FORMER PLAINVIEW HAS MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARED

LLOYD McBRIDE NOT HEARD FROM SINCE LEAVING FOR PERRYTON

Fear of foul play is entertained by the family, Potter county officers and friends of Lloyd W. McBride, Amarillo, carpenter and contractor, who has not been heard from since Wednesday, March 23. McBride left Amarillo in his Essex automobile for Perryton, and according to reports he never reached that town. The fact that he is accustomed to advising his family of his whereabouts whenever he is out as long as a day, and that no word has been received from him since he left has caused considerable worry on the part of his relatives and friends. The sheriff's department is extensively advertising for information as to the missing man's whereabouts.

Mr. McBride who resides with his wife and 3-year-old baby at 1410 Washington Street, left for Perryton in his newly painted Essex, touring car, having drawn but a few dollars from his Amarillo bank. He expected to do some contracting work at Perryton. No further drafts have been made on the bank for funds, according to the officers, which further increases the fear that something has happened to him.

Mr. McBride is about 27 years old. He has been working at his trade on the new Fair Theater building. The automobile in which he left Amarillo was equipped with a black top, was freshly painted and had an oblong oval glass in the rear curtain. The Texas license number of the car was 4224, the engine number 16268 and the factory number 14499.—Amarillo Tribune, April 1st.

McBride Found in Ogden Utah

R. L. Craig of this city received word this morning that the family in Amarillo had received a message from McBride, sent from Ogden, Utah, asking that they wire him money to come home on and that he could not give any explanation.

The McBrides lived in Plainview for years, in fact Mrs. McBride was raised here, being Miss Carrie Ruth Buntin before her marriage several years ago.

Telegram Thought to Be Bogus

Amarillo, April 1.—A telegraphic message from Lloyd McBride to his family Friday did not clear away the cloud of mystery that has surrounded the question of his whereabouts since his departure from Amarillo March 23.

In response to the telegram, J. O. McBride, father of the missing man, wired him $150, friends of the family say. The telegraphic communication is said to have come from a town in Utah and it gave assurance the sender was safe and would return home immediately. After forwarding the funds requested, J. O. McBride, the father, returned to his home in Crosbyton. He had come to Amarillo to encourage the search.

Mrs. McBride, wife of the missing man, is prostrate at her home, 1410 Washington Street. Frank McBride, an uncle who conducts a news stand in front of Jeff's restaurant on Fifth Street, believes his nephew was met by fugitives and forced to take them in the direction they wanted to go. Soon as he was released, the uncle reasons, he wired home.

Deputy Sheriff Fred Cobb doubts the authenticity of the telegram. If carried by hi-jackers or highwaymen to Utah by force, a natural thing for his captives to do would be to send a bogus telegram for money, Cobb thinks. Whether or not J. O. McBride protected himself by notifying an officer at the point of collection in Utah he did not state before leaving the city.

It is hoped by his friends that confirmation will be received today of the genuineness of the telegram received Friday, and that all mystery in connection with Lloyd McBride's absence will pass away with his arrival home in a day or two.

Wayland Defeats Canyon Normal

Wayland defeated Canyon Normal 15 to 13 in the first intercollegiate game in the Panhandle of the season here Wednesday afternoon. The game was featured by hard hitting and loose field.

The extremely cold weather made fielding extremely difficult.

Considering the weather Graves pitched a good game for Wayland, allowing but a few clean hits. Helms of Canyon was hit hard during the entire game. Graves made a home run for Wayland and Johnson pounded out home runs for the Normalites. Johnson's home run came with the bases full.

Trustee Election Tomorrow

Trustee elections will be held in Plainview and the other school districts of the county tomorrow.

TIME CHANGE DELAYED DUE TO AN OVERSIGHT

Will Likely Be Put Into Effect By Railroads Within Several Days

The change of the time in the Panhandle from the Mountain Zone to the Central Zone, authorized by act of congress, March 4, has been delayed on account of the failure of the clerk of the Interstate Commerce Commission to issue the formal order to the railroads concerned.

Telegraphic orders went forth from Washington to railroads concerned. This information was contained in a telegram received in Amarillo Thursday forenoon from Congressman Marvin Jones.

Local railroad officials had not received the formal orders to change time up to a late hour Thursday, but is believed that the change will be made within the next few days.—Amarillo Tribune.

PARTIAN LIST OF DAMAGE DONE BY GERMAN INVASION

In support of the allied demand for reparations, Premier Lloyd George listed the known damage done by the Germans in their ruthless invasion of Northern France. It gives a new vision of the loss which Germany is now being called on to pay and affords an insight into the tremendous sums that the allies are demanding, the bulk of it for the rehabilitation of France. The figures the British Premier gave are founded on actual surveys. Here they are:

- Houses destroyed, 319,269.
- Houses partly destroyed, 213,675.
- Factories destroyed (metallurgical, electrical, mechanical), 21,000.
- Textile factories destroyed, 4,000.
- Alimentary factories destroyed or stripped, 4,000.
- Townships destroyed, 1,569.
- Townships, three-quarters destroyed, 707.
- Townships half destroyed, 1, 656.
- Railways destroyed, kilometers, 8,000.
- Bridges destroyed, 5,000.
- Highways destroyed, kilometers, 52,000.
- Land devastated (about one-half cultivated) acres, 9,386,000.
- Mines in Northern France, years required to repair, 10.
- Reduced production of these mines annually tons, 21,000,000.
- Fifty-six billions, five hundred millions of dollars make up a huge sum of money scattered thro it is over forty two years. But 319,269 homes destroyed, 213,675 partly destroyed, 29,000 factories burned or wrecked, over 4,000 townships from half to completely wiped out and the other damage Lloyd George listed represented a tremendous investment replacement of only part of which would be possible when the forty-two annual payments have been made.

Building New Homes

B. G. Naylor from Eastland is erecting a five-room residence north of the high school, and will occupy it with his family.

W. S. Poore has built a two-room house in the south part of town and has moved in from his farm northwest of town.

P. T. Hooper from Eastland is having a two-room addition put to his home in the south part of town.

Geo. Farris is having a modern five room residence erected next to his home on Cedar street, which will be occupied by his son-in-law, Mr. Robinson, and wife.

T. Paul Bryan has had a small residence erected on East Sixth street, and he and his wife occupy it.

Mrs. J. L. Vaughn is having a four-room residence erected on her Castro county ranch.

Lockney Organizes Ball Team

Lockney, March 29.—The Lockney baseball team has been organized and a grandstand will shortly be in course of erection. The club has been capitalized at $5,900. Three trustees to serve for one year were elected as follows: Raeburn Thompson, as president and E. H. Rankin and Corley Ayers. This board of trustees will appoint a manager and a captain. Articles of incorporation are on file in the county clerk's office. Stock selling has begun.

Wayland Dining Room Enlarged

In order to take care of the increased business the Wayland dining room is being enlarged to double the floor space by taking out the partition and including the store room adjoining on the south.

Wesley Upton Elects Editor Wester

Wesley Upton, son of Rev. and Mrs. S. J. Upton of Plainview, has been elected editor of the 1922 "Wester", the annual of the Clarendon college, which is quite a deserved honor.

Shipped Eight Cars of Cattle

J. C. Hooper returned this morning from Kansas City, where he had been with a shipment of eight cars of cattle.

WEST TEXAS A. & M. COLLEGE BILL VETOED BY GOVERNOR; POOR EXCUSE

Says Democratic Platform Opposes Its Establishment--Neff Also Kills the $4,000,000 State Aid Bill.

Austin, Texas, April 1.—Five bills were approved and two vetoed by Governor Neff late today just a few hours before expiration of the time allotted him by law in which to act on bills after adjournment of the legislature.

The bills approved were the university expansion bill; the supplemental rural school bill; the anti-alien land ownership bill known as the anti-Japanese bill; the soldiers' monument bill and another monument bill with a small appropriation.

Two bills vetoed were the West Texas A. & M. bill and the bill appropriating $4,000,000 to aid rural schools for the next two years. The A. & M. bill appropriated $50,000 to purchase the site of the proposed institution in West Texas. Governor Neff said that the democratic convention in Fort Worth had opposed establishing this school at this time and that it was written into the platform under which he was nominated for governor and that to commit an act which the convention had specifically voted against would be an unwise one.

The fact that the state has not at this time sufficient funds to meet the appropriations already made by the legislature was the reason he vetoed the $4,000,000 rural aid bill, the governor said. However, he pointed out the fact that he had approved the Melson bill appropriating $3,000,000 to supplement the available school fund for the next two years.

ANOTHER RAT-KILLING CONTEST FOR MAY 4TH

WIRE-ENCLOSED ARENA WILL BE USED, SO EVERYBODY CAN SEE SPORT

Another big rat-killing contest will be held in Plainview the first Monday in May. The contest will be held on the public square, and the arena will be elevated and wire netting used, so that everybody can see the sport of the dogs killing the rats. Only one or two persons will be permitted in the arena at the time. Good-sized cash prizes will be awarded the winners by the rat-killing committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Up to date, so E. T. Coleman reports, 2,034 rat tails have been turned into the committee, and bounties paid. He urges that everybody be vigilant in killing rats, also that they trap enough rats alive for the contests the first Monday in May.

BELLEVUE AND LIBERTY STUDENTS ARE EXAMINED

Four Pupils Are Found Perfect, 29 Per Cent Have Diseased Tonsils

The Bellevue rural school students were examined Thursday by Drs. J. C. Anderson and E. O. Nichols and Miss Nancy E. Kritzer, the Red Cross worker. The children of Liberty school were also weighed, showing 36 per cent malnutrition. At Bellevue 54 students were examined.

The findings of the examination are:

- Diseased tonsils, 29 per cent.
- Adenoids, 24 per cent.
- Malnutrition, 37 per cent.
- Granulated eyelids, 1 case.
- Skin diseases, 8 cases.
- Hearts not normal, 9 cases.
- Perfect, 4.

Other schools will be examined soon which will continue until both rural and town children will be given proper examinations.

Quartet Charged With Murder

Canadian, Texas, March 30.—Sheriff Talley of Ochiltree county has under arrest, Cleo Dodin, Will Tate, Miss Eve Hewitt and Mrs. Duff, who are charged with murder of Robert Bryson, near Lawton, Okla., last Saturday night, and also with robbing Herring and Young's store at Herring, Okla., night before last. These parties were arrested from description sent out, and from the fact that they were traveling in a Dodge car.

The women were wearing wigs which were taken from them by Sheriff Talley. Sheriff Brown and Deputy Joyce of Rober Mills, were here this afternoon en route to Perryton to take charge of the arrested parties. Sheriff Cone of Carson county and a special officer of the Santa Fe railway are also here and have gone to Perryton to see if the parties under arrest are the ones that robbed the station agent at Panhandle night before last. All the parties under arrest will be brought back here and placed in the Hemphill county jail tonight.

Boswell's Picture Published

THREE WOMEN CANDIDATES FOR SCHOOL TRUSTEES

THEIR NAMES ARE ON BALLOTS IN THE ELECTION TOMORROW

The names of three very prominent women appear on the ballots for trustees of Plainview independent school district in tomorrow's election. They are Mrs. L. Dye, Mrs. S. W. Meharg and Mrs. Chit Slaton. They are leaders in the civic and educational affairs of the city and are well qualified for the places.

The names of four men are also on the ballot—C. S. Williams for re-election, G. M. Phillips, Otus Reeves, and J. C. Woolverton.

The retiring trustees are Mr. Williams, J. N. Jordan and W. E. Boyd, hence three names are to be voted for.

SHIPPED SEVENTY-SIX CARS PLAINS HOGS TO CALIFORNIA

Plainview Buyers Find Good Market in Los Angeles and Make Heavy Shipments

Hassel & Hauck, hog buyers of this city, during the month of March shipped seventy-six carloads of hogs to the Cudahy Packing Co., in Los Angeles, Calif. They bought these hogs in Hale and adjoining counties.

They have found a better market for light hogs in that state than can be gotten in Texas, hence these large shipments.

Candidate for Director

R. A. Underwood, vice president of the First National Bank of Plainview, has at the solicitation of friends become a candidate for appointment to the directory of the federal reserve bank at Dallas. Mr. Underwood is a very capable banker, and is at present president of the district bankers' association.

The office of director in the federal reserve bank is a very important and honorable one. The body meets once each month in Dallas. If appointed Mr. Underwood will not sever his connection with the bank here.

Ellerd Building Sells

We are told that L. A. White and associates of Carbon, Eastland county, have bought the New Ellerd building, which was ordered sold by the district court. They have owned the building for a year or two, but Mr. Ellerd sued for a reversion of the deal, and the court ordered it sold to clear up the title, etc.

Negro Porters on Short Rations

Since the recent increase of 50 per cent in sleeping car fares very few people are using the Pullmans. Some mornings the North bound train has only three or four persons on the sleeper. The decreased travel has cut down the tips of the nigger porters and they are sore about it.

Woman Comes from Mexico

Mrs. Dr. A. A. Aultz arrived this morning from Tampico, Mexico, to visit her brother-in-law, F. H. Thorn, near Finney Switch. She came by way of Del Rio, and had a hard time getting from Tampico to that place.

Warm Weather Once More

The cold weather of Easter day has gradually given place to warmer weather and today is very springlike.

ESTABLISHING THRIFT BANKS IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Will Teach Students to Save, and Also the Operation of Banks

J. A. McLean, special representative of the thrift and savings department of the federal reserve banking system, was here yesterday in behalf of the establishment of thrift banks in the public schools.

In company with Mrs. Dan Morgan, war savings county chairman, he visited the three public schools and established a bank in each building.

The Home Economics club through the county thrift chairman, Mrs. R. A. Underwood, has pledged the original or revolving fund to be used by these school banks. The Parent-Teachers' club has also pledged itself to stand behind the banks, which are for the purpose of encouraging thrift among the children and teaching them business principles.

The officers for the banks are as follows:

High school—Garnett Reeves, president; Josephine Wayland, vice president; Tom Bowlin, cashier; Eula Mae Slonaker, clerk; Robert Peace, bookkeeper; E. M. Carter, Jr., teller; T. C. Bingham, Faculty adviser.

Central school—Hugh Kyle, president; R. C. Jordan, Jr., vice president; Lorane Rosser, cashier; Marguerite Blockson, clerk; Charles Wright, teller; Martha Lowe, bookkeeper; G. W. McDonald, faculty adviser.

Lamar school—Fred Hyer, president; Realan Owens, vice president; A. B. Miller, cashier; Hilton Mauldin, clerk; Gregory Meharg, bookkeeper; John Craig, teller; Miss Evelyn Lane, faculty adviser.

GENERAL MANAGER P. & S. F. RAILROAD DIES IN TOPEKA

R. J. Parker Succumbs Following A Week's Illness in Topeka Hospital

Rolla J. Parker, vice president of the Panhandle and Santa Fe Railway Company and general manager of those lines and of the western lines of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Company, died in the A. T. & S. F. Hospital at Topeka, Kan., at 1 p. m. Friday. He was 63 years old.

He had gone to Topeka to attend a conference of railway officials, and had been ill about a week prior to his death. Mrs. Parker was with him at the time of his death. Mr. and Mrs. Parker's home was in Amarillo. No funeral arrangements have been made.

March Weather Report

Maximum temperature 87 degrees on 16th; minimum 20 degrees on 28th; average maximum 72.74 degrees; average minimum 38.45 degrees; average for month 55.59 degrees, or 4.89 degrees above average.

Rainfall was .49 of an inch, which was .04-inch below the average for March.

Clear days 24, partly cloudy 5, cloudy 2. Thunderstorm March 5.

Rain fall to March 31 each year as follows:

1915, 4.02 inch; 1916, 1.03 inch; 1917, .34; 1918, 1.82; 1919, 3.33; 1920, 1.91; 1921, 2.38.

Co-Operative Grocery Club Fails

The Co-Operative Grocery Club, doing business on the northside of the square, made an assignment Tuesday, naming A. J. Allison of the Radford wholesale grocery company as receiver. The largest creditors of the concern are Radford Grocery Co. for about $1,500 and Nobles Bros. Grocery Co. for about $750. Other bills due and outstanding membership cards increase the indebtedness. Messrs. Lon and J. C. Moore left the same day for Amarillo. The stock has been inventoried and will be sold by the receiver.

Funeral of Mrs. Rogers

The remains of Mrs. W. P. Rogers have arrived from California, where she died Saturday, and the funeral will be held at 3:30 o'clock at the home of her cousin, E. M. Carter, Rev. H. E. Bullock of the Presbyterian church will conduct the service.

Coleman Buys Grain Store

F. T. Coleman has bought the Murphy Grain Co., which was bought a few days previously from Kiser & Erb. He will continue the business in the same place as a down-town branch of his grain business and Mr. Murphy will be in charge.

Twenty Pulled In Month

There were twenty pleas of guilty in the city court last month for violations of the traffic laws. Where it was the first offense the fine and costs amounted to $9.45, and in cases of second offense the amount was $18.45.

FORMER-EMPEROR CARL TRYING TO STAGE RETURN

3 OTHER NATIONS THREATEN WAR IF CARL TAKES THRONE

Budapest, March 31.—Three nations today threatened to make war on Hungary if former Emperor Carl takes the throne.

They demand his immediate expulsion from the country.

This threat and demand came from Rumania, Czechoslovakia and Jugoslavia.

Simultaneously, with news of their ultimatum, it was reported that Emperor Carl was marching on Budapest with an army of 30,000 men.

He had already passed Raab. Raab is sixty-seven miles northwest of Budapest. It is about half way between Budapest and Steina-manger on the circuitous route the army would have to follow to avoid a mountain range.

Vienna, March 31.—Former Emperor Carl announced today that he is resolved to mount the throne, according to a dispatch received today from his headquarters at Steina-manger.

Premier Mayer of Austria convoked Parliament to meet tomorrow and declare that Austria was opposed to Carl's return.

He assured the allies that Austria will resist him.

The Hungarian Parliament has been summoned to meet tomorrow. The Parliament has sole power to determine whether the regency shall be returned or Carl returned.

His first act probably will be to consider the "little entente" notice that war will be declared if Carl takes the throne.

The former ruler's coupe was carefully plotted according to evidence uncovered by the police today.

Officers discovered printed proclamations announcing "the king has returned."

These were believed to have been printed some time ago. Communication with Steina-manger was broken today and Carl's movements were a mystery.

The peasants are reported to be flocking to Carl's army by the thousands.

LATER—Carl's effort has blown up and he will leave the country.

WOOL IS SOLD IN MEXICO AT PROFIT

Firm Nets 30 Cents a Pound. Believed to Be the Top for the 1920 Crop

San Angelo, Texas, March 31.—Charles P. Broome of this city and Sam McKnight of Sonora have just received returns from the recent sale in Mexico City of 5,000 pounds of long coarse wool sheared last spring from sheep brought into Sutton county off the Denver market. The fleece netted 30c a pound, which is believed to be the highest paid for 1920 spring wool, at least within the last six or eight months.

The wool was handled through the Del Rio Wool and Mohair Association. Mr. Broome this week moved 2,500 muttons from the McKnight ranch to Washington county school land, which he has under lease, located in Tom Green county, ten miles south of San Angelo.

Burns Lost $1,500 Diamond

F. M. Burns of Colorado, Texas, head of the firm of Burns & Pierce, owners of Plainview Mercantile Co., lost a $1,500 diamond pin to a thief in Fort Worth recently while passing through that city. As he was going down the aisle of a railroad car two men jostled him and one of them with nippers clipped off the diamond.

City Election Next Tuesday

An election will be held for two city aldermen next Tuesday. The only names that have been filed for places on the ticket are those of J. C. Hooper for re-election and Ray C. Ayers, who will succeed E. Harlan.

Good Rains at Brownfield

Brownfield, March 29.—Splendid rains have fallen over this section in the last three weeks which will aid materially in bringing Terry county's grain crop up to the record.

DeLaho Will Move Top Shop

Jesse DeLaho will move his auto top and paint shop into the Finney building, just vacated by the Busy Bee cafe.

Visits of the Stork

Born to Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Lynch Plainview, March 25, boy, named Tye Patrick Lynch.

C. T. Davis of Lubbock is here today on business.

PUBLISHERS' STATEMENT

of the ownership, management, etc., required by the act of congress of August 24, 1912, of the Plainview News, published semi-weekly, at Plainview, Texas, for April 1, 1921.

Publisher, editor, managing editor, business manager, J. M. Adams, Plainview, Texas.

Indebtedness, none. Sworn to before me, this April 1, 1921.

JO. W. WAYLAND,
County Clerk, Hale county, Texas.

In Kansas City six democrats and republicans have been indicted for election frauds last November. Rascality is non-partizan.

The jury in the trial of Mrs. Beauchamp, who killed her husband, could not agree and the case has been moved from Wheeler to Miami for trial at the September term of court.

With a permanent fair grounds for the Northwest Texas Fair, and a large auditorium for conventions and large meetings, Plainview will have added prestige as a progressive city.

Attorney General Daugherty does not hold out much hope for John Barleycorn. He declares that after a year or two the people will settle down to a more complete observance of the prohibition laws, and there will be few illicit sales of whiskey.

John Burroughs, the great naturalist, died this week, and brought to an end a blessed life. Burroughs saw the wonderful beauties of nature, as it is exemplified in fauna and flora. He who contemplates nature cannot keep from seeing God, for behind the wonders and mysteries of nature is the hand of the Lord.

Kings and emperors in Europe cannot stage a come back. A few days ago ex-Emperor Charles of Austria made a trip to Buda-Pest to see if the people didn't want a monarchy with him as ruler. He was told very bluntly that they did not, and that he had better hike into exile in Switzerland. Wearing the purple is on the bum these days.

Three hundred breweries in the United States have applied for permits to make beer for "medicinal purposes," on account of the preposterous ruling of Attorney General Palmer the day before he went out of office. However, Commissioner Kramer rules that one or two breweries will be sufficient to make all "medicinal" beer necessary.

Fully twenty-five per cent increase in cultivated land in Hale county this year. It won't be many years until practically all the land in the county will be in farms. Then will come the cutting up of farms into smaller tracts, until nearly every quarter and eighth of section will have a good home and happy, prosperous family living on it. Hale county has a roseate future before her.

The proposition has been put forward that the United States enter into a treaty with China forcing Chinks to lengthen their shirt tails, thereby creating a larger demand and raising the price of cotton. We are strictly in favor of the movement, and if necessary the entire navy of the United States should be sent to China to force her to accept it. Why should a Chinaman be permitted to wear short-tailed shirts, especially in winter, and thus starve the cotton growers of the South?

The Amarillo News does not look with favor upon the denunciation of Clara Smith Hamon for trying to capitalize her frailty. It says she needs sympathy. The News' point is not well taken. Every christian in the land sympathizes with her or any person who has become enmeshed in sin or crime, and are ready to extend a helping hand. But they cannot look with favor upon her or any other person brazenly flaunting in a commercial way their sins or crimes. She should have gone into retirement instead of signing up a contract to appear in movies if she is really repentant.

The people of the United States are indeed gratified at the refusal of President Harding to permit this country to enter into trade relations with Bolshevik Russia. This great republic, where democracy reigns, and protection of life and private property is regarded, cannot afford to countenance such a mad-dog government as that of Lenin and Trotsky. Under the Russian plan of government the very worst element controls, those who have no property. Whenever you destroy the right of people to own and hold as their's what they earn, you kill all ambition for the better things of life.

Texas is eleventh for the percentage of divorces granted last year. Most of the divorces are granted in the larger cities. In Hale county only about a half-dozen divorces are issued in a year. Where people live sanely and there is a good wholesome atmosphere there are few divorces.

JAKE GETS PUBLICITY

Our wholesome friend, Gen. Jacob Coxey of Ohio, has broken out once more. He has made a trip to Washington again; this time not at the head of an army of hoboes as he did during the Cleveland administration, but alone.

He didn't get to see President Harding, but he got a lot of publicity anyway, as the General is always good copy for the reporters. He told the reporters that he is in favor of freeing all the political prisoners, is in favor of freedom of speech and freedom of assemblage, and in favor of a law permitting states, counties, cities and towns to issue tax-free bonds up to half the amount of their taxable values and using the money for public improvements, so as to give jobs to the jobless.

The editor of the News met Gen. Coxey while on a visit to the Tennessee mountains in 1897, and found him to be a genial chap. He is really smart in many ways, and is quite wealthy, but he also, like many other people, likes the front pages of the newspapers, and knows that only novel and sensational acts and opinions get space on front pages.

The General is talking through his hat, for there are no political prisoners in the jails of the United States. Some of the prisoners are there for trying to thwart the country in its conduct of the war when they should have been either wearing the khaki as soldiers, selling liberty bonds and war stamps, helping the Red Cross or other war activities.

There is no prohibition of free speech or assemblage in this country, so long as the speakers or the assemblers do not advocate overthrow of the government or anarchism. So long as they do not advocate murder and destruction, so long as they stay within the bounds of the constitution, they can and do as they please. A nation cannot afford to permit aliens to preach destruction of itself by anarchy and bolshevism.

The General's bond plan is also fantastic. These days entirely too many people want to issue public bonds. They forget that a bond is a debt that must be paid by the people living in the town, county, state or nation issuing same, and that it draws interest. Those who have nothing and never expect to can afford to favor bonds, for they will not pay them. The very rich can afford to buy the bonds and take the interest as it accrues. It is the great bourgeois or bourgeoisie class of people who have to buy the bills of government and the payment of bonds, who cannot shift the burden to somebody else. The issuance of public bonds has really become a menace to the prosperity of the people. These days in every locality there is a bunch of folk who are always urging the issuance of bonds for public purposes. Right here in Plainview if the law would allow it and they thought the people would authorize it, there are those who would bond Plainview and Hale county for many millions of dollars, the interest on which would almost bring bankruptcy. Bonds should be very carefully issued, and only in emergencies, for something that is of immediate necessity.

Debt is always a curse. Instead of making laws to make getting into debt easier, it would be better to have laws discouraging it. If people had to pay as they go, they would be more prosperous, wealthier and happier. Right now, so a good local authority is us, there is mortgage indebtedness of more than $10,000,000 against lands in Hale county, or an average of $15 against every acre in the county. The interest on this amount is fully $750,000 a year, which is a handicap on the prosperity of the people.

It is a happy community and a prosperous one where every family has its home free of debt. It would be a happy city or county where the taxes could be arranged so that the necessary public improvements could be installed without bond issues. It could be done.

There seems to be an organized effort in this country to bring war with Japan, and the daily newspapers are being used to further the scheme. Every now and then the papers publish under black headlines a sensational cock and bull story alleging Japan is fortifying some Pacific island, is getting a foothold in Mexico, etc., with a view of making war on the United States. Later these stories prove to be canards. These stories are published to inflame the minds of the people of this country. Doubtless the same tactics are being used in Japan. Evidently some special interest is intent on war between the two countries, and is determined to bring it about, and may do so for no question but what such stories are like kerosene poured on a fire in inflaming the minds of the people of both nations by creating suspicion and distrust. You remember that for many months before America entered the world war there was a tremendous program of propaganda by England and her sympathizers, also by the Japanese. It is thought that some of our newspapers will be used to get into the way, and the people will be led into a war with Japan.

the Japs want war with America. There is no reason why there should be war between the two countries. If these interests who are inspiring these sensational stories had the interest of their country at heart they would tell the "secrets" they learn of to the proper authorities in Washington for investigation instead of printing them under big haeds on the front pages of newspapers.

The Amarillo News is not favorable to the division of Texas into two or more states because "there is a tie of kinship existing that will not down, and Texas will remain solidly bound together." Very pretty, but all rot. We are a native of Texas and love the state and its glorious history, but we feel that it would be best for present and future generations to have the state cut into two or three smaller states, and the public weal is what should obtain in these days. The state is too large to properly look after the interests of every section. The state is so large its interests are so varied that legislation of interest to one section is damaging to other sections. This is often shown in legislation. Then, East Texas on account of being settled first got a preponderance of representation which she refuses to relinquish, as is proven by the failure of senatorial redistricting for the past three decades. West and Northwest Texas are cheated out of representation that is rightfully theirs. If Texas were divided into three compact states we would have better laws, and lower taxation, and the lawmakers would respond more readily to the needs of each new state. The Amarillo paper should revise its thoughts on the matter. We will never get our just deserts so long as Texas holds the whiphandle.

DEALING WITH CRIME

Senator W. H. Bledsoe and Representative Satterwhite had interviews in an Amarillo paper yesterday in which they are not in favor of the repeal of the suspended sentence law.

We are not at all surprised that the Senator is in favor of the law, for he is quite a prominent criminal lawyer and it is to his interest to have as many loopholes in the criminal laws as is possible so he can safely pull his clients through unpunished. Most every lawyer that has been put on statute books of Texas for twenty-five years has been to make it easier for criminal lawyers to protect clients. Our criminal laws have become so muddled that it is indeed very hard to convict a criminal if he has a sharp lawyer who knows how to pull the wires properly. The wave of crime that has swept over the state can in a measure be charged to the ease with which criminal from proper punishment. Certain well known criminal lawyers have contributed greatly to making our laws into disrepute. Recently we heard a citizen say of a firm of criminal lawyers at Fort Worth "if the members of that firm were used it would greatly benefit law and order in Texas."

An old-fashioned axiom held that a lawyer was an officer of the court and was in the case simply to see that his client got nothing but justice, which would mean that if his client was guilty and deserved punishment, he should not try to have him to go free. The modern idea seems to be to use every means and legal trick possible to clear a client, though he may be a red-handed murderer or a licentious rapist. And to make this procedure easier criminal lawyers in the legislature have put many laws on the statute books to help their business.

But we are surprised that Mr. Satterwhite is against repealing the suspended sentence law, for he is a newspaperman and therefore has a disinclined interest except as a citizen in the enforcement of law and order. He knows that the suspended sentence law has become a farce and an encouragement of crime. He knows that young men, when caught committing crime, laugh in the very faces of officers and say, "Oh, all I'll get will be a suspended sentence." He knows that a terrible condition prevails in Texas, that robberies, thievery and murder are being done most every day, and that only by using the best of the law can it be broken up. He knows that crime is something that cannot be compromised with, for if you give a criminal an inch and he will then try to take a mile.

Mr. Satterwhite, to bolster up his position, gets off a lot of puny stuff about being merciful. Mercy is all right in its place, but it has a very little place in a jury box, where persons are being tried for crimes they have committed, for the scales of the Goddess of Justice should be poised evenly. Most assuredly a jury should not be permitted to pass on anything but the guilt or innocence of a defendant, and like is done in the federal courts the judge should assess the punishment accordingly.

Exempting certain crimes from the operation of the suspended sentence law is not going to remedy the trouble and Gov. Neff did right in vetoing the amendment exempting auto theft. The law should be repealed, and the judge's given notice that they need not respect no mercy at the hands of the law.

The News has no fears for the future of the Plainview country. We know that our section is sound, there are big stocks of farm products and stock on hand that will come to market in time, that our land is rich and productive, there could not be a better prospect for another bumper crop year; our banks are strong, our business interests in good shape, and better than all, is the indomitable spirit of the people, who are optimistic, determined, energetic and who know not defeat. Such a people with such a county behind them can work out to a successful end any problem that will arise. Great people, great country.

A HARD PROBLEM

The transportation question is at present a very critical condition, and President Harding and his advisers are considering the matter very seriously.

Freight rates are so high that the agricultural and stock raising interests cannot pay them. The railroads acknowledge that rates are too high but say they cannot reduce them until wages and the price of coal are decreased. The railroad employees declare they cannot accept a reduction in wages.

The farmers and stockmen are unable to ship their stuff, and many are going out of business. This is depressing the revenues of the railroads, and unless there is a revival of business the roads will soon go into bankruptcy.

As 65 cents out of every dollar the railroads pay out is for wages it is patent that the greatest reduction must be in wages. The railroads say that present "working rules" are the greatest handicap, as under these rules, which were adopted while the railroads were under government operation during the war, hundreds of thousands of unnecessary men are kept on their payrolls, who do very little work but draw full-time. They are now seeking to revise these rules, but the labor unions are fighting to hold them in line.

Something must be done. There must be some effective adjustments. The laborers must reduce their wages and the railroads must reduce their rates or the trains will have to stop running and then all will be out of a job. The foundation of all prosperity is the farmer and stockman. When he prospers the nation prospers. When he abandons his farm and ranch the whole nation is quick to suffer. Hence, a condition and not a theory confronts the railroads and the nation, for relief must come at once.

Tom Watson, the new senator from Georgia, has announced that one of the first fights he will make in the senate is for a bill he will introduce repealing Liberty bonds. This would wipe out all bonds and thrift stamps, issued by the government since April 1, 1917, legal tender and would make them worth their face value. An alternative bill he plans would require all banks to lend 90 cents on the dollar on the bonds at 5 per cent interest. While we cannot approve of the banks being forced by law to loan money on any kind of security, we more than two years ago urged that the government would do well to make its bonds legal tender to pass current at their face value plus accrued interest. A government bond should be just as available as money as a legal tender or other kind of note. If such a law had been adopted at the close of the war it would have saved many millions of dollars to the small investors who for patriotic reasons bought liberty bonds and later were forced to sell them at heavy discounts to the rich people, who have them in their vaults, drawing interest but free from all kinds of taxation.

The Amarillo News says: "May his day come when newspaper writers, leaders, teachers, all will give him time and talent to the exploitation of the virtues and not the vices of humanity. May the day be hastened when the good that men and women do, will out travel the story of their wrongs." Amen!

One of the most menacing things that contribute to immorality and crime in America today is the publication by the daily newspapers under glaring headlines and in sickening context stories of scandal and crime. Suggestion is a great force both for evil and good, and the way newspapers play up evil happenings cannot help from causing by suggestion many persons to commit crime who would not do so if they did not read about such things. It is said that a daily newspaper could not exist if it did not "play up" the evil things that happen, that the people demand such "news." We do not believe this, for instance the Christian Science Monitor of Boston is a very successful daily and it does not carry a line about scandal or crime. The country needs mention scandalous news and never publish such stuff under big headlines. The people can and should be educated away from the bad, and the press can dot his by a policy of gradually publishing less and less of it.

DRAWING POWER

The meeting of the Associated Men's Bible Classes of Dallas Sunday, which taxed the capacity of the large auditorium in which it was held is another illustration of the drawing power of the "god of books—the Book of God." Nor is Dallas alone in furnishing an illustration of the hold which the Bible has upon Texas manhood. Fort Worth was recently the center to which came large numbers from all portions of the state for a series of presentations of Bible study. In several other cities of the state like illustrations can be found.

Residents of the smaller towns are usually confirmed in their belief that the cities are ulcers of wickedness, and at many points the defender of the modern city would be hard put to it to make good his defense. But if it is true that possibilities for evil multiply as the population grows, it is also true that opportunities for good grow proportionately. Religion, faith in God and respect for God's Word have not gone wholly from the city. Wholesomeness and righteousness may yet be found in the crowded streets, and holiness still finds its home there.

When men—young and old, heads of business and apprentice clerks, professional workers and artisans, saint and sinner, rich and poor, all alike—come together by the thousand in the name of the Bible, the sight is inspiring. It furnishes the answer which Europe could not give to the greed and violence which now tear at the life of half a dozen states. In the force which brings the upright manhood together lies the safety of the American city, of the American State and of the American Republic. There is no other book which has that force, says the Bible.—Dallas News.

NEFF VETOOES MINIMUM WAGE LAW

Austin, Texas, March 30.—(By approving Senate bill 41, which has for its purpose the repeal of the Industrial Welfare Commission act, and vetoing House bill 161, known as the minimum wage act, Governor Neff today wiped out every vestige of a minimum wage law in Texas. The governor holds that the minimum wage is unconstitutional because it exempts from the operation of the law certain classes.

He approved the bill to repeal the law creating the Industrial Welfare Commission, which was introduced by Senator McNeauie of Dallas, for the reason that "this Welfare Commission has been a part of the government for two years at an expense of more than $20,000, and has not rendered nor has it attempted to render any substantial service of any kind to the people. It has not even one worth-while accomplishment to its credit. It was found to be unworkable and impractical from the start.

"A few days after I became governor I recommended that this department be abolished. I therefore give to this bill my approval," concludes Governor Neff's communication to the Secretary of State in filing the bill.

Greenbug Follows Wheat

Reports of the appearance of the Green Bug in the wheat fields of Kansas, New Mexico and other states are beginning to make local growers uneasy. Once this pest starts in any one season it is very hard to save the wheat or do anything until the following season. Entomologists generally recommend that where the infestation is only light and in patches, the bug can be controlled by plowing under the land infested, or covering with straw and burning, or by spraying with a 15 per cent kerosene emulsion. If the field is infested generally and is likely to result in an unprofitable crop, it is best to plow under the entire crop and plant corn or sorghum, preferably the latter as it is less susceptible to green bug attacks.

As with many insect pests, rotation of crops and the keeping of the fields clean of weeds are effective preventive measures. Volunteer grain or wild oats should not be allowed to spread, as these furnish excellent feeding grounds to carry the pests from year to year.—Hereford Brand.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wyckoff were hosts to the Evening Bridge Club Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Casey Hughes were the only guests. Mrs. Geo. Bennett won high score in the games.

An ice course was served.

Honoring Miss Davis

Mrs. Geo. Wyckoff entertained with several tables of bridge Tuesday afternoon honoring Miss Elaine Davis of Galveston, guest of Mrs. Morey McGlasson.

Afternoon Bridge Club

Thursday, Mrs. A. C. McClelland entertained that days bridge club. Mrs. R. C. Joiner won high score for the members and Mrs. Chas. Saigling for the guests.

Sandwiches and hot coffee were served at the close of the games.

Methodist Women

Circle No. 2 of the Methodist Missionary Society met Monday afternoon, March 28, at the home of Mrs. T. H. Beebe, with Mrs. Pickett as hostess.

Twenty-nine members were present including three new members and four visitors.

The Bible lesson was conducted by Mrs. Martine and Mrs. Tatum.

Visits resulted to sick and stranger, etc., 25.

Collection for dues and refreshments $8.10.

New members, Mrs. J. L. Perdue, Mrs. B. L. Hankal and Mrs. J. N. Donohoo.

The hostess served refreshments of hot chocolate and cake.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Flake Garner and Mrs. Hanley Wasson.

Mrs. E. C. Lamb and Mrs. M. C. McGlasson at Home

In response to cards received several hundred ladies called from three to six Thursday afternoon at the home on Galveston street, Mrs. E. C. Lamb and Mrs. M. C. McGlasson being the hostesses.

The guests were received by Mrs. Lamb, Mrs. McGlasson, Miss Elaine Davis of Galveston, Mrs. R. A. Underwood, Mrs. J. W. Israel, and Mrs. Geo. Wyckoff.

The large living room with shaded yellow lighted candles was beautiful with huge vases of jonquils in various places. In one corner behind a bower of ferns and palms beautiful music was played throughout the afternoon by Miss Minnie Dea Coffin at the piano and Messrs. Brooks and Jackson with violins.

In the dining room Mrs. Fred Crawford and Mrs. Wallace Settoon poured tea and coffee, while Mrs. Elmer Sansom, Mrs. C. C. Gidney, Mrs. Casey Hughes and Miss Lula Blair Neal passed dainty sandwiches, salted nuts and mints. The table covered with Cluny lace held a centerpiece of jonquils and was lighted by candles in crystal sticks. They were tied with bows of yellow maline, which threw their light on the beautiful silver service sets used.

Little Misses Helen Anderson and Virginia Sansom held silver trays with yellow maline bows for the cards. They were dressed in white, while the beautiful evening gowns of the house party added more beauty to the home.

Club Organized in Petersburg

Mrs. Meade F. Griffin, Mrs. W. E. Armstrong, Mrs. Will Dowden and Miss Julia Finney went to Petersburg Tuesday on Conuty Federation work. They met with a number of ladies of that community and a club was organized. They will go to Petersburg next week to perfect the organization.

Shrine Club Drum Corps

At the Easter service of the Knight Templar Commandery held at the Presbyterian church Sunday night the Tahmanah Shrine Club drum corps made its initial appearance.

The corps will take part in all local Masonic ceremonials and will also attend the Shriner ceremonial in Amarillo May 26.

The corps is under the direction of Noble R. M. Crabb and has as its members Nobles J. A. Peret, bass drum; Oliver Anderson, S. R. Ware, Lloyd White, Guy Rasor and H. C. Lawren, snare drums; and Virgil Rodgers, E. Watson and Marsh S. Watson, fifes.

Tacky Dance Tonight

A tacky dance was held at the Campbell building tonight, an number of young people coming from out of town. John Farris and Mrs. George Northcutt were awarded the prizes for being dressed the most tacky.

The Painview Novelty 4 orchestra furnished the music.

Elks Dance Well Attended

The Elks dance Tuesday night was well attended and was a very enjoyable affair. Many people from out of town were present. Jack Gardner's orchestra from Dallas furnished the music.

Fred Thompson and Miss Mattie Cook Marry

A license was issued yesterday to Mr. Fred Thompson and Miss Mattie Cook and they left on the train this morning for Amarillo, where we understand they will be married.

She is a sister of Mrs. E. A. Richards and has been employed in the dental offices of Dr. C. D. Wofford. He is employed in the Richards Auto paint shop.

THAT $460 HOG

The fact that a boar sold for $460 at a sale held recently at Plainview is a matter of more than passing interest. Such a figure for a boar is not so remarkable in itself, because much higher prices than that are common in sales of thoroughbred animals, but it is noteworthy when viewed as a proof that the interest in the production of thoroughbred live stock is increasing at a rapid rate in the Plains country.

Stock farming is the hope of the Plains country and it will some day make the Panhandle as prosperous as the same industry has made Illinois and Iowa or the dairy industry has made Wisconsin and Minnesota.

Hence it is more than gratifying to note that the farmers and breeders of the Panhandle are investing their money without stint in an effort to improve their herds.

The South Plains country has assumed leadership in this movement and it is time that other sections were catching up in order not to be outstripped in the race for commercial supremacy in this section. Commercial supremacy is a term used advisedly here, because our commercial progress is based on the conditions of the farm and ranch. There can be no great cities on the Plains without the support of a great and prosperous stock and agricultural industry.

TWO MEN CRUCIFIED ON GOOD FRIDAY

Ceremonies Witnessed in New Mexican Town By Two Dozen Tourists

Albuquerque, N. M., March 30.—Two men were crucified at Penitente village at Abiquiu in Northern New Mexico on Good Friday in observance of holy week in rites performed by members of the brothers of light, a religious order, according to P. J. Nordfelt, artist of Santa Fe, N. M., who arrived here Tuesday.

Nordfelt said he was a member of a party of two dozen tourists who witnessed the crucifixion and flagellation ceremonies connected with it. The artist said the two human sacrifices were tied on huge wooden crosses longer than two hours than two hours and when taken down they were bleeding and exhausted.

The condition of the men is said to be serious and their recovery is doubtful.

The penitentes are members of an order of Indians with a Mexican admixture. The order has many followers in remote villages of this state, it is understood. The order attracts attention although it is supposed to be dying.

Americans are seldom able to witness the mysterious ceremonies. The principles and practices of the order are said to have come from Spain and Mexico, and are Catholic.

The witness said the penitentes formed a long procession, marching to slow, weird music and beat themselves with thorn whips soaked in brine water.

One man carried a large wooden cross, falling exhausted under the weight frequently. The procession ended with the erection of two crosses with the members tied to them. The penitentes consider it an honor to be selected for the crucifixion.

SAVING ALL FAT OBTAINED IN COOKING SAVES MONEY

Care used in saving and caring for all fat obtained from cooking meat in the home will save many a dollar which otherwise would have to be spent for butter, lard, or other cooking fats. Fats derived from the cooking of bacon, ham, chicken, beef, and other meats, should be kept, each in its own receptacle, to be used for different purposes.

Household specialists in the United States Department of Agriculture say an old-fashioned method of clarifying fat from the soup kettle, or from cooked meats, is to add the cold fat to a liberal quantity of cold water, then heat slowly and let cook for an hour or more. When cold, the cake of fat is removed and the lower portion, which will contain the small particles of meat, should be scraped away and the white, clean fat saved. If the flavor or color, or both, are not satisfactory the process may be repeated several times. Another method, often recommended, is to cook a number of slices of raw potato in the boiling fat.

When an ice chest is used, fat in small quantities may easily be kept sweet for cooking purposes. If lard is rendered at home in quantity sufficient for a long time, it should be kept covered in tins or earthen jars, in a cool, dry place, as in a cellar or storeroom.

HEALTH TIPS

1. Ventilate every room you occupy.
2. Wear loose, porous clothing, suited to season, weather and occupation.
3. If you are an indoor worker, be sure to get recreation out doors.
4. Sleep in fresh air always; in the open if you can.
5. Hold a handkerchief before your mouth and nose when you cough or sneeze and insist that others do so, too.
6. Always wash your hands before eating.
7. Do not over-eat. This applies especially to meats and eggs.
8. Eat some hard and some bulky foods; some fruits.
9. Eat slowly—chew thoroughly.
10. Drink sufficient water daily.
11. Stand, sit, and walk erect.
12. Do not allow poisons and infections to enter the body.
13. Keep the teeth, gums, and tongue clean.
14. Work, play, rest and sleep in moderation.
15. Keep serene. Worry is the foe of health. Cultivate the companionship of your fellow men.
16. Avoid self-drugging. Beware the plausible humbug of the patent medicine faker.
17. Have your doctor examine you carefully once a year. Also consult your dentist at regular intervals.—State Board of Health.

Circle D Methodist Women

Circle No. 1, Methodist Missionary Society met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Chil Slaton, with 23 members present.

The Bible study was taken from II Kings, with Mrs. W. J. Boles as leader. Mrs. E. R. Hanks presided as chairman of the circle, and Mrs. O. B. Jackson was elected to fill the place. A treewill offering of $2.06 was taken.

After the serving of a delicious salad course the circle adjourned to meet in April with Mrs. O. B. Jackson on Columbia street, with Mrs. Neal as leader. . . .

At the Presbyterian Church

The annual congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church was held Wednesday evening in the basement. A picnic supper was first enjoyed, then reports were heard from all departments, and three elders and three trustees were elected.

The Sunday School report showed an active membership of 208, an increase in membership, attendance and efficiency, also active home and cradle roll departments, and gymnasium activities.

Reports from Women's Missionary and Ladies Aid Societies show splendid activities the past year. The former has raised their apportionment and covered the regular course of study. The latter has raised nearly $1200 and furnished the pastor with a Ford Sedan.

Reports from the clerk and treasurer showed progress both spiritual and financial. The active membership a 175 and increase of 44. The total contributions during the year amounted to more than $6,000.

Messrs. W. E. Risser and A. L. Talbot were re-elected as elders for a term of three years and Mr. H. R. Fritz was newly elected for the same period.

Messrs. Geo. Saigling, A. B. DeLoach and Chas. Reinken were elected trustees for a term of three, two and one years respectively.

A home-like church, special music at each service. You are welcome.

H. E. BULLOCK, Pastor.

May Bring Carnival Here

We understand a representative of a carnival company is here and is trying to get a contract to bring the carnival here and exhibit under the auspices of the local American Legion Post.

The last carnival that attempted to show in Plainview, several years ago, caused a lot of trouble and hard feelings among local people. The carnival was not permitted to exhibit, an injunction was sued out against its operation an dit was forced to leave town; the members of the fire department under whose direction it was to exhibit got mad and resigned, which necessitated the reorganization of the department.

We have sever known of a carnival company but what was unclear and ungrading. They always carry a lot of gambling games. They take a lot of money out of the community and give nothing worth while in return.

We trust the American Legion will not bring a carnival to Plainview, for it would stir up a lot of opposition and a fight would be made which would cause hard feelings and much division. Besides, we need all the money in local circulation instead of giving it to a carnival company.

Do Your Shoes Wear Thru Like This?

If so, you probably have a callous on the sole of your foot, directly above the worn spot on the sole of your shoe.

This spot wears thru because one or more of the little bones in the ball of your foot are lower than those on either side of it.

The increased pressure on this spot, not only makes the shoe wear out faster but it will cause a painful callous or other forms of foot trouble.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We have sold our grocery department to Messrs. J. A. Price & Son, who will continue the business at the same stand. These gentlemen come well recommended as honorable, progressive and experienced business men, and we urge our old customers and friends to accord them a generous patronage.

We retain our produce and seed business and firm name, and will move to our own building on Ash street as soon as the extensive repairs now being made on it are completed. We will engage in the wholesale produce and cream business, and are in the market for all these products we can get, and pay the very highest price possible, just as we have all the time been doing. Our seeds are the kind that grow best.

We wish to thank the people for the patronage they have extended to us in the grocery business, and assure them that we have greatly appreciated same.

Broke 3-Year Sleep to Yawn...
Fort Smith, Ark.—James S. Eslinger, 54 years old, who has been asleep for nearly three years, awoke at 8:30 Monday morning in the county hospital here, yawning, and then went back to sleep, according to the nurse attending him. He did not speak, she said, but he was awake.

Eslinger entered the hospital in 1914, a sufferer from pellagra, physicians say. In August, 1918, he fell into the sleep which was broken for the first time today. He has been fed through a tube since his lengthy sleep started, physicians say, and has not lost weight.

Organizes Law and Order League

Lubbock, March 30.—Lubbock Law and Order League was formed at a special mass meeting called at the courthouse Monday night by the mayor at the request of the citizens of the town. More than a hundred citizens were present and formed themselves into an organization to be known as the Law and Order League of Lubbock, with W. K. Dickenson as chairman, for the purpose of running professional gamblers and loafers and other undesirables out of the city.

The officials of the city and county have been able to hold this element in hand to such an extent that 90 per cent of the citizenship were surprised at the revelations made by the officers and men acquainted with the conditions. The program includes, in addition to the extermination of undesirables, as far as their presence in the city is concerned at least, an enforcement of the traffic laws and the clearing of the young boys from the streets of the city at night.

EYES DECIDE

Wise Advice for Those Contemplating Matrimony.

The Dreamer Needs a Brown-Eyed Mate; Practical Person Should Choose Blue or Gray.

Who make better mates, persons with brown eyes or persons with blue? Although no hard-and-fast rule can be laid down, those with brown eyes are more steadfast and faithful. Naturalists say that dogs or horses with deep brown eyes are gentler than those with the grayish tint. This applies equally to human beings.

Brown eyes mean gentleness. The secret of married life is tolerance, which is another word for gentleness. It must not be imagined that men or women with gray or blue eyes are necessarily intolerant. But, generally speaking, character can be told from eyes.

A man with wistful brown eyes probably will be a dreamer. Suppose he marries blue eyes—that indicate individualism and often egotism—after a while blue eyes will tire of brown eyes. Gentleness and dreaminess will be mistaken for weakness, and blue or gray eyes usually despise weakness. Without respect, love cannot last.

If, therefore, you are a dreamy person, look for a life companion, a mate, in the man or woman who possesses brown eyes. If you are a man, you will need comforting and "mothering." Psychologists say that all men with the "mother-complex heart"—a heart that is gentle, and wants to "mother" or protect somebody, and, therefore, to be "mothered" in turn—are born with brown eyes. Brown-eyed people are usually romantic and sentimental.

Blue-eyed people are more practical. They usually laugh at sentiment calling it "silly sentimentality." Imagine, therefore, a sensitive girl married to a man who considers her to be weak and a "sentimentalist." How is love going to last in those circumstances?

Curiously enough, like usually attracts unlike in early youth, as one pole of a magnet draws the opposite pole of another. Therefore, an extremely sentimental man often falls in love, or imagines himself to fall in love, with an extremely practical young woman, the result being a temporary broken heart on the part of the unfortunate youth. Brown eyes versus blue eyes, in all probability.

Yet imagine for a moment what would have happened, had they married. The first wonderful attraction of opposites—and while it lasts it is all-powerful—would soon pass, for no fire can blaze in brilliance indefinitely. Imagine the two going for a walk on a spring night.

He—the brown-eyed sentimentalist—would feel thrilled by the beauty of the night, of the moon rising like a great white water lily in the dark pool of the sky. Or perhaps he would want to pause and gaze at the stars, or watch a ghostly barn owl winnowing over the young corn. He would see romance in the night's mysteries, and want to stay and dream.

But she—the blue-eyed practical one—would remember that a certain amount of sleep is necessary if work is to be done properly on the morrow, that "colds" might ensue from lingering in the dew fall. However each might wish to please the other, intolerance would creep in, and the old words, "He—or she—doesn't understand."

Misunderstanding means misery. If you are a dreamer, marry a dreamer; if you are brown-eyed, marry a brown-eyed person. If you like life and action, and possess blue or gray—or green—eyes, marry a person with eyes of one of those colors.—London Answers.

System of Checks and Balances

According to the Export Trade and Exporters' Review, this is the way they cash a check in Greece:

The check is presented to the teller. Indorsement is made in his presence. He makes out several copies of receipts for the amount, which receive payee's signature. A bronze disk bearing a number is then presented to the payee, who waits his turn. The writing on the check is now compared with the filed signature. If the check is on another bank this bank is called by telephone or a messenger sent and the check verified. The check next goes to the bookkeeper, where the depositor's balance is brought forward and records made. An auditor is called and checks all proceedings as they are made. The customer's number is then called and the customer presents his disk, identifies the check, verifies his signature on the receipts, and receives the cash.

They fear the Greeks bearing checks.—Commerce and Finance.

Protest Against Burial at Sea.

The population of Saigon was greatly stirred some time ago on learning that the body of a young English woman who died aboard a steamer of the Messageries Maritimes was consigned to the sea despite the protests, entreaties and proffered compensation of her husband, who sought to have the body retained until the first port was reached. A petition was addressed to the governor of Cochinchina, setting forth that burial at sea is a practice which originated in the period of sailing vessels when ships might remain becalmed for days, but that it is no longer justified now that voyages are much shorter and ocean travel has reached as great importance as traveling on land.

RICH ASIA MINOR PROVINCE

Smyrna, Blessed With a Fertile Soil and Temperate Climate, is Pleasant Dwelling Place.

The modern province of Smyrna is the most favored of all the provinces of Asia Minor. It contains three of the most considerable rivers of the country, including the Meander, whose serpentine courses has given the English language an expressive verb. Fertile soil and temperate climate have added to the region's attractions, while the possession of a port and city—the city of Smyrna—uniqued by any other in Asia Minor has contributed another immeasurably important asset. Though imperfectly tilled during its control by Turkey, the province of Smyrna has nevertheless been noted for its fine fruits. For a long time it has furnished the best figs and raisins which reach the markets of Europe.

Poets and travelers have sung and told of the beauties of the city of Smyrna throughout the ages. The nucleus nestles in the lowlands about its harbor, and behind, the city rises tier above tier against the neighboring highlands. Unlike many cities that have survived for long ages, Smyrna has retained the same name from the dawn of history. This city should be dear to the heart of the modern feminist, for it took its name from an Amazon who is reputed to have played an important part in its early life.—National Geographic Society Bulletin.

FORTUNE AWAITS LUCKY ONES

Prospecting for Radium in Madagascar is Latest Lure Held Out to the Enterprising.

The exciting days of prospecting in Cripple Creek or Alaska may be over, but anyone who is looking for experience and is willing to suffer a few discomforts for the chance of gaining a fortune can do so in Madagascar, according to Secretary LaCroix of the French Academy of Science, who has completed an exhaustive study of radium-bearing deposits there.

M. LaCroix says that millions probably are there awaiting to reward the patient searchers who are able to start out with the proverbial shoe string as far as finances are concerned, but it is recommended that intending prospectors take along a few camcra dry plates, developing outfits and, if possible, a gold leaf electroscope, although the latter is not absolutely essential.

The principal radioactive mineral in Madagascar is known as betaphite and is brownish-black in color with irregular radium content. But even if only one milligram is obtained from each ton of mineral examined, it will mean 200 francs to the prospector, while certain deposits are so rich as to assay as high as 15,000 francs a ton.

Patching the Czar's Trousers.

In his recently published memoirs Count Witte, a member of the old Russian regime, relates that Alexander III's prudence in government expenditure was matched by his personal thrift: "Alexander III was extremely economical with his wearing apparel. I had a curious proof of this when I accompanied the emperor on one of his railway trips. Since I found it impossible, on account of my responsibility, to sleep of nights, I would often catch glimpses of his majesty's valet mending the emperor's trousers. On one occasion I asked him why he didn't give his master a new pair instead of mending the old so often. 'Well, I would rather have it that way,' he answered, 'but his majesty won't let me. He insists on wearing his garments until they are threadbare. It is the same with his boots.'"

Huge Stone in Roosevelt's Honor.

The greatest chunk of stone ever quarried or transported in the United States or anywhere else on earth is going to be hewn and brought to Washington for the monumental Theodore Roosevelt national memorial. The memorial is to take the form of a lion, some 36 by 40 feet in dimensions, and it is to be carved by Carl Ethan Akeley out of a solid block of rock.

Where the stone is to come from appears not yet to be determined. One authority suggests it may be necessary to build a special railroad and equipment to bring it to Washington. The memorial will be the biggest job in stone, it is said, since the sphinxes were set up on the plains of Egypt.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Floats for Boats.

S. E. Van Horn of Manhasset, N. Y., is the inventor of a scheme for making boats unsinkable. The safety boat is provided with a couple of umbrellas of rubberized fabric, one on the port and the other on the starboard side, attached to the gunwale by a sort of outrigger.

When not in use the umbrellas are collapsed and take up little room, the outriggers being swung alongside of the craft, out of the way. But in case of danger the outriggers are hastily swung outward into position, the umbrellas spreading automatically.

Harrowing Experience.

"What's the trouble?" asked the second assistant sporting editor. "I've just had a call from a woman who had written some 'free verse,'" said the Sunday editor, who was shaking all over. "That ought not to upset you." "Ah!" groaned the Sunday editor. "But she read it to me and threw in a lot of gestures."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

THAT HAPPY DAY

First Lover's Kiss Lingers Always in the Memory.

"New Hopes, May Bloom and Days May Come, Etc.," but That Sweetness Never Fades.

It was before your voice and your nerve had developed sufficiently to permit you to ask Dorothy Dorenius if you could take her to church prayer meeting nights, says a writer in the Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

It was after you had foresworn your small-boy scorn of all woman-kind under forty to the extent of permitting Dorothy to walk home with you when meeting was over.

And then one night the Lewis girls gave a party and you were invited. Dorothy was there, and she had on something pink. It was—well, it was like the haze that lingered about the new-born Aphrodite, though, of course, considerably opaquer.

Right there, God or Satan, or maybe the old Adam that lies deep in each of us, whispered in your ear a most universe-swaying suggestion.

"Kiss her," something said. "Kiss her on the way home."

Right there, with your eyes on the slender figure in pink, you swore you would.

Your heart hammered in your throat when you asked if you could see her home, and she said you could, with a smile that made it skip four beats entirely.

You didn't talk much as you walked through the scented night together, clamorous with insects singing in the starlight. Your mouth was dry and once or twice you thought she was watching you out of the corners of her eyes and smiling.

Oh, Eve! At last you stood at her gate. What made you stand there, too, waiting while you stammered inane things and shuffled your feet and wondered if she couldn't hear the pounding of your heart?

"Well," you said at last, sort of gruffly. "Guess I'll haff to say goodnight." "Goodnight," she said, but she didn't move.

You took her hand. There never was a braver deed.

Then madness and a tidal wave of enormous force and power overwhelmed you. Your face was on fire and your hands were freezing, and some one had hit you in the back of the head with a baseball bat and the stars in their courses were singing together.

You had kissed her and the little boy who had been gone forever.

Where is she now? you wonder sometimes. And does she know that no one has ever paid her a cleaner, fresher, purer tribute than did that little boy, long ago in the starlight? To this day you can smell the fragrance of her hair.

Back to Primitive Times.

Shortage of paper, during the war and since, started the custom of chalking advertisements and announcements of events on walls and pavements, the Manchester (Eng.) Guardian asserts. The practice is increasing and promises to become permanent. Printers must be suffering in consequence—people will not go to the expense of ordering posters if they think a piece of chalk and a convenient wall or flagstone will do as well.

During the recent municipal elections in this city some candidates appeared to be dispensing with posters. In one instance it was announced in big letters in blue pencil on the walls of a drinking place that a candidate would address a certain club there. Members were cordially invited to be present, and there followed the arresting announcement, also in blue pencil, "Drinks free!"

But of course it is by no means certain that this last information came from the writer of the earlier part of the announcement.

For Gullible People Only.

Arthur B. Reeves in the World's Work: "Quite the climax of the many wildcat schemes of London speculators a generation ago was the organization of a company such as may never be heard of again in this cosmic folly. Bear in mind that the officers of this new corporation were stormed by would-be investors, that a miniature riot took place on the morning in question. Remember that for a subscription to a £100 share a deposit of £2 was required, and that the entire issue of stock was subscribed for. Then note the project as announced by the promoter, a calm and cool gentleman whose name and person alike escaped the authorities—'A company for carrying on an undertaking of great advantage, but no one to know what it is.'"

Zinc in the Human Body.

In his researches at the Pasteur Institute in Paris Prof. Delezenne has discovered, according to the Scientific American Monthly, that zinc is an essential and permanent constituent of the human body. The metal exists in all organs, although in rather small percentage, about 0.0001 by weight. The weight is variable, the highest proportion being found in the nervous centers; for example, in the brain or the thymus. When it is remembered that the chemical operations of nutrition are also connected with the transformation of the nucleic acids, it seems probable that zinc is one of the most necessary agents in the growth of the body.

SPEAK GOOD WORD FOR PIE

Scientists Give Comfort to Those Fond of Delicacy That is Distinctly American.

Among the many varieties of food that have been attacked on the score of indigestibility, etc., pie stands among the foremost. Laymen, doctors, and even philosophers have warned against the popular pastime of pie eating.

Quite the distant pastry relative, is somewhat less likely to form the subject of objections from the physiologic critic, while puddings usually belong to the innocuous, or at least receive tolerant consideration. The proof of the pudding—and why not also the pie—is in the eating. Accordingly, a number of gastro-entérologists at the Jefferson Medical college, Philadelphia, reports the Journal of the American Medical Association, have come to the defense of pie by actually determining the gastric response to it and analogous foods in the healthy human stomach.

Direct comparison of a variety of pies, cakes and puddings representative of American culinary art on the same persons indicated that pies "were handled more readily than cakes, and puddings somewhat more readily than either." For those who can think best in terms of statistics it may be stated that the average gastric evacuation time of digestion of puddings was two hours and eighteen minutes, against two hours and twenty-seven minutes for pies; whereas cakes followed in the wake with an average record of three hours and two minutes. Averaging the highest total acidities, values were obtained for puddings of 92, for pies of 90 and for cakes of 90.

There is no occasion to report here the insignificant distinctions between custard pie and lemon meringue, for example, in their gastric behavior, but it must be admitted that mince pie, so often regarded as an arch offender of the digestive tract, requires a rather long time (from 2¼ to 3¼ hours) to leave the stomach. The addition of ice cream to a piece of pie—a unique American combination—does not increase the burden of the stomach to any extent, and the conventional apple pie and cheese likewise give a conservatively good report. To a few persons it may be a consolation to know that angel's food cake remained distinctly longer in the stomach than did devil's food cake. Of course, time of digestibility is not the sole, complete test of the dietary worth of food.

Man and His Cosmetics.

Comes now a man writer to a beauty department of an exchange who confesses not only that he uses cosmetics, but also states many other men do the same, have been doing it for years and are doing it more and more each year. But, he adds, men are better makeup artists and their drolling up is seldom detected. Not only does this man make this confession freely, and indeed with traces of pride, if not actual boasting, but he believes it the duty of both men and women to improve their looks when possible with beauty enhancing devices, and the girl he marries must be more broad-minded than his mother, who believes no girl has any excuse for using paint and powder, or for touching up her hair and eyebrows. Perhaps the man is only fooling, but if these things be so, the increased election expenses caused by allowing women to vote will seem as nothing compared to the increased expense of beautifying humanity when men follow the lead of women. A committee should be appointed to investigate this statement and, if it is found true, a movement for the conservation of cosmetics will be in order.—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

Airplane Compass.

An entirely new kind of compass, for use on airplanes, is the invention of a German named Bamberg. It depends for its operation upon the electrical resistance of selenium, which varies with any change in the intensity of light falling upon it.

The bowl of the compass contains two electric bulbs, directly opposite each other, which throw their rays through a lens whereby the rays are concentrated upon two selenium cells mounted on a bridge extending across the top of the bowl.

The compass may be mounted on the tail of the airplane, so as to be at a distance from all disturbing magnetic influences, the position of its needle or pointer being made known to the pilot by an electrically connected indicator in front of him.

Leather From Rabbit Skins.

According to American Consul Norton of Sydney, Australia, a secret process, said to be unknown hitherto to the tannery trade, has been discovered by an Australian for making leather from rabbit skins and recovering the fur as a by-product in felt making. A company has been formed in Sydney to turn this discovery to practical use, having established works capable of handling about 100,000 skins a week. The leather has already been utilized in Sydney in the manufacture of boot and shoe uppers, hand bags, gloves and other articles.—Scientific American.

Great on Defense.

"Our defense is fine," said a football coach during a game between his smaller college and a larger rival. "How about your offense?" he was asked. "Don't know. Have had the ball yet," the coach replied. Boston Transcript.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS, To the sheriff or any constable of Hale County—GREETING:

You are hereby commanded, that you summon, by making publication of this citation in some newspaper published in the County of Hale if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in the nearest County where a newspaper is published once each week for four consecutive weeks previous to the return day hereof, E. M. Murray, a non-resident of State of Texas, whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before the Hon. District Court, at the next regular term thereof, to be held in the County of Hale, at the Court House thereof, in Plainview on the 1st Monday in August, A. D. 1921, the same being the 1st day of August, A. D. 1921, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court, on the 7th day of January, A. D. 1921, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 1916, wherein J. W. Peacock is plaintiff and E. M. Murray and Tom Taylor are defendants. The nature of the plaintiff's demand being as follows, to-wit:

No. 1916
J. W. Peacock vs.
E. M. Murray and Tom Taylor
In District Court of Hale County, Texas, August Term, 1921.

Comes now J. W. Peacock, a resident of Hale County, Texas, and with leave of the court, files this his First Amended Original Petition, in lieu of his Original Petition filed herein on the 7th day of January, 1921, complaining of E. M. Murray, a non-resident of the State of Texas, and whose residence is unknown to plaintiff, and Tom Taylor, a resident of said Hale County, defendants, and as grounds for such amendment, represents to the court as follows, to-wit:

That on or about the 24th day of September, 1919, M. J. Gregory and Fred Wiese made and delivered to plaintiff their certain series of promissory notes, dated as of that date, each in the sum of $525.00, given by said Gregory and Wiese and payable to plaintiff, or order, due respectively on or before one, two, three, four, five, six, seven and eight years from and after January 1st, 1920, each bearing interest, payable annually from said 1st day of January 1920, until paid at the rate of eight per centum per annum, and ten per centum per annum and all past due interest thereon from maturity thereof until paid, and each providing that a failure to pay same, or any installment of interest, when due, shall, at the election of the holder thereof, or any one of them, mature all of said notes, and each stipulating that if not paid when due and is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or suit is brought to collect same, the payee therein agrees to pay ten per cent on the principal and interest when due, as collection fees, whereby said Gregory and Wiese became bound and liable to pay and promised to pay to plaintiff the several sums of money specified in said notes, together with the interest and attorney's fees, according to their face and tenor, effect and reading.

Said notes were given as part of the purchase money for all that certain tract of land situated in Hale county, Texas, known and described as the Northwest one-fourth and thirty acres of the West side of the Northeast one-fourth of section No. Seventeen (17- in block lettered "C-L", issued by virtue of certificate No. 699 to the T. T. Ry. Company, containing 190 acres, in the purchase thereof by said Gregory and Wiese from plaintiff, which plaintiff conveyed, by his deed in writing, to said Gregory and Wiese of like date with said notes, retaining therein a Vendor's Lien to secure the payment of said notes.

And that subsequent to the execution and delivery of said deed and notes, said Gregory and Wiese, by their deed in writing, conveyed said land to defendant Murray, wherein and as part consideration thereof, said Murray assumed the payment, in said deed, of said eight notes, and thereby likewise became bound and liable to pay and promised to pay to plaintiff the several sums of money in said notes specified, together with the interest and attorney's fees, according to their face and tenor, effect and reading.

And that the first note of said series to mature is past due and unpaid and the first installment of interest on each and all of them is past due and unpaid, and though heretofore requested, defendant Murray has failed and refused, and still refuses to pay same or any part thereof, by reason of which and such default, plaintiff has declared all of them due and mature, and has placed them in the hands of W. W. Kirk, an attorney-at-law, and instructed him to bring and prosecute this suit for the collection thereof, and for his services therefor, has agreed with and promised to pay him a sum of money equal to the ten per cent on the principal and interest due, which sum is a reasonable compensation for such services.

And that defendant Taylor is in possession of said land and premises and is asserting some kind of a claim thereto.

And that prior to the execution of said deed to said Wiese and Gregory from plaintiff, plaintiff made and delivered his certain promissory note, dated February 1917, to Walter Darlington of Kansas City, Missouri, given by plaintiff and payable to said Darlington, in the sum of $2400.00 due five years after date, and bearing interest, payable annually, from date until paid at the rate of six per cent per annum, and by deed of trust of like date with said last mentioned note, plaintiff conveyed said land to said Darlington to secure the payment of said note, wherein it is provided that if said interest payments are not paid when due, the holder of said note may declare same due and payable.

That in said deed from plaintiff to said Wiese and Gregory, the grantees assumed the payment of said note to said Darlington, and all subsequent interest payments thereon, and that in said deed from them to said Murray, the grantee therein likewise assumed the payment of said last mentioned note and all subsequent interest payment thereon.

That the interest payment due February 1st, 1921, on said last mentioned note was not paid by said Murray, and the payment of which was demanded by said Darlington, and in order to protect plaintiff's interest in said land and his said notes, he had to pay and did pay said interest payment amounting to $72.00, and is entitled to subrogated to the lien of said Darlington to that extent.

That said Murray failed to pay the State and County and the Independent School District tax for the year 1919 of said land, which plaintiff had to pay and did pay in order to protect his said interests, amounting to $37.20.

Plaintiff applies for a writ of sequestration in this case, and as grounds therefor, says that he fears defendant Taylor will make use of his possession of said land and premises to injure same, which he says is of the value of $8000.00; and that the defendant Murray is a non-resident of the State of Texas.

Wherefore, premises considered, plaintiff prays that the defendant Murray be cited, by publication and the defendant Taylor, in terms of the law to appear and answer this suit, and that upon hearing hereof, he have judgment for his debt, interest and attorney's fees and costs of suit and for a foreclosure of his lien against said land and premises, and that said land be decreed sold and the officer executing the order of sale place the purchaser of said land in possession thereof within thirty days after date of sale; for judgment cancelling and holding for naught any claim that defendant Taylor may have or claim to the title and possession of said land; and judgment for the further sum of said interest payments and said taxes, with interest thereon from the 1st day of February, 1921, until paid at the rate of six per centum per annum; and that a writ of sequestration issue in this case to the sheriff or any constable of Hale county, Texas, commanding him to take into his possession said land and premises, and keep the same subject to the further orders of this court, unless the same be relieved according to law; and for such other and further relief, both special and general, in law and in equity as plaintiff may be entitled to upon trial hereof.

J. W. PEACOCK, Plaintiff,
SUBSCRIBED AND SWORN to before me by J. W. Peacock, plaintiff in the above numbered and styled cause, this 4th day of March, 1921

W. D. DARBY,
District Clerk in and for Hale County, Texas.

By M. DELLA ANSLEY, Deputy.
J. W. KIRK, attorney for plaintiff
J. W. Peacock.

Mystery of How Spitz Was Kept
White Is Solved—Secret Learned
From Washwoman.

Another secret process was unwittingly betrayed at a street discussion between two women recently. "The woman, elaborately dressed and seemingly of the "sheltered life" type stood, pets in leash, as they gossiped. The one with the Japanese spaniel spoke first:

"I have an awful time with Togo; he is such a little aristocrat," and she jerked at the chain as her substitute for a child showed a desire to greet a passing mongrel. "He detests castle soap and I always use facial for his bath, but he just adores lilac-scented talcum powder afterward and I have a spray with lilac water that he both of us use. How's little Snowball now?" (referring to the other woman's Spitz). "We heard he was ill. You must have been worried sick. I often wonder how you keep him so white."

The other woman's turn, as pumpered pets milled about: "It was terrible; Snowy had colic; ate too much squash—we have to get them especially for him, the little darling—but we got the best doctor we could find and he was all right in two days. Oh, yes, how do I keep him so white? Bluing. Always after his bath I put him through bluing; learned it from watching a washwoman once. She put her fine white clothes into bluing and it works just as well with Snowy." —Portland Oregonian.

DISPUTE ACCURACY OF CLOCK

Heirs of Danish Nobleman Stand to Win or Lose Large Amount of Money by Decision.

What time was it when the castle clock struck twelve?

Ten thousand pounds, normally about $50,000, hangs on the answer to this question, explains the London Express correspondent in Denmark, which has been the subject of lively argument in the eastern civil court, Copenhagen.

The clock in question is in the tower of Lystrup castle, the seat of one of Denmark's greatest landholders, the late Count Moltke, a life member of the ancient house of lords.

Count Moltke died on the night of December 19-20, 1918, a few seconds after the castle clock struck twelve. The Danish parliament recently approved a new and increased scale of death duties, applicable to the estate of all persons who died after midnight on December 19-20.

It is contended by the count's heirs that the castle clock was fast and struck a minute too soon. The count, they say, died on December 19, and therefore his estate is exempt from the increase in the death duties.

Weavers.

A typical Scots crofter weaving with the old-fashioned hand weaving loom side by side with the very latest power-loom, giving an idea of the great gain in output and quality achieved in mechanical invention will be an interesting item at the efficiency exhibition in London, where the use of invention and effort will be shown to be of greater value than mere personal application. Not only will the productions be seen to be more quickly executed, but the worker will find the process less mechanical, strange as this may appear. What will doubtless strike all visitors is the enormous increase in efficiency in the weaving industry brought about by labor-saving machinery. It seems strange, too that more workers are required to keep up with the efficient power-loom.—Christian Science Monitor.

Electrified Tourmaline.

The crystal, tourmaline, has very remarkable optical properties, a fact known to most people. However, few people have heard of its peculiar electrical properties. Tourmaline is capable of attracting small bits of paper and straw in much the same way as amber. This attraction is, of course, due to an electrostatic charge.

When the crystal is exposed to sunlight of a low temperature, it loses its electrical charge, but regains it upon being heated again. If it has a negative charge at first, it will have a positive charge when it is reheated.

Several other precious stones exhibit various phenomena along this line, but tourmaline is the most interesting and spectacular of all.—Popular Science Monthly.

New Silverplating Process.

More than 100 per cent increase in the output of electroplating vats is gained by the recent discovery of an English metallurgist. The method of applying the new process, as used at Sheffield in silverplating is merely to add potassium carbonate to the plating bath, instead of neutralizing that already present by introducing barium cyanide, as is ordinarily the practice. The silver deposit obtained the new way is declared to equal, if not surpass, in quality any accomplished by the old method.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

"JUSTICE" HAS SIX FINGERS

The Thousand-Kroner Note of Czecho-Slovak Currency Takes Rank
as a Currency.

While almost every country in the world has inflated its currency, Czecho-Slovakia has had the courage to deflate hers. Shortly after the founding of the republic in October, 1918, all the former Austro-Hungarian currency was called in by the government and for every two kronen of the old money one kronen of the new Czecho-Slovak currency was given, with the result that, while the Czecho-Slovak krona is depreciated in value and forms one cause of the economic distress it is nothing as compared with the depreciation in neighboring states.

The gold reserve on which that currency rests has a unique history. Part of the money was printed in the United States. Indeed, the 1,000-kroner note printed in the United States is the most artistic issue the Czecho-Slovaks possess, in spite of the fact that the artist gave the symbolic figure of Justice six fingers. But the government was confronted by the fact that there was no gold reserve on which to base the currency, and the nation was called on to give the country its gold possessions to be melted up by the government.

An American who was there at the time told me that the amount of gold articles brought in, from plate to bracelets, was remarkable—another instance of the intense patriotism of the Czechs. And upon that gold reserve and notes for their share of the gold of the old Austro-Hungarian empire, still held in the vaults at Vienna, rests the currency of the new republic.

To remedy the depreciation of the currency by increase of exports the government has encouraged the farmers to plant sugar beets for sale abroad, and it is another indication of the devoted patriotism of this people that in a country seriously in need of foodstuffs hundreds of thousands of hectares were planted to sugar beets for export instead.—Eleanor Markell in the Outlook.

World Using More Coconut Fat.

For many years past the world's production of animal fats has been steadily diminishing. Lack of such fats spelled famine in Europe during the war, when great quantities of them were withdrawn from human use to make glycerin for high explosives.

Even now, and in this country, there is an insufficiency of animal fats (as indicated by the price of butter), and to make good the shortage coconut oil is being imported in enormous quantities. During the last year 345,737,913 pounds of this oil were brought into the United States.

The oil is largely used as a cooking fat, but also in the manufacture of nut butter, candles, soap and cosmetics. It is said to be an excellent substitute for cod liver oil, being highly digestible and with the advantage of an agreeable flavor. At ordinary temperatures coconut oil is a white, butter-like solid.

The raw "meats" are dried in the sun before shipment from the tropical countries where coconuts are grown. In this shape the material is called copra. The oil is extracted by powerful hydraulic presses, the yield being 65 to 70 per cent of the weight of the copra.

President in Name Only.

M. Millerand's election as President of France brings to the fore a long-discussed proposal to amend the constitution of that country so as to make the President an important force in the government instead of restricting him, as at present, to the merely decorative functions of a titular ruler.

M. Millerand has long advocated such a change, and has been elected on that platform, remarks the Living Age. The Socialists and radicals profess to be alarmed by this new development, alleging that it represents a reactionary drift toward a monarchy. Some color may have been given to this claim by the fact that the ultra-conservative and royalist press of France has been most enthusiastic for the change.

It will be recalled that the President of France is not elected directly by the whole people, but by the 900 members of parliament. He does not, therefore, represent the immediate will of the nation in the same way as the American President. Presumably an enlargement of the powers of the President will carry with it a change in the method by which he is chosen.

New Source of Vanilla Extract.

According to experiments recently performed in London, the island of Jamaica may become a new source of supply for vanilla favoring extract. It has been found that the leaves of the wild pimento tree which grows on the island yield a high percentage of eugenol, from which vanilla, or crude vanilla, may be obtained, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The discovery is valuable economically as well as commercially, inasmuch as Iso-eugenol, the half-way product between eugenol and vanillin, may be made by merely fermenting the pimento leaves.

Glucose Treatment for Pneumonia.

Dr. H. J. John, in the American Journal of Medical Science, relates his experience with the intravenous injection of glucose in the treatment of pneumonia. More than two doses per day were rarely necessary. It made the patient comfortable; produced sleep and rest; reduced the temperature; increased the elimination through kidneys and skin, and slowed the heart and increased the pulse volume.

SMOKE CANDLE VAPOR DEADLY

Fearful Weapon Said to Have Been Brought to Perfection by the War Department.

One of the many ingenious contrivances developed during the recent war was the "smoke candle." Such candles were little cylindrical boxes containing smoke-producing chemicals, which could be ignited at a moment's notice by a sort of friction device. They were used to conceal the movements of small groups of men. When touched off they were simply placed on the ground, to make a smoke screen.

The Americans thought it would be a good idea to use smoke candles that would give off a poisonous smoke. These improved candles did not come into use during the war, but since then the chemists of our War department have perfected them. The poison stuff used is a coal-tar product which, a solid at ordinary temperatures, vaporizes in the heat of the burning candle. The vapor will penetrate most gas masks. The military authorities think that such poison smokes will find very extensive use in future warfare.

The smoke of a smoke-candle is usually white. To be effective for concealment, it must, of course, be as opaque as possible; and it must also be heavy, so as to be not easily blown away by a light breeze. Candles that produce a smoke of zinc chloride meet these requirements admirably, but the addition of "diphencychlorarsine" makes them poisonous as well.

SCORED ON COUNTRY COUSIN

City Lad Had Endured Much but Opportunity Came and He Surely Improved It.

The country visitor had been regaling his young Glendale cousin with tales of the farm. Some of his stories seemed a little far-fetched to the city lad, who at last became somewhat wearied with the rural youth's boasts of the superiority of things "on the farm."

They were walking along the street when two young men sporting the small skull caps of U. of S. C. were seen approaching.

"The country boy was a little mystified. "What's this?" he questioned, "a new city style, these little caps?"

The Glendale lad saw his chance to get square. "Oh, those," he said with assumed carelessness, "no, you see these fellows are students at the university. All the boys who enter have to wear those caps because under the system of education they receive their brains develop so rapidly that their heads grow in circumference, and if they wore ordinary hats, new ones would be necessary almost every month."—Los Angeles Times.

Paths in the Snow.

"Even the beaten paths in the snow possess a joy all of their own which, to our mind, excels that of the so-called enchantment of the open road, which had been sung by many writers long before Stevenson wrote of it with such compelling charm," writes Dan Beard in Boys' Life. "To a bare-footed boy swinging on the front gate of the white picket fence, the road is both a challenge and an invitation as he gazes wistfully down the dusty reaches and long perspectives where the fences on each side seem to converge until they meet in the unexplored distance or where the road climbs up the hills and dips into the valleys to lose itself at last in the mysterious shade of everhanging branches of the wood or grove. That vagabond joy in the open road, that yearning to fare forth and solve the mystery of what lies beyond, comes with almost irresistible force to all of us."

Cave Warmed by Volcano.

A naturally heated cave has been discovered at Horse Butte, near Bend, Ore., which apparently draws its warmth from a subterranean volcanic source. The discovery was made by C. A. Yarnell and H. D. Elde, Bend fuel dealers. The cave is located near the top of the Butte and first attracted attention when a wave of heat was felt issuing from the mouth. The slender bottom and rock walls of the tunnel are unbearably hot to the touch, the heating increasing as far back as could be explored. That the phenomenon is a recent manifestation was indicated by the smoldering of grass and twigs near the opening. To test the natural oven, Yarnell cooked a light breakfast by introducing raw articles of food into the aperture and closing the orifice for a few moments.

Keeping Down Mine Dust.

The presence of dust in mines is disagreeable from many standpoints, besides being a positive menace from its explosive qualities. Efforts are being made more than ever to keep the mine dust down, and it has been discovered in the case of one mine in Kentucky that excellent results were obtained by sprinkling the empty coal cars. The operation is performed automatically as the cars are moved along after being dumped, and the difference in the atmosphere of the mine was apparent to all.

Age of Petroleum.

The age of petroleum is here. From an humble beginning in 1859 it has now reached a point where it is consumed in ever increasing quantities until the problem of its production has become one of the most absorbing of international questions—to that country which controls the output belongs the power of the world.

Proved By Twelve Years' Farm Work

Year after year of the hardest kind of farm work—plowing sun-baked virgin prairie sod, discing, harrowing, belt work, road work, etc.—has proved the supreme fitness of OilPull tractors.

This dependability and service has been remarkably demonstrated by the first OilPuls built, that are still working—year in and year out continuous performance that gives the only real basis upon which a tractor can be judged. In these twelve years the OilPull tractor has built up a record of continuous, reliable, economical operation, unequalled in the tractor industry.

Successfully burning the lower grades of fuel oils—thoroughly cooled by oil—lubricated by remarkably efficient force feed and splash oiling systems—speed automatically regulated by a throttling governor—these are some of the exclusive OilPull features.

The Rumely OilPull may be had in sizes from three to ten plows, standard in design and construction—a size to fit any farm or job.

An OilPull will enable you to increase yields and profits as well as greatly reduce the hard work in farming.

Give us the opportunity to show you when next in town.

IN A MINOR STRAIN

Physician declares that dodging automobiles is a healthful exercise. Not if one of them strikes you.

A Salvation Army band was in town Tuesday and held services on the northwest corner of the square. They sang "Work For the Night Is Coming," but it had no effect on the loafing bunch.

The trouble with the man who is always blowing his own horn is that he never knows but the one tune.

Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus, the great Chicago preacher and leader in civic betterment movements, recently died, age 56 years. His life should be an inspiration to every boy in America, for he had possibly the most humble and untoward beginning of anybody. His family, so we are told, were extremely poor, his home life was very unpromising for his parents did not believe in education. Frank, however, had a spark of ambition and determined to become educated and be something higher. He toiled and studied and got an education; he became possibly the greatest preacher in the nation. Then, he got interested in betterment work and preached one sermon in his Chicago church that brought a collection of $2,800,000 for the uplifting of the boys and girls of the city. Shortly afterward P. D. Armour came to him with an offer of financial help and the Armours Institute of Technology was organized with him as president. The success of Dr. Gunsaulus but proves the old saying that each person is the architect of his own life. The boy who has the grit and determination to win can do so. Every boy "who has no chance" can make plenty of chances if he will do so. Nobody is to blame for a man's failure to attain success but he himself.

Follow the Farmer's Example

The example of industry and economy set by the farmers might well be studied by other business interests. The farmer carried over into the new planting season an unusually large reserve of grain. Whether this was wise or not, it was practically necessary because of the shortage of cars at a time when prices were good and it was necessary to prevent a collapse of a sensitive market that has prevailed since shipping facilities became adequate.

But the important point is that the farmer is now capitalizing the possession of this grain by using it to finance his new crop enterprises instead of going in debt to meet this season's expenses. When the farmer needs money with which to repair bills on his machinery or for groceries, he sells a load of wheat or corn. He has positively quit buying all except the most pressing necessities. Old machinery now serves where ordinarily new machinery would be used. He has an abundance of feed for work stock, an ample supply of seed, and his outgo is perhaps the smallest in years. Added to this advantage is the fact that he has surplus grain to sell to meet whatever expense he has to bear. The customary spring season of much outlay and the incurring of considerable debt has been changed to one of substantial income and small expenditures. Therefore, even with the reduced prices which his products bring, he is slowly getting out of debt. In a word, he is both working and economizing. If the members of all other groups of industrious and economical as the farmer is, the country would soon emerge from its present difficulties.—Kansas City Star.

The Butler Transfer Co. is closing up its business here and Manager Short will take the trucks and move back to DeLeon.

HALE CENTER

April 1.—Mrs. Geo. Yates returned Wednesday from Leonard, Texas, where she attended the funeral of her mother.

J. J. Roberts, who has been in the grain and coal business at this place has sold his interests and will locate in San Antonio.

Mrs. C. H. Bryant went to Clarendon, Texas, to be with her daughter, Miss Jessie, who was taken ill with measles, while attending Corendon college.

At the school auditorium, Friday evening, March 25th, was rendered a musical program, of some eight or ten features, which met with a hearty and warm appreciation of the large crowd present.

Parties were here Monday taking views of Hale Center for the 200,000 copy West Edition of the Star-Telegram to be published soon.

G. W. Bigler left last Saturday with a car of stock and household goods for Billings, Mont., where he will be joined later by Mrs. Bigler and daughter, Mildred. The family are returning to their former place of residence, after a stay of four years here.

Rev. F. H. Waldrop was here from Kress Tuesday.

DeWitte Oliver of Abernathy, visited friends here Wednesday.

N. M. Akeson has returned from a visit with his family at Austin.

Miss Ola Moon left the first of the week for a visit with friends in Canyon and Amarillo.

W. B. Harp sold a car load of kaffir the first of the week to Messrs. Jeffus and Nichols of Plainview.

Messrs. Ragan & Dunn have bought the Hale Center Coal & Grain Co., and have assumed charge of same.

Mrs. May Smith has returned from Waco, where she represented the local Rebekah lodge as a delegate.

Messrs. Lee, Winkler, Ernest and others returned the first of the week from a prospecting trip to New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Sands are making arrangements to ship their household goods to Iowa, where they will reside.

The High School seniors are planning to give a minstrel at the auditorium soon, proceeds to be used for the school annual.

The Wayland Orchestra will render musical selections Sunday at the morning and night services in the Baptist church.

Mrs. W. B. Smith gave a number of the little folks an Easter egg hunt, at her home west of town last Friday afternoon.

We understand that Miss Amy Wall of Hale Center, and Mr. Norman Meeley of Plainview, were married in Plainview, Wednesday night.

R. W. Lemond has been confined to his room since last Friday night, when he was painfully hurt while milking in his cows from a nearby lot to his home. In some way he stepped on the stake rope and was thrown to the ground with great force, falling on his face and injuring the cheek bone, also bruising his hip.

Mrs. Artie Shepard, our postmistress, has received official notice from the department at Washington to the effect that the postoffice at Barton-site, Texas, would be discontinued on April 15th.

Pursuant to a petition from the citizens of Hale Center, the county judge has issued an order for an election to be held in Hale Center, Saturday, April 9th 1921, to decide whether or not we shall incorporate our town.

The children of the Junior League of the Methodist church, under the direction of Misses Hattie Mounts and Elizabeth Scott, enjoyed a delightful Easter egg hunt at the park on Saturday from 14 to 5 p. m.

The musical entertainment given last Friday night by Prof. Crabb's musical club, drew a crowded house and netted the club $39.00, a part of this will be used for defraying the expense of printing the high school yearbook.

Messrs. Green and Anthony of Olden, Texas, were in the city Tuesday and became so impressed with our town and people that they decided to move among us. A deal was consummated whereby they become owners of the Hale Center Grocery. Claxton & Son will give the new men possessions April 15th.—Record.

MOLINE UNIVERSAL TRACTOR*AND*Moline Hyatt Roller Bearing Header-Binder*For Tractor or Horse Use.

This new Moline 10-ft. tractor binder attached to a Moline-Universal Tractor running 3 1-2 miles an hour, with one man in control of both tractor and binder, will cut 40 acres of grain in a ten-hour day. This is more than 2 men and 8 horses with two 8 ft. binders can do; and more than 3 men with any other tractor pulling two 8 ft. binders can do.

Considering the amount of work it will do, and the saving in expense, the Moline 10-ft. binder is the lowest priced binder ever made, and it will last twice as long as any other. But of greater importance is the fact that you can now harvest your grain when it is ready in half the time you ever did before—this may save you the price of the entire outfit any rainy season.

The Moline 10-ft. Binder is made to work with the Moline-Universal Tractor. One man controls both tractor and binder from the seat of the binder. The entire outfit is easily and quickly backed to turn square corners so that a full width of cut can always be maintained. The new Moline Binder is constructed heavier throughout and has much greater capacity than any horse drawn binder.

Equipped With Hyatt Roller Bearings

Important bearings, 32 in all, are equipped with Hyatt roller bearings. These bearings double the life of the binder, allow it to run at much faster speeds, make lighter draft and require only one oiling a season. This feature alone saves one hour or more a day. Elevator gears are enclosed and packed in grease. There are many other features about this binder which enable you to harvest faster, cheaper and better than you ever did before.

A header attachment is provided so that the Moline Binder can be easily, and at small expense, converted into a header.

If you have only 20 acres of grain to cut, it will pay to own this outfit. You will pay for binder cutting your own and neighbor's grain.

It will pay you to use the Moline-Universal Tractor and Moline Grain Binder this year. See your Moline Tractor Dealer now or write us for full information.

Moline Tractor Works Year 'Round

After harvesting you can use your Moline-Universal Tractor to run a small separator and do all the threshing in your neighborhood. There is no end of uses for the Moline-Universal Tractor. You can plow, disc, seed, cultivate, mow, harvest, etc., and do all your belt work with it.

The Moline-Universal Tractor does all farm work including cultivating, and one man controls both tractor and implement from the seat of the implement.

Thousands of farmers in all parts of the country are proving every day that the Moline-Universal is the most practical, economical and efficient tractor made, that it practically doubles a man's results and reduces expense.

Oklahoma City—Oklahoma "bootleggers" have found a new way to evade the law's clutches. They're employing parrots as "lookouts". Charles Campbell, Oklahoma constable, is authority for this.

Campbell and a squad of deputy sheriffs raided a residence here Friday in search of "wet" evidence. As they approached the house Campbell said he heard someone yell in a shrill voice "Here comes the law! Here comes the law!"

Campbell and his aides searched high and low and could find no one. Finally the officers went to the rear of the house. Again the voice was heard. This time it inquired: "Is the law gone yet?"

Campbell has just about given up hopes of finding the "lookout" when he happened to glance up in a tree. There on a limb sat "pretty Polly" repeating the warning its owner had taught it to say. The bird evaded "arrest."
