M. E. COLLEGE TO OPEN ON TIME

OPENING OF METHODIST IN SEP-TEMBER A CERTAINTY.

Everything Highly Favorable for a Successul Year's Work-Boost for the Methodist College.

It is now certain that the Methodist College will open on time, September 15. The buildings are being finished inside and newly papered in readiness for a great year of school work.

Our Methodist people are getting in good earnest over the school, and giving all possible aid to Dr. Gladney, who, with his usual push, is bringing things to pass. The outlook is encouraging, and the College bids fair for a prosperous year. Already over fifty students have enrolled.

Dr. Gladney, supported in his views by the Board of Directors, believes that Plainview is the place for a great college, and that it requires strong teachers to make such. The completed, is a very strong body of chants and McConnel building, $10,tried and proven educators. Woman's Friend

Nearly all women suffer at times from female ailments. Some women suffer more acutely and more constantly than others. But whether you have little pain or whether you suffer intensely, you should take Wine of Cardui and get relief.

Cardui is a safe, natural medicine, for women, prepared scientifically from harmless vegetable ingredients. It acts easily on the female organs and gives strength and tone to the whole system.

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Verna Wallace, of Sanger, Tex., tried Cardui. She writes: "Cardui has done more for me than I can describe. Last spring I was taken with female inflammation and consulted a doctor, but to no avail, so I took Cardui, and inside of three days, I was able to do my housework. Since then my trouble has never returned." Try it.

AGRICULTURAL WORK SHOULD BE TAUGHT IN SCHOOLS.

There are at present, about 900,000 school children in the common and high schools of the state. Probably 500,000 of these will make homes permanently in the country. If these 500,000 could be taught agriculture and learn the various methods by which country life is made easier and happier, the state of Texas would be greatly benefitted. The education would not stop with them, but would reach every person with whom they came in contact and so the knowledge would be widely disseminated. Here in West Texas, the cry is for more and better farmers. Well, it is them. Every important school in the South Plains should have an agricultural course incorporated in the regular course. The out-of-town guests were Judge and Mrs. McConnell of Farwell, Texas, Cary Cannon and family of Odessa Texas and Mrs. Floyd of Lockney.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkes, who are well known and popular in Plainview, went immediately to housekeeping on the East Side, where they will be at home to their many friends.

Property Values

Some people are born wealthy, others acquire it, and still others have it thrust upon them. The Texas property owners are now having wealth thrust upon them. The real estate values in Texas are increasing at the rate of $1,000,000 per day. The total increase in wealth from property and property values approximate $600,000,000 per annum. A careful study of the tax rolls indicate that $350,000,000 of this amount is increase in property values and $250,000,000 in property moving into the State, as shown in cut below:

Increase in Property Values $600,000,000 Per Annum.

Every dollar of new money coming into the State gives added value to investments already made. The money which is flowing into our State will trebl and quadruple the price of land and the investor is sure of a comfortable fortune through the natural increase of land and without effort on his part. There are $700,000 per day coming into Texas and making investment in farms, factories railroads

There are two classes of property-natural and artificial. Natural property, such as land, cannot, of course, be created by man; we can only increase its value. Artificial property, such as buildings, machinery, etc. Coal. can be created by man, and its value can 37 also be enhanced. With natural property we are l'mited in our methods of increasing values, while there are no restrictions to development through artificial property. We may gridiron the State with railroads, dot it with factories, build cities and fill the valleys with happy homes, but we cannot create another acre of land. The investor may come to Texas and buy land, and if he cared to do so, can sell it later and leave the State, with all the property he brought into the State, but the investor who builds railroads, factories, irrigating canals, etc., cannot take that back with him, and he has established permanent Permanent Property.

Ownership may change hands, but the property remains as a permanent addition to the wealth of the State. He has added to the property values of Texas, just as much so as if he had gone down to the Gulf of Mexico and lifted so much land out of the sea and added it to the State's domain. Texas needs builders.

To promote the prosperity of a comnunity we must increase our wealth. To increase wealth, we must create property, increase the value of property, and move property into the community. the mine and the fisheries are the natural wealth creating lines of industry. They create property. The building of fac-tories, railroads, opening mines and farms add wealth to adjoining property. They increase the value of property. The immigrant and the capitalist in moving to Texas and buying farms and building railroads and factories bring property with them. They move property into the State. So view it as you will, to be prosperous we must create property, increase the value of property and move property into the community. The man who increases our wealth through either of these channels is a producer and is a public benefactor. There are other important factors in the development of a community, but production is the basis of all prosperity.

In discussing economic subjects it is customary to divide the people into two classes—the producer and the consumer. The farmer is the most prominent type of the Texas producer.

A Producer.

The producer is interested in producing all he can and getting as high prices for his products as he con. The consumer is interested in consuming as little as he can and buying it as cheaply as he can. The tramp is the highest type of an exclusive consumer.

An Exclusive Consumer.

The tramp consumes as little as he can and gets it as cheaply as he can. Low price products make tramp life easy and farm life difficult, and vice versa. All the people are consumers, and most all people consume more or less the products of another. Most all the people are producers directly or indirectly, and net profits accrue only by production exceed-ing consumption. H gh prices for products of the farm, mine, factory, etc., and all lines of productive and industrial endeavor encourage development and promote prosperity. Low prices cheapen labor, stagnate development, discourage production and destroy prosperity.

THREE PROMINENT CLUB WOMEN TALK

DISCUSS CERTAIN WELL-KNOWN PLAINVIEW BUSINESS FIRMS.

A Quiet Tete-a-Tete on Shopping, and the Best Places in Town to Shop.

After adjournment of a recent club meeting, three prominent club ladies of Plainview fell to discussing the best firms with whom to trade. Their discussion took wide range, and the main points are here published for what they are worth, the names of the ladies being withheld for obvious reasons. In place of names, numbers will be used to designate each particular lady.

The conversation having led up to shopping, Club Lady No. 1 said: "I like the Plainview Mercantile Company. You are always waited on promptly and courteously, and treated as though your patronage was wanted. Their stock is well kept. They generally have what you call for, and their prices are on a level with the quality of their goods. I usually get my money's worth at 'The best and prettiest store on the Plains."

Club Lady No. 2: "I do nearly all my trading with The Plainview Mercantile Company. My husband thinks I get, as you say, my money's worth at this store." Club Lady No. 3: "The Plainview Mercantile Company is all right. It is 'The store where quality tells and price sells,' but what do you think of The Monach for groceries? I am most particular about my groceries. I want the cleanest and purest, and I do not believe there is a firm in town can beat The Monarch. I prefer to pay a little more for quality in groceries than for quality in something else, for the reason that what you eat makes you what you are. I want to bring up my children on the best foods obtainable. I want them to be strong, physically and mentally. I notice that they can study their school lessons better when they are given nourishing, wholesome foods. Don't you ladies think I am right?" Club Ladies No. 1 and No. 2 nodded their approval, and added that The Monarch was noted for promptly and carefully catering to the needs of its customers; yes, and handle the celebrated "White Swan" and "Wapco" brands of canned goods, preserves, etc., than which there are

"Well," replied Club Lady No. 1, "my family does not use a great deal of drugs, but when I have a prescription which must be filled I usually go to Wyckoff-Willis Drug Company, knowing that my prescription will be filled accurately and with drugs of unquestioned quality. You should try their Toilet Lotion for tan, sunburn or chapping." Club Lady No. 3: "All you have said is certainly true. I buy my sundries there, too, for they drinks in this part of the country."
