Actual demonstrations were no de of town, showing the use of different implements and tools made for the Fordson. The Ford people spent millions of dollars in perfecting their Fordson tractor, and experimented for several years with implements to find the most successful ones to hitch onto the tractor. These implements and tools are made by the standard and well known implement manufacturers, and are for use solely on the Fordson. The implement experts who were here made these demonstrations.

Wednesday night at the Ware Hotel there was a banquet, with the Ford officials and experts, the implement representatives, the sales agents, local bankers and newspapermen present. We are at times hardheaded and stubborn, but if we are ever put in jail we are not going to put on a "hunger strike," but are going to get even with old man H. C of L. no matter how much it costs the county.

It is officially announced that organized labor has endorsed and will support Cox for president. It is a question whether this support will age or why he changed his name, help or hurt him. Because of the intollerance and arrogance of organized labor, and its Bolshevik tendency hundreds of thousands of Americans will not vote for any candidate who is endorsed by or receives the support of union labor.

Editor Loomis of the Canadian Record has been nominated by the republicans of this district for congress. While, of all republicans in the district, Loomis would be our choice, yet we feel that he has made a mistake in permitting the nomination. PEANUT POLITICAL ISSUES

In nearly every heated political campaign a lot of peanut "issues" are brought in.

In the recent campaign the matter of Mr. Neff's age, nor of Mr. Bailey's should never have been mentioned, much less enlarged upon as they were.

When poliiticians brings such things into a campaign it shows they look upon the common voters as a herd of ignoramuses who can be easily stampeded. But, people are reading the newspapers more, are well informed and are capable of making up their own minds.

The day of the scheming profressional politician is past. The people are reading and thinking for themselves. The women are also voting, and women are not to be herded by politicians.

> A good rule in going through this world is "Smile and speak first."

The national campaign is growing warmer. Gov. Cox this week denounced Hayes, republican national chairman, as a liar. Like in recent Texas gubernatorial campaign, the national campaign is fast being degraded into bitter personalities and contentions over non-essential things, rather than the discussion of important issues.

BUY PLAINS LAND NOW

Now is the best time to buy a farm n the Plainview country. While land has risen in price considerably during the past several years, considering the advanced price of everything else land here is no higher, if as high, in proportion—besides most everybody these days have dollars where they had only dimes several years ago, hence are better able to pay for the land.

Land values on the Plains are going to increase continually for years to come, and will likely never come down. Plain's land is a gilt-edge investment.

There is no better place in the world than the Plainview country to make a home. The society here is of the very highest type; the people are prosperous and happy; there are good schools and churches; the climate is healthful and pleasant; the land is very productive.

The man who is a renter should bend every effort to secure a farm home on the Plains at once, so that ne and his family many live under the Best invironment and become independent of a landlord.

Any man who has the grit can buy farm here on credit and pay for it, 'Where there is a will, there's a way.' This is the best country in the world for the man who will use his brains minacles.

There is no better way to care and invest than to buy a Plains farm and begin paying for it.

Minnesota Farmers Quit Wheat After Failure, and Are Prospering With Dairies

Lakeville, Minn., Aug 30. Dear Editor. I arrived home from Plainview a few days ago and found my Minnesota people very much interested in the Plains country, so much so that I have arranged to take with me on my return a delgation of representation business men and farmers to show that Northwest Texas is everything I claim it to be for agricultural and dairy farming.

I want every man interested in dairy farming to meet my delegation Prior to August 25th the freight on my arrival there Sept. 15. They on a car of wheat from Plainview to will tell you what the dairy cow done for Minnesota when her wheat crops failed. Yes, Minnesota has forged from third place in the union as a cow and made last year 142 million pounds of buter with her nearest competition making only Hence, the farmr has to stand the to the Plains country as it has all loss. There is still approximately 400 others. We wore a sour, sorrowful look twenty years ago when forced to county farmers, thus they will have face the cow as a last resort to keep ody and soul together. What is the alone because of the freight increase. result? After a few years of cheap xperience our lands have jumped from $50 to $250 per acre. The dairy cow, milking machine and home labor done it all. Today the farmer, dairy maiden, dons coveralls, adjusts her milking machine, touches the electric button and sings while the milk flows. When the song is sung, she hoves to her automobile and off to the creamery with her milk or cream and back again with her money, all done in a few hours. You white faced Texas steers, can you show me where the profiteer has anything on our Minnesota dairy maids?

Meet my delegation at Plainview, Spt. 15 to 18 and they will tell you

The first sale of registered Poland China hogs in Floyd county was held this week by Walter Denny at his place 10 miles north of Lockney. The sale was a success in the point of prices and the numbers in attendance from within and without the county. Mr. Denny in his converter sale offered 21 head of thoroughbred Poland 25. The 21 head brought around months old. One gilt sold for $1,000 and was bought by Joe Mason, who ives east of Lockney in Floyd coun-Ludwick Irlbeck of Happy.

The fourth day of last December Mr. Denny bought a gilt at Childress brought $1300. Can any investment beat this?-Lockney Beacon.

Frank Faytinger of Linwood, Neb. will leave today for his home, after spending some days looking after his half-section farm near Ellen. Mr Sikes lives on the place. Mr. Faytinger bought the land about twelve years ago at $20 an acre; he has made good interest on the investment from the crops, and the land has increased in value and is now worth $65 an acre. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Haddick will live on the place the ciming year,

Why Should Plainview Support

Wayland Baptist

- 1. Wayland College is a Home Institution and we believe in community loyalty.
- 2. Wayland offers two years of college work which will admit the students to Junior standing in any standard college.
 - It will cost less to send to college at home.
- 4. Wayland College has a great future backed by a great denomination with large constituency it promises to become one of the great colleges of the state.
- 5. Wayland College will bring money to Plainview. A student body of 200 will spend $100,000 in the town in one session. 500 students will spend here $250,000 annually.
- 6. Wayland is a Christian college and stands for those fundamentals n morals and religion which go to make up great cities and great nations.
- · 7. Plainview should patronize Wayland because other towns are doing so. Many fine young men and women from other communities will come here for education.
- 8. Wayland has a splendid faculty of Christian men and women, college and university graduates; offers courses in English, History, Mathematics, Education, Bible Modern Languages, Science, Aacient Languages, Piano, Voice, Orchestra and expression.
- 9. Wayland College offers better advantages for personal oversight and influence of the teacher over the student than the university. Parent and teacher can co-operate here to guide the student through the critical period of transition from home to university life.
- 10. Wayland is a Western school for the people of the West. This great country deserves a great Educational Institution and Plainview has the location and the opportunity to build such. Next session opens Sept. 8th. Send us your boys and

Mrs. G. W. Archbold is Honored at Reception

One hundred and fifty guests were received at the home of Mrs. J. L. Vaughn Wednesday afternoon from 3 to 5, when Mrs. Vaughn and Mrs. L. I. Mayhugh honored Mrs. G. W. Archbold of Durant, Okla.

Mrs. Tom Carter stood in the enrance hall and ushered the guests in. Mrs. L. C. Wayland invited them to the punch bowl, where delicious punch was served by Sadye Earle Adams and Lela B. Slaton.

Mrs. G. C. Keck and Mrs. Marshall Phelps led the way to the receiving line in the back parlor, where stood Mrs. J. L. Vaughn, Mrs. G. W. Archbold, Mrs. L. T. Mayhugh, Mrs. Earl Keck, Mrs. W. J. Lloyd, Mrs. J. H. Slaton, Mrs. H. C. Randolph, Mrs. J. O. Wyckoff, and Mrs. Chil Slaton.

They were then passed to the dinng room by Mrs. R. E. Meyers, where brick cream and angel food cake were served by Mesdames J. M. Adams, E. M. Carter, Albert Hinn and Ellis Car-

Mrs. L. G. Wilson invited them to the music room, where a musical program was rendered, Mrs. R. W. O'-Keefe and Miss Resanne Hulen rendered vocal music, accompanied by Mrs. Guy Jacob. Mary Pritchett gave a reading, and Miss Zelda Hulen rendered some charming dances.

In the floral decorations noespecial color motif or flower was used, only quality being sacrificed for quantity advantageously. The rooms were a bower of flowers. Golden glow graced he reception hall while many hues of dahlias and other early fall nowers were used in the other rooms. Each one assisting the hostess wore a lovey corsage of the flowers used.

West Side Forty-Two Club

Dr. and Mrs. L. C. Wayland entertained the West Side Forty-Two club Tuesday night. Mrs. G. C. Keck won high score.

THESE ARE NOT SPECIAL PRICES

Below we quote a number of prices we are making on groceries. These are our regular every-day prices, but they will show you that we are selling groceries at lower prices than some grocers make on "specials."

We are pursuing the live and let live policy, by cutting our profits to the closest margin possible. This means a saving to our customers and more business to us, and in the grocery business a rapid turn-over is where the money is to be made.

If you will buy all your groceries from us, you will save money, get the very best goods, the most courteous treatment and prompt delivery. Just try us for a month, and you will find that what we say is true.

cent traveler with the multiplicity of its generals and the variety and gorgeousness of their uniforms. In the "Black Republic" the title of "general," it appears, is conferred for any probably even more effective in providing revenue for the makers of uniforms, to the political party that happens to be in power. Military experience is not necessary to become a general, although apparently any and all generals are more or less recognized as such by the private soldiers recruited by a compulsory system, and so poorly and irregularly paid that a visitor to the president's palace must sometimes distribute coppers to the entire military body guard expectantly lined up to receive him. As soon as the citizen who has earned the gratitude of state or party receives his appointment, says the Chronicler, he "immediately buys himself a uniform of whatever color and style his fancy may dictate, to which he adds a collection of all sorts and kinds of medals." His next need is a charger; he acquires one of the diminutive ponies of the island. vaults or climbs into the saddle, and is complete.

Memorial to Great Nava! Deed.

Were it possible for the British people to ferget that greatly daring naval deed of the war known by the uninspiring title of the Zeebrugge raid, the present movement on foot to commemorate it will assure for it perpetual fame. Happily the initiative has been taken by the city of Bruges, so there is not the slightest element of valnglory in the idea of a memorial to be erected on a suitable site within a few yards of the spot where the blockships Intrepid and Iphigenia were successfully sunk. The actual sinking of these vessels for the purpose of preventing the German submarines using the canal to Bruges, was rendered possible only by the gallantry of the attack made by the old cruiser Vindictive, which was afterward sunk across the fairway at Ostend. Standing on an elevation, the monument will be visible far out to sea .- Christian Science Monitor.

Suspense Worse Than Attack.

There are sailors who will tell you that the actual torpedoing of a vessel was not very much worse than the suspense and the many false alarms-any of which might have proved to be an enemy submarine. A merchant captain was looking out to sea one day, when in the distance he thought he saw something dark and round. He watched to see whether it would move. It did move, and then suddenly it dived. There was no time to do anything, since he did not know from what direction the torpedo might come. He waited. To his horror the dark, round object rose from the waves only 30 yards away from the boat. He said it was the worst moment in his life until he realized on further inspection that the "periscope" was in actual fact a large seal with a dirty yellow neck and a full crop of whiskers.

War and Roller Skates.

It is a far cry from the world war to a child's roller skates, but according to the fashion expert of Popular Mechanics Magazine, roller skates of the latest approved model are after the style of British fighting tanks. Novelty always being uppermost in the juvenile heart, it matters not that the new skates are a bit snowshoelike in size. The new skates are like all others except that they are surrounded by tanklike bodies made of light sheet

POOR WAY TO WOO SLEEP

Man Who Experimented Pronounced Insomnia "Cure" to Be at Least of Doubtful Value.

A new cure for insomnia, we read, is to "list the first names of all your friends and acquaintances, taking each letter of the alphabet in order." Of course this is only a variant of the old device of counting imaginary sheep jumping over a wall. Personally we never found that to work at all. We counted between 11,000 and 12,000 of these alleged soporific sheep one night, and then the alarm clock went off and it was time to get up, which we did with a groan, a headache and a pair of astigmatic eyes.

Making an alphabetical catalogue of your friends' first names is an even more stimulating and nerve-exciting process. We would be willing to wager that no normal persons could get further than the N's before being interrupted by the first call for breakfast. It is doubtful, at least, if the night contains enough time to go through with the whole list from Alfred to Zorilla. We should say that this might be the surest way to banish sleep altogether.

The best way to woo slumber, we have been told, is to go into the silence, relax all muscles and nerves, and then in a mental way, pull all the edges of the mind into a dead mental center and fold them in. It is hard to say just how this is done, but it sounds plausible. Frequently, of course, there are some difficulties merely in going into a silence. Somewhere on the premises, perhaps in an adjacent apartment, there may be someone who has gone to sleep without going into the silence. This interferes materially with the working of all anti-insomnia devices. If there is no neighboring obstacle of this sort it is a much easier matter.

And yet, even after the silence is arranged, the mind is apt to go on providing its own disturbance. Arithmetical and alphabetical diversions only accentuate the tumult. The only thing to do is to regard the very center of the mind as a hypothetical hole, or vacuum, contract the mind until it is all pulled into this hole, and then pull the hole in after it. And there you are. Of course if there is a certain degree of reality in this imagined condition, one does not have to exercise the hypothesis, and that makes it so much easier .- F. H. Young in Providence Journal.

Lithuania and Its People. Lithuania is situated in the basin of the Niemen and Dvina rivers on the southeastern coast of the Baltic sea: The capital is Vilna. Its area is approximately 80,000 square miles, the population about 9,000,000, of whom 7,000,000 are Lithuanians 3,500,000 Lithuanians proper, 1,500,000 using Slavic dialects and 2,000,000 Letts. The country also contains a third of a milllon Poles. The rest of the population consists of Jews, White Russians, Gerthere is no trace in the world's history any other people having lived in these regions. Although situated between the Slavs and the Teutons, the Lithuanians are in no way related to them. They claim that their language is one of the oldest now spoken in the world. It is said strikingly to resemble ancient Sanskrit.

Many Tyrants.

He was a high school pupil, and was Phone or write me for dates or dates imbibling many bits of philosophy. At home he watched the women folk and the ways they devised for doing as they pleased and for getting every other person to do as they wished them to do. And from these he drew conclusions which he later voiced.

"Times have changed since my history was written," he told his father one night. "Then the tyrants were the men who used to stamp around and kill and frighten people into submission. Today the tyrants have dropped those weapons and use much more subtle ones-tears. I think a woman who cries in order to get her own way is a bigger tyrant than ever those old fellows of long ago were."

Primroses of Picardy.

Nature in her own way is looking after the solltary war graves scattered throughout the shell-shuttered its place. Picardy countryside, according to a writer in the London Daily Chronicle. Those that lie in the thrice-fought-over personally guaranteed by every drugground between Albert and Combles are covered with early spring primroses. In Lieramont the daffodils are blooming, and the brambles on the graves in Bernafay wood are green with new leaves. The lonely warriors are to be gathered together in the central cemeteries under the care of the imperial war graves commission. The French government, in compliment to the British soldier, has purpresented it for all time to England.

Hotel Chateau Thierry. There is said to be a plot on foot for a large American-managed hotel at Chateau Thierry. If it is built a small bet might be placed that the services of a German-speaking clerk will not be required there on the opening day. Their memories of that section will not be so keenly pleasurable that Germans will return there in great num-

FINE "GRIDIRON" AT COBLENZ

American Soldiers Stationed There Have Facilities for Almost Every Kind of Sport

Elaborate preparations were made at Coblenz, Germany, for the football season. Grounds and stadiums which were only partly finished a year ago have been made permanent playing fields, and many of them compare favorably with the best college gridirons in the United States.

The most elaborately finished ground is in Coblenz, known as "Carnival Island." It was on this ground that the Third army championships were decided last season, but the ground at that time was not in as good condition as it is today. Neither were there proper facilities, such as dressing rooms.

At this island there are now two regular baseball fields, two football fields, a golf course of nine holes, a polo ground, a quarter-mile cinder track, with 220 yard straightaway, and outdoor basketball courts. On another part is a ring for horse shows and nine tennis courts.

Suitable bleachers to accommodate 5,000 spectators have been built, and there also are a large number of properly equipped dressing rooms with showers, rubbing tables and store

Not only at Coblenz are there grounds available for the soldiers, but at Andernach, Montabaur, and Neuwied the old grounds left by the A. E. F. have been taken over by the Y. M. C. A. and enlarged and remade in every particular.

Britons Build Biggest Plane.

The Tarrant Aircraft Construction company of Farnborough, England, has just finished building the biggest airplane in the world. It is a triplane, the middle plane of which is 131 feet wide. Above and below this are two planes, each 98 feet long. All these planes are 15 feet 2 inches deep. The body is 76 feet long (20 feet longer than the biggest biplane), and the height is 37 feet. The pilot's seat juts out 12 feet beyond the line of the planes. The body of the machine resembles a whale in length and girth, with a great blunt-ended nose. Between the planes are six Naper-Lion engines, each developing 500-horsepower. Four of them operate two-bladed tractor propellers; two of them fourbladed "pusher" propellers.

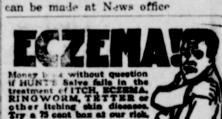

Jap Industry Hard Hit.

During the war the Japanese zinc industry was very prosperous and large profits were made on ore which was imported from Australia and the French Indies. The signing of the armistice, however has dealt a hard of my back so I could hardly straigh- in good condition." that it costs $200 a ton to produce Japanese zinc, while the market price is only $187 a ton. It is expected that this will result in a request for subsidles and import protection, since the deposits of Japanese ore are of such inferior quality that competition with imported ore carnot be met success

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Tone" Man,

AGAINST CALOMEL

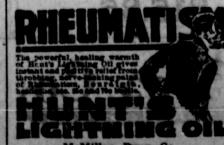

Responsible for Change for the Every druggist in town has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking "Calomel is dangerous and people know it." Dodson's Liver Tone is gist who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much but if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, just ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasanttasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick chased the necessary land, and has headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconveniences all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day.
