PREMIUMS WILL AMOUNT TO MORE THAN $3,000

WEST TEXAS POLLYBIRD SHOW WILL BRING OVER 2000 BIRDS

The third annual West Texas State Poultry Association show, to be held in Plainview December 16 to 21, promises to be the most successful exhibition held in Texas or the Southwest this year, except the state fair show at Dallas.

The premiums and special prizes aggregate more than $3,000, and are very generous in each class.

Last year there were 1927 fowls on exhibition, and this year there will be many more. Five hundred catalogues and entry blanks have been sent out, and in addition many inquiries for entry blanks are being received by Secretary W. J. Klinger. These inquiries are being received from not only Texas points but also other states. One man has just written from Kansas that he wants to bring fifty birds.

The show will be held in the Schick opera house building, which is large and commodious and can be heated, so the birds will not suffer from any inclement weather that may prevail. Approved entries have been secured and the judges are E. C. Branch of Summit, Mo., and Walter Burton of Arlington, Texas—well known in large shows as expert judges.

The officers of the association are T. O. Collier, president; E. J. Morehead, vice president; W. J. Klinger, secretary; J. C. Anderson, Jr., treasurer. J. M. Lipscomb will be superintendent of the show.

AMERICANS KILLED IN WAR 32,249; WOUNDED 224,099

Washington, Nov. 30.—Final figures on army casualties in the world war are contained in the annual report of Surgeon General Ireland, made public tonight showing 32,249 killed and 224,099 wounded.

The proportion of killed to wounded is about the same as in the civil war, although mortality from gun shot wounds in the world war was only 8.26 per cent as compared with 13.6 per cent in the civil war. The report said this indicated improved surgical and sanitary methods had saved the lives of 5.34 per cent of all American soldiers wounded.

Of every 1,000 men sent to France, 116 were admitted to hospitals as the result of battle casualties, the report says, and nearly seven out of every 1,000, died from wounds. Infantry losses were heaviest, 215.6 out of every 1,000 men of that arm being wounded and 12.77 killed. The signal corps was next with 52.22 wounded and 3.03 killed per thousand.

Deaths from wounds totalled 13,693 or slightly more than six per cent while 158,586 wounded or 70.7 per cent were returned to duty, the remainder being invalided home for treatment or discharge. Shell wounds were by far the most deadly, the report said, adding that no American soldier lost both arms and both legs or both legs or both arms and one other extremity. Eleven lost both legs at the thigh; one both legs at the knee; nine both legs below the knee; one both feet and three one arm above the elbow with one leg at the thigh.

More than 4,400 soldiers lost a part of one or more extremities, sixty-six lost the sight of both eyes; 44 lost the partial sight of both eyes and 6444 lost one eye or the sight of one eye.

AMERICAN LEGION PLANS TO SECURE CLUB ROOMS

WILL GIVE NEGRO MINSTREL DURING HOLIDAYS TO RAISE FUNDS

The American Legion met in the Chamber of Commerce rooms last night and discussed the matter of securing club rooms as a home for the boys, where they can meet and play games, read, etc.

It was decided to hold a banquet next week, at which time plans will be laid for giving a negro minstrel during the holidays to raise funds to secure and furnish the club rooms.

We understand that the minstrel will be by home talent, and be a lively affair, with nothing about it educational or religious, but just jazz and fun.

Eliminating Beggars

Begging has practically ceased here as a result of the Chamber of Commerce activities in investigating all solicitors for charity. Of the five persons investigated during the past week, only one was found to have just claims for charity. Medical examination failed to support the claims of two beggars that they were physically unable to work.

The business men of the town refuse to aid any person who does not have a recommendation from the Chamber of Commerce.

First Bankrupt Law in Bible

The first bankrupt law, was that instituted by that very wise leader Moses. If you will hunt up your Bible and turn to the XXV chapter of Leviticus you will find a most interesting account of the manner in which old debts were wiped out in the year of Jubilee and every man given a chance to start again, freed from the burden of his financial obligations. In that glad year, under the Mosaic law, every man returned to his own possessions and every man to his own family.

Nothing is Safe in Big City

A Detroit woman wrapped her one-month-old baby in a blanket and left it on a bench in the union station at Indianapolis while she went into a telephone booth. As she stepped out of the booth another woman traveler asked her to hold her babe a moment. This woman has never been seen since and when the Detroit woman returned to the bench to get her own babe it was gone.

To Open Vulcanizing Plant

Jewell Patton and Jesse Wells have formed a partnership and will open a vulcanizing and tire repairing business in the building now occupied by E. L. Miller and Sons, next to the R. C. Ware Hardware Co. The Millers are preparing to go out of business, and will likely move to some one of the New England states.

Messrs. Patton and Wells were recently in Dallas securing equipment for their business.

Lunches at High School

The serving of hot lunches at noon at high school has started off in a very satisfactory way, says Supt. W. E. Patty, and promises to grow in favor. The lunches are prepared and served by the domestic science girls, and sold at cost to the children. Meal tickets and checks will be used.

Fred Weyl's Mother Dies

He is preparing to move to Arlington, where he and his son-in-law, Will Richards of Dublin, will establish a large chicken ranch. He will also take his Shetland ponies along and breed and sell them.

DISCUSS TOPICS ANENT HEALTH AND EDUCATION

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE COUNTY FEDERATION HAD BUSY SESSION WEDNESDAY

The executive board of the County Federation of Women's Clubs held a meeting in Plainview Wednesday, with Mrs. Carl Goodman, president, of Abernathy, presiding.

The report of Mrs. R. A. Underwood, who attended the state meeting as a delegate from the County Federation, was read and approved. It was very interesting.

Miss Lula Blair Neal reported on the proposition to have a county school superintendent, saying that as the census showed the county did not have the necessary population nothing could be done just now.

The Sheppard-Townes maternity and infancy bill was discussed. It was shown that every year more mothers die in America during maternity than there were American soldiers killed during the war. The bill was endorsed, as it attempts to reduce this mortality of women and children.

It was decided to ask each of the affiliated clubs to hold a Federation program soon, so as to acquaint themselves with the work of the Federation.

The furnishing a copy of the Federation constitution and by-laws to each member was discussed. It was urged that each club secure a copy of the Federation history.

Those in attendance at the meeting were Mrs. Goodman, Mrs. E. H. Horton of Hale Center, secretary; Mrs. Underwood, Delphian; Mrs. A. L. Putnam, Mystic; Mrs. C. S. Power, Home Economics; Mrs. J. B. Scott, Delphian; Mrs. Scott of Hale Center; Mrs. Geo. Saigling and Miss Neal, As You Like It; Mrs. Meade Griffin, Browning.

FORMER SLAVE DIES WORTH MILLIONS

West Columbia, Texas.—Charles Brown, who is believed to have been the wealthiest and least ostentatious negro in the world, is dead. He was 90 years old.

Estimates made of the fortune this aged negro left put it more than $1,000,000 some even running as high as $2,000,000. It is impossible to tell the exact amount because his business affairs are not attended to very closely.

It is known that Brown owned at the time of his death, about 3,600 acres of land, a considerable part of which is in the heart of West Columbia oil field, all under lease. He received an enormous revenue from oil wells under the one-eighth royalty clause and was also a successful farmer.

Brown made no change in his manner of living when fortune came to him. He was a familiar figure on the streets of West Columbia, where he was frequently seen driving a farm wagon. Although his children rode in high-powered motor-car, their father was content to follow the even tenor of his old life. He was a former slave.

Grain Farmers Co-operate

Twenty-three farmers' elevators in a grain growing state have banded themselves together under their farm bureau to handle the grain of the state through one selling agency. Other elevators will come into the organization until the grain marketing system is a unit. This state unit will join the association of the entire Grain Belt and sell through the one main channel.—The Progressive Farmer.

Admit Burying Mexicans Alive

L. G. Pierce returned this morning from Wichita, Kans., where he took some cattle. On account of the low prices he sold only a part of them.

BANKS ORGANIZING TO FINANCE CROP MARKETING

WILL SUBSCRIBE 3 PER CENT OF THEIR CAPITAL STOCK

O. T. Halley, president of the Guaranty State Bank, attended the meeting of bankers of West Texas, held in Sweetwater, Wednesday, to discuss the organization of the Federal International Banking Co., now being organized for the purpose of financing the wheat, cotton and other crops, so they can be sold in foreign countries, at better prices.

About thirty banks were represented by executive officers, and about twenty-five other banks sent messengers saying they would join in the concern.

The company is to have a minimum capital stock of $6,000,000, which is to be subscribed on a basis of 3 per cent of the capital stock of banks.

Mr. Halley says the meeting was a very enthusiastic one and the bankers attending each thought it was the best method of handling the situation.

The banking company is to include the entire South. Mr. Halley says conditions down in the state are much worse than on the Plains, in fact we are better off than the people of any other section.

A little more work than play makes Jack a bright, industrious young man.

Hard knocks are the hard knot of life.

The secret of happiness is to keep the secret going.

All we have to say is, the United States should make the "president of Ireland", whose home is in a swell New York hotel, go to Ireland and get onto his presidential job. We understand he is a half-Spaniard and has never in his life been in Ireland. Why should America permit people to carry on campaigns against friendly foreign nations?

The world has a tremendous debt to pay. The national debts in 1913 were the war started, aggregated over three billion dollars; when the title was started in 1918 they were 219 billion dollars; in 1919 they had increased to 256 billion dollars.

$100,000 BOND ISSUE ADOPTED 110 TO 14

Will Be Used to Pay For Sewerage Extension and Improvements

The $100,000 issue of city bonds was adopted in an election held here Wednesday by a vote of 110 to 14, very little interest being shown.

A contract is pending with an Austin broker, who promises to take $70,000 issue of warrants, but as he had not closed the matter up it was thought best to go on and hold the bond election. If he falls down on his contract the bonds will be issued and sold.

Obregon Inaugurated President

Mexico City, Dec. 1.—General Alvaro Obregon was inaugurated president of Mexico at midnight last night. The simple ceremony of taking the oath of office marked the fourth time in the republic's history of ninety-nine years that the executive power has been transferred peacefully. George T. Summerlin, charged Affairs for the United States was among those present at the ceremony.

Provisional President De La Huerta who sat at General Obregon's right as he was sworn in the chamber of deputies, was the first to embrace the new president, and as the succession of ruling and newly appointed cabinet ministers, members of congress and other officials greeted President Obregon moving picture machines clicked and photographers kept up a fusillade of flash lights. The diplomatic gallery was filled.

Refuses Million, Will Work

Boston—Charles Garland, second son of the late James A. Garland, Boston multi-millionaire, has declined to accept 1 million dollars as his share of his father's estate, because he prefers manual labor to a life of luxury. He is living with his wife and infant daughter at Bay End Farm, his mother's summer residence, at Buzzard's Bay.

Stolen Car Found

The Ford car belonging to the Gulf Refining Co., which was stolen from in front of the postoffice in Plainview one night last week, was found Wednesday near Lockney. It had been stripped of most of its equipment and abandoned. It was pretty badly bungled up, so we are told. No clue has been found to the thief.

Plainview Is Busiest Town

Traveling men tell us that Plainview is now decidedly the busiest town on the Plains, and that Plains towns are much busier than these down in the state.

PETERSBURG

Dec. 1.—Our community is not very enthusiastic over getting out the cotton crop now. The gin only runs two days in the week, Wednesday and Saturday.

The Thanksgiving service held at the Baptist church was very interesting. Rev. Davis, the Methodist pastor, made an excellent talk, which was enjoyed by all present. The dinner was spread on the ground and it was fine and plentiful. The program was given in the afternoon and pronounced a success.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Gregory entertained the young people Thanksgiving night in their home and the time was passed pleasantly.

The stork has been here again and left a baby girl with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Curtis.

We are glad to say that Mrs. N. M. Sells is better. We hope she soon recovers.

Mrs. T. A. White left last week for Abilene, where she will make her home. Her friends here regret her departure. She has been one of our most popular ladies "none knew her but to love, none named her but to praise."

The M. E. congregation at this place and Carre Chapel gave their pastor, Rev. Davis and family a shower Thanksgiving night. Everything needed in the way of groceries were given. A reception was held, refreshments served and everyone present got acquainted with the pastor and his wife and son, and the evening was pleasantly spent.

Chas. Schuler and Clyde Barnes visited Lubbock Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bausden have rented the Carl Curtis place and will be among us the coming year. We are glad to welcome them here. Mr. Bausden, as Miss Vida Mae Stalcup, was once one of our most popular young ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Quisenberry will leave tonight for Plano, to again make their home, as the wish to live with a brother of Mrs. Quisenberry's. The Quisenberry's have sold their home in this city to Mr. Brotherton who recently moved here from Dallas county. The Quisenberry's came here possibly eight years ago, and have made many friends, who regret their departure.

EVERYTHING WILL SOON COME OUT ALRIGHT

PEOPLE OF PLAINS HAVE NO REASONS TO BE PESSIMISTIC

While prices are low, money is tight and the business situation is not as good as present as it has been, yet there is no reason why the people of the Plainview country should be disheartened.

The whole country has been on a four years' drunk—big crops have been grown, prices of everything have skyrocketed to unheard of heights, work has been plenty and wages very high. There has been unprecedented property for everybody, and most everybody has lived extravagantly—spending money like drunken sailors in port.

During the past four years everybody had made more money than they ever before dreamed they would make, and if they failed to save their money nobody is to blame but themselves.

Farmers, merchants and everybody else have made great profits.

There is always the morning after the night before—in business as well as in carousals.

Things have not been normal; it had just as well be now as later. Everybody has to take losses, and the sooner the better. None of us can hope to again make such large profits. We must be content with narrow profits.

The fellow who has made large profits during the past four years should afford to take narrow profits or even losses.

The people of the Plains are in good shape. The farmers of Hale county have 400,000 bushels of wheat, tremendous crops of row stuff, lots of cotton, cattle, hogs and other products on hand, which will in time bring better prices. Much of the stuff can be used at home. This is much better than having short or no crops as during the drouthy years, with high prices.

There is plenty of money in local circulation, if it is kept in the banks and handled conservatively by the people.

Everybody must co-operate, and all will come out good. The farmers should sell enough of their stuff to pay their more pressing debts and buy the things they need; the business people must make prices that are in line with the times even if this means a loss; the banks must carry as much of the burden as possible, nobody must "ride" others by failing to pay their debts if it is possible for them to do so, for one debt paid may mean ten, twenty, fifty other debts can be paid with the same money.

And, above all; let everybody keep optimistic. We people who were born and raised in the West have seen the country weather many drouths and business storms, and come out alright, and this will happen this time.

Optimism, co-operation, square-dealing, helpfulness—these are the things that everyone should practice now, and in a few weeks things will be booming again. Try it.

Wheat is Going Up Some

The price of wheat is gradually rising some. It was $1.30 a bushel the first of the week yesterday in was $1.40 and today $1.50.

Cotton went up $5 a bale yesterday, and 12 1-2¢ was paid here. Today it dropped some.

Hogs are selling here at 7 3-4¢, which is the lowest for years.

Garner Gets Five Years

Reports come from Matador that Tom Garner of Turkey was sentenced to only five years in the penitentiary for the murder of G. R. Tibbetts, Jr., last February. It was considered a very cold-blooded and uncalled-for murder at the time. Tibbetts was known in Plainview.

Do your Christmas shopping before the big rush starts.

The vice president of the bunch on the corner explains the reason he is such a liar is that he is asked so many questions.

Two dozen eggs now sell for more than a bushel of wheat—which shows that eggs are too high and wheat too cheap.

In the United States four persons are killed on an average of every hour of daylight—15,000 a year. Practically all these deaths are caused by carelessness.

The nation has been on a prosperous and extravagant spree since the war. The sobering up process is causing us to have a bad taste and a throbbing headache. But, we'll get over it.

The new constitution of Illinois makes possible and probable absolute negro equality. When its provisions are sought to be put into practice, watch for something to tear loose in that state.

New Jersey was considered the "wettest state in the union," but at the recent election practically every official—governor, congressmen, legislators and others—elected is a prohibitionist. The women voted dry and their votes overwhelmed the "wet" men's vote.

The American dollar is increasing in value. It was worth 35c last spring; it is now worth more than 50c and by spring it will possibly be worth 75c, compared with its purchasing power in 1914. It was a smart person who saved his dollars when he could get them for 35c.

The Eastern states are quite radical in comparison to those east of the Mississippi river, because in the west and southwest a large per cent of the people own property, while Eastern people are as a rule laboring people with relatively little property. The conservative class is always the property class. The bolsheviks make little headway in the west.

Hindenburg, the German commander-in-chief, declares in his latest book that the "arrival of American troops broke the west front deadlock, adding overwhelming power to the allies and made possible their winning of the war. American attacks in the Argonne, our main line of retreat when we were shortening line in Belgium in Northern France, actually won the war." Von Hindenburg knows.

Right now we want to register a most solemn objection to the state loaning money to individuals or associations for building cotton warehouses. That will only increase the indebtedness of farmers and the issuance of negotiable receipts will only add to their obligations by incurring larger debts. Let the producer steer clear of debts and he can set the price of his cotton and will not need a warehouse.

An exchange says: "It has often been said by those who follow legal procedure that justice would be meted out more equitably if the right of jury were denied in criminal cases; and after following Texas juries a few years this conclusion can hardly be denied. At least the power of fixing the penalty for a crime should be taken away from juries. A jury can say whether or not the accused is guilty but should not be allowed to fix the punishment."

If every court in Texas would use the same energy in trying cases as that at Mexia did in the Spiller case, there would be less crime. Spiller killed a man named Box, the district judge called a special grand jury. Spiller was indicted, tried and sentenced to ninety-nine years, in the pen—within six days. Criminal cases, especially murder, should be tried at once, for every day that passes after the crime is committed makes it that much easier for the criminal.

Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas will introduce a bill to abolish gambling in wheat, corn, cotton and all farm products. He has drafted a measure calling for legitimate sales and elimination of paper transactions. A few years ago Capper says the far-fetched more than one gallon of gasoline for a bushel of corn. Now he gets little more than one gallon of gasoline for the same amount of corn. Senator Capper has another grievance. He says the federal reserve board must be shaken up; that farmers are discriminated against and are facing ruin. Republicans controlled congress since 1918. They should have enacted some relief measure last year. Why not place the responsibility where the responsibility should rest?

operating to some extent in Hale county. A bootlegger is the lowest down person possible, and every good citizen should assist the officers in ferretting out and penitentiary such fellows. The man who patronizes a bootlegger is no better than the bootlegger and deserves to be poisoned with wood alcohol.

PROTECTIVE TARIFF NO RELIEF

We cannot see how the proposed republican protective tariff can bring higher prices for farm products or reduce the federal taxes.

We are told the reason farm products are now so low in price is the people of Europe and Asia have no money or credit and therefore cannot buy our surplus products. If they can't buy now, they certainly will be unable to do so if this country enacts a high tariff tax which will shut out their products—and if they can't trade their products for our's the prices of our stuff will continue low.

As a revenue-raiser a high tariff will be a failure, for if the foreigners cannot pay the tariff and compete in home markets of course the revenue will naturally be limited.

But, there is one thing a protective tariff will do, and that is give the American manufacturers a monopoly over the markets of this country. This is one great reason why all the manufacturers and other special interests supported the republican ticket.

George Silvester Vierick prides himself that "I voted six million German-Americans for the republican ticket." Most all the foreigners voted the republican ticket Nov. 2.

Have you bought any Red Cross Christmas health seals? The buying of these seals help to fight tuberculosis in Texas. A few cents from each person will create a large fund.

State Senator Bledsoe of this district will introduce a bill in the legislature to prohibit Japanese from owning land in Texas. The senator does not care if he does lose the Jap vote in this district.

Republican congressmen indicate no reduction in federal taxes may be looked for until 1923. Yet, many people voted the republican ticket November 2, thinking that it meant lower taxes. "What fools some mortals be!" When did the republican party ever reduce taxes?

All we have to say is, the United States should make the "president of Ireland" whose home is in a swell New York hotel, go to Ireland and get onto his presidential job. We understand he is a half-Spaniard and has never in his life been in Ireland. Why should America permit people to carry on campaigns against friendly foreign nations?

The world has a tremendous debt to pay. The national debts in 1913 before the war started, aggregated forty-three billion dollars; when the armistice was signed in 1918 they were 212 billion dollars; in 1919 they had increased to 256 billion dollars, and they are said to now foot up 300 billion dollars. The interest at 6 per cent on this tremendous sum is eight-hundred billion dollars a year. The backs of the producers must bend under a heavy load for decades. War is hell!

It now transpires that the federal or interstate commerce commission holds it is more powerful than any state constitution in regulating road passenger rates. This is shown in the order that the Illinois railroad commission must permit railroads to increase their passenger rates 20 per cent, to conform to the interstate increase made last August. If this assumption of power is permitted by the United States supreme court, every state should at once abolish its railroad commission, and thus save the expense. Government is fast being centralized in Washington.

IN A MINOR STRAIN

A small boy out near Wayland wonders why his mother does not get a phonograph with a record that will keep on yelling "Don't do that!" "Don't do that!" "Don't do that!"

There is no prospect of an early reduction in the wages of sin.

It is said that "Love is a brand of insanity that makes a man call a 200 pound woman his little tootsy-wootsy."

The leap year is fast coming to a close, and several of Plainview's good looking and interesting spinsters are still unappropriated blessings.

Everybody in Plainview seems to be hurrying toward eternity at a very rapid rate except the bunch on the corner who always move leisurely and never exert themselves to get anywhere.

The League of Nations has decided there can be no reduction or armaments until Europe is more settled. Each country will continue to go armed to the teeth, which will in time bring on another war. It seems that some plan could be arrived at providing for gradual disarmament, each nation reducing its war standing so much each year.

Turkeys—Panhandle Produce

state out of the Panhandle section was discussed at a recent meeting of the Amarillo board of city development," says the Spearman Reporter. "This new state will be known as North Texas. It is coming. In a few years every Chamber of Commerce in the Panhandle and many other organizations will be pledging their political support to those candidates only who favor and will work for the new state. Prohibition was a long time coming; likewise equal suffrage, but they are here and here to stay. Texas will some day be divided into two or more states. There is as much judgment and reason in making one state of the entire United States as in leaving Texas as it is now. The idea of the division of Texas is not a new one. Major Mose Harris was writing editorials favoring this division, for a Fort Worth paper forty years ago. But the idea is receiving more attention at this time than ever before, and when the commercial organizations begin to take it up, you may look for something to happen. Some of these days this matter will be taken up by the Panhandle Plains and West Texas Chambers of Commerce. 'Tis then the fur will fly.

For the first time in five years a million men and women in America are out of employment. It is awful to be out of a job when you want and must have a job in order to eat and keep warm. For five years everybody who wanted to work had a steady job a mountain-high pay. Those who worked hard and saved their money are now able to face unemployment—but the steady, hard working, thrifty persons are still on the job. It is the fellow who loafed on his job, worked two or three days a week and then knocked off in order to spend his money, who is now out of employment.

Estimates filed with the state board of control by the various state institutions and heads of departments for appropriations for the next two fiscal years aggregate the sum of $40,000,000. All the candidates for governor in 1920 promised sweeping reductions in appropriations if elected. All promised the abolition of useless and unnecessary offices. All promised the people sweeping reforms and lower taxes.

Neff will be governor soon. Will he carry out the promises he made last spring and summer? There is plenty of work to be done by him at Austin. We hope he will do his work well.

Say what you may, if the senate had a year ago or even six months ago ratified the peace treaty American cotton, wheat and other farm products would be very high in price, as Germany and the other central powers are needing American raw products and is willing to pay high prices, if some means to finance the buying can be arranged, and it would have been arranged had the peace treaty been ratified. So, charge up the low prices of farm products to the republican senators who blocked ratification.

The total taxable values of Texas, according to 1920 tax rolls, are $3,385,000,000. The real values are possible more than ten billion dollars. Texas is a rich state.

John D. Rockefeller has given away to charity, education, health and scientific research, and other benevolences a half-billion dollars, so the announcement was made a few days ago. Say what you please about immensely wealthy men their great gifts benefits the world and makes it happier and a better place to live. Without these gifts the world would not be so far advanced as it is.

The prices of products are out of proportion—a pound of butter sell for six to ten times as much as a pound of cotton.

Whenever we open a letter and it starts out with a lot of palaver about the influence and value of the press we know that it is a plea for some free space which should be paid for—and we are always right in our conclusion. It is peculiar that enough newspapers print this free press matter to keep alive the press agency. Cut it all out, boys, and then we'll get money for publishing such matter.

Hale county banks are shown to have more money on deposit than the banks of any other town in Northwest Texas, except Amarillo.

A MAN SAID TO US

THE OTHER DAY

that if he was going to buy life, accident and health insurance, he would buy the life from some large company and the health and accident from some good health and accident company.

But, he changed his mind after we explained to him the real reasons that the Reliance Life of Pittsburg put in the health and accident:

Because a man who is paid for staying at home while sick or laid up as a result of an accident, will stay there longer than the man who is not paid. And that is just what our company wants you to do. Stay home, draw your money and get well. Better pay a $100 or more sickness or accident claim than to pay a $5,000.00 death claim to a man who has gone out to his work before he is well and strong, then has a relapse and dies.

And all companies like to have their business renew from year to year. A man will be more interested in a living policy, one that pays him from time to time and keep it up.

That is the reason we can write the health and accident at Two-thirds (2-3) the cost of other good health and accident companies.

FOLKS—WE'RE GOING BACK TO WORK

By J. C. Dionne
Everybody is wondering "what is going to happen to the nation?"

Nothing abnormal; nothing unusual. We're all going back to work. That's the whole story in a nutshell. We're all going back to digging and scratching and hustling for a living again, just as we used to do.

It won't hurt us. It will do us good. People are not unlike hens, anyway, in that regard. The scratching for a living that the hen does is the thing that digests her food and keeps her healthy. The hens that feed without scratching for it, don't do well. Neither do humans.

For nearly two years most of the people of this nation have been getting quick financial returns without scratching for it. And, as with the hens, it has spoiled a lot of good folks. Our national digestion is not the best. We need considerable constant exercise to get us back on the job again.

The change that is actually going on right now that is of greatest importance, is the readjustment of our perspective. That is the change that comes hardest. And when the readjustment is complete we will realize the following returns.

That the day of high pay and low work is gone.

That the day of low efficiency and high remuneration is a thing of the past.

That the day of small effort and large profit is ancient history.

The man who thinks that any appreciable part of it—in lumber or any thing else—is going to return, needs his glasses fixed.

We are going to have to get used to fighting for the one-dollar margin, instead of passively accepting the ten-dollar edge.

We are going back to sitting on the job, watching our coats, hustling for our sales, and scrambling for our margin of profit; which will be the more appreciated because we had to make it.

That's all there is to it folks.

It's nothing to worry over. It can't be Christmas all the time. Santa Claus has been filling our stockings so full for the past two years that we have almost forgotten that he used to come only once a year.

Now longer will the salesman drop in and say: "Morning. Need anything today? No? Well—So long. See you next week."

That guy is gone for good. That method is starvation method now. That time will come no more.

Let's just get our sights adjusted right. We're going back to work. We're going back to hustling for a living. We're going back to the time when there will again be a premium on efficiency. Once again the best man will win. The "survival of the fittest" man will again be the order of the day.

And the world will be better and happier for it.

You cannot put a bug into some people's ears until they have been humbugged.

Your Advantage Over the Other Fellow

Houston Chronicle: When you have a desire to let down a little in your efforts to maintain the reputation you have for being an energetic man with an active brain, able to do more physically and mentally than most men of your age—don't do it.

When you begin to sag—begin to think you are too old to stand the hard knocks of those younger than you, you are going to slip downward rapidly.

First result, lost confidence in yourself—naturally others will lack confidence in your ability.

Any man of middle age must expect to feel more fatigue with exertion than a normal younger man.

But you can gain a lot on the young or fellow by getting more rest, being more careful of your diet and of your habits generally.

There is no reason why you should be a back number.

Keep away from the thought of failure.

Forget your age, stand up on your toes, and remember your age and experience ought to enable you to distance the other fellow who has not had time to develop judgment with skill and training.

DOES YOUR BACK ACHE?

It's usually a sign of sick kidneys, especially if the kidneys action is disordered, passages scanty or too frequent. Don't wait for more serious troubles. Begin using Dean's Kidney Pills. Read this Plainview testimony.

D. C. Harrison, farmer, says: "Some time ago my back and kidneys were causing me much trouble. All through the small of my back was soreness and lameness and also an aching. It bothered me when I bent over and something like a sharp catch would take me in my back and hurt me to straighten up. My kidneys were weak and irregular in action and bothered me considerably. I saw Dean's Kidney Pills advertised and began using them. In a short time I felt relieved, I haven't used any such remedy since."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Dean's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Harrison had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Scrap Book

CLERK HAD JUST THE THING

Possibly He Didn't Make the Sale, but He Surely Knew What Hubby Needed.

She was evidently in a hurry, and the fierce glare in her eye aroused the young bookstall clerk from his reverie.

"Look here," she said. "I want a book for my husband. It's his birthday. And I want it for a present. Show me what you have and be quick about it! Nothing too expensive, mind you, and I don't want anything too cheap, either. He's a mild-mannered man and not fond of sports, so don't show me anything in that line. For goodness' sake, don't offer me any of those trashy novels, and no matter how much you try to persuade me I don't take anything in the way of history or biography. Come now, I'm in a dreadful hurry, and I've already wasted too much time here. Of course, you don't know my husband, but find all I've said can't you suggest something appropriate?"

"Yes, ma'am," was the assistant's reply after an instant's reflection. "There is a little volume entitled, 'How to Manage a Talking Machine.'"

Best of the Kinkajon at the Zoo

The wonder of the inmates of the small cat house, for she can climb up her own tail, says the London Chronicle.

If you see Bessie yawning you will know that she has been giving "noodles" in return for grapes and bananas, for the kinkajon is a nocturnal animal and should pass the day in sleep.

She is very much attached to her keeper—as you would agree if you saw her hanging from his finger by the tip of her long prehensile tail. When tired of gazing at his feet she obtains a more cheerful aspect by arching her back, setting the base of her tail with her hand-like paws and climbing up it.

Folklore About the Hair

A heavy head of hair indicates few if any virtues, according to folklore gathered from many parts of the world. The Turks claim that women with short, stiff hair have long hair. The Albanians say with finality, "Long hair, little brains." Other contraries say that much hair indicates unchangeable temper and inclination to melancholy. "If a girl has a great deal of hair she will marry poverty, while the girl with little hair will marry rich," according to another source. Curly hair is a sign of a scold, and also early widowhood if the hair falls in little curls at the back of the neck.

A long and peaceful life is promised the owner of hair that grows low on the forehead and retreats up the side of the head over the temples. Chestnut or brown hair denotes fairness in dealings, generosity, absence of deceit, but unhappiness in domestic life.

Betty Would Be Starched

Betty, aged three, asked numerous questions. One day, while her mother was washing, she asked: "Why do you starch clothes, mamma?" Her mother told her that clothes did not look nice if they weren't starched. The next day Betty asked her mother if she looked all right, and her mother said that she should put on a clean dress, and Betty said: "Oh, mamma, you can starch me instead."

A Humble Opinion

"What this country needs is more production."

"What the country needs," replied Farmer Cornstossel, with a slight trace of irritation, "is less talk about what it needs an' more enthusiasm about deliverin' the goods."

THE ROMANCE OF WORDS

"JAZZ"

LIKE many another word, "jazz" has slipped into the English—or rather, into the American—language like the mule of which Mark Twain wrote that it was "without pride of ancestry or hope of posterity."

Jazz is not a derived word. It was coined, and, according to Lieut. James Reese-Europe, U. S. A., who conducted one of the jazzest jazz bands, it owes its origination to a man named Razz, whose musical organization was famous in New Orleans some 15 years ago. Razz is reputed to have been the first to realize the harmony and appealing quality which resides in saxophones, trombones, snare drums and the like, when played with a snap and dash. So he specialized in this kind of syncopated music and his fame spread throughout the South, imitators springing up in various sections. One of these which toured Missouri and the middle West, styled itself the "Jazz-band"—slightly altering the name of the original leader. In the course of a year or so the final "s's" were changed to "z's." Jazz-bands made their appearance from the Atlantic to the Pacific, and "jazz" slipped into the language and even into the dictionaries.

A Chart of Conduct

A prominent merchant of New York City carried these rules of conduct in his pocket book, accompanied by a memorandum to this effect: "Read these rules at least once a week."

Never be idle.
Make few promises.
Always speak the truth.
Never speak ill of anyone.
Keep good company or none.
Live up to your engagements.
Be just before you are generous.
Earn money before you spend it.
Drink no kind of intoxicating drinks.
Good character is above all things else.
Keep your own secrets if you have any.
Never borrow if you can possibly avoid it.
Never play at any kind of games of chance.
Keep your promises if you would be happy.
Make no haste to be rich, if you would prosper.
When you speak to a person, look him in the face.
Save when you are young, to spend when you are old.
Never run in debt unless you see a way to get out again.
Avoid temptation, through fear you may not withstand it.
Ever live (misfortune excepted) within your income.
Small and steady gains give competency and tranquility of mind.
Good company and good conversation are the sinews of virtue.

Will Butcher Their Cattle

Walter Brothers, big cattlemen, of Marion county, Kan., stand to lose $10,000 if compelled to accept the present price for their stock cattle. Therefore they will butcher the cattle themselves and open a meat market to dispose of their stock at retail. The comparatively high price of meat will give them a chance to recoup.

YOU WOULDN'T TRY TO TAME A WILD-CAT

Mr. Dodson Warns Against Use of Treacherous, Dangerous Calomel

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out just go to your drug store and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your head and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you tame calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tonic you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

'Twas the Night Before Christmas

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

And she knew that the Christmas treat of a lifetime was in store for Jones on every Thursday of the coming year.

She's a good buyer, is Mrs. Jones, and she knows a bargain when she sees one. Even before I met her she had made a careful search through all the stores and was almost in despair. There seemed to be no gift at any price that would "just suit" her husband. When I told her about Country Gentleman farm service, covering every farm interest, in 52 big weekly issues and inspiration, her eyes beamed and she said, "Here's my dollar."

How many farm-minded relatives or friends are on your Christmas list this year? Here's the gift just made for them! Without extra cost, a beautiful full-colored Maxfield Parrish gift announcement will be sent in your name to reach each friend on Christmas morning.
