VOLUME EIGHTEEN

Plainview, Hale County, Texas, Tuesday, October 2nd, 1923

NUMBER 41

M. E. CONFERENCE HERE OCT. 31st

TWO BISHOPS WILL ATTEND THE NORTHWEST TEXAS METH- ODIST CONFERENCE

The annual Northwest Texas Methodist Conference will be held in Plainview, from October 31st to Nov. 4th, and 350 preachers and delegates will be in attendance. The delegates will be entertained by the people of the town, and a committee is now canvassing the town securing promises of homes for them. The district is very extensive and its proceedings are always very important in Methodist affairs. Plainview entertained the conference ten or eleven years ago.

The conference will be presided over by Bishop James E. Dickey of Waco, and Bishop W. F. McMurry of St. Louis, will also be in attendance. Other notables to be present include Dr. S. H. C. Burgen of San Antonio, former church extension secretary, and Dr. H. D. Knickerbocker of Dallas.

Homes Committee.—Mesdames A. B. Martin, Elmer Sanson, R. A. Underwood, Geo. P. Droke, John Lucas, Marvin Garner, B. H. Oxford, Flake Garner, L. C. Wayland, A. G. Hemphill, E. C. Hunter, W. H. Visor, O. B. Jackson, A. E. Rogers, B. C. Franklin, W. M. Wilson, John Hooper, M. M. Boyd, R. C. Jackson, R. E. Ramsey, T. G. Harkey, F. A. Hendersoh, L. D. Harrison, Bob Meyers, E. S. Aylesworth, V. L. Formway, Miss Della Ansley.

Transportation Committee.—C. D. Wolford, A. C. McClelland, M. M. Boyd.

Information Committee.—Elmer F. Sanson, T. G. Harkey, O. P. Carlk. Assignment Committee.—L. C. Wayland, Mrs. L. A. Knight, Mrs. R. W. O'Keefe, Miss Della Ansley, O. P. Clark.

Miami Man is Fatally Shot

Miami, Oct. 1.—John Patton, laborer died from gun shot wounds at Canadian hospital late Monday afternoon, according to information received here late today.

Patton received two wounds in the upper portion of his body in an altercation on the main street of this city about 6:30 Saturday evening, and was rushed to the Canadian hospital for medical attention.

John Webster, telephone man and picture show operator of Miami has been placed under arrest by Sheriff Coffey charged in connection with the killing.

No cause is assigned for the shooting, but two principals are said to have been good friends and long residents of Miami.

Floydada School House Burned

During a hail and rain storm Sunday night, the old school building at Floydada was struck by lightning, set on fire, and was destroyed with piano and all furnishings.

The home of Mr. Reagan was set on fire by lightning just a few minutes before and the fire department was at that fire, when the school began to burn, hence the flames soon got beyond control.

WILL HOLD TENNIS MEET

CITY TENNIS CLUBS WILL PARTICIPATE IN TOURNAMENT WEDNESDAY P. M.

The city tennis tournament will be held Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock, on the courts two blocks north of the high school, and the games are open to all citizens of Plainview.

There will be doubles and singles, and some interesting playing and fast matches are looked forward to by tennis enthusiasts, for Plainview has some very good tennis players. Miss Lucile Goodwin of the high school is champion of the state in singles, having won in the interscholastic meet in Austin last spring.

The winners in both singles and doubles will be awarded prizes offered by the Chamber of Commerce.

The public is invited to attend the tournament.

All contestants must register at Lamb Drug Co. by noon Wednesday.

The first bale of cotton in sixteen years was ginned in Hereford last week.

SPUR MAN DIES FROM DRINKING PATENT MEDICINE

Two Others Are Seriously Ill—People Drive Bootleggers Out of Spur Territory

Spur, Sept. 30.—A drink presumed to be a patent medicine claimed the life of Oscar Harrington, 21 years old, at Spur, and has left Dick Boykin, 19 years old living near Spur, and Lewis Hale, 31 years old, a barber at Crosbyton, unconscious. Attending physicians have hopes of the recovery of these two.

Officers of Spur and Crosbyton are at work on the case, but definite information as to the source or nature of the drink has not been secured, as the two living participants are not able to talk.

The people of the Spur trade territory have driven a lawless element out of the county. Indignation meetings are being held on street corners.

The tragedy in which Harrington lost his life occurred at the fair grounds in Crosbyton, several young men at Spur having gone to attend the fair which was in progress there.

MUCH INTEREST TAKEN IN GOLF TOURNAMENT

Trophies for Country Club on Display In Lamb Drug Co. Show Windows

There is much interest being shown in the coming golf tournament to be participated in by members of the Plainview Country Club October 9, 10, 11 and 12, at the grounds east of Plainview.

The handsome silver trophy cup, given by the Lamb Drug Co. to the high winner and the other prizes to be awarded are now on display in the show window at that drug store.

Those who will take part in the tournament, both men and women, are putting in much time practicing, and it is anticipated that some very low amateur scores will be recorded.

After the tournament the prizes will be awarded at a fish fry to be held at the club lake, to which the families of the members will also be invited.

Lubbock High Defeats Wayland

Lubbock, Sept. 28.—Lubbock High defeated Wayland Cotton Tails 65 to 0 in the first football game of the season. Wayland was outclassed in every department, only making three first downs and not completing a forward pass, while Lubbock made ten first down, ten goals and completing two passes. Every man on Lubbock team played stellar football and each deserved special mention, but features were Ater intercepting a pass and running 45-yards for touchdown and his run back of a punt 70 yards for a touch down, besides making a 25-yard end run being forced out of bounds, with 5 yards of goal. A. Hensley played a fast game until put out in the second quarter with injured leg. The first quarter ended without a score but Lubbock scored four touchdowns in the second, three in the third, and three in the fourth missing five ties for goal for touchdown, Hawes, Ater, Hunt and Hensley started in backfield with Wilson, Jackson, Kittrell, R. Castleberry, A. Castleberry, Burroughs and Trotter in the line. Substitutes going in during the game were T. Moore, E. Moore, Pryor, Dunlap, G. Hensley and Hankin, and all justified their being on the first team. Touchdowns, T. Moore, 1; Ater, 2; Hensley, 1; Dunlap, 3; Hawes 2; and Hunt, 1. Howes tore great holes in the Wayland line. Beautiful interference helped in all the advances but the work of Dunlap and Jackson on interference made Ater's 70 yard back of a punt for a touchdown possible. The Wayland bunch played clean football and are game athletes.

675 Students Enroll at Canyon

Canyon, Sept. 30.—The West Texas State Teachers' college is finishing its second day of enrollment and there are now 675 students who have completed their matriculation. Many more are on the campus and in the city who have not yet enrolled. President J. A. Hill and members of his faculty feel that the student body will be larger than ever before in the history of the institution.

Hail Storm East of Abernathy

Our Lakeview correspondent writes that a destructive hail and wind storm accompanied by rain, visited that community Sunday night, doing considerable damage to open cotton, late feed stuff and gardens.

Cottle county expects to derive $3,000,000 from this year cotton crop, cotton crop.

Six persons were killed in Iowa and eight in Kentucky by tornadoes Thursday night. Floods and wind also did much damage in Nebraska and Kansas.

DELIVERS ANTI- KLAN ADDRESS

CRUDGINGTON DECLARES KLAN IS MENACE THAT MUST BE PUT DOWN

Judge J. W. Crudginton of Amarillo delivered an address at the band stand Saturday night to a very large audience, which sat on the grass on the lawn and in cars parked close by. He stated that he had lived on the Texas frontier all his life and until recently all men trusted each other, worked shoulder to shoulder for the upbuilding of the community and section at large, but of late a new force, of the invisible type has insinuated itself into the affairs of this section, and is dividing the people in a way that is menacing. He declared this new force is 100 per cent fanatic, intolerant and cowardly, and can mean no good to the society of the Plains. It has no place here, for there are few Catholics, foreigners, Jews or negroes on the Plains, nor is there but little lawlessness, and this is being looked after properly by the regular officers.

Judge Crudginton said the only redeeming feature is that the clan is doomed for it cannot live long based on prejudice and hatred. Already its members are fighting among themselves, and there will become bitter feuds among its members, as they break up. No substantial man will take such a secret oath, nor wear a disguise. Neither will true Americans and especially Texans take orders from or be dominated by an "imperial wizard," or anything else "imperial." No, he declared, this horrible thing cannot be put over in America.

Prior to the main speaking Winfield Holbrook made a short speech in opposition to the Klan, and Judge L. S. Kinder deprecated the animosity that is being engendered by the bringing of the Klan into this community where there is absolutely no need of it.

District Judge Joiner introduced Judge Crudginton, and declared that the Klan is making an effort to control the churches, which would if successful be an amalgamation of church and state. Especially is the Klan said to be trying to dominate the next Baptist state convention (Joiner is a Baptist), but it is going to have a fight on its hands. He said it is reported that many Baptist preachers are members of the Klan, and denounced any preacher who can see 100 per cent Americanism and Christianity through a contribution brought into church by hooded men. No good man can afford to belong to the Klan, for any scallawag can cover himself with a sheet the same as a good man, nor will a Christian go about with his head in a sheet.

Judge Kinder introduced a resolution which was adopted with a shout declaring adherence to the constitutions of the United States and of Texas, the right of trial by lawful courts, and the denunciation of mob law and engendering of malice and hatred.

Many Negro Cotton-Pickers

Monday J. T. McGee, who has one thousand acres of cotton west of Plainview, brought in forty-one negroes from Dallas, who bought supplies from the local merchants and at once went out to the cotton patches to begin work. Mr. McGee expects to gather possibly 400 bales of cotton.

Other farmers are bringing in cotton pickers from down in the state, and many more are needed.

Fire Prevention Week

Fire prevention week will be observed next week in Texas, and the local fire chief, Mr. Reynolds, has handed in considerable literature relative to the matter, which will be published in Friday's News.

Cotton is 27 1-2c

Nearly 100 bales of cotton have so far been received in Plainview, and each day the number is being increased in ratio. The price today is 27 1-2c.

County Agent E. W. Thomas went to Post City this morning, where he will judge the agricultural products in the Garza county fair.

R. B. Smith, a farmer living near Floydada, is wearing a suit of home-grown clothing. The wool was sheared from the backs of sheep grown on his place and he had it spun into cloth and made into a suit.

The newest use of airplanes is to convey prisoners to state prisons. The trip is made quicker, and there is no likelihood of the prisoner trying to escape by jumping out.

NORFLEET GETS SIXTH MAN

FINISHES CHASE OF 4 YEARS AT SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH

Amarillo, Oct. 2.—J. Frank Norfleet ranchman of Hale Center, has effected the arrest of Spencer, sixth and last man who figured in the swindle of Norfleet of $45,000 at Fort Worth early in 1919, with a fake oil lease game. Chief of Police John Snider received a message from Norfleet at Salt Lake City Monday stating that Spencer was in jail at that place.

The Norfleet swindle has attracted nationwide attention and the resulting chase and capture of the "bunco" artists by Norfleet and his son while his wife cared for the ranch home in Hale county, involved many sacrifices on the part of the little family which would require volumes to reveal.

Joe Fury, one of the leaders of the gang sought by the ranchman, was captured in Jacksonville, Florida, following a chase throughout the large centers of North America. Fury was sentenced to a term in the Texas prison for his part in the swindling of Norfleet and died in that institution. Following his death, the body was positively identified as the remains of Joe Fury, by officers of that state.

Ward and Guber other members of the "bunco" party captured by Norfleet have been disposed of. Ward suicided in Washington, D. C., while in the custody of Federal authorities.

Two other men identified with the swindling of Norfleet at Fort Worth were captured at Denver in 1922 by Norfleet and his son, together with 15 other "bunco" artists who operated "shel games" in a number of large cities by the aid of a suggestion of police protection which seriously handicapped Norfleet in his four year chase.

CLARENDON BULL DOGS DEFEAT WAYLAND JACK RABBITS

Plainview Bunch Goes Down in Defeat at Clarendon by Score of Only 6-9

Clarendon, Sept. 29.—The Clarendon Bull Dogs defeated the Wayland Jack Rabbits here Friday by the narrow margin of 6-9. The contest was played on a field that had been drenched with rain and that fact marred the team work of both elevens. Clarendon was able, however, to keep the ball in the shadow of the Rabbits' goal throughout the contest. Fumbling on both sides were frequent, but time and time again the Bull Dogs worked the ball into the end zone only to lose it on a fumble.

Wayland adhered largely to straight football, resorting the forward pass occasionally but not effectively. Clarendon's passing was even less effective, but many trick plays were tried out with varied formations and shifts.

Hale County Winners at Amarillo

Mammoth Bronze Turkeys, Mrs. Florence Sealing, Plainview, 1st, 2nd and 3rd young tom, 1st old tom, best young tom, best old tom.

Partridge Wyandottes, H. P. Coleman, Lockney, 1st and 2nd cock; 1st and 2nd cockerel, 1st, 2nd and 3rd hen, 1st and 2nd pullet, 1st pen, best cock, best hen, best pen of partridge color birds.

Elmer Sanson Buys Brahan Home

Elmer Sanson has bought the R. W. Brahan home in the southeast part of town, and will occupy it. Mr. and Mrs. Brahan expect to a little later build a smaller home on lots they own just east of their place.

Butler Moving Hardware Store

HARDWARE STORE BURGLAR- IZED SUNDAY NIGHT

Robbers Entered by Rear Window, Which They Broke, and Took Knives, Watches and Shells

The Plainview Hardware Co. store was burglarized Sunday night, when robbers entered by a rear window, which they tore the screen away from and broke the glass. They took a dozen pocket knives of an average price of $2 each, a dozen cheap watches ranging in value from $2 to $6 each, and a case of shot gun shells.

The officers have so we understand found some of the stolen goods, and will make arrests this afternoon, as more than one party was in the robbery. Deputy Sheriff Sturdevent is working up the case.

STATE WILL TAKE OVER THE HIGHWAYS

State Highway Commission Gives Notice That It Will Assume Charge on January 1st, 1924

In accord with the provisions of H. B. 361 of the regular session of the Thirty-eighth legislature, the State Highway Commission expects, on January 1st, 1924, to take over the maintenance of all designated state highways.

The State Highway Commission considers maintenance to mean keeping a road in as good condition as it may be at the time that it is taken over. No extensive improvements, either in quality or type, will be made upon any road by the maintenance organization for the reason that the funds provided are insufficient to make such improvement a part of maintenance, and still have sufficient funds to continue assisting those progressive counties that have voted bond issues, in building their roads.

There is reason to believe that in a number of counties, the commissioners' courts are not expending their respective portions of the motor vehicle fee in maintaining the designated state highways, but are neglecting the maintenance of such highways in anticipation that the state highway commission will on January 1st, do the necessary maintenance work which the commissioners court have failed so far to do.

If, in these counties, roads are allowed to get in bad condition for lack of maintenance, the Highway Commission, as stated before, will only maintain these roads in as good condition as they may be in when taken over January 1st, 1924, and the citizens of these counties will have only the respective commissioners courts to blame for this condition. If funds were available, the Highway Commission would gladly improve and maintain all the roads on the system for the benefit of the state as a whole, but as a matter of fairness and justice to the counties who have bonded themselves for the purpose of building good roads, the commission must keep in a position to assist them. The law directs the counties to use their registration fees until January 1st, 1924, in maintaining the designated state highways. Many of the counties of the state are doing this and it would be an injustice to these counties for the Highway department to improve the roads of other counties that have failed to do their duty under the law.

It is therefore hoped that the commissioners courts of the different counties will make every effort to keep the designated highways not only in the best condition possible, but to improve them as far as their funds will permit in order that they can be turned over to the Highway department in good condition and be kept this way by our maintenance organization. We know that many counties are loyally trying to do this, and we hope that all of them realize the importance of such action.

Abernathy Will Get 3,000 Bales

T. J. Vines, cotton buyer at Abernathy, spent Sunday here with his family. He stated that to Saturday night forty-seven bales of cotton had been ginned at that place, and it is rolling in at a lively rate.

He estimated that Abernathy gins will handle between three thousand and thirty-five hundred bales this season. Last year they handled 2,300 bales.

Boys Buy Radio Stock

John Testman and Grafton McNish, two local youths, have bought the radio equipment and stock of radio goods of the Plainview Electric Co., and have moved same to a room in the basement of the Ware Hotel building.

They are enthusiastic radio fans, and have become proficient in the installation and construction of radios.

WILL OKLAHOMA HOLD ELECTION

SEVENTY COUNTIES IN OKLAHOMA WILL LIKELY HOLD ELECTION

Oklahoma City, Oct. 1.—Balloting tomorrow in 70 counties of the 77 counties of Oklahoma seemed certain tonight notwithstanding last minute attempts by Governor J. C. Walton to halt the state-wide special election.

The situation, as compiled by the Daily Oklahoman showed that in but seven counties will authorities attempt to enforce the governor's edict calling off the special election on grounds that it will be illegal.

Backed by an attorney general's opinion, officials in the other counties went ahead with plans to hold the election. Thousands of special deputies are being marshaled to prevent threatened interference by the executive's force of state operatives; and in some cases, court injunctions have been issued to block any such action.

The governor's latest move to prevent a vote on an initiative proposal which would empower the state legislature to convene at its own call and consider impeachment charges, came early tonight with the issuance of a call for an election on December 6. Observers, however, predicted that this will have little effect on the vote on the measure tomorrow.

The seven counties where, it is indicated, there will be no election, are Blaine, Bryan, Harper, Johnston, Jefferson, Murray and Nowata.

Man Killed in Oklahoma

Will Dowden is furnishing the town today with radio reports from the Oklahoma election. The election is being held, but there is much strife, and Gov. Walton declares the result will be illegal and null and void. So far one man has been killed.

Severe Loss from Hail

The losses to crops from the hail which swept Plainview Thursday night were very heavy north and northeast of town. The following have reported losses to us:

Bud Moore, 85 per cent on forty acres cotton; Mr. McCain, 65 per cent on 75 acres; A. Allison, 85 per cent Murray Foote, 90 per cent on 100 acres; T. Hammond, 50 per cent; J. F. Graves, from 50 to almost total loss; H. B. Tatum, D. A. Redding heavy on feed crops; Plainview Nursery, severe on truck patches, making the tomato patch into a big lot of chowchow; Seth Ward Gardens, almost wiped out; J. G. Seipp, heavy losses. Many others were in the path of the hail storm, and suffered losses.

Old-Fashioned Gourds

J. M. Graham of near Runningwater brought to the News office yesterday two old-fashioned drinking gourds, and presented them to the editor—for you know water drunk from a gourd is sweetest.

Mr. Graham tells us that they are from a vine fifty-nine feet and ten inches in length, which has twenty-nine gourds on it.

LARGE CROWD AT TRADES DAY

MANY PERSONS WIN IN DRAWING OF ARTICLES OF MERCHANDISE

A large crowd was in Plainview yesterday, attending the first Monday trades and bargain day. The stores seemed to do a very large business, as the streets were crowded. Many of the stores offered bargains.

Considerable livestock, implements, etc., were brought in and auctioned off.

In the afternoon more than one hundred articles of merchandise were drawn for at the band stand, and awards were made to the following: M. E. Courtney, Mr. Borchardt, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Lewellen, Mrs. Wood, H. P. Clements, K. Sammanli, Mrs. Loring, Miss Seipp, Mr. Coffee, Mrs. T. L. Stanton, Mr. Burch, Mrs. Brashers, Mrs. Ford, Ed. Moore, H. Harper, R. Hall, Mr. McIver, Mrs. Brahan, Mrs. Graham, Mr. Matsler, Mrs. Goddard, J. W. Dye, E. Thornton, E. Moon, George Lock, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. McLaughlin, R. H. Lowe, A. T. Matstler, Mr. Chisholm.

Henry Wood, an aviator flying at the Amarillo fair, fell and broke both ankles.

PERCHES SAVE BIRDS' LIVES

Simple Idea Which Has Resulted in the Preservation of Thousands of Migrating Songsters.

Bird lovers in Great Britain will soon be watching for the return of the first migrants and those especially who live near the sea will remember the kindly thought of the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds in its work of providing resting places and perches on the lighthouses, without which great numbers flutter round and round the dazzling light until they fall.

It was thought at one time that the birds attracted by the light dashed against the glass, but the Dutch naturalist, Mr. Thijsse, discovered that they merely flew round and round the incomprehensible gleam, and he devised the plan of putting up a screen of perches above and below the light to which they might cling and rest before resuming their journey by daylight. The experiment was first tried at the great Terschelling light, where the destruction was reduced from a thousand in a night to a hundred in a season.

The Bird Protection society has now set up these perches on four English lighthouses: The Caskets, St. Catherine's, Spurn Head lighthouse and the South Bishop lighthouse. Each equipment costs £100 and £20 a year upkeep. The society hopes, as funds allow, to extend the plan to other lighthouses, where many thousands of birds are still falling every migration season.—Christian Science Monitor.

ADDING TO WAR'S CASUALTIES

Shells buried in northern France during the war continue to explode occasionally when struck by peasants' plows, adding to the war casualties four years after the cessation of hostilities. The question is often asked whether an unexploded shell ever becomes harmless. Some experts say never, unless exposed to the air, while others contend that live shells become "duds" after many years.

The theory of the latter group is hardly borne out by an incident which recently occurred in a Paris hotel. A projectile of the time of Napoleon III had long been used by the hotel employees as a pestle, and had several times been fitted with new handles to replace those pounded off. Recently it was left in close proximity to the hotel furnace, with the result that the hotel engineer has gone into the class of casualties of the war of 1870, and the hotel is undergoing important repairs.

Irrigation in Egypt.

Important new irrigation work is about to be undertaken by the Egyptian government on the Blue Nile. The construction of a reservoir at Djebel Aoula will aid Egypt in cultivating almost any quantity of rice, will abolish the rotations concerning cotton; will supply the water necessary for irrigation by ditches, and will improve the uncultivated areas. Experts in the Egyptian irrigation service believe the reservoir will prevent the inundation of a large area of land in southern Sudan, and save to the Egyptian government large sums which it has been paying as compensation for damage done in areas.

Preserving Old Relics.

Paraffin wax mixed in benzine is used in preserving many of the relics found in Tut-Ankh-Amen's tomb. The surface of the relics is also sprayed with a diluted solution of celluloid dissolved in a mixture of amyloacetate and acetone. Other relics are coated with a heavy coat of paraffin wax, which may be removed by heat. The leather goods is found to be black, brittle and resinous-like, breaking into small fragments when touched.

Airplane Saved Marooned Party.

Far up in the mountains at the head of American Fork canyon, Utah, two men and a woman were marooned and starving in a mine cabin. Heavy snows had cut off the two miners and the woman from civilization. An air mail service plane was sent to the rescue. The pilot circled the cabin and dropped a package of supplies sufficient to maintain the party until they could get out to civilization.

Dressed for the Occasion.

Ten thousand Chinese soldiers guarding Tachienlu, the pass to Tibet, are having their clothes sewed on their bodies. Garment after garment of heavily padded cotton is sewed into place on the body to remain undisturbed until the suns of summer return. The pass is the coldest place on the border.

Rich Silica Deposits.

Czecho-Slovakia possesses a deposit of silica mineral of volcanic origin which can be used directly in the manufacture of glass without adding any of the common ingredients used in making up the glass batch. This mineral resembles lava and the deposits are very large.

Student of His Own Time.

"Did you read Cicero's orations when you went to school?" "No," replied Senator Sorghum. "I was afraid it would give me classical ideas that would spoil my form for the gatherings I addressed at the post office and general store."

DOES AWAY WITH THE HISS

Recent Invention Also Captures Harmonics Which Hitherto Have Been Completely Lost.

A new use has been found for the remarkable device which photographs sound on motion picture film and then reproduces the sound from the film. C. A. Hoxie, the inventor, has now devised a pickup or microphone, using the principle of the pallophotophone reproducer.

The microphone is the link between the artist or instrument in the studio and the electrical circuit; it converts or transforms the variations of tone into corresponding variations of current. Microphones now in general use are constructed on the principle of the telephone transmitter in which the compression or expansion of granular carbon affects the electric current.

In the pallophotophone pickup a very sensitive diaphragm is set vibrating by sound. The movement of the diaphragm is communicated to a mirror three sixths of an inch square. A strong light strikes the dancing mirror, which reflects the light beam at a sensitive light cell. The variation in the beam of light, caused by the vibration of the mirror, varies the effect on the light cell and thus produces a corresponding variation in the electric circuit. Amplification is then obtained in the ordinary way by means of plotrons.

The new pickup eliminates the hiss which accompanies the use of the ordinary microphone; it is more sensitive and responds more readily and accurately to sound waves, capturing harmonics which would ordinarily be lost.—Exchange.

PRINCIPLE IS NOT "MODERN"

Ancient Egyptians Built Chariot Wheels That Correspond to Those Used on Autos Today.

Speculation on how many ages ago the basic principle of the modern motor car wheel was discovered has been revived sharply by the find of several richly ornamented chariot wheels in the tomb of King Tut-Ankh-Amen at Luxor, Egypt.

Expert scrutiny shows remarkably "modern" notions in these wheels which carried Egypt's Pharaohs thirty-five hundred years ago. The hub, spoke and rim construction have graceful outlines combined with great strength. The wheels were used on chariots probably designed for war, which involved driving at top speed across rough ground and often crashing into other war chariots.

One way the motive engineers of the ancient king's time gained the desired wheel strength was by using an excessively long hub with a small diameter to reduce friction and help in holding alignment. Motor car hubs today make use of the principle. In the bronze used for spindles and bearings the Egyptians had a bearing metal modern workers never have been able to duplicate. The tempering of bronze to marvelous hardness is regarded as a lost art.

King "Tut" had "puncture proofs," too, but their construction hardly would be practical for the average modern motorist. Several of the richly ornamented chariot wheels unearthed had tires of gold.—Kansas City Star.

Jujutsu in High School.

The Japanese high school at Honolulu has opened a class in jujutsu for girls. This step was taken because of the many recent reports of assaults upon women and girls in Honolulu, and from the results that are being obtained from the instruction in the Nipponese art of personal protection it is believed that the next person who attempts to molest a Japanese girl will meet with a surprise.

Graduates from the course are expected to be able to defend themselves against the attacks of much larger persons and to inflict swift counter-punishment.

The small stature of the Japanese girls is expected to be no handicap. More than forty girls are enrolled in the classes.

Freak "Bridge" Hands.

H. T. Webster, the cartoonist, recently made a picture of what he considered to be an unbeatable bridge hand—eleven spades, from the ace to the four-spot, with the ace of hearts and the ace of diamonds. He captioned it: "And the bid is seven spades doubled and redoubled."

Wilbur C. Whitehead, managing director of the Knickerbocker Whist club, took one look at the picture. "Suppose," he said, "one of his opponents has no hearts and the other no diamonds. One leads a diamond, the other ruffs it and returns a heart, which is trumped. It is a good idea to remember that when you hold a freak hand, someone else has one, too."—Washington Star.

Big Task for Britain.

The war debt Great Britain agrees to pay the United States is $4,604,128,065.

That is $317,005,198 more than the value of all the gold and silver in the United States in 1922—$4,287,122,287, says Capper's Weekly.

It is $2,802,228,065 more than the value of last year's corn crop in the United States—$1,802,900,000.

It is $3,411,128,065 greater than the value of last year's cotton crop in the United States—$1,192,461,000.

It is $2,951,839,485 greater than the value of last year's coal production in the United States—$1,651,228,600.

It is $3,563,501,808 greater than the total value of last year's South African diamond production—$1,040,626,272.

TILSON AGAIN DEFENDS K. K. K.

ATTACKS CATHOLIC CHURCH—SAYS HIERARCHY IS STILL SEEKING UNDUER POWER

Editor News:

I have read with much interest the able and patriotic address of Judge A. B. Martin before the Kiwanis club of your city, but I must call attention to the thinly veiled and unjust thrust he makes at a large and expanding patriotic American organization, known as the Ku Klux Klan. By innuendo he says that they are controlled largely by a spirit of religious intolerance and bigotry. But this, to my mind, is absolutely unfounded. You can't find a syllable, a word, a sentence, nor a single expression from one of her speakers that can be tortured into religious intolerance, bigotry or persecution. On the contrary they are doing more to ally and dissipate religious and sectarian prejudices and animosities than any organization this country has known for one hundred years. As evidence of this we see Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterians, Christians and other protestant denominations working together, shoulder to shoulder in a concentrated battle against vice and immorality.

Here are the principles by which this organization is guided and controlled—free speech, free press, free peaceable assemblage, free schools and above all the freedom of religious worship, and eternal hostility to a union of church and state.

They are waging bitter and relentless warfare against the enemies of these grand and glorious principles of our constitution, which Judge Martin so ably defended. And in this mighty conflict they naturally and inevitably bring themselves into direct conflict with the Roman Catholic hierarchy, the centuries old arch enemy of these principles.

Judge Martin states, and every reader of history knows, that for seventeen hundred years the world was held in abject bondage to this enemy of progress, civilization and religious liberty. She has waged more wars shed more human blood and been guilty of more barbarous and brutal persecutions of the human family than all other agencies combined. And all for the purpose of forcing the world to accept her pagan and superstitious religion.

If you want evidence of this I can pile it up, but suffice it to cite you to the thirty years war in Germany, the Irish rebellion, and when at the nod of the Pope of Rome a hundred thousand of the best citizens of France, men women and children, were murdered in cold blood. Remember that Rome never changes. She is the same today—if she had the power, and she is turning heaven and earth to obtain it—that she was fifteen hundred years ago. She would resort to the same methods today if she had the power that she did in other Catholic countries in days whose history is written in blood.

It is this principle, this danger, this menace to our liberties, this hierarchy and not the individual Catholic or the Catholic church as long as she keeps herself in the pale of a church, that this institution is fighting. But when she seeks political and civil power with the view of controlling the civil and political destinies of this country and the world as it is now doing, it is time for patriots and lovers of liberty to arouse from their slumbering lethargy to a realization of the dangers that threaten their altars and their hearths.

I call attention to one other expression in Judge Martin's address, viz: "The ballot in the hands of an untrained man is a dagger to stab the heart of democracy." True as gospel, and I impress upon him the fact that is another paramount principle to which the K. K. K. organization stands eternally committed—The restriction of foreign immigration. They insist upon closing the gates to this vast flood of ignorant foreign immigration from Europe and other countries. They realize and appreciate the danger to our republican institution from this source and are combatting it with all their energy. But if I interpret Judge Martin correctly he holds up several Catholic countries as worthy of our imitation. And yet the fact remains that in all these Catholic countries ignorance reigns supreme. From 50 per cent to 85 per cent of illiteracy prevails there, while in protestant England it is about 4 per cent or 5 per cent and in the United States about 10 per cent, and most of this is chargeable to the influx of foreigners.

Now, Mr. Editor, I have written this in no vindictive spirit, but with the sole view that justice and a true and correct presentation of the principles of this institution might be shown.

Services at the Baptist Church

There were 541 in Sunday school and the pastor preached to large congregations at both hours. Mrs. Knoohuizen sang in the morning and Mr. Gardner and Mrs. Matthews sang at night. Dorothy Rushing, one of our little girls, sang also very sweetly. There were eleven additions to the church during the day.

All services next Sunday as usual. Prof. McDonald will speak in the morning and Rev. L. W. Williamson will preach at night.

HALE COUNTY HAPPENINGS

ELLEN

Oct. 1.—Good rains fell in this community Sunday night. It was of some benefit to the late cotton, but was a hindrance to cotton picking, which is the order of the day here now, or rather it will be when it gets dry enough to pick. C. B. Weaver and Mrs. W. M. Cappell ginned and sold a bale each last week.
Our school has been discontinued a month for cotton-picking.
Mrs. T. L. Shields is on her sick list this week.
Rev. Blevens, preached a series of sermons here Sunday, a week ago, and last Saturday night and Sunday.
Misses Myrtle Mooney, Amy Line, and Louise Fuller spent the past week end with home folks.
The stork has visited in several homes in our community the last few days. Sept. 16th he left a girl in the Joe Harlin home. Sept. 28th he left a baby boy in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Young, and Saturday, Sept. 29th a tiny baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Dalton. It died and was buried in the Hale Center cemetery Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Blevins and children and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Miller and children of the Lakeside community, attended church here Saturday night.
W. H. Rogers and wife and nephew, Hayden Rogers of near Hale Center visited in the J. H. Garner home Sunday.

PROVIDENCE

Sept. 28.—A Missionary from Africa preached here at the German Lutheran church Saturday and Sunday. There was dinner on the ground both days.
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Meriman of Kress were visiting at the Sammann home Saturday and Sunday and took in the missionary meeting here.
Mrs. Zimmerman and Miss Hazel of Aiken were the guests of Miss Florida Pullen and her mother Monday afternoon.
Nice weather now, which enables the farmers to get their wheat planted.

Clarence Hannon and family were in Plainview Saturday on business.

Evard Pullen and Richard Gilbreath took dinner Sunday with Clarence Brandis.

Dee Zimmerman of Aiken was a pleasant caller in the Kennedy home Sunday.

Mr. Sammann and daughter, Ella, were in Plainview Monday.

ANCHOR

Oct. 2.—Did you say rain? Yes, we're still having rain, but it is an ill wind that blows nobody any good. While this rain is hard on the cotton, it is good on the ones who are sowing wheat. The wheat that has been sown is looking fine.

Ross White and Marcus Barrington have turned freighters and are hauling out the lumber for the erection of a dwelling for Mr. Neff, near our school.

E. A. Shackelford and son, Justin, were in Hale Center Saturday.

Eugene Nall of Gritt, Okla., came in last week for a visit with his uncle, W. O. Ball and aunt, Mrs. Lou Simonton. He says he is going to learn to pick cotton while here.

Lee Carroll returned from an extended trip through Oklahoma, where he went for a visit with relatives till time for cotton picking.

W. Jasper and E. Priddy came in Tuesday. Jasper is a brother to Mrs. Hardy Louallen. They will remain and help in the gathering of Mr. Louallen's cotton.

W. R. Fesal and wife were in Hale Center Saturday.

Mrs. Ernest Parris and children of near Hale Center spent last week with her mother, Mrs. S. E. Leckliter. She also made arrangements to return this week and help in the picking of her mother's cotton.

Mr. and Mrs. Chet Bayley were in Plainview Saturday.

Robert Gale of Plainview, also a family by the name of Meharg, are picking cotton for Chet Bayley.

LAKEVIEW

Oct. 1.—A portion of this section was visited by a severe hail, rain and wind storm last night, Sunday, which did considerable damage to gardens, late feed and open cotton. We have not heard how much area it covered. The cloud seemed to be heavier in the east and southeast.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Brown and their daughter, Mrs. Jim Gregg and children are visiting in Collingsworth county.

Mrs. Henry Tucker, who has been sick again, was able to attend Sunday school last Sunday, and took charge of her class, much to the delight of its members.

Our Sunday school is doing nicely. Attendance continues very good. Sunday was the day for the election of new officers and teachers, but it was deferred until next Sunday. Let all the members be present. Some of you will be sure to get a position.

Miss Nellie Ellerd went to Lubbock one day last week and had her tonsils removed. She is doing nicely.

Saturday night Mrs. Lemmie Ragland had a severe attack of acute indigestion. We are glad to report her doing nicely at this writing.

Mrs. Castleberry is on the sick list. John Everett is still livery low. He has typhoid fever.

Will Landers, who was sick so long in a Lubbock sanitarium, has been spending a few weeks in the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Belcher, a few miles northeast of Abernathy. He is getting able to be out some. He and his wife spent Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jones. They intend returning to New Mexico soon, where they had just moved when he was taken sick with typhoid fever.

The school is doing nicely.

Rev. G. I. Britain of Plainview was present at chapel Friday morning, and made a fine talk on "Opportunity." We feel sure that the school is always glad to have him make talks. He is such a fine old gentleman and dearly loved by all who know him.

Lee Wimberly was in Plainview Saturday. His brother, Lewis, and wife returned with him for a visit with homefolks.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Wimberly and Mrs. Burr Jones of Abernathy went to Crosbyton Tuesday where Mesdames Wimberly and Jones and their brother, Chester Hefley of Crosbyton went to Eastland to visit their mother, who is very sick. We hope they found her improving.

The carpenters begun work on U. L. Moreland's house this morning. We understand that Mr. Moreland has rented his place to a man from Meadow, Texas.

Several from here attended the services of the Fifth Sunday meeting at Abernathy Sunday afternoon, and enjoyed the fine talk by Rev. Bowen on "The Closed Door," also one by Rev. Hunt of Lorenzo, on "The Amusement and Entertainment of the Young People." They were both fine.

HOOPER

Oct. 1.—Our Literary Society was organized Friday night with a large number present. Mr. Hendrix was elected president; Mr. John Louthan, vice president; Mr. Eubanks, secretary, and Mr. Boyd Wynn, treasurer. The program rendered by the Parent-Teachers' was very entertaining and instructive.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Stewart and family visited at Abernathy Sunday. W. M. and Miss Martha Glover and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Eubanks attended the fair at Olton Friday.

We regret to report that Mrs. Floyd Wilkinson was very sick Saturday and Sunday, but at present is much better.

Mrs. Carl Goodman, Mrs. O. B. Jackson, Mrs. R. A. Underwood and Mrs. Nine McComas were visitors from Plainview to our Parent-Teachers' meeting Thursday afternoon. Each of these ladies gave an interesting and instructive talk, which I am sure will be of much benefit to the association.

Bro. Moore preached for us again Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson visited at Boyd Wynn's home Sunday afternoon. We enrolled six new pupils in Sunday school Sunday. There were forty-five present.

Mr. and Mrs. Avant attended the Olton fair.

DIMMITT

Castro County.

Sept. 27.—Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Buttolph and Mrs. C. B. Williams spent Sunday and Monday in Plainview visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart.

Mrs. Cecil Montgomery and small son, Billy, left Sunday for a two weeks visit with relatives in Wichita Falls.

Dr. Miller took Miss Nola Gollehon to the Plainview Sanitarium Sunday, where she was operated on for appendicitis. She stood the operation fine and is getting along nicely. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gollehon, and Mrs. Mayes Miller accompanied her. Gollehon will stay in Plainview with Nola until she is able to return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Anthony and Mrs. C. E. McLean of Hereford spent Sunday and Monday in the home of Bruce McLean.

Most everyone in Dimmitt attended the big singing convention at Cleo school house Sunday. Everybody enjoyed the fine singing and dinner on the ground.

Mrs. John Watson gave a birthday party Saturday night in honor of her daughter, Curtis, it being her fourteenth birthday. Several of her friends enjoyed the afternoon in games of various kinds. At a late hour delicious refreshments were served.

Joe Elliott sold over a hundred fat calves in Hereford last week, for a good price.

Mrs. Mayes Miller will leave the first of October for a three weeks visit with relatives and friends in Fort Worth, Dallas, Mineral Wells and Dublin, Texas. She will spend a week in Dallas attending the fair.

Dr. Miller took Miss Jewell Watson, to the Plainview Sanitarium Monday, to undergo an operation for appendicitis.

During July six billion cigarettes were smoked in the United States. It was a school teacher who declared when he saw a student smoking—"there is a little fire at one end and a little fool at the other end."

WHERE DEATH LOSES TERROR

In Mongolia, Murder, Either Wholesale or Retail, Seems to be a Matter of Course.

Mongolia, as described by Dr. Ferdinand Osendowski in "Beasts, Men and Gods," that veracious tale of adventures which fortunately would be impossible anywhere else, is a land where violent death has become so nearly the common lot that it causes there strangely little emotion of any kind. It really seems as if the people minded being killed as little as they mind killing. Murder, either of the wholesale or the retail kind, excites no particular horror. Those who commit it are so numerous that they are wholly unashamed, and while they become fearful if their activities along this line seem excessive even in Mongolia, they are not particularly hated and their lives are no more in danger than those whose homicidal exploits are less numerous.

All this would be incredible if the histories did not record similar conditions existing at many times in many other parts of the world. The Romans knew something like them in both the western and the eastern empires, and a state of affairs not materially different is recorded in the two great works of our own Motley. The Spaniards and the Dutch fought and slaughtered each other with as little compunction as do the Russians, Chinese and natives today in Mongolia, and in what now are Holland and Belgium the hangman and the man with the ax and the rack were as busy as like functionaries were seen to be in Urza by Doctor Osendowski.

Appreciably less of torture is inflicted in Mongolia than by both sides in the Netherlands, but it is not missing altogether. Offenders apparently are never tried, even by the most summary of drumhead courts-martial. Whoever has or assumes a little authority, civil or military, imposes an instant sentence, and not infrequently executes it on the spot with his own always ready revolver.

The natives are not quite so sanguinary as the aliens, but the difference is slight, and were a new Genghis Kahn to arise among them he could recruit almost exactly such a horde of savage nomads as more than once invaded and terrorized Europe from the same grim land.

OLD TAVERNS IN NEW FORM

"Roadomes" on the Pacific Coast Have Proved Popular With the Increasing Tourist Community.

On the Pacific coast they are supplementing the parking reservations or camps for motor tourists with caravansaries or tourist hotels which they call "roadomes." Though why the perfectly serviceable English "road homes" should not be used, no one offers to explain.

The institution itself, however, concerns us most, and is a natural development of the vast overland touring movement that manifests itself every summer in the United States. The new kind of outing is growing enormously popular, and as the quality of the turnpikes improve, will become far more so.

The Far West "roadomes" of the larger size will each accommodate about 400 guests, and 90 automobiles, while the smaller ones will house 200 guests and 45 cars. These wayside inns will be of one-story bungalow court construction, concrete and brick, with tiled roofs, and will exhibit picturesque exterior in keeping with the awakened taste for the artistic in this country.

All the apartments are to have kitchenettes, tourists expected to furnish their own food supplies. Camp grounds are not to be abolished, but the new structures are at hand to furnish shelter in bad weather, and to meet the desires of those who don't care for roughing it.

In a new form the ancient roadside tavern is thus to be restored, to figure in literature and romance perhaps as greatly as the taverns of the ancient times.

OF GREAT HISTORIC INTEREST

Old Papers Recently Found in Attorney General Daugherty's Office Date From Birth of Nation.

Attorney General Daugherty recently unearthed from old files in his office a various lot of papers dating back to George Washington's time. There were documents written by such famous attorneys general as Edmund Randolph, appointed in 1789, and the first man to hold the office, William Wirt, John M. Berrien and Caleb Cushing.

The document of greatest human interest is what is now regarded as the last official letter of President Lincoln. It was written by Attorney General Speed on the day the evening of which saw the assassination at Ford's theater. It appears that Lincoln frequently scrawled a few words to the attorney general across the backs of papers sent him for comment and direction.

Another paper shows that Walt Whitman, the poet, was on the pay roll of the attorney general's office as a clerk about the time of the Civil war. He drew less than $100 a month in salary.

These documents will all be preserved with especial care and added to the collection of other interesting historical papers in the possession of the government.

Treasure Story.

There was a legend in the Saunders family that an aged slave had hid a chest of money and silver before the Union forces invested the Saunders' community in Alabama during the Civil war, and that this faithful retainer died of apoplexy before he could get back to his master. Searches made at intervals for years brought no trace of the fortune, Capper's Weekly says. Finally the present generation of the family dismissed it as "an old mammy's tale." Last week a dog digging for a gopher uncovered a treasure chest filled with gold and silver coins and the Saunders family plate. The old mammy's tale was true after all. We live in a skeptical age.

Fires Result of Carelessness.

Fire control on national forests becomes every year more effective through various forms of co-operation, says the Forest Service, United States Department of Agriculture. Man-caused fires are still the great hazard and the great problem. The only way, he says, to reduce these fires is to impress the habit of care with fire on the minds of users and visitors on national forests. In 1921 the total number of man-caused fires was 4,400; yet there is no more reason for the usual man-caused fire on the national forests than there is for the usual grade-crossing accident.

Hospitality at Court.

My sister and I were taking a first journey away from the old home to college. We had a short wait in a large city and went into a hotel, where the solicitous clerk insisted upon our resting in a fine sitting room, with two bedrooms adjoining. After an hour or so we started out.

As a passing thought I asked the man at the desk if there were any costs.

To my utter amazement and horror he replied, "Eight dollars."—Chicago Tribune.

The Reason.

"I simply cannot stand the sound of a motor horn," said Smithy. "Why not?" asked an acquaintance. "Some time ago my chauffeur stole my car and eloped with my wife, and every time I hear a horn toot I think he is bringing her back."

He Holy-Store'd It Also.

"Filed your income tax statement?" "Yes. I not only filed it but I used a grind stone on it and then couldn't get it down to a decent looking figure."

Cut tractor operation cost

The upkeep of your tractor can cost little or much, depending on the oil you use. No oil compounded of light oil and "cylinder stock" will stand up properly in a tractor. You need an oil that is wholly distilled, free from all impurities, such as "cylinder stock." Sunoco lasts longer because it is pure and it saves fuel. There are hundreds of tests that prove this.

Sunoco "Special" and "XX Heavy" are heavy types, especially designed for tractor use. They do not contain a drop of "cylinder stock." No other oils as heavy as these are wholly distilled. Sunoco is made by a patented and exclusive process.

There are lighter grades of for automobiles and a line of greases that contain neither water nor animal or vegetable oils or any other acid producing adulterants.

We will gladly send you our instructive booklets on tractor, motor car and farm engine lubrication. Each booklet contains a reliable lubrication guide.
