TO COURT-MARTIAL GUARDS REFUSING FEDERAL SERVICE

Secretary Baker Reverses Previous Decision and Will Enforce the Dick Law.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—Reversing his previous decision, Secretary Baker has announced that the 116 members of the Texas National Guard who failed to present themselves for muster into the Federal service will be brought to court martial immediately, under the present law.

Secretary Baker had intended to await the signing of the new militia law, now before the President, and proceed under its provisions.

Secretary Baker explained his action by pointing out the difference in the enlistment oaths guardsmen are required to take under the Dick law and the new Hay-Chamberlain bill. The Dick law requires an obligation to defend the constitution and obey orders of the governor of the state, but not the orders of the President.

Offense Under Dick Law.

Upon recommendation of Judge Advocate General Crowder, the secretary has decided the alleged offense of the guardsmen refusing to "present" themselves for muster, was committed under the Dick law, and trial should be under that law.

General Crowder, in a supplementary opinion, held that the Hay-Chamberlain act would not abolish the offense with which the Texans are charged, as has been suggested. On this showing it will not be necessary to issue a new call for the border militia after the Hay-Chamberlain bill is signed.

It was stated officially at the War Department today that General Funston had never requested that the Louisiana, Arkansas and Oklahoma National Guard be called out for border service, as reported. General Funston asked for additional coast artillery, but the department decided it was not needed at present.

POINDEXTER IS ELECTED NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN

Love Will Contest Election of Cleburne Man—Claims Vote Was in His Favor.

(Staff Special to Dallas News.) SAN ANTONIO, Texas, May 24.—Although admittedly the Democratic State Convention was composed in the main of prohibitionists, each and every one of the propositions advanced by the so-called anti-saloon caucus held here on Monday night was rejected today.

Judge W. C. Wear was elected permanent chairman of the convention, defeating Judge A. B. Watkins, the pro caucus nominee, by a vote of 438 to 405.

The Ferguson plan for electing delegates at large by districts, subject to ratification by the convention, carried by a vote of 556 to 369. This broke up the pro caucus slate. Only five of the men who were on that slate were chosen by the districts. Governor Ferguson, who was not on the said slate, was chosen by the Eleventh Congressional District, and the delegation has named him as its head.

The majority report of the platform committee, which declares against national prohibition and national woman suffrage, was adopted, and the minority report, presented by the Hon. Cullen F. Thomas and others who participated in the pro caucus, which minority report declared against an expression upon these subjects and which lauded President Wilson and his acts at great length, was rejected. The vote for the majority report was 425 to 378.

Vote on Committeeman.

Finally Judge William Poindexter was elected National Committeeman, defeating Hon. Thomas B. Love, nominee of the pro caucus. The vote announced was 419 to 347. The roll was called in the midst of the utmost confusion, with numerous disputes and controversies interrupting. For half an hour after dark there were no lights, and the convention worked under the gravest difficulty. It would seem that errors hardly could have been avoided. A roll kept by members of The News staff showed totals of 396 49-66 for Poindexter, 400 17-66 for Love.

Mr. Love states that he will contest the election, contending that the vote was 434 as compared with 369 for Poindexter.

Saturday Is Last Day of Plainview Chautauqua

Interest in the Plainview Chautauqua now centers on "The Melting Pot," the American drama, which is to be presented tonight, and the Haydn Chorus, which is Saturday night's offering, closing Plainview's first annual Chautauqua.

Most of the selections sung during the week have been in foreign languages. Plainview appreciated the grand opera singers and Mario and Trevette, but judging from expressions heard at the Chautauqua the townspeople are hungry for real American songs, the old favorites, and this is just what is promised by the Haydn Chorus. The climax of the week, so far as the children are concerned, will be the big circus tomorrow morning. The children have been busy during the week constructing mock animals, and some surprises are in store for those who attend tomorrow.

A deluge of applause frequently checked Ex-Governor R. B. Glenn, of North Carolina, last night at the big Chautauqua tent. His address was full of vim and fire. He has the "punch." His lecture was on a common-place theme, but his presentation was by no means common. He impressed his hearers with his sincerity and zeal. Further, no one who heard him believed that he was making apreachment, which he himself had not practiced. His personal reminiscences were soulful. He told his hearers that he spoke from his heart, and they believed him. He was brim full of patriotism and happily engendered in his hearers the same spirit. He believes the secret of the success of Americans in the past has been the home. He believes that if he is told the life that is lived in the home that he can accurately prophesy the future of the Nation. His plea was for simple, affectionate relations in the companionship with the children by the father and mother.

Governor Glenn's picture of the president of the United States and his responsibility to his own Nation and to the world, was met with enthusiastic cheers.

He has a narrative ability which is rare; his stories, though many of them old, were told in a unique manner and reflected the strong personality of the old Southern orator, whose life has been a strenuous one. His mannerisms, his diction, his provincial language stamp him unmistakably.

Plainview appreciates Governor Glenn for what he is and for what he said.

ANDREW RYBERG, DECEASED, WAS NATIVE OF SWEDEN.

Since Age of Fifteen, Eighty-Year-Old Man Had Been Member of Lutheran Church.

At four o'clock this afternoon the funeral services of Andrew Ryberg, who died last night at ten o'clock, were held at the residence of A. Lilyroth, Rev. J. W. Story, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiating.

About two months ago Mr. Ryberg moved to the Plainview Country with his nephew, A. Lilyroth. He has been in declining health, being eighty years old. He was born in Gothenberg, Sweden, September 16, 1835. At the age of fifteen he joined the Lutheran Church, and has been a member since.

PLAINVIEW MAKING NEW SWINE RECORD ON LOCAL MARKET.

More Hogs Have Been Marketed Thus Far During 1916 Than in All of the Preceding Year.

As an evidence of increase in the swine industry in the Plainview country, local experts have estimated that at least twenty more loads have been marketed here from that immediate section since the first of the year than in all of 1915.

During 1915 ninety-nine loads of hogs were shipped to this market from Plainview. Up to the first of May, ninety-eight loads of hogs had been shipped during the present year.

Nearly every farmer in the Plainview country has a few brood sows, and most farms have a large number of shoats and pigs. The tax assessor's rolls show that there are 75,000 hogs in the county.—Fort Worth Livestock Reporter.

CATTLE AND SHEEP WILL BE SHIPPED TO K. C. MARKET.

This afternoon J. L. Francis, of Briscoe County, is loading out for Kansas City thirteen cars of cattle.

Sansom & Son will load at Abernathy tomorrow morning, for Kansas City, eight decks of sheep.

WATSON'S HOGS BRING THE TOP ON FORT WORTH MARKET.

A car of hogs averaging 208 pounds each topped the market at Fort Worth Monday, bringing $9.72½. This load was consigned from Plainview by W. A. Watson & Son. Another load of theirs brought $9.70.

TWO SONS OF LOCKNEY FARMER KILLED IN NEW MEX.

Paul and Fred Woolfolk, two sons of R. N. Woolfolk, of Lockney, were shot and instantly killed by Dr. C. E. Briles Wednesday evening, on a homestead claim adjoining their own in Colfax County, New Mexico.

The shooting took place on the homestead of Dr. Briles, who charges that the boys had made improper advances toward his wife and had been warned against a repetition of the offense. Dr. Briles notified the officers and gave himself up to them.

The sons formerly lived with their father near Lockney, but went to New Mexico to secure homes for themselves. The elder Woolfolk is a good farmer and breeder of fancy stock. He left by auto immediately upon receipt of a telegram from the justice of the peace at Rotan, notifying him of the tragedy.

Dr. Briles and the Woolfolk boys are said to have been friends. An investigation of the crime has been ordered, but the great distance from the railroad and the sparsely settled condition of the country will make the inquiry difficult.

ALLEGED THAT MAN SWINDLED IN DEALS FOR LIVESTOCK.

Is Being Held in Wichita, Kans., With $23,000 Worth of Cattle Belonging to Hale County Man.

"I have the man and the Healey Commission Company has the cattle," is a message received in Plainview yesterday from the sheriff at Wichita, Kan. A man posing as a man of means bought from a Hale County stockman $23,000 worth of cattle, giving in exchange for the stock a draft on a Wichita, Kans., bank, which was worthless. Happily, a commission buyer, who had been on the South Plains buying hogs, knew the man's tactics, for he, too, had been swindled by him in hog deals, and the heavy loser was warned in time to stop the sale of the cattle in Wichita.

Yesterday he took the train for that city to look after the stock. His transaction, although stopped in time to retain the cattle, will cost him a few thousand dollars, for the stock was not ready for the market, and if sold will probably go at a loss. If returned, this operation will be expensive.

A few days ago the swindler purchased with the young commission man a lot of hogs near Mulshoe. He gave in payment a draft on a distant bank. When the stock was disposed of he received a draft from the commission man for his third interest, thus leaving him in the lurch with the worthless draft at the bank and the good draft which had been cashed.

It is understood this morning that the swindler is still in jail at Wichita.

BIG CATTLE DEAL.

George W. Smith, of Greenmeyer & Co., Sioux City, Iowa, has just closed a cattle deal with D. D. Shipley, of Plainview, Texas, through the Shipley Brothers' Cattle Company, of Plainview, involving $29,832.

The sale comprised a solid trainload of yearlings, which will be shipped to the Dakota pastures. This is the largest cattle deal consummated in the Plainview neighborhood in a long time.—Fort Worth Livestock Reporter.

Judge Bouldin of Matador Makes Address to Wayland Graduates

Wednesday morning Judge T. T. Bouldin delivered the annual address to the members of the graduating class of Wayland Baptist College. His subject was "Builders." The address was instructive from the beginning to the close.

The special music gave tone to the services. Especially the vocal solo rendered by Miss Donnell, "A Perfect Day." The spirit of the song crystallized in tears the expectations and hopes of the Seniors of Graduation Day. It was indeed the "End of a Perfect Day," for the students and teachers have done their best. After Judge Bouldin addressed the class, Dr. Halley presented the diplomas in his kind and loving way, speaking a personal word to each member of the class.

Dr. Halley, in his valedictory remarks, told, in his own modest way, why he was retiring from the presidency to re-enter the ministry, his chosen life's work. It was the opinion of all present that too much could not be said for the man who had been at the helm of Wayland College for 1915-16 and who had steered things through such perilous financial straits.

The only ambition Dr. Halley had in accepting the presidency was to place the college on a business and financial basis. This having been done, he is now content to turn the reins over to another. While no definite plans have been decided upon, it is

DEAF SMITH COUNTY JURY ACQUITS MRS. BERTIE MUNCEY.

Hale County Jury Stood Seven to Five for Acquittal When Case Was Up Here.

Yesterday morning the jury in the Muncy murder case, at Hereford, returned a verdict of not guilty. The jury had been out since late in the night, returning the verdict early the following morning.

Bertie Muncy was charged with killing her husband, at Lockney, Texas, in 1913. There was so much feeling in Floyd County and the case was so thoroughly discussed there that a change of venue to Hale County was granted. The case was tried in the Sixty-Fourth Judicial District before Judge L. S. Kinder, who has since retired from the bench and is practicing in Plainview. It is understood that the jury at this trial, which was dismissed when they could not agree, stood seven for acquittal and five for conviction. Unable to secure another jury in Hale County, a change of venue was granted to Deaf Smith County.

The new trial began on May 15, before Judge D. B. Hill, of the Court of the Sixty-Ninth Judicial District.

A. B. Martin, of the firm of Martin, Kinder, Russell & Zimmermann, represented Mrs. Muncy.

NINE GIVEN CERTIFICATES FROM RUNNINGWATER SCHOOL.

People Have General Picnic and Hear Candidates—Boys Defeat Plainview.

The closing exercise of the Runningwater commencement was held this morning. Members of the primary department of the school, pupils of Mrs. Pearl Phillips, was enjoyed by a large number of patrons of the school and visitors.

This afternoon all the candidates present were given opportunity of making their announcements to the people.

A team from Plainview was defeated in a baseball game by the Runningwater team. The score was nine to four.

Last night the commencement sermon was preached by Rev. J. H. Bone, of Hale Center. Judge J. E. Lancaster, of Plainview, delivered the address to the class. Certificates were given to the following pupils: Ninth grade, Miss Gladys Knight; seventh grade, Cora Kindred, Clara Bell Hunt, J. Noland Edmondson, Floyd McMaster, Jim Yowell, Austin Kindred, Sidney Hunt and Walter Phillips.

This is the close of the fifth year that Professor M. J. Baird has served the people of Runningwater as principal of the school. In that time much progress has been made.

Mrs. Pearl Phillips has been employed for another year as teacher of the primary and intermediate pupils. Gabriel Upton, of Plainview, will be principal, Professor Baird retiring.

An excellent basket dinner was served the visitors by the ladies of the community yesterday and today.

FORD TURNS COMPLETELY OVER TWICE AND RIGHTS ITSELF.

Men En Route to Work for Green Machinery and Development Company Injured.

Wednesday morning, on the Kress road between the Campbell and J. G. Seipp's farms, a Ford car in which were King Jaynes, Tracy Jaynes, T. N. Payne and G. W. Davis, turned completely over twice and righted itself when a sharp grade was attempted at the rate of about twenty-two miles an hour. The left front wheel gave away, forcing the spindle through the wheel. The occupants were badly shaken up, and it is feared that G. W. Davis is internally injured. Others of the party were badly bruised but not seriously injured.

COMPANY L IS ASSIGNED FOR PATROL DUTY ON BORDER

Will Break Camp Saturday Preparatory to Being Transferred to Rio Grande.

By special wire to The Herald: Camp Wilsoa, San Antonio, 3:18 p. m., May 26.—Orders regarding disposition of Company L, Fourth Regiment, have been changed. The company has been ordered to Sanderson tomorrow morning, instead of Eagle Pass, as tentatively decided upon earlier in the week.

Sanderson is the county seat of Terrell County, a town having a population of approximately seven hundred people. It is located on the Southern Pacific railroad in the adjoining county to the one recently raided, and is about thirty miles from the border, in the center of the Big Bend country. Press dispatches indicate fear of raids at or near Presidio del Norte, in a mountainous section without railroads. Troops stationed along the Southern Pacific in Presidio, Brewster and Terrell counties will be available in the event of such a raid.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, May 24.—(Special Wire to The Herald.)—The Fourth Regiment was officially notified today to break camp Saturday preparatory to being transferred to the border. Company L will likely be stationed near Eagle Pass.

KLINGER WRITES OF ARMY CAMP LIFE.

San Antonio, Texas, Camp Wilson, May 21.

The boys are now getting to enjoy life, but the only thing it is hard to get used to is the food. While there is no fancy food, yet we get nothing but what is wholesome. Of course, the boys in this company have all been used to good, old-fashioned, home cooking, and it is hard to get them used to this camp grub.

Last week the report on the boys was not so good, but I can now report that the boys are getting in fine shape, and they are drilling like regulars (almost), and by the end of next week, unless something happens to the contrary, they will all be pretty well up on the drill.

Last week I stated that the water here was very poor, but that was on account of the water line being entirely new and the pipes laid above ground, but this week they placed the pipes under ground and the newness has all been worn off the pipes, and the water is exceptionally good.

Uncle Sam is sure looking after the health of all his men. Thursday morning this company, together with various others, was marched over to the post hospital and received the first injection of the typhoid serum treatment. For about 36 hours there were some very sore arms, but now there are only one or two arms that are sore. About the last of next week we will receive another treatment, and about the last of the next week we will receive the last treatment. Have not yet learned when we will receive the vaccination for smallpox, but when it happens there will likely be some sore arms.

The physical examination of the men will likely take place some time this week, and if they are as strict as they used to be there will be some cutbacks. Of course, no one knows how strict they will be.

This camp site has been selected for its sanitary condition. The entire camp drains to the east, and all precautions are taken to keep from having any pools of stagnant water around the camp. The camp is policed every morning and all particles of food, paper, and refuse are picked up and burned at once. After the men get through with their meals they are ordered to burn everything that they do not eat.

At 1 o'clock each day an officer goes through the camp, and all who are not feeling well are taken to the hospital, and if the case needs treatment they are given it, but if it is found out that they are just trying to get out of drills, they are sent back with orders to be given extra duty; and when one of the doctors don't know whether a man is really sick or not, there is something wrong.

During the last week several companies of regulars from Pennsylvania were sent to the border, and the 30th Infantry from New York State is now encamped on the hill to the east of us.

Motor News of General Interest

MECHANICAL KNOWLEDGE IS NOT NEEDED TO DRIVE.

The average car owner of today has so little trouble with his motor that many drivers never even investigate that part of the mechanism which lies under the hood.

"I'll wager," said John N. Willys, president of The Willys-Overland Company, while discussing the subject at the Toledo factory several days ago, "that the majority of people who own and drive cars cannot give a clear explanation of the meaning of transmission, differential or any one of the fifty other semi-technical terms I might mention connected with the mechanical construction of an automobile.

"While this is true in the majority of cases, it does not follow that car owners are unappreciative of the many improvements that have been made.

"In the early days of the industry a man had to be an expert mechanic before he would venture far in his car. Today not only the head of the family, but his wife and children are as much at home at the wheel of a motor car as in a Pullman.

"The first things which attract a prospective car buyer are price and general appearance. These being satisfactory, he asks for a demonstration, to find out if it is smooth running and comfortable to ride in. Then he takes the wheel, and is surprised to learn how simple and easy it is to drive. Soon he has confidence in himself and becomes a confirmed motorist.

"Our smallest Overland, Model 75, is a good example of the type of car that is adding thousands to the ranks of motordom. Its price is within the reach of all. In appearance it compares favorably with cars selling at a much higher price. Although it is smaller than our other models, it affords ample room for five passengers.

"Its mechanical construction, too, is so perfect that the inner workings need cause no worry to any driver, no matter how unmechanical he or she may be."

$5.40 to $5.75, Mexican brushers $4.00 to $5.00, broken-mouth nannies to killers at $5.00. Receipts are 9,000 today, but the supply for a week has shown a big shortage from recent weeks.

ADVANCE IN PRICE OF PIGS.

War Causes Price of Pork in Ireland to Advance by Leaps and Bounds.

(Daily Commerce Reports.)

Soon after the outbreak of war attention was called to the marked falling off in the number of pigs in Ireland, and to the large demand at high prices for pork that would probably exist. In January, 1915, pigs were selling at $14.35 to $14.60 per hundredweight, which proved to be the lowest prices of the year. A marked advance was recorded in March, when the price went to $16.55. Prices during June fluctuated between $17.52 and $18, and in August the highest price of the year was reached, $19.47, representing an advance of 30 per cent within six months. The price of the cured meat followed closely that of the uncured. Rolled bacon, which was selling at an average price of $21.17 per hundredweight in January, advanced to $27 in August and September, and short-cut hams (smoked) during the same period reached $32.60. Prices have since declined, bacon having been sold in December, 1915, at $25.79, and hams at $30.17. Danish meats during the last five months of the year were scarce, which materially helped the demand for the Irish product.

M. E. Cleavenger and son, of Spring Lake, were in Plainview yesterday on business and to attend the Chautauqua.

LUTHER HURBANK BECOMES WILLYS-KNIGHT MOTORIST.

One of the latest men of note to become identified with the great army of motor car owners is Luther Burbank, the wizard culturist.

Burbank, whose flower-laden home is in Santa Rosa, California, has just taken delivery of a Willys-Knight.

This quiet, unassuming great man portrays in his purchase his strong characteristic of simplicity.

It was the extreme quietness of the Knight motor with its lack of ostentation that first attracted it to him. Then its simplicity of construction and operation was like an open book to his limited knowledge of motor construction.

After having had demonstrated to him practically all the high-grade cars on the market, he returned to the Willys-Knight as the most satisfactory and coming nearer his ideal than any of the other cars.

KANSAS CITY STOCK MARKET IN DETAIL.

KANSAS CITY STOCK YARDS.
May 22.—Cattle prices advanced around 25 cents last week, and closed firm. The supply today is 10,000 head, same as on last Monday, and strong conditions are again effective. In addition, sellers got a heavy fill on everything, trade was active, and cattle went over the scales carrying the whole fill. The feature today was a train of 26 cars of cattle and hogs from Broken Bow, Nebraska, which made the 370-mile run in 22 hours, and contained steers at $9.65 and $9.85, the latter price top for the day. Colorado pulp-fed steers were not as numerous as on recent Mondays, most of them at $9.50 to $9.60, a few at $9.25. Bulk of the beef steers range from $8.75 to $9.50, there being no longer anything that can be called cheap. Idaho pulp-fed steers brought $9.40 today, a record price, and Montana barley-fed steers brought $9.20, highest price on record for Montanas at 45 cents.

Quarantine receipts amount to scarcely anything, North Texas feeders observing with pleasure the trend of the market with reference to their own cattle, ready in June, South Texas shippers with very few cattle suitable for market, and Oklahoma grassers not yet ready.

Stockers and feeders held up strong last week, and are firm today, and if there is to be a seasonable break in prices this month there are no signs of it yet. Sales range from $7.50 to $8.75 in most cases.

Hogs closed last week with almost a complete recovery from the break early in the week, but a good run at leading markets today sent prices down again, supply here 15,000. However, order buyers bought some hogs here early at steady prices, top $9.90, b.t bulk of sales, at $9.60 to $9.80, ranged 5 to 10 cents lower. The supply last week was 15,000 head more than previous week, but packers acted like it was a boon and not a hardship, which points to the extraordinary capacity of consumptive channels, and incidentally offers encouragement as regards future markets.

Sheep and lambs sold stronger every day last week, and are firm today, some sales higher, fat goats a quarter higher. No fancy woolled lambs are offered today, but same are worth around $12.50. Clipped Westerns weighing 88 pounds brought $10.75, a new high record, and native spring lambs, medium class, sold at $12.25. Texas wethers of second grade brought $8.50, choice ones worth $8.75 or more, Arizona clipped yearlings today at $9.10, 88 pounds average, Angora killing goats at $5.75 to 6.35 today, highest range on record, Angora brushers

The Oil Stove Boon

HUMAN beings are made for moderate temperature; they are unhappy when either too hot or too cold.

In warm weather the woman who does the cooking is apt to be overheated a good deal of the time if she has to depend on a coal or wood range. Whether she be mistress or servant it is not good for her disposition or her efficiency. The stifling air of an overheated kitchen several hours a day, every day, is a drain on her physical and nervous powers that is both harmful and unnecessary.

Here is where the FLORENCE Oil Stove fits the case. It is not expensive. A good oil stove gives heat when you want it, can be put out immediately when you are through with it. Its heat is directed right up into the cooking (if it is a FLORENCE). It is safe and economical (the FLORENCE costs about one-half cent per hour per burner when in use.) Not only is it very economical of fuel but its value is saved many times over in comfort, happiness and health.

We are sure these distinctive FLORENCE features will appeal to you.

1. Handsome in appearance.
2. Highest power per burner.
3. No wicks to bother with.
4. No valves to clog or leak.
5. Once lighted will run at full power without further attention.
6. Simplest possible to handle.
7. Exceptionally strong and durable.
8. Extra large tank, (holding full gallon.)
9. Unbreakable glass front to tank (showing quantity of oil.)

We don't want to give too many of the good points of The FLORENCE Stove. You will discover others when you have used one.

The robbery is discovered by the mysterious Laughing Mask, who recovers the money, but notifies Golden that he proposes to hold onto it until the millionaire alters his attitude toward the poor who are in his power. Margery, who has been rescued a second time from Legar and his band, is recaptured when she steals up to the band to overhear their plot. The Laughing Mask again gets hold of her, and conducts her to a room which connects with her father's mansion by a panel. There Golden and his associates find her. Pearl White, Sheldon Lewis and Creighton Hale head the cast.

The Ruby also offers two comedy numbers Monday, the first being "A Friend, but a Star Boarder," a very funny low comedy number, featuring Billy Ritchie, Peggy Pearce and Gene Rogers. The star boarder stirs up trouble between Billy and his wife. Not much in plot, but full of amusing antics and ends up with a wild ride in the rain. A good number of the type.

"The Wrong Bird" is the second comedy number. It was written by L. V. Jefferson, with a fresh, original plot. The young husband invites three friends to try his bride's cooking. She swipes a neighbor's turkey, after a desperate effort to get the dinner herself. Then two other dinners arrive, one ordered by the husband and the other by the guests. A very pleasing offering.

The fourth attraction at The Ruby Monday is "The Phantom Thief."

The Olympic offers "The Gallopers" Monday, a five-reel Gold Rooster comedy, with Clifton Crawford and Fania Marinoff. The photoplay is from the pen of Daniel Carson Goodman, and is fully up to the Gold Rooster standard. The action is amusing throughout, and at times very thrilling. Fania Marinoff is one of the most beautiful actresses on the American stage.

Monday, at The Mae I., the Mutual Masterpicture De Luxe, "The Bait," is a strong story, symbolizing the game of life and featuring William Clifford and the Bostock animals.

The prologue of the piece best tells what is to follow: "The swinging doors of the frontier saloon are like the jaws of the bear trap closing on their prey. One is a trap for beasts; the other is a snare for men. While bears are decoyed by fresh meat, the lure for men is, eternally, women." The story is one of intense emotions, melodramatic in its presentation.

Tuesday The Ruby offers "The Saleslady." Reviewed by George Blaisdell, of the Motion Picture News:

"The tale is of a country girl, an orphan, who comes to New York to make her own living. She meets rebuffs, such as might be expected under the circumstances; and so, too, she finds friends, first among the humbler division of humanity, and later among the well to do.

"The Saleslady" is a simple story of the happenings of every-day life. It is one that will have a wide appeal to the interest on that account alone. Miss Dawn's experience in her dry-goods store, her successful debut as a chorus girl when it became necessary to provide funds for the care of her injured husband, and her flirtation with her father-in-law are all skillfully drawn.

"Irving Cummings has the role of Bruce, the young spendthrift who suddenly changes his habits of living and marries the girl from behind the counter. Clarence Handysides is the father of the young man, who, too, is fond of the bright lights—a gay old boy who arrogates to himself the right to do the things for the commission of which he upbraids his son, on the self-justifying plea that he has the wherewithal and his son has not. His seeking out of the charming chorus girl, his pestering her with attentions, and the clever manner in which she plays him until the dramatic moment when, accorded her privilege of escorting Helen to her home, he is confronted by his disowned son, constitute one of the best phases of the story."

Tuesday "The Man in the Sombbrero," a two-reel American, comes to The Mae I. Harold Lockwood and May Allison are featured in this unusual hill-country plot. The heroine falls in love with a photo advertisement of a Stetson hat, and later meets the real subject of the picture, who becomes a real rather than a picture hero. "Spider Barlow Meets Competition," a burglar comedy, and the Mutual Weekly complete an interesting program.

The first number on the program at The Olympic Tuesday is "The Madcap Queen of Corna," a two-reel subject, featuring Francis Ford, Grace Cunard, Jack Holt and others. This is a romantic offering, entertaining throughout despite the fact that small attention is paid to settings or costuming. The latter are adequate, but not in any way remarkable. The story concerns a young queen who exchanges places with a girl she meets in the park. The girl promptly falls in love with an officer of the guard.

Another attraction at The Olympic Tuesday is a Nestor Comedy, "Love and Vaccination," a comedy number, by H. Wendell Phillips, featuring Lee Moran, Eddie Lyons and Betty Compson. The young lover pretends to be ill in order to see the doctor's sister. A vaccination scar results, which is worked out amusingly. Familiar subject matter handled with a fair degree of strength.

"The Purification of Mulfera" is the third number presented at The Olympic Tuesday. The eight of the Stingaree series contains a good combination of comedy and melodrama. In this episode Stingaree holds up a bishop and his chaplain on their way to reform a particularly notorious settlement. In the ministerial garb, Stingaree and his partner proceed to hold up Mulfera, but are compelled to make a hasty getaway when the gishop appears. There are some exciting incidents.

"Drugged Waters," a five-reel comedy, will be presented at The Olympic Wednesday. Written by Leonora Almsworth, featuring Wm. C. Dowlan, Gloria Fonda and others. This is a pretty, bright little story and suffers only from the fact that it should have been told in a less number of reels. The plot runs too thin in places, necessitating padding. The situation as a whole is unique, the girl having fallen heir to a mineral spring resort, the waters of which are medicated by her manager without her knowledge. A young doctor discovers the truth, and they manage to make a success of the place on a square basis. The setting and photography are pleasing and the cast an attractive one throughout.

On Wednesday The Mae I. offers a tale of love and revenge in the woods, "The Silent Trail," in two parts. This is the third straight offering in as many days of the Western type of melodrama, but the plots are different, the casts changed and the stories interesting. Two single-reel comedies, "Grace's Gorgeous Gown" and "Getting In Wrong," give variety to the day's offering.

The Ruby offers the first of "Sis Hopkins" comedies Wednesday.

Reviewed by Margaret I. MacDonald, of the Motion Picture World: "Sis" is the kitchen maid in the home of a young woman whose sweetheart is very attentive. "Sis," remembering that it is leap year, is inspired at the sight of the lovers to look up a man for herself. She therefore advertises for a husband, and in consequence the daughter of the house is besieged with men of all descriptions, and her own sweetheart is dismissed for a handsome pretender, who afterward is discovered to be a crook for whom the police are looking. A serious situation is saved by Sis, who opens an unaddressed note intended for her young mistress and appropriates its contents to her own case. So while the bride is waiting disconsolately at the church for a bridegroom that falls to put in an appearance, Sis, heavily veiled, has her place in an automobile by the side of the crook, whom she unintentionally causes to return and face the charge of the police in the home of his bride-to-be. Sis then flies to the arms of her own lover, who has been stewing in a silk hat and frock coat while his lady love unwittingly eloped with another."

Two other attractions at The Ruby Wednesday are "The Law's Injustice," a three-reel drama, and a one-reel comedy, "A Misfit Baron."

HEALTH AND CRIMINALITY.

The defective citizen of today is oftentimes the unhealthy child of yesterday. The defective child of today is often the criminal of tomorrow. There is a growing sense of social solidarity and of general responsibility for whatever consequences naturally follow conditions which society allows to exist. On the sociological side it is found that the criminal is largely a product of vicious social conditions; on the biological side, the criminal suffers from defective heredity. The criminal class is very largely feeble minded or sub-normal in mental capacity.

Members of the famous Jukes family, which has been traced for several generations by Dugdale, as a rule possess vicious or criminal instincts. Seven hundred and nine out of 1,200 descendants were traced, of whom 280 had received public support, 140 were criminals and offenders serving in all 140 years in prison, and a large proportion were licentious and nervously diseased.

Mental deficiency is probably the chief cause of delinquency, according to Charles Goring, of London, who has completed a study of 3,000 convicts of English prisons. There is a close relation between mental and physical condition.

PUBLIC LIBRARIES.

Here is a town that had a Carnegie Library, as pleasant to look at and as empty as a baby's crib in a furniture-store window. The Woman's Club took it in hand. But the club did not go round town asking for contributions of dog-eared books, mostly novels, that owners had no use for and whose usefulness to anybody else was quite limited. It went to the Town Council and demanded a tax for the support of the library—and finally got it. We recommend the precedent.

Mr. Carnegie has bestowed a thousand or two library buildings, whose usefulness depends entirely upon what the community puts into them. We wish he had gone a step further and organized local interest in the filling. Local enterprise must do that. We advise local enterprise not to go at it beggarly, with humble solicitation of crumbs and cast-off clothing. Let it say boldly that the library is no seedy vagrant, to be welcomed with a hand-out at the kitchen door; but a royal comer, that must be supported in a style befitting its rank.

A library that calls itself public should be maintained out of the public treasury with as much care as the fire department. Any community which votes money for public schools ought to see that.—Saturday Evening Post.

An Editorial of the Day

SAFE, SIMPLE AND CHEAP.

The man who buys a farm or a town lot receives a more or less voluminous and cryptic document called an abstract of title. Probably seven times out of ten, being unlearned in the law of land titles, he is incapable of judging whether or not the abstract shows a perfect title. He must rely upon the opinion of an attorney or upon the guaranty of a title-insurance company. The attorney may be mistaken. In exceptional cases there may even be flaws in the title that the abstract does not show. In any case the attorney's opinion or the title-insurance company's guaranty costs considerable money.

The first feature about a genuine Torrens System is that it provides a sure, indefensible title, guaranteed by the state and expressed in a certificate so simple that anybody can understand it.

To describe the system briefly: Title to a piece of land is examined and found to lie in a certain person. It is then registered in that person's name and a certificate of ownership issued. When that person wishes to transfer the land all he need do is to surrender his certificate, and a new certificate is then issued to the purchaser.

There is no going back of the certificate. No re-examination of records is necessary. True, claimants to the title whom the records did not show may turn up—for example, a woman who claims to have been a widow of a grantor; persons who claim to have heirs, and so on. These claims may be valid at law. To provide against them an insurance fund is created. Experience in this country shows that one-tenth of one per cent of the value of property transferred is ample for this fund; that is, when land worth ten thousand dollars is transferred under the Torrens System it contributes ten dollars to the insurance fund.

Claimants such as those referred to above cannot disturb the certificate-holder's title to the land. They cannot even cast a cloud upon it. If their claims are valid they are compensated out of the insurance fund. There is no going back of the certificate.—Saturday Evening Post.

Food for Thought

The world may sound no trumpets, ring no bells;
The book of life the shining record tells,
Thy love shall chant its own beatitudes
After its own life working. A child's kiss
Set on thy sighing lips shall make thee glad.
A sick man helped by thee shall make thee strong.
Thou shalt be served thyself in every sense
Of service which thou renderest.
—Elizabeth Barrett Browning.

It is hard to fail, but it is worse never to have tried to succeed. In this life we get nothing save by effort.—Theodore Roosevelt.

A Thought for the Week.

With every soul there are days when the flood of life runs high. There are days when one has high courage; when he feels strength to do any task; when his day dreams lead him to look afar, and his vision is keen enough to reach to the highest peaks. Trust those days. They are the right ones on which to set out to seek fortune. Get clear in your mind on such a day the whole vision; see then the way to accomplishment of your desires; set out resolutely and at once on the way. That high flood-tide in your life can not last. Next day, as you go about your work, the way may seem long and hard; you may half repent that you have set yourself to travel it, yet be sure that the vision that came to you when your courage ran high and your sight was keen was the truest one—the one best worth pursuing.

The vision is the thing. We do not go beyond it, maybe do not reach it, yet it is worth the struggle. You have all sorts of schemes for your life, your farm and your children; the noblest of them are possible and best worth while. One soul takes counsel of its fears; it gets not far; another takes departure on the life journey on the day when the flood-time of life runs high; and it achieves.—The late Joseph E. Wing.

The man who is fond of books is usually a man of lofty thought and elevated opinions.—George Dawson.

TO PREVENT FLIES.

It has been found that flies that bother cattle and horses, like the housefly, breed in filth. Their breeding places are in manure, and rubbish, such as decaying organic matter, around the barn.

Those who have such places where stock flies and houseflies breed should clean up immediately and destroy such places. Much can be done to keep down these pests if no filth is allowed in which they can breed.

The stalls and stables should be cleaned daily and the manure spread on the land, if possible. The leaching of manure is always less when spread as fast as it accumulates, rather than put in piles around the barn. When spread the manure is out of the way and where it will be of benefit to the soil. If piled for more than a few days it will deteriorate and is likely to be a breeding place for flies.

Where a manure pit is used or the manure placed in piles for any considerable length of time it should be screened, to keep the flies from breeding in it. This will save much danger and worry from both house and stock flies.

There are sprays, dips or preparations advertised for disinfecting the stalls, pens and manure piles. Most of these are the coal-tar derivatives, and are very useful for the purposes mentioned.

The best way to prevent flies is not to let them breed. If they breed and become numerous they are certain to give you trouble in spite of all you do to prevent it.

Now is the time to take precautionary measures to keep the barn clean and to prevent flies.—Farm and Ranch.

COMPANY L, 4TH INFANTRY, SIGNS MUSTER ROLL.

Tuesday, May 17, Company L of the 4th Infantry was mustered into the U. S. service, and the boys who left Plainview for Fort Sam Houston are now Uncle Sam's boys. The weather was bad, and rain trickled down the faces of the boys as they stood, hats off, right hand raised, and swore to protect the United States from all enemies.

Company L has made good so far, and the outlook for the boys is very bright. Several have not received letters from home since their arrival here, so the blues are in evidence very much.

For the reader who never had the experience of visiting an army post, we shall describe the situation of the camp and its arrangement. Fort Sam Houston is about three miles from San Antonio. The camp grounds are on a gentle slope, so the drainage is very good. Beginning at the south end of the ground is the Second Regiment, then the Third and Fourth, with three batteries and one machine gun and medical corps. Regimental Street runs north and south. Company streets run east and west. Each tent holds eight men, which constitutes a squad. In each squad there is a corporal.

The passing of the militia into the army establishes a precedent in the history of the United States, as this is the first time it has been done. It was mustered in under the name of "Organized Militia of Texas in United States Service." The brigade will be known by this title as long as it remains in the service, and will neither become a part of the U. S. army or be United States Volunteers.

Our officers believe that if the troops are discharged from Federal service in a few months the several units will simply be mustered out of the United States service and return to their home stations as guardsmen.

The guard have a nice, comfortable place in which to write, read and rest when off duty. It is the gift chapel of Fort Sam Houston.

Thousands of people from San Antonio have visited the camp in automobiles and carriages, viewing the life of the soldier boys with pleasure.

Beauties of the National Capital Told Club Girls by Mrs. Landrum

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 20.—Dear Club Girls: I don't think I could pass a week without writing you, wherever I happened to be. I thought of you all as I travelled over the beautiful mountain ranges of the Ozarks and Alleghenies, and thought how hard it was to learn geography from a book and map. If I could have seen the country as I travelled it the past week when I was studying geography as a child, my lessons would have been easily learned.

I will have to tell you a little about Washington City, D. C., as I leave here Sunday for New York City. I think Washington is one of the prettiest cities, if not the prettiest city, in the United States. Such great, wonderful trees, and so many parks, and it certainly is the city of statues! On every park corner and in the parks you can see wonderful statues of war heroes or heroes of early history. The residences are beautiful, too, and while not many have yards in the close districts, they have beautified every inch of the space with flowers and shrubs. Of course, the Government buildings are beautiful and interesting. The great Congressional Library, of several millions of dollars' cost, is one of the show places.

The climax of sightseeing is reached when one takes the elevator and ascends to the top of the Washington Monument and views the city from its dizzy heights. The dear old Potomac River stretches away into the distance like a quiet, undisturbed, broad band of gray ribbon. The sight of the Potomac makes me sad, for it recalls all the thrilling and stirring events of the Civil War to me. I love the quiet old sleeping river.

I will not dwell longer in this letter upon the sights in Washington, for I have something to say about the convention. I will give you bedtime stories every night during the convention of many interesting things. Now Mrs. Wyatt writes the delegates are sending in names pretty well, but they are not coming in fast enough to keep from disappointing some one. I hope Plainview and Hale, Cameron and Nueces counties send all their delegates. I know the old counties will, for those clubs will not want to miss one convention. Now, with lots of love to every girl, I will close. I will write you again from New York.

MRS. LANDRUM.

CHANGES IN FACULTY TEXAS U. SUMMER SCHOOL.

AUSTIN, Texas, May 25.—Dean W. S. Sutton of the University of Texas summer school, announces the following changes in the faculty as given in the announcement: Dr. E. T. Miller will have certain work in economics instead of Lewis H. Haney, who is on a leave of absence from the University and is acting as an economic expert for the Federal Trade Commission at Washington.

Professor Frank H. Fowler, formerly of the University of Utah, will have charge of the work in Latin, in place of Dr. Edwin W. Fay, who is contemplating a recreational trip this summer.

Dean Sutton, assisted by W. H. Butler, will undertake the work in school administration, which was previously assigned to Professor T. D. Brooks, Professor Brooks having resigned to assume the presidency of a normal school in Oklahoma.

The faculty of the summer school consists of eighty-two individuals, for the greater part drawn from the University of Texas faculty, and over two hundred different courses are offered. In the summer normal there are twenty-four instructors, and courses in all subjects required for teachers' certificates are offered. Prominent school men from all over Texas compose the summer faculty, including the following: Supt. J. E. Blair, Corsicana; C. C. Pearson, Houston; Supt. A. N. McCallum, Austin; Principal James E. Pearce, Austin; Supt. L. C. Gee, Greenville; Supt. A. L. Day, Commerce City; Supt. L. H. Hubbard, Belton; Mr. Moses Menger, Corpus Christi; Supt. R. D. Green, Cisco; Prof. E. D. Jennings, Texas Woman's College, Fort Worth; E. G. Littlejohn, Galveston; Maud Day Douglass, Superintendent ent Travis County Schools; Lila Baugh, Houston; Lida Hooe, Dallas; Mrs. Lula Griesenbeck, San Antonio; and Margaret Graham Burrough, Austin.

CLASS OF '86 TO HOLD REUNION AT TEXAS UNI.

AUSTIN, Texas, May 25.—Judge A. S. Walker, Internal Revenue Collector for the Third District of Texas, is the Life of Secretary of the Class of 1886, University of Texas, which is to have a reunion, after thirty years, next commencement; and Judge Walker reports excellent progress in securing promises from various living members of the class to return.

George W. Armstrong, who is now in New York, writes: "I will attend the class banquet if I am in Texas during commencement. Yes, I have attended a commencement one time since I left the University. I have forgotten the year, but it was some eight or ten years after my graduation. I did not meet any familiar faces except Judge Clark, and I felt rather lonesome and out of place." It is to prevent such experiences that the ex-students association has now adopted the practice of class reunions.

John W. George, receiving an invitation from Judge Walker, writes as follows:

"I was really surprised that you should under any conditions think that I was old enough to have been a graduate of the class of 1886. I am much younger than you seem to think. It was the class of 1887 that I graduated with, and therefore am entirely too young a man to attend a reunion of the class of '86. Now, if at any time the young fellows with me see fit to launch a reunion and a banquet, I do not think it would be possible to get enough ropes to tie me with to keep me from going, but I certainly could not think of going there and mixing with these old fellows of 1886, and hearing their senile discussions of what they did when they were boys."

Judge R. W. Hall, of the Court of Civil Appeals, Amarillo, writes, "I shall not permit anything short of a calamity to keep me away and am looking forward to the occasion with a great deal of pleasure."

Thad C. Bell, of Richmond, Va., gives a provisional promise of attendance. Quite a number of others say positively that they will be on hand.

WILL CONSIDER NEEDED REFORMS IN JUDICIARY.

AUSTIN, Texas, May 25.—The call of Judge Wm. H. Kimbrough, of Amarillo, President of the University of Texas Law Association, for a meeting of the lawyers of the State in the Senate Chamber of the Capitol June 12 to 14 is meeting with an encouraging response, according to Professor Chas. S. Potts, Secretary-Treasurer of the Association.

The question of judicial reform will be taken up in this three days' meeting from two standpoints: first, that measure of reform which is possible of attainment by means of legislative action and within the courts by a modification of procedure; and second, from the standpoint of a reorganization of the whole judicial system by means of a constitutional amendment. Two committees will present tentative plans for the consideration of the meeting. Members of the higher courts will participate in this meeting as well as members of the bar from every section of the State, irrespective of whether or not they are members of the Association.

The association is soon to issue a bulletin consisting of the papers presented at the last annual meeting of the Association, in 1915. In the bulletin will be included "Needed Reforms in the Judiciary," by Judge Kimbrough; "Procedural Reforms in Texas," by Rhodes S. Baker; "The German Judiciary," by Geo. C. F. Butte, which consists in large part of a translation of the German Judiciary Act, making this instrument, so valuable for the American student of judicial reform, available in English for the first time.

COULDN'T BE UNDONE.

In one of the country districts of Hawkins County, Tennessee, a newly made magistrate was trying his first case. A negro was before him charged with having stolen a Bible. The evidence showed that the prisoner had taken the Bible from a church, and, going across the mountain, had sold it to a person in another community. When the evidence was all in, the magistrate consulted his Revised Statutes and informed the prisoner:

"I sentence you to three years in the penitentiary."

The prisoner's counsel at once interposed: "But, Your Honor, you can't do that."

The magistrate said: "The hell I can't. I've done done it!"

Three Words To Your Grocer "New Post Toasties"

will bring a package of breakfast flakes with a delicious new corn flavour—flakes that don't mush down when milk or cream is added, nor are they "chaffy" in the package like the ordinary kind.

These New Post Toasties are manufactured by a new process using quick, intense heat which raises tiny bubbles over each flake, the distinguishing characteristic. And the new process also brings out a new corn flavour, never tasted in corn flakes of the past.

Try a handful dry—they're good this way and the test will reveal their superior flavour. But they're usually served with milk or cream.

EVER SALVATED BY CALOMEL? HORRIBLE!

Calomel is Quicksilver and Acts Like Dynamite on Your Liver.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into your bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones, and should never be put into your system.

When you feel bilious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel, just remember that your druggist sells for 50 cents a large bottle of perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe. Dodson's Liver Tonic, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring up your inside, and can no salivate.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tonic straightens you right up and you feel great. Give it to the children, because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

The Telephone Saved a Life

When one of our men was badly injured by the threshing machine we telephoned the doctor, who told us how to patch the man up. The doctor then started for our place in a hurry. When he arrived the man was pretty weak, and without the doctor's advice the results might have proved serious. Thanks to the telephone, the man pulled through.

DAIRYING PROFITABLE, SAYS LITTLEFIELD CORRESPONDENT.

LITTLEFIELD, Texas, May 23.—A concrete example of the profits of dairy farming in this country is shown by the returns of cream sales made by W. F. Ewert for the month beginning April 10th and ending May 10th, 1916. Mr. Ewert received for his cream $102.06. He is milking seventeen cows, and they get no feed at all except the native grass in pasture. Other farmers are going into the dairy and poultry farming on a large scale. J. Frank Smith is now milking about thirty cows and has about 1,000 White Orpington chickens on his farm. His fryers sell readily for forty cents each. A creamery will soon be needed to handle the local cream product.

LIBERTY NEWS.

LIBERTY, May 24.—Sunday School Sunday at 10 o'clock a. m.

Rev. S. J. Upton, of Plainview, will preach to us Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. We invite everybody to come.

The Liberty Social Club meets the first Thursday in June, with Mrs. Ida Hickman.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Alexander and daughter spent Sunday with his parents.

Some of our ladies were regular attendants to the "Hen Party" in Plainview last week, and reported it very interesting.

Some of our people are attending the Chautauqua this week.

The following dined Sunday with J. J. Groff and family: Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wheeler and family and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Freeman and family.

Some of our people went to the train last Friday with relatives of the deceased Frank Ott, who were accompanying his body to Wisconsin.

We are needing a rain at present.

ABERNATHY.

ABERNATHY, Texas, May 25.—Rev. Pledger, of Kyle, who has been visiting Sam Smith and family has returned home. He is very much pleased with this country.

Monday morning a bunch of Boy Scouts from Lubbock, accompanied by Jim Robinson, passed through Abernathy en route to Palo Duro Canyon for several days' outing.

Prof. S. J. Woodruff entertained his room with a social last Friday evening.

Rev. Black, of Lockney, is conducting a series of services here this week under the auspices of the Church of Christ. Good crowds are in attendance at all the services.

Messrs. Stout, Harral, Thompson, Kelly and Stone, were business visitors to Lubbock Tuesday.

Prof. A. D. Paine, the newly elected school principal of our school, is erecting a nice new home in the south portion of town, and he and his family will occupy same in the near future. We welcome these good people to our town.

J. A. Darden, who has been conducting the restaurant in Abernathy for the past few months, has leased same to Doc Stratton, who will continue the business. Mr. Darden has accepted a position with a firm at Lamesa. We regret to see this good citizen leave us.

Some of our enterprising citizens have recently gotten together and put a new fence around the park and fixed the watering place so folks can water their teams decently. This was much needed, and will be much appreciated by our country folks especially.

Mrs. B. Y. Dickinson and little boy have gone for an extended visit with relatives at Itasca.

Our townsman Mr. Evans is having his residence repainted this week.

Geo. England has returned from the Normal at Canyon.

HALFWAY FARMERS ARE NEEDING RAIN NOW.

HALFWAY, May 23.—Farm work is almost at a standstill on account of dry weather. Wheat prospects are poor. We had some rain last week, but enough to do very little good.

Our school closed on last Friday, which was a gala day for Halfway. The graduating exercises were held in the morning, after which a bounteous dinner was spread, followed immediately by short speeches by the numerous candidates present. Then came the game of basketball between Halfway and Olton. Halfway won, with a score of sixteen to five. This was followed by a matched game of baseball between Halfway and Olton, Halfway winning by a large margin this time also. Some two or three weeks ago our ball teams played Olton and were badly beaten, and they vowed it should not occur again. A large crowd was present both morning and afternoon from Olton, Mayfield, Runningwater, Plainview and the surrounding country. Judge Lewis presented diplomas to Sadie Miller, Kathleen Smith, Willard Dye and J. W. Pinkerton, who graduated from the seventh grade, and to Bertie Lee Allen and Frank Helm, who graduated from the ninth grade, and to Almira McComas, who finished the eleventh grade. Halfway is feeling a bit proud of herself since we won the banner again and also the medal for the best pupil, the medal being won by Lewis Pinkerton.

Sunday was another big day for Halfway, as a number of the members of the chair of the Baptist Church of Plainview came out and rendered a splendid song service and made a number of talks that were really sermons. Among those present from Plainview were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Irick, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Hammer, John Morris and Miss Myra Morris, J. D. McGown, T. W. Sawyer, G. E. Lewis, J. W. Patterson, Misses Herschel and Frances Sanderson, and several others.

Miss Lena Kayser, who visited here some months ago, returned on Friday to spend some time with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. James Helm and Miss Lois Foley visited the family of C. F. Knight, of Runningwater, Sunday.

Mrs. Nelson R. Smith goes to Canyon tomorrow for a visit with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Miles, of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Halsey, of Hart, were here for the close of school.

Mrs. Bob McQuillen, of Olton, was severely injured by being struck on the face by a baseball during the game here Friday.

A large number of young people enjoyed a party at the home of Mrs. Nelson Smith on last Friday night.

Misses Hughes and Claitor, accompanied by Mr. Jay and Mr. Dean, of Petersburg, returned to Halfway today for their household goods. We are loathe to give these splendid, high-minded young ladies up. They taught a fine school, and go from us with the love of every child and the high regard of the community.

Miss Lena Maude Smith, of Clarendon, has come to spend a while with her father's family, near here.

R. L. Hooper is moving his improvement from Halfway to his quarter section about three miles northwest of Halfway.

FIFTY ATTEND THE SUNDAY SCHOOL AT MOUNT VERNON.

Those who attended the dance at Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Haines' Friday night reported a good time.

K. D. Thomas is having a well drilled.

We reached our fifty mark in Sunday School Sunday. Brother Lawrence preached a fine sermon. He was accompanied by Brother Adams, who will preach for us next Sunday, in the afternoon, and Brother Longstreet at night. The singing at the school house Sunday night was well attended.

Misses Glenna and Gladys Thomas spent Friday and Saturday with their grandmother, Mrs. E. J. Thomas.

Mildred Duncan and Kathleen Brazee visited Tommie and Rosalee Thomas Sunday afternoon.

J. M. Tye and children visited in the community Sunday.

Mrs. Harp, Vernon Wright, and Miss Fletcher are among those who enjoyed the fishing trip last week.

About the most remarkable thing of this camp is the lack of homesickness. Usually in a camp of this size, gotten together in the short time that this camp was put together, there is a great deal of homesickness, but so far I have heard of only one case in camp. Of course, it is rather early in the game, but I think that we will have very little trouble on that score.

When the boys here receive a letter from home, everyone in camp knows just as soon as the letter reaches camp, and if any of them have a piece of general news it is told to the rest of the boys, so if at any time you are writing to any of the boys and anything of interest in the community has happened, don't forget to include it in the letter.

Soon after the boys reached camp they all had some money, but changing their mode of living so quickly, they could not break off all their habits at once, and the most of them are now broke, so, now, if when you write to the boys you will enclose a stamp, they will surely appreciate it, for stamps are hard to get here, even if you have the money. Some of the boys have offered as high as five cents apiece for stamps in order to send a letter home, and then they have had to wait until someone went to town to get it.

Will write again next Sunday.
Yours truly,
W. J. KLINGER.
