Pecos School Has Auspicious Opening

FULL CORPS OF TEACHERS ON HAND AND PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT FOR THE ENSUING TERM IN ALL GRADES

Notwithstanding the anxiety felt, not only by the trustees, but by the patrons of our school, as the date for the opening of our schools approached, all faded away and instead there came a feeling of pride to those who witnessed the opening exercises last Monday morning.

In connection with the above The Enterprise wishes to commend the Board of Trustees on the faithful work performed during the past few months. This sentiment, the editor knows, would be shared by the public did they but know the real conditions that existed in our educational system a few months ago—and, for that matter, still exist. The strong arm of the Government has leaned heavily upon the teaching talent of the country in the past year, and the dearth of material to teach in our public schools became alarming. Communities all over the country offered inducements that were very tempting to teachers in order that their youth be not neglected, and even in our own school here in Pecos, cases occurred where talent secured was diverted elsewhere, and not until the very last week was our school assured a complete faculty.

These were troubles that few of our people knew of, but it was up to the trustees to dig, and they have brought home the bacon.

To the faithful work of the trustees is due the fact that on the tap of the bell Monday morning 444 bright cheery faces marched into the High School auditorium for the opening exercises of the 1918-19 term. To their efforts is due the additional important fact that there was present to greet these youngsters a complete teaching force as in former years.

Speakers were present and their talks were to the point, filled with inspiration and encouragement both to the pupil and the teacher. Some of those addressing the gathering were Supt. P. J. Rutledge, Rev. W. A. Knight, and the principal of the High School, Mrs. J. W. Brooks. A feature of the occasion was the talk by J. L. Graham, field secretary for the Y. M. C. A.

It is stated by some that the attendance for the first day, according to the enrollment was ahead of that of any other year.

The parents need have no fear in regard to the strength of our school at the present writing. To The Enterprise it looks as if the faculty is just as strong as in former years, but all must remember that teachers play but one part in the training of our children, and that parents have an important part in the process. Co-operation with the teachers should be the aim of all patrons of the school, and anything short of this spirit hurts, not the teacher, but reacts on the child.

The Enterprise asks the support of all parents, and it feels sure that in spite of the handicaps which every line of endeavor is facing these days, this term of school will not be among the list of failures.

Work on Test Oil Well is Called Off

COMPANY EDGED OUT OF IMPORTANT LEASE IS REASON GIVEN—NO STATEMENT AS TO WORK IN FUTURE

The oil well mentioned in last week's Enterprise, which was to be begun last week or the early part of this week, appears to be blown up. Tuesday of this week men were put to work hauling material to the site and six four-horse loads delivered there. Men were also put to work digging the excavation for the pit, and other at work on the foundation for the derrick. It looked like the real business of boring for oil near Pecos had begun in earnest. But at this point Mr. Tinally, who is at the head of the work, discovered that home people, business men of Pecos, had purchased a tract of 320 acres of land within a mile of the site of the well. This land, he says, he had been trying to lease and, as a last resort, intended to purchase, but the home people "beat him to it", and then refused to lease to him, but instead offered to sell to him at the paltry sum of $250 per acre. This he refused to pay and at once decided to desist and discontinue work at that point indefinitely, and to prove he meant business had the hole filled up, the foundation for the derrick torn to pieces and the lumber and other material hauled back to town.

The above are the plain, unvarnished facts as given The Enterprise editor by Mr. Tinally himself.

Mr. Tinally informs The Enterprise that he will again, in a few days, begin work at the sulphur mines, but has given out nothing to the editor as to his future regarding the oil well situation.

There is probably no doubt that Mr. Tinally is entitled to this lease inasmuch as this field is yet untested and the venture is only "wild-cating". In proven oil fields this would not be expected, but not so in such a field as this. There is little doubt but that any responsible company with sufficient means would not undertake to put down an oil well in a new field until the land had been blocked up. This would occur at first sight as being just, but of course it is impossible for all men to view the same matter in the same way—and there it is.

Plans Completed for the New Draft Army

BOYS OF 19 AND 20 AND MEN FROM 32 TO 36 YEARS WILL RECEIVE FIRST CALL FOR INDUCTION INTO SERVICE

Washington, Sept. 10.—Provost Marshal General Crowder announced today that the first call to the colors of men who registered Thursday will include men in the 19 and 20 year old classes and those from 32 to 36 years, inclusive. Questionnaires will go first to registrants within these ages and local boards will be ordered to classify them first to be in readiness for calls beginning in October.

Young men in the 19 and 20 year old classes, General Crowder said, will be accepted for induction into the Students' Army Training Corps, but he pointed out that the authorized strength of this corps is only 150,000 men, whereas the total number of registrants below 20 will be over 3,000,000.

The Provost Marshal General refused to discuss further the educational plans, saying that they were not within his province. He pointed out that the total number of fit men which he expected to be secured in the classes over 32 was only 601,000.

General Crowder issued today a general appeal to employers to assist in the presentation of claims for occupational exemptions and declared that this was the unexplored field of the new draft and that no estimate could be made as to the number of men who ought to be excluded from military service in the upper age limits because of their occupations.

MILITARY TRAINING WILL BE GIVEN AT MIDLAND

A feature at Midland College this year will be military training, according to the following telegram to F. G. Jones, president of that institution from R. E. Vinson:

"Have approved application of Midland College for United States Army Training, conditioned upon your having one hundred physically fit students, eighteen years and above in your college classes.

"ROBERT E. VINSON, "Regional Director War Education." Under this plan Prof. Jones states that preparatory students under twenty-one may receive military training at their own expense.

The enrollment must be complete by the first of October. Those interested address F. G. Jones, President Midland College.

Will be Sheppard's Opponent for Senate

JOHN J. HARRINGTON OF SHERMAN WILL OPPOSE HIM ON TICKET—FAVORS REVISION OF PRESIDENT'S TERM

Col. John J. Harrington of Sherman, was a Pecos visitor Monday, leaving Tuesday morning for El Paso. The Colonel informed The Enterprise he was a candidate for the United States Senate, a running mate with Morris Sheppard in the general election. The Colonel is in favor of changing the Constitution, making the president's term six years instead of four as now is the case, and then forever making him ineligible for that office again, thus, according to his plans, President Wilson would hold over another two years without election.

The Enterprise did not learn the political suasion of Col. Harrington, but according to his views, that will make no difference with the people or the president, as he informs The Enterprise "that with the President politics are adjourned and men that can deliver the goods to win the war are sought for rather than the man with the political badge."

Morris Sheppard is the nominee of the Democratic party of Texas, and is very satisfactory to his people and to the President, and the entering of Col. Harrington in the race at this date will cut no ice, as Mr. Sheppard will carry the vote of his State that pledged its support in the primaries.

The Enterprise wishes the Colonel well but does not believe he will run very fast in the coming election.

K. of P. LODGE ENJOYS SMOKER

The local Knights of Pythias enjoyed a smoker Monday night at the hall, and quite a number of the members were present, and smoked good cigars to their hearts content and quenched their thirst from a teeming bowl of fresh orange punch, which required several fillings before all had their fill.

This Order is now in the midst of a whirlwind campaign throughout Texas, the object being to inject vigor into the lodges and enlist new material in the great work—the elevation of mankind.

This smoker is the first of a series of entertainments to be given by the local lodge, and in others to follow, it is hoped that the companionship of the Knights' families will be provided for.

All organizations have members who have been called to the service of our country, and no plan should be overlooked that will tend to keep alive the institutions in which they were interested. To keep up interest the second Monday night in each month has been set apart by the local Knights of Pythias as a social night.

Hudspeth is to Visit Red Bluff Dam Site

CONGRESSMAN ELECT WISHES PEOPLE TO KNOW THAT PRE-ELECTION PROMISES WILL BE KEPT BY HIM

The following letter from Congressman-elect C. B. Hudspeth, to J. G. Love, besides being an appreciation of the support given him in this section, further proves that promises made the people before election will be made good as far as is possible. Here is the letter:

"As soon as I can get my legal business straightened up in order to get away I want to go to Pecos and go with you and a number of your citizens and visit the Red Bluff site. I want the people to understand that ante-election pledges with me, so far as I am able, shall become post-election facts. The moment I enter Congress I am going to commence a campaign to bring about the building of the dam at the above-mentioned place and I want the cooperation of every citizen in that section interested. I am sure all your citizens will be interested.

I shall never forget the splendid support given me in the Pecos Valley, but regardless of what opposition there was I am going to work for all the people. It is a little late, but I wish to have my friend, the editor of The Enterprise thank the people in that section for the splendid support given me and state to them that I want their cooperation and support, not only in the Red Bluff Dam matter but in all matters of legislation that affect them or our country. No man is big enough to succeed without the assistance of his constituents and I welcome advice at all times from every good citizen, whether he supported me or not.

"With kindest regards to you, I am,

"Very truly your friend,
"C. B. HUDSPETH."

This paper has enlisted with the government in the cause of America for the period of the war

The new hours now in force in our public schools are causing considerable comment and dissatisfaction among some. School children are not allowed on the school ground until 8:30 and must then go direct to their rooms and to study. They are allowed only one-half hour at noon, which necessitates the carrying of the dinner basket to the school by most of the pupils, and some complaint is made by these that they do not have time to eat. (The editor has fairly good teeth and can eat all he can get at home in much less time than thirty minutes, but he can't walk a mile and do so). They all have the same number of school hours but are turned out in the afternoon a half hour earlier than in former years. The editor is inclined to be old-foggyish in school matters and his judgment must be poor in the later day methods of teaching. He does not now believe, and probably never will, that present methods of teaching spelling are half as easy, nor do the pupils learn to spell so well as when the old blue back speller, in which we not only learned to spell but to read, was in vogue. Then we used slates and not only learned to figure on them, but also to write, and at least half the pupils could write well enough by the time they were ten years old so that it could be deciphered by one trained in trying to read hieroglyphics. Not so now with a considerable number with whom the editor has come in contact. The new hours may be all right—doubtless there are good reasons for the change. However, the argument is made, which seems well founded, that these hours not only work a hardship on the mothers—taking the children to school at a time when they could be of some help in the home, but add greatly to the expense of the family. A child can go home at the noon hour, sit down to a meal of frioles, onions and corn bread, and return to school well satisfied, but where is the pupil worth sending to school who would be willing to open his basket filled with such food, part of which perforce would have been cooked the previous day, and be satisfied when another and more fortunate child with ham, eggs, cheese, pickles, cakes, pie, etc., sat beside him. The editor has not made a study of this question, but it occurs that it would be more sensible to start school at 9:30, give a full hour at noon and allow the pupils time to go home and eat like white folk, and hold the school in session an hour later. This would enable the children to be of some service to their mothers before going to school and in this time of war, when conservation is the watchword of every true American citizen, enable each family to make a considerable saving in the grocery bill and give the child a more wholesome diet.

Business must be lacking on part of the firing line where one of the war experts is gathering data at so much per line. His thoughts last week were diverted to the sea, and in his article tried his best to take all the joy out of life by reminding the people that they should be braced for news one of these days that a transport would be sunk and many lines of soldiers lost at sea. Such forebodings are out of place. It's a possibility, of course, but one that requires reckless daring on the part of the U-boat pirates—a recklessness that would in all probability frustrate success.

Poets and prophets are horrors of war that none of us figured in our reckonings, and there seems to be no antidote provided.

If you didn't take time to register yesterday, you'll have plenty of time which to wish you did.

The casualty lists from France are creeping nearer and nearer to our very doors. It should be taken as a note of warning that our utmost must be done, to conform to all regulations enacted for the successful prosecution of the war. There are many, at that late date, who are not fully awake to the crisis confronting our country. The list will diminish only in a measure to correspond with our part here at home. If we do much just so much more quickly will the struggle end; if we do little, the carnage will be prolonged and each list will bring the names of those near and dear to us. Remember this when the next drive for the Fourth Liberty Loan starts.

In order to comply with the request of our Government The Enterprise will discontinue, without notice, all papers not paid for in advance. The dates to which your subscriptions are paid are printed opposite each name, and if you do not wish to miss a copy you had better watch the dates and send in the coin. The Enterprise has made a special effort to keep its subscription list all paid in advance, but other business has been so pressing there was no time to send out statements. There are very few, if any, three months behind and on the first of October there will be none even one month behind on subscription. This is fair warning and if you want the paper you'll have to kick in. The Enterprise proposes to comply with the demands of the Government and there will be no extra copies printed to supply those whose names have been taken from the list.

Y. M. C. A. LECTURE DREW BIG CROWD SUNDAY NIGHT

J. L. Graham, field secretary of the Y. M. C. A., with headquarters at El Paso, spent Saturday and Sunday in Pecos. Sunday morning Mr. Graham occupied the pulpit at the local Church of Christ in lieu of the regular minister, who was confined to his room by illness. Though this arrangement was not provided for, Mr. Graham proved equal to the occasion and delivered a very interesting address, the subject of which was "Duty." Considering the times and the crisis through which we, as a Nation, are passing, the subject was an opportune one and at its close each individual had some idea of his or her place in the affairs of the Nation, and each one's duty was clearly defined, whether they be called to the front or remain at home.

The main object of Mr. Graham's visit to Pecos, however, was to deliver a lecture on the work of the Y. M. C. A. and to complete the organization of the Red Triangle League. The lecture was well advertised, and at evening the capacity of the Christian church was taxed when Mr. Graham delivered his address on the purpose of the Y. M. C. A. and the great good it is doing among the soldiers that composed the great American Army. At the close of the address he called for volunteers for the Red Triangle League, and 68 names were enrolled at this meeting.

A stereopticon lecture, giving all a clear understanding of the immense scale on which the aeroplane industry is carried on by the Government was given. Every detail of manufacture was shown and explained, and, from an educational standpoint, it was well worth the time of all present.

YESTERDAY WAS BUSY DAY FOR REGISTRARS

Yesterday was Registration Day, and from the throng which continually filled the corridors at the court house, nobody in Pecos subject to the regulation had overlooked that fact. A year in jail did not appeal to them in the least, but The Enterprise would rather think that a sense of patriotic duty prompted all and caused them to report early, which facilitated the work of the registration board.

The Enterprise, at this time, was unable to get full returns of the registrations in the county, those of Pecos and Balmorhea being the only ones available.

At Pecos the personnel of the registrars was, Joe Caroline, Harry Anderson and R. N. McCarthy, and this small force registered in the short time allotted them 273 men of the new draft ages.

At Balmorhea the board was composed of V. E. Pruett, L. R. Wilson, H. K. Kountz and R. L. Wigley, and the number of registrants reported is 96. Considering the number of Mexicans in the county, the work of the boards is to be commended, and especially so when it is remembered that their services in this grueling ordeal was given free of charge to the government.

Later: Toyah, 74, Saragosa 42, making a total of 485, with no returns from the other offices.

New Patent Law Is Now in Force

WAR INDUSTRIES BOARD NOW FREE TO USE ALL PATENTED DEVICES—DAMAGES TO BE PAID BY GOVERNMENT

The Naval appropriation bill recently approved by President Wilson includes a provision of unusual interest in connection with industries engaged in war work. This provision allows government contractors to use any and all patented devices in connection with government work and authorizes the owners of such patents to sue the government in the Court of Claims, at Washington, D. C., for damages. It appears that this amendment to the patent law was passed, without the usual reference to the patent committee, because of its being a war measure.

From the government's standpoint it will undoubtedly simplify the patent question by eliminating the possibility of a multiplicity of damage suits against government contractors and will at the same time give the government without any delay, the benefit of the latest inventions in all lines of war equipment, supplies, and devices, the question of damages to the patentee being left for future settlement by court proceedings.

From the standpoint of the patentee, however, the effect of the new legislation is not quite so clear. Patent lawyers in discussing the matter seem to be of the opinion that the rights of the patentees are not properly protected in this new law. They take the view that the former remedy of suit against individual infringers was more satisfactory than that of legal action against the government, on the ground that if a favorable judgment is obtained against the government it will be necessary to await a special appropriation by Congress before such judgment can be paid. This objection, however, does not seem to be valid, for it is a well known fact that Congress is very prompt in making appropriations for the payment of judgments of the Court of Claims, and it is believed that such judgments will be paid even more promptly than those against private infringers. Moreover, the question of insolvency, which is likely to arise at any time in connection with the collection of judgments against individuals, is entirely eliminated under the new arrangement since there never will be any question as to the solvency of the Federal Government. Then, too, government attorneys will not be likely to resort to technical legal defenses merely for the purpose of delaying such actions and for this reason suits for damages under the new law will probably go to judgment much more quickly than would ordinary legal actions against individual infringers.

The suggestion has been made that the situation might be relieved by the formation of a government board of appraisers to determine the measure of damages in such cases, and it might have been well if provision for such a board had been included in the new law. There is, however, little likelihood that new legislation covering the matter can be secured now, and by any inconvenience caused inventors by the new law will for the present at least have to be charged up against the unfortunate war situation.

STUCKLER-LICARDIE

A wedding of unusual interest to many in Reeves county was that of Miss Carrie Stuckler and Mr. Allen Licardie, of San Antonio, Wednesday, September 11, at ten o'clock, at the Guadalupe church, Brogado.

The bride, who was beautifully gowned in white satin charmeuse, with tulle veil, caught with orange blossoms, entered on the arm of her father, E. P. Stuckler. They were met at the altar by Mr. Allen Licardie, to whom she was given in marriage, Father Metzgar officiating, using the ring ceremony.

Following the marriage a delightful wedding breakfast was served at Mrs. Schertz's, a friend of the bride and family. That evening at the U ranch a reception was held and a barbecue supper served. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

Miss Carrie is the only daughter of E. P. Stuckler, successful manager of the U ranch. She is a young woman of many accomplishments, having been educated in the convent at Stanton.

Mr. Licardie is of a fine family of San Antonio and is said to be a young man of empy character.

Mr. and Mrs. Licardie will make their home in San Antonio and will leave for there today.

EFFECT OF NEW DRAFT ON LABOR SITUATION

The new man power bill has been signed by the President and notice has gone forward that on Thursday of this week approximately 13,000,000 males between the ages of 18 to 45 inclusive will register for the purpose of being drafted into the military army. Out of this number only 2,500,000 will be used on the firing line; the balance, approximately ten million, will be given a furlough, in order that they may join the Industrial army and engage in war work of consequence in maintaining and equipping our military force with the pre-requisites of war. This furlough will, in all probability, be for the duration of the war, unless the conditions upon which the furlough was granted are abused by a refusal to do the war work or quitting war work without a leave of absence. In either case the industrial soldier will be recalled, inducted into the military army and sent to the fighting line.

Men accepting war work under these provisions will be allowed civilian pay, at wages prevailing in the particular trade or industry they engage in.

From the proposed new industrial army of 10,000,000—must be deducted, for calculation purposes, those that are now engaged in war work together with those that will be excused on account of physical disability, and estimated difference of fifty per cent, leaving only 5,000,000 new war workers for the Industrial Army; whereas, it will require a minimum of 15,000,000 to maintain the 2,500,000 additional military forces to be inducted into the service by the draft—a shortage of man power beyond the 10,000,000 mark. What is the answer?

15,000,000 to 20,000,000 women will be required to fill the shortage in war work and semi-essential industries vacated by the men who have been inducted into either the Military or the Industrial Army.

Every able-bodied female, without encumbrances more vital to humanity than war work, should be inducted to take up war work according to their physical resources and educational qualifications. This can be accomplished only through organization. Are you willing to make a few personal sacrifices in assisting the Government to organize in your community a branch of the Woman's Working Reserve Corps? An early reply will be fully appreciated.

WHAT THE RED CROSS IS DOING AND WHAT YOU CAN DO

In Pisa, Italy, at the present time, the American Red Cross is rushing to completion a modern American village, which will house 2,000 persons when completed. There will be stores, churches, hospitals, homes, schools and factories. When the city of Pisa found it impossible to house and care for the refugees from the North, the Red Cross began the building of the modern village. The building of the town, also, is providing work for the refugees.

To supply material needed the following statement was issued from St. Louis this week:

"The smaller merchants of the country, not listed in trade organizations and who will esteem it a privilege to offer their stocks for consideration of the American Red Cross, have been asked by the War Industries Board to report at once their stocks of hand-knitting yarns, both woolen and worsted, in oxford, khaki, natural and gray colors, stating counts, make, quality and cost price. Lots down to fifty pounds will be considered.

The War Council of the American Red Cross has authorized the purchase of military and hospital equipment to cost $1,999,200. The equipment was asked by the Red Cross Commissioner of France and includes requirements to January 1, 1919. The purchase will include 500,000 sheets, 250,000 pairs of ward slippers, 50,000 bathroom slippers and 300,000 shirts.

LOONEY SAYS GAME MUST BE OBSERVED HERE

Attorney General Looney holds that the Texas game laws must be observed in this State and that the conflict with the Federal game laws must be resolved in favor of the State laws. This applies both as to open seasons and bag limits. The opinion says the Texas game law has never been held invalid, while that of the United States has been declared unconstitutional, four citations to that effect occurring in the Attorney General's letter to the Game, Fish and Oyster Commissioner.

Under the new Texas law the dove season opens in South Texas on December 1, and closes February 1. The Federal regulation makes it open from September 1 to December 15. The Federal rules provide a twenty-bag limit for ducks, while the State law is fifteen. The State law is fifteen for doves and the Federal regulations a twenty-five bag limit.

Following the receipt of the opinion Chief Deputy Henry Bailey gave notice to all peace officers and game wardens that the Attorney General's opinion must be followed and that violations of the Texas law should be met with arrest and prosecution. Mr. Bailey said that the Attorney General is made the legal adviser of the State departments and that it is the duty of his department to follow and observe the rulings of the Attorney General, and that is will certainly be done in this instance. He gives general notice to the public that the Texas law is to be observed in every particular.

WEEKLY FINANCIAL REVIEW

New regulations to stabilize the price of silver in the United States and to control exports of that precious metal are announced by the Director of the Mint, Baker. The most important of these announcements discloses that the Treasury has virtually fixed the maximum price of silver at $1.01 1-2 per fine ounce, and that export licenses for silver be granted by the Federal Reserve Board only for essential civil or military purposes and on condition that the maximum price was not exceeded by the purchaser.

This, in effect, establishes a world price for silver, most of which is now being supplied by the United States.

Within the last three months the Government has melted down about 100,000,000 silver dollars and exported most of this to India, China, and Japan for coinage purposes. Since the law under which this was done specifies that the Government shall pay $1 per ounce for silver to replace these melted dollars, the Government found it necessary to sell its own stocks at 1 1-2 cents above the purchase price. Recently some purchasers have been bidding as much as $1.02 for silver to be exported, necessitating action to stabilize the price.

One condition for the sale of silver by the Government now is that the purchaser shall not pay more than the standard price of $1.01 1-2 in markets outside the United States.

"HELLO" GIRLS GIVES TOUCH OF REAL U. S. IN FRANCE

Paris, France, Sept. 6.—The Army of Americans in France is gradually wearing a broader smile as it calls over the phone these days and gets a good old United States "hello" in reply.

With some eagerness the Signal Corps officers anticipated the arrival of the girls, and cheerfully, but with trepidation, sought suitable quarters for them in Paris.

"One large group was assigned to General Headquarters of the Army," said Miss Mary George White, of Baltimore, now a Y. W. C. A. secretary in France.

"The house had been modestly furnished, considering the rank and wealth of the officers. When we took it over we were delighted to find extra bath rooms and a central heating system they had installed to offset the horrors of army life.

Military Training Big Feature at University

OUTLAY OF ONE AND ONE HALF MILLION DOLLARS WILL BE SPENT ON BUILDINGS AND EQUIPMENT FOR WORK

Austin, Texas, Sept. 13.—The war activities of the University of Texas have progressed until they are now far greater than those of any other educational institution in the United States.

The latest addition to the military vocation schools of the University will be situated just south of Austin, upon a tract of 310 acres of land, where there is now being erected an administration building, six barracks buildings and a mess hall.

In addition to this war work the University recently completed the construction of a number of brick barracks buildings, administration building, mess hall, shops and lecture buildings at Camp Mabry, Austin, for the accommodation of the school of Automobile Mechanics which it is conducting for the Government.

These buildings were erected at a cost of about $500,000, and plans have just been adopted for the enlargement of the school by additional buildings and equipment which will cost about $130,000.

The University also is conducting a School of Military Aeronautics, with an attendance of about 1200, for the Government. It expended $167,000 in buildings and equipment for that school.

The University has also taken over the Theological Seminary at Austin and is converting it into a modern military hospital at a cost of about $100,000.

AMERICA'S MARCH TO LIBERTY

The world is now in great turmoil; One question is, "Who'll own the soil?"

The seas are also in dispute, The story goes without refute. One nation wants entire control Of all the earth from pole to pole.

To gain all this with wrong intent, That nation forth great armies sent. That nation then with all its might Used its power as though 'twere right.

For other nations they did not care, But only thought to make them fear.

They trampled them in sore disgrace By driving them from place to place. They tried to rule by force and might, And thus they hoped to give them fright;

Other nations, they said "Be damn!" We'll even get old Uncle Sam. They thought they were so very wise They'd spring on us some great surprise,

And pull the wool o'er all our eyes, By telling US some horrid lies.

If only they could cross the deep, They thought they'd find us fast asleep. But every time they made a break They found that we were wide awake;

With hellish greed and lust for prey, They crossed the seas to U. S. A.; They sneaked across in submarine, And prayed to God they'd not be seen;

Now all these moves across the seas, The U. S. A. did much displease; So we resolved upon our knees To drive them back just as we please.

To other nations they're a curse, If left alone they'll do us worse; We have the men and powder, too, To bring them down like Waterloo.

The world is now in one great brawl, Because the Kaiser wants it all; In war united may we be, 'Til all the World has liberty.

Our Weekly Letter From Camp Travis

MANY OFFICERS NEEDED FOR NEW ARMY—MEN ENCOURAGED TO ENTER OFFICERS' TRAINING CAMPS

Trained officers are demanded by the Government to meet the needs of our rapidly expanding army. Uncle Sam, to meet this need, is proceeding in the thoroughly democratic manner which is characteristic of the huge armies which are now forming.

In order that every man should be aware of the opportunity that is his, all recruits and non-commissioned officers in Camp Travis who have had a high school or college training, were recently marched to the great Y. M. C. A. auditorium where the president of the examining board explained the processes and requirements for gaining entry into one of the training camps.

The candidates are being given a thorough physical examination in order to insure their physical fitness for the strenuous training which the officer candidates must undergo.

Heretofore, written examinations have not been required at Camp Travis for applicants to the training camp, but in order to insure every man desiring to go, to have an opportunity, written examinations have been adopted.

Heretofore, written examinations have not been required and many of the men, realizing that they have forgotten much that they learned in school, were somewhat doubtful as to putting in their applications.

While it may be that the world is not ready to adopt the ideal plan of a universal money system with a single unit of value for all nations, it would seem to be entirely feasible to establish an international financial board, similar to the Federal Reserve Board of this country.

Such an institution would undoubtedly exert a powerful influence in steadying world finance and trade; it could act as an international clearing house; it might regulate to a large extent, the ebb and flow of gold; it would have a powerful influence in determining interest and exchange rates; it would provide a safe method for dealing with the delicate problems likely to arise regarding the huge outstanding quantities of war bonds; and it could also warrant the issuance of gold notes which might prove to be the first step towards the adoption of a uniform international money system.

The plan also would afford an opportunity to utilize the best brains of the world in dealing not only with problems of finance and trade, but also with the many questions which are likely to arise in connection with the adjustment of international relations after the war.

Old people who are feeble and younger people who are weak, will be strengthened and enabled to go through the depressing heat of summer by taking GROVES' TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. It purifies and enriches the blood and builds up the whole system. You can soon feel its strengthening, invigorating effect.

IN SPITE OF THE WAR AND HIGH WATER

If you wanted to sell a second hand automobile, or rent a house, you would put an advertisement in the paper and run it a few times or until you sold the machine or rented the house, and then you would quit.

If you were manufacturing goods or running a store, you would maintain your advertising continuously, because you would not be aiming to make one sale, but many—as many as you could. All right. Now along comes a war and upsets your supply of raw material, or made-up goods, or maybe the government takes over your output or curtails it, thereby either completely or partially eliminating your civilian trade.

What are they doing? With hardly an exception they are continuing. Not with a view of influencing immediate sales. Not at all. But realizing that present conditions are going to melt back into history at no very distant date, they are KEEPING ALIVE THEIR NAMES AND REPUTATION. If they discontinued think of the millions of dollars of good will value back of all those trade marks and names that would be lost, or greatly reduced. Preservation is Nature's first law. Preservation of prestige is likewise the first law of business.

Among the larger industries to maintain, and in fact increase their advertising this fall, the Wm. Wrigley, Jr., Company is noted, as evidenced by the "copy" now running on a frequent schedule in The Enterprise. Welcome, Mr. Wrigley, and we hope our local merchants will be heartened by your energy.

Also, Mr. Wrigley, may we commend your attitude in injecting a strong patriotic note in your advertising instead of the usual sales talk about "Wrigley's" being great for appetite and digestion? We understand that the soldiers and sailors are taking most of your output and that we at home will have to chew our Wrigley's a little longer. All right. "The flavor lasts" anyway, and from the stocks of your goods our merchants are apparently able to maintain in spite of war and high water.

We agree with Gen. Sherman in his definition of war, and we also agree with Mr. Wrigley in his statement that WE MUST WIN THIS WAR, and that until we do nothing else really matters.

In this connection, may we be permitted to remark that newspaper space is receiving earnest attention in these days of momentous news, and that the columns of The Enterprise are just as valuable as they ever were, if not more so, in stimulating good will and in maintaining the prestige of the goods and trade marks and the names set forth therein. Selah!

—Pay the President— WORLD'S MONEY SYSTEM SHOULD BE STABILIZED

When peace comes the world's commerce will have a tendency to flow back into its old channels. Import and export trade will be renewed and duties must be paid. Because of depreciation in paper money and fluctuation in its values these duties will have to be paid, in most cases, in gold and, as a result, unless suitable preventive measures are installed, the financial world may at any time be greatly disturbed and perhaps demoralized. The welfare of the world after the war will depend largely upon the stability of trade and to stabilize trade there should be a sound, well established system of international finance.

While it may be that the world is not ready to adopt the ideal plan of a universal money system with a single unit of value for all nations, it would seem to be entirely feasible to establish an international financial board, similar to the Federal Reserve Board of this country. No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

MANAGEMENT OF PECOS
HOTEL IS CHANGED

Mrs. Martha Adams is now in full charge of the Pecos Hotel, having purchased furniture, lease, etc., from C. A. Eggleston. Mrs. Adams is an experienced hotel woman and knows how to be courteous and give service as well as something good to eat.

The editor and wife were guests of Mrs. Adams at this hotel yesterday for dinner and found everything neat and clean as a pin, and both Mrs. Adams and Miss Velma Ward, who is assisting her, as pleasant and attentive as could be desired. At this dinner, besides other stuff always on a well regulated dinner table, were roast beef, chicken pie, creamed potatoes, turnips, cauliflower, salad, lettuce, white and corn bread, and melon for dessert. Evidently it is about what one can expect every day at this popular hostelry.

Mrs. Adams says that while she will be at the hotel most of the time Miss Elva will have full charge of the millinery store, at the Pecos Bargain House, where she will take pleasure in accommodating the public in that line.

BOZEMAN PURCHASES DRUG
BUSINESS AT EASTLAND

D. Wood Bozeman was in Eastland this week taking invoice of a stock of drugs purchased by himself and his brother, Raymond. The latter, with his family, will move to Eastland at once and take charge of the store.

These gentlemen are both good drug men and successful in business and it is with regret that The Enterprise announces the removal of Raymond from our town.

Eastland is just now on a big oil boom and is growing like a weed, and the prospects are very good for this firm to clean up some good money there. They have a five-year lease on a building on the corner of the square at $75 per month and consider it a bargain. Bozeman says that one hundred and fifty houses are now going up in Eastland and the only reason that double that number are not now being erected is the lack of carpenters.

Mrs. Lillian Butler, who is a finished musician and an experienced and successful teacher, having been most successful with her classes here in her home town a few years ago, will open a class in music at the beginning of the ensuing school year in the wooden annex to the school building, thus not necessitating pupils leaving the grounds for their music lessons. Those interested please call at the home or telephone No. 136.

The girls of the U. S. Gun Wiping Club met Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 3rd, with Laura Tinnally as the charming hostess. These busy little Misses are working on a quilt for the Red Cross. The refreshments were cantaloupe sundae and chocolate candy.

Thursday afternoon, September 5, the club met with Beatrice Sims, the quilt was still worked on and the delightful refreshments were ice cream and cake.

Friday afternoon the club enjoyed the hospitality of Edith Hudson at a "spending the day" party, at which the quilt was still the object of their busy fingers. A very delightful dinner was served. Altogether the day was most pleasantly spent.

ALIEN GERMAN MUST GET
PERMIT TO CHANGE ADDRESS

The following item, sent to The Enterprise for publication, contains the regulations governing the change of residence of alien females:

"A German alien woman, the same as the men, in changing her place of residence to another place within the same registration district shall immediately report such change to the registration officer of the registration district and present to such officer her registration card for the purpose of having endorsed thereon by such registration officer the new change of residence. A German alien female, same as the case of the men, who desires to change her place of residence within another registration district must obtain a permit. Such German alien female must present herself to the registration officer of the district in which she then resides and make application for the permit on a form supplied by the registration officer and present her registration card to the registration officer for the purpose of having the permit of change of residence, if granted, endorsed upon her registration card.

"If the registration officer denies the application there may be an appeal under certain circumstances set forth in Article 13, Paragraph 3, of the General Regulations, to the U. S. Marshal of the Judicial District for final action. A change of residence in violation to the regulations subjects an alien enemy, among other penalties, to arrest and detention for the period of the war. The registration officers who acted in the registration will continue to act as registration officers for the purpose stated in respect to permits for a change of residence. Upon application therefor all necessary blanks including applications and notices referred to above will be supplied by the United States Marshal to chief registrars in cities and to the United States postmasters in communities of less than 5,000 population."

Then, and then only, will you be sure that your corn will loosen from your toe so that you can peel it right off gloriously easy with your fingers. Take no chances of continued pain and soreness—why use greasy, irritating salves, plasters that shift and "diggers" that make corns bleed and also grow faster? Use painless, easy, always sure "Gets-It." There's only one like it in the world—that's "Gets-It." Millions have tried and "Gets-It" is the only one that never fails.

The Voices of the Orchestra
The myriad, melodious voices of the wonderfully modern orchestra yield the greatest witchery in music. The soft smoothness of the violins—the soulful cellos—the whining saxophones—the agile, dancing clarinets and flutes—the noble majesty of the French horns—the comical buffoonery of the oboes and bassoons—the martial fire of the trombones—the full-throated double basses, and the cymbals, triangles and drums—all these and many others have their message for you in the modern orchestra. In marvelous reality you can hear and recognize each of their voices in the composite voice of
The NEW EDISON
"The Phonograph with a Soul"
Their familiar, characteristic timbres come to you clear and clean, laughing, bantering one with the other, blending in the marvelous tone-pictures that the genius of the master-musicians calls forth. Yet so faithfully are they Re-Created that each stands alone—each voice has its story for you if you will but listen.
Come, and we will be glad to Re-Create for you, whenever you wish to hear them, the great orchestral masterpieces.

COUNTRY PAPERS MUST CONSUME LESS PAPER
Washington, Aug. 27.—Reduction of 25 per cent of all publication space in excess of eight pages for country weekly newspapers was ordered yesterday by chairman Baruch of the War Industries Board.
Other features of a conservation plan for news print paper by which this order is extended to include the country weeklies are discontinuance of papers to subscribers who are in arrears three months after subscriptions expire, stopping the free use of copies for exchanges within the same county for a forty-mile radius, stopping the publication of extra copies for advertising stimulation, and stopping the return of unsold newspapers from newsdealers.
Newspaper conservation regulations affecting weekly, bi-weekly and quarterly magazines, that were announced today by the War Industries Board, require use of lighter paper and a reduction of 10 per cent in the tonnage of paper used this year. No guarantee is given of adequate supply under the reduced tonnage. Selling of advertising on the basis of a rebate is ordered stopped, as are various alleged wasteful practices.

They wrote of having had such a pleasant trip across, and that en route met up with one of the Cross boys, who had joined the Navy some time before they enlisted. He was with one of the ships in the convoy across, and in talking over old times found out that the last time they were together was at a round-up in 1912. The boys are not on the firing line yet, but are camped at one of the picturesque chateaus, and say it is one of the most beautiful places they have seen. DESERVES A GOLD MEDAL FOR THIS

Cincinnati authority tells how to dry up any corn or callus so it lifts right off.

You corn pestered men and women need suffer no longer. Wear the shoes that nearly killed you before, says this Cincinnati authority, because a few drops of freezone applied directly on a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once and soon the corn loosens so it can be lifted out, root and all, without a bit of pain.

A quarter of an ounce of freezone costs very little at any drug store, but is sufficient to take off every hard or soft corn or callus. This should be tried, as it is inexpensive and is said not to inflame or even irritate the surrounding tissue or skin.

If your wife wears high heels she will be glad to know of this. Advertisement
