good buildings. Price $15 per month.

No. 240—92 acres, 4 miles from Pecos, on the T. and P. R. 70 acres in good state of cultivation and irrigation, 3000 ft. of good barn and sheds, 2000 ft. per minute well and 2000 ft. engine, good pump, 1000 ft. field fenced with wire. This is a splendid place for a farm. Price, $50 per acre. Balance 4 or 5 years at 2% interest. Would take some trade in this situation.

We have quite a good piece of grazing land for lease. See us.

About $15,000 worth of 200 acreage property in Pecos. Good property to sell or lease. Good farm land in Otero, Texas. Must consider property. If you have some property to match this, write us and give detailed description.

TO SELL OR TRADE

No. 282—104 acres, 2 miles from Pecos, on T. and P. R. Good cultivation and fine stock proof wire, 3 room house, good shape, good barn and sheds, good well of about 1500 ft. per minute, 5 inch pump, 45 horse power crude oil engine. This land is suitable for growing cotton, melons, sweet potatoes, melons, etc. Price $50 per acre. If this interests you, write us for full particulars. Would consider trade for farm in the Lampasas country, at the right price. The same kind of land this year had made an average of $375 per acre on 2 acres in melons.

No. 282—We have in Pecos a proved land just a little outside town limits on northwest side of Pecos, all fenced. An artesian well in it. This land is near the Pecos Southern shops and railroad. The land is priced at $25 per acre. Also two 4 room houses in the town of Pecos. Want to exchange all for small farm. Let us hear from you with a full description.

We would like to list some good irrigated farms. Send us a description and price, and terms, and we will list it out.

TRINKETS AND TREASURES

Trinkets and Treasures, Trinkets and Treasures, What an array of these, Old curios of every date That would the curious please. A strange collection is this, indeed, A commingling of souvenirs In a sacrifice of jewels rare, Whose values have grown with the years. There's grandmother's thimble, and grandfather's staff, A pin a hundred years old, A rare old thing so strangely carved Whose story can never be told. A neck chain, a locket, a golden curl, Oh, the romance that this gift may contain Of the dear old days when hope was young, And love was not given in vain. There's an old Swiss watch that ticked the time For a brave lad of '63, It is silent now, but the tales it might tell Of interest to you and to me! There's a spoon worn thin with ravage of time, And a ring from "that sweetheart of mine—" Each carries a story we never can tell Treasure stories we cannot divine, These Trinkets and Treasures they go for a cause That maketh the whole world akin, For the great finale will be "All is well."

"Tis "to be"—not "what might have been." —N. HULLARY HARRISON.

"TRINKET AND TREASURE DAY"—THANKSGIVING

Hundreds of cities are collecting and donating old trinkets, jewelry, watches, anything that is useless in gold or silver to the "Treasure and Trinket Fund" as a means of raising money to be used for the aviators of the American army. Late reports received from headquarters state that great collections are pouring in from all over the country.

All are requested to send in their offerings, no matter how small, as all are gratefully received. Please bear this in mind and have them in for a Thanksgiving offering. The Citizens State Bank of Toyah, Texas, will gladly receive the donations, or they can be sent directly to the Woman's Home Companion headquarters, 381 4th Ave., New York City.

A wonderful story will be found in the December number of this magazine concerning the "Treasure and Trinket Fund" collected in the United States for the airmen of the United States Army.

CERTAIN CURE FOR CROUP

Mrs. Rose Middleton, of Greenville, Ill. had this experience in the treatment of this disease. She says, "When my children were small, my son had croup frequently. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always broke up these attacks immediately, and I have never without it in the house. I have taken it myself for coughs and colds with good results."

Public sentiment in Turkey is against Prussian influence. The same line of thought no doubt is making headway in Austria and even Germany herself.

ERADICATION OF TICK ADDS $10 TO EACH HEAD OF CATTLE

In a letter accompanying a proclamation setting aside Saturday, December 1st, as a day to be celebrated throughout Mississippi because of the lifting of the Federal quarantine against the cattle fever tick, Governor Theodore G. Bilbo, of Mississippi, says:

"So important has been the work of eradicating the cattle tick, so far reaching are its beneficent results, and so greatly should our people congratulate themselves upon the success of this work, that I feel that every one in the State should read it (the proclamation).

"Much credit is due to the State Live Stock Sanitary Board and to the United States Bureau of Animal Industry for their zeal and untiring efforts to rid our state of this pest and place our cattle upon the markets of the world without quarantine restrictions.

"Our cattle will be enhanced in value fully ten dollars per head as the result of their free entrance into the markets and I look to see an amazing influx of pure bred cattle into Mississippi now. Heretofore owners of pure bred cattle outside the State feared to bring them to Mississippi on account of the Texas fever and consequent quarantine. Mississippi is being looked to by every section now as a great cattle raising State with untold possibilities."

GARDENS ON RAILROAD LAND INCREASES FOOD SUPPLY

Between 300 and 400 acres of right of way and company lands have been cultivated this year by the track workers on 400 sections of the Texas and Pacific Railroad. Six months ago J. H. Elliott, general manager of the road, issued instruction to all section foremen, making it mandatory that they and the section hands under them plant and work gardens. On every section it was required that as much as three-quarters of an acre of land be planted. The company further instructed the foremen to use their fall crews four days of every month, on company time, to work the gardens.

As a result of this order 400 gardens on as many sections were planted and tended. Texas and Pacific section workers are now said to be in a better position than any other section hands in the State to cope with the mounting cost of living, because they have canned and stored away much of the produce of their gardens, as well as living off of them in the summer, saving the money that would have been paid out for vegetables.

The order, Mr. Elliott indicated yesterday, will be made a permanent one. He said: "The problem confronting this country at this critical time, particularly in the South, is a question of food. Annually the South has been bringing the food stuff from the North to the value of a half million dollars. The South should be self-supporting. In issuing these orders, we did so that our track workmen might have an opportunity to do their part in becoming self-sustaining. It was for their benefit, and from it a great many of the men and their families have derived much help by being able to grow in their own gardens the vegetables which they would have been forced to buy."—Dallas News.

MANY CLERKS NEEDED TO HANDLE PRESIDENT'S MAIL

President Wilson's mail bag is the largest in the world. Thousands of letters arrive daily, and every one of any importance must have the individual attention of America's first citizen. Of course, the president is not able to read all his correspondence himself. This difficulty is overcome by a carefully developed system by which the contents of the White House mail bag of any importance is laid before the president each day.

The work of selection falls upon a corps of confidential clerks, who open the letters and give them a first reading. Then they are carefully sorted. Many of them are simply recommendations for office. These, after courteous acknowledgment, are referred to the proper departments and placed on file until the matter can be taken up for consideration. Hundreds of the missives are purely formal, or contain impossible requests. These are immediately answered by the staff and signed by one of the President's assistant secretaries.

Such communications as the president ought to see are clearly briefed, that is, a slip is pinned at the top of each letter, and on this is typewritten a synopsis of the contents, telling who the writer is and what he has to present. Frequently the President is sufficiently interested by the brief to cause him to read the whole letter. Sometimes the communication is referred to a cabinet officer, in which case the slip is retained at the White House and filed.

Toyah Valley Items

(From the Toyah Valley Herald)....

T. W. Windle is having about twenty acres of his land seeded to alfalfa and wheat.

Mrs. Martha Adams the Pecos milliner, spent Sunday with relatives and friends at Saragosa.

E. D. Balcom was in with some prospectors the first of the week, but we didn't learn if he landed any of them or not.

S. E. Moore and Hez Koumiz went out in the mountains for a hunt, but report that three does were all they saw, hence, no venison.

The families of Charley Splittgarber and Ezra Cook left Wednesday for Menard where they will visit for some time. They are making the trip overland in autos.

Mrs. Don Carter, trimmer in Mrs. Adams' Millinery Store at Pecos, came out last Saturday and will spend some time visiting with her sister, Mrs. J. H. Walker and family.

Henry Lavelle and T. M. Delaney have been busy the past week bringing over a bunch of sheep from Fort Stockton and will place them on feed here in the Valley this fall and winter.

A petition was circulated in Balmorhea the first of the week to present to the officials of the P. V. S. Ry., asking that the freight train service be changed from Saturdays to Fridays.

The Balmorhea and Saragosa basket ball teams have had several practice games during the past week, and all have thoroughly enjoyed the sport, and both teams have been very much benefited by the practice.

A. J. Carpenter was a pleasant caller at the Herald office Wednesday morning and says that everything is doing very well down the Valley. Mr. Carpenter says that he will get about eleven bales of cotton off his farms this year.

County Commissioner Koumiz has had the road grader and tractor at work out on the road near the Carpenter farm for several days, and the crew will now go out on the Fort Stockton road and finish putting the State Highway through this section of the country in fine shape.

There is some talk of trying to organize an orchestra or band for Balmorhea. We hope to hear the talk develop into something of a definite nature, as a good musical organization would be a nice thing for the Valley these long fall and winter nights, and the people of the Valley would be more than pleased to listen to a nice musical concert rendered by home talent.

Tatum Moore was very seriously hurt early Wednesday morning by a wild horse that they were saddling, jumping on him with both front feet, striking him in the breast, and causing internal injuries. The boys were on a round-up several miles out in the pasture when the accident happened. He was brought home as quickly as possible and the doctor summoned. He is resting easy at the time of going to press and it is hoped that he is not seriously injured.

The Methodist ladies of Balmorhea entertained the Methodist ladies of Saragosa Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ella G. White. The two churches united in the organization of a Woman's Missionary Society, believing that in "union there is strength." The meetings will be held at the homes of the members, and refreshments consisting of two things will be served by the hostess, a silver offering, also, will be taken at each meeting, the fund thus created to be used for Red Cross purposes, unless needed for incidental expenses of the local church. Neighbors and friends are cordially invited to these meetings. There was a good attendance present at this meeting. Refreshments were served after which they adjourned to meet with Mrs. Black in Saragosa on the second Tuesday in December.

The names of the first three American soldiers to die in a land battle against Germany will probably be engraved on a bronze tablet to be placed in the War Department at Washington. An excellent idea. But shall there be no memorials also for other soldiers who missed the chance of the first encounter? They also serve their country equally loyal who die in the last trenches. —Colorado Record.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brady came over from Barstow Wednesday and on returning took Le Grand Merriman over with them. The writer is not an expert on dress but he believes that Mrs. Brady had on the most appropriate costume for the time that has been his good fortune to see. It was somewhat military in appearance as well as in color and texture, being of khaki and in exceedingly good taste. She planned and made the dress herself, which is additional claim for our commendation and respect and a splendid lesson for the younger people.
