"Mother's Day" is a great day-a national day. If this nation had had e there would today be no such Nation. Children's Day is a great day-it smass of posterity and eternity. If there had been no children there would today be no "America."

Comes Pa. Comes Pas Day now. Gentlemen, allow me-this is Pa. Pat his old crooked back and grip his oldhorny hand. Pet him and pat him and "pound" him-this is Pa. He may have but one gallus. It may be fastened to his "britches" with a ten-penny nail. Pa may have the "sun grins' indelibly fixed on his feat res and he may wear a rim of whiskers around his neck. But the burden of thought is, throughout the Nation and the world, Pa has arrived Because his name is associated with the corntassel makes him only the more closely related to the corn itself, and if Pa can really deliver the corn, and he can, he's the most popular man in the public eye, and he is It doesn't matter about the number and style of his suspenders. just so he doesn't suspend the corn supply-the bread supply-and Pa won't-he never did.
