BOYD ELECTED PRESIDENT SMITH, VICE PRESIDENT

RESOLUTIONS RELATIVE TO CITY PARK, COTTON YARD, BAND, TRADE EXCURSION

A. E. Boyd was elected president of the Chamber of Commerce at a meeting held tonight. G. V. Smith was elected vice president, John Boswell, (re-elected) paid secretary, and W. G. Epley, treasurer. They are all live-wires in town boosting and their selection is good. The retiring president, R. M. Crabb, was the chief promoter of the organization a year ago, and has served well.

The president will appoint an executive committee, each member to be the head of a certain department of the club work.

The body discussed the matter of regulating begging and soliciting of funds in the town. On account of the prosperous condition of the Plainview country, this section is being overrun with beggars from everywhere, all the way from the blind and crippled to solicitors for charitable and other institutions. There is a stringent ordinance in this city against anyone begging without first having secured a permit from the mayor, and people who are importuned to give to beggars should insist on seeing this permit, and in case the beggar has no permit should phone the officers at the city hall about the matter. Beggars often take from $10 to $50 a day in nickels and quarters, and often they are merely impostors. The worst beggar though is those who come along soliciting for orphanages, churches and other charity or religious institutions, for most of the money they secure never gets where it is intended, but is kept by the solicitor. The best plan the people is to contribute only through the pastors of the local churches or send their money direct to the institution.

The committee to get up map of the city to send to the postal department in the matter of securing free city delivery of mail, reported it had not completed its work, and the committee was continued.

A communication was received from Burke Mathes, representative-elect, in which he said he wished to advise with and co-operate with the Chamber of Commerce in legislation affecting the Plains.

J. G. Chancy brought up the matter that Lubbock and Amarillo druggists had mentioned that Northwest Texas should have a member on the state board of pharmacy, which will be appointed by Mr. Neff when he becomes governor, and want Dr. E. L. Dye for the place, and that he had agreed to accept. It was stated that possibly examinations would be held in Plainview, which would bring a hundred applicants here for several days. A motion was adopted endorsing Dr. Dye, and asking the secretary to take up the matter of securing petitions from other towns requesting the governor to appoint him.

The Chamber of Commerce will take over the sale of tickets to the lecture by Vice President T. R. Marshall. He will be here Nov. 27. A committee will handle the matter.

It was pointed out that Plainview is losing out as a cotton market by not having a cotton yard and a bonded weigher. The committee which has been handling this proposition stated that the man who had proposed to put in a yard had decided not to do so. The committee will get busy and see if something can be done at once.

Messrs. Boyd, Hawley and Hilburn were appointed to confer with the trade excursion committee for the excursion next spring, relative to the manner of advertising matter to be distributed at that time.

G. A. Wright, director of the C. of C. and the Boys' Scout bands, reported that progress was being made. The C. of C. band is having a hard time getting instruments, as they are scarce and cannot be bought or rented; fourteen are now rehearsing. The Scouts band has twenty-six members and they are doing well, and will have a complete equipment of instruments, etc. by the latter part of this week.

G. V. Smith brought up matters of securing a city park, and stated that the Kiwanis club, the Board of City Development and other organizations would have a meeting, Wednesday night to discuss the proposition. It was decided to co-operate and Messrs. Neal, Adams and Ware were appointed to represent the Chamber.

Mr. Howard, recently from Atchison, Kans., and Mr. Smith, from down in the state, were called upon and made short talks on commercial club work.

Lorenzo up to last week had received 1185 bales of cotton. A fire one day last week in the yard destroyed ten bales and injured five more belonging to farmers.

A. J. Brown and Ed Crews of Childress were here Friday.

PLAINVIEW HIGH WINS PANHANDLE CHAMPIONSHIP

Spectacular Playing in Last Quarter Gives Plainview High Victory Over Childress Team

By a spectacular series of fake and formation plays the Plainview high school football team made three touchdowns in the last quarter in the game with Childress high eleven here Saturday afternoon and won by an 18 to 0 score.

Plainview eleven remains undefeated for the season and claims the championship of the Panhandle.

The first half of the game was hard fought with Childress having a slight advantage. Early in the game Childress placed the ball on the Plainview two yard line but Plainview held four down and the first half ended in a scoreless tie.

Plainview opened the second half by hard line plunging, and carried the ball near the goal. Childress held and punted to safety. Plainview again advanced the ball down the field and the quarter ended held in on Childress' ten yard line.

The first three attempts in the last quarter netted six yards and Bryan nabbed a pass for a touchdown on his fourth down.

Plainview then opened her freak plays and mawed another touchdown in three minutes when Reeves went for a touchdown.

The final touchdown was made when Visor went five yards through the line on a cross buck. Newberry made a sixty yard run around left end for Childress and placed the ball on Plainview's ten yard line. Plainview held and punted. The game ended with the ball in Childress' possession on Plainview's thirty yard line.

Coffey, Newberry, Jeffries and Dyeche made spectacular plays for Childress.

Reeves, Bryan and Dowie starred for Plainview.

Plainview challenges any high school team in the Panhandle for a game.

EL PASO PEOPLE HAVE HOPE IN MEXICO

Peace and Prosperity—Is Treasure House

J. O. Crockett, former mayor of El Paso and president of the El Paso Northwestern railroad, is here looking after his three farms, one of which is Richmond Terrace farm, between Plainview and Hale Center.

Mr. Crockett says the people of El Paso have hope that Gen. Obregon, president-elect of Mexico, will bring peace and prosperity to that country. They believe that he is honest and is an able man, who has his country's interest at heart and will protect foreign investments.

There will be a great influx of American people and capital into Mexico, as Mexico is a veritable treasure-house of undeveloped resources.

2.08 INCHES RAIN FELL SATURDAY TO MONDAY

Never Before Was There A Better Winter Season In The Ground

The official record shows that 2.08 inches of rain fell in Plainview from early Saturday night to Monday morning. The rain fell steadily all day Sunday; the whole country was a sheet of water. The entire Plains was covered.

The rain was not needed, as there was ample moisture in the ground, and it damaged cotton and stopped wheat sowing.

There was never a better winter season in the ground, and no more rain will be needed until well after the first of the year.

Election Notes

The non-partisan league, which has been very strong and holding power, was repudiated in Minnesota, North Dakota and Iowa in last week's election.

The republicans in St. Louis elected a negro waiter to the Missouri legislature, the first negro to be elected in the state since the reconstruction days.

The Oklahoma state senate will have ten democratic majority, though the house will be republican.

The railroad is four miles long and extends from the Q. A. & P. to Matador. It is owned by Motley county citizens.

Paulo Gruppe Company

Rev. Gordon Lang is here billing the town for the concert of the Paulo Gruppe Co., at the Presbyterian church Friday night. This is one of the highest class musical organizations on the road, and is brought here at great expense. The music-loving people of the community should give it liberal patronage. An adv. appears on last page.

PLAINVIEW APPLIES FOR BIG ARMY FIELD GUN

GOVERNMENT IS DISTRIBUTING WAR CANONS TO SEVERAL TEXAS TOWNS

The City Board of Development has made application to the ordnance department of the government for a large field canon, and hopes to get it. It will cost the town only the freight from Galveston, as the guns are now there.

The canon will be put in the new city park, in case such a park is secured, and if not it will be placed in the court yard.

It will be kept as a memorial to the Hale county boys who saw service in the world war.

The government is giving these canons to towns, and Plainview is the first town on the Plains to make application for one.

$300,000 THEATER COMPANY CHARTERED

Dye, Ford and Rogers Merge Interests With Large Southern Concern

The D. F. & I. Enterprises, Incorporated, with a capital stock of $300,000 was chartered Saturday at Austin and the charter was filed in the State Department. The incorporators are E. Lee Dye, H. S. Ford, Ross D. Rogers, E. H. Hulsey, L. L. Dent. The purpose of the D. F. & I. Enterprises is to operate a chain of theaters and opera houses at Wichita Falls, Amarillo and Plainview.

H. S. Ford is president of the company with Ross D. Rogers, vice president and L. L. Dent, secretary and treasurer. Headquarters will be maintained at Dallas.

The incorporation of the Dye, Ford & Rogers theater interests with those of the Texas Enterprises, makes one of the strongest theater companies in the South. The Texas Enterprises corporation is a subsidiary organization of the Southern Enterprises Company which controls more than 300 theaters in eleven states. The Dye, Ford & Rogers Company has merged with these concerns on a fifty-fifty basis and will concentrate their efforts in the theater work.

The D. F. & I. Enterprises will under construction at Dalhart and assume other interests as they see fit.—Amarillo Tribune.

Concrete Sidewalks Being Laid

Ten blocks of cement sidewalks are under construction at Plainview now and contracts for more have been let. The new sidewalks connect the many new homes now under construction here with the settled resident districts. Plainview now has sidewalks and cross walks over the entire business and residential district. The walks are sufficient to comply with all requirements for free mail delivery and as the local postoffice showed more than three times the necessary receipts last year, it is thought that Plainview will soon have the free mail service.

Boy Accidentally Killed

One of the most unfortunate accidents that has happened in this country in a long while was the killing Sunday afternoon of the twelve year old son of C. C. Burkhalter, at Mt. Blanco. The little fellow was out in the pasture with a neighbor boy, both riding horses, and the Burkhalter boy began running a calf. His horse fell, rolled over on the rider, and within a few hours the victim was dead.—Crosbyton Review.

COMMUNITY HOUSE AND CITY PARK FOR PLAINVIEW

WOULD HAVE AUDITORIUM, NATATORIUM, CLUB ROOMS, BANQUET HALLS

Plainview is to have a Community House to cost more than $100,000 and a public park, if the plans now being discussed by the commercial, social and woman's organizations of the city can be put through.

The community house will have an auditorium with a seating capacity of 3,000, a large natatorium, gymnasium, public library, club rooms for women, girls and boys, banquet hall, kitchen, etc., and will be located close in.

The public park will be close in and beautified and highly improved.

Recently the Kiwanis club started a movement to have a public park. The City Federation of Women's clubs are promoting the erection and maintenance of a community house.

Tonight a meeting was held at the Guaranty State Bank to discuss the park proposition of delegates from the Kiwanis club, Elks lodge, Board of City Development and City Federation of Women's clubs. Anyway, the democratic postmaster in Plainview has nearly three years more to serve before he has to give way to some uncircumcised republican.

The Jews are now going to Palestine by the many thousands from all parts of the world. Every ship bound that way is said to be crowded with them. Palestine is to be an independent country, ruled by, of and for Jews.

Ford cars are now used for most every purpose. A Nebraska farmer comes forward with a new use, that of killing rats. He backs the car close up to the holes, takes off the muffler, attaches a piece of hose to the exhaust pipe, and smokes them out.

Gov. Hobby refused to urge farmers to hold their cotton unginning. He suggests that cotton can be better cared for in bales than in the seed and that speculators would soon be figuring on the great amount of cotton being held back, whereas if the cotton is in bales the gin books will show how many bales are in the country. This "don't gin cotton movement" is silly.

The republicans announce they will revise the tax laws, by reducing the war taxes and adopting a protective tariff. Which means the burden will be lifted from the rich and put on the backs of the poor.

The State University is not at all modest. It announces it will ask the coming legislature for appropriations aggregating $8,000,000, for maintenance, new buildings, etc. That is more than it cost to run the whole state government, including the University, several years ago.

We don't much blame the farmers from going on a "strike" and holding their wheat for $3. Every class of organized labor has struck for higher wages and shorter hours, the railroads have increased their rates, and manufactured goods are still higher in price.

With turkeys bringing 25c a pound, eggs 65c a dozen, hen 16c a pound, and butter 65c a pound, there is a good stream of money coming into Hale county from these "little" items. The farmer who raises these "little" things usually has more ready money at all times than the big farmers. Besides, they can be raised while the big farming is going on.

Organized labor lost out in the republican landslide. Gompers and other labor leaders made a strong campaign for Cox, but the union men, especially the foreign element, voted for Harding. It is evident, also, that the support of Cox by Gompers drove thousands of democrats into voting against Cox, for there is a widespread re-action most all over the country against unionism and its dictatorial, selfish, radical and unpatriotic policies.

Mr. Bryan is evidently in his dotage. He proposes that President Wilson resign, that vice president, Marshall, becoming president appoint President-elect Harding secretary of state, then resign, thus making Harding president at once, instead of waiting until March 4th, so that congress when it convenes the first Monday in December may at once begin work on a peace treaty along republican lines. Bryan's proposal is visionary, besides it will take four months for Mr. Harding to get ready to launch his administration. The democrats are in; they will stay in until March 4, after which the donkey will give way to the elephant. The donkey will live on husks for the next four years, but this will make him more determined to kick the stuffing out of the elephant in 1924. The donkey was born 120 years ago, and he has seen his ups and downs. He is battle-scarred but he always "comes back." The republicans have four years of hard work before them, and doubtless in 1924 the people will be just as anxious to kick them out as they were to repudiate the democrats last week.

The hide of a choice 250-pound calf sold in Canyon this morning for 42 cents, says the Randall County News. "The same hide one year ago would have been worth $6.30. The calf was fat, and the hide most desirable on the market. Men who have not been handling cattle little realize what the cow man is up against today. Leather is higher and harder to get than ever before yet there has been a tremendous slump in the price of hides, until the lowest price in the history of the country now prevails. At the present prices, it does not pay to skin the animals."

Speaking of the fool-killer, we are surely thankful that we have dodged him as long as we have.

It is said there is enough phosphorus in a man's body for seven thousand matches. No wonder he flares up occasionally.

Big Profits in Onions

S. J. King of near Muleshoe was here Saturday with another wagon load of onions.

Mr. King is perhaps the champion onion raiser on the Plains. Mr. King has one-fourth of an acre planted in onions and has sold nearly 6,000 pounds of onions from the small acreage. He hauls the onions to Plainview where he sells them by the wagon load. The onions average one and a half pounds each, and some weigh as much as three pounds.

Mr. King stated that the one-fourth acre will yield him a clear profit of $600. He recently moved to Lamb county from Oklahoma and previous to this year had never grown an onion. They were of the Denia variety and were grown from the seed on the farm of Mr. King.

Hale Center-Floydada Tie Game
Hale Center, Nov. 6.—Floydada and Hale Center schools met here Friday afternoon in a rest gridiron battle and played a 7 to 7 game. Howard Leonard carried the ball across the line for Hale Center after a minute of play and Guy Wall kicked goal. Eubanks, quarterback for Floydada, scored their touchdown in the second quarter of the game and Bishop kicked goal. The Hale Center team was heavier than their rivals, but the Floydada team showed excellent team work and fair ability to execute forward passes. The return game at Floydada promises to be one of excellent merit. The game to be played there Armistice Day.

Coal Prices Drop One-Fourth
Washington, Nov. 6.—Soft coal prices are on the decline, a statement tonight from the National Coal Association said. They have already dropped twenty-five per cent in several fields and production is now running at more than twelve million tons a week, it said, adding that the "immediate soft coal wants of the whole nation" have been met and a surplus for storage against winter is being accumulated.

With railroad cars available and a high production assured, prices in the market will continue to drop, the statement predicted.

COCHRAN SAYS MEXICAN DUG UP HIS BODY

Says Family Buried Him Alive in Order to Get Insurance Money

Aspermont, Texas, Nov. 2.—"The best way I can figure it out is that I was drugged by the Mexican and buried alive while in a stupor. After my family buried me the Mexican, with others probably, dug me up. I presume they did it to get the $10,000 reward that was offered for my arrest and conviction by relatives of the men slain in that fight in New Mexico."

This is the explanation offered by B. J. Cochrain for the funeral service that was said in his memory in the cemetery of Johnson's Chapel, near here, on March 10, which followed his supposed death and the later discovery that he lived. It is an amplification of a statement that he had previously made in which he said nothing about his burial and in which he said he was abducted from his home near Aspermont by an unidentified Mexican and carried into New Mexico.

The first statement was made by him to Sheriff W. B. Bingham, who arrested him. When he was arrested he had heard nothing of the digging into the grave in which the coffin was buried, nor did he know that Wayne Ussery and Charles Hogsett had been arrested in connection with a charge of swindling as a result of the payment to his wife of $10,000 in life insurance. All are under indictment. The examining trial will be held Friday. The night that he made the statement he was taken to the jail at Abilene and there held with other prisoners who knew of the entire matter. He spent last night and today in the same cell with Ussery and Hogsett.

His statement reveals the theory he has for the fact that he was buried and at the same time furnishes a reason for the burial arrangements made by Ussery and Hogsett.

"I was completely unconscious," Cochrain said, "and when I came to I was very weak."

"What is your theory about the reason you were buried?" he was asked.

"My folks naturally thought I was dead," he said. "They simply buried me under the apprehension that I was entirely unconscious, and as weak as could be. I was lying there prone, I take it, and of course they arranged for my burial."

"How, then, were you dug up and who dug you up?"

"Of course I don't know. You asked for my theory about it. My theory is that this Mexican, or the Mexicans, if there were more than one, knew when they administered the drug or poison that it effect would render me unconscious and make me helpless and appear dead and that I would be buried."

"The cemetery in the neighborhood is in a quiet place and this county is sparsely populated. They knew they could dig me up again, and the best way that I can figure it out is that I was drugged by the Mexican and buried while in a stupor. After my family buried me the Mexican, with others probably, dug me up."

"What do you suppose was their motive?" was the next question.

"Simply this: The family of the men killed in New Mexico in that fight was wealthy. They wanted me arrested. They offered a reward of $10,000 for my arrest and conviction. These Mexicans wanted that money.

They later took me to New Mexico and kept me in prison. No, I do not know where in New Mexico. It was in New Mexico, though, I knew the country, yes, very well. I have been there quite often, very many times. But when they took me to New Mexico they wanted to convict me, but they saw that they couldn't. That is why they turned me loose, I suppose."

Cochrain made the statement a few minutes after Emmett Robinson of the firm of Stinson, Chambers, Brooks and Robinson of Abilene, attorneys for all of the men, had been in the cell talking with them. He told them not to talk to newspaper reporters. Ussery and Hogsett refused to talk. They smiled pleasantly while Cochrain said that, like Mark Twain, the "report of my death has been slightly exaggerated."

"I am a prisoner here and I am helpless," said Cochrain. "I do not want to talk to you." He then began to tell the case. He declined, however, rather abruptly, to tell his early life, and where he had been reared, further than to say he was raised in North Central Texas. He confided that he belonged to the Baptist church.

Cochrain is a man of small stature and a face revealing fair intelligence. He used good grammar in most of his sentences. He was roughly attired. There was a stubble growth of beard on his face. He complained repeatedly of his heart. He is afflicted with a heart murmur which for many years has kept him in fear of death, he said.

"I was sick," he said, "Doc Jordan had been giving me some medicine. The medicine was on a table by my side. With it there was a glass of water. The Mexican appeared. He had a mustache. He was very dark and swarthy. His face was a mean one."

"The Mexican asked for a drink of water. He drank from the glass. He then got to talking about buying some horses. That is about the last I remember until I came to in a wagon in which I was being taken to New Mexico."

"It is very plausible to you that you should have been buried alive?" was another question.

"I have since learned that the day was a very stormy one, yes, that it was cloudy and windy. One of those dark March days. That is what they tell me the day was like when I was buried alive. The dark came early in the day. The burial, so I have been told, occurred late in the afternoon. The Mexican figured this out."

Cochrain was reticent in talking about the trouble in New Mexico. He, in company with officers, a forest ranger and a cattle inspector and others, went to the ranch where the shooting occurred. He was deputized. There was a gun fight. It was a free for all, he explained, and many shots were exchanged. Two men fell in the fighting. He later learned that they were dead and that he was being sought, charged with their murder.

"There never was an indictment against me," he said. "Three times the grand jury met. They all refused to find an indictment against me. It was a 'frame-up.' There was no indictment at all. Just a complaint."

"Will you go back to New Mexico?"

"Would you? Why should I? There is no indictment. I would not get a fair trial. No, I won't unless I am indicted and they extradite me."

Asked if he would make amends for the insurance money, he seemed pleased to answer the question.

"Of course I will," he asserted. "There are letters written as long ago as April and May and these letters are right here in this county, in which I say over my own signature that I will make restitution at the right time. My wife got the money all right. She is dead. We had had back on the farm after I was taken away by those Mexicans. She lost all of that money and had to borrow money."

"When I get out of all this, though, why, I will pay back every cent for it."

Sheriff Bingham has ascertained that Mrs. Cochrain died in Sterling City. She died in a sanitarium. He talked with feeling about his wife, who so recently died and of the motherless children.

"Where are the children?" was asked him.

"They are at Sterling City with a kindly good woman, a neighbor. She will take care of them until I come back."

"What did they think when they found that you were alive and not dead?"

"Well, you know—" and his hand clutched at his heart, which had been painning him all day, "some of them were too young to know what death and sorrow really means, to know that sorrow had come. The older ones were very happy."

"You saw your wife, didn't you, before she died?"

"Yes, and I was with her when she died."

"Tell me about the meeting with your wife, after she thought you dead."

"I heard that she was in Sterling City," Cochrain said. "His eyes gave the glint of a sentimental mood. His right hand clutched tighter over the clothing above his heart. His left hand clenched around the steel bars which impaled him. He inclined his head downward, and his speech was slow."

"I went to her as quickly as I could because I knew she wanted papa to come to her and the children. She had been making out the best that she could. So I rushed there. She didn't see I was approaching thereabouts."

When I came to where she was she looked up just as surprised as could be. Her hands went straight up in the air, and I could see that her hands were trembling, and her face was white as milk. "Oh, papa! she said then she fainted."

And no one could tell the difference!

This test of direct comparison was made by Anna Case, world-famous soprano, before 2500 people, at Carnegie Hall, New York City, on March 10, 1920. See the three diagram sketches below:

First—Miss Case stood beside the New Edison and sang.
Suddenly—the lights went out, but Miss Case's voice went smoothly on.
Then—the lights went on again. Miss Case was gone. The audience gasped with surprise to find that her voice had been coming from the New Edison.

Mr. Santa Claus! Come in and hear the phonograph that did it

We want you to see it, listen to it, test it for yourself. This marvelous phonograph can give the family more pleasure than any other instrument you can buy them for Christmas.

Here is why:

This phonograph has actually proved that it can match the performance of the living artist—and match it so perfectly that no one can tell its RE-CREATION from the living performance.

It did this on March 10, 1920 before 2500 people at Carnegie Hall, New York City—with Anna Case, the world-famed soprano. It did this on September 30th, 1919, before 2500 people at Carnegie Hall, Pittsburgh—with Marie Rappold, prima donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company. It did this on November 5th, 1919, before 6500 teachers at the State Armory, Albany—with Mario Laurenti of the Metropolitan Opera Company. It did this over 4000 other times, with more than fifty great vocalists and instrumentalists.

You can read the facts of these amazing achievements in the leading newspapers of the United States and Canada. They are the talk of the music and scientific world.

And the phonograph? It's the Official Laboratory Model of the New Edison, "the phonograph with a soul." Every Official Laboratory

Model in our store is an exact duplicate of the famous original Official Laboratory Model which cost Mr. Edison three million dollars to perfect. It is capable of sustaining the test of direct comparison; we guarantee this.

Get an Official Laboratory Model for Christmas. You will have the one phonograph which brings you the living performances of great artists exactly as those artists have given them. You know this is so! The proof has been given! The absolute, scientific proof!

Say the word,—and we'll save an Official Laboratory Model for you, and deliver it in time for Christmas.

The NEW EDISON "The Phonograph with a Soul"

Test It Yourself

You'll be able to recognize its superiority with your own ears—in every kind of vocal and instrumental music. Come in and see whether this isn't so. We'll gladly give you Mr. Edison's famous Realism Test.

Money Help

Ask about our Budget Plan. It shows you how to make best use of your Christmas money. It brings your New Edison for Christmas, and makes 1921 help pay. Careful, systematic spending always makes money go farther.

Prices

There is no inflation in Edison Prices. "Edison stood the Gaff" to keep his favorite invention within the reach of everyone.

Pursuing Friends Stop Double Match; But Couples Marry

Two weddings took place Saturday when Miss Lena Donohoo and Fred J. Hurlbut of Plainview, were married at Tulia and Miss Marie Hughes and E. E. Moses of Floydada, formerly of Plainview, were married a few moments later at Canyon. A double wedding was originally planned but misadventure and friends so closely pursued the two grooms, which carried the contracting parties, that Mr. and Mrs. Moses did not stop at Tulia, as had been planned. Mr. and Mrs. Hurlbut went through their ceremony at Tulia and barely escaped capture at that place. The newly weds met at Canyon and continued to Amarillo, where they were overtaken. Signs on their cars and persons bore evidence of this fact.

Mrs. Hurlbut is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Donohoo, and comes from one of the prominent pioneer Plainview families. Mrs. Moses is from a well known Floydada family.

Both Mr. Hurlbut and Mr. Moses are well known young business men of their respective towns. And furthermore both will be novices at Khiva's second ceremonial at Amarillo November 24. Mr. Hurlbut is a ring candidate and believes that his marriage will cinch the ring for him.

ANCHOR

Nov. 8.—Another big rain fell in this community Saturday night and Sunday and Sunday night, which was good on the wheat proposition, but bad on the farmers who are not done gathering their row crops.

We had our first killing frost last Tuesday night, the 2nd, with a freeze.

Mrs. S. E. Leckliter and daughter, Flossie, went to Plainview Sunday, returning Tuesday. They attended the Nazarene meeting which is in progress at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Shackelford's infant daughter, Laverne, has been very low with gland trouble.

Our school is rather slim at present, as most of the scholars have gone to the harvest fields, as hands are so high priced, and we find our children can make as good help as the hired hands with but little loss of time from school.

Mrs. Edith Benson of McWhorter community was visiting her mother, Mrs. S. E. Leckliter, Wednesday.

Friday and Saturday of each week we will show our special line of dress goods at Warren's Grocery, east side square.—G. A. McGee.

CHURCHES

Services at the Baptist Church

In spite of the constant down pour of rain there were 83 in Sunday school and 107 at the preaching service last Sunday morning, and a small group at the night hour. Mr. Crabb and some of the members of his orchestra were present and rendered valuable help in the music. Mrs. J. E. Watson sang a beautiful and effective gospel song. The pastor preached at both hours and there was an addition to the church at the morning service.

The pastor will be away next Sunday in attendance upon the state convention at El Paso, but all the services will be held as usual. Rev. J. P. Siler will preach at the morning hour and Rev. G. I. Brittan at night. These brethren will bring valuable and interesting messages and you are urged to hear them. Special music at both hours.

The laymen will meet at 3 p. m. and the two B. Y. P. U.'s at 5:45 p. m. The public is cordially invited to all our services.

Harlan J. Matthews, Pastor.

Attending Baptist State Convention in El Paso

Rev. and Mrs. Harlan J. Matthews, Dr. E. B. Atwood, Rev. C. E. Painter, and possibly other Baptists left yesterday for El Paso to attend the Baptist state convention.

Go-To-Church Sunday Was Rained Out

The churches of the town joined in a "Go-to-Church" campaign for last Sunday, but on account of the continued rain all the day, very few people responded.

It is likely another day will be set, and arrangements made to make it a success.
