ANNUAL THANKSGIVING SERVICE AT BAPTIST CHURCH IMPRESSIVE; FINE MUSICAL PROGRAM

A twelve-piece orchestra, together with the talented vocalists of the town, made perfect the musical program at the Thanksgiving services at the Baptist Church yesterday.

The invocation, by Rev. A. B. Roberts, was followed with a vocal solo by Miss Donnell. Following the reading of the President's Thanksgiving Proclamation, by Miss Patti Thrash, was a quartet by Mrs. J. J. Clark, Miss Lucy Story, Mrs. R. E. Meyers and Mrs. Grady Pipkin. Just before the Scripture reading, by Rev. J. W. Story, Prof. R. M. Crabb played a violin solo. Following the Scripture reading, Mrs. Grady Gentry gave a vocal solo, the 91st Psalm. Every part of the program was highly appreciated.

The sermon, "Our Thanksgiving," was preached by Rev. Henry Hagemeyer, pastor of the First Christian Church. His text was Eph. 5:20: "Giving thanks for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ."

Said the minister: "Today, in the midst of the world's greatest calamity, strife, suffering and poverty, we, as the only nation at peace, stand in the presence of the most high God to offer our thanksgiving for the peace and prosperity that has been ours for the past year. And, as we thus stand, I almost feel that it is in the same spirit that the Pharisee went into the temple to pray:

"And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:

"Two men went up into the temple to pray: the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

"The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

"I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.

"And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

"I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted."

"This is Thanksgiving season in America. There are many reasons, from the purely selfish viewpoint, why we should be thankful. We are rich, we are prosperous, we are adding to our resources daily, while our less fortunate neighbors are becoming impoverished and are piling up a mountain of debt for themselves and their posterity.

"Moreover, we have made progress during the past year, in at least the externals of morality and religion. All the American churches show great gains, both in membership and in gifts. In the Nation at large, the general elections show victories for temperance and sobriety which are peculiarly gratifying. We have much to be thankful for, we American Christians of the year 1916.

"We are wondering, in fact, whether a good, many Thanksgiving prayers will not run after this fashion:

"God, I thank thee that America is not as the other nations are, that we have been highly preserved and are saving our money while Europe is running in debt. We are a peaceful and moral people in America. We have put the saloons out of seven states this year and have shaken up some of the others. We have given a few hundred thousands of dollars to Armenia and a few millions to Belgium out of the billions which we have added to our capital during the last twelve months. We have not fasted much this year nor have we given tithes, but we have been reasonably generous—for us. God, we thank thee that we are not like the European peoples, killing each other in the trenches and destroying all the capital which their ancestors handed down to them. We thank thee that we are prudent, thrifty folk, with an eye to the main chance. We shall feast and make merry today, while millions of people are starving in Armenia and China. We thank thee, O God, that we are not as they are, nor even as those people in Germany who have no meat to eat and who cook the potato skins for food. We are grateful, O Lord, that we have so much while they have so little."

"And afar off in the European trenches there is heard the cry of a Saxon youth or a French peasant saying only 'War is awful—we have lost all; God be merciful to us!'"

"Which nation will stand justified in the last great assize of history? We are not criticising our failure to enter the conflict. But we are criticising that smug and selfish complacency which makes it possible to thrive off the misery of others and do so little to relieve that misery. We have voted to expend over six hundred millions of dollars to forge implements for fighting our neighbors, when a tithe of that sum honestly and judiciously applied to binding up the wounds of the war would have been better protection to us than the whole amount expended for military purposes. In Armenia there is not left, we are told, a male child over thirteen years of age. Look at Poland, Serbia and Mexico! With what this strife has cost we could have placed a school in every city and endowed it.

"This is Thanksgiving Day in America. Will it be a day of selfish rejoicing or of humble contrition mingled with profound gratitude for great blessings which have been undeserved? Are we going to stand out today as the Pharisee among the nations? Great blessings inevitably carry with them great responsibilities. Great wealth means heavy judgment if that wealth is not properly used. The mission of America to other nations should be to serve and to help rather than to exploit and to destroy.

"More prayers are going up to the throne of the Almighty today than ever before in human history. Some of them are prayers of hatred and malediction. Some of them are prayers of selfish national and racial interest. Some of them are mere cries in the awful darkness of human suffering and wretchedness. Some are prayers of contrition and repentance. It is a time of prayer, and of prayer of every sort and condition.

"Among all these prayers, where will the American Thanksgiving prayer be found? Will it be a prayer couched in the spirit of contrition or will it be one of boastful self-gratulation? Do the sufferings and woe of others weigh upon us so that their burden becomes, as it ought to become, if we are Christians, our burden, or shall we play the part of the priest and the Levite as well as of the Pharisee and pass by on the other side?"

"It has been said many times that prosperity is more dangerous to the soul than adversity. Riches damn more people, in all likelihood, than does poverty. This is what Jesus seems to have meant when he said 'Blessed are ye poor.' Maeterlinck remarked, in his own beautiful way, the other day, that Belgium had lost everything, but had saved her soul. Is there any danger that America may gain everything else and lose her soul?"

"At any rate, the problem is one which is worth thinking about this Thanksgiving Day of 1916.

"Let not our prayers stamp us as the Pharisee among the nations of the earth.

"Two went up to pray? Oh, rather say,

One went to brag, the other to pray; One stands up close, and treads on high

Where the other dares not lend his eye; One nearer to God's altar trod, The other to the altar's God."

"Our President asks us today to thank God for our peace and prosperity, and again I think of our gain of millions in blood money in the past year—and this we call prosperity! Haven't our millions in loans and our munitions of war made with our own hands helped to bring about death and woe to our brothers over the ocean? Let us pray today to God for forgiveness.

"Our fathers had an occasion for true thanksgiving. What a real and notable thanksgiving was the thanksgiving of our forefathers on the New England shores in 1821! After their first year of hardship and trial they were thankful for preservation. In comparison, what have we suffered?"

A Thanksgiving Poem.

1. Let us praise our God for this day and hour, Set apart for praise by one in power, And called upon now our voices to raise To render to God, thanksgiving and praise.

2. May the Holy Spirit anoint us today, And God's name honored in all we may say; Our praises spring from the depth of our heart, And each one blest who shall take any part.

3. Let us praise our God for this Nation of ours, The greatest among all earthly powers; For the greatest man, at the head of the same— Woodrow Wilson, we call him, by name.

4. God has said, when the righteous rule The people rejoice, and their barns are full, This truly obtains in this land of ours; Then let us praise God with all our powers.

5. Happy the nation whose God is the Lord; Thrice happy they who obey His word. For you must remember that true thanksgiving Is measured only by true thanks-giving.

6. If we live as we thank, and thank as we live, We will have thanksgiving each day to give. One day of our life we need not to miss; Then keep this Thanksgiving, in a land of bliss.

7. Let us sing the song of angels till then; Praise God in the highest, good will toward men. If this we will do, and act what we sing, Untold blessings to men we will bring.

8. Let us praise God in sermon, also in song— In hearing, in conduct—all the day long! Then when Thanksgiving Day we have spent, We will have no regrets of which to repent.

9. May peace and plenty always prevail, As under Old Glory our ship we sail, Till we reach the harbor beyond the tide, Where songs of praise forever abide.

SKULL IS FRACTURED BUT THOMAS HAS FIGHTING CHANCE

Ford Turns Over When Wheel Gives Way, Painfully and Seriously Injuring Driver.

While hunting yesterday, near Olton, E. C. Thomas received injuries which may prove fatal. He was driving a Ford car and one of the wheels crushed in, overturning the car and pinning him underneath. One of the party, ahead of him came back to his rescue and lifted the car from him. A physician was summoned and he was brought to Plainview.

Both upper and lower jawbones are broken, and his skull fractured. He was unconscious from effects of his injuries, and bled profusely from the wounds and through the ears.

The car he was driving had just been purchased by him a few days ago from Dr. E. O. Nichols. He was driving alone at the time of the accident.

Mr. Thomas is single and a brother of C. B. Thomas. He is now at the Plainview Sanitarium, and Dr. Nichols, who is attending him, states that there is some chance for his recovery, although his injuries are very serious.

The building was insured for $1,500 and contents for $750.

IT IS THOUGHT THAT DAIRY COWS WERE SHIPPED MONDAY

Quarantine Will Not Affect Importation of Holsteins, Is Opinion of John Lucas, Santa Fe Agent.

Letters to C. E. Moore's family from him state that the dairy cows purchased for Hale County farmers by J. L. Johnson, of the Santa Fe Railway Co.; C. O. Moser, of Dallas County, and C. E. Moore, president of the South Plains Dairy Association, were to have been shipped last Monday. Mrs. Moore states this morning that she expects Mr. Moore to arrive today or tomorrow with the cattle.

Some apprehension has been entertained by men who have cows in the shipment, fearing that the quarantine Texas has placed against Missouri, Kansas, Iowa and Nebraska might prevent the immediate arrival of the stock. John Lucas, Santa Fe agent, states that it is his understanding that any shipment originating in an unquarantined state may be shipped through quarantined states, if not unloaded. This intelligence seems to indicate that the stock may arrive in due time, without being held upon account of the foot-and-mouth disease flurry.

SUBSTITUTES FOR KAFFIR SOUGHT—SORGHUMS TOO HIGH

A. & M. College Animal Husbandry Expert Says Rice Polish and Bran Cheaper Than Milo Chops.

The high prices being paid for milo maize and kaffir corn and other feed-stuffs has caused investigation of feeding costs. E. C. Lamb, owner of the Helen-Temple Farm, has a large herd of hogs. Finding kaffir and milo chops at prevailing prices to high to feed with maximum profit, he sought information as to cost of other feeds. Taking up the matter with Dr. R. F. Hare, inquiry as to findings of the animal husbandry department of Texas A. & M. College has been made.

Rice Polish Cheap Feed.

Dr. Hare is in receipt of a communication from Jno. C. Burns, beef cattle expert with the animal husbandry department, in which the writer states: "Rice polish is slightly higher in feeding value, pound for pound, than milo chops, and rice bran of good quality is equal to milo chops. Hence, at $1.25 per 100 pounds either of these feeds would be much cheaper than milo chops at $1.90 per hundred pounds.

Polish and Bran Should Be Pure.

"In buying rice polish you can usually count on its being pure, but not so in the case of rice bran, as it is often adulterated with rice hulls, which not only possess no feeding value, but may often prove injurious, if contained in large quantity. Therefore, in purchasing rice bran, attention should be given to analyses. Pure rice bran should analyze not less than 11 per cent protein, 10 per cent fat, and not over fifteen per cent crude fibre.

Must Be Balanced With Other Feed.

"Rice bran and rice polish are commonly substituted for such feeds as corn, milo, kaffir, etc., and should be balanced up with other feeds in much the same way. Of course, a change to rice bran and rice polish should be made gradually, as should be the case in changing to any new feed. Otherwise, scouring and digestive disorders may result.

Rice Bran Not Best in Summer.

"Rice bran, on account of its high content of oil, does not make a very satisfactory feed after hot weather begins, and as it becomes rancid, and in this condition animals do not relish it so well and it deteriorates somewhat in feeding value. During cold weather it makes quite a satisfactory feed. We are using both rice bran and rice polish very extensively at present in rations for hogs."

Use of Jack Rabbit As Food Urged by Commissioner Davis

The latest attempt to popularize the jack rabbit for table use is made by the Department of Agriculture of the State of Texas. In a letter to the press of Texas, Commissioner Fred W. Davis sets forth the fact that for many years Australian rabbits have been canned and shipped extensively to England. His letter is an invitation to a Jack Rabbit Dinner to be held at the Driskill Hotel, in Austin, December 6, at one o'clock. Says Mr. Davis: "The rabbits of Texas, and especially the jack rabbits, have long been considered pests, but this department of late has undertaken to popularize them for table use. The investigations have disclosed that in many parts of the world the rabbit is already considered as a table food. Australian rabbits are canned and shipped extensively to England, Canada and other places."

Produce houses are now quoting prices on dressed jack rabbits, the demand for which on city markets, at good prices, is almost surprising.

Many reports are received a large bags of rabbits brought in by local hunters. Wednesday morning Jas. Young, F. K. Young and Jim Young hunted from nine o'clock in the morning to three in the afternoon, killing seventy-two rabbits.

CLARENDON HAS CLEAR TITLE TO PANHANDLE CHAMPIONSHIP

Wins From Wayland College While Score of 14-6; Season's Best Game in Plainview.

Having gone through an undefeated season and having played every team in the Panhandle Intercollegiate Athletic Association, Clarendon College has a clear title to the Panhandle championship. Her victory on the Wayland College field yesterday afternoon cinched the title.

With a line that averaged more than 160 pounds, Clarendon held the light Wayland eleven twice when they were dangerously near the goal. To a good heavy line and combination line-backs and broken field playing Clarendon owes her victory, for it is conceded that in handling the forward pass and in broken field running Wayland played a more spectacular and a better game than the visitors.

Clarendon drew the kick-off, and Wayland chose the south field, forcing Goodwin to kick against the wind. His punt for 35 yards is returned ten. Willis, for Wayland, makes eleven yards around end on the first down.

On a fake formation, Kiker makes two yards around end. Blakemore's eight-yard gain through the line puts ball in play on first down, ten to go. The first down shows a gain of four yards, and Willis carries ball for necessary six. A penalty of fifteen yards assessed on Clarendon for interfering with player attempting to receive forward pass places ball on twenty-yard line. By cleverly dodging, Hanks Blakemore advances the ball four yards. Kiker goes through the line for another four. An untimely penalty of five yards for off-side play is assessed against Wayland, but gain of eight yards gives Wayland first down. Willis carries the ball to within five yards of the goal, and with three downs and only five yards to make it seems that Wayland is to score first. On second down the ball advances two yards. Kiker goes through the line for another yard. On fourth down Kiker holds ball within six inches of the coveted goal.

In possession of the ball for the first time, Clarendon plows up the field. The first down nets four yards, a five-yard penalty being deducted from the nine-yard gain for off-side play. Aعر races through a broken field for sixteen yards. Goodwin follows with a seven-yard advance. Aعر is thrown for a half-yard loss. On third down Goodwin gains five. A series of line plunges are of no avail, and on fourth down Clarendon punts. Wayland gets the ball with sixty-five yards to goal. The first down shows loss, and on second Wayland punts. The first quarter ends with Clarendon in possession of the ball on her seventy-yard line.

Second Quarter.

Failing to gain through the line, Clarendon resorts to forward passes. A forward pass, being touched, is anybody's ball. Clarendon recovers. On first down Clarendon punts, and Wayland gets the ball. Kiker goes through the line for four yards. Willis and Hannah are thrown with no gain. The ball is in play on fourth down thirteen yards from Clarendon's goal. Receiving Wayland's punt, Clarendon seesaws ball across field, and on fourth down punts. On fourth down Wayland punts. Clarendon receiving. On third down an eleven-yard gain gives Clarendon another chance. Within twenty-eight yards of their goal a four-yard gain is made. The C. C. backs are in motion before ball was in play, and five-yard penalty is assessed. Goodwin tries for a field goal, missing by inches. With the ball in play on the twenty-yard line, Hannah, for Wayland, carries ball two yards through line, and on next attempt goes out of bounds. Ball is carried in-field. With three minutes to play, Willis goes through line six yards. On fourth down Wayland's punt is blocked, and ball goes back for safety, but Clarendon is assessed a penalty of fifteen yards for holding. Foul being committed when neither side possesses ball, Clarendon is given possession with first down. Wayland substitutes Jones for Blakemore at Center. On third down Clarendon punts to goal, and Wayland comes into possession on twenty-yard line. Wayland recovers a fumble on first down. Half ends after second down, which is for 10 gain.

Second Half.

On kick-off Wayland puts the ball to the post, and chooses to place it on twenty-yard line rather than kick

Needlework—Part 9. Lesson 43.
In our last lesson I gave you descriptions of several materials, among them crash, of which you might make a very nice school bag, which I told you would be given you for experimental work this week. Refer to last week's lesson for the questions bearing on the bag, and see how many paid proper attention to these details.

School Bag.
Most girls like to have a school bag in which to carry their books and supplies to and from school. With the practice you have now had, you can make a school bag which will be a creditable piece of work and which will serve you well.

Materials.—Piece of linen-colored crash, denim, or plain blue galatea cloth 15 by 36 inches; No. 50 thread; No. 8 needle; 2 yards tape or cord; tape measure.

Cutting.—Straighten edges of material by drawing thread.

Folding.—Measure down from end at right-hand side 4 1/4 inches. Mark. Measure same at left-hand side. Mark. Fold two ends together, taking care that the corners are exactly even. Put a pin at the 4 1/4-inch mark to hold in place. We are now to make a seam.

Seams.—A seam is used to join two pieces of materials. There are many kinds of seams. This is to be what is called a plain seam.

Basting.—Begin at the folded end and baste with even basting 1/4 inch from edge. Fasten by taking one or two stitching stitches over each other. Take care to keep the basting straight. Baste the other side in the same manner.

Sewing.—Sew just below the basting, using the stitching stitch, sometimes called back stitch. This is a strong stitch used where there is much strain, and may be substituted for machine stitching.

Finishing.—Overcast the two edges together. Take the stitches about one-eighth-inch deep and 1/4 inch apart. Proceed in same manner with other side. A plain seam is the simplest way of joining two pieces of material. Overcasting is one of the three ways of finishing a plain seam. It should be used on articles that do not require much laundering.

Opening.—Begin at top of side openings and turn one-eighth-inch hem. Baste and hem, taking two or three overhand stitches at bottom of opening to keep it from tearing down.

Finishing Top.—Measure down from top 1/4 inch on right-hand side, then measure down from top 1/4 inch on left-hand side, fold and crease. Measure down from crease 2 inches. Fold and crease. This makes a two-inch hem. Baste into place and hem. Take care to make corners firm and neat. Proceed in same manner with other side.

Casing for Drawstring.—Measure down from top 1 1/4 inches. Crease, or mark by putting in a line with uneven basting. Take two or three overhand stitches at end of this line to hold edges together and sew along the line with running stitch. Finish with two or three overhand stitches. Proceed in same manner with other side.

Draw String.—Cut cord or tape into two equal pieces. Run one string in from each side of the bag, allowing the loose ends of each string to come out at opposite sides. Tie ends of draw string together. Remove bastings. Press the bag and turn bag right side out.

THE HOME ECONOMICS CLUBS.

little club girls to see me for the last time and to look at their pretty ribbons adorning their jars of fruit. Tonight I packed everything, and by tomorrow night I will be in Corpus Christi unpacking everything for the Gulf Coast Exposition, down there. I am glad so many of the girls won the nice prizes they did. There are several prizes to be awarded, and I am sure the girls of this section of the State and the South Plains girls will carry off many honors from the Gulf Coast Exposition.

Now, we will settle down to club work after the Corpus Christi fair is over and plan to make our club exhibits bigger and better for next year. I will plan to see the most of my old clubs in county conventions right after Christmas, and we will be ready for club reports. Begin now to keep a record of what you have done. I have heard so many nice reports during the Cotton Palace! I wish you all could have seen the exquisite needle work that we had on exhibition. It was perfectly beautiful.

I am not going to write you a very long letter this time, as I am very tired. Please take your sewing lessons with an interest and try to apply all the lessons that you get in your club work at home. You don't know how happy it makes me feel when the dear good mothers tell me how much help their little daughters are since they have joined the club. This is the way I want you to be.

Mr. Austin, who gave us the beautiful cabinet from the Hubb Furniture Co., of Fort Worth, was in the booth last Monday, and he was so glad to hear that the girls had been so interested in the cabinet contest. He took a copy of the paper telling about it. I know Maurine Burke, who won it, is going to take nice care of it.
With lots of love,
Cordially yours,
MRS. J. L. LANDRUM.

Overland
Automobiles

Which Do You Prefer?

Pullman or Freight?

No one would think of riding in a freight car if he could enjoy the comfort of a big, comfortable easy riding Pullman parlor car.

So with automobiles. Most of the popular priced cars ride like freight cars. This is due to the old fashioned type of spring.

Many manufacturers still continue to use them.

The Overland does not. The 75 B Overland has the latest type of cantilever shock absorbing springs. As a result it is one of the easiest riding cars in the world. One demonstration will prove this. $635 f. o. b. Toledo.

COST OF FEED A PROBLEM.

For the stockman the cost of feed this winter is a serious problem. With milo maize and kaffir chops selling at $2.35 and threshed grain bringing the producer $2.00 per hundred, Indian corn chops and shelled grain at $2.25, and cotton-seed cake at $48 per ton, many stockmen are perplexed as to the best feeding methods. Feeding on a large scale is hazardous. Satisfactory substitutes are sought for the sorghums and for other high feeds. In years of average crops the country over milo maize, kaffir corn and cotton-seed meal and cake are considered staple feeds, but when they course with the high cost of living, some of the substitutes, too high normally, are more profitable to feed. The investigation being made by Dr. R. F. Hare, county agent, for satisfactory substitutes should be of service to stockmen of this section.

SCAT—A POST-ELECTION EDITORIAL.

Take the witness chair, if you please, Mr. Straw Vote. Never mind stating your name and occupation. You haven't any occupation, and as to your identity, we recognize you as the same Straw Vote who came into the Star office two years ago with your hat over one eye and your thumbs in your armpits and told us Henry Allen was going to be elected Governor of Kansas.

You have been going about the country the last few weeks pretending to have some information about the election. You had letters of introduction from the New York Herald, the Literary Digest, Colonel Harvey, the Sunday School superintendent and your local banker and used them to establish a confidence which you afterwards basely betrayed. You said you had been all through Ohio, Indiana, New York, California, North Dakota, Washington and in all the states presumed to be pivotal. You said you had talked to the farmers, business men, railroad men, with women voters, the first voters, the voters who had never voted anything but the Republican ticket and the voters who had never voted anything but the Democratic ticket, and you pretended that on the basis of this information you knew how the election was going.

You told the New York Herald that New York was going for Wilson, and made a monkey out of that newspaper. It printed your information as news. Not only that, it patted itself on the head about it. You also told that respectable family paper that Wisconsin was going for Wilson. It took your word for it. Aren't you ashamed of yourself, with white paper the price it is?

Nor is that the worst of your offending. Do you know what you have done to Col. George Harvey? Do you know that he has had an unsullied and unspotted reputation for predicting election results for the last hundred years? And now look at his reputation—all spotted. He read your false, smooth stuff, you cold-blooded, heartless, calculating crook, and he went and took an axe and demolished that fair temple of accuracy he had erected on the election of Andrew Jackson, or whoever it was, by issuing a forecast in which nothing was correct except the spelling of the states. He said Kansas was certainly for Hughes. You told him that. You got it by talking with Governor Capper. What you should have done was to listen to one of Capper's speeches. Then you told Colonel Harvey that Washington and Wyoming and North Dakota and Idaho and California were for Hughes beyond all question. And he put those states down in the Republican column—staked his reputation on them—sent out a statement signed with his own name—let the press publish it—permitted editors to write editorials about it saying he had not gone wrong since Polk was elected. Then you told him Ohio was doubtful. You let him say that Hughes probably would carry it, however. You handed him Maryland on the same plate. You let him say Missouri was doubtful, and Nebraska, and Montana, and Colorado—oh, but you did abuse that man's confidence! You let him wind up his statement by predicting that Hughes would be elected by a majority of from 145 to 175 electoral votes. You looked over his shoulder as he wrote it, with your hand over your mouth to keep from laughing—you unprincipled, eavedropping, gossiping, prevaricating, confidence-betraying, serpent-tongued, hypocritical humbug—scat!—Kansas City Star.

ANNUAL THANKSGIVING SERVICE AT BAPTIST CHURCH IMPRESSIVE

What have been our privations? What a great example they gave us, what a rich heritage! Let us perpetuate it in the spirit of our forefathers. I fear we are proving ungrateful. We take all our health and prosperity as a matter of course, when in reality it is God's goodness and mercy bestowed upon us, and we are only His stewards to occupy until He comes.

"Even though we as a Nation stand, in a sense, as a sinner before God, we as a people have much to be thankful for. We have health. Good health is above wealth, and health is happiness. He that wants health wants everything, and he who has no health has nothing.

"We have peace. Yet there are those who would throw us into war at any pretext.

"As a community we have much to be thankful for. We have had during the year no pestilences, no famines, no storms, but in place of these God has smiled upon us with prosperity.

"Friends, in our prosperity let us not forget God, as did the Israelites, but, in the words of the text, 'Let us give thanks always, for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ.'

"God of our fathers, known of old,
Lord of our far-fung battle line,
Beneath whose awful hand we hold
Dominion over palm and pine;
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget.

"The tumult and the shouting dies,
The captains and the kings depart;
Still stands Thine ancient sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart;
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget.

"Far called our navies melt away,
On dune and headland sinks the fire,
So all our pomp of yesterday
Is one with Nineveh and Tyre;
Judge of the nations, spare us yet,
Lest we forget, lest we forget.

"If drunk with sight of power, we loose
Wild tongues that have not Thee in awe—
Such boasting as the Gentiles use,
Or lesser breeds without the law—
Lord, God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget!

"For heathen heart that puts her trust
In reeking tube and iron shard—
All valiant dust that builds on dust,
And guarding calls not Thee to guard—
For frantic boast and foolish word,
Thy mercy of Thy people, Lord!"

This Preference for Saxon "Six" Is Based Upon Very Definite Reasons

Throughout the country you will find a very marked preference for Saxon "Six" springing up among motor car buyers.

Unlike many preferences it is not flavored with prejudice, but has more the aspect of a conclusion in favor of Saxon "Six" arrived at unhesitatingly after careful comparisons.

We have told you time and again that the Saxon "Six" motor—both because of its type and its high development—is far superior to a motor of fewer cylinders.

Evidently this statement has been confirmed by buyers themselves, for a census reveals that 75 per cent of the owners turning in their cars for Saxon "Sixes" formerly drove cars of less than six cylinders.

The reason for this change is found in the superiority of the Saxon "Six" motor.

Between the power-impulses produced by a "less-than-six-cylinders" motor there are intervals. That is a mechanical truth.

These intervals are responsible for vibration. And vibration is a dread danger to a motor.

It impairs flexibility, slows up acceleration, makes a difference of degrees in the quietness of operation, increases repair-service costs, and finally takes nearly 50 per cent from the standard efficiency of the motor.

These are serious disadvantages and buyers are now seeking to avoid them.

In the Saxon "Six" motor, on the contrary, you get a power-flow of uniform, constant torque, that is, perfect smoothness or continuity.

Vibration is practically nil. Briefly, that is why Saxon "Six" excels in pulling power, in acceleration, in high-gear work, in flexibility.

And that is why the cost of repairs on Saxon "Six" is so insignificant.

In this connection it is enlightening to note that the figures on the cost of all repair parts bought by all Saxon owners during the past two years show that the cost per car averaged less than $10.

You will find the value of the highly efficient Saxon "Six" motor demonstrated in another definite advantage.

And that is in respect to gasoline economy. It extracts full mileage from each drop of gasoline. 23.5 miles is the gallon average established recently by 206 stock model Saxon "Sixes" in a 300-mile non-stop run.

Still another motor advantage is found in the fact that you get higher maximum and lower minimum speed without vibration.

At 1½ miles per hour on "high" the motor pulls smoothly without "bucking" or jerking. At full speed you feel safe and secure.

And added to these virtues is a further feature. That is comfort—riding ease.

Long, resilient cantilever springs of fine vanadium steel, together with deep, restful cushions, guard you completely from rough-road discomforts.

And this luxury is accentuated by the roominess of the car. There's extra seat and leg space.

With these facts in mind we want you to spend ten minutes at the wheel of Saxon "Six."

We think that will be long enough time to convince you that motor car buyers must be right in their plain-spoken preference for Saxon "Six."

Saxon "Six" is $815 f. o. b. Detroit.

CALOMEL DYNAMITES A SLUGGISH LIVER

Crashes Into Sour Bile Making You Sick, and You Lose a Day's Work.

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic, which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful, and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tonic instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition. -Adv.

Cold Days Require Coal

Why is it that some folks always delay their coal buying and the installing of their stoves until the last minute when every member of the family has run the risk of serious cold or pneumonia and until all of the coal and stove dealers are so busy they cannot give the best service? Surely the wise man will not be caught in a blizzard with his coal supply not yet laid in.

We have the supply of coal, we have the prompt service, and the prices are lower now than they will be when winter gets here. Isn't it good health insurance, isn't it good business, isn't it the sensible thing to do to place your order now?

Just phone us at 162 and we will do the rest.

PREPAREDNESS

On every hand, claim is being made for preparedness, some really worth while others simply taking advantage of the popularity of the word.

Electrical Preparedness

Is perhaps as vital as any ever suggested. To prepare the home, the office, the work shop, or any other place where men and women gather, means to increase the efficiency, to lessen the cost and the labor, to protect the eyes, and to cut out dirt and oil or gas smells.

The Winter Reading

Absolutely demands that you have the pure light furnished by electricity to preserve the eyes of the little folks who study, and the older ones who read for pleasure and profit. The long evenings will be a pleasure if you will wire your home for electric service.

We will be glad to figure your wiring job without any obligation on your part. Phone 13 for wiring service.

CLARENDON HAS CLEAR TITLE TO PANHANDLE CHAMPIONSHIP.

again. With Clarendon in possession of the ball, six yards are gained on first down. Goodwin on second down goes for ten. Three downs advance the ball thirteen yards. Ocker gains another yard, and Conbest four. Parmer plunges through line for six yards. On first down Clarendon is held for loss of one yard. Goodwin gaining six on next try, the required ten are made in three downs. Wayland secures ball on fumble, but on second down a forward pass is intercepted, giving the visitors the pigskin again. On fourth down Clarendon is forced to punt, and Wayland gets the ball, which went out of bound on eight-yard line. On first trial Willis gains six yards through the line. With no gain on second down, forward pass. Willis to Vaughn, is executed on third for fifty-two-yard gain. A forward pass is incompleting on two attempts, and third attempt, Willis to Hannah, is forestalled by Parmer, of C. C., who intercepts pass and races sixty yards for the first touchdown of the game. Score, C. C. 8, W. B. C. 0. Goodwin kicks goal, adding another point to Clarendon's score.

Punting thirty yards, Clarendon puts ball into play again. Wayland returns for a few yards, and tries two forward passes, which fall short. On third down Hannah executes forward pass to Dub Blakemore, who glides away sixty yards toward the goal. On first down a basketball pass is made by Hannah to Hanks Blakemore for a ten-yard gain. A line buck on first down fails. Four yards are gained by Kiker through line on second, and ball is now within six yards of the goal. Kiker is called again, but fails to gain. On fourth down Clarendon intercepts forward pass and the ball is hers, ten yards from Wayland's goal.

Fourth Quarter.

Quarter opens with Clarendon in possession of ball. Both teams are now using forward pass repeatedly. Clarendon's first attempt fails. On second down Goodwin receives forward pass and gains fifty yards. Willis intercepts forward pass, giving ball to Baptists. On first down Kiker goes through line for six yards. Second down is completed with no gain. Hale is substituted for Hanks Blakemore and Saffle for Gibson by Wayland's coach. Three downs show Wayland entitled to four more. Hannah delivers nice pass, which nets twenty yards. In two downs Wayland makes more by one yard than required, and on third Willis plants the pigskin on the two-yard line. Hannah gains one yard, but for the second time at a crucial point the Clarendon heavy line holds, and Wayland is held for downs. Clarendon punts out eighteen yards. Receiving a forward pass from a Wayland back, a Clarendon end scurried to the twenty-two-yard line with the ball. Hannah intercepts a forward pass from Clarendon, and forward pass. Willis to Vaughn, puts the ball again on the thirty-five-yard line. Hale, who but recently has been substituted for Blakemore, gets away with a pass and eludes every Clarendon player but the safety, who downs him, after a slow tackle, on the five-yard line. Advancing a yard at a time, Wayland puts the ball over the goal for their only score. Willis falling to kick goal.

Wayland punts forty yards, and passing the ball Clarendon returns it thirty yards. A forward pass being touched, becomes anybody's ball, and Clarendon gets it eighteen yards from her goal. Two downs net eight yards, and Clarendon steam plows to the three-yard line, and on next down carries the ball over for her second touchdown. Goodwin kicks goal. Score, C. C. 14, W. B. C. 6.

The teams lined up as follows: Clarendon: c. Sone; t. g. Rainey; r. g. Bohning; r. t. Thompson; r. e.

McKnabb; l. e. Rippey; l. h. Goodwin; r. h. Parmer; q. b. Acker; f. b. Conbest; subs., Cole, Clary, Shields, Jones and Connally.
