JOSEPH PENDHAYN MEETS TRAGIC DEATH BY FALL

WAS ATTEMPTING TO COMPLETE EIGHTH SUCCESSFUL FLIGHT FOR HALE COUNTY FAIR.

AIR CURRENTS RESPONSIBLE?

Many Surmises As to Cause of Accident, but Truth Probably Will Never Be Known.

No single occurrence for three and a fourth years has cast such a pall of gloom over Plainview and Hale County as the tragic accident yesterday afternoon in which Aviator Josef P. Pendhayn met his untimely end.

For four days he had been flying over Plainview to entertain the crowds at the Hale County Fair. Eight times he had made successful flights, and the one he was attempting to complete had been exceptionally successful.

A heavy storm broke just as he was returning to the aviation field. In his first attempt to alight he was moving at a probable speed of eighty-five miles an hour, and evidently saw that to strike the earth at that speed would be disastrous. He arose and circled the field again, and on the third attempt the full strength of the storm hurled itself against him. Those who were near said that the windmills in the vicinity whirled violently, indicating that there were whirling currents of air. Mr. Pendhayn attempted to right his machine, and shifted his planes. Then, to steady the machine, the other plane was shifted. Presumably a gust of wind struck the plane almost immediately after, and the machine dashed toward the earth, head first, a distance of probably more than a hundred feet.

The right plane struck the ground slightly in advance of the motor. Those near rushed to the assistance of Mr. Pendhayn, who was found unconscious. No part of the machine fell on him, but the momentum hurled his body from the seat into which he was strapped, breaking the heavy leather thong.

Mr. Pendhayn was carried into the house and medical aid summoned. His left thigh was broken, the right ankle crushed, and several severe cuts and lacerations were found on his face and body.

Except for the trusses which support the planes and motor while the machine is running on the ground when ascending or alighting, there is not a piece of wood in the demolished biplane's frame. It is a mass of wreckage.

After dusk the injured man was removed to the Hotel Ware, where he and his wife have been staying since they arrived in Plainview. Throughout the night all possible attention was given him, but to no avail, and at five-thirty this morning life was extinct.

At no time did he regain consciousness, according to attending physicians. When asked where he was hurt he would lay his hand on his side, and when told to do so he would open his mouth for water. Mrs. Pendhayn attempted to talk with him, and he seemed to recognize her voice.

"Give me good gas" he was heard to say at intervals, but said nothing that would shed light on the cause of his accident.

It is probable that no one will ever know just what caused the accident, but it is evident that the storm, breaking just at a critical moment, was responsible.

Ray Pierce, the mechanic for Mr. Pendhayn, stated that the turn the aviator was making when the accident occurred was against the best knowledge and rules of aviators, and that the moment he saw the machine turning with the wind he felt that the result would be at least a bad spill. He does not know whether Mr. Pendhayn voluntarily made the turn or whether he lost control of the machine.

J. P. Pendhayn was born in Austria twenty-seven years ago. His next birthday would have been Tuesday, which day also would have marked the first anniversary of his marriage. He left Austria to escape military service, coming to the United States seven years ago. For four years he has been flying. He had recently enlisted with the United States aviation corps, and

NEEDING MORE SOIL PRODUCTS

Wheat Leads in Premiums Offered by International Soil-Products and Dry-Farming Expositions.

Hale County is to have an exhibit at the International Soil-Products and Dry-Farming Exposition at Denver September 26 to October 10. Dr. J. D. Hanby and E. H. Perry, veterans in the service of Hale County on such expeditions, are to have charge of the display, which is now in preparation. The farmers have responded liberally with their produce for the exhibit, but there is still need for more stuff, and those who can assist are urged to bring in whatever they may have to Mr. Perry, Mr. Hanby or to J. J. Lash or Wyatt Johnson.

The entire premium list runs about $15,000, and comprises many special prizes. Wheat, perhaps quite naturally, wins many of the best premiums.

For the best bushel of wheat, any variety, the sweepstakes prize is $300.00 in gold, offered by the International Dry-Farming Congress. For the best bushel of hard wheat, the International Harvester Company of America offers a No. 6 Low Sift Manure Spreader, valued at $125, and for the best bushel of soft wheat, the Simplex Manufacturing Company, of Kansas City, offers one of its Simplex straw spreaders, valued at $75.

Then there are some special wheat premiums that are very fine. There are other wheat premiums in addition to these, and the cash awards for individual entries will be a pleasant surprise to farmers everywhere.

was a member of the Aero-American Club. The machine he used was an army tractor biplane, practically of his own model and construction.

Mrs. Pendhayn will leave in the morning for Geneva, Nebraska, and the remains, which will be interred near the town in which she spent her girlhood and young womanhood days.

She has made many friends here, who have found in her, as in her husband, the polish of refinement and culture. She is a graduate of the Wesleyan University, Lincoln, Nebraska.

The floral offerings sent in by relatives and friends were numerous and beautiful.

R. L. HENRY IS ADVOCATE OF RURAL CREDIT SYSTEM

Endorses Wilson Administration; Believes Executive Will Have Million Majority for New Term.

Congressman R. L. Henry, of Waco, spoke to a fairly large audience in the District Court room Wednesday afternoon in the interest of his candidacy for the United States Senate. In his address he dealt principally with matters political, state and national, giving special emphasis to what he conceived to be some needed legislation, and from the reception accorded him by his hearers he evidently sounded the dominant of the present-day political notes.

His advocacy of a system of rural credits was warmly applauded. "It is as much the duty of the Government," the speaker said, "to assist the farmers in buying homes through the Federal Reserve Act as it is to assist bankers and commercial interests in their business." He stated that as a member of the House of Representatives he voted for the Federal Reserve Act, and believes the twelve Regional Reserve Banks have strengthened our financial system and made it more elastic, yet this act was designed mainly to assist the bankers and commercial interests, and would only indirectly help the farmers. He proposed to make the Federal Reserve Act dual in its nature, and, in addition to the present plan, establish a system of rural credits whereby the farmers may secure money for long periods of time at a very nominal rate of interest, not to exceed five per cent, for the purpose of buying homes. He also dealt at length with the cotton situation, and stated that he would seek to have the Federal Government take $50,000,000 from the U. S. Treasury and deposit it in the banks throughout the South to assist in moving the cotton crop.

Mr. Henry also unqualifiedly endorsed the Wilson Administration, and predicted that Mr. Wilson would be re-elected by a million majority, and expressed his hopes that the Democratic National Convention which nominates Mr. Wilson will meet at Dallas.

decorations make the display attractive.

The Dodge Bros. motor car exhibit, on the north side of the main exhibit tent, is one of the most noticeable of the automobile features. A Dodge car flanked by a mass of growing ferns suggests the idea of an auto trip to the depths of some green dale.

A washing machine run by a gasoline engine attracts the attention of the Fair visitors to the R. C. Ware Hardware Co. exhibit. Farm implements of the most approved make are shown here.

Donohoo-Ware Hardware Company have a display of the latest improved farm machinery to the left of the main entrance. Those in charge are ready to answer inquiries and to hand out literature.

Kratzer & Bonhannan, general woodworkers, have an exhibit of their artistic work in one corner of the exhibition tent.

Going into the farm-products department, you come first to the stand of Pierson & Smith, where Mrs. J. E. Hawley, with her assistants, Misses Julia Ansley and Eva Jones, hands out free of charge cups of excellent coffee and biscuits made of standard lines the firm handles.

A parcel post exhibit and that of E. R. Williams' furniture store come next. The latter contains handsome and convenient articles of furniture.

W. E. Winfield's furniture display attracts attention because of its beauty and because of the guessing contest in connection.

Farmer's Business College makes a creditable showing at the college display booth in the exhibition tent. The college yells are the real thing, and the rapid calculation by the pupils is wonderful indeed. G. W. Land, who is a rapid calculator himself, intends taking his advanced class to the Texas and Oklahoma State Fairs.

A large display of reliable farm wagons advertises the Plainview Hardware Company.

Last, and largest of the exhibits made by local firms and manufacturers, is that of the Harvest Queen Mills, in charge of T. W. Sawyer. Varieties of flour, meal and other products made at the mill from grains raised on the Plains show what this section of Texas can produce.

The West end of the tent is occupied by the Roos exhibit of Buick sixes and Stearns cars. The booth is in charge of Mrs. E. E. Roos and Mrs. Myrtle Fellows, late of Amarillo.

Memphis Gets Next Meeting of Panhandle Firemen's Ass'n

Memphis will have the Panhandle Volunteer Firemen's Association meeting in 1916. E. C. Johnson, of the Hall County Herald, made a talk in behalf of Memphis which carried the day for that town.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: Dan L. Childress, of Sweetwater, president; Chas. C. Hutchinson, Bowie, first vice president; E. B. Kiser, Pecos, second vice president; W. O. Shackelford, Abilene, third vice president; L. H. Simpson, Lubbock, fourth vice president; R. G. Porter, Tulla, re-elected secretary; Quincy Wilson, Chillicothe, re-elected treasurer; Modelle Simpson, Lubbock, re-elected mascot.

Bowie will have the association meeting in 1917.

A. H. Estes, of Plainview, retiring president, was elected delegate to the State Convention.

What Hale County Showed at the Main Exhibit Tents

Looking around from the center of the main exhibit tent, a looker-on is tempted to ask, "Is this Plainview?" From all sides is heard the hum of electricity, the clicking of typewriters and the glare of electric lights.

As you glance around, to the right may be seen the exhibit of the Garrison Conner Electric Co. "Housekeeping made easy" seems to be their slogan. There are electric cleaners, sewing machines run by electricity, and electric fans, to show how the housewife may be kept cool and comfortable while engaged with her domestic duties.

Miss Hallie Groce, of Waxahachie, a popular visiting girl, is in charge.

Next in order is the pretty and cozy rest room fitted up by Carter-Houston in connection with their splendid exhibit, which, by the way, won the $72 scholarship offered by Seth Ward College. Mrs. A. F. Quisenberry and her charming little daughter, Minnie, are hostesses in this department.

Right across the aisle is the display of the Rich-lier Store, beautiful in its simplicity and containing a varied exhibition of the goods carried by that firm.

Adjoining the band stand is the display of the Herald Publishing Company. The Plainview Evening Herald has been furnishing telegraphic United Press reports throughout the Fair.

Across from the Herald's display is that of the Knight Auto Company, an electric sign announcing the fact, and with the genial Beal Pumphrey in charge. This display is artistic in the extreme. A magnificent Overland is shown against a background with an excellent perspective, painted by Messrs. Redmon and Speer.

"Have a cup of cold water" is the inviting sign over Layne & Bowler's realistic display. A miniature well delivering by pump a good-sized stream of cold water attracts the attention of all visitors.

Over the booth are two blue satin banners bearing gold medals just awarded the Layne & Bowler Company at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition. One is for a turbine centrifugal pump and the second for a patent oil and water screen gotten out by the company.

AWARDS OF THE HALE COUNTY FAIR EXHIBITS

Miss Beulah Elliott, age thirteen, won the ten-dollar dress pattern offered by Richards Bros. & Collier for the best twelve biscuits baked in the exhibit hall by a girl under sixteen. All the ingredients and cooking utensils were furnished the young cooks.

In the Grant Building may be found the Pantry Stores exhibit, Mrs. J. L. Wheeler, Mrs. W. F. Lash and Mrs. R. B. Tudor, superintendents.

Bread and cakes of every variety are on display, tempting to the palate, gratifying to the eye, and indicative of the many good housewives in Hale County.

The canned goods, preserves and pickles department, in charge of Mrs. J. C. Woolverton, Mrs. A. S. J. Martin and Mrs. Fred Brown, shows many beautiful specimens of the great variety of fruits and vegetables raised in Plainview and the surrounding territory.

Regarding one of these displays, a young lady was heard to say: "He can do the cooking while I teach." She was speaking of a collection of jellies put up by a man—a mere man—sparkling and clear as any ever put up by a woman (and what more could be said in praise). His name will be made public when he receives a prize.

In this building also may be found Miss Daniels, dispensing ice-cold colonial punch for the Southern Fruit Julep Company, of Fort Worth.

Further towards the front may be found the Curio Department, in charge of Mrs. R. E. Buch, Mrs. George Saigling, Mrs. Everett Dye and Mrs. J. T. Finney.

Opposite is the Flower Department, Mrs. C. C. Gidney, Mrs. E. E. Roos, Mrs. E. W. Keys and Mrs. W. E. Risser, superintendents. Here on display are gorgeous masses of cut flowers, beautiful ferns, swinging baskets and a window box that is a mass of "living green." Canary birds add their charm to the collection.

Many fine cattle are on exhibition at Overall's Barn. Prominent among them are the fine hogs for which Hale County is famous. The Alfalfa Cattle Company are showing Hampshire, Yorkshire and Tamworth hogs, some of these weighing 605 pounds, 595 pounds, and one two-year-old 550 pounds.

M. E. Rowland, Helen Temple Farm and S. S. Sloneker have the Duroc Jerseys, the hogs that have painted Hale County red.

The Herefords owned by Fred Weyl and A. J. Baker attract attention for their size beauty, for the latter word may well be applied to these animals. They are champions from away back. Repeater 37 and Fulfiller the Third Fifty-Three deserve special mention.

And then the black Aberdeen-Angus herd of E. H. Small, of Shamrock! They are 22 in number. Immense is the word that describes them in beauty, size and weight, especially the latter, one calf at six weeks old weighing 200 pounds. They are famous beef cattle. Mr. Small's show herd has been champion at the State Fair, Fort Worth Stock Show, and wherever they have been shown. There are 240 in the entire herd, at Shamrock.

The horse exhibit is the finest collection that could be gotten up on the South Plains. There have been a great many entries. Thirty have been entered in the Shetland-pony department alone.

The following awards have been made:

Textiles and Fine Arts.

It has been remarked that the Textile and Fine Arts Departments are not as good as they were last year. Nevertheless, one of the young ladies in charge (and one who knows) said that the watercolors and china painting far surpass the display of 1914.

The Fine Arts, with Mrs. J. O. Wycokoff, Mrs. F. W. Clinkscales and Misses May Kinder and Edna Harrington in charge, has a showing of hand-painted china that is superb. Still life, oil and pastel are all represented, showing that the aesthetic is not neglected, though the practical is so very much in evidence in the different departments of the Fair.

The Textile Department, Mesdames Walter LeMond, of Hale Center; J. C. Anderson, L. A. Knight and J. F. Garrison superintendents, is a bewildering maze of beauty. Here may be found articles knitted, crocheted, embroidered and made of delicate lace tatting. Many of these articles of beauty were made by the members of the Hale Center Embroidery Club, who are noted for their skill in the needle cult.

One most notable specimen of industry and skill is a knitted bedspread. The cotton was raised, carded, spun and knitted by the exhibitor, a lady living in Hale Center, too modest to attach her name to the article.

Hundreds of beautiful and useful articles are on display.

Perhaps she'll need persuading—perhaps will call it vanity, but her pictures will prove she is still a beauty—will be in greater demand than those quaint pictures of younger days.

PROVIDENCE.

PROVIDENCE, Texas, Sept. 14.—Our young people are beginning to scatter out, now that schools have started. Some have gone to Fort Worth, Canyon and Plainview, and others to Floydada. These are the older pupils.

Grandma Johnson, of Missouri, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Bates, for several months, left for her home last Thursday.

Our teacher has been attending the institute at Lockney, and is now ready to begin her school.

Mrs. James Pullen and Calvin Nations were married, in Plainview, on Monday, the 7th. We wish for them many happy days of married life.

The north part of the county was well represented at the Floyd County Fair last Friday and Saturday, and those attending speak well of the exhibits.

The social at E. G. Foster's Saturday night was largely attended, and all report a good time. Their daughter Elva left Monday for Tullia, to attend school this winter. Mr. Foster's niece, Miss Anthony, of Clarendon, is with them. She begins her school, at Sunset, on Monday, the 20th.

Mrs. W. B. Kimbell and daughter, Mrs. Adam Savage, were visiting at the home of E. C. Dodson last Thursday.

Miss Ona Thomas, of Floydada, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Albert King.

Our young folks attended a social on last Thursday night at W. T. Reeves' in the Lone Star community.

Miss Ruth Thomas, of Floydada, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. Barrett.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Foster were visiting at Silverton last Saturday.

The party at Mrs. Spillman's last Tuesday night was enjoyed by all who attended.

Ross Crouch came in last week with his bride, and is now living in Plainview.

RAMSEY.

RAMSEY, Texas, Sept. 13.—Most all the Ramsey people attended the Floyd County Fair, the 9th, 10th, and 11th.

C. R. Hatcher and wife have returned from Tennessee, where they have been for the last month.

J. A. Wiley was one of Floyd County's visitors last week.

We have not had any rain in about two weeks now, and everything is ripening fast.

Some of our farmers are already cutting maize, but as a whole our crop this year is very late.

Most of our people attended the revival meeting held at Lockney by Rev. D. L. Cole last week.

STYLE SHOW ATTRACTS.

Rich-Her Store Has Unusual Feature: Latest Gowns Shown on Living Models.

The style show put on by Richards Bros. & Collier yesterday afternoon brought before the ladies of Plainview and those attending the Fair the very latest creations of the fashion world.

About forty-five of the season's styles were shown on living models. Children's styles were included, and furs, suits and coats.

The show in the afternoon was given at the store. One was given at the display booth in the main exhibit tent at 8:30 last night. Beautiful evening dresses were shown under the glare of the lights; also handsome suits and coats of plush and other handsome materials.

At both shows, handkerchiefs of linen weave were given as souvenirs. The embroidery on the handkerchiefs was done by Swiss girls in Chicago, who since the European war have come to America to seek employment.

A note of friendly rivalry was struck after the style show was over, by the singing, from Carter-Houston's booth, just opposite, of "It's a short way to Carter-Houston's," by little Minnie Quisenberry, daughter of Mrs. A. F. Quisenberry. The little girl was charming in the unaffected way in which she sang before the large crowd present.

Miss Etta Haynes, of Decatur, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Haynes.

Miss Mary McKinnon, of Floydada, was in Plainview this week.

Mrs. M. S. Doss, of Seminole, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. S. Leveridge.

Mrs. J. B. Bradley, of Denver, Colo., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Houston.

George Green has just returned from a visit to his old home, at Greencastle, Mo.

William Blackwood, representing the Poultry Journal, published at Dallas, was in Plainview this week writing up the poultry interests of Hale County.

George Roberts, of Stephenville, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. J. M. Shafer.

Miss Irene Foster, of Hale Center, was in Plainview yesterday.

Mrs. C. C. Chase, of Lubbock, was a visitor at the Firemen's Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sander, of Lakeview, Fla., are in Plainview visiting relatives.

Mrs. F. M. Arnold has resigned her position as matron of the Rest Room, and Mrs. Chas. Wilson has taken her place.

Miss Irma King has gone to Rails to take a position as manager of the millinery department of the Byrd Mercantile Co.

Miss Amy Glenn has returned from a visit of several weeks to relatives in Matador.

Doughnuts

That will remain moist.

Every housewife who bakes her own bread knows that if a little potato is added to the sponge, the bread will not dry out as quickly. In this recipe potato is utilized to make doughnuts that will remain moist and fresh for several days.

K C will be found to have distinct advantages over any other Baking Powder for doughnuts. K C is a double acting baking powder with which a large batch of doughnuts may be mixed and fried a few at a time. The last will be as light and nice as the first.

K C Potato Doughnuts

By Mrs. Nevada Briggs, of Baking School fame.

$\frac{3}{4}$ cups flour; 2 eggs; 1 cup sugar; 4 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful salt; $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoonful mace; 1 cup cold mashed potato; $\frac{1}{2}$ cup milk, or more if needed.

Sift three times, the flour, salt, spice and baking powder. Beat eggs with rotary beater, then still using rotary beater, gradually add sugar, then work in the mashed potato with a spoon and alternately add milk and flour mixture. Make a soft dough, roll into a sheet, cut into rounds, pinch a hole in the center with the finger and fry in deep fat.

Fat for frying should not be hot enough to brown the doughnut until it has risen. When the doughnut is dropped into the fat it sinks to the bottom. As soon as it comes up it should be turned and turned a number of times while cooking. This recipe is excellent as they do not take the fat in frying and will stay moist for days.

WHY NOT PERMANENT FAIR QUARTERS?

The success of the Hale County Fair of 1914 led many to believe that permanent grounds and buildings could be provided for the association by a stock company. Those who held that belief last year are more convinced than ever now that such an organization would be a practical way of handling the fair.

There are many things to be advanced in support of the plan. A more substantial air is given to the exhibition. Buildings and grounds, permanently erected and located, permit those who plan their displays in advance to know just what space they will have, how it is arranged, and other necessary details. Permanent buildings are an advertisement the year around for the fair, and help keep it before the people, both those who live in the county and those who visit.

The colleges and public schools of Plainview have no grounds for their baseball, basketball and football games. An enclosure for the fair would serve them at any time, and they could afford to pay generous rent for the grounds.

It is thought by many that a stock company could be made self-sustaining.

This problem of grounds and buildings for county fairs has been solved by many of the counties of Texas. Others, who have been unable to make a county fair stock company meet the demand, have taken in more territory.

The other counties of the South Plains will probably be interested in having at a centrally located town, like Plainview, a fair for the district. The South Plains is a distinctive district. There is no other section with the same physical conditions that obtain here. A district fair would be unique and profitable.

That the county fair is good is evidenced by the large number of successful fairs that have been and are to be held on the South Plains. A fair just one step removed—a district fair—ought to be just as successful and as profitable from every standpoint.

With permanent grounds provided, Plainview could care for such a fair with success.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

The first meeting of the season for the Browning Club was postponed from last Saturday until Saturday of this week. It will meet in the club room at Mrs. J. C. Anderson's.

The Mystic Club will meet in regular session Saturday afternoon, in the Woman's Club room.

MRS. DEAL HONOR GUEST.

Mrs. Joseph Buchheimer and daughter, Miss Mildred, were hostesses at noon Thursday for a pretty rose dinner, honoring Mrs. Jere Deal, of Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Rosebuds at each plate, and vases of roses, gave a pretty air of festivity to the dinner, which was served in courses. Hand-painted place cards marked places for Mrs. Deal, her small son, Nelson; Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Keck, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Roos, Miss Jo Keck and Messrs. Chas. McClelland and Ed Doland.

In the afternoon Mrs. Robert Malone, Mrs. J. R. DeLay and Misses Halle Groce and Lily Halbert joined Mrs. Albert G. Hinn leaves Wednesday to visit her friend, Miss Effie Sollars, at Independence, Mo. From the party, and Five Hundred and Bridge were played during the afternoon.

ENGLISH HISTORY SUBJECT OF TRAVEL STUDY CLUB.

The Travel Study Club began their interesting study course Saturday afternoon, in the Woman's Club room. In the absence of Mrs. Jo W. Wayland, the lesson was led by Miss Edna Mayhugh.

The course includes ancient and medieval English history. The lecture for Saturday was upon "Britain Prior to 55 B. C." The round-table discussion included "Britain Invaded by Caesar," "Conquest by Claudius—Beneficent Effect," "Roman Camp, Roads and Walls." The latter was particularly interesting, as parts of many of the old Roman walls and roads may be still seen in England.

The Travel Study Club meet next on September 25.

SATURDAY MATINEE PARTY.

For her daughter, Dixie, Mrs. C. I. Biles gave a pleasant matinee party Saturday afternoon. The guests were met at The Olympic by the young hostess and her mother. Home-made candy was served during the show.

WILSON'S AIM IS TO NOT ARBITRATE AMERICAN LIVES

Administration Insists on Germany Disavowing Submarines Which Sank the Arabic.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The administration insists on a German disavowal of the set of submarines which sank the Arabic. This is declared by a statement from the White House. It is said that the President is not considering the question of arbitrating American lives. This explanation threw new light on the delay of negotiations. The administration is merely awaiting a reply to the requirement it has made.

It is recognized that the issue is a critical one, but the outlook is more hopeful than Monday. Secretary Lansing hopes to leave for a vacation during the latter part of the week. It is taken for granted that there is no immediate crisis expected.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—Secretary of State Lansing and Ambassador Bernstorff will attempt in the next few days to straighten out the German-American misunderstanding which has arisen. This information is obtained from an unquestionable source. It is learned that no final arrangement was reached in yesterday's conference. From the general mass of contradictory information, three facts stand out: A misunderstanding has arisen; this misunderstanding has not been settled; Secretary Lansing and Ambassador von Bernstorff are trying to reach an agreement, and the Ambassador is at least hopeful.

COUNTY RURAL SCHOOLS HAVE FINE EXHIBITS

Prizes for Winners Will Be Awarded Thursday; Plainview Schools Did Not Compete.

Hale County and Hale County's rural schools have distinguished themselves today. This is the Junior Exhibit and Rural Rally Day, and the schools have sure enough rallied and the juniors have exhibited.

Among the schools who have fine exhibits are Woodrow, Lakeview, Stoneback, Halfway, East Mound, and others whose names could not be obtained. All were exceptionally good, and included not only exhibits of school work, but displays of plain sewing, canned fruits, and exquisite needlework done by children under twelve years of age.

The Plainview schools had an exhibit, but did not enter into competition.

Among the individual exhibits, those of Marguerite Willis, Hazel Sewell, and Lula Malone, of Plainview, and Mary E. Smith, of the Woodrow school, deserve special mention; also a crocheted bed spread by a girl under fourteen, whose name could not be ascertained at the time. These and many more are worthy of notice and commendation.

Mrs. Y. W. Holmes has a Montessori exhibit, and a wonderful showing of school work done by children under seven.

Prizes will be awarded Thursday.

PUBLIC SCHOOL ENROLLMENT HAS REACHED TOTAL OF 815

Miss Longmire Transferred From Seventh Grade to High School in English Department.

The enrollment in the Plainview Public Schools on Monday was 815. Two hundred and eleven of that number are in the High School.

Miss Rebecca Longmire has been transferred to the High School as teacher of English. Miss Adelaide Donnell takes her place as teacher of the seventh grade.

WESTERN BANKS WONT LOAN MONEY FOR WAR MUNITIONS

Indications Are That Banks of the Interior Will Refuse to Subscribe to Fund for Anglo-French Relief.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Objections of Western bankers to a big loan to France and England, if used for the purchase of war munitions, gave the Anglo-French commissioners and American hosts something new to puzzle over at the meeting here today. It is admitted that indications point toward a majority of the banks of the interior refusing to subscribe to such a loan.

LARGE CROWDS FROM HALE CENTER HERE FOR THE FAIR

Thursday Will Be Hale Center Day, and the People of That Enterprising Town Will Come En Masse.

Hale Center turned out in force this morning to attend the fair, and the roads from that enterprising little town were crowded at an early hour by autos, teams, buggies and ponies.

The following were noticed: Rev. B. H. Oxford and family, Mrs. Dr. Bridges, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Johnson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Boggs and family, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Bailey and family, the Misses Elizabeth and Pearl Webb, Leonard Harral and family, of Abernathy; H. M. Patterson, Charlie Smith and W. N. Claxton and wife, all of Mr. Patterson's cowboys, about 100 school children, Rev. L. W. Harrison, W. C. Smith and family, Lena Whitacre and Myrtle Foster, Fred Nittler and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Baker and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Yates and family, Fritz and Mike Benson, Lee Thompson, Lester and Monroe Bellah, Byron Ritchey, Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Ferguson and family, Tom Ferguson, Miss Mildred Cox, Miss Mabel Ames, Claud Wall, Nellie Henderson, John Payur, Haword LeMond, Beuse Jones, M. S. Hudson, Mayor Springer and family, Zenie Evans and family, Nick Alley and family, J. L. Jetton and family, and lots more to come.

While this is only a starter, Hale Center Day will probably be Thursday, and the Fair can expect a large crowd.

WILL HOG DOWN FEED IN THE LITTLEFIELD SECTION.

LITTLEFIELD, Texas, Sept. 11.—The first car in a shipment of 500 hogs coming to Littlefield for feeders was received here yesterday. These hogs are being furnished the farmers here by Major Geo. W. Littlefield, in an effort to dispose of their large feed crops to the best advantage. Dairy cows will soon be brought in on practically the same basis. With the cows, pigs and the hen, the farmers anticipate little trouble in meeting their financial obligations.

KAISER WANTS U. S. TO INFLUENCE GREAT BRITAIN

Ambassador Bernstorff Says That "Full Satisfaction" Means Only "Full Regrets."

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 13, 2:14 p. m.—A conference this morning at the State Department between Secretary Lansing and Ambassador Bernstorff resulted in an "amicable understanding," it was officially announced this afternoon. This point is a dangerous one in the German-American situation, however, and threatens future friction, is learned from the best authority. The "understanding" affects only the Arabic matter, there is good reason to believe. It is understood that America has agreed to submit to arbitration whether the submarine commander in this instance was warranted in believing that the Arabic was attempting to ram his submarine. But danger that the Arabic incident be repeated, with possible loss of American lives, has not been averted.
German Ambassador Franklin told the State Department that a similar "mistake" may occur in the future unless America induces Great Britain to rescind the alleged order to merchantmen to ram submarines on sight.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Ambassador Bernstorff will tell the State Department, it is learned today, that such incidents as torpedoing the Arabic will continue until Great Britain disavows alleged orders to commanders of merchantmen to ram submarines on all occasions. He will give the State Department to understand that Germany looks to the United States to obtain such avowal as a means of proving America's neutrality, according to the German viewpoint. It will also be stated that by "full satisfaction" for such incidents as that of the Arabic, Germany means only "full regrets."

That arbitration will be absolutely necessary, will be pointed out, to settle controversies over the loss of American lives in disasters like the Arabic, inasmuch as the Kaiser will positively not recognize rights of Americans to traverse the war zone on belligerent ships. There are good grounds for the belief that Ambassador Bernstorff has been definitely turned down by his government on the "full satisfaction" issue.

It has been ascertained that Capt. Von Pappen, the German military attaché, will be sent home without further discussion if the State Department wishes, on the sole condition that he be given safe conduct. Ambassador Bernstorff came to Washington prepared to explain anything about which the administration may choose to question him, but had no positive appointment.

Tom Galbraith and family, of Dublin, arrived Saturday and intend making Hale County their home.

BACKACHE IS A WARNING.
Plainview People Should Not Neglect Their Kidneys.

Backache is often nature's most frequent signal of weakened kidneys. To cure the pains and aches, to remove the lameness when it arises from weakened kidneys, you must reach the cause—the kidneys. If you have pain through the small of your back, urinary disorders, headaches, dizzy spells, or are nervous and depressed, start treating the kidneys with a tested kidney remedy.
Doan's Kidney Pills have been proved good and are especially for weak kidneys. Doan's have been used in kidney trouble for over 50 years. Read Plainview testimony.
John Pendley, Covington Ave., Plainview, says: "I had bladder trouble and pains across my back and kidneys. I could hardly get up from a chair. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the Long Drug Co., and they did me a world of good."

Calomel is Quicksilver and Acts Like Dynamite on Your Liver.

Fine Arts Department Seth Ward College

The Fine Arts Department of Seth Ward College opened, with a good enrollment, Tuesday, September 7. In connection with this department, we wish to call your attention to some rare advantages we are offering you this year.

Mrs. Cora E. Pritchett, dean of the Fine Arts Department, needs no introduction, as her work with the college during the past two years speaks for itself. She uses every opportunity for improvement. While in Denver this summer she studied dramatic art and stage development with Miss Fealy. Her pupils being limited, Mrs. Pritchett considered it a rare privilege to do so. She is doing everything she can to bring the Fine Arts Department to the very highest standard, and hopes to do telling work in public school music this year. A complete course of training for supervisors and teachers in public and private schools will be given. Pupils in the voice department will have the privilege to join these classes without extra charge.

Miss Mills, head of the Piano Department, comes to you splendidly equipped from some of the best schools of the North, as a graduate and post graduate. While a student in William Woods College, she won three gold medals for superior work in piano and theory.

Miss Pearl Lakemann Bird, concert pianist and teacher, of Chicago, pronounces Miss Mills one of her most talented and artistic pupils.

Prof. P. O. Landen, of the Conservatory of Music at Marysville, Mo., considers her musical ability of the highest type. He pronounces her a brilliant pianist, and states that she thoroughly understands the theory of music. The following is clipped from the Burlington (Iowa) Gazette:

"Miss Mills is truly an artist on the piano, and one of the best musical instructors in this part of the country. She has the happy faculty of inspiring her pupils with the beauties of music, and seems to impart to the very spirit, of which she enters into it with her whole soul. Miss Mills' recitals are always entertaining, and lovers of good music are amply repaid in their attendance."

The Expression Department will be conducted under the able instruction of Miss Bernice Hardy Duggan, of Emerson College of Oratory, Boston.

Miss Duggan will also accept a limited number of pupils in town. Special classes will be arranged in physical culture, public speaking for club women, stutters, evening classes in oratory and children's classes.

The press says, among other things, in regard to Miss Duggan's work:

"The coming of Miss Duggan is a rare treat, for she is one of the few young artists so far advanced on the road to fame. Her work inspires, quickens, brightens. It raises you to the mountain tops, and she makes you laugh and then laugh some more."—Cotulla Record.

"From the moment she was introduced, she captivated her audience. Her quiet self-possession revealed a personality of great reserve power. Miss Duggan is a natural artist, and her sympathetic characterization is remarkable."—Eagle Pass Guide.

"The Great Divide" is suited to Miss Duggan in every way. Her interpretation of the many difficult roles was done with all the depth, strength, grace and beauty of the skilled artist."—San Antonio Express.

"Her reappearance will be hailed with delight by all who heard her."—Sweetwater Daily Reporter.

Recital.

Miss Duggan will appear in a recital of Wm. V. Moody's play, "The Great Divide," Friday night, October 1st, at 8 o'clock at the Methodist Church, assisted by the instructors in the Fine Arts Department. All patrons and friends are invited.

Mrs. L. C. Bennington has returned from summer work very enthusiastic over her work with teachers in St. Louis, Chicago and Kansas City, and brings to us some beautiful new designs. She invites the public to see her display in Duncan's drug store window.

Mrs. Geo. Henderson, assistant piano teacher, comes from Polytechnic College, a pupil of the late Wilbur Mae McDonald, and also has had splendid training in Vargel method, giving fine opportunity for beginners.

AT LESS COST—

There's more nutritive value that the system will absorb in Grape-Nuts than in either meat or bread.

A remarkable fact.

Weight for weight, a package of Grape-Nuts supplies one-third more nourishment than a roast of beef and at about half the cost. A roast of beef is about twenty per cent waste and there is a shrinkage in cooking. Grape-Nuts comes ready cooked—and not a crumb need be wasted.

Think it over!

Then there's bread—white bread lacks certain elements essential to building brain and body. Why? Because in milling white flour, four-fifths of the precious mineral content [all important for health and life] is thrown out with the brancoat of wheat, to make the flour look white and pretty.

GRAPE-NUTS

not only supplies all the brain- and bone-building, nerve- and muscle-making phosphates of the wheat, but all the rich nutriment of malted barley.

Besides, Grape-Nuts is easily digested—generally in about half an hour—while bread and beef require about 2 1-2 hours.

Grape-Nuts comes in germ-proof, moisture-proof packages—ready to serve with cream or milk—a delicious ration, economical and highly nourishing.
