United States Wont Recognize Huerta
Because of Concessions Inimical To His People

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.—Un-confirmed by official dispatches, the rebel junta claims to have a message stating that the Antilla docked at Tam- pico to-day without interference from Huerta's gunboats or the American navy. The ship delivered 15,000,000 rounds of ammunition to Carranza's agents, the junta says.

TAMPICO, Mexico, June 12.—The steamer Antilla arrived here yester- day, but did not discharge her arms. Instead, she anchored near the wharf. It is expected that the boat will land her arms to-day.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.—Wrecks are reported on the railway from Vera Cruz to Mexico City to-day. There are believed to have been caused by premature explosions of mines laid for prevention of a possible American advance.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., June 12.—The American Government has asked the mediators to consider that if mediation fails and fighting continues, complications might arise forcing the American army to march to Mexico City to protect foreign interests from anarchy.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 11.—The real reason why the United States has taken the stand that nothing shall be done which might give Huerta the basis of claim for recognition isn't antipathy to Huerta, but the fact that he entered into certain agreements as provisional president, making concessions and contracts, which the United States considers detrimental to the Mexican people.

Carranza has declared he will set these aside as soon as Constitutional- ists get in power. Carranza will ex- ercise the right to veto names suggested for new provisional government. It is rumored that an alliance has been made between Villa and Zapata for "mutual benefit." The administration is confident, however, that Villa's ac- tion has been in good faith and that he is the strongest friend the United States has in Mexico.

Wilson Opposes Amendment Offered

tion Gains Strength

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.— Trouble is ahead for the Simmons- Norris amendment to tolls repeal. A resolution was passed by the Senate declaring that the United States does not relinquish any right it may have to exempt American ships.

Underwood says that he doubts if the House will accept this amendment. President Wilson is opposed to it. In the Senate, Kern is prepared to hold a night session if necessary to finish speechnaking and force final vote on the repeal.

The first minor Senate tolls amend- ment to-day was voted down 50 to 36, indicating that the administration forces gained over night.

Nation Wide Prohibition
Up Early In July—Hobson

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 12.—Richmond Pearson Hobson said to- day that Nation-wide prohibition will come up before the House probably July 6 or 7. While the rules com- mittee has not acted on it, members of that committee have promised to re- port the prohibition resolution.

Final vote on tolls exemptions at Panama is expected in the Senate this afternoon or to-night. Prospective fight over arbitration may delay vote.

Suffragists have launched a new campaign. They plan to add an amendment to the new legislation slate for this session.

Leona left Imperial, California, May 23, when she completed the freshman year in high school. She was coming to visit her mother. Her trunk ar- rived here, but the girl has not been seen.

Committee Asks That Every Car In Town Be Out To Meet Party
Friday Morning

Colonel Westgard and his party are making schedule time from San An- tonio for the meeting in Plainview to- morrow. A telegram from D. C. Colp this morning, addressed to B. O. Brown, Secretary of the Western Di- vision, Colorado-to-Gulf Highway, states that the party left Big Springs at 8 o'clock to-day.

Mr. Colp also advises that he has a big party. C. A. Malone is in receipt of a telegram from San Angelo advising that a number of people from San Angelo joined the automobile train. Telephone advice from Lubbock is to the effect that a delegation from Lub- bock will mee the visitors at Tahoka this afternoon and pilot them to Lub- bock.

Two cars will go to Lubbock from Plainview this afternoon and pilot the party to Plainview early to-morrow morning. The Chamber of Commerce is anxious that a number of cars go out toward Hale Center about 9 o'clock to-morrow and meet the visitors.

"Every car in town on the streets Friday morning" is the slogan of the men who are working for this meet- ing. If you have not been asked in- dividually to bring your car out— bring it anyhow. You won't be asked to drive anywhere, but your car is wanted down town by 10 o'clock.

Colonel Westgard has a moving pic- ture machine. Pictures he makes of Plainview will go into every circuit and into all literature issued by the National Highway Association. If you have your car down town to-morrow morning you will help put Plainview on the map. And talk it. Get your neighbor to bring his automobile out, too.

Automobiles will be here from Tula, Canyon City and Amarillo. Help make it the biggest day yet for Plainview.

There will be a reception for Colo- nel Westgard and the visitors to-mor- row night. It's Plainview's chance to "do herself proud." Every citizen is asked to come out. The visitors will be taken out to see the big wells late Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Z. T. Wright came in to-day from Oklahoma City to visit Mrs. N. B. Harp.

Fresnillo is the second largest city in Zacatecas State. This state is now Villa's headquarters.

Federal prisoners are being taken daily. They say the Federal garrison at Zacatecas has been depleted by des- ertions.

MAZATLAN, Mexico, June 12.—Con- stitutionalists yesterday captured a strategic hill north of the city in an attack before daylight. The hill com- mands an important part of the city.

Constitutionalists also captured the new cemetery. This is important, be- cause it has strong walls. Breach plugs from all except one Federal can- non at Fort Rosales, one of Mazatlan's defensive outworks, disappeared along with the commanding officer during the night.

MADRID, Spain, June 11.—Religious ceremony for Kermit Roosevelt and Miss Willard was performed at the British Embassy chapel to-day. A rainstorm spoiled the garden party after the wedding breakfast.

The cream of Spanish aristocracy was present in the British Embassy chapel, where the ceremony was per- formed.

After a brief honeymoon, the couple plan to leave the Continent for Bra- zil. They will establish their home in San Paulo, where young Roosevelt is in the railroad business. Pick up "follow" set last night.

MADRID, June 11.—A brilliant gath- ering comprising the elite of Spanish officialdom and aristocracy, together with practically all the members of the diplomatic corps and their ladies, witnessed the marriage today of Miss Belle Wyatt Willard, daughter of J. E. Willard, American Ambassador to Spain, and Kermit Roosevelt, second son of Ex-President Roosevelt of the United States. The bridegroom's father came over from New York to attend the wedding. The ceremony, which took place at noon in the British Embassy Chapel, was performed by Rev. Dr. Watson, rector of the American church in Paris, assisted by Rev. Herbert Brown, chaplain of the British Embassy in Madrid. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Elizabeth Willard, as her maid of honor, and by the following bridesmaids: Her Serene highness Princess Fella of Thurn and Taxis, daughter of Prince Ratibor, the German Ambassador in Madrid; Miss Katherine Pago, daughter of the American Ambassador in London; Mlle Gilene le Veneur de Tillieres, of Paris and Miss Virginia Christain, of Rich- mond, Va. Following a brief honey- moon on the continent, the young couple leave for Brazil to establish their future home at San Paulo, where Kermit Roosevelt is engaged in the Rail- road business.

The bride, now 21, was one of the most attractive girls in the younger social set at Richmond, the family home of the Willards, where she made her debut two years ago. While en route with her mother and younger sister last February to join her father at his new Post she was presented at the Court of St. James in London, and upon her arrival here she quickly be- came a great favorite in Spanish so- ciety. Kermit Roosevelt, 24 years old has seen considerably more of the world than usually falls to the lot of young men of his age. After returning from the big game hunt in Africa with his father in 1910 he went out West on a mountain sheep shooting expedition. Following his graduation from Harvard in 1912 he made a vis- it in England and later took up rail- roading in South America. Last win- ter he accompanied Col. Roosevelt on his hunting, exploring, and river- dis- covering trip in the Amazon country, coming direct from Brazil to this city. Kermit met his future wife through the good offices of his sister Mrs. Richard Derby, formerly Miss Ethel Roosevelt, who became a great chum of Miss Willard's during a sojourn at Hot Springs, Va. Ethel took her new friend to Oyster Bay, where Kermit speedily fell a victim to her charms.

Joe Lee Ferguson was in Plainview to-day, en route to Hale Center. Mr. Ferguson has been to Amarillo with his brother, James E. Ferguson, candi- date for Governor.

Professor E. C. Nelson, Jr., Profes- sor F. E. Savage and Miss Apple- white left to-day for Austin. They will attend the University this summer, and Professor Nelson will remain for the regular school term.

BRILLIANT PAGEANT TO BE HELD BY AMERICANS

LONDON, June 10.—Anglo-American Society will take possession of the Royal Albert Hall tonight, for what is confidently predicted will be the most magnificent ball ever held in that famous building.

Having been arranged in connection with the celebration of the centenary of Anglo-American peace, the profits from all the ball will be devoted to carrying out the program drawn up by the peace Centenary Committee.

The Duke and Duchess of Teck, Prince and Princess of Connaught and Mrs. Walter H. Page, wife of United States Ambassador, half a dozen marchionesses, twenty-five countesses and dozens of titled and untitled American and British society leaders.

In order to cover Anglo-Saxon early history thoroughly the costumes worn tonight will range from the days of Columbus to 1814, and many wonderful effects, which are being jealously guarded up to the last moment by the wearers and designers, will be seen.

The great organ has been disguised beyond recognition by being the framework for a replica of one of the caravels which flow Columbus' flag, and from this ancient transport will descend Columbus and his companion adventurers to witness the various professions illustrating the development in America.

The ten principle processions will represent: the aborigines and various tribes, Sir Walter Raleigh and the Virginia settlers, the Pilgrim Fathers, the Dutch settlers, the French Emigres, William Penn and the Quakers, George Washington and his contemporaries, the Burgomaster of Ghent and the signatories of the Treaty of 1814, Canada, and, as a grand finale, Columbia and Britannia, with representatives of all the states of the union and the British colonies.

'As much as $1,000 has been offered in vain for boxes, by late comers, while all ordinary tickets were snapped up long ago at fancy prices.

PLANS AND FINANCE.

"Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit, so shall ye be my disciples."—John 15:16.

We, the Committee on Plans and Finance, hereby submit the following report for your consideration:

I. That the dues of the Auxiliary be $3.00 per year and be divided equally between the Home and Foreign Departments. That this be done regardless of the way they are sent in by the Auxiliary.

This amount does not include the Pledge.

II. That we observe Pledge Day the first meeting in January, and the Corresponding Secretary of the local auxiliary report immediately, through the District Secretary, to the Conference Secretary.

III. Whereas, it requires $3,115.00 to meet our Conference Pledge, and, whereas, our Conference has never met the Pledge, we strongly urge that the District Secretaries ask the auxiliaries to pay a stated amount on this pledge, this amount being pro rated by the District Secretary wherever the auxiliary has no representation at the annual meeting to make a pledge.

IV. We recommend that this Conference pay $100.00, in co-operation with the four other Texas Conferences, in the support of a Field Secretary whose duty it shall be to keep a record of the girls and babies who go out from the Virginia K. Johnson home.

V. That we pay our proportionate part of the expense of the publication of The King's Messenger. This amount to be taken from the expense fund.

VI. That $250.00 be paid from the Conference half of the dues to finish paying the indebtedness on the Denton Dormitory.

VII. That one-third of the Conference half of the dues be left in the General Treasury toward the support of the Laredo School.

VIII. That every auxiliary be urged to observe the Week of Prayer, and the offering be equally divided between the Vashti School for Girls and the building of our girls school at Rio.

EXCURSION RATES FOR LODGE MEETING

Railroads Agree To Give Reduced Fare All Over Texas For Training School At Plainview

NEW LODGE FURNITURE

Local Masons Fix Up Quarters With The Finest Mahogany; Many Visitors Expected

Texas railroads have notified O. M. Unger that special rates will be advertised for the Masons' Training School, which will be held in Plainview six days beginning July 15. These rates apply from all over Texas.

Heretofore this school has been held at the meeting of the Grand Lodge, in December. That time was so busy for some of the members that it was decided two years ago to have the summer school. This school meets at different places over Texas. This is the first time it has gone outside of one of the larger cities.

Every lodge in the State is supposed to send men to learn the work given at Plainview next month, Col. R. P. Smyth said to-day. This is secret work of the lodge, and there is no other way to learn it.

Colonel Smyth won't say how many visitors we may expect. There are 870 Masonic lodges in Texas. The larger lodges, like those at Fort Worth and Dallas, will perhaps send four or five men. Country lodges usually send only the Master. The Master is installed in June, and will be anxious to learn the work offered here in July.

"It is entirely possible that we may have 1,000 men here to attend this school," Colonel Smyth said to-day. "I am not figuring on that many. I only say it is possible. John Vaughn, from Snyder, was in Plainview this week. He says he is coming and knows of several others who are coming from Colorado, Big Springs and surrounding towns.

Of course, Plainview doesn't furnish free entertainment for these men. Their expenses are paid by their lodges. However, Colonel Smyth says he is worried about securing enough good places for them to stay.

The local lodge has spent $1,600 for new furniture to go in its lodge room. This is heavy mahogany. Other rooms in the Masonic Building will be furnished later on.

ENGLISH UNIONS OPPOSE I. W. W. ORGANIZATION

MANCHESTER, Eng., June 8.—Thirteen nations were represented at the opening session, today, in the Central Public Library of Blackpeed, of the ninth congress of the International Federation of Textile Workers' Associations. Among the various important matters for discussion the liveliest interest will probably be centered in the question of whether the International Workers of the World are eligible to affiliation with the International Federation in the same way as the American Federation of Labor. Some of the more conservative unions are strongly opposed to admitting the I. W. W. on account of its avowed policy of Syndicalism. There is also sharp division of opinion on the question of raising the legal school age of children. On the continent most of the unions aim at restricting child labor, instead of defending it, and it is done by the Cotton Worker's organizations in Great Britain. The congress is expected to protest vigorously against the excessive and continually increasing expenditure for armaments and to declare a first-hand study of the methods of the co-operative Wholesale Society in this city. The congress which is the first to be held in England since the inauguration of the Federation of 20 years ago at Manchester, will close on Saturday.

FARMERS TOO BUSY TO STOP WORK

TRINITY, Texas, June 10.—Farmers in this vicinity, as well as other parts of Texas, are working harder and putting in longer hours than ever before at this time of the year. A farmer living a few miles from this city is operating 100 planters 14 hours per day, replanting the cotton crop which was completely washed away during the overflow of the Trinity river. Those farmers not living in the lowlands have been unable to work during the recent deluge and the weeds have thrived. It will require six weeks of hard work to lay by the crops and accomplish the task in this time will require many additional hands. Many farmers have been too busy to come to town for supplies and are ordering groceries by telephone. Several local merchants have instituted rural free delivery and are sending provisions into the country so far as five and six miles.

GUARDSMEN MEET IN TEXARKANA

TEXARKANA, Tex., June 10.—Advices have been received here from the War department at Washington stating that the bureau has decided to hold the annual encampment of the Arkansas National Guard and the Oklahoma National Guard at Texarkana.

The companies will mobilize here August first, remaining in camp five weeks. It is believed that at least 1,500 men will be in camp.

Owing to border troubles, the guardsmen of Texas are not expected to come.

EVERY AUTO IN TOWN ASKED FOR WESTGARD

National Highway Official Wants To Make Picture of Plainview People And Machines

BAND TO FURNISH MUSIC

Cars Going To Lubbock To Meet Highway Party; Entertainment Being Planned; Cut Weeds

There are 468 automobiles in Hale County. More than 200 of these ought to be on the streets Friday morning when Colonel A. L. Westgard, Vice President of the National Highway Association, and D. E. Colp, Vice President of the Colorado-to-Gulf Highway, come into Plainview.

Two cars go from Plainview to Lubbock Thursday and return Friday with the party. Mr. Westgard left San Antonio with three cars. One or two will come from San Angelo, one from Big Springs and others from intermediate points. Lubbock will send at least one car.

Colonel Westgard's Association is more interested in enthusiasm manifested than in the roads already built. They are laying out roads where the people show an interest. More than 100,000 of the most prominent men in America are members of the Association. They are advocating the building of 50,000 miles of PERMANENT good roads, and will not stop until at least $250,000,000 has been spent by the Federal Government for this purpose.

Colonel Westgard is laying out the Panama-Pacific Highway. He is favorable to the route through Plainview. Considerable pressure is being used to throw it around our town. If we show sufficient interest Friday we will get the road.

The Panama-Pacific Highway will perhaps bring more tourists through Plainview during the next two years than both the Colorado-to-Gulf and Borderland Routes. At any rate, let's not let that road get away for lack of interest.

San Angelo entertained the annual meeting of the Colorado-to-Gulf Highway Association last June with a big barbecue and a brilliant reception. Plainview ought to do no less. In fact, Plainview always does a little better.

But the big thing is to get every automobile out Friday morning and send an enthusiastic delegation out toward Hale Center to pilot the party in.

Plainview's band is going to furnish music for the visitors.

But we want our automobiles lined up along the curbing—every one of them—when Colonel Westgard comes in. The weeds ought to be cut, too.

D. A. R. PRESENT TO MICHIGAN A TABLET

LANSING, Mich., June 10.—On the spot where stood Michigan's first capitol building a bronze tablet presented to the state by the Michigan Daughters of the American Revolution, was this afternoon unveiled with appropriate formality.

WATERMELON SEASON OPENS

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., June 10.—The first watermelons to be seen here were brought in yesterday.

The product was grown on the Brown ranch near this city and was an excellent quality. A good price for the melons was received, which were sold to local dealers.

It is expected that carload movements of this product will begin to go out of this place shortly as a large acreage is devoted to this fruit in the Brownville section this year.

The yield is expected to break all previous records, and from present indications the prices will be better than ever before.

A few shipments in small lots has been made over the state.

AMERICAN WOMEN AT STOCKHOLM CONVENTION

STOCKHOLM, June 10.—Woman's proper place in life in relation to the family, the church, the community, the nation, and the world, will be thoroughly discussed at the fifth conference of the International Young Women's Christian Association which opened for a week's session here to-day, under the presidency of the Hon. Mrs. Montagu Waldergrove, of England.

It is the greatest world gathering of this organization since it's foundation twenty-two countries being represented by 305 voting delegates and 200 visiting delegates.

Finland has sent the largest delegation, and Great Britain is the next with sixty.

The delegates numbering twenty-three from the United States are headed by Miss Mabel Cratty, of New York general secretary of the National Board of Young Women's Christian Associations in America, who will make one of the principle addresses of the conference on "The Christian Ideal for Women."

Other American delegates who are scheduled for speeches are Miss Louise Tolmquist, of New York, one of the national secretaries, and Miss A. M. Reynolds, also of New York, a member of the national board.

Among the leading foreign delegates are Froken Schilberg, a member of the Finnish Parliament and a recognized authority on educational work, who will discuss "Women in National Life" and Anna Roos, president of the Swedish Young Women's Christian Association, a distinguished authoress and leader in the Scandinavian temperance movement.

Others will be Miles, Savary and Brunton, of France, general Secretary of the Canadian council of the Young Women's Christian Association.

TELEGRAPHERS MEET IN DETROIT

DETROIT, Mich., June 10.—Beginning a three day's session, the fourth biennial convention of the Commercial Telegraphers Union of America convened here today, with about 100 delegates and visitors attending. S. J. Konekamp, president of the union, reported the organization in healthy financial condition and steadily growing in membership. The Canadian branch of the order was well represented, delegates being present from Toronto, Winnipeg, Montreal and other cities.

Matters of great importance affecting particularly the operators in the employ of the Western Union and Postal companies are expected to come up before the convention. Only routine business was transacted today. Tonight the telegraphers will go on a river excursion to Lake Erie and return.

MEDIATORS WOULD LET HUERTA NAME SUCCESSOR

Failure of Niagara Conference May Result From Refusal of U. S. To Recognize Dictator

WILSON FAVORS CARRANZA

Administration Is Confident Time Will Bring Solution; Antilla May Not Land

NIAGARA FALLS, Can., June 11.—Failure of mediation is threatened on account of unequivocal refusal of the United States to consent to anything that might be construed as recognition of Huerta's acts.

Mediators are insisting that Huerta be allowed to make appointment of the man mediators select for provisional president. This, United States representatives say, would mean recognition of Huerta. Some of the principals in conference have actually lost hope, but others are confident the mediators will find some means of bridging the difficulty.

It is understood that the United States demands that men such as those surrounding Carranza be named to head provisional government. Suggestion of this kind will undoubtedly meet with most strenuous objection from Huerta's envoys. They believe that men free from alliances with any faction should be chosen.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 11.—

"Hopeful waiting" has replaced "Watchful waiting." The administration is confident that only time is needed to completely solve the Mexican situation.

Carranza's reply to the invitation to join in mediation may reach Niagara Falls to-day. Whether or not it is satisfactory to mediators does not matter much, because the United States believes it can get Carranza's approval of its peace plans.

Badger must report Antilla's arrival off Tampico. Then Bryan will decide whether or not the cargo of ammunition shipped to the rebels will be landed. Army and Navy officials suggest that the cargo be not permitted to land.

"I cannot discuss the Antilla at this time," Bryan said when leaving a White House conference to-day.

SENATE DEBATE ON TOLLS REPEALS NEARING AN END

Administration Leaders Believe Bill Will Pass Before Adjournment To-Day; House Measures Up

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 10.—Long historic debate on Panama tolls entered its last stages to-day in the Senate. It is likely that final voting will be done before adjournment to-night.

Administration leaders claim that the bill will pass with a safe majority. Senator Sutherland, Republican, offered an amendment asserting, positively the right of the United States to discriminate in favor of its own ships. Senator Swanson, acting as presiding officer, ruled the amendment out of order.

In the House, the Rules Committee to-day voted special rules for considering Administration Conservation Bills in the House. The Committee adjourned until later to-day without acting on the special rule for considering Hobson's Nation-wide prohibition amendment. It is expected that this rule will also be reported favorably.

Hobson and other prominent Anti-Saloon Leaguers will see the committee before it votes on the rule. Conservation bills are Alaska coal lands, radium, water power and reclamation payment extended to mining laws.

WATERMELON SEASON OPENS

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., June 10.—The first watermelons to be seen here were brought in yesterday.

The product was grown on the Brown ranch near this city and was an excellent quality. A good price for the melons was received, which were sold to local dealers.

It is expected that carload movements of this product will begin to go out of this place shortly as a large acreage is devoted to this fruit in the Brownville section this year.

The yield is expected to break all previous records, and from present indications the prices will be better than ever before.

A few shipments in small lots has been made over the state.

MRS. PERMINTER MADE SECRETARY PRO-TEM

Woman's Conference Dispatches Much Business At Tuesday Afternoon Session; Reports Heard

In the absence of Mrs. Farrell, Miss Eula Mae Rollins conducted devotional exercises, choosing as her lesson a portion of Matthew 6. This was followed by an earnest prayer by Mrs. Comer Woodward. After singing a verse from hymn No. 335, the President stated that Mrs. Burton had been compelled to leave on the noon train, and Mrs. Perminter was requested to take her place.

Mrs. Burton took the minutes of the morning session, and was authorized to publish them without action from the Conference, on statement from the President that Mr. Burton's records had always been accurate.

Report on Young People's Work was adopted; also report of the committee on Social Service. Mrs. Comer Woodward, statistical secretary, made her report. Work of Mrs. N. G. Rollins, Corresponding Secretary, was approved.

Misses Marie McDowell and Simon Trulove were introduced as pages.

Mrs. Simmons, of Stamford, presented to the Conference the report of the Amelia McKeown Home, at Stamford. This is a new feature of the work. The founder is "our unbought deaconess," Mrs. W. B. McKeown. Mrs. Lyons gave a more minute account of Mrs. McKeown's activities, and made an earnest plea for us, as a conference, to help in the work.

Mrs. N. G. Rollins introduced the following resolution: "Whereas, the Amelia McKeown Home, in West Stamford, is accomplishing great good, and its present head may be removed by appointment of the Bishop at Annual Conference; therefore, be it resolved that this Conference continue to assist it by sending supplies, and that we request the Council to investigate the situation, with a view to supplying a regular worker when needed, and assist in carry on same."

Mrs. Comer Woodward urged the women to help with money as well as supplies. Mrs. McKeown feelingly expressed her appreciation for help already given, and told some instances of how her prayers had been answered.

Mrs. J. G. Merritt stated that the real needs of this home are sheets, pillow cases, and other supplies such as a sick mother would need.

Rev. O. P. Kiker was given a rising vote of thanks for sending a supplementary report from Plainview District, making their ledges $523 rather than $465, as reported at the morning session.

Mrs. C. A. Burton, Mrs. J. G. Merritt and Mrs. Lee Perminter offered a resolution to the effect that $12.50 be appropriated each quarter to help defray the expenses of Laidy Rights for women. After considerable discussion, the resolution was adopted 28 to 13. Church organs are closed to a discussion of laidy rights.

Reports were heard from Mission Study and Christian Stewardship.

Mrs. J. G. McKeown was called to the platform to conduct the "Mother's Hour." She opened the session with a Bible lesson taken from Exodus 2. She spoke of the opportunities and privileges of the mother in training her little ones in a Christian life, and urged each one to give her own children the best there is in her. Mrs. Bynum made an earnest appeal to take every opportunity offered for the uplift of our neighbors' children. Mrs. J. G. Merritt substituted for Mrs. Burton in calling to our attention the many opportunities for influencing our domestic help.

Mrs. N. G. Rollins gave a talk entitled "Forceful Facts and Fearful Figures." She brought to the audience some duties to the neglected girls who at last seek refuge in the V. K. Johnson Home. "It is our neglect that is largely responsible for these 'Fearful figures,'" Mrs. Rollins said. Her talk was illustrated with posters made by an inmate of the V. K. Johnson Home.

CUT WHEAT ON SUNDAY

Farmers Utilize Fair Weather To Save Crops

WAXAHACHIE, Texas, June 10.—But slight observance was paid to Sunday in the harvest fields of Ellis county. In all the fields where it was dry enough to enter, a binder was seen in operation.

Both wheat and oat crops are ripe and in many fields the grain is fast falling down. Believing that more rain threatens, the farmers placed all their cutting machinery in action.

MR. AND MRS. DONOHOO ENTERTAIN "OLD TIMERS."

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Donohoo, 120 Grover Street, was the scene last night of hospitality and good cheer.

The occasion was the gathering together of the old timers to meet Mrs. J. T. Bloodworth, who was a resident of Plainview fifteen years ago.

The rooms of the beautiful Donohoo home were decorated with carnations, cape jasmamines and roses—Plainview roses were everywhere.

Old settlers, regardless of denomination and creed, assembled to meet Mrs. Bloodworth, whose husband was one of the most popular pastors ever sent to the Plainview church. Old songs were sung, old friends exchanged reminiscences, and hands clasped in the renewal of friendships. The lights were not brighter nor the roses sweeter than the warmth of the welcome given by Mr. and Mrs. Donohoo to their guests, nor the greetings given by Mrs. Bloodworth to her old friends.

In receiving and in the serving of delicious cream and cake, Mrs. Donohoo was assisted by Mrs. L. S. Kinder.

Just before the parting hour, Mrs. Bloodworth made a talk to those whom she had known long ago. She said she was deeply grateful to Mr. and Mrs. Donohoo for the opportunity to meet face to face the friends of old.

"In all of our pastorate," said Mrs. Bloodworth, "two pictures are ever parallel in my mind—one dark, the other bright. The first is vivid recollection of our arrival at one of our new homes. We arrived after night, the snow was up to the hubs of the buggy; there were no lights in the parsonage, no fire. Our things had not come. There was no covering on the beds; no one to welcome us."

"The next year," continued Mrs. Bloodworth, "we were sent to Plainview. On our arrival from Tulla at three o'clock in the afternoon we found the parsonage open, some of the members waiting to meet us, the fires lighted, the beds made, the table set, and chickens, beef, butter, cake and other edibles stored in the pantry to last for days."

"That was twenty years ago," said Mrs. Bloodworth, "but the memory of that welcome still lingers." That was the bright picture.

Mrs. Bloodworth closed her talk by a touching farewell to her friends, and a hope of meeting again.

During her stay in Plainview, Mrs. Bloodworth was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Donohoo.

Mrs. J. M. Waller and children left yesterday on a visit to relatives at Estacado.

CONCRETE SIDEWALK EPIDEMIC SPREADING

Garrison, Otto, Harlan, Mayhugh, Peret, Hawley, Harrell, Richards and Miss Casey to Build

Sidewalk building is "catching" in Plainview now. Of course, the movement started largely through the efforts of O. M. Unger, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Sidewalks are necessary to free mail delivery. They are also necessary to comfortable locomotion when it rains.

More than one person recalls having seen some of our East Side school teachers wading through water over their shoe tops during rains at the close of school. In fact, the young women had removed their shoes. They ordered a cab. Time for school came, but the cabman didn't. They took their shoes and went to their work. But it is too bad that they should ever have to wade.

Persons not heretofore reported who have agreed to build sidewalks are J. F. Garrison, R. W. Otto, Miss Effie Casey, E. Harlan, L. T. Mayhugh, J. A. Peret, Jack Hawley, H. W. Harrell, T. E. Richards and Will Harrington. Mayor Dorsett says that the is sure his congregation will build a concrete walk around the property owned by the Baptist Church.

VANGUARD OF WOMEN ARRIVE IN CHICAGO

CHICAGO, June 10.—The vanguard of the ten thousand delegates to the twentieth biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, to be called into session tomorrow, arrived in Chicago today. Scores of automobiles, many of them driven by local club women, whisked the fair visitors away from the various railway stations to the six largest hotels in the loop district, reserved for the expected throng. From small hamlets to the largest cities in the United States came women to participate in what is expected to be one of the most momentous gatherings of female folk ever held in America. For ten days the convention is to be in session, seven of the days to be devoted to consideration of pressing questions of the day. With Mrs. Percy V. Pennypacker, of Austin, Texas, president of the Federation, on hand early to review the general arrangements with Mrs. George Bass, chairman of the local biennial board, the last detail was complete for conducting the sessions—even to the establishment of an emergency hospital corps of women physicians at the Auditorium Theatre, where the convention is to be held.

The purpose of the Federation's assembly is to bring to a focus the divergent and leading views of all questions affecting woman's sphere, to review the activities of the women's clubs during the preceding two years and to map out a program for militant action to better the status of woman-kind. White slavery, minimum wages for women, dress-reform, scientific-home-cooking, sanitation in the home, vocational training and protection of the immigrant woman from exploitation are a few of the subjects to be threshed out by the convention. Public health, art, music, literary extension work, and conservation are among other topics to be brought to the delegate's attention. Authorities of national prominence will address the assembly. A reception in honor of Mrs. Pennypacker, and other retiring officers of the Federation, and the visiting members to be held at the Art Institute, Thursday evening June 11, is to be the big social event of the convention. On June 14, "Sacred Sunday" memorial services in honor of Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, of Denver, and Mrs. Francis S. Potter of Chicago, will be held in the auditorium. Both women had long been active in the affairs of the Federation. Election of officers is scheduled for Tuesday June 16, with installation ceremonies the following day, when the real work of the assembly will have been finished. The last two days, June 18 and 19, will be given over to minor social affairs, sight-seeing, and trips on Lake Michigan.

P. M. S. CONVENE MINUS CONGRESSMEN

LINCOLN, Neb., June 10.—Postmasters from the cities, towns, villages, hamlets, and cross-roads of Nebraska are gathering here today for the opening of the annual convention of the Nebraska postmasters, which will be concluded on June 11.

Owing to reluctance or inability on the part of congress in adjourn in due season the usual flock of the fence repairing Congressmen were here to speak to the superintendents of mail distribution in the Cornhusker state. Consequently only home oratorical talent is being depended for that part of the program.

INTERNATIONAL CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE CONVENE AT PARIS

PARIS, June 10.—One of the greatest commercial gatherings Paris has ever entertained convened here today. It was the opening session of the 6th International Congress of Chambers of Commerce. Chamber of Commerce from all over the world were represented by special appointed delegates, and from sources of American, German Spanish and English cities came mayors and other municipal heads of government.

The Congress is nothing in the Grand Amphitheatre of the Sorbonne. The list of subjects to be discussed at this year's sessions as announced at today's once of the present convention will opening the evidence that the import-surpass even that of two year's ago when representatives of nearly fifty cities convened in Boston. Some of these subjects, chosen at preliminary meeting of the French committee on arrangements in March, last, include:

1. Report of the Bureau on the results obtained on the resolutions of the preceding congress, particularly on the questions relating to the rate of aster, to the fixity of the calendar and to custom statistics.
2. Utility of international action against unfair competition, in the sense of existing legislation.
3. Unification of legislation relative to arbitral procedure for solving disputes between citizens of different countries.

7. National and international postal money orders.
8. Unification of legislation on checks (for report from the London Committee.)
9. Modifications and additions to the by-laws of the International Congresses of Chamber of Commerce as voted at Milan in 1905.

The Death Rate for 1913

Memphis, Richmond, New Orleans and Albany Stand Ahead.

According to the bulletin of the bureau of census, the death rate of the registration area of the United States for 1913 was 14.1 per thousand estimated population. In 1912 it was 13.9, in 1911, 14.2. For the years from 1901 to 1905 the average was 16.2; from 1906 to 1910 it was 15.1. We are therefore continuing in improvement, the average for 1911, 1912 and 1913 being 14.06. These are exact figures as stated in the report of the census bureau. What they mean in actives is not indicated except by closer analysis. The decrease from 16.2, the average from 1901 to 1905, to 14.1, the average for 1913, amounts to 13 per cent, or a reduction of one death in every night. If the same rate had prevailed in 1913 as in the period from 1901 to 1905, there would have been 1,025,446 deaths recorded instead of 890,823, an excess of 134,623.

The largest percentage of decrease was shown for Rhode Island (15.7), followed by New York (12.3), New Jersey (11.2) and Massachusetts (9.6). It seems to be only a peculiar coincidence that these leaders should be in one small section of the entire territory discussed. Slight increases which occurred in some states (Michigan, 4.5; New Hampshire, 3, and Indiana, 0.8) are believed to be due in some cases to increase accuracy of registration. The state with the lowest death rate is Washington, with 8.5 deaths per thousand population; and then in the following order come Minnesota, 10.4; Utah, 11.0, and Wisconsin and Colorado, 11.5. The doubtful honor of possessing the highest rates falls to New Hampshire with 17.1; North Carolina, 16.8; Maryland 16.2; Vermont, 15.8; Maine, 15.3, and Connecticut, Massachusetts, New York and Rhode Island 15.0. It seems that in the New England States there occurred most of the higher death rates and most of the improvements from previous years.

It is significant that the four states in the registration area which have a colored population of over 10 per cent Kentucky, Maryland, North Carolina and Virginia, should average 15.0, while a group with equal population but few colored, Wisconsin, Washington, Vermont and Minnesota, average 11.5.

Among cities of over 100,000 population, Seattle and Spokane lead by far with death rates of only 8.4 and 8.9 respectively. Portland, Oregon follows with a rate of 9.5, so that this particular corner of the United States by comparison would seem to be omre than holding its own. It seems almost obvious that location, climate and character of population are responsible for this low rate. Minneapolis and St. Paul as usual contest for next place with 11.6 and 11, Oakland and Milwaukee following with 12.5 and 12.7. The highest rates occur in Memphis, Tenn., 20.8; Richmond, Va., 20.4; New Orleans, 19.9; Albany, N. Y., 19.8; Baltimore 18.5; Nashville, Tenn., 17.8; Birmingham, Ala., 17.4; Atlanta, Ga., 17.4 and Washington, D. C., 17.3.

The cause of the death rate in Southern cities has probably often been mentioned and often explained, but we cannot too often point the way to betterment, says the Journal of the Medical Association.

Recently a conference was held at the call of the Louisiana State Board of Health to consider betterment of hygiene among negroes of the South were present. Progress has been made and sincere workers are adding impetus to the beginning steps. Another decade should see a more reasonable balance between the rates accorded to the two races.

FARMER MUST HAVE CREDIT

NEXT THERE MUST BE CO-OPERATION IN BUYING AND SELLING

PHILADELPHIA, June 11.—An adequate system of rural credits and co-operation between farmers in the buying of supplies and the selling of products were advanced on the solution to the high cost of living problem by speakers yesterday at the annual spring pilgrimage and conservation exercise at the National Farm School near Doyleton.

The Key to The Food Question

"The key to the food question which will be the ultimate problem of the race," said Dr. Kenyon L. Butterfield, President of the Massachusetts State Agricultural College, "lies in providing capacity or what is equivalent, adequate credit to the small farmer. The advancement of agriculture in this country has reached a stage where further development depends upon the introduction of improved business methods rather than upon increased productivity. Science gradually is unfolding the secrets of the natural process, but farmers struggle under a system or rural credit, which is to say the least does not cater to the largest interests of the men in the soil."

Co-operation is Essential

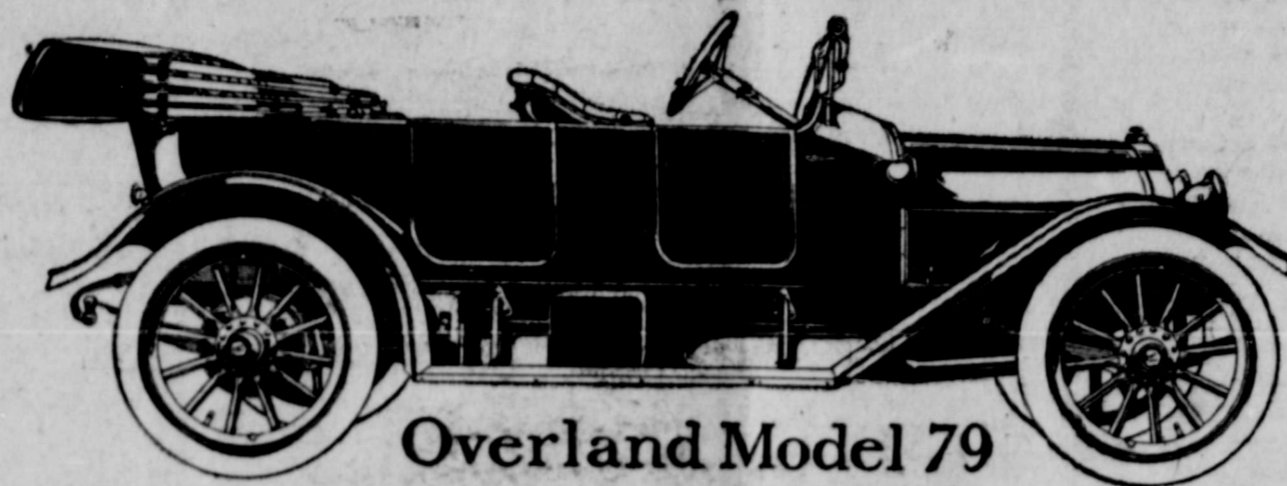

"A second essential to agricultural development," added Dr. Butterfield, who was a member of President Roosevelt's country life commission and the commission investigating farmer's co-operative credit societies in Europe, "is co-operative selling and buying by farmers. The old methods of individual trading must be abandoned."

The need for co-operation was also impressed upon the students at the School by Frank P. Bye of the University of Pennsylvania. Bristow Adams of the United States Forestry Service traced the process of the conservation movement and outlined the agriculturist's part in timber welfare as he views it.

Among the memorial trees planted was one dedicated to the lives of Geo. M. Poinsett and Charles Allen Smith, the Philadelphia seamen who lost their lives in the taking of Vera Cruz.

ROAD BUILDERS COMING.

One of the most encouraging signs of the times is the almost universal interest manifested by country and small-towns people in the building and improvement of public highways.

Probably more progress has been made in the construction of good roads in the last ten years than has been attempted in fully half a century.

Not so long ago fine roads were looked upon as more or less of luxuries, but the attitude of the farmer and the city man has changed so that now good roads are considered a necessity.

For the purpose of arousing interest and enthusiasm in the better-roads movement and securing funds for the construction and maintenance of first-class roads, Good Roads Associations have been organized in nearly every State. Creditable work has been done in all regions.

One of the great thoroughfares which promises to become an important artery of trade is the Colorado-to-Gulf Highway.

Its success will be of inestimable value to Plainview and its contiguous territory.

Friday of this week the Western Division of the Colorado-to-Gulf Highway Association will hold its annual convention in Plainview.

The sessions will be presided over by Col. A. L. Westgard, vice president of the National Highways Association, and D. E. Colp, vice president of the Western Division of the Colorado-to-Gulf Highway Association.

The convention will be largely attended by delegates from all of the cities and towns throughout Northwest Texas. Several parties in automobiles are already on their way here to attend the important meeting.

Of course, Plainview citizens will give the guests a rousing welcome. The worthy efforts of the association will receive hearty endorsement in Plainview, which is trying to do its share in maintaining the best country roads throughout its tributary country.

Welcome to Plainview, ye Road Builders. Welcome, always Welcome!

WINNING THE BIG GAME.

Many ambitious, enterprising people fail because they do not keep their minds on the important thing. They overlook the vital fact that the thing which contributes more toward success than any other is concentration.

There is hardly a man who at some time in his life does not sit down and definitely decide on a clear-cut plan of action. He makes up his mind what he will do and how he will do it. All goes well for a while. His efforts bear fruit splendidly.

Then something happens which diverts him. Instead of concentrating all of his power, strength and brains upon his chosen work, he wavers, and temporarily loses his grip. This is followed by a hit-or-miss policy, which, of course, spells failure.

Those who have succeeded declare that you can't get anywhere unless you concentrate.

You have seen two players sit down at a game of checkers—one a good player, the other a poor one. You have noticed how the poor player apologizes for himself before he starts out, and how he makes bad moves all during the game because of lack of constant attention to the game. On the other hand, his opponent looks smilingly at the board, watches carefully every move and plans the thing out—never permitting himself to be diverted. That accounts for his winning.

In the game of life Time sits opposite you with his sythe, and at his elbow the stakes—success. Anything that takes your mind off the game gives Time the advantage.

Don't worry about the moves which you have made foolishly, for everybody is beaten by Time at some period in his life. But concentrate upon catching up all the precious moments you have wasted in the past. Have but one single purpose in life, and stick to it, and then—and then only—will you win success.

KING AND QUEEN AT HORSE SHOW

LONDON, June 10.—The final stages of the military competitions for the King Edward VII and King George V gold cups were entered upon today at the International Horse Show, and King George and Queen Mary, with practically the whole of the Court and the elite of British society were present, the King presenting the trophies to the winning officers. The competitors who rode in full uniform represented Great Britain, Russia, France, Belgium, Italy, Sweden and Norway. Under the conditions, the King George Cup, for officers riding singly, and the King Edward Cup, for teams of three, became the absolute property of the country winning thrice, and as Russia and France had already scored twice in the latter event, the British officers made a strong effort to prevent the cup from going out of the country. Belgium had won the King Edward cup once, while England has not scored in either event. Russia and France also had one success each to their credit in the King George competition.

FIVE UNIONS MEETING TODAY

WASHINGTON, June 10.—American Federation of Labor officials today called the attention of union labor throughout the country to the fact that five unions are holding annual conventions today. SISTER THERESA SAINTED

ROME, June 10.—The Sacred Congregation of Rites today voted practically unanimously to admit the cause of Beautification and canonization as a saint of Sister Theresa of the Infant Jesus. Should the canonization finally take place it will be that of the most recently reorganized saint in Vatican history, as Sister Theresa died only 14 years ago.

She was a nun in the Carmel convent at Lisieux, France, and as a result of the numerous miracles that are declared to have been wrought through her acquired world wide fame and the name of "The Little Flower of Jesus."

As it has not been made public just which of her miracles have been selected by the Sacred Congregation of Rites to be passed upon as establishing her right to be canonized as a saint. The latter process is a very lengthy one and it is not likely to be concluded before 15 or 20 years.

Fisher of this city, is president of the national association. John Conwell, of Caldez, is president of the state association.

THE BANKER AND RURAL CREDITS

By S. A. Lindsey, Tyler, Texas, Chairman, Texas Farm Life Commission.

The bankers of Texas should assist the coming of rural credits, and they would if they understood the principles and results. Let me state first what rural credits do not mean. They do not mean credit without security, nor for the purchase of foods, clothing and the like. They do not mean credit on security for such term as agriculture requires FOR PRODUCTIVE PURPOSES ONLY. Rural credit will institute the first system of credit Southern agriculture has ever known, and our farmers will soon to use credits for greater production. Southern farmers could not learn to properly employ credit because they have never had a system to employ. Our farmers are not given credit, they are merely GRUBSTAKED while they grow, gather and market cotton.

At first the banks of Europe fought rural credit. But now they approve them. They told me that rural credits have tapped an entirely new source of deposits, yielding Germany alone over one billion dollars. Rural credits do not effect commercial interest rates.

The effect of rural credits is to increase the agricultural output. In Saxon rural credits have increased the average farm net yield per acre from $5 to $25. Suppose we should double ours, would not every business and industry benefit?

A proper system of agricultural credits enables the farmer to borrow money on long time to buy a home, and on five year's time to drain, terrace and improve his farm; on three years' time to buy farm machinery, farm stock, and from the seed time to harvest for the purchase of manures seeds and feed, all of which are unusually bought by the association for cash in car load lots. The result is farmers improve their farms, provide needed farm animals and machinery and use more manures, plant better seed, cultivate better and make larger and better yields and market them more wisely and systematically.

There is a fine chance for a country banker to do a great thing for the Texas farmer, for his bank, for Texas trade industry, and for Texas. He has only to organize rural credit associations, lend them money at the same rate of interest business men pay and encourage them to accumulate capital and surplus funds. By so doing he will increase the agricultural out-put of his county and top a profitable source of deposits for his bank.

Rural credit unions are easily organized. All farmers borrow money or trade on credit. In almost every community ten farmers can be found who will join a credit union which is proposed by the local banker with offers of financial assistance. A loan committee will be chosen. Each farmer then may give his note and security to the union for about ten per cent in excess to the amount he is to get. The union gives its note to the bank for its loan with these notes as collateral, just as a merchant would. The ten per cent is a guaranty margin that the union will look after the loan and sees that each pays his note. If the ten per cent should be left up and paid on shares or to surplus for a few years the union would not continue to borrow but would lend its own funds.

The above plan is the very best that can be devised. It merely uses the same institution, namely, the local bank, which now supplies the community's credit, in a way more economical to both lenders and borrowers and encourages thrift, insures larger production and better business by the farmers. Let the country banks and farmers try the plan and thereby strengthen the business of each other.

Original Star Sprangled Banner Being Restored by Experts

Work on the restoration of the original Star Sprangled Banner, which floated from the flagstaff at Ft. McHenry when Key wrote the national anthem, was started recently at Smithsonian Institution. The work will be in charge of Mrs. Fowler of Boston, who is the most widely known expert in this line, she having had charge of the restoration of the seventy-five trophy flags of the war of 1812, now at the Naval Academy, and for which work Congress appropriated $30,000.

The matter of a souvenir program for the national Star Sprangled Banner centennial celebration in September was finally decided upon at a meeting of the managing directors. It was agreed to issue an artistic publication entirely free from advertising.

PORTLAND, Oregon, June 10.—It was estimated that more than 3,000,000 cut roses were used in the decorations of the floral parade held here this afternoon in connection with the annual Rose Festival.

The parade consisted of hundreds of the smartest pure bred horses, owned by members of Northwestern City hunt clubs, supplemented by nearly 1,000 handsomely bedecked motor vehicles, both pleasure and commercial.

Tonight's fire drill and life saving exhibition is to be one of the features of the week. An eight story factory building, saturated with chemicals will be theoretically destroyed and the entire city fire department will be called out to rescue three hundred persons who have volunteered to fill the various floors of the structure to demonstrate the different types of modern fire fighting machinery and life saving apparatus.

RISS'S TRIBUTE TO HIS WIFE

In "The Making of an American," published two years ago before the death of his first wife, Jacob A. Riss wrote her as David Copperfield might have written of Anger. He said:

"I dreamed a beautiful dream in my youth, and I awoke and found it true. My silver bride they called her just now (1903). The frost is upon my head, indeed; hers winter had not touched with its softest breath; her footfall the lightest, her laugh the merriest in the house. The boys are all in love with their mother; the girls tyrannize and worship her together. The cadet corps elect her an honorary member, for no stouter champion of the flag in the land."

GLADSTONE'S DOMESTIC RULE

From the San Francisco Chronicle.

Mr. Gladstone once said that he had solved the domestic problem in this way: "Whenever Mrs. Gladstone insists I submit; and whenever I insist she submits." He didn't say, however, whether they took turns about insisting and submitting. Marriage is a failure when one of the parties insists on being insister and doesn't take turns in submitting to the submitter.

A NEW PLAINVIEW HOME.

W. E. Risser Has Delightful Place on Archer Street.

Plainview is a city of beautiful homes, and of all the homes built in Plainview during recent years, none is more complete in every detail than the one just finished on Archer Street for W. E. Risser.

J. B. Maxey superintended the construction, including the garage and barn. These two buildings correspond in style with the residence. Everything is in straight, simple lines, and is a model of neatness and comfort from the alley to the street.

The house is built of the best grade of stucco. It contains six rooms, exclusive of bath room, pantry and numerous roomy closets and a large attic, well lighted and comfortable.

All the floors are of hardwood. There is a built-in buffet and book case, and all the other essentials for good housekeeping.

The house will be heated by hot air. During the summer, hot water for bath room and kitchen will be supplied by an instantaneous gasoline heater attached to the hot-air furnace.

There is no lost space about the house. Every inch is utilized.

LIBERTY BELL CRACK BIGGER

Lengthening of Break Lends Fear It Cannot be Moved in Safety

From the New York World.

Philadelphia—The crack in the Liberty Bell has been enlarged and lengthened; and in the fear that the priceless relic may become more seriously damaged, even if it does not actually fall apart, four motor car jacks have been placed under it in order to relieve, in some measure, the strain of the hanging support at the top. Each jack has a supporting capacity of four tons and heavy felt pads have been put between the jacks and the bell so that the metal will not be jarred by the slightest tremor.

City officials are alarmed at the continual enlargement of the crack. Microscopic examinations and mathematical measurements have established the fact that the new crack extending from the top of the old crack has increased in length, until it now reaches diagonally around about one-quarter of the bell's circumference. A gradual widening of the new crack has also been noticed.

The authorities say they are convinced that the projected trip of the Liberty Bell to the Panama-Pacific Exposition would be fatal. If the bell goes to the coast it is certain, they add, that it will be returned in pieces.

BAD TEETH MAKE BAD BOYS

The Dentist the Greatest Reformer, Chas. D. Hillis Finds

NEW YORK, June 11.—Ninety-one per cent of the delinquent boys sent to the children's village, Dobbs Ferry, are bad because they have suffered all their lives as a result of decayed teeth.

That announcement was made yesterday by Charles D. Hillis, president of the New York Juvenile Asylum.

Guy Morgan, superintendent of the children's village, agrees with Mr. Hillis. He says the dentist is the greatest influence for good among delinquent boys. Mr. Morgan adds: "After two years of care to see that their teeth are kept in good shape so that they can properly masticate their food the boys are turned out 90 per cent good instead of 90 per cent bad."

OLNEY, Tex., June 11.—Farmers in Young and adjoining counties produce large quantities of kaffir corn, milo maize, cane and other head crops and in order to meet the demands for thrashing machinery to harvest these products, the Newsom Manufacturing Company has started the construction of a factory in this city for the making of such machinery.

THAT BRIGHT STAR IN THE WEST

Have You Noticed Venus at Sunset and Areturus at the Zenith

From the New York Mail.

A Correspondent writes to know what "the bright star in the West every night is," and also that is "the bright star overhead at the same time." This inquirer undoubtedly means the planet Venus by the bright "star" in the west—Venus, the familiar, Venus, the incomparable and unapproachable; while the luminary overhead is a real star—Areturus, admired of Job.

It is always pleasant when somebody notices the stars and wonders what they are. To most people of this generation all stars look alike. It was not so with the ancients, who gazed and wondered, and gave the stars names—Areturus with his sons, and Orion with his dog, and the Heavenly twins, Castor and Pollux, who just now are found lovingly in Venus's company. If you will sit up any night now until 11:30, you will be rewarded by a fine sight when Jupiter arises in the southeast, and at the end of the month Jupiter will be up by 9:30. By the eighteenth of the month the stargazer will have a rare sight, for the planet Mercury will be visible to the naked eye for a few evenings, just above the spot where the sun went down and just below Castor and Pollux.

RAPID GROWTH OF TEXAS CITIES

GALVESTON, Texas, June 11.—The rapid growth of Texas cities which has been cropping up in statistical reports of the new directories recently, is evidenced in Galveston by builders figures that at least one thousand new homes will have been constructed here by the end of the present year, if the rate of building maintained for the first six months is maintained.

Statistics of the building of new homes are not often given as evidence of city growth, because they are usually readily available. Yet they are the first evidence that the visitor sees not only in Galveston but in every city of Texas and the smaller places as well. Statisticians usually estimate a dwelling as housing five persons. From such observations as are possible in the absence of a census of these new homes, it appears that five is a fair average to quote for both Galveston and other Texas cities.

Professor and Mrs. J. E. Crouch and Miss Clara Lloyd went to Heraford to-day to spend the summer.

Mrs. J. T. Bloodworth returned to-day to Waco. She has been attending the Conference for several days.
