SECRETARY WEST TEXAS CHAMBER GIVES HIS VIEWS

Porter A. Whaley of Stamford, Secretary of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, summed up in a nut-shell the most pregnant ideas in connection with the organization and maintenance of a live commercial organization in any city. His statement follows:

Why should a city have a commercial organization? Because if it lives up to its duties, it will be the most potent force in the community for progress. Its duties are to do anything and everything necessary for and incident to the upbuilding and better building of the city and its environs. Its duty is not only to make a city grow but also to make it better, a more sanitary, a prettier and more enjoyable place in which to live.

Its province or field of work reaches out into every branch and takes cognizance of every phase of the city's life. The commercial interests, wholesale, retail, and manufacturing; the professional interests; the government of the city, county and state, the social side of the city's life where it touches the question of public morals and health; all of these and in truth every channel of activity comes under its practical eye.

The commercial organization has a first duty in that it must bring all of the elements of the entire community, county as well as city, together in one compact body working for the uplift of the community. It must teach the individual composing these elements the lesson of achievement through cooperation. It must arouse the citizenry from the old time lethargy to a quickened interest, and always and everywhere preach the gospel of sane, safe and sound development, unselfishness, public-spiritedness and civic pride. Its motto must be, "If it's good for the community, then let us have it." What helps the city as a whole, has a like beneficial effect upon everyone within its boundaries.

Not only the business and professional men make good boosters but also the young men, the clerks in the stores, the women in both the house and the office or store and the children in the schools. It is the duty of the commercial organization to spread its propaganda of development as to obtain the efficient aid of all these forces. Many organizations secure much of their force and power from their women's auxiliaries. In campaigns for sanitation and beauty their help is incalculable.

The commercial organization has a duty toward the city government which it cannot afford to overlook in spite of the howls of the politician who knows his power is on the decline when the business interests cast their microscopic eyes of investigation upon his maneuvers. Every effort should be made to work with the administration in an amicable way, but if this is not possible, it is the duty of the commercial organization to continue to interest itself in the affairs of the city government.

The civic body has this right because its members are the heavy tax payers, its business men make the city habitable. No city could run without them. They are vital and so, being vital, they have the first moral rights to speak in the control and management of the city affairs.

It is the civic body's duty to intersect itself in all legislative matters which may have an effect upon the city. The astute ability and acumen of the business mind is necessary for the successful handling of such questions as taxation. It needs a business head to work out the intricacies of financing the great public improvements. The unselfish democracy of the commercial organization is needed to keep its finger on the pulse of the whole body politic.

It is the duty of the commercial organization to conduct its affairs upon a business basis. Whether in the location of industries or in the effort to get new and larger parks there should be a business like method adopted.

It is the duty of the civic body to interest itself in educational matters. Upon the schools depend the future ability and activity of the city's people. The civic body can and should exert its most wholesome influence for the continued development of the school system.

It is the duty of the commercial organization to do everything in its power to eliminate all forms of detrimental publicity. It is its duty to endeavor in all right ways to attract new residents and new business and to assist in their location in all legitimate ways.

Respectfully,
PORTER A. WPALEY.

REPUBLICANS RETAIN CONTROL OF U. S. SENATE

The election in Reeves county was a tame affair and brought out only a small vote. The Senatorial race was all that attracted the voters here to the polls—or rather all that elicited much attention. A total of about 225 votes were counted at the Pecos box which gave Mayfield 164, Paddy 6, and Culbertson 1.

According to latest reports Arizona and New Mexico will both have democratic governor.

The Dallas News carries the following in regard to the Senatorial standing:

With the races for United States Senator undecided in six States, it is apparent that the Republican party in Tuesday's election retained control of the Senate. Republican Senators in the next Congress will number forty-three with the possibility of this being increased by the election of Ernest Bamberger, who is leading in Utah, to forty-four. This voting strength will be augmented by Hiram W. Johnson (Republican and Progressive) and Edwin F. Ladd (Nonpartisan-Republican), who hold seats, respectively, from California and North Dakota.

Democratic Senators in the next Congress on the face of conceded elections will number thirty-eight with the possibility of this number being increased to forty-one by the election of the following, who are leading in their respective States: Burton K. Wheeler, Montana; Andrews A. Jones, New Mexico; J. F. T. O'Connor, North Dakota; C. C. Dill, Washington, and Matthew M. Neely, West Virginia.

In the last Congress the strength of the Democratic and Republican parties was, respectively, thirty-six and fifty-nine, indicating a decided Democratic gain.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Republican, whose defeat was forecast on the face of incomplete returns, apparently has been re-elected in Massachusetts. Simeon D. Fess, Republican, however, defeated Atlee Pomerene, Democrat, in Ohio.

Eliminating the eight States in which a definite decision has not been reached, the personnel of the next Senate will include:

Alabama—Oscar W. Underwood (Dem.), James Thomas Heflin (Dem.).

Wreath For Our Dead in France.

When the American Steamship, George Washington, swung its prow to the East from New York last week it carried a huge wreath to be placed on the grave of our soldier dead in France, Armistice Day, November 11th.

Thos. V. Fields, representing the American Legion, was this year commissioned to make the annual pilgrimage, and place the tribute on the grave of America's Unknown Soldier buried in Paris. Photo shows Mrs. Shanahan of the War Mothers' Association giving the wreath to Fields on board ship at sailing time.

LONG DISTANCE CONNECTION BY DECEMBER FIRST

Ralph Sparks manager of the Pecos & Northwestern Telephone Co., this week received a message from the Southwestern Bell Telephone people to the effect that owing to delay in shipment of line material for their new long distance line to Pecos that they would not be able to connect before the first of December with the Pecos office.

While this is to be regretted it is good to know that we will have long distance telephone connections with the outside world at an early date and that when we do it will give us as good service as those of the larger cities have.

BADGETT SALT GUSHER CLASSIFIED "AIR WELL"

The non-inflammable gas from Badgett No. 1 of Bower & Reed is coming from a sub-terranean air pocket, according to analysis recently made of the gas. The Chamber of Commerce announced last week that a number of tests had been made of the gas, all of which had disclosed the presence of nitrogen. A compilation of these reports shows an average of 84 per cent nitrogen.

R. M. Hoffer of San Angelo, representative of the oil and gas division of the Railroad Commission, spent Friday and Saturday at Colorado and in the field on official business. Mr. Hoffer stated Saturday that the well was making approximately 12,000,000 feet of gas pressure, as compared with 40,000,000 three weeks ago. The production of salt water has reduced to less than two hundred barrels per day, he stated.

"Some of those drillers are going to bring in a big oil gusher in this field one of these days," Hoffer stated in commenting upon the potentialities of the Mitchell county field. "I have never seen it to fail yet and I have been closely associated with the oil business for a great many years. There are too many tests out there, scattered over a wide territory that are being drilled in as producers for me to believe otherwise. There is no doubt about oil being in this vicinity and further drilling will most assuredly find it."—Colorado Record.

IMPORTANT TEST SPUDS IN MONDAY, NOVEMBER 13

Next Monday, November 13, with-out regard to hoodos or the general opinion regarding so-called "doodle bugs" the Burchard No. 1 well will be spudded in near the northeast corner of section 45, block 58, school land, Reeves county, Texas.

This well will be drilled by the Tatum Lease Syndicate et al and in addition to owning a quarter interest in the production from the first well the Tatum Lease Syndicate own the lease on the broadside ten acre off-set to the well. For this interest they furnish the drilling machinery and the casing while Mr. W. M. Hopper and his sons, Gus and Joe, own the three-fourths interest in the well and some considerable acreage. Mr. Hopper and sons will drill the well without pay and the test is being made to prove once again the worth of Mr. Willoughby's oil locating magnet.

The importance of this test can only be comprehended when one is actually on the ground since it is being drilled in condemned territory. Only 770 feet north a well was drilled some several months ago by Stanton, a duster, 1900 feet northwest the Bisby well, a duster, and 1805 feet southwest is the Powell well also a duster. There are no structural lines or other geological indications that would lead one to suspect that the location made by Mr. Willoughby is better than these dry holes, or if so it would seem that this location would have been drilled upon geological advice.

All of the dry holes referred to above are in plain sight of the new location and stand as mute evidence that the immediate territory is condemned but the bringing in of a well will prove most conclusively that this oil-locating magnet is no "jinx," that old methods are to take a back seat and new life and activity will no doubt result since Mr. Willoughby has long claimed that Reeves county would prove to be the greatest oil county in the entire state and this test is being made to prove to the most skeptical that his instrument is dependable.

It will be remembered that last week the Enterprise told of the test in the Toyah field where a practical off-set to a producing well and only 614 feet away was pronounced dry by Mr. Willoughby and abandoned dry November 3, just as he said it would be.

OIL FIELD SHOWS NO NEW DEVELOPMENT DURING WEEK

TOYAH-BELL WELL.
It is understood that Granger and Green spent one afternoon the forepart of the week at the Toyah-Bell well swabbing. During this time a great deal of oil and some water flowed over the top. The Enterprise understands that the swabbing on this occasion was stopped for the reason that Granger and Green had only this time to spend before they had to return to the Laura well. There is some talk of making further effort to remove the casing from the Toyah-Bell when it is believed that with a little swabbing it will come in a continuous gusher.

THE LAURA WELL.
The Laura well of the Sunshine-Federal interests was given a "shot" Friday of last week and, it is understood, another Sunday in an effort to remove obstructions which have prevented the making of hole for some time. They were temporarily out of fuel oil Thursday which prevented the testing out of the results of the shooting. It was expected that they would have fuel oil yesterday afternoon at which time they would resume operations and obtain the results of the shot.

THE BELL WELL.
The Bell well is drilling at approximately thirty-two hundred feet—trouble with the boiler flues the first of the week held up drilling for several days, but drilling was resumed Friday morning.

The formation and indications at this well most certainly warrant the optimism and confidence that is displayed by both drilling crew and management.

WILLOUGHBY WELL.
Word comes from Mr. C. H. Willoughby of the Willoughby Petroleum Co., that work on Willoughby No. 1 will start up again as soon as casing blocks can be had from the Tatum well, the manager of which reports that they expect to be done with them today.

HERSHENSON WELL.
Satisfactory progress is being made at the Hershenson well this week. Formation has changed to soft, and better headway is being made.

NEW LOCATION MADE IN THE TOYAH OIL FIELD

Toyah, Texas, Nov. 9, 1922.

The Burchard No. 1 located in northeast corner of section 45 of school block 58, Reeves county, Texas, will be spudded in on next Monday by the Tatum Lease Syndicate. Machinery is being moved and there will be no delay. This location is meant for a direct test of the oil locating magnet of C. H. Willoughby he having made this location in the midst of three dry holes—The Stanton well, a duster, 770 feet north; Bisby 1900 feet northwest; Powell well 1805 feet southwest, all dry holes. In the well just completed by the Tatum Lease Syndicate, before it had reached the depth where oil is found in the field Mr. Willoughby tested it with this magnet and predicted a dry hole and it proved to be so. He has now selected the new location as a further test and promises production and the writer will make reports from time to time on this location.

The deep test of the Tatum Lease Syndicate 20 miles west of Toyah has completed straight reaming and will finish running their casing today and affect a shut off of water and determine the extent of the showing found between 1050 and 1110 feet.

The Wesner well drilling at 2400 feet on the Sayles ranch is gassing with a showing of oil, according to unconfirmed reports reaching the city this morning.

The Willoughby Petroleum Company drilling on the Cowan ranch on section 2 block C-13, 8 miles east of the Tatum well, will resume drilling as soon as they can secure the casing blocks used by the Tatum Lease Syndicate on their deep test—the Tatum well. R. L. Larker.

CATTLE MOVEMENTS.
C. G. Wright of Angeles sold 2 cars of yearlings and C. W. Goedeke sold 5 cars calves to H. Oliphant for the Standard Live Stock Commission Co., of Wichita, Kansas, and same have been shipped this week. Last week W. D. Cowan sold 8 cars calves and steers to same parties. Above sales were made through H. F. Anthony of Pecos. Mr. Anthony has leased the Crystal water ranch, 25 miles south of Pecos and about 1,000 head of steers will pasture there this winter.

BIG ROAD-BUILDING PROGRAM AHEAD

Fifteen to twenty years of building good roads lie ahead of the United States. Under the program which the country has adopted there will be built, during that time, 180,000 miles of improved highways which will constitute the Federal-aid highway system and an equal or greater mileage of State and local roads. When the great job is done, the transportation facilities of the country will far exceed those of any other nation, past or present, in the world. The highways of the ancient Romans, whose fame has come down through the centuries, will pale by comparison.

Details of this vast road-building program are to be placed before the Highway Education Board at its conference in Washington October 26 to 28, inclusive, by State Highway Engineers and officials of the Bureau of Public Roads, United States Department of Agriculture, to whom has been entrusted the work of planning and supervising the construction of Federal-aid highways. The plan will be presented to enable the Board to proceed authoritatively with its work of devising aids for schools and colleges to which road-builders of the country are turning for competent highway engineers.

Officials of the bureau place the aggregate cost of the Federal-aid program alone at about $3,000,000,000, spread over the twenty-year period. They base this estimate on an average cost of $17,000 per mile. The average cost, in turn, takes into consideration all classes of improved roadways from the cheapest to the most expensive types. Approximately one-third of the proposed system, or 60,000 miles of improved highways, already are, either built or building.

The program is a new one. Up to comparatively recent years, road-building in the United States had been conducted without special regard to a national system. Highways had been constructed where needed without considering whether they would link up in the most effective manner with the whole network of roads to be spread over the Nation. Engineers had sought more to meet immediate and local demands than the broader requirements of the State and nation.

The present Federal-aid road-building program, officials of the bureau state, will contemplate the construction of only such roads as fit into the national program and contribute to the national system. At the same time the roads will be so selected as to serve the most important local requirements. With marked modification, the system adopted in building the railways of the country will be borne in mind in the construction of the country's new highways. There will be main lines of highway communication between centers and thousands of miles of feeder roads, reaching back into the more sparsely settled regions and into the rich agricultural sections, to tap areas whose population and products will flow over the new system.

New roads will be planned and built—thousands of miles of them—where they will fit in most advantageously with the entire program. The bureau is continuing its research work into most efficient methods of road-building, including the character and wearing power of materials, resisting qualities of varying sub-soil, etc., and has amassed a considerable store of valuable information all of which will be available for the highway engineer of tomorrow, whom the board is seeking to have educated in practical and modern methods.

BIG MEN

Big men always grow in communities far from the borders of our horizon. We see their names and faces in the newspapers and magazines, but to us they are myths. We often wonder why this is, and are inclined to think that destiny has played us a cruel trick in dropping us in the center of so much mediocrity.

Go where you may and light where you will and you'll always find the same condition. Big men are a mirage whose place of abode we never reach; they are the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow.

Great preachers, great orators, great lawyers, great heads of commercial and industrial enterprises! How we would love to walk and talk with them, if we but knew their street address or their telephone number! We might become greater ourselves if we were but privileged to rub shoulders with the big men, or sit at their feet and learn wisdom.

Now, there's Dr. Small, pastor of our local church; he went off to Chicago to attend a convention and all the papers wrote him up and printed his picture, but pshaw! we've heard him preach and he's not so wonderful. Take this fellow Ed Pearce, the guy who used to be cashier of our local bank, he got a big job up in New York and is now president, and they say he draws a whale of a salary, but he's not so wonderful; we've known him all his life, and he's just common everyday sort of a fellow. And there's Calvin Jackson, the lawyer, went out to Frisco and made a speech and all the papers called him "a modern Demosthenes," but he's just a common garden variety sort of a lawyer and we wonder how the papers could be so fooled.

A year or so ago Tom Price was called to Toledo to become manager of a manufacturing concern and the other day a New York magazine wrote him up and called him a business genius, but we know better; we used to go to school with that bird. Wait until they find him out and then watch his stock tumble!

This community has sent out several fellows who now have big jobs, but it's luck, pure luck. We've pitched horseshoes with them, been to parties with them, and bummed chewing tobacco from them, and we know they're not big men; they're just getting by on their nerve, that's all. Wait for the shakedown.

This is a miserable community to live in. No big men at all; nothing but little peewees who talk about the weather and walk a block to save a penny. Sometimes they get all steamed up over something and pop off, but they can't fool us; we know 'em.

We'd like to live in a community where they grow big men!—W. D. Trotter in Southwestern Machinery.

"WILL TEXAS PROVIDE ADEQUATE SUPPORT FOR PUBLIC SCHOOLS?"

"YES, WHEN THE LORD GIVES HER AN EDUCATIONAL STATESMAN."
"Will Texas provide adequate support for public schools," Dr. H. T. Musselman, whom Governor Neff sent to study California's support of schools compared with Texas' support of schools, answered: "Yes, when the Lord gives Texas an educational statesman. In California they think of educational needs in right relations. In Texas most of the thinking on school support is single-track thinking—how in the name of all Heaven can I get the money for my work?"

"In California they think every child and youth should have an American chance, and have it first. So there is nine months of schooling for every child, and high schools within reach of all boys and girls. In Texas we have hardly a six month school term for all, and there are some six hundred thousand boys and girls without an opportunity to get a high school education."

"In California they believe the childreep should have as good teachers as the few who go to college. Ninety percent of the teachers in her public schools have had training to teach. In Texas nearly forty percent of those teaching rural schools have had no training at all and hold second grade certificates."

"In California they believe the country children should have good books to read and use in school. So there is the county library from which books can be obtained for all. In Texas there are thousands of rural schools without anything like a real collection of books for the use of the children."

"How did California come to provide the support for such an adequate school system? For a number of years the state has been blessed with educational statesmanship. This support was not provided because the Californian loved his children better than the Texan. Nor was it because the Californian loved a square deal for all the children of all the people more than the Texan. There is just as much love for children and just as much regard for a square deal in Texas as there is in California."

"All Texas needs to get her to provide an adequate support for the public schools is enlightenment as to her real school needs and the sources from which support may be justly obtained to meet those needs. This means wise educational leadership. I repeat; all Texas needs is an educational statesman, a Jim Hogg, if you please, laboring with heart and brain for justice for Texas children. And a bit of praying for such a leader is eminently in order."

COWARDLY HUSBANDS

The average husband is a coward. The average wife is a bully. Men have either yielded to the spirit of the day and have permitted their wives to dominate the domestic circles to its disgrace, or they have practically abandoned their homes.

Consequently, they occupy one section of the city namely, the business and the club sections, the saloon or the pool hall, while the wives take a similar direction in another part of the city; the home stands between these two factors in a neglected condition.

Women have been thrown out into the world and seem to care more for the activities, excitements, gaieties and outside glares than they do for the domestic drudgery, seclusion, responsibilities and glories of home.

Women ought to be forced to go home. But their husbands are too cowardly to force them, or they are too indifferent to their responsibility, or they would rather glide or travel the road of least resistance, and let the home drift.

The home is drifting; children are roaming; wives are gadding. Their husbands are practicing fraud and dishonesty on their families. They are cowardly.

The time has come to reestablish the home with the sovereignty of the federal head, the sacredness of domestic seclusion, and the proper adjustment of domestic duties.

The dark spot in the present civilization is the neglected home. Cowardly husbands are responsible for every phase of domestic decline.

Let the men awake, reassert themselves, re-establish their homes, and build again the domestic—the national fortification—namely, a well-organized domestic circle.

WORTH $293.00 PER DAY

Young people, you must make yourselves efficient and handle your earnings properly during your productive years if you are to escape the common lot of being dependent in old age.

The average educated man gets a salary of $2,000 a year. He works forty years, earning a total of $80,000 in a life-time. The average day laborer gets $3.00 per day, three hundred days in the year, or $900.00 a year. In forty years he earns $36,000. The difference $44,000 equals the financial value of an education. To acquire this earning capacity requires about five months time or one hundred and fifty days in the Tyler Commercial College. Divide one hundred and fifty days into $44,000, the value of an education, and you will find that each day spent in the Tyler Commercial

College is worth $293 to you without considering the satisfaction and pleasure of living a much more successful life.

Life insurance companies have compiled the following astounding figures on one hundred average men at the age of sixty-five, which is as follows: Thirty-five are dead; one rich; four wealthy; six are self supporting, but compelled to work for a living; fifty-four or over half the number, are dependent on children, relatives or charity. If you could sit down and talk to any one of those fifty-four you would get earnest advice to "prepare and train." What is the secret of success? Preparation and Training for business.

You don't expect to die young and surely you don't want to be in the class who are dependent in old age. Avoid it by getting the proper business training in youth. Fill in and mail for free catalogue. Get out of the poor pay class.

Richard Lloyd Jones tells About Future Supplies.

A SCHOOLBOY whose awakened conscience and interest in the world as it is, mixed his arithmetic and geographic knowledge into a long list of interrogations that perplexed him.

"What are we going to do for shingles and boards when the trees are all cut down?"

"What are we going to do when the coal is all burned up?"

"Where are they going to go when the land is all owned and used?"

It is a wise boy that puts such questions to himself. He is thinking in terms of conservation! That young chap is going to be a useful citizen. He is not going to be a wastrel. He is to help solve our conservation problems.

Thank goodness, the world is full of just such boys who do not wish to live a Nero life, to spend what there is now and let those who follow suffer the Deluge. Such boys are going to save the needs of life from devastation, and long before a need is exhausted they will find its substitute.

We thatched our roofs with straw before the shingles came. Because we have the shingles we now burn the straw. When the trees are all gone we will make a better shingle from the straw.

Geologists tell us that there is coal enough to last through several centuries of time. Already we are burning into one strong ray of heat.

We have found it possible not only to get heat from the sun, but to store it. Its only impracticability is the cost of operation. The same genius that found the process will cheaper it. We have found the radio wave carries the sound. Physicists tell us that same wave will carry heat.

Long before the coal is gone we will cease to mine it. A cheaper and better process of heating our furnaces will come direct to us from the sun whose flames rise above its molten mass surface to the height of the circumference of this earth. That old ball has been burning a long time, and mathematicians haven't ciphers enough to calculate the endurance of its flames.

And what will we do when the land is all owned and used? Look upon so rich a state as Oklahoma. Only one-thirtieth of its tillable land is now under the plow. There is Florida, a tangled mass of verdure. A peninsula warmed by the sun and cooled by the seas, moist and temperate where everything will grow. Yet only one-third of its tillable land is under the plow. Ninety-seven per cent of its acres have not yet felt the harrow. It will take several centuries before even our good country will be crowded.

As our great interior desert has been brought to bloom, so will the mammoth isle of Australia flower. Africa will be gardened. The lowlands of the Amazon and the highlands of Himalayas will be farmed. And as we close in, we will learn how to grow more in less space.

This is a good old world we are in. It meets our needs as our needs appear. It meets them because we always have boys who grow to manhood with the inquiring mind that wonders how they can help the good old world to make all things better for man.

by UNCLE JOHN

WHAT a great thing it would be if all the musical geniuses thought of the mob an' wrote for the mob, an' if the fellows that think they're musical geniuses thought of the mob an' didn't write for the mob. Music lifts the soul, it inspires to action, it stimulates in war, and comforts the souls of the afflicted. A thousand souls are more important than one soul, an' the mob is being born, is growin' up an' is dying every day. Classical music may be all right in its way, but who knows it? When the long-haired critic laughs because you don't know the definition of classical music, slip this over to him: "Classical music is music that is not popular."

When you see a feller a-mopin' around, a-huntin' for somethin' that's on the ground,—that never could whistle or sing a song,—you can bet a doughnut there's somethin' wrong! When a feller is huntin' fer things of worth, in the dirty fifth of the heartless earth,—and can't aspire to the stars in sight, you can safely bet that he ain't built right!

So-So

God loves the man that can lift his face with a constant faith in the higher place. . . . Whose step is timed to obey His will, and who ain't afraid of the path uphill. . . . Who'd ruther climb where the storm-clouds frown, than to jine the crowd that's a-goin' down!

God loves the man with the heartenin' song—who can change his tune if he gets it wrong,—that can fit his soul to the all-wise plan, with somethin' to spare fer his feller-man. . . .

And—beyond the clouds, and toil and strife, there's a crown of joy—and eternal life!

Yours truly,
Uncle John

Now, since the election is over and the successful candidates are in 'the saddle' let's forget it and turn our attention to the upbuilding of Pecos and Reeves county.

While Mayfield was elected U. S. senator in the elections Tuesday it is believed by many that his troubles have just begun.

Not much interest was shown in the county election Tuesday and a very short vote was polled.

Pecos people are always loyal to our home institutions and to every enterprise which is for the best interests of the town and usually go their full length.

The advertisement appearing in last week's Enterprise offering subscription bargain days during that part of the present month from the tenth to the thirtieth has met a responsive cord and many of our home people have taken advantage of the occasion to set their dates ahead for another year.

TO THE VICTOR'S BELONG THE SPOILS.

Postmaster General Hubert Works has sent out the information that during the present republican administration there has been 17,774 postmasters appointed.

AN EXPLANATION THAT FALLS SHORT.

Judge Hassell has made public the letter he sent to Mr. McNamara setting forth in particularity and extenso his reasons for dismissing that gentleman as a deputy supervisor of the oil and gas division of the railroad commission. It is to be presumed that Judge Hassell's purpose in doing this was to persuade the people of Texas that official faults and delinquencies made up his major reason for dismissing Mr. McNamara and his testimony at Corsicana only a minor reason. If that was his purpose, he has failed, signally, in the News' opinion. It is to be observed that every one of the complaints made against Mr. McNamara arise out of some incident that occurred before his appearance at Corsicana as a witness against Mr. Mayfield. One of them antedates his appearance at Corsicana by as much as 16 months.

There is no room for the lazy, the indolent, the time squanderer, the fellow who kills time as a profession. The fellow who lacks zest, enthusiasm; who doesn't fling his whole life into his work; who is always grumbling about his hard luck and his lack of opportunity.

The net political effect of this action will be to prejudice the testimony given by Mr. McNamara at Corsicana. That effect may not also have been the purpose of Judge Hassell and of the two commissioners, Mr. Gilmore and Mr. Earle Mayfield, who have approved his action.

THE COUNTRY PAPER After the confusion of the front page of a great daily with its medley of black headlines, screaming tragedies and disasters innumerable, it is a great relief to pick up a copy of the little old country paper.

When rural routes and fast mail service made it possible for the farmer to get his daily paper a short time after it left the city predictions were freely voiced that the country newspaper would rapidly decline and pass away.

When people cease to be interested in themselves about everything else then the country paper will gather dust unread. But this day will never come. And it is this trait of human nature that makes secure the popularity of the small paper.

Editorial writers evince alarm at the indifference with which the American public read the story of 50,000 lives being snuffed out by a tidal wave at Swatow, China.

Another thing which the country newspaper has that is lacking in the great daily is a distinctive personality. The country newspaper is always a one or two man affair, and it therefore bears the indelible stamp of individuality.

Judge Hassell has made public the letter he sent to Mr. McNamara setting forth in particularity and extenso his reasons for dismissing follow public opinion instead of shaping it. Large and ever-changing news and editorial staffs have removed the last vestige of the personal touch.

This very anonymity helps to make the metropolitan papers heartless. Secure in his office the city editor of a great daily keeps his finger on the pulse of the city and at the first breath of scandal unleashes a bunch of steely-eyed young men who like wolf hounds drag forth the unsavory details before the eyes of an entire city.

With the country editor it is different. He has no army of reporters to set on your track and hunt out your secrets. Himself both editor and reporter and daily coming in intimate contact with his readers, he weighs more carefully the news that he prints and many stories are suppressed because they would 'hurt some one and do no one good.'

So the country newspaper alone still enjoys the sincere friendship of the public. It is still the only paper that the people feel has a real interest in them; it is the first to announce their arrival in the world and their most eloquent eulogist at death.

THE LAZY, THE INDOLENT, THE TIME SQUANDERER, THE FELLOW WHO KILLS TIME AS A PROFESSION.

For the weak, vacillating man, who is always on the fence, never quite able to make up his mind as to what he should do, what course he should take; who always wants someone to advise or help him to make up his mind.

For the timid, self-deprecating fellow, who is afraid to say his soul is his own; who is always dodging responsibilities, always shrinking from notice, excusing himself from taking the initiative in anything, saying somebody else could do the thing so much better than he could.

Big speckled trout, in mountain streams like iced drinking water, barely moving fin or tail in holding their position against the rushing current.

As Jones Told It. City hall employes paused in their work Saturday to listen to L. T. Jones, inspector of weight and measures, give his description of hunter's and nature lover's paradise.

That must have been a most wonderful brand Mr. Jones was using.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION ISSUED BY PRESIDENT

Washington, Nov. 3.—President Harding today issued a proclamation calling upon all citizens to observe Thursday, Nov. 30, as Thanksgiving Day.

The President said that Thanksgiving day, established by "the devout rather" to give thanks for the "bounties and protection which divine providence had extended throughout the year," had come to be to him the "most characteristic of our national observances."

"As the season approaches for its annual return," he stated, in his proclamation, "it is fitting formally to direct attention to this ancient institution of our people and to call upon them to unite in its appropriate celebration.

Marked by Triumphs. "The year which now approaches its end has been marked, in the experience of our nation by a complexity of trials and of triumphs, of difficulties and achievements, which we must regard as our inevitable portion in such an epoch as that through which all mankind is moving.

"We have seen the race of mankind make gratifying progress on the way to permanent peace, toward order and restored confidence in its high destiny.

"For the divine guidance which has enabled us, in growing fraternity with other peoples, to attain so much of progress; for the bounteous yield which has come to us from the resources of the soil and our industry, we owe our tribute of gratitude and with it our acknowledgment of the duty and obligation to our own people and to the unfortunate, the suffering, the distracted of other lands.

"It is much to be desired that in rendering homage for the blessings which have come to us, we should earnestly testify our continued and increasing aims to make our own great fortune a means of helping and serving, as best we can, the cause of all humanity.

"Now therefore, I, Warren G. Harding, President of the United States of America, do designate Thursday, the thirtieth day of November, as a day of Thanksgiving, supplication and devotion. I recommend that the people gather at their family altars and in their houses of worship to render thanks to God for the bounties they have enjoyed and to petition that these may be continued in the year before us."

THE CHURCHES

BAPTIST CHURCH

We are expecting a record attendance at Sunday School next Sunday. Our attendance has been running beyond the two hundred mark ever since August and we have as our aim two hundred and fifty in actual attendance by November 26, the day our revival begins. The new rooms and tables have helped wonderfully. The teachers are all encouraged over the work and the pupils are happy. The men's Bible class has some new plans on foot that will net results too. Any man not in a class has a welcome with us. We meet every Sunday morning at ten o'clock at the Rialto Theatre. The pastor will be out of town Sunday but a good teacher will be in charge of the class.

The pastor and his family left Thursday for Waco via San Antonio—Fording it—the Baptist General Convention of Texas will assemble in Waco next week and a great time is promised to those who attend. We have had a great year and the report and discussion should be inspiring indeed. We will have more to say about the meeting when we return.

There will be no preaching at our church Sunday, but all other services will be as usual.

J. M. GARNER, Pastor.

METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. L. L. Thurston hopes to have a great day next Sabbath when he will preach at the morning hour on the topic of "High Life and High Living"—The greatest Declaration of Independence.

At the evening hour his subject will be: "The Pillow of Cloud and Fire."

These will both be discussed from Rev. Thurston's usual logical and common sense standpoints and those who attend will be well repaid for their time. These sermons are great and not only should every Methodist be in his pew on every Sabbath to hear them but it would not be amiss for others to be on hand and hear something worthwhile. Suppose you turn over a new leaf and go out next Sabbath and hear what he has to say. The editor believes it will be worth your while and that you will go away feeling better for having gone out and done your duty to yourself and your church.

BAPTIST LADIES AID SOCIETY

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. O. J. Bryan Tuesday afternoon, the South Circle being "hostess."

Mrs. Clinton Ezell had charge of the afternoon's program and an unusually interesting one on the study of mission work in China. Little Mary Ward gave a delightfully interesting number—"Every Day Customs in China." Other numbers on the program were given by Mrs. Toliver, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Cowan, Mrs. Slack and there was a pretty vocal solo by Mrs. J. C. Wilson.

It was agreed that we give, before the Christmas holidays, a bazaar. This will be held on November 25, and there will be offered for sale any number of pretty and useful articles suitable for Christmas gifts at reasonable prices. In connection with the bazaar there will be a "Saturday Market" at which you may procure cakes, dressed chickens, home-made pies and the like.

Rev. Garner was a very welcome guest. He and Mrs. Garner left Thursday for the Southern Baptist Convention at Waco, the trip being a gift to them from the Ladies' Aid.

At the close of the meeting delicious refreshments were served consisting of a salad course with coffee and cake.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY ENTERTAINED BY MRS. S. C. VAUGHAN TUESDAY

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Christian church was entertained at the home of Mrs. S. C. Vaughan on Tuesday afternoon. This most delightful of hostesses was charmingly assisted by Mrs. Bob Lewis.

After all business was attended to new members were called for. Mrs. Roger White, Mrs. W. R. Glasscock, Mrs. W. E. Brack and Mrs. C. A. Johnson answered this call and the society was glad indeed to add these valuable new members to their number.

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Howard Collier as leader of a Thanksgiving program. Following a scripture lesson Mrs. J. E. Starley made a very interesting talk on "The Helpful Beauty of Thankfulness," and Mrs. Pat Wilson read a poem appropriate to the subject. A special song closed this program.

The hostesses then served most delicious refreshments. There were twenty-two members and four visitors present and a number of children.

BRINGS BACK THREE BUCKS AS TROPHIES OF HUNT

The hunting party which left last week for the mountains on a deer hunt of which Geo. A. Easterbrook and Bob Lewis were members returned with three buck deer as trophies after a few days hunt. Mr. Easterbrook says that they had poor success. That is his view of the expedition since he broke the firing pin in his rifle after the first shot when he broke the limb of a buck with horns that looked like a brush heap. After following this animal for two or three miles and picking up pieces of broken bones along the way they lost trail of him. Mr. Easterbrook snapped his gun at another buck several times before finding out that the trouble was in the broken firing pin. Had his gun performed properly it is safe to say that his trip and report would have had a different tone. He is a good shot and the two bucks would have been brought back as trophies.

The party, according to Mr. Easterbrook, saw nine deer while out and after all the hunt was not so bad.

ODESSA WARRIORS TAKE FALL OUT OF STRONG PECOS TEAM

The Odessa High School football team upset all the dope last Saturday afternoon by defeating the strong Pecos team on the local gridiron by the close of 6 to 0. It was a real game from the first whistle to the last and all the spectators were holding their breath to see who would be in the lead the next minute. Odessa's lone touchdown came in the first quarter when R. G. Kelly recovered a fumble made by the Pecos backfield and ran seventy yards for a touchdown. Meadows failed to place kick for the extra counter.

The game was famous for the number of times each team had to kick, since neither of them seemed to be able to make their downs.—Odessa Herald.

PECOS TEAM GUESTS AT DANCING PARTY

Whittenburg Home Scene of Festive Gathering Saturday Night. The Pecos football boys were entertained with a dance at Mr. W. T. Whittenburg's residence Saturday night. It was planned to entertain the Basketball girls and football boys at the same time but owing to one of the Pecos girls being very sick, all the girls returned home and failed to attend the dance.

Punch was served to all and dancing and music was enjoyed during the evening. Among those present were the following: From Pecos: Messrs. Wheat, Moran, Caroline, Cowan, Brown, Ruhlen, Warn, Hefner, Kesler, Krauskopf, and Norwood. From Odessa: Misses Ding Coates, Katherine Graham, Marie McKinney, Dorothy Graham, Fredonia McKinney, Irma Jones, Hannah E. Wilson, Lois Herndon, Cleo J. Fielder, Clifford Heath, Scottie Bird Kelly and Florence Whittenburg. Messrs. R. G. Kelly, Oris Coates, Wm. Meadows, Leamon Jones, Jack Edwards, Hobby Gann, Conley O'Neil, Robert Cooper, Jack Robinson, J. L. Murphy, Floyd Amburgey, A. B. Sheppard, Lewis Kelly, Ward Amburgey and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Pegues.—Odessa Herald.

CRACK PECOS FIVE BEATS ODESSA GIRLS

Local Team Handicapped By Loss Of Best Players, Score 26 to 6. The basketball team of the Odessa High School played its second game of the season on the local yard last Saturday losing the game by a score of 26 to 6 although the Odessa team has never showed such playing ability.

Odessa was laboring under the handicap of playing without two of her best players and this caused a shift in positions among the other players of the team which naturally weakened team work but nevertheless they showed good spirit and played well throughout the entire game.

At the end of the first quarter the score was 5 to 3 in favor of Pecos which showed that the local team was doing far better than was to be expected under circumstances. The game was called at 1:30 p. m. Miss Jessie Carter of Odessa was referee.

The local team was much lighter than the Pecos team. One of the Pecos players was taken very sick about 3:00 p. m. but after attention by Dr. Gibbons she soon recovered.—Odessa Herald.

MOTHER OF MRS. J. W. MOORE PASSES AWAY

Mrs. E. D. Miller of Hodgenville, Ky., mother of Mrs. J. W. Moore who was called to attend her mother almost upon her arrival home after spending the summer in Kentucky with her passed away before Mrs. Moore arrived there. It will, doubtless, always be a comfort to Mrs. Moore that she spent the summer under the parental roof. The many friends of Mrs. Moore all over Reeves county will deeply sympathize with her in her bereavement.

FAR, FAR AWAY

A Kentucky lad's enlistment in the navy expired. A friend gob asked him what he thought of the sea. "Just this much," he said. "I'm going to put an oar over my shoulder and start walking inland—and I'm going to keep on walking and walking and walking until someone stops me and asks: 'What's that thing you've got over your shoulder?' then I'm going to settle right down there until I D-I-E."

GATES TIRES
The Tire with the Wider and Thicker Tread

What Do You Gain—

- by buying a cord tire because of the extra miles in its carcass.
- unless you get the cord tire that has extra miles in its tread, too? Surely a longer wearing carcass ought to have a longer wearing rubber tread to match it.

That's why more motorists every day are buying Gates Super-Tread Cords. They have the wider and thicker rubber tread.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Prepared for The Enterprise By The First National Bank in St. Louis.

Total world wheat production, including Russia and Mexico, is now estimated at 3,012,293,000 bushels by the United States Department of Agriculture, based on official and unofficial estimates from reporting countries. The revised estimate for the same countries last year was 3,049,074,000 bushels. The previous estimate for this year was 3,093,807,000 bushels.

Adding to the world production figures the stocks on hand in so far as they have been obtained, a total available supply of 3,192,037,000 bushels for use the coming year is indicated, compared with 3,273,588,000 bushels during the past year.

The yield of wheat in France is estimated at 235,380,000 bushels, as compared with 323,407,000 bushels in 1921; in Germany 89,870,000 bushels, compared with 107,793,000 bushels; in the United States 810,123,000 bushels, compared with 794,893,000 bushels. A late unofficial estimate places production in Jugoslavia at 47,800,000 bushels, a decrease of 12,200,000 bushels from the previous estimate, and of 4,068,000 bushels from the yield last year.

The total yield for Europe, including revised estimates is placed at 985,650,000 bushels, compared with the previously published estimate of 1,100,991,000 bushels, and the revised estimate for last year of 1,215,084,000 bushels. Latest reports continue to predict a yield in Russia sufficient to supply domestic requirements. Increased acreages have been shown in Argentina and Australia.

Special to The Enterprise.

By Edward Percy Howard. Twenty years ago the two great political parties reached the parting of the ways at the sign of the tariff, and it was difficult for the people to form any well-rounded judgment on the subject.

Republican newspapers felt themselves bound to support and justify a high tariff, right or wrong, and Democratic newspapers felt it incumbent on them to shout for free trade and the common people quite regardless of the consequences. Those were the days when the independent voter was denounced as a "mugwump."

Now conditions have changed. The tariff has been taken out of politics in a measure. True, there remain newspaper publishers who conscientiously believe they serve the country best by the advocacy of the high or the low tariff, and the "tariff for revenue only crowd" we will always have with us, but for the most part that kind of political bias that has prevented the presentation of acts because they did not fit in with a particular editorial policy has pretty much disappeared.

Clear thinking publishers now publish the results of tariff schedules, regardless of political consequences. All of which is introductory to the presentation of a few facts in connection with the Fordney-McCumber tariff that unmistakably point to a quick revival of the high cost of living.

Sugar Starts First Upward Climb.

The Fordney-McCumber tariff has been in effect less than a month, and sugar is on the climb. Under the Smoot schedule the price to the housewife is steadily hoisting.

The Pennsylvania Refining Company of Philadelphia has advanced the price of refined sugar 25 points to 6.76 a pound. The Federal and Arbuckle refineries report in New York an advance in price of 10 points.

The west is equally affected. Penn and McCahan have advanced, and Warner National and American have gone up. California, Hawaiian, and Western have gone up to 6.50 seaboard basis in competitive territory up to and including Missouri river points. Plus these advances two other Pacific Coast Refiners are preparing to go to a 6.99 basis for Pacific coast territory and the Rocky Mountain states.

Turning to the subject of clothing, the ink had not dried on the President's signature before The American Woolen Company announced advances on its lines of men's staple and fancy worsted fabrics for next spring. A general advance in the fabrics of other concerns has been made.

Advances 25 to 50 Per Cent When Bill Was Signed.

According to The New York Journal of Commerce, it will be no surprise to the trade in general to learn of advances from other sources whose products more directly compete with the fabrics of The American Woolen Company. One man frankly stated he had raised prices on certain of his lines not because he thought it was really necessary to do so, but he felt the opportunity was afforded to get better prices.

Chemicals and drugs have gone up steadily since the new schedule has been in effect. A comparative table of prices existing two weeks before the new tariff bill became law and those put into effect immediately the bill was signed show general advances ranging from 25 to 50 per cent.

The same story is being repeated in almost every line of trade, and there is no doubt the effect will soon be forcefully felt in the general cost of living.

WOMEN BAN LONG SKIRT 300,000 IN JOINT ACTION

New York, Oct. 28.—The ankle length skirt was officially and permanently removed from the wardrobes of 300,000 New York women by the action of delegates to the convention of the New York City Federation of Women's Clubs in voting unanimously to wear dresses no longer than seven inches from the ground.

The resolution sounding the death-knell of the long skirt urges women everywhere to free themselves from apparel now being introduced and having edges that nearly sweep the ground and carry germs and dirt into the home.

RED CROSS JOINS IN MOSQUITO CAMPAIGN

Two Texas Communities Are Rid of Malaria After Year's Work.

Two communities in the Southwestern Division infected with malaria have been rid of this pest in the last two years by the work of the American Red Cross, according to statements made by citizens of these communities. One of these sections is around Calvert and Hearne, Tex., where the Robertson County Chapter of the American Red Cross and the local health authorities worked hand-in-hand to rid the district of the malaria-spreading mosquito.

According to the official report of the work done in this district, the initial step in the campaign was the draining of all pools, ponds and depressions retaining stagnant water. This was done the first year. It required the opening of original ditches and other semi-engineering feats. Water impossible to drain was treated with crude oil at intervals during the summer of 1921 and bodies of water so located as to be too expensive for draining or oiling were stocked with Gambusia Minnows, a local product found in prolific quantities in that section, which is a deadly enemy of the mosquito larvae.

Inspectors were employed and periodically visits were made in a house-to-house inspection. These inspectors looked particularly to rain water, accumulations in open cans and other vessels, gutters, etc., and an oiler accompanied the inspectors, oiling all these waters. Particular attention was paid to old wells, cisterns and vats of various kinds. The results have been most gratifying. It is reported, and the mosquitoes are almost completely eradicated from the locality.

A similar campaign in Cherokee County, Tex., had a similar result. During the early fall of 1921 a malaria survey of the county was made by the American Red Cross Chapter. A report was compiled and charts made showing the exact percentage of malaria infection in each school district. These findings were taken as a basis for the work, which has been extensive since its beginning. Two sanitary engineers, a physician and two public health nurses are in charge of the work of malaria control, under the general direction of J. A. LePrince of the U. S. Public Health Service and Bureau of Child Hygiene of the Texas State Board of Health and the Cherokee Chapter of the American Red Cross.

The campaign is too new as yet to report complete success, but gratifying results have been obtained and the malaria infection in that district is very much decreased over the conditions of the year previous.

APPRECIATION BY GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS

Probate Attorney Commends Red Cross For Work Among the Indians.

William Simms, U. S. Probate Attorney, in charge of the Indian District of Oklahoma, has sent the following letter to the Southwestern Division, American Red Cross:

"The activities of the Craig County Chapter, extending into Delaware County, Okla., have been of great value. Mrs. Myra T. Earhart, executive secretary of the Craig County Chapter, accomplished more good for the Indian soldiers in the one day when she extended her work into the adjoining county than has probably been done since the war.

Mrs. Earhart and Mrs. Myrtle Griesham, the public health nurse of the Craig County Chapter, spent an entire day in Delaware County at my request and, believe me, those ladies had no time for recreation.

"Indian children were brought in to be inspected, weighed and measured and preparing the claims of disabled Indian soldiers was accomplished. These two women rendered such good service in this work that I am hoping that some day they will be able to get back to that county and furnish further help.

EX-SOLDIER GETS PENSION AND INSURANCE

Through more than two years of unwinding of official red tape and other efforts the Red Cross of Waco, Tex., has obtained compensation for permanent total disability and government insurance for a veteran of the World War. This soldier was wounded in a peculiar way. A piece of shrapnel which tore away the muscles of his back and injured his vertebrae also exploded his cartridge belt, thus inflicting an additional injury which required many operations and more than a year in the hospital, most of the time lying on his face.

The operations were not successful, the shock and other contributing causes caused heart trouble, all of which have made him a permanent invalid.

Through an error in his record, this soldier has been allotted only $27 a month and it required more than two years to correct the error and obtain for the man the compensation which was his due, as well as to obtain for him and his aged mother the insurance which also was coming to him.

$2.50 PER YEAR. The Sunday edition of the El Paso Herald which contains 8 full pages of comics, 6 of which are in 4 colors; 2 pages of "Herald Junior" for boys and girls, and 2 pages of magazine features, together with 24 pages of news and other good reading matter, is now sold to mail subscribers at $2.50 per year.

Every ranchman and every household in the Pecos Valley ought to have the big Sunday El Paso Herald, the greatest newspaper value for the money in the southwest." (Advertisement)

GALOMEL SALIVATES AND LOOSENS TEETH

The Very Next Dose Of This Treacherous Drug May Start Trouble.

You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tonic straightens you right up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate. (Advertisement)

LIFT CORNS OR CALLUSES OFF

Doesn't hurt! Lift any corn or callus off with fingers

Don't suffer! A tiny bottle of Freesone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops on the corns, calluses and "hard skin" on bottom of feet, then lift them off. When Freesone removes corns from the toes or calluses from the bottom of feet, the skin beneath is left pink and healthy and never sore, tender or irritated. (Advertisement)

Bates, each individually, as partners in the El Paso Saragosa Oil Company, and as trustees of the El Paso Saragosa Oil Company, a trust estate, by making publication of this citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Reeves County, Texas, to be held at the court house thereof, in Pecos, Texas, on the 20th day of November, A. D. 1922, then and there to answer a Second Amended Original petition filed in said court on the 20th day of October, A. D. 1922, in suit No. 2244, wherein John J. Bush is plaintiff, and the El Paso Saragosa Oil Company, an unincorporated joint stock association, Dee Davis, Lee La Rue, S. T. Hobbs, Lee V. McEntire, William Owens, C. M. Honaker, J. W. B. Williams, S. C. Vaughan, I. S. Adams, L. J. Grossblatt, C. S. Davis, G. R. Smith, C. T. Bates, D. MacKenzie, and W. A. Hudson, individually, as trustees of the El Paso Saragosa Oil Company, a common law trust estate, and as partners composing the firm of El Paso Saragosa Oil Company, a partnership, are defendants; and said petition alleging that from May 1, 1920, to May 1, 1921, plaintiff performed labor as general manager and as field manager, for the El Paso Saragosa Oil Company, and the said defendants, and under a contract of hire with its officers and trustees, being the other defendants herein, at the price of $300.00 per month during such period. That there was earned by plaintiff under such contract the sum of $3600.00. That there was paid to him on such account the sum of $663.02, so that there is still due and payable to him the sum of $2,936.98. In addition thereto plaintiff alleges that he holds by proper and legal assignment, the account of Lee La Rue in the sum of $1,100.00, due for labor performed in guarding the property of the El Paso Saragosa Oil Company from September 15, 1920, to April 15, 1922, at a contract price of $60.00 per month. And that none of said account has been paid. That though plaintiff has made numerous demands for payment of said debt, defendants have failed and refused to pay the same to plaintiff's damage $4,036.98, for which sum with interest and costs of suit plaintiff prays judgment, etc.

In the alternative plaintiff alleges that the plaintiff and all of the defendants name above on April 15, 1919, entered into a partnership agreement to carry on the business of dealing in mineral leases, drilling oil and gas wells, and carrying on the required development under such leases in an effort to discover oil and gas strata, under the firm name of the El Paso Saragosa Oil Company. That under such agreement the partners have acquired considerable property in leases, fixtures, well machinery and casing. That no equitable division of said property can be made except by sale of the property as a whole and a division of the proceeds among the partners according to their respective interests. That plaintiff is entitled to a dissolution and accounting of said partnership because defendants are not actively carrying on the business of the partnership according to agreement; that defendant S. T. Hobbs has failed to account for certain partnership moneys but has appropriated same to his own use and benefit; and that the partnership is in an insolvent condition. And plaintiff prays for a dissolution of the partnership, that a receiver be appointed, and that after payment of the debts of the partnership and the costs of this suit, the proceeds remaining be divided between the parties hereto, according to their respective interests, etc.

Herein fail not but have before said Court, at its aforesaid regular term, this writ with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

D. 1912, this plaintiff purchased under tax sale and obtained tax deed to Sections 7 and 19, Block 59, Public School Land, Reeves County, Texas, obtaining thereby all of the title and interest of T. W. Suttlemeier by virtue thereof. That since said date plaintiff has had peaceable, adverse and continuous possession of said tract of land, paying the taxes thereon under title and color of title, to-wit, the tax deed aforesaid, and certain warranty deeds from T. W. Suttlemeier. That defendants, T. W. Suttlemeier, J. R. Sharp, S. Suttlemeier, W. R. James, W. C. Rountree, J. R. Goldston, W. J. Woods, Rich Furniture Company, W. E. Allen, H. C. Power, John A. And plaintiff in view of his title by deed and by limitation, now prays that he have judgment quieting his title in and to said tracts of land, cancelling the claims of said defendants, and removing such clouds from his title to the premises and quieting his title in and to same.

Dr. I. E. Smith will be in the panhandle country all of next week on a business trip.

Roy Walker and Don Bilberry of Barstow were Pecos visitors Thursday of this week.

Rev. A. Eller of Carlsbad, N. M., rector of the Episcopal church here, held services at St. Marks church Thursday evening.

Harry Anderson and Hugh Robertson went on a deer hunt returned Thursday night, but without any success.

Archie Ross has been confined to his bed for the past ten days with fever and he is missed from the Leader Grocery Co. store.

Mrs. Burkett Richardson, of Comets, Lanipapas county, is in Pecos for a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brooks.

C. M. Caldwell was here Saturday looking after his ranch interests. Mr. Caldwell is one of the wealthy oil men and newspaper men of Breckenridge.

Mrs. H. B. Prickett and baby daughter returned Sunday from Natchez, Mississippi, where they spent the summer with Mr. Prickett's mother.

W. D. Johnson was here Thursday looking after business affairs. Mr. Johnson lives in Kansas City but has large interests in West Texas and is a brother to the late F. W. Johnson.

Dr. Guyton, recently of Plainview, has settled in Pecos and hung out his shingle. He is officing for the present in the Syndicate building and in the office recently vacated by W. O. Hodson.

A. J. Curtis returned Friday from Roswell, N. M., accompanied by Mrs. Curtis who had been in Roswell for several weeks under treatment. Her many friends will be glad to know she is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar George of Balmorhea, have been visiting for several days with their grandmother, Mrs. M. E. Randolph. Mr. George has been engaged in moving the machinery from this Experimental farm to that of Saragosa.

Oscar Buchholz and B. H. Palmer left the forepart of the week for the mountains where they expect to hunt for a few days. The City Market will be closed until his return and during the time Mr. Kirtley is putting the finishing touches on the front of the building.

W. W. Birdwell, one of our most substantial stockmen and best citizens, was in town from his ranch Thursday and made the Enterprise a pleasant visit. Mr. Birdwell is as straight as an arrow and his word is as good as his bond.

Clint Moreland of Santa Anna, was a Pecos visitor for a day or so this week. He had been out in the mountains on a hunt which proved unsuccessful and on his return home stopped off in Pecos for a visit with the family of W. E. Reader, who are relatives of his. Mr. Moreland holds stock in the Toyah Sulphur Company.

Manager Ralph Sparks of the Pecos and Northwestern Telephone Company, went over to Socorro, N. M., last week in his car for a visit with his wife's mother. Mrs. Sparks who had been visiting her mother for some time returned home with him and Ralph is feeling better, thank you, and looking a wee bit more pleasant.

Messrs B. Frank Haag, attorney at law, W. H. Brunson, formerly president of the Midland National bank, and E. R. Bryan, formerly representative from this district, were business visitors in Pecos Tuesday of this week and bid in the property advertised in the Enterprise to be sold on this date at sheriff's sale. They are of the most prominent citizens of Midland.

Mrs. W. L. Ross visited the Enterprise office this week and advanced her subscription dates two years, running her up into 1924. Mrs. Ross is happy over the fact that her range and stock are in fine condition at this time. She states that not in twenty years have the people of her section had such splendid range and such fat cattle. Those good people are to be congratulated upon their good fortune.

The work on Mrs. J. W. Parker's residence is nearing completion and when done it will be clean and new from front to rear. Every nook and corner has been treated to a coat of paint and new paper has been placed in each and every room, besides many other improvements which will make the place more attractive and more comfortable. This place being close in to the business section makes it one of the most desirable places in Pecos and it is predicted that it will be occupied as soon as completed.

Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Garner and children left Wednesday in their car for a visit to her parents at Corpus Christi where they will leave the children while they return to Waco to attend the State Convention of the Southern Baptist church, that convenes from November 16th to 20th.

B. J. O'Reilly returned this week from New York where he had been for the past six weeks visiting with his wife and looking after business matters. Mr. O'Reilly immediately upon his arrival called at the Enterprise office to shake hands with the editor and say that he would be busy for a few days and that he would more than likely have something of grave importance to report by the time the Enterprise went to press next week relative to his operations in the Pecos oil field. Mr. O'Reilly is connected with the Trans-Pecos interests and has done much work toward putting that well down to pay and spent much of his own money in an effort to do so. His faith in the field is unbounded and he believes that this is the coming oil field.

George Kirtley, one of the principal stockholders of the Mica Mines in Culberson county, and one of the best, most accommodating and congenial fellows in this section of the country, is here this week putting the m'colithic touches in the front of the C. E. Buchholz business property on main street and when completed it will have one of the prettiest and most attractive fronts of any business in the city. The stone work is being finished in a background of green with gold mica as a finish and the doors and windows are receiving a mica finish which is very attractive. George is courteous but at the same time he has been tempted sorely by people rubbing against the finish before it has had time to dry, and many have walked along and rubbed the finish off with their hands to see what it is made of, apparently, or just for curiosity, and has caused him considerable extra work. Mr. Kirtley is an expert at this business and when he has finished it will be a thing of beauty and will stay put. It would be a great thing if more of our business houses could be treated likewise.

LIKE AN ANGEL OVER ME
Fred Higgins is somewhat of a genius when it comes to music and many believe he would have made a wender had he had the opportunity. He not only plays well but writes some splendid music, some of which has been published. The following is one of his latest songs, which shows the trend of this young man's mind just at this time:

As the shadows creep, and I fall asleep,
In my dreams I see, the fairest face in all the land.
Like an angel over me,
Her eyes are brown her hair is black, with a face as white as snow,
I like to see her sweet red lips, and hear her sighs, sweet and low.

Chorus.
My little dream girl, oh little dream girl, can't you hear me calling you,
Oh mister dream man, please mister dream man, won't you make my dreams come true.
I see you smiling, I hear you sighing, and my heart is pining for you,
My little dream girl, oh little dream girl I love no one but you.

The City Market will be closed this week to make repairs and will be open again about the fifteenth of the month with the best meats the market affords priced right and will sell for cash only.
