EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE PLAN FOR FURTHERANCE OF PUBLICITY CAMPAIGN.

PAY TAXES WITHOUT BENEFIT

Many West Texas Boys Are Now Forced to Leave State for Agricultural Education.

A meeting of the executive committee of the West Texas A. & M. College Association was held Wednesday in Lubbock. Delegates from Post City, Colorado City, Big Springs, San Angelo, Amarillo and Plainview were in attendance. The next meeting will be held in Fort Worth some time in October. It is planned to have interested persons from each county in the area asking for the new school in attendance and also to have many of the members of the State House of Representatives and Senate present, that they may clearly understand the things which the West Texas area is asking for.

Plainview was represented Wednesday by Col. R. P. Smyth, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and H. S. Hilburn.

A. & M. for West Is Fair.

An Agricultural and Mechanical College for West Texas is a fair proposition, is one of the points emphasized by the executive committee. West Texas has been paying into the State Treasury in taxes large sums in excess of the amounts received in school apportionment, while, on the contrary, many East Texas counties have received for their public schools thousands of dollars in excess of what they paid in their taxes. For example: (The figures given below are for the years 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912, and 1913.) Bowie County received apportionment in excess of all taxes paid to the amount of $100,564; Cass County, $180,911; Cherokee County, $115,082; Comanche County, $83,615; Fannin, $115,866; Fort Bend, $41,695; Harrison, $228,954; Houston, $203,611; Limestone, $79,582; Nacogdoches, $148,020; Panola, $145,054; Rusk, $205,996; Smith, $205,288, and so on. On the contrary, Hale County paid into the State Treasury in these years $64,725 in excess of the money received for school purposes; Potter, $132,702; Hall, $27,784; Lamb, $33,603; Midland, $71,725; Randall, $64,039; Lubbock, $62,706; Floyd, $47,196; Garza, $27,433; Briscoe, $17,425, and so on, the exception in the western counties being the receiving of apportionment for schools in excess of the taxes paid in, or even equal to taxes paid in.

Out of the taxes paid the A. & M. College is maintained. West Texas boys cannot get the benefit of that school, for it is too far removed. Only four per cent of the student body of the A. & M. College is from the West Texas area! Then, too, that school cannot successfully deal with methods of farming peculiar to West Texas climate, rain and soil conditions. Crops suited to the western country will not do well on demonstration farms at Bryan, and, even if they did, that school cannot treat of the culture of the sorghum grains in this section, except theoretically.

Want "Class A" School.

"West Texas will never be content without a first-class A. & M. college, which gives best courses and a full replica of the courses offered at the present A. & M." was the statement, made with feeling, by Dr. P. E. Coleman, of Colorado City. Dr. Coleman has been tireless in his efforts to aid in the development of this section, and was one of the first settlers, having been here when the South Plains country freighted all its supplies from Colorado City. Then, later, when the Amarillo jobbing houses started for Plainview trade, the Colorado City merchants moved stocks and opened stores there, also.

Another point developed in favor of the West Texas A. & M. is that many of the boys of the West Texas area go to Iowa, Kansas, Colorado and New Mexico to receive their education in agriculture, because soil and climate conditions are similar to the Plains country. It is an unfair handicap to place on West Texas to force them to send their sons out of the State at heavy expense when taxes are being Foster of Lamesa, J. B. Cole of Lubbock, T. W. Sawyer, H. J. Dillingham, H. L. King, R. M. Irick, Dr. J. H. Wayland, R. J. Goode, J. W. Boswell, C. V. Bryson, Dr. J. E. Nunn of Amarillo, J. W. paid by them for the support of an institution which is incapable by nature of giving the service desired.

No Fight on Present A. & M.

In this new movement (the executive committee stressed this point especially) there is no fight against the present A. & M. The value of their work is recognized and appreciated. The new school should in no wise affect the attendance of the old school, for it has been pointed out that only four per cent of the students now attending the school are from the area asking for the new school. The rapid development of the Plains area assures from the beginning a good student body, is the opinion of the executive committee.

A plank has been introduced into the Democratic platform demanding a West Texas A. & M. college.

A committee to issue an address to the people of Texas, in order that the truth of the situation may be known, was appointed by the chairman of the Lubbock meeting. COY MYERS RECEIVED BROKEN LEG WHEN THROWN UNDER CAR.

Late this afternoon a Hudson car, driven by Mrs. E. H. Humphreys, collided with Coy Myers, riding a bicycle, at the corner of Seventh and Austin Streets, throwing the young man under the car, resulting in two breaks of the right thigh and a very badly bruised left shoulder.

Mrs. Humphreys was driving west on Seventh Street and the boy was riding from the north. When they saw each other both tried to avoid a collision, but were unable to do so. It was an accident without blame. The boy, who is a son of A. J. Myers, was carried to the fire station, where he was attended by Drs. Lindsay and McClendon.

Additional Penalties on Property Delinquent If Taxes Are Not Paid by September 4.

The delinquent tax list of Hale County property will not be published during August, as a result of a visit to Austin by Deputy Sheriff Farris Frye, who returned Tuesday night. All delinquent tax accounts paid before September 4 will include only the taxes and penalties. However, if payment is deferred longer there will be added costs of publication and suits. The commissioners are anxious to close out all taxes with the least cost to the people and least trouble to themselves, and will take every possible step to secure payment of delinquent taxes promptly.

THIRD NATIONAL IS SCHOOL DEPOSITORY

BOARD IS TO GET 7-5-8 PER CENT ON ITS DAILY BALANCES.

THE WARD LINES ARE SET

With Election of Two New Members, Faculty Is Now Complete.

The Third National Bank was awarded the funds of the Plainview Independent School District at a meeting tonight of the Board of Trustees on their bid of 7-5-8 per cent on daily balances. The First National Bank bid 7-1-8 per cent and The Citizens National Bank bid 6-3-10 per cent.

Miss Mildred Finks, of Marlin, was elected to teach Spanish in the High School, her salary to be $75 a month. J. E. Mobley, of Comanche, was elected instructor in mathematics, at a salary of $80 a month.

The board approved the report of the committee appointed to fix the ward lines which would determine the distribution of the pupils at the various school buildings.

This committee, composed of Supt. J. W. Campbell, Prof. H. P. Webb, W. B. Martine and E. F. Alexander, submitted a division of the east and west ward attendance in the grades as follows: By a line beginning at a point on the north line of the district due north of the railroad station, and extending south to Broadway, thence south on Broadway to Sixth Street, thence west on Sixth to the west line of the district. All grade pupils living south and east of this line shall attend school at the Lamar Building, except those living in Seth Ward Addition. Those of Seth Ward Addition and all living north and west of this line shall attend at Central. All High School students will occupy the temporary buildings being provided at West Side until the completion of the new High School Building.

The High School faculty as at present is composed of J. W. Campbell, superintendent; H. P. Webb, principal; J. E. Mobley, S. J. Woodruff, and Misses Rebecca Longmire, Mary Bullard, Elizabeth Briggs, Adelaide Donnelly and Kathryn Powell.

At Central Miss Myrtle K. Jackson is principal. Prof. Ralph Porter is principal of Lamar School. The grade teachers, all of whom have not been assigned, are: Misses Anna Brown, Maxie Speer, Susie Glenn, Callie Glenn, Carrie Pace, Beulah Posten, Josie Rosson, Urshul Sanderson, Mozelle Treadaway, Ethel McMillan, Dora Bell and Elsie Ogden, and Mrs. Prudis Wright.

Teachers' Institute will open September 4th, and will continue through Friday, September 8th. With the Hale County Institute will be combined the Lamb County Institute. Supt. J. W. Campbell of the Plainview schools will preside over the meetings. All teachers in the two counties will be required to attend, but will receive full pay for attendance. Miss Longmire will serve as secretary of the institute.

Thursday evening there will be a spelling match, in which the citizens of the county are invited to spell against the teachers. On this evening, also, plans will be made to secure a lyceum course for the rural schools of the county.

WAYLAND COLLEGE will open seventh session Friday, September 1st, 9 a. m. Enrollment and Classification will begin Wednesday August 30th. A faculty of seventeen teachers will greet the students. They are College trained, specially adapted and successfully experienced. The tuition rates run from $3.00 to $6.00 per month. This includes personal attention to each student in classes which will not be overcrowded. Send us your boy or girl and watch results.

Wayland Conservatory of Fine Arts.—Prof. R. M. Crabb, our Director of Music, is a Conservatory Graduate and is just from New York where he took post-graduate studies in piano under L. Gowdosky and lessons on violin under Theodore Spiering. Miss Elizabeth Ziegler was a Conservatory Graduate before she made special study of the Fletcher Method of teaching piano to beginners. Read the LITERARY DIGEST of August 12th concerning the Fletcher Method and you will no longer be willing for your boy or girl to be taught by the old drill and drudgery methods. The greatest musicians and educators in Europe and America endorse the Fletcher Method, for it teaches the children to think and express themselves in terms of music.

Miss Donnell is presented again as our teacher of Voice. She has had the high training given in Baylor College. She pleases and wins and instructs. Ask her pupils and patrons.

Miss Bess Brown proved herself a real artist in teaching Expression in Wayland College last year. Here is a rich opportunity for many students who are not enrolled in our literary departments. They can meet Miss Brown at the College or at the Down-Town Studio at the home of Mrs. Reeves, 400 Restriction Street.

Miss Gertrude Overall, graduate in Art at Seth Ward College, has shown such marked ability in painting that Wayland Trustees thought it proper to give her a chance in her own home town. See her art display in the window of Long-Harp Drug Store.

Our Business Department has "made good" these six years under the wise management and instruction of Prof. and Mrs. J. E. Watson. Pupils may take any part of the Business Course at the same time they take the literary courses. This is a special advantage.

Wayland College is an INSTITUTION and not just an individual. Patronage for any fine arts department helps to make the institution which will help to make PLAINVIEW long after individuals have come and gone. We covet your patronage in the fine arts and business departments even though you do not patronize our literary departments. Remember we have an elegant room, 400 Restriction Street, near the public school so that these pupils also may have the advantage of our fine arts conservatory.

UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS IS SOUTH'S GREATEST SCHOOL.

Enrollment During 1915-16 Was 4,210 Individual Students; Expect 5,000 This Year.

It should be a matter of pride to every Texan that the State of Texas the biggest commonwealth of the Nation, supports by far the largest university in the South—the University of Texas. Although in point of attendance it yet falls far short of such great institutions as Columbia University, University of California, University of Minnesota, University of Wisconsin, Harvard University, Cornell, and other Northern and Eastern universities, it is a close rival of the University of Missouri and the University of Kansas. It is not only larger than any university in the South, but it is larger than any two of them combined. The annual catalogue of the University of Texas, issued this spring, shows that during the session of 1915-16 4,210 individual students took some work in different departments of the University. To conduct this great free public university, the last step in the public-school system of the State, the Legislature of Texas granted an annual appropriation last year for equipment, buildings, salaries of professors, and other expenses, amounting to nearly a million dollars. Not all of the 4,210 students came to Austin to study. Nine hundred and sixty-six of them took college courses by correspondence. More than another thousand attended the summer school only, the total matriculation of the long session being 2,224. The summer school has been lengthened one month, so that hereafter the University of Texas will be practically in continuous session, and it will be possible for students to attend one quarter, two quarters, three quarters, or four quarters, as their situation permits.

Expenses at the University vary from $250 as high as individual tastes go. Any boy or girl, however, may live comfortably on $300 a year. More than one-third of the student body belong to the self-supporting class, and several hundred earn all or a part of their expenses while carrying on their studies. All tuition is free, since the University is supported entirely by the State. Nearly two hundred counties had representatives at the University last session, three counties, Harris, Bexar and Dallas, sending more than one hundred each.

With the lengthening of the summer term, and with the general prosperity of the State, it is confidently predicted that 5,000 students will matriculate at the University during the session of 1916-17.

COLLEGE STUDENTS WILL BE RELEASED FROM NATIONAL GUARD.

AUSTIN, Texas, Aug. 23.—It is expected that a number of former students of the University of Texas who are members of the National Guard will resume their studies next month. In a recent letter to President R. E. Vinson of the University, Captain Fitzhugh Lee specifies the procedure of discharge as follows: "Your letter to General Funston, of August 10, just received. The General wishes me to say that all members of the National Guard mustered into the service of the United States who can show a bona fide intention of entering or returning to colleges or schools at the beginning of the fall term in 1916 will be discharged, unless the military situation at the time indicated shall be such as to render their retention in the service necessary. Therefore, if the soldier in question desires his discharge for the purpose indicated, he should make application through his immediate commanding officer, such application to be accompanied by his own affidavit and that of a parent or guardian, setting forth his intention of entering a school or college."

SCHOLARSHIP TO STAMFORD GIRL WITH GOOD RECORD.

AUSTIN, Texas, Aug. 23.—Miss Alta Mae Scott, of Stamford, has been awarded the George W. Allen Memorial Scholarship at the University of Texas for the coming term. Miss Scott is a graduate of the Stamford High School, where her work won for her very high endorsements from her teachers and associates. This scholarship is a loan of $300 for five years at 4 per cent interest, the beneficiary to be a Jones County boy or girl who without this assistance would be unable to attend the University. It was founded in memory of George W. Allen, of the law class of 1891.

CALENDAR FOR OPENING OF TEXAS UNIVERSITY.

Registrations begin Wednesday, September 27, and continue through Saturday, September 30. Candidates for degrees in 1917 may register on any of the four registration days, while other former students can only register Friday and Saturday. First-year students will register Wednesday and Thursday and Saturday afternoon. Students who fail to register by Saturday will be required to pay an additional fee or penalty of three dollars. Postponed examinations, examinations for advanced standing and examinations to remove course conditions will be held Thursday, September 28th. Any student wishing to take postponed and conditioned examinations must make application to the dean of his department before Saturday, September 23, or to the dean of the faculty for advanced standing examinations. Saturday, September 30, is the final date for handing in applications for degrees. Fall term classes begin Monday, October 2. THE KANSAS CITY STOCK MARKET IN DETAIL.

KANSAS CITY STOCK YARDS. Aug. 21.—The advance of 25 to 40 cents on most grades of cattle last week, coupled with continued lack of rain, increased the offerings to 30,000 cattle today, best run of the season. The Panhandle country contributed heavily, some of the cattle from that section driven in by dry weather, and Kansas sent a liberal number. Prices on killing steers were mostly steady, plain grassers 10 cents lower, stockers and feeders steady and active, cows steady to weak. Most of the Panhandle country got enough rain Sunday to put water in the lakes.

Beef Steers. Some big-weight, horned natives brought $10.65, numerous lots of natives at $10.25 to $10.60, plain short-fed steers $9.50 and upwards. Grass steers again had the support of feeder buyers, so notable last week, and sales of the good ones ranged from $8.00 to $8.90, including steers to feeder buyers at $8.50. Medium and plain grassers weighing 900 to 1,200 pounds sold at $6.50 to $7.75, best straight Kansas-grazed Texas steers brought up this spring $8.25. In the quarantine division 28 cars arrived, mostly low-grade mixed lots, a few straight droves of steers weighing up to 850 pounds around $6.25. Butcher cattle worked a little higher last week, some heavy grass cows today in car-load lots up to $7.00. Medium cows sell at $5.25 to $6.25, canners $4.50.

Stockers and Feeders.—Stocker and feeder trade last week was upwards of 25,000 cattle, biggest week of the season. The Panhandle country sent in a large number today, and best yearlings sold at $7.50 to $8.00, plainer stockers down to $6.75. A good many men from the east of us were here looking for steers for feeding, and paid $7.25 to $8.50 for steers weighing 900 to 1,250 pounds, some common feeders around $6.75.

Hogs. The supply fell short of the estimate, actual count showing 8,500 head today. Some sales were up 25 cents, top $10.70, bulk $10.15 to $10.65. A feature was the sale of 20 carloads of hogs consigned by Bob Miller, Mayetta, Kansas, which sold at $10.65 and $10.70. These were part of a drove of 5,000 stock hogs bought in Idaho last spring. Part of the reason for the recent big advance is that some of the packers were caught short, but legitimate trade demands are such as to insure a stable market somewhere near present levels for some time to come.

Sheep and Lambs. Short supplies and a strong demand are keeping the local market at a high range, as compared with other markets. Receipts today were 4,200 head, market 10 to 15 cents higher, Utah lambs at $11.25, natives $10.75, Colorado fat ewes $7.35. Feeding lambs bring very high prices, $9.25 to $9.75, and breeding ewes sell high, though a quarter lower than a week ago, ranging from $7.50 to $9.00 for young ewes, feeders $5.50 to $6.50.

OVERLAND MODEL 75-B WINS INTER-CITY RACE.

Roy Wright, of Cripple Creek, Colo., won the Cripple Creek Manitou road race in one hour, seven minutes and 36 seconds, driving a New Series Model 75-B Overland. His margin over the second car to finish was 32 seconds.

The race was run over a 36-mile road, which at times rose to an elevation of 10,000 feet above sea level.

The contest began with a steady climb up Ute Pass, negotiated in second and high speeds. It might be mentioned here that the Overland car never went into low gear after starting. Four Mile Hill, which next confronted the contestants, is a long, steady pull up a grade which varies from four to 17 per cent. Seven minutes was the time required to make this climb.

At the finish of the race the motor of the winning car was in excellent shape.

PILE FABRICS ARE MORE POPULAR THAN EVER BEFORE.

Miss Elizabeth West, who has just returned from the East, where she has been buying fall goods for Carter-Houston Dry Goods Company and has been studying the new season's styles, stated to a Herald representative this morning:

"The new season finds velours holding first place among fabrics. Rich tones, novelty effects and deep colorings summarize the fabric effects for fall. Pile fabrics are, if possible, more popular than ever. In lighter-weight fabrics, serges and poplins are very strong. Broadcloth and Bavaria cloth are used especially in separate coats.

"The suit jackets will be considerably longer than those for spring. The lengths receiving the most immediate attention are from thirty to thirty-six inches. Some styles call for longer coats, almost to knee length, and still a few others even longer coats. Many of the newer styles show a fitted tendency above the waist line. This, however, is not a decided rule, as many are cut without any waist line. All suit coats are full and flaring below the waist line, are in dark shades of negro brown, navy, plum, grey and black, and a return of Bergundy, which has been notably absent for several seasons. Suit skirts are usually cut on simple lines, as the longer coats do not permit the use of fancy skirts; pleats are sometimes used. The present vogue is for skirts an inch or two longer than the past season, for the reason that the boots have lower tops, in many novelty combinations of light upper with contrasting vamp, mostly in kid in combinations of tany and brown-grey combinations and black with white top prevail.

"The dress and costume fashions are conservative, and include a variety of styles, full skirts and overdresses and close-fitting bodices the foundation principles. For street wear, colors are dark, about the same shades as suits, while the brighter shades of coral, Belgian blue, rose, green and yellow are extensively used for evening gowns. In woolen materials, serge and poplin are the principal fabrics, while taffetas in plain and fancies are shown, as well as Georgette crepe, crepe de chine, with a greater use of satin-faced materials than for the past season. Charmeuse and crepe meteor are much used in silks.

"Sleeves are full-length style. Collars are principally low and square. Japanese effect is a new note. Many very pretty collars are shown in white broadcloth, both in collars and collar-and-cuff sets.

"The waists for this season are in flesh and white, as well as the dark suit shades, many plaids and stripes being shown. Sheer materials, with Georgette crepe as a leader, are given preference. Sleeves are full length. The new separate skirts are of conservative length. Plaids, stripes and many plain materials are being used.

"Corsets show few changes, the medium-high bust and medium-length skirt are prevailing features, while the close-fitting dresses call for an increased demand for snug-fitting brassiers of the hook-in-front type. Novelties are seen in many new and attractive designs, both leather and fabric bags, with prominence given to the envelope style.

"Women's neckwear is featured principally in large, low collars for suits and waists.

"Separate-coat styles show a greater length than last season. All types of utility and dress wear average from 45 to 48 inches. Sport coats are somewhat shorter, usually about knee length. In general, the separate-coat styles follow closely the suit-coat idea. They are varied and not governed by any particular rule. All coats, however, whether fitted, semi-fitted or loose, are cut very full and flaring, with wide sweep around the bottom, some being as much as five yards around the bottom. One of the most distinctive features of the new coat is the many and varied shapes of collars employed. Probably the most novel of these is the cape idea. Others are those that are made to softly roll and the military types, that stand straight up. The three-in-one collar is used on both separate and suit coats.

"Fall millinery tends to the large hat, while the smaller shapes are featured in many attractive styles.

"In fall gloves, kid in embroidered backs in contrasting stitching is popular. The big movement will be in white in combination with black.

"Fur trimming is exceedingly strong, as well as buttons. Fringe as well as wool embroidery is used in many of the dresses."

"La France" and "Texas Best"

It is with pleasure that we announce the receipt of a carload of these two well known flours. They have not been handled in Plainview before but their merits are well known throughout Texas and other states. We believe that you will appreciate this flour at the price we are able to offer it and we ask that you give it a trial. Remember that in doing so you are absolutely protected by the guarantee that every sack that you buy will be taken back on the mill's guarantee if it is not found to be entirely satisfactory. That's fair enough isn't it? All we ask is that you try it and then if it doesn't make good it costs you nothing.

If you need anything besides the flour you are assured that our grocery stock affords you the best of the season's selection and we are ready to emphasize the service back of the goods.

We Say To You

That it is our present effort to afford to all the good folks of Plainview a clean, cool, comfortable place where they may assemble for delicious drinks. With this in view we have provided new buffet tables and seats, electric fans and other conveniences which we combine with the best and most sanitary fountain service. We are now serving many new drinks to Plainview and ask both the ladies and gentlemen to test our service.

We have added fresh fruit and sheet music to our stock and are arranging for a complete offering in periodicals and newspapers. Our stock of cigars and tobaccos we are enlarging constantly and have just added a fine fresh line of King's Candies. Other goods will be added as rapidly as we become acquainted with the demands of our patrons.

We appreciate the patronage which we have received since we opened and will make every effort to merit a continuance of it.

ONE OF TEXAS' BIG PROBLEMS.

During the past decade Texas has made rapid progress in education, especially in the public school system. Splendidly equipped high schools have been developed in many of the cities and towns, and many rural communities have good high-school facilities. The million-dollar appropriation for rural schools has meant much in the development of our country schools, and in the course of time, if made a permanent policy, this plan will revolutionize our rural schools, by creating more interest, stimulating effort to improve, and by actual monetary aid.

But Texas institutions are in an embryonic state yet. That great school, the University of Texas, is a mere infant in development. Although it is larger than any other two state institutions in the South, although its enrollment compares favorably with any of the schools of the Middle West, Texas University is by no means the institution which Texas deserves. Its development is not intense, for its efficiency in the education of Texas youth must be considered in terms of the per cent of the people served.

Texas appropriates $187.60 per capita of students. It is low in the list of other state universities. Wisconsin, that giant of educational enterprises; Missouri, Illinois, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, and Kansas exceed Texas in per capita apportionment for their universities. Texas is ahead of Arkansas, Oklahoma and Nebraska. For want of better facilities, students at the University of Texas are studying in "shacks." But this in itself is reasonably pardonable, and the people of Texas will not long countenance such conditions. Rapid growth at Texas University has eclipsed development!

Texas' Agricultural and Mechanical College has been of untold benefit to Texas. It has meant improved conditions on Texas farms, better farm living and a more prosperous and contented people.

Our industrial schools, our great normals—adequate at this time to supply the demand for teachers—our schools fostered by the various churches and the private schools, are all growing and prospering, with but few exceptions; and these where the directors have misread the demand.

Interest in education in Texas is commendable, but one of Texas' big problems is that of education. We can't afford to be niggardly with our public schools and our universities.

TALENT FINDS ITS WAY.

We all have in mind men who have made good, who have risen from humble surroundings to positions of honor and trust. Generally these examples seem vague. The man or woman who accomplished the feat was a person of extraordinary ability.

Interesting close-at-hand examples of talent finding its way from the farm to high academic positions are furnished in our own University of Texas. Dr. George W. Pierce, Professor of Physics in Harvard, registered from Bastrop, Bastrop County; Dr. Donald Cameron, Professor of Latin, Boston University, from Wheelock, Robertson County; W. S. Hunter, Professor of Psychology, Kansas University, Saginaw, Tarrant County, and numerous other instances. Elbert Naugle, winner of the Rhoades scholarship last year, was a country boy.

There's opportunity for every boy and girl of talent who will apply himself or herself. Talent finds its way.

Young man, you owe it to yourself to at least try. You are probably hoping and wishing that at some future time you will be in position to attend a college or university, even if the opportunity does not clearly show itself now. If through the parents you have the opportunity to go, seize it. If that opportunity is denied you, make an opportunity. Go on half an opportunity. You can afford almost any kind of sacrifice to secure an education. Take a chance. If you have talent it will show itself; if you haven't, what harm is done?

THE AWAKENING OF THE WEST.

It is proposed to hold a meeting, probably in Fort Worth, of all members of the Legislature from counties west of the ninety-eighth meridian and of other interested persons from that territory for the purpose of formulating plans for a campaign to obtain from the Thirty-fifth Legislature an appropriation for a branch Agricultural and Mechanical College to be located in West Texas.

By bringing strong pressure to bear upon the committees on platform and resolutions at the Houston convention of the Democratic Party the West Texas people had a plank incorporated in the party platform demanding the creation of such an institution, and it is now proposed to see to it that the Legislature carries out the party pledge.

The proposal has more significance than appears upon the surface. It evinces a determination on the part of the people of West Texas to obtain the college, to be sure, but to the observer of the trend of things in recent sessions of the Legislature it evinces more than that. It means that West Texas is getting ready to assert her rights in the law-making body of the State.

It has long been evident that this vast section of our State has peculiar needs which are relatively of little importance to other sections which are more populous and which have reached a greater degree of development. It also has been evident that many members of the Legislature from other sections have been inclined to pay very little attention to those needs. It will be remembered that the bounty bill met with determined opposition from certain East Texas representatives at the regular session of the Thirty-fourth Legislature, and the cry of "My people don't want anything like that" was distinctly heard as a valid objection. Of course, the bill passed, but it developed the fact that West Texas might expect opposition to demands for legislation peculiarly adapted to her needs, and, moreover, it served to prove also that West Texas can fight, if need be.

The particular issue involved in that case, and the particular issue involved in this demand for an A. & M. College, are not of consequence compared with the bigger fact that while abhorring anything that savors of sectionalism, West Texas is getting ready to battle for her needs against the sectionalism of members from other parts of the State.

The whole of Texas, we believe is approaching an era of development which will transcend anything like it in the past. West Texas and the Panhandle especially will witness marvelous development during the next decade. In many cases it probably will be found that legislation will be needed in connection with this development. It can be reasonably expected that West Texas will need certain legislation which will benefit her citizens to a greater degree than it will those of other sections. A fair recognition of this condition would prompt the representatives of other sections to assist in obtaining this. West Texas always has gladly joined in enacting measures designed to aid in developing Texas, irrespective of the fact that the bulk of the benefit went to other sections. Her representatives never have been deterred by a narrow sectionalism. What sectionalism there has been has come from other parts of the State and has been directed against West Texas.

But West Texas is waking up. She intends to assert her rights henceforward. That, as we see it, is the chief significance of the proposed meeting of the West Texas members of the Legislature. The indomitable spirit of the West will be felt at Austin, and a greater development of the entire State will follow.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

ONLY A DAD.

Only a dad with a tired face,
Coming home from the daily race,
Bringing little gold or fame
To show how well he has played the game,
But glad in his heart that his own rejoice
To see him come and to hear his voice.

Only a dad of a brood of four,
One of ten million men or more,
Plodding along in the daily strife,
Bearing the whips and scorns of life
With never a whimper of pain or hate,
For the sake of those who at home await.

Only a dad, neither rich nor proud,
Merely one of the surging crowd,
Tolling, striving, from day to day,
Facing whatever may come his way;
Silent whenever the harsh condemn,
And bearing it all for the love of them.

Only a dad, but he gives his all
To smooth the way for his children small.

Doing with courage stern and grim
The deeds that his father did for him;
This is the line for him I pen,
Only a dad, but the best of men.

McGILLIVRAY-MORGAN.

mony. Rev. T. B. Haynie, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, performed the ring ceremony.

The bride was gowned in white satin. A garland of lilies of the valley was wreathed around her brow and a bridal veil fell in delicate folds over her shoulders. In her arms she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and white rose buds. The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Mary McGillivray.

Mrs. R. V. Muse, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Cinda and Murt McGillivray. Little McGillivray Muse was ring bearer and Rosalie Muse flower girl.

The groom's attendant was Edwin Kerr, best man.

Baskets of white roses were appropriately arranged in artistic simplicity throughout the church.

Just before the ceremony, Mrs. W. A. Todd sang, with soft and charming effectiveness, the Scotch marriage song, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden," and during the ceremony Miss Scudder played, sweet and low, "Annie Laurie."

One of the most elaborate social events of the early fall season was the garden party given by Mesdames J. F. Garrison, J. M. Adams, H. C. McIntyre, E. T. Coleman and C. W. Tandy on the lawn at the Tandy home.

The party was given complimentary to Mrs. William Cooke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tandy, and to meet Miss Lillie Halbert, of Coleman, who is the guest of Mrs. McIntyre and Mrs. Adams.

The lawn was made pretty with golden and brown decorations, carrying out the autumn effect, and in the refreshments the colors of gold and brown were effectively used. Various autumn blossoms adorned the lawn, and made a brilliant setting for such a delightful affair. From out the windows came floating on the air the strains of sweet music, contributed by Misses Laura Knupp and Myra Morris. A number of times during the afternoon they played "Dixie," and were each time heavily applauded.

In addition, an hour was given for the amusement of the little folks, which proved to be the drawing card of the afternoon and was thoroughly enjoyed by the grown-ups as well as the youngsters.

Then they were taken to the lawn, which was brilliantly lighted with Japanese lanterns and where merriment pervaded throughout the evening. Music and conversation gave pleasure. Punch was served during the evening from a large punch bowl placed on the lawn, and was presided over by Miss Patty Dalton. Little Lucile Routh passed the favors.

Potted plants artistically arranged gave additional charm to the lawn. For the evening, yellow was the favored color.

Motor News of General Interest

HINTS TO CAR OWNERS.

If you have detachable wheels, remember that the metal parts may rust every time you change a wheel, cover the metal contact surfaces with grease, otherwise the detachable wheel will no longer be detachable.

Should a valve spring break and no extra spring be available, do not despair. A metal washer with a hole larger than the valve stem should be placed between the two parts of the spring. This prevents them coiling around each other, and so will serve until a new spring can be obtained.

Do not test the storage battery with a screwdriver. You will get a big spark, which may lead you to believe there is plenty of current left. As a matter of fact, the spark is the result of a discharge, and so most of the current is gone. Always use a hydrometer for testing. The figures are easy to remember: 1275 charged, 1175 discharged. These figures are correct for all starting, lighting and ignition batteries.

If you suspect carburetor trouble, try the following test: Run your car at closed throttle for two blocks. Choose a moment when there is a clear space ahead and suddenly press accelerator pedal all the way down. The motor should pick up smoothly to as high a speed as you care to run. If motor chokes, stalls, misses explosions or labors or gives backfire at carburetor or muffler explosions it shows the carburetor is out of adjustment.

If springs squeak badly and you have no time to separate the leaves and grease them properly, try the following: Pour enough kerosene over them so that some of it will run in between the leaves. At the same time wipe off all dirt. Then wipe off the kerosene and pour oil on top, guiding it down the sides of the leaves. It follows the kerosene in between the leaves and usually stops the squeak.

OVER HALF MILLION CARS IN ONE YEAR.

July 31 the Ford Motor Company completed its 1915-16 year, with a production of 533,921 cars. This volume of output and its distribution mark an achievement without any parallel in the history of the automobile industry. The building and distribution of these half million cars has brought a proportionate growth in every department of the Ford institution, and this enlargement culminated in the opening August 1 of new direct company branches in twenty-eight of the larger cities of the United States. When the Detroit factory established a goal of 500,000 cars August 1, 1915, the Ford Company had completed a production for 1914-15 of 300,000 cars and shared over $15,000,000 with their retail buyers. Now the year recently closed has again seen the fulfillment of predictions, in spite of an increase of 66 2-3 per cent in the market over the output of the previous twelve months.

To build these cars the number of employees at the parent Ford factory has been increased to more than 33,000 at the present time, while the pay rolls of the branch factories and branches have grown to more than 12,000 names.

The quantities of raw material entering into a half million production of Ford cars are beyond the grasp of the average individual. First, there is 200,000 tons of vanadium steel heat treated by special Ford processes, 2,000,000 tons each of wheels and tires, 51,950,250 square feet of rubber cloth material in the tops, 2,587,500 square feet of plate glass in the windshields, with other stock in proportion. The volume of these materials has brought about methods in their handling and manufacturing operations which have worked distinctive Ford savings in production cost, and these, combined with new methods of distribution, have made possible the remarkable reductions in Ford prices announced August 1.

No official announcement has yet been made of the proposed production for the ensuing year.

SMASHES RECORDS IN WEST.

Ray F. McNamara, piloting a Maxwell car, recently made some remarkable records on the Western Coast, adding to the reputation this make has established for all-around efficiency.

He broke all speed records in a run from Spokane to Seattle in a stock Maxwell roadster. The elapsed time for this run was eleven hours, fifty-five train schedule between these points by minutes. The Maxwell bettered the more than an hour and lowered the former automobile record by five hours.

McNamara averaged thirty-two miles an hour across the desert lands of Eastern Washington. He crossed the dangerous Blewitt Pass in the Wenatchee Mountains and the Snoqualmie Pass in the Cascades after midnight and arrived in Seattle early in the morning.

This record run was checked officially by the newspapers of Spokane and Washington.

RIVERS OF GASOLINE.

We will consume, in this country, this year almost 2,000,000,000 gallons of gasoline; which is the equivalent of a stream six feet wide and one foot deep flowing at the rate of one mile an hour. Five years ago gasoline retailed at 35 cents in England and from 40 to 75 cents on the Continent, and there are those who even predict 40-cent gasoline here some day. Recent improvements in refining have considerably increased the percentage of gasoline extracted, and inventors are confident of perfecting carburetors which will use kerosene; but for the present we are confronted with a decrease in the gasoline content of the older oil wells, and an insufficient capacity in the refining plants. Our exports, however, of gasoline in 1915 were considerably less than in 1914, although more crude oil was sent abroad. There is also a strong probability that, with the reconstruction and resumption of business abroad at the close of the war, consumption there will be much greater than now. Horses will be scarce and time will be everything, and the motor car and truck will receive a great impetus. Just how long the present oil wells will continue to produce, or when and where new oil fields will be discovered, no one can say with certainty. Before that day arrives, however, it is fair to expect that chemists will have found some substitute, or inventors a method of making one gallon do the work of more.—H. H. Windsor, in the September Popular Mechanics Magazine.

A Minneapolis hotel keeper recently bought a Ford car with buffalo nickels that he had saved in three years.

The High-Gear Performer on America's Hardest Hills

Boston—Corey Hill on high, 27 miles an hour at the top.

Cincinnati—Clifton Hill on high, 30 miles an hour at the top.

Kansas City—Hospital Hill on high, 38 miles an hour at the top.

Denver—Lookout Mountain, on high all the way, reaching 7,800 feet elevation.

IF YOU are looking for high-gear hill-climbing to prove power and performance—here are specific Hupmobile instances.

Dealers report them from demonstrations.

If they sound extraordinary, permit us to remind you that to Hupmobile owners they will merely confirm their own every-day experiences.

Hills that are Play for the Hupmobile

Boston motorists regard the Beacon street side of Corey Hill as their worst climb. Few cars, even with a running start, hold high gear to the top.

C. E. Jeffery, Jr., says his favorite demonstration is to come down the hill, turn at the bottom, and at this slow speed start back on high. The car is usually traveling 27 miles an hour when it tops the rise.

Hills encircle Cincinnati, and Clifton Avenue is one of the longest.

In demonstrating, Fred T. Larson drives the Hupmobile half way up at 30 miles; cuts the speed to 15 miles; and picks up again to 30 miles, finishing at that gait—without shifting gears.

Hospital Hill on high. The Hupmobile does; and W. C. Howard, the dealer there, says a hurricane must be blowing against the car any time it fails to clear the top at 38 miles an hour.

Omaha reports a brick paved test hill, 20 per cent rise, a block long. The Hupmobile, carrying five passengers and registering seven miles an hour at the bottom, skims it on high gear.

Thousands of tourists know how the Lookout Mountain trip in Colorado tests the high-gear power and the cooling efficiency of motor cars.

High Gear All the Way on Lookout Mountain

The Denver dealer regularly makes this trip—to Idaho Springs and return—without shifting gears or taking on water. The climb is 2300 feet; the greatest elevation 7800 feet.

Think what this means, when each 1,000-foot rise robs an automobile motor of about 3 1/2 per cent of its efficiency.

Is there any reason why Hupmobile owners should envy the performance of other types?

11,000 Owners Rate Efficiency at 99%

In other directions—pick-up, flexibility, smoothness and steadiness of the motor action—Hupmobile performance is equally good.

Eleven thousand owners give the car an efficiency rating of 99 per cent.

You begin to see now why 50 8/10 per cent of Hupmobile owners will have no other car. Why 24 2/10 of our owners come from the ranks of those who have owned costlier cars and cars with more cylinders.

They prefer the Hupmobile, because it does all they expect of a car; and because the Hupmobile coupon service system has shown them the value, in dollars and cents, of expert, definite service.

This system assures them—without a penny of cost—skilled care for their cars each month and eight monthly inspections of every unit of their cars. They pay with coupons supplied free of cost.

PLAINVIEW TO ENTERTAIN SINGING CONVENTION SUNDAY.

Sunday, at the Church of Christ, the Hale County Singing Convention will convene all day. The convention has not been held in Plainview recently, and the committee, W. B. Lewis, R. M. Peace and L. W. Sloneker, is making every effort to make this the most pleasant and profitable meeting of the year. They have arranged to have several distinguished visitors, as well as a full representation from the various classes of the county.

The feature of most interest perhaps will be the county-banner class contest, in the afternoon. A real town "country" dinner will be served all visitors.

DROUTH-RESISTING NATURE OF PLAINS CROPS A SURPRISE.

B. M. Johnson, a prominent farmer and stockman living near Hale Center, was in Plainview yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. Johnson. According to Mr. Johnson, crops in the Hale Center country are fairly good. There will be lots of feed despite the dry weather. With the inch-and-a-half rain which fell Saturday and Sunday, a feed crop is assured. Mr. Johnson moved from one of the Northern States to the South Plains. The drowth-resisting nature of the sorghum grains in this section is a surprise to him.

M. is, but I'm feared they's some mistake about it, fer judgin' from the time he gits down to breakfast, he behaves like a P. M. ter me."

Three hundred thousand sets of license plates have been ordered for New York State. They will be olive and white, the olive for the back-ground.
