

The President's Proclamation

Washington, May 18.—President Wilson's proclamation putting into effect the selective draft provision of the war army bill, signed tonight, follows:

"A proclamation by the president of the United States:

"Whereas, Congress has enacted and the President has on the 18th day of May, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, approved a law which contained the following provisions:

"Section 5—That all male persons between the ages of 21 and 30, inclusive, shall be subject to registration in accordance with regulations to be prescribed by the president; and upon proclamation by the president or other public notice given by him or by his direction, stating the time and place of such registration it shall be the duty of all persons of the designated ages, except officers and enlisted men of the regular army, the navy and the national guard and naval militia while in the service of the United States to present themselves for and subject to registration under the provisions of this act and every such person shall be deemed to have notice of the requirements of this act upon the publication of such proclamation or other notice as aforesaid given by the president or by his direction; and any person who shall wilfully fail or refuse to present himself for registration or submit thereto as herein provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction in the district court of the United States having jurisdiction thereof, be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year, and shall thereupon be duly registered; provided that in the call of the docket procedure shall be given in courts trying the same, to the trial of criminal proceedings under this act: Provided, further, that persons shall be subject to registration as herein provided, who shall have attained their twenty-first birthday on or before the day set for the registration and all persons so registered shall be and remain subject to draft into the forces hereby authorized, unless exempted or excused therefrom as in this act provided: Provided further, from actual place of legal residence of any person liable to registration to be prescribed by the president.

Registrars and Clerks Ordered to Do Service.

"Section 6—That the president is hereby authorized to utilize the service of any or all departments and any or all officers or agents of the United States and of the several states, territories, and the District of Columbia, and sub-divisions thereof, in the execution of this act, and all officers and agents of the United States and of the several states, territories and sub-divisions thereof, and of the District of Columbia, and all persons designated or approached under regulations prescribed by the president himself or by the governor or any officer of state or territory to perform any duty in the execution of this act, are hereby required to perform such duty as the president shall order or direct, and all such officers and agents and persons so designated or appointed shall hereby have full authority for all acts done by them in the execution of this act by the direction of the president. Correspondence in the execution of this act may be carried in penalty envelopes bearing the frank of the war department. Any person charged as herein provided with the duty of carrying into effect any of the provisions of this act or regulations made or directions given thereunder who shall fail or neglect to perform such duty; and any person charged with such duty or having and exercising any authority under such act, regulations or directions, who shall knowingly make or be a party to the making of any false or incorrect registrations, physical examination exemption, enlistment, enrollment or muster; and any person who shall make or be a party to the making of any false statement or certificate as to the fitness or liability of himself or any person for service under the provisions of this act, or regulations made by the president thereunder, or otherwise evades or aids another to evade the requirements of this act or said regulations, or who, in any manner, shall fail or neglect fully to perform any duty required of him in the execution of this act shall, if not subject to military law, be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction in the district court of the United States having jurisdiction over, be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year, or, if subject to military law, shall be tried by court martial and suffer such punishment as a court martial may direct."

Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States, do call upon the governor of each of the several states and territories, and the board of commissioners of the District of Columbia, and all officers and agents of the several states and territories of the District of Columbia, and of the counties and municipalities therein to perform certain duties in the execution of the foregoing law, which duties will be communicated to them directly in regulations of even date herewith.

Registration Set for June 5. And I do further proclaim and give notice to all persons subject to registration in the several states and the District of Columbia in accordance with the above law that the time and place of such registration shall be

7-Passenger—48 Horsepower 127-inch Wheelbase

Now a Lifetime Car

BUILT AND TESTED FOR 200,000 MILES WITH 100 PER CENT OVER-STRENGTH

We now show Mitchells in two sizes and both designed, in every vital part, for twice the needed strength. And both with many extras.

Three years ago, after one year in Europe, John W. Bate resolved to double Mitchell strength.

Our standard then was 50 per cent over-strength. He decided to make it 100 per cent over-strength. In this year's cars, for the first time, we announce that new attainment.

Every Part Studied

He has made a study of every part. He has worn out fifty cars in learning needed over-strength. He has devised radical tests to prove at least double-strength.

Over 440 parts are built of toughened steel. Safety parts are vastly oversized. All parts which get a major strain are built of Chrome-Vanadium.

Gears are tested for 50,000 pounds per tooth. He perfected his springs—Bate cantilever—until in two years not a single one has broken. He subjects his engine to 10,000-mile tests, then takes it apart and inspects it.

The result, we believe, is a lifetime car. Several Mitchells have survived 200,000 miles of hard driving—about 40 years of ordinary service.

No Added Cost

This over-strength has been accomplished without factory cost. It is one of the Mitchell extras, paid for by factory savings.

This entire plant has been built and equipped to build this one type economically. Millions have been spent under John W. Bate, to this single end.

The result is a saving, on this year's output, of at least $4,000,000. And that whole sum is spent on Mitchell extras, including this over-strength.

Unique Attractions

This year's Mitchells have 31 features which nearly all cars omit. Things like a tire pump, dashboard engine primer, reversible head lights, etc. All things which you will want.

And on this year's cars we add 24 per cent to the cost of finish, upholstery, and trimming. The result is marvels of beauty and luxury, with a finish that endures.

Millions have been spent under John W. Bate, to this single end.

The result is a saving, on this year's output, of at least $4,000,000. And that whole sum is spent on Mitchell extras, including this over-strength.

What Would You Omit?

Come see these new cars and tell us what you would omit. Would you have a car less durable, less complete, less attractive?

If not, you must choose Mitchell. It has hundreds of extras which others do not offer. And they never can, at Mitchell prices, until they attain Mitchell factory efficiency.

One Size is Now $1150

This year the Mitchell comes in two sizes. The smaller is Mitchell Junior. It is a roomy and powerful Six—120-inch wheelbase, 40-horsepower motor. Large enough and powerful enough for a 5-passenger car.

So now you can get the size you want, and the price you want. And any style of body. And all are Mitchells, built to Mitchell standards, with the Mitchell extras and the Mitchell over-strength.

Come and see these latest models. They embody over 700 improvements which Mr. Bate has made.

TWO SIZES

MITCHELL—a roomy, 7-passenger Six, with 127-inch wheelbase and a highly-developed 48-horsepower motor.

Price $1460, f. o. b. Racine

MITCHELL JUNIOR—a 5-passenger Six on similar lines, with 120-inch wheelbase, and a 40-horsepower motor—1.4 inch smaller bore.

Price $1150 f. o. b. Racine
Also six styles of enclosed and convertible bodies. Also new Club Roadster.

WHAT IS A LIBERTY LOAN BOND?

Liberty Loan bond is a solemn promise of the United States to pay at maturity the amount of the bond to the holder thereof, and to pay interest semi-annually each year from the date of the issuance of the bond until it is fully and finally paid.

What is the Security for a Liberty Loan Bond?

The faith and honor of the United States, backed by all of the resources of the nation and the American people. A Liberty Loan Bond is a mortgage on all the resources and taxing powers of the government and all of the resources of the American people.

What is the Nature of a Liberty Loan Bond?

There are two kinds of Liberty Loan Bonds. Bearer bonds are to be issued in denominations of $50, $100, $500 and $1,000. These bearer bonds, which are made payable to bearer, have interest coupons attached which are detached by the holder when the interest installments they represent are due, and can be cashed at any Bank the same as a United States Treasury note.

Registered bonds are to be issued, which are registered as to both principal and interest in denominations of $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $50,000 and $100,000; checks for the amount of interest due will be mailed out semi-annually to the holders of these registered bonds.

What are the terms of a Liberty Loan Bond?

Liberty Loan Bonds, of the first issue of $2,000,000,000.00 are to bear date of June 15th, 1917, and to run for thirty years, except that the government reserves the right to pay them fifteen years after date. If this right is not exercised by the government fifteen years from date the bonds will run the full thirty years. These bonds bear interest at the rate of 3 1/2 per cent per annum, and the interest is payable semi-annually on the fifteenth day of December and the fifteenth day of June in each year.

What Special Advantages Have These Liberty Loan Bonds?

One special advantage no other corporate have is that if the United States during the continuance of this war shall issue other bonds at a higher rate of interest, the holders of these Liberty Bonds have a right to exchange their Liberty bonds for bonds bearing the higher rate of interest, dollar for dollar.

What Other Special Advantages Do These Bonds Possess?

They are nontaxable. If your city, county and State taxes are three mills on the dollars, a not unusual tax, these bonds are equivalent to ordinary corporate bonds or other investments bearing 6 1/2 per cent.

In addition no Federal tax which war conditions may later make necessary will affect these bonds. The only tax these bonds are subject to is the inheritance tax, which applies to all property of all kinds whatsoever.

How Are Liberty Bonds Obtained?

Blank forms of application for the purchase of these bonds can be obtained from the Treasury Department, any Federal Reserve Bank, any National, State or private bank, any express office and any post office in the United States. Any bank or postmaster will aid applicant in filling out his blank and the other acts necessary to obtain these bonds.

If These Bonds are So Desirable Why is It Necessary to Advertise Them Extensively?

It is not necessary to advertise these bonds to sell the whole issue, but it is earnestly desired that this loan shall be a popular loan, a loan by and from the people at large of the United States, and not alone from banks, trust companies and financiers. To that end bonds are to be issued of small denominations, and subscribers for small amounts are to be supplied before the subscribers for larger amounts are granted their full subscription.

Is It Patriotic to Purchase These Bonds?

Yes; every American who subscribes to the justice of the course of the United States in entering and conducting the war we are now engaged in should subscribe to the Liberty Loan Bond issue to the extent of his or her financial ability.

Every American that subscribes to the belief that an American should stand by his or her country should subscribe to the Liberty Loan bond issue.

Every American who loves America and is jealous of America's honor should subscribe to the Liberty Loan Bond issue. The real success of the loan is to be determined more by the number of Americans participating in it than by the amount subscribed. The spirit of the nation is going to be judged abroad, especially by our enemies, more by the number of its American men and women who support this bond issue than by the amount of money subscribed.

YOUR PATRIOTIC DUTY—BUY A LIBERTY LOAN BOND.

A LIBERTY LOAN BOND IS A MORTGAGE ON THE UNITED STATES.

"Why Liberty Loan?"

The $5,000,000,000 bond issue of this year is named "The Liberty Loan of 1917" because it is to be a loan from a free people to be used in freeing the world.

It is the loan of a liberty-loving people to be devoted to the establishment of liberty in Europe and on the high seas.

It is the loan of the great democracy of the new world to redress the wrongs and support the cause of the democracy of the old.

FORMER MAYOR OF BIRMINGHAM, ALA., ENDORSES TANLAC.

"You Will Hardly Know Me When You Meet Me Again, For I'm Getting Well," He Writes.

One of the latest additions to the list of leaders of thought and action who have come forward with their unqualified endorsement of Tanlac is the name of Hon Frank V. Evans, former Mayor of Birmingham, Ala., Alabama State Examiner of Public Accounts of Alabama, and one time editor of one of the south's greatest newspapers—The Birmingham-Age Herald.

Writing to a personal friend in Atlanta, Mr. Evans says:

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 2, 1917. "By the way, you will hardly know me when we meet again because I am getting well and strong again. As I told you while in Atlanta last month, I have been suffering a long time with gastritis, as the doctor call it—really a disordered stomach with consequent constipation, pains in the shoulders, belching, heartburn, loss of appetite, loss of sleep and fainting spells. For weeks I could not sleep on my back.

"One week ago, upon recommendation of friends, who had tried the medicine, I purchased one bottle of Tanlac and began taking it. Since my second dose I have suffered none of these troubles to which I refer, and really believe I am going to get perfectly well and strong again. Won't that be wonderful at my age? Well, certain it is that Tanlac is a wonderful medicine, and you know that I am not given to 'puffing' mere experiments and am rather orthodox as to materia medica.

"I shall continue the treatment with perfect confidence in the final results.

(Signed) "FRANK V. EVANS." Commenting on this splendid endorsement of Tanlac, G. F. Willis, Southern Distributor of Tanlac, said:

How Eye Glasses Preserve Sight

Good sight is largely mechanical. Light rays must strike the retina exactly right or vision can not be made clear. Nature gets the focus by muscular action.

Often the muscles are under continuous strain, which is harmful to eyes, sight and health. Properly fitted glasses remove this strain and preserve good vision.

Headache, nervousness, frowning, tired eyes, are symptoms of strain. If you are bothered in this way consult Peterson about your eyes.

THE BY-PRODUCT AN ECONOMIC FACTOR. Although it seems an insignificant thing to many Americans— America being the most extravagant Nation in its mode of living— the idea of furnishing farmers with 'eyes' cut from Irish potatoes by the hotels and restaurants is typical of the economy that is asked of the people.

LIEC THAT MAKE NEWSPAPERS SCRATCH. Here is something you might stick in your hat band: "If I owned a newspaper, what I would say in it just now would be a plenty," remarked a man the other day.

He was invited to write what he wanted to say, with assurance that it would be printed if his signature accompanied it. He very promptly declined the tender, remarking that "it would hurt his business."

What newspaper has not had this very same experience with this very same yellow-bellied tadpole of a citizen who splutters and splutters about what ought to be printed in a newspaper and what ought to be omitted, and yet when you invite the coward to be responsible for the manuscript he wants you to publish, he whines like a sick dog, skulks behind this pretext and that, and wobbles out of the office with a grouse?

That is not all. He writes in that he will stop his paper if you don't print what he himself won't sign. Yet if you were to suggest to him that his threat to stop his paper is pure and simple coercion through a threat of blackmail he would yowl like a tomcat with its tail stepped on.

The fellow who threatens to stop his paper is trying to do to the newspaper in a small way the very thing that he would condemn as criminal in a corporation that tried in any way to throttle the freedom of the press. Threatening to stop the paper is an attempt at intimidation.

But it is worse than that. Threatening to stop the paper is a confession of bigoted intolerance on the part of the delinquent subscriber that pulls such a bone for it means that he does not want the paper to have the courage of its own convictions after all, but insists that it shall have only the courage of the convictions of the stop-my-paper threatener.

Why do newspapers have these annoyances? Well, why do hotels sometimes have bedbugs, and a hen house have lice?—Marion (Ohio) Tribune.

Hogs. A reduced supply of hogs today failed to divert the efforts of packers to break prices.

Mer run of sows will be lighter than usual, for the sake of the fall pig crop.

Sheep, Lambs and Goats. Receipts were 9,500, market sharply lower on all kinds.

The program was certainly splendid and the music of the masters was interpreted in song and by piano, and the large audience was hearty and sincere in their insistence of encores.

war portions at all meals, serving no more upon the plate than will be eaten. Third—To make or purchase wheat bread, bread which has other cereals or food-stuffs substituted as far as possible for wheat flour.

Fourth—To reduce the amount of fresh meat consumed in the home at least one-third, and not to purchase or use veal in any form, as the slaughter of the immature animal will further reduce the beef supply.

Fifth—To purchase foods in large quantities with a view of holding them for future use in anticipation of scarcity or high prices, as such hoardings will reduce the available food supply and make prices highest for those who can least afford to pay them.

Sixth—To urge national prohibition of the manufacture of alcoholic liquors during the war, in order that the 600,000,000 bushels of grain used annually for this purpose may be available for food.

Seventh—To further the conservation of all perishable food products, (1) by home preservation; (2) by co-operation with qualified agencies working in the field for this purpose.

Eighth—By co-operating with those engaged in the teaching of the practical selection, preparation and serving of foods.

One of the most successful ways in which the women of the State may render service in food conservation is by helping the farmer find markets for the perishable food products which are maturing so rapidly.

Organizations of women in the cities should be formed at once to get in touch with the farmers of their vicinities for the purpose of eliminating such waste.

TO OUR FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS.

In order that you may know the reason why lumber is costing more today than it did one year ago, we offer for your consideration the following facts: Everything which goes into the manufacture of lumber has doubled and trebled in value.

Harness, belting and everything else made of leather is likewise, and the saw mills are paying higher wages.

The demand for lumber has grown by leaps and bounds. For some time buyers from the northern and eastern states remained out of the market, thinking it would weaken, but on the contrary it has steadily advanced and when the actual conditions became known they bought in large quantities and paid fancy prices for quick shipments.

The United States and allied governments are using millions of feet for war purposes. Work has begun on one thousand merchant vessels to be built entirely out of wood and nearly all of it will be made out of yellow pine.

The above are some of the reasons why lumber costs more than it did a year ago,—but have you stopped to think that a bushel of wheat, oats, corn or maize will buy more lumber and building material than it would last year. We do not look for a decline in prices at any time soon.

Yours very truly, A. G. McADAMS LUMBER CO. E. C. Blankenbeckler, Local Mgr.

BOND BUYING EASY.

The Liberty Bond issue is PLANNED FOR THE AVERAGE man.

If you can buy only a $50 bond on the installment plan, here is how Uncle Sam has made it easy for you:

- Pay $1 when you apply for the bond—and you must apply before June 15.
- Pay $9 on June 28.
- Pay $10 on July 30.
- Pay $15 on August 15.
- Pay $15 on August 30.

And then you will own your own bond, and it will be paying you 3½ per cent interest.

BABY BEEVES POPULAR.

The demand for small, high-quality cuts of meat and the increased cost of producing beef have combined to foster the rapid growth of the baby-beef industry. Baby beeves may be described as well fattened, finished animals weighing from 900 to 1,200 pounds and marketed when between 14 and 20 months old. It takes less food to produce a pound of flesh with them than with mature cattle, they sell as high as the best of other fat cattle, and markets for baby beeves have been very stable during the last ten years. The young heifers sell as well as the steers, and returns from the money invested in the production of such cattle come quicker. On the other hand, it takes more experience to succeed with baby beeves than with mature cattle, a better grade of stock is required, and far roughage can not be substituted for grain to the same extent.

In a new publication of the United States Department of Agriculture, devoted to this subject, Farmers' Bulletin 811, it is pointed out that the first necessity for the production of baby beef is a herd that has at least a fair amount of beef blood. The cows need not be pure-breds, but they should have at least two or three crosses of such blood in them. A preponderance of dairy blood will not give profitable results. The cows should, however, produce enough milk to keep the calves well and growing without much additional feed.

A good bull will do much to offset defects in the cow herd. A good beef for mand a strong tendency toward earliness of maturity are essentials; the owners' success, in fact, depends to a great extent upon the bull's ability to transmit the latter characteristic to his offspring. Money spent in acquiring a bull that will do this is likely to prove a good investment, for the whole baby-beef industry depends upon speed in finishing the animals for market.

A herd at least large enough to produce a car-load of calves a year is recommended in the bulletin already mentioned. Shipping in car-load lots is usually the only economical way of getting stock to market, from twenty to twenty-seven baby beeves constituting a car-load. Some allowance must, of course, be made for loss and for calves that are not suited for treatment as baby beef. Since a well matured bull can easily take care of fifty or sixty cows, the bull charge per calf also will be greater when the breeding herd is small. On the other hand, great care must be taken not to crowd the pastures. Good bluegrass or clover should carry from 50 to 100 cows on a hundred acres, other pastures from 50 to as low as 5. The amount of available roughage is another important factor in determining the size of the breeding herd. Roughage should form the basal portion of the ration for the cows. It can not be bought with profit at the prevailing prices, and no more cows should be kept, therefore, than the farmer can feed with home-grown roughage.

The feeding of calves intended for market depends on a number of factors, such as the season of the year they are born in, whether or not any other use is made of the mother's milk before weaning, and the age at which it is planned to sell the beeves. Suggestive rations in which these points are considered are given in the bulletin already mentioned. These are made up of corn, cottonseed meal, corn silage, clover hay and oat straw. If barley, milo, kafir, or similar grains are substituted for corn, somewhat larger quantities should be used. Linseed meal may be used instead of cottonseed meal, and if neither of these is available, a high-grade leguminous hay should be used for roughage.

SOUTH AMERICANS LIKE OUR PEARS AND APPLES.

Brazil and Argentina together now take 80,000 barrels of American apples each year, and the trade is growing steadily, says a report on South American markets for fresh fruits just issued by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, of the Department of Commerce. Trade in other fruits is less important, but since the war started American products have had the market to themselves so far as outside competition is concerned, and have made a very good impression.

In both Brazil and Argentina the American apple is supreme in the high-class trade, as it is in all parts of the world, and its sale is limited only by the number of people who are able to pay the rather high prices asked for it. The American pear is especially well liked in Brazil, and sells well, also, in Argentina. In Brazil apples and pears appeal to consumers in much the same manner that tropical fruits appeal to Americans, but in Argentina, where the climate in the main closely resembles that of the United States, American fruits of this description sell for two entirely different reasons, first because they come during the off season for the native and New Zealand fruit, and second because of their unquestioned quality.

PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION

tween 7 a. m. and 9 p. m. on the fifth day of June 1917, at the registration place in the precinct wherein they have their permanent homes. Those who shall have attained their twenty-first birthday and who shall not have attained their thirty-first birthday on or before the day here named are required to register, excepting only officers and enlisted men in the regular army, the navy, the marine corps, and the national guard, and naval militia, while in the service of the United States and officers in the officers reserve corps and enlisted men in enlisted reserve corps while in the active service. In the territories of Alaska, Hawaii and Porto Rico a day for registration will be named in a later proclamation.

And I do charge those who through sickness shall be unable to present themselves for registration that they apply on or before the day of registration to the county clerk of the county where they may be, for instructions as to how they may be registered by agent. Those who expect to be absent on the day named from the counties in which they have their permanent homes may register by mail, but their mail registration cards must reach the places in which they have their permanent homes by the day named herein. They should apply as soon as practicable to the county clerk of the county wherein they may be for instructions as to how they may accomplish this registration by mail. In case such persons as, through sickness or absence may be unable to present themselves personally for registration shall be sojourning in cities of over thirty thousand population they shall apply to the city clerk wherein they may be sojourning rather than to the clerk of the county. The clerks of counties and of cities over 30,000 in which numerous applications from the sick and from non-residents are expected are authorized to establish such sub-agencies and to employ and deputize such clerical force as may be necessary to accommodate these applications.

"The power against which we are arrayed has sought to impose its own will upon the world by force. To this end it has increased armament until it has changed the face of war. In the sense in which we have been wont to think of armies there are no armies that in the case of temporary absence in this struggle. There are entire nations armed. Thus, the men who remain to till the soil and man the factories are no less a part of the army that is in France than the men that are beneath the battleflags. It must be so with us. It is not an army that we must shape and train for war, it is a nation. To this end, our people must draw close in one compact front against a common foe. But this cannot be if each man pursued a private purpose. All must pursue one purpose. The nation needs all men; but it needs each man, not in the field that will most please him, but in the endeavor that will best serve the common good. Thus, though a sharpshooter pleases to operate a trip hammer for the forging of the great guns, and an expert machinist desires to march with the flag, the nation is best served only when the sharpshooter marches and the machinist remains at his levers. The whole nation must be a team in which each man must play the part for which he is best fitted. To this end, Congress has provided that the nation shall be organized for war by selection and that each man shall be classified for service in the place to which it shall best serve the general good to call him.

The significance of this cannot be overestimated. It is a new thing in our history and a landmark in our progress. It is a new manner of accepting and vitalizing our duty to give ourselves with thoughtful devotion to the common purpose of us all. It is no sense a conscription of the unwilling; it is rather, selection from a nation which has volunteered in mass. It is no more a choosing of those who shall march with the colors than it is a selection of those who shall serve an equally necessary and devoted purpose in the industries that lie behind the battle line.

"One of the Most Conspicuous Moments."

"The day here named is the time upon which all shall present themselves for assignment to their tasks. It is for that reason destined to be remembered as one of the most conspicuous moments in our history. It is nothing less than the day upon which the manhood of the country shall step forward in one solid rank in defense of the ideals to which this nation is consecrated. It is important to those ideals no less than to the pride of this generation in manifesting its devotion to them, that there be no gaps in the ranks.

"It is essentially that the day be approached in thoughtful apprehension of its significance and that we accord to it the honor and the meaning that it deserves. Our industrial needs prescribe that it be not made a technical holiday, but the stern sacrifice that is before us urges that it be carried in all our hearts as a great day and patriotic devotion and obligation when the duty shall be upon every man, whether he is himself to be registered or not, to see to it that the name of every male person of the designated ages is written on these lists of honor.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the City of Washington this 18th day of May in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventeen and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and forty-first.

"By the President:

ROBERT LANSING,

"Secretary of State."

TRUTH

As its advertisement—so the car. An honest announcement goes with an honest car.

Truth is the eternal test.

You will never read a Chevrolet statement making any extravagant claim.

True, we have claimed certain qualities for our car—superior motor-power, easy riding comfort, low cost of upkeep—but we have always been prepared to support our statement with the proof.

We claim that the Chevrolet model—now as always—stands for the highest motor value in its price class.

Test our statement—see the Chevrolet car, ride in it.

You will find—as thousands of others have—that we have spoken the truth.

Considerable more sod was broken after the showers.

House cleaning seems to be the order of the day among the good housewives as the recent showers settled the dust and warmer weather has come.

The planting of corn, maize, sudan, etc., is in progress, some of which is coming up.

Mr. Clark Dye returned from New Mexico yesterday.

Rev. Upton filled the regular appointment here last Sunday, his theme being the "Great War."

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dye entertained the young people on Friday evening at their home in honor of the 21st birthday of their son, Bryan, and also the birthday of their friend, Miss Malzie Wilson.

A very enjoyable event was the celebration of their forty-first wedding anniversary by Mr. and Mrs. William Barrett on the evening of May 19th. The house was prettily decorated in pink and white and the dining table was beautiful in its decorations of flowers and foliage. Delicious refreshments of cake, ice cream, sherbet, lemonade and punch were served with a lavish hand.

Those present to congratulate and enjoy the generous hospitality of this worthy couple were Mrs. Joe Barrett and son Walter, of Plainview, Mr. Charley Barrett and family of Prairie View, Rev. and Mrs. T. B. Haynie of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. John Chilton and Mr. and Mrs. Seviars of West Side, Mr. and Mrs. McComas and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Gilbert and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Pinkerton, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dye and Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Huguley, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hooper, Mrs. N. L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Will Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Nye, Mr. H. B. Allen and daughter, Miss Bertie Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kleingest and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Helm Billie Bickett and Ed Mitchell.

Mrs. J. E. Stewart went yesterday morning to nurse her brother-in-law, Mr. Ed Monzingo, who was very seriously hurt by a cow falling upon him while milking.

The measles epidemic seems to have subsided, but whooping cough now prevails. Baysil Huguley's babies and the Kayler children now have it.

The Mothers Club will meet every two weeks in the homes of the members. A business session will be held at each meeting at 3 o'clock, followed by a social hour.

The Mothers Club is planning to get up a play of female characters in the near future.

This Sunday School has been meeting continuously for this length of time without once having to be reorganized. We are proud of our record and would like to hear from other country Sunday Schools who have done as well.

The "Leauge" meets next Saturday evening (May 26th). Everybody is cordially invited to be present.

Our Sunday School is preparing to celebrate our eighth birthday anniversary on June 10.

GOVERNOR AND HULEN CONFER REGARDING GUARD INCREASE.

Texas Military Force to Be Raised to 16,000 as Soon as Possible.

AUSTIN, Texas, May 25.—Governor Ferguson and Brigadier General John A. Hulen were in conference today, presumably discussing the organization of the new Texas military units to the extent of 16,000 men. General Hulen has just returned from Washington. Though he was unsuccessful in persuading the War Department to accept a full division from Texas, consisting of 25,000 officers and men, he brings first hand the plans of the War Department for raising the various State apportionments under the call. His knowledge will enable Texas to proceed intelligently and expeditiously, it is believed, in preparing her quota of 16,000. It is expected that the Governor will announce the higher officers within the next week or ten days for the new regiments.

The Governor's office was besieged today with persons interested in military matters. Most of them were seeking commissions for self or friends. The executive ante room is filled every day at this time with those who come to Austin interested in the military. Quite a few want appointments in the Ranger force to be organized under the law enacted at the regular session authorizing the Governor to create the Ranger home guard of not over 1,000 and appropriating $250,000 therefor. Some of them wish to be captains, while many dashing youngsters who have read of the exploits of the Rangers want to enlist in that body. Some of them know nothing of horsemanship and have never shot a gun, but they want the excitement they believe will come with Ranger service.

Louis Wilson, of Dallas, official lecturer for the Woodmen of the World, conferred with the Governor this morning regarding the offer of the Woodmen to furnish a brigade for the Texas contingent. It has become apparent that there is not room for the Woodmen or any other organization in Texas to furnish a whole brigade, so the Woodmen may have to confine themselves to a regiment. A definite number is to be fixed later.

TO ORGANIZE FOR SERVICE.

A meeting of all women of Hale County, Texas, is hereby called to meet at the Court House in Plainview on Thursday, June 7th, at 4 p. m., to organize a League for Women's Service, the object of which is to co-ordinate and standardize the work of women along lines of constructive patriotism; to develop the resources and to promote the efficiency of women in meeting their every-day responsibilities to Home, to State, to Nation, and to Humanity. This organization may be of great benefit to us, and all are urged to be present and help make same a success. CHARLES CLEMENTS, County Judge.

HOTELS GIVE POTATO EYES TO FARMERS FOR SEED.

APPLETON, Wis., May 25.—Another step toward conservation of foods was projected here when E. W. Draper, of the Sherman House, in conjunction with several other hotel men, entered into a contract to supply farmers of the county with the eyes of potatoes cut from "spuds" used at the hotels. These eyes will be used for seeds.
