"MY TURN"

By Carol Ellis

COLUMBUS SAILED the ocean blue in fourteen hundred ninety-two, and on Monday, October 12, we celebrate the 500th anniversary of his voyage to the New World.

Actually, more than Columbus as an individual, we celebrate the impact that Columbus' voyage had on joining the old and new world which changed the face of our globe forever. Human life is more varied and interesting everywhere today because of the exchange of goods and ideas made possible by Columbus' accomplishments.

He really didn't set out to prove that the world was round, his real name was not Christopher Columbus and Queen Isabella did not actually pawn her jewels to finance his expedition, according to a recent article in Modern Maturity magazine.

In Spain, where he spent most of his adult years, gained fame, and died, he was known as Cristobal Colon. The Latinized "Christopher Columbus" has been bestowed on him by English historians.

Since the time of the ancient Greeks, people had realized that the world was shaped like a globe, but Columbus, being a man of ideas and an adventurer, wanted to do something about it. He hoped to prove that ships could reach the Orient by sailing westward.

At that time, ships from Portugal were traveling to the Orient by sailing eastward around the southern tip of Africa. Columbus was simply trying to find a shorter route. Most of the experts of that day believed the distance he would have to cover on such a voyage was too great. He would run out of supplies and his crew would die at sea before reaching the Orient.

Queen Isabella of Spain was interested in his idea because the riches of the Orient, its gold, silver, jewels and spices, would greatly aid the failing financial condition of her country. The Columbus expedition would be a business investment, so she offered to pawn the royal jewels, if necessary, to equip the voyage. But the chief financial head of the Spanish court came through with a loan to start things off, so Isabella kept her jewels.

He didn't actually set foot on the North American continent but reached the Caribbean Islands. He returned to Spain with small amounts of gold, ornaments, plants, birds and captive natives from the islands and was honored for having found what he proclaimed as a group of islands off the east coast of Asia. He was sent back immediately to further explore and bring back the wealth and riches that he had missed on the first trip.

He sailed to the area of the Americas three more times, in 1493, 1498 and 1502, and died four years later (1506) without ever knowing exactly where he had been or that he had explored a new continent.

Our native American Indians now deplore the fact that Columbus' "accidental discovery" of this country brought about diseases, tools of destruction, religious zealotry, and hunger for land, gold and power.

But with the amount of exploration which was being done during that era, it was only a matter of time until some other European would have established the Americas as the new frontier and the results would have been the same. Otherwise, our native Americans might still be getting around in canoes and dog-drawn travois. Remember it was the Spaniards who brought the horse.

Rather than focus on the negative, we should celebrate the profound impact that Columbus' voyage had on the entire world and how we have all been enriched by the exchange of ideas from many diverse cultures. From Columbus' idea of finding a shorter route to the Orient, grew the worldwide exchange of agricultural products, medical knowledge, and technological advancements which today make all our lives more enjoyable.

Motorgrader Bids Highlight Meeting

Awarding of a bid to purchase a motorgrader for Precinct 3 highlighted the meeting of the Parmer County Commissioner's Court on September 28.

Four bids were received, and of these, a bid of $99,053 by West Texas Equipment Company was accepted by the court as the best bid. The bids ranged from $89,500 to $124,859 for various graders.

The County Treasurer's report was accepted. A certificate of deposit from Precincts 3 and 4, for $150,000 was re-deposited, to mature on January 11, 1993, at six per cent interest.

A motion was passed to install NTS long-distance telephone service in the courthouse, and test it for cost savings to the county. This service can be discontinued at any time with no charge if it does not prove successful.

Another motion was passed to conduct early voting in Friona and Bovina for the General Election on November 3.

All four county commissioners: Ernest Anthony, Tom Ware, Robert White and Raymond McGehee were in attendance, along with County Judge Bonnie Clayton and County Clerk Bonnie Warren.

Other routine matters were also taken care of.

Arrests Made In Excel Bomb Threat

For the past several months, Friona's Excel Corporation has been wrestling with a touchy problem--one of bomb threats.

Thanks to an arrest this week by Parmer County Sheriff Rex Williams, the Friona packing facility is hoping to put an end to this problem.

Arrested Wednesday were Daniel Ibarra, 23, Billy Ochoa, 24, and Ronald Towres, 25, all of 1121 West Ninth Street, Clovis, N.M.

Calls were traced by going through the U.S. West Telephone Company. The call was traced to the Clovis number at the residence of the three Excel employees. Two of the subjects were talked to by Sheriff Williams, and they admitted making calls this past Tuesday evening.

Apparently the main reason for the bomb threats is so the employees will be sent home. Excel had been paying salaries for the employees for the rest of the shift when the threats occurred. "When somebody decided they wanted the day off with pay, they would call and make a bomb threat," Sheriff Williams said.

The cost to Excel for checking out a bomb threat has been astronomical. It has been estimated at $1,000 per minute.

The trio has been charged with making terroristic threats, a class A misdemeanor. If convicted, the charge carries a $2,000 fine plus a year in the County Jail. In addition, Williams said the county would attempt to seek restitution for the $50,000 lost by Excel in Tuesday's lost time incident.

Plant records show that the threatening call was received at 9:21 p.m. CDT on Tuesday.

Williams worked with area telephone companies in tracing

GOAL REACHED....The employees at West Plains Feed Yard established a goal of 200 days without an accident, and reached that goal as of October 4. The employees were honored with a steak dinner for their achievement last Saturday at the Friona Community Center. Bill McCoy, feedlot manager, said the goal was entirely employee-generated. "It has increased our safety awareness 100 per cent. It also has improved other facets of our business, including productivity."

CASTING VOTES--Christopher Igo and Kelby Monroe cast their votes for President Bush at the "voting booth" located in the Friona Public Library. Youngsters under age 18 may vote by dropping a corn seed into the jar of their choice. So far, Bush's jar has the most corn seeds.

Business Seminar Is Slated

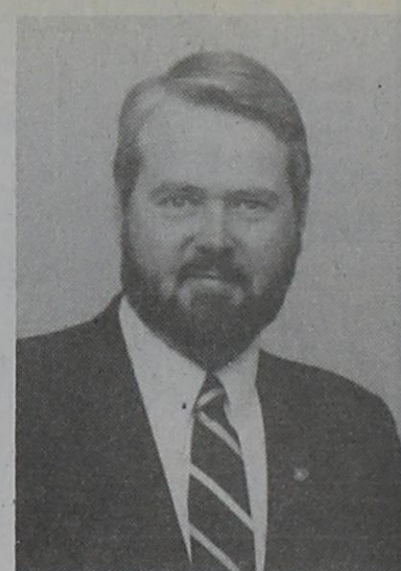

"Keeping the Business in Friona," a seminar for small business owners, managers and employees, will be presented at the Friona Chamber of Commerce Tuesday, October 13 from 7 to 9 p.m.

The seminar is sponsored by the Friona Chamber of Commerce and the WTSU Panhandle Small Business Development Center.

Topics will include *Keeping More Business in Friona; *How to Attract New Customers; *Expanding Your Customer Base; *Why Customers Leave and Don't Come Back; and *Six Secrets That Will Keep Customers Coming Back.

Don Taylor, a small business owner and the director of the WTSU Panhandle Small Business Development Center, will be the speaker. His company, Data Staar Communications, syndicates and markets the "Minding Your Own Business" column now published in 50 newspapers in nine states.

The cost will be $10 per business for chamber members or $15 per business for non-members.

DON TAYLOR

Commodity Date Slated

Surplus commodities will be distributed on Thursday, October 22, at the County Barn in Friona.

Those receiving the items are reminded to bring their own sacks.

School Sets Early Dismissal

Friona schools will dismiss at 2 p.m. on Friday, October 16, in order to allow the band and activity buses to attend the football game at Floydada.

Student Again Wins Star Grid Contest

For the second time in two weeks, a Friona High School student led the way in the Friona Star football contest.

Four contestants led the way with stellar scores, correctly picking 15 of the 16 contest games.

Of these, Courtney Carthel, a high school freshman, came the closest on the tie-breaker system, and claimed the weekly top cash prize of $10.00.

Miss Carthel, whose only miss was the Florida State-Miami game, gave the Philadelphia Eagles a three-point nod over the Dallas Cowboys on the tie-breaker game, 20-17 (a miss of 21 points), and that earned her the weekly prize.

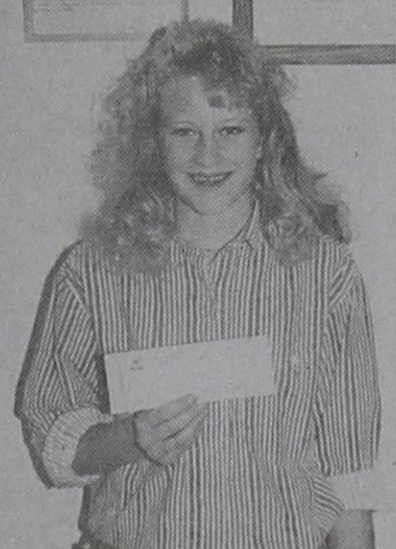

Charlie Morgan of Plano placed second, after missing the tie-breaker score by 25 points. Morgan picked the Cowboys to win, 31-30. His only miss on the regular slate of games was in picking Littlefield over Lamesa. He received $7.50 for his efforts.

Jerry Hinkle had to settle for third place, when his tie-breaker score prediction fell 27 points off the mark. He stayed loyal to Dallas by 27-24, and also missed the Littlefield-Lamesa game.

Mark Walker of Friona was the fourth contestant to post the lofty score of 15, but his tie-breaker score was 31 points off the mark (Dallas 28, Eagles 21), so he just finished out of the weekly prize money.

Seven contestants correctly picked 14 games for the week, just missing by one game having a shot at one of the weekly prizes. They were John Seright of Lubbock, Mal Manchee of Hereford, Steve Shrode, Dennis Field, Dee King, Eva Aguirre of Abernathy and James Clark.

Eleven more contestants had the excellent score of 13. They were

COURTNEY CARTHTEL

Bill Carter of DeLeon, Charlene Shafer, Kent Patterson, Clint Mears, Ed Terry of Muleshoe, Richard Orozco of Muleshoe, Wade Hinkle, Eddie Gauna, Jon Field, Tom Johnson of Whiteface and Sandra Berend.

Shirley Steinbock of Lazbuddie continues to lead the overall standings with a score of 49.

Dennis Field's score of 14 shot him into second place in the standings at 48. Tom Johnson, Clint Mears and Mal Manchee are tied for third place with scores of 47.

Jerry Hinkle, Dianne Morgan, Ted Procter, C.H. Veazey, Jimmy Walker, Mark Walker and Don Max Vars of Canyon are tied for fourth with scores of 46.

Scores of all the leading contestants can be found elsewhere in this issue.

Contestants are shooting for a grand prize of $100 cash, to be awarded at the conclusion of the promotion. Everyone is reminded not to miss a week, in order to have the best opportunity to win.

calls, and was successful in locating the culprits.

"We have to work with five different telephone companies in this area: GTE, West Texas Rural Telephone Co., Southwestern Bell, U.S. West and the Five-Area Telephone Co. We had excellent cooperation this time, and were able to trace the calls to the Clovis address," the Parmer County Sheriff said.

Williams said according to records obtained from the companies, it appeared that Ochoa, who was on his shift at Excel, called the Clovis number where he and his two friends live, telling them to make the threat call.

From what they told him in questioning, Williams indicated that Ibarra made the call, handed the telephone to Towres, who then made the threat.

And the two calls are duly recorded by the two different telephone companies at the appropriate times.

It was reported that Ochoa had wanted off from work so he could attend a party that night.

Williams said that it was quite expensive to the county to deal with these threats as well as to Excel, since the Sheriff's department sends a couple of deputies out to the plant to help with crowd and traffic control.

"I hope this will stop this situation, but we will continue to monitor the telephone calls into and out of Excel for some time to make sure," Williams said.

"Excel is a good citizen. They are our top employer. They haven't deserved to be treated in this manner by unscrupulous employees," Williams said.

The Friona packing plant had received some eight bomb threats prior to the one Tuesday. The management had kept the threats on a low-key basis, since it was generally believed that this was a ploy by certain employees to get some time off. Yet, the threats had to be checked out as if they were sincere, and the plant's security squad had to be alerted each time.

Chamber Set To Sponsor Carnival

The Friona Chamber of Commerce will once again sponsor the Halloween Carnival, it was announced this week.

For more information, call the Chamber office at 247-3491. More details will be announced in the near future.

The local board of school trustees is finding it a hard task to meet all financial obligations of the district and at the same time keep the school in operation until the current taxes begin coming in. It has been suggested that the board try to pay one-half of all salaries of teachers and bus drivers until more funds are received. It is hoped that all taxpayers who can possibly do so will meet their tax payments as soon as possible after November 1.

50 YRS. AGO--OCT. 9, 1942
Ray Landrum, proprietor of the Regal Theatre, who is now employed at loading bombs at the Pan-Tex Ordnance Plant, came home Saturday evening and spent the weekend here with his family.

While in Friona this week, H.C. McCandless of Santa Anna, California, sold his residence property here to Frank A. Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. David Moseley are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Edith, to Herschel Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Johnson.

40 YRS. AGO--OCT. 10, 1952
Committeemen representing the 13 counties in the Hi-Plains Water Conservation District voted to require permits for drilling water wells and to leave well spacing in the hands of county committees. The action, taken at a meeting in the Hotel Jim Hill at Hereford October 2, was a followup of recommendations made at recent county meetings in the district. Only one dissenting report was presented against the well permit and spacing action. Parmer County farmers, committeeman Bruce Parr reported, are opposed to any rule which would limit their freedom in drilling wells.

35 YRS. AGO--OCT. 10, 1957
Easements for 7.2 miles of new farm-to-market road right-of-way has been arranged with property owners bordering the proposed road, reports E.G. Phipps, county commissioner. The road is planned to start at the Clyde Goodwine corner, extend to the Elmer Euler corner a mile east, then a mile south, and then about six miles east to the Claude Blackburn intersection.

30 YRS. AGO--OCT. 11, 1962
It was a case of "almost but not quite" for the Friona Chiefs in their bid to snap the 21-game FHS losing streak last Friday at Happy. The Chiefs, who visibly were out to beat the unbeaten Happy Cowboys, didn't make many mistakes, but the ones they made were costly, and Happy was able to avoid the upset and remain unbeaten, 24-20.

25 YRS. AGO--OCT. 12, 1967
Linda Carson was chosen as Homecoming Queen last Friday night during the halftime of the Friona-Lockney game. Other candidates were Kathy Cook, Missey Renner and Diana Wilson.

Voter registration began Monday, according to Hugh Moseley, county tax assessor-collector.

20 YRS. AGO--OCT. 12, 1972
Funeral services are scheduled for 10:30 a.m. Thursday at Friona's Union Congregational Church for Mrs. Rose Lange, 84, a resident of Friona for the past 55 years. Mrs. Lange first moved to the Black Community in 1917, later moving to Friona.

Cindy Hutson was selected as the 1972 FHS Homecoming Queen during last Friday's contest against Lockney. Other candidates for queen were Carol Reeve, Carolyn Murphree and Teresa Ingram.

15 YRS. AGO--OCT. 16, 1977
The mercury flirted with the freezing mark in Friona this week, but at week's end farmers and gardeners are still looking for the first freeze of the season. The temperature dropped to a low of 35 on Tuesday morning and was just a degree warmer on Wednesday.

As of Thursday, October 13, 263 bales of cotton had been ginned in Parmer County.

10 YRS. AGO--OCT. 10, 1982
Twenty-one cars of a 72-car Santa Fe freight train derailed just south of Hi-Pro Feeds on the outskirts of Friona early last Saturday morning, causing a 15-hour break in rail service on the Santa Fe's main line from Chicago to Los Angeles.

Jeff Lundy exhibited the Grand Champion Prospect Steer at the Parmer County Prospect Show last Saturday in Friona. Reserve Champion Steer was shown by Wendy Tatum.

5 YRS. AGO--OCT. 10, 1989
The old saying "Like father, like son," pretty well applies to the father-son duo that resides at 803 Columbia, especially in regard to the sport of football. Daniel Echols is the starting quarterback for the Friona Chieftains, as most folks in the area know. What they might not know is that 24 years ago, Papa Archie was the quarterback for his team at Class B Lockett High School in Wilbarger County.

Crock Pot Cooking

By CARLA MCKEOWN

It's always those days when you're too tired to cook that you could most use a hot, home-cooked meal.

Eating out is expensive and gets boring after a while, and frozen entrees or "TV dinners" just don't live up to the picture on the package. However, there is an alternative: slow cooking.

Basically, there are two types of slow-cooking appliances: the crock pot and the slow cooker. The crock pot is a round pot with heating coils that heat the pot from the sides, almost eliminating the threat of scorched foods. A slow cooker generally is a rectangular-shaped pot that is placed on a heating base that heats from the bottom.

Either appliance allows you to put all the food in the pot before you leave for the day and offers a fulfilling meal when you get home at night. It's perfect for everyone on the go.

Slow cooking also allows you to use less expensive cuts of meat since the long cooking time results in a more tender and flavorful meat.

Keep in mind the following tips when slow cooking:

- * Little moisture evaporates during slow cooking, so you may need to adjust some of your recipes.

- As a general rule, reduce the amount of liquid in a traditional recipe by half. For soups, add only enough water or broth to cover the other ingredients. You also may have to adjust the seasonings.

- * In most cases, add dairy products near the end of the cooking time to avoid separation.

- * If the traditional methods recipe calls for the dish to be cooked at 350 degrees for one hour, cook it on the low setting for 6 to 8 hours.

- * Before plugging it in, place the cooker on a dry, level surface.

- * Rice and pasta are best when cooked separately and add to the cooker near the end of the cooking time. However, if you are using a higher cooking setting, rice or pasta may be added uncooked during the last hour of cooking time. Make sure there is at least one cup of liquid before adding uncooked rice or pasta.

Try the following slow cooking recipes, then adapt your favorite recipes for slow cooking.

BEEF STEW

- 1 1/2 pounds beef stew meat
- 1 medium onion, chopped
- 4 carrots, peeled and cut into bite-sized pieces

- 2 ribs celery, cut into bite-sized pieces
- 4 medium potatoes, peeled and cut into bite-sized pieces

- 1 28-ounce can whole tomatoes, undrained
- 1 10 1/2-ounce can beef broth

- 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
- 2 tablespoons parsley flakes

- 1 bay leaf
- 1 teaspoon salt

- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 2 tablespoons quick cooking tapioca

Brown beef cubes over medium heat. Transfer meat to slow cooker or crock pot. Add remaining ingredients, stirring to blend. Cover and cook on medium setting for 8 hours, or on medium-high setting for 4 to 5 hours. Makes 6 servings.

HOME-STYLE CHICKEN SOUP

- 1 3- to 4-pound chicken, cut up
- 1 onion or leek, chopped
- 1 carrot, finely chopped
- 1/2 cup chopped celery
- 2 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley

- 1 bay leaf
- 1 teaspoon chopped fresh thyme

- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/8 teaspoon pepper
- 6 cups water

- 4 ounces cooked fine egg noodles or 3 cups cooked rice

In a 4-quart or larger slow-cooker, combine chicken, onion, carrot, celery, parsley, bay leaf, thyme, salt, pepper, and water. Cover and cook on low for 7 or 8 hours or for 5 to 6 hours on medium, until tender. Remove chicken and bay leaf. Turn cooker on high. Remove meat from chicken bones and cut into bite-sized pieces. Return the chicken meat to the slow-cooker; add cooked noodles or rice. Serve when heated through. Makes about 8 servings.

CHILI RELLENO

- 2 4-ounce cans whole green chilies
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 2 eggs

- 1 12-ounce can evaporated milk
- 1/2 pound Monterey Jack cheese, grated

- 1/2 pound Cheddar cheese, grated
- 1 8-ounce can tomato sauce

Spray crock pot with non-stick cooking spray. Remove seeds and veins from green chilies; set aside. In a bowl, mix flour, eggs and evaporated milk. In bottom of crock pot, layer 1/2 the chilies and 1/2 of each cheese; top with 1/2 of the milk mixture. Repeat layers. Cook on low setting for 6 to 8 hours. Before the last 1/2 hour of cooking, pour the tomato sauce over the top. Continue cooking for 30 more minutes. Makes 8 servings.

BARBECUE BEEF AND BEANS

- 1 1/2 pounds round steak or beef stew meat, cut into 1/2-inch cubes
- 1 onion, chopped
- 3 ribs celery, finely chopped
- 1 bell pepper, seeded and chopped

- 2 15-ounce cans pinto beans, drained
- 1/4 teaspoon salt

- 1 cup bottled barbecue sauce
- 1 cup grated Cheddar cheese

In a slow cooker, combine all ingredients except cheese. Cover and cook on low setting for 7 to 8 hours or until the meat is tender. Top with grated cheese. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

S. Nuttall Is Spelling Bee Director

Mrs. Sue Nuttall, principal of Bovina Elementary School, has been named Spelling Bee Director for Parmer County.

The annual National Spelling Bee, co-sponsored by the Amarillo Globe-News and West Texas State University, Canyon, is open to any student who must not have passed beyond the eighth grade at the time of their individual school finals; and must not have reached their 16th birthday on or before the date of the national finals.

There are two levels of competition: (1) The Junior Bee is open to any student in grades five and below; (2) The Senior Bee is open to any student in grades eight and below. County directors may combine the two events if they so choose.

The director will select a date and site for the county event. All schools in the county are invited to participate.

The county winner will compete on April 17, 1993 in the 45th regional competition in Canyon. Additional information is available from Jeane Bartlett, Spelling Bee Editor, Amarillo Globe-News, or Gene Parker, bee coordinator, West Texas State University.

Most schools use the booklet, "Words of the Champions", prepared by the national sponsors, the Scripps Howard Newspapers. The 1993 issue, $0.50 each, will be available from Mrs. Bartlett around mid-October. The booklet contains over 3,000 words and 524 new words over the 1992 issue.

Facts About The BIBLE BY JOHN LEHTI

THE LIFE OF A PETTY KING

KINGS WERE NUMEROUS IN BIBLICAL DAYS. EVERY CITY HAD ITS OWN KING MUCH AS TODAY WE HAVE MAYORS TO CONDUCT AND OFFICIATE THE BUSINESS OF THE CITIES. HOWBEIT, THE MODERN MAYOR MUST CONSULT THE CITY COUNCIL, ALDERMEN, ETC., THE BIBLICAL KINGS AND THEIR AURA OF ROYALTY ENABLED THEM TO ASSUME MUCH GREATER AND DICTATORIAL POWERS. WHEREAS MODERN MAYORS ARE CONCERNED WITH BUDGETS, UNION DEMANDS, TRADE AGREEMENTS, AND COMMERCE FOR THE CITY IN GENERAL, THE BIBLICAL SMALL-TIME KING WAS MORE CONCERNED WITH WHAT CITY HE WOULD MAKE WAR ON FOR THE PURPOSE OF PLUNDERING, TAKING SLAVES, AND ANNEXING TERRITORY. HIS NEXT CONCERN WAS WHAT ENEMY MIGHT ATTACK HIS CITY FOR THE SAME REASONS. ALL OF WHICH FORCED THESE ANCIENT KINGS INTO A SERIES OF ALLIANCES WITH THEIR NEIGHBORING CITIES TO FORESTALL SUCH A CALAMITY BEFALLING THEM. THE END RESULT WAS A MAZE OF COMPLICATED POLITICAL RELATIONSHIPS WHICH TODAY MIGHT TAKE A COMPUTER TO UNSCRAMBLE!

Program Date Is Extended To '93

Lone Star Events

Producers applying for U.S. Department of Agriculture disaster payments under Phase II and Phase III of the Disaster Assistance Program will be able to receive payments in a more timely manner.

President George Bush had the USDA extend the disaster sign-up and ensure that producers who qualify for benefits under Phase II and Phase III of the Disaster Assistance Program will receive a payment rate of 50.04 percent of the payments for crop losses approved for coverage.

U.S. Senator Phil Gramm said, "This streamlined approach will immediately provide funds for losses suffered in recent years. This will enable producers to meet current obligations and prepare for the new crop year. The continued stability of agriculture is important to every American."

The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service is extending the period for producers to file for benefits under Phase II of the program to February 12, 1993, for those crops planted in 1991 for harvest in 1992. The original deadline was October 2. Payment of benefits up to 50.04 percent will be made to producers as soon as they have furnished the required documentation and the application is approved by their local ASCS Committee.

The extended sign-up period does not change the requirement for producers to purchase crop insurance on the same crop for 1993 if this year's crop loss was more than 65 percent, as required by the 1990 farm bill. The extension gives producers adequate time to file their claims under the disaster program.

Jerry D. Harris, chairman of the Texas State ASC Committee, said "Today's announcement shows this Administration's desire to improve program delivery and help American agriculture. This will help eliminate hardships on family farms caused by 1992 crop losses and add stability to Texas agriculture."

The payment rate is the same used to determine disaster payments under USDA's 1990-1991 disaster program announced April 13. Applications will be processed and checks mailed to qualifying producers as soon as possible. Producers desiring more information on the Disaster Assistance Program should contact their local office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Services.

MONEY TALK

Kay Bailey Hutchison
Texas State Treasurer

Editor's Note: Texas State Treasurer Kay Bailey Hutchison addresses various issues related to personal finance and state government. However, these views are not intended to replace the advice of reputable financial advisers or other professional counselors.

Q. I am a small business owner and am wrestling with a number of questions regarding the management of my operation and compliance with government mandates. I don't have money to hire a professional consultant. Do you have any suggestions?

A. You are not alone in your predicament. Many small business owners need assistance navigating the confusing web of government and IRS rules and regulations.

There are groups to which you can turn for this type of help. One organization in particular stands out in my mind; SCORE.

The Service Corps of Retired Executives (SCORE) is a non-profit group made up of retired persons who volunteer their knowledge and expertise to small business owners. Volunteers represent a wide spectrum of professions from accountants to marketing executives to tax attorneys.

Volunteers are paired with small business owners who are in need of their specific talent and advice. For example, if you are confused by the myriad of rules governing worker's compensation you would be matched with a volunteer who is well versed in that area.

In addition to free counseling services, SCORE provides training and sponsors workshops and seminars covering a variety of business-related issues. If you are interested in learning more about SCORE and the location of the chapter closest to you call the national office at 202-205-6762 or write: SCORE, 409 Third St. Suite 5900, Washington, DC 20024.

If you have a question, write Money Talk, Texas State Treasury, Communications Division, P.O. Box 12608, Austin, Texas, 78711.

Development Group Forms Corporation

The High Ground of Texas economic development coalition has voted to incorporate, opening the door to possible grants and donations, according to coalition president Rick Osburn.

The incorporation vote came at the marketing coalition's quarterly meeting in Tulia on September 1.

"We wanted to set up a method by which High Ground might receive grants and donations from organizations that might be interested in industrial development in the High Plains region," said Grady Elder, High Ground by-laws committee chairman.

If a charter is granted by the state, the High Ground will be coded a "501 C6" by the Internal Revenue Service, meaning the group is a non-profit organization, said Elder.

Another reason for the incorporation is to create a more organized structure for the coalition, with a board of directors, by-laws and officers, he said.

The High Ground of Texas is a coalition of 37 communities and organizations in the Texas

Panhandle and South Plains that pools members' resources for economic development in the region.

The High Ground board of directors, elected at the Tulia meeting, are: Michael Carr of Hereford, Grady Elder of Plainview, Kirk Folkner of Amarillo, Jerry Hinnenkamp of Brownfield, Joe Nisbett of Dalhart, Rick Osburn of Levelland, and an undetermined representative from Lubbock. Also on the board are sponsors Cheryl Pink, Southwestern Public Service Company; Tim Pierce, South Plains Association of Governments; and Perna Strickland, Panhandle Regional Planning Commission.

Officers for the High Ground coalition are: Rick Osburn, president; Kirk Folkner, vice president; Grady Elder, secretary; and Michael Carr, treasurer.

"The officers and board of directors will serve to make us a more effective group," Elder said. "The High Ground will be a more organized and structured coalition."

Bovina 4-H Club Has Activities

This week is National 4-H Week. The Bovina 4-H Club has planned a busy week to celebrate.

They started off the week, by putting green four leaf clovers on the outside of each 4-H members lockers. On Tuesday was the regular monthly meeting for the club.

They all wore their 4-H T-shirts to school that day. That night they toured the Town and Country Vet Clinic, with owner Bret Whitten. Bret also explained some things to them, that they should watch out for this winter with their pets and show animals.

Each member really enjoyed the tour and would like to thank Bret for taking the time to share it with them.

They ended the evening at the home of Susan Kerby's with a short meeting and refreshments.

On Saturday the group plans to end the week with an old fashioned hay ride and weiner roast at the home of Joe and Denise Jones. The kids have had a great week!

The officers for the 4-H Club this year are: president: Darla Stormes; vice president: Jason Kerby; secretary/treasurer: Wayne Stormes; and recreation/refreshment chairman: Tyson Kerby.

The other members are: D'Anne Jones, Jimmi Dawn Jones, Jonathan Cordova, Jessica Chilton, Crystal Chilton, Valerie Chilton and Amber Lide. The Pee Wee 4-H members are: Josh Kerby, Montana Jones and Kemberly Lide. The leaders for the club are: Ella Jo Stormes, Susan Kerby and Denise Jones.

Area Gets First Freeze

The first freeze of the season occurred early Thursday morning in Parmer County, when the low at the official recording station for the National Weather Service in Friona had a reading of 29 degrees--or 28.8 degrees, to be exact.

The freeze was a light one, but may have affected foliage on tender plants.

Thursday's freeze was ushered in almost 24 hours earlier by a fast-moving cold front that hit the area with a mighty one-two punch, first with winds out of the west, then from the north with clockings of up to 55 miles per hour.

The mercury had reached 56 degrees at 9 a.m. Wednesday, and never climbed to that level after the northerly blast arrived.

THREE CLOVIS MEN HELD

Arrests Made In Excel Bomb Threat

(Note to Friona Star readers: In order to make this late story available to our Bovina readers, it had to be repeated in your edition)

For the past several months, Friona's Excel Corporation has been wrestling with a touchy problem--one of bomb threats.

Thanks to an arrest this week by Parmer County Sheriff Rex Williams, the Friona packing facility is hoping to put an end to this problem.

Arrested Wednesday were Daniel Ibarra, 23, Billy Ochoa, 24, and Ronald Towres, 25, all of 1121 West Ninth Street, Clovis, N.M.

Calls were traced by going through the U.S. West Telephone Company. The call was traced to the Clovis number at the residence of the three Excel employees. Two of the subjects were talked to by Sheriff Williams, and they admitted making calls this past Tuesday evening.

Apparently the main reason for the bomb threats is so the employees will be sent home. Excel had been paying salaries for the employees for the rest of the shift when the threats occurred. "When somebody decided they wanted the day off with pay, they would call and make a bomb threat," Sheriff Williams said.

The cost to Excel for checking out a bomb threat has been astronomical. It has been estimated at $1,000 per minute.

The trio has been charged with making terroristic threats, a class A misdemeanor. If convicted, the charge carries a $2,000 fine plus a year in the County Jail. In addition, Williams said the county would attempt to seek restitution for the $50,000 lost by Excel in Tuesday's lost time incident.

Plant records show that the threatening call was received at 9:21 p.m. CDT on Tuesday.

Williams worked with area telephone companies in tracing calls, and was successful in locating the culprits.

"We have to work with five different telephone companies in this area: GTE, West Texas Rural Telephone Co., Southwestern Bell, U.S. West and the Five-Area Telephone Co. We had excellent cooperation this time, and were able to trace the calls to the Clovis address," the Parmer County Sheriff said.

Williams said according to records obtained from the companies, it appeared that Ochoa, who was on his shift at Excel, called the Clovis number where he and his two friends live, telling them to make the threat call.

From what they told him in questioning, Williams indicated that Ibarra made the call, handed the telephone to Towres, who then made the threat.

And the two calls are duly recorded by the two different telephone companies at the appropriate times.

Williams said that it was quite expensive to the county to deal with these threats as well as to Excel, since the Sheriff's department sends a couple of deputies out to the plant to help with crowd and traffic control.

"I hope this will stop this situation, but we will continue to monitor the telephone calls into and out of Excel for some time to make sure," Williams said.

"Excel is a good citizen. They are our top employer. They haven't deserved to be treated in this manner by unscrupulous employees," Williams said.

A spokesman for Excel said that apparently Ochoa, who was working at the time the bomb threat was made, was wanting to attend a party that night in Clovis.

The Friona packing plant had received some eight bomb threats prior to the one Tuesday. The management had kept the threats on a low-key basis, since it was generally believed that this was a ploy by certain employees to get some time off. Yet, the threats had to be checked out as if they were sincere, and the plant's security squad had to be alerted each time.

Ex-Resident Dies Suddenly

Services for Joe E. Wilson, 75, of Lubbock, were held last Friday in Ford Memorial Chapel of the First Baptist Church with the Rev. John Ballard, associate pastor, officiating.

Graveside services were conducted in Floyd County Memorial Park with the Rev. Hal Farnsworth, pastor of First Baptist Church in Floydada, officiating.

Burial was directed by Sanders Funeral Home.

Wilson died last Tuesday in Artesia (New Mexico) General Hospital after a sudden illness.

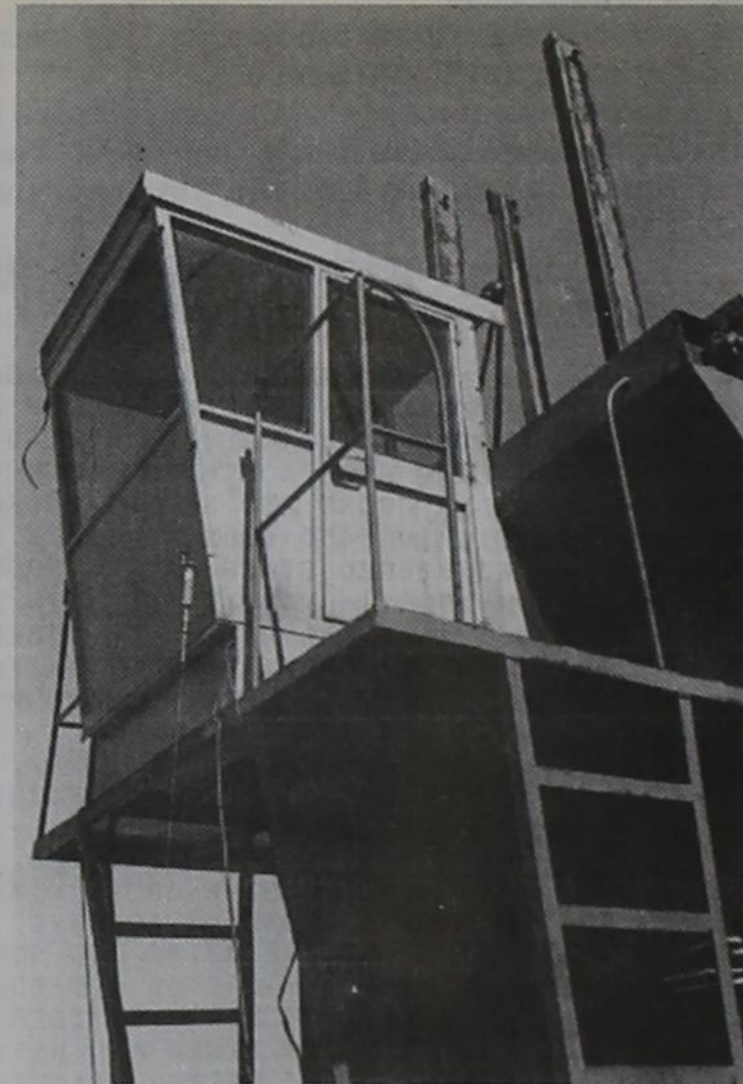

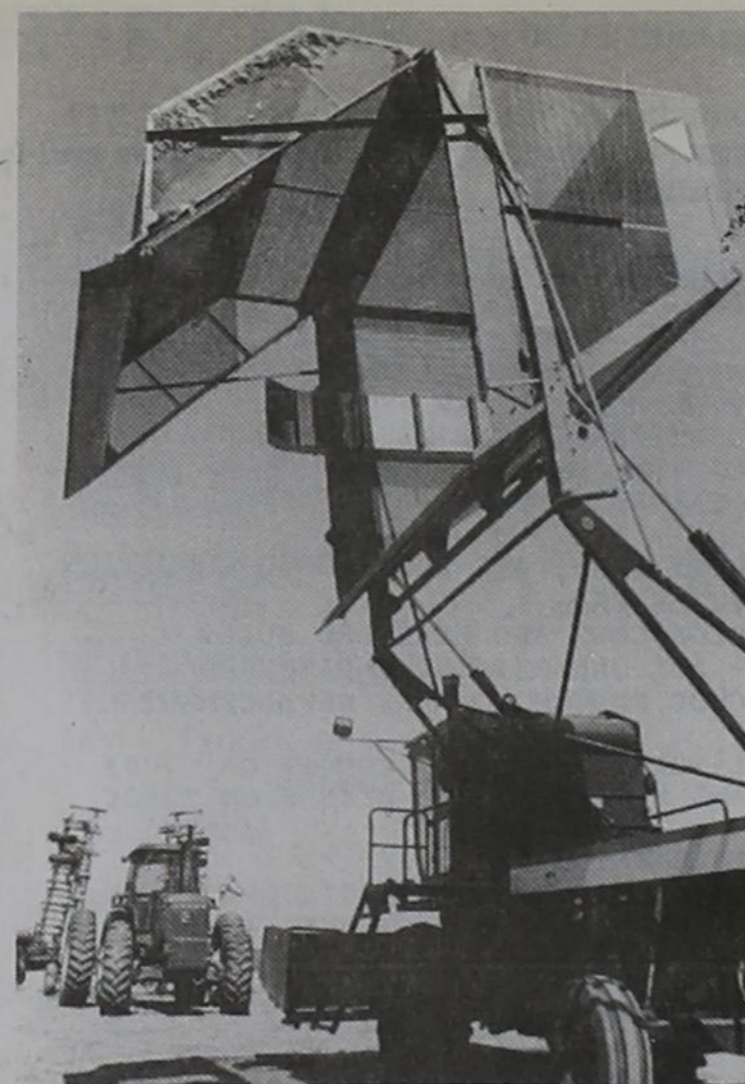

He was born in Quanah and moved to Lubbock in 1950. He married Elaine Culpepper on September 15, 1943. He was a teacher and coach in the Lubbock Independent School District until retiring in 1977. He was a Marine Corps veteran of World War II, in which he served as a platoon sergeant in the South Pacific. He was a member of First Baptist Church and of the Downtown Bible Class.

His father, Joe Wilson, was a former pastor at Friona's First Baptist Church in the 1940s.

Survivors include his wife; three sons, D.J. of Irving, Ronald D. of Cedar Hill and Donald L. of Houston; a sister, Bernetta Goodwin of Mineral Wells; ten grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

The family suggests memorials to a favorite charity.

Watch out for those power lines!

Modern farming requires the use of large, complex machinery. Each year a tragic number of accidents are caused by careless handling of farm equipment around electric power lines. Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative urges you to use caution at all times. Watch for overhead power lines and utility poles and avoid any contact with this potentially lethal power equipment.

Insist that family members and hired hands learn to survey their work areas carefully. Although you may not have power lines in your fields, you certainly have them present around equipment storage areas. Be sure there are safe routes from the equipment storage areas to the fields. Before extending the height of or transporting farm equipment, look up and check the clearance. Be extremely cautious when moving or raising portable grain augers, aluminum irrigation pipe, bailers, combines, front end loaders, cable or hydraulic dump trucks, cotton strippers, cotton module builders, and large tractors pulling "fold-up" plows with row markers. If you have a question about whether equipment will clear a power line, assume it won't and take action to avoid contact.

Watch for power lines on or near your property lines. They could possibly be hidden by trees or brush, so when turning your equipment at the end of your field there's a very good chance power lines and guy wires could be nearby.

If construction of new storage bins is in your future plans, take the placement of existing power lines into account. If you can't find adequate space for construction away from the power lines, contact DSEC for advice. Your complete safety and comfort are prime concerns of DSEC. We will be happy to assist you in developing a safer farm.

So, remember, when moving your equipment into your fields to tend your crops, think safety, and make your harvest as safe as it is rewarding.

AMERICA'S SHAME: HARD TIMES AFTER A LIFETIME OF STRUGGLE

Thirty years ago, John Fitzgerald Kennedy decried the shame that one third of America's elderly were living in abject poverty, denied both the basic necessities and the dignity they deserved.

Changes in Social Security during the 1960s and 1970s, as well as other government programs, helped cut the poverty rate among older Americans. But the shame of elderly poverty persists.

Fully 17% of America's elderly live in poverty, surviving on less than $132 a week. Another 32% are on the edge of poverty, scraping by on $132-$261 a week. Some 32% of elderly Americans can be considered "Middle Income," living on $262 to $522 a week. 20% are better off. With income over $522 a week, or $27,000 a year they may be called "Well-to-do." [Source: Families USA]

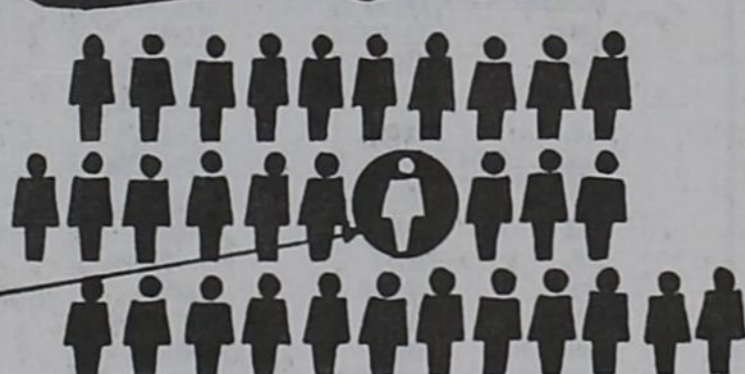

17% IN POVERTY

Mabel S. survives on $110 a week. She is one of the 17% of the elderly living in poverty.

32% ON THE EDGE OF POVERTY

George P. scrapes by on $164 a week. He is one of the 32% of the elderly living on the edge of poverty.

32% "MIDDLE INCOME"

Connie and Peter B. live on $524 a week. They are among the 32% of the elderly who are "middle income."

20% "WELL-TO-DO"

John R. has an income of $600 a week. He is among the 20% of the elderly who are relatively well-to-do.

Musical Gala Will Feature Columbus Theme

The Lone Star Ballet of Amarillo will open its 1992-93 season of dance this weekend with a production entitled "New World, New People" in tribute to Columbus' voyage to the "New World."

The event, which will feature dazzling costumes and a wide variety of music and dance, will be presented in the Amarillo Civic Center Auditorium on October 10 and 11. Opening night will begin at 8 p.m. Saturday. Sunday's matinee performance will begin at 3 p.m. Tickets will be $6, $12, and $18 at the door, or call 372-2463.

Guest artists will include: The West Texas State University Symphony Orchestra, The Amarillo Opera, the Prairie Dog Western Country Music Band, the Khawadi Indian Dancers, and, by special arrangement, the Ballet Folklorico of Chihuahua, Mexico.

for Friona, gaining 129 yards. Reyes Valdez added 81 yards and scored one TD; Fidel Rodriguez came up with 63 yards and Jesse Mendez had 29 yards.

Kyle Grimsley completed two of four passes, and Mark Galan caught two PAT passes.

On defense, Kevin Rodgers and Valdez each had five tackles; Juan Santiago four. Gutierrez and Galan three apiece. In addition, Galan intercepted two Muleshoe passes and Gutierrez came up with one interception.

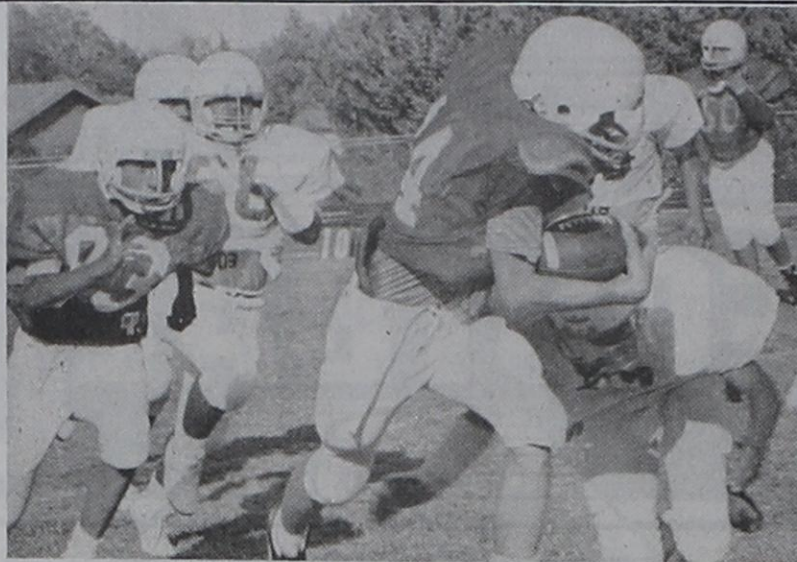

The win ran the Braves' season record to 2-0-1.

The eighth grade White team dropped a 16-6 decision to the Hereford eighth grade B-team last Tuesday.

Jesse Bautista scored a TD and gained 56 yards for Friona. Trinidad Murillo added 36 yards; Jacob Rios had 21.

Sam Saiz completed two of six passes for 23 yards, and Bautista one of two for 21 yards. Ken Bails caught a pass for 21 yards; Coby Clark had one for 15 yards and Rios one for eight yards.

Bautista and Roque Mendez led with seven tackles each; Armando Perez had five; Alex Bautista and Coby Clark each had four and Greg Lewellen three.

GAINS FOR BRAVES.... Quint Ellis (44) of the Seventh Grade Braves, makes good yardage against the Muleshoe seventh graders here last Thursday. Friona won the game, 12-6, to remain unbeaten for the season. (Photo by Lisa McLellan)

Chieftains Drop Game To Eagles

Friona High School's Chieftains journeyed to Fritch last Friday night for the final non-district game of the 1992 season.

The Eagles, winning their third game of the season after a pair of losses, handed the Chieftains their worst defeat of the season, 40-0.

Friona was able to move the ball at times, especially through the air. The Chieftains gained 158 yards passing, and had a total offense of 193 yards, but they never could get the ball in the end zone.

Blair Burney completed five passes for 104 yards, and Jay Belcher added five more for 54 yards.

Brian Herring was the leading receiver with four catches for 72 yards. Eddie Wilson had one catch for 32 yards.

On defense, Burney and Luis Rodriguez led the team with eight tackles apiece, and Harvey Martinez had five. Kelly Jack had a pass interception, and Josh Snead a fumble recovery. Jerard Lafuente received the Coaches' award for his defensive play.

The Chieftains were hosting Tulia Friday in their District 2-3A opener. Although the team had a few nagging bumps and bruises, no one was expected to be sidelined, according to Coach James Morton.

David Smith Honored For 25 Years Of Service

David Smith, one of our nicest employees, has been employed by Friona Feedyard for 25 years. Friona President James Herring presented him with an engraved watch for 25 years of dedicated service on Aug. 9 at our Annual Company Picnic. David is so proud of it and only wears it on Sundays. He sends his sincere appreciation to everyone for this honor.

The 25 years have been good ones for David and his family. After he graduated, he started working for Friona Consumers. From there, he continued in the mechanical field, his love for cars helped make his decision. It was on a holiday that the Assistant Manager Cleatice Rhodes asked him to come to the yard to work on two trucks that were down. There he met Jack Carrothers who was the manager. It wasn't long after this that Jack asked him to work for the feedyard as a mechanic and assist in all service work in the feed mill and keep all vehicles and equipment running. To David, "Jack Carrothers was a prince of a man and made me feel very much at ease." David took the job and 25 years later, he isn't sorry he did. Today, David George makes him feel at ease, also.

There have been many days for David that were pleasant and a few that weren't so pleasant. He has made many friends with all the employees at the feedyard. He recalls the memories and the friendships and say they have enriched his life.

David's life at the yard has been a joy. He has been through hail storms, dirt storms, floods, fires, bad snow storms, good and bad cattle markets, late nights when things were broken and had to be fixed before morning. "Regardless of all the hard times, we managed to get our cattle fed."

David said, "You can accomplish this and get through the hard times, when you all work together as a team, starting from the manager down through each employee with each man doing his job to the best of his ability."

In the past 25 years, Friona Feedyard has practically been rebuilt and yet still looks almost the same. There is a never-ending process going on of replacing what is worn-out. David said he has watched Friona Feedyard grow from a small feedyard to a large industry. There have always been men with a vision in charge of the feedyard.

The most memorable thing David remembers is when he fell through the feed bins. He was on top of the load out bins showing the welder what needed to be repaired. He was standing on feed when someone opened a bin and he fell into it. The operator running the scale didn't see David and closed the doors on his legs. The welder rushed down to let them know what was going on. He came out of that with a broken leg and in the hospital for 15 days. David realized just how important it is to work as a team, because of the great team work, they saved his life. That accident happened 15 years ago. Lee Britting was manager and Charlie Rector was mill manager.

David and Betty Smith will be married 39 years on Dec. 26. They have four children and seven grandchildren. Their son, Kenneth, is in his sixth year with the US Navy and stationed at Naval Air in Norfolk, Virginia. Their daughter, Sharon, and husband, Larry Rector, live in Friona and have two children. Roy Don and wife, Carol Ann, live in Amarillo, where he works for the Randall County Sheriff Dept., and have four children. Steven and his wife, Janie, both attend Panhandle State University in Goodwell, Oklahoma and have one son. David and Betty attend the First Baptist Church where David is involved with the bus ministry.

International Credit Union Week is dedicated to the millions who prove that...

Members make the difference!

When millions of people from all walks of life get together to help each other with their financial needs, it's something to celebrate.

International Credit Union Week salutes the spirit of the credit union movement and its philosophy of "people helping people."

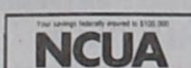

Each of the more than 14,000 credit unions across the U.S. is a member-owned, not-for-profit financial cooperative. Members share the benefits, through lower rates on loans and higher rates on savings. And every member has a say in how their credit union is run, through their elected, all-volunteer board of directors.

Credit unions provide members with competitive financial products, solid, unbiased information, and unmatched personal service. Great reasons to celebrate the credit union movement — and recognize that "members make the difference."

Study Club Hears Program Presented By Amy Taylor

BANK TOUR--Members of Mrs. Proctor's Kindergarten Class toured Friona State Bank on a field trip one day last week. They posed in the Director's Room with the bank public relations director, Marca Herring.

Members of Modern Study Club met on October 6, at 7:30 p.m. in the Federated Women's Club House for their regular bi-monthly meeting.

The program entitled "GFWC Hugh O'Brian Youth Foundation Leadership" was given by Amy Taylor. The Study Club was her sponsor to the Texas Panhandle Leadership Seminar, which was held in Amarillo, April 24 through 26.

Nineteen members and guests answered roll call with "What I think can be done to encourage leadership among our youth."

Club president Sandra Turner presided over the business meeting. Secretary Donna Mears read "thank you" notes from Bob Rogers thanking the club for sponsoring a person to the Hugh O'Brian Seminar; from Tonya Gober for having the recent club program on Special Education issues; and from Susan Huckabee for sponsoring her in the Maize Days Queen Contest.

Secretary Mears also read a note from Carmaleet Truitt, asking for a leave of absence from the club for health reasons and this request was granted by the membership.

President Turner announced the

Black Study Club Has Program

On Living Wills

Black Study Club met October first in the home of Ibbey Lewellen.

The opening exercise was given by Ruby Stone with the reading of two poems, "Autumn," and "Tender Are The Leaves."

Roll call was answered with some amusing jokes.

Jo Blackwell gave an interesting and informative program on "Living Wills" and "Power of Attorney" for those of us who become disabled to the point of not being able to make decisions concerning our final wishes.

Those present enjoyed refreshments and a time of visitation. Members who attended were: Martha Hamilton, Hannah Lookingbill, Mildred Welch, Ibbey Lewellen, Ruby Stone, Anne Carthell, Lucille Rockey, and guest Jo Blackwell.

GFWC Caprock District Fall Board Meeting to be held in Levelland on Saturday, October 17.

Eva Kimbrough, chairman of membership and courtesy, reported that she had mailed a sympathy card to Vera Beil, former club member, who recently lost her sister, and a get well card to the club's only charter member, Ilene Osborn.

The meeting adjourned with the repeating of the "Club Collect" led by Estelle Caffey.

Hostesses Gerry Taylor and Janell Shreve served refreshments to 15 members, one new member, Elizabeth Gore, and three guests, Amy Taylor, Amelia Taylor and Martha Rutherford.

Now, more than ever,
IVOMEC® can build your profits.
(ivermectin)

At this year's beef prices, every pound you put on your calves is worth good money. And with IVOMEC® (ivermectin) you can put on plenty of extra pounds.

Whenever you have cattle on pasture, you're bound to have parasites. And if your calves have been sold and resold before shipping, you can't know what parasites they've picked up. And parasites steal weight.

But one shot of IVOMEC kills 31 different kinds of parasites—more than twice as many as TRAMISOL® and WARBEX® combined.

IVOMEC kills mature and immature worms, so you don't have to use it again in a couple of weeks. And IVOMEC gets external parasites, too. It does it all with just one simple shot under the skin. No wrestling. No Mess. No stress.

So go with your best shot.

Cari Hand, Jeffrey Hamilton United In Church Ceremony

Cari Joan Hand of Dallas and Jeffrey Scott Hamilton of Hereford exchanged wedding vows Saturday, September 19 at 7 p.m.

The ceremony was conducted in the 6th Street Church of Christ, Friona, by Leon Talley, minister.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hand of Friona.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hamilton of Amarillo.

The candle arches were decorated with English ivy and baby's breath with two large arrangements of white gerberas, white gladiolas and lillies centering the altar. Pews were marked with ivory bows.

Musical selections were presented by Dr. and Mrs. Jerry Nance of Abilene and Mrs. Mike Johnson of Eules, Texas, cousins of the bride. They sang "Love Will Be Our Home" and "Cherish the Treasure." The 6th Street Church of Christ Choir presented several selections.

Mrs. Scott Morrison of Friona, cousin of the bride, served as the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Tamara Hand and Trista Hand of Friona, nieces of the bride, Mrs. John Medellin of Highland Village, Texas, Amber Smith of Plano, Texas, niece of the bride, and Sheri Dodson of Dallas.

Tania Hand of Friona, niece of the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hand, and Jessica Hamilton of Pensacola, Florida, niece of the groom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Andrew Hamilton, served as flower girls.

The feminine attendants wore dusty rose murray file dresses and carried bouquets of bridal white and pink roses, ming fern, status and baby's breath.

Don Hall of Hereford served as best man. Groomsmen were Don Andrew Hamilton of Pensacola, Florida, brother of the groom, Mike Lusk, Kreig Gallagher, Herman Lee Rogers, all of Hereford, and Terry Blackwell of Amarillo.

Serving as ushers were Boone Hand, Bowie Hand and Toby Smith of Friona, all nephews of the bride.

Trace Davenport of Dumas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jr. Davenport, nephew of the groom, served as the ring bearer.

Candles were lit by Trey Hamilton, nephew of the groom, and Paige Davenport, niece of the groom.

As the bride was presented in marriage by her father, she wore a formal length gown featuring a bodice of alencon lace enhanced with pearls and sequins, a scalloped sabrina neckline, long sleeves that tapered to a point at the wrists and a taffeta skirt. The back of the bodice was illusion and dropped into a deep "v." The chapel length train was accented with lace cut appliques.

She wore a sequin and pearl headpiece with a cascading chapel length veil.

The bride carried a bouquet of white lillies and roses with English ivy, freesia and baby's breath.

She wore her grandmother's diamond pendant necklace and pearls.

The reception was held in the Hereford Country Club.

Mrs. Mike Hutson of Friona registered the wedding guests.

The bride's four layer Italian Cream Cake was covered with white lillies and roses. The groom's chocolate cake was monogrammed with the groom's initials.

Kim Barnett and Mrs. Kirk Bryant of Dallas served wedding cake. Punch and coffee were served by Gwen Manter of Dallas.

For a wedding trip to Aspen, Colorado, the bride chose a navy wool suit.

The bride is a graduate of Friona High School, Texas Tech University and is currently employed by Sunbelt National Mortgage Corporation, Dallas, Texas.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Hereford High School, attended West Texas State University and is currently employed by Imperial Holly Corporation, Hereford.

Out-of-town guests included

Mrs. Jeffrey Scott Hamilton

Lottie Handley of Wellington, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dismuke, Mr. and Mrs. C.D. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Swann, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Seay of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Nichols of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Geiv Irani and Steve Conway, of Dallas.

Also, Paul Behrenson of Cimarron, New Mexico; Brian Bailey of Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Greeson of Sublett, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Brock of Portales, N.M.; Cornelia Mitchell of Bowdon, Georgia; Mr. and Mrs. D.G. Hand and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sanders of Clovis; Mrs. Johnny Spring of Canyon; Vandra and Micah Milloy of Olton.

Also, Janet, Kami and Nick Hand of Dimmitt; J.B. GOAL REACHED....The employees at West Plains Feed Yard established a goal of 200 days without an accident, and reached that goal as of October 4. The employees were honored with a steak dinner for their achievement last Saturday at the Friona Community Center. Bill McCoy, feedlot manager, said the goal was entirely employee-generated. "It has increased our safety awareness 100 per cent. It also has improved other facets of our business, including productivity."

If Rip Van Winkle had gone to sleep in Friona and awakened within the last week or so, he probably would have thought it was spring instead of fall.

When he first opened his eyes, he could have seen lilacs in bloom in several places, as well as many peach and plum trees fully blossomed out. Had he gone to Roy and Eva Miller's home for lunch the first day, he would have seen a beautiful bouquet of fragrant lilac colored blossoms on the table.

Or, had he been a dinner guest in the home of Dee and Wyona Clark, he could have eaten freshly picked and snapped green beans.

Dee reported that after the hail had beaten the bean plants until they seemed completely gone, they began to put out new green shoots and before long, they had a full new crop.

Isn't it strange what kind of tricks Old Mother Nature pulls on the human race, as well as the vegetable kingdom, some times?

Ron and Edwina Davenport recently hosted a week long stay for their youngest son, Wade, and his meat judging team while they were doing a special study at the local Excel plant and competing in a contest at the plant in Plainview.

This group, which came down from Fort Collins, Colorado, also did some study at Texas Tech University, Lubbock. Wade is the coach for the team, which is composed of students at Colorado State University.

Others in the group were Sheila Millenbuck, Fort Collins; Jenifer Hamm, Pueblo, Colorado; Sandy Nelson, Wisdom, Montana; and Spike Meyring of Colran, Colorado.

Several other colleges and universities were also represented at the study sessions and contest. Some of them were Texas A&M at College Station, Texas Tech University at Lubbock and Auburn University at Auburn, Alabama.

Edwina reported, "It is always fun to have Wade and his students in our home. (This is the third time they have been here.) Cooking for a group is so much more fun than cooking for the two of us. It almost seemed like a step back in time to the years when Winfield and Wade were both at home and brought friends in for meals often."

"At least, you never had to wonder what to do with leftovers," she added.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny W. Hand went to Abilene, Friday afternoon, for the Saturday birthday party of their great-grandson, Karter, who observed his fourth birthday on Thursday.

Karter is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Jerry Nance. His mother is the former Kellijon Williams and his maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Kirby Williams of Fort Worth. Mrs. Williams, the former Johnnie Hand, is Johnny's and Elthie's daughter.

The Hands were accompanied by the Taylor County capital city by Wessie Hand and Dustee, Ashlee and ALee Gee. The group returned to Friona, Monday afternoon.

Out-of-town weekend visitors in the home of Jack Clark were his daughter, Janice Connally of Midland, and granddaughter, Amy Clark, who is a student at Texas Tech University.

When Monique Osborn Green flew up from Houston Thursday evening, she was met by her parents, Forrest and Dottie Osborn.

She came for the wedding of her college friend, Bari Kocyba of Canyon. Monique was one of the bridesmaids at the wedding, held at the Country Home Bed and Breakfast Inn, Canyon.

She returned home to Angleton on Sunday afternoon.

Monique is presently employed in the Angleton School District as a second grade teacher. Her husband, Dave, works as a paralegal at Pennzoil in Houston.

Many years ago, some wise man said, "There isn't any constant except change." The longer I live, the more I can see the wisdom of this statement of fact and make an effort to cope with whatever change comes into my life.

One change I do not like is the change Our Town has made in more recent years. Those of us who lived in And Around Friona when we rarely ever locked our doors have observed a vast change in more recent years.

The first twenty-one years the Floyd family lived on a farm west of town we had two outside doors...but, would you believe we didn't have a key for either one of them?

No one seemed concerned about the possibility of anyone "breaking and entering--of course, there would not have been any "breaking" in most instances--and taking any of our belongings.

Sorry, folks, but this isn't the case any more! At least two Friona homes were entered recently when no one was at home. In both instances, cash and other things were taken, along with some irreplaceable family records.

Whoever entered Ralph and Mary Reed's home out in the west part of town Thursday afternoon took some cash and a small strong box, which held some important papers including family records, vehicle titles and several irreplaceable mementoes.

Fortunately the Reeds later found the box in the back yard.

Mary said, "Our tools had been used to pry the lock off and the contents had been rearranged, but as far as we can tell, nothing was removed."

The bottom line is that all of us need to remember to be more careful about leaving our homes unlocked than we had to be for many many years.

Another thing we need to remember is that when we visit at Prairie Acres we should lock our car doors. Some of the residents over there, who are not responsible, need not be tempted to get in a vehicle.

Loy and Vuthill Loafman recently had a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Logsdon of Houston and Mr. and Mrs. T.B. Logsdon, Sulphur Springs, and Ell England, who lives in Garland.

The Logsdon men are Vuthill's brothers and Ell is her sister.

Friona lost a long time resident recently. Doris Sears, who was an employee of Friona State Bank several years before her retirement a few years ago, has moved to Canyon.

Late last week, Lynn and Randa Allen Copley, who had been living over on Ashland Avenue, moved into the house Doris vacated at 1211 Virginia.

Clara Seale had a very pleasant surprise early this week. Two of her sisters, Marie Sims of Logan, New Mexico and Odene Helms of Arlington, Texas, came to see her.

As most of you already know, I think sisters are very special people. I have three and treasure the time I am able to spend with each one of them.

Wasn't it Eddie Chiles who coined the phrase, "If you don't have an oil well, get one." I like, "If you don't have a sister, get one," better.

John and Kathrine Blackburn returned home about the middle of last week after spending a week visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Howard and daughters, Cara and Sara, who live in Kenner, Louisiana.

Mrs. Howard is the couple's daughter.

Howard and Evelyn Gray of Wall Township, New Jersey, returned to their home Tuesday after spending a couple of weeks or so visiting their Friona kith and kin.

They are the parents of Joan Ahrhart and he is the brother of Mrs. Rene Snead.

While the Grays were here, they accompanied the Sneads to northern New Mexico and southern Colorado for a look at the changing of the colors. One of the highlights of this trip was a train ride from Durango, Colorado to Silverton, Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Snead, who live in the Hub community, honored the couple with a going away dinner and game session Saturday evening.

Others present were Jenny

Ahrhart, Josh Snead, Rene and Jinx Snead and Shayli, Sawyer, and Stetson Reed.

Saturday was a very special day in the life of Lanis Graham. If she had any qualms about turning thirty, the excitement of the day should have boosted her spirits.

About six-thirty in the morning, Lisa Reed, Kathi Miller, Vicky Field and Varla Wilcox drove out to the Graham home and kidnapped her for breakfast at the Dairy Queen.

Later her husband, Ky, advised her that he had made plans to take her out for dinner that evening to celebrate the occasion.

As they were ready to leave that evening, he remarked that he must have misplaced his wallet.

As anyone would have expected, Lanis said, "That will be all right. There's money in mine."

After Ky remembered that his wallet might have fallen out of his shirt pocket as he stooped over to do some farm chore on the farm, the farthest from home, he thought they should go by there.

He spent longer than Lanis thought he should have looking for it, then decided they should return home to make a further search there.

As they entered the house with Lanis thinking they were looking for the lost item, she noticed that the table had been set with her most attractive dishes about the time friends appeared on the scene.

Her comment was, "I've never been more surprised in my whole life."

After a delicious meal, complete with birthday cake, which had been prepared by her friends was served, she was presented a number of gag gifts.

Those present were Thomas and Lisa Reed, Curt and Kathi Miller, Terry and Varla Wilcox, Tommy and Kristi Carr, Russell and Cindy Gustin, Leon and Jeffie Talley, Mike and Lynn Hutson and Dennis and Vickie Field.

Some time during the day, Lanis and her twin sister, Janis Polson, who lives in Lockney, exchanged "change of the decade" condolences via telephone.

If you were planning to move from Kerrville, Texas to Friona, Texas, what would you think the odds would be that you would have an across the street neighbor who was the sister of your present across the street neighbor?

That's exactly what happened to Barbara Symank and her mother, Opal Renfrow, when they moved here recently.

They have purchased the former home of Roxie Phipps at 1305 West Fifth. This house, built by Roxie and her husband, the late Mayo Phipps, back when maize was Parmer County's most grown crop, was featured in one of the Friona Star's Maize Days editions as "The House That Maize Built," and no one else has ever lived in it.

In Kerrville, Laverne Heinger lived across the street from this mother and daughter duo. In Friona, her sister, Lunie Fleming, lives across the street from them.

Barbara and Opal are new to Friona, but not new to the area. They are former Bailey County residents. Barbara is a graduate of Muleshoe High School and Opal is the widow of the late Razz Renfrow, who was a long time Texas Ranger.

If my present plans work out, by this time next week, I will be visiting with my Phillips five in the Big Sky Country.

Susan and Wess and their three sons, Clint, Kory and Tye, live on a cattle ranch north of Lewistown, which is near the geographical center of the state.

Would any of you like to write Town Talk until I return? If you would, just call Bill Ellis at 247-2211.

If not, please call any news items to the office and the rest of the staff will be deeply grateful to you.

What Is A P.A.?

By LINDA CONLEE, P.A.
(Editor's note: Linda Conlee, P.A., is a full-time staff member at Friona Medical and Surgical Clinic.)

With a Physician Assistant now on staff at the Friona Medical and Surgical Clinic, many people are asking, "Exactly what is a P.A.?" "What kind of training does a P.A. have?" and "What does a P.A. do?"

According to the Texas Association of Physician Assistants, "A Physician Assistant is a skilled health professional who is approved by the Texas Board of Medical Examiners and the Texas Medical Practice Act as qualified to work under the supervision of a physician." This means seeing patients in the clinic as well as in the emergency room at the hospital.

Some of the patient services a P.A. provides include taking medical histories, performing physician exams and making assessments. In a rural setting, that also includes prescribing medications under the guidelines of the Texas Medical Act.

To be admitted into a Physician Assistant program, at least two years of college is required, however, most individuals have baccalaureate degrees in pre-medical sciences as well as one or more years of direct patient care experience.

The Physician Assistant programs are in medical schools and universities affiliated with teaching hospitals accredited by the American Medical Association. In Texas, those locations are UT Southwestern Medical Center at Dallas, UTMB at Galveston and Baylor Medical School in Houston.

Upon graduation, Physician Assistants are certified by taking an exam overseen by the National Board of Medical Examiners. Recertification takes place every two years through continuing medical education and every six years by re-examination.

Many Physician Assistants are also admitted into special surgical programs within the general P.A. curriculum. Upon completion of their education, these P.A.'s usually go into such areas as cardiothoracic surgery, orthopedic surgery, plastic surgery or general surgery.

However, the P.A. in the rural setting provides a much needed service in areas which have been designated as "medically underserved."

This individual becomes an extension of the physician in order to give the best health care possible to the largest number of people possible, decreasing the long distances many rural residents must drive.

The rural P.A. was the original generator of the program, but the field has been and continues to be broadened into many various fields of medicine, as is evidenced by the number of post graduate P.A. residency programs now available across the nation.

"Should you have any further questions, please feel free to stop by the clinic. I will be happy to answer any questions you might have," Mrs. Linda Conlee said.

ASHLEE GEE recently graduated from La Plata Beauty School in Hereford and has passed the State Board of Cosmetology examination. She is currently on the staff of Suds 'n Scissors. She is the daughter of Everett Gee and Wessie Hand and is a graduate of Friona High School.

YOUR EYES

Choosing The Right Frame

Eyeglass frames are bigger and bolder this year, and broader at the temples. Some frames wrap sleekly around the face, offering added protection against the sun. The newest frames are richly colored: black, tortoise and stonelike textures.

The newest idea is to treat eyeglasses as a fashion accessory. Don't limit yourself to one style based on the shape of your face. So many more styles are available today that wearers can suit their personal style as well as their features. Fans of traditional fashion will go for classic frames; high-style types may prefer oversize ones.

People with blonde hair and light skin will look better in colored frames rather than yellow or translucent ones. At one time, people chose frames that covered the browline; that's no longer an issue. Just choose the frame you like.

One caveat: people with large noses should avoid glasses with a high bridge that visually elongates the nose.

Investor Alert On Mutual Funds--Read It and Reap (Second of a two-part series)

The North American Securities Administrators Association, in cooperation with the Council of Better Business Bureaus (BBB), has issued an Investor Alert bulletin on mutual funds that merits your attention. The bulletin is offered as an overview of mutual-fund investing, and it also contains tips for avoiding some of the more common investing pitfalls.

For example, regulations require that you be given a prospectus when you invest in a mutual fund. A prospectus probably won't ever make the best-seller list, but it's required reading for anyone considering an investment in a mutual fund.

In the prospectus, potential risks associated with the fund are disclosed. In addition, you'll find information about commissions and other fees. Don't let an overzealous salesperson discourage you from reading the prospectus and asking questions.

There is also a Statement of Additional Information (SAI) that expands on the information in the prospectus and is not required to be given to investors. The SAI includes the fund's audited financial statements, a list of securities in the fund's portfolio at the end of its fiscal year and more. Although much of this information appears in the prospectus, some of it can be found only in the SAI. Serious investors should ask for the SAI when they have unanswered questions about their fund.

FINANCIAL F.O.C.U.S.

(See Related Adv. Below)

The mutual-fund bulletin also alerts investors to unexpected commissions. A fund may not have any fees going in, but there could be back-end loads or redemption fees when your shares are sold. All this information, of course, is in the prospectus and the SAI. Although fund costs and expenses vary and may appear in different places in the prospectus and SAI, no mutual fund is offered to the investor free of charge.

Finally, the bulletin cautions against periodic payment plans or "contractuals." These long-term investment plans, which can tie up your money for 10 to 15 years, often require that up to 50 per cent of the first year's contributions go to paying the salesperson. This means that if you discontinue the plan or redeem shares early, you could suffer a substantial penalty. According to the BBB, such plans have been barred in California and Wisconsin, and other state securities administrators are considering similar regulations.

The Investor Alert bulletin contains valuable information on these and other potential investing pitfalls. Reading it is an excellent way to begin your mutual-fund investing.
