WHEAT HARVEST CLOSING; YIELD IS SATISFACTORY

MANY THRESHERS RUNNING, AND MARKETING OF GRAIN HAS BEGUN

The harvesting of the Hale county wheat crop is drawing to a close, and by the middle of next week most of it will be cut and shocked. The weather during the entire time of the harvest has been just right, and the reapers have been running every day and far into the night in some instances.

The threshers are now very busy, and will continue for weeks. The yield is heavy and far above the average of any previous year. Some men say the average will run more than twenty-five bushels to the acre. Some yields will run above forty bushels to the acre.

On a few farms combined headers and threshers are being used, pulled by tractors, and the claim is made that the cost is less when such machines are used, besides work can continue at night.

The marketing movement has already begun, and within several days will be in full blast. A healthy stream of money will soon be flowing into the Plainview country from the grain crop, and the bank deposits will increase rapidly.

Books Will Be Returned to the Donors

Last fall an appeal was made to the people of Hale county for books for the soldiers in camps. Quite a number were received, but before they could be sent away the armistice was signed and it was not learned to what camp they should be sent. Now since peace has been made and the camps are no longer used, there is no need of the books. If all who donated books will call at the library any Tuesday or Friday afternoons during the next thirty days they can get them. After that time some other disposition will be made of them.

LIBRARY COMMITTEE.

Opposed to Sunday Baseball

The Woman's Missionary Auxiliary of the Methodist church met in joint business session Monday afternoon and took action in the matter and placed themselves on record as against Sunday baseball playing; furthermore they earnestly hope that those interested in the welfare of Plainview will give themselves actively over to creating public sentiment against Sunday baseball games, until Sunday playing is stopped entirely.

He stopped over en route from Fort Worth where he has been employed in the Burruss Mill and Elevator Company to Plainview where he has accepted a position as head miller for the Harvest Queen Milling Company. Mr. Perkins was formerly with the Kell Milling Company in Vernon.—Vernon Record.

State Highway Engineer Here

J. D. Fountelroy, federal district highway engineer, came in this morning to confer with the roads committee of the City Board of Development and the commissioner's court relative to plans for improving the roads of Hale county. The commissioner's court has been called into special session today to confer with Mr. Fountelroy.

Frank Jamison, secretary-manager of the Panhandle Chamber of Commerce, was here yesterday enroute to Amarillo from a trip to Sweetwater where he attended a meeting of a highway association which route runs from Del Rio to Ochiltree, via Childress and Sweetwater.

Now the French are considering resuming trade with Germany. Three months ago all France was resolved never to even breathe the same air with Germany. What a healer is Old Father Time.

The reason why a thrifty man always gets by is because the emergencies that we are prepared for are the ones that never turn up.

PRIVATE STILL FOUND IN OPERATION NEAR HALE CENTER

Small Liquor Making Machine Discovered In Wheat Field—Arrests are Made

A private whiskey still was discovered last week in operation in a wheat field near Hale Center. It was a small affair, though complete in every detail, from the corn cooker to the drain, and container, with a coil, etc. It was in actual operation, and the juice was actually flowing through it at the time.

The federal officers from Amarillo came down and took charge of the outfit, and we understand that several well known citizens of the community have either been arrested or will be at once. With the still was found a booklet from a San Antonio firm telling the process by which the still was to be operated.

Soldiers Return Home

Sgt. Frank Henderson returned last week from service with the army across seas. He was one of the first to go from Hale center under the draft law. He has his old position with Richards Bros. & Collier.

W. G. Edmonson of Runningwater arrived here July 3rd. He was on the fighting line for thirty days, and had a full part in pushing back the Germans.

Will Dowden returned Saturday from overseas service with the army and Ethelbert Dowden came in Wednesday. They were in the engineering corps.

Quitaque Will Celebrate

G. Tunnell and T. O. Wood of Quitaque are in town today, urging that the people of the Plainview country attend the big celebration to be held there July 31 and August 1. There will be a basket dinner the first day and a barbecue the second, and arrangements are being made to entertain thousands of people. The roads between Plainview and Quitaque are fine, so these gentlemen say, and a quick run can be made.

Will Prosecute Weighers

A complaint has been filed with the county attorney against one or more local independent public weighers for conducting a weighing business without having complied with the law, which provides that all public weighers for profit must be elected or appointed as such. The attorney says he intends to enforce the law relative to this matter.

Oil Land Near Petersburg

A lease has been filed with the county clerk, whereby R. B. Havenhill has leased eighty acres of land near Petersburg to L. M. Hitt of Detroit, Mich., for the purpose of drilling for oil and gas, and runs for five years. If drilling does not begin before March 31, 1920, the lease terminates.

Georgia Refuses to Ratify

Georgia has the questionable honor of being the first state to refuse to ratify the woman's suffrage amendment, which action was taken Tuesday. It seems some of the Southern states are shoe bent on defeating the democratic party in next year's presidential campaign.

Hog Prices are Highest

The price of hogs continues to rise, and is now higher than ever before in the history of the markets. Yesterday the price on the Kansas City market was $22.20 per cwt. It is predicted that the price will go to 23c a pound.

Lubbock Youth Killed by Kick

Oliver D. Aiken, age 19, son of O. H. Aiken of Lubbock, while working in a harvest field Monday, was kicked by a horse, and died in Amarillo hospital Tuesday afternoon.

Florida To Colorado Route

A convention of delegates along the Florida to Colorado highway will be held in Brownwood next Monday. This route comes through Plainview.

Wholesalers declare that the prices of dry goods will hardly begin to decline before ten years. Higher prices are predicted soon on account of continued labor strikes and after war conditions. Especially will the prices of silks, crepes and lingerie rise. Hats are also to go up in price.

Hale county subscribed for $186,500 of this issue of bonds.

One of the greatest needs of the people of the world is more everyday old-fashioned common horse-sense.

After a four weeks' stay in South Texas, the beauty of the Plains appear in greater contrast with that section of the state.

Of course, being speaker of the house is a very nice job, but if we ever go back to the legislature we are going to insist on being superintendent over the twenty-five or thirty young lady stenographers who work during the sessions.

There is no denying that the morale and sanity of the people of the United States are improving. Only half of the seats at the Willard-Dempsey prize fight were occupied. In all other such affairs in the past thousands could not get seats.

There are now only twenty-three war monuments in progress in the world—fifteen in Europe, five in Asia, one in Africa and two in North America. It seems that we are still considerably removed from that time mentioned in the bible when people shall know war no more.

Samuel Gompers and his bunch say they are willing to extend a helping hand to Germany if the Germans will show themselves worthy. Gompers and his bunch extended a helping hand to Germany while the war was on by having six thousand strikes in this country, and thus hamstringing the Aemican and allied armies in their fighting.

The matter of enforcement of wartime prohibition is giving thousands of people in the big cities of the East and North more concern than whether Germany will observe the peace terms or Italy will declare war on the Balkan states. The fact that John Barleycorn has such a tenacious hold on some people is one of the foremost reasons why he should be kicked off the earth.

The editor of the News is meek, fore-bearing, and believes in living peaceably with people if it is possible to do so; but he has come to the conclusion that it is about time for Uncle Sam to take Carabotta by the nape of the neck and the loose place in his breeches and pitch him out of the presidential chair. He is but little more than an ordinary piece of meanness, fuss and whiskers. Uncle Sam has already been too patient with him.

The federal government is sending out warnings for the people to buy their winter supply of coal during the summer, as a serious shortage faces the country in the fall, when the railroads will be taxed to their limit moving crops and manufactured goods. The News urges up on the people of Hale county to lay in their supply of coal at once, to relieve the situation for this section. Not only is it best to buy coal now, but by doing so money can be saved.

Of late the editor of the News has talked with a number of returned private soldiers, and has found that nearly all of them are prejudiced against the commissioned officers under whom they served. We have heard them say that under no circumstances will they vote for officers for political offices. Hence, the booms that are being put forward for army officers for president, governor, congressman, etc., will not likely get very far on the road to success.

A bunch of newspapers of the state are very much exercised over the prospect that the legislature will reduce the appropriation for the "extension departments" of the State University, A. & M. College and department of agriculture. Between us, a goodly part of this so-called "extension work" is little more than camouflage—and graft. Four out of five of the "extension agents" are incompetent theorists and persons who have failed at farming or at the business which they have worked. Down at Austin we heard legislators mention a certain "hog expert" who went bankrupt while trying to raise hogs on his own look and then got a job in the agricultural extension department, and is now going about the state telling other people how to succeed in hog raising.

The women of Dallas county are going after the political scalp of Senator McNealus of that district. He was for woman's suffrage, but right at the end he deserted the cause and fought ratification, and so voted in the senate. The Dallas women who were at Austin lobbying for ratification went back home breathing threatenings at the senator, and these women can be relied upon to make him wish the mountains could fall upon him and hide him from sight. We are betting on the women. They are to hold a big ratification rally in Dallas in a few days, and have invited all the representatives in that district except McNealus to attend. This will be the first round of the fight.

POPE IS FORESTALLED

The legislature of Texas has forestalled Representative Pope of Corpus Christi. Both branches have adopted resolutions expressing confidence in the integrity and trustworthiness of Governor Hobby, the senate by a vote of 27 to 0 and the house by a vote of 82 to 2, with 14 members present and not voting. The resolutions declare that the introduction of such a resolution as forecast by Representative Pope would be an attempt to discredit the governor in the eyes of the people of Texas and reflect upon his integrity and cast a slur upon the good name of the state.

Pope, who is a Ferguson supporter, had given notice that he would introduce a resolution asking Gov. Hobby, the three penitentiary commissioners and W. J. Crawford of Beaumont, who is a state normal regent, to resign on account of the Blue Ridge farm matter.

The editor of the News heard this matter discussed about the state house while he was in Austin. There are but few who think the governor is guilty of any crime, but the general impression is that Crawford should be forced to resign and possibly criminal proceedings brought against him, as he got a commission of $10,000 out of the deal; also that at least one or two of the penitentiary commissioners should be kicked out of office. Likewise, that one Mr. Hill, who it seems was an attorney for both the state and the owners of the Blue Ridge farm, should be disbarred.

Gov. Hobby will disappoint his friends if he does not fire Crawford from the normal regency, as his character is not such as could be held up for emulation by the young people of the state.

The editor of the Clarendon News, who is a very ardent opponent of woman's suffrage, intimates that the editor of the Plainview News is responsible for the ratification of the amendment in the state senate; that we got a bunch of the anti-suffragists senators down-town at a bevo-fest just before the vote was taken, and of course the suffragists won. The facts in the case are: On Thursday a test vote on sustaining the ruling of the chair was made by Senator Caldwell, and the chair was sustained by only a margin of one vote. We saw that something had to be done, and we immediately set to work before the actual vote on ratification to get as many anti senators out of the way as possible, and the results show for themselves, for it is a cinch that when the vote was taken practically none of the antis were present. Not only did we thus save the day for women, but also saved the political hides of about ten state senators, who now can go back to their constituents and tell all sorts of yarns about why they did or didn't oppose ratification. The women of Texas should rise up and elect us governor for this great piece of political strategy—but, it won't surprise us at all if they do not, for political gratefulness is a rare thing.

One of the most worthy bills pending in the special session of the legislature is one which provides that before any man in Texas is granted a marriage license he must file with the county clerk a certificate from a reputable physician certifying that within the past five days he has been examined and found free from any venereal disease. The bill carries a penalty of $50 to $1,000 for the man securing license and the county clerk if a license is issued without the certificate, and a fine of $100 to $1,000 for the physician who makes a false certificate. The man afflicted with such a disease who marries perpetrates a most heinous crime upon the woman. Such marriages should be stopped in the interest of the health of the people, for the venereal disease is sapping the vitality of the nation as shown by the reports of examinations of drafted soldiers. We trust that the legislature will make the bill into law.

Dallas police judge is seeking to break up "mixed crap games" by fining the whites $25 and the negroes $10 each. The white man who shoots craps with a negro should be fined $100 and put in jail.

The executive committee of the general labor federation of Europe contemplates a general strike which will effect complete stoppage of work throughout France and Italy with the object in view to cause the cessation of armed intervention in Russia, to bring about the rapid demobilization of armies, the restoration of constitutional rights, full and absolute amnesty, and above all a war on the increased cost of living. How they expect to decrease the cost of living by quitting work is not explained.

CALL A HALT

If there was ever anything that is worse overdone than this continually taking up collections in the United States for the relief of the "poverty stricken peoples of the old world" we have never heard of it.

Every several weeks a big drive of some kind is made, and every person in the country is importuned, to give money for somebody somewhere on the other side of the world.

If a man does not shell down liberally he is dubbed a hard-hearted miser, who should be run out of the country.

Though you may call us a sinner and a Philistine, nevertheless, we are going to say with all the emphasis we can muster—there should be a halt, and right now, too.

Likely nine-tenths of these pathetic stories told about suffering among the peoples across the waters are all moonshine, or at least do not represent general conditions, but are rather isolated incidents such as could be found in many parts of the United States.

There are ample evidences that the governments of the people for whom these collections are being taken could amply care for them without asking outside charity.

Take, for instance, there are a bunch of people in this country who seemingly weep themselves to sleep every night thinking of the destitution and suffering of the people of Northern France. Yet, we read in the newspapers that the city of Paris will next Monday spend eight million dollars in celebrating "Bastille Day." Returned Americans declare that except in a portion of Northern France, the French people are richer and more prosperous than they have ever before been in history, and that the billions of dollars spent by the allied armies in France was worth far more to the French than the war cost them. It is patent that France is amply able to take care of her own destitute without passing around the contribution plate in America.

The same can be said of most of the other nations of Europe and Asia, for whom recent collections have been taken in this country.

Oscar T. Crosby, former assistant secretary of the treasury and for the past two years chairman of the interallied council on war purchases and finance, returned Saturday from Europe. He declares "Conditions in Europe are not as bad as those faced by the South after the civil war." He says that none of the countries is bankrupt, and they will soon return to normal conditions.

The people of the South, after the war, did not ask charity from anybody, neither would they have accepted it if it had been offered. They shed their coats and went to work, and carved out their own future. The people of Europe can do likewise, if they are made to do so, but so long as they can rely upon a steady stream of American gold and food and clothing they will not work, but spend all their spare time rioting and taking part in Bolshevik propaganda.

One reason for most of these drives in America is that certain Americans have made it a regular business of raising money for this and that purported charity, and in so-doing there is good picking for themselves. They got into the various war work society work during the war, and are now loath to give up such lucrative work. They will continue to hunt out somebody or some thing to raise money for just so long as the Aemican people stand for it.

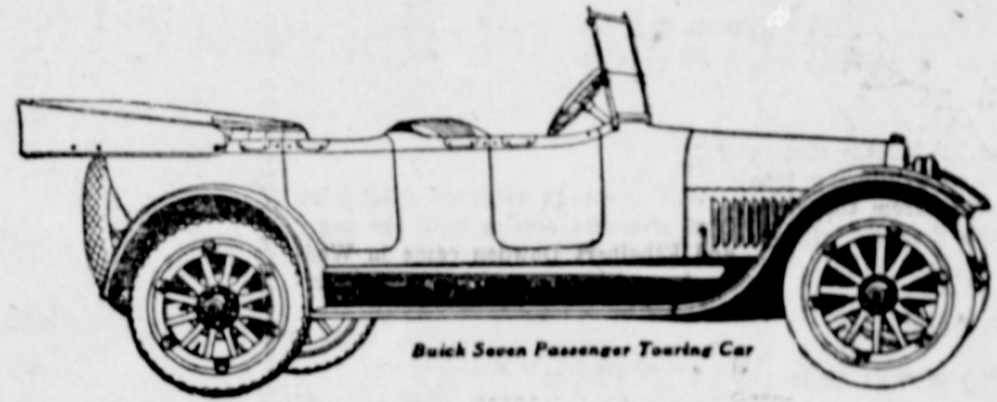

The churches have been tarred with the same stick, and are taking advantage of the times to raise huge sums for foreign charity and mission work, on the plea that it is America's opportunity to redeem the world, when as a fact the money thus spent will to a greater extent be wasted. There are plenty of places to use such money to a better purpose right here in this country without sending it thousands of miles away.

The threatened riots against nationwide prohibition, which became effective July 1, did not materialize. It is a significant fact that sober men seldom do any rioting. As a riot starter John Barleycorn was usually the leader.

The First State Bank of Canyon has increased its capital stock from $25,000 to $32,000.

FROM the first bubble of gasoline in the morning to the last drop at night, the economy of the Buick Valve-in-Head motor delivers a daily mileage of surprising value.

There is no question about it—the Valve-in-Head principle as designed in Buick construction is built to give an unusual mileage with assurance of continuance from the beginning to the ending of years of use.

And with economy molded together with Power—Quality and Value—makes the Buick Valve-in-Head a dependable car—as well as reliable.

Ask your local dealer to show you these advantages and you will become more thoroughly convinced that it is the car for which you have been searching.

Secretary of the War Baker will at once reduce the standing army to 233,000 men and officers, "in order to call the hand of congress to the inadequacy of so small a force." Why should the United States have even one-third of that number? We are at peace with the world. The peace treaty has been signed. The League of Nations will be ratified. There is no sentiment in this country for Uncle Sam dabbling further in European affairs. The only fly in the ointment is Mexico, and a force of fifty thousand soldiers along the frontier is amply sufficient to handle any emergency. If need ever comes for another big army, it can be raised very quickly for the boys who are already trained would quickly respond to the call, as they did in the recent emergency. Let's reduce the standing army to less than a hundred thousand. Let's forget about war. Let's get rid of militarism especially of the professional kind.

Professional militarism in America would be fully as bad as militarism in Germany, if given a free hand. Professional militarism is autocratic, and does not consider the civilian has any rights that should be respected.

committees of the legislature put provisions in the bills prohibiting the teaching of German language in the higher state educational institutions. Such laws are all poppy-cock, and will greatly detract from the usefulness of Texas schools, as is stated by the heads of the schools. More than two hundred million people speak only German, and it is a foregone conclusion that in the years to come Texans will do an increasing business with these German-speaking peoples for they will buy cotton, oil, meats and other products grown in Texas; and if German is not taught in our higher colleges, Texans will have to go elsewhere to learn German or will have to hire men from elsewhere to carry on business with the German-speaking peoples. No foreign language should be taught in the graded schools, but means should be provided in the universities for students to study any and all the foremost foreign languages. Why cut off one's nose to spite his face?

The Lockney Beacon of two weeks ago published a very erroneous and unfair article criticising Representative Lee Satterwhite, charging that he is striving to move the Normal from Canyon to Amarillo. The editor of the News was in the house appropriations committee room when matters relative to the Normal were under discussion. Mr. Satterwhite was making a plea for the erection of a girls' dormitory at Canyon, to cost $150,000, on account of the town being too small to properly accommodate the students, and Col. Poage of Waco suggested that it would be better to move the Normal to Amarillo, whereupon Mr. Satterwhite said that while it might have been best to have at first located it at Amarillo or some larger town, it was out of the question now to suggest such a thing, as the people of Canyon had paid $100,000 bonus for the Normal location, hence have vested rights, and the school was permanently located there. If we mistake not, President Hill also said about the same thing. The newspaper correspondents printed an erroneous statement in regard to the matter, giving the impression that Satterwhite and Hill were favorable to removing the Normal to Amarillo. Not only did Satterwhite plead for Canyon Normal, but succeeded in having $150,000 included in the appropriation bill for a girls' dormitory. Messrs. Satterwhite, Tilson and the other Northwest Texas representatives are very loyal to the Normal, and are helping to boost its interests.

Another of the many state questions which prove the divergent interests of East and West Texas, is the bill in the legislature proposing a tax of $2 on each dog. The people of the eastern and southern parts of the state, where nearly every country family has from two to a dozen or more dogs, are up in arms against the tax. The people of the western, northwestern and southwestern parts of the state, where dogs kill thousands of sheep and calves each year, are in favor of the tax, as it means the dogs will be thinned out considerably, and thus save them great losses. Then, each year six or eight hundred persons from all parts of the state bitten by dogs have to be treated at the state pasture institute in Austin, and it is estimated that the cost of each patient averages more than $100, besides time lost, etc. If the western half of the state was a state unto itself this bill would become a law without hardly a dissenting voice, but as East Texas, through the preponderance of votes in the legislature, will line up against it, the bill will likely fail of passage.

Bob Henry is out in a long tirade denouncing the legislature for ratifying the suffrage amendment, and threatens in effect to run for governor next year, with a determination of undoing the ratification. Bob is full of prunes. He knows, and everybody with a thimbleful of sense knows that this is impossible, for when a legislature once ratifies a federal amendment that settles it for all time to come. Besides, before Bob could take his seat the amendment will be written in the constitution. Bob simply wants to get back into the spotlight, for he has been badly in the discard since his senatorial aspirations were eclipsed in the 1916 primaries. But there is no chance of Bob being governor; he could not make much showing with only the men voting, and with the women also voting he will hardly black the board. Bob should remember that there are no more birds in last year's birds nests.

The trade dollar rarely stands back on sentiment. German factories claim they have already received tentative orders from Americans to take their entire output of goods for the next four years. As for us, "made in America" looks mighty good on any article.

You are always whining that you might be better off. But did you ever realize that you might be a whole worse off?

In a religious meeting over at Dallas a few days ago a smart Alex got up, and made a plea for the rewriting of the bible, making the statement that the bible was not written by inspired minds, but merely ignorant men, who expressed their individual opinions of the matters contained therein. Evidently the man is an ignoramus. A considerable part of the bible was written by highly educated men, aside from such inspiration that came to them. Moses was educated in the schools of Egypt, which at this time enjoyed the highest civilization of the world; Solomon shows his high education in every passage accredited to him; Daniel was highly learned in the schools of Israel and Babylonia; so was Ezra; and the world has never seen a more learned man nor profound scholar and thinker than the Apostle Paul. But, with all their learning, these great men could not have given us the truths as contained in the bible except through inspiration from the Almighty and His Son. The ages have not one whit dimmed the principles and admonitions laid down by these great men, but as more and more light have come upon them the greater and more wonderful they have been found. The spirit of the teachings of the writers of the bible cannot be approached by modern men; the laws they proclaimed through inspiration are the foundation stones of our laws of today. No, the bible does not need re-writing, but mankind needs to live closer to its teachings, and in so living the ever-widening beauties of the bible will gradually unfold and sweeten and bless our lives.

Why worry over the high cost of living? The price of helium has gone down from $1,700 a cubic foot to less than 10c.

Germany will not take up the business of "paying the fiddler."

Do not despair when things go ill, don't spend your time in sighing; for no man is a failure until he quits and gives up trying.

The trouble with the fellow who knows it all is that he usually knows everything that isn't worth knowing.

If you are a model husband and do everything your wife wants you to, you can get your wife to do anything she wants to do.

A woman is supposed to have more sense than a man. But when a man buys a pair of shoes he doesn't insist on having shoes that have heels that are longer than the toes.

Almost every time we get to thinking that everybody in the world is good, broad and honest, some fellow comes along and does some really small, mean or dishonest act that knocks our optimism into smithereens.

A lady in Seth Ward addition says if all husbands in the town are like her's, the wives of Plainview certainly have her sympathy.

Ofcourse, it is none of our business. But judging from the transparent things the girls are wearing they must imagine that the men are near-sighted. And, at that, the man who is wearing transparent B. V. D. pants has no business laughing at the girls in the silhouette skirts.

A. Towler, whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before the Hon. District Court, at the regular term thereof, to be held in the County of Hale, at the court house thereof, in Plainview, on the 28th day of July, A. D. 1919, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court, on the 20th day of June, A. D. 1919, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 1717, wherein H. C. Horton is plaintiff, and J. A. Towler is defendant. The nature of the plaintiff's demand being as follows, to-wit:

That heretofore, to-wit on the 21st day of June, 1918, the plaintiff, by his deed, of that date, duly executed and acknowledged, conveyed to the defendant, Lots numbers five and six in Block number sixty-seven, in College Hill Addition to the town of Plainview, in Hale County, Texas, for and in consideration of three hundred dollars, cash, and the further consideration of two notes, numbered one and two, bearing even date with said deed, each for the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, the first due and payable January 1st, 1919, and the second due and payable January 1st, 1920, which said notes were payable to the order of plaintiff and signed by the defendant, and bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum, interest payable annually, interest payable from date until maturity at eight per cent, which notes showed the retention of a vendor's lien upon the above described property to secure the payment thereof, and further said notes providing that all past due interest thereon shall bear interest from the maturity thereof until paid, at the rate of eight per cent per annum and contained the further clauses and provisions that the failure to pay either of said notes, or any installment of interest thereon, when due, shall, at the election of the holder of them or any of them, mature all of said notes, and providing further that if default is made in the payment of said notes at maturity and they, or either of them is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or if collected by legal proceedings, to pay ten per cent additional on the principal and interest due thereon as collection fees.

Whereby the defendant became bound and in law promised to pay the plaintiff the sums of money in said notes specified according to their face, tenor and effect, but to pay the same or any part thereof, the defendant has wholly failed and refused and still fails and refuses to do, to plaintiff's damage in the sum of $1,600.00.

That by reason of the default of the defendant in the payment of said note number one when the same became due and unpaid on the 1st day of January, 1919, he said plaintiff declared both of said notes due and here and now declares same due and unpaid.

That by reason of the failure of said defendant to pay said notes or either of them or any part thereof, the plaintiff has been compelled to employ an attorney, to-wit, H. C. Randolph, to bring this suit to collect same and has agreed and contracted with said Randolph to pay him a sum of money equal to the sum of ten per cent upon the principal and interest due upon said two notes as his fee for his services in this suit, wherefore, premises considered, plaintiff prays that the defendant be duly cited by publication as required by law to appear and answer herein and that upon hearing hereof, the plaintiff have his judgment for his debt, principal, interest and attorneys fees and all costs of court, and for a foreclosure of his vendor's lien upon the above described premises and that this court issue an order of sale ordering the sale of said above described premises and the proceeds thereof to be applied upon the payment of this judgment and such other and various relief as in law and equity the plaintiff may be entitled to.

HEREIN FAIL NOT, And have you before said court, on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your endorsement thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Plainview, Texas, this, the 2nd day of July, A. D. 1919.

Are You Harboring A False Hope?

Professor Irving Fisher of Yale University, says "we are on a PERMANENTLY higher price level, and the sooner the people realize this and adjust themselves to it, the sooner will they save themselves the disappointment and misfortune which will come if we persist in our present false hope."

Is it not plain therefore, that if you are postponing the building of a new home, barn or other structure until prices go down, you are laboring under a delusion, and will be disappointed. Build now and take advantage of the present prices of building materials. Your good judgement will be justified in years to come.

Store Talk

The Fourth of July celebration in Plainview was certainly a great day for Plainview and the Plainview country. The folks came from far and near, and we know they all had a good time, and were glad they were here. It does seem that it would be good if we could all get together more often. Rubbing shoulders with each other causes us to be more friendly.

Then, the soldiers and sailors were here. We, of course, knew we missed them, but hardly realized it so forcefully as when we saw so many of them back, and in the parade. There was a bunch of them, who saw service across the seas, and also a bunch that wanted to "go across" but got no further than the training camps.

Those boys in the harvest fields need plenty of the good staples that will stick to their ribs, and these hot days there are lots of the nice things we carry in fancy groceries that will tickle their palates. We can fill those big bills and make a price that will surprise and please you. You don't have to wait long. You can drive right up to our northeast-corner-of-square store and we'll hustle right out to you.

The famous valley of the River Nile never had much over the Plainview country as it shows up this year. The golden harvest is in full blast, and this weather is just fine for the work. This year the Plains people are surely blessed above most all other people.

All over the country lots of cream was used the Fourth of July. Of course, it will not affect the cream market because buyers anticipated the demand and begun early to accumulate cream. The pay check you get from us for your sweet and sour cream makes you glad you have those cows. You can't bring us more than we want.

As an egg-producing section the Plainview country takes high rank. During the year 1918 the Plainview country sold twice as many eggs as it did in 1917, there having been 5,947 cases of eggs shipped from Plainview last year. This meant a lot of money scattered out among the people, and helped all channels of trade. About twenty-five tons of poultry was also shipped out, that returned a goodly amount of money to our people. This year the shipments of poultry and hen fruit will greatly exceed any other year. Believe us, there is lots of money in poultry in the Plainview country.

When it comes to quality, our groceries measure up to the highest standard, and are fresh and wholesome. The prices are just as low as we can sell them

SKILLED ADVERTISERS
A COMMUNITY ASSET

New York.—Fortunate indeed is a community whose business men advertise widely and liberally says a bulletin from the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, for that community will grow and prosper.

Good advertising, which means steady advertising in space big enough to tell the story that the advertiser wants to present, brings new dollars to town, and keep home dollars at home, the bulletin continues.

And what becomes of the dollar that goes into the cash drawer of a local merchant? Three-fourths of it or thereabout (depending somewhat on the line of business and the nature of the goods sold) goes to the wholesale dealer or manufacturer for the goods the store sells.

The rest stays in the home town. Most of the other 25 per cent goes for rent, salaries of employees, and to the local coal dealer, the light company and others whose goods or services are needed in keeping the store going.

Each time the advertising of local merchants brings $10,000 of new business to town, at least $2,500 of it remains in the town, and is passed around from person to person, and all the people share in the resulting prosperity.

Though some people who are not themselves in business fail to appreciate it, every one in the community has an interest in every new dollar that is brought to town, and that is just as true in the large city, where business is a great network of mutual interests, as in the smaller places, where it is easier to trace the benefits which every person receives.

Sanguine of Europe's Future
New York, July 5.—Conditions in Europe are not as bad as those faced by the South after the Civil War, Oscar T. Crosby, former Assistant Secretary of the Treasury and for two years chairman of the interallied counsel on war purchases and finance, declared here tonight upon his arrival from Europe on the transport Mount Vernon. None of the European nations is bankrupt, he said, though they will need encouragement to return to normal conditions.

America should aid, he asserted, in adjustment of the financial problems, but he urged that the European countries be allowed to solve their own internal difficulties. These problems, he said, were of greater importance to Europe than all of the foreign obligations.

The investigation and inspection service of the department of labor has been looking into the emigration of aliens to their own countries and has discovered that 1,300,000 are preparing to leave the shores of America. Most of these are laborers but some of them are fairly well to do and while the former will deplete the ranks of labor, the latter by taking their accumulation with them will deplete the surplus stock of gold in this country.

Frickleness of Public Opinion
A few months ago President Wilson was acclaimed almost as a political savior by the Italian people. A Rome newspaper says that Europe awaited him as the Messiah in a new era of history. "Now," says the newspaper, "Wilson returns to America leaving behind him a chaos of disorder, passions and delusions, since he could not conclude peace, according to his fourteen principles but made a compromise brought about by the overbearing attitude of the strong toward the weak."

And all this change in the attitude of Italy has come about because President Wilson would not consent to the despoil of the Jugo-Slavs concocted in a secret treaty to which Italy was a party.

Now the country is threatened with another German invasion. It is reported that twenty officers and soldiers of the army of occupation in and around Coblenz are secretly engaged to German girls and will marry them as soon as peace is ratified.

Convention of clothing dealers of Chicago predicts a woolless woolen season this fall and winter. The thrifty man will buy his woolen clothing now.

COST OF WAR TO AMERICA
THIRTY BILLION DOLLARS

Washington, July 9.—The war cost to the United States was $30,177,000,000 up to June 30, 1919.

Secretary Glass made this estimate today in submitting to the congressional appropriations committee the preliminary statements of the treasury on the condition of the nation's finances. He arrived at the estimate by subtracting the average peace time expenses for the same length of time, at the rate of $1,000,000,000 annually from the total expenditures; $32,427,000,000 during the war.

Taxes and other revenues than borrowed money took care of $9,384,000,000 or about 9 per cent of the war cost. The remainder came from Liberty bond and victory note issues and saving stamps.

Eloped in An Airplane

Miss Orpha Jane Arnold, daughter of a farmer and oil operator at Larned, Kans., drove one of her father's cars west of the cemetery at Larned at 9:20 o'clock Tuesday morning. At 9:25 she stepped into Lieut. Warren P. Kite's airplane and at 10:15 she arrived at Hays, seventy-five miles away. In ten minutes they were married.

The couple had known each other nine days, since Kite went to Larned for the home-coming celebration. She had taken several flights with him and on each flight she demanded stunt flying.

Kite was twenty-one months an instructor at Kelly Field. His home is in Springfield, Mo., where they will make their home.

Cut Paper from Ham Prices

Washington. — "Americans who bought ham, pork and bacon have been paying out from 7 to 8 million dollars annually for wrapping paper and string at ham, pork and bacon prices," Senator Kenyon of Iowa told the Senate last week. On his motion the Senate added an amendment to the Agricultural Bill placing wrapped packages of meat under the restrictions of the Pure Food Act and requiring the net weight to be marked on the package.

"I'm told that in some instances the weight of this paper and string amounts to between one and two and a half cents a pound," said the senator.

Discharge 15,000 A Day

Washington, July 5.—Army men are now being discharged at an average rate of 15,000 a day, a War Department statement today says. The grand total of discharges to date was given as 2,611,416. If the rate were continued the army would be down to the national defense act strength of 233,000 men by Aug. 10. Enlistments have increased sharply since July 1, the total now being more than 70,000. Nine replacement battalions of 1,000 men each have been sent abroad.

The Army Air Service has accepted the offer of the Chamber of Commerce of Americus (Ga.) to furnish a bale of cotton to be transported by airplane from Americus to the Merrimac Manufacturing Company of Lowell, Mass., to be manufactured into print cloth of a specially designed pattern to be distributed by airplane as a souvenir representing aerial progress in the transportation of raw cotton from the cotton fields of the South to Northern factories. There is no reason why the trial trip with a 500-pound bale of cotton should not be a success, as the NC-4 carried six persons in her flight across the Atlantic, each of them, it is presumed, weighing 150 pounds on the average, making a dead weight tonnage of 900 pounds. But it will be many years before the airplane will be able to compete with the railroads as freight carriers. The cost of that form of freight transportation would, like the planes, be away above the clouds.

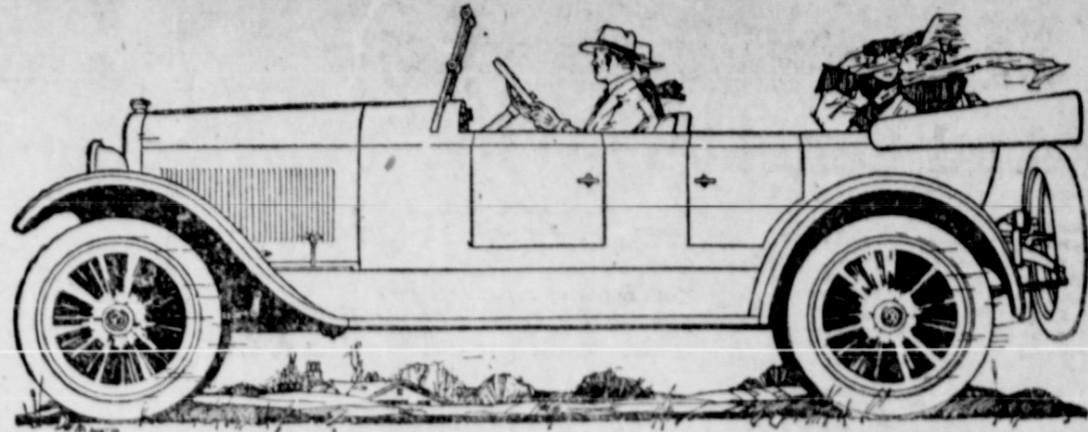

The secretary of agriculture has issued an order prohibiting the shipment of cattle interstate without tested. The order went into effect July 1. It is believed that its enforcement will be of great assistance in preventing the further spread of tuberculosis among livestock, and that having the work practically under state and federal supervision at all time uniformity will be assured.

The gate receipts at the Williard-Dempsey prize fight were $452,000. Though seats were prepared for 80,000 persons, the attendance was only 19,556.

It pays to raise pedigreed stock. The winner of the largest number of prizes at the recent sheep and goat show at San Angelo is reported to have sold some of his surplus billy goats at $250 and $500 per head.

R. B. Turner, age 73 years, and old resident of Lockney, died Tuesday of last week. His remains were taken to Crafton, Wise county, for burial.

LEMONS MAKE SKIN WHITE, SOFT, CLEAR

Make this beauty lotion for a few cents and see for yourself

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to whiten the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the bloom of youth? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way: Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quart pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months. When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces or orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

HANDS, ARMS, LIMBS ASLEEP

And Was Run-Down, Weak and Nervous, Says Florida Lady. Five Bottles of Cardui Made Her Well.

Kathleen, Fla.—Mrs. Dallas Prine, of this place, says: "After the birth of my last child...I got very much run-down and weakened, so much that I could hardly do anything at all. I was so awfully nervous that I could scarcely endure the least noise. My condition was getting worse all the time... I knew I must have some relief or I would soon be in the bed and in a serious condition for I felt so badly and was so nervous and weak I could hardly live. My husband asked Dr. Cardui about my taking Cardui. He said, 'It's a good medicine, and good for that trouble', so he got me 5 bottles... After about the second bottle I felt greatly improved... before taking it my limbs and hands and arms would go to sleep. After taking it, however, this poor circulation disappeared. My strength came back to me and I was soon on the road to health. After the use of about 5 bottles, I could do all my house-work and attend to my six children besides."

You can feel safe in giving Cardui a thorough trial for your troubles. It contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs, but is composed of mild, vegetable, medicinal ingredients with no bad after-effects. Thousands of women have voluntarily written, telling of the good Cardui has done them, should help you, too. Try it.

Aerial Mail Service

The success of the air mail route between New York and Chicago is assured. The planes carrying mail fly at the average speed of 120 miles an hour, taking mail from New York to Chicago in six hours. Planes are changed at Belfort, Penn., and Cleveland, Ohio.

About 1,200 letters a day are taken for Pacific coast points and through air service from New York to Chicago advances delivery of mail for Seattle, San Francisco and other coast cities twenty-four hours over other letters sent from New York by mail.

Most of the planes used are remodeled De Havilland fours with Liberty motors, having a capacity of 400 pounds of mail.

According to the postoffice department the time made by the air mail cuts down the time made by the fastest railway mail between New York and Chicago more than thirteen hours.

No Booze, So Buys Home

When Coatesville, a steel town in Pennsylvania, went dry, a Polack workman appeared to Charles L. Houston, head of the Great Lukens Steel and Iron Works, saying, "No beer, no whiskey, me no kin work." The man no doubt believed it. Houston urged him to try the experiment, telling him he would have to get along without beer and whiskey somehow. A few weeks later the same man came back to Houston's office with a smiling face. This time he said, "No beer, no whiskey, me buy a house." The head of this big steel works believes thousands of workmen's houses will be built this year as money saved by prohibition.

Can Take Out A Man's Lungs

Experiences in the war have made surgeons bolder. Dr. Joseph Blake an American surgeon, who opened a war hospital in France in 1914, says, "We used to be afraid to open the chest and handle the heart and lungs, but there were thousands of chest wounds in this war, and we discovered that we could cut away ribs to get at the lungs, draw these organs out, handle them, cut pieces out of them, sew them up, replace them and close up the wound and the lungs healed up well and absorbed the catgut stitches." Fractured arms and legs, they learned, mended more quickly if set so they could be moved and used. The joints never become stiff, nor did the muscles wither as not infrequently happens when they are put in a plaster of Paris cast.

The Atlantic ocean having been negotiated by an airplane, certain aviators now purpose to fly from California to Japan.

The Lubbock county fair will be held Sept. 18, 19, and 20, and later the best of the products will form a county exhibit at the Dallas fair.

During the month of June 342,686 American soldiers were returned home from overseas service.

PLAIN QUESTIONS TO PLAINVIEW PEOPLE

Every Plainview Reader Will Admit the Soundness of the Logic

Would Plainview people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as they do if the medicine were not reliable? Would they confirm their statements after years have elapsed if their experiences did not show the remedy to be deserving of it? Statements like the following must carry conviction to the mind of every reader:

Dr. V. C. Canon, retired physician, W. California Ave., Plainview, says: "I suffered from lumbago and other signs of kidney complaint. I also had trouble with my bladder and sharp twinges shot through my loins I got Doan's Kidney Pills from Long's Drug Store. They relieved me."

LATER TESTIMONY

Over three years later Dr. Canon said: "I don't have near as much trouble with my kidneys now as I used to, but when I do, I use Doan's Kidney Pills and always with the same good results."

Starts your liver without making you sick and can not salivate

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs but a few cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tone instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.

"FAKE" ASPIRIN WAS TALCUM

Therefore Insist Upon Genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin"

Millions of fraudulent Aspirin Tablets were sold by a Brooklyn manufacturer which later proved to be composed mainly of Talcum Powder. "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" the true, genuine, American made and American owned Tablets are marked with the safety "Bayer Cross."

Ask for and then insist upon "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" and always buy them in the original Bayer package which contains proper directions and dosage.

Biliousness and Stomach Trouble
"Two years ago I suffered from frequent attacks of stomach trouble and biliousness," writes Miss Emma Verbyke, Lima, Ohio. "I could eat very little food that agreed with me and I became so dizzy and sick at my stomach at times that I had to take hold of something to keep from falling. Seeing Chamberlain's Tablets advertised, I decided to try them. I improved rapidly." Obtainable everywhere.

Taking Big Chances
It is a great risk to travel without a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as this preparation cannot be obtained on the trains or steamships. Attacks of bowel complaint are often sudden and very severe, and everyone should go prepared for them. Obtainable everywhere.

LIFT CORNS OR CALLUSES OFF

Doesn't hurt! Lift any corn or callus off with fingers

Don't suffer! A tiny bottle of Freezone costs but a few cents at any drug store. Apply a few drops on the corns, calluses and "hard skin" on bottom of feet, then lift them off.

When Freezone removes corn from the toes or calluses from the bottom of feet, the skin beneath is left pink and healthy and never sore, tender or irritated.
