GOOD RAINS FELL THIS MORNING OVER COUNTY

OF MUCH BENEFIT TO WHEAT—CLOUDBURST NEAR HALE CENTER

Early this morning Hale county was visited by good rains, ranging from .42 of an inch in Plainview to more than five inches just south of Hale Center. In the Petersburg section there was two inches, which grew lighter as it came toward Plainview. At Abernathy there was an inch. From the Fitz Hudgins ranch to Hale Center there was almost a cloudburst, of more than five inches, and the heavy rain extended to within four miles of Plainview. More than two inches is reported in the Runningwater section, and the draw at that place is full of water; at the creek farm it was three inches. North of Plainview at the R. F. Stewart place more than an inch fell. At Kress the rain was light; at Lockney and Floydada there was practically none. East of Plainview the precipitation was light. The weather continues cloudy.

These rains will be of much benefit to wheat and will put the ground in good condition for row crops. The wheat had begun to damage from dry weather and high winds, and its yield will not be what it would have been had rain come a couple or three weeks ago.

TRICOLETTE FOR GOWNS

Fashion continues to smile on tricolette gowns and this rich material looks particularly well made up in straight line models. Striped effects in plain colors, made by a drop-stitch in the weave, are used for handsome gowns like that pictured above. In this the stripes are arranged to run lengthwise in the bodice and both lengthwise and horizontally in the tunic and skirt. The open neck is filled in at the front with flesh-colored georgette. A dress of this kind in dark tones of the fashionable colors proves especially becoming to stout figures.

TRADE EXCURSION OVER PLAINS WILL BENEFIT PLAINVIEW IN MANY WAYS

Three Great Days in Prospect for Excursionists--Brars Band, Clowns, Speeches--Big Advertising.

The interest in the Trade Excursion, which business men of Plainview will put over on May 18, 19 and 20, is growing. It is sure to be a great success and be of much benefit to Plainview. Never before has there been more enthusiasm shown in a trade-getting proposition.

The committee on finances has raised almost $1,000 in cash. Only two or three have refused to contribute. This money will be used in paying for advertising matter, paying for gasoline used in the many cars that will make the three days' trip and other expenses.

The advertising committee is preparing an extensive line of advertising, telling of Plainview as the logical trading center of this section of the state. The business firms are also having much advertising printed boosting their own businesses. The advertising committee will also distribute souvenirs.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce band will make the trip and furnish music. There will also be several clowns and other entertainers, and local orators will also be on the trip. An entertainment will be given at each stop while the boosters in the party get acquainted with the people and distribute advertising matter.

The route committee has prepared a time card of the trip, which will be adhered to.

It is hoped to have as many as fifty cars in the excursion.

A meeting will be held at the city hall Monday night to prepare the final plans and every business man and booster in the town is urged to be present.

WOMEN TAKE GRACEFULLY TO POLITICAL ACTIVITIES

ATTEND CONVENTIONS--SERVE AS DELEGATES AND ON COMMITTEES

If you have the least doubts about the women being capable of taking part in politics, ask some of the Hale county supporters of Joseph Well-done Bailey. Especially interrogate some of those who inhabit Plainview precinct No. 10, where the women attended the precinct convention at the city hall in a larger number than elsewhere.

A certain well-known citizen who is a strong anti-prohibitionist, against woman suffrage and a supporter of said Joseph Well-done Bailey went to the city hall Saturday. He stopped at the door and stared awhile at the large number of women seated inside, then went on his way. Later in telling about it he said, "I counted ninety-four women, some of them of my own family; decided it was no place for an old-fashioned democrat like me, so I went home and worked in the garden."

He doubtless also mused on "times ain't what they used to be." The women took an active part in nearly all Hale county precinct conventions and also a number were elected delegates to the county convention and took part in its proceedings. Several were elected delegates to the state convention.

We cannot see how any good man, and one who favors clean politics and laws can oppose woman's suffrage. Take the recent campaign—practically every woman was arrayed against Bailey because of his past crooked political record, of his standing for the vicious and unclear and his opposition to the good and clean.

You can depend on it that when the issue is between right and wrong good and bad, prohibition and whiskey, education and ignorance, God and the devil, the women will be found as a unit on the clean side. As to ordinary political policies and candidates, the women will divide as do men. If Bailey gets out of the race for governor the women of the state will divide their support among Thomason, Neff, Looney and Lewellen.

The presence of the women in the conventions was good. It was the first convention of the size we ever attended that we did not see men smoking. Not an unclear word was said everybody kept an even temper. The "steam-roller" was not used—it was steamed up, however, and ready for use if needs be, for the women were there in force to put it over the bodies of the Bailey adherents had they offered an opposition.

The women are in politics, they have come to stay, the evil forces cannot "come back."

H. L. Williford of Lubbock was in Plainview Wednesday.

TAKES CHARGE OF ORPHANS DESERTED BY FATHER

Fort Worth Orphanage Field Agent Will Find Homes for Four Children

Rev. Nichols, of the Morris orphanage in Fort Worth, was here yesterday, and took charge of the four small children deserted by their father near Abernathy. He will find homes for the children. He took them to the North Panhandle, where requests have been made for children. Good Christian homes will be secured.

It will be remembered that a man named House left his four small children, one of them a baby, with Mrs. Arnold near Abernathy, Dec. 7th, promising to pay her for keeping them. The check he gave her was turned down at the bank and nothing more was heard of House. The mother of the children is dead. About March 1st the matter was taken up by Rev. G. L. Britain and the Commissioners' court, and the children were given temporary homes with the families of A. O. Vaughn, L. A. Harral and Will Pool near Abernathy.

Lutrel Barn Burns

The barn and its contents of S. G. Lutrel, near Cousins school house, a few miles north of Plainview, were burned Wednesday morning, the fire being caused by sparks which found their way into some hay from a trash pile that was being burned. A Ford car and a large amount of feed-stuff were burned, the loss being about $2,000.

The barn belonged to Vent Hobbs, who owns the farm, and the contents were owned by Mr. Lutrel. No insurance.

College Society Debate

The Philo and Euglo literary societies of Wayland college will hold their final debate for the school year for the silver trophy cup, Tuesday night in the college chapel. Two other debates have been held this year—each society winning one.

Silvertown State Bank Chartered

Austin, May 6.—State Banking Board has granted a charter to the Briscoe County State Bank, with a capital stock of $25,000 with W. E. Schott, president; and L. B. Richard, cashier. The guaranty fund plan was adopted for the protection of depositors.

Bailey Has Few Votes

The indications are that Bailey will have less than fifty votes in the state convention, as he carried only a half-dozen counties at most. Several counties are sending unstructured delegations, and if he should get all these he will have hardly 100 of the 1,406 votes in the convention.

Mrs. Tatum's Sister Dies

Mrs. D. C. Terry, age 78, died at her home in San Augustine, Texas, a few days ago. She was a sister of Mrs. J. W. Tatum of Plainview.

Plainview Defeats Amarillo

In a game of baseball in Amarillo this afternoon the Plainview high school defeated Amarillo high by a score of 4 to 2.

It was a pitchers' battle to the last inning and both twirlers were well supported. Griggs, pitching to Taylor for Amarillo, allowed only three hits in the entire game, while the Amarillo boys secured four hits off of Shifflett. McDaniels was receiving for the visitors. Griggs secured ten strikeouts and walked three men all of whom scored.

Plainview's three hits resulted in one single, one double and one run, and the Amarillo men hit for three singles and one double. From the third to the eighth inning it was a matter of three up and three down, no one getting better than first.

Well, the monkey is dead and the show is over.

Irish potatoes are very scarce and the price is 12c a pound and above. Who ever heard of the like?

The only thing that has not gone up in price in Plainview is electric power and lights. Take off your hat to the T. U. Co.

Maybe the Texas republicans will send J. W. B. as a delegate from Texas to their national convention. The democrats have repudiated him in a decisive way.

The News recently announced boldly that rain would come in time to save the crops. It came. Always depend on the News, and you'll get by alright—sometimes, at least.

Mrs. Tom Carter was chairman of the woman's work in Plainview precinct and deserves much credit for the large attendance of women at the precinct conventions. She organized her forces well, and worked hard to have every woman present.

Oscar Callaway told a Lubbock audience "I am going up to Plainview to make a speech, as I understand those people need more light." Oscar came and made his talk—but Saturday's results indicate that the light Oscar brought must have been of lighting-bug candle power.

The News has not much sympathy for the so-called "West Texas Chamber of Commerce," for the reason that it covers too much territory. We understand that it includes Waco and Fort Worth, both of these cities being hundreds of miles from West Texas. The Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce comes nearer home.

The market price of liberty loan bonds is below par, but that does not interest the editor of the News. While the war was on he and his family saved and bought of every issue of these bonds, principally from a patriotic standpoint also because they are a gilt-edge investment. We still hold these bonds and war savings stamps. The interest is paid by Uncle Sam regularly and at maturing he will pay them promptly. They form a very nice "nest egg." Why should we worry over their market price?

We cannot see much sense in the legislation now before congress which proposes to pay the farmers 60c a bushel on the wheat they had on August 11, 1917, when the government fixed the price of wheat, 60c being the alleged loss incurred. If Uncle Sam starts out to pay war losses he should first collect from everyone the war profits made. If this were done he would have plenty of money for most every enterprise.

The war is over; our country whipped the central powers—so let's get away from it all; let's quit thinking about bonuses, relief of wheat farmers, and other such war grafts.

James J. Hill once said: "Do you want to know if you are going to be a success or a failure in life? You can easily find out. Are you able to save money? If not, drop out. You will fail as sure as you live." Hill's statement is even more true than when he made it. The person who does not or cannot save money in these days of high wages and high prices has something seriously the matter with him. He does not know the first lesson in economy or thrift. He should examine himself, for there is where the fault lies. The person who spends everything he makes is a spendthrift, a ne'er-do-well, a weakling. These are the days to make money—and save money. But, to save one cannot buy everything he sees or desires; he cannot "clothe himself in fine linen, fare sumptuously every day," go to a show every night and spend his money freely in every other way. If everybody would economize—do without things—and work hard, the high prices would begin to come down; the unrest would cease; people would be happier and more contented.

THE PLAINVIEW CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

"For a Bigger and Better Plainview"

Statistics show the increase in the cost of living has been an average of 94.8 per cent since July 1914, divided as follows: Food 100 per cent, shelter 49 per cent, clothing 177 per cent, fuel, light and heat 49 per cent, sundries 83 per cent. But you have no big kick coming if your wages have doubled or the price of the things you sell have doubled. You cannot expect to get more yourself unless you pay more to the other fellow. Every time you boost prices, so does the other fellow. This price-boosting is a merry game—but when is it going to end? When is the bubble to be punctured? Prices cannot go on skyrocketing always. Every banker and financier is looking for a money stringency. They say things are already tightening up. The man who works hard and saves during prosperous times is better able to face hard times when they do come. Are you a bee or an ant, or are you a grasshopper or katydid?

pictured by William Fox with William Farnum playing the role of the immortal Jean Valjean and will be shown at the Olympic Theatre for two days only Wednesday and Thursday, May 12th and 13th.

So extraordinary did the National Board of Review of Motion Pictures consider this photodrama that a special report highly commending it was issued.

"LES MISERABLES is an adequate representation of the great book," wrote the National Board, "and is a fine example of the justice the motion picture can render the classics. The Jean Valjean of William Farnum is a wonderful creative effort."

Under the separate headings of educational value, entertainments value, historical value, moral effect, technical handling, etc., the National Board of Review summed it all up in the word "Excellent."

Rumely Oilpull Beats the World In Economy Test

A-R. COMPANY'S 12-20 USES BUT .58 OF A POUND OF KEROSENE PER HORSEPOWER-HOUR IN COLUMBUS, OHIO, CONTEST AND IS AWARDED PALM BY OHIO UNIVERSITY AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT—28 TRACTORS IN FIELD—BEST PREVIOUS RECORD WAS MADE IN 1912

When Jerry Ulen, assistant sales manager of the Advance-Rumley Co. and toastmaster at the dealers banquet last night, announced that a wire had just been received with the information that the 12-20 Oil Pull tractor had broken all records for economical performance at Columbus, O., yesterday, bedlam broke loose and Masonic Temple rocked with the cheers and shouts of the joyous dealers.

The tests conducted at Columbus, Ohio, are of national interest. They form a part of the farm Week put on by the Ohio University Agricultural department.

There Were 28 Tractors Entered

What the light model of the Oil Pull really did was to set up a new world's record for medium fuel consumption per horse-power-hour. The 12-20 used .58 of a pound of kerosene per horsepower-hour, costing 1.4 cents. The best gasoline tractor at the test field was unable to equal this, consuming .583 of a pound of gasoline at a cost of 2.44 cents, or 100 per cent greater cost. The second best kerosene tractor used .683 of a pound of kerosene, costing 1.71 cents.

From these figures, official from the Ohio University tests, it may be seen that the Oil Pull boasts 20 per cent cheaper operation than the next best kerosene tractor in the world and 100 per cent cheaper than the best gasoline tractor.

The best previous record for fuel economy in a public demonstration was made by the old 30-60 Oilpull—at Wennipeg in a contest held in 1912. That record was .7 of a pound of kerosene per horsepower-hour as compared with the .58 of a pound consumed in yesterday's test.

It will be of interest to know that Frank Wooster of LaPorte operated the 12-20 in yesterday's test.

The test is of one and a half hour's duration. Each tractor is entered for an hour on a fuel consumption test and the other half hour is devoted to a test under variable load conditions.

These contests bring manufacturers from all parts of the country and are of interest throughout the tractor world.

When Ulen arrived at Masonic Temple last night just before the banquet, he found the telegram from John A. Secor, consulting engineer of the company, at Columbus, attending the tests. He saved it until the meal had been served and then announced it. He was unable to make himself heard again for fully ten minutes.

The banquet was an unqualified success. The menu cards were tasteful creations in more ways than one. On one inner cover was the Oilpull song and on the other the name of the Palace Hawaiians, who entertained during the dinner. The name of each dish on the menu had its equivalent in the best machine shop slang. From fruit cocktail, celery and olives, through baked ham and cream potatoes, down to head lettuce salad, ice cream and cake, the banquet was delicious, and perfect satisfaction with life in general was reflected in the faces of the dealers when, with the coffee, cigars were passed around.

In the absence of President P. Mount, who was unable to attend the banquet, Jerry M. Ulen acted as toastmaster. He is a good salesman for he couldn't forget his selling argument in the banquet hall announcing that the dealers would have to swap some "gab for our grub," which was greeted with shouts and laughter.

Dealers from far north Alberta and far south Louisiana, the land of the "ditch-bug," were called upon for brief remarks, as well as others from the country between these extremes. From what was said last night, it is quite evident that the famous Los Angeles boosters have nothing at all on dwellers in Alberta, for they painted that country in glowing colors.

First hand opinions of the Oilpull tractor and of the school were given by men from Winnipeg, the Red River Valley in Minnesota, and North Dakota, Iowa, Mississippi and Kansas, in addition to Louisiana and Alberta.

Every man who spoke was enthusiastic about the Advance-Rumley school and the results it would bring. They declared that close study of the Oilpull tractor made them, more firmly, believers in its ability to perform and its quality.

George Iverson, service engineer of the company, who has charge of the school, was lauded by several of the dealers. One said it was worth the trip here just to hear one of his talks.

The music and singing of the Hawaiians was appreciated and they received hearty applause for their efforts. An Hawaiian Hula dancer in costume gave several native dances.

After Ulen voiced the sentiments of all Rumley officials in a few words and hoped that the dealers had got everything out of the school which the company had intended, the assemblage sang, "America," or "God Save the King," to the same tune, according to the nationality of the singers, and the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" concluded the evening's entertainment.—LaPorte (Ind.) Herald, Jan. 30, 1920.

3. Report fire to operator; she will give you Fire Station; stay on line and talk to us, don't leave phone and expect the operator to do the rest, because she is not allowed to do so, as it is against rules of the telephone company. Hold to the phone; you will save time and money.
4. When you have a fire, close all doors and windows allow on one to enter because by so doing you are fanning the fire, which is all it takes to burn you up in a hurry. Call us the first thing, as we can use chemicals and avoid damage to your furniture and household goods with water.
5. Do not try to combat fire yourself; that is what we are paid for and the first five or ten minutes is the time to avoid a grave disaster. Our Number is 24 or Fire Station.
6. This is to impress on you the sooner you get connection with us the sooner we can come to your rescue.

Kindly remember these remarks as they are useful in time of need.

Store News

Did you see the eclipse of the moon Sunday night—lots of folks who were out on moonlight picnics saw it, and that reminds us we are sure furnishing the eats for these picnics. Folks are beginning to learn that when we say that we have a choice assortment of picnic goods that we mean it and that they will find just what they want to make the picnic a success.

We're glad to see the farmers of the South Plains restocking with hogs of quality. It's just like anything else—well bred stuff doesn't eat any more, don't cost any more to keep than the scrub and the satisfaction and cash return is greater. As near as we get to hog raising is the selling of good hams, bacon and other pork products, but the kind we have surely must have come from Hale County hogs—the meat is so juicy and fine.

It won't be long before strawberries and other good things will be coming in most every day. We have had a few but they are a bit hard to get just yet. The way for you to know what has come in in vegetables and fruits is to call us each day and we will be more than pleased to tell you what we can offer for that day.

Chautauqua, with its splendid and uplifting entertainment is not far off. It's a time when you and all the family will want to attend the entire series. It means that you won't have much time to prepare the family meals. But why worry about that? We can arrange it so you can select items from our big stocks, satisfy the family appetites, and eliminate the hot stove work.

Now that the days are getting warmer you will want to
