ALLIES WILL SUPPORT THE POLES BUT NOT GO TO WAR

WILL RE-IMPOSE BLOCKADE AND GIVE MUNITIONS BUT HOLD UP WAR DECLARATION

Hythe, Aug. 9.—The Hythe conference hurriedly called Sunday to consider means for saving Poland from the Bolshevik menace, ended today with an agreement between Premier Lloyd George and Premier Millerland on the aid to be given the new Polish state.

After the premiers decided to re-impose the blockade on Russia and to furnish munitions and technical advice to Poland, Mr. Lloyd George consented to withhold application of aid until after the preliminary results of the conference at Minsk between Bolshevik and Polish representatives, are known.

Mr. Lloyd George, who has been firm in urging the French policy, which included the blockade and strong defensive measures, was obliged to yield somewhat to the military policy of the British premier, who was determined that no allied troops should be used in Poland.

Establishment of a defensive line in Poland, which was considered by the conference, if carried out, would, according to the opinion expressed here, be regarded by the British and French as more than a plan to aid Poland—it would in effect be a cordon sanitaire to keep the Bolsheviks from western Europe. But from what happened at the closing moment of the conference, it is considered that much will depend on the Bolshevik attitude at Minsk.

It was made clear at the conference that the allies, having established Poland by the treaty of Versailles, intend to stand by Poland in every way short of declaring war.

The influence of the Polish crisis on Germany and the treaty of Versailles were discussed and it is understood that should there be any indication of German co-operation with the Bolsheviks, Germany will be warned that further occupation of German territory will follow.

The desire of Mr. Lloyd George for a peaceful settlement of the Russo-Poland controversy was the reason for the unexpected prolongation of the conference. It is believed that Mr. Millerland wanted a stronger policy adopted immediately. It is admitted in unofficial quarters, however, that if the present plans are carried out the situation may be described as a sort of war.

CAMPAIGN COST NEFF $7,615; BAILEY SPENT SUM OF $7,369

The final statement of the campaign expenses by Pat M. Neff, candidate for governor, was received by the secretary of state Wednesday. It shows a grand total of $7,615, of which $1,004 was expended during the period between the filing of the second statement and the third and final statement.

Five Inches of Rain Last Week
W. M. Barrett of the Halfway community was in the News office this afternoon, and reported that five inches of rain fell in his section of the county, which is twelve miles west of Plainview, last week.

The rain greatly delayed threshing, and caused many farmers to have to spread out their wheat stacks to keep the wheat from spoiling.

LATE COUNT GIVES BAILEY 2,522 LEAD

Election Judges Warned to Permit No Persons But Known Democrats to Vote in Run-off

Dallas, Aug. 9.—Still lacking returns from five counties, the democratic state executive committee met today and adopted the partial count as official, thus giving Joseph Weldon Bailey a lead of 2,522 votes over his nearest rival for the gubernatorial nomination at the July primary, Pat M. Neff, of Waco, Texas.

The date for the run-off primary was fixed as August 28.

The committee sent a telegram to the Tennessee state legislature, which met in special session today urging ratification of the federal woman suffrage amendment so that women may vote in the general election in November. There was only one dissenting vote on the resolution to send the message to Tennessee, that of Scott Fulton of Van Alstyne.

A resolution was adopted pointing out that the secretaries of the Texas republicans had endorsed Mr. Bailey for governor and warning election judges to permit no person but known democrats to vote August 28.

The resolution instructed the committee to warn the election officials of "an attempt to debauch our primary."

A committee was appointed to co-operate with the Fort Worth Reception committee in preparing for the democratic state convention, September 7.

Plainview Ball Team Continues to Win Games

Plainview Elks base ball team won three games and tied for another since the last issue of the News.

Friday it played Ralls at that place a ten inning game with the score 3 to 3, the game having to be called on account of darkness.

Saturday the score was 11 to 6 in favor of Plainview. Four Plainview players knocked over-the-fence balls—Clarey, McDaniel, Ward and Tucker.

Yesterday and this afternoon the Snyder team played on the Plainview grounds, each game resulting in a victory for Plainview. Both games were very snappy and Snyder was ahead until the later part of the game. Yesterday afternoon the score was 5 to 3, but Snyder had the game until the sixth inning, Plainview making her scores in the seventh and eighth. This afternoon a ten-inning game was played resulting in a score of 4 to 3 for Plainview. Payne won the game by a home run in the tenth.

Grand Jury Takes Recess

The grand jury on Saturday took a recess, after five days' work. The jury will likely again come together later in the session of district court and finish up any other work. It returned four misdemeanor indictments.

The court made orders in a number of non-jury cases the past week, giving judgments by default in the following cases:

Donohoo-Ware Hardware Co. vs. N. B. Mayhugh et al, suit for debt, judgment for plaintiff.

J. H. Slaton vs. Janie A. Tuillen, suit for perfect title, judgment by default for plaintiff.

Mrs. Maggie Finnie vs. W. J. Stevens, suit for title, judgment for plaintiff.

AMARILLO TRADE EXCURSIONISTS ARE THE GUESTS OF PLAINVIEW TO-NIGHT

More Than Hundred in Special Train. Band Concert and Speaking—Are Pleased With Our Hospitality

More than one hundred Amarillo business men are being entertained in Plainview tonight, and a very warm and royal welcome is being extended. In fact, the visitors say that Plainview entertainment exceeds anything they have been accorded so far on their trip.

The excursionists are traveling on a special train of five Pullmans and a baggage car. They left Amarillo early yesterday morning, going thru Hereford, Farwell to Clovis, then over the cut-off to Lubbock, where they spent Monday night. This morning they visited Lamesa, Tahoka, Slaton, and then went to Ralls and Crosbyton, thence back to Lubbock and up the Santa Fe stopping at Abernathy and Hale Center this afternoon, arriving in Plainview at 8:02 tonight. They stopped at many smaller points, also.

A number of local citizens met them at the depot. They formed behind their band and marched down town, and to the band stand, where after music by the band, R. A. Underwood on behalf of Plainview and her citizens extended a cordial welcome to them, and expressed delight at having them visit our town. He told of the warm friendship Plainview has toward Amarillo, and told of the helpful interest each does and should have for the other. He lauded the citizenship of the Plains, and predicted in time Amarillo will become the New York of Texas and Plainview the Chicago.

W. W. Flenniken of the First National Bank of Amarillo responded to the address of welcome, and told of things that Amarillo has done and is doing to build up all the towns and counties of Northwest Texas. He extolled Plainview for being such a beautiful, modern and progressive city.

The visitors were then escorted to the Cozy Cafe, where a bountiful fried chicken supper with all the "fixings" was partaken of.

Following the supper the visitors and a large crowd of home people gathered again at the bandstand, and after music by the band, U. N. Olver gave statistics as to Amarillo, and he was followed by A. S. Simeist, president of the Panhandle-Plains Chamber of Commerce, who spoke on "Linking the Panhandle to Amarillo," and he began by saying that "there is not a county in all Texas I consider the equal of Hale county." He told of the tremendous possibilities in the development of Northwest Texas. He predicted that within a few years this section of the state would have a population of 2,000,000 people, and would have a wheat acreage of ten million acres, which would grow more wheat than any portion of the entire globe. The agricultural, ranching, manufacturing and commercial resources will be developed to a wonderful degree, and this will indeed be a wonderfully rich empire. He lauded the citizenship of Northwest Texas, and its educational and social advantages.

NEFF-FOR-GOVERNOR CLUB HAS ENTHUSIASTIC RALLY

KIRK MAKES GOOD SPEECH— MANY SPEECHES TO BE MADE IN COUNTY

The Hale county Neff-for-Governor club held an enthusiastic meeting at the court house Saturday afternoon, the county court room being filled comfortably.

W. A. Nash presided, and publicity, speakers and finance committees were appointed to look after the campaign in Hale county. It was decided to have a number of speeches and meetings over the county between now and the second primary.

Guy Scott of Hale Center was called upon and made a short speech against Bailey and in behalf of Neff. He read excerpts from the record of Mr. Bailey, and denounced him in many ways.

W. W. Kirk followed with quite a long speech, telling of Bailey's unsavory record in Texas and national politics, and declaring that he had evidence that Bailey's present campaign is in behalf of the Standard Oil trust. He said that Bailey has long been identified with the Standard Oil trust, as shown by vouchers of money paid him back fifteen years ago, and that now that the Standard Oil trust is desirous of securing legislation in Texas to aid it in gobbling up the oil fields, it has sent Bailey here to run for governor, so that if he is elected he will be in a position to have great influence with the legislature in enacting laws regulating the oil industry. Kirk made a very able speech and was often applauded.

Plow Hunting

The plow are now paying their annual visit to the Plains, and some of the hunters are after them. The plow go north in the spring below the caprock, and come above the caprock in the late summer on their way back south. They are now fat and fine.

County Tax Rate Remains at 60c on $100 Valuation

The commissioners' court is in session this week as a board of equalization, hearing complaints of those notified to come and show reason why their renditions should not be increased.

The court has also set the county rate of taxation for this year at 60c, the same as last year—ad valorem 35c, road and bridge 15c, court house and jail 10c.

In addition the special 15c road tax which was voted several months ago in Plainview commissioners' precinct was levied.

Special school taxes were levied in rural districts as follows: Hale Center high school, 10c; 20c in districts 13, 14, and 16; 50c in districts 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 11, 15, 17, 18, 19, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33. This does not include the independent districts.

HALE COUNTY BANKS HAVE FOUR MILLIONS DEPOSITS

NEW GRAIN CROP BRINGING IN MUCH MONEY—WILL GO TO SIX MILLION

The deposits of the local banks are growing in volume very rapidly since the new wheat crop has begun to go to market. At present the aggregate deposits foot up nearly four million dollars, sob ank officers tell us.

The First National Bank has almost $2,500,000 in deposits, the Third National something more than $1,000,000 and the Guaranty State Bank has $360,000.

The banks at Hale Center, Abernathy and Petersburg also have the heaviest deposits in their history.

It is thought that the bank deposits of Hale county will be as much as six million dollars when the present crops have been marketed. This would be $600 for each person in the county, or $3,000 per family. Was there ever such a rich country?

Talking About Fair in Oklahoma
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. White and children returned Saturday from a trip in their car to Oklahoma City. Mr. White says they pulled mud following heavy rains for every foot of a 285-mile stretch. The crops in Oklahoma are fine.

MAY HAVE MILITARY EXHIBIT AT FAIR

Lieut. Kotzebue is Working to Have Army Send Machine Guns Here

It is likely that there will be very interesting military exhibit at the Northwest Texas Fair the last week in September, including a machine gun or two and other army equipment.

Lieut. Leon Kotzebue of the Nineteenth Infantry, El Paso, who is here with a recruiting squad, has taken up the matter with the army officers, and will go to Lubbock today to confer with Lieut.-Col. King, who will be there.

Lieut. Kotzebue plans to have tents, a squad of soldiers, machine guns, rifles, and other equipment sent here. He will get all the former service men in the county possible to train for some days, so they can pull off military maneuvers during the fair.

Avan Cox Broke Leg

Avan Cox, a Castro county ranchman, had an accident while riding his motorcycle in the Halsei ranch in Lamb county last week, and one of his legs was broken. He was unconscious for a while and was a long distance from the nearest house, so could not get help. So he upon regaining consciousness bandaged his leg the best he could and rode on his machine to Plainview, nearly forty miles, where the wound was cared for and the bone re-set.

Oscar Callaway of Comanche, formerly congressman from that district, was to have spoken here Saturday afternoon for Bailey, but got sick and did not fill the appointment.

RAILROADS, CONCERT BAND, ENTERTAINMENT EXCURSION

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WILL HOLD BANQUET TO REVIVE RAILROAD

The Plainview Chamber of Commerce at its meeting in the city hall last night discussed railroads, financing the local band, and other matters.

In the absence of the president, David Neal, vice president, presided, and G. V. Smith kept the records.

The financing of the Chamber of Commerce band was taken up and it was decided to supplement the $100 per month from the Board of City Development, by appointing a committee to go among the business men and raise $125 a month in contributions. Chas. Reinken, O. T. Halley, and G. A. Wright were named as this committee.

It was stated by Mr. Wright, who is the director of the band, that a first-class band cannot be gotten into shape before next spring. He also stated that he is lining up a Boys Scout brass band, which he hopes to soon have rehearsing, also possibly a girls' band. Mr. Wright is to receive $150 a month for his work with the regular band and the Scouts band.

A committee composed of O. T. Halley, John Boswell and J. G. Chaney was appointed to co-operate with the Board of City Development committee in planning for the entertainment of the Amarillo trade excursionists, and to provide badges for the C. of C. members to wear.

The matter of G. V. Smith's resignation as secretary was discussed, but will be held over until the Board of City Development decides on securing a regular secretary.

Frank Bennett, of Abilene, field agent for the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, was present, and stated that he was here for the purpose of organizing a local unit of that organization. He also told of some of the things the Chamber is doing for West Texas. He mentioned that if he could secure a house he and his family would move to Plainview.

The most important matter discussed was relative to building a railroad to Silverton, and to secure the proposed extension of a railroad from Fort Worth to the Plains. It was decided at once to revive the Silverton project, have a big get-together meeting of people of both towns here soon. O. T. Halley and G. V. Smith were appointed as a railroad committee.

Mr. Chaney urged that some steps be taken toward stopping transients from selling goods on the streets of the city; and he was authorized to go before the city council and ask that some sort of ordinance be adopted.

REPUBLICAN PAPER SUPPORTS BAILEY

Republicans Are Urged to Aid Him in Preference to Naming Candidate

San Antonio, Aug. 7.—Local republicans are discussing with considerable interest an editorial announcement by the Texas Republic (republican) of this city in favor of former Senator Bailey for governor. The Republic says that it would be to the advantage of Texas republicans to support Mr. Bailey, rather than attempt to put out their own nominee, because, should Bailey be elected, they would have a friend in the governor's office.

Buy Old Slaton Home

W. L. Thomas has bought what is known as the old Slaton residence property at the corner of Broadway and West Ninth street, now occupied by D. L. Miller and family, and will move the house away and build a new one.

THE RIO GRANDE VALLEY

A POEM

J. T. Urban, Jr.

There's a little spot in Texas, just sixty miles in length,
Where invalids have gone and gained back all their youthful strength,
And took a brand new hold on life, and learned to love and play
And to get back into the fight and forget their yesterdays.

I guess I'm kinder partial to this strip of land,
Which is just a little Valley lying by the Rio Grande,
But there the crops are the most outlandish that I ever did see grow,
And the people are the grandest that I ever learned to know.

And the vines are ever fruitful and the weather's ever fine,
And both in winter and in summer, you see it's like spring time,
With roses blooming by the house and the whole year round,
The little ones they play and sing and toss upon the ground.

There the folks they smile at you—seem sorter glad you come,
And tell you that you're welcome to come into their homes,
And spend the day, or the whole year so far as that's concerned,
'Cause they are making money, almost enough to burn.

And they don't mind showin' you the kind of crops to raise,
And help you to get started and learn to love the place,
For they know it won't be long, that just as sure's your're born,
You will be a makin' money from alfalfa and broom corn.

And with a herd of hogs a fattening on the jump,
You will almost hear a dollar jingle every time they grunt.
And I'm going back tomorrow which is on excursion day,
And promise wife and kiddies that I'll never go astray,
From this irrigated valley which is the finest in the land,
Among the mesquite trees and the cactus down by the Rio Grande.

—Join the excursion to the Rio Grande Valley every Monday night.

especially this year. The democrats will carry the state by the usual majority, if not more. The fact that Bailey got a good-sized vote in the July primary has given hope to some republicans that he will lead his forces into the republican party, when he is defeated August 28th, but while a man who can "stomach" Bailey can stomach most anything, it will not affect the result if they all quit the democratic party.

It is reported that De Valera, the "president of the Irish republic", whose home is in America and who has never seen the Emerald Island, so it is said, is reported to have declared a few days ago that he expects to spend within fifteen million dollars educating the people of America up to war with the British empire for the independence of Ireland. While we do not for a minute believe he will ever be able to make much headway, why should he and his bunch be permitted to attempt to do such a thing? No matter what right the Irish have for independence, this country has no right nor business to dabble in the affair. Neither should any person or set of persons be allowed to carry on propagandi relative to or against the internal affairs of a foreign country. We see where such propagandi led several years ago—and America does not want to get into any more wars.

"IS TEXAS DEMOCRATIC"

Beaumont has a very successful and ably edited afternoon newspaper, the Journal. The editor of the Journal is puzzled. This is the caption of a recent editorial: "Is Texas Democratic?" In a review worth while the Beaumont newspaper throws a few sidelights on the political situation as well as the run-off campaign:

Pat M. Neff is for Jim Cox for president of the United States. Joe Bailey says he is for Cox. Let's see how the two remaining candidates for governor stand with reference to the democratic nominee for president.

Cox unqualifiedly indorses the platform adopted by the San Francisco convention. Pat M. Neff indorses that platform just as unqualifiedly. Joe Bailey has publicly placed himself on record as being in opposition to the chief plank in that platform.

Cox has announced that he welcomes a fight from the republicans on the league of nations. Cox is for the league of nations. The republicans are against it. Joe Bailey is against it. Pat Neff is for it.

Cox was for the United States during the war. He made an enviable record as a war governor. He was never silent when there was a chance to urge the purchase of Liberty bonds and war savings stamps. He heartily indorses that portion of the platform which paid tribute to the administration's conduct of the war. Pat Neff favored the United States during the war. He made Liberty bond and war savings stamp speeches. He, too, has praised the administration's conduct of the war. Did Joe Bailey praise the democratic administration's conduct of the war? You know the answer to that.

Jim Cox is a progressive democrat. You know with what scorn and sarcasm Joe Bailey has referred to progressive democrats. Pat Neff is a progressive democrat. Jim Cox caused to be passed in Ohio many bills which are in direct contradiction to Bailey's views on what he prates about as "fundamentals."

Jim Cox is for woman's suffrage. He is not a new convert to this cause. Pat Neff is for woman's suffrage. Pat Neff has been for woman's suffrage all along. Is Joe Bailey for woman's suffrage? Has Joe Bailey ever been for woman's suffrage? You know the answer to that.

The truth of the matter is that Joe Bailey does not agree with Jim Cox on any "fundamental" principle of government and that Pat Neff and Jim Cox are in accord on practically every issue.

The truth of the matter is that Joe Bailey opposed the nomination of McAdoo (because the progressive democrats of Texas favored McAdoo's nomination) and favored the nomination of Gov. Edwards of New Jersey (because Governor Edwards was as "wet as the ocean" candidate) and that he welcomed the nomination of Cox only when he saw Edward's didn't have a chance and because he thought the nomination of Cox would cause consternation in the camp of the "progressive" democrats.

We do not know whether Neff favored McAdoo or Cox. He probably favored McAdoo. Very well. Neff favored McAdoo, we'll say for argument's sake and Bailey favored Edwards. Neither was nominated. Neff now favors Cox and always has favored the progressive principles for which Cox stands. Bailey says he favors Cox but opposes everything for which Cox stands.

Which of these two, then, think you, deserves to be known as a supporter of the democratic nominee for president?

Bailey and his backers have raised this issue. Our purpose is to make them stick to it or surrender. It isn't that we fear Bailey will deceive any considerable number of voters into thinking that he and Cox are in accord for the voters of Texas can't be so easily fooled. But we don't like to see the coat-tails of the democratic nominee for president encumbered by excess baggage of this kind.

If Joe Bailey is determined to stick to the coat-tails of Governor Cox, he will have to go back in every one of his "fundamental" principles of gov-

Poland made the mistake of jumping on the wrong fellow

The Plainview base ball team is "trimming" all comers these days. Plainview is a winner, no matter what the contest is.

A newspaper mentions that the fashions as to funerals are changing all the time. However, the fashion of dying remains the same—people die for the want of breath and because their heart stops "kicking."

Hon. Cullen F. Thomas, who speaks in Plainview Friday afternoon in behalf of Mr. Neff's candidacy, is one of Texas' greatest speakers and most eloquent orators. He should be given a large audience. Every person who attends the speaking will be well paid for the time spent.

Bailey declared the other day that he will carry the election by 75,000 majority. Does any local supporter think so strong enough to put up any money on it—the editor of the News can see that any amount up to $10,000, at 2 to 1, is covered. In fact, if any Bailey man wants to bet, plenty of money can be forth coming that Bailey will be defeated. Bailey, however, is long on making exaggerated statements.

Europe is again about to be plunged into a great war, as the allied nations declare Russia cannot be allowed to proceed further in its invasion of Poland, for it overruns that country and joins with Germany, a great conflagration will be the result. We hope that the United States will keep out of it. Let's nip in the bud every effort of foreigners (or natives, so far as that is concerned) who in any way try to carry on propagandi looking to this country engaging in the war. Let's learn lessons from the other great war. We all know that our entry in that war was to some extent caused by propagandi of interests that cared more for the interests of some of the European countries than for America.

Ben Smith of the Lockney Beacon is "sulking in his tent" in the gubernatorial race. He supported Thomason and was so disappointed at his defeat that he says he will have nothing to do with the run-off primary, as he does not want Bailey nor Neff. Ben is dead wrong in taking this position. The election of Bailey would be a calamity to Texas; it would be hailed as a victory of the anti-prohibitionists, the vicious element, the enemies of democracy and the reactionaries. The editor of the News supported Thomason, just as the editor of the Beacon did, and regretted his defeat, but our love for Texas, which gave us birth, is paramount to any political disappointment. Neff is a far more suitable man for governor than Bailey, therefore in behalf of the Lone Star State we are strong for Neff. Get down off the fence, Ben. Line up with the other Thomason people who are supporting Neff. In fact, Ben, you don't look well, perched up on the fence; you might be taken for a scare-crow.

Experts who have investigated the subject declare that most of the extravagant spending of today is by working people who are getting much higher wages and salaries than ever before, and are spending all they get. Their sudden increase in money has gone to their heads, and they are now buying things they never before dreamed of having. They do not seem to want to save, nor for a moment think of tomorrow's needs. The people who have for years been well-to-do or rich do not indulge in expensive pleasure or spend their money so recklessly, as in times past they made what they have by thrift and economy and hence know the value of a dollar and how to conserve it.

Anyway, the boy who has about 38,976,543 freckles on his face doesn't lose much sleep over his complexion.

A man thinks he shows a spirit of gratitude if he is thankful for what he has. But it seldom occurs to him to be thankful for what he hasn't.

A man would not be so poor if he did not spend so much money trying to conceal the fact that he is poor.

It must be tough to be a school teacher and get about 100 holidays a year and not have enough money to enjoy them.

Senator Harding, the republican presidential nominee, has wired Texas republicans that it "would herald a new era in politics if this campaign could see a breaking up of the democratic solid South." Well, Senator Harding needn't worry, for the break-

Do You Want to Live

Where the climate is ideal, never having reached a higher temperature than 90 degrees and never colder than 28 degrees, according to your own government reports.

- Where every day is a planting and a harvesting day.
- Where you raise three crops a year.
- Where drouth or crop failures are never known.
- Where health is the very best.
- Where there are practically no flies or mosquitoes.
- Where social conditions are the best.
- Where the school systems are the best in the South.
- Where you can get a maid to do the housework for the wife for from $3.00 to $4.50 per week.
- Where you can get all the first-class farm labor desired for from $1.25 to $1.50 per day.
- Where you can supervise your farm and have others do the work at a figure enabling you to make a large amount of money.
- Where rheumatism, asthma, hay fever, stomach troubles and catarrh disappear.
- Where people live longer, love each other better, make more money and are happier than perhaps any other place in the United States.

Where you can raise a crop of cabbage, onions or lettuce in the winter time while your lands elsewhere are idle and at a time when such things command the very highest price, bringing from $300 to $1,000 per acre and where you can follow either of these crops with a crop of corn which will average 75 bushels to the acre all over the valley and coming on at a time when the north has no corn and brings the very highest price, or a crop of broom corn which makes around a ton per acre and has been bringing for a year or so, from $300 to $450 per ton.

Where you can raise alfalfa and cut it from 8 to 11 times per year.

Where you can have a pasture of the wonderful Rhodes grass, which will carry 5 head of grown cattle per acre all the year around, or a proportionate number of hogs, furnishing green parturage from one year's end to the other.

Where hog diseases are unknown and where hogs do the best. Where dairying has reached perfection because of the green pasturage of Rhodes grass and other green feeds the year around.

Where you can raise from one to three bales of cotton per acre, and which can be gathered for around $1.00 per hundred.

Where all kind of trucking has reached the point of perfection.

Where you can raise sorghum cane, millet, sudan, in fact, practically nearly anything else grown in the South with the exception of small grain.

Where Citrus fruit industry is fast coming into the forefront, producing the best Grape Fruit in the United States, also lemon and oranges in abundance. This is perhaps the only portion of the United States where Citrus fruit can be grown without fertilizer. These fruits come into bearing the third year and reach full bearing about the 7th or 8th year, when each acre of Citrus fruit returns to the owner from $750 to $2,000 per acre, and pays a nice dividend from the third year on. It is said the life of a citrus orchard is about 50 years. When you get a nice Citrus orchard in bearing, you have a real pension.

Where you have an abundance of water for irrigation and can get it at a normal price when you want it and as much as you want. This is the best crop insurance in the world.

- Where the land does not bake from irrigation.
- Where the soil is the richest on the American continent.
- Where the cool sea breeze blows practically all the time.
- Where hunting and fishing is ideal.
- Where you can have the most beautiful yards and driveways covered with roses, oleanders, cannas, the stately palm and the many dozens of other kinds of shrubs and flowers.
- Where life is really worth living, away from the bizzards, snow and sand storms.
- Where the winter is as nice as May.

If a country of the kind just described appeals to you, come and talk with us or drop us a line and let us come and tell you of this most wonderful country and arrange for a trip on one of our excursions and see for yourself. If your judgment tells you that these lands are the best investment you have ever seen and the Lower Rio Grande Valley the best place to live, then buy, and if you do not find this the case, then don't buy.

The Boy And His Pigs

CHAMPIONS OF THE WORLD

This is a drawing from a photo of Elton Sartor of Barlett, Texas, and some of the pigs that made him the 1918 Champion hog raiser of the world.

Young Sartor from an investment of $25.00 in a registered pig showed NET profit above every expense in only FIFTEEN MONTHS OF $1,052.85.

He is now well established in one of the best businesses in the world. His first year in the business was as interesting to him as base ball, besides showing earnings equal to that of many professional men after years of study and endeavor.

We believe it possible for many boys of this county to equal this record.

Farming—the right kind of farming—can be made the most interesting and at the same time the most profitable career for any young American.

We will help. That's what we're here for. Let's talk it over.

Setting a Good Example

When Pastor H. J. Matthews returned Saturday eve from a fortnight's absence, he found that the weeds and grass on the church lot had taken base advantage of his absence and "taken possession." So, bright and early Monday morning, he and his family and a few friends executed a fierce and very successful attack upon the invaders, leaving the slain piled in heaps.

This so improved the appearance of the church lot that a worthy citizen nearby, who had been content to sit in uncaring submission to similar invaders of his lot, was stirred by the contract to seize his hoe and win another victory over the enemies of Plainview's beauty and healthfulness.

Who'll be the next to enlist in this worthy campaign? Cut your weeds.

million and others around forty million and smaller. He stated there now are sixty drilling oil wells in the Panhandle, forty or fifty of which are actually being drilled, and that so far there has never been a dry hole struck.

The band played several selections, and the boosters were then turned loose.

They wore white hats and carried canes, and were bedecked with banners, ribbons and feathers.

It was announced that the soda water and cigar stands in Plainview were open free to the Amarillo guests, that they had as well throw away their purses (as their money was not good while in Plainview). The supper was a compliment from the local commercial clubs. The Board of City Development, the Chamber of Commerce, and other societies of the town each had committees to look after the entertainment of the guests.

Tonight the guests will spend the night in their sleepers, and early tomorrow morning they will be taken in cars about town and a short distance in the country, to see the town and crops. At 9:30 they will leave for a trip to Lockney and Floydada, and will pass back through in the afternoon and go north, stopping at Kress and other points, arriving at Amarillo before night.

They said that on their entire trip they had not seen such great crops of wheat and other products as in this vicinity.

Giving Bailey Undue Strength

Last week the local Bailey campaign committee printed a circular advertising Mr. Bailey's address here next Thursday. Signed to the circular were the names of many local people as a "reception committee."

Several of those whose names appeared on the circular have stated that their names were put on the circular without their consent and that they are not supporting Bailey but are for Neff, and that they are indignant that their names should have been so printed.

Recently a long list of speakers was published by the Bailey state committee in the daily press, whom it was declared would go out over the state and make speeches for Bailey. Some of these men are now coming out in published statements saying their names were used without their authority, and that they are not making speeches for Bailey nor supporting him.

Such acts as these are unfair. They seek to give Bailey a fictitious strength that he does not possess.

Very Large Attendance and Great Interest in Revival

The Methodist-Presbyterian revival being conducted at the Presbyterian church under the preaching of Evangelist Evans, has become very interesting, and there have been many conversions, each service bringing many converts into the fold. The attendance at the meeting is extremely large, and people have to be turned away because the church is not large enough to accommodate them.

ALLOWANCES FOR WOMEN AND KEEPING OF ACCOUNTS

Dallas, Texas, Aug. 9.—"Women must be given allowances and must form the habit of keeping a careful account of their expenses before they can become good business managers and live up to the 'Government's Thrift Plan', said Mrs. Ella Carruthers Porter, National Thrift Chairman for the National Congress of Mothers' Club and Parent-Teacher Associations, in a conference with Dinsmore W. Hume, Federal District Director, yesterday.

While Mrs. Porter's activities will be national in scope, she will participate in State activities. At present emphasis will be placed first, on women obtaining a fixed allowance for household expenditures, and second an accurate account of such expenditures. "Only when this is habitually done," said Mrs. Porter, "can women become mistresses of their own households and practice the government's plans of wise buying, systematic saving and safe investments. Our work both nationally and in the states will be conducted with these ends in view. We will gauge our success by the extent to which our women practice thrift and buy Government Securities."

Discovers Strange ANIMAL
R. E. Kessie, editor of the Stratford Star, went fishing some time previous to July 1, 1919, and the things he saw on that trip were too wonderful to contemplate. He saw an animal said to be a cross between a sheep and a hog, and every friend he has told the incident to since has said that "there ain't no such animal." So Kessie wrote to Colonel Goodnight, the Panhandle animal Burbank to find out just what he did or didn't see. Mr. Goodnight wrote

LOONEY FOR NEFF SPEAKS AT CUMBY

Reviews Issues and Says Bailey Has No Platform or Program—Candidate Absurd.

Cumby, Texas, Aug. 7.—B. F. Looney of Greenville, former candidate for governor, spoke here tonight in the interest of the candidacy of Pat M. Neff. The points stressed in opposition to Bailey were that his long absence from Texas clearly renders him ineligible to be inaugurated governor under plain provisions of the constitution.

He stated that Bailey is running without a platform or any program, but from day to day in his speeches is advocating matters wholly immaterial and about which no issue can be formed. "He is silent as to any constructive remedies to meet public demands. He has no suggestions to reform inequalities in our tax laws. To rehabilitate our school system. He has no solution to offer for the land tenant problem and is silent as to all state matters, except he promises to reduce the tax rate 33 1-3 per cent without furnishing details from which it is made to appear that he will be able to accomplish this result."

In fact, said Mr. Looney, it is utterly absurd, in view of the situation, for him to make this promise.

He further promises to reduce the number of state employees without indicating the departments or institutions from which these employees are to be eliminated. All his suggestions with reference to state matters are so general as to be meaningless and not worthy of the confidence of any sensible voter. While he states that he would not bring whiskey back to Texas if he could, and could not if he would, still, in this connection, he asserts the right of every man to manufacture his own liquor, in his own house, out of his own material, for his own use, and thus he is encouraging wildcatting and bootlegging in defiance of law, and nothing would please this criminal element better than to have a governor of Bailey's views.

"He is making a fight against what he is pleased to call the closed shop, or, in other words, has espoused the open shop, when he knows perfectly well that that is a fictitious issue created by himself, that no law will be passed affecting the right to form either open shop or closed shop agreements. He is also endeavoring to frighten the farmer with the idea that the eight-hour per day law would be applied to farm labor, whereas he knows perfectly well that no one is insisting upon such a law.

"These are mere shams and pretenses to catch the votes of the unwary. He promises to make speeches for the Democratic presidential ticket. But where will he speak and what will he say? He has said too much already. Mr. Cox, the nominee, stands upon the San Francisco platform and as the representative of national democracy has no right to speak except as he voices the sentiments of the San Francisco platform, and no one can consistently or effectively speak for him who does not voice the sentiments of the San Francisco platform. Does Mr. Bailey endorse the San Francisco platform? If so, since when has he espoused its principles?"

"In his last utterance on the subject he condemned the entire democratic record of the last seven years, condemned the league of nations in toto, condemned national woman suffrage and has been kicking organized labor in the face all over the state.

"The San Francisco platform indorses the Wilson administration and its great constructive record. This platform makes the league of nations the paramount issue upon which this campaign will be fought. This platform indorses woman suffrage and recognizes the rights of union labor. In fact, there is no public question involved in this campaign for which Mr. Cox and the San Francisco platform stand that Mr. Bailey has not recently repudiated.

"He would be a distinct liability to the democratic campaign in any state where he might speak, because whatever he might say to further the election of Cox would be conclusively answered by his own utterances in the recent campaign in this state."

LUBBOCK CITIZENS FORM NEFF CLUB

More Than Four Hundred Sign Allegiance to Waco Candidate—
Randolph Speaks

Lubbock, Tex., Aug. 7.—The Lubbock County Neff-for-Governor club was organized in this city tonight, with more than 400 members. Judge George R. Bean, former Looney supporter, was elected president and representative R. A. Baldwin, of Slaton, vice president; George W. Briggs, a former supporter of Thomason for governor, was chosen as secretary. An executive committee was appointed to formulate plans for continuing the campaign. Judge Randolph, of Plainview, Senator W. H. Bledsoe, who worked for Thomason in the first primary, Judge Puckett, and Representative R. A. Baldwin spoke during the meeting.

him that he had crossed the sheep and the hog and produced an offspring and he added that the cross is a common one in parts of old Mexico. The thing that Kessie saw was such an animal. SILVERTON

Aug. 6.—A protracted meeting is in progress at the church house at Rock Creek this week under the direction of Eld. Chas. W. Watkins.

Drilling on the oil well at Quitaque will probably be started by the last of this week. Everyone seems to think that the well will be put down in a hurry when it is started.

Theron Crass of the Rock Creek community had a narrow escape from a rattlesnake bite one day last week. He found the snake in some feed he was handling and killed it, not knowing that it had tried to bite him, but a little later feeling something stinging his wrist under his glove, he removed it and found one of the snake's fangs in the glove, scratching his wrist. In examination it was found that the snake was minus one fang. He soaked his hand in coal oil for some time and then came to town and had a local physician dress the place. It did not trouble him very much.

The cotton farmers of Quitaque formed a company Tuesday morning for the purpose of building a new gin here. A committee of men will leave for Dallas Wednesday morning to buy the machinery.

A large tabernacle has been prepared under the trees in the court house ward with comfortable seats, clean, bright straw on the ground and electrical lighted, at which place the meeting is being conducted by the Methodist and Presbyterian churches. Rev. J. S. Huckabee, Methodist pastor of Floydada, is doing most of the preaching, and H. G. Scroggins of Plainview is leading the song service.—Star.

LOCKNEY

Aug. 6.—The First Annual Poultry Show will be held at Floydada, Texas, Sept. 23, 24 and 25.

The new Santa Fe agent, Mr. Barkhurst, and has started work on a new house in the west part of town Wednesday. He will build a larger and more modern home.

Arthur Barker is excavating for his new residence on the Methodist church lots on South Main street. The building will be built of brick and will be modern in every particular with a basement.

Mrs. T. E. Cowart of the Providence community left yesterday for Santa Anna, Texas, on a visit to her relatives.

Mrs. C. H. Huffman of the Providence section left yesterday for Haskell county to visit her sister, Mrs. Jim Webb.

Last Sunday night a man by the name of Curry, who lives at Magdalena, N. M., was robbed at the Brewster House of four $20 bills and a good watch and chain. The thief slipped into the room some time during the night while Mr. Curry was asleep and procured his trousers, carried them out to the toilet, ruffled the pockets of the money and watch and left the trousers in the toilet. No clew as to the thief.

After many months of inactivity in the matter of building, the result of high price and scarcity of material, Lockney is entering a building program, which promises to reach magnificent proportions before it stops. We have several residences now under construction, with others to start in the near future.

A new modern hotel is being discussed and plans laid by local people for the erection of same. The building equipment contemplated will run around $30,000.—Beacon.

Relating to Taxation by School Districts

Senate Joint Resolution No. 17 ... Proposing an amendment to Section 3 of Article VII of the Constitution of the State of Texas by exempting independent and common school districts from the limitation of a total tax of one dollar on the one hundred dollars valuation for any one year, and making an appropriation therefor.

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1. That Section 3 of Article VII of the Constitution be so amended as hereafter to read as follows: (Creating a new Section 3.)

WHILE "GEORGE" LOOKED ON

Party of Tourists Helped Pretty American Woman to Kiss the Real Blarney Stone.

It is a little party to go to Blarney castle to improve our ability in the art of talking by kissing the Blarney stone, says Capt. Albert R. Wonham in "Spun Yarns of a Naval Officer." The saying that all roads lead to Rome applies somewhat to Blarney, too, but the Irish nudes—I cannot think how they reconcile them with the miles recorded by the taxicab indicators!

However, we got there, and, bounding up the stone stairs, reached the top of the tower. Two persons were already there, an old man and one of the loveliest women I ever saw. We were rather pressed for time, and so proceeded to kiss the stone.

The Blarney stone faces the outside of the tower, about three feet down. If you wish really to kiss it you must be let down headfirst, do the trick, and be hauled up. All round the top of the tower is a hanging parapet projecting about a foot from the line of the tower wall, built to enable the defenders, when the castle was attacked, to pour boiling water or melted lead on top of the enemy operating on the front door.

Having let one another down, we finished under the wondering gaze of the lovely woman. "Excuse me, gentlemen," she said, "but what have you been doing?"

We told her. With a disdainful look she turned to the old fellow and said, "There, George, I told you that," pointing to a meek-looking stone inside, "was not the Blarney stone, and I have not kissed the Blarney stone! I have not come all the way from America to go away without doing it!" As she said that she looked appealingly at us, for George did not seem inclined to rise to the occasion.

The end of it was that we lashed her dress round her ankles, lowered her, and pulled her up triumphant.

"There, George, now I can go back to America and say that I have kissed the Blarney stone!" she cried.

I am bound to say that George, who proved to be her husband, did not look happy or pleased. His reputation for telling the truth had suffered, and I am pretty sure that he wished we never had come.

"Boys" Got Good American Food.

If the American mother could come face to face with some of the women cooking meals for her soldier boy at the Y. M. C. A. but over here it would gladden her heart, says a London (Eng.) correspondent.

They would prove to the American mother that her boy while here is getting real good old "Yankee Doodle" meals, cooked by real American mothers just like herself.

These women—most of them American volunteer workers—supply about 2,500 meals a day, besides hundreds of "teas" (yes, mothers, he's got the English tea habit now; you'll have to give him tea every afternoon when he gets back), luncheons and night meals. The "chief cook" is Hon. Mrs. Arthur Coke, and her specialty is griddle cakes "fit for a king." One month recently she turned out 20,000 of them, six of which were eaten by no less a personage than King George himself.

The king and queen recently visited Eagle hut. They gave the king three of the cakes. He cleaned his plate and came back for a "refill."

Real "Sky Pilot."

A preacher literally comes down out of the heavens to preach the Gospel to American aviators in England.

He is Rev. Reginald Crew, American Y. M. C. A. pastor-aviator, who flies from one aviation camp to another, holding religious services for the "boys." He has no long-distance record, but he has flown as far as thirty miles between camps for a prayer meeting.

Arriving at a camp, he frequently gives his Yank birdmen congregation, thousands of feet below, a preliminary exhibition in the "corkscrew," "loop-the-loop," "apple-turnover" and other fancy stunts. That insures their attention.

Then he volplanes to earth, climbs out of his chariot, removes his football headgear and starts "church." The boys call him the "sky pilot." He is a great favorite and they eagerly flock to services.—Exchange.

An Allied Uniform.

In a vaudeville theater at one of the French ports there was a comedian who had an act which he called "Le Nouvel Uniforme." He wore a French steel helmet topped with the cock feathers of the Italians. His coat and breeches were of khaki. About his waist was slung a Scotch sporrán. He wore golf stockings. The top of one was the pattern of the French flag and the other of the American flag. And he sang a song about the beach at Walkiki—a Frenchman's interpretation of an American idea of Hawaiian harmony! Certainly nothing could have been more allied.—Roy S. Durstine, in Scribner's Magazine.

No Co-Operation.

"I always try to make the best of a bad situation," remarked Mr. Githery.

"What do you do when your water pipes freeze and then burst?"

"Oh, I sing a little song just to show that I'm not worrying."

"That's highly commendable."

"But when the water begins to leak on the people who occupy the flat beneath mine to save my life I can't persuade them to join me in singing."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

CARTER-HOUSTON'S
Goods That Speak for Themselves

HARD TO JUDGE BY SOUND

Nature Has Not Equipped All Creatures With Vocal Organs Commensurate With Their Size.

It is a very curious fact that the loudest sounds are not always made by the largest animals. The roar of the lion exceeds in sonority the cry of the elephant. Anyone who had only heard, without seeing, a bullfrog, might well suppose that its fearful voice, breaking the silence of the night, must certainly come from the throat of an animal of formidable dimensions.

Perhaps the most remarkable case of vocal power in an animal is that encountered by a traveler in the highlands of Borneo. He was informed by some natives that they had heard a tiger roaring in the neighborhood. Such news is always startling to a stranger in the jungles, and hardly less so to the natives.

An investigation was accordingly set on foot, which resulted in the discovery that the alarming roars had been emitted by a toad! This toad of Borneo, however, was by no means an ordinary member of the family. It measured no less than 1 1/2 inches around the body.

That the natives should not have recognized the true source of the sound shows that the existence of such roars was either unknown to them, or at any rate, they had never discovered the remarkable vocal capabilities of the animals.

In this relation Bates tells of an incident that occurred during his travels along the Amazon. Among the many sounds heard in the dense Brazilian forests was a kind of loud metallic clanking, that sometimes rang through the trees, and the origin of which the traveler was unable to discover. Whenever it was heard, the natives covered with fear, ascribing it to a supernatural origin. Possibly the noise was so loud that they missed its location by searching only for something of corresponding physical dimensions.

China Egg Traps Snake.

Swallowing a china nest egg was the fatal mistake which brought to a close the long egg-stealing career of a black snake. Found in a hen house which it had been plundering, the reptile was vainly trying to squeeze through the hole by which it had entered the building. The lump formed in the scaly body by the nest egg would not permit the exit, and the snake was killed. A post-mortem operation was performed to remove the egg.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.
