R. A. Underwood States That Information Will Be Presented to Help Farmers in Hale County.

The "Wheat Show" conducted by the Citizens National Bank came to an auspicious close last Saturday, when hundreds of farmers and business men gathered in the building and observed the display of exhibits in the show room. Two hundred and fifteen dollars in prizes was awarded to the farmers of Hale County who entered the contest. Thirty-two of the persons who entered exhibits were awarded prizes

Fred Weyl was awarded first place in the yield per acre on dry-farm land. He won the twenty-five-dollar prize on growing twenty-seven and one-half bushels of wheat to the acre. Frank Simonton was granted second place, with twenty-seven bushels to the Al! of the farmers who grew nineteen or more bushels of wheat to the acre on dry farms were given a prize.

In the irrigated-land contest, Nick Klein captured first money by growing thirty bushels to the acre. A. E. Tumberg was awarded second place on twenty-four bushels to the acre. There were six prizes awarded in the irrigated-land contest.

Frank Simonton of Hale Center won first honors in the test-weight contest. His wheat tested out sixty-three pounds to the bushel, and A. E. Tumberg, N. M. Sell, Cyrus Erd, A. A. Woods and J. W. Nefl all tied for sec-wood this morning that the information obtained by the letters sent in by the farmers will be gathered and presented in a wheat growers' bulletin to be published within the near future. Prof. A. F. Winston to Be Dean This Mr. Underwood believes that the words of the farmers in this part of the country on the success of growing wheat is much more valuable knowledge to the farmers than that information obtained from various colleges of agriculture and the government, where surveys are made in different lands and under different conditions. The information obtained here is home product and will go toward making greater success in the production of home grains under home conditions, said Mr. Underwood.

DEMOCRACY'S DUTY TO ITS DEFENDERS

The plan for furnishing our soldiers and sailors life and indemnity insurance and allowances to dependent families, embodied in a bill now pending in Congress, seems to meet with the cordial appreciation of the people and the press of the country. Some extracts from editorials in various papers follow:

The Philadelphia Public Ledger: " 'When we draft the wage earner,' says Secretary McAdoo, 'we call not only him but the entire family to the flag.' This is the funda- twelve iron pots from the school board mental argument for the war-insurance bill now before Congress. It is the absence of any provision for those left behind which leads so many who would gladly give themselves to their country to ask exemption.

When military service is obligatory other things are obligatory, 'The national conscience,' as the Secretary puts it, 'will not dependent school district delinquent permit America's soldiers and their dependents to go unprovided with tax lists were opened and the contract everything that a just, generous, and noble people can do to compensate them for the sufferings and the sacrifices' exacted of them. That has never been the American way.

'The aim of the war-insurance bill is to do justice to the soldiers abandoned a reasonable time after nowithout doing injustice to the taxpayers.'

Under the title that heads this article the New York Times says "Not a dollar of the billions given to the deserving is regretted. If the proposed plan shall secure that only the deserving shall be carried upon the country's resources, even billions would be paid and leave still a debt unpaid. There can be no real money indemnity for death or disability. The feeling of duty done and appreciated by countrymen is all that can be offered against such suffering.

The New York World calls army insurance "A square deal for our fighting men," and comments:

"What the chief industrial States are doing in insurance and have been called to the colors. Doctor compensation of workers in peace the Federal Government now pro- Robinson placed emphasis on the fact poses to do with its fighting men in war. Under this front are serving their nation, humanplan the cost will be known as we go along. Even-handed justice will ity and civilization. be assured. Political and personal favor will go for nothing. There should be no doubt of its adoption."

The Richmond Times-Dispatch indorses the plan:

"Since the Government has benevolently insured ships and cargoes, seamen and pilots engaged in perilous war enterprises, it seems emiently proper that officers and men of the Army and Navy. who run immeasurably greater risks, should be generously indemnified equalization, and has sent out notices in case of maining or death. The proposed legislation is designed as for hearings to begin September 12th. substitute for post-war pensions, a circumstance which further commends it to us.

The Atlanta Journal's closing paragraph of an editorial com- 500,000. The increase in city valuamending the plan is as follows: "The needs anticipated by the bill are so numerous and the E. H. Perry, E. R. Williams and mantel of protection which it would throw about the country's defenders and their families is so broad that only an extensive review could do it justice, but its great principles really need no commendation. They speak for themselves, and they will appeal, we feel sure, with two large lots, near High School to the mind and heart of Congress and they do to the mind and heart Building. See owner, A. Government's solicitude for the men it calls to the colors, should be pressed promptly to enactment."

To these may be added the endorsement of Colonel Rossevelt: "It puts the United States where it ought to be, as standing in the forefront among the nations in doing justice to our defenders.

An Unprecedented Business is coming to us day by day, whether on account of the war or in spite of it, is an undecided question, but whatever may be the cause, the summer's great business inspired our faith in an active fall trading and the earlier orders for fall and winter goods were materially increased. We also placed large supplementary orders, the result of which is seen in the continuous arrivals of fall and winter merchandise, totaling by far the greatest aggregation of goods this store has ever assembled.

WE ARE FORTUNATE IN OWNING THIS GREAT FALL STOCK:

The constant price advance is serious, but of equal importance is the fact that in scores of staple lines now arriving, factories are unable to procure materials for their production at any price and are declining all orders for delivery within the remaining months of the year.
