ADJOURNMENT OF 67TH CONGRESS

President Signs Farm Credits Measure and Many Others-Closing Scenes.

Washington .- The sixty-seventh congress, which had spent a greater proportion of its two-year span of life in actual session than any other in the history of the country, adjourned sine die at noon Sunday.

During the last few hours of the session President Harding, spending part of the time at the capitol, signed the farm credits bill, the Sweet bill for the liberalization of the veterans' bureau act and other measures. No legislation was vetoed.

Vice President Coolidge's gavel fell sharply at noon, after an almost colorless morning senate session of two hours, and the house adjourned at 12:06 p. m. after a concert by a section of the Marine Band and a chorus of popular songs by members and spectators.

The president reached the capitol at 11:25 o'clock and was kept busy reading and signing the final avalanche of bills. The last bill to become law was the "better butter" measure, changing butter fat standards. An important measure placed on the statute books at the last moment was the one providing for return to enemy alien owners of all seized property worth $10,000 or less.

Reassembling at 10 o'clock, the senate heard "swan songs" by Senators fuls of cold water to a smooth paste. Frelinghuysen, republican, of New Jersey, and Sutherland, of West Virginia, a tribute to Senator Williams, democrat, of Mississippi, by his colleague, Senator Harrison of Mississippi | fourths of a cupful of seedless raisins and tried vainly to pass a few more and cook thirty minutes. Remove from bills. A fifteen-minute filibuster by Senator Dial, democrat, of South Carolina, enlivened the proceedings before the vice-president's gavel fell in the midst of Senator Dial's speech against an omnibus pension bill pressed by Senator Bursum, republican, of New Mexico.

Previously, Senators Lodge, of Massachusetts and Robinson of Arkans republican and democratic leaders, appointed to confer with President Harding, had advised the senate that the president had "no more communications to make." Mr. Coolidge declared the senate adjourned "without day."

The final hours in the house were more colorful. The Marine Orchestra playing in the "well," vied for favor with a hastily organized quartet of members whose rendition of old favorites soon drew the entire house and most of the spectators, who overflowed the galleries onto the floor.

"Dixie" had its usual place on the Marine Orchestra program, and as its stirring strains filled the chamber cheers went up from the floor and galleries with the piercing "rebel yell" rising above the din. The Southern cohorts were led by Representative Ward of North Carolina.

Farewell eulogies occupied much of the time of the hour and a half the house was in session. Representative Fordney of Michigan, Campbell of Kansas, Kitchen of North Carolina, Alice Robertson of Oklahoma and Mrs. Huck all were given ovations, but Uncle Joe Cannon received the great est tribute.

After praises of the retiring veteran of forty-six years of legislative service had been said by Representatives Hicks, republican, of New York, and Sisson, democrat, of Mississippi, Mr. Cannon was escorted down the center aisle by Representative Rodenberg of Illinois, while members and spectators stood, applauding and cheering.

Before the close of the session the democrats were placed in charge of a toothpick. "My Digestion Is Sound as a Dollar Since Taking Tanlac," Declares Buffalo Citizen.

"There is no doubt about it, Tanlac does all they claim it will do-and more," was the positive statement made recently by Richard H. Lawson, well-known engineer, of 1007 Elmwood Ave., Buffalo, N. Y.

"I used Tanlac for a combination of troubles and it put me in splendid condition all the way round. First, I had a bad case of stomach trouble, was simply chock full of sourness and gas, had a general distressed feeling and a burning pain in my stomach that I couldn't get rid of. With my appetite wrecked and digestion gone. I became awfully weak, nervous and run down and could get scarcely any rest or sleep at all.

"Tanlac answered every demand made upon it in my case and today my digestion is sound as a dollar, I have an immense appetite, and with every ache and pain gone, I am sleeping fine and feeling strong and energetic as of old. Tanlac is 100 % good." Tanlac is for sale by all good drug-
