CHURCH ROBBERS

The world, the flesh, and the devil are constantly hurling accusations at the church, but they do not point you to the real robbers. Would a man rob God? No. But a Bolshevik, hypocrite, and heretic would. They are robbing the church every day. They are using two great methods.

First: They are sending their agents, their rationalistic and Bolshevik heretics into the church. Of course, they have to perjure themselves and sing their own souls in order to get in. Then when they enter the church their obligations begin not to the church but to the premeditated conspirators against the church. There isn't a heretic in the church today who isn't the conscious or unconscious agent of the conspirators who are trying to rob the church of her influence and power.

Here is not an intellectual evolution; it is an evidence of heart degeneracy, and is absolute proof of the total depravity of mankind. These agents inside of the church preach their false doctrines not because they believe them, but because they are part of a conspiracy to destroy the world's confidence in the church. So far as intent and purpose are concerned, they are as black as Judas Iscariot.

Second: There is another group of these conspirators and robbers who are both in and out of the church. Their method is to take from the church for circular use every dollar that they can possibly extract from the members. They are constantly devising schemes and plans and organizations and methods by which the church member is relieved of his money and is made to contribute to organizations, methods, plans, and programs, which are antagonistic to the spiritual work of the church.

Nearly seventy per cent of all the moneys contributed to these outside competing antagonistic and destructive agencies is contributed by the members of the Christian church. They are robbing the church member, the church organization, and God in order that they may fill the coffers of the devil and build up the institutions of hell. They are all co-conspirators with the infamous heretics that are today making their attacks upon the church, upon the Bible, and upon Christ.

MILK GOATS HAVE ENTERED SOCIETY

A goat is a goat, but there is a difference in breeding, just as there is among humans. There are all kinds of goats, just as there are all kinds of people, but as breeding will show in members of the human race, so it will in goats. Some humans, however, butt into society through the influence of newly acquired wealth, but goats get in on merit alone.

Milk goats of the better breeding are not yet so plentiful that the ordinary person appreciates the difference between the kind that gives an abundance of rich, healthful milk, and the ordinary alley goat so frequently pictured as a digester of tin cans and other garbage. To the ignorant, goats were created as a source of copy for alleged humorists and as a substitute for mutton to be sold to the poorer classes. There are others who know different, for milk goats are not only a source of profit to those who keep them, but have saved the lives of thousands and restored the health of thousands more.

Goats Travel De Luxe

Recently seventy purebred Toggenburg milk goats were assembled in California and loaded into specially equipped cars and sent to the farm of Charles A. Stevens, a wealthy merchant prince of Chicago, who keeps a herd of Toggenburgs at his summer home on Dolan Lake Wisconsin. These goats will be auctioned off to a party of millionaires during the month of June, the bids on the best to be started at $5,000.

These millionaires are not bidding a small fortune for a goat just because of some hobby. They have learned something of the value of the milk goat, and having the money, want only the best obtainable. They will be placed on the estates of those men and their numbers multiplied through scientific breeding. They recognize the fact that the milk goat is destined to become a family institution.

Interesting Chain of Circumstances

Howard C. Kegley, in the May number of the Goat World, tells the story of the circumstances which developed the interest of Mr. Stevens in the pure bred milk goat. Mr. Kegley's story is, in part, as follows: "Five years ago Mr. Stevens' granddaughter, little Barbara Seper, was suffering from indigestion. The family physician prescribed goat's milk. It could not be found in Chicago.

"Mr. Stevens sent for the advertising manager of his store and commissioned him to buy a milk goat without delay. The advertising manager ran a liner in the Chicago papers, asking for a milk goat and requesting that replies be sent to Stevens store. The ad proved to be somewhat of a joke in Chicago.

"Replies drifted in by the hundred, but all of them were from people who owned hill goats, with long horns—the sort of goats that children have to hitch to their little express wagons. There wasn't a milk goat in the lot. People were apparently keeping goats to amuse, rather than to nourish their children.

"Someone told Mr. Stevens to advertise in the foreign language newspapers, opining that the Italians and Swiss would probably have milk goats. This suggestion was adopted but it didn't bear fruit, so Mr. Stevens called the advertising manager to his office again and sent him forth to stalk a Toggenburg and bring it in.

How did your neighbor's last bargain tire turn out

PROBABLY you know at least one car-owner who is always on the look-out for the cheapest tires he can find. He likes to get them by mail or at a sale or at some place where they have big red bargain signs over the door.

It would be fine if he could get "the edge" in every tire trade.

But the dealer can't afford to let him have it.

Even if a man saw any slight percentage in tire shopping at all—it disappeared when the "Usco" brought the price down.

A standard product—and the dealer sells it with pride.

A good tire. The dealer has no desire to trade you into a larger profit for himself.

An out-in-the-open tire. The dealer sells you confidence, not price. He wants you satisfied with performance and value. The only way he knows to get your business is to deserve it.

This is the "Usco" idea.

Compared with the ten-minute thrill of the bargain appeal, the "Usco" is just plain common-sense.

Pecos has this week been experiencing some of the hottest weather of the summer and the showers have been a boon to the sweetshop—only for a while.

Recently J. G. Love stopped in the Enterprise office to state that he did not attend the commencement exercises of the school because of his health, but that he had been thinking of the graduates just the same.

COST OF ROAD BUILDING Villages and counties contemplating road building should get in touch with The Bureau of Public Roads of the United States Department of Agriculture, if they would save taxpayers from exploitation at the hands of unconscionable contractors.

For the most part village boards are supremely ignorant in matters of road building as might be expected, but they can operate along business lines.

THE RAILROAD OWNED PRESS The Jacksonville, Florida, Journal has openly raised the question as to the right of a public service corporation to own a newspaper.

That railroad owned newspapers are a dangerous influence in any community, there seems to be no doubt. It is quite out of the question for newspapers owned by railroads to present to the public fair and impartial facts and editorial opinion on such vital questions as freight rates for example, yet upon an intelligent understanding of the freight rate situation on the part of the public depends the prosperity of the great farming population that feeds the nation and the cost of living for the public that must depend on the tiller of the soil.

It would be a beneficial service if legislation were enacted prohibiting the ownership of newspapers by public service corporations, and it is quite within range of possibility that this much to be desired restriction can be brought about if the country press unites in insisting upon it.

THE FEW RULE THE MANY

A friend of ours said to us the other day: Dick, us little devils don't have much chance in the world today, the big guys get all the cream, and we have to survive on the skimmed milk.

RELAXATION IN POLITICS Senator Frederick Hale of Maine, who was renominated at the late primaries in that state, is one public man who can find no reasonable fault with the cold, wet summer.

an iron hand, enforced the closure rule, and made them lick salt from his hand. And we remember one time he used the party lash, made 'em walk up and tow the mark, and one poor wealking said: Well Uncle Joe, I'll vote for it, but I'm going home and go to plowing, and sure enough he did. Yes, cut out the bosses in politics, religion, commerce, community life or what not, and we would just be a wrangling mob, never get anywhere.

HOBO A NO. 1

The Enterprise editor has no sympathy for the common run of hobo who has an education or claims to have and is traveling over the country just to keep from producing. Hobo A-No. 1 mentioned in the hereto attached article from the El Paso Herald, was a visitor at the Enterprise office on his way to El Paso and while in Pecos got the signature and seal of the city secretary and mayor of the town.

Mr. A-No. 1 blew into El Paso just like an ordinary hobo several days ago. His unusual nerve won for him a paragraph. Friday afternoon he came to the Herald editorial rooms, announcing he was about to leave the city and seeking further mention.

From Ohio State Journal (Rep.) Opposites attract opposites and perhaps the fact now pointed out by Senator Lodge, that President Harding has never misinterpreted his relations to the universe, explains why dear Cabot seems to like to go to the White House parties so well.

C. O. P. GEMS.

Success involves its penalties and we have our moments of depression when we almost wish that we Republicans were in the minority, so the fool things we do wouldn't be so noticeable and those the Democrats would do if they had the chance would show to good advantage in this critical hour.

GREAT EVENTS—THE SUMMER VISIT TO GRANDMA'S—

FREIGHT RATES STRANGLING BUSINESS

High freight rates are slowly strangling the "Goose that lays golden eggs." The movements of products from the farm and the factory back to the rural markets constitute a very large part of the business of railroads, and every dollar taken from the producers beyond a reasonable charge based on the value of the commodity, reduces the ability of the farmer to buy and adversely influences every other line of business.

In a recent address made by Secretary Wilson, of the Department of Agriculture, he very pointedly expresses himself on the subject and substantiates his statements with figures which show conclusively that freight rates have reduced the buying power of producers. Mr. Wilson says that high freight rates have had a blighting effect on the agricultural industry and have contributed materially to the business depression from which all industry has suffered.

pay the freight on the corn to Chicago. In Texas the transportation costs on a ton of cabbage from the Rio Grande Valley to Dallas has frequently been twelve times the amount the producer received for growing it.

Lower freight rates are almost necessary to the return of greater industrial activity and to prosperity in the rural districts.—Farm and Ranch

Dave Gotchacva will leave tonight for Galveston. Dave is now taking his well earned vacation. He is connected with the Western Union Telephone Co., and earned a round-trip ticket for turning in subscriptions for an El Paso daily.

Judge Harry MacTier is in Pecos this week and is beginning to look like an old-timer, which he really is. He says he is making a strong race for county attorney and it will take a real race horse to beat him out at the end of the polls.

J. W. Moore who placed a couple of small advertisements in the Enterprise a couple of weeks ago stating that he wanted chickens, is now one of the busiest men in Pecos. They are coming in at all times in the day and from every point of the compass. It pays to advertise in the Enterprise.

Mrs. H. H. Johnson and little son, Howell, returned Sunday from Corsicana where they had been visiting since school closed, with her mother and other relatives. During the time Mrs. Johnson studied the kindergarten work and "Story telling" under experts in these lines.

Boy I. Biggs, candidate for county attorney, is gradually waking up, and is now seeing some of the voters over the county and says he will make things hot from now on until the election is over. Roy is a home boy but is well read in law, being a graduate of the law department of the State University.

Mrs. Hugh Roberson and daughters, Misses Elsie, Eleanor and Annie Evelyn, Mrs. H. R. Anderson, Miss Cornelia Biggs, Miss Beatrice Bowie and Misses Stella and Rena Kiser left Sunday for an outing at Phantom Lake, where they will enjoy fishing and bathing as well as inhaling the ozone of the Davis Mountains for a week or more.

In the article last week headed "Reclamation Engineer Favorably Impressed." The name of R. H. Gray was inadvertently left out. Mr. Gray was one of the party to accompany Mr. Bonstedt on the entire trip and was one of the entertainers. Mr. Gray is a live wire and has the interests of his community and the best interests of the ultimate construction of the Red Bluff dam at heart.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ligon are the happy parents of a fine daughter, born to them Friday, June 23rd, 1922. All are doing well.

R. A. Wiseman, wife and son, came in from Floresville Saturday to look after interests here. Mr. Wiseman is cashier of the First National Bank of Floresville and a cousin of Mrs. Lillie Cole, and has lands in this county which he was looking after while here. The family accompanied by Mrs. Cole, left Tuesday for Floresville where Mrs. Cole will spend the summer with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. "Tony" Bruce of Toyah, bride and groom, were visitors at the Enterprise last Tuesday and inspected the intricate working of the linotype machines. They were shopping in Pecos for furnishings for their beautiful new residence recently erected by George Bruce, the leading contractor on this vicinity for their home. They were married at Brownwood, Texas, on the 22nd of this month.

Judge W. A. Hudson and family, Judge J. E. Starley and family, Dr. Starley, Mrs. B. R. Stine and children, Miss Poe, Miss Caroline Sullivan, Miss Lucile Prewit and Misses Corelia and Lucy Ligon and Walter Jones constituted an outing party in the Madeira Canyon for several days. They returned Wednesday and report a most delightful time, nevertheless, there were heavy rains on the mountains during the time they were there.

E. L. George, who served four years in the U. S. Navy was discharged on the 16th of June at Philadelphia, Pa., and arrived in Balmorhea the 21st of June. After a week's visit at I. L. Barlow he passed through Pecos Wednesday. He spent several hours at Mrs. M. E. Randolph's. Miss Mary Barlow accompanied him as far as Pecos on his homeward trip to Edge, Texas, where his parents live. Mr. George is a fine young man.

Cecilia Marie Stratton, youngest daughter of E. L. Stratton, who attended the Pecos schools last year, graduated with high honors on the 15th from the Polytechnic High School of Long Beach, the largest attended high school in California with over 3400 students. Cecilia was one of four in the graduating class of 331 having a general average of over 95 and received a second prize given by the Worth While Magazine to the students having the highest ratings for the year.

Judge W. A. Hudson, candidate for district judge, is not allowing anything to deter him from seeing the voters in the interest of his election to that office. Judge Hudson is well versed in law and in case of election would make a splendid district judge. Now is the opportunity of a lifetime for the west end of the district to get its first district judge, by voting solidly for Judge Hudson, who believes he is gaining all the time and will undoubtedly, if indications count for anything in a political election, be in the second running, if there be one.

Hon. W. W. Stewart is out stumping the district in his interest as candidate for representative from this district. It will be remembered that Mr. Stewart was chairman of the irrigation committee, member of the live stock committee and was a joint author of the bill that put live stock commission houses under heavy bond to secure payments to shipments consigned to them. He is the daddy of the Davis Mountain State Park movement which looks very much like it might go through provided its promoter is not repudiated in the coming election. He was also a member of the oil, gas and mining committee and public lands committee. Mr. Stewart did some splendid work for his district and a work which cannot and will not be taken up by a new man. Probably no man in the representative halls has more influence than does Mr. Stewart, considering the time he has served. The district will make no mistake, the Enterprise feels sure, in re-electing Stewart as our next representative.

The Toliver Dry Goods Co. is now preparing to put on one of the biggest sales in its history. They are marking the goods down to where they will have to go and propose that no one in this trading territory shall not know of the impending sale. Readers of the Enterprise will probably find as good reading in the advertisements contained therein as in the reading, and just now there is a good lot of it. People do not advertise for the fun of it or just to see their names in the paper, but in order to apprise the public that they have something to sell which might be wanted by the public. Every advertisement in the Enterprise carries a news story which is worth reading, and if the public will read the ads and patronize those who advertise they will not only get the best at the best possible price but will enable those to keep on telling their story through the best medium of advertising in Reeves county—the Enterprise—and that will enable the editor to continue to give the public one of the best country weeklies in West Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee D. Kingston were in Pecos the forepart of the week on their way to Fort Worth, where they go to consult a specialist. Lee does not look as if he needed a specialist or anything else for that matter, but he will consult one just the same. They are of our best and most prosperous stockmen.

Birge Holt, candidate for district attorney, was in Pecos yesterday seeing the voters and getting acquainted. Birge is a genial good fellow and says he will keep the trails warm from now until the election is over seeing the voters and presenting his claims. He is a young man but from all accounts well qualified to fill the position he is seeking.

Many friends of the Drummond family will be glad to learn that their daughter, Mrs. Rogers, at Plainview, who was recently operated on for appendicitis, has sufficiently recovered to be removed from the sanitarium to her home. A young gentleman who will bear the above name arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver King last Sunday, June 24th, and took up his abode and is now in charge of affairs. He is a fine young fellow and in a few short years will be able to outstrip his dad in the art of roping a steer or riding a bronc.
