TWO LUBBOCK MEN LEAVE JAIL AND ALSO LITTLE NOTE

LUBBOCK, Oct. 1.—"Charlie, you don't blame us do you?" were the closing words left in a letter by Sam Cates under sentence of fourteen years for murder of Judge Burton of Crosbyton, when with Hullett Smith the two made their escape from the Lubbock County jail.

A month ago they attempted to overpower Sheriff Holcomb, but were thwarted by Deputy Sheriff McCullough, and since that time the two have been in the dark cell. Through some mysterious method they picked the locks to five doors last night including one combination lock, and made their escape about 5 o'clock this morning.

Sam Cates was first sentenced to 99 years for the murder of Judge Burton, but on second trial received only fourteen years. An appeal to the higher courts has been filed and he was being held pending a decision in the case.

Smith was awaiting a trial on a forgery charge.

A posse is searching this section and all points have been notified to look out for the men.

CENTRAL MOTHERS CLUB

The central organization of the Parent-Teachers Association convened at the High School auditorium Friday and was called to order by Mrs. Walter Boothe. The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. D. A. Myers, after which Mr. Smith, the principal of the school welcomed the mothers and visitors. Mrs. W. W. Beall gave a history of the Parent-Teachers organization since 1906, which was very instructive to all. Mrs. S. R. Edward was elected secretary pro-tem of the meeting. Several mothers were present, as were a number of teachers, and it was one of the most interesting meetings yet held.

BY NEGATION

A negro patrolman, recently appointed, met a little brown man carrying a little brown jug on the "avenue." The patrolman thumped the jug appraisingly with his club. It sounded "ripe."

"What you all got there, boy?" he asked suspiciously. "Ain't corn, is it?"

"Tain't hay," said the little brown man sullenly.

A moment later the zealous negro patrolman was marching the little brown man with the little brown jug down the avenue. They reached the shadow of police headquarters without a word passing between them. Then the little brown man broke the silence.

"Where's this you takin' me, big boy?" he asked. "Ain't jail, is it?"

"Tain't church," the patrolman snapped.—Brooklyn Eagle.

BOYS AND GIRLS HOLD SUCCESSFUL CLUB MEETING

Nolan County Boys and Girls Agricultural Clubs met in the court house Friday morning with splendid exhibits of their year's labor. The county agent opened the meeting with a few remarks concerning the work the members had done during the year. He was followed by Mayor Sheppard with some well chosen words of welcome to the club members and their parents and friends. The Mayor stated the boys and girls in the club were preparing themselves for citizenship of tomorrow, and that the older ones were looking to them to shortly assume the burdens of church and State. Ed Bradford of the State Bank and Trust Company was in the audience, and being called upon stated that his bank was behind the county agent in anything he undertook with the club members and that the club members and the parents could get all the financial assistance desired in stocking their farms with standard bred poultry, registered hogs and cattle. He advised the youngsters to look well to their credit, to make their work good and the financial world would be found ready to assist them in their labors.

Judge Mauzey in addressing the meeting compared the individual club member to an airplane. The airplane is a safe means of transport as long as the gas held out and the motor works well. He advised the boys and girls to conserve their physical being and to develop their mental and moral natures with wholesome reading and games. The judge stated he had had good chances in this world and had used them. That everyone had been good to him, and that the opportunity for everyone was waiting and only needed to be used. That the government was all right, and was doing all any government ought to do for the young of our country. Opportunities were plentiful and any industrious boy could use them to his advantage. Judge Mauzey then recounted the progress that had been made in agricultural lines during the last few years. The speakers were roundly applauded at the close of their remarks by the audience. W. L. Ross and A. McElmurray of the White Flat community, and R. L. Scott, of the Bitter Creek community made addresses strongly endorsing the work done with the school children of the county, and gave it as their opinion every effort should be made to encourage the club members and to broaden the field of their activities.

The noon hour having arrived, the club members and their mothers were the guests of the Board of City Development at the Cozy Cafe for lunch. After lunch, they attended the movies through the courtesy of the Board and the local management.

Trips to the Educational Encampment at the Dallas Fair under the auspices of the A. & M. College were won by Henry Hollowell of Decker school, Homer Freeman of the White Flat school, and Misses Lucy Matthews and Velma Haggerton of the

LOCAL MINISTER IS ELECTED CHAPLAIN OF AMERICAN LEGION

Sweetwater claims quite an honor in being able to furnish a chaplain for the State Organization of the American Legion, Rev. E. W. McLaren having been unanimously elected to the place at the El Paso convention of the organization last week.

W. A. Smith, that hustling young man at the Sweetwater Dry Goods Co. was elected to represent the local American Legion order at the El Paso meeting, and he told the members before he left that he was going out there to get something for Sweetwater, and he brought home "the bacon."

He arose and nominated Rev. McLaren and got his elected without much opposition, and finally by acclamation.

Rev. McLaren was chaplain in the 368th Infantry of the famous 90th Division in France, and his comrades pronounce him the best of the whole regiment. Rev. McLaren is the talented young pastor of the Presbyterian church in Sweetwater, and that he will bring honor to the American Legion and crown himself with an enviable record there is no question, and the people of Sweetwater are proud to see him honored by the Texas boys who went to the front. They all love him and honor him, as do all the Sweetwater people. Congratulations to you, Brother McLaren. The Reporter feels sure you will make the best officer in the State of Texas in the American Legion.

SENATE AGREES ON DATE FOR VOTE OF PEACE TREATY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—The senate will vote Oct. 14 or soon thereafter on ratification of the peace treaties with Germany, Austria and Hungary under an agreement reached late yesterday. A time limit of one hour will be imposed for debate on each senator beginning Oct. 14, and it is expected to bring a final vote on that date or soon thereafter.

Decker school. Melvin Gregg of the Champion school and L. C. Nugent, and Elmer Mashburn of the White Flat school won trips and expenses to the Fat Stock Show at Ft. Worth in March. Prizes were awarded to Elmer Mashburn, Grady Pruitt, Marvin Freeman, Almarne McBurnett, Allie Dell Couch, Erma Montgomery, Katherine Scott and Monroe Hollowell.

A place for the club members should be prepared before another season rolls around where they can show to their credit the many things they have accomplished during the year, and every effort should be made to encourage these young people in their efforts to develop into useful citizens.

METHODIST PASTOR SUBMITS RESUME OF PAST YEAR'S WORK

The following review of the year was submitted by the pastor R. A. Stewart at the 4th Quarterly Conference of the local Methodist church, Friday night:

The Woman's Missionary Society began the year with 28 members. They closed the year with 102 members, without counting calendar members of the Junior Missionary Society. Their financial budget has run to about $800.

The Sunday school began the year with a normal attendance of 150. It closes the year with a normal attendance of double that and has for considerable periods been even better than 300. It has reached an enrollment of over 500.

The church had a revival meeting in the spring in which there were 75 reclamations and conversions and the church life greatly revived.

The church had had no young peoples' organizations for some years. The Epworth League was organized last spring and has an enrollment of 105.

The devotional meetings are well attended on Sunday evenings, the programs are well prepared and well-rendered and the young people under the leadership of Mrs. E. V. Glass are doing splendid work.

Some 100 members have been received into the church during the year with a net gain in the membership of about 75.

MIDLAND BANKER IS OUT OF JAIL AND ON WAY TO MEXICO

EL PASO, Texas, Oct. 1.—Telegrams received here late yesterday from Sheriff W. E. Bradford of Midland, Texas, said that B. C. Girdley, former cashier of the Midland National bank, broke jail last night and is believed to be on his way to Mexico. Girdley, according to a complaint in the United States commissioners' court at El Paso, is alleged to have taken three sums totalling $30,000 from the Midland bank.

One of the telegrams received here from the sheriff said Girdley was accompanied by "a tall, slim man."

It is reported in Midland that Girdley's father-in-law has made good $25,000 to the bank.

Judge C. P. Woodruff treated The Reporter office to some nice milk and cream from his excellent dairy in this city the past week, and after thoroughly sampling it we pronounce it as fine as could be produced. The Judge is certainly good and kind to The Reporter office, and we hold a warm place in our hearts for him.

Don't say you saw it in the paper; say you saw it in The Reporter.

STRANGER IS FOUND MURDERED NEAR CORSICANA, TEXAS

CORSICANA, Oct. 1.—The body of an unidentified white man was found in a wagon near Carl, this county, about noon today. The wagon was standing near the public road. The body was in an advanced stage of decomposition and the man is believed to have been dead several days. An ax was found near the body and his forehead was crushed. His clothing was saturated with blood and there were bloodstains over the wagon. So far there has been no clue found as to the identity of the body or who killed him.

The sheriff's department is making an investigation.

WHERE PROSPERITY ABOUNDS.

Hubert Toler, the irrefragable, inimitable and hustling auto dealer, upon his return from a visit up about Lorraine and other sections of that progressive section, was talking prosperity with a vengeance. He declared that the Lorraine section was in better condition, financially, than for years. He says the little "burg" of Lorraine has already felt prosperity's snoop and everything is "booming" like unto a new born oil town where gushers predominate. According to his report the cotton crop up there is good, and everybody is feeling good. Says that the farmers there have already received a million and a quarter dollars for cotton and seed, and that things are yet going good.

Hubert knows that country good, in fact we believe somebody told us he used to chase rabbits and go in swimming up in Mitchell, (when he found sufficient water) and he knows the people and believes in them.

NOTICE, DAILY SUBSCRIBERS.

Beginning Monday morning, Mr. H. G. Charles, who has been regularly employed to handle collections for The Daily Reporter, will make a visit to every subscriber who is due the paper for subscriptions, and we expect each one to make prompt payments until Oct. 1st. Please have the money at home to settle the account, as he has no time to make trips to other places in order to collect the small amount, and we must have a settlement. If you are a subscriber and will settle up to that date we will certainly appreciate it very much. If you are not going to settle, we will be forced to discontinue the paper, as we are not financially able to carry accounts indefinitely. If you do not want the paper it will be appreciated very much if you will so inform Mr. Charles, and it will enable us to get our list in tellible shape. Please attend to this Monday, he will call on every one during the week and will be willing to settle by your figures. If you think you are due a lesser amount than we have you charged with, pay him what you believe you owe up to Oct. 1st, and then we will be satisfied to continue the paper.—Respectfully, Reporter Publishing Co.

Another wholesale jobbing house will open for business in Sweetwater the latter part of October.

J. W. Martin, of Carbon Hill, Ala., after looking over the West for several weeks, has selected Sweetwater as the best location for a wholesale Jewelry House, and has rented the building just to the north of the First National Bank, and as soon as some remodeling can be done, he will open a wholesale Jewelry jobbing house, consisting of Jewelry, Jewelers Supply Material, in fact everything carried by an up-to-date wholesale house of the kind. In conversation with The Reporter man Saturday afternoon he stated that he would probably be ready to open for business by October 25th. Some of his goods are already in the depot and others on the road, and as soon as he can make a trip back to his home at Carbon Hill, and arrange his affairs he will return with Mrs. Martin and they will buy a home here and become actively identified with the commercial life of Sweetwater. He stated that he had been in correspondence with Secretary George H. Shppard of the Board of City Development for a year, in which Mr. Shppard had told him of the advantages of this city as a location for such a business. He came and made a thorough investigation and said that he found everything Mr. Shppard had told him about the city was true in every particular, hence his decision to locate here.

Mr. Martin said he had already visited a few of our neighboring towns and sold considerable supplies to the local jewelers, and as soon as he was open for business would put a good advertisement on the road and push the business.

The business will be known as the Martin Jewelry Company, and will be amply prepared to take care of a large volume of business.

The Reporter feels quite sure the people of Sweetwater will welcome Mr. Martin to the city, and will lend him every encouragement possible in order to have him establish here a large and lucrative business. He comes to the city highly recommended by business men and bankers of his home town, and we trust he may not be disappointed in the least in selecting Sweetwater as his future home.

CLUB BOYS GET CALVES.

SPUR, Texas, Oct. 1.—Announcement was made here today by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce that J. W. Elliott and C. B. Jones had agreed to furnish 100 head of steer calves to club boys in Dickens county in the livestock campaign being conducted under the auspices of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, by C. C. French of the Fort Worth Stockyards Company and J. W. Ridgeway of the Milette Creameries.

French will address the farmers of Dickens county at Spur in October. Last year Spur imported 75 head of graded calves into this territory in the campaign then being conducted.

If you have a visitor at your home, phone it in to The Reporter.

DR. FRANK CRANE WRITES TRIBUTE TO
 "THE OLD NEST."

Life!

What is it?

No one knows what it is, in all its fullness, richness and depth, except the Mother. As you look at Rupert Hughes' film, "The Old Nest," one face emerges, blazes in the tenderness of beauty, the poignant sweetness of loyalty—the face of the Mother. This picture is an epic of Life. Life as it now is, not the pale past, nor the dim future, but NOW, singing, palpitating around us. What grips you is its masterly Reality. Its people breathe. You almost hear them. You almost feel the warmth of their bodies. Their laughter melts you. Their struggles lay living hands on your heart. It is again the Comedie Humaine, as ever Balzac's in French. These are Our people. Having seen this picture, you have added to the circle of them you know intimately. What strikes us is the infinite sweetness of life's tragedy, the unspeakable joy that thrills through even the wildest sorrow. Life may be tragedy, but it is a divine tragedy, full of what wealth of love and beauty! And this Mother takes hold of you. You cannot escape her. She will haunt you like great music. You will find yourself thinking of her. And every Mother in the world will love her. For in what work or creative genius has ever been so skillfully portrayed the fierceness of a Mother's love, as a tiger for her cubs, the vastness of it, as of a high mountain, the searching, appealing tenderness of it, as of passion at once the strongest and the purest, and the utter majesty of it, Godlike in its self-giving! "The Old Nest" is a picture of LIFE!—LIFE, real, actual—tragedy shot through with laughter—bitterness that is sweet—heroism that is human and gentle.—(Copyright, 1921, by Frank Crane.)

"AMERICA'S MOST DISTINGUISHED CRITICS SAY"

"The Old Nest" will appeal to anybody who ever had a mother—and most people have. It is real and touching and almost incredibly without an atom of false sentiment. —Alice Dagr Miller.

A story so simple and so direct, and so human and so deeply tender must win for itself a lasting success. If all pictures were like "The Old Nest" our fears of censorship would vanish. —Owen Davis.

Seeing "The Old Nest" is for all the world like strolling through the family album of America. Rupert Hughes dipped his pen into his heart when he wrote "The Old Nest." —Fannie Su'rst. Mary Alden lives. She doesn't act.—S. J. Kaufman. He has with deft and clever hands drawn aside the curtain from the soul of an American family. We doubt if ever the screen has had upon it so real, so genuine, so extraordinary a masterpiece, contrived from simple, every-day and almost humdrum fragments into complete and definite emotion. —Arthur James.

Your Life—Your Home—Your Mother—as they might have been or as they are. "The Old Nest" will awaken deep in your heart memories of the Mother to whom you ran with your childish troubles.

Never before has the screen touched with such beauty and dramatic force a subject which finds an echo in the lives of every one of us. One of the most heart-gripping dramatic stories ever narrated.

"They'll fly away, mother bird, they'll fly away."

Springtime, and the nesting birds outside the window once more make keen her loneliness. A pathetic scene from a great picture.

WHAT SOME OF THE SWEETWATER CRITICS
 SAY ABOUT "THE OLD NEST."

Mrs. Walter Boothe: "The Old Nest is not an extreme, but a picture of the average home life of our land. It carries its lessons in a well screened story."

Rev. E. L. Hughes: "I hope every man, woman and child in the city sees this great portrayal of home life. It is great."

Mrs. Poffenbach: "The picture appealed to the very fiber of my heart. I want every man and woman, whose mother still lives, to see 'The Old Nest.'"

Mrs. W. W. Beall: "It is one of the most natural pictures I ever saw. Its home pictures leaves little to criticize; else we might be criticizing ourselves."

Mayor Sheppard: "Its heart appeal, gripped me as no other picture ever did. I want every one to see 'The Old Nest.'"

Mrs. H. R. Bondies: "I congratulate Manager Rogers on obtaining such pictures as 'The Old Nest.' It carries a message to all who see it."

Mrs. F. G. Robertson: "Naturally, the 'Regular Boy' scenes appealed to me most. It is a wonderful picture, and teaches the truth of, 'train them up in the way they should go,' in every scene."

Elder D. McCarroll: "It's a picture sermon with the fifth commandment for a text."

Mrs. Thomas Trammell: "It is our own lives, more or less, passing in review before us. It is life as it is lived in by far the majority of homes. It is a wonderfully appealing picture."

W. M. Woodall: "The greatest picture of the age."

Mrs. Ellis Douthit: "It is a review of almost any family life. The mother in the picture is the average mother, whose heart led her, not always wisely, perhaps, but it is a marvelous screen story of home life."

Mrs. L. C. Vinson: "The Old Nest takes hold of every emotion of the heart as no other picture has ever done. One sees the joys and tragedies of motherhood and the pride of fatherhood, flashed upon the screen as it is happening in ten thousand homes today, and will be enacted over and over forever. It is a masterpiece of film picturization in the most human understanding truth."

THE KU KLUXERS.

To The Dallas News:

'Bout the time I think the Ku Kluxers have throttled down to the prescribed speed limit along the road of quietude and normalcy, a fire cracker pops over yonder, then follows an overflow of criticism and publicity.

For instance, the New York World has had its sleuthing squad out sniffing the woods and claims to have unearthed the mysteries of the Egyptian Sphinx, all of which is being syndicated through those papers as would buy—The Dal-Gal News being of them.

As Klan membership is being pushed through clever salesmanship, so says the World, so is the World peddling a lot of silly rot by the same means.

These Ku Klux "exposures," as vouched for by the World-News, have all along been common property of those sufficiently curious to poke an inquiring nose round 'mongst certain Klan membership, who, like other ordinary, every-day mortals, will whisper a secret or bust wide open. There are no secret organizations except in name, and the man light-headed enough to bug such a delusion deserves a spanking and started all over again in the primer grade.

There is not a so-called secret order in existence today, but its passwords, grips and oaths are known of all men caring to assume small initiative in finding out, and so it is with the Klan.

The satire and fun the World-News would thrust at the Klan secret work and its officers' titles can as easily be used against all our lodges, hence his no bearing whatever on the worthiness of any order.

I am not and never expect to be a Ku Kluxer, but I do heartily agree with some of its objects, and while I am convinced it has been a mistake to stir up local strife by meddling with town and neighborhood stink-pots, still I am bound to acknowledge that the supposed or active presence of an organization frowning down various forms of immorality, general and specific cussedness, has a restraining influence.

Judge and peace officers can denounce and tilt at Klan windmills with realms of invective and ponderous verbosity, as to the laws being treated to dangerous doses of leg majestie, the result of some dirty devotee of immoral practices being given a coating of excellent roof paint, superimposed with Minorca chicken hair, and we may agree with the dear old judges, but just as sure as a pole cat in the rainwater barrel sounds the distress signal for a gas mask, even so sure does the moral bankrupt dread the hazards of roof paint and Brown Leghorn down 176 per cent more than the punishment meted out at the hands of the law.

While we denounce the Klan, let's take stock of its criminality:

Crime No. 1. It prescribes foreign-born, Jews and Catholics as to membership. These have long set the pace in doing the same thing by excluding the big outside from their lodges and organizations, unless vouched for by environment, origin and religion, all of which they have a perfect right to—not even questioned. Then why raise the devil over this alleged crime of the Klan?

Crime No. 2. The Klan advocates Caucasian supremacy, first, in this country; second, the world over, and the white man who does not favor and believe in this "crime" with all his heart and soul is plumed astride greased skids for Hades—the gas feed wide open, all six cylinders hitting, narry a sign of brake and down hill all the way. The better element of negroes have no better friend in Texas than myself, but I stand four-square on the platform of white supremacy. I kinder like the Chinaman (in China), and the Jap I dont like a tall.

Crime No. 3. The Klan believes in Americanism and "zation from crown to toe, and if this country isn't to be a crazy quilt of foreign groups, then you had better believe in it too, and it's this "crime" that's rallying the staunch American to the Klan's support. I am opposed to the Ku Klux as constituted at present, but it's first stirring appeal made to the American in America to fight the influence of foreign groupings, their languages and European practices on American soil, and he is taking advantage of the opportunity.

We have good-naturedly and foolishly petted and patted the European who comes here; thus has he taken liberty for license to set up in our midst prototypes of the dinky countries he may happen to hall from, and this do-as-you-please attitude has grown quite unbearable to us who believe whole-heartedly in things and traditions American.

The foreigner who lopes into this country and does his little durndest to become an American has in me an enthusiastic friend, but if he thinks to remain under the freest and best government on God's footstool, among the biggest-hearted and most generous people this side the pearly gates, as a sympathetic European, teach his children to speak a foreign language in preference to ours, then I am for gathering him by the slack of his breeches aft and pitching him into the Atlantic or boot him back to his original home so hard that he'll taste American shoe leather for always and eternity.

Yes, siree, Bob, I'm again the Ku Kluxers, but dog my cats, they are a bunch of real Americans, even the misguided along certain lines, and the man who grades even 55 in citizenship and morals, believes in the flag of red bars and silver stars, has nothing to fear from the Klan.

Like the Klan, I believe in American Americanism—damn the other kind!

JUST COMMON HOUSE FLIES.
It is estimated by expert statisticians that in the United States alone, for the year ending September, 1921, there were 10,000,000,000,000 flies hatched to begin early in 1922 with their pesty annoyances. The same report says that each person out of ever five inhabitants in the country were to kill 10 flies a day for one year, or twelve months, the country would be rid of flies in 176 years. It would be a good plan for every individual in the United States and territories to organize a fly ku klux swatter clan early in 1922 and each member kill 1,000 flies a day and shorten their endurance in the country about 176 years.

THEY ALL COME BACK

I have so often seen them go!
Stood in the door and watched them one by one,
And then in drows—the dreams of ventures done,
Of romance, beauty, laughter, April's glow,
The lovely buds upon the bough of spring,
The shadow and sorrow and remembering!
I've leaned o'er gates of summer and of fall—
And watched them go forth, sadly, one and all,
Taking my spirit's brightness with them through
The shadows and shapes. But this will never do!
They all come back! I know they will, my love,
As sure as God is in His heaven above!
And if we toil, and if we love and wait
Have patience, so believing that our trust
Falls like a fragrant blossoming in the dust,
There never shall be question of the end,
There never shall be broken lives to bend
Over burst bobbles broken against the skies
We shall look up tomorrow with sweet eyes,
Smiling and singing, and in glad surprise
Behold them coming through the autumn mist
Like rosy dreams of lips that April kiss
With magic and music, as of our own they burn
When thus they all return.
—Folger McKinsey in Baltimore Sun.

YOUR $250

Have you $250 in your clothes, your pocketbook, or duly credited in your bank book? Each man, woman and child of the 108,000,000 of us should, averaged up, have that amount of the $27,000,000,000 which represents the savings and the total of small investments throughout the country. If you are one of the provident ones, then you are on the road that leads to a haven as against that much talked of "rainy day," and every citizen of the country should be bound for that haven. One of the big things about this saving account, even apart from its tremendous character, is that with the exception of six billion the rest of $26,000,000,000 of the people's wealth is in government securities. Here is proof of a living combination of frugality, personal safety and patriotism that is a most valuable economic asset. The big war and the Liberty and Victory bonds may be credited with this accomplishment. The war taught people to save and the Government showed them how to invest. Announcement often made that swindlers were successfully separating small investors from their holdings is on this showing proven to be untrue. There is no doubt that the unscrupulous workers tried to do this very thing. There are no doubts now that they failed. The people still have their securities. That is among the most gratifying facts contained in the treasurer's report.

After all, is isn't what other people think of us that hurts, it's what we know about ourselves.

Some people insist upon keeping unloaded gags about their house which continue to explode and kill their children.

A teller in a bank is the hardest man of the whole bunch to get anything out of, yet he is a most agreeable and accommodating man.

Americans once went to war to put an end to taxation without representation, and now they are wondering what to do about taxation with it.—Boston Transcript.

We try mighty hard to observe the rules laid down for the government of pedestrians, and this enables us to say that we have never yet been killed by an automobile.

Poll tax paying time has arrived and if you expect to get a front seat at the biggest circus Texas ever had, next year, pay up early and don't let the women have all the receipts.

If the rate of postage is again placed at 3 cents, the chances are that we won't hear from our creditors quite so often. It is an ill wind that falls to blow somebody good.

A certain young couple in Sweetwater must not be familiar with that old song, "Somebody's Looking Love, Pull Down the Blind." Of course we are not telling any tales out of school.

It is a nice question of economics and ethics whether the hole in the loughnut should be enlarged or reduced. We believe, however, that the loughnut should be enlarged and the hole reduced.

We always heard that there was fire where there was smoke, but yesterday morning when the ice man stopped in front of this office we noticed smoke issuing from the wagon and there was no fire.

Sweetwater should have her trade territory enlarged, and the Trade Excursion is a good way to do the job. Let every business concern in the city get in the game and work for a bigger, better and more enterprising city, make her indeed the hub of the West.

Circus day Thursday. Gee, but don't you wish you was a child again? To be a boy and go to the circus, buy goobers and feed the elephants, and buy a circus balloon, is one of the greatest and happiest times of a child's life.

When some fellow grabs you by the arm and forces you to listen to some old stale story that you heard twenty years ago and heard quite often since, we believe you are perfectly justified in giving him a good biff right in the mouth.

There has been a long time since we had any heated political discussions, but the time is nearly here for the battle to begin. The 1922 crop of candidates promises to be pretty large and this county will doubtless furnish a lot of them, many of them "old hands" at the business. After the first of the year the fur will begin to fly. Come to Texas and locate in Nolan county where the balmy summer breezes blow and old Boreas gets a good "swipe" at you in winter.

Trade Trip Shaping Up

The central committee of the Sweetwater trade trip are getting matters in nice chape and have announced the appointment of three committees to handle definite features. The following is the personnel of the committees appointed up to this time:

Transportation; J. D. Dulaney, Jr., of the Dodge Bros. Co., Carl Ragland, of the Western Motor Co., Earl Louder, of the Dabney Motor Co. This committee will look after transportation of all who wish to go on the trip who may not have cars, and to provide trucks to carry the luggage and provisions.

Program: Mose Newman, of the City National Bank, Clyde Payne, of the First National Bank, George Willis, of the Texas Bank & Trust Co. The duties assigned to this committee is to provide speakers to represent Sweetwater at the various towns visited.

Enrollment: Robert Withers, of the Willard Battery Co., Frank White, of the Bullock Electric Co., and W. H. Jobe. This committee will enlist all the business men of the city to sign up for the trip.

Other committees will be appointed from time to time to handle definite features. Some of them will be announced Monday, and a meeting of all committeemen will be held at the City Hall Monday night to discuss the trip in general. Mr. M. C. Manroe, chairman of the central committee will outline the general idea of the trip and receive suggestions. All interested business men are invited to attend the meeting Monday night prepared to make any suggestions they think will be to the interest of the city.

Remember, the tax books are open at the collector's office and you can go over and pay up when you get ready, but the sooner the better. If you wait until the last day you might get left. Pay up early and get choice reserved seats at the big Texas Senatorial Show next year.

It appears at this time as if it will be impossible for us to attend the big circus that exhibits here Thursday. We have no children to take and have been unable to borrow from our neighbors. They appear to be unwilling to trust their children with us.

The judges of the country have told us time and again that ignorance of the law excuses no man, and if that be the case we all might as well walk up and plead guilty, for a few of us knowing anything about what the law is, when it was enacted or how many times we violate some of them every day.

The Weekly and The Daily Reporter circulate in all parts of Nolan county, and the adjacent towns and communities, and is therefore the only advertising medium in this section. A good lot of printers ink systematically used, will bring to Sweetwater merchants their share of the fall business.

If there should happen to be a collision between yourself and an automobile you should always stop and ascertain whether or not the driver is hurt before proceeding on your journey down the street. If you should expect the driver to stop and look after you—he hasn't the time, besides you had no business on the streets, they were made for the car drivers.

There should be no doubt whatever in our mind this beautiful Sabbath day as to whether you accomplished any good the past week or not. You should know for sure and if you feel assured that you have you will enjoy the Sunday school lesson and then enjoy staying for church. There are great opportunities in this world for all of us, it is just necessary to take hold of the opportunities and the task is easy.

Listen: If you live in Sweetwater and make your money in Sweetwater it is right and proper for you to spend your money in Sweetwater. If you make your money here and spend it elsewhere you are disloyal to your home town, you know it, and when misfortune overtakes you you have no right to expect the people of Sweetwater to aid you in any way. Be loyal to home town and loyal enterprises. The day is coming when the business men of every town will have the "numbers" of the people who make their money off of home people and spend it in some other town, and they will be mighty apt to make it hard for such people to get an accommodation from the home business man.

OVERCOMES HIGH RENT

From the Omaha World-Herald.
"Love will find a way," sayeth the proverb, and in Lincoln, Neb., it is finding a way to beat the prohibitive rents which knock the bottom out of the old myth that "two can live as cheap as one."

Lincoln young couples, who fell under Dan Cupid's spell during the last few weeks have taken to living in garages, according to the city clerk who issues permits for new buildings. The young couples are building garages on vacant lots at a cost of from $50 to $250 and living in them. Several cases have been reported. Later, when fortune smiles, they hope to have the house which will enable them to move out of the garage and to possess a motor car to move in in their place.

A great many of the dear old boys who wore the gray will not attend the reunion at Chatoanoga on the 24th of this month. Taps have been sounded with them since the last reunion, and they have gone to answer the last roll call in a brighter and a better world. God bless our dear remaining soldiers of the old South. We have a profound love and respect for them.

Just a few days now and the great Texas state Fair at Dallas. Without any question, this is the greatest Fair in the World, none excepted, and this year gives promise of surpassing even the best of the past. Dallas citizens are doers, and when they set out to do a thing they never let up until the thing is put at the head of all others who attempt to copy after them. It is worth a trip over to that city just to see Dallas and that hustling bunch that puts things over with a vim, besides the fair—well nobody can describe the magnificence and grandeur of this institution.

If you have made no other arrangements for today suppose you try going to Sunday School and church. There is no better place on earth to go, and the person who refuses to go to church on pretense that the preacher will have something to say about money, is near the precipice that is dangerous indeed and will land them in the hot place after a while. Of course it takes money to run a church it takes money to run anything that is worth running at all, and a lot of people will never wince when some grafter comes along with a pet monkey and a smooth tongue and inveigles about two dollars out of their pocket for some worthless thing, yet when they are asked to give 50 cents for charity or the church they think it is horrible. A lot of people in this world of this brand certainly makes us sick.

San Diego high school offers a course in scenario writing. May as well let them get it over with while father foots the bills.—El Paso Herald.

Among the letters Thomas A. Edison received when he was on the War Inventions Board was one from a man who knew how to beat the submarine. The idea was to build every ship's sides of soft rubber, so that the torpedo would bounce off harmlessly. A perfectly good idea, comments Mr. Edison, provided the inventor could explain exactly how it was to be done. Anybody is likely to have ideas—but the only ideas worth publishing are those that stand tests in your own kitchen or laundry or back yard before you present them to a grateful world. Tested ideas are welcome everywhere.

The senate committee which is working on the new income tax schedules proposes to ignore the statutes of Texas and several other states relating to the division of community property, and will require that the husband make an income tax report of the total community income, says the Brownwood Bulletin. If such a provision is finally made it will lead promptly to court action, for the citizens of Texas and other states will undoubtedly contend for their state laws under which, last year, husband and wife were permitted to make separate reports of community incomes on a fifty basis with a resulting big savings in income tax. The purpose of the committee, it is said, is to create uniformity in the application of the income tax law.

SWEETWATER HI

The Sweetwater Hi Avalanche appears in The Reporter today, which will be a regular weekly feature in future until the school closes for the term. In the Sweetwater Hi will be found everything of interest pertaining to school activities, edited by the bright boys and girls of the school, and we trust much good will be accomplished by the students in their work through the paper. They need the encouragement of every pupil in all the schools. If you know of anything that would be of interest to the students, jot it down and hand it to the editor and it will be placed in the paper weekly. We trust every person in the city who feels a pride in our school will encourage the boys and girls in their good work. Look it up today and you will find some interesting items about our big school system.

A WOMAN'S CLUB

"What is a woman's club? A meeting ground
For those of purpose, great and broad and strong.
Whose aim is toward the stars, who ever long
To make the patient, listening world
resound
With sweeter music; purer, nobler tones;
A place where kindly, helpful words
are said,
And kindlier deeds are done; where hearts are fed;
Where wealth of brain for poverty
atones,
And hand gasps hand, and soul finds
touch with soul;
This is a woman's club, a haven fair.
Where toilers drop an hour their load

PRISCILLA CLUB

Mrs. B. L. McDonald, was hostess for the members of the Priscilla Club Thursday afternoon for a most delightful meeting, when the majority of the members were present.
The usual pretty fancy work, and pleasant conversation filled the hours with pleasure.
The hostess met her guests at the door and directed them to the punch bowl, which was hung with clusters of luscious grapes, which added an artistic touch to the decoration of the table. The delicious fruit punch was all the more enjoyable because of its setting.
At the conclusion of the party the hostess served ice cream, topped with cherries, and angel food cake.
Those present were: Mesdames D. A. Myers, George Parker, J. T. Hughes, M. B. Howard, W. S. Chenuit, Roy Bardwell, F. B. Perry, Horace Heath, W. H. Jobe, L. M. Watson, Will Morton and Joe Dimmer.
Mrs. W. S. Chenuit will be the next hostess, on October the 13th.

A LOVELY PARTY FOR A SHUTIN

Mrs. C. E. Halle, ever on the alert to bring sunshine into the lives of all those with whom she comes in contact, gave a whole sky full of allvry radiance to Mrs. A. W. Springer Tuesday afternoon, when she invited a few of her neighbors to assist in giving her a party.
The presence of the other guests were kept a secret from Mrs. Springer until she arrived on the scene in her rolling chair. To say that she enjoyed Mrs. Halle's lovely surprise, only feebly expresses the joy of it.
Pleasant conversation entertained the party so well, they were loth to leave.
Refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames Ella Lanier, H. P. Springer, Paul Sorenson, I. S. Focht, M. D. Willis, C. A. Jones, I. C. Tatum, John Ford and the honoree Mrs. A. W. Springer.

SOCIAL MEETING OF WEST CIRCLE W. M. S

Mrs. Caldwell was hostess for the West Side Circle of the Woman's Missionary Society, Wednesday afternoon, when her side had to "pay up" to the winning side, of the recent membership campaign, in their circle. Mrs. J. I. Payne and Mrs. G. H. Graves were chosen captains, and the losing side were to entertain the others.
A short devotional was given and the lesson in their study was disposed of, to complete the book.

PREACHERS TO CONFERENCE

With today's services at the Methodist Church in Sweetwater, Rev. J. S. Hardy, as presiding Elder of Sweetwater District, and Rev. R. A. Stewart as pastor of the Sweetwater church, close heir respective labors for the conference year and Tuesday they will be off to Conference which convenes in Amarillo Wednesday, October 5th. Rev. Stewart will fill his pulpit at the 11 o'clock hour today and Bro. Hardy will preach at night.
Few districts in the North Texas Conference have stronger presiding elders than Rev. Hardy. A man of deep thought and strong conviction, he has been a power for good in this district, and Methodism in the district has been represented very strongly by this fearless and able leader. He is strong with all who know him, and his visits over the district to the quarterly conferences are always hailed with delight and prove a benediction and an inspiration with all with whom he comes in contact.
No Methodist church in the entire West has a more consecrated pastor than Rev. R. A. Stewart, who has now served out his first year as pastor of the Sweetwater Methodist church. During his year's pastorate here the church has witnessed a marvelous growth in every branch, and he has endeared himself to all the people, not alone to Methodists, but the citizenship generally. Of a quiet and unassuming turn, Bro. Stewart has gone "about His Master's business" and made his work count, and here's hoping that not only Bro. Stewart but Hardy too, will be sent back to us for another year, and if so we believe their work here will prove equally as good another year, if not better.

HOGVILLE LOCALS.

Slim Flinders reads where a carpenter, when he slipped and was falling from a tall building, had prevalence of mind enough to stop and nail his coat to the wall, thereby saving himself an untimely end.
Miss Hostetter Hocks is writing a Shakespeare play which she will present soon at the school building. All her friends say it is much better than the old plays of that name.
Tobe Mosley says ants are rated as being industrious, but after inspecting his potato patch he don't believe they get up any earlier or work any harder than the drove of potato bugs that have just left his patch.
The postmaster has got notice from a man to hold his mail until he gets here. The P. M. says some people seem to think all he has to do is to wait on them.
The interior of the Hogville opera house is being fixed up so and improved until the East Lynn company will hardly know it when it comes again this fall. A traveling painter who has been to New York, has been hired to paint a picture of that city on the drop curtain.
The postmaster has decided to enlarge his business and has just received a box of lemons, some of which he has hung outside in a rat trap as a sample.

A large crowd was observed hovering around the store at Hogville this morning. The Deputy Constibule, always on the alert, hurried to the scene to find that the excitement was caused by the arrival of a bunch of bananas.

This community was aroused from its slumbers last night when a fusillade of shots rang out on the still night air. The noise was traced to the home of Fletcher Henstep, who had put in too much sugar and corked it too tight.

The barber shop at Hogville has added a last week's daily paper to its reading department.

Just as our young fellow-townsmen, Cricket Hicks, was in the throes of a deadly cigarette there came a church woman and the preacher. But he saw them first and put it in his pocket, and when the preacher asked him about the smoke coming out of his pocket he told him he had been walking fast and got hot.

Jerry Blossoms sold two pole cat hides here today at auction, each bring two cents.

The Deputy Constibule got caught out in the rain Thursday afternoon about two hours before the middle of the evening and now his thin tin star looks sorta rusty.

A total stranger came through this parts this afternoon, Sidney Hocks said he knew somebody was coming because his nose had been itching all morning.

CLOSE OF METHODIST YEAR

Today closes the Conference year for the Methodist people of this territory. Rev. R. A. Stewart, the pastor here, will preach his final sermon for the year at 11 o'clock, and the Presiding Elder, G. S. Hardy, will preach at the evening hour. The church has made progress along all lines this year and the pastor will take up a good report to Conference.

It is easy to choose a becoming suit this fall---

The woman who in past seasons has been heard to say, "Oh, dear, I've been all over town, and I simply can't find a suit I like!" will find veritable joy in this Season's Suits. For they are so obligingly versatile, they meet any figure requirement. While navy blue and black are exceedingly popular some new browns and blues are interesting. Fur trimmed suits of soft pile fabrics may be as dressy as desired, and trig, convertible collared models of twill fabrics are made especially for women who desire tailored lines in their Suits.

Another big feature of these new Suits is that the prices are very moderate; we've some excellent values as low as $24.75, $29.75 and $34.75; pretty styles, some with fur collar and trimmings, at $39.75 and $45; beautiful fur embroidery trimmed models of rich fabrics at $49.75, $55 to $65, and few very high class Suits at $95 to $150.

Our showing of Fall Coats is one of the largest and most complete that we've ever shown, excellent values at $19.75 to $35; others at $45 to $125.

EDITORIAL

With this, the first issue of the Sweetwater Hi Avalanche, the staff extends greetings to all pupils of the city schools and to all patrons. From the beginning we bespeak the co-operation of everyone interested in the activities of school life. Students, let's work for the success of our school paper! Parents, encourage the staff and reporters in their work! This publication is not for the few, but for all in the schools of the city. It is your paper. It will be no better than you make it.

We go to press in brief form on account of the late organization of the staff. Next week, though, we hope to occupy an entire page. Reporters, begin now to cover your assignments promptly. When given a report to make or a meeting to cover, don't shirk, but come up with a good story. And be prompt.

How many people of Sweetwater know that we have a football team? Our prospects for a winning team are the best in several years. We have most promising material, one of the best and most hard-working coaches in the state, but not the support of the students that we should have.

The writer over-heard a remark at the Merkel game last week to this effect: "Merkel is about as well represented on the side-lines as Sweetwater." And that on our home ground Are YOU really supporting the team?

BARBARIANS REORGANIZE

(By Melrose Myres '22)
On September 9th., the High School met in the auditorium for the purpose of reorganizing the literary societies.
The Indian pennant was accidentally thrown to the Barbarians, and with all manner of shrieking and hissing, it was hurled back to the owners. The Blue and Gold pennant, bearing the letters "B-a-r-b-a-r-i-a-n-s" was then handed to its owners "mid shouts of praise and wild cheering."
In the age-s past the Barbarians were fierce fighters, and so they are today, tomorrow, and forever. We will keep aloft our banner of victory and we will be fighters to the end, for we must follow in the footsteps of our ancestors.

Even as far back as the year 20-21 we were fighters and fought a successful fight. We humbled the Indians and won the First National Bank loving cup by an overwhelming vote. In the final test of strength we won from every opposing contestant. The "Barbs" were all present then to see that the Blue and Gold would remain on that cup. And it did, has, and will!
We are now beginning the real work of the year. We have already presented one program that speaks praise of our society. Many said that it was the best program yet given. But we intend to improve.
Our society work has made it possible for Sweetwater to win the State meet in debate. We shall begin work soon with the object of winning again.

There will be many hard-fought battles in the future. We intend to uphold our banner and will not suffer defeat. I speak for the whole Barbarian Society when I say, "The Blue and Gold will be triumphant to the end."

INDIANS GIVE THEIR WAR-WHOOP

(By John Chapman '23)
At the opening of the school year the Indian Literary Society was re-organized. Membership in the societies is compulsory for all students in the High School.

The primary object of this society is to further public speaking and to enable students to overcome embarrassment while before an audience. The secondary object is to provide entertainment rendered by students to break the monotony of school life and to encourage class and school spirit.

The Barbarians consider that all the glory and victory of last year belong to them because they won the final contest which carried the cup with it. We wish to remind them that they won very little from the Indians. The football game ended in a tie, the girls basket ball game was won by the Indians, while the boys of the Indian Society were also victorious. The first contest was won by the Indians the score being 15 to 12. The final contest was won by the Barbarians, with a score of 22 to 5. The only thing which the judges gave the Indians was the piano contest in which their contestant had no opponent. One word more and we rest our case. Last year the only Inter-scholastic honors won in the state meet was by the Indian Debating Team, which won the state debating contest.

This year the Indians intend to win everything from Alpha to Omega. They have three fine teachers coaching them, so they are bound to win. Their intention is to beat their opponents so badly that the judges cannot decide against them without calling the Ku Klux down on themselves. The Indians will win.
"We belong, we belong to an Indian tribe
Fresh from the wood where the Indians thrive.
We can beat you, we can scalp you, We can show you how it's done.
Come on, Indians till the cup it won!"

THE SPIRIT OF THE HIGH SCHOOL

(By Claude Hope '24)
Remarkable spirit is being shown by this year's students of the High School. They have entered upon their work with a spirit not shown in the past and with the resolution to raise their standards above those of former years.

The students willingly bring in all work that is assigned them in their respective studies. They do all that of them and willingly take all punishment that is meted out to them. They quickly raise money to finance school affairs. Not only is the co-operative spirit shown in bringing up lessons, but in the literary societies as well. The songs and yells of the two societies show their supporting spirit. The students work with exceptional interest in the making and carrying out of the programs.

The athletic spirit is shown in the way the boys come out to practice foot ball. The girls are enthusiastic over basket ball, the practice of which has been started. With the spirit the school now manifests, it should be the West Texas champions in athletics.

The spirit presented by the students in work, in co-operation, in the literary societies, and in athletics, can hardly be excelled in any school. The High School is proud of its spirit and it wants the support of the citizens of the town.

THE DETENTION ROOM

(Dorothy Fultz)

Pat! Hear the groaning and wailing of the victims! Look in through this door and you will see a roomful of children; all of them have a look of anguish on their faces. That is the detention room.

You may wonder what these poor children have done to be punished so severely. There are many things which, if a student be guilty of doing, will cause him to be sent to the detention room.

That little boy sitting over there in one corner, who looks like he wants his mother, is a Freshman. Poor fellow, he ate a banana in school. It seems that the teachers could overlook this offense, as he is only an unknown Frenchman.

See those two girls on the front seat? They are Sophomores, they should be excused from this horror, as they only skipped study hall to go to town to get some powder. O, why can't the teachers see that it would be dreadful to have their noses shining until noon?

Those three boys who are so angry looking started to school, but met one of their friends who was going to the lake, and went with him. According to the boys statement, their parents didn't object, so why should he teacher?

That crowd of girls over on the east side went to the carnival last night, instead of getting their lessons. They did not answer a single question the teachers asked them, so now they are trying to study. They are all Seniors.

Those boys over near the window are Juniors. They have been here two afternoons in succession for misconduct in study hall. That boy with the expression of death on his face shot "paper-wads" in study hall.

Moral:—The Ancient Mariner isn't the only one who knows about a "life-in-death," nor the only one who has to do penance for his wrong-doing.

GIRLS' BASKET BALL ORGANIZED

(By Laura Sheridan '22)

Tuesday the basket ball girls met with Miss Mahan, the coach, to organize a basket ball team. Ethel Harkins, the captain of the team last year, presided over the meeting and was unanimously reelected captain for this year.

Very few of last year's team are left with us, but we have splendid material and prospects of a winning team. Miss Mahan has the good old school spirit and is going to do her best to see that Sweetwater wins the West Texas championship, however, the team cannot win without some real support from the town and school.

No games have been scheduled so far though we expect to arrange games with Merkel, Roscoe, Big Spring, Abilene and other neighboring towns. Many of the games will be brought to Sweetwater and we are going to expect your presence and support.

The Parent-Teachers' Association, of the West Side has begun with the determination to accomplish much good.

The members are very enthusiastic and with this driving force behind them we think much success will be accomplished.

All parents are interested in the welfare of their children and mean to do all they can for them, by getting behind the Sweetwater schools until they have finished another victorious season.

Do your bit and come to the meeting of the West Side Parent-Teachers' Association, Wednesday, October 5th, at the West Ward School building.
Mrs. Harkins.

PARENT-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

Our monster of a school, for our fifteen hundred children. My, such an interesting army! And the red brick school building on the hill is the place where your boy or girl is to camp through the day for the next eight months. Do you know the condition of that school house? Is it clean? Is it light? Are the window glasses all in? Is it sanitary?

Our schools needs the influence, the care, the protection, the thought and love of every mother and father in Sweetwater.

As it stands today only one American boy or girl in every three hundred finish the eleventh grade in the free public school course. Now if three-fourths of these high school graduates are girls this means that less than one American boy in every thousand is being graduated from our home high schools. To think the next generation of lawmakers, teachers, ministers, doctors—Oh, it does not make any difference what they are—will have only one man for the thousand!

and who is even a high school graduate.

As a Nation, which are we most interested in, making money or making men? Take yourself for example; are you thinking, planning, working harder every day, to make money, than of your boys? Do you lie awake long nights, studying how to make a success of your boys, as you do to make a success of your business?

Just think what wonderful things could be done for boys and girls of Sweetwater, if, (not a mere handful,) every mother and father would join together for the good of these one thousand and five hundred children.

Bryan says, "The best means to bring about a higher degree of the right kind of civilization is to render some service to humanity, and then we become interested in their improvement. Why is a mother's love the strongest of all earthly ties? Is it because she renders more service to that child than any other object in all the world? I thank God for the Democracy of heart that inspires man to perform some service for the masses of the people."

The Sweetwater Parent-Teachers' Associations are beginning an intensive membership campaign, their aim being to enroll every mother and father who has a child in the public school. The object of the Association is to raise the standard of home and school and to bring parents and teachers into closer relationship with each other, that they may co-operate more intelligently in the education of the child.

We will have one meeting a month at each school. Parents of Sweetwater, come and join us. How we need you!

If you cannot be an active member, show your sympathy and interest in this child welfare movement, by sending in your name. We thank you.

MRS. WALTER BOOTHE,
President, Sweetwater P. T. A.

SOUTH WARD PICNIC

Preparations are still being made for the picnic to be given at the South Ward School Friday evening, October 7, at six o'clock.

A program has been arranged, and it is hoped that all friends and patrons of the school will be present, with a well filled lunch basket.

No school can do its best without the hearty support of its patrons, and we believe this will be given. If we can meet and know each other in the work.

The Parent-Teachers' Association will have its regular meeting Friday afternoon, October 7, at 3 o'clock, at the school building.

All South Side mothers are urged to attend.

MRS. JOBE, Pres.

PARENT-TEACHERS ASSOCIATION EAST WARD SCHOOL

The Parent-Teachers' Association of the East Ward School will meet at the school building, October 5th.

The following program will be carried out:

Prayer, Mrs. R. A. Stewart.
Reports of Standing Committee.
Display of work from Miss Lee's room.

Three numbers by children from Miss Tucker's room.

"Our Particular Needs in School," Miss Maxwell.

"What the Parent-Teachers' Association Accomplished Last Year," Mrs. W. W. Davis.

Social hour to greet new members and teachers.

The East Ward Parent-Teachers' Association organized last week with sixty enthusiastic mothers.

It is the aim to enlist every patron in this work.

MAXWELL A CLIMBER

A good Maxwell touring car has climbed Bickford Hill, near Hanover, Michigan.

Bickford Hill has successfully defied the efforts of motorists for years. It is 699 feet long with 21 percent grade and a road bed of dry sand eight inches deep.

Carrying three passengers, the good Maxwell made the ascent in second gear, despite the fact that he hill has not received rain in five days, which made the sand very dry.

The feat was then successfully repeated with four passengers. So great was the impression made upon the passengers that all went before a notary public and made affidavits concerning the performance.

FINE SCHOOL FOR GIRLS; TRAIN PRACTICAL HOUSEKEEPING C.I.A.

DENTON, Texas, Oct. 1.—The two home demonstration cottages of the College of Industrial Arts, known as the Mary M. Bradley Cottage and the Ellen H. Richards Cottage, are conducted for the purpose of giving the students training in practical housekeeping under expert supervision. They began their work this year on September 24, under direction of Miss Lucile Rosenberger and Miss Ruby E. Beers, both members of the Department of Household Arts. The following Junior and Senior Students are at present residing in the Mary M. Bradley Cottage: Bertie Lee Allen, Olive Babh, Jewett; Minnie Maud Cox, Whitney; Clara Craig, Plainview; Josephine Paddal, West; and Glenn Wileman, Georgetown. In the Ellen H. Richards Cottage are: Ola Berry, Dawson; Helen Frances, Denton; Bobbie Lilly, Devine; Edna Mae McDaniel, Marshall; Florence Thompson, Devine; and Fern Turner, Denton.

Each cottage is occupied by six students at a time and each such group remains in the cottage for a period of twenty-four days. The Home Demonstration Cottages afford valuable opportunity for students to make a practical application in actual house-keeping, of the facts and principles they learn in the college classrooms and laboratories. The present occupants will complete this part of their training on October 18.

SUNSET

The day is dying, while the night, Like some archenemy, creeps on apace Day, in one last wild passionate protest Flings wide her robes of rose and gold and blue, To stand revealed in all her loveliness Until at last, too tired and spent to care, She folds her wondrous garments round about And sinking down into the sweltering sky, Passes into oblivion—and night is king. —Margaret D. Boswell, in St. Louis Post-Dispatch.
